A note before you begin. This book is written to teach the Bible and encourage faith. It shares my understanding of Scripture and is offered for study and spiritual growth. It is not counseling, medical, legal, or financial advice. If you are facing a crisis, a health problem, or a legal or money problem, please reach out to a qualified professional as well as your pastor and church family. To the fullest extent the law allows, Andrew Dominguez, Trinfinity Enterprises, and Andrew Dominguez's heirs, estate, successors, and assigns accept no liability for how this material is used.

A Note on the Bible Translation Used in This Book

My preferred Bible for personal study, teaching, and research is the Steadfast Literal Bible (SLB). I chose it because it is a word-for-word translation in today's language, built on the ancient Scripture sources: the Hebrew and Aramaic of the Old Testament and the Greek of the New Testament. I prepared the SLB myself, and the Scripture in this book is taken from it.

Where a literal phrase would mislead an English reader, the SLB gives the writer's meaning in plain words. Words added for sense are set in bold italics so you can see what is in the original and what is not.

The complete Steadfast Literal Bible is free to read, search, download, and print at trinfinityenterprises.com/slb. If you want to check a verse in its full setting or read the translation's preface and principles, that is the place to go.

Above all, my desire is not to promote one translation over another, but to faithfully teach the Word of God, encourage careful examination of the Scriptures, and help readers grow in their knowledge, understanding, and relationship with the Lord.

May every page of this book direct attention not to the translation itself, but to the truth of God's Word and the One whom it reveals.

Scripture quotations are taken from the Steadfast Literal Bible (SLB), with familiar English forms of personal names, copyright 2026 Andrew Dominguez. The complete SLB is free to read at trinfinityenterprises.com/slb.

How to Use This Plan

> In my heart I have treasured Your word, so that I will not sin against You.
> Psalm 119:11 (SLB)

Fifty-two verses in a year sounds like a lot. It is one verse a week. Most of these verses take about two minutes a day to learn, and a few more minutes each week to keep. By this time next year you could carry fifty-two promises, warnings and truths from God's Word everywhere you go, with no book in your hand.

Why bother? Because the verses you know by heart are the ones you will have when you need them: at a hospital bedside, in the middle of a temptation, at three in the morning when worry will not let go, or when a friend asks what you believe. When Jesus was tempted in the wilderness, He answered each temptation with Scripture He knew by heart (Matthew 4:1-11). We can do the same.

How the Plan Is Set Up

The 52 verses are grouped into 13 topics, four verses each. Topic one starts with the good news of salvation. Topic thirteen ends with the hope of Christ's return. Each verse has a short note on why it matters. You can start any week of the year. Just start with Week 1.

A Simple Way to Learn a Verse

1. Read it out loud three times, reference first and last: "Romans 3:23. For all sinned and fall short of the glory of God. Romans 3:23." Saying the reference fixes where the verse lives.

2. Learn one phrase at a time. Say the first phrase until you have it, then add the next.
3. Write it out by hand once a day. Writing slows you down and helps the words stick.
4. Cut out the card at the back of this booklet. Keep it in your pocket, on your mirror, or on the dashboard (read it at red lights, not while driving).
5. Think about what it means. Ask: what does this verse tell me about God? What does it ask me to do? Memorizing without understanding does not last long.
6. Say it to someone by the end of the week: your spouse, a friend, your small group.

The Secret Is Review

Learning a verse is the easy part. Keeping it is the hard part. Without review, most verses fade within a few weeks. Here is a simple plan that works:

- Every day: say this week's verse.
- Every day: also say last week's verse.
- Once a week: go through every verse you have learned so far. Shuffle the cards and say each one.
- Once a month: check off your progress on the Review Tracker at the back.

After a few months, the weekly review will take ten or fifteen minutes. That is fine. Do it on Sunday afternoon or during a quiet evening. These verses are becoming part of you.

Tips

- Use the same translation. Switching translations makes memorizing harder. This plan uses the Steadfast Literal Bible (SLB).

- Do it with someone. A partner who checks on you each week makes a big difference.
- Miss a week? Keep going. Pick up where you left off. The goal is to hide God's Word in your heart, not to keep a perfect record.
- Words in bold italics were added in English to make the sense clear. You can memorize them as written.
