30:4 If your banished one is at the end of the heavens, from there the LORD your God will gather you No Jew could ever be scattered so far that God could not bring him home. I believe this promise will be fulfilled fully in the last days, when Israel turns to the Lord and Christ returns to set up His kingdom.
30:5 He will do you good and multiply you more than your fathers The regathered nation would be blessed beyond anything the fathers knew.
30:6 the LORD your God will circumcise your heart This is the heart of the chapter. A circumcised heart has the hardness cut away and belongs to God. In 10:16 Israel was told to do it, but they could not (29:4). Now God promises to do it Himself, so that they love Him with all their heart and soul (6:5). What the Law demanded, God will give. This is the new covenant promise: "on their heart I will write it" (Jer 31:33; Ezek 36:26-27).
30:6 and the heart of your seed Believers share in this now. Jesus' blood is the blood of the new covenant (Luke 22:20), and true circumcision "is of the heart, in spirit, not in letter" (Rom 2:29; Col 2:11). But that does not cancel God's promise to the nation. "All Israel will be saved" (Rom 11:26), when "they will look to Me, to Him whom they have pierced" (Zech 12:10). That is when this verse will be fulfilled for the nation.

7 And the LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who have pursued you. 8 And you, you will return and listen to the voice of the LORD, and do all His commandments which I am commanding you today. 9 And the LORD your God will make you abound in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your womb and in the fruit of your livestock and in the fruit of your ground, for good; for the LORD will return to rejoice over you for good, just as He rejoiced over your fathers, 10 if you listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this book of the law, if you return to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

The Word Is Near You

11 For this commandment which I am commanding you today, it is not too difficult for you, and it is not far away. 12 It is not in the heavens, to say, 'Who will go up for us to the heavens and take it for us, and make us hear it, so that we may do it?' 13 And it is not beyond the sea, to say, 'Who will pass over for us to the other side of the sea and take it for us, and make us hear it, so that we may do it?' 14 For the word is very near to you, in your mouth and in your heart, to do it.

Choose Life

15 See, I have set before you today life and good, and death and evil, 16 in that I am commanding you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, and to keep His commandments and His statutes and His judgments, and you shall live and multiply, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land to which you are going in to take possession of it. 17 And if your heart turns away, and you do not listen, and you are drawn away and bow down to other gods and serve them, 18 I declare to you today that you shall surely perish; you shall not prolong your days on the ground to which you are passing over the Jordan (Yarden) to go in to take possession of it. 19 I call the heavens and the earth to witness against you today: life and death I have set before you, the blessing and the curse; and you shall choose life, so that you may live, you and your seed, 20 to love the LORD your God, to listen to His voice, and to cling to Him; for He is your life and the length of your days, to dwell on the ground which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham (Avraham), to Isaac (Yitschaq), and to Jacob (Ya'aqov), to give to them."

DEUTERONOMY 31

Joshua to Lead Israel

1 And Moses (Moshe) went and spoke these words to all Israel (Yisra'el). 2 And he said to them, "I am a son of a hundred and twenty years today; I am no longer able to go out and to come in, and the LORD has said to me, 'You shall not pass over this Jordan (Yarden).' 3 The LORD your God, He is passing over before you; He will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua (Yehoshua), he is passing over before you, just as the LORD has spoken. 4 And the LORD will do to them just as He did to Sihon (Sichon) and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, whom He destroyed. 5 And the LORD will give them up before you, and you shall do to them according to 30:7 the LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies The curses would turn on the nations that persecuted Israel, as God promised Abraham (Gen 12:3).

30:9 the LORD will return to rejoice over you for good In 28:63 the LORD would rejoice to destroy them. Now He returns to rejoice over them for good. "He will rejoice over you with joy" (Zeph 3:17). The call to return still stands (30:10), but God Himself gives the heart that returns. That is grace.
30:11 it is not too difficult for you, and it is not far away Israel could not keep the Law perfectly, so what does this mean? God's will was not hidden or out of reach (29:29). At its center was love for the LORD (30:16), given to a redeemed people with an altar for when they failed. "His commandments are not burdensome" (1 John 5:3).
30:12 It is not in the heavens No hero had to climb into heaven or cross the sea to fetch God's Word. God had already brought it to them.
30:14 the word is very near to you, in your mouth and in your heart It was in their mouth as they taught it (6:7), and it was to be in their heart, loved and lived. Paul applies this to the gospel: no one needs to "bring Christ down" (Rom 10:6) or "bring Christ up out of the dead" (Rom 10:7). "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (Rom 10:8): "if you confess with your mouth Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God raised Him out of the dead, you will be saved" (Rom 10:9). God came near and did the hard part, most fully in Christ.
30:15 life and good, and death and evil Moses brings it all down to one choice.
30:16 to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways Love comes first in the way of life.
30:17 if your heart turns away, and you do not listen The way of death starts in the heart. Then the ears close. Then the feet follow. There is no third road, only the wide road and the narrow one (Matt 7:13-14).
30:19 you shall choose life Heaven and earth, which would outlast every person there, are called as witnesses. God does not only set the choice before them; He pleads with them and tells them which to make, for He does not want anyone to perish (2 Pet 3:9). Joshua made the same appeal: "choose for yourselves today whom you will serve" (Josh 24:15).
30:20 for He is your life and the length of your days Life is not only something God gives. He is our life. To cling is the word used of husband and wife (Gen 2:24). Jesus said, "I am the way and the truth and the life" (John 14:6), and "The one who has the Son has life" (1 John 5:12). The choice Moses set before Israel is the choice every person must make about Jesus Christ. Have you chosen life?
31:2 I am no longer able to go out and to come in To go out and come in means to lead, especially in war. Moses was not frail, for his eye had not dimmed (34:7). His time to lead was over, and the LORD had said he would not cross the Jordan (3:27).
31:3 The LORD your God, He is passing over before you Their real leader was the LORD. Moses would stay behind, but God would go ahead, with Joshua, whom He had already chosen (1:38; Num 27:18-23). What He did to Sihon and Og east of the Jordan He would do west of it.

all the commandment which I have commanded you. 6 Be strong and be courageous; do not be afraid and do not be terrified of them, for the LORD your God, He is the One who goes with you; He will not let you go, and He will not forsake you." 7 And Moses called to Joshua and said to him before the eyes of all Israel, "Be strong and be courageous, for you, you shall go with this people into the land which the LORD swore to their fathers to give to them, and you, you shall cause them to inherit it. 8 And the LORD, He is the One who goes before you; He, He will be with you; He will not let you go, and He will not forsake you; do not be afraid, and do not be dismayed."

The Law Written and Read

9 And Moses wrote this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. 10 And Moses commanded them, saying, "At the end of seven years, at the appointed time of the year of release, at the Festival of Booths, 11 when all Israel comes to appear before the face of the LORD your God in the place which He will choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their ears. 12 Assemble the people, the men and the women and the little ones, and your sojourner who is in your gates, so that they may hear and so that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and be careful to do all the words of this law; 13 and their sons, who have not known, will hear and learn to fear the LORD your God all the days which you are alive on the ground to which you are passing over the Jordan to take possession of it."

The LORD Foretells Israel's Rebellion

14 And the LORD said to Moses, "Look, your days have drawn near to die. Call Joshua, and present yourselves at the tent of meeting, so that I may commission him." And Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the tent of meeting. 15 And the LORD appeared at the tent in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood over the entrance of the tent. 16 And the LORD said to Moses, "Look, you are about to lie down with your fathers, and this people will rise up and prostitute itself after the foreign gods of the land into the midst of which it is going in, and it will forsake Me and break My covenant which I made with it. 17 And My anger will burn against it on that day, and I will forsake them and hide My face from them, and it will be for devouring, and many calamities and troubles will find it; and it will say on that day, 'Is it not because my God is not in my midst that these calamities have found me?' 18 And I, I will surely hide My face on that day because of all the evil which it has done, for it has turned to other gods. 19 And now write for yourselves this song, and teach it to the sons of Israel; put it in their mouth, so that this song may be for Me a witness against the sons of Israel. 20 For I will bring it into the land which I swore to its fathers, flowing with milk and honey, and it will eat and be satisfied and grow fat, and it will turn to other gods, and they will serve them and spurn Me and break My covenant. 21 And it shall be, when many calamities and troubles have found it, that this song will testify before it as a witness, for it will not be forgotten from the mouth of its seed; for I know its inclination which it is making today, before I have brought it into the land which I swore." 22 And 31:6 He will not let you go, and He will not forsake you Hebrews gives this promise to every believer: "I will certainly not leave you, nor will I ever forsake you" (Heb 13:5), and uses it to tell us to be content and not love money. If God is with us, we have what we need. "Look, I am with you all the days, until the consummation of the age" (Matt 28:20).

31:7 Moses called to Joshua and said to him before the eyes of all Israel It was done in public so the people would see Moses hand over the leadership. A smooth change of leaders is a gift to God's people. Joshua's name means the LORD is salvation, and Jesus is the Greek form of the same name.
31:8 do not be afraid, and do not be dismayed Moses gives Joshua the same promise he gave the people. Leaders need encouragement too, and God repeated this word to Joshua (Josh 1:5-9). Is there a pastor, parent or boss who needs that kind of encouragement from you today?
31:9 Moses wrote this law This is one of the clearest statements that Moses wrote the book (31:24). God's Word was not left to memory but written, so it could be kept, copied and read. The priests who carried the ark, the gold-covered chest holding the tablets, now also kept the written Law.
31:10 at the appointed time of the year of release, at the Festival of Booths Every seventh year, when debts were canceled (15:1-2), at the fall feast of shelters, the Law was to be read aloud to all Israel.
31:12 so that they may hear and so that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God Men, women, children and foreigners all heard. Hearing leads to learning, learning to the fear of God, and the fear of God to obedience.
31:13 their sons, who have not known, will hear Every generation must hear God's Word for itself. Ezra did this after the exile (Neh 8:1-3, 18), but under the kings the Law was so neglected that finding a copy in Josiah's day was a great discovery (2 Kgs 22:8-13). When God's Word is not read, it is soon forgotten.
31:15 the LORD appeared at the tent in a pillar of cloud The cloud that had led Israel through the wilderness marked God's presence. Moses had commissioned Joshua before the people; now God would commission him Himself.
31:16 this people will rise up and prostitute itself after the foreign gods To "lie down with your fathers" is a gentle way of saying to die. God often calls idolatry spiritual adultery. Imagine hearing at the end of forty years of work that the people would turn away anyway. God knows the future, but His knowing does not force anyone's hand. He told Moses so that Israel would know they had been warned and that He was not surprised or defeated by their sin.
31:17 I will forsake them and hide My face from them To hide His face means to withdraw His favor and protection. Notice the cause: they turned from God first. He hid His face because they had turned their backs (31:18).
31:19 write for yourselves this song, and teach it to the sons of Israel Why a song? People forget sermons, but they remember songs for life. God wanted these words in the mouths of parents and children. What songs are you putting in your children's mouths? The songs we sing shape what we believe.
31:20 it will eat and be satisfied and grow fat, and it will turn to other gods Here again is the danger of plenty (6:10-12; 8:11-14). Comfort leads to forgetting God.
31:21 for it will not be forgotten from the mouth of its seed When trouble came, Israel would be singing the very song that explained why. God knew their hearts before they crossed the Jordan, and still He loved them and gave them the land.

Moses wrote this song on that day and taught it to the sons of Israel. 23 And He commissioned Joshua the son of Nun and said, "Be strong and be courageous, for you, you shall bring the sons of Israel into the land which I swore to them, and I, I will be with you."

The Book Beside the Ark

24 And it was, when Moses had finished writing the words of this law in a book until their completion, 25 that Moses commanded the Levites, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, 26 "Take this book of the law and put it by the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and it shall be there for a witness against you. 27 For I, I know your rebellion and your stiff neck. Look, while I am still alive with you today, you have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death! 28 Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes and your officers, and let me speak these words in their ears, and let me call the heavens and the earth to witness against them. 29 For I know that after my death you will surely act corruptly and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you, and the evil will meet you at the end of the days, because you will do the evil in the eyes of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger by the work of your hands." 30 And Moses spoke in the ears of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song until their completion:

DEUTERONOMY 32

The Song of Moses: The Rock

1 Give ear, O heavens, and let me speak; and let the earth hear the words of my mouth. 2 Let my teaching drop like the rain, let my speech distill like the dew, like showers on new grass, and like abundant rains on vegetation. 3 For the name of the LORD I will proclaim; ascribe greatness to our God! 4 The Rock, His work is perfect, for all His ways are justice; a God of faithfulness and without injustice, righteous and upright is He. 5 It has acted corruptly toward Him; they are not His sons, it is their blemish; a perverse and crooked generation. 6 Is it the LORD you repay thus, O foolish and unwise people? Is He not your Father, who acquired you? He made you and established you. 7 Remember the days of old; consider the years of generation and generation. Ask your father, and he will tell you; your elders, and they will say it to you. 8 When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance, when He separated the sons of man, He set the boundaries of the peoples according to the number of the sons of Israel (Yisra'el). 9 For the LORD's portion is His people; Jacob (Ya'aqov) is the measured portion of His inheritance. 10 He found him in a land of wilderness, and in the formlessness of a howling wasteland; He surrounded him, He cared for him, He guarded him like the pupil of His eye. 11 Like an eagle that stirs up its nest, hovers over its young, spreads out its

31:23 and I, I will be with you Now the LORD Himself speaks to Joshua. Joshua's strength would not come from his own skill but from God's presence, and every task God gives His people comes with that same promise.
31:26 put it by the side of the ark of the covenant The tablets were inside the ark (10:5), and the book of the Law was placed beside it as a witness of what Israel had promised and what God had warned.
31:27 I know your rebellion and your stiff neck A stiff neck pictures an ox that will not bow to the yoke. Moses had seen it at the calf, at Kadesh, at Meribah and at Peor. We are no better. These things "happened to them as examples" (1 Cor 10:11). That is why we need not only God's Law but a Savior and a new heart.
31:29 the evil will meet you at the end of the days "The end of the days" points to the latter part of Israel's history and in the prophets often reaches to the last days before the Messiah's kingdom (4:30). Judges shows how quickly it began, when "another generation arose after them who did not know the LORD" (Judg 2:10).
32:1 Give ear, O heavens, and let me speak; and let the earth hear Moses now calls the witnesses he named in 31:28. The song is like a court case with all creation watching. Hebrew poetry does not rhyme; it uses parallelism, where one line says something and the next repeats it in other words, adds to it, or gives the opposite. "Give ear, O heavens" is matched by "let the earth hear."
32:2 Let my teaching drop like the rain In a dry land rain and dew were life. Moses prayed his words would soak into Israel's hearts and make them grow, as God's Word still does (Isa 55:10-11). And the song is first of all about God (32:3).
32:4 The Rock, His work is perfect, for all His ways are justice The Rock is one of the great names of God in this song (32:15, 18, 30, 31): solid, unchanging, a shelter you can build on. Before the song tells of sin and judgment, it settles this: whatever God does is right. Remember this verse in the hard parts. Paul says the rock in the wilderness "was the Christ" (1 Cor 10:4).
32:5 a perverse and crooked generation The Hebrew of this line is hard, but the point is plain: Israel acted so badly they did not look like God's children. Paul borrows the picture for the world in which believers shine, "a crooked and perverted generation" (Phil 2:15).
32:6 Is He not your Father, who acquired you? God made Israel a nation, bought them out of Egypt and set them in place. This is one of the first places God is plainly called Israel's Father. The sin of a child against a loving father is the saddest sin of all.
32:7 Ask your father, and he will tell you Faith is passed down. Ask the older ones what God has done.
32:8 according to the number of the sons of Israel God divided the nations after Babel (Gen 10-11) and "determined the times appointed beforehand and the boundaries of their dwelling" (Acts 17:26). Our Hebrew text, which the SLB follows, may mean God placed the nations with Israel in mind. Genesis 10 lists seventy nations, and seventy of Jacob's family went to Egypt (Gen 46:27), so some see a link. A Dead Sea Scroll and the old Greek read "sons of God," meaning God gave the nations to heavenly beings but kept Israel for Himself (compare Dan 10:13, 20). Teachers who love God's Word differ on which reading is original.
32:9 the LORD's portion is His people Either way, this is the point. Every nation had its land, but Israel was God's own treasure.
32:10 the formlessness of a howling wasteland The word is the same as in Genesis 1:2. God took a helpless people out of chaos and made them His, guarding them like the pupil of His eye, the most tender part we protect by instinct.
32:11 Like an eagle that stirs up its nest A mother eagle stirs the nest so her young will learn to fly, and when one falls she spreads her wings and catches it. "I carried you on the wings of eagles and brought you to Myself" (Exod 19:4). Sometimes God stirs up our nest, and it feels like falling, but He is always under us, ready to catch us.

wings, takes him, carries him on its pinion, 12 the LORD alone guided him, and there was no foreign god with Him. 13 He made him ride on the high places of the land, and he ate the produce of the field; and He made him suck honey from the crag and oil from the flint of the rock, 14 curds of the herd and milk of the flock, with the fat of lambs, and rams, sons of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of wheat; and the blood of the grape you drank, fermenting wine.

Jeshurun Grew Fat

15 And Jeshurun (Yeshurun) grew fat and kicked; you grew fat, you grew thick, you were gorged; and he abandoned God who made him, and treated with contempt the Rock of his salvation. 16 They made Him jealous with strange gods; with abominations they provoked Him to anger. 17 They sacrificed to demons, not God, gods whom they had not known, new gods who came lately, whom your fathers had not dreaded. 18 The Rock who fathered you, you neglected, and you forgot God who gave birth to you. 19 And the LORD saw and spurned them, because of the provocation of His sons and His daughters. 20 And He said, "Let Me hide My face from them; I will see what their end will be; for they are a generation of perversities, sons in whom is no faithfulness. 21 They, they have made Me jealous with what is not a god; they have provoked Me to anger with their vanities; and I, I will make them jealous with those who are not a people; with a foolish nation I will provoke them to anger. 22 For a fire has been kindled in My anger, and it burns to the lowest Sheol, and it consumes the earth and its produce, and sets ablaze the foundations of the mountains. 23 I will heap calamities on them; My arrows I will use up on them. 24 They will be exhausted by famine, and devoured by plague and bitter destruction; and the tooth of beasts I will send on them, with the venom of crawling things of the dust. 25 Outside the sword will bereave, and from the inner rooms terror, both young man and virgin, the nursing child with the man of gray hair.

The LORD Will Vindicate His People

32:13 He made him suck honey from the crag and oil from the flint of the rock Even the hard places of the land would give sweetness and richness.
32:14 the fat of the kidneys of wheat That is, the finest wheat. Curds, milk, lamb, the famous rams of Bashan and wine: God gave them more than they needed, the very best. Most of us must admit He has given us more than we need. What do we do with it?
32:15 Jeshurun grew fat and kicked Jeshurun, upright one, is a pet name for Israel. God gave a name of honor, and they acted like a well-fed ox kicking its owner. Plenty made them proud, and pride made them forget (6:10-12; 8:11-14).
32:17 They sacrificed to demons, not God The idol was only wood or stone, but behind idol worship stood demons. Paul says the Gentiles "sacrifice to demons and not to God" (1 Cor 10:20).
32:18 you forgot God who gave birth to you God is pictured both as the father and as the one who gave birth. He brought Israel into being, and they forgot Him.
32:20 Let Me hide My face from them Now God speaks. They are "sons in whom is no faithfulness."
32:21 I will make them jealous with those who are not a people Measure for measure: Israel gave its love to a no-god, so God would show favor to a no-people. Paul quotes this (Rom 10:19) and explains that salvation came to the Gentiles "to provoke them to jealousy" (Rom 11:11). God's purpose is not to throw Israel away but to stir them up, so that in the end Israel too will turn to the Messiah (Rom 11:25-26).
32:22 it burns to the lowest Sheol Sheol is the Hebrew word for the place of the dead, the grave or the world below. God's anger reaches from the heights to the depths.
32:24 They will be exhausted by famine Famine, plague, beasts and serpents: God's judgments pictured as arrows (32:23). These are the curses of chapter 28 put into song, so when they came Israel would know it had been warned.
32:27 the LORD has not done all this God could have wiped Israel out, but He would not let the enemy boast in its own strength. Moses had pleaded this at the calf (Exod 32:12; 9:28). Israel's survival rests finally on God's faithfulness to His own name, not on theirs. That is good news for us too.
32:30 How could one pursue a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight When Israel was faithful, one could chase a thousand (Josh 23:10). If an enemy ever did that to Israel, it was only because God had handed His people over. Some take "a nation devoid of counsels" (32:28) as Israel, but the context favors the enemy, who did not understand why they won.
32:31 For not like our Rock is their rock Even Israel's enemies had to admit their gods were nothing like the LORD.
32:32 from the vine of Sodom is their vine The enemy nations were as wicked as Sodom, and their sins were "sealed up" with God, waiting for the right time (32:34).
32:35 To Me belong vengeance and recompense Paul uses this to tell believers not to take revenge: "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay" (Rom 12:19). This is a great relief. We do not have to settle every score. God sees every wrong and will judge justly, and that frees us to love our enemies.

ten." 36 For the LORD will judge His people, and He will have compassion on His servants, when He sees that their hand is gone, and there is none, shut up or left free. 37 And He will say, "Where are their gods, the rock in which they took refuge, 38 who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offering? It Is Your Life

44 And Moses (Moshe) came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Hoshea the son of Nun. 45 And Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel. 46 And he said to them, "Set your heart on all the words which I am testifying against you today, which you shall command your sons to be careful to do, all the words of this law. 47 For it is not an empty word for you, for it is your life, and by this word you shall prolong your days on the ground to which you are passing over the Jordan (Yarden) to take possession of it."

Moses to Die on Nebo

48 And the LORD spoke to Moses on this same day, saying, 49 "Go up to this mountain of the Abarim (Avarim), the mountain of Nebo (Nevo), which is in the land of Moab (Mo'av), which is facing Jericho (Yericho), and see the land of Canaan (Kena'an), which I am giving to the sons of Israel for a possession. 50 And die on the mountain onto which you are going up, and be gathered to your peoples, just as Aaron (Aharon) your brother died on Hor the mountain and was gathered to his peoples, 51 because you acted unfaithfully against Me in the midst of the sons of Israel at the waters of Meribah (Meriva) of Kadesh (Qadesh), in the wilderness of Zin (Tsin), because you did not sanctify Me in the midst of the sons of Israel. 52 For at a distance you shall see the land, and there you shall not go in, into the land which I am giving to the sons of Israel."

DEUTERONOMY 33

Moses Blesses the Tribes

1 And this is the blessing with which Moses (Moshe), the man of God, blessed the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) before his death.

32:36 He will have compassion on His servants, when He sees that their hand is gone Here the song turns. To judge His people means to vindicate them (Heb 10:30). When Israel has nothing left, God steps in with compassion. Then He mocks the idols they trusted: "Let them rise up and help you" (32:38). The idols are always silent.
32:39 I, I am He, and there is no god with Me One of the strongest statements in the Old Testament that there is only one God. He holds life and death; He wounds and He heals (1 Sam 2:6). "He has torn, and He will heal us" (Hos 6:1). When God disciplines His people it is so He can heal them. In Jesus we see this God in flesh, who holds "the keys of Hades and of Death" (Rev 1:18).
32:40 As I live forever Lifting the hand was how one swore an oath. God swears by His own life, since there is no one greater (Heb 6:13).
32:41 I will return vengeance to My adversaries The language is fierce, God's arrows and sword drunk with blood. We should not soften it too much. God is a warrior against evil and will judge those who hate Him. But vengeance belongs to God, not man, and He takes no pleasure in the death of the wicked (Ezek 18:23). He sent His Son to bear the judgment for all who turn to Him, and the returning Christ will judge the nations (Rev 19:11-15). The time to turn to Him is now.
32:43 Shout for joy, O nations, His people The Hebrew can mean praise His people, or rejoice with His people. Paul quotes it in the second sense: "Rejoice, Gentiles, with His people" (Rom 15:10). God always meant the Gentiles to share Israel's joy. Hebrews quotes "And let all the angels of God worship Him" (Heb 1:6), words found in the old Greek and a Dead Sea Scroll of this verse though not in our Hebrew text (compare Ps 97:7), and applies them to the Son.
32:43 He will make atonement for His land, His people The land defiled by sin will be cleansed and the people made right with God. That points to the day when Israel turns to the Messiah and is forgiven (Rom 11:26-27; Zech 13:1), and Christ reigns over the earth.
32:44 he and Hoshea the son of Nun Hoshea was Joshua's first name (Num 13:16). The old leader and the new stood together to teach the song.
32:47 it is not an empty word for you, for it is your life God's Word is not one more opinion. It is life. "The words which I speak to you are spirit and are life" (John 6:63). Do you treat it as your life, or as one more thing to fit in when there is time?
32:49 the mountain of Nebo Nebo is a peak of the Abarim range east of the Dead Sea, looking across the Jordan valley into the land.
32:50 be gathered to your peoples To join those who died before is a hint that death is not the end. Aaron had died the same way on Mount Hor (Num 20:28).
32:51 because you did not sanctify Me At Meribah Moses struck the rock twice in anger instead of speaking to it, and spoke as if he and Aaron brought out the water (Num 20:7-12). It seems a heavy price, but the greater the leader, the greater the responsibility (James 3:1). Many teachers note that the rock pictured Christ (1 Cor 10:4), struck once for us.
32:52 at a distance you shall see the land God was gracious even so and let Moses see it. Centuries later Moses did stand in the land, on the mountain where Jesus was transfigured, speaking "of His departure which He was about to fulfill in Jerusalem" (Luke 9:31).
33:1 Moses, the man of God This is the first time in the Bible anyone is called "the man of God," a title later used for Samuel, Elijah and Elisha, and by Paul for Timothy (1 Tim 6:11). It means one who belongs to God and speaks for Him. Moses had warned, rebuked and pleaded, but his last words were a blessing. What would you want your last words to the people you love to be?

2 And he said, "The LORD came from Sinai (Sinay), and dawned from Seir (Se'ir) on them; He shone forth from the mountain of Paran, and He came from ten thousands of holiness; from His right hand was a fire of law for them. 3 Indeed, He is loving the peoples; all His holy ones are in Your hand; and they, they were led at Your feet; each will receive of Your words. 4 Moses commanded us a law, a possession of the assembly of Jacob (Ya'aqov). 5 And he was king in Jeshurun (Yeshurun), when the heads of the people gathered themselves together, the tribes of Israel. 6 Let Reuben (Reuven) live, and let him not die, and let his men be a number." 7 And this is for Judah (Yehuda), and he said, "Hear, O LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him to his people; his hands contended for him, and You will be a help against his adversaries." 8 And of Levi he said, "Your Thummim and Your Urim belong to the man, Your godly one, whom You tested at Massah (Masa), with whom You contended at the waters of Meribah (Meriva); 9 who said of his father and of his mother, 'I have not seen him'; and his brothers he did not recognize, and his sons he did not know; for they kept Your word, and Your covenant they guarded. 10 They shall teach Your judgments to Jacob, and Your law to Israel; they shall put incense in Your nostrils, and a whole offering on Your altar. 11 Bless, O LORD, his substance, and the work of his hands You will accept; shatter the loins of those who rise against him, and of those who hate him, so that they do not rise." 12 Of Benjamin (Binyamin) he said, "The beloved of the LORD, he dwells in security beside Him; He shields him all the day, and between His shoulders he dwells."

Joseph and the Northern Tribes

13 And of Joseph (Yosef) he said, "Blessed of the LORD be his land, from the choice things of the heavens, from the dew, and from the deep lying beneath, 14 and from the choice things of the produce of the sun, and from the choice things of the yield of the months, 15 and from the top of the ancient mountains, and from the choice things of the everlasting hills, 16 and from the choice things of the earth and its fullness, and the favor of Him who dwelt in the bush; let it come on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of the one consecrated among his brothers. 17 The firstborn of his ox, majesty is his, and the horns of a wild ox are his horns; with them he will gore peoples, together, the ends of the earth; and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim (Efrayim), and they are the thousands of Manasseh (Menashe)." 18 And of Zebulun (Zevulun) he said, "Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, and Issachar (Yisashkhar), in your tents. 19 They will call peoples to the mountain; there they will sacrifice sacrifices of righteousness; for they will suck the abundance of the seas, and the concealed things hidden in the sand."

33:19 Isa 2:3; Ps 4:5; Isa 60:5,16

33:2 He came from ten thousands of holiness Sinai, Seir and Paran lie along the way from Sinai to the land, and the LORD rises over them like the sun at dawn. The holy ones are most likely angels, for the Law was "ordained through angels" (Gal 3:19; Acts 7:53; Heb 2:2), and it came out of the fire (5:22).

33:3 Indeed, He is loving the peoples The Law was not given in cold anger but by a God who loved His people and held them in His hand. They sat at His feet like students before a teacher, and the Law became their treasure (33:4).

33:5 he was king in Jeshurun Most teachers take the king to be the LORD, who became Israel's King when the tribes gathered at Sinai. Some think it means Moses, who led with a king's authority though he never took the title.

33:6 Let Reuben live, and let him not die Reuben lost the firstborn's rights by his sin (Gen 35:22; 49:3-4), and his tribe east of the Jordan was never large. Sometimes the best blessing after a great failure is that God lets us go on.

33:7 Hear, O LORD, the voice of Judah Judah would lead the tribes in battle (Judg 1:1-2). From Judah came David, and from David's line came Jesus, "the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah" (Rev 5:5). Simeon is not named. Jacob said Simeon would be scattered (Gen 49:5-7), and its towns lay inside Judah (Josh 19:1, 9), so it may have blended into Judah. Scripture does not say why.

33:8 Your Thummim and Your Urim belong to the man, Your godly one The high priest kept the Urim and Thummim in the breastplate over his heart, and God used them to give answers (Exod 28:30; Num 27:21). Scripture does not tell us what they looked like. Levi stood with Moses through the testing at Massah and Meribah (Exod 17:1-7).

33:9 I have not seen him This points to the golden calf, when the Levites rallied to Moses and carried out God's judgment even on relatives (Exod 32:26-29). They put loyalty to God above family. Jesus said whoever loves father or mother more than Him is not worthy of Him (Matt 10:37). We still love our families, but God comes first.

33:10 They shall teach Your judgments to Jacob, and Your law to Israel The priests were Israel's teachers: "the lips of a priest shall keep knowledge" (Mal 2:7). They also led worship at the altar. All this points to Jesus, our great High Priest who offered Himself once for all (Heb 7:26-27), and through Him every believer is part of "a royal priesthood" (1 Pet 2:9).

33:12 between His shoulders he dwells Benjamin was Jacob's dearly loved youngest (Gen 44:20), and the tribe is "the beloved of the LORD." The phrase may picture a father carrying his child on his back, or the hills of Benjamin near Jerusalem, where the temple would stand (Josh 18:16). Secure, shielded all day, carried close to God: in Christ that is the believer's life too.

33:13 Blessed of the LORD be his land Joseph's blessing is the longest, as with Jacob's (Gen 49:22-26). Ephraim and Manasseh held some of the richest land in Canaan, and Moses names every good thing that makes a land fruitful.

33:16 the favor of Him who dwelt in the bush The best blessing of all. This is the only place outside Exodus 3 that speaks of the burning bush. Moses never forgot the God who met him there. Joseph was set apart from his brothers, first by their hatred and then by God's plan to save them through him (Gen 50:20).

33:17 the horns of a wild ox are his horns The wild ox stood for strength. Ephraim, the younger, is named first with the larger number, as Jacob had blessed him above Manasseh (Gen 48:19-20).

33:19 They will call peoples to the mountain Zebulun and Issachar, Leah's last sons, lived in the north, later called Galilee. They would invite others to worship and grow rich from the sea, and the treasures "hidden in the sand" were perhaps glass or purple dye from the coast. Centuries later Jesus lived in Capernaum, and Matthew quotes Isaiah about the "Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali" (Matt 4:15), where "the people sitting in darkness saw a great light" (Matt 4:16). The Light of the world walked among them.

20 And of Gad he said, "Blessed is He who enlarges Gad; like a lion he dwells, and he tears the arm, also the crown of the head. 21 And he saw the first part for himself, for there the portion of a commander was reserved; and he came with the heads of the people; the righteousness of the LORD he executed, and His judgments with Israel." 22 And of Dan he said, "Dan is a lion's cub; he leaps forth from Bashan." 23 And of Naphtali (Naftali) he said, "Naphtali, satisfied with favor, and full of the blessing of the LORD, take possession of the sea and the south." 24 And of Asher he said, "Blessed more than sons is Asher; let him be the favored one of his brothers, and dipping his foot in oil. 25 Iron and bronze shall be your bolts, and as your days, so shall be your strength."

The Everlasting Arms

26 "There is none like God, O Jeshurun, who rides the heavens to your help, and in His majesty the clouds. 27 The God of old is a dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms; and He drove out the enemy from before you, and said, 'Destroy!' 28 And Israel dwells in security; alone is the spring of Jacob, in a land of grain and new wine; also his heavens drop dew. 29 How blessed are you, O Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD, the shield of your help, and who is the sword of your majesty? And your enemies will cringe before you, and you, you will tread on their high places."

The Death of Moses

1 And Moses (Moshe) went up from the plains of Moab (Mo'av) to the mountain of Nebo (Nevo), the top of the Pisgah (Pisga), which is facing Jericho (Yericho); and the LORD showed him all the land, Gilead (Gilad) as far as Dan, 2 and all Naphtali (Naftali), and the land of Ephraim (Efrayim) and Manasseh (Menashe), and all the land of Judah (Yehuda) as far as the western sea, 3 and the Negeb (Negev), and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of the palm trees, as far as Zoar (Tso'ar). 4 And the LORD said to him, "This is the land which I swore to Abraham (Avraham), to Isaac (Yitschaq), and to Jacob (Ya'aqov), saying, 'To your seed I will give it.' I have let you see it with your eyes, and there you shall not pass over." 5 And Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the mouth of the LORD. 6 And He buried him in the valley in the land of Moab opposite Beth-peor (Bet-Pe'or), and no man knows his burial place until this day. 7 And Moses was a son of a hundred and twenty years when he died; his eye had not grown dim, and his vigor had not fled. 8 And the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days;

33:21 the righteousness of the LORD he executed Gad was known for fierce warriors (1 Chr 12:8) and was among the first to receive land (Num 32:1-5). But they kept their promise to fight beside their brothers until the whole land was won (Josh 22:1-4). When God has blessed us first, do we stay and help our brothers?

33:22 Dan is a lion's cub; he leaps forth from Bashan Dan could not take its land in the south, so part of the tribe moved north and seized Laish near Bashan (Judg 18:27-29). Sadly, they also set up an idol there (Judg 18:30-31).

33:23 Naphtali, satisfied with favor, and full of the blessing of the LORD Naphtali lived around the Sea of Galilee, pictured as full and satisfied, resting in God's favor.

33:24 dipping his foot in oil Asher means happy or blessed. Its coastland had so many olive trees that it was as if they walked in oil, a sign of wealth.

33:25 as your days, so shall be your strength The bolts on Asher's gates would be iron and bronze. And many believers have held this promise in hard times: God gives strength for each day as it comes. He does not give tomorrow's strength today, but when tomorrow comes it will be there. "My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is perfected in weakness" (2 Cor 12:9).

33:26 who rides the heavens to your help The Canaanites called Baal the rider on the clouds. Moses says it is Israel's God who rides the heavens, and He rides them to help His people.

33:27 The God of old is a dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms One of the most comforting verses in the Bible. God Himself is our home: "Lord, You have been a dwelling place for us in generation and generation" (Ps 90:1). Underneath us when we fall, when we are weak, when we are dying, are the arms of the eternal God, and they never tire or let go. Moses was about to die, and he was falling into those arms.

33:29 a people saved by the LORD Israel's true glory was not armies or land but this: they were saved by the LORD, who was their shield and sword. It will be fully true in the kingdom to come, when the nation is saved and dwells safely under its Messiah (Jer 23:5-6; Rom 11:26). And every believer can say it now: I am saved by the LORD.

34:1 the LORD showed him all the land Pisgah seems to be the ridge or peak of Nebo. Moses had asked to cross over, and God had told him to go up and look (3:25-27). Now he obeyed and climbed alone. From Nebo on a clear day one sees far across the Jordan valley, but Dan and the western sea are a very long way off. God may have given Moses special sight that day. Either way, God showed him the whole inheritance.

34:4 I have let you see it with your eyes God had sworn this land to the fathers more than four hundred years before (Gen 12:7; 15:18). This is a tender moment. God did not only say no; He showed Moses every part of what he had spent forty years leading Israel toward. Moses died knowing the promise was about to be kept.

34:5 Moses the servant of the LORD died there Servant of the LORD is the highest title Scripture gives Moses, not king or general (Josh 24:29). God Himself said, "Moses My servant has died" (Josh 1:2). "According to the mouth of the LORD" means at His word: Moses died when God said it was time. Jewish teachers have pictured God taking his life gently, as with a kiss. That is a tradition, not what the words must mean, but it is a beautiful thought.

34:6 no man knows his burial place until this day God Himself buried Moses, as no other person in the Bible. Scripture does not say why the grave was hidden. Many suggest God did not want it made a shrine, as Israel later burned incense to the bronze serpent (2 Kgs 18:4). Jude tells of Michael "arguing about the body of Moses" (Jude 1:9). We are told no more, but Moses' body was in God's care.

34:7 his eye had not grown dim, and his vigor had not fled His life fell into three forties: Pharaoh's palace, Midian, and leading Israel (Acts 7:23, 30, 36). He did not die of weakness but because God's time had come, and because of Meribah (32:51).

34:8 the sons of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days The same mourning as for Aaron (Num 20:29). For all their grumbling, Israel loved Moses. Then the days were completed. There is a time to grieve and a time to go on, for God's work did not die with Moses. We grieve, but not "just as also the rest who have no hope" (1 Thess 4:13).

and the days of the weeping of the mourning for Moses were completed. 9 And Joshua (Yehoshua) the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands on him; and the sons of Israel listened to him and did just as the LORD had commanded Moses. 10 And there has not arisen again a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face, 11 for all the signs and the wonders which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt (Mitsrayim), to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land, 12 and for all the mighty hand and for all the great terror which Moses did before the eyes of all Israel.

34:9 Isa 11:2; Dan 6:3; Exod 31:3
34:11 Deut 4:34; Deut 7:19; Ps 78:43-58

34:9 Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom The laying on of hands passed on God's authority (Num 27:18-23), and God gave Joshua the wisdom for the task. Many leaders leave confusion behind. Moses left a trained successor, a written Law and a people ready to go. Are you preparing anyone to carry on what God has given you to do?
34:10 there has not arisen again a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face God spoke to Moses "mouth to mouth" (Num 12:8). These words were written some time later, and every generation that read them was reminded that the Prophet like Moses (18:15) had not yet come. Then Jesus came, "the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father" (John 1:18). Philip said, "We have found Him of whom Moses wrote in the law" (John 1:45), and Peter preached that Jesus is that Prophet (Acts 3:22-26). Moses was "faithful in all His house as a servant" (Heb 3:5), but Christ as a Son.
34:12 before the eyes of all Israel Moses could bring Israel to the edge of the land, but not in. That took Joshua, whose name is the Hebrew form of Jesus. The Law brings us to see our need, but only Jesus brings us into God's rest (Heb 4:8-10; Gal 3:24). Moses could hardly have written of his own burial and the mourning after it. Jewish tradition says Joshua wrote this account, and I believe that is most likely, though it could have been another faithful writer soon after. This does not weaken the truth that Moses wrote Deuteronomy (31:9, 24). A book can be one man's work and still have its last page added by the man who followed him.

JOSHUA

Introduction

Title

The book is named for its main person, Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' helper and the man God chose to lead Israel into the land. His name was first Hoshea, and Moses renamed him Joshua (Num 13:16). In Hebrew it is Yehoshua, which means the LORD saves. Joshua is the sixth book of the Bible and opens the historical books, which run from Joshua through Esther. In the Hebrew Bible it is the first of the Former Prophets, the books that tell Israel's history from God's point of view. It picks up the day after Deuteronomy ends, with Moses dead and Israel camped on the plains of Moab across the Jordan from Jericho.

Author and Date

The book does not name one author for the whole, but it says that "Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God" (24:26). Jewish tradition holds that Joshua wrote most of it, and that others, likely Eleazar the priest and his son Phinehas, added the account of Joshua's death and burial (24:29-33). Some lines read like an eyewitness. The writer speaks of the land the LORD swore "to give to us" (5:6), and he says Rahab "has dwelt in the midst of Israel to this day" (6:25). The Jebusites still held Jerusalem (15:63), which David took about 1000 B.C. Most of the book was likely written in Joshua's lifetime or soon after, in the late 1400s or early 1300s B.C. Many modern critical scholars believe it was put together centuries later as part of a longer history running from Deuteronomy through Kings. I take the book at its word. It presents itself as a record made close to the events, and the New Testament treats it as true history (Acts 7:45; Heb 11:30-31).

Background and Setting

Most conservative scholars date the exodus about 1446 B.C., based on 1 Kings 6:1, and the crossing of the Jordan forty years later, about 1406 B.C. Caleb's words in 14:7-10 show that the main wars took about seven years. Joshua died at 110 (24:29), probably some twenty years after that, so the book covers roughly twenty-five to thirty years. Some scholars place the exodus and conquest in the 1200s B.C. instead.

Joshua was born a slave in Egypt. He led Israel's army against Amalek (Exod 17:9), served as Moses' helper at the tent of meeting (Exod 33:11), and was one of the twelve spies. He and Caleb alone trusted that God would give them the land (Num 14:6-9). After the crossing, Israel's base camp was at Gilgal near Jericho. From there Joshua struck west into the central hill country (Jericho, Ai and the covenant at Mount Ebal), then south (the five kings, Lachish, Hebron, Debir), then north (Hazor and the kings of Galilee). The tabernacle later stood at Shiloh (18:1), and the book ends with a covenant meeting at Shechem.

Everything in Joshua rests on what came before: God's promise of the land to Abraham (Gen 12:7; 15:18-21), His word that He would wait until the sin of the Amorites was full (Gen 15:16), the failure of the first generation at Kadesh (Num 14), and the commands Moses gave about the land and its people (Deut 7; 20). In the SLB, "LORD" in capital letters stands for God's personal name, Yahweh, which He made known to Moses (Exod 3:14-15).

Themes

The theme of Joshua is God's faithfulness to His promise. For more than four hundred years His people had held on to His word to Abraham. In Joshua He keeps it, and near the end the writer says so plainly: "Not a word fell of every good word which the LORD had spoken to the house of Israel; everything came to pass" (21:45; compare 23:14).

Alongside that theme runs a second one. God gives the land, but Israel must take it by faith and obedience. The secret of Joshua's strength was the book of the law, kept in his mouth and his heart (1:8). When Israel trusted God, the walls fell. When one man hid sin in his tent, the army ran from a small town. Where the tribes compromised and put the Canaanites to work instead of driving them out (16:10; 17:13), they left thorns that would trouble them for centuries.

Rest is a key word: the end of wandering and war, a home under God's care (21:44). The book closes with a call every generation must answer for itself: "choose for yourselves today whom you will serve" (24:15).

Christ in Joshua

Joshua's own name is the first pointer. Its shorter form, Yeshua, is the name the angel gave to Mary's Son, Jesus, "for He Himself will save His people from their sins" (Matt 1:21). Joshua led God's people into the land Moses could not bring them into. Yet Hebrews says Joshua's rest was not the final one: "there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God" (Heb 4:9), a rest we enter by faith in Christ. Rahab, the Canaanite woman saved by faith, became the mother of Boaz and is named in the family line of Jesus (Matt 1:5). Many Bible teachers believe the commander of the army of the LORD, who met Joshua near Jericho and received his worship (5:13-15), was the Son of God Himself before He was born in Bethlehem. Many have also seen the scarlet cord in Rahab's window as a picture of the blood that saves, like the blood on the doorposts at Passover (Exod 12:13). The New Testament does not name that picture, so I hold it lightly.

Hard Passages

Rahab lied to protect the spies (2:4-6). Scripture records the lie but praises only her faith and her actions (Heb 11:31; James 2:25). Teachers disagree whether deceit to save a life is ever right, and the notes do not build a rule on it.

The cities of Canaan were devoted to destruction, men and women, young and old (6:21; 8:24-26; 10:28-40; 11:10-14). The Hebrew word is herem, something set apart wholly to the LORD. I believe Scripture presents it as God's judgment on nations whose sin He had waited on for more than four hundred years (Gen 15:16; Deut 9:4-5), commanded once, for that time and that land, by God Himself through Moses. It was never a pattern for any nation, church or person after that. Rahab and the Gibeonites show that mercy was open to those who turned. The notes deal with this at 6:21 and refer back to it.

Achan was stoned and burned with his household (7:24-26), and defeated kings were put to death and hanged on trees (8:29; 10:26). The notes give the main readings of Achan's family fairly. The sun standing still (10:12-14) is taken as a real miracle, and the notes name the main explanations of how God did it. God's hardening of the Canaanites' hearts (11:20) is read in the light of Pharaoh's story and of forty years in which they heard and resisted.

The LORD Commissions Joshua

1 And it was after the death of Moses (Moshe), the servant of the LORD, and the LORD said to Joshua (Yehoshua) the son of Nun, the minister of Moses, saying, 2 "Moses My servant has died. And now, arise, pass over this Jordan (Yarden), you and all this people, into the land which I am about to give to them, to the sons of Israel (Yisra'el). 3 Every place on which the sole of your foot will tread, to you I have given it, just as I spoke to Moses. 4 From the wilderness and this Lebanon (Levanon) and to the great river, the river Euphrates (Perat), all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going in of the sun, will be your territory. 5 No man will stand before you all the days of your life. Just as I was with Moses, I will be with you; I will not let you go, and I will not forsake you. 6 Be strong and be bold, for you, you will cause this people to inherit the land which I swore to their fathers to give to them. 7 Only be strong and be very bold, to take care to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you. Do not turn aside from it to the right or left, so that you may prosper in every place where you go. 8 This book of the law shall not depart from your mouth, and you shall meditate on it by day and night, so that you may take care to do according to all that is written in it; for then you will make your ways successful, and then you will prosper. 9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and be bold. Do not be terrified, and do not be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you in every place where you go."

Joshua Prepares the People

10 And Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying, 11 "Pass through the midst of the camp and command the people, saying, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves, for within three days you are about to pass over this Jordan, to go in to take possession of the land which the LORD your God is about to give to you to take possession of it.'" 12 And to the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to the half of the tribe of Manasseh (Menashe) Joshua said, saying, 13 "Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, 'The LORD your God is giving you rest, and He will give you this land.' 14 Your wives, your little ones, and your livestock shall remain in the land which Moses gave to you beyond the Jordan; and you shall pass over arrayed for battle before your brothers, all the mighty men of valor, and you shall help them, 15 until the LORD gives rest to your brothers as He has to you, and they also take possession of the land

1:1 after the death of Moses, the servant of the LORD The book picks up where Deuteronomy ends. Moses had died on Mount Nebo at 120 years old (Deut 34:5-7). "The servant of the LORD" is the highest title the Bible gives any person. Joshua was "the minister of Moses," his helper for forty years, from the battle with Amalek (Exod 17:9) to the tent of meeting (Exod 33:11). He learned to lead by serving first.
1:2 Moses My servant has died. And now, arise The great leader was gone, but God was not. The work did not die with Moses. God's servants come and go, and we grieve them, but the LORD Himself carries His work forward.
1:3 Every place on which the sole of your foot will tread, to you I have given it God speaks as if it is already done. The land was a gift, settled in heaven, but Israel still had to walk into it. That is how God's promises usually work in our lives too. He gives, and we step out in faith and take hold of what He has given.
1:4 to the great river, the river Euphrates These are the borders God promised Abraham (Gen 15:18): from the southern wilderness to Lebanon, and from the Euphrates to "the Great Sea," the Mediterranean. Israel held all of it only for a time, under David and Solomon (1 Kgs 4:21). I believe God has not forgotten this promise, and the prophets say He will yet bring Israel back to the land (Ezek 36:24-28; Rom 11:28-29).
1:5 Just as I was with Moses, I will be with you Joshua would face kings, walled cities, giants and chariots, and none would stand before him, not because Joshua was great but because God was with him. Moses had told him the same thing before all Israel (Deut 31:6-8). Hebrews 13:5 takes this promise and gives it to every believer. If you belong to Christ, you can stand on it today.
1:6 Be strong and be bold God says it three times in this chapter (1:6, 7, 9), and the people say it back to Joshua a fourth time (1:18). Joshua was stepping into the shoes of the greatest prophet Israel had known and was about to lead a nation into war. Fear was a real danger.
1:7 to take care to do according to all the law The courage God wanted most was not courage on the battlefield but courage to obey. It takes more courage to do exactly what God says, without turning "to the right or left," than to swing a sword. Many leaders have won battles and lost their way.
1:8 you shall meditate on it by day and night The book of the law is the written Law Moses had just finished (Deut 31:9, 24-26). To meditate in the Bible does not mean to empty your mind. The Hebrew word has the idea of muttering under your breath: reading God's Word, saying it to yourself and turning it over until it shapes the way you think (Ps 1:2).
1:8 then you will make your ways successful, and then you will prosper This is not a promise of money. It is a promise that a life built on obeying God's Word will reach the goal God has for it. Joshua was a general, but God did not give him a battle plan first. He gave him a Bible. That is still the order for us.
1:9 Have I not commanded you? Courage is a command. Fear is natural, but God does not leave us to be ruled by it, and the reason is the same as in verse 5: He is with us. Jesus left His disciples the same promise: "I am with you all the days, until the consummation of the age" (Matt 28:20).
1:11 within three days you are about to pass over this Jordan The officers kept order among the tribes and passed along instructions (Deut 1:15). The Jordan was at flood stage (3:15), with no bridge and no boat, yet Joshua set the date. Faith acts on God's word before the way is open. The land was God's gift and Israel's task at the same time.
1:13 Remember the word which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you Reuben, Gad and half of Manasseh had asked for the grazing land east of the Jordan, taken from Sihon and Og. Moses agreed on one condition: their fighting men must cross and fight with the other tribes until the land was taken (Num 32).
1:15 until the LORD gives rest to your brothers as He has to you Rest is a key word in Joshua: peace in the land, freedom from enemies, a settled home under God's care. These tribes already had their rest, but they could not enjoy it while their brothers were still fighting. When God has given us rest, we owe it to our brothers and sisters to help them in their battles.

which the LORD your God is about to give to them. And you shall return to the land of your possession and take possession of it, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave to you beyond the Jordan, toward the rising of the sun." 16 And they answered Joshua, saying, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and to every place where you send us we will go. 17 According to all that we listened to Moses, so we will listen to you. Only may the LORD your God be with you, just as He was with Moses. 18 Every man who rebels against your mouth and does not obey your words in all that you command him shall be put to death. Only be strong and be bold."

Rahab Hides the Spies

1 And Joshua (Yehoshua) the son of Nun sent from Shittim (Shitim) two men as spies secretly, saying, "Go, see the land, and Jericho (Yericho)." And they went, and they came to the house of a woman, a prostitute, and her name was Rahab (Rachav), and they lay down there. 2 And it was told to the king of Jericho, saying, "Look, men have come here tonight from the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) to spy out the land." 3 And the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the men who came to you, who came into your house, for they have come to spy out all the land." 4 And the woman took the two men and hid them. And she said, "Yes, the men came to me, and I did not know where they were from. 5 And the gate was about to shut at dark, and the men went out. I do not know where the men went. Pursue after them quickly, for you will overtake them." 6 And she had brought them up to the roof and had hidden them among the stalks of flax that were arranged by her on the roof. 7 And the men pursued after them on the road to the Jordan (Yarden), to the fords. And they shut the gate after the pursuers had gone out after them.

Rahab's Confession of Faith

8 And they had not yet lain down, and she went up to them on the roof. 9 And she said to the men, "I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that the dread of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land have melted away before you. 10 For we have heard how the LORD dried up the waters of the Red Sea before you when you came out from Egypt (Mitsrayim), and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon (Sichon) and to Og, whom you devoted to destruction. 11 And we heard, and our heart melted, and there did not rise up any more spirit in any man because of you; for the LORD your God, He is God in the heavens above and on the earth beneath. 12 And now, please swear to me by the LORD, since I have done steadfast love with you, that you also will do steadfast love with the house of my father, and give me a sign of faithfulness, 13 and keep alive my father and my mother and my brothers and my sisters and all who belong to them, and deliver our souls from death." 14 And the men said to her, "Our soul is in place of yours to die, if you do not tell this business of ours. And it shall be, when the LORD

1:17 Only may the LORD your God be with you, just as He was with Moses A generous promise, and a little awkward, since Israel had not always listened to Moses well. But the prayer is wise. They knew Joshua was only as good as God's presence with him. A wise follower prays for his leaders.
1:18 shall be put to death. Only be strong and be bold Israel was a nation at war under God's direct rule. Rebellion against the leader God appointed was rebellion against God, and in wartime it could destroy the whole army. Then the people said back to Joshua the very words God had said to him. God's encouragement often comes twice, once from His Word and once through His people.
2:1 sent from Shittim two men as spies secretly Shittim was Israel's camp on the plains of Moab, a few miles east of the Jordan. Forty years earlier Joshua had been one of twelve spies, and the report of the ten turned the nation back in fear (Num 13-14). This time he sent only two, and he kept it quiet. Jericho was the first city in Israel's path, a walled town guarding the way up into the hill country.
2:1 a woman, a prostitute, and her name was Rahab Some have tried to soften this and call her an innkeeper, but the Hebrew is the normal word for a prostitute, and the New Testament says the same (Heb 11:31; James 2:25). Strangers came and went at such a house without much notice. Scripture does not hide what Rahab was, which makes what God did with her all the more wonderful.
2:2 the king of Jericho Canaan was made up of many small city-kingdoms, each with its own king. When his order came, Rahab had to choose. Turning the men in would keep her safe with her own people. Hiding them could cost her life.
2:5 I do not know where the men went Scripture records Rahab's lie but never praises it. Hebrews 11:31 praises her faith, and James 2:25 praises her for receiving the messengers and sending them out another way. She was a new believer from a pagan city who did not yet know God's ways well. Teachers have long disagreed whether lying is ever right to save a life. God did not need her lie, and we should not build a rule on it. What He praised was her trust and her courage to side with His people.
2:6 the stalks of flax Flax was used to make linen, and its stalks were spread on flat roofs to dry in the sun. The king's men believed her and went off toward the fords, the shallow crossing places of the Jordan.
2:9 I know that the LORD has given you the land She did not hope or guess. She knew. The ten spies had said Israel looked like grasshoppers to the Canaanites (Num 13:33). In truth the Canaanites had been afraid of Israel the whole time.
2:10 we have heard how the LORD dried up the waters of the Red Sea News forty years old still traveled, along with the recent defeat of Sihon and Og east of the Jordan (Num 21:21-35). The whole city heard what Rahab heard, and all of them melted with fear. Only Rahab turned to the God who had done these things.
2:11 He is God in the heavens above and on the earth beneath This is almost word for word what Moses told Israel (Deut 4:39). A Canaanite woman raised among the worshipers of Baal, the storm god of Canaan, came to the same faith as Moses. That is the difference between fear and faith. Hearing the truth about God is not enough. We must turn to Him.
2:12 please swear to me by the LORD, since I have done steadfast love with you She used God's covenant name. "Steadfast love" is hesed, loyal love that keeps its promises. Rahab did not think only of herself. She wanted her whole family saved. When we come to know the LORD, we want the people we love to know Him too.
2:14 Our soul is in place of yours to die The spies put their own lives on the line for hers, promising "steadfast love and faithfulness" when the LORD gave them the land.

gives us the land, that we will do steadfast love and faithfulness with you."

