Every person asks the same questions sooner or later. Why am I here? What is wrong with me and with the world? What happens when I die? The Bible answers all of them, and the answers point to one place: home to God.

When I was a boy in Victorville, a neighbor, Pastor Jimmy Carter, took me to church and led me to Christ. Even so, I drifted from God more than once through my own bad choices. For years I looked successful on the outside while I was further from God than anyone knew. Coming home meant dropping the excuses and letting God rebuild what I had broken. I wrote this tract for anyone who thinks they have wandered too far to turn around.

When I was far from God, my life looked fine on paper. I went to work, I handled my responsibilities and I kept up appearances. Inside, I was running on my own strength and denying what my drinking was doing to my marriage and family. That is what distance from God looks like when you try to manage everything yourself.

1. God made you and loves you

You are not an accident. God made you on purpose, and He loves you more than you can imagine.

> "For God so loved the world, that He gave His Son, the only begotten, so that everyone who believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life." John 3:16

2. Sin broke the relationship

We have all gone our own way. Sin is not just doing bad things. It is putting ourselves in God's place. Sin separates us from God, and the end of that road is death.

> "for all sinned and fall short of the glory of God." Romans 3:23

> "For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 6:23

3. Jesus made the way back

We could not fix this ourselves, so God came to us. Jesus, God the Son, lived a sinless life, died on the cross to pay for our sins, and rose from the dead.

> "But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Romans 5:8

> "For I delivered to you among the first things what I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He has been raised on the third day according to the Scriptures." 1 Corinthians 15:3-4

4. Come home by faith

You cannot earn this. It is a gift. You receive it by turning from your sin and trusting Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior.

My turning point came on May 29, 2020. My wife caught me drinking, and she took me to my first 12-step meeting that same day. She waited in the truck while I went in. I was drunk, and I sat there weeping, listening to everyone, full of shame and brokenness. I could not pretend I had it under control anymore. Coming home starts the moment you stop hiding and take His hand (Luke 15:20).

"But as many as received Him, to them He gave authority to become children of God, to those who believe in His name." John 1:12

"For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from yourselves; the gift is of God, not from works, so that no one may boast." Ephesians 2:8-9

"that if you confess with your mouth Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God raised Him out of the dead, you will be saved." Romans 10:9

Will you come home today?

Words alone do not save anyone. Jesus saves you when you put your trust in Him. A prayer is simply a way of telling God what is happening in your heart. If you are ready, you can pray this with me:

Lord Jesus, You are the Savior of the world, and You forgive all who come to You. I come before You to confess that I have sinned against You. I have rebelled against You and put myself first above You and all others. I want to have a deep, meaningful relationship with You where I can show others by my demeanor and character that You are first in my life. I am asking for Your forgiveness for all my sins. You died for me on the cross so that I could be forgiven and made right with God. Please help me not forget that You gave Your very life for me. I am asking that You take control of my life and make a new creature out of me and into the person You want me to be. I thank You, Lord, and I love You. Amen.

You can know you are His

"These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life, and so that you may believe in the name of the Son of God." 1 John 5:13

What comes next

- Write down today's date and tell another believer what you have done.
- Read the Gospel of John, a chapter a day.
- Talk to God every day. Prayer is simply talking with Him.
- Find a church that teaches the Bible, and ask about being baptized.
- Read The Road Home, my free book on salvation and the life that follows, at trinfinityenterprises.com.
- I was baptized on October 19, 1995, as a public way of saying I belonged to Jesus. That same day I had the greatest honor of my life: I baptized my wife. Years later I baptized our youngest daughter in our backyard pool in Las Vegas. Baptism does not save you, but it tells the world whose you are.
