A note before you begin. This book is written to teach the Bible and encourage faith. It shares my understanding of Scripture and is offered for study and spiritual growth. It is not counseling, medical, legal, or financial advice. If you are facing a crisis, a health problem, or a legal or money problem, please reach out to a qualified professional as well as your pastor and church family. How to Use This Plan

This plan takes you through the whole Bible in one year. Each day has up to three short readings: one from the Old Testament, one from the New Testament, and one from Psalms or Proverbs. Most days take fifteen to twenty minutes.

Here is how it is laid out:

- Old Testament: Genesis through Malachi in Bible order, every day of the year except Day 224, which is kept for Psalm 119 alone. Psalms and Proverbs are pulled out and read in their own column.
- New Testament: Matthew through Revelation, once through. The New Testament is shorter, so on some days that column is blank.
- Psalms and Proverbs: all 150 psalms, then all 31 chapters of Proverbs. Long psalms such as Psalm 119 get a day of their own, so some days have no psalm.
- The readings are balanced by the number of verses, not just by chapters, so no single day runs much longer than the others.

A few things that help

- Start any day. The plan uses day numbers, not dates, so Day 1 can be January 1 or the day you pick this up.
- Check the box when you finish a day. The chapter chart at the back lets you mark each chapter as you read it too.
- If you miss a day, do not quit and do not try to catch up all at once. Pick up with the next day. Finishing in thirteen months is still reading the whole Bible.
- Before you read, ask God to help you understand. After you read, ask yourself one question: what does this show me about God, and what should I do about it?
- Read with someone. A spouse, a friend or a small group reading the same day keeps you going and gives you someone to talk it over with.

"This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, and you shall meditate on it by day and night, so that you may take care to do according to all that is written in it; for then you will make your ways successful, and then you will prosper." Joshua 1:8 (SLB)

Every reading in this plan can be done in the Steadfast Literal Bible (SLB), which is free to read, search and print at trinfinityenterprises.com/slb. My free verse-by-verse studies for every book of the Bible are at trinfinityenterprises.com if you want to go deeper on any day.

About This Plan

I wrote this plan because the hardest part of reading the whole Bible is not understanding it. It is keeping at it day after day. Short daily readings from both Testaments, with a psalm or proverb mixed in, keep the reading fresh and keep you moving. The goal is not to check boxes. The goal is to know God through His Word.

If you have never read the Bible all the way through, start here. If you have, read it again. You will see things you missed the first time.