The Scarlet Cord

15 And she let them down by the rope through the window, for her house was in the wall of the city wall, and she was dwelling in the city wall. 16 And she said to them, "Go to the hill country, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days until the pursuers return, and afterward you may go on your way." 17 And the men said to her, "We will be free from this oath of yours which you have made us swear. 18 Look, we are about to come into the land. You shall bind this cord of scarlet thread in the window through which you let us down, and you shall gather to yourself into the house your father and your mother and your brothers and all the house of your father. 19 And it shall be that anyone who goes out from the doors of your house to the outside, his blood will be on his head, and we will be free; and anyone who is with you in the house, his blood will be on our head if a hand is on him. 20 And if you tell this business of ours, then we will be free from your oath which you have made us swear." 21 And she said, "According to your words, so let it be." And she sent them away, and they went. And she bound the scarlet cord in the window. 22 And they went and came to the hill country, and they remained there three days until the pursuers returned. And the pursuers searched all along the way and did not find them. 23 And the two men returned and came down from the hill country, and they passed over and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and they recounted to him all that had happened to them. 24 And they said to Joshua, "Surely the LORD has given all the land into our hand; and also all the inhabitants of the land have melted away before us."

The Ark Goes Before Israel

1 And Joshua (Yehoshua) rose early in the morning, and they set out from Shittim (Shitim) and came to the Jordan (Yarden), he and all the sons of Israel (Yisra'el); and they stayed there before they passed over. 2 And it was at the end of three days, and the officers passed through the midst of the camp. 3 And they commanded the people, saying, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests, the Levites, carrying it, then you shall set out from your place and go after it. 4 Only there shall be a distance between you and it, approximately 3,000 feet (2,000 cubits) by measure. Do not draw near to it, so that you may know the way by which you shall go, for you have not passed this way before." 5 And Joshua said to the people,
"Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders in your midst." 6 And Joshua said to the priests, saying, "Lift up the ark of the covenant and pass over before the people." And they lifted up the ark of the covenant and went before the people. 7 And the LORD said to Joshua, "This day I will begin to make you great in the eyes of all Israel, so that they may know that just as I was with Moses (Moshe), I will be with you. 8 And you shall command the priests who carry the ark of the covenant, saying, 'When you come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.'" 9 And Joshua said to the sons of Israel, "Draw near

2:15 her house was in the wall of the city wall Some ancient cities had houses built into or between their double walls, so Rahab could let the men down outside the city. She sent them west to the hill country, full of caves and ravines, not east toward the Jordan where the soldiers were searching.
2:18 this cord of scarlet thread in the window The cord marked the house for rescue, and only those inside it were safe. Many Christians have seen a picture of the Passover blood on the doorposts (Exod 12:13). The New Testament does not draw this picture itself, so I hold it lightly. But the lesson is true either way. Our safety from judgment is found in one place, in Christ, whose blood was shed for us (1 Pet 1:18-19).
2:21 she bound the scarlet cord in the window She did not wait for the army to show up. She acted on the promise at once.
2:24 Surely the LORD has given all the land into our hand This report was the opposite of the one at Kadesh forty years before, and it used Rahab's own words. Joshua sent spies to scout a target, and God used the trip to save a Canaanite family and give Israel courage. God was at work in Jericho before the army ever got there.
2:24 all the inhabitants of the land have melted away before us Rahab's story does not end here. She was saved when Jericho fell (6:22-25), married Salmon of Judah, and became the mother of Boaz, the great-grandfather of David. From David's line came Jesus Christ (Matt 1:5-6, 16). There is no one too far gone for God's grace to reach.
3:1 Joshua rose early in the morning The first of several times Joshua rises early (6:12; 7:16; 8:10). He did not put off what God told him to do. For three days Israel camped on the bank looking at a river in flood. Sometimes God lets us look hard at the problem before He shows His answer, so that when He acts there is no doubt Who did it.
3:3 the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God The ark was a wooden chest covered with gold, about 45 inches long and 27 inches wide and high (Exod 25:10-22). It held the stone tablets of the Ten Commandments, and its lid, the mercy seat, was where God said He would meet His people. It stood for His presence and rule among them. In the wilderness the cloud had led Israel. Now the ark would lead.
3:4 for you have not passed this way before The distance, about half a mile, showed reverence for God's holiness, but the verse gives the main reason: with the ark far out in front, everyone in that huge crowd could see where to go. That is true of every new step in life: a new job, a marriage, a loss, old age. We have never been this way, but God has. Our part is to keep our eyes on Him and follow.
3:5 Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do wonders in your midst To consecrate is to set yourself apart as holy for God. At Sinai it meant washing clothes and keeping away from anything unclean (Exod 19:10-15). First get ready, then God acts. The miracle was God's part. Israel's part was to be ready and obedient.
3:6 pass over before the people The priests went first. Leaders in God's work are often called to step into the deep water before anyone else does.
3:7 This day I will begin to make you great in the eyes of all Israel The people had followed Moses through the Red Sea. Now they would see the same God do the same kind of miracle through Joshua, keeping the promise of 1:5. Joshua did not have to make himself great. Authority God gives does not need to be grabbed.

here, and hear the words of the LORD your God." 10 And Joshua said, "By this you shall know that the living God is in your midst, and that He will surely dispossess from before you the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Hivites and the Perizzites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Jebusites. 11 Look, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is about to pass over before you into the Jordan. 12 And now, take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe. 13 And it shall be, when the soles of the feet of the priests who carry the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan shall be cut off, the waters that are coming down from above, and they shall stand in one heap."

Israel Crosses the Jordan

14 And it was, when the people set out from their tents to pass over the Jordan, with the priests who carried the ark of the covenant before the people, 15 and as those who carried the ark came to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who carried the ark were dipped in the edge of the waters (and the Jordan is full over all its banks all the days of harvest), 16 and the waters which were coming down from above stood still; they rose up in one heap very far away from Adam, the city which is beside Zarethan (Tsartan); and those which were going down toward the sea of the Arabah (Arava), the Salt Sea, were completely cut off. And the people passed over opposite Jericho (Yericho). 17 And the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, and all Israel was passing over on dry ground, until all the nation had finished passing over the Jordan.

Twelve Stones from the River

1 And it was, when all the nation had finished passing over the Jordan (Yarden), and the LORD said to Joshua (Yehoshua), saying, 2 "Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe, 3 and command them, saying, 'Take up for yourselves from here, from the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the feet of the priests stood firm, twelve stones, and carry them over with you, and set them down in the lodging place where you will stay tonight.'" 4 And Joshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from the sons of Israel (Yisra'el), one man from each tribe. 5 And Joshua said to them, "Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan, and take up for yourselves each man one stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel, 6 so that this may be a sign in your midst. When your sons ask tomorrow, saying, 'What are these stones to you?' 7 then you shall say to them, 'Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it passed over into the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off.' And these stones shall be a memorial to the sons of Israel forever." 8 And the sons of Israel did so, just as Joshua had commanded, and they took up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, just as the LORD had spoken to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Israel; and they carried them over with them to the lodging place and set them down there. 9 And Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who carried the ark of the covenant stood, and they

3:10 the living God is in your midst The gods of Canaan were idols of wood and stone. Israel's God was alive. Stopping the river would be a pledge that He would just as surely drive out the seven nations listed here, the peoples of the lowlands and the hills.
3:11 the Lord of all the earth God was not a tribal god. Canaan was His to give, because the whole earth is His.
3:12 twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe Chapter 4 tells what they were for. Every tribe would have a part in remembering what God did.
3:13 they shall stand in one heap Joshua announced the miracle before it happened, so that no one could call it chance.
3:15 the Jordan is full over all its banks all the days of harvest This was the spring barley harvest, in March or April, when the snow on Mount Hermon melts and the river floods. Near Jericho the Jordan can often be waded, but in flood it is wide, deep and fast. God did not choose the easy season. He chose the hardest one.
3:15 the feet of the priests who carried the ark were dipped in the edge of the waters The water did not stop and then they stepped in. They stepped in, and then it stopped. Faith often works that way. We take the step God commands before we see the way open.
3:16 they rose up in one heap very far away from Adam Adam was a town upstream, likely about eighteen to twenty miles north. From there down to the Salt Sea, the Dead Sea, the riverbed ran dry. In later history land-slides near Adam have dammed the Jordan for hours. Even if God used something like that, the timing is the miracle: the river stopped when the priests' feet touched it and returned when they came out (4:18).
3:17 stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan The ark stood in the place of danger, between the people and the piled-up water, and it stayed until the last person was across. The ground was dry, just as at the Red Sea (Exod 14:22). God does not get some of His people through. He gets all of them through. Jesus said He would lose none of those the Father gave Him (John 6:39).
4:3 from the place where the feet of the priests stood firm, twelve stones These were not stones from the bank. They came from the very spot where God's power held back the river, stones that should have been underwater, and they went to Israel's first camp in the promised land.
4:6 When your sons ask tomorrow, saying, 'What are these stones to you?' God knew that people forget. Within a generation the miracle could become an old story, so He gave them something to see and touch. He expected the children to ask and the parents to answer. Faith in Israel was passed down at home (Deut 6:6-7, 20-25). Do the young people around you know your stories of God's faithfulness?
4:7 these stones shall be a memorial to the sons of Israel forever A memorial is something that makes us remember.
4:9 Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan The plain reading is that there were two sets of stones, one in the camp and one in the riverbed, which the water would cover once it returned. Some read the verse as Joshua setting up the same twelve. "To this day" tells us the writer wrote while the stones were still there.

have been there to this day. 10 And the priests who carried the ark were standing in the middle of the Jordan until every thing was finished which the LORD had commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses (Moshe) had commanded Joshua. And the people hurried and passed over. 11 And it was, when all the people had finished passing over, and the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, before the people. 12 And the sons of Reuben (Reuven) and the sons of Gad and the half of the tribe of Manasseh (Menashe) passed over arrayed for battle before the sons of Israel, just as Moses had spoken to them. 13 About forty thousand armed men of war passed over before the LORD for battle to the plains of Jericho (Yericho). 14 On that day the LORD made Joshua great in the eyes of all Israel, and they feared him just as they had feared Moses all the days of his life.

The Waters Return

15 And the LORD said to Joshua, saying, 16 "Command the priests who carry the ark of the testimony, that they come up from the Jordan." 17 And Joshua commanded the priests, saying, "Come up from the Jordan." 18 And it was, as the priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD came up from the middle of the Jordan, that the soles of the feet of the priests were drawn out to the dry ground, and the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and went as before over all its banks. 19 And the people came up from the Jordan on the tenth of the first month, and they encamped at Gilgal on the edge of the east of Jericho. 20 And these twelve stones which they had taken from the Jordan Joshua set up at Gilgal. 21 And he said to the sons of Israel, saying, "When your sons ask their fathers tomorrow, saying, 'What are these stones?' 22 then you shall make known to your sons, saying, 'Israel passed over this Jordan on dry ground.' 23 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had passed over, just as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had passed over, 24 so that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty, so that you may fear the LORD your God all the days."

Circumcision at Gilgal

1 And it was, when all the kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan (Yarden) westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites who were by the sea, heard how the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) until they had passed over, and their heart melted, and there was no spirit in them any longer because of the sons of Israel. 2 At that time the LORD said to Joshua (Yehoshua), "Make for yourself knives of flint, and again circumcise the sons of Israel a second time." 3 And Joshua made for himself knives of flint, and he circumcised the sons of Israel at the hill of the foreskins. 4 And this is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: all the people who came out from Egypt (Mitsrayim), the males, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness on the way, when they came out from Egypt.

4:10 the priests who carried the ark were standing in the middle of the Jordan until every thing was finished Think how long that took and how heavy the ark was. They did not move until God said so. The ark that went into the river first came out last (4:11). God's presence went ahead into the danger and stayed until every person was safe.
4:12 passed over arrayed for battle before the sons of Israel, just as Moses had spoken to them The eastern tribes kept their promise to Moses (Num 32:20-22) and to Joshua (1:16-18). They already had their land. They crossed anyway.
4:13 About forty thousand armed men of war passed over before the LORD "Before the LORD" reminds us this was the LORD's army, under His command. Numbers 26 gives these tribes more fighting men, so it seems some stayed behind to guard their families and towns east of the river.
4:14 they feared him just as they had feared Moses God did what He said in 3:7. To fear a leader here means to respect him deeply and take his word seriously. Joshua did not earn this with a speech. God gave it to him by working a miracle through him.
4:16 the ark of the testimony It held the tablets of the law, God's testimony or witness to His covenant (Exod 25:16).
4:18 the waters of the Jordan returned to their place The river stopped when the priests' feet touched the water and started again when their feet left the riverbed. God marked the beginning and end of the miracle so clearly that no one could explain it away.
4:19 on the tenth of the first month The first month was Abib, later called Nisan, in March or April. Forty years earlier, on the tenth day, Israel had chosen their Passover lambs in Egypt (Exod 12:3). In four days they would keep the first Passover in the land (5:10). Gilgal became Israel's base camp during the conquest.
4:23 just as the LORD your God did to the Red Sea Most of the people there had been children or not yet born at the Red Sea. Now they had their own Red Sea. God did for the children what He did for the parents. Every generation needs to see God work in its own day.
4:24 so that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of the LORD The crossing was a message to the nations, and the kings of Canaan heard it (5:1). It was also meant to lead God's own people to fear Him "all the days," to reverence and trust for the rest of their lives.
5:1 their heart melted, and there was no spirit in them any longer The Amorites lived mainly in the hills and the Canaanites along the coast and lowlands, so together they stand for all the peoples of the land. This is just what Rahab told the spies (2:9-11). God had promised to send His terror ahead of Israel (Exod 23:27). The enemies were beaten in their hearts before a sword was lifted.
5:2 Make for yourself knives of flint, and again circumcise the sons of Israel a second time Circumcision was the sign of God's covenant with Abraham (Gen 17:9-14). A covenant is a solemn, binding agreement. "A second time" does not mean these men were circumcised twice. The nation as a whole was being brought back under the sign the first generation had carried. Flint knives may have been kept because the custom was old and sacred.
5:3 he circumcised the sons of Israel This left the whole army sore and unable to fight for days, right next to an enemy city (compare Gen 34:25). From a military view it was foolish. From God's view it was the most important thing they could do. They had to belong to Him before they could fight for Him.

5 For all the people who came out had been circumcised, and all the people who were born in the wilderness on the way, when they came out from Egypt, they had not circumcised. 6 For the sons of Israel had walked forty years in the wilderness until all the nation, the men of war who came out from Egypt, were finished, who had not listened to the voice of the LORD, to whom the LORD had sworn not to let them see the land which the LORD had sworn to their fathers to give to us, a land flowing with milk and honey. 7 And their sons, whom He raised up in their place, them Joshua circumcised; for they were uncircumcised, for they had not circumcised them on the way. 8 And it was, when all the nation had finished being circumcised, and they remained in their place in the camp until they revived. 9 And the LORD said to Joshua, "This day I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from on you." And he called the name of that place Gilgal to this day.

Passover in the Land

10 And the sons of Israel encamped at Gilgal, and they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening on the plains of Jericho (Yericho). 11 And they ate from the produce of the land on the day after the Passover, unleavened bread and roasted grain, on this very day. 12 And the manna ceased on the day after, when they ate from the produce of the land; and there was no longer manna for the sons of Israel, and they ate from the produce of the land of Canaan (Kena'an) in that year.

The Commander of the LORD's Army

13 And it was, when Joshua was at Jericho, and he lifted up his eyes and saw, and look, a man was standing in front of him, and his sword was drawn in his hand. And Joshua went to him and said to him, "Are you for us or for our adversaries?" 14 And he said, "No, for I am the commander of the army of the LORD. Now I have come." And Joshua fell on his face to the ground and bowed down, and he said to him, "What is my lord saying to his servant?" 15 And the commander of the army of the LORD said to Joshua, "Take off your sandal from on your foot, for the place on which you are standing, it is holy." And Joshua did so.

The March Around Jericho

1 And Jericho (Yericho) was shutting itself and was shut up because of the sons of Israel (Yisra'el); no one was going out, and no one was coming in. 2 And the LORD said to Joshua (Yehoshua), "See, I have given into your hand Jericho and its king, the mighty men of valor. 3 And you shall go around the city, all the men of war, circling the city one time. Thus you shall do six days. 4 And seven priests shall carry seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark. And on the seventh day you shall go around the city seven times, and the priests

5:5 all the people who were born in the wilderness on the way, when they came out from Egypt, they had not circumcised Scripture does not say exactly why. It may have been the hardship of the journey, or part of God's judgment on the generation that refused to enter the land.
5:7 their sons, whom He raised up in their place, them Joshua circumcised The first generation "had not listened to the voice of the LORD," so they died in the wilderness (Num 14:22-35). God did not give up on Israel. He raised up their children and brought them in. One generation's unbelief did not cancel God's promise. The circumcision God wants most is of the heart (Deut 30:6; Rom 2:28-29), and believers have it in Christ (Col 2:11). Before God uses us, He deals with the heart.
5:8 until they revived That is, until they healed. For those days they were helpless, and God protected them.
5:9 This day I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from on you A reproach is a shame or disgrace. It may have been the shame of slavery, or the mocking of the Egyptians, who said God brought Israel out only to kill them in the wilderness (Exod 32:12). Either way it was gone. Gilgal sounds like the Hebrew galal, to roll. Every time they named their camp, they remembered that God had rolled away their shame.
5:10 they kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month The Passover remembered the night God spared Israel's firstborn because of the lamb's blood on their doorposts (Exod 12). Only the circumcised could eat it (Exod 12:48), so the circumcision came first. As far as Scripture records, this was only the third Passover: in Egypt, at Sinai (Num 9:1-5), and now in the land. Christ is our Passover lamb (1 Cor 5:7).
5:12 the manna ceased on the day after For forty years God fed them bread from heaven (Exod 16:35). Now there was grain to plant and harvest. Both came from Him. We sometimes want God to keep providing the old way, but in a new season He provides in a new way. Jesus is the true bread from heaven (John 6:32-35).
5:13 Are you for us or for our adversaries? Joshua was perhaps out alone looking over the walled city he had to take. He did what a good soldier does: he walked straight up to an armed man and asked a fair question.
5:14 No, for I am the commander of the army of the LORD He had not come to join Israel's side. He had come to take command. The real question is never whether God is on our side, but whether we are on His.
5:14 Joshua fell on his face to the ground and bowed down The word for bowing down is the word for worship. Angels refuse worship in Scripture (Rev 19:10; 22:8-9), and this One accepted it. The commander of Israel's army became a servant waiting for orders.
5:15 Take off your sandal from on your foot, for the place on which you are standing, it is holy These are almost the words spoken to Moses at the burning bush (Exod 3:5). Many teachers believe this was the Son of God appearing before His birth in Bethlehem: He accepts worship, makes the ground holy, and the LORD speaks directly in 6:2. Others believe He was a great angel, perhaps Michael (Dan 10:13, 21). Scripture does not name Him. Either way, Joshua was not the commander-in-chief. The battle belongs to the Lord (Rev 19:11-16). Our job is to bow, listen and obey.
6:1 Jericho was shutting itself and was shut up The city was under siege before Israel did anything. Its people had heard about the Red Sea, Sihon and Og, and the Jordan, and they had locked themselves in.
6:2 See, I have given into your hand Jericho This seems to continue the meeting with the commander of the LORD's army (5:13-15). God did not say He would give it. He said He had given it. The victory was settled in heaven, and Israel had only to walk it out.
6:4 seven trumpets of rams' horns A ram's horn, the shofar, was blown to call people together, sound alarms and announce holy days. Seven is the number of completion in Scripture, going back to the days of creation. Seven priests, seven horns, seven days, seven times around: this was God's work, complete and perfect.

shall blow the trumpets. 5 And it shall be, when they make a long blast with the horn of the ram, when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall in its place, and the people shall go up, each man straight before him." 6 And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests and said to them, "Lift up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests carry seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD." 7 And he said to the people, "Pass on, and go around the city, and let the armed man pass on before the ark of the LORD." 8 And it was, when Joshua had spoken to the people, and the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the LORD passed on and blew the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant of the LORD was going after them. 9 And the armed man was walking before the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard was walking after the ark, walking and blowing the trumpets. 10 And Joshua commanded the people, saying, "You shall not shout, and you shall not let your voice be heard, and a word shall not go out from your mouth, until the day I say to you, 'Shout!' Then you shall shout." 11 And he caused the ark of the LORD to go around the city, circling it one time. And they came into the camp and stayed in the camp. 12 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests lifted up the ark of the LORD. 13 And the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets of rams' horns before the ark of the LORD were walking, walking on, and they blew the trumpets; and the armed man was walking before them, and the rear guard was walking after the ark of the LORD, walking and blowing the trumpets. 14 And they went around the city on the second day one time, and they returned to the camp. Thus they did six days.

The Walls Fall

15 And it was on the seventh day, and they rose early at the coming up of the dawn and went around the city according to this manner seven times. Only on that day they went around the city seven times. 16 And it was at the seventh time, the priests blew the trumpets, and Joshua said to the people, "Shout, for the LORD has given you the city! 17 And the city shall be a devoted thing, it and all that is in it, to the LORD. Only Rahab (Rachav) the prostitute shall live, she and all who are with her in the house, for she hid the messengers whom we sent. 18 And only you, keep yourselves from the devoted thing, lest you devote it to destruction and take from the devoted thing, and make the camp of Israel a devoted thing and trouble it. 19 And all the silver and gold and articles of bronze and iron, it is holy to the LORD; it shall go into the treasury of the LORD." 20 And the people shouted, and they blew the trumpets. And it was, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell in its place; and the people went up into the city, each man straight before him, and they captured the city. 21 And they devoted to destruction all that was in the city, from man and to woman,

6:5 the wall of the city shall fall in its place No siege ramps, no battering rams, no ladders. Just obedience, a shout and God's power. God did it this way so no one could say Israel took Jericho by its own strength. He still chooses what the world thinks foolish and weak, so that no one can boast before Him (1 Cor 1:27-29).
6:8 the ark of the covenant of the LORD was going after them The ark was at the center of the march. This was not mainly a parade of soldiers but a procession of God's presence around the city.
6:10 You shall not shout, and you shall not let your voice be heard Scripture does not say why, but a silent army does not boast and does not complain. Forty years earlier Israel's complaining had kept them out of the land. This time they kept their mouths shut and let God speak.
6:14 Thus they did six days Day after day they walked around the city and nothing happened, with the people on the wall watching. It would have been easy to quit or grumble. Faith sometimes looks like doing the same faithful thing day after day when you cannot see any result yet. Hebrews 11:30 says the walls fell after they had been circled seven days. The faith was in the walking, not only in the shout.
6:16 Shout, for the LORD has given you the city! The shout was not a war cry to scare the enemy. It was a shout of faith in a victory God had already won.
6:17 the city shall be a devoted thing, it and all that is in it, to the LORD The Hebrew word is herem: something set apart wholly to the LORD so that no person may keep or use it (Lev 27:28-29). Most devoted things were destroyed. Some, like metal, went into God's treasury. Jericho was the firstfruits of the land, and like the first part of the harvest it belonged entirely to God.
6:17 Only Rahab the prostitute shall live In the middle of the order of judgment comes a word of mercy. God's judgment was never blind. The one who turned to Him in faith was spared.
6:18 make the camp of Israel a devoted thing and trouble it Anyone who took what belonged to God would bring the same judgment on himself and on Israel. Chapter 7 shows this was not an empty warning.
6:20 the wall fell in its place The Hebrew means it fell down flat, so each soldier walked straight in from where he stood. Archaeologists have long argued over the ruins at Jericho and their dates. Some find walls that collapsed and a city burned at about the right time. Others date it earlier. My faith rests not on a dig but on God's Word: "By faith the walls of Jericho fell" (Heb 11:30).
6:21 they devoted to destruction all that was in the city This is one of the hardest verses in the Bible, and it should trouble us. This was God's judgment after long patience. He waited centuries because "the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet complete" (Gen 15:16), and Canaan's sin had grown to idolatry, sexual sin and burning children to their gods (Lev 18:21-25; Deut 12:31). Israel got the land not for being good but because of the nations' wickedness (Deut 9:5). The Judge of all the earth does right (Gen 18:25).
6:21 from man and to woman, from young man and to old man God takes no pleasure in the death of the wicked (Ezek 33:11), and the door was open: Rahab turned and was saved, and the Gibeonites were spared (Jos 9). It was not about race. An Israelite, Achan, fell under the same ban, and Israel was later exiled for the same sins (Lev 18:28). It was a one-time command for those nations in that land (Deut 20:10-18), never a pattern for anyone after. Jesus told Peter to put away his sword (Matt 26:52), and we are told to love our enemies (Matt 5:44).
6:21 to ox and sheep and donkey, by the mouth of the sword What about the children? Scripture does not give all God's reasons. He is just and good and judges with perfect knowledge. I believe little children who die are safe with God (2 Sam 12:23). Jericho is a picture of the final judgment (Acts 17:30-31). Every one of us deserves it, and like Rahab we are saved only by turning to the LORD and sheltering in the house He provides.

from young man and to old man, and to ox and sheep and donkey, by the mouth of the sword.

Rahab Is Spared

22 And to the two men who had spied out the land Joshua said, "Go into the house of the woman, the prostitute, and bring out from there the woman and all who belong to her, just as you swore to her." 23 And the young men who had spied went in and brought out Rahab and her father and her mother and her brothers and all who belonged to her; and all her families they brought out, and they set them outside the camp of Israel. 24 And they burned the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only the silver and the gold and the articles of bronze and of iron they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD. 25 And Rahab the prostitute and the house of her father and all who belonged to her Joshua kept alive; and she has dwelt in the midst of Israel to this day, for she hid the messengers whom Joshua had sent to spy out Jericho. 26 And Joshua made them swear at that time, saying, "Cursed is the man before the LORD who rises up and rebuilds this city, Jericho; with his firstborn he shall lay its foundation, and with his youngest he shall set up its gates." 27 And the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame was in all the land.

Defeat at Ai

1 And the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) acted unfaithfully with unfaithfulness in the devoted thing; and Achan (Akhan) the son of Carmi (Karmi), the son of Zabdi (Zavdi), the son of Zerah (Zerach), of the tribe of Judah (Yehuda), took from the devoted thing, and the anger of the LORD burned against the sons of Israel. 2 And Joshua (Yehoshua) sent men from Jericho (Yericho) to Ai (Ay), which is beside Beth-aven (Bet-Aven), on the east of Bethel (Bet-El), and he said to them, saying, "Go up and spy out the land." And the men went up and spied out Ai. 3 And they returned to Joshua and said to him, "Do not let all the people go up; let about two thousand men or about three thousand men go up and strike Ai. Do not make all the people toil there, for they are few." 4 And about three thousand men from the people went up there, and they fled before the men of Ai. 5 And the men of Ai struck down of them about thirty-six men, and they pursued them before the gate as far as Shebarim (Shevarim), and they struck them down on the descent. And the heart of the people melted and became water. 6 And Joshua tore his clothes and fell on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD until the evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their head. 7 And Joshua said, "Alas, Lord GOD, why have You brought this people over the Jordan (Yarden) at all, to give us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? And if only we had been willing and had remained beyond the Jordan! 8 Please, Lord, what shall I say, after Israel has turned its back before its enemies? 9 And the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear, and they will surround us and cut off our name from the earth. 6:23 brought out Rahab and her father and her mother and her brothers and all who belonged to her Rahab's house was in the wall (2:15), yet it still stood with the scarlet cord in the window. Scripture does not say how. Not one person in that house was lost. They stayed outside the camp at first, since they were not yet part of the covenant people and would need to be made clean (compare Num 31:19).
6:25 she has dwelt in the midst of Israel to this day Rahab was still alive when this was written. Hebrews says she "did not perish with those who disobeyed" (Heb 11:31). The people of Jericho had the same chance she had. James 2:25 adds that her faith was proved by what she did. Real faith acts. God's judgment is real, but so is His mercy, and it reaches anyone who turns to Him.
6:26 with his firstborn he shall lay its foundation, and with his youngest he shall set up its gates The curse was on rebuilding Jericho as a fortified city. People did live near the site in between (18:21; 2 Sam 10:5). About five hundred years later, in Ahab's day, Hiel of Bethel rebuilt it and lost his firstborn and his youngest, as the LORD had spoken by Joshua (1 Kgs 16:34). God's Word does not expire.
6:27 the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame was in all the land This is what God promised in 1:5 and 3:7. The secret of Joshua's success was not his strategy. It was God's presence.
7:1 the sons of Israel acted unfaithfully with unfaithfulness in the devoted thing One man did it, but God counts it against the whole nation. Israel was one covenant people, and what one member did affected all. The reader knows trouble is coming. Israel does not.
7:1 of the tribe of Judah Judah was the leading tribe, the tribe of the future kings. Sin can come from anywhere, even from the most honored families.
7:2 Ai, which is beside Beth-aven, on the east of Bethel Ai lay up in the hill country some ten to fifteen miles west of Jericho. The name means the ruin or the heap.
7:3 Do not make all the people toil there, for they are few It sounds reasonable, but notice what is missing. No one asked the LORD. At Jericho God gave the plan. At Ai Israel made its own, based on how small the enemy looked. Success had made them confident in themselves.
7:5 the heart of the people melted and became water These are the words used of the Canaanites (2:11; 5:1). Now Israel was the one melting.
7:6 Joshua tore his clothes and fell on his face Torn clothes and dust on the head were signs of deep grief and mourning.
7:7 why have You brought this people over the Jordan at all Joshua's prayer is honest, and part of it sounds like the wilderness complaints (Num 14:2-3). He was a great man of faith, but he was also a man, and this defeat shook him.
7:9 And what will You do for Your great name? His prayer ends in the right place. If Israel were wiped out, the nations would say the God of Israel could not keep His promises. Moses prayed the same way (Exod 32:11-12). When we pray, it is right to care most about God's name and glory.
7:10 Get yourself up! Why is this, that you are falling on your face? There is a time for prayer and a time to get up and deal with sin. The problem was not that God had failed. Israel had sinned.
7:11 they have stolen, and also they have deceived Each "and also" adds weight. This was not a small slip. It was theft from God, covered with a lie.

manded them; and also they have taken from the devoted thing, and also they have stolen, and also they have deceived, and also they have put it among their own things. 12 And the sons of Israel are not able to stand before their enemies; they turn their back before their enemies, for they have become a devoted thing. I will not again be with you unless you destroy the devoted thing from your midst. 13 Arise, consecrate the people, and say, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: "A devoted thing is in your midst, O Israel. You will not be able to stand before your enemies until you remove the devoted thing from your midst." 14 And you shall be brought near in the morning by your tribes. And it shall be that the tribe which the LORD takes shall draw near by clans, and the clan which the LORD takes shall draw near by households, and the household which the LORD takes shall draw near by men. 15 And it shall be that the one who is taken with the devoted thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that belongs to him, because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has done a disgraceful folly in Israel.'"

Achan Is Taken

16 And Joshua rose early in the morning and brought Israel near by its tribes, and the tribe of Judah was taken. 17 And he brought near the clan of Judah, and he took the clan of the Zerahites; and he brought near the clan of the Zerahites by men, and Zabdi was taken. 18 And he brought near his household by men, and Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken. 19 And Joshua said to Achan, "My son, please give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and give praise to Him; and tell me, please, what you have done. Do not hide it from me." 20 And Achan answered Joshua and said, "Truly I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel, and thus and thus I have done. 21 And I saw among the spoil one good cloak of Shinar, and approximately 5 pounds (200 shekels) of silver, and one bar of gold, approximately 20 ounces (50 shekels) was its weight; and I desired them and took them. And look, they are hidden in the ground in the midst of my tent, and the silver is under it." 22 And Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent; and look, it was hidden in his tent, and the silver was under it. 23 And they took them from the midst of the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all the sons of Israel, and they poured them out before the LORD. 24 And Joshua took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver and the cloak and the bar of gold, and his sons and his daughters, and his ox and his donkey and his sheep, and his tent and all that belonged to him, and all Israel with him; and they brought them up to the valley of Achor (Akhor). 25 And Joshua said, "Why have you troubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day." And all Israel stoned him with stones, and they burned them with fire and stoned them with stones. 26 And they raised over him a great heap of stones that stands to this day. And the LORD turned from the burning of His anger. Therefore one called the name of that place the valley of Achor to this day.

7:12 for they have become a devoted thing By taking what was under the ban, Israel brought the ban on itself, as Joshua warned (6:18). The promise of God's presence (1:5) still stood, but God would not fight for a people who hid sin in the camp.
7:14 the tribe which the LORD takes Likely by casting lots, small stones or marked objects God used to give His answer (Prov 16:33). The Urim and Thummim, kept in the high priest's breastpiece (Exod 28:30), may also have been used. Scripture does not say exactly how. The process took a night and a morning. The guilty man could have come forward at any point. He did not.
7:18 Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken Picture all Israel watching as the circle grew smaller. Every step was another chance to confess. He waited until there was nowhere left to hide. "Know your sin, that it will find you" (Num 32:23). Hidden sin is never hidden from God.
7:19 My son, please give glory to the LORD Joshua's words are surprisingly gentle. To give glory to God here means to tell the truth and so admit that God is right in His judgment.
7:21 I desired them and took them Saw, desired, took, hid: the pattern of sin since Eden. Eve saw the fruit, desired it, took it and hid (Gen 3:6-8), and David did the same with Bathsheba (2 Sam 11). Desire leads to sin, and sin to death (James 1:14-15).
7:21 one good cloak of Shinar A costly robe from Babylonia, with silver and a bar of gold, all buried in the tent floor. He could not wear the cloak or spend the silver. He just had to have it. That is how greed works. It wants things it cannot even enjoy.
7:23 they poured them out before the LORD What was hidden in the dark was laid out in the light for all to see (Luke 12:2-3).
7:24 his sons and his daughters This is very hard to read, since the Law says sons are not to die for their fathers (Deut 24:16). Teachers answer in several ways. Many think the family knew, since the goods were buried in the family tent. Others say Achan became devoted with all that was his (6:18; 7:15). Others think the family came as witnesses and "them" in verse 25 means Achan with his goods and animals. We should not claim more than the text gives. God is just, and He knew every heart in that tent.
7:25 Why have you troubled us? The LORD will trouble you this day God dealt just as seriously with Ananias and Sapphira in the early church (Acts 5:1-11). This was a one-time judgment under God's direct command in holy war, not a model for churches or families now. We are to restore the one who falls with gentleness (Gal 6:1). Jesus took on Himself the judgment Achan, and we, deserved (2 Cor 5:21).
7:26 the valley of Achor Achor means trouble, and it sounds like Achan's name. He is called "the troubler of Israel" (1 Chr 2:7). But God later promised to make "the valley of Achor for a door of hope" (Hos 2:15). That is what He does with sin that is confessed and dealt with (1 John 1:9). The place of judgment becomes a place of new beginning.
8:1 Do not fear, and do not be dismayed The same words as 1:9. After the defeat and the judgment in the valley of Achor, Joshua needed to hear them again. God does not hold confessed sin over His people. Once it was dealt with, He came back with encouragement. Last time Israel sent a small force because Ai looked small. This time God said to bring everyone.

king of Ai and his people and his city and his land. 2 And you shall do to Ai and to its king just as you did to Jericho (Yericho) and to its king; only its spoil and its livestock you shall plunder for yourselves. Set for yourself an ambush against the city behind it." 3 And Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up to Ai; and Joshua chose thirty thousand men, mighty men of valor, and sent them out by night. 4 And he commanded them, saying, "See, you are lying in wait against the city behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, and all of you be ready. 5 And I and all the people who are with me will draw near to the city. And it shall be, when they come out to meet us as at the first, that we will flee before them. 6 And they will come out after us until we have drawn them away from the city, for they will say, 'They are fleeing before us as at the first.' And we will flee before them. 7 And you shall rise up from the ambush and take possession of the city, and the LORD your God will give it into your hand. 8 And it shall be, when you have seized the city, that you shall set the city on fire. According to the word of the LORD you shall do. See, I have commanded you." 9 And Joshua sent them out, and they went to the ambush and remained between Bethel (Bet-El) and Ai, on the west of Ai. And Joshua stayed that night among the people. 10 And Joshua rose early in the morning and mustered the people, and he went up, he and the elders of Israel (Yisra'el), before the people to Ai. 11 And all the people of war who were with him went up and drew near and came opposite the city, and they encamped on the north of Ai; and the valley was between him and Ai. 12 And he took about five thousand men and set them as an ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west of the city. 13 And they set the people, all the camp which was on the north of the city, and its rear guard on the west of the city. And Joshua went that night into the middle of the valley. 14 And it was, when the king of Ai saw it, and the men of the city hurried and rose early and went out to meet Israel for battle, he and all his people, at the appointed place before the Arabah (Arava). And he did not know that an ambush was against him behind the city. 15 And Joshua and all Israel let themselves be struck before them, and they fled by the way of the wilderness. 16 And all the people who were in Ai were called together to pursue after them; and they pursued after Joshua and were drawn away from the city. 17 And not a man was left in Ai and Bethel who did not go out after Israel. And they left the city open and pursued after Israel. 18 And the LORD said to Joshua, "Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai, for I will give it into your hand." And Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city. 19 And the ambush rose quickly from its place, and they ran as he stretched out his hand, and they came into the city and captured it; and they hurried and set the city on fire. 20 And the men of Ai turned behind them and saw, and look, the smoke of the city went up to the heavens, and there were no hands in them to flee this way or that way; and the people who were fleeing to the wilderness turned back against the pursuer. 21 And Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had captured the city and that the smoke of the city went up, and they turned back and struck the men of Ai. 22 And these came out from the city to meet them, and they were in the middle of Israel, these on this side and those on that side. And they struck them until he had not left to them a survivor or a fugitive. 23 And the king of Ai they seized alive, and they brought him near to Joshua. 24 And it was, when Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness where they had pursued them, and they had all fallen by the mouth of the sword until they were finished, and all Israel returned to Ai and struck it by the mouth of the sword. 25 And all who fell that day, from man and to woman, were twelve thousand, all the people of Ai. 26 And Joshua did not draw back his hand with which he had stretched out the javelin until he had devoted to destruction all the inhabitants of Ai. 27 Only the livestock

8:2 only its spoil and its livestock you shall plunder for yourselves Achan died for taking what God would have given him a few days later if he had waited. Sin often grabs early what God would have given in His time.
8:6 They are fleeing before us as at the first Israel's earlier defeat became part of God's plan. The men of Ai were confident because they had won once, and God used their pride against them.
8:8 According to the word of the LORD you shall do Joshua made sure everyone knew where the plan came from.
8:12 about five thousand men Verse 3 mentioned thirty thousand. Some think there were two groups, a larger force to cut off help from Bethel, about two miles away, and a smaller ambush close to Ai. Others think verse 12 tells us more exactly about the same ambush. Scripture does not settle it. The main point is clear: the trap was set.
8:14 he did not know that an ambush was against him behind the city The king hurried out with all his men to repeat his first victory.
8:17 they left the city open and pursued after Israel Even the men of Bethel had come out to help. Pride makes people careless. Sure they would win again, the men of Ai left their home unguarded.
8:18 Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward Ai A javelin is a short spear, and it became the signal for the ambush. Joshua had watched Moses hold up his staff while he fought Amalek (Exod 17:8-13). He had learned then that victory comes from God, not from the sword.
8:22 they were in the middle of Israel, these on this side and those on that side With their city burning behind them and nowhere to go, the men of Ai were trapped between the ambush and Joshua's army.
8:25 all who fell that day, from man and to woman, were twelve thousand This was the same ban that fell on Jericho (see the notes at 6:21): God's judgment on the nations of Canaan after more than four centuries of patience (Gen 15:16), commanded once, for those nations in that land, and never a pattern for anyone after. It is still hard to read, and it should be.
8:26 Joshua did not draw back his hand Like Moses with his hands lifted until sundown (Exod 17:12), Joshua held his place until God's command was fully done. Halfway obedience had been Israel's problem at Ai the first time.
8:27 Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel plundered for themselves What Achan stole, God now gave freely to all.

and the spoil of that city Israel plundered for themselves, according to the word of the LORD which He had commanded Joshua. 28 And Joshua burned Ai and made it a mound forever, a desolation, to this day. 29 And the king of Ai he hanged on the tree until the time of evening. And as the sun went down Joshua commanded, and they took down his corpse from the tree and threw it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and they raised over him a great heap of stones that remains to this day.

The Law Read at Mount Ebal

30 Then Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, on the mountain of Ebal (Eval), 31 just as Moses (Moshe) the servant of the LORD had commanded the sons of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of whole stones on which no one had wielded iron; and they offered up on it burnt offerings to the LORD, and they sacrificed peace offerings. 32 And he wrote there on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written before the sons of Israel. 33 And all Israel and its elders and officers and its judges were standing on this side and on that side of the ark, before the priests, the Levites, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, the sojourner as well as the native, half of them in front of the mountain of Gerizim and half of them in front of the mountain of Ebal, just as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded at the first, to bless the people of Israel. 34 And afterward he read aloud all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the book of the law. 35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read aloud before all the assembly of Israel, and the women and the little ones and the sojourners who were going in their midst.

The Gibeonites Deceive Israel

1 And it was, when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan (Yarden), in the hill country and in the Shephelah and in all the coast of the Great Sea in front of the Lebanon (Levanon), the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, heard of it, 2 and they gathered themselves together as one to wage war with Joshua (Yehoshua) and with Israel (Yisra'el) with one mouth. 3 And the inhabitants of Gibeon (Givon) heard what Joshua had done to Jericho (Yericho) and to Ai (Ay), 4 and they also acted with cunning, and they went and made themselves envoys, and they took worn-out sacks for their donkeys, and wineskins worn out and split and tied up, 5 and worn-out and patched sandals on their feet, and worn-out garments on them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and had become crumbs. 6 And they went to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal and said to him and to the men of Israel, "We have come from a distant land; and now make a covenant with us." 7 And the men of Israel said to the Hivites, "Perhaps you are dwelling in our midst; and how shall we make a covenant with you?" 8 And they said to Joshua, "We are your servants." And Joshua said to them, "Who are you, and where do you come from?" 9 And they said to him, "From a very dis-

8:28 made it a mound forever The Hebrew word is tel, still used for an ancient ruin hill built up of layers of old cities. The place called the ruin was left a ruin. Archaeologists debate which site was Joshua's Ai, since the site long linked with it seems empty at that time. The debate does not change what God's Word says happened.
8:29 the king of Ai he hanged on the tree until the time of evening The body was hung up as a public sign of God's judgment and taken down at sunset, as the Law required: "one who is hanged is a curse of God" (Deut 21:23). Paul quotes this law of the cross: Christ became "a curse for us" (Gal 3:13). The king of Ai hung on a tree for his own sin. Jesus hung on a tree for ours.
8:30 Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, on the mountain of Ebal Instead of marching on, Israel went about twenty miles north to Mount Ebal near Shechem, because Moses had commanded it (Deut 27:1-8). Shechem was where God first promised Abraham the land and Abraham built his first altar in Canaan (Gen 12:6-7). Some teachers think this ceremony came later and is placed here by theme.
8:31 an altar of whole stones on which no one had wielded iron God did not want human tools shaping His altar (Exod 20:25). The way to God was by His design, not ours. Burnt offerings were wholly burned to show complete dedication. Peace offerings were shared in a meal to celebrate fellowship with Him.
8:32 he wrote there on the stones a copy of the law of Moses Likely the laws of the covenant, perhaps the core of Deuteronomy, written on large plastered stones for all to read (Deut 27:2-3, 8). God's Word was to be the law of this land.
8:33 half of them in front of the mountain of Gerizim and half of them in front of the mountain of Ebal Moses had commanded this (Deut 11:29; 27:11-13). Six tribes stood on Gerizim for the blessings and six on Ebal for the curses, with the ark in the valley between, where sound carries well. "The sojourner as well as the native" stood together. Foreigners like Rahab's family heard God's Word too.
8:35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua did not read aloud Joshua did not skip the hard parts. Every word went to every person, the children included. A chapter that began with sin and defeat ends with the whole nation hearing God's Word, just as God commanded in 1:8. Many churches today read very little Scripture aloud. We still need all of it, blessings and warnings, and we need to teach it to our children.
9:1 in the hill country and in the Shephelah The Shephelah is the low, rolling foothills between the central mountains and the coastal plain. "Beyond the Jordan" here means west of the river.
9:2 they gathered themselves together as one to wage war Old rivals put aside their quarrels to fight a common enemy. When God's people move forward, opposition often unites. But the next battle would start not with a sword but with a trick.
9:3 the inhabitants of Gibeon Gibeon was a strong city about six miles northwest of Jerusalem, a short march from Ai. They knew they were next.
9:4 they also acted with cunning "Also" may look back to Israel's own trick at Ai. Every detail of their costume said, We have come a long way. Satan often works the same way. He does not always attack openly. He "disguises himself as an angel of light" (2 Cor 11:14). The danger Israel could not see was greater than the danger of armies.
9:7 how shall we make a covenant with you? The men of Israel knew the law. God forbade any covenant with the peoples of the land (Exod 23:32; Deut 7:2) but allowed peace with cities far away (Deut 20:10-15). The whole question was where these men really came from. "Hivites" tells us who the Gibeonites were.

tant land your servants have come, because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have heard the report of Him and all that He did in Egypt (Mitsrayim), 10 and all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon (Sichon) king of Heshbon (Cheshbon), and to Og king of Bashan, who was in Ashtaroth (Ashtarot). 11 And our elders and all the inhabitants of our land said to us, saying, 'Take provisions in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, "We are your servants; and now make a covenant with us."' 12 This our bread we took warm as our provision from our houses on the day we came out to come to you; and now look, it is dry and has become crumbs. 13 And these wineskins which we filled were new, and look, they have split; and these garments of ours and our sandals have worn out from the very great length of the journey." 14 And the men took from their provisions, and they did not ask the mouth of the LORD. 15 And Joshua made peace with them and made a covenant with them to let them live; and the leaders of the congregation swore to them.

The Gibeonites Become Servants

16 And it was at the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, and they heard that they were near to him, and that they were dwelling in his midst. 17 And the sons of Israel set out and came to their cities on the third day; and their cities were Gibeon and Chephirah (Kefira) and Beeroth (Be'erot) and Kiriath-jearim (Qiryat-Ye'arim).
18 And the sons of Israel did not strike them, because the leaders of the congregation had sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. And all the congregation grumbled against the leaders. 19 And all the leaders said to all the congregation, "We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel, and now we are not able to touch them. 20 This we will do to them, and let them live, so that wrath will not be on us because of the oath which we swore to them." 21 And the leaders said to them, "Let them live." And they became cutters of wood and drawers of water for all the congregation, just as the leaders had spoken to them. 22 And Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, "Why did you deceive us, saying, 'We are very distant from you,' when you are dwelling in our midst? 23 And now you are cursed, and a slave shall not be cut off from you, both cutters of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God." 24 And they answered Joshua and said, "Because it was certainly told to your servants that the LORD your God had commanded Moses (Moshe) His servant to give you all the land and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you; and we feared greatly for our souls because of you, and we did this thing. 25 And now, look, we are in your hand. As it is good and as it is right in your eyes to do to us, do." 26 And he did so to them, and he delivered them from the hand of the sons of Israel, and they did not kill them. 27 And Joshua made them on that day cutters of wood and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to this day, in the place which He would choose.

9:10 to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of Bashan Notice what they left out. They said nothing of Jericho or Ai, news too recent for people from a far country to have heard. Their story was a mix of truth and lies. They really had heard of the LORD, and their fear of Him was real, even if their story was false.
9:14 they did not ask the mouth of the LORD This is the key verse of the chapter. They looked at the bread and judged by what they could see, though the high priest with the Urim and Thummim was right there in the camp (Num 27:21). Joshua and the leaders were not wicked men, but careless ones. We pray about the big crises and decide the simple things on our own. Proverbs 3:5-6 says to know Him in all our ways, and God gives wisdom generously to those who ask (James 1:5).
9:17 their cities were Gibeon and Chephirah and Beeroth and Kiriath-jearim All four towns were within a day's walk.
9:18 all the congregation grumbled against the leaders It was not the first time Israel grumbled, but this time they had a point. Their leaders had been fooled.
9:19 We have sworn to them by the LORD, the God of Israel An oath in the LORD's name was binding, even when made by mistake and gained by a lie. To break it would be to take God's name in vain. The godly man "swears to his own harm and does not change" (Ps 15:4). About four hundred years later, when Saul tried to wipe out the Gibeonites, God sent famine on Israel for it (2 Sam 21:1-2). God takes our promises seriously, because He keeps His own.
9:23 cutters of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God Their lie was not excused, and they would serve. But look where. They would chop wood for the altar fires and carry water for the washings at the tabernacle. The people who should have been destroyed were brought near to the worship of the true God. What was meant as a curse put them close to the place of blessing.
9:24 we feared greatly for our souls because of you, and we did this thing They believed what God had said, as Rahab did (2:9-11). Rahab told Israel the truth and risked her life. The Gibeonites came with a lie. Yet both believed the LORD's word would come true, and both found a way to live among His people.
9:25 As it is good and as it is right in your eyes to do to us, do They gave up completely. That is the right posture for anyone who comes to God. We do not bargain. We surrender and trust His mercy.
9:27 in the place which He would choose The place where the tabernacle and later the temple would stand. Gibeon became a city of the priests (21:17), the tabernacle stood there for a time (1 Kgs 3:4), and the sons of Gibeon came back after the exile (Neh 7:25). Ask the LORD before you decide. And God's mercy is wider than we think. Whoever comes to Him in Christ, He will never cast out (John 6:37).
10:1 Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem This is the first time the Bible names Jerusalem this way. His name means lord of righteousness, close to Melchizedek, king of Salem, who blessed Abraham (Gen 14:18; Heb 7:1-2). But this king was no Melchizedek. He led the fight against God's people.

midst, 2 and they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty men. 3 And Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron (Chevron), and to Piram king of Jarmuth (Yarmut), and to Japhia (Yafia) king of Lachish (Lakhish), and to Debir (Devir) king of Eglon, saying, 4 "Come up to me and help me, and let us strike Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua and with the sons of Israel." 5 And the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered together and went up, they and all their armies, and they encamped against Gibeon and waged war against it. 6 And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal, saying, "Do not let your hands drop from your servants. Come up to us quickly, and save us and help us, for all the kings of the Amorites who dwell in the hill country have gathered together against us." 7 And Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor. 8 And the LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, for I have given them into your hand. Not a man of them will stand before you." 9 And Joshua came to them suddenly; all the night he had gone up from Gilgal. 10 And the LORD threw them into confusion before Israel, and He struck them with a great striking at Gibeon, and He pursued them by the way of the ascent of Beth-horon (Bet-Choron), and He struck them as far as Azekah (Azeqa) and as far as Makkedah (Maqeda). 11 And it was, as they fled before Israel, they were on the descent of Beth-horon, and the LORD threw down on them great stones from the heavens as far as Azekah, and they died. More were those who died by the hailstones than those whom the sons of Israel killed with the sword. 12 Then Joshua spoke to the LORD on the day the LORD gave the Amorites before the sons of Israel, and he said in the eyes of Israel, "Sun, be still at Gibeon, and moon, in the valley of Aijalon (Ayalon)." 13 And the sun was still, and the moon stood, until the nation took vengeance on its enemies. Is it not written in the book of Jashar? And the sun stood in the middle of the heavens and did not hurry to go down about a whole day. 14 And there has been no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD listened to the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel. 15 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

Five Kings in the Cave

16 And these five kings fled and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah. 17 And it was told to Joshua, saying, "The five kings have been found hidden in the cave at Makkedah." 18 And Joshua said, "Roll great stones to the mouth of the cave, and appoint men over it to guard them. 19 And you, do not stay there; pursue after your enemies and attack their rear. Do not allow them to go into their cities, for the LORD your God has given them into your hand." 20 And it was, when Joshua and the sons of Israel had finished striking them with a very great striking until they were finished, and the survivors who survived of them went into the fortified

10:2 Gibeon was a great city, like one of the royal cities Gibeon was only about six miles from Jerusalem. If it joined Israel, Jerusalem lay open.
10:4 let us strike Gibeon, for it has made peace with Joshua They attacked not Israel but the city that changed sides, to make an example of it. When someone turns to the LORD, the old crowd is not always happy about it.
10:6 Do not let your hands drop from your servants Joshua had every human reason to say no, since the Gibeonites had lied to him. But a covenant is a covenant. Once they were under it, Israel fought for them as its own. We come to God with nothing to offer and often with mixed motives, but once we are His in Christ, He does not let His hands drop from us.
10:9 all the night he had gone up from Gilgal A march of about twenty miles, climbing some three thousand feet in the dark, to strike at dawn. God's promise in verse 8 did not make Joshua lazy. It made him bold.
10:10 the LORD threw them into confusion before Israel The same word is used for what God did to Egypt at the Red Sea (Exod 14:24). The ascent of Beth-horon was a steep pass leading west out of the hills toward the low-lands.
10:11 the LORD threw down on them great stones from the heavens Giant hail-stones fell on the fleeing enemy, not on Israel, and killed more than the sword did. The battle belonged to the LORD, and He made sure Israel knew it. God speaks of storing hail "for a day of battle and war" (Job 38:23).
10:12 Sun, be still at Gibeon, and moon, in the valley of Aijalon Joshua prayed first, then spoke to the sun and moon before all Israel. The sun over Gibeon to the east and the moon over Aijalon to the west may suggest early morning. He had a long day of battle ahead and an enemy that could escape into walled cities by nightfall.
10:13 Is it not written in the book of Jashar? A book of Israel's songs and poems about its heroes that has not survived. David's lament for Saul and Jonathan was also recorded there (2 Sam 1:18).
10:13 did not hurry to go down about a whole day I take this as a real miracle. The writer says it in plain words in verses 13 and 14. God made the sun and holds all things together (Col 1:17). Some believe He slowed or stopped the earth's turning. Others think He lengthened the light in that place. Some read "be still" as asking the sun to stop beating down, or see a sky omen or poetic language, but those views fit poorly with verses 13 and 14. Scripture tells what God did, not how. The story of scientists finding a missing day is not true, and we do not need it (compare 2 Kgs 20:9-11).
10:14 the LORD listened to the voice of a man The wonder is not only that the sun stood still, but that the Creator of the sun heard Joshua's prayer. This day was unique, so we should not expect God to stop the sun for us. But Elijah was a man like us, and God answered him (James 5:17). We can pray boldly, because the same God listens.
10:15 Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal This repeats verse 43, though verse 21 still has Joshua at Makkedah. Some think it ends the quotation from Jashar. Others think the writer gives the end of the campaign early and then goes back to tell the rest.
10:18 Roll great stones to the mouth of the cave The kings could wait. The armies could not be allowed back into their walled cities. Joshua kept first things first.
10:20 the survivors who survived of them went into the fortified cities Some of the enemy did escape. That matters when we read later that Joshua "did not leave a survivor" in city after city.

cities, 21 and all the people returned to the camp, to Joshua at Makkedah, in peace. No one sharpened his tongue against the sons of Israel, against any man. 22 And Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out to me these five kings from the cave." 23 And they did so, and they brought out to him these five kings from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon. 24 And it was, when they brought out these kings to Joshua, and Joshua called for every man of Israel, and he said to the commanders of the men of war who had gone with him, "Draw near, put your feet on the necks of these kings." And they drew near and put their feet on their necks. 25 And Joshua said to them, "Do not be afraid, and do not be dismayed. Be strong and be bold, for thus the LORD will do to all your enemies with whom you are fighting." 26 And afterward Joshua struck them and put them to death, and he hanged them on five trees; and they were hanging on the trees until the evening. 27 And it was at the time of the going down of the sun, Joshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves, and they put great stones over the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day.

The Southern Cities Taken

28 And Makkedah Joshua captured on that day, and he struck it by the mouth of the sword, and its king. He devoted them to destruction and every soul that was in it; he did not leave a survivor. And he did to the king of Makkedah just as he had done to the king of Jericho. 29 And Joshua passed on, and all Israel with him, from Makkedah to Libnah (Livna), and he fought against Libnah. 30 And the LORD gave it also, and its king, into the hand of Israel; and he struck it by the mouth of the sword, and every soul that was in it. He did not leave a survivor in it, and he did to its king just as he had done to the king of Jericho. 31 And Joshua passed on, and all Israel with him, from Libnah to Lachish, and he encamped against it and fought against it. 32 And the LORD gave Lachish into the hand of Israel, and he captured it on the second day, and he struck it by the mouth of the sword, and every soul that was in it, according to all that he had done to Libnah. 33 Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people until he had not left to him a survivor. 34 And Joshua passed on, and all Israel with him, from Lachish to Eglon; and they encamped against it and fought against it. 35 And they captured it on that day and struck it by the mouth of the sword; and every soul that was in it he devoted to destruction on that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish. 36 And Joshua went up, and all Israel with him, from Eglon to Hebron, and they fought against it. 37 And they captured it and struck it by the mouth of the sword, and its king and all its cities and every soul that was in it. He did not leave a survivor, according to all that he had done to Eglon; and he devoted it to destruction and every soul that was in it. 38 And Joshua turned back, and all Israel with him, to Debir, and he fought against it. 39 And he captured it and its king and all its cities, and they struck them by the mouth of the sword and devoted to destruction every soul that was in it. He did not leave a survivor. Just as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and to its king, and just as he had done to Libnah and to its king. 40 And Joshua struck all the land, the hill country and the Negeb (Negev) and the Shephelah and the slopes, and all their kings. He did not leave a survivor, and he devoted to destruction everything that breathed, just as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded. 41 And Joshua struck them from Kadesh-barnea (Qadesh-Barnea) and as far as Gaza (Aza), and all the land of 10:21 No one sharpened his tongue against the sons of Israel No one dared say a word against them. The land was silent with fear, and no Israelite losses are mentioned.

10:24 put your feet on the necks of these kings In the ancient world this was a public sign of total victory. It was a lesson in faith for the officers, with many battles still ahead. Scripture uses the same picture for Christ: "He must reign until He has put all the enemies under His feet" (1 Cor 15:25; Ps 110:1). In Him our victory is just as sure (Rom 16:20).
10:25 Be strong and be bold The words God spoke to Joshua in chapter 1, Joshua now passes on to his officers.
10:27 threw them into the cave where they had hidden themselves The kings were killed, then hung on trees as a sign of God's judgment, and taken down at sunset as the Law required (Deut 21:22-23). The cave they hid in became their grave. This was judgment for that time and that war under God's command (Deut 7:24). It gives no one today permission to treat enemies this way. We are to love our enemies and leave vengeance to God (Matt 5:44; Rom 12:19).
10:28 Makkedah Joshua captured on that day The rest of the chapter reads like a war report, short and repetitive, city after city. Notice who gives the victory each time: "the LORD gave it" (10:30, 32).
10:33 Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish Lachish was one of the strongest fortresses of the south. Gezer, farther north and west, was not taken at this time, and Canaanites kept living there a long while (16:10).
10:36 from Eglon to Hebron Hebron was where Abraham lived and was buried (Gen 23:19), and where the spies saw the sons of Anak forty years before (Num 13:22). The city that frightened the first generation fell to the second. Its king had died at Makkedah (10:23, 26), so this was probably a new king or the ruler left behind. Scripture does not explain.
10:39 Just as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir Later Caleb had to take Hebron again and Othniel took Debir (15:13-17; Judg 1:10-13). Canaanites who escaped came back into some cities after the army moved on. Joshua broke their power. The tribes still had to settle and hold the land.
10:40 he devoted to destruction everything that breathed The Negeb is the dry south country. This is the ban again (see 6:21), God's judgment on nations He had waited on since Abraham (Gen 15:16), commanded once for that land and never a pattern for anyone today. The chapter itself says some escaped (10:20), and Canaanites remain later (15:63). Many scholars read these phrases as the sweeping language of ancient war reports for the complete defeat of the cities that fought. Others take them strictly for the cities named, with later Canaanites as people who fled and returned.
10:41 all the land of Goshen A region in southern Canaan, not the Goshen in Egypt.

Goshen and as far as Gibeon. 42 And all these kings and their land Joshua captured at one time, for the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel. 43 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

The Northern Kings Defeated

1 And it was, when Jabin (Yavin) king of Hazor (Chatsor) heard, and he sent to Jobab (Yovav) king of Madon and to the king of Shimron and to the king of Akshaph (Akhshaf), 2 and to the kings who were on the north in the hill country, and in the Arabah (Arava) south of Chinneroth (Kinarot), and in the Shephelah, and in the heights of Dor on the west, 3 to the Canaanites on the east and on the west, and the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Jebusites in the hill country, and the Hivites under Mount Hermon (Chermon) in the land of Mizpah (Mitspa). 4 And they went out, they and all their armies with them, a people as numerous as the sand that is on the shore of the sea for multitude, and horses and chariots very many. 5 And all these kings met, and they came and encamped together at the waters of Merom to wage war with Israel (Yisra'el). 6 And the LORD said to Joshua (Yehoshua), "Do not be afraid because of them, for tomorrow about this time I am giving all of them slain before Israel. Their horses you shall hamstring, and their chariots you shall burn with fire." 7 And Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them at the waters of Merom suddenly, and they fell on them. 8 And the LORD gave them into the hand of Israel, and they struck them and pursued them as far as Great Sidon (Tsidon) and as far as Misrephoth-maim (Misrefot-Mayim) and as far as the valley of Mizpeh (Mitspe) eastward; and they struck them until he had not left to them a survivor. 9 And Joshua did to them just as the LORD had said to him: their horses he hamstrung, and their chariots he burned with fire. 10 And Joshua turned back at that time and captured Hazor, and its king he struck with the sword; for Hazor formerly, it was the head of all these kingdoms. 11 And they struck every soul that was in it by the mouth of the sword, devoting them to destruction; there was not left anything that breathed. And Hazor he burned with fire. 12 And all the cities of these kings and all their kings Joshua captured, and he struck them by the mouth of the sword; he devoted them to destruction, just as Moses (Moshe) the servant of the LORD had commanded. 13 Only, all the cities that were standing on their mounds, Israel did not burn them, except Hazor alone; Joshua burned it. 14 And all the spoil of these cities and the livestock the sons of Israel plundered for themselves. Only, every man they struck by the mouth of the sword until they had destroyed them; they did not leave anything that breathed. 15 Just as the LORD had commanded Moses His servant, so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did. He did not set aside a thing from all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

10:42 for the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel That is the key to the chapter (10:14). Joshua marched all night and fought all day, but the hail, the panic, the long day and every city taken had one source. "At one time" means in one campaign.
11:1 Jabin king of Hazor Hazor, in the far north above the Sea of Galilee, was the largest city in the land, "the head of all these kingdoms" (11:10), many times the size of Jericho. Jabin may have been a royal title, since another Jabin of Hazor oppressed Israel in Deborah's day (Judg 4:2).
11:2 in the Arabah south of Chinneroth The Arabah is the Jordan valley, and Chinneroth is the Sea of Galilee. The whole north rose up at once.
11:4 horses and chariots very many This was the biggest army Israel had faced. Chariots were the tanks of the ancient world, able to run down foot soldiers on open ground. Israel had none. But the size of the enemy never changes the size of God (1:5).
11:5 the waters of Merom A spring or stream in the hill country of Galilee, a few miles from Hazor, from which the allies could move onto the plains where chariots were strongest.
11:6 Their horses you shall hamstring, and their chariots you shall burn with fire To hamstring a horse is to cut the tendon at the back of its leg so it can no longer be used in war. Chariots would have been useful, but God knew that if Israel had them, they would trust in them (Deut 17:16). "These trust in chariotry and these in horses" (Ps 20:7). When we trust our money, skills or programs more than the Lord, it is time to burn the chariots.
11:7 against them at the waters of Merom suddenly As at Gibeon, Joshua struck by surprise, in the hills where chariots were useless, before they reached open ground.
11:9 Joshua did to them just as the LORD had said to him He obeyed to the letter, even when it meant destroying weapons that could have been useful.
11:11 there was not left anything that breathed. And Hazor he burned with fire Hazor, the head of the northern league, was put under the ban like Jericho. The same truths apply as at 6:21 and 10:40: God's judgment on nations He had waited on for centuries, a command given once for that land, never a pattern for today. Archaeologists have found a heavy layer of burning at Hazor, which some date to Joshua's time and others later.
11:13 all the cities that were standing on their mounds, Israel did not burn them The other cities were left for Israel to live in, "great and good cities which you did not build" (Deut 6:10).
11:15 so Moses commanded Joshua, and so Joshua did This is the summary of Joshua's life as a leader. God's Word passed from the LORD to Moses to Joshua, and Joshua obeyed it all. That is the kind of servant God uses: not perfect, but faithful.
11:17 from Mount Halak that goes up to Seir, and as far as Baal-gad From a mountain in the far south toward Edom to the valley under Mount Hermon in the far north, well over 150 miles end to end.
11:18 Many days Joshua made war with all these kings These chapters can sound as if it all took a few weeks. From Caleb's words (14:7-10), the main wars seem to have lasted about seven years.

made war with all these kings. 19 There was not a city that made peace with the sons of Israel except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon (Givon); everything they took in battle. 20 For it was from the LORD to strengthen their heart to meet the battle with Israel, in order to devote them to destruction, so that there would be no favor for them, but in order to destroy them, just as the LORD had commanded Moses. 21 And Joshua came at that time and cut off the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron (Chevron), from Debir (Devir), from Anab (Anav), and from all the hill country of Judah (Yehuda), and from all the hill country of Israel; with their cities Joshua devoted them to destruction.
22 There were not left Anakim in the land of the sons of Israel; only in Gaza (Aza), in Gath (Gat), and in Ashdod did they remain. 23 And Joshua took all the land, according to all that the LORD had spoken to Moses, and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions, by their tribes. And the land had rest from war.

Kings Defeated East of the Jordan

11:19 except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon Gibeon proved that peace was possible. No other city sought it.
11:20 it was from the LORD to strengthen their heart to meet the battle with Israel Of Pharaoh we read both that he hardened his own heart (Exod 8:15) and that God hardened it (Exod 9:12). God did not force tender, seeking hearts to rebel. The Canaanites had heard of the LORD for forty years (2:9-11). Rahab turned. The rest chose to fight. Hardening is God's judgment on those already set against Him, giving them over to their choice (Rom 1:24-28). "Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts" (Heb 3:7-8).
11:21 cut off the Anakim from the hill country The giants who terrified the ten spies forty years before (Num 13:33) were driven out by the second generation.
11:22 only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod did they remain These coastal cities later became Philistine cities. About four hundred years later a giant came out of Gath to defy Israel, and David brought him down (1 Sam 17:4). The enemy left in the land came back to cause trouble.
11:23 Joshua took all the land Joshua broke the power of the kings and armies across the land, but areas remained to be settled (13:1-6). God said He would drive them out little by little (Exod 23:29-30). An inheritance is property passed down in a family. Israel did not buy or earn the land. It was given as sons receive from their father.
11:23 the land had rest from war The rest was real, but not final: "there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God" (Heb 4:9). The final rest is found in Christ: "Come to Me, all who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matt 11:28).
12:2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon The list begins east of the Jordan, with land taken before Moses died. Sihon's kingdom ran from the Arnon, flowing into the Dead Sea from the east, north to the Jabbok. He refused Israel peaceful passage and came out to fight, and God gave him into their hand (Num 21:21-31; Deut 2:26-36).
12:4 Og king of the Bashan, of the remnant of the Rephaim The Rephaim were a people of giants, like the Anakim. Og's iron bedstead was about thirteen and a half feet long (Deut 3:11). Bashan was the rich plateau east of the Sea of Galilee. Israel sang of these two kings for centuries, with the refrain, "for His steadfast love is forever" (Ps 136:19-22). These victories were proof of God's love.
12:6 Moses the servant of the LORD and the sons of Israel struck them Why list Moses' victories in a book about Joshua? The conquest was one work of God, begun under Moses and finished under Joshua. Every generation of God's people builds on what God did through those before them.
12:8 in the hill country and in the Shephelah and in the Arabah Every region and every people of the land is covered: hill country, foothills, Jordan valley, slopes, wilderness and the dry south.
12:9 the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one The first part of the list follows the story: Jericho and Ai, the five kings who died at Makkedah, Gezer, and the southern cities. The word "one" after every king counts each victory separately. None was lost. None was forgotten.

All the kings were thirty-one.

Land Still to Be Taken

1 And Joshua (Yehoshua) was old, come into the days; and the LORD said to him, "You are old, come into the days, and very much of the land remains to take possession of it. 2 This is the land that remains: all the regions of the Philistines and all the Geshurites, 3 from the Shihor (Shichor), which is on the face of Egypt (Mitsrayim), and as far as the border of Ekron (Eqron) northward, it is reckoned to the Canaanites; the five rulers of the Philistines, the Gazites and the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; and the Avvim (Avim); 4 from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah (Me'ara), which belongs to the Sidonians, as far as Aphek (Afeq), as far as the border of the Amorites; 5 and the land of the Gebalites, and all the Lebanon (Levanon) toward the rising of the sun, from Baal-gad under the mountain of Hermon (Chermon) as far as the entrance of Hamath (Chamat); 6 all the inhabitants of the hill country from the Lebanon as far as Misrephoth-maim (Misrefot-Mayim), all the Sidonians. I Myself will dispossess them from before the sons of Israel (Yisra'el). Only make it fall to Israel for an inheritance, just as I have commanded you. 7 And now, divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half of the tribe of Manasseh (Menashe)."

The Inheritance East of the Jordan

8 With it the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moses (Moshe) gave to them beyond the Jordan (Yarden) eastward, just as Moses the servant of the LORD gave to them: 9 from Aroer (Aro'er), which is on the edge of the wadi of Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the wadi, and all the plain of Medeba (Medva) as far as Dibon (Divon); 10 and all the cities of Sihon (Sichon) king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon (Cheshbon), as far as the border of the sons of Ammon (Amon); 11 and the Gilead (Gilad), and the territory of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and all the mountain of Hermon, and all the Bashan as far as Salecah (Salkha); 12 all the kingdom of Og in the Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth (Ashtarot) and in Edrei; he was left of the remnant of the Rephaim; and Moses struck them and dispossessed them. 13 And the sons of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurites and the Maacathites; and Geshur and Maacah (Ma'akha) have dwelt in the midst of 12:14 the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one Some kings here are not described in Joshua. Arad was the Canaanite king who attacked Israel in the wilderness, and Hormah was where Israel defeated his people (Num 21:1-3).

12:21 the king of Megiddo, one Megiddo guarded the main pass through the hills and saw many battles in history. Its name lies behind Armageddon, where the armies of the world will gather at the end of this age (Rev 16:16), and where the Lord Jesus will return in power and defeat them (Rev 19:11-21).
12:23 the king of Goiim of Gilgal, one Goiim means nations. Tirzah, in the next verse, later became for a time the capital of the northern kingdom (1 Kgs 15:33).
12:24 All the kings were thirty-one Thirty-one victories, all from God's hand. Yet defeating a king did not always mean Israel lived in his city. Manasseh did not drive out Taanach, Dor or Megiddo (Judg 1:27), and Bethel had to be taken again (Judg 1:22-26). In Christ the victory over sin and Satan is already won (Col 2:15), but we still live it out day by day, leaving no corner of life where the enemy may stay.
13:1 very much of the land remains to take possession of it Joshua died at 110 (24:29), so he may have been close to ninety or a hundred here. He had broken the kings' power, but Israel did not yet live in all the land. God told His servant the truth, then told him what to do next. Our work for God may change as we age, but it does not end.
13:3 the five rulers of the Philistines In the five cities of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron. The Philistines would trouble Israel for centuries, through the days of Samson, Saul and David. The Gebalites (13:5) were the people of Byblos on the northern coast.
13:6 I Myself will dispossess them from before the sons of Israel The work did not depend on Joshua's strength but on God. Joshua was to divide even land the enemy still held, writing the tribes' names on it because God had promised it. God gives us promises before we see them fulfilled and asks us to live as though His word is settled. It is.
13:7 divide this land for an inheritance The land was not owned by king or nation. It was the LORD's (Lev 25:23), given to each tribe, clan and family and passed from father to son. That is why these lists matter. Each name was a home God gave a real family.
13:8 the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance The eastern tribes' land ran from Aroer on the Arnon in the south, through the plain of Medeba and Sihon's kingdom, up through Gilead and Bashan, the old kingdom of Og (Num 32).
13:13 the sons of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurites and the Maacathites The first of several notes like this (15:63; 16:10; 17:12-13). Later David married a daughter of Geshur's king, and her son Absalom fled there after murdering his brother (2 Sam 3:3; 13:37-38). What we leave in place often comes back to trouble us.

Israel until this day. 14 Only to the tribe of the Levites he did not give an inheritance; the fire offerings of the LORD, the God of Israel, that is its inheritance, just as He had spoken to it. 15 And Moses gave to the tribe of the sons of Reuben (Reuven) by their clans. 16 And the territory was theirs from Aroer, which is on the edge of the wadi of Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the wadi, and all the plain by Medeba; 17 Heshbon and all its cities that are in the plain: Dibon and Bamoth-baal (Bamot-Ba'al) and Beth-baal-meon (Bet-Ba'al-Meon), 18 and Jahaz (Yahats) and Kedemoth (Qedemot) and Mephaath (Mefa'at), 19 and Kiriathaim (Qiryatayim) and Sibmah (Sivma) and Zereth-shahar (Tseret-Hashachar) on the mountain of the valley, 20 and Beth-peor (Bet-Pe'or) and the slopes of the Pisgah (Pisga) and Beth-jeshimoth (Bet-Hayshimot), 21 and all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck, him and the leaders of Midian (Midyan), Evi and Rekem (Reqem) and Zur (Tsur) and Hur (Chur) and Reba (Reva), the princes of Sihon, dwelling in the land. 22 And Balaam (Bilam) the son of Beor, the diviner, the sons of Israel killed with the sword among their slain. 23 And the border of the sons of Reuben was the Jordan, and its border. 13:14 the fire offerings of the LORD, the God of Israel, that is its inheritance The Levites were set apart to serve at the tabernacle, the tent where God met with Israel, and from them came the priests, Aaron's family. Instead of land they received their share of the offerings (Num 18:8-24). God Himself took care of them, and chapter 21 gives them towns throughout Israel.
13:20 Beth-peor Near where Israel sinned with the women of Moab at the Baal of Peor (Num 25), and near where Moses was buried (Deut 34:6).
13:22 Balaam the son of Beor, the diviner A diviner tries to learn hidden things or the future by signs and magic. Balaam was hired to curse Israel, but God turned the curse into blessing (Num 22-24). Then he taught Moab how to lead Israel into sin (Num 31:16; Rev 2:14) and died fighting God's people. He knew much about God and still loved money more. Knowing about God is not the same as following Him.
13:27 as far as the end of the sea of Chinnereth Chinnereth is the old name of the Sea of Galilee, perhaps from a word for harp, for its shape. Mahanaim (13:26) was where Jacob saw the angels of God, and Succoth where he built shelters for his cattle (Gen 32:1-2; 33:17). Gad lived on ground their father Jacob had walked.
13:30 all the towns of Jair that are in the Bashan, sixty cities Bashan was a high, rich plateau known for its oaks and strong cattle (Ps 22:12). It went to the family of Machir, son of Manasseh, a family of fighters (17:1).
13:33 the LORD, the God of Israel, He is their inheritance In verse 14 their inheritance was the offerings. Here it is the LORD Himself. Which would you rather have, a field or the God who owns all the fields? "The LORD is the portion of my share and my cup" (Ps 16:5). Believers are "a royal priesthood" (1 Pet 2:9) with an inheritance kept in heaven (1 Pet 1:4). We can hold this world's things loosely, because God Himself is ours.
14:1 Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the fathers Eleazar was Aaron's son and the high priest after him. The priest is named first, because this was God's work before it was anyone else's.
14:2 by the lot of their inheritance The lot let God decide, perhaps by drawing marked stones before the LORD. Scripture does not say exactly how, but it says Who was behind it: "Into the lap the lot is thrown, and from the LORD is its every judgment" (Prov 16:33). No tribe could say Joshua played favorites. God placed every family where He wanted it.
14:4 the sons of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim So there were still twelve tribes with land though Levi had none (Gen 48:5). The Levites received towns and pasturelands instead.

their herds and for their property. 5 Just as the LORD had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did; and they divided the land.

Caleb Receives Hebron

6 And the sons of Judah (Yehuda) approached Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb (Kalev) the son of Jephunneh (Yefune) the Kenizzite said to him, "You know the word that the LORD spoke to Moses the man of God concerning me and concerning you at Kadesh-barnea (Qadesh-Barnea). 7 A son of forty years was I when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land, and I brought him back word just as it was in my heart. 8 And my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt, and I, I followed fully after the LORD my God. 9 And Moses swore on that day, saying, 'Surely the land on which your foot has trodden shall be to you for an inheritance and to your sons forever, because you have followed fully after the LORD my God.' 10 And now, look, the LORD has kept me alive, just as He spoke, these forty-five years from when the LORD spoke this word to Moses, when Israel walked in the wilderness; and now, look, I am this day a son of eighty-five years. 11 I am still this day strong, just as on the day Moses sent me; as my strength was then, so my strength is now, for battle and to go out and to come in. 12 And now, give to me this hill country of which the LORD spoke on that day; for you heard on that day that Anakim were there, and cities great and fortified. Perhaps the LORD will be with me, and I will dispossess them, just as the LORD spoke." 13 And Joshua blessed him, and he gave Hebron (Chevron) to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance. 14 Therefore Hebron became Caleb's, the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, for an inheritance until this day, because he followed fully after the LORD, the God of Israel. 15 And the name of Hebron formerly was Kiriath-arba (Qiryat-Arba); he was the great man among the Anakim. And the land had rest from war.

The Borders of Judah

1 And the lot for the tribe of the sons of Judah (Yehuda) by their clans was to the border of Edom, the wilderness of Zin (Tsin) toward the south, at the end of the south. 2 And their south border was from the end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that faces toward the south. 3 And it goes out to the south of the ascent of Akrabbim (Aqrabim), and it passes on toward Zin, and it goes up on the south of Kadesh-barnea (Qadesh-Barnea), and it passes on to Hezron (Chetsron), and it goes up toward Addar (Adar), and it turns around toward 14:5 Just as the LORD had commanded Moses, so the sons of Israel did Worth stopping on. After forty years of grumbling in the wilderness, a new generation did what God said.

14:6 Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite The Kenizzites were a people of Canaan in Abraham's day (Gen 15:19). Many think Caleb's family came from them and joined Israel, counted as part of Judah. Others think Kenaz was simply a man of Judah (15:17). If the first is right, Caleb was another outsider, like Rahab, brought in by faith, who became one of Israel's greatest leaders.

14:6 You know the word that the LORD spoke to Moses the man of God concerning me Caleb did not come asking a favor. He came holding God's word. Kadesh-barnea was the oasis south of the land where the spies were sent out (Num 13-14). Joshua had been there.

14:7 I brought him back word just as it was in my heart All twelve spies saw the same land, fruit, walled cities and giants. Ten said Israel could not do it. Caleb said, "we shall surely prevail over it" (Num 13:30). The ten saw giants and felt like grasshoppers. Caleb saw the same giants and measured them against God.

14:8 I, I followed fully after the LORD my God The Hebrew pictures filling up the space behind someone, walking so close behind Him that there is no gap. It does not describe a man who never sinned, but one whose heart did not split between God and fear, comfort or the crowd. The phrase is used of Caleb three times here (14:8, 9, 14), and God said it of him first (Num 14:24). Caleb stood against the whole nation, and they wanted to stone him for it (Num 14:10).

14:9 the land on which your foot has trodden shall be to you for an inheritance Where had his foot trodden? The record says "he came to Hebron" (Num 13:22), where the sons of Anak lived. The place that broke the courage of the ten was the place Caleb was promised (Deut 1:36).

14:10 the LORD has kept me alive, just as He spoke, these forty-five years Caleb watched a whole generation die in the desert because of unbelief (Num 14:29-35). He had done nothing to deserve the wait, but he waited with the people, and he did not grow bitter. The numbers also help date the conquest. Forty at Kadesh, thirty-eight more years in the wilderness, so the wars in the land took about seven years.

14:11 as my strength was then, so my strength is now To go out and to come in means to lead in war and in daily life. At eighty-five Caleb was asking for the hardest assignment in the land. "Those who wait for the LORD will renew power" (Isa 40:31). Scripture does not promise everyone Caleb's body at eighty-five, but everyone can keep Caleb's heart.

14:12 give to me this hill country He could have asked for a quiet valley. He asked for the mountains where the Anakim lived (Num 13:28, 33), the very place that made Israel turn back, to prove to a new generation that God was able.

14:12 Perhaps the LORD will be with me Is that doubt? I don't believe so. He ends the sentence with God's promise, "just as the LORD spoke." The "perhaps" is humility. Caleb did not assume he was owed God's help. A man of faith is sure of God and not too sure of himself.

14:13 Joshua blessed him Forty-five years before, these two stood alone against the nation while the people picked up stones. Now one led Israel and the other received the reward God promised.

14:14 because he followed fully after the LORD, the God of Israel Hebron was not given because Caleb was the strongest or richest, but because he trusted and followed God. He did take it (15:14; Judg 1:20). Later it became a Levite city and a city of refuge, while Caleb kept its fields (21:11-13). Abraham had lived there, and the patriarchs were buried there (Gen 23:19).

14:15 the name of Hebron formerly was Kiriath-arba The city of Arba, the father of the Anakim (15:13). The city named for the greatest of the giants now belonged to a man of faith. God has promised every believer an inheritance "reserved in the heavens for you" (1 Pet 1:4), and keeps us until we receive it. Caleb waited forty-five years. The promise does not fail (John 14:2).

15:1 the lot for the tribe of the sons of Judah by their clans These verses walk Judah's borders like a surveyor. The south border ran from the tip of the Salt Sea past the scorpion pass (Akrabbim) and Kadesh-barnea to the wadi of Egypt. A wadi is a stream bed dry most of the year that runs after rain. The east border was the Dead Sea, the west the Mediterranean. Clear borders protected families, so no one could move a boundary stone and steal his neighbor's land (Deut 19:14). God cared about justice down to the property line.

This shall be to you the south border. 5 And the east border is the Salt Sea as far as the end of the Jordan (Yarden). And the border on the north side is from the bay of the sea at the end of the Jordan. 6 And the border goes up to Beth-hoglah (Bet-Chogla), and it passes on north of Beth-arabah (Bet-Ha'arava), and the border goes up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben (Reuven). 7 And the border goes up toward Debir (Devir) from the valley of Achor (Akhor), and northward turning to Gilgal, which is opposite the ascent of Adummim (Adumim), which is on the south of the wadi; and the border passes on to the waters of En-shemesh, and its ends are at En-rogel. 8 And the border goes up by the valley of the son of Hinnom (Hinom) to the slope of the Jebusites on the south, it is Jerusalem (Yerushalayim); and the border goes up to the top of the mountain that is on the face of the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the valley of Rephaim (Refa'im) northward. 9 And the border bends from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah (Neftoach), and it goes out to the cities of the mountain of Ephron (Efron), and the border bends to Baalah (Ba'ala), it is Kiriath-jearim (Qiryat-Ye'arim). 10 And the border turns around from Baalah westward to the mountain of Seir (Se'ir), and it passes on to the slope of the mountain of Jearim (Ye'arim) on the north, it is Chesalon (Kesalon), and it goes down to Beth-shemesh (Bet-Shemesh), and it passes on to Timnah (Timna). 11 And the border goes out to the slope of Ekron (Eqron) northward, and the border bends toward Shikkeron (Shikron), and it passes on to the mountain of Baalah, and it goes out to Jabneel (Yavne'el), and the ends of the border are toward the sea. 12 And the west border is toward the Great Sea and its border. This is the border of the sons of Judah all around by their clans.

Caleb and Othniel

13 And to Caleb (Kalev) the son of Jephunneh (Yefune) he gave a portion in the midst of the sons of Judah, according to the mouth of the LORD to Joshua (Yehoshua): Kiriath-arba (Qiryat-Arba), the father of the Anak, it is Hebron (Chevron). 14 And Caleb dispossessed from there the three sons of the Anak: Sheshai (Sheshay) and Ahiman (Achiman) and Talmai (Talmay), those born of the Anak. 15 And he went up from there against the inhabitants of Debir; and the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath-sepher (Qiryat-Sefer). 16 And Caleb said, "Whoever strikes Kiriath-sepher and captures it, I will give to him Achsah (Akhsa) my daughter for a wife." 17 And Othniel (Otni'el) the son of Kenaz (Qenaz), the brother of Caleb, captured it; and he gave to him Achsah his daughter for a wife. 18 And it was, when she came, and she urged him to ask from her father a field; and she got down from on the donkey, and Caleb said to her, "What is it for you?" 19 And she said, "Give to me a blessing; for you have given me the land of the Negeb (Negev), and you shall give to me springs of water." And he gave to her upper springs and lower springs.

The Towns of Judah

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Judah by their clans. 21 And the cities at the end of the tribe of the sons of Judah toward the border of Edom in the Negeb were: Kabzeel (Qavtse'el) and Eder and Jagur (Yagur), 22 and Kinah (Qina) and Dimonah (Dimona) and Adadah (Adada), 23 and Kedesh (Qedesh) and Hazor (Chatsor) and Ithnan (Yitnan), 24 Ziph (Zif) and Telem and Bealoth (Be'alot), 25 and Hazor-hadattah (Chatsor-Chadatta) and Kerioth-hezron (Qeriyot-Chetsron), it is Hazor, 26 Amam and Shema and Moladah (Molada), 27 and Hazar-gaddah (Chatsar-Gada) and Heshmon (Cheshmon) and Beth-pelet (Bet-Palet), 28 and Hazar-shual (Chatsar-Shu'al) and Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva)

15:7 the border goes up toward Debir from the valley of Achor The north border, shared with Benjamin, ran through places Israel knew well, such as the valley where Achan was stoned (7:26) and En-rogel, a spring just outside Jerusalem.
15:8 the valley of the son of Hinnom The border ran along the valley just south of the city, so Jerusalem sat on the line between Judah and Benjamin. This valley later became a place where children were burned to idols (2 Kgs 23:10; Jer 7:31). Its name, Gehenna in the New Testament, became a word for hell (Matt 5:22).
15:14 Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai The same three names the spies saw at Hebron forty-five years before (Num 13:22). The giants who frightened a nation were driven out by an old man who trusted God. Judges says both that Judah struck them and that Caleb drove them out (Judg 1:10, 20). Caleb led the men of his tribe.
15:15 the name of Debir formerly was Kiriath-sepher It means the city of the book or of the scribe. Joshua had taken Debir (10:38-39), but its people came back, as often happened.
15:16 I will give to him Achsah my daughter for a wife In that time a father arranged his daughter's marriage, and Caleb wanted a man of courage and faith for her, a man like himself.
15:17 Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb Judges 1:13 adds that he was younger. Some read this as Caleb's younger brother, others as his nephew, a son of Kenaz. Either way, Othniel became the first judge of Israel, the man God raised up to save His people (Judg 3:9-11). Caleb's choice proved good.
15:19 Give to me a blessing Achsah got down from her donkey, a sign of respect before a request. The Negeb is the dry south, and land without water could not grow much. She asked boldly because she trusted her father's goodness, and he gave more than she asked. Jesus tells us to ask our Father the same way (Matt 7:7-11). In Christ He gives us living water (John 4:14).
15:21 toward the border of Edom in the Negeb The towns are now listed by region. In the dry south were Beersheba, where Abraham called on the name of the LORD (Gen 21:31-33), and Ziklag, later given to David by a Philistine king (1 Sam 27:6).

15:32 all the cities were twenty-nine, and their villages More than twenty-nine names appear. Some may be villages counted with a main town, some pairs naming one place, and some were later given to Simeon (19:1-9). Scripture does not explain the count.
15:33 In the Shephelah: Eshtaol and Zorah The low hills between the hill country and the coastal plain were good farmland and the border zone with the Philistines. Here were Samson's home (Judg 13:2, 25), the cave of Adullam where David hid (1 Sam 22:1), Socoh and Azekah, where David fought Goliath (1 Sam 17:1), and Keilah, which David rescued (1 Sam 23:1-5).
15:47 Ashdod, its towns and its villages; Gaza God gave Judah Philistine land it did not yet hold (13:2-3). Judah took some of these cities for a time but could not drive out the people of the plain (Judg 1:18-19). The gift was real. The taking was still to be done.
15:48 in the hill country The backbone of Judah, the high ridge south of Jerusalem. It included Hebron, Maon and Carmel, where Nabal and Abigail lived (1 Sam 25:2-3), Ziph, where David hid (1 Sam 23:14), and Kiriath-jearim (15:60), where the ark stayed twenty years (1 Sam 7:1-2).
15:59 six cities and their villages Bethlehem, though a town of Judah (Ruth 1:1), does not appear in this list in the Hebrew text. It was small, and its time had not yet come. From little Bethlehem would come the ruler of Israel (Mic 5:2), and Jesus was born there (Matt 2:1-6).
15:62 City of Salt and Engedi The wilderness falls away to the Dead Sea. Engedi is a spring in the desert where David spared Saul in a cave (1 Sam 24:1-7). God's history happens in real places to real people.
15:63 the sons of Judah were not able to dispossess them Judah took giants at Hebron but could not take the Jebusite fortress (Judg 1:8, 21). "Until this day" shows this was written before David, who captured Zion about 1000 B.C. and made Jerusalem his capital (2 Sam 5:6-9). The text does not say God failed. Elsewhere Israel's failure is tied to unbelief (Judg 2:1-3). Where faith was weak, the enemy stayed. Yet the city Judah could not take became "the town of the great King" (Ps 48:2).
16:1 the lot for the sons of Joseph went out from the Jordan at Jericho Joseph's sons received some of the best of the land, the wide central hill country with good rain, forests and valleys. Jacob called Joseph "a son of a fruitful one" (Gen 49:22), and Moses asked heaven's best gifts on his land (Deut 33:13-17). Here those blessings come true on the ground.

16:4 Manasseh and Ephraim, received their inheritance Manasseh was older, but Ephraim's land is described first. That fits Jacob crossing his hands to put his right hand on the younger boy (Gen 48:14-20). God often chooses the younger and weaker, so that His grace is plain (1 Cor 1:27).
16:8 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Ephraim by their clans Shiloh, where the tabernacle would soon stand (18:1), was in Ephraim. Joshua was from Ephraim (Num 13:8) and was buried there (24:30). Ephraim later led the northern kingdom, and the prophets used its name for the whole of it (Hos 11:8).
16:9 the cities set apart for the sons of Ephraim in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Manasseh The brother tribes had towns inside each other's borders (17:8-9). They were meant to live as family.
16:10 they did not dispossess the Canaanites who dwelt in Gezer Gezer guarded the road from the coast to the hills. Ephraim put its people to work, which looked practical. But God commanded these nations driven out because they would teach Israel their gods (Deut 7:1-5). The leftovers became thorns in Israel's sides (Judg 2:1-3). Gezer stayed Canaanite until a Pharaoh took it and gave it to Solomon's wife (1 Kgs 9:16). Sin we keep around is never really our servant (Rom 6:16). We must put it to death by the Spirit (Rom 8:13).
17:1 Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war Machir's family already held Gilead and Bashan east of the Jordan (13:29-31). The other clans now received land west of the river. Gideon would come from one of them, the clan of Abiezer (Judg 6:11, 15). God was laying out the homes of people He would use in later generations.
17:3 Mahlah and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah In a list of clans named for men, five women are named. Their father died in the wilderness with no son, and his share would have been lost. They asked Moses, and the LORD said, "The daughters of Zelophehad are speaking right" (Num 27:7), making a law for every family like theirs.
17:4 The LORD commanded Moses to give to us an inheritance in the midst of our brothers Like Caleb, they came holding God's word. God cared about women with no father or brother to speak for them, and He made sure His promise reached them. In Christ men and women alike are "heirs according to promise" (Gal 3:29).
17:11 Beth-shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns These fortress cities along the valley of Jezreel and the coast guarded the main roads. If Manasseh held them, Israel held the north.

determined to dwell in this land. 13 And it was, when the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) became strong, and they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and they did not utterly dispossess them.

The Tent at Shiloh

1 And all the congregation of the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) assembled at Shiloh (Shilo), and they caused the tent of meeting to dwell there; and the land was subdued before them. 2 And there remained among the sons of Israel seven tribes who had not divided their inheritance. 3 And Joshua (Yehoshua) said to the sons of Israel, "Until when are you slack to go to take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given to you? 4 Provide for yourselves three men for each tribe, and I will send them, and they shall arise and walk about in the land and describe it in writing according to their inheritance, and they shall come to me. 5 And they shall divide it into seven portions. 17:13 they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and they did not utterly dispossess them The same compromise as at Gezer (16:10). When weak, they did not drive them out. When strong, they still did not. Generations later the Philistines hung Saul's body on the wall of Beth-shean (1 Sam 31:10). A city Manasseh left standing became the place of Israel's shame.
17:14 Why have you given me as an inheritance one lot and one portion Joshua's own tribe was among the complainers, and they may have expected special treatment.
17:15 go up for yourself to the forest, and you shall cut down for yourself Joshua did not give in or get angry. He turned their words back on them: if you are as big as you say, use your strength. Many of us complain that God has not given us enough, when He has given us more than we have worked to take hold of. Joshua did not play favorites, even with his own tribe.
17:16 chariots of iron are among all the Canaanites Chariots with iron fittings were the heavy weapons of the day, unbeatable for foot soldiers on the flat valley floor.
17:18 for you shall dispossess the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron At the waters of Merom, chariots had not stopped the LORD (11:4-9). The real problem was not iron but faith. Caleb at eighty-five asked for the giants. Joseph's sons were a great people and feared chariots. The difference was not strength. It was trust in God.
18:1 they caused the tent of meeting to dwell there The tent of meeting is the tabernacle, the portable tent where God met His people and the ark was kept. Worship moved from Gilgal into the middle of the land, and the rest of the land was divided from the place where God dwelt. God first, then everything else. Shiloh, in Ephraim north of Bethel, stayed the place of worship through the judges. Hannah prayed there and Samuel heard God's call there (1 Sam 1:3; 3:1-10).
18:1 Shiloh Later, because of the sins of priests and people, the ark was taken and Shiloh ruined. Jeremiah used it as a warning to Jerusalem: "see what I did to it because of the evil of My people Israel" (Jer 7:12).
18:3 Until when are you slack to go to take possession of the land Slack means slow, careless, putting things off. The wars were over and camp life was easy. Perhaps they were content, or afraid of the work ahead. God has given us everything we need for life and godliness (2 Pet 1:3). Many believers live like those seven tribes, saved and safe in the camp, but slow to step into what God has given.
18:4 describe it in writing according to their inheritance Three men from each tribe were to walk the land and write it down city by city, one of the first land surveys we know of in Scripture.
18:6 I will cast a lot for you here before the LORD our God The survey was man's work. The choosing was God's. "Before the LORD" means this was no game of chance. It was done in God's presence, at His tent, trusting Him to give each tribe its place.
18:7 the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance Levi's land was service at God's house (see 13:14, 33).
18:11 between the sons of Judah and the sons of Joseph Benjamin's land was a small strip running from the Jordan up into the hills. Its south border is Judah's north border traced the other way (15:5-9), so Jerusalem lay on the line. Moses said of Benjamin, "between His shoulders he dwells" (Deut 33:12), picturing Benjamin carried close to God. Many see that fulfilled in the temple, which stood on this border.

(Binyamin) came up by their clans, and the territory of their lot went out between the sons of Judah and the sons of Joseph. 12 And the border on the north side was theirs from the Jordan; and the border goes up to the slope of Jericho (Yericho) on the north, and it goes up in the hill country westward, and its ends are toward the wilderness of Beth-aven (Bet-Aven). 13 And the border passes on from there toward Luz, to the slope of Luz southward, it is Bethel (Bet-El); and the border goes down to Ataroth-addar (Atrot-Adar), on the mountain that is on the south of Beth-horon (Bet-Choron) the Lower. 14 And the border bends, and it turns around on the west side southward, from the mountain that is on the face of Beth-horon southward; and its ends are at Kiriath-baal (Qiryat-Ba'al), it is Kiriath-jearim (Qiryat-Ye'arim), a city of the sons of Judah. This is the west side. 15 And the south side is from the end of Kiriath-jearim, and the border goes out westward, and it goes out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah (Neftoach). 16 And the border goes down to the end of the mountain that is on the face of the valley of the son of Hinnom (Hinom), which is in the valley of Rephaim (Refa'im) northward; and it goes down by the valley of Hinnom to the slope of the Jebusites southward, and it goes down to En-rogel. 17 And it bends from the north, and it goes out to En-shemesh, and it goes out to Geliloth (Gelilot), which is opposite the ascent of Adummim (Adumim), and it goes down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. 18 And it passes on to the slope opposite the Arabah (Arava) northward, and it goes down toward the Arabah. 19 And the border passes on to the slope of Beth-hoglah (Bet-Chogla) northward, and the ends of the border are at the bay of the Salt Sea northward, at the end of the Jordan southward. This is the south border. 20 And the Jordan borders it on the east side. This is the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin by its borders all around, by their clans. 21 And the cities of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin by their clans were: Jericho and Beth-hoglah and Emek-keziz (Emeq-Qetsits), 22 and Beth-arabah (Bet-Ha'arava) and Zemaraim (Tsemarayim) and Bethel, 23 and Avvim (Avim) and Parah (Para) and Ophrah (Ofra), 24 and Chephar-haammonah (Kefar-Ha'amona) and Ophni (Ofni) and Geba (Geva); twelve cities and their villages. 25 Gibeon (Givon) and Ramah (Rama) and Beeroth (Be'erot), 26 and Mizpeh (Mitspe) and Chephirah (Kefira) and Mozah (Motsa), 27 and Rekem (Reqem) and Irpeel (Yirpe'el) and Taralah (Tarala), 28 and Zela (Tsela), Haeleph (Ha'elef), and the Jebusite city, it is Jerusalem (Yerushalayim), Gibeah (Givat), Kiriath (Qiryat); fourteen cities and their villages. This is the inheritance of the sons of Benjamin by their clans.

Simeon, Zebulun and Issachar

1 And the second lot came out for Simeon (Shimon), for the tribe of the sons of Simeon by their clans; and their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Judah (Yehuda). 2 And they had in their inheritance Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva), and Sheba (Sheva), and Moladah (Molada), 3 and Hazar-shual (Chatsar-Shu'al), and Balah (Bala), and Ezem (Etsem), 4 and Eltolad, and Bethul (Betul), and Hormah (Chorma), 5 and Ziklag (Tsiqlag), and Beth-marcaboth (Bet-Markavot), and Hazar-susah (Chatsar-Susa), 6 and Beth-lebaoth (Bet-Levaot), and Sharuhen (Sharuchen): thirteen cities and their villages; 7 Ain (Ayin), Rimmon (Rimon), and Ether (Eter), and Ashan: four cities and their villages; 8 and all the villages which were around these cities as far as Baalath-beer (Ba'alat-Be'er), Ramah of the Negeb (Negev). 18:13 toward Luz, to the slope of Luz southward, it is Bethel Luz was Bethel's old name (Gen 28:19).

18:28 the Jebusite city, it is Jerusalem, Gibeah So much of the Bible happened in this small tribe: Jericho, Gibeon, Ramah the home of Samuel (1 Sam 7:17), Mizpah where Saul was chosen (1 Sam 10:17-24), Gibeah, Saul's home town (1 Sam 10:26). Israel's first king came from Benjamin, and so did the apostle Paul (Phil 3:5). God does not measure His people by their size.

19:1 their inheritance was in the midst of the inheritance of the sons of Judah Simeon's towns, such as Beersheba, Moladah, Hormah and Ziklag, were taken from Judah's list (15:26-32). Judah had more than it needed (19:9). There is also a deeper reason. Jacob said of Simeon and Levi, after their violence at Shechem, "I will scatter them in Israel" (Gen 49:7). Levi was scattered in honor, as priests in towns all over Israel. Simeon was absorbed into Judah. Even in judgment God gave Simeon a home among his brothers.

19:6 thirteen cities and their villages Fourteen names appear. Sheba may be another form of Beersheba, since 1 Chronicles 4:28 leaves it out. Small differences like this are common in old lists.

19:10 the third lot came up for the sons of Zebulun Zebulun's land lay in lower Galilee between Mount Carmel and Mount Tabor. Its Bethlehem (19:15) is a different town from Bethlehem of Judah.

Asher, Naphtali and Dan

24 And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the sons of Asher by their clans. 25 And their border was Helkath (Chelqat), and Hali (Chali), and Beten, and Akshaph (Akhshaf), 26 and Allammelech (Alamelekh), and Amad, and Mishal; and it touches Carmel (Karmel) westward, and Shihor-libnath (Shichor-Livnat). 27 And it turns back toward the rising of the sun to Beth-dagon (Bet-Dagon), and it touches Zebulun and the valley of Iphtahel northward, Beth-emek (Bet-Ha'emeq) and Neiel; and it goes out to Cabul (Kavul) on the left, 28 and Ebron (Evron), and Rehob (Rechov), and Hammon (Chamon), and Kanah (Qana), as far as great Sidon (Tsidon). 29 And the border turns back to Ramah (Rama), and as far as the fortified city of Tyre (Tsor); and the border turns back to Hosah (Chosa), and its extremities are at the sea, from the region to Achzib (Akhziv), 30 and Ummah (Uma), and Aphek (Afeq), and Rehob: twenty-two cities and their villages. 31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Asher by their clans, these cities and their villages. 32 For the sons of Naphtali (Naftali) the sixth lot came out, for the sons of Naphtali by their clans. 33 And their border was from Heleph (Chelef), from the terebinth in Zaanannim (Tsa'ananim), and Adami-nekeb (Adami-Haneqev), and Jabneel (Yavne'el), as far as Lakkum (Laqum); and its extremities were at the Jordan. 34 And the border turns back westward to Aznoth-tabor (Aznot-Tavor), and it goes out from there to Hukkok (Chuqoq); and it touches Zebulun on the south, and Asher it touches on the west, and Judah at the Jordan toward the rising of the sun. 35 And the fortified cities are Ziddim (Tsidim), Zer (Tser), and Hammath (Chamat), Rakkath (Raqat), and Chinnereth (Kineret), 36 and Adamah (Adama), and Ramah, and Hazor (Chatsor), 37 and Kedesh (Qedesh), and Edrei, and En-hazor (En-Chatsor), 38 and Yiron, and Migdal-el, Horem (Chorem), and Beth-anath (Bet-Anat), and Beth-shemesh: nineteen cities and their villages. 39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Naphtali by their clans, the cities and their villages. 40 For the tribe of the sons of Dan by their clans the seventh lot came out. 41 And the territory of their inheritance was Zorah (Tsor'a), and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh (Ir-Shamesh), 42 and Shaalabbin (Sha'alabbin), and Aijalon (Ayalon), and Ithlah (Yitla), 43 and Elon, and Timnah (Timna), and Ekron (Eqron), 44 and Eltekeh (Elteqe), and Gibbethon (Gibbeton), and Baalath (Ba'alat), 45 and Jehud (Yehud), and Bene-berak (Bene-Veraq), and Gath-rimmon (Gat-Rimon), 46 and Me-jarkon (Me-Hayarqon), and Rakkon (Raqon), with the ter-

19:13 Gath-hepher The hometown of the prophet Jonah (2 Kgs 14:25). Isaiah said this region of Zebulun and Naphtali, "Galilee of the nations" (Isa 9:1), would see a great light, and Matthew says it was fulfilled when Jesus began preaching from Capernaum (Matt 4:12-17). Nazareth lay in this part of Galilee.
19:18 Jezreel, and Chesulloth, and Shunem Issachar received the rich valley of Jezreel, good farmland and the main road through the land, so it saw many battles. Jacob said Issachar would see that the land was pleasant (Gen 49:15). Shunem was later home to the woman whose son Elisha raised (2 Kgs 4:8-37), and Jezreel a royal city of Ahab (1 Kgs 21:1).
19:28 as far as great Sidon Asher's coastland ran from Mount Carmel north toward Sidon and Tyre, but Asher never fully held it (Judg 1:31-32). Tyre and Sidon stayed Phoenician trading powers that later sold cedar to Solomon and gave Ahab his wife Jezebel (1 Kgs 5:1-10; 16:31). What Asher did not take shaped Israel for centuries.
19:35 Rakkath, and Chinnereth Naphtali received upper Galilee and the west shore of the Sea of Galilee, with Hazor, which Joshua burned (11:10-11), and Kedesh, soon a city of refuge (20:7). Here Jesus did much of His ministry (Matt 4:13). The great light shone first in the land of these northern tribes.
19:41 Zorah, and Eshtaol Dan received a small piece west of Benjamin running down to the coast near Joppa. This is Samson's country (Judg 13:2, 25; 14:1).

ritory opposite Joppa (Yafo). 47 And the territory of the sons of Dan went out from them; and the sons of Dan went up and waged war with Leshem, and they captured it and struck it by the mouth of the sword, and they took possession of it and dwelt in it; and they called Leshem "Dan," according to the name of Dan their father. 48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the sons of Dan by their clans, these cities and their villages.

Joshua's Inheritance

49 And they finished dividing the land for possession by its borders; and the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) gave an inheritance to Joshua (Yehoshua) the son of Nun in their midst.
50 According to the mouth of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked for, Timnath-serah (Timnat-Serach) in the hill country of Ephraim (Efrayim); and he built the city and dwelt in it. 51 These are the inheritances which Eleazar (Elazar) the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel gave as a possession by lot at Shiloh (Shilo) before the LORD, at the entrance of the tent of meeting. And they finished apportioning the land.

The Cities of Refuge

1 And the LORD spoke to Joshua (Yehoshua), saying, 2 "Speak to the sons of Israel (Yisra'el), saying, 'Give for yourselves the cities of refuge of which I spoke to you by the hand of Moses (Moshe), 3 for a manslayer who strikes a soul unintentionally, without knowledge, to flee there; and they shall become for you a refuge from the avenger of blood. 4 And he shall flee to one of these cities, and he shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and he shall speak his words in the ears of the elders of that city; and they shall gather him into the city to themselves, and they shall give him a place, and he shall dwell with them. 5 And if the avenger of blood pursues after him, then they shall not deliver the manslayer into his hand, for without knowledge he struck his neighbor, and he was not hating him before. 6 And he shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the high priest who shall be in those days. Then the manslayer shall return, and he shall come to his city and to his house, to the city from which he fled.'" 7 And they consecrated Kedesh (Qedesh) in Galilee (Galil) in the hill country of Naphtali (Naftali), and Shechem (Shekhem) in the hill country of Ephraim (Efrayim), and Kiriath-arba (Qiryat-Arba), that is Hebron (Chevron), in the hill country of Judah (Yehuda). 8 And from the other side of the Jordan (Yarden) at Jericho (Yericho) eastward they gave Bezer (Betser) in the wilderness, in the plain, from the tribe of Reuben (Reuven), and Ramoth (Ramot) in Gilead (Gilad) from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh (Menashe). 9 These were the cities of appointment for all the sons of Israel and for the sojourner

19:47 the territory of the sons of Dan went out from them Dan's land slipped away from them, because the Amorites pushed them into the hills (Judg 1:34). So part of the tribe went north and took Leshem, called Laish in Judges 18, which tells the full story. It is not a proud story. They set up an idol and a false priesthood there (Judg 18:30-31), and later Jeroboam put a golden calf there (1 Kgs 12:28-30). The tribe that did not hold its inheritance went looking for an easier one and lost its way with God.
19:49 the sons of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun in their midst The leader of the nation took his share last. He did not choose the best land first. That is the heart of a servant. Jesus "did not come to be served, but to serve" (Mark 10:45).
19:50 Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim Like Caleb, Joshua had a promise from God (Num 14:30). He asked for a modest town in the hills of his own tribe, built it and lived there, and was buried there (24:30).
19:51 And they finished apportioning the land The division ends as it began (14:1), with the same leaders and the LORD at the center. God promised Abraham this land (Gen 12:7), and now every tribe had a name on it. Believers look forward to an inheritance "imperishable and undefiled and unfading" (1 Pet 1:4). God finished this one. He will finish that one too.
20:2 Give for yourselves the cities of refuge of which I spoke to you by the hand of Moses This is the only time in the land chapters that the LORD speaks directly. The law is in Numbers 35:9-34 and Deuteronomy 19:1-13, and Moses had already named the three cities east of the Jordan (Deut 4:41-43).
20:3 for a manslayer who strikes a soul unintentionally, without knowledge A manslayer is someone who caused another's death. Unintentionally means not planned and not done in hate, like an axe head flying off the handle in the forest (Deut 19:5).
20:3 a refuge from the avenger of blood The avenger was the nearest male relative of the dead. The Hebrew word is go'el, the same word as kinsman-redeemer, the relative who bought back family land or a family member (Lev 25:25; Ruth 3:9). In a land without police he saw that a killer paid for the life he took (Num 35:19). But anger does not wait to ask whether it was an accident. These cities stopped a family's grief from turning into another killing.
20:4 he shall speak his words in the ears of the elders of that city The gate was where the elders judged cases (Ruth 4:1-2). If his story was believable, the city did not just let him in. It took him in, gave him a place and made him one of its own.
20:5 they shall not deliver the manslayer into his hand This was no hiding place for murderers. One who killed on purpose, out of hatred, was handed over (Num 35:16-21; Deut 19:11-13). The city protected the innocent, not the guilty. God's mercy never cancels His justice.
20:6 until the death of the high priest who shall be in those days First came a trial before the congregation (Num 35:24-25). If the death was an accident, he lived in the city until the high priest died, and then could go home. Scripture does not fully explain why. A life had been lost, and the land was not to be left stained with blood (Num 35:33). The high priest's death seems to have closed the matter. Many see a picture of Christ, our High Priest, whose death sets us free. The New Testament does not say so in so many words, so I hold it as a picture.
20:7 Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali To consecrate is to set apart for God's purpose. West of the Jordan the cities lay north, middle and south, and east of it the same (20:8). Spread evenly through the land, no one was more than a day or so from safety, and Israel was told to prepare the roads (Deut 19:3). All six were Levite cities, so refuge was found among the people who served at God's house.
20:9 for all the sons of Israel and for the sojourner who sojourns in their midst A sojourner was a foreigner living in Israel. Any person could run there. Hebrews speaks of "we who have fled for refuge" (Heb 6:18). We stand in a worse danger than the manslayer, since "the wages of sin is death" (Rom 6:23). God's refuge is Jesus, and there is "no condemnation to those in Christ Jesus" (Rom 8:1). The cities protected only the innocent. Christ receives the guilty who come, because He took our guilt on Himself. The question is whether we have run to Him.

who sojourns in their midst, for anyone who strikes a soul unintentionally to flee there, and he shall not die by the hand of the avenger of blood until he stands before the congregation.

The Cities of the Levites

1 And the heads of the fathers of the Levites drew near to Eleazar (Elazar) the priest, and to Joshua (Yehoshua) the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the sons of Israel (Yisra'el). 2 And they spoke to them at Shiloh (Shilo) in the land of Canaan (Kena'an), saying, "The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses (Moshe) to give us cities to dwell in, and their pasture lands for our livestock." 3 And the sons of Israel gave to the Levites from their inheritance, according to the mouth of the LORD, these cities and their pasture lands. 4 And the lot came out for the clans of the Kohathites; and there were for the sons of Aaron (Aharon) the priest, of the Levites, from the tribe of Judah (Yehuda) and from the tribe of the Simeonites and from the tribe of Benjamin (Binyamin), by lot, thirteen cities. 5 And for the sons of Kohath (Qehat) who were left there were, from the clans of the tribe of Ephraim (Efrayim) and from the tribe of Dan and from the half of the tribe of Manasseh (Menashe), by lot, ten cities. 6 And for the sons of Gershon there were, from the clans of the tribe of Issachar (Yisashkhar) and from the tribe of Asher and from the tribe of Naphtali (Naftali) and from the half of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, by lot, thirteen cities. 7 For the sons of Merari by their clans there were, from the tribe of Reuben (Reuven) and from the tribe of Gad and from the tribe of Zebulun (Zevulun), twelve cities. 8 And the sons of Israel gave to the Levites these cities and their pasture lands, just as the LORD had commanded by the hand of Moses, by lot. 9 And they gave from the tribe of the sons of Judah and from the tribe of the sons of Simeon (Shimon) these cities which one called by name; 10 and they were for the sons of Aaron, of the clans of the Kohathites, of the sons of Levi, for the first lot was theirs. 11 And they gave them Kiriath-arba (Qiryat-Arba), the father of the Anak, that is Hebron (Chevron), in the hill country of Judah, and its pasture lands around it. 12 And the field of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb (Kalev) the son of Jephunneh (Yefune) as his possession. 13 And to the sons of Aaron the priest they gave the city of refuge of the manslayer, Hebron and its pasture lands, and Libnah (Livna) and its pasture lands, 14 and Jattir (Yatir) and its pasture lands, and Eshtemoa and its pasture lands, 15 and Holon (Cholon) and its pasture lands, and Debir (Devir) and its pasture lands, 16 and Ain (Ayin) and its pasture lands, and Juttah (Yuta) and its pasture lands, Beth-shemesh (Bet-Shemesh) and its pasture lands: nine cities from these two tribes. 17 And from the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon (Givon) and its pasture lands, Geba (Geva) and its pasture lands, 18 Anathoth (Anatot) and its pasture lands, and Almon and its pasture lands: four cities. 19 All the cities of the sons of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities and their pasture lands. 20 And for the clans of the sons of Kohath, the Levites who were left of the sons of Kohath, and the cities of their lot were from the tribe of Ephraim. 21 And they gave them the city of refuge of the manslayer, Shechem (Shekhem) and its pasture lands in the hill country of Ephraim, and Gezer and its pasture lands, 22 and Kibzaim (Qivtsayim) and its pasture lands, and 21:2 The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in Like Caleb (14:6) and Zelophehad's daughters (17:4), the Levites came holding God's word (Num 35:1-8). Pasture lands were the open fields around a town where animals could graze. Every tribe gave up some of its towns without argument.

21:4 for the sons of Aaron the priest The Levites were divided by Levi's three sons, Kohath, Gershon and Merari (Exod 6:16-19), and the priests, Aaron's family, came from Kohath. Their cities fell in Judah, Simeon and Benjamin, the area around Jerusalem where the temple would one day stand. No one in Joshua's day could have planned that. God placed the priests near the place He would choose for His name (Deut 12:5).
21:12 the field of the city and its villages they gave to Caleb Hebron became a priestly city and a city of refuge, while Caleb kept his inheritance around it. He shared the prize he had waited forty-five years for.
21:18 Anathoth and its pasture lands Anathoth was later the home of the priest Abiathar (1 Kgs 2:26) and of Jeremiah, "from the priests who were in Anathoth" (Jer 1:1). Beth-shemesh (21:16) was where the ark came back from the Philistines on a cart (1 Sam 6:12-15).
21:21 Shechem and its pasture lands in the hill country of Ephraim Where Abraham first built an altar in the land (Gen 12:6-7), and where Joshua would gather Israel to renew the covenant (24:1).
21:25 Taanach and its pasture lands, and Gath-rimmon and its pasture lands Gath-rimmon repeats the name from verse 24. The parallel list in 1 Chronicles 6:70 gives a different town for Manasseh, so a copyist likely repeated the name from the line above. The count of two still stands.

and its pasture lands, 29 Jarmuth (Yarmut) and its pasture lands, En-gannim (En-Ganim) and its pasture lands: four cities. 30 And from the tribe of Asher, Mishal and its pasture lands, Abdon (Avdon) and its pasture lands, 31 Helkath (Chelqat) and its pasture lands, and Rehob (Rechov) and its pasture lands: four cities. 32 And from the tribe of Naphtali, the city of refuge of the manslayer, Kedesh (Qedesh) in Galilee (Galil) and its pasture lands, and Hammoth-dor (Chamot-Dor) and its pasture lands, and Kartan (Qartan) and its pasture lands: three cities. 33 All the cities of the Gershonites by their clans were thirteen cities and their pasture lands. 34 And for the clans of the sons of Merari, the Levites who were left, from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam (Yoqne'am) and its pasture lands, Kartah (Qarta) and its pasture lands, 35 Dimnah (Dimna) and its pasture lands, Nahalal and its pasture lands: four cities. 36 And from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer (Betser) and its pasture lands, and Jahaz (Yahats) and its pasture lands, 37 Kedemoth (Qedemot) and its pasture lands, and Mephaath (Mefa'at) and its pasture lands: four cities. 38 And from the tribe of Gad, the city of refuge of the manslayer, Ramoth (Ramot) in Gilead (Gilad) and its pasture lands, and Mahanaim (Machanayim) and its pasture lands, 39 Heshbon (Cheshbon) and its pasture lands, Jazer (Yazer) and its pasture lands: all the cities were four. 40 All the cities of the sons of Merari by their clans, who were left of the clans of the Levites, and their lot was twelve cities. 41 All the cities of the Levites in the midst of the possession of the sons of Israel were forty-eight cities and their pasture lands. 42 These cities were each city and its pasture lands around it; so it was for all these cities.

Every Good Word Came to Pass

43 And the LORD gave to Israel all the land which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they took possession of it and dwelt in it. 44 And the LORD gave them rest all around, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers; and not a man of all their enemies stood before them; all their enemies the LORD gave into their hand. 45 Not a word fell of every good word which the LORD had spoken to the house of Israel; everything came to pass.

The Eastern Tribes Go Home

1 Then Joshua (Yehoshua) called the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half of the tribe of Manasseh (Menashe), 2 and he said to them, "You have kept all that Moses (Moshe) the servant of the LORD commanded you, and you have listened to my voice in all that I have commanded you. 3 You have not forsaken your brothers these many days until this day, and you have kept the charge of the commandment of the LORD your God. 4 And now the LORD your God has given rest to your brothers, just as He spoke to them. And now, turn and go for yourselves to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan (Yarden). 5 Only take great care to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you: to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all His ways, and to keep His commandments, and to cling to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul." 6 And Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents. 7 And to the half of the tribe of the Manassites Moses had given a possession in Bashan, and to its other half Joshua had given a possession with their brothers on the other side of the Jordan westward. 21:41 forty-eight cities and their pasture lands Six were cities of refuge. Jacob said Levi would be scattered in Israel (Gen 49:7). What began as judgment for Levi's violence became a calling after Levi stood with the LORD at the golden calf (Exod 32:26-29). The Levites taught God's law (Deut 33:10), so no tribe was far from someone who knew His Word. God still scatters His people, "a royal priesthood" (1 Pet 2:9), into every town to proclaim His excellencies.

21:43 the LORD gave to Israel all the land which He had sworn to give to their fathers This goes back to Abraham (Gen 15:18), Isaac and Jacob. For more than four hundred years the promise waited. Israel fought, but the gift was His. How can it say all the land when much remained (13:1)? God gave it all into Israel's hand and broke the Canaanites' power. The possessing was Israel's part (23:5, 12-13). The gift was complete. The taking was not.

21:43 they took possession of it and dwelt in it Israel held the full borders of Genesis 15:18 only for a time under David and Solomon (1 Kgs 4:21). I believe God will yet give Israel the whole land in the Messiah's kingdom, because "the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable" (Rom 11:29). Some teachers hold the promise was fully met here and under Solomon. What Joshua saw was a real fulfillment and a down payment on a greater one.

21:44 the LORD gave them rest all around Rest means the end of wandering and fighting, a home in peace to worship God, as Moses promised (Deut 12:9-10). Not a man stood before them, just as God said on the first day (1:5). Yet this was not the final rest (Heb 4:8-9). David was still calling people to enter God's rest (Ps 95:7-11). That rest is found in Christ (Matt 11:28).

21:45 Not a word fell of every good word which the LORD had spoken Not one promise dropped to the ground unkept: the land, the nation, the exodus, the manna, the Jordan, Jericho, Hebron for Caleb, His presence for Joshua. Joshua says it again (23:14), and so does Solomon (1 Kgs 8:56). "For as many as are the promises of God, in Him is the Yes" (2 Cor 1:20). When you doubt God's promises, count the words He has already kept in your life. The same God holds the ones still ahead.

22:3 You have not forsaken your brothers these many days until this day The eastern tribes had kept their promise (Num 32; 1:12-18) for about seven years, away from wives, children and homes. Joshua told them plainly what they had done well. Good leaders say thank you (Phil 1:3-5). A word of honest praise can carry a person a long way.

22:5 to love the LORD your God, and to walk in all His ways Love comes first, and obedience flows from it (Matt 22:37-38). The Jordan would separate these tribes from the tabernacle, and distance can cool a heart. To "cling to Him" is to hold on tight, the word used of a husband holding fast to his wife (Gen 2:24). Faith that lasts is not rules kept at arm's length. It is holding on to God Himself.

tents, and he blessed them, 8 and he said to them, saying, "With great riches return to your tents, and with very much livestock, with silver and with gold and with bronze and with iron and with very many garments. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers." 9 And the sons of Reuben (Reuven) and the sons of Gad and the half of the tribe of the Manassites returned and went from the sons of Israel (Yisra'el), from Shiloh (Shilo), which is in the land of Canaan (Kena'an), to go to the land of Gilead (Gilad), to the land of their possession in which they had taken possession, according to the mouth of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

The Altar by the Jordan

10 And they came to the regions of the Jordan which are in the land of Canaan, and the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half of the tribe of the Manassites built there an altar by the Jordan, an altar great in appearance. 11 And the sons of Israel heard, saying, "Look, the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half of the tribe of the Manassites have built the altar opposite the land of Canaan, at the regions of the Jordan, on the side of the sons of Israel." 12 And the sons of Israel heard it, and all the congregation of the sons of Israel assembled at Shiloh to go up against them to war. 13 And the sons of Israel sent to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the half of the tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, Phinehas (Pinchas) the son of Eleazar (Elazar) the priest, 14 and ten leaders with him, one leader, one leader for a father's house, for all the tribes of Israel; and each man was the head of the house of their fathers; they were for the thousands of Israel. 15 And they came to the sons of Reuben and to the sons of Gad and to the half of the tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and they spoke with them, saying, 16 "Thus says all the congregation of the LORD: 'What is this unfaithfulness with which you have acted unfaithfully against the God of Israel, to turn back today from after the LORD, by your building for yourselves an altar, by your rebelling today against the LORD? 17 Is the iniquity of Peor little for us, from which we have not cleansed ourselves until this day, and the plague was among the congregation of the LORD, 18 and you, you are turning back today from after the LORD? And it shall be, you rebel today against the LORD, and tomorrow He will be angry with all the congregation of Israel. 19 And surely, if the land of your possession is unclean, pass over for yourselves into the land of the possession of the LORD, where the tabernacle of the LORD dwells, and take possession in our midst; and against the LORD do not rebel, and against us do not rebel, by your building for yourselves an altar besides the altar of the LORD our God. 20 Did not Achan (Akhan) the son of Zerah (Zerach) act unfaithfully with unfaithfulness in the devoted thing, and on all the congregation of Israel there was wrath? And he was one man; he did not perish alone in his iniquity.'" 21 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad and the half of the tribe of the Manassites answered, and they spoke with the heads of the thousands of Israel, 22 "God, God, the LORD! God, God, the LORD! He knows, and Israel, let him know! If it was in rebellion, and if in unfaithfulness against the LORD, do not save us this day, 23 to build for ourselves an altar to turn back from after the LORD; and if to offer up on it burnt offering and grain offering, and if to make on it sacrifices of peace offerings, the LORD Himself shall require it. 24 And if not from anxiety, from a matter, we have done this, saying, 'Tomorrow your sons will say to our sons, saying, "What is there to you and to the LORD, the God of Israel? 25 And the LORD has put a border between us and you, sons of Reuben and sons of Gad, the Jordan. You have no portion in the LORD." And your sons will make our sons cease from fearing the LORD.' 26 And we said, 'Let us now act for ourselves to build the altar, not for burnt offering and not for sacrifice, 27 but it is a witness between us and you and between our generations after us, to do the service of the LORD before Him with our burnt offerings and with our sacrifices and with our peace offerings, and your sons shall not say tomor-

22:8 Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers The men who stayed home to guard the families shared in the spoil, as after the war with Midian (Num 31:27), and David later made it law (1 Sam 30:24-25). Those who serve behind the lines share in the reward.
22:10 an altar great in appearance Built on the west side before they crossed, big enough to be seen from far off.
22:12 all the congregation of the sons of Israel assembled at Shiloh to go up against them to war God's law allowed one place of sacrifice, where His tabernacle stood (Lev 17:8-9; Deut 12:5-14). Another altar could mean another worship, even idolatry, and Deuteronomy 13:12-15 told Israel to deal with any town that turned to other gods. Their zeal was right. Their facts were not yet in. What they did next kept the zeal from becoming a disaster.
22:13 Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest A good choice. At Peor he had stood up for the LORD's honor, and God praised his zeal and stopped a plague (Num 25:7-13).
22:17 Is the iniquity of Peor little for us At Peor Israel worshiped the Baal of Peor and twenty-four thousand died in the plague (Num 25:1-9). With Achan (22:20), the point was that sin in one part of God's people affects all of it.
22:19 pass over for yourselves into the land of the possession of the LORD A generous offer: if you feel cut off over there, come live with us, and we will share our land. They named the sin they feared, gave reasons from God's Word and history, and offered a way back at a cost to themselves. That is how to confront a brother (Matt 18:15).
22:22 God, God, the LORD! In Hebrew, three names of God: El, Elohim and Yahweh, the Mighty One, God, the LORD, said twice. It was the most solemn way they could call Him as witness. They appealed first to God, who sees the heart, and were willing to be judged by Him.
22:24 What is there to you and to the LORD, the God of Israel? They feared that one day the western tribes' children would look across the river and say, "You have no portion in the LORD" (22:25), and so make their sons stop fearing the LORD. Will our children know they belong to the LORD? Moses told Israel to teach God's words at home and on the road (Deut 6:7).

Then you have delivered the sons of Israel from the hand of the LORD." 32 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest and the leaders returned from the sons of Reuben and from the sons of Gad, from the land of Gilead to the land of Canaan, to the sons of Israel, and they brought back word to them. 33 And the word was good in the eyes of the sons of Israel, and the sons of Israel blessed God, and they did not say to go up against them to war, to destroy the land in which the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad were dwelling. 34 And the sons of Reuben and the sons of Gad called the altar, "For it is a witness between us that the LORD is God."

Joshua's Farewell

1 And it was, many days after the LORD had given rest to Israel (Yisra'el) from all their enemies all around, and Joshua (Yehoshua) was old, advanced in days, 2 and Joshua called for all Israel, for its elders and for its heads and for its judges and for its officers, and he said to them, "I am old; I am advanced in days. 3 And you have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations before you, for the LORD your God, He is the One who fights for you. 4 See, I have made these nations that remain fall to you as an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan (Yarden), and all the nations which I have cut off, and the Great Sea at the going in of the sun. 5 And the LORD your God, He will push them out from before you, and He will dispossess them from before you, and you shall take possession of their land, just as the LORD your God spoke to you. 6 And you shall be very strong to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses (Moshe), so as not to turn aside from it to the right or to the left, 7 so as not to go among these nations, these that remain with you; and of the name of their gods you shall not make mention, and you shall not make others swear by it, and you shall not serve them, and you shall not bow down to them. 8 But to the LORD your God you shall cling, just as you have done until this day. 9 And the LORD has dispossessed from before you great and mighty nations; and as for you, not a man has stood before you until this day. 10 One man of you chases a thousand, for the LORD your God, He is the One who fights for you, just as He spoke to you. 11 And you shall take great care for your souls, to love the

22:28 See the copy of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made A full-size copy that was never used for sacrifice, a witness that they worshiped the same God at the same altar. Some teachers ask whether building it without explaining first was wise. Others note Scripture never faults them. Either way, fear grows when no one explains, and it helps when someone asks.
22:31 Today we know that the LORD is in our midst Phinehas was not disappointed there would be no fight. He was glad. His zeal was for God's honor, not for a battle. He was ready to act against real sin and just as ready to listen. "Let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger" (James 1:19). Many church splits and family fights could be avoided if someone first asked what the other meant.
22:34 For it is a witness between us that the LORD is God What could have been a civil war ended in worship. The altar's name pointed not to itself but to the LORD. God's people are still divided by many rivers. We are to keep "the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace" (Eph 4:3). What holds us together is the one altar, the cross of Christ, where we all find our portion in the LORD.
23:2 I am old; I am advanced in days We do not know how many years had passed. Joshua died at 110 (24:29). Like Moses in Deuteronomy, he gave his last words to the leaders who would follow him. Scripture records the last words of Jacob, Moses, David and Paul (Gen 49; 2 Tim 4:6-8). What would you want to say to the people you love if you had only a little time left?
23:3 the LORD your God, He is the One who fights for you Joshua started with what they had seen with their own eyes, and he did not point to himself. He was the general, but he gave God all the credit.
23:5 He will push them out from before you The work was not finished, but God was not finished either. He would keep fighting as long as they kept trusting.
23:6 you shall be very strong to keep and to do all that is written Almost the words God spoke to Joshua at the start (1:7-8), lived by for a lifetime and now passed on. Obeying God's Word takes strength because the pull to drift is strong.
23:7 of the name of their gods you shall not make mention He was not telling Israel to hate their neighbors, but not to mix in a way that drew them into their worship. Each step goes further: speak the names, swear by them, serve them, bow down. Idolatry rarely starts with bowing. It starts with getting comfortable.
23:8 to the LORD your God you shall cling The best defense against false gods is holding tight to the true one (22:5).
23:10 One man of you chases a thousand This echoes the Law (Lev 26:8; Deut 32:30). The numbers did not matter. God did.
23:11 take great care for your souls, to love the LORD your God This is the heart of it. Obedience without love becomes a burden, and love makes obedience a joy (1 John 5:3). Love for God must be guarded, or it cools.

LORD your God. 12 For if you surely turn back and cling to the remainder of these nations, these that remain with you, and intermarry with them, and go in among them and they among you, 13 you shall surely know that the LORD your God will not continue to dispossess these nations from before you; and they shall become for you a trap and a snare, and a scourge in your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good ground which the LORD your God has given you. 14 And look, I am going today in the way of all the earth, and you know with all your heart and with all your soul that not one word has fallen of all the good words which the LORD your God spoke concerning you; all have come to pass for you; not one word of it has fallen. 15 And it shall be, just as every good word which the LORD your God spoke to you has come on you, so the LORD will bring on you every evil word, until He has destroyed you from off this good ground which the LORD your God has given you, 16 when you transgress the covenant of the LORD your God which He commanded you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them; and the anger of the LORD will burn against you, and you will perish quickly from off the good land which He has given you."

God's Story of Grace

1 And Joshua (Yehoshua) gathered all the tribes of Israel (Yisra'el) to Shechem (Shekhem), and he called for the elders of Israel and for its heads and for its judges and for its officers; and they presented themselves before God. 2 And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'On the other side of the River (Nahar) your fathers dwelt from long ago, Terah (Terach) the father of Abraham (Avraham) and the father of Nahor (Nachor), and they served other gods. 3 And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the River, and I led him through all the land of Canaan (Kena'an), and I multiplied his seed, and I gave him Isaac (Yitschaq). 4 And I gave to Isaac Jacob (Ya'aqov) and Esau (Esav); and I gave to Esau the mountain of Seir (Se'ir) to take possession of it; and Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt (Mitsrayim). 5 And I sent Moses (Moshe) and Aaron (Aharon), and I struck Egypt, just as I did in its midst; and afterward I brought you out. 6 And I brought your fathers out from Egypt, and you came to the sea; and Egypt pursued after your fathers with chariotry and with horsemen to the Red Sea. 7 And they cried out to the LORD, and He put darkness between you and the Egyptians (Mitsrim), and He brought the sea over them, and it covered them; and your eyes saw what I did in Egypt. And you dwelt in the wilderness many days. 8 And I brought you to the land of the Amorites who dwelt on the other side of the Jordan (Yarden), and they fought with you; and I gave them into your hand, and you took possession of their land, and I destroyed them from before you. 9 And Balak (Balaq) the son of Zippor (Tsipor), the king of Moab (Mo'av), arose and fought against Israel; and he sent and called for Balaam (Bilam) the son of Beor to curse you. 10 And I was not willing to listen to Balaam; and he surely blessed you, and I delivered you from his hand. 11 And you passed over the Jordan and came to Jericho (Yericho); and the lords of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites and the Hittites and the Girgashites, the Hivites and the Jebusites; and I

23:12 cling to the remainder of these nations You will cling to something, either to the LORD (23:8) or to the nations. There is no third choice.
23:12 intermarry with them Marriage to those who worshiped other gods would bring those gods into Israel's homes. This was not about race. Rahab and Ruth married into Israel after turning to the LORD (Ruth 1:16). It was about faith. Solomon's foreign wives turned his heart (1 Kgs 11:1-4). Believers are told, "Do not become unequally yoked with unbelievers" (2 Cor 6:14).
23:13 a trap and a snare, and a scourge in your sides and thorns in your eyes A trap, a whip, thorns in the eyes: the sin Israel tolerated would wound them. The next generation did just this, and God said these nations would be thorns in their sides (Judg 2:1-3).
23:14 I am going today in the way of all the earth He was about to die, the road every person walks. He did not ask them to take his word that God keeps His promises. He asked them to look at their own lives (21:45). They had seen the Jordan stop and Jericho fall, and they lived in houses they did not build. When we remember how faithful God has been, it is easier to trust Him for what lies ahead.
23:15 so the LORD will bring on you every evil word The evil word means the word of disaster, the curses of the Law (Lev 26:14-39; Deut 28:15-68). If God keeps His promises, He also keeps His warnings.
23:16 you will perish quickly from off the good land This came true when Assyria took the northern kingdom in 722 B.C. (2 Kgs 17:7-18) and Babylon took Judah in 586 B.C. Yet God promised to bring them back (Jer 29:10-14), and one day He will restore Israel fully (Rom 11:25-29). Grace is no license to sin: "Let the one who thinks he stands watch, lest he fall" (1 Cor 10:12). Remember, obey, cling, love.
24:1 Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem Shechem lay between Mount Ebal and Mount Gerizim. Abraham built his first altar in Canaan there (Gen 12:6-7), Jacob buried his household's idols nearby (Gen 35:4), and Joshua read the Law there after Ai (8:30-35). It was the right place to renew the covenant. "Before God" tells us this was a worship meeting, held in His presence.
24:2 your fathers dwelt from long ago, Terah the father of Abraham The River is the Euphrates. Abraham's family lived in Ur and Haran (Gen 11:27-32), and they "served other gods." Israel did not begin with a good family that found God, but with an idol-worshiping family that God found. Scripture does not say what Abraham believed before God called him. It says God came to him first (Acts 7:2). He believed "on the One who justifies the ungodly" (Rom 4:5). Every believer has the same story. We were not seeking God. He sought us.
24:3 I took your father Abraham from the other side of the River Count the verbs: I took, I led, I multiplied, I gave. God did it all. Abraham's part was to believe and go (Heb 11:8). God was generous even to Esau, giving him Edom.
24:7 your eyes saw what I did in Egypt Some of the older people at Shechem had seen it as children (Exod 14:19-20). It was a memory, not a legend.
24:10 I was not willing to listen to Balaam; and he surely blessed you Balak hired Balaam to curse Israel (Num 22-24), and every time Balaam opened his mouth to curse, God turned it into blessing.

gave them into your hand. 12 And I sent the hornet before you, and it drove them out from before you, the two kings of the Amorites; not by your sword and not by your bow. 13 And I gave you a land on which you had not labored, and cities which you had not built, and you dwelt in them; vineyards and olive trees which you had not planted, you are eating.'

Choose Whom You Will Serve

14 And now, fear the LORD and serve Him in integrity and in truth; and remove the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD. 15 And if it is evil in your eyes to serve the LORD, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served that were on the other side of the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are dwelling. And I and my house, we will serve the LORD." 16 And the people answered and said, "Far be it from us to forsake the LORD to serve other gods; 17 for the LORD our God, He is the One who brought us and our fathers up from the land of Egypt, from a house of slaves, and who did these great signs before our eyes, and kept us in all the way in which we went and among all the peoples through whose midst we passed. 18 And the LORD drove out from before us all the peoples, and the Amorites, the inhabitants of the land. We also, we will serve the LORD, for He is our God." 19 And Joshua said to the people, "You will not be able to serve the LORD, for He is a holy God; He is a jealous God; He will not forgive your transgression and your sins. 20 If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, then He will turn and do you harm and make an end of you, after He has done good to you." 21 And the people said to Joshua, "No, but the LORD we will serve." 22 And Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen for yourselves the LORD, to serve Him." And they said, "Witnesses." 23 "And now, remove the foreign gods which are in your midst, and incline your heart to the LORD, the God of Israel." 24 And the people said to Joshua, "The LORD our God we will serve, and to His voice we will listen." 25 And Joshua made a covenant with the people on that day, and he set for them a statute and a judgment at Shechem. 26 And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God; and he took a great stone and set it up there under the oak that was at the sanctuary of the LORD. 27 And Joshua said to all the people, "Look, this stone shall become a witness against us, for it has heard all the sayings of the LORD which He spoke with us; and it shall become a witness against you, lest you deny your God." 28 And Joshua sent the people away, each man to his inheritance.

Three Graves in the Land

29 And it was after these things, and Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, a son of a hundred and ten years. 30 And they buried him in the territory of his inheri-

24:12 I sent the hornet before you God promised the hornet in Exodus 23:28. Some take it as real swarms driving the enemy out. Others take it as a picture of the panic God sent ahead of Israel (2:9-11; Exod 23:27). Either way, "not by your sword and not by your bow." Jacob once spoke of land taken "with my sword and with my bow" (Gen 48:22). God says it was not their sword at all.

24:13 cities which you had not built Moses warned them not to forget the LORD when this happened (Deut 6:10-12). Everything they had was a gift. So is our salvation: "For by grace you have been saved through faith" (Eph 2:8).

24:14 fear the LORD and serve Him in integrity and in truth Grace comes first, and service answers it. Joshua did not say serve God so He will save you, but He has saved you, so serve Him. To fear the LORD is to honor Him with awe. Integrity means a whole heart, and truth means sincerely. Some still kept idols, even from Egypt (Ezek 20:7-8). An idol is anything we trust, love or serve in God's place. "Little children, guard yourselves from idols" (1 John 5:21).

24:15 choose for yourselves today whom you will serve Joshua was not saying the choice did not matter. If you think serving the LORD is bad after all He has done, then pick another god, but be honest. And look at the choices: gods that left Terah in Haran, or Amorite gods that had just lost to the LORD. There is no real choice but the LORD (1 Kgs 18:21; Matt 6:24). Everyone serves something. And "today": tomorrow is not promised (Heb 3:7-8).

24:15 And I and my house, we will serve the LORD An old man with nothing left to prove said where he stood before he knew what the crowd would do. In that day the head of a family led its worship. He could not believe for his children, but he could lead them and set the example (Eph 6:4). This verse hangs on many walls. It is a decision made today and made again every day. Has your house made it? Have you?

24:18 We also, we will serve the LORD, for He is our God The right answer for the right reason: because of who He is and what He had done.

24:19 You will not be able to serve the LORD, for He is a holy God Joshua was not talking them out of it. He wanted them to count the cost. A holy God is pure and set apart from sin. A jealous God does not share His people with other gods (Exod 20:5), as a faithful husband does not share his wife. "He will not forgive" does not mean God never forgives. The Law was full of forgiveness through sacrifice. He will not overlook deliberate turning to idols. Some read the words as a spur to commitment, or as foreseeing Israel's failure.

24:20 If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods In their own strength they could not keep this promise, as Judges would show. We need a new heart, which God promised in the new covenant (Jer 31:31-34; Ezek 36:26-27). Through Christ we receive forgiveness and the Spirit, who makes us able to serve. "Apart from Me you are not able to do anything" (John 15:5).

24:23 incline your heart to the LORD, the God of Israel A promise to serve God means nothing if the idols stay. To incline the heart is to bend it toward Him, leaning your whole life in His direction.

24:26 Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God One place where the book says Joshua wrote at least part of it, adding this covenant to the Law Moses wrote (Deut 31:24-26). The oak may be the one where Jacob buried his family's idols (Gen 35:4).

24:27 this stone shall become a witness against us A stone cannot hear. Joshua was speaking vividly. It would stand long after they were gone, a silent reminder of their promise.

24:29 Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died At the start only Moses was called "the servant of the LORD" (1:1). Now Joshua has the same title, and there is none higher. He died at the age Joseph died (Gen 50:26). Jewish tradition holds that this closing account was added by another hand, likely Eleazar or Phinehas.

24:31 all the days of the elders who lengthened days after Joshua While those who had seen God's works lived, Israel stayed faithful. Then "another generation arose after them who did not know the LORD" (Judg 2:10). Faith must be passed on. We tell God's works to the next generation, "that they may set their confidence in God" (Ps 78:7).
24:32 the bones of Joseph, which the sons of Israel had brought up from Egypt Dying in Egypt, Joseph made Israel swear to carry his bones up (Gen 50:25). Moses took them out on the night of the exodus (Exod 13:19), through the sea, the wilderness and the Jordan. Hebrews counts this as faith (Heb 11:22). Joseph was sure God would keep His promise, though he would not see it. God kept it. The field was the one Jacob bought (Gen 33:19).
24:33 Eleazar the son of Aaron died He served beside Joshua in dividing the land (14:1), and Phinehas carried on after him (Judg 20:28). The book ends with three graves, all in the land God promised. Yet each man died. Joshua could give Israel the land but not eternal rest (Heb 4:8). That rest comes through a greater Joshua, Jesus, whose name means the LORD saves. Joshua's tomb is still closed. Jesus' tomb is empty.

Introduction

Title

The book is named for the leaders God raised up in it. The Hebrew title is Shophtim, which means judges. In this book a judge (Hebrew shophet) is not mainly a man in a robe in a courtroom. He or she was a leader God raised up to rescue His people from their enemies and then to lead them and settle their disputes. The book itself calls Othniel and Ehud "a savior" (3:9, 15). Judges is the seventh book of the Bible. It comes right after Joshua and right before Ruth, and it picks up the story just after Joshua's death. Judges has 21 chapters and 618 verses. Twelve judges are named: Othniel, Ehud, Shamgar, Deborah (with Barak), Gideon, Tola, Jair, Jephthah, Ibzan, Elon, Abdon and Samson. Abimelech, Gideon's son, made himself king, but God never raised him up.

Author and Date

The book does not name its writer. Jewish tradition names Samuel, the last of the judges and the prophet who anointed Saul and David. The book gives a few clues. The writer keeps saying there was "no king in Israel" (17:6; 21:25; compare 18:1; 19:1), so he wrote when Israel did have a king and could look back on the time before. He also says the Jebusites still lived in Jerusalem "until this day" (1:21), which points to a time before David captured the city (2 Sam 5:6-9). That fits Samuel well. Most likely the book was written early in the time of the kings, about 1050 to 1000 B.C., during the reign of Saul or the first years of David. Many modern scholars believe Judges was put together centuries later, during or after the exile, from older stories, as part of a longer history running from Deuteronomy to Kings. I take the book as an early, true record. Its clues point to the first days of the kings, and nothing in it requires a later date.

After the conquest under Joshua, each tribe received its land and was responsible to drive out the Canaanites who were left. There was no capital city, no king and no standing army. The tabernacle, where the ark of the covenant was kept, stood at Shiloh (18:31; Josh 18:1). The tribes often acted alone, and sometimes fought each other (8:1-3; 12:1-6; chapter 20). Enemies came from every side: a king from Mesopotamia, Moab and Ammon from the east, the Canaanites of Hazor in the north, Midian and Amalek from the desert, and the Philistines on the coast.

The judges ruled from shortly after Joshua's death until Saul became king, about 1375 to 1050 B.C. This fits an exodus of about 1446 B.C. (1 Kgs 6:1) and the entry into Canaan about 1406 B.C. It also fits Jephthah's word that Israel had lived in those lands "three hundred years" (11:26). Scholars who hold a later exodus shorten the period. If you add up every number of years in Judges, the total comes to about 410 years, more than the time available. The best answer is that some judges overlapped. They were mostly local leaders, and the LORD gave Israel to the Philistines and to the Ammonites at the same time (10:7), so Jephthah fought in the east while Samson's Philistine years were under way in the west. The last five chapters do not come after Samson in time. They happened early in the period, when Phinehas, Aaron's grandson, still served as priest (20:28).

The first readers were Israel in the early days of the kingdom. They had asked for a king (1 Sam 8:5), and Judges showed them why Israel was in such trouble without one, and also that a king alone could not fix them. Their real problem was that they had left the LORD, who was supposed to be their King (8:23; 1 Sam 8:7).

Themes

Judges shows what happens when God's people forget Him and every person becomes his own authority. Joshua ends with the people promising to serve the LORD. Judges opens with tribes that did not finish driving out the Canaanites. They made peace with them, married them and worshiped their gods. A generation grew up "who did not know the LORD" (2:10).

The book runs in a cycle, laid out in 2:11-19 and repeated in story after story. Israel does "the evil in the eyes of the LORD" (3:7). The LORD gives them into the hand of an enemy. They cry out. The LORD raises up a judge who saves them, and the land has rest while the judge lives. Then the judge dies and the people go back to their sin. Each turn goes lower than the one before, until the last chapters show idolatry, a crime like Sodom's and civil war. The closing line sums it up: "each man did what was right in his own eyes" (21:25).

The other side is God's mercy. Again and again He heard His people when they had brought trouble on themselves, for "the LORD was moved to compassion by their groaning" (2:18). Judges shows that God keeps His word, both His warnings and His promises (2:1-3, 15), that sin always takes people further than they meant to go, and that Israel needed a righteous king who would lead them in the ways of the LORD.

Christ in Judges

Every judge in this book was a savior with a shelf life. Each one rescued Israel for a while, then died, and the people slid back. Several had deep flaws. The book leaves us longing for a better Deliverer and a righteous King. Hebrews names Gideon, Barak, Samson and Jephthah among those who acted by faith (Heb 11:32), so God used weak people who trusted Him, and He still does. But only Jesus Christ saves completely and never dies again. He is "able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through Him, always living to intercede for them" (Heb 7:25). The Spirit of the LORD came on the judges for their work (3:10; 6:34; 11:29; 14:6). God gave the Spirit to Christ without measure (John 3:34), and Christ gives His Spirit to everyone who believes. Many Bible teachers also see the angel of the LORD, who appears in chapters 2, 6 and 13 and speaks as the LORD Himself, as the Son of God appearing before He was born in Bethlehem. Others see a created angel who speaks for God. The need for a king, partly met in David, is fully met in David's Son, who will one day reign over Israel and the whole earth (Luke 1:32-33).

Hard Passages

Judges is full of violence, and much of it is recorded, not approved. Adoni-bezek's thumbs and toes (1:6), Ehud's killing of Eglon (3:21) and Jael's killing of Sisera (4:21) were acts of war against foreign oppressors. The notes give the readings fairly and do not make deceit a pattern for today (Matt 5:44; Rom 12:19).

Jephthah's vow (11:30-31, 39) was rash. Teachers read its end two ways, as a burnt offering or as lifelong dedicated service as a virgin. God forbids child sacrifice, and the notes give both readings without a verdict. Samson (chapters 13-16) was set apart and gifted by the Spirit, yet lived by his own desires. His sins with women and his acts of revenge are reported plainly and modestly. God worked His purpose against the Philistines through him and in spite of him (14:4). His death (16:30) is read as an act of war and judgment God answered, not suicide from despair, and the notes add a pastoral word.

Abimelech murdered his seventy brothers (9:5), and God repaid him (9:56-57). Dan's slaughter of peaceful Laish (18:27-28) had no word from God behind it. The abuse and death of the Levite's concubine (19:25-30) is named plainly as evil without detail, with a word for anyone who has suffered abuse. The war against Benjamin cost Israel forty thousand men after they asked the LORD (20:18-25), and the notes give the reasons teachers have offered. Israel's destruction of Benjamin's towns (20:48), the massacre at Jabesh-gilead and the seizing of the daughters of Shiloh (21:10-23) went far beyond justice and were never commanded by God. The large numbers in the book are taken as written, and the view that "thousand" can mean a clan or unit is named.

Judah and Simeon Go Up First

1 And it was after the death of Joshua (Yehoshua), and the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) inquired of the LORD, saying, "Who will go up for us against the Canaanites at the first, to fight against them?" 2 And the LORD said, "Judah (Yehuda) will go up. And Simeon went with him. 4 And Judah went up, and the LORD gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand, and they struck them at Bezek (Bezeq), ten thousand men. 5 And they found Adoni-bezek (Adoni-Vezeq) at Bezek, and they fought against him, and they struck the Canaanites and the Perizzites. 6 And Adoni-bezek fled, and they pursued after him, and they seized him, and they cut off the thumbs of his hands and of his feet. 7 And Adoni-bezek said, "Seventy kings, the thumbs of their hands and of their feet cut off, were gathering up under my table. 1:1 the sons of Israel inquired of the LORD With Joshua dead, Israel had no single leader, so they did the right thing and asked God. The priest most likely asked through the Urim and Thummim, the sacred lots kept in the high priest's breastpiece (Num 27:21).
1:2 Judah will go up. Look, I have given the land into his hand Judah was the tribe of kingship, blessed with the scepter (Gen 49:10). God gave the promise before the battle began. He does not ask us to win His battles for Him. He asks us to believe Him and go.
1:3 Come up with me into my lot Simeon's land lay inside Judah's in the south (Josh 19:1, 9), so the two tribes fought side by side. The Perizzites (1:4) were one of the peoples of Canaan, probably living in open villages in the hills.
1:6 they cut off the thumbs of his hands and of his feet A man without thumbs cannot hold a sword or bow, and without big toes he cannot run or keep his balance. It ended his life as a warrior.
1:7 Just as I have done, so God has repaid me He had done the same to seventy kings and made them gather scraps under his table like dogs. A pagan king saw God's hand in it. What he sowed he reaped (Gal 6:7). Scripture records what Judah did but does not say God commanded it. The Law's rule that punishment fit the crime (Exod 21:23-25) was for judges in a court, not a license for revenge. God sees how the powerful treat the weak, and in His time He repays.
1:8 the sons of Judah fought against Jerusalem, and they captured it Yet verse 21 says the Jebusites stayed, and David took the city for good centuries later (2 Sam 5:6-9). Most likely Judah took and burned the lower city but did not hold it, and the Jebusites kept the strong hilltop.
1:10 they struck Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai These sons of Anak frightened the ten spies forty years before (Num 13:22, 28). What the fathers feared, the sons defeated. This summarizes Joshua 15:13-19.
1:13 Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, younger than he Caleb, one of the two faithful spies, was now old (Josh 14:10-12). Othniel matters. In chapter 3 he becomes the first judge.
1:15 Give me a blessing Land in the dry Negeb is not worth much without water, so Achsah asked for springs, and Caleb gave her more than she asked. In a chapter full of people settling for less, here is a woman who wanted all that God had given her family. We should ask our Father the same way (Matt 7:11; James 4:2).
1:16 the sons of the Kenite, the father-in-law of Moses Moses' father-in-law is called Hobab in 4:11 (compare Num 10:29-32). The Kenites came with Israel from the wilderness and settled with Judah near Arad. "The city of the palm trees" is Jericho (Deut 34:3). Not Israelites by birth, they joined God's people. Jael, in chapter 4, was one of them.
1:17 they devoted it to destruction; and he called the name of the city Hormah To devote to destruction translates the Hebrew herem: giving a city wholly to God in judgment, with nothing kept for the soldiers. God commanded this for Canaan's cities because of their long and deep wickedness (Gen 15:16; Deut 9:5). Hormah sounds like herem.
1:18 Judah captured Gaza and its territory, and Ashkelon and its territory, and Ekron Three of the five main Philistine cities. Judah did not keep them long. By Samson's day the Philistines held them again.

1:19 the LORD was with Judah That is the key fact. Chariots were the tanks of the ancient world. But Joshua had said Israel would drive out the valley people "though they have chariots of iron" (Josh 17:18), and in chapter 4 God defeats nine hundred iron chariots in a day. The problem was not God's power. It was Israel's faith.
1:20 he dispossessed from there the three sons of Anak Caleb received Hebron as Moses promised (Num 14:24). One old man who trusted God did what whole tribes did not.
1:21 the sons of Benjamin did not dispossess To dispossess means to drive a people out and take their land. We will hear this phrase again and again in the chapter. "Until this day" shows the book was written before David took the city.
1:24 we will do steadfast love with you Steadfast love is hesed, faithful, loyal love. It sounds like Rahab's story, but it ends differently. Rahab joined Israel and trusted its God (Josh 6:25). This man went off and built a copy of the old pagan city. He was saved from the sword but never turned to the LORD. It is possible to be near God's people and come away unchanged.
1:27 the Canaanites were determined to dwell in this land Beth-shean, Taanach and Megiddo guarded the main roads and the great Jezreel Valley. The Canaanites dug in, and Manasseh let them.
1:28 put the Canaanites to forced labor, and did not utterly dispossess them Not a lack of strength but a choice. Making money from the Canaanites looked better than obeying God, who had said, "you shall not make a covenant with them" (Deut 7:2). What Israel kept around to serve them would soon rule them.
1:32 the Asherites dwelt in the midst of the Canaanites Each line is a little worse. At first the Canaanites lived among Israel. Now Israel lived among the Canaanites, as if they were the guests. That is how compromise works. We let sin stay in a corner, then make a deal with it, and in the end we are living in its house.
1:34 the Amorites pressed the sons of Dan into the hill country Dan did not just fail to drive the enemy out. Dan was driven out, which is why the Danites go looking for land in the far north in chapter 18.
1:36 the border of the Amorites The chapter ends with the enemy still holding its ground. Judges begins with this list because everything that follows grows out of it. The idols, the wars and the moral collapse all started with partial obedience.
2:1 the angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bochim Gilgal was Israel's first camp in the land, where they renewed the covenant (Josh 5:9-10). The angel speaks as the LORD Himself: "I brought you up from Egypt." No ordinary angel could say that. Many teachers believe the angel of the LORD was the Son of God, appearing before He was born in Bethlehem.
2:1 I will not break My covenant with you forever A covenant is a binding agreement, here one God Himself made and swore to keep. God had kept His side. Israel's side was plain: no covenant with the people of the land, and pull down their altars.

have done? 3 And also I have said, 'I will not drive them out from before you; and they shall become thorns in your sides, and their gods shall become a snare to you.'" 4 And it was, when the angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the sons of Israel (Yisra'el), and the people lifted up their voice and wept. 5 And they called the name of that place Bochim, and they sacrificed there to the LORD.

A Generation That Did Not Know the LORD

6 And Joshua (Yehoshua) sent the people away, and the sons of Israel went, each man to his inheritance, to take possession of the land. 7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who prolonged days after Joshua, who had seen all the great work of the LORD which He had done for Israel. 8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, a son of a hundred and ten years. 9 And they buried him in the territory of his inheritance, in Timnath-heres (Timnat-Cheres), in the hill country of Ephraim (Efrayim), on the north of the mountain of Gaash. 10 And also all that generation were gathered to their fathers; and another generation arose after them who did not know the LORD, and also the work which He had done for Israel. 11 And the sons of Israel did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, and they served the Baals. 12 And they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out from the land of Egypt, and they went after other gods, from the gods of the peoples who were around them, and they bowed down to them; and they provoked the LORD to anger. 13 And they forsook the LORD, and they served the Baal and the Ashtaroth. 14 And the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He gave them into the hand of plunderers, and they plundered them; and He sold them into the hand of their enemies all around, and they were not able any longer to stand before their enemies. 15 In every place where they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, just as the LORD had spoken, and just as the LORD had sworn to them; and it was distressing to them exceedingly.

The LORD Raises Up Judges

16 And the LORD raised up judges, and they saved them from the hand of their plunderers. 17 And also to their judges they did not listen, for they prostituted themselves after other gods, and they bowed down to them; they turned aside quickly from the way in which their fathers had walked, listening to the commandments of the LORD; they did not do so. 18 And when the LORD raised up judges for them, and the LORD was with the judge, and He saved them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for the LORD was moved to compassion by their groaning because of those who oppressed them and those who crushed them. 19 And it was, when the judge died, they turned back and acted more corruptly than their fathers, by walking after other gods, to serve them and to bow down to them; they did not let fall any of their deeds or of their stubborn way. 20 And the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He said, "Because this nation has transgressed My covenant which I commanded their fathers, and they have not listened to My voice, 21 I also will not again dispossess anyone from before them of

2:3 they shall become thorns in your sides, and their gods shall become a snare to you God had warned of this very thing (Num 33:55; Josh 23:13). He was not changing the deal. He was keeping His word.
2:5 they called the name of that place Bochim Bochim means weepers. I believe the tears were real, but tears are not the same as turning, and the rest of the chapter shows nothing changed. Godly sorrow brings repentance, while worldly sorrow does not (2 Cor 7:10). We can feel sorry about the results of sin and still not let go of it. Real repentance changes what we do next.
2:7 the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua The writer goes back in time and repeats Joshua 24:28-31. Joshua died at 110 and was buried in his own land. Timnath-heres (2:9) is another form of the name Timnath-serah (Josh 19:50).
2:10 another generation arose after them who did not know the LORD One of the saddest verses in the Bible. These were the grandchildren of people who saw the sea part and Jericho fall. Faith is not passed down by blood. God told parents to teach His words at home and on the road (Deut 6:7), and somewhere the parents stopped. What our children know about God will not come from what we saw. It will come from what we tell them and show them.
2:11 the sons of Israel did the evil in the eyes of the LORD This phrase opens almost every new story in the book. Here the cycle begins: sin, oppression, crying out, a deliverer, then falling back again.
2:11 they served the Baals Baal means lord or master. He was the storm god of Canaan, worshiped as the giver of rain and crops, and "the Baals" are his many local forms. The Ashtaroth (2:13) were forms of Ashtoreth, a goddess of love, fertility and war, and their worship often included sexual rites. Israel's wanderers had become farmers, and the Canaanites said Baal made the fields grow. The pull was practical: worship what seems to work.
2:14 He sold them into the hand of their enemies all around God's anger is not a tantrum. It is His holy, steady response to evil, the anger of a faithful husband whose wife has gone after other men. The language is from the market. Israel sold themselves to other gods, so God let them be sold.
2:15 just as the LORD had spoken, and just as the LORD had sworn to them God warned them in the Law (Lev 26:17; Deut 28:25) and did exactly what He said. That is hard, but also a comfort. The God who keeps His warnings keeps His promises.
2:16 the LORD raised up judges, and they saved them The judges were not elected. God raised them up. A judge in this book was a deliverer first and a leader second.
2:17 they prostituted themselves after other gods The Bible often pictures idolatry as unfaithfulness in marriage, because God's covenant with Israel was like a marriage (Hos 2:19-20; James 4:4).
2:18 the LORD was moved to compassion by their groaning This is the heart of the book. What moved God was not their good deeds but their groaning. Their misery was their own fault, and God still had compassion on them.
2:19 they turned back and acted more corruptly than their fathers Each turn of the cycle went lower. That is often the pattern of our own hearts too. We cry out, God rescues us, and we drift back. Thank God that "where sin increased, grace abounded all the more" (Rom 5:20).

1 And these are the nations which the LORD left, to test Israel (Yisra'el) by them, all who had not known all the wars of Canaan (Kena'an), 2 only so that the generations of the sons of Israel might know, to teach them war, only those who formerly had not known them: 3 the five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites dwelling on the mountain of the Lebanon (Levanon), from the mountain of Baal-hermon (Ba'al-Chermon) as far as the entrance of Hamath (Chamat). 4 And they were to test Israel by them, to know whether they would listen to the commandments of the LORD which He had commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses (Moshe). 5 And the sons of Israel dwelt in the midst of the Canaanites, the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites. 6 And they took their daughters for themselves as wives, and their own daughters they gave to their sons, and they served their gods.

Othniel

7 And the sons of Israel did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, and they forgot the LORD their God, and they served the Baals and the Asherahs. 8 And the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He sold them into the hand of Cushan-rishathaim (Kushan-Rishatayim) the king of Mesopotamia (Aram-Naharayim); and the sons of Israel served Cushan-rishathaim eight years. 9 And the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD, and the LORD raised up a savior for the sons of Israel, and he saved them: Othniel (Otni'el) the son of Kenaz (Qenaz), the brother of Caleb (Kalev), younger than he. 10 And the Spirit of the LORD was on him, and he judged Israel, and he went out to war; and the LORD gave Cushan-rishathaim the king of Aram into his hand, and his hand prevailed over Cushan-rishathaim. 11 And the land was at rest forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

2:22 in order to test Israel by them God did not leave these nations because He could not defeat them. He left them as a test: would Israel trust and obey Him in the fight, or make peace with evil? God still lets hard things stay in our lives for a time, to show what is in our hearts and teach us to depend on Him.
2:23 He did not give them into the hand of Joshua Joshua took the land as a whole (Josh 11:23), but God planned that the last work of driving out the nations would be done little by little, as each tribe trusted Him (Exod 23:29-30).
3:1 these are the nations which the LORD left, to test Israel by them Two reasons are given: to teach war to a generation that had not fought in the conquest, and to see whether they would obey (3:4). God does not test us to find out what we will do. He already knows. He tests us so that what is in our hearts comes into the open, and so we learn to fight His way.
3:3 the five lords of the Philistines The rulers of the five Philistine cities on the coast: Gaza, Ashkelon, Ashdod, Gath and Ekron. With the peoples to the north as far as Lebanon, they ringed the land.
3:6 they took their daughters for themselves as wives The order is no accident. Living among them led to marrying them, and marrying them led to worshiping their gods, just as God warned (Deut 7:3-4). The issue was never race. Rahab and Ruth were foreigners welcomed when they trusted the LORD. The issue was faith (2 Cor 6:14).
3:7 they forgot the LORD their God, and they served the Baals and the Asherahs The first full turn of the cycle. The Asherahs were wooden poles or trees set up beside altars in honor of Asherah, a Canaanite mother goddess.
3:8 Cushan-rishathaim the king of Mesopotamia His name means something like Cushan of double wickedness, perhaps a nickname Israel gave him. Mesopotamia here is the land between the great rivers to the far northeast, the region Abraham had left long before.
3:9 the LORD raised up a savior for the sons of Israel The judges were saviors in a small way. Each one points toward the great Savior God would one day send. Othniel was of Judah, from Caleb's family, a family that had believed God (1:13).
3:10 the Spirit of the LORD was on him In the Old Testament the Spirit came on certain people to give them power for a task, often for a time. Since Pentecost the Holy Spirit lives in every believer and stays (John 14:17).
3:11 the land was at rest forty years Othniel is the clean pattern of a judge: raised by God, filled with the Spirit, victorious, and nothing told against him. After him the judges grow more and more flawed.
3:12 the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel God used even a pagan king to discipline His people. Moab lay east of the Dead Sea. Eglon crossed the Jordan and took Jericho, "the city of the palm trees," and ruled eighteen years, more than twice as long as the first oppressor.
3:15 a man restricted in his right hand That is, left-handed. There is a quiet irony here. Benjamin means son of the right hand, and here is a son of the right hand who fights with his left. Benjamin seems to have had many left-handed fighters (20:16). Tribute was the yearly payment a conquered people made to the king who ruled them.
3:16 he girded it under his garments on his right thigh A right-handed man wears his sword on the left, so a guard would check there. No one checked Ehud's right. The writer's note that Eglon "was a very fat man" (3:17) matters to what follows.

3:19 the carved images which were at Gilgal Probably stone idols or carved stones marking the border of Eglon's control. There Ehud turned back alone.
3:20 I have a word of God for you The words were exactly right, though Eglon did not understand them. God's message for this king was judgment.
3:21 he thrust it into his belly This is one of the hard passages of Judges. Israel was under a foreign king who invaded and ruled them by force for eighteen years. Ehud was no private man settling a grudge. The LORD raised him up as a savior, and this was an act of war against an oppressor, the first blow in a battle for freedom. The Bible records his trick but does not make deception a pattern for us. The sword now belongs to governing authorities (Rom 13:4), and believers leave vengeance to God (Rom 12:19).
3:24 Surely he is covering his feet in the cool chamber That is, relieving himself (compare 1 Sam 24:3). The servants waited, embarrassed, and every minute they stood outside gave Ehud more time to escape.
3:28 the LORD has given your enemies, Moab, into your hand Ehud blew the ram's horn, the shofar, to call Israel to war, and gave the credit where it belonged. They seized the fords of the Jordan, the shallow crossings, so the Moabites on the west side could not get home.
3:30 the land was at rest eighty years The longest rest in the book, two full generations of peace. God's mercy was greater than Israel's sin.
3:31 Shamgar the son of Anath Anath was a Canaanite war goddess, so Shamgar may have come from a family or town with a pagan background. An ox goad was a long wooden pole, often eight feet or so, with a metal point for driving oxen. He had no sword, no army and no famous family, only a farm tool. God is not limited by what we have in our hands. The Song of Deborah remembers his days as a time when the roads were too dangerous to travel (5:6).
4:1 the sons of Israel again did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, and Ehud had died As long as the judge lived, the people held on. When he died, they let go.
4:2 Jabin the king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor Hazor was the greatest city in the north. Joshua had burned it and killed a king named Jabin there (Josh 11:1, 10-11). It had been rebuilt, and this Jabin was probably a later king of the same line. The name may have been a royal title, like Pharaoh.
4:3 he oppressed the sons of Israel with force twenty years Eight years, then eighteen, now twenty. Each oppression in Judges is longer than the last. Sin gets heavier the longer we carry it.
4:4 Deborah, a woman, a prophetess A prophetess was a woman through whom God spoke His word, like Miriam (Exod 15:20) and Huldah (2 Kgs 22:14). Deborah is the only judge in the book also called a prophet, and she is first seen settling disputes and giving God's word, not leading an army. Some see her leadership as unusual, a sign of how weak Israel's men had become. Others see it as showing God can call women to lead His people. Either way, the text treats her with respect.
4:6 Has not the LORD, the God of Israel, commanded Deborah did not give Barak her own idea. She gave him God's command. Mount Tabor is a tall, round hill at the northeast edge of the Jezreel Valley, a safe place for foot soldiers out of reach of chariots.

Zebulun (Zevulun). 7 And I will draw to you, to the wadi Kishon (Qishon), Sisera the commander of the army of Jabin, and his chariots and his multitude, and I will give him into your hand'?" 8 And Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, then I will go; and if you will not go with me, I will not go." 9 And she said, "I will surely go with you; nevertheless the honor will not be yours on the way on which you are going, for into the hand of a woman the LORD will sell Sisera." And Deborah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh. 10 And Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, and ten thousand men went up at his feet; and Deborah went up with him. 11 And Heber (Chever) the Kenite had separated from the Kenites (Qayin), from the sons of Hobab (Chovav), the father-in-law of Moses (Moshe), and he had pitched his tent as far as the terebinth in Zaanannim (Tsa'ananim), which is near Kedesh. 12 And they told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to the mountain of Tabor. 13 And Sisera summoned all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth-hagoyim to the wadi Kishon. 14 And Deborah said to Barak, "Arise, for this is the day on which the LORD has given Sisera into your hand. Has not the LORD gone out before you?" And Barak went down from the mountain of Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. 15 And the LORD threw Sisera and all the chariots and all the camp into confusion by the mouth of the sword before Barak; and Sisera got down from on the chariot, and he fled on his feet. 16 And Barak pursued after the chariots and after the camp as far as Harosheth-hagoyim; and all the camp of Sisera fell by the mouth of the sword; not even one was left.

Jael and Sisera

17 And Sisera fled on his feet to the tent of Jael (Ya'el) the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. 18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and she said to him, "Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; do not be afraid." And he turned aside to her into the tent, and she covered him with the blanket. 19 And he said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." And she opened the skin of milk, and she gave him a drink, and she covered him. 20 And he said to her, "Stand at the entrance of the tent, and it shall be, if a man comes and asks you and says, 'Is there a man here?' and you shall say, 'No.'" 21 And Jael the wife of Heber took the peg of the tent, and she put the hammer in her hand, and she went to him secretly, and she drove the peg into his temple, and it went down into the ground; and he was fast asleep, and he was weary, and he died. 22 And look, Barak was pursuing Sisera, and Jael went out to meet him, and she said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking." And he came to her, and look, Sisera was fallen dead, and the peg was in his temple. 23 And God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the sons of Israel. 24 And the hand of the sons of Israel went on, going and growing hard against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had cut off Jabin the king of Canaan.

4:7 I will draw to you, to the wadi Kishon, Sisera A wadi is a stream bed dry much of the year that can flood quickly after rain. God told Barak where the battle would be, who would come and how it would end.
4:8 If you will go with me, then I will go Some see weak faith: God had promised victory, and Barak wanted a person to lean on. Others see a man who wanted God's prophet beside him to hear God's word in the battle. There may be some of both. Hebrews 11:32 still names Barak among the people of faith.
4:9 into the hand of a woman the LORD will sell Sisera Most readers think at first Deborah means herself. She doesn't. The woman is someone we have not met yet.
4:11 Heber the Kenite had separated from the Kenites The Kenites were the family of Moses' father-in-law (1:16). Heber had moved north and was at peace with Jabin (4:17). His tent is where the story will end. God was setting the pieces in place before anyone knew it.
4:14 Has not the LORD gone out before you? Deborah gave the word, and Barak went down the mountain with his ten thousand behind him.
4:15 the LORD threw Sisera and all the chariots and all the camp into confusion The Song adds that the heavens poured rain and "The wadi Kishon swept them away" (5:4, 21). Chariots that were terrifying on dry ground were useless in mud and floodwater. What made Sisera strong became his trap.
4:17 Sisera fled on his feet to the tent of Jael He expected a safe place, since Heber's household was at peace with Jabin.
4:18 Turn aside, my lord, turn aside to me; do not be afraid In that culture a guest in your tent was under your protection. Sisera trusted that custom and the peace with Heber. But Jael had made her own choice about whose side she was on.
4:21 Jael the wife of Heber took the peg of the tent Tent pegs and hammers were the tools women of the tents used to pitch the family's tent. This is a hard passage, read more than one way. Some note that she deceived a guest and killed a sleeping man, and that the Bible records it without approving every part. Others note that Sisera commanded the army that crushed Israel for twenty years, that this was war, and that she sided with God's people when her husband's family sided with the oppressor. The Song calls her "blessed above women" (5:24). She is not a pattern for us. We are called to love our enemies (Matt 5:44).
4:22 Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking God's word came true (4:9). Barak's honor went to a woman, just as Deborah said.
4:23 God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan The writer makes sure we know who won. It was not Deborah, Barak or Jael. It was God.
4:24 going and growing hard against Jabin the king of Canaan The victory at the Kishon was the turning point, but finishing the job took steady effort. God gives a great victory, then calls us to keep walking in it.
5:1 Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam sang on that day They did not wait. When God has done something great, the first right response is praise. Many scholars count this song among the oldest poems in the Bible.
5:2 when the people volunteered, bless the LORD! God gave the victory through people who were willing. The leaders led, and the people came.

teered, bless the LORD! 3 Hear, O kings; give ear, O rulers! I, to the LORD, I, let me sing; I will sing praise to the LORD, the God of Israel. 4 O LORD, when You went out from Seir (Se'ir), when You marched from the field of Edom, the earth shook, also the heavens dropped, also the clouds dropped water. 5 The mountains flowed from before the LORD, this Sinai (Sinay), from before the LORD, the God of Israel. 6 In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath (Anat), in the days of Jael (Ya'el), the roads ceased, and walkers of paths walked on twisting roads. 7 The villagers ceased in Israel; they ceased, until I arose, Deborah, until I arose, a mother in Israel. 8 Israel chose new gods; then war was at the gates. Was a shield seen, and a spear, among forty thousand in Israel? 9 My heart is toward the commanders of Israel, those who volunteered among the people. Bless the LORD! 10 Riders on tawny female donkeys, you who sit on rich cloths, and walkers on the road, talk of it! 11 From the sound of the archers between the watering places, there they shall recount the righteous acts of the LORD, the righteous acts toward His villagers in Israel. Then the people of the LORD went down to the gates.

The Tribes Who Came and Who Stayed

12 Awake, awake, Deborah! Awake, awake, speak a song! Arise, Barak, and lead away your captives, O son of Abinoam! 13 Then a survivor went down to the nobles, the people; the LORD went down for me against the mighty. 14 From Ephraim (Efrayim), their root was in Amalek (Amaleq); after you, Benjamin (Binyamin), among your peoples. Among the divisions of Reuben (Reuven) were great resolves of heart. 16 Why did you sit between the sheepfolds, to hear the pipings for the flocks? For the divisions of Reuben there were great searchings of heart. 17 Gilead (Gilad) settled beyond the Jordan (Yarden); and Dan, why did he sojourn by ships? Asher dwelt at the shore of the seas, and by his landing places he settled. 18 Zebulun was a people that scorned its life to the death, and Naphtali (Naftali), on the heights of the field. 19 Kings came, they fought; then the kings of Canaan (Kena'an) fought at Taanach (Ta'anakh) by the waters of Megiddo (Megido); gain of silver they did not take. 20 From heaven they fought; the stars from their highways fought with Sisera (Sisra). 21 The wadi Kishon (Qishon) swept them away, a wadi of ancient times, the wadi Kishon. You shall tread, O my soul, in strength! 22 Then the heels of the horse hammered from the galloping, the galloping of his mighty ones. 23 'Curse Meroz,' says the angel of the LORD, 'curse bitterly its inhabitants, for they did not come to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD against the mighty.'

5:3 Hear, O kings; give ear, O rulers! The main mark of Hebrew poetry is parallelism: a line says something, and the next says it again in other words, adds to it, or sets it against its opposite. These two lines say the same thing twice. Deborah wants even foreign rulers to know who Israel's God is.
5:5 The mountains flowed from before the LORD, this Sinai Seir and Edom lie to the south, along the way Israel came from Sinai. Deborah remembers the quaking mountain where God gave the Law (Exod 19:18; Ps 68:8). The God who came down on the mountain had come down again by the river. The storm that turned the valley to mud was the LORD marching out for His people.
5:6 the roads ceased, and walkers of paths walked on twisting roads The main roads were too dangerous, so people took back paths, and families in the open villages could not live in peace.
5:7 until I arose, a mother in Israel Deborah does not call herself a queen or a general but a mother, someone who cared for the people and stood up for them.
5:8 Israel chose new gods; then war was at the gates This is the root of the trouble. Israel chose new gods, and war came to their gates. Hardly a shield or spear could be found among forty thousand men. Sin always leaves us weaker than it promised.
5:11 there they shall recount the righteous acts of the LORD The righteous acts of the LORD are His acts of saving and setting things right. With the roads safe again, rich and poor could talk at the wells, and what they talked about was God.
5:13 the LORD went down for me against the mighty Israel was the weaker side, but the LORD fought for them.
5:15 Among the divisions of Reuben were great resolves of heart The song calls the roll of the tribes. Ephraim, Benjamin, Machir (part of Manasseh), Zebulun and Issachar came.
5:16 Why did you sit between the sheepfolds, to hear the pipings for the flocks? Reuben thought hard about it and stayed home with the sheep. Gilead, Dan and Asher stayed put too. Good intentions that never move us are not faith. The one who knows to do good and does not do it, "to him it is sin" (James 4:17).
5:18 Zebulun was a people that scorned its life to the death High praise. Zebulun and Naphtali risked everything.
5:20 From heaven they fought; the stars from their highways fought with Sisera This is poetry. The stars did not come down. Heaven itself was on Israel's side, and God used the storm and rain against Sisera.
5:21 The wadi Kishon swept them away The dry stream bed became a flood, and the chariots sank. Deborah sings to herself, "You shall tread, O my soul, in strength!" God's strength became hers.
5:23 they did not come to the help of the LORD Meroz was a town, probably near the battle, that refused to help. The LORD does not need help, but He calls His people to stand with Him, and refusing is serious. Meroz is never heard of again. "The one who is not with Me is against Me" (Matt 12:30). There is no neutral ground in following Christ.
5:24 She shall be blessed above women, Jael The song praises Jael for siding with God's people. The repeated lines of verse 27 slow the moment down: the commander who terrified Israel for twenty years died at the feet of a woman in a tent, as Deborah said (4:9). It is a hard scene, and it shows God's justice on a cruel oppressor.

blessed. 25 Water he asked; milk she gave; in a bowl of nobles she brought near curds. 26 Her hand to the peg she stretched out, and her right hand to the hammer of workmen; and she hammered Sisera, she crushed his head, and she shattered and she pierced his temple. 27 Between her feet he bent down, he fell, he lay down; between her feet he bent down, he fell; where he bent down, there he fell, devastated. 28 Through the window she looked down, and the mother of Sisera wailed through the lattice, 'Why has his chariot delayed to come? Why have the hoofbeats of his chariots lingered?' 29 The wise ones of her princesses answer; even she returns her words to herself: 30 'Are they not finding, dividing up plunder? A womb, two wombs for the head of a man; plunder of dyed cloths for Sisera, plunder of dyed cloths, embroidery, dyed cloth, double embroidery for the necks of plunder?' 31 So may all Your enemies perish, O LORD! And those who love Him be like the going out of the sun in its might." And the land was at rest forty years.

Midian Oppresses Israel

1 And the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, and the LORD gave them into the hand of Midian (Midyan) seven years. 2 And the hand of Midian prevailed over Israel. Because of Midian the sons of Israel made for themselves the dens which are in the mountains, and the caves, and the strongholds. 3 And it would be, whenever Israel had sown, and Midian would come up, and Amalek (Amaleq), and the sons of the east, and they would come up against him. 4 And they encamped against them, and they destroyed the produce of the land until you come to Gaza (Aza); and they did not leave sustenance in Israel, or sheep, or ox, or donkey. 5 For they and their livestock would come up, and their tents, and they would come like the abundance of locusts for multitude; and to them and to their camels there was no number; and they came into the land to destroy it. 6 And Israel was brought very low because of Midian, and the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD. 7 And it was, when the sons of Israel cried out to the LORD on account of Midian, 8 and the LORD sent a man, a prophet, to the sons of Israel, and he said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'I Myself brought you up from Egypt (Mitsrayim), and I brought you out from a house of slaves. 9 And I rescued you from the hand of Egypt and from the hand of all who oppressed you, and I drove them out from before you, and I gave you their land. 10 And I said to you, "I am the LORD your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are dwelling." 5:28 the mother of Sisera wailed through the lattice A quiet and painful picture. A mother waits for a son already dead.
5:30 Are they not finding, dividing up plunder? Her ladies imagine the plunder: a girl or two for each man and fine dyed cloth for Sisera. This shows what Sisera's army did to Israel's villages. Yet the song does not mock her. It lets us feel the cost of evil even for those on the oppressor's side. Sin brings sorrow to everyone it touches.
5:31 those who love Him be like the going out of the sun in its might God's enemies fall, and those who love Him rise like the sun at dawn, growing brighter and stronger. The land rested forty years. Will we keep loving Him when the trouble is gone?
6:1 the LORD gave them into the hand of Midian seven years The Midianites were desert peoples from east and south of the land, related to Israel through Abraham's wife Keturah (Gen 25:1-2), but long enemies (Num 31).
6:5 they would come like the abundance of locusts for multitude They came not to rule but to raid. Every time Israel planted, they swept in with tents, flocks and camels and ate everything as far as Gaza. The camel was a new weapon of war in this period, letting raiders travel far and fast. Israel was reduced to hiding in caves.
6:8 the LORD sent a man, a prophet Before a deliverer, God sent a sermon. The prophet reminded them what God had done and said, and named the problem: "you have not listened to My voice." Rescue without repentance would only lead to the next disaster. Before God lifts us out of trouble our sin has caused, He often makes us face what we have done.
6:11 Gideon his son was beating out wheat in the winepress, to hide it from before Midian Ophrah was the town of Gideon's clan, the Abiezrites of Manasseh. Wheat was normally threshed on an open, high floor where the wind could carry off the chaff. A winepress was a pit cut into rock. Gideon was threshing in a hole, hoping no one would see.
6:12 The LORD is with you, O mighty man of valor Gideon did not look like a mighty man. But God sees what He is going to make of us, not only what we are now.
6:13 if the LORD is with us, then why has all this found us? Honest questions. Gideon had heard the exodus stories but did not see that God in his own day. God did not scold him for asking. But Gideon had the answer wrong. God had not abandoned Israel. Israel had abandoned Him.
6:14 Go in this strength of yours The writer now calls the angel "the LORD" (6:14, 16, 23), which is why many see here the Son of God before His birth. Gideon's strength was not in himself but in the One sending him: "Have I not sent you?"
6:15 my clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in the house of my father Moses made the same kind of excuse (Exod 3:11; 4:10).

And he did so. 21 And the angel of the LORD stretched out the end of the staff that was in his hand, and he touched the meat and the unleavened cakes; and the fire went up from the rock, and it consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes. And the angel of the LORD went from his eyes. 22 And Gideon saw that he was the angel of the LORD; and Gideon said, "Alas, Lord GOD! For therefore I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face." 23 And the LORD said to him, "Peace be to you; do not be afraid; you shall not die." 24 And Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and he called it "The LORD is Peace." Until this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Gideon Tears Down Baal's Altar

25 And it was on that night, and the LORD said to him, "Take the young bull of the ox which belongs to your father, and the second young bull, seven years old, and tear down the altar of the Baal which belongs to your father, and the Asherah which is beside it you shall cut down. 26 And build an altar to the LORD your God on the top of this stronghold, in the arrangement, and take the second young bull, and offer up a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down." 27 And Gideon took ten men from his servants, and he did just as the LORD had spoken to him. And it was, since he feared the household of his father and the men of the city to do it by day, and he did it by night. 28 And the men of the city rose early in the morning, and look, the altar of the Baal was torn down, and the Asherah which was beside it was cut down, and the second young bull had been offered up on the altar that had been built. 29 And they said, each man to his neighbor, "Who has done this thing?" And they inquired and searched, and they said, "Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing." 30 And the men of the city said to Joash, "Bring out your son, and let him die, for he has torn down the altar of the Baal, and for he has cut down the Asherah which was beside it." 31 And Joash said to all who stood against him, "Will you yourselves contend for the Baal? Or will you yourselves save him? Whoever contends for him shall be put to death by the morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself, because someone has torn down his altar." 32 And he called him on that day Jerubbaal (Yeruba'al), saying, "Let the Baal contend against him, because he has torn down his altar." 33 And all Midian and Amalek and the sons of the east gathered together, and they crossed over, and they encamped in the valley of Jezreel (Yizre'el). 34 And the Spirit of the LORD clothed Gideon, and he blew the ram's horn, and Abiezer (Avi'ezer) was called together after him. 35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, and it also was called together after him; and he sent messengers into Asher and into Zebulun (Zevulun) and into Naphtali (Naftali), and they came up to meet them.

6:16 Surely I will be with you The answer to every excuse. God did not tell Gideon he was stronger than he thought. He told him Who would be with him. "God chose the weak things of the world, so that He might put the strong things to shame" (1 Cor 1:27).
6:19 prepared a young goat of the goats, and approximately 3/5 bushel (an ephah) of flour A large amount in a time of famine. Gideon wanted a sign that this was really God.
6:21 the fire went up from the rock, and it consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes Fire from God consuming an offering was a sign He had accepted it (Lev 9:24; 1 Kgs 18:38).
6:22 Alas, Lord GOD! For therefore I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face "Lord GOD" stands for Adonai Yahweh. Gideon was terrified, because God had said, "man shall not see Me and live" (Exod 33:20).
6:24 The LORD is Peace In Hebrew, Yahweh Shalom. Shalom is more than the absence of war. It means wholeness, well-being and being right with God. In a land full of war and fear, God's first word to Gideon was peace. It is still His first word to anyone who comes through Christ (Rom 5:1).
6:25 tear down the altar of the Baal which belongs to your father Gideon's first assignment was at home. A burnt offering was an animal wholly burned, given completely to God, and he was to burn it with the wood of the Asherah. Before he could lead Israel against Midian, he had to deal with the idols in his own family. Revival often starts at home.
6:27 since he feared the household of his father and the men of the city to do it by day, and he did it by night His obedience was real, even though it was fearful. God can use fearful obedience.
6:30 Bring out your son, and let him die How far Israel had fallen: an Israelite town wanted to kill a man for tearing down an idol.
6:31 If he is a god, let him contend for himself A wise answer. Perhaps Joash was ashamed, or his son's courage woke something in him. Either way, he stood up for his son.
6:32 he called him on that day Jerubbaal The name means let Baal contend, and it became a running joke against Baal. Gideon lived, and Baal did nothing.
6:34 the Spirit of the LORD clothed Gideon The Spirit put Gideon on like a garment. The frightened man in the winepress blew the ram's horn, and his own clan, who had wanted him dead, came after him first.
6:36 If You are saving Israel by my hand, just as You have spoken God had already told him plainly what to do and promised to be with him (6:14, 16). The fleece was not a way of finding God's will. Gideon already knew it. It was a request for proof, because his faith was weak.

And he rose early on the next day, and he squeezed the fleece, and he drained dew from the fleece, the fullness of the bowl, water. 39 And Gideon said to God, "Do not let Your anger burn against me, and let me speak only this time. Let me test, please, only this time with the fleece; please let there be dryness on the fleece alone, and on all the ground let there be dew." 40 And God did so on that night; and there was dryness on the fleece alone, and on all the ground there was dew.

The LORD Reduces Gideon's Army

1 And Jerubbaal (Yeruba'al), that is Gideon (Gidon), and all the people who were with him rose early, and they encamped beside En-harod (En-Charod); and the camp of Midian (Midyan) was north of him, by the hill of Moreh (More), in the valley. 2 And the LORD said to Gideon, "The people who are with you are too many for Me to give Midian into their hand, lest Israel (Yisra'el) glorify itself against Me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.' 3 And now, please proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, 'Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return and depart from the mountain of Gilead (Gilad).'" And twenty-two thousand of the people returned, and ten thousand remained. 4 And the LORD said to Gideon, "The people are still too many. Bring them down to the water, and I will refine them for you there. And it shall be, the one of whom I say to you, 'This one shall go with you,' he shall go with you; and everyone of whom I say to you, 'This one shall not go with you,' he shall not go." 5 And he brought the people down to the water; and the LORD said to Gideon, "Everyone who laps from the water with his tongue, just as the dog laps, you shall set him by himself; and everyone who bends down on his knees to drink." 6 And the number of those who lapped with their hand to their mouth was three hundred men; and all the rest of the people bent down on their knees to drink water. 7 And the LORD said to Gideon, "By the three hundred men who lapped I will save you, and I will give Midian into your hand; and let all the people go, each man to his place." 8 And the people took provisions in their hand, and their ram's horns; and all the men of Israel he sent away, each man to his tents, and he kept hold of the three hundred men; and the camp of Midian was below him in the valley.

The Dream of the Barley Loaf

9 And it was on that night, and the LORD said to him, "Arise, go down against the camp, for I have given it into your hand. 10 And if you are afraid to go down, go down, you and Purah (Pura) your young man, to the camp. 11 And you shall hear what they say, and afterward your hands will be strong, and you shall go down against the camp." 6:39 Do not let Your anger burn against me, and let me speak only this time He knew he was pushing. Maybe he thought wool just naturally held dew, so he asked for the reverse.
6:40 God did so on that night God is very patient with weak faith. He met Gideon where he was. But I say gently that the fleece is not a pattern for finding God's will today. God had already spoken. We have the whole written Word, which makes us "fully equipped for every good work" (2 Tim 3:17), and the Spirit within us. When we need wisdom, we ask God in faith (James 1:5). When He has spoken, the faithful thing is to obey. Some teachers allow asking for confirming circumstances where Scripture is silent.
7:1 they encamped beside En-harod The spring of Harod lay at the foot of the hills on the south side of the Jezreel Valley. Harod sounds like the Hebrew word for trembling, which fits what comes next.
7:2 lest Israel glorify itself against Me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.' Midian had about 135,000 men (8:10), and Gideon's 32,000 were outnumbered four to one. Why make it worse? God knew that with a large army Israel would give itself the credit. He wanted the victory to be so clearly His that no one could miss it.
7:3 Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return The Law itself allowed this (Deut 20:8). More than two out of three went home. That says a lot about Israel, and perhaps about Gideon, who had his own fears.
7:4 I will refine them for you there To refine is to test metal and burn off what is not wanted.
7:6 three hundred men Many teachers say the lappers were more alert, watching for the enemy while they drank. That may be true, but the text does not say so. The point was not how good the three hundred were but how few.
7:7 By the three hundred men who lapped I will save you Notice Who saves. Three hundred against well over a hundred thousand is not a battle plan. It is a promise.
7:8 the people took provisions in their hand, and their ram's horns The three hundred kept the horns the others left behind. Now they had three hundred horns, which will matter later.
7:10 if you are afraid to go down, go down, you and Purah your young man God knew Gideon was afraid, and He did not shame him. He gave him a way to be strengthened. We do not read that Gideon said he was not afraid. He went. That tells us the truth.
7:13 a round loaf of barley bread was tumbling into the camp of Midian Barley bread was the food of poor farmers, and the tent stood for the desert people who lived in tents.
7:14 This is nothing except the sword of Gideon the son of Joash The enemy already knew Gideon's name and feared him. God had gone ahead of Gideon into the enemy's dreams.

The Sword of the LORD and of Gideon

15 And it was, when Gideon heard the recounting of the dream and its interpretation, and he bowed down; and he returned to the camp of Israel, and he said, "Arise, for the LORD has given into your hand the camp of Midian." 16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put ram's horns in the hand of all of them, and empty jars, and torches inside the jars. 17 And he said to them, "You shall look at me, and so you shall do. And all the men of Ephraim were summoned, and they captured the waters as far as Beth-barah, and the Jordan. 25 And they captured the two commanders of Midian, Oreb (Orev) and Zeeb (Ze'ev), and they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb; and they pursued Midian; and the head of Oreb and Zeeb they brought to Gideon from beyond the Jordan.

Gideon Answers Ephraim

1 And the men of Ephraim (Efrayim) said to him, "What is this thing that you have done to us, not to call us when you went to fight against Midian (Midyan)?" And they contended with him with force. 2 And he said to them, "What have I done now like you? 7:15 he bowed down Before anything else, he worshiped, right at the edge of the enemy camp. The man who asked for signs now spoke with confidence. Hearing God's promise confirmed changed him. Faith comes from hearing (Rom 10:17).
7:16 empty jars, and torches inside the jars Strange weapons: a horn, a clay jar, a hidden torch, and no sword even mentioned. Paul wrote, "we have this treasure in earthen vessels" (2 Cor 4:7). He does not mention Gideon, but it makes a fitting picture. God's light shines out when our clay jars are broken and our weakness is plain.
7:17 You shall look at me, and so you shall do Gideon led by example.
7:19 at the beginning of the middle watch The night had three watches, so this was around ten at night, just after the new guards took their posts and the camp was settling into sleep.
7:20 A sword for the LORD and for Gideon! Only a few men in an army carried a horn, so to sleeping Midianites three hundred horns and torches on three sides sounded like a vast army.
7:21 they stood, each man in his place, all around the camp They did not charge. They held their ground, and the camp fled. The battle was won by people who stood where God put them and let Him fight.
7:22 the LORD set the sword of each man against his neighbor In the dark and panic the Midianites killed each other. Isaiah later looked back on "the day of Midian" (Isa 9:4) as a picture of God breaking the oppressor's rod, and promised a Child called "Mighty God" (Isa 9:6), Jesus Christ, who breaks the power of every oppressor for good.
7:24 capture before them the waters as far as Beth-barah, and the Jordan Gideon called back the men who had gone home and sent Ephraim to seize the river crossings and cut off the escape.
7:25 Oreb and Zeeb Their names mean raven and wolf, and Israel long remembered this day (Ps 83:11; Isa 10:26). It is fitting that Zeeb died at a winepress. Midian had driven Gideon into a winepress to hide. Now a Midianite prince died at one.
8:1 What is this thing that you have done to us, not to call us Ephraim was a large, proud tribe and felt left out. Gideon had called them only at the end (7:24).
8:2 Are not the gleanings of Ephraim better than the grape harvest of Abiezer? Gleanings are the few grapes left after the harvest. The little Ephraim did at the end, capturing the two commanders, was worth more than all his clan had done. "A soft answer turns away rage" (Prov 15:1). Gideon gave them honor and kept the peace. Jephthah will face the same complaint and handle it very differently (12:1-6).
8:4 exhausted and pursuing Worn out, but they kept going.
8:6 Is the palm of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand You have not caught the kings yet, so why should we risk Midian's revenge? Succoth was an Israelite town east of the Jordan, but it would not stand with God's people until sure who would win.

Gideon's Ephod

22 And the men of Israel (Yisra'el) said to Gideon, "Rule over us, both you and your son and the son of your son, for you have saved us from the hand of Midian." 23 And Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, and my son shall not rule over you; the LORD shall rule over you." 24 And Gideon said to them, "Let me ask a request of you, and give me, each man, the ring of his plunder." 8:7 I will thresh your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness Gideon's answer to Ephraim was gentle. His answer to Succoth and Penuel was fierce. Something is changing in him.
8:10 those who had fallen were a hundred and twenty thousand men Coming around by the desert road, Gideon struck the remaining fifteen thousand when they thought themselves safe. Three hundred tired men chased a much larger army far into the desert and won.
8:14 he wrote down for him the officials of Succoth and its elders, seventy-seven men Writing was known well enough that a young man could do it.
8:16 with them he taught the men of Succoth Succoth and Penuel had refused to help God's army in the middle of a war, which was treason in that day, and some teachers see this as just punishment. But the text never says the LORD told Gideon to do it. In chapter 7 everything was "for the LORD." Here the LORD is not mentioned at all. Gideon acts on his own, and his punishment of his own people goes very far. The frightened man has become a hard one.
8:19 They were my brothers, the sons of my mother This had become personal. Gideon told his boy to kill the kings, a way of shaming them, but the boy was afraid.
8:21 Gideon arose and killed Zebah and Zalmunna The kings deserved to die for their crimes, but the battle for Israel had turned into Gideon's blood feud. Even when God gives us victory, we must watch our hearts so we do not start fighting for ourselves. The crescent ornaments were royal decorations of the desert kings.
8:22 for you have saved us from the hand of Midian They wanted a king and a dynasty, and they gave the credit to the wrong one. God had cut the army to three hundred to keep this very thing from happening (7:2).
8:23 the LORD shall rule over you The right answer. The LORD was Israel's King. When Israel later asked Samuel for a king, God said, "they have rejected Me from reigning over them" (1 Sam 8:7). But the rest of the chapter shows Gideon lived more like a king than he admitted.
8:24 because they were Ishmaelites A broad name for the desert traders. Right after refusing the crown, Gideon asked for gold, about forty-two pounds of it, besides royal purple robes.
8:27 Gideon made it into an ephod An ephod was a vest worn by the high priest and linked with asking God for guidance (Exod 28:6-30). Gideon may have meant to honor God, but God had placed the priesthood at Shiloh, not Ophrah. The man who tore down Baal's altar set up a new object of false worship, as Aaron did with gold at Sinai (Exod 32:4). Good intentions do not make worship right.
8:28 the land was at rest forty years in the days of Gideon Still, God's mercy shows.

Abimelech Makes Himself King

1 And Abimelech (Avimelekh) the son of Jerubbaal
(Yeruba'al) went to Shechem (Shekhem), to the brothers of his mother, and he spoke to them and to all the clan of the house of the father of his mother, saying, 2 "Speak, please, in the ears of all the lords of Shechem: 'What is good for you, that seventy men, all the sons of Jerubbaal, rule over you, or that one man rule over you?' And you shall remember that I am your bone and your flesh." 3 And the brothers of his mother spoke concerning him in the ears of all the lords of Shechem all these words, and their heart turned aside after Abimelech, for they said, "He is our brother." 4 And they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the house of Baal-berith (Ba'al-Berit), and with them Abimelech hired empty and reckless men, and they went after him. 5 And he went to the house of his father to Ophrah (Ofra), and he killed his brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone. And Jotham (Yotam) the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, for he hid himself. 6 And all the lords of Shechem and all Beth-millo (Bet-Millo) gathered together, and they went and caused Abimelech to reign as king, by the terebinth of the pillar which was in Shechem.

Jotham's Parable

7 And they told Jotham, and he went and stood on the top of the mountain of Gerizim, and he lifted up his voice and called out, and he said to them, "Listen to me, lords of Shechem, so God may listen to you. 8 The trees went, going, to anoint a king over them. And they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us!' 9 And the olive tree said to them, 'Shall I give up my fatness, by which they honor gods and men through me, and go to sway over the trees?' 10 And the trees said to the fig tree, 'You come, reign over us!' 11 And the fig tree said to them, 'Shall I give up my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to sway over the trees?' 12 And the trees said to the vine, 'You come, reign over us!' 13 And the vine said to them, 'Shall I give up my new wine, which makes gods and men glad, and go to sway over the trees?' 14 And all the trees said to the bramble, 'You come, reign over us!' 15 And the bramble said to the trees, 'If in truth you are anointing me as king over you, come, take refuge in my shade; and if not, let fire go out from the bramble and consume the cedars of Lebanon (Levanon).' 16 And now, if in truth and in integrity you have acted, and caused Abimelech to reign, and if you have done

8:31 he set his name Abimelech A concubine was a secondary wife of lower rank. Abimelech means my father is king. Gideon said he would not be king, but he named his son as if he were. The Law warned a king not to multiply wives or gold (Deut 17:17). Gideon did both.
8:32 Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age God was kind to him to the end, but he left a household and a nation set up for trouble.
8:33 they set Baal-berith for themselves as god Baal-berith means lord of the covenant. They made a covenant with Baal in place of the covenant with the LORD.
8:35 they did not do steadfast love with the house of Jerubbaal Forgetting God leads to forgetting what we owe people too. This sets the stage for chapter 9. Hebrews 11:32 names Gideon among the people of faith, but his later years warn us. Victory can make us proud. The real test of faith is not only how we start, but how we finish.
9:1 Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem Shechem was an old city of the hill country where Abraham built an altar (Gen 12:6-7) and Joshua renewed the covenant (Josh 24). Now it would crown a murderer.
9:2 that seventy men, all the sons of Jerubbaal, rule over you, or that one man rule over you? Gideon's sons were not ruling anyone. Gideon had refused that (8:23). Abimelech invented a threat to make himself the answer, then played on family loyalty.
9:3 He is our brother They chose a leader because he was their own, not because he was good or because God had chosen him.
9:4 empty and reckless men Worthless men with nothing to lose, hired with silver from the temple of Baal-berith, the false god Israel turned to after Gideon died (8:33).
9:5 he killed his brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone Perhaps one by one on a single rock, like an execution. Seventy pieces of silver, seventy brothers: one piece of silver for each life. This is one of the hard passages of Judges. Scripture does not soften it or approve it. It tells us plainly so we will see later that God did not forget.
9:6 by the terebinth of the pillar which was in Shechem This may be the very tree and stone Joshua set up as a witness to the covenant (Josh 24:26). The place where Israel promised to serve the LORD became the place where they crowned a murderer. Beth-millo was probably the fortress of Shechem.
9:7 he went and stood on the top of the mountain of Gerizim Gerizim rises right above Shechem. It was the mountain of blessing (Deut 27:12; Josh 8:33). If you want God to hear you, Jotham said, you had better hear this.
9:8 The trees went, going, to anoint a king over them A parable is a short story with a point, and this one is a fable where trees speak. To anoint was to pour oil on someone's head to set him apart for an office.
9:9 go to sway over the trees The olive, fig and vine were all busy bearing fruit and blessing people. They had no wish to give that up to wave over the other trees. Gideon had refused to rule. The good and fruitful are often not the ones who grab for power.
9:15 come, take refuge in my shade The bramble is a low, thorny bush good for nothing but burning, and it has no shade worth the name. It is a bitter joke. Dry brambles catch fire easily, and a brush fire can burn even the cedars. Abimelech was the bramble, offering protection he could not keep and a threat he would carry out. People still follow such men because they are "our brother."

Beth-millo; and let fire go out from the lords of Shechem and from Beth-millo and consume Abimelech." 21 And Jotham fled and ran away, and he went to Beer (Be'er), and he dwelt there, away from the face of Abimelech his brother.

Shechem Turns Against Abimelech

22 And Abimelech was prince over Israel (Yisra'el) three years. 23 And God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the lords of Shechem, and the lords of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech, 24 for the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal to come, and to set their blood on Abimelech their brother, who killed them, and on the lords of Shechem, who strengthened his hands to kill his brothers. 25 And the lords of Shechem set ambushers for him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed everyone who passed by them on the road. And it was told to Abimelech. 26 And Gaal the son of Ebed (Eved) came, and his brothers, and they passed into Shechem; and the lords of Shechem trusted in him. 27 And they went out into the field and gathered the grapes of their vineyards and trod them, and they made praises, and they went into the house of their god, and they ate and drank, and they cursed Abimelech. 28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and Zebul (Zevul) his officer? Serve the men of Hamor (Chamor) the father of Shechem! And why should we serve him, we? 29 And if only this people were in my hand! Then I would remove Abimelech." And he said to Abimelech, "Increase your army and come out!" 30 And Zebul the official of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, and his anger burned. 31 And he sent messengers to Abimelech deceitfully, saying, "Look, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers are coming to Shechem, and look, they are shutting up the city against you. 32 And now, rise up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field. 33 And it shall be in the morning, as the sun rises, you shall rise early and rush upon the city; and look, he and the people who are with him will be going out against you, and you shall do to him as your hand finds." 34 And Abimelech rose up, and all the people who were with him, by night, and they lay in wait against Shechem in four companies. 35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city; and Abimelech rose up, and the people who were with him, from the ambush. 36 And Gaal saw the people, and he said to Zebul, "Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!" And Zebul said to him, "The shadow of the mountains you are seeing as men." 37 And Gaal spoke again and said, "Look, people are coming down from the center of the land, and one company is coming from the direction of the terebinth of soothsayers." 38 And Zebul said to him, "Where then is your mouth, that you said, 'Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?' Is not this the people that you rejected? Go out, please, now, and fight against it." 39 And Gaal went out before the lords of Shechem and fought against Abimelech. 40 And Abimelech pursued him, and he fled from before him; and many fell slain, up to the entrance of the gate. 41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah (Aruma); and Zebul drove out Gaal and his brothers from dwelling in Shechem. 42 And it was on the next day, and the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech. 43 And he took the people and divided them into three companies, and he lay in wait in the field. And he looked, and look, the people were going out from the city; and he rose up against them and struck them down. 44 And Abimelech and the companies that were with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city, and the two companies rushed upon all who were in the field and struck them down.

9:20 let fire go out from Abimelech and consume the lords of Shechem Jotham's warning was a curse and a prophecy. People who join together in evil end up destroying each other. The rest of the chapter shows it coming true word for word.
9:22 Abimelech was prince over Israel three years Not the usual word for king. He ruled Shechem and the area around it, and only for three years. God never raised him up. He raised himself up.
9:23 God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the lords of Shechem God is never the author of sin (James 1:13), but He rules over all things, even evil spirits and evil men, and in judgment He sometimes lets evil turn on itself. Teachers differ whether this was an evil spirit being God allowed (compare 1 Sam 16:14; 1 Kgs 22:19-23) or a spirit of distrust in their hearts. The purpose is plain in the next verse.
9:24 for the violence done to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal God may seem slow, but He had not forgotten the seventy. Three years later He began to repay.
9:28 Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem! Hamor ruled Shechem in Jacob's day (Gen 34). Gaal, likely drunk at a pagan harvest feast, stirred up the old Canaanite pride of the city. The men who crowned Abimelech as "our brother" turned to another who claimed to be more truly one of them. Loyalty built on pride does not last.
9:31 he sent messengers to Abimelech deceitfully Zebul, Abimelech's officer, was playing a double game, living in the city while working for Abimelech.
9:36 The shadow of the mountains you are seeing as men Zebul was stalling while Abimelech's men drew closer. The terebinth of soothsayers (9:37) was a tree where fortune-tellers practiced.
9:38 Where then is your mouth You boasted. Now go out and fight. Gaal fought and lost, and the boaster was driven out.

45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day, and he captured the city, and the people who were in it he killed; and he tore down the city and sowed it with salt.

The Fall of Abimelech

46 And all the lords of the tower of Shechem heard, and they went into the stronghold of the house of El-berith (El-Berit). 47 And it was told to Abimelech that all the lords of the tower of Shechem had gathered themselves together. 48 And Abimelech went up the mountain of Zalmon (Tsalmon), he and all the people who were with him; and Abimelech took the axes in his hand, and he cut off a branch of the trees, and lifted it up and put it on his shoulder; and he said to the people who were with him, "What you have seen I have done, hurry, do like me." 49 And all the people also cut off each one his branch, and they went after Abimelech, and they put them against the stronghold, and they set the stronghold on fire over them with fire; and all the men of the tower of Shechem also died, about a thousand, man and woman. 50 And Abimelech went to Thebez (Tevets), and he encamped against Thebez and captured it. 51 And a tower of strength was in the midst of the city, and all the men and the women, and all the lords of the city, fled there; and they shut the door behind them and went up on the roof of the tower. 52 And Abimelech came to the tower and fought against it, and he drew near to the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire. 53 And a certain woman threw an upper millstone on the head of Abimelech and crushed his skull. 54 And he called quickly to the young man, the bearer of his weapons, and said to him, "Draw your sword and put me to death, lest they say of me, 'A woman killed him.'" And his young man pierced him through, and he died. 55 And the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, and they went each one to his place. 56 And God returned the evil of Abimelech which he had done to his father by killing his seventy brothers; 57 and all the evil of the men of Shechem God returned on their head; and the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal came to them.

9:45 he tore down the city and sowed it with salt Salt makes ground barren, a sign the city was cursed and should never be rebuilt. The first half of Jotham's curse came true: fire went out from Abimelech and consumed Shechem.
9:46 the stronghold of the house of El-berith Another name for the same false covenant god. They looked to Baal to protect them. He did not.
9:49 they set the stronghold on fire over them with fire About a thousand men and women died. The bramble kept its word. Fire went out from it and burned the cedars who trusted in its shade.
9:53 a certain woman threw an upper millstone on the head of Abimelech The top stone of a hand mill, used daily to grind grain, about the size of a small wheel. An unnamed woman with a kitchen tool ended the life of the man who killed seventy brothers on one stone. He died by a stone.
9:54 lest they say of me, 'A woman killed him.' His last concern was his pride. Israel remembered it anyway. Generations later Joab spoke of the woman at Thebez who threw a millstone on Abimelech (2 Sam 11:21). He could not escape the shame he feared.
9:56 God returned the evil of Abimelech For three years it looked as if he got away with murder. He did not. God is patient, but not blind. "Whatever a man sows, this he will also reap" (Gal 6:7). That warns anyone tempted to grab power or go along with evil, and comforts anyone who has been wronged. The One who judges sin also sent His Son to bear it for all who turn to Him (Rom 5:8-9).
10:1 there arose, to save Israel, Tola the son of Puah Abimelech raised himself up. Tola arose to save Israel. Judges who get only a few verses are often called the minor judges, not because they mattered less, but because the book says less about them. After Abimelech's chaos, twenty-three years of quiet, faithful leadership was a gift. Not every servant of God is called to be famous. Many are called to be faithful.
10:4 he had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys Riding a donkey was a mark of rank in that day. Havvoth-jair means the villages of Jair (compare Num 32:41). Jair is remembered for a large, prosperous family. It is a little sad that nothing is said about his faith.
10:6 the gods of Syria, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab Seven groups of gods. Israel worshiped everything except the one true God. Idolatry starts with one false god and ends with many, because no false god can satisfy. When people leave the true God, they do not believe in nothing. They believe in anything.
10:7 He sold them into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the sons of Ammon Two oppressions at once, from west and east. Jephthah fights the Ammonites in the east (Judg 11) and Samson the Philistines in the west (Judg 13-16). Many teachers believe these happened at about the same time, which helps explain how the years in Judges fit into the time available. Others place them one after the other.
10:8 they shattered and crushed the sons of Israel in that year, eighteen years The Ammonites lived east of the Jordan beyond Gilead. Then they crossed the river and attacked Judah, Benjamin and Ephraim too.

Jephthah the Outcast

1 And Jephthah (Yiftach) the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, and he was the son of a woman, a prostitute; and Gilead (Gilad) fathered Jephthah. 2 And the wife of Gilead bore him sons; and the sons of the wife grew up, and they drove out Jephthah and said to him, "You shall not inherit in the house of our father, for you are the son of another woman." 3 And Jephthah fled from before his brothers and dwelt in the land of Tob (Tov); and empty men gathered themselves to Jephthah, and they went out with him. 4 And it was after a time, and the sons of Ammon (Amon) fought with Israel (Yisra'el). 5 And it was, when the sons of Ammon fought with Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah from the land of Tob. 6 And they said to Jephthah, "Come, and you shall be commander for us, and let us fight against the sons of Ammon." 7 And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me and drive me out from the house of my father? And why have you come to me now, when distress is yours?" 8 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Therefore we have now returned to you, and you shall go with us and fight against the sons of Ammon, and you shall be head for us, for all the inhabitants of Gilead." 9 And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you are bringing me back to fight against the sons of Ammon, and the LORD gives them before me, I, I will be head for you." 10 And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD shall be the One who hears between us, if we do not do so according to your word." 11 And Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people set him over them as head and as commander; and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD at Mizpah (Mitspa).

Jephthah's Message to Ammon

12 And Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, saying, "What is there to me and to you, that you have come to me to fight against my land?" 13 And the king of the sons of Ammon said to the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel took my land when it came up from Egypt (Mitsrayim), from the Arnon and to the Jabbok (Yaboq) and to the Jordan (Yarden); and now, restore them in peace."

10:10 We have sinned against You For the first time in the book Israel does more than cry out. They confess and name their sin.
10:13 therefore I will not again save you Was God finished with them? I don't believe so, because He did save them. He wanted them to see that their cry could not be one more turn of the cycle. He was testing whether their confession was real.
10:14 Go and cry out to the gods whom you have chosen A hard truth. The gods we choose cannot save us. In the day of trouble, every idol is silent.
10:15 You do to us according to all that is good in Your eyes; only deliver us, please, this day Real repentance. No arguing, no excuses. They put themselves in God's hands.
10:16 His soul became impatient over the trouble of Israel They acted: they put away the foreign gods and served the LORD. Repentance is turning around, not only saying sorry. And look at God's heart. He could not bear to watch His people suffer any longer. He takes sin seriously, but He delights in mercy (Mic 7:18). "His compassions do not come to an end" (Lam 3:22).
10:18 Who is the man who will begin to fight against the sons of Ammon? The right question, but they asked each other, not God, and offered a reward. In chapter 1 Israel asked the LORD who should go first. God would still raise up a deliverer, in a surprising way, through a man everyone had rejected.
11:1 he was the son of a woman, a prostitute Jephthah is called "a mighty man of valor," as Gideon was (6:12). He was not to blame for how he was born, but his brothers drove him out so he would not share the inheritance. He carried the wound of rejection, and it shows in what he says later. God does not reject people because of their family history. He often chooses the very ones others push away.
11:3 empty men gathered themselves to Jephthah Outcasts and drifters with nothing, and Jephthah became their leader in Tob, north and east of Gilead. It is a little like David later in the cave of Adullam (1 Sam 22:2).
11:7 why have you come to me now, when distress is yours? Some of these elders may have pushed him out, or stood by while his brothers did. Now they needed him, and they raised the offer to "head" over all Gilead.
11:9 and the LORD gives them before me Jephthah understood that victory would come from God.
11:11 Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD at Mizpah He took his agreement to God. For a man raised on the edges, he knew the LORD's name and wanted Him as witness.
11:13 Because Israel took my land when it came up from Egypt A land claim three hundred years old, from the Arnon in the south to the Jabbok in the north. Before going to war, Jephthah tried words.

14 And Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the sons of Ammon, 15 and he said to him, "Thus says Jephthah: 'Israel did not take the land of Moab (Mo'av) or the land of the sons of Ammon. 16 For when they came up from Egypt, Israel went in the wilderness to the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh (Qadesh). 17 And Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, "Let me pass, please, through your land." And the king of Edom did not listen. And also to the king of Moab it sent, and he was not willing. And Israel remained at Kadesh. 18 And it went in the wilderness and went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and came on the east side of the land of Moab; and they encamped beyond the Arnon, and they did not come within the border of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab. 19 And Israel sent messengers to Sihon (Sichon) king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon (Cheshbon), and Israel said to him, "Let us pass, please, through your land to my place." 20 And Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his border; and Sihon gathered all his people, and they encamped at Jahaz (Yahats), and he fought with Israel. 21 And the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them; and Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that land. 22 And they possessed all the border of the Amorites, from the Arnon and to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness and to the Jordan. 23 And now the LORD, the God of Israel, has dispossessed the Amorites from before His people Israel; and will you possess it? 24 Will you not possess what Chemosh your god causes you to possess? And all that the LORD our God has dispossessed from before us, it we will possess. 25 And now, are you indeed better than Balak (Balaq) the son of Zippor (Tsipor), king of Moab? Did he ever strive with Israel, or did he ever fight against them? 26 While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and its daughter towns, and in Aroer (Aro'er) and its daughter towns, and in all the cities that are on the sides of the Arnon, three hundred years, why did you not deliver them at that time? 27 And I have not sinned against you, and you are doing evil with me by fighting against me. Let the LORD, the Judge, judge this day between the sons of Israel and the sons of Ammon.'" 28 And the king of the sons of Ammon did not listen to the words of Jephthah which he sent to him.

Jephthah's Vow

29 And the Spirit of the LORD was on Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh (Menashe), and he passed through Mizpeh (Mitspeh) of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed on to the sons of Ammon. 30 And Jephthah vowed a vow to the LORD and said, "If You will indeed give the sons of Ammon into my hand, 31 then it shall be that whatever comes out, that comes out from the doors of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the sons of Ammon, it shall be the LORD's, and I will offer it up as a burnt offering." 32 And Jephthah passed on to the sons of Ammon to fight against them, and the LORD gave them into his hand. 33 And he struck them from Aroer until you come to Minnith (Minit), twenty cities, and to Abel-keramim (Avel-Keramim), a very great striking; and the sons of Ammon were humbled before the sons of Israel. 34 And Jephthah came to Mizpah, to his house; and look, his daughter was coming out to meet him with tambourines and with dances; and she was only an only one; he had of his own no son or daughter. 35 And it was, when he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are among those who trouble me; and I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I cannot turn back."

11:15 Israel did not take the land of Moab or the land of the sons of Ammon Jephthah answers with history and gets it right (Num 20-21). Israel asked Edom and Moab for passage, honored their refusal, and went around. The outcast had learned the story of what God had done, and the truth was his defense.
11:21 the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel Sihon refused passage and attacked (Num 21:21-25). The land the king wanted had belonged to the Amorites, not Ammon, and Israel took it in a war Sihon started.
11:24 Will you not possess what Chemosh your god causes you to possess? Chemosh was Moab's god. Ammon's main god was Milcom (1 Kgs 11:5). Jephthah may have named Chemosh because the land had once been Moabite, or because the two peoples shared gods. He was not saying Chemosh was real. He argued from the king's own beliefs.
11:26 three hundred years An important clue for dating. If Jephthah lived about 1100 B.C., three hundred years earlier brings us to about 1400 B.C., which fits Israel entering the land about 1406 B.C. Scholars who hold a later exodus read the number as a round figure.
11:27 Let the LORD, the Judge, judge this day The only place in the book where the word judge is used of God Himself. Israel's judges come and go. The LORD is the true Judge.
11:29 the Spirit of the LORD was on Jephthah Notice the order. The Spirit came on him before he made his vow. God was already with him. He did not need to bargain for God's help.
11:31 whatever comes out, that comes out from the doors of my house to meet me A vow was a solemn promise to God, often made in need, and the Law said it must be kept (Num 30:2; Deut 23:21-23). Animals often lived in the courtyard, so he may have expected one, but "comes out from the doors of my house to meet me" sounds like a person. This was a rash vow. Perhaps a man who had to bargain for everything thought he must bargain with God too, as the pagans did. God is not like that. We do not buy His help.
11:32 the LORD gave them into his hand The victory did not come because of the vow. God had already decided to save His people (10:16).
11:34 his daughter was coming out to meet him with tambourines and with dances Women came out with music to welcome victors home (Exod 15:20; 1 Sam 18:6). She was his only child.
11:35 I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I cannot turn back He blamed her, but his own mouth had done it. And the Law made a way out. A person vowed to the LORD could be redeemed with silver (Lev 27:1-8), and God never wanted a vow that required what He had forbidden. Jephthah either did not know the Law or did not seek the priests' counsel. A rash vow led to a broken heart.

36 And she said to him, "My father, you have opened your mouth to the LORD; do to me according to what has gone out from your mouth, since the LORD has done vengeance for you on your enemies, on the sons of Ammon." 37 And she said to her father, "Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, and let me go, and I will go down on the mountains and weep over my virginity, I and my companions." 38 And he said, "Go." And he sent her away for two months; and she went, she and her companions, and she wept over her virginity on the mountains. 39 And it was at the end of two months, and she returned to her father, and he did to her his vow which he had vowed; and she had not known a man. And it became a statute in Israel: 40 from year to year the daughters of Israel go to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in the year.

Ephraim and the Shibboleth

1 And the men of Ephraim (Efrayim) were called together, and they crossed over to Zaphon (Tsafon), and they said to Jephthah (Yiftach), "Why did you cross over to fight against the sons of Ammon (Amon), and did not call us to go with you? Your house we will burn over you with fire." 2 And Jephthah said to them, "I was a man of great strife, I and my people, with the sons of Ammon; and I summoned you, and you did not save me from their hand. 3 And I saw that you were not a savior, and I put my life in my palm and crossed over against the sons of Ammon, and the LORD gave them into my hand. And why have you come up against me this day to fight against me?" 4 And Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead (Gilad) and fought with Ephraim; and the men of Gilead struck Ephraim, for they had said, "You are fugitives of Ephraim, Gilead, in the midst of Ephraim, in the midst of Manasseh (Menashe)." 5 And Gilead captured the fords of the Jordan (Yarden) toward Ephraim. And it was, when the fugitives of Ephraim said, "Let me cross over," and the men of Gilead said to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" and he said, "No," 6 then they said to him, "Say, please, 'Shibboleth.'" And he said, "Sibboleth," and he did not take care to speak it right. And they seized him and slaughtered him at the fords of the Jordan. And there fell at that time of Ephraim forty-two thousand. 7 And Jephthah judged Israel (Yisra'el) six years; and Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in the cities of Gilead.

Ibzan, Elon and Abdon

8 And after him Ibzan (Ivtsan) of Bethlehem (Bet-Lechem) judged Israel. 9 And he had thirty sons, and thirty daughters he sent outside, and thirty daughters he brought in for his sons from outside. And he judged Israel seven years. 10 And Ibzan died and was buried in Bethlehem. 11 And after him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years. 12 And Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried in Aijalon (Ayalon) in the land of Zebulun (Zevulun). 13 And after him Abdon (Avdon) the son of Hillel (Hilel) the 11:36 do to me according to what has gone out from your mouth One of the most selfless answers in Scripture. She put her father's word to God and God's victory for Israel ahead of herself.

11:37 weep over my virginity To die unmarried and childless, with no one to carry on your name, was a great sorrow, and with her Jephthah's line would end. That grief belongs to both readings of the story.
11:39 he did to her his vow which he had vowed; and she had not known a man Faithful teachers read this two ways. Some take it as a burnt offering, the plain sense of the vow, as many ancient readers did. If so, it was a terrible sin. God called child sacrifice an abomination (Deut 12:31) that never came into His mind (Jer 7:31). The text reports it without approving it. Others read lifelong service at the tabernacle as an unmarried woman. The "and" of 11:31 can mean "or," she wept over her virginity, not her death, women served at the tabernacle (Exod 38:8), and Hebrews 11:32 names Jephthah among the faithful. I believe we should hold this with humility.
11:40 to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite, four days in the year Both readings agree that the vow was rash and needless and brought grief on an innocent young woman. "Better is it that you do not vow than that you vow and do not pay" (Eccl 5:5). Let your yes be yes (Matt 5:37). She gave herself up because of a promise to God. God the Father did what He never asked of Jephthah. He "did not spare His own Son" (Rom 8:32). God does not need us to buy His favor. He paid the price Himself.
12:1 Your house we will burn over you with fire Ephraim was one of the largest, proudest tribes, with the tabernacle at Shiloh in its borders. They made the same complaint to Gideon (8:1), but now it is a death threat against the man God had just used to save Israel. Ephraim wanted the honor of victory without the risk of battle. Pride is quick to feel left out and slow to show up when the work is hard.
12:3 I put my life in my palm A Hebrew way of saying he took his life in his hands. Chapter 11 does not record Jephthah's call to Ephraim, but there is no reason to doubt him, and he gave God the credit. He was right on the facts, but being right is not the same as being wise. Gideon answered the same anger gently (8:2-3). The man who tried words before war with Ammon had no patience left for his own brothers.
12:4 You are fugitives of Ephraim, Gilead Ephraim mocked the Gileadites as runaways with no real tribe. Gilead was the land of half of Manasseh, and Manasseh and Ephraim were the two sons of Joseph. A family insult became a family war. The people God had just rescued from Ammon spilled one another's blood over pride and name-calling.
12:6 Say, please, 'Shibboleth.' A Hebrew word meaning an ear of grain or a flowing stream. Ephraimites seem to have spoken with an accent that could not make the sh sound, so one sound gave them away. Forty-two thousand died at the hands of other Israelites, taken as written, though some read the Hebrew word for thousand as a clan or unit. It is easy to draw lines between believers over small things like how a person talks or where they come from. Jesus prayed that those who believe in Him would be one (John 17:21).
12:7 Jephthah judged Israel six years A rejected son who trusted the LORD, appealed to God as Judge, received His Spirit and a great victory, and is named among the faithful (Heb 11:32). Yet his rash words cost him his only child and his harsh words cost Israel forty-two thousand lives. God uses flawed people who trust Him, but our sins still have consequences.
12:8 Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel Most believe this was Bethlehem of Judah, though there was also a Bethlehem in Zebulun (Josh 19:15).
12:9 thirty daughters he sent outside, and thirty daughters he brought in for his sons from outside He married his children outside his clan, building alliances as powerful men did. It shows wealth and influence, not leading the people back to God.
12:11 Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel Zebulun was in Galilee, where Jesus would later grow up and preach (Matt 4:13-16). Sometimes Scripture gives only a name and a number. God knew Elon, and his name is written in God's Word.

Pirathonite judged Israel. 14 And he had forty sons and thirty sons of sons, who rode on seventy donkeys. And he judged Israel eight years. 15 And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried at Pirathon (Piraton) in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

The Angel Announces Samson's Birth

12:14 who rode on seventy donkeys Riding donkeys was a sign of rank (5:10). Abdon was rich and important. The hill country of the Amalekites (12:15) may mean Amalekites once lived there (Exod 17:8-16).
12:15 Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died These three judges cover about twenty-five years with no enemy, battle or cry to the LORD mentioned. They read more like chieftains than deliverers. The book is moving toward something worse. In the next chapter Israel does evil again, and this time no cry for help is recorded (13:1).
13:1 the LORD gave them into the hand of the Philistines forty years The Philistines came by sea and settled on the southern coast in five cities. They knew how to work iron and troubled Israel all the way to David. Notice what is missing. Every earlier oppression ends with Israel crying out (3:9; 6:6; 10:10). Here there is no cry. Israel had grown used to its chains (15:11). Even so, God began to work. His mercy came before they asked.
13:2 his wife was barren, and she had not borne Zorah was on the border with Philistine land, in the low hills west of Jerusalem. Barrenness was a deep sorrow in Israel, but in the Bible it is often where God is about to do something great: Sarah, Rebekah, Rachel, Hannah (1 Sam 1), Elizabeth (Luke 1). When God wants to show a child is His gift, He sometimes starts where there is no hope.
13:3 the angel of the LORD appeared to the woman The same messenger who met Hagar, Moses and Gideon (6:11-24). He speaks for God and as God, and Manoah later says they have seen God (13:22). Many teachers believe this was the Son of God before His birth. Others see a created angel speaking for God.
13:5 the boy shall be a Nazirite of God from the womb A Nazirite was set apart to God by a special vow (Num 6:1-21): no wine or anything from the vine, no touching the dead, and uncut hair. Usually the vow was for a set time. Samson's was for life, starting before birth, so his mother kept the rules too.
13:5 he shall begin to save Israel from the hand of the Philistines Notice "begin." Samson would not finish the job. The Philistines were still a threat under Samuel, Saul and David. God gives some people the work of starting what others will complete.
13:7 until the day of his death The angel said "from the womb." She added this, perhaps telling what she understood. But her words hang over the whole story. The way Samson died would be tied to that calling.
13:8 let him teach us what we shall do for the boy who is to be born A good father before his son was even born. He believed his wife and did not ask for a sign. He knew raising a child set apart to God was more than he knew how to do. Every parent can pray that prayer (James 1:5).
13:14 all that I commanded her she shall keep The angel gave nothing new. Sometimes we pray for more direction when what we need is to obey the direction God already gave.
13:16 if you make a burnt offering, to the LORD you shall offer it up A burnt offering was wholly burned on the altar, a way of giving yourself completely to God. Manoah still thought he spoke with a prophet. The visitor pointed the worship away from himself to the LORD.
13:18 Why is this that you ask for my name? And it is wonderful The word means beyond understanding, too great to grasp. Jacob received the same kind of answer (Gen 32:29). Many Christians hear an echo of Isaiah, where the Child is called "Wonder, Counselor, Mighty God" (Isa 9:6). The Hebrew words are closely related. The New Testament does not make this link, so I hold it loosely.

Then Manoah knew that he was the angel of the LORD. 22 And Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die, for we have seen God." 23 And his wife said to him, "If the LORD had desired to kill us, He would not have accepted from our hand a burnt offering and a grain offering, and He would not have shown us all these things, and at this time He would not have caused us to hear things like this." 24 And the woman bore a son and called his name Samson (Shimshon); and the boy grew up, and the LORD blessed him. 25 And the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him in Mahaneh-dan (Machane-Dan), between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Samson Wants a Philistine Wife

1 And Samson (Shimshon) went down to Timnah (Timna), and he saw a woman in Timnah, of the daughters of the Philistines. 2 And he went up and told his father and his mother, and he said, "A woman I have seen in Timnah, of the daughters of the Philistines; and now, take her for me as a wife." 3 And his father and his mother said to him, "Is there no woman among the daughters of your brothers and among all my people, that you are going to take a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?" And Samson said to his father, "Take her for me, for she is right in my eyes." 4 And his father and his mother did not know that it was from the LORD, for He was seeking an occasion against the Philistines. And at that time the Philistines were ruling over Israel (Yisra'el). 5 And Samson went down, and his father and his mother, to Timnah, and they came to the vineyards of Timnah; and look, a young lion of lions was roaring to meet him. 6 And the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon him, and he tore it apart as one tears apart a kid, and there was nothing in his hand; and he did not tell his father and his mother what he had done. 7 And he went down and spoke to the woman, and she was right in the eyes of Samson. 8 And he returned after some days to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion; and look, a swarm of bees was in the body of the lion, and honey. 9 And he scraped it out into his palms and went on, going and eating; and he came to his father and to his mother and gave to them, and they ate; and he did not tell them that from the body of the lion he had scraped out the honey.

13:19 He was doing a wonder A grain offering was flour or grain given to God. The word wonder ties back to the name. The One whose name is wonderful did something wonderful.
13:20 the angel of the LORD went up in the flame of the altar Only then did Manoah understand. The angel did not appear again. He had given his message, and now it was theirs to obey.
13:22 We shall surely die, for we have seen God No sinful person could see God's face and live (Exod 33:20). Gideon had the same fear (6:22-23).
13:23 If the LORD had desired to kill us, He would not have accepted from our hand a burnt offering Clear thinking and faith. God does not make promises to people He is about to destroy. When we fear God is against us, we can look at what He has already done. If He gave His Son for us, will He not give us all things (Rom 8:32)? His acceptance of the sacrifice is our assurance, and for us that sacrifice is Christ.
13:24 called his name Samson Probably related to the Hebrew word for the sun, perhaps sunny or little sun. Beth-shemesh, house of the sun, was nearby. Everything about his start was good: a miracle birth, praying parents, a calling and the LORD's blessing.
13:25 the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him in Mahaneh-dan Mahaneh-dan means the camp of Dan. "Stir" suggests pushing, like a bell struck to ring. A good beginning does not guarantee a faithful life. Samson had every advantage. His story asks what he would do with them, and that is the question for us too.
14:1 Samson went down to Timnah Timnah lay a few miles from Zorah in the valley toward the Philistine plain. The Bible often uses "went down" for more than a change of height. Samson's whole life is a series of goings down.
14:2 take her for me as a wife Parents arranged marriages then, but Samson did not ask. He told them, and the only reason he gave was that he had seen her.
14:3 the uncircumcised Philistines Uncircumcised meant outside God's covenant. The Law warned against marrying the peoples of the land, who would turn hearts to other gods (Deut 7:3-4). The Philistines were not on that list, but the danger was the same.
14:3 Take her for me, for she is right in my eyes Very close to the refrain that closes the book: "each man did what was right in his own eyes" (21:25). Samson was a picture in one man of what all Israel had become, set apart to God and living by his own eyes. It is no accident his story ends with those eyes taken from him (16:21).
14:4 his father and his mother did not know that it was from the LORD Did God approve Samson's choice? No. His motives were his own. But God is Lord even over our foolish choices. Israel had grown comfortable under Philistine rule, and God used Samson's desires to start a fight Israel would not start for itself. People plan evil, and God plans it for good (Gen 50:20). That never makes our sin good. It shows how great and patient He is.
14:5 a young lion of lions was roaring to meet him Samson seems to have been off the road alone, in a vineyard among the grapes a Nazirite was forbidden to eat. Scripture does not say why. It is a strange place for him to be.
14:6 the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon him The first time we see his strength, and the text is clear where it came from: not his muscles or his hair, but the Spirit of the LORD. He had no weapon at all. And he told no one, the first of Samson's secrets.
14:9 he did not tell them that from the body of the lion he had scraped out the honey Here Samson broke his vow. A Nazirite was not to go near anything dead (Num 6:6-7), and touching such a carcass made any Israelite unclean (Lev 11:27). Then he let his parents eat it unknowing. He goes where he should not, touches what he should not, and hides it. Sin rarely starts big. It starts with turning aside to look.

Samson's Riddle

10 And his father went down to the woman; and Samson made a feast there, for so the young men used to do. 11 And it was, when they saw him, they took thirty companions, and they were with him. 12 And Samson said to them, "Let me pose a riddle to you, please. If you will indeed tell it to me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of garments. 13 And if you are not able to tell it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of garments." And they said to him, "Pose your riddle, that we may hear it." 14 And he said to them, "Out of the eater came out food, and out of the strong came out sweetness." And they were not able to tell the riddle in three days. 15 And it was on the seventh day, and they said to the wife of Samson, "Entice your husband, that he may tell us the riddle, lest we burn you and the house of your father with fire. Have you called us to impoverish us? Is it not so?" 16 And the wife of Samson wept over him and said, "You only hate me, and you do not love me. And what is stronger than a lion?" And he said to them, "If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have found out my riddle." 19 And the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon (Ashqelon) and struck down thirty men of them, and he took their spoils and gave the changes to those who told the riddle. And his anger burned, and he went up to the house of his father. 20 And the wife of Samson became his companion's, who had been a friend to him.

14:10 Samson made a feast there, for so the young men used to do A wedding feast lasted seven days, and the Hebrew word for feast comes from the word for drinking. Scripture does not say Samson drank, but he put himself in the middle of it. Some teachers say he broke his vow here too, but that is an inference.
14:11 they took thirty companions Wedding guests or groomsmen, but it sounds as if they were also there to watch this strong Israelite.
14:12 thirty linen garments and thirty changes of garments A good set of clothes was valuable then. This was a bet for thirty men's wardrobes.
14:14 Out of the eater came out food, and out of the strong came out sweetness Not a fair riddle. It was built on Samson's secret.
14:15 lest we burn you and the house of your father with fire Her own people threatened to burn her family alive over a bet.
14:17 he told her, for she pressed him We should feel for this young woman, caught between a threatening people and a husband who kept secrets. But notice the pattern. Samson gave in to a woman's pressure here and will again with Delilah (16:15-17). A man who cannot say no to his own desires will have a hard time saying no to anyone else.
14:18 If you had not plowed with my heifer A heifer is a young cow. He meant, if you had not used my wife against me, a crude and bitter thing to say of his bride.
14:19 he went down to Ashkelon and struck down thirty men of them Ashkelon was a Philistine coastal city more than twenty miles away. Samson paid a bet by killing thirty men. God had raised him to fight the Philistines who oppressed Israel, and the Spirit gave the strength, but Samson's motives were anger and revenge. God used his strength for His purpose even while Samson used it for his pride. This is never God blessing revenge (Matt 5:44; Rom 12:19).
14:20 the wife of Samson became his companion's Her father gave her to the best man. The wedding that began with "she is right in my eyes" ended in death, anger and loss. Gifts are not the same as godliness. Samson had great power and little self-control, which is part of the fruit of the Spirit (Gal 5:22-23). Power without self-control will always hurt people.
15:1 Samson visited his wife with a kid of the goats It was late spring. Samson seems to have thought he could walk away angry and come back as if nothing had happened.
15:2 Is not her younger sister better than she? Her father treated his daughters as if they could be traded. The scene shows how little these women were valued by the men around them, and the Bible tells it plainly without approving it.
15:3 This time I shall be blameless toward the Philistines That is, this time they started it. He took the insult as an excuse for revenge.
15:4 Samson went and captured three hundred foxes The word can also mean jackals, which run in packs and would be easier to catch in such numbers. Burning grain, sheaves and olive groves at harvest destroyed a year's food and income for a whole region.
15:6 the Philistines went up and burned her and her father with fire Just what the young men threatened at the wedding (14:15). She told the riddle to save her family from fire, and her own people burned her anyway. Sin promises protection and pays in ruin.
15:7 then surely I will be avenged on you, and after that I will cease One more time, then stop. That is what everyone in a cycle of revenge says. It never stops with one more.

will be avenged on you, and after that I will cease." 8 And he struck them leg on thigh, a great striking; and he went down and dwelt in the cleft of the rock of Etam.

The Jawbone of a Donkey

9 And the Philistines went up and encamped in Judah (Yehuda), and they spread themselves out at Lehi (Lechi). 10 And the men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?" And they said, "To bind Samson we have come up, to do to him as he did to us." 11 And three thousand men from Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and they said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines are ruling over us? And what is this you have done to us?" And he said to them, "As they did to me, so I have done to them." 12 And they said to him, "To bind you we have come down, to give you into the hand of the Philistines." And Samson said to them, "Swear to me, lest you yourselves fall upon me." 13 And they said to him, saying, "No, but we will surely bind you and give you into their hand, and we will surely not put you to death." And they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock. 14 He was coming to Lehi, and the Philistines shouted to meet him. And the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon him, and the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that they have burned with fire, and his bonds melted from off his hands. 15 And he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and he stretched out his hand and took it, and he struck down with it a thousand men. 16 And Samson said, "With the jawbone of the donkey, a heap, two heaps; with the jawbone of the donkey I have struck down a thousand men." 17 And it was, when he had finished speaking, he threw the jawbone from his hand, and he called that place Ramath-lehi (Ramat-Lechi). 18 And he was very thirsty, and he called out to the LORD and said, "You have given this great salvation by the hand of Your servant; and now shall I die with thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?" 19 And God split open the hollow that is at Lehi, and water came out from it, and he drank, and his spirit returned, and he revived. 15:8 he struck them leg on thigh, a great striking A Hebrew saying, something like our beaten soundly. God had raised Samson to fight the oppressor, but everything here is personal: his wife, his anger, his revenge. He never led an army or called Israel together. He fought alone for his own reasons, and God used it anyway to wear down the enemy.

15:11 Do you not know that the Philistines are ruling over us? Three thousand men of Judah came not to fight the Philistines but to capture their own deliverer. They had accepted their slavery and wanted to be left alone under their masters. That is why no cry to the LORD is recorded in 13:1. Judah, the tribe that led the way in 1:2, had given up.

15:13 we will surely bind you and give you into their hand Many years later the leaders of the people bound Jesus and handed Him to Pilate (Matt 27:1-2). That is only a picture, and Samson was nothing like Jesus in character. But it shows how people can come to love their chains more than the One God sends to break them.

15:14 the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that they have burned with fire Flax was the plant used to make linen. Burnt flax falls apart at a touch.

15:15 a fresh jawbone of a donkey Still heavy and hard, not dry and brittle, and once again a Nazirite touched something dead. How could one man strike down a thousand? The text answers before we ask: the Spirit of the LORD rushed upon him (15:14). One would chase a thousand because the LORD fights for them (Josh 23:10).

15:16 With the jawbone of the donkey, a heap, two heaps In Hebrew the words for donkey and heap sound alike, a play on words. But notice whose name is missing. Samson says "I." He does not mention the LORD. Ramath-lehi (15:17) means the hill of the jawbone.

15:18 You have given this great salvation by the hand of Your servant The first time Samson prays, and at last he gives God the credit. The strongest man in Israel could not make himself a drink of water. Sometimes God lets us come to the end of ourselves so we remember who gave the victory.

15:19 he called its name En-hakkore The spring of the one who called. The name remembers his prayer, not his strength. God answered the first real prayer of a man who had done almost everything wrong. "This afflicted one called, and the LORD heard" (Ps 34:6). When we are spent and dry, we can still call on Him.

15:20 he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years Not twenty years of rest, as with earlier judges. Samson judged "in the days of the Philistines." Their rule did not end under him. He only began to save Israel (13:5). The line is repeated at 16:31, so this may summarize his whole time as judge before the story of his fall.

16:1 he saw there a woman, a prostitute, and he went in to her Gaza was the southernmost Philistine city, deep in enemy land. The writer does not dress this up. Samson's eyes led him again (14:1), this time into plain sexual sin. A Nazirite set apart to God walked into the enemy's capital to sleep with a prostitute.

16:3 carried them up to the top of the mountain that is in front of Hebron Hebron was about forty miles away and uphill. Whether he carried the gate all the way or to a hill facing Hebron, it was an amazing feat. Notice the text does not say the Spirit rushed on him. A man can go on using God's gifts long after he has stopped walking with God and think everything is fine.

16:4 he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, and her name was Delilah The only time we are told Samson loved a woman. Sorek ran from the hills near Zorah toward the coast, on the border between the peoples. We are not told whether Delilah was a Philistine.

Sorek (Soreq), and her name was Delilah (Delila). 5 And the rulers of the Philistines went up to her and said to her, "Entice him, and see in what his great strength lies, and by what we may prevail against him and bind him to humble him; and we will give you each man eleven hundred pieces of silver." 6 And Delilah said to Samson, "Tell me, please, in what your great strength lies, and with what you may be bound to humble you." 7 And Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh cords that have not been dried, then I will become weak and be like one of mankind." 8 And the rulers of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh cords that had not been dried, and she bound him with them. 9 And the ambush was sitting for her in the chamber. And she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" And he tore apart the cords as a thread of tow is torn apart when it smells fire. And his strength was not known. 10 And Delilah said to Samson, "Look, you have deceived me and spoken lies to me. Now tell me, please, with what you may be bound." 11 And he said to her, "If they indeed bind me with new ropes with which work has not been done, then I will become weak and be like one of mankind." 12 And Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" These three times you have deceived me, and you have not told me in what your great strength lies." 16 And it was, when she pressed him with her words all the days and urged him, his soul became impatient to the point of dying. 17 And he told her all his heart and said to her, "A razor has not come up on my head, for I am a Nazirite of God from the womb of my mother. If I am shaved, then my strength will depart from me, and I will become weak and be like all mankind." 18 And Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, and she sent and called the rulers of the Philistines, saying, "Come up this time, for he has told me all his heart." And the rulers of the Philistines came up to her, and they brought up the silver in their hand. 19 And she made him sleep on her knees, and she called for the man, and she shaved off the seven locks of his head; and she began to humble him, and his strength departed from on him. 20 And she said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" And he awoke from his sleep and said, "I will go out as time after time, and shake myself free." And he did not know that the LORD had departed from on him. 21 And the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes, and they brought him down to Gaza and bound him with bronze fetters; and he was grinding in the house of the prisoners. 22 And the hair of his head began to grow again when it had been shaved.

The Death of Samson

23 And the rulers of the Philistines gathered together to sacrifice a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and for rejoicing; and they said, "Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hand." 24 And the people saw him, and they praised their god, for they said, "Our god has given into our hand our enemy, and the one who laid waste our land, and who multiplied our slain." 25 And it was, when their heart was merry, and they said, "Call for Samson, that he may make sport for us." And they called for Samson from the house of the prisoners, and he made sport before them; and they made him

16:5 we will give you each man eleven hundred pieces of silver Five rulers at eleven hundred each made five thousand five hundred pieces of silver. Micah hired a priest for ten a year (17:10). Delilah was paid a fortune to betray the man who loved her.
16:9 The Philistines are upon you, Samson! She had just tried to hand him to his enemies, and he knew it. Why did he stay? Here is the blindness of sin. He seems to have thought it was a game he could always win. He played with the thing that would destroy him.
16:10 you have deceived me and spoken lies to me An odd complaint from someone who had just tried to sell him. Sin turns everything upside down.
16:13 If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web A loom is the frame used to weave cloth. First cords, then ropes, then his hair: each time he moved nearer the secret. Each time we play with temptation and get away, we feel a little safer and let it come a little closer.
16:15 How can you say, 'I love you,' and your heart is not with me? The same weapon his bride used at Timnah (14:16).
16:17 he told her all his heart Was his strength really in his hair? No. It came from the Spirit of the LORD. But his uncut hair was the one sign of his vow he still had left. He had already touched the dead. When he gave it away, he gave away the last outward mark that he belonged to God, trading his calling for a woman's approval.
16:19 she made him sleep on her knees The man who broke ropes and carried city gates went to sleep with his head in the lap of the woman selling him.
16:20 he did not know that the LORD had departed from on him One of the saddest sentences in the Bible. He had gotten away with it so many times that he did not notice God had gone. "Let the one who thinks he stands watch, lest he fall" (1 Cor 10:12). The Spirit lives in every believer and will not leave us (John 14:16-17; Eph 1:13-14), but we can grieve Him (Eph 4:30) and lose our usefulness, joy and witness by trifling with sin.
16:21 the Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes The eyes that led him all his life (14:3) were taken. In Gaza, whose gate he had carried off, he ground grain at a mill, the work of slaves and animals. Sin promises freedom and pleasure, and it ends in blindness, chains and grinding.
16:22 the hair of his head began to grow again The Philistines did not notice, but the writer wants us to. It is a small sign of hope. God was not finished with Samson.
16:23 Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hand Dagon was a main god of the Philistines, probably a god of grain. The Philistines thought their god had beaten the LORD. One of the gravest results of sin in a believer's life is that it gives God's enemies reason to mock Him (2 Sam 12:14; Rom 2:24). God would not let that boast stand.

And he stretched out with strength, and the house fell on the rulers and on all the people who were in it. And the dead whom he put to death in his death were more than those whom he had put to death in his life. 31 And his brothers and all the house of his father came down, and they lifted him and brought him up and buried him between Zorah (Tsor'a) and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah (Manoach) his father. And he had judged Israel (Yisra'el) twenty years.

16:26 let me feel the pillars on which the house is set Archaeologists have found Philistine temples whose roofs rested on two central pillars set close together, which fits this story well.
16:28 Lord GOD, remember me, please, and strengthen me, please, only this time His second recorded prayer and his last. It is not perfect. He still speaks of his two eyes and his revenge. But he calls on the LORD and asks strength from God, not himself. He knows now that his strength was never his own. This is a humbled man.
16:30 Let my soul die with the Philistines! This was not suicide in the way we usually mean it. Samson was a judge God raised up, giving his life in battle to strike down the enemy's rulers and the temple of their false god, and God answered his prayer. If you have been having thoughts of ending your own life, please hear me: this story does not point you that way. God sees you and your life matters to Him (Ps 34:18). Talk to a pastor, a trusted friend, a doctor or a crisis line today.
16:30 the dead whom he put to death in his death were more than those whom he had put to death in his life Hebrews lists Samson among the faithful, those who "out of weakness were made strong" (Heb 11:34). God's grace reaches even a man who wasted almost everything. There is a far greater picture too. Samson won his greatest victory in his death, arms stretched between two pillars. Jesus won the greatest of all with His arms stretched on the cross. But Samson died for his own sins seeking revenge. Jesus died for others, praying for those who killed Him (Luke 23:34), to save His enemies (Rom 5:8, 10).
16:31 buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah his father His story ends where the Spirit first stirred him (13:25). Samson had more advantages than any judge in the book, and he never led Israel, never called the people back to God and never mastered himself. The gift is not the same as the walk. What matters in the end is not how strong we were, but whether we walked with God.
17:1 there was a man from the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Micah The name means who is like the LORD, and the irony is sharp: this man is about to make an idol to stand for Him. He lived in the same hill country as the tabernacle at Shiloh (18:31), a short trip away. These last chapters likely took place early in the judges period (18:30; 20:28).
17:2 Blessed be my son by the LORD Micah seems more afraid of his mother's curse than sorry for the theft, and she did not call it sin. She tried to undo her curse with a blessing. Here is a family that uses the LORD's name like a charm, a word to get good luck and avoid bad.
17:3 I wholly consecrate the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make a carved image and a molten image A carved image was cut from wood or stone and covered with metal. A molten image was cast from melted metal. She thought she was honoring the LORD, but the second commandment forbids it: "You shall not make for yourself a carved image" (Exod 20:4). And after "wholly" dedicating eleven hundred pieces, she gave the smith only two hundred. Even her devotion was half-hearted.
17:5 the man Micah had a house of God, and he made an ephod and teraphim An ephod was a priest's garment, often worn to seek guidance, like Gideon's snare (8:27). Teraphim were household idols believed to give protection and guidance (Gen 31:19). Only Aaron's descendants could be priests (Num 3:10), and Micah was from Ephraim. He made up his own shrine, idols and priesthood, a religion built to his taste, and called it worship of the LORD.
17:6 In those days there was no king in Israel; each man did what was right in his own eyes The key to the last five chapters, said four times (17:6; 18:1; 19:1; 21:25). It does not mean simply that Israel had no government. God was to be their King (8:23), and Moses warned against each man doing what was right in his own eyes (Deut 12:8). When people stop listening to God, they do not stop being religious. They make up a religion that suits them. Many still keep the parts of the Bible they like and leave the rest. The question is whether it is what God has said.
17:7 he was a Levite, and he was sojourning there Levites were set apart to serve at the tabernacle, given forty-eight towns (Josh 21) and supported by tithes. Bethlehem was not a Levite town. To sojourn is to live somewhere as a stranger without land. A wandering, job-hunting Levite is a sign that Israel had stopped supporting the worship of God. Note Bethlehem: the concubine of chapter 19 and Ruth's story come from there too.

The Danites Search for Land

1 In those days there was no king in Israel (Yisra'el); and in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking for itself an inheritance to dwell in, for it had not fallen to it until that day in the midst of the tribes of Israel as an inheritance. 2 And the sons of Dan sent from their clan five men from their whole number, men, sons of valor, from Zorah (Tsor'ah) and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to explore it; and they said to them, "Go, explore the land." And they came to the hill country of Ephraim (Efrayim), to the house of Micah (Mikha), and they spent the night there. 3 They were near the house of Micah, and they recognized the voice of the young man, the Levite; and they turned aside there and said to him, "Who brought you here? 17:10 be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver a year "Father" is a title of respect for a spiritual adviser (compare 2 Kgs 6:21). The Levite never asked whether this shrine pleased God or mentioned the idols. He asked about the pay. This is ministry for hire.
17:12 Micah consecrated the Levite An Ephraimite ordaining a Levite is upside down. Only God, through Aaron's line, could make priests, and this Levite was a descendant of Moses, not Aaron (18:30).
17:13 Now I know that the LORD will do good to me, for the Levite has become my priest The saddest line in the chapter. With an idol, an ephod, household gods and a real Levite, Micah was sure he had God on his side, though he broke God's commands at every step. Many still think the right church or ceremony must buy God's blessing. God looks at the heart and at obedience (1 Sam 15:22). In the next chapter Micah loses all of it in one afternoon.
18:1 the tribe of the Danites was seeking for itself an inheritance to dwell in Not quite true, and the writer knows it. Dan had been given land by lot (Josh 19:40-46), including Samson's towns of Zorah and Eshtaol. The Amorites pushed them into the hills (1:34). Dan had a land but had not taken it. Rather than trust God to fight for them where He put them, they went looking for an easier place.
18:2 to spy out the land and to explore it It sounds like the spies of Moses and Joshua (Num 13; Josh 2), but those went at God's command to the land He promised. These went to find something easier.
18:3 Who brought you here? And what are you doing in this place? And what is there for you here? Perhaps they knew him, or noticed his southern accent. These are good questions for anyone in ministry, and the Levite had no good answer. He was a hired hand.
18:6 your way on which you go is before the LORD It sounds spiritual but says very little. "Before the LORD" can mean God approves or only that God sees. He gave a blessing to fit whatever happened. False religion often tells people what they want to hear and uses God's name to make it sound holy.
18:7 they saw the people that was in its midst dwelling in security Laish lay near the springs at the foot of Mount Hermon, at the far north of the land, where one source of the Jordan flows out. The people lived like the Sidonians of the coast, wealthy, peaceful and alone, with no ally to help them. To the spies that made them an easy target.
18:10 for God has given it into your hand Words like Joshua and Caleb's (Num 14:7-9). But no one had asked God. They had asked a hired priest at an idol shrine. They used the language of faith to cover a plan to find the softest target.
18:12 they called that place Mahaneh-dan until this day The camp of Dan. Samson's story mentions a Mahaneh-dan near Zorah (13:25). The name may have been used for more than one Danite camp. Six hundred armed men traveled with their families and livestock, a whole clan on the move.
18:14 consider what you will do It was not a hard decision for them. They planned to take it.

Dan Takes Laish

18:17 the priest was standing at the entrance of the gate The man who was supposed to guard the shrine stood and watched it carried off.
18:19 Is it better for you to be a priest to the house of one man, or for you to be a priest to a tribe A better job offer.
18:20 the heart of the priest was glad He did not defend Micah, who took him in like a son, or ask what God wanted. He even carried the idols himself into the safety of the crowd. When ministry becomes a career instead of a calling, a man goes wherever the money is better. Shepherd God's flock "nor for shameful gain but eagerly" (1 Pet 5:2).
18:24 My gods which I made you have taken That is the whole problem with idols. A god you can make, someone else can steal. A god you must protect cannot protect you (Isa 44:14-17). Micah built his life on something he made, and when it was gone he had nothing left. In 17:13 he was sure the LORD would do him good.
18:27 upon a people quiet and secure The writer repeats the phrase on purpose. The people of Laish had done nothing to Dan.
18:28 there was no deliverer In a book full of deliverers, Laish had none. Some say Laish lay within the promised land, so Dan was within its rights. But the writer never says God sent them. He tells us twice that the people were quiet and secure and had no help. A tribe that would not fight for the land God gave it fell on a peaceful town far away because it was easy, with a stolen idol and a hired priest. This is not the conquest under Joshua.
18:29 they called the name of the city Dan Joshua 19:47 calls it Leshem. Dan became Israel's northernmost city, and "from Dan to Beersheba" (20:1) came to mean the whole land.
18:30 Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Manasseh At last we learn the Levite's name. Moses had a son named Gershom (Exod 2:22). In the Hebrew, Manasseh is written with one small letter lifted above the line, and without it the name reads Moses. Many scholars believe the original said Moses and scribes added the letter to spare Moses' name. The SLB prints Manasseh, following the Hebrew as it stands. If so, Moses' own descendant was running an idol shrine within a few generations. Godliness is not passed down by blood (2:10).
18:30 until the day of the exile of the land Some take this as the Assyrian conquest of the north, finished in 722 B.C. (2 Kgs 17:6), which would make the line a later note. Others take it as the capture of the ark and the fall of Shiloh (1 Sam 4), which fits the next verse and an early date. Later Jeroboam set a golden calf at Dan (1 Kgs 12:29).
18:31 all the days that the house of God was in Shiloh The true house of God, with the ark and priesthood, stood not far away the whole time. They chose the god they could carry over the God who had carried them. Dan is not named among the sealed tribes in Revelation 7:5-8. Scripture does not say why, and some connect it with this idolatry. We should not build too much on that.
19:1 he took for himself a woman, a concubine, from Bethlehem of Judah What follows is what life looked like when everyone did what was right in his own eyes. A concubine was a wife of lower rank, legally bound to her husband but without a first wife's full rights. The text calls him her husband (19:3). Both of the last two stories in Judges begin with a Levite and Bethlehem, and both go terribly wrong.
19:2 his concubine played the prostitute against him The Hebrew says she was unfaithful. The old Greek translation reads that she was angry with him, and many scholars think that fits better, since he went after her to win her back, not to accuse her. Either way, there was trouble in the marriage.

And they lingered until the day declined, and the two of them ate. 9 And the man arose to go, he and his concubine and his young man; and his

Look, the day is coming to an end; spend the night here, and let your heart be glad; and you will rise early tomorrow for your way, and you will go to your tent." 10 And the man was not willing to spend the night, and he arose and went and came to opposite Jebus (Yevus), that is Jerusalem (Yerushalayim); and with him were a pair of saddled donkeys, and his concubine was with him. 11 They were near Jebus, and the day had gone down greatly; and the young man said to his master, "Come, please, and let us turn aside to this city of the Jebusites and spend the night in it." 12 And his master said to him, "We will not turn aside to a foreign city, where they are not of the sons of Israel; and we will pass on to Gibeah (Giva)." 13 And he said to his young man, "Come, and let us draw near to one of the places, and we will spend the night in Gibeah or in Ramah (Rama)." 14 And they passed on and went, and the sun set on them beside Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin (Binyamin). 15 And they turned aside there to go in to spend the night in Gibeah; and he went in and sat down in the open square of the city, and there was no one taking them into the house to spend the night.

Night in Gibeah

16 And look, an old man was coming from his work, from the field, in the evening; and the man was from the hill country of Ephraim, and he was sojourning in Gibeah; and the men of the place were Benjaminites. 17 And he lifted up his eyes and saw the man, the traveler, in the open square of the city; and the old man said, "Where are you going? And where do you come from?" 18 And he said to him, "We are passing from Bethlehem of Judah to the remote parts of the hill country of Ephraim; I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem of Judah; and to the house of the LORD I am going; and there is no one taking me into the house. 19 And there is both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and there is also bread and wine for me and for your maidservant and for the young man with your servants; there is no lack of any thing." 20 And the old man said, "Peace be to you; only, all your lack is upon me; only do not spend the night in the open square." 21 And he brought him into his house and gave fodder to the donkeys; and they washed their feet and ate and drank.

The Crime at Gibeah

22 They were making their hearts glad, and look, the men of the city, men, sons of worthlessness, surrounded the house, beating on the door; and they spoke to the man, the master of the house, the old man, saying, "Bring out the man who came into your house, so that we may know him." 23 And the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my brothers, do not do evil, please; since this man has come into my house, do not do this disgraceful folly.

19:3 to speak to her heart, to bring her back A Hebrew way of saying to speak kindly, the phrase used when Boaz comforts Ruth (Ruth 2:13). At this point the Levite seems to be doing the right thing.
19:6 the two of them ate together and drank The warm hospitality here will stand out against what happens in Gibeah. But notice who is talking. The two men eat, drink and plan. The young woman says nothing. Her father and husband decide for her, and she never speaks a word in the whole chapter.
19:10 opposite Jebus, that is Jerusalem About six miles from Bethlehem, still held by the Jebusites until David took it (2 Sam 5:6-9).
19:12 We will not turn aside to a foreign city, where they are not of the sons of Israel Travel at night was dangerous, and he thought they would be safer among their own people. That is the terrible irony of this chapter. He feared the foreigners. The real danger was among God's people.
19:14 Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin A few miles north of Jerusalem, later Saul's home town (1 Sam 10:26).
19:15 there was no one taking them into the house to spend the night Taking in a traveler was a basic duty. The Law told Israel to love the stranger, because they had been strangers in Egypt (Deut 10:19). Gibeah's cold welcome was the first sign something was badly wrong.
19:16 he was sojourning in Gibeah; and the men of the place were Benjaminites The only one in town who showed kindness was an outsider.
19:18 to the house of the LORD I am going He may have meant the tabernacle at Shiloh, which was on his way.
19:20 only do not spend the night in the open square The old man knew it was not safe.
19:22 men, sons of worthlessness A Hebrew phrase for wicked, lawless men. The word is belial, which later became a name for evil itself (2 Cor 6:15). "Know" here means to abuse sexually by force. These are almost the words of the men of Sodom (Gen 19:5). A town of Israel, in the land God gave His people, had become Sodom.
19:23 do not do this disgraceful folly A phrase used in Israel for a shameful act that broke the bonds of the community.

24 Look, my daughter, the virgin, and his concubine; let me bring them out, please, and humble them, and do to them what is good in your eyes; but to this man you shall not do this thing of disgraceful folly." 25 And the men were not willing to listen to him; and the man took hold of his concubine and brought her out to them outside; and they knew her and abused her all the night until the morning; and they let her go when the dawn came up. 26 And the woman came at the turning of the morning, and she fell at the entrance of the house of the man where her master was, until the light. 27 And her master arose in the morning and opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way; and look, the woman, his concubine, was fallen at the entrance of the house, and her hands were on the threshold. 28 And he said to her, "Get up, and let us go." And there was no one answering. And he took her on the donkey, and the man arose and went to his place. 29 And he came to his house and took the knife and took hold of his concubine and cut her in pieces, according to her bones, into twelve pieces; and he sent her into all the territory of Israel. 30 And it was that everyone who saw it said, "A thing like this has not happened and has not been seen from the day the sons of Israel came up from the land of Egypt (Mitsrayim) until this day. JUDGES 20

Israel Gathers at Mizpah

1 And all the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) went out, and the congregation was assembled as one man, from Dan to Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva), and the land of Gilead (Gilad), to the LORD at Mizpah (Mitspa). 2 And the chiefs of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand men on foot drawing the sword. 3 And the sons of Benjamin (Binyamin) heard that the sons of Israel had gone up to Mizpah. And the sons of Israel said, "Speak, how did this evil happen?" 4 And the man, the Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, "To Gibeah (Giva), which belongs to Benjamin, I came, I and my concubine, to spend the night. 5 And the lords of Gibeah rose up against me and surrounded the house against me at night; me they intended to kill, and my concubine they humbled, and she died. 6 And I took hold of my concubine and cut her in pieces and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel; for they have done lewdness and disgraceful folly in Israel. 7 Look, all of you, sons of Israel, give for yourselves a word and counsel here." 8 And all the people arose as one man, saying, "We will not go, any man to his tent, and we will not turn aside, any man to his house. 9 And now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: we will go up against it by lot. 10 And we will take ten men to the hundred from all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred to the thousand, and a thousand to the ten thousand, to take provisions for the people, so that they may do, when they come to Geba (Geva) of Benjamin, according to all the disgraceful folly which it has done in Israel." 11 And every man of Israel was gathered to the city, as one man, united. 12 And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribes of Benjamin, saying, "What is this evil that has hap-

19:24 Look, my daughter, the virgin, and his concubine We must say it plainly: this offer was evil, as Lot's was (Gen 19:8). He saw the wrong in what the mob wanted for the man but not that it was just as wrong for the women. The text reports it without approving it. Scripture shows women made in God's image as fully as men (Gen 1:27) and fellow heirs of His grace (1 Pet 3:7).
19:25 the man took hold of his concubine and brought her out to them outside The man here is the Levite. In Sodom the angels pulled Lot inside (Gen 19:10-11). In Gibeah no one rescued her. Her own husband, who had come to speak to her heart, pushed her out the door to save himself. I will say no more than the Bible says. It was a terrible crime of violence against a helpless woman, through a whole night. It was evil.
19:27 her hands were on the threshold The writer now calls him "her master," not her husband. He was leaving, not looking for her. Her hands were reaching for the door that had been shut against her all night.
19:28 Get up, and let us go No grief, no tenderness. The writer does not tell us what to feel about this man. He shows him to us as he was, and that is condemnation enough.
19:29 cut her in pieces, according to her bones, into twelve pieces One for each tribe, a shocking summons that demanded the nation respond, as Saul later did with oxen (1 Sam 11:7). Even in this he did not honor her. He used her body to make his point after failing to protect her life.
19:30 Set your hearts on it for yourselves, take counsel, and speak Stop and think. Do not look away. Hosea later looked back on this as Israel's low point: "as in the days of Gibeah" (Hos 9:9). This is the end of the road that began in chapter 1. When a people loses the fear of God, the weakest suffer most. Israel needed a king, and more than a king, new hearts.
19:30 A thing like this has not happened and has not been seen If this chapter stirs memories of what someone did to you, hear this: it was evil, and it was not your fault. God saw this woman when no one else did and wrote her story into His Word. "The LORD is near to the broken of heart" (Ps 34:18). If you are in danger, get help today from someone you trust, your pastor, the police or an abuse hotline. God's people are called to protect the vulnerable and bring evil into the light (Eph 5:11).
20:1 the congregation was assembled as one man, from Dan to Beersheba From the far north to the far south, the whole nation stood together. Sadly, the first time Israel acted "as one man" in this book was not to drive out the Canaanites but to fight their own brothers. Mizpah, "watchtower," would later be a place of national gathering under Samuel (1 Sam 7:5).
20:2 four hundred thousand men on foot drawing the sword I take these numbers as written. Some scholars read the Hebrew word for "thousand" as a clan or military unit, which would give smaller totals. Either way, this was a huge army raised against one tribe.
20:5 me they intended to kill, and my concubine they humbled, and she died Notice what the Levite leaves out. He never says he pushed her out the door to save himself (19:25). He tells the story to make himself the victim. We are quick to see the sins of others and slow to see our own (Matt 7:3-5).
20:9 we will go up against it by lot Israel made its plan first and asked God afterward. The anger was right, since a great evil had been done, but they were sure of their course before they sought the LORD.

pened among you? 13 And now give up the men, the sons of worthlessness who are in Gibeah, and let us put them to death and purge evil from Israel." And the sons of Benjamin were not willing to listen to the voice of their brothers, the sons of Israel. 14 And the sons of Benjamin gathered from the cities to Gibeah to go out to battle with the sons of Israel. 15 And the sons of Benjamin were mustered on that day from the cities, twenty-six thousand men drawing the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who were mustered, seven hundred chosen men. 16 From all this people there were seven hundred chosen men restricted in their right hand; every one of these was slinging with a stone at a hair, and he would not miss. 17 And the men of Israel were mustered, besides Benjamin, four hundred thousand men drawing the sword; every one of these was a man of war.

Two Defeats Before Benjamin

18 And they arose and went up to Bethel (Bet-El) and inquired of God, and the sons of Israel said, "Who shall go up for us first to the battle with the sons of Benjamin?" And the LORD said, "Judah (Yehuda) first." 19 And the sons of Israel arose in the morning and camped against Gibeah. 20 And the men of Israel went out to the battle with Benjamin, and the men of Israel set the battle in array against them at Gibeah. 21 And the sons of Benjamin went out from Gibeah and destroyed in Israel on that day twenty-two thousand men to the ground. 22 And the people, the men of Israel, strengthened themselves, and they again set the battle in array in the place where they had set it in array on the first day. 23 And the sons of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until the evening, and they inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I again draw near for battle with the sons of Benjamin my brother?" And the LORD said, "Go up against him." 24 And the sons of Israel drew near to the sons of Benjamin on the second day. 25 And Benjamin went out to meet them from Gibeah on the second day, and they destroyed among the sons of Israel again eighteen thousand men to the ground; all these were drawing the sword. 26 And all the sons of Israel and all the people went up and came to Bethel, and they wept and sat there before the LORD, and they fasted on that day until the evening, and they offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. 27 And the sons of Israel inquired of the LORD, and the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, 28 and Phinehas (Pinchas) the son of Eleazar (Elazar), the son of Aaron (Aharon), was standing before it in those days, saying, "Shall I yet again go out for battle with the sons of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease?" And the LORD said, "Go up, for tomorrow I will give him into your hand."

The Ambush at Gibeah

29 And Israel set ambushers against Gibeah all around. 30 And the sons of Israel went up against the sons of Benjamin on the third day, and they set themselves in array against Gibeah as at the other times. 31 And the sons of Benjamin went out to meet the people; they were drawn away from the city; and they began to strike down slain from among the people as at the other times, on the highways, of which one goes up to Bethel and one to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men in Israel. 32 And the sons of Benjamin said, "They are defeated before us as at the first." And the sons of Israel said, "Let us flee, and we will draw him away from the city to the highways." 33 And every man of Israel rose up from his place, and they set themselves in array at Baal-tamar; and the ambush of Israel was bursting forth from its place, from the open area of Geba. 34 And there came from opposite Gibeah ten thousand chosen men from all Israel, and the battle was heavy; and they did not know that 20:13 give up the men, the sons of worthlessness who are in Gibeah This was a fair offer. Hand over the guilty, and the rest of Benjamin would be spared. The Law said, "you shall purge the evil from your midst" (Deut 17:7). Benjamin chose to protect its own rather than do what was right, and so shared in the guilt.

20:16 seven hundred chosen men restricted in their right hand Left-handed men, like Ehud the Benjamite (3:15). The name Benjamin means son of the right hand, yet the tribe was known for left-handed fighters. Their skill with a sling was deadly. Years later a shepherd boy would win with one stone (1 Sam 17:49).

20:18 went up to Bethel and inquired of God The ark was at Bethel in those days (20:27). But notice the question. They asked who should go first, not whether they should go at all. The answer, "Judah first," echoes the start of the book (1:2).

20:21 destroyed in Israel on that day twenty-two thousand men A crushing loss on the first day, even though Israel had asked God and had the bigger army. Numbers and a good cause do not guarantee victory.

20:23 wept before the LORD until the evening Now they wept, and now they called Benjamin "my brother." Their question was humbler too: "Shall I again draw near?" Grief was beginning to soften them.

20:25 they destroyed among the sons of Israel again eighteen thousand men Why would God send them up only to lose forty thousand men in two days? Teachers have given several answers that fit together. God was disciplining all Israel, not only Benjamin, for the idolatry and sin that filled the land (chapters 17-18). Israel had gone in self-confident with its plan already made. And the losses humbled them until they truly sought Him (20:26-28).

20:26 they fasted on that day until the evening, and they offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings This time they came with fasting and sacrifice. The burnt offering was wholly given to God, a picture of full surrender. The peace offering spoke of fellowship restored with Him. Only now did they come in full humility.

20:28 Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron Phinehas was Aaron's grandson, the zealous priest of Num 25. His presence shows that these events took place early in the judges period, though they are placed at the end of the book. The LORD now gave a promise He had not given before: "tomorrow I will give him into your hand."

20:29 Israel set ambushers against Gibeah all around The same plan Joshua used at Ai (Josh 8:2). Israel pretended to retreat, drew Benjamin out, and the ambush took the city.

the calamity was touching them. 35 And the LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel, and the sons of Israel destroyed in Benjamin on that day twenty-five thousand and one hundred men; all these were drawing the sword. 36 And the sons of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. And the men of Israel gave place to Benjamin, for they trusted in the ambush which they had set against Gibeah. 37 And the ambush hurried and rushed against Gibeah; and the ambush moved forward and struck all the city by the mouth of the sword. 38 And the appointed signal of the men of Israel with the ambush was, "Make great their sending up of the rising of smoke from the city." 39 And the men of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to strike down slain among the men of Israel, about thirty men, for they said, "Surely he is utterly defeated before us, as in the first battle." 40 And the rising began to go up from the city, a pillar of smoke; and Benjamin turned behind him, and look, the whole of the city went up toward the heavens. 41 And the men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were terrified, for they saw that the calamity had touched them. 42 And they turned before the men of Israel toward the way of the wilderness, and the battle overtook them; and those who were from the cities were destroying them in their midst. 43 They surrounded Benjamin, they pursued him; at his resting place they trod him down, as far as opposite Gibeah toward the rising of the sun. 44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valor. 45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness, to the rock of Rimmon (Rimon); and they gleaned of them on the highways five thousand men, and they pursued closely after them as far as Gidom, and they struck down of them two thousand men. 46 And all who fell of Benjamin on that day were twenty-five thousand men drawing the sword; all these were men of valor. 47 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness, to the rock of Rimmon, six hundred men; and they dwelt at the rock of Rimmon four months. 48 And the men of Israel turned back against the sons of Benjamin and struck them by the mouth of the sword, from the city, entirely, to the beast, to all that was found; also all the cities that were found they set on fire.

Wives for Benjamin

1 And the men of Israel (Yisra'el) had sworn at Mizpah (Mitspa), saying, "No man of us shall give his daughter to Benjamin (Binyamin) as a wife." 2 And the people came to Bethel (Bet-El) and sat there until the evening before God, and they lifted up their voice and wept a great weeping. 3 And they said, "Why, O LORD, God of Israel, has this happened in Israel, that today one tribe should be missing from Israel?" 4 And it was on the next day, and the people rose early and built there an altar, and they offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings. 5 And the sons of Israel said, "Who is there who did not come up in the assembly from all the tribes of Israel to the LORD?" For the great oath had been concerning him who did not come up to the LORD at Mizpah, saying, "He shall surely be put to death." 6 And the sons of Israel had compassion for Benjamin their brother, and they said, "One tribe has been cut off from Israel today. 7 What shall we do for them, for those who remain, for wives? And we have sworn by the LORD not to give them any of our daughters as wives." 8 And they said, "Which one is there of the tribes of Israel that did not come up to the LORD at Mizpah?" And look, no man had come to the camp from Jabesh-gilead (Yavesh-Gilad), to the assembly. 9 And the people were mustered, and look, there was not a man there 20:35 the LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel The ambush was the method, but the LORD gave the victory. The verse makes clear who decided the battle.

20:40 a pillar of smoke The signal rose from the burning city. When Benjamin turned and saw it, they knew they were trapped between two armies.
20:46 twenty-five thousand men drawing the sword The numbers fit together. Eighteen thousand fell in the main battle (20:44), five thousand on the highways and two thousand at Gidom (20:45). That is twenty-five thousand, a round figure for the 25,100 of 20:35.
20:47 six hundred men Only six hundred men of Benjamin survived, hiding at the rock of Rimmon for four months. One whole tribe of Israel was nearly wiped out.
20:48 struck them by the mouth of the sword, from the city, entirely, to the beast Here Israel went far beyond justice. They had asked for the guilty men (20:13), and God had promised victory (20:28), but He never told them to destroy every town, the women, the children and even the animals. Anger left unchecked runs past what God commands. "The anger of a man does not produce the righteousness of God" (James 1:20).
21:1 No man of us shall give his daughter to Benjamin as a wife This oath was sworn in the heat of anger before the war. Like Jephthah's vow (11:30-31), it was rash. Now, with most of Benjamin's women dead (20:48), it meant the tribe could not go on.
21:3 Why, O LORD, God of Israel, has this happened in Israel The answer was right in front of them. Gibeah did evil, Benjamin protected the guilty, and Israel's anger went far beyond justice. Yet they asked God why, as if He had done it. People often blame God for the results of their own choices.
21:4 built there an altar, and they offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings They offered sacrifices, but notice that in this whole chapter they never ask God what to do. They made every decision themselves.
21:5 He shall surely be put to death A second oath, not recorded in chapter 20 but made then. Israel would now use one oath to solve the problem of the other.
21:7 we have sworn by the LORD not to give them any of our daughters as wives Their grief was real, but they were trapped by their own words. The Law made a way for a rash oath to be confessed and atoned for (Lev 5:4-6). Some teachers add that an oath to do wrong should be broken, not kept. Instead Israel looked for a way to keep the letter of the oath while getting around its meaning.
21:8 no man had come to the camp from Jabesh-gilead Jabesh-gilead was a town east of the Jordan in Gilead, in the land of the half tribe of Manasseh.

of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead. 10 And the congregation sent there twelve thousand men of the sons of valor, and they commanded them, saying, "Go, and you shall strike the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead by the mouth of the sword, and the women and the little ones. 11 And this is the thing which you shall do: every male and every woman who has known the lying of a male you shall devote to destruction." 12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred young women, virgins, who had not known a man by the lying of a male; and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh (Shilo), which is in the land of Canaan (Kena'an). 13 And all the congregation sent and spoke to the sons of Benjamin who were at the rock of Rimmon (Rimon), and they proclaimed peace to them. 14 And Benjamin returned at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had kept alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead; and they did not find enough for them so. 15 And the people had compassion for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

The Daughters of Shiloh

16 And the elders of the congregation said, "What shall we do for those who remain, for wives, since the women have been destroyed from Benjamin?" 17 And they said, "A possession of escaped ones belongs to Benjamin, and a tribe shall not be wiped out from Israel. 18 And we, we are not able to give them wives of our daughters, for the sons of Israel have sworn, saying, 'Cursed be he who gives a wife to Benjamin.'" 19 And they said, "Look, there is the festival of the LORD in Shiloh from year to year, which is north of Bethel, east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem (Shekhem), and south of Lebonah (Levona)." 20 And they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying, "Go, and you shall lie in wait in the vineyards. 21 And you shall see, and look, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then you shall come out from the vineyards and seize for yourselves each man his wife from the daughters of Shiloh, and you shall go to the land of Benjamin. 22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, that we will say to them, 'Be gracious to us concerning them, for we did not take each man his wife in the battle; for you yourselves did not give them to them; otherwise at this time you would be guilty.'" 23 And the sons of Benjamin did so, and they carried off wives according to their number from the dancers whom they seized; and they went and returned to their inheritance, and they built the cities and dwelt in them. 24 And the sons of Israel went away from there at that time, each man to his tribe and to his clan; and they went out from there, each man to his inheritance. 25 In those days there was no king in Israel; each man did what was right in his own eyes.

21:11 every male and every woman who has known the lying of a male you shall devote to destruction "Devote to destruction" is the word used for the ban on the Canaanites in Joshua. We must call this what it is. It was a massacre. A town of Israel was wiped out, children included, for missing the assembly, and its young women were taken by force to be wives to men they had never met. God did not command it. It was one more evil piled on the evils of the last three chapters.
21:12 the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan A chilling phrase. Shiloh was where the tabernacle stood, yet the writer reminds us it was in Canaan, as if to say Israel was now acting like the Canaanites it was meant to replace.
21:12 four hundred young women, virgins Jabesh-gilead appears again later. Saul of Gibeah in Benjamin rescued the town from Nahash (1 Sam 11:1-11), and its men risked their lives to bury Saul and his sons (1 Sam 31:11-13). Some think the bond went back to this chapter, since many Benjaminite families now had mothers from that town. Scripture does not say.
21:14 they did not find enough for them so Four hundred women for six hundred men. Two hundred men were still without wives.
21:15 the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel A breach is a gap, like a broken place in a wall. The people speak as if the LORD had done it. He allowed it as a judgment, but the breach came through Israel's own sin and anger.
21:17 a tribe shall not be wiped out from Israel That much was right. The twelve tribes would remain. Benjamin would later give Israel its first king, Saul, and much later the apostle Paul (Rom 11:1; Phil 3:5).
21:19 there is the festival of the LORD in Shiloh from year to year The writer gives careful directions to Shiloh, north of Bethel, east of the road to Shechem, south of Lebonah, as if most people had forgotten where the house of God was. The feast may have been the Feast of Booths at the grape harvest, which would fit the vineyards. Scripture does not name it.
21:21 seize for yourselves each man his wife from the daughters of Shiloh This is kidnapping and forced marriage, and it was done at a feast of the LORD, at His house. It treats young women who came to worship as prizes to be grabbed.
21:22 you yourselves did not give them to them; otherwise at this time you would be guilty The worst kind of reasoning. It keeps the letter of the oath while trampling everything the oath was about.
21:23 they built the cities and dwelt in them On the surface the problem was solved. But think what it took: a civil war, tens of thousands dead, a town destroyed and six hundred young women taken from their families. The writer tells it flatly, without a word of praise. He wants us to see that this is what passed for a solution.
21:25 In those days there was no king in Israel; each man did what was right in his own eyes The book ends here, the fourth time we have heard this in five chapters (17:6; 18:1; 19:1). Every person in these chapters thought he was doing right. The writer points to a king, and Ruth ends with the name of the king God was preparing: David (Ruth 4:22). But Israel's kings would fail too. The deepest need was a righteous King who changes hearts. God promised Him to David (2 Sam 7:16), and He came: Jesus Christ, who will one day reign over Israel and the whole earth (Luke 1:32-33). Who is king in your life?

RUTH

Introduction

Title

The book is named for Ruth, a young widow from Moab who chose the LORD and His people. Only two books of the Bible are named for women, Ruth and Esther. In the Hebrew Bible, Ruth sits among the Writings, in a group of five short books read aloud at the yearly feasts. Ruth is read at the Feast of Weeks, the feast at the end of the grain harvest, because so much of the story happens during the barley and wheat harvests. Our English Bibles place it right after Judges, and it fits there well. It opens "in the days of the judging of the judges" (1:1) and closes with the name of David, whose story begins in 1 Samuel.

Author and Date

The book does not name its writer. Jewish tradition names Samuel. The family line at the end names David (4:17, 22) but not Solomon, so it was most likely written in David's time, about 1010 to 970 B.C., or shortly before. The writer explains the sandal custom as something done "formerly" in Israel (4:7), so he wrote some time after the events. Samuel fits these clues well, though he died before David took the throne (1 Sam 25:1), so others suggest a writer in David's court.

Background and Setting

The events took place in the days of the judges, most likely about 1100 B.C. Boaz was David's great-grandfather (4:21-22), and David was born about 1040 B.C. Scripture does not say which judge was ruling. The story moves from Bethlehem of Judah, a small farming town about six miles south of Jerusalem whose name means house of bread, to the land of Moab east of the Dead Sea, and back again. The Moabites came from Lot (Gen 19:36-37). They hired Balaam to curse Israel, led Israel into idolatry at Peor (Num 22-25), and their king Eglon ruled Israel for eighteen years (Judg 3:12-14). The Law said no Moabite should enter the assembly of the LORD (Deut 23:3). That is the background for a Moabite widow coming to Bethlehem.

Three parts of the Law of Moses stand behind the story. Gleaning: farmers left the edges of their fields and the dropped grain for the poor, the foreigner and the widow (Lev 19:9-10; Deut 24:19-22). Redemption of land: when an Israelite became poor and sold his land, his nearest relative was to buy it back (Lev 25:23-28). Marriage of a dead man's widow: a brother married the widow so that their first son would carry on the dead man's name (Deut 25:5-10). Boaz was not Mahlon's brother, but he acted in the spirit of these laws.

Themes

God is never seen doing a miracle in Ruth. No angel appears, no prophet speaks, no sea divides. Yet His hand is in every step: the end of the famine, the field Ruth happens to choose, the day Boaz happens to come by, the relative who happens to pass the city gate. The theme of the book is God's quiet, faithful care for His people, shown through people who are faithful to one another.

The key word is hesed, steadfast love, the loyal kindness that keeps its commitments and goes further than duty requires (1:8; 2:20; 3:10). Ruth shows hesed to Naomi, Boaz shows it to Ruth, and behind them both the LORD shows it to all of them. The second key word is go'el, redeemer, the close relative who buys back what was lost. The word and its related forms appear more than twenty times in four short chapters.

Ruth also shows that God welcomes anyone, even a foreigner from a hated nation, who comes to Him by faith and takes refuge under His wings (2:12). And it traces the family of David back to Bethlehem, showing that in the darkest days of the judges, God was already preparing Israel's king.

Christ in Ruth

Matthew names Ruth in the family line of Jesus: "Boaz fathered Obed by Ruth, and Obed fathered Jesse" (Matt 1:5). A widow from Moab became the great-grandmother of David and an ancestor of the Messiah. That is the gospel reaching the nations, as God promised Abraham (Gen 12:3). Boaz is also a picture of Christ our Redeemer. A redeemer had to be a close relative, able to pay the price and willing to do it. Jesus became our relative by taking on flesh (Heb 2:14-17), paid the price with His own blood (1 Pet 1:18-19), and did it willingly. Jesus was born in Bethlehem, the same town where Ruth gleaned (Luke 2:4).

Hard Passages

Was Elimelech wrong to take his family to Moab (1:1)? Scripture does not say directly. Many see the move as a step away from trusting God, while others note that Scripture never blames him. The notes name both views.

What happened at the threshing floor (3:4-14)? Some readers find something improper in Ruth lying at Boaz's feet at night. The text gives no hint of sin. It was a humble, private way to ask him to act as redeemer and marry her, and Boaz took care to guard her good name.

How could a Moabite enter Israel when Deuteronomy 23:3 kept Moabites out of the assembly? The notes at 4:12 give the main answers. Ruth had left Moab and its gods and taken refuge in the LORD (1:16), and God received her, as He received Rahab (Josh 6:25).

How does the sandal custom of 4:7-8 relate to Deuteronomy 25:7-10? The two may be related, but in Ruth there is no shame or spitting. It is a simple way of sealing a transfer of rights.

Naomi and Ruth Return to Bethlehem

1 And it was in the days of the judging of the judges, and there was a famine in the land; and a man went from Bethlehem (Bet-Lechem) of Judah (Yehuda) to sojourn in the country of Moab (Mo'av), he and his wife and his two sons. 2 And the name of the man was Elimelech (Elimelekh), and the name of his wife was Naomi (No'omi), and the name of his two sons was Mahlon (Machlon) and Chilion (Kilyon), Ephrathites from Bethlehem of Judah. And they came to the country of Moab and were there. 3 And Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died, and she was left, she and her two sons. 4 And they took for themselves Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah (Orpa), and the name of the second was Ruth (Rut). And they dwelt there about ten years. 5 And both of them, Mahlon and Chilion, also died, and the woman was left without her two children and without her husband. 6 And she arose, she and her daughters-in-law, and she returned from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the LORD had visited His people to give them bread. 7 And she went out from the place where she had been, and her two daughters-in-law were with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah. 8 And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each woman to the house of her mother. May the LORD do steadfast love with you, just as you have done with the dead and with me. 9 May the LORD give to you that you find rest, each woman in the house of her husband." And she kissed them, and they lifted up their voice and wept. 10 And they said to her, "Rather, with you we will return to your people." 11 And Naomi said, "Return, my daughters. Why will you go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb, and they will become husbands for you? 12 Return, my daughters, go; for I am too old to belong to a husband. If I said, 'There is hope for me,' even if I belonged to a husband tonight, and also bore sons, 13 would you therefore wait until they grew up? Would you therefore shut yourselves off so as not to belong to a husband? No, my daughters; for it is very bitter for me, more than for you, for the hand of the LORD has gone out against me." 14 And they lifted up their voice and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, and Ruth clung to her.

Ruth Chooses Naomi's God

15 And she said, "Look, your sister-in-law has returned to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law." 16 And Ruth said, "Do not urge me to forsake you, to turn

1:1 in the days of the judging of the judges Ruth happens in the same dark days as the book of Judges, when "each man did what was right in his own eyes" (Judg 21:25). That makes this story of faithful people stand out all the more.
1:1 there was a famine in the land In the Law, God warned that if Israel turned from Him, the land would not give its crops (Deut 28:15-18, 38). The famine may well have been part of that discipline. The family came from Bethlehem, which means house of bread, and there was no bread in the house of bread.
1:1 to sojourn in the country of Moab To sojourn is to live somewhere as a foreigner for a while. Moab lay east of the Dead Sea, about fifty miles from Bethlehem. Scripture does not judge the move directly. Many teachers see it as a step away from trusting God in His land, while others note that Scripture never blames him. Either way, the losses that follow make us ask where we turn when times are hard.
1:2 Elimelech His name means my God is King, a striking name in a time when Israel had no king and every man did as he pleased. Naomi means pleasant. Mahlon and Chilion may mean sickly and failing, though no one is sure.
1:2 Ephrathites Ephrathah was an old name for Bethlehem or for the clan that lived there (Gen 35:19; Mic 5:2).
1:4 they took for themselves Moabite wives The Law forbade marriage with the Canaanite peoples (Deut 7:3) and kept Moabites out of the assembly (Deut 23:3). These marriages were at least a risk to the family's faith. Ruth was Mahlon's wife (4:10).
1:5 the woman was left without her two children and without her husband Ten years of marriage and no children. In that world a widow with no sons had no one to provide for her and no one to carry on her husband's name. Naomi was alone, poor and a foreigner. The story does not hurry past her grief, and neither should we.
1:6 the LORD had visited His people to give them bread When God "visits" in the Bible, He comes to act for His people. This is one of only two places where the writer himself says what the LORD did. The other is 4:13. At the start God gave bread, and at the end He gave a son.
1:7 to return to the land of Judah The word "return" runs all through this chapter. In Hebrew it is the same word often used for turning back to God in repentance.
1:8 May the LORD do steadfast love with you "Steadfast love" is the Hebrew word hesed: loyal love, kindness that keeps its commitments and goes further than it has to. It is the word for God's covenant love (Exod 34:6), and it is the key word of this book (2:20; 3:10).
1:9 rest A settled, safe home with a husband to provide and protect. Naomi will later work to see this prayer answered (3:1).
1:11 Do I still have sons in my womb Naomi has in mind the custom of Deuteronomy 25:5-10, where a brother married his dead brother's widow to carry on his name. She had no sons left to give.
1:13 the hand of the LORD has gone out against me Naomi did not blame chance or the gods of Moab. She believed God was in control, but she believed He was against her. She would learn that the hand she thought was against her was working for her all along.
1:14 Ruth clung to her "Clung" is the same word used in Genesis 2:24, where a man clings to his wife. It is the word for a bond that holds. Orpah did what Naomi urged and what made sense. Ruth did more.
1:15 to her people and to her gods The god of Moab was Chemosh (Num 21:29). Going back to Moab meant going back to Moab's gods. The choice was about whom to worship, not only where to live.
1:16 your people will be my people, and your God my God This is Ruth's confession of faith. She was leaving her people, her land and her gods to belong to the LORD and to His people. Saving faith is more than agreeing with facts. It is turning from other gods and giving yourself to the true God, whatever it costs (Luke 14:26-33).

back from after you; for where you go, I will go, and where you lodge, I will lodge; your people will be my people, and your God my God. 17 Where you die, I will die, and there I will be buried. Thus may the LORD do to me, and thus may He add, for death alone will separate between me and you." 18 And she saw that she was determined to go with her, and she ceased speaking to her.

Naomi Comes Home Bitter

19 And the two of them went until they came to Bethlehem. And it was, when they came to Bethlehem, and all the city was stirred over them, and they said, "Is this Naomi?" 20 And she said to them, "Do not call me Naomi; call me Mara, for the Almighty has made it very bitter for me. 21 I went full, and empty the LORD has brought me back. Why do you call me Naomi, and the LORD has testified against me, and the Almighty has done evil to me?" 22 And Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabite, her daughter-in-law, with her, who returned from the country of Moab; and they came to Bethlehem at the beginning of the harvest of barley.

Ruth Gleans in the Field of Boaz

1 And Naomi (No'omi) had a relative of her husband, a man mighty of wealth, from the clan of Elimelech (Elimelekh); and his name was Boaz. 2 And Ruth (Rut) the Moabite said to Naomi, "Let me go, please, to the field, and let me glean among the ears of grain behind him in whose eyes I find favor." And she said to her, "Go, my daughter." 3 And she went and came and gleaned in the field behind the harvesters; and her chance happened upon the portion of the field of Boaz, who was from the clan of Elimelech. 4 And look, Boaz came from Bethlehem (Bet-Lechem), and he said to the harvesters, "The LORD be with you." And they said to him, "May the LORD bless you." 5 And Boaz said to his young man who was stationed over the harvesters, "Whose is this young woman?" 6 And the young man who was stationed over the harvesters answered and said, "She is a Moabite young woman who returned with Naomi from the country of Moab (Mo'av). 7 And she said, 'Let me glean, please, and I will gather among the sheaves behind the harvesters.' And she came and has stood since the morning and until now; this, her sitting in the house, has been little."

Boaz Shows Kindness to Ruth

8 And Boaz said to Ruth, "Have you not heard, my daughter? Do not go to glean in another field, and also you shall not pass on from this one, and thus you shall cling to my young women. 9 Your eyes be on the field which they harvest, and you shall go behind them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, you shall go to the vessels and drink from what the young men draw." 10 And she fell on her face and bowed down to the ground, and she said to him, "Why have I found favor in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, and I am a foreigner?" 11 And Boaz answered and said to her, "It has surely been told to me, all that you have done with your mother-in-law after the death of your husband, and how you left your father and your mother and the land of your kindred, and came to a people whom you did not know yesterday or the day before. 12 May the LORD repay your work, and may your wages be

1:17 Thus may the LORD do to me, and thus may He add A solemn oath. A Moabite woman swore by Israel's God, using His covenant name. Boaz later says she came to take refuge under the LORD's wings (2:12). This was the day she did it.

1:20 call me Mara Naomi means pleasant. Mara means bitter. "The Almighty" translates Shaddai, a name for God that stresses His power (Gen 17:1).

1:21 I went full, and empty the LORD has brought me back Naomi's words are raw, and God does not condemn her for them. The Psalms are full of people pouring out their pain to God (Ps 13; 88). But she missed something. Ruth, who had promised never to leave her, was standing right beside her. She was not as empty as she thought.

1:21 has done evil to me "Evil" here means harm or trouble, not sin.

1:22 Ruth the Moabite The writer keeps calling Ruth "the Moabite." He never lets us forget she is a foreigner, which makes what God does with her all the more amazing.

1:22 at the beginning of the harvest of barley Barley was the first grain harvest, in the spring, about April. The chapter began with famine and ends with harvest. God was already turning Naomi's story around.

2:1 a man mighty of wealth The same Hebrew words describe a mighty warrior, as with Gideon (Judg 6:12). Boaz was a man of strength, standing and good character. Later he calls Ruth "a woman of worth" (3:11), using the same word. The name Boaz may mean in him is strength.

2:2 let me glean Gleaning was God's way of caring for the poor. Farmers were not to harvest the edges of their fields or go back for dropped grain. They left it "for the poor and for the sojourner" (Lev 19:9-10; 23:22; Deut 24:19). Ruth was both. She did not sit and wait for help. She took the first step.

2:3 her chance happened upon the portion of the field of Boaz The writer says it with a smile. To Ruth it was chance. To anyone who knows God, it was not chance at all. The fields were open strips side by side, marked by stones, and out of all of them she walked into the one owned by the man who could redeem her family. God guides our ordinary steps without our knowing it (Prov 16:9).

2:4 The LORD be with you Boaz greets his workers with the LORD's name, and they answer in kind. In the days of the judges, here was a field where God was honored in an ordinary workday greeting.

2:7 she came and has stood since the morning and until now Ruth's reputation came from her work and her loyalty, not from her family or her nation.

2:8 my daughter Boaz was likely older than Ruth (see 3:10).

2:9 Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you A foreign woman alone in a field in those lawless days could easily be harmed, as Naomi says in verse 22. Boaz protected her, and he let her drink from his workers' jars, turning the usual order around.

2:10 Why have I found favor in your eyes That is the right question to ask about grace, which is favor we have not earned. Ruth knew she had no claim on him. When we see how God has taken notice of us, sinners with no claim on Him, we should ask the same question in wonder.

2:12 under whose wings you have come to take refuge A mother bird spreads her wings over her young (Ps 91:4; Matt 23:37). Boaz did not know it yet, but God would answer this prayer through him. In 3:9 Ruth asks him to spread his "wing" over her, using the same word.

complete from the LORD, the God of Israel (Yisra'el), under whose wings you have come to take refuge." 13 And she said, "Let me find favor in your eyes, my lord, for you have comforted me, and for you have spoken to the heart of your maidservant, and I am not like one of your maidservants." 14 And Boaz said to her at the time of the meal, "Come near here, and you shall eat some of the bread and dip your morsel in the vinegar." And she sat beside the harvesters, and he held out roasted grain to her, and she ate and was satisfied and had some left over. 15 And she rose to glean, and Boaz commanded his young men, saying, "Also between the sheaves she shall glean, and you shall not humiliate her. 16 And also you shall surely pull out for her some of the bundles and leave them, and she shall glean, and you shall not rebuke her."

Naomi Learns of a Redeemer

17 And she gleaned in the field until the evening, and she beat out what she had gleaned, and it was approximately 3/5 bushel (an ephah) of barley. 18 And she lifted it up and came into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned; and she brought out and gave to her what she had left over from her fill. 19 And her mother-in-law said to her, "Where did you glean today, and where did you work? May the one who took notice of you be blessed." And she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and she said, "The name of the man with whom I worked today is Boaz." 20 And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, "Blessed is he by the LORD, who has not forsaken his steadfast love with the living and with the dead." And Naomi said to her, "The man is near to us; he is one of our redeemers." 21 And Ruth the Moabite said, "Also he said to me, 'You shall cling to the young men who are mine until they have completed all the harvest which is mine.'" 22 And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, and that they do not fall upon you in another field." 23 And she clung to the young women of Boaz to glean until the completion of the harvest of the barley and the harvest of the wheat; and she dwelt with her mother-in-law.

Naomi's Plan

1 And Naomi (No'omi) her mother-in-law said to her, "My daughter, shall I not seek for you a resting place, that it may go well for you? 2 And now, is not Boaz our relative, with whose young women you were? Look, he is winnowing the threshing floor of the barley tonight. 3 And you shall wash and anoint yourself, and put your garments on yourself, and go down to the threshing floor; do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. 4 And let it be, when he lies down, that you shall take note of the place where he lies down there; and you shall go in and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what you shall do." 5 And she said to her, "All that you say to me I will do."

Ruth at the Threshing Floor

6 And she went down to the threshing floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law had commanded her. 7 And Boaz ate and drank, and his heart was good, and he went to lie down at the end of the heap; and she came in secrecy and uncovered his feet and lay down. 8 And it was in the middle

2:13 you have spoken to the heart of your maidservant To speak to the heart means to speak kindly and tenderly (Gen 50:21; Isa 40:2).
2:14 he held out roasted grain to her The owner of the field served the foreign gleaner with his own hand. "She ate and was satisfied and had some left over," and she saved it for Naomi (2:18). The one who has every right to stay above us comes near and feeds us. Jesus is the bread of life, and He invites the hungry to come (John 6:35).
2:16 you shall surely pull out for her some of the bundles This is hesed in action. The Law said to leave the edges and the dropped grain. Boaz made sure there was extra, and he did it quietly so Ruth kept her dignity. Real kindness helps without making the other person feel small.
2:17 approximately 3/5 bushel (an ephah) of barley A very large amount for one day of gleaning, enough to feed two women for some time. Naomi knew at once that someone had helped her (2:19).
2:20 who has not forsaken His steadfast love with the living and with the dead Here Naomi's heart turns. In chapter 1 she said the LORD's hand was against her (1:13, 21). Now she praises His hesed. The sentence can point to Boaz or to the LORD, and both are true. The LORD was showing His love through Boaz.
2:20 one of our redeemers A redeemer (Hebrew go'el) was a close relative with the right and duty to stand up for family in trouble. He could buy back family land that had been sold (Lev 25:25), buy back a relative sold into slavery for debt (Lev 25:47-49), and keep a family's name and inheritance from being lost. Scripture calls God Israel's Redeemer (Isa 41:14), and Jesus came to "redeem those under law" (Gal 4:5). Boaz is a small picture of that great truth.
2:23 the harvest of the barley and the harvest of the wheat About seven weeks, from April into early June. The women had food, but no husband for Ruth, no heir for Elimelech and no hold on the land. Chapter 3 takes up those deeper needs.
3:1 shall I not seek for you a resting place Naomi had prayed for this "rest" in 1:9. Now she sees she can help answer her own prayer. The bitter woman of chapter 1 is thinking of Ruth's future, not her own pain. God was healing her heart.
3:2 he is winnowing the threshing floor of the barley tonight A threshing floor was a hard, flat surface, often on higher ground where the evening breeze could reach it. Workers tossed the beaten grain into the air, and the wind carried off the light chaff while the grain fell back. At harvest the owner often slept there to guard the grain.
3:3 wash and anoint yourself, and put your garments on yourself To anoint here is to put on perfumed oil. Some think she was to set aside the clothes of mourning, a sign she was ready to marry again.
3:4 uncover his feet and lie down Naomi was not telling Ruth to tempt Boaz or do anything immoral. Lying at a man's feet was the humble place of a servant. It let Ruth make a private, respectful request that he act as redeemer and marry her, and let Boaz say no without public shame if he chose.
3:7 his heart was good He was content after a hard day and a good harvest. The text does not say he was drunk (compare Judg 19:6).

of the night, and the man trembled and twisted himself, and look, a woman was lying at his feet. 9 And he said, "Who are you?" And she said, "I am Ruth (Rut) your maidservant, and spread your wing over your maidservant, for you are a redeemer." 10 And he said, "Blessed are you by the LORD, my daughter. You have made your latter steadfast love better than the former, in not going after the young men, whether poor or rich. 11 And now, my daughter, do not fear; all that you say I will do for you, for all the gate of my people knows that you are a woman of worth. 12 And now, for truly I am a redeemer, and also there is a redeemer nearer than I. 13 Lodge tonight, and it shall be in the morning, if he will redeem you, good, let him redeem; and if he is not willing to redeem you, then I will redeem you, I, as the LORD lives. Lie down until the morning."

Ruth Waits

14 And she lay at his feet until the morning, and she arose before a man could recognize his neighbor; and he said, "Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor." 15 And he said, "Give the shawl which is on you and hold it." And she held it, and he measured six measures of barley and put it on her; and he came into the city. 16 And she came to her mother-in-law, and she said, "Who are you, my daughter?" And she told her all that the man had done for her. 17 And she said, "These six measures of barley he gave to me, for he said to me, 'Do not go empty to your mother-in-law.'" 18 And she said, "Sit, my daughter, until you know how the matter will fall, for the man will not rest unless he has finished the matter today."

The Nearer Redeemer Steps Aside

1 And Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there; and look, the redeemer of whom Boaz had spoken was passing by. And he said, "Turn aside, sit here, so-and-so." And he turned aside and sat down. 2 And he took ten men from the elders of the city, and he said, "Sit here." And they sat down. 3 And he said to the redeemer, "The portion of the field which belonged to our brother, to Elimelech (Elimelekh), Naomi (No'omi), who returned from the country of Moab (Mo'av), has sold. 4 And I, I said that I would uncover your ear, saying, 'Acquire it before those sitting here and before the elders of my people. If you will redeem, redeem; and if he will not redeem, tell me, and let me know, for there is no one except you to redeem, and I am after you.'" And he said, "I will redeem." 5 And Boaz said, "On the day you acquire the field from the hand of Naomi, and from Ruth (Rut) the Moabite, the wife of the dead man, you have acquired it, to raise up the name of the dead man over his inheritance." 6 And the redeemer said, "I am not able to redeem it for myself, lest I ruin my own inheritance. You, redeem for yourself my redemption, for I am not able to redeem it." 7 And this was formerly the practice in Israel (Yisra'el) concerning the redemption and concerning the exchange, to confirm every matter: a man drew off his sandal and gave it to his neighbor;

4:7 Deut 25:7-10

3:9 spread your wing over your maidservant, for you are a redeemer To spread the edge of a garment over a woman meant taking her as your wife under your protection. God used the same picture for His covenant with Israel (Ezek 16:8). "Wing" is the word Boaz used in 2:12. In effect Ruth said, You prayed I would find refuge under the LORD's wings. Be the answer to your own prayer. She was also thinking of Naomi, asking him to redeem Elimelech's land and name (4:5, 10).
3:10 You have made your latter steadfast love better than the former Her first act of hesed was staying with Naomi. This one was greater. Ruth was young and could have looked for a husband her own age. She put the family's name and Naomi's future first.
3:11 all the gate of my people knows that you are a woman of worth The gate was where the elders met to do business and judge cases, so "all the gate" means the whole town. "A woman of worth" is the phrase of Proverbs 31:10, and in many Hebrew Bibles Ruth comes right after Proverbs. A worthy man (2:1) and a worthy woman.
3:12 there is a redeemer nearer than I A closer relative had the first right and duty. Boaz would not go around him. He wanted it done in the open, by the Law.
3:13 as the LORD lives A solemn promise in the LORD's name. He kept her there until near dawn because sending a woman home alone through the dark fields would have been dangerous.
3:14 Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor Nothing wrong had happened, but people could easily have assumed it. Boaz guarded her good name and his own. He is the opposite of the men at the end of Judges, who used women for their own ends.
3:15 six measures of barley We do not know exactly how much a measure was, but six of them was as much as she could carry.
3:17 Do not go empty to your mother-in-law Naomi had said, "empty the LORD has brought me back" (1:21). Now Boaz says, Do not go back empty. The barley was a message to Naomi: your emptiness is about to be filled.
3:18 the man will not rest unless he has finished the matter today Ruth had done her part, and now she had to wait, which is often the hardest part of faith. Our Redeemer does not leave His work half done either. Jesus said, "It has been finished" (John 19:30).
4:1 Boaz went up to the gate and sat down there The gate was the town square, courthouse and place of business in one. Everyone going out to the fields passed through it.
4:1 so-and-so The Hebrew means a certain someone. The man who would not redeem is left unnamed, and his name is forgotten. Boaz did redeem, and his name is in the line of Christ.
4:2 ten men from the elders of the city Ten elders made the deal public and official. Boaz did everything in the open, with witnesses.
4:3 The portion of the field which belonged to our brother, to Elimelech "Brother" means relative. Naomi needed to sell the family land, or the right to use it, and the Law said the nearest relative should buy it back so it stayed in the family (Lev 25:25).
4:5 to raise up the name of the dead man over his inheritance Now the deal changed. The redeemer would also take Ruth as his wife, and their first son would carry Mahlon's name and one day own the field. This is the idea behind Deuteronomy 25:5-6.
4:6 I am not able to redeem it for myself, lest I ruin my own inheritance He would pay for land that would pass to Ruth's son and take on another family to support. He may also not have wanted a Moabite wife among his heirs. Scripture does not say exactly. A redeemer had to be a near relative, able to pay and willing. This man was near and able, but not willing. Boaz was all three.
4:7 a man drew off his sandal and gave it to his neighbor The writer explains an old custom no longer common in his day. The sandal likely stood for the right to walk on and possess the land (Josh 1:3). This is not the shameful sandal ceremony of Deuteronomy 25:7-10. There is no spitting or shame here, only a simple way of sealing a transfer.

and this was the attestation in Israel. 8 And the redeemer said to Boaz, "Acquire it for yourself." And he drew off his sandal.

Boaz Redeems Ruth

9 And Boaz said to the elders and to all the people, "You are witnesses today that I have acquired all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion (Kilyon) and Mahlon (Machlon) from the hand of Naomi. 10 And also Ruth the Moabite, the wife of Mahlon, I have acquired for myself for a wife, to raise up the name of the dead man over his inheritance, and the name of the dead man shall not be cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses today." 11 And all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming into your house like Rachel and like Leah (Le'a), the two of whom built the house of Israel. And do worthily in Ephrathah (Efrata), and proclaim a name in Bethlehem (Bet-Lechem). 12 And may your house be like the house of Perez (Perets), whom Tamar bore to Judah (Yehuda), from the seed which the LORD will give to you from this young woman."

A Son for Naomi

13 And Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife, and he went in to her; and the LORD gave her conception, and she bore a son. 14 And the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the LORD, who has not caused a redeemer to cease for you today; and may his name be proclaimed in Israel. 15 And he shall be for you a restorer of life and one to sustain your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you has borne him, she who is better to you than seven sons." 16 And Naomi took the child and placed him in her bosom, and she became a nurse to him. 17 And the neighbor women called him a name, saying, "A son has been born to Naomi." And they called his name Obed (Oved). He was the father of Jesse (Yishay), the father of David.

The Line of David

18 And these are the generations of Perez: Perez fathered Hezron (Chetsron), 19 and Hezron fathered Ram, and Ram fathered Amminadab (Aminadav), 20 and Amminadab fathered Nahshon (Nachshon), and Nahshon fathered Salmon (Salma), 21 and Salmon fathered Boaz, and Boaz fathered Obed, 22 and Obed fathered Jesse, and Jesse fathered David.

4:9 You are witnesses today Boaz took on the whole burden of a ruined family: their land, their widow, their name and their future. He paid the price himself.
4:10 Ruth the Moabite, the wife of Mahlon, I have acquired for myself for a wife That is what redemption means: buying back what was lost, at a cost to the redeemer. Christ became our near relative by taking on flesh and blood so He could redeem us (Heb 2:14-17). Boaz paid with silver. Jesus paid with His own blood (1 Pet 1:18-19).
4:11 like Rachel and like Leah Jacob's wives, mothers with their servants of the twelve tribes. It was the highest blessing a bride in Israel could receive. Rachel was buried on the road to Bethlehem (Gen 35:19). Ephrathah is the old name for Bethlehem.
4:12 the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah Perez was born from another story of a widow denied a husband from her dead husband's family (Gen 38). His family became the leading clan of Judah, and Boaz belonged to it (4:18-21). Tamar, like Ruth, was probably not an Israelite.
4:12 the house of Perez What about Deuteronomy 23:3, which kept Moabites out of the assembly? The elders did not object. Some teachers note that the word there is masculine and was applied to men. Others say the law was about Moab as a hostile nation, not a woman who left Moab and its gods to take refuge in the LORD. God received Ruth as He received Rahab (Josh 6:25). Faith opened a door that birth had closed.
4:13 the LORD gave her conception Ruth had no children in about ten years with Mahlon (1:4-5). Now the LORD opened her womb. This is the second of the two places where the writer himself tells what the LORD did (see 1:6).
4:14 who has not caused a redeemer to cease for you today The redeemer here is the baby, who would carry on the family name, care for Naomi and keep the land in the family.
4:15 a restorer of life One who brings life back and makes the heart live again.
4:15 better to you than seven sons Seven sons was the picture of a complete family. Ruth's love was worth more than all of that. Naomi had not come home empty after all.
4:16 Naomi took the child and placed him in her bosom The last picture of Naomi in the book: she who lost a husband and two sons holds a grandson, and she helped raise him.
4:17 They called his name Obed Obed means servant. "He was the father of Jesse, the father of David." Suddenly the whole book opens up. God was preparing Israel's king all along, in the darkest days of the judges.
4:18 These are the generations of Perez Ten names from Perez to David. Bible family lines are not just lists. They show God keeping His promises from generation to generation.
4:20 Nahshon Leader of the tribe of Judah in the wilderness (Num 1:7; 2:3).
4:21 Salmon fathered Boaz Matthew says Salmon married Rahab of Jericho (Matt 1:5). Hebrew family lines sometimes skip generations, so Boaz was her son or a later descendant. A Canaanite woman and a Moabite woman were both in David's family. God's grace reached outsiders long before the gospel went to the nations.
4:22 Jesse fathered David Judges ended, "In those days there was no king in Israel" (Judg 21:25). Ruth ends with the name of the king. God promised David an everlasting throne (2 Sam 7:16), and Matthew carries this same line on to Jesus, naming Ruth (Matt 1:5-16). Jesus was born in Bethlehem (Luke 2:4; Mic 5:2). He is the true Redeemer, and one day the Son of David will return to reign on David's throne (Luke 1:32-33).

1 SAMUEL

Introduction

Title

The book is named for Samuel, the prophet who anointed Israel's first two kings. In the Hebrew Bible, 1 and 2 Samuel were one book, among the Former Prophets, the books that tell Israel's history from God's point of view. When the Old Testament was translated into Greek, the long book was split in two, and our Bibles still have it that way. 1 Samuel is the ninth book of the Bible, following Ruth and coming before 2 Samuel, in the historical books that run from Joshua through Esther. It has 31 chapters and 810 verses. It opens with a woman weeping in prayer at Shiloh and closes with a king dying in battle on a mountain.

Author and Date

The book does not name its author. Jewish tradition holds that Samuel wrote the early part. Samuel dies in 25:1, so others had to finish it. The acts of David were written "in the words of Samuel the seer, and in the words of Nathan the prophet, and in the words of Gad the seer" (1 Chr 29:29), and many conservative scholars believe the book was put together from the records of these three prophets. Many modern critical scholars believe it was formed much later from several older sources and edited in the time of the exile. I take the book at its word. It reads as a careful record kept by prophets who knew these men, and the New Testament treats it as true history (Acts 13:21-22; Matt 12:3-4).

The book was finished sometime after Saul's death, most likely after the kingdom divided about 930 B.C., since Ziklag has belonged "to the kings of Judah until this day" (27:6). Some conservatives date it a little earlier, in David's or Solomon's day. The events run from about 1105 to 1010 B.C. Most conservative scholars date the start of Saul's reign about 1050 B.C. Paul says Saul reigned forty years (Acts 13:21), so he died about 1010 B.C., when David became king over Judah. The exact years are debated, and the Hebrew text of 13:1 has a copying problem explained in the notes there.

1 Samuel picks up where Judges leaves off. Judges ends with Israel falling apart, with no king and every man doing what was right in his own eyes (Judg 21:25). Ruth showed God quietly preparing the family of David in Bethlehem. 1 Samuel is the bridge from the judges to the kings, about one hundred years from Samuel's birth to Saul's death.

Most of the book takes place in the hill country between Shiloh in the north and Bethlehem and the wilderness of Judah in the south. The tabernacle stood at Shiloh. Samuel's home was Ramah, a few miles north of Jerusalem, and Saul's was Gibeah in Benjamin. Israel's great enemy was the Philistines, a sea people in five cities on the coastal plain: Gaza, Ashkelon, Ashdod, Gath and Ekron. They had iron weapons, and Israel mostly did not (13:19-22).

The book follows three men. Samuel was a Levite by descent (1 Chr 6:26-28, 33-34), born in answer to his mother's prayer and given to the LORD for life, the last judge, a prophet the whole nation knew (3:20) and a man of prayer remembered with Moses (Jer 15:1; Ps 99:6). Saul, from the small tribe of Benjamin, was tall and impressive and began humbly, but he would not obey, and God rejected him (13:13-14; 15:23). David, the youngest son of Jesse of Judah, was anointed in secret (16:13) and spent years serving and then running from Saul, refusing to harm the LORD's anointed. The first readers, Israel in the days of the kings, needed to know how the kingdom began, why Saul's house lost the throne and why David's house was God's choice.

Themes

The LORD rules over His people and looks at the heart. He raises up the humble and brings down the proud, as Hannah sings: "He brings low, also He exalts" (2:7). He honors those who honor Him (2:30). Saul looked like a king, but David was the one God chose, because "man sees according to the eyes, and the LORD sees according to the heart" (16:7).

Alongside that runs a second theme: obedience matters more than religious show. When Saul spared what God told him to destroy and called it a sacrifice, Samuel answered, "to listen is better than sacrifice" (15:22). The book is not only about whether Israel will have a king, but what kind of king, and whose choice he will be. God had promised kings (Gen 17:6; Deut 17:14-15). Saul is the king the people asked for. David is the king God chose.

The book also shows that God hears the prayers of the humble, from Hannah at Shiloh to David at Ziklag, who "strengthened himself in the LORD his God" (30:6). He holds leaders to a higher standard, and He keeps His promises even when His people fail. The battle belongs to the LORD (17:47).

Christ in 1 Samuel

Before Israel ever had a king, Hannah sang that the LORD "will give strength to His king and exalt the horn of His anointed" (2:10). Anointed is the Hebrew mashiach, which gives us Messiah, and in Greek Christos, Christ (John 1:41). The word was used before for the anointed priest (Lev 4:3), but here for the first time Scripture speaks of the LORD's anointed king, and the book keeps calling the king "the anointed of the LORD" (24:6; 26:9). Saul failed. David, the anointed shepherd from Bethlehem, became the man after God's own heart (13:14; Acts 13:22), and God later promised that his throne would last forever (2 Sam 7). The angel told Mary that God would give her Son "the throne of David His father" (Luke 1:32), and Mary's song echoes Hannah's again and again (Luke 1:46-55). The faithful priest promised in 2:35 was first Zadok, and Jesus is "a merciful and faithful high priest" (Heb 2:17). Samuel, prophet, judge and a man who offered sacrifice, gives a picture of the One who is Prophet, Priest and King, though the New Testament does not name that picture. Peter said all the prophets "from Samuel" on foretold the days of Christ (Acts 3:24).

Hard Passages

1 Samuel does not hide painful things. Eli's sons abused their office and took advantage of women who served at the tabernacle (2:22). Many men of Beth-shemesh died for looking into the ark (6:19), which the notes explain from God's holiness, and the large number there has a copying question the notes name. God commanded Saul to devote Amalek to destruction, men, women and children (15:3). The notes do not soften it. They explain it as God's judgment after centuries of patience, a one-time command never to be used as a pattern, and they say plainly that I believe little children who die are safe with God (2 Sam 12:23). Samuel put Agag to death before the LORD (15:33).

Saul killed the priests of Nob and their town (22:18-19), which the notes call murder. David lied at Nob and in Gath, and his raids from Ziklag left no one alive (27:8-11). The notes give the readings fairly and point out that the text gives his motive as hiding his lie. Saul consulted a medium (chapter 28), and the notes give the main views of who appeared, while warning against mediums and seances. The book ends with Saul taking his own life (31:4-5). The notes state it plainly without praising it, and they add a word for those who have lost someone to suicide and for anyone struggling with such thoughts. Large numbers are taken as written, and the view that "thousand" can mean a clan or unit is named at 11:8.

Hannah's Sorrow

1 And there was a certain man from Ramathaim-zophim (Ramatayim-Tsofim), from the hill country of Ephraim (Efrayim), and his name was Elkanah (Elqana), the son of Jeroham (Yerocham), the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu (Tochu), the son of Zuph (Tsuf), an Ephrathite. 2 And he had two wives: the name of the one was Hannah (Chana), and the name of the second was Peninnah (Penina). And Peninnah had children, and Hannah had no children. 3 And that man went up from his city from year to year to bow down and to sacrifice to the LORD of armies at Shiloh (Shilo); and there the two sons of Eli, Hophni (Chofni) and Phinehas (Pinchas), were priests to the LORD. 4 And the day came, and Elkanah sacrificed, and he would give portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and her daughters. 5 And to Hannah he would give one double portion, for he loved Hannah, and the LORD had closed her womb. 6 And her rival also provoked her with provocation, in order to make her fret, for the LORD had closed up her womb. 7 And so he did year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her, and she wept and did not eat. 8 And Elkanah her husband said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? And why do you not eat? And why is your heart sad? Am I not better to you than ten sons?"

Hannah's Prayer and Vow

9 And Hannah arose after eating in Shiloh and after drinking. And Eli the priest was sitting on the seat by the doorpost of the temple of the LORD. 10 And she was bitter of soul, and she prayed to the LORD and wept bitterly. 11 And she vowed a vow and said, "LORD of armies, if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your maidservant, and remember me and not forget Your maidservant, and give to Your maidservant a seed of men, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and a razor shall not go up on his head." 12 And it was, as she prayed much before the LORD, and Eli was watching her mouth. 13 And Hannah, she was speaking in her heart; only her lips were quivering, and her voice was not heard; and Eli considered her a drunken woman. 14 And Eli said to her, "How long will you be drunk? Put away your wine from you." 15 And Hannah answered and said, "No, my lord, I am a woman hard of spirit; and wine and strong drink I have not drunk, and I have poured out my soul before the LORD. 16 Do not set your maidservant before you as a daughter of worthlessness, for from the greatness of my complaint

1:1 a certain man from Ramathaim-zophim Ramathaim is the longer name of Ramah, a town in the hill country north of Jerusalem and Samuel's home all his life. Calling Elkanah "an Ephrathite" most likely means he lived in Ephraim. 1 Chronicles 6 shows his family were Levites, from the line of Kohath. Some take Ephrathite as a clan name.
1:2 he had two wives The Bible records polygamy but never holds it up as God's plan. From the start God made one man and one woman (Gen 2:24), and nearly every home in Scripture with two wives is a home with trouble. In that world a woman without children often felt shame, as if God were against her.
1:3 to sacrifice to the LORD of armies at Shiloh This is the first time the Bible calls God "the LORD of armies," often rendered the LORD of hosts. He commands every army, the stars, the angels and the armies of Israel. Shiloh was where the tabernacle stood (Josh 18:1). The Law called every man to appear before the LORD at the feasts (Deut 16:16), and Elkanah kept going when many did not.
1:3 the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests to the LORD Remember these names. A priest came from Aaron's family, served at the altar and stood between God and the people. These two will come up again in chapter 2, and not for good reasons.
1:5 to Hannah he would give one double portion, for he loved Hannah Part of a peace offering was eaten by the family in a meal before the LORD. Elkanah wanted Hannah to know she mattered to him.
1:6 for the LORD had closed up her womb Twice we are told this (1:5). God was at work in Hannah's waiting. That can be hard to hear if you have waited for a child, but it does not mean He was punishing her. He had a plan she could not see yet, as He did with Sarah, Rebekah and Rachel.
1:7 as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her Peninnah used Hannah's pain, year after year, and it was worst at the house of the LORD of all places. Some of the deepest wounds come from those closest to us, and sometimes people get hurt worst at church. God saw it all.
1:8 Am I not better to you than ten sons? Elkanah meant well. He loved her and wanted to fix her sadness, but he did not really understand it. Sometimes we try to talk people out of grief when what they need is someone to sit with them in it. Hannah did not argue. She took her pain to the LORD.
1:9 the temple of the LORD By now the tabernacle at Shiloh had some lasting buildings around it, so it could be called a temple or house of the LORD (1:7).
1:10 she was bitter of soul, and she prayed to the LORD and wept bitterly Hannah did not hide her feelings from God or pretend things were fine. She brought her bitterness to Him. God can handle our honest prayers. The Psalms are full of them.
1:11 a razor shall not go up on his head Uncut hair was the mark of the Nazirite, a person set apart to God by a special vow (Num 6:1-8), as Samson had been from birth (Judg 13:5). Hannah calls herself "Your maidservant" three times. Was she bargaining? I don't think so. She asked for a son she would give right back. Her prayer had moved from wanting something for herself to wanting God honored.
1:13 Eli considered her a drunken woman People usually prayed out loud, so silent prayer was unusual. It says something about those days that a priest assumed a praying woman was drunk. Eli was quick to judge a hurting woman and slow to deal with his own house (2:22-25). We should be careful about jumping to conclusions about people who are hurting.
1:15 I have poured out my soul before the LORD A good picture of prayer, holding nothing back: "pour out your heart before Him" (Ps 62:8).
1:16 a daughter of worthlessness The same phrase, sons of worthlessness, will describe Eli's own sons (2:12). The woman Eli thought was worthless was the godliest person at Shiloh that day, and the men he let serve at the altar were the worthless ones.

and my provocation I have spoken until now." 17 And Eli answered and said, "Go in peace, and may the God of Israel (Yisra'el) grant your petition which you have asked from Him." 18 And she said, "Let your maidservant find favor in your eyes." And the woman went on her way and ate, and her face was no longer sad.

Samuel Born and Given to the LORD

19 And they rose early in the morning and bowed down before the LORD, and they returned and came to their house at Ramah (Rama). And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her. 20 And it was at the turning of the days, and Hannah conceived and bore a son; and she called his name Samuel (Shemu'el), "For from the LORD I asked for him." 21 And the man Elkanah and all his household went up to sacrifice to the LORD the yearly sacrifice and his vow. 22 And Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, "Until the lad is weaned; and I will bring him, and he shall appear in the presence of the LORD and dwell there forever." 23 And Elkanah her husband said to her, "Do what is good in your eyes; remain until you have weaned him; only may the LORD establish His word." And the woman remained and nursed her son until she had weaned him. 24 And she brought him up with her when she had weaned him, with three bulls and approximately 3/5 bushel (one ephah) of flour and a skin of wine; and she brought him to the house of the LORD at Shiloh; and the lad was a lad. 25 And they slaughtered the bull and brought the lad to Eli. 26 And she said, "Please, my lord, as your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood with you in this place to pray to the LORD. 27 For this lad I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my petition which I asked from Him. 28 And also I have lent him to the LORD; all the days that he is, he is asked for the LORD." And he bowed down there to the LORD.

Hannah's Song

1 And Hannah (Chana) prayed and said, "My heart has rejoiced in the LORD; my horn has been exalted in the LORD; my mouth has opened wide over my enemies, for I have rejoiced in Your salvation. 2 There is none holy like the LORD, for there is none besides You, and there is no rock like our God. 3 Do not multiply speaking lofty, lofty things; let not arrogance go out from your mouth; for the LORD is a God of knowledge, and by Him deeds are weighed. 4 The bow of the mighty is shattered, and those who stumble have girded on strength. 5 The satisfied have hired themselves out for bread, and the hungry have ceased; even the barren has borne seven, and she who is many in sons languishes. 6 The LORD kills and makes alive; He brings down to Sheol and brings up. 7 The LORD makes poor and makes rich; He brings

1:18 the woman went on her way and ate, and her face was no longer sad Nothing had changed yet. She was not pregnant and had no promise, only a priest's blessing. But she had left her burden with the LORD. Paul says the same to us: bring everything to God in prayer, and His peace will guard your heart (Phil 4:6-7). Peace often comes before the answer does.
1:19 the LORD remembered her To remember, in the Bible, does not mean God had forgotten. It means He acted on what was promised or asked (Gen 8:1; 30:22). Hannah had prayed, "remember me" (1:11). Now He did.
1:20 she called his name Samuel The meaning of the name is debated. It sounds like the Hebrew for heard of God or name of God, and Hannah ties it to her asking: "For from the LORD I asked for him." Every time she called him, she would remember that God hears prayer.
1:21 the yearly sacrifice and his vow It seems Elkanah had joined in Hannah's vow. A husband could cancel his wife's vow when he heard it (Num 30:6-8). He did not. He stood with her.
1:23 only may the LORD establish His word Children were often nursed until two or three years old. Elkanah let Hannah decide, and both of them wanted to see God's purpose for this child come true.
1:24 three bulls A large and costly gift. The Greek and a Dead Sea Scroll copy read a three-year-old bull, which fits "the bull" in 1:25. "The lad was a lad" means he was still very young.
1:25 brought the lad to Eli It is hard to picture a mother handing over the little boy she had wept for, to live at the tabernacle under an old priest with wicked sons. But Hannah did what she said she would do.
1:28 I have lent him to the LORD Asked and lent come from the same Hebrew root. She asked the LORD for him and gives him back as one asked for the LORD, for life. Did she lose by it? She sang for joy, and God gave her five more children (2:21). We never lose by giving God what He has given us. Our children, plans and dreams are safest in His hands.
2:1 My heart has rejoiced in the LORD; my horn has been exalted in the LORD Hannah's joy is in the LORD Himself, not only in His gift. A horn pictures strength, like a strong animal's horns. God had lifted her from shame to honor. Her song is Hebrew poetry, which rhymes thoughts, not sounds. One line says something and the next repeats, adds to it or gives the opposite. Watch for it as you read.
2:1 I have rejoiced in Your salvation For years Hannah kept quiet while Peninnah mocked her. Now she speaks, but she does not gloat over Peninnah by name. Salvation here means rescue, God stepping in to deliver.
2:2 There is none holy like the LORD Holy means set apart, wholly different from us, pure and without sin. The LORD is not just the best of the gods. There is "none besides You." A rock was a place of safety in that hill country, solid and unmoving. Moses called God the Rock (Deut 32:4). Hannah had been shaken for years, but her God had not moved.
2:3 by Him deeds are weighed God knows everything and weighs every act on His scales. He knows what was done to Hannah, and He knows what is done to us. We do not need to take revenge. We can leave it with the God who weighs deeds (Rom 12:19).
2:5 even the barren has borne seven Hannah would have six children in all (2:21), so seven, the number of completeness, pictures full blessing. The woman with many children is the one who now fades. God turns the world upside down.
2:6 The LORD kills and makes alive; He brings down to Sheol and brings up Sheol is the place of the dead, the grave. Life and death are in God's hand alone. A God who can bring up from Sheol can raise the dead, so this is one of the early places that hints at resurrection (compare Deut 32:39). Many read it only as rescue from near death.
2:7 He brings low, also He exalts Nothing happens to us outside His rule. That does not mean every hard thing is a punishment. It means no hard thing is out of His control.

low, also He exalts. 8 He raises up the poor from the dust; from the ash heap He lifts up the needy, to make them sit with nobles; and a throne of glory He makes them inherit. For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and He has set the world on them. 9 The feet of His godly ones He will guard, and the wicked shall be silenced in darkness; for not by strength shall a man prevail. 10 The LORD, those who contend against Him shall be shattered; against him in the heavens He will thunder. The LORD will judge the ends of the earth, and He will give strength to His king and exalt the horn of His anointed." 11 And Elkanah (Elqana) went to Ramah (Rama), to his house. And the lad was serving the LORD in the presence of Eli the priest.

The Sins of Eli's Sons

12 And the sons of Eli were sons of worthlessness; they did not know the LORD. 13 And the custom of the priests with the people was this: when any man was sacrificing a sacrifice, the servant of the priest would come while the flesh was boiling, and the fork of three prongs was in his hand; 14 and he would thrust it into the pan or into the kettle or into the caldron or into the pot; all that the fork brought up the priest would take for himself. Thus they did to all Israel (Yisra'el) who came there, at Shiloh (Shilo). 15 Also before they made the fat smoke, the servant of the priest would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, "Give flesh to roast for the priest; and he will not take boiled flesh from you, but raw." 16 And the man would say to him, "Let them surely make the fat smoke first, and then take for yourself as your soul desires." And he would say, "No, but now you shall give it; and if not, I will take it by force." 17 And the sin of the young men was very great in the presence of the LORD, for the men treated the offering of the LORD with contempt. 18 And Samuel (Shemu'el) was serving in the presence of the LORD, a lad girded with an ephod of linen. 19 And his mother would make him a little robe and bring it up to him from year to year, when she went up with her husband to sacrifice the yearly sacrifice. 20 And Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and say, "May the LORD appoint for you seed from this woman in place of the petition which he asked for the LORD." And they would go to his place. 21 For the LORD visited Hannah, and she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the lad Samuel grew up with the LORD. 22 And Eli was very old, and he heard all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and how they were lying with the women who served at the entrance of the tent of meeting. 23 And he said to them, "Why do you do according to these things which I am hearing, your evil things, from all these people? 24 No, my sons; for the report which I am hearing the people of the LORD spreading is not good. 25 If a man sins against a man, God will mediate for him; and if a man sins against the LORD,

2:8 from the ash heap He lifts up the needy, to make them sit with nobles The ash heap was the town dump, where beggars and outcasts sat. God lifts people from there to a seat among princes. He did it for David the shepherd boy, and He does it for every sinner saved by grace. We were in the dust, and He seated us with Christ (Eph 2:4-6).
2:9 not by strength shall a man prevail This sentence sums up 1 Samuel. Saul will be tall and strong, and Goliath a giant. Neither one wins. The ones who win trust the LORD. Zechariah says the same: not by might, nor by power, but by God's Spirit (Zech 4:6).
2:10 He will give strength to His king and exalt the horn of His anointed Israel had no king when Hannah sang this. Anointed is the Hebrew mashiach, one set apart by poured oil. It was used earlier of the anointed priest (Lev 4:3), but this is the first time Scripture speaks of the LORD's anointed king. From it come Messiah and, through the Greek, Christ (John 1:41).
2:10 The LORD will judge the ends of the earth Her song widens from her home to the whole world. In the near view it points to Israel's kings, and her son would anoint the first two. But it reaches to Jesus, the Son of David. The apostles applied Psalm 2 and "His Anointed" to Him (Acts 4:25-27). Mary's song echoes Hannah's: "my spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior" (Luke 1:47), and He "has exalted the lowly" (Luke 1:52).
2:11 the lad was serving the LORD in the presence of Eli the priest Samuel was only a small boy, but he already had work to do. Children can serve God too. The chapter now sets Samuel side by side with Eli's sons, and the difference is sharp.
2:12 the sons of Eli were sons of worthlessness; they did not know the LORD They served at God's altar every day and did not know Him. It is possible to be busy with religious work and not know God at all. Jesus warned that some who did great things in His name would hear Him say He never knew them (Matt 7:22-23).
2:14 all that the fork brought up the priest would take for himself The Law gave the priest the breast and the right thigh of a peace offering (Lev 7:31-34). Eli's sons took what they wanted, not what God gave them.
2:15 before they made the fat smoke The fat belonged to the LORD and was to be burned first, the best part given to God (Lev 3:16). Eli's sons wanted their share before God got His. When a worshiper tried to do it right, they threatened force. The priests had become bullies.
2:17 the men treated the offering of the LORD with contempt The worst of their sin was not just greed. They despised what belonged to God. When leaders treat holy things as cheap, they teach the people to do the same.
2:18 a lad girded with an ephod of linen An ephod was a simple linen garment worn by those who served before the LORD. The high priest had a special one, but others wore plain ones (22:18; 2 Sam 6:14). In the middle of all this sin, little Samuel had his own.
2:19 his mother would make him a little robe Picture Hannah sewing it at home, a bit bigger each year as he grew. She had given him to the LORD, but she never stopped loving him or praying for him.
2:21 she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters God is no man's debtor. Hannah gave one son, and God gave her five more children. And Samuel "grew up with the LORD," not just near the tabernacle, but with Him.
2:22 they were lying with the women who served at the entrance of the tent of meeting Women served at the entrance in some way (Exod 38:8). Eli's sons used their office to take sexual advantage of them. That was immorality and an abuse of priestly power, and it looked like the pagan worship of Canaan. God's house was being turned into a place of shame.
2:25 if a man sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him? When we wrong another person, God can judge between us. But when the priests themselves sin against God, who is left to stand for them? Eli only spoke. As high priest and judge he had the authority to remove them from the altar and did not use it (3:13).
2:25 for the LORD desired to put them to death This does not mean God kept them from repenting when they wanted to. They had sinned long against light they knew, and there comes a point when God gives a person over to the hardness he has chosen (Rom 1:24, 28). Some teachers stress God's sovereign decree more here. God is patient, but not endlessly. Today is the day to listen (Heb 3:15).

who will intercede for him?" And they did not listen to the voice of their father, for the LORD desired to put them to death. 26 And the lad Samuel was going on and growing, and was good both with the LORD and also with men.

The Man of God Warns Eli

27 And a man of God came to Eli and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Did I indeed reveal Myself to the house of your father when they were in Egypt (Mitsrayim), belonging to the house of Pharaoh? 28 And I chose him from all the tribes of Israel for Myself for a priest, to go up on My altar, to make incense smoke, to bear an ephod before Me; and I gave to the house of your father all the fire offerings of the sons of Israel. 29 Why do you kick at My sacrifice and at My offering which I commanded for My dwelling place, and honor your sons more than Me, by fattening yourselves from the choicest of every offering of Israel, of My people? 30 Therefore, declares the LORD, the God of Israel: I surely said, "Your house and the house of your father shall walk about before Me forever." And now, declares the LORD, far be it from Me! For those who honor Me I will honor, and those who despise Me shall be lightly esteemed. 31 Look, days are coming, and I will cut off your arm and the arm of the house of your father, so that there will not be an old man in your house. 32 And you will look on the distress of My dwelling place in all the good that He does to Israel; and there shall not be an old man in your house all the days. 33 And a man of yours whom I do not cut off from My altar shall be to make your eyes fail and to grieve your soul; and all the increase of your house shall die as men. 34 And this shall be the sign for you which shall come to your two sons, to Hophni (Chofni) and Phinehas (Pinchas): on one day the two of them shall die. 35 And I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest; according to what is in My heart and in My soul he shall do; and I will build for him a sure house, and he shall walk about before My anointed all the days. 36 And it shall be that everyone who is left in your house shall come to bow down to him for a piece of silver and a round loaf of bread, and shall say, "Attach me, please, to one of the priestly offices, to eat a morsel of bread."'"

The LORD Calls Samuel

1 And the lad Samuel (Shemu'el) was serving the LORD before Eli. And the word of the LORD was rare in those days; there was no vision spread abroad. 2 And it was on that day, and Eli was lying in his place, and his eyes had begun to be dim; he was not able to see. 3 And the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was. 4 And the LORD called to Samuel, and he said, "Here I am." 5 And he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." And he said, "I did not call; return, lie down." And he went and lay down. 6 And the LORD continued to call Samuel again. And Samuel rose and went to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." And he said, "I did not call, my son; return, lie down." 7 And Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. 8 And the LORD continued to call Samuel a third time. And he rose and went to Eli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." And Eli understood that

2:26 was good both with the LORD and also with men Luke uses almost the same words of the boy Jesus (Luke 2:52). Both grew in favor in a dark time, while the religious leaders around them failed.
2:27 a man of God came to Eli A man of God was a prophet, someone God sent to speak His word. The LORD reminds Eli of all He had given Aaron's house. They lacked nothing.
2:29 honor your sons more than Me, by fattening yourselves God includes Eli in the sin. Eli ate from what his sons took, and he was heavy (4:18). Loving our children does not mean protecting them from the consequences of sin. Sometimes the most loving thing a father can do is say no and mean it.
2:30 those who honor Me I will honor, and those who despise Me shall be lightly esteemed God had promised Aaron's family a lasting priesthood (Exod 29:9). That would stand, but Eli's branch would lose its place. To honor God is to give Him the weight and first place He deserves. The rest of the book shows this at work in Samuel, Saul and David. What does honoring God look like for you this week?
2:34 on one day the two of them shall die This came true in 4:11. Later Saul's men killed the priests of Nob, Eli's descendants (22:18-20), and Solomon removed Abiathar, the last of Eli's line, "to fulfill the word of the LORD which He had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh" (1 Kgs 2:27).
2:35 I will raise up for Myself a faithful priest In the near view this was Zadok, high priest in Solomon's day after Abiathar was removed (1 Kgs 2:35). Some also see Samuel. Every human priest died, but the pattern finds its full answer in Jesus, "a merciful and faithful high priest" (Heb 2:17). He is both the faithful Priest and the Anointed King.
2:36 to eat a morsel of bread The men who grabbed the best meat would see their children beg for crumbs. Sin promises plenty and pays in poverty.
3:1 the word of the LORD was rare in those days When God's people, and especially their priests, despise what He has already said, He may stop speaking for a while (Amos 8:11-12). Silence from God can be a judgment. It can also be the quiet before He does something new, as in the silent years before John the Baptist. Samuel was still a boy. Some think about twelve, but Scripture does not say.
3:2 his eyes had begun to be dim Eli's failing eyes match his failing spiritual sight. He had not seen what God wanted done in his own house.
3:3 the lamp of God had not yet gone out The lampstand burned from evening until morning (Exod 27:20-21), so this was before dawn. The writer may hint at more. Israel's light was low but not out. God still had a light burning, a boy named Samuel.
3:3 Samuel was lying in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was The ark was the gold-covered chest that held the tablets of the law, with the mercy seat as its lid (Exod 25:22). It stood behind the veil, where only the high priest could enter (Lev 16:2). Samuel slept somewhere in the tabernacle area, near enough to tend the lamp and open the doors (3:15).
3:4 Here I am The same answer Abraham and Moses gave when God called (Gen 22:1; Exod 3:4). Three times Samuel got up in the night and ran to answer. He was ready to serve before he knew who was calling.
3:7 Samuel did not yet know the LORD Samuel served the LORD but had never yet heard God speak to him directly. He was faithful in the little he knew, and now God was about to show him more.

the LORD was calling the lad. 9 And Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and it shall be, if He calls to you, that you shall say, 'Speak, LORD, for Your servant is listening.'" And Samuel went and lay down in his place. 10 And the LORD came and stood and called as time after time, "Samuel, Samuel." And Samuel said, "Speak, for Your servant is listening."

The Word Against Eli's House

11 And the LORD said to Samuel, "Look, I am about to do a thing in Israel (Yisra'el) at which both ears of everyone who hears it shall tingle. 12 On that day I will carry out against Eli all that I have spoken against his house, beginning and ending. 13 And I declare to him that I am about to judge his house forever for the iniquity which he knew, that his sons were bringing a curse on themselves, and he did not rebuke them. 14 And therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli that the iniquity of the house of Eli shall not be atoned for by sacrifice and by offering forever." 15 And Samuel lay until the morning, and he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli. 16 And Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son." And he said, "Here I am." 17 And he said, "What is the word which He spoke to you? Please do not hide it from me. Thus may God do to you, and thus may He add, if you hide from me a word from all the word which He spoke to you." 18 And Samuel told him all the words and did not hide them from him. And he said, "He is the LORD; let Him do what is good in His eyes." 19 And Samuel grew up, and the LORD was with him and did not let any of all his words fall to the ground. 20 And all Israel, from Dan and to Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva), knew that Samuel was established as a prophet of the LORD. 21 And the LORD continued to appear at Shiloh (Shilo), for the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

The Ark Is Captured

1 And the word of Samuel (Shemu'el) came to all Israel (Yisra'el). And Israel went out to meet the Philistines for battle, and they encamped by Ebenezer (Even-Ha'ezer), and the Philistines encamped at Aphek (Afeq). 2 And the Philistines arranged themselves to meet Israel, and the battle spread out, and Israel was defeated before the Philistines; and they struck down in the battle line in the field about four thousand men. 3 And the people came into the camp, and the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? Let us take to ourselves from Shiloh (Shilo) the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and let it come into our midst and save us from the hand of our enemies." 4 And the people sent to Shiloh, and they carried from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of armies, who sits on the cherubim; and the two sons of Eli were there with the ark of the covenant of God, Hophni (Chofni) and Phinehas

3:9 Speak, LORD, for Your servant is listening One of the most important prayers a believer can pray. It is not, listen, LORD, for Your servant is speaking, which is how many of our prayers sound. It is the prayer of someone ready to obey before he hears what God will ask. Eli had failed in much, but he still pointed a young person to God.

3:10 the LORD came and stood and called as time after time The LORD "came and stood," some kind of appearance, which 3:15 calls "the vision." He said the name twice, as with Abraham and Moses (Gen 22:11; Exod 3:4). He knew this boy by name, and He knows us by name too (John 10:3).

3:11 both ears of everyone who hears it shall tingle The news would be so shocking that ears would ring. It came when the ark was captured and Eli's sons died (chapter 4).

3:13 he did not rebuke them The Hebrew word means to restrain. Eli spoke to his sons (2:23-25) but did not stop them. A father who knows his children are destroying themselves and does nothing shares in the guilt.

3:14 shall not be atoned for by sacrifice and by offering forever To atone is to cover sin and make peace with God, usually by sacrifice. Eli's sons despised the very sacrifices God gave, so none was left to cover theirs. Hebrews gives a similar warning: "there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins" (Heb 10:26). The judgment is on the priestly line. The verse does not say whether Eli himself was saved.

3:15 Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli Who would want to tell the old man who raised him that his family was under God's judgment? So he went about his morning chores.

3:18 Samuel told him all the words and did not hide them from him Samuel's first test as a prophet, and he passed it. A prophet says what God says, all of it, even when it hurts. Paul said, "I did not hold back from declaring to you all the counsel of God" (Acts 20:27).

3:18 He is the LORD; let Him do what is good in His eyes Some hear humble faith. Others hear a tired man giving up. I think there is some of both. Eli accepted God's judgment as right, but he still did not remove his sons. Accepting God's word is not the same as obeying it.

3:19 did not let any of all his words fall to the ground When Samuel spoke for God, it came true. None of his words fell wasted. That was the test of a true prophet (Deut 18:21-22).

3:20 from Dan and to Beersheba From the northernmost town to the southernmost, the whole nation knew it. Samuel was the first of a long line of prophets. Peter said all the prophets "from Samuel" on spoke of the days of Christ (Acts 3:24).

3:21 the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of the LORD The word that was rare (3:1) was rare no longer. God still reveals Himself through His Word. We have something Samuel did not: a complete Bible, and the Son Himself, God's final Word (Heb 1:1-2). The question is whether we are listening.

4:1 Israel went out to meet the Philistines for battle The Philistines were a sea people settled on the coastal plain in five main cities. They had pressed on Israel since Samson's day (Judg 13:1). Notice what is missing. There is no word that Israel asked the LORD whether to fight, and no word from Samuel about this battle.

4:3 Why has the LORD defeated us today before the Philistines? A good question, but they did not wait for an answer. They did not pray, fast or ask Samuel. "Let it come" and "save us." They were trusting in the box, not in the God of the box. The ark had gone before Israel at the Jordan and Jericho (Josh 3; 6), but then God had commanded it. Now they were trying to force His hand.

4:4 who sits on the cherubim Cherubim are mighty angels. Two golden cherubim stood on the lid of the ark with wings spread, and God was pictured as enthroned above them. It was His throne on earth, and the people treated it as a weapon. And the men God had sworn to judge, Hophni and Phinehas, were the ones carrying it.

(Pinchas). 5 And it was, when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, and all Israel shouted a great shout, and the earth resounded. 6 And the Philistines heard the sound of the shout, and they said, "What is the sound of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews?" And they knew that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp. 7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, "God has come into the camp." And they said, "Woe to us! For it has not been like this yesterday or the day before. 8 Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck Egypt (Mitsrayim) with every blow in the wilderness. 9 Strengthen yourselves and be men, Philistines, lest you serve the Hebrews as they have served you; and be men and fight." 10 And the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and they fled, each man to his tents; and the blow was very great; and there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers. 11 And the ark of God was taken, and the two sons of Eli died, Hophni and Phinehas.

The Death of Eli

12 And a man of Benjamin (Binyamin) ran from the battle line and came to Shiloh on that day, and his garments were torn, and soil was on his head. 13 And he came, and look, Eli was sitting on the seat beside the road, watching, for his heart was trembling for the ark of God. And the man came to tell it in the city, and all the city cried out. 14 And Eli heard the sound of the outcry and said, "What is the sound of this uproar?" And the man hurried and came and told Eli. 15 And Eli was a son of ninety-eight years, and his eyes were set, and he was not able to see. 16 And the man said to Eli, "I am the one who came from the battle line, and I fled from the battle line today." And he had judged Israel forty years.

4:5 all Israel shouted a great shout, and the earth resounded Compare the shout at Jericho (Josh 6:20). That shout was obedience. This one was noise. You can shout loud and still be far from God.
4:8 These are the gods who struck Egypt with every blow in the wilderness The Philistines spoke as people who believed in many gods, and they mixed up the history a little. But they knew Israel's God was powerful.
4:9 be men and fight Fear made them fight harder, and desperate armies are dangerous. The pagans had more courage that day than God's people had faith.
4:10 there fell of Israel thirty thousand foot soldiers The first defeat cost four thousand. Bringing the ark without God's blessing cost thirty thousand. I take the numbers as written (see the note at 11:8).
4:11 the ark of God was taken, and the two sons of Eli died In one day both sons died, as the man of God said (2:34). Why did God let His ark be captured? Israel had turned it into an idol, as if God must fight for them while they had the right object in camp, no matter how they lived. He is not a charm. A Bible on the shelf, a cross on the wall or a church membership cannot save us. Only the living God can.
4:12 his garments were torn, and soil was on his head Signs of grief and disaster. Before he said a word, anyone who saw him knew the news was bad. From Aphek to Shiloh is about twenty miles, and he ran it in a day.
4:13 his heart was trembling for the ark of God That says something good about Eli. With both sons in battle, his first fear was for the ark. He loved the things of God. His failure was not that he did not care. It was that he did not act.
4:17 the ark of God has been taken Four blows, each worse than the last: defeat, slaughter, his sons dead, and the ark taken.
4:18 when he mentioned the ark of God, and he fell from on the seat backward It was not the news about his sons that killed Eli but the news about the ark. Heavy in Hebrew is from the same root as glory, kabod. Eli was heavy, perhaps from the best of the offerings (2:29), and now the glory was gone from Israel. A long life of religious service can still end badly if sin at home is left alone.
4:18 he had judged Israel forty years Eli was both high priest and judge. A judge, before Israel had kings, was a leader God raised up to rescue and govern His people. His forty years ended in sorrow.
4:20 Do not fear, for you have borne a son In that day a son was the greatest news a mother could hear. But she did not answer. The shock had brought on labor, and she was dying.
4:21 she called the lad Ichabod Ichabod means where is the glory, or no glory. God's glory was His shining presence among His people (Exod 40:34-35). Her husband had been a wicked priest, yet she grieved most over the loss of God's presence. In a sad house, she understood what mattered most.
4:22 for the ark of God has been taken Did the glory leave for good? No. God would show it among the Philistines, and the ark would come home. But Shiloh never recovered (Ps 78:60-61; Jer 7:12). Centuries later John wrote of Jesus, "we beheld His glory" (John 1:14). The glory that left Shiloh came to dwell among us in God's Son.
5:2 they brought it into the house of Dagon, and they set it beside Dagon Dagon was a main god of the Philistines. Samson pulled down a temple of Dagon in Gaza (Judg 16:23-30). Victors often put a defeated nation's gods in their own temple, as if to say the LORD was now Dagon's prisoner. They had it backwards. Israel lost because of its sin, not because the LORD was weak.

And they took Dagon and returned it to its place. 4 And they rose early in the morning on the next day, and look, Dagon was fallen on its face to the ground before the ark of the LORD, and the head of Dagon and the two palms of its hands were cut off at the threshold; only Dagon was left on it. 5 Therefore the priests of Dagon and all those who go into the house of Dagon do not tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod until this day. 6 And the hand of the LORD was heavy on the Ashdodites, and He devastated them, and He struck them with tumors, Ashdod and its territories. 7 And the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, and they said, "The ark of the God of Israel (Yisra'el) shall not remain with us, for His hand is hard on us and on Dagon our god." 8 And they sent and gathered all the rulers of the Philistines to them, and they said, "What shall we do to the ark of the God of Israel?" And they said, "To Gath (Gat) let the ark of the God of Israel go around." And they brought around the ark of the God of Israel. 9 And it was, after they had brought it around, and the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great panic, and He struck the men of the city from young even to old, and tumors broke out on them. 10 And they sent the ark of God to Ekron (Eqron). And it was, when the ark of God came to Ekron, and the Ekronites cried out, saying, "They have brought around to me the ark of the God of Israel, to kill me and my people!" 11 And they sent and gathered all the rulers of the Philistines, and they said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it return to its place, and it will not kill me and my people." For there was a panic of death in all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there. 12 And the men who did not die were struck with the tumors, and the cry for help of the city went up to the heavens.

The Ark Sent Back

1 And the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months. 2 And the Philistines called for the priests and for the diviners, saying, "What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? Make known to us with what we shall send it to its place." 3 And they said, "If you are sending away the ark of the God of Israel (Yisra'el), do not send it away empty, for you shall surely send back to Him a guilt offering. Then you will be healed, and it will be known to you why His hand does not turn aside from you." 4 And they said, "What is the guilt offering which we shall send back to Him?" And they said, "By the number of the rulers of the Philistines, five tumors of gold and five mice of gold, for one plague is to all of them and to your rulers. 5 And you shall make images of your tumors and images of your mice that are ruining the land, and you shall give glory to the God of Israel; perhaps He will lighten His hand from on you and from on your gods and from on your land. 6 And why will you make your heart heavy just as Egypt (Mitsrayim) and Pharaoh made their heart heavy? 5:3 Dagon was fallen on its face to the ground before the ark of the LORD Face down is the position of a worshiper bowing before his master. And they had to pick their god up and set him on his feet. A god you have to carry is no god at all (Isa 46:1-7).
5:4 the head of Dagon and the two palms of its hands were cut off at the threshold The head pictures thinking and ruling, the hands power and action. Victors cut off the head and hands of the defeated. The LORD had beaten Dagon in his own house, with no one there to see it but God.
5:5 do not tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod until this day Instead of turning from Dagon, they made a superstition out of his fall. People will often build a religious custom around a sign of God's judgment rather than repent. Zephaniah may point to the same custom many years later (Zeph 1:9).
5:6 He struck them with tumors The hand of the LORD pictures His power at work, judging not only Dagon but his worshipers. The word may mean swellings or boils. Many think of a plague spread by rats or mice, since mice come up in 6:4-5. Scripture does not name the disease, and we do not need its name to get the point.
5:7 His hand is hard on us and on Dagon our god They knew exactly who was behind it and named the God of Israel. But they wanted to get rid of His ark, not to turn to Him. It is possible to know God is real, to feel His hand, and still want Him to go away.
5:8 all the rulers of the Philistines Each of the five cities had its own ruler, and they decided together. Perhaps they thought the trouble was Ashdod's bad luck and a new place would be different.
5:9 He struck the men of the city from young even to old Gath was later Goliath's hometown (17:4). The city of the giant learned it could not stand against the LORD of armies.
5:10 They have brought around to me the ark of the God of Israel, to kill me and my people! Ekron was the Philistine city closest to Israel. The news had spread, and everyone knew what this ark did.
5:11 the hand of God was very heavy there For seven months (6:1) the God they thought they had captured went from city to city judging their idols and people. Israel had no army left to fight for the ark, and it did not matter. The LORD needs no one to defend Him. When it looks like God's cause is losing, He is not in danger. Our part is not to protect God, but to trust Him.
5:12 the cry for help of the city went up to the heavens They cried out to heaven, but not to the LORD in repentance. They only wanted the pain to stop. True repentance wants God, not just relief.
6:2 the Philistines called for the priests and for the diviners Diviners were pagan fortune-tellers who tried to read the will of the gods from signs. God's law forbade divination (Deut 18:10-12). These men did not know the LORD, but they knew enough to fear Him.
6:3 you shall surely send back to Him a guilt offering In Israel's law a guilt offering made amends for wrong done against God or another person (Lev 5:14-19). The Philistines did not know the law, but even pagans sensed they had wronged this God and owed Him something.
6:4 five tumors of gold and five mice of gold One for each Philistine ruler. People sometimes offered images of a disease to the god they believed sent it. It was a way of saying, we know these came from You.
6:5 you shall give glory to the God of Israel Even pagan priests saw that the God of Israel deserved glory. That is what the whole episode was about. God would get glory, through worship or through judgment.
6:6 why will you make your heart heavy just as Egypt and Pharaoh made their heart heavy? They remembered the exodus and warned against Pharaoh's mistake. Many people, then and now, know the stories of God's power and still do not bow to Him. Knowing the facts is not the same as faith.

And the men of Beth-shemesh offered up burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices on that day to the LORD. 16 And the five rulers of the Philistines saw, and they returned to Ekron (Eqron) on that day. 17 And these are the tumors of gold which the Philistines sent back as a guilt offering to the LORD: for Ashdod one, for Gaza (Aza) one, for Ashkelon (Ashqelon) one, for Gath (Gat) one, for Ekron one. 18 And the mice of gold were by the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five rulers, from fortified city even to the village of the open-country dweller, and even to the great Abel (Avel) on which they set down the ark of the LORD, which is until this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemeshite.

The Holy God at Beth-shemesh

19 And He struck among the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD; and He struck among the people seventy men, fifty thousand men. And the people mourned, because the LORD had struck among the people with a great blow. 20 And the men of Beth-shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? And to whom shall He go up from us?" 21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath-jearim (Qiryat-Ye'arim), saying, "The Philistines have brought back the ark of the LORD; come down, bring it up to you."

6:7 two nursing cows on which a yoke has not come up A test made as hard as possible. Untrained cows will not pull straight, and nursing cows will try to go back to their calves. If they went to Israel anyway, it would be God, plain and clear, not chance (6:9).
6:8 put it on the cart God's law said the ark was to be carried on poles on the shoulders of the Levites (Num 4:15; 7:9). God allowed the Philistines, who did not have His law, to move it this way. When David tried the same method years later, it ended in death (2 Sam 6:3-7). God's people are held to what He has told them.
6:12 going and lowing, and they did not turn aside to the right or left Picture it. The cows bawled for their calves the whole way, yet walked straight toward Israel. The God who parted the sea was guiding two cows down a country road. The Philistine rulers followed to see with their own eyes, and they got their answer.
6:13 they rejoiced to see it It was early summer, the wheat harvest. Seven months of grief were over.
6:14 the cows they offered up as a burnt offering to the LORD A burnt offering was wholly burned, given completely to God in worship and dedication (Lev 1). The cart and the cows that had carried the ark were given to Him.
6:15 the Levites brought down the ark of the LORD The Levites were the tribe set apart to carry the holy things. Beth-shemesh was a town given to the priests (Josh 21:13-16), so there were Levites who knew what to do. So far, so good.
6:16 they returned to Ekron on that day They had seen the proof. Scripture does not say they turned to the LORD.
6:18 the great Abel Abel means meadow or mourning. Many Bibles, following some Hebrew copies and the Greek, read "the great stone," since the Hebrew words for stone and Abel look alike, and that matches 6:14-15. Either way, the stone stood as a witness to what God had done.
6:19 because they had looked into the ark of the LORD The ark was the most holy object in Israel. Even the Levites who carried it were never to see it uncovered (Num 4:5, 15, 20). Beth-shemesh was a priestly town, so they knew or should have known. Whatever their reason, they treated the throne of the holy God as an object to poke into.
6:19 He struck among the people seventy men, fifty thousand men This is a hard verse. The chapter gives the reason in 6:20: He is "this holy God." Sinful people cannot stand in the full presence of perfect holiness, and God's careful rules were His way of letting them draw near without being destroyed. Those who know His will are held to a higher standard (Luke 12:47-48). We come boldly through Christ our High Priest (Heb 4:14-16), but boldness is not carelessness.
6:19 fifty thousand men The Hebrew sets the two numbers side by side without the usual connecting word, which is very unusual, and Beth-shemesh was a small town. Many scholars think the large number came in by a copying error and the original was seventy. Some read fifty thousand and seventy, or a count of the whole region. I do not know which is right. Many men died, and the people mourned.
6:20 Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? The right question, and the answer is no one, unless God makes a way. Psalm 24:3-4 answers: clean hands and a pure heart. Only Jesus fits that, and He gives His righteousness to all who trust Him (2 Cor 5:21).
6:20 to whom shall He go up from us? Their answer to God's holiness was to send Him elsewhere. They did not want to change. When Isaiah saw the holy God he cried, "Woe to me!" (Isa 6:5), and he was cleansed. We can run from God's holiness or bow before it.
6:21 come down, bring it up to you Kiriath-jearim was about ten miles away. The Philistines wanted the ark gone because of judgment, and now Israelites wanted it gone too.
7:1 Eleazar his son they consecrated to keep the ark of the LORD To consecrate means to set apart for God's service. They did not leave the ark lying about. They set a man apart to guard it.

brought up the ark of the LORD, and they brought it into the house of Abinadab (Avinadav) on the hill; and Eleazar (Elazar) his son they consecrated to keep the ark of the LORD. 2 And it was, from the day the ark dwelt in Kiriath-jearim, and the days increased, and they were twenty years; and all the house of Israel (Yisra'el) lamented after the LORD. 3 And Samuel (Shemu'el) said to all the house of Israel, saying, "If with all your heart you are returning to the LORD, remove the foreign gods from your midst, and the Ashtaroth, and direct your heart to the LORD, and serve Him alone; and He may deliver you from the hand of the Philistines." 4 And the sons of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and they served the LORD alone. 5 And Samuel said, "Gather all Israel to Mizpah (Mitspa), and I will pray for you to the LORD." 6 And they gathered together to Mizpah, and they drew water and poured it out before the LORD, and they fasted on that day, and they said there, "We have sinned against the LORD." And Samuel judged the sons of Israel at Mizpah.

The LORD Thunders at Mizpah

7 And the Philistines heard that the sons of Israel had gathered together to Mizpah, and the rulers of the Philistines went up against Israel. And the sons of Israel heard, and they were afraid of the Philistines. 8 And the sons of Israel said to Samuel, "Do not keep silent from us, from crying out to the LORD our God, and He may save us from the hand of the Philistines." 9 And Samuel took one suckling lamb and offered it up as a burnt offering, a whole offering, to the LORD; and Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him. 10 And Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, and the Philistines drew near for battle against Israel; and the LORD thundered with a great sound on that day against the Philistines and threw them into confusion, and they were defeated before Israel. 11 And the men of Israel went out from Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, and they struck them as far as below Beth-car (Bet-Kar). 12 And Samuel took one stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and he called its name Ebenezer (Even-Ha'ezer), and he said, "Until now the LORD has helped us." 13 And the Philistines were subdued, and they did not continue anymore to come into the territory of Israel; and the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel. 14 And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel returned to Israel, from Ekron (Eqron) even to Gath (Gat); and their territory Israel delivered from the hand of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorite.

7:2 they were twenty years The ark never went back to Shiloh. It stayed at Kiriath-jearim until David brought it to Jerusalem (2 Sam 6:2-3). The twenty years seems to count to the gathering at Mizpah. Some count it differently.
7:2 all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD Twenty years of defeat had broken their pride, and they began to long for God. That longing was the first step back. Sometimes God lets us feel His absence so that we will start to miss Him.
7:3 remove the foreign gods from your midst, and the Ashtaroth Samuel's first recorded word to the nation goes straight to the problem. Baal was the storm god, believed to bring rain and crops. Ashtoreth, plural Ashtaroth, was a goddess of fertility and war. Israel had mixed their worship with the LORD's for generations (Judg 2:11-13).
7:3 serve Him alone Mourning is not enough. If you mean it, get rid of the idols. True repentance turns from sin and turns to God. The LORD will not share His people with other gods.
7:4 they served the LORD alone They did it. An idol is anything we trust, love or serve in God's place: money, comfort, approval, a relationship, a habit we will not give up. Revival starts when we put those things away.
7:5 I will pray for you to the LORD Mizpah was a town in Benjamin a few miles north of Jerusalem, where Israel had gathered before (Judg 20:1). Samuel's first act as leader was to pray. That is who he was all his life.
7:6 they drew water and poured it out before the LORD This is not a ritual from the law, and Scripture does not explain it. It seems to picture pouring out their hearts in sorrow, as Hannah "poured out" her soul (1:15; Lam 2:19). They fasted to humble themselves.
7:6 We have sinned against the LORD No excuses, no blaming the Philistines. They named their sin as sin against God. Then Samuel judged them, leading them, settling their cases and setting things right.
7:7 the rulers of the Philistines went up against Israel The Philistines thought Israel was gathering for war. It often happens this way. When God's people get serious about repentance, the enemy attacks.
7:8 Do not keep silent from us, from crying out to the LORD our God What a change from chapter 4. Then they ran for a box. Now they asked a praying man to keep praying.
7:9 Samuel took one suckling lamb and offered it up as a burnt offering Samuel was a Levite, not of Aaron's family, but as prophet and judge after Shiloh's fall he led Israel's worship. Some argue he served as a priest in a wider sense, others that priests helped him. He is remembered "among those who call on His name" (Ps 99:6).
7:10 the LORD thundered with a great sound on that day against the Philistines The enemy charged, and Samuel kept worshiping. Hannah had sung that the LORD would thunder against His enemies (2:10), and now He did. Repentance, then sacrifice and prayer, then victory. Israel was saved while a lamb was on the altar. We are saved through the Lamb of God (John 1:29).
7:11 pursued the Philistines Once God had won the battle, they did their part and chased the enemy.
7:12 he called its name Ebenezer Ebenezer means stone of help. Israel had camped at an Ebenezer and lost badly (4:1). The place of defeat was replaced with a place of help. "Until now the LORD has helped us" looks back to what God has done and ahead to what He will do. Where can you look back and say, "Until now the LORD has helped us"?
7:13 the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel The Philistines would fight again in Saul's day (chapter 13), but while Samuel led, God held them back.
7:14 there was peace between Israel and the Amorite Amorite here is a general name for the Canaanite peoples still in the land. When Israel was right with God, even old enemies made peace (Prov 16:7).
7:15 Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life Samuel was the last of the judges, and unlike most of them his work was not one battle and then quiet. He led all his life, even after Saul became king.
7:16 he went around Bethel and Gilgal and Mizpah A yearly circuit, like a circuit-riding preacher. He went to the people. Bethel and Gilgal had deep roots in Israel's history (Gen 28:19; Josh 4:19-20).

places. 17 And his return was to Ramah (Rama), for there was his house, and there he judged Israel; and he built there an altar to the LORD.

Israel Asks for a King

1 And it was, when Samuel (Shemu'el) was old, and he made his sons judges for Israel (Yisra'el). 2 And the name of his firstborn son was Joel (Yo'el), and the name of his second Abijah (Aviya); they were judges in Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva). 3 And his sons did not walk in his ways, and they turned aside after unjust gain, and they took a bribe, and they turned justice aside. 4 And all the elders of Israel gathered together, and they came to Samuel at Ramah (Rama). 5 And they said to him, "Look, you have become old, and your sons have not walked in your ways. Now appoint for us a king to judge us like all the nations." 6 And the matter was evil in the eyes of Samuel when they said, "Give us a king to judge us." And Samuel prayed to the LORD. 7 And the LORD said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me from reigning over them. 8 According to all the deeds which they have done from the day I brought them up from Egypt (Mitsrayim) and until this day, and they have forsaken Me and served other gods, so they are doing also to you. 9 And now listen to their voice; only you shall surely warn them, and you shall tell them the practice of the king who will reign over them."

The Ways of the King

10 And Samuel said all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking from him a king. 11 And he said, "This will be the practice of the king who will reign over you: your sons he will take, and he will appoint them for himself in his chariot and among his horsemen, and they will run before his chariot; 12 and to appoint for himself commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and to plow his plowing, and to reap his harvest, and to make the equipment of his war and the equipment of his chariotry. 13 And your daughters he will take for perfumers and for cooks and for bakers. 14 And your fields and your vineyards and your olive groves, the good ones, he will take, and he will give them to his servants. 15 And your seed and your vineyards he will tithe, and he will give it to his officials and to his servants. 16 And your male servants and your female servants and your young men, the good ones, and your donkeys he will take, and he will use them for his work. 17 Your flock he will tithe, and you yourselves will become servants to him. 18 And you will cry out on that day because of your king whom you have chosen for yourselves, and the LORD will not answer you on that day." 19 And the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel, and they said, "No, but a king shall be over us,

7:17 he built there an altar to the LORD With Shiloh destroyed and the ark at Kiriath-jearim, Samuel made his home at Ramah a center of worship. He prayed for the people, called them from idols, led worship, judged fairly and kept going year after year. That steady faithfulness is rare, and it is what God uses most.
8:2 they were judges in Beersheba Joel and Abijah served at the far south of the land, while Samuel worked in the hill country.
8:3 they took a bribe, and they turned justice aside The Law forbade bribes, "for the bribe blinds the eyes of the wise" (Deut 16:19). Samuel watched Eli's sons ruin themselves, and now his own sons go wrong. Scripture does not charge him with Eli's sin, though some teachers fault him for appointing them. Godly parents do not always have godly children. Parents can teach, pray and set an example, but each person must choose to follow God.
8:5 appoint for us a king to judge us like all the nations Both of their reasons were true. The problem was the last words, "like all the nations." God had called Israel to be different, a holy nation, His own people (Exod 19:5-6). They saw kings, palaces and armies around them and wanted to be like everyone else.
8:6 Samuel prayed to the LORD Samuel was displeased. Maybe he felt pushed aside after a lifetime of service, or saw what they were really saying about God. He did not argue or lash out. He took it to God. When we feel hurt or rejected, prayer should come before our reply.
8:7 they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me from reigning over them The heart of the chapter. The LORD was Israel's King, as Gideon said: "the LORD shall rule over you" (Judg 8:23). They would rather trust a man they could see than the God they could not. Was a king wrong in itself? No. God promised kings (Gen 17:6; 49:10) and gave laws for one (Deut 17:14-20). The sin was in their reason and timing.
8:8 so they are doing also to you God comforted Samuel. Do not take it personally. They are doing to you what they have always done to Me. Faithful servants will sometimes be rejected. Jesus said that if the world hates us, it hated Him first (John 15:18).
8:9 you shall tell them the practice of the king Practice is the Hebrew mishpat, which can mean justice, custom or way of doing things. God would give them what they wanted, but not without telling them the cost. Sometimes God's hardest judgment is to give people what they insist on (Ps 106:15).
8:11 your sons he will take Notice how often "take" comes up. A king needs a standing army and a royal estate, and that means men taken from their families' farms.
8:13 your daughters he will take for perfumers and for cooks and for bakers The royal household would need many workers, and young women would be taken from home to serve in the palace.
8:14 he will take, and he will give them to his servants The king would reward his officials with other people's land, as Ahab and Jezebel later did with Naboth's vineyard (1 Kgs 21).
8:15 your seed and your vineyards he will tithe A tithe is a tenth. Israel already gave a tenth to the LORD for the Levites and the poor (Num 18:21; Deut 14:28-29). Now the king would take a tenth too.
8:17 you yourselves will become servants to him The end of the list. People God set free from slavery in Egypt would make themselves a king's servants. Solomon's heavy taxes and forced labor proved it (1 Kgs 12:4).
8:18 the LORD will not answer you on that day Note "whom you have chosen for yourselves." In Judges, every time Israel cried out God sent a deliverer. Now some consequences of their own choice He would not take away, even when they cried about them. It does not mean He would stop hearing them forever.
8:19 No, but a king shall be over us The warning made no difference. They had made up their minds.

20 and we also, we will be like all the nations, and our king will judge us, and he will go out before us, and he will fight our battles." 21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he spoke them in the ears of the LORD. 22 And the LORD said to Samuel, "Listen to their voice, and make a king reign for them." And Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Go, each man to his city."

Saul Seeks His Father's Donkeys

1 And there was a man from Benjamin (Binyamin), and his name was Kish (Qish), the son of Abiel (Avi'el), the son of Zeror (Tseror), the son of Becorath (Bekhorat), the son of Aphiah (Afiach), the son of a Benjaminite man, a mighty man of wealth. 2 And he had a son, and his name was Saul (Shaul), a young man and good, and there was not a man from the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) better than he; from his shoulder and upward he was taller than all the people. 3 And the she-donkeys of Kish, the father of Saul, were lost; and Kish said to Saul his son, "Take, please, one of the servants with you, and arise, go, seek the she-donkeys." 4 And he passed through the hill country of Ephraim (Efrayim), and he passed through the land of Shalishah (Shalisha), and they did not find them; and they passed through the land of Shaalim, and they were not there; and he passed through the land of the Benjaminite, and they did not find them. 5 They came into the land of Zuph (Tsuf), and Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, and let us return, lest my father stop thinking about the she-donkeys and become anxious about us." 6 And he said to him, "Look, please, a man of God is in this city, and the man is honored; all that he speaks surely comes to pass. Now let us go there; perhaps he will tell us our way on which we have gone." 7 And Saul said to his servant, "And look, we will go, and what shall we bring to the man? For the bread has gone from our bags, and there is no gift to bring to the man of God. What is with us?" 8 And the servant again answered Saul, and he said, "Look, there is found in my hand approximately 1/10 ounce (a fourth of a shekel) of silver, and I will give it to the man of God, and he will tell us our way." 9 Formerly in Israel, thus the man said when he went to inquire of God: "Come, and let us go to the seer"; for the prophet of today was formerly called the seer. 10 And Saul said to his servant, "Your word is good; come, let us go." And they went to the city where the man of God was. 11 They were going up the ascent of the city, and they found young women going out to draw water, and they said to them, "Is the seer in this place?" 12 And they answered them and said, "He is; look, he is before you. Hurry now, for today he has come to the city, for there is a sacrifice today for the people at the high place. 13 As you come into the city, so you will find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat; for the people will not eat until he comes, for he will bless the sacrifice; afterward those who are invited will eat. And now go up, for about now you will find him." 14 And they went up to the city. They were coming into the midst of the city, and look, Samuel (Shemu'el) was coming out to meet them, to go up to the high place.

8:20 he will fight our battles But who had just fought their battles? The LORD thundered against the Philistines while Samuel prayed (7:10). We do the same whenever we trust what we can see more than the God we cannot. "These trust in chariotry and these in horses" (Ps 20:7), but God's people call on His name.
8:22 Listen to their voice, and make a king reign for them The third time God says, "Listen to their voice" (8:7, 9). He would even use the kingship for His plan. From the line of kings would come David, and from David, Jesus, the King of kings. God works through our wrong choices, but that does not make them right.
9:1 there was a man from Benjamin, and his name was Kish Kish was a man of standing. Benjamin was the smallest tribe, and it had nearly been wiped out in the civil war at the end of Judges (Judg 20-21). It is surprising that Israel's first king came from there.
9:2 from his shoulder and upward he was taller than all the people Good here means fine, handsome. Saul looked like a king. If the people wanted a king like the nations, he was exactly what they would have picked. Later God will tell Samuel not to look at appearance or height (16:7). Saul was the people's kind of king. David would be God's.
9:3 the she-donkeys of Kish, the father of Saul, were lost Donkeys were valuable, used for riding and carrying loads. It looks like a farmer's son on a wasted trip.
9:5 They came into the land of Zuph Samuel's area. Elkanah was a descendant of Zuph (1:1). Saul's lost donkeys were leading him straight to the prophet. Saul's concern for his father shows a thoughtful young man. God often works through what seems like bad luck or wasted time. He guides our steps even when we cannot see it (Prov 16:9).
9:6 all that he speaks surely comes to pass None of Samuel's words fell to the ground (3:19), and even a servant knew it. Interesting that the servant thought of the man of God and Saul did not. Saul seems not to have known Samuel, which may say how little he had paid attention to the things of God.
9:8 a fourth of a shekel of silver It was polite to bring a gift to a prophet when asking his help (1 Kgs 14:3). The bread was gone, and the servant offered what he had.
9:9 the prophet of today was formerly called the seer A seer is one to whom God shows things. By the time the book was finished people said prophet instead. This note shows the writer explaining an older story to later readers.
9:12 there is a sacrifice today for the people at the high place A high place was a hilltop place of worship with an altar. Later high places became centers of idolatry and were condemned (2 Kgs 23:8). But with Shiloh destroyed and no central sanctuary, God's people worshiped the LORD there until the temple was built (1 Kgs 3:2). Some teachers see even these as irregular.
9:14 Samuel was coming out to meet them Samuel would bless the meal before the guests ate. Saul and his servant came at just the right moment. The timing was God's.
9:15 the LORD had uncovered the ear of Samuel To uncover the ear means to reveal something privately. Samuel knew what Saul did not.

before Saul came, saying, 16 "About this time tomorrow I will send to you a man from the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him as leader over My people Israel, and he will save My people from the hand of the Philistines; for I have seen My people, for its cry has come to Me." 17 And Samuel saw Saul, and the LORD answered him, "Look, the man of whom I spoke to you! This one will restrain My people." 18 And Saul approached Samuel in the midst of the gate, and he said, "Tell me, please, where is the house of the seer?" 19 And Samuel answered Saul and said, "I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, and you shall eat with me today, and I will send you away in the morning, and all that is in your heart I will tell you. 20 And as for the she-donkeys that were lost to you three days ago today, do not set your heart on them, for they have been found. And for whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not for you and for all the house of your father?" 21 And Saul answered and said, "Am I not a Benjaminite, from the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And my clan is the least of all the clans of the tribes of Benjamin. And why have you spoken to me according to this matter?" 22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and he brought them into the chamber, and he gave them a place at the head of those who were invited; and they were about thirty men. 23 And Samuel said to the cook, "Give the portion which I gave to you, of which I said to you, 'Put it with you.'" 24 And the cook lifted up the thigh and what was on it, and he set it before Saul. And he said, "Look, what remains is set before you. Eat, for to the appointed time it was kept for you, saying, 'I have invited the people.'" And Saul ate with Samuel on that day. 25 And they went down from the high place to the city, and he spoke with Saul on the roof. 26 And they rose early; and it was, when the dawn came up, and Samuel called to Saul on the roof, saying, "Arise, and I will send you away." And Saul arose, and the two of them, he and Samuel, went outside. 27 They were going down at the edge of the city, and Samuel said to Saul, "Say to the servant that he should pass on before us"; and he passed on; "and you, stand now, and I will cause you to hear the word of God."

Saul Anointed

10:5 1 Sam 13:3; 1 Sam 19:20; 2 Kgs 3:15

9:16 you shall anoint him as leader over My people Israel Leader is not the word for king. It is nagid, a prince appointed by someone above him. Israel's king would rule under God, as His servant. And look at His grace. The people had rejected Him, yet He still calls them "My people" and still hears their cry. God's love does not depend on our getting everything right.
9:17 This one will restrain My people God pointed Saul out to Samuel. Saul was God's choice, given in answer to what the people asked for.
9:20 for whom is all the desire of Israel? Samuel answered Saul's problem before he could mention it, something only God could have told him. Then he turned to something much bigger. Israel's desire for a king was going to land on Saul. He came looking for donkeys and was offered a kingdom.
9:21 Am I not a Benjaminite, from the smallest of the tribes of Israel? That sounds like Gideon (Judg 6:15) and Moses (Exod 3:11). Samuel later reminds him, "were you not the head of the tribes of Israel?" (15:17). Saul began small in his own eyes. The sad thing is that he did not stay that way. Humility at the start is good. Humility kept through power is rare.
9:22 at the head of those who were invited; and they were about thirty men The guests were likely the town's leaders. Saul, the stranger, was given the place of honor.
9:24 the cook lifted up the thigh and what was on it The thigh was a choice portion, normally the priest's (Lev 7:32-34). Samuel had set it aside the day before. Without saying it yet, he was telling everyone at the table that this young man was special.
9:25 he spoke with Saul on the roof Flat roofs were used as living space, and guests often slept there in warm weather. Scripture does not tell us what they talked about.
9:27 I will cause you to hear the word of God Saul set out to find donkeys and was about to hear the word of God. God's plans are often much bigger than the errand we are on. Are you paying attention to what He might be doing in your ordinary days?
10:1 the LORD has anointed you as leader over His inheritance To anoint was to pour oil on someone to set him apart for God's task, as with the priests (Exod 29:7). Samuel poured the oil, but the LORD anointed. Israel was "His inheritance," so Saul was a steward over God's people, not owner of his own kingdom. Every leader in Christ's church must remember that the people are His (1 Pet 5:2-3). This anointing was private.
10:2 two men by the tomb of Rachel in the territory of Benjamin Rachel, the mother of Benjamin, was buried near Bethlehem (Gen 35:19-20). Saul the Benjaminite would get his first sign at the grave of his tribe's mother.
10:4 they will give you two loaves of bread, and you shall take them from their hand Bread carried up for worship at Bethel would be given to God's anointed. These small, specific signs were God's way of saying, I know every step of your road. You can trust what Samuel told you.
10:5 Gibeah of God, where the garrisons of the Philistines are Philistine soldiers were posted in Saul's home region. The king God was giving would have work to do. A company of prophets was a group gathered around God's worship who spoke His praises, often with music (1 Chr 25:1). Samuel seems to have led such groups (19:20).

and they will be prophesying. 6 And the Spirit of the LORD will rush on you, and you will prophesy with them, and you will be changed into another man. 7 And it will be, when these signs come to you, do for yourself what your hand finds, for God is with you. 8 And you shall go down before me to Gilgal; and look, I am coming down to you to offer up burnt offerings, to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings. Seven days you shall wait, until I come to you, and I will make known to you what you shall do."

Saul Among the Prophets

9 And it was, when he turned his shoulder to go from Samuel, and God changed for him another heart; and all these signs came on that day. 10 And they came there, to Gibeah; and look, a company of prophets came to meet him; and the Spirit of God rushed on him, and he prophesied in their midst. 11 And it was, all who knew him formerly, and they saw, and look, he was prophesying with prophets; and the people said each to his neighbor, "What is this that has happened to the son of Kish (Qish)? Is Saul (Shaul) also among the prophets?" 12 And a man from there answered and said, "And who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb: "Is Saul also among the prophets?" 13 And he finished prophesying, and he came to the high place. 14 And the uncle of Saul said to him and to his servant, "Where did you go?" And he said, "To seek the she-donkeys; and we saw that they were not there, and we came to Samuel." 15 And the uncle of Saul said, "Tell me, please, what Samuel said to you." 16 And Saul said to his uncle, "He surely told us that the she-donkeys had been found." And the matter of the kingship, of which Samuel had spoken, he did not tell him.

Saul Chosen at Mizpah

17 And Samuel called the people together to the LORD at Mizpah (Mitspa). 18 And he said to the sons of Israel (Yisra'el), "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'I brought up Israel from Egypt (Mitsrayim), and I delivered you from the hand of Egypt and from the hand of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you.' 19 And you today have rejected your God, who Himself is a Savior to you from all your calamities and your distresses; and you have said to Him, 'Rather, a king you shall set over us.' And now present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your thousands." 20 And Samuel brought near all the tribes of Israel, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken. 21 And he brought near the tribe of Benjamin by its clans, and the clan of the Matrites was taken; and Saul the son of Kish was taken. And they sought him, and he was not found. 22 And they inquired again of the LORD, "Has the man yet come here?" And the LORD said, "Look, he is hiding himself among the baggage." 23 And they ran and took him from there, and he presented himself in the midst of the people, and he was taller than all the people from his shoulder and upward. 24 And Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see him whom the LORD has chosen, for there is none like him among all the people?" And all the people shouted and said, "Let the king live!" 25 And Samuel spoke to the people the practice of the kingship, and he wrote it in the book and set it before the LORD. And Samuel sent away all the people, each man to his house. 26 And Saul also went to his house, to Gibeah; and there went with him the force,

10:6 the Spirit of the LORD will rush on you, and you will prophesy with them In the Old Testament the Spirit came on certain people to equip them for a task, as with the judges (Judg 14:6). To prophesy here likely means speaking God's praise under the Spirit's power. God was giving Saul what he needed to lead.
10:7 do for yourself what your hand finds, for God is with you After the signs Saul was free to act as the situation called for, trusting that God was with him.
10:8 Seven days you shall wait, until I come to you Remember this verse. It will be Saul's first big test (13:8). He had freedom to act, but one thing he must not do: go ahead without God's word through His prophet. Some scholars see this as a standing order for a later crisis, since 11:14-15 also has a meeting at Gilgal.
10:9 God changed for him another heart Before the signs happened, God was already at work in him. Some read this as Saul being born again. Others read it as a new mind and courage for kingship, as the Spirit strengthened the judges, and point to the rest of his life and to 16:14. Good teachers hold both views. Scripture shows that a person can be gifted by God and have powerful experiences and still not obey. Gifts are not the same as faithfulness (Matt 7:22-23).
10:11 Is Saul also among the prophets? Nothing in Saul's life had suggested this. "Who is their father?" may ask who leads these prophets, or note that prophecy is not inherited, or be a jab at their humble origins. The saying became a proverb for someone showing up where no one expected him. It comes up again in 19:24.
10:16 the matter of the kingship, of which Samuel had spoken, he did not tell him Humility? Wisdom, waiting for God's timing? Fear? Saul often seems unsure of himself in these early chapters. There is a time to speak of what God has done and a time to wait.
10:17 Samuel called the people together to the LORD at Mizpah The place where Israel had repented and seen God's victory (chapter 7).
10:19 you today have rejected your God, who Himself is a Savior to you They had a Savior and wanted a king. God would give what they asked, but He put on record that they chose a man over the God who saved them. That warning hung over Saul's kingdom from the first day.
10:20 the tribe of Benjamin was taken This was done by lot, a way of letting God show His choice (Prov 16:33), as Joshua did to find Achan (Josh 7:16-18). God confirmed in public what He had shown Samuel in private.
10:22 he is hiding himself among the baggage Almost funny, but also sad. The tallest man in Israel was trying to hide behind the luggage. Humility? Fear? Probably both. He knew already that he had been chosen. A man who hides from his calling may struggle to carry it.
10:24 there is none like him among all the people Samuel did not say he was the best man spiritually. He was the most impressive man in Israel, the kind of king they had asked for. "Let the king live" is often rendered Long live the king.
10:25 he wrote it in the book and set it before the LORD The rules for the king were likely based on Deut 17:14-20: no multiplying horses, wives or riches, a copy of the law read all his life, no lifting himself above his brothers. Israel's king was under God's law, not above it, unlike the kings of the nations.
10:26 whom God had touched in their heart When God calls someone to lead, He often gives them people to stand with them.

whom God had touched in their heart. 27 And sons of worthlessness said, "How will this one save us?" And they despised him, and they did not bring him a gift. And he was like one keeping silent.

Saul Rescues Jabesh-gilead

1 And Nahash (Nachash) the Ammonite went up and encamped against Jabesh-gilead (Yavesh-Gilad); and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you." 2 And Nahash the Ammonite said to them, "On this condition I will make a covenant with you: by gouging out every right eye of yours; and I will make it a reproach on all Israel (Yisra'el)." 3 And the elders of Jabesh said to him, "Let us alone seven days, and let us send messengers into all the territory of Israel; and if there is no one saving us, then we will come out to you." 4 And the messengers came to Gibeah (Giva) of Saul (Shaul), and they spoke the words in the ears of the people; and all the people lifted up their voice and wept. 5 And look, Saul was coming after the oxen from the field. And Saul said, "What is the matter with the people, that they are weeping?" And they recounted to him the words of the men of Jabesh. 6 And the Spirit of God rushed on Saul when he heard these words, and his anger burned exceedingly. 7 And he took a pair of oxen and cut it in pieces, and he sent them into all the territory of Israel by the hand of the messengers, saying, "Whoever is not coming out after Saul and after Samuel (Shemu'el), thus it shall be done to his oxen." And the dread of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out as one man. 8 And he mustered them at Bezek (Bezeq), and the sons of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah (Yehuda) thirty thousand. 9 And they said to the messengers who had come, "Thus you shall say to the men of Jabesh-gilead: 'Tomorrow, by the heat of the sun, you shall have salvation.'" And the messengers came and told the men of Jabesh, and they were glad. 10 And the men of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you may do to us according to all that is good in your eyes." 11 And it was on the next day, and Saul put the people in three companies, and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and they struck Ammon (Amon) until the heat of the day. And it was, those who remained, and they were scattered, and there were not left among them two together.

The Kingdom Renewed at Gilgal

12 And the people said to Samuel, "Who is the one who said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Give up the men, and we will put them to death." 13 And Saul said, "Not a man shall be put to death on this day, for today the LORD has worked salvation in Israel." 14 And Samuel said to the people, "Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and let us renew the kingship there." 15 And all the people went to Gilgal, and they made Saul king there

10:27 he was like one keeping silent A gift was a sign of loyalty to a new king, and these troublemakers refused it. Saul did not answer or punish them. At this point that was wise. Not every insult needs a reply. It is a man's glory to overlook an offense (Prov 19:11).
11:1 Nahash the Ammonite went up and encamped against Jabesh-gilead The Ammonites descended from Lot (Gen 19:38) and lived east of the Jordan. Jabesh-gilead was an Israelite town in Gilead, across the river. Samuel later says this threat was one reason the people pushed for a king (12:12). The men of Jabesh did not fight. They were ready to become Nahash's subjects.
11:2 by gouging out every right eye of yours; and I will make it a reproach on all Israel A soldier without his right eye could not see past his shield well. But Nahash's main goal was shame. He wanted every Israelite to feel helpless. The enemy of God's people often aims at more than harm. He wants to disgrace them and make them feel God cannot help.
11:3 Let us alone seven days Surprising that Nahash agreed. He must have been sure no one would come.
11:4 the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul There was a family tie. After the war against Benjamin, four hundred young women from Jabesh-gilead became wives for Benjamin's men (Judg 21:12-14). Many in Benjamin had roots in Jabesh.
11:5 Saul was coming after the oxen from the field Israel had a king, and he was out plowing. Saul had not yet set up a court. He was still a farmer.
11:6 the Spirit of God rushed on Saul when he heard these words, and his anger burned exceedingly Not sinful temper, but righteous anger given by the Spirit at cruelty done to God's people. There is a right anger at injustice and evil that moves us to act (Eph 4:26).
11:7 he took a pair of oxen and cut it in pieces A vivid call to war. It echoes the Levite who sent the pieces of his concubine through Israel (Judg 19:29), which led to civil war against Benjamin. Now a man of Benjamin used a like sign to unite Israel against a real enemy. He named Samuel with himself, knowing the people trusted the old prophet.
11:7 the dread of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out as one man Israel had not stood together like this in a long time. When God moves, people who could not agree on anything come together.
11:8 the sons of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand Judah is counted on its own, a hint of the later division between Judah and the northern tribes. I take these numbers as written. Some scholars think the Hebrew for thousand, eleph, can mean a clan or military unit, here and elsewhere (4:10; 13:5; 15:4). Either way, Israel came out in force.
11:9 you shall have salvation Salvation here means rescue.
11:10 you may do to us according to all that is good in your eyes A clever answer. They would come out, but not to surrender. Nahash thought he had won.
11:11 Saul put the people in three companies The morning watch was the last part of the night, just before dawn. Gideon also used three companies in a night attack (Judg 7:16). Saul's first battle as king was a complete victory. The town about to be shamed was saved.
11:13 Not a man shall be put to death on this day, for today the LORD has worked salvation in Israel One of Saul's finest moments. He refused revenge and gave the credit to the LORD. This is the Saul who could have been, humble, generous and quick to honor God. Later he will hunt a faithful man out of jealousy and kill the priests of Nob. Success can be more dangerous to the soul than failure.
11:14 let us renew the kingship there Saul had been chosen at Mizpah, but not everyone accepted him. Gilgal was where Israel camped after crossing the Jordan and kept the Passover (Josh 4:19-20; 5:9-10), a place of new beginnings.
11:15 they sacrificed there sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD A peace offering was shared in a meal, a sign of fellowship with God and one another. It was a day of great joy, but Samuel knew the people still needed hard truths, and chapter 12 gives his farewell at this same gathering.

before the LORD in Gilgal, and they sacrificed there sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD; and Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced there exceedingly.

Samuel's Farewell

1 And Samuel (Shemu'el) said to all Israel (Yisra'el), "Look, I have listened to your voice in all that you have said to me, and I have made a king reign over you. 2 And now, look, the king is walking before you; and I, I am old and gray, and my sons, look, they are with you; and I, I have walked before you from my youth until this day. 3 Here I am; testify against me before the LORD and before His anointed: whose ox have I taken, and whose donkey have I taken, and whom have I oppressed, whom have I crushed, and from whose hand have I taken a ransom, and hidden my eyes with it? And I will restore it to you." 4 And they said, "You have not oppressed us, and you have not crushed us, and you have not taken anything from the hand of anyone." 5 And he said to them, "The LORD is a witness against you, and His anointed is a witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand." And they said, "He is a witness." 6 And Samuel said to the people, "It is the LORD who made Moses (Moshe) and Aaron (Aharon), and who brought up your fathers from the land of Egypt (Mitsrayim). 7 And now, present yourselves, and let me enter into judgment with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD which He did with you and with your fathers. 8 When Jacob (Ya'aqov) came to Egypt, and your fathers cried out to the LORD, and the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, and they brought out your fathers from Egypt, and they caused them to dwell in this place. 9 And they forgot the LORD their God, and He sold them into the hand of Sisera (Sisra), the commander of the army of Hazor (Chatsor), and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab (Mo'av), and they fought against them. 10 And they cried out to the LORD and said, 'We have sinned, for we have forsaken the LORD and have served the Baals and the Ashtaroth; and now deliver us from the hand of our enemies, and we will serve You.' 11 And the LORD sent Jerubbaal (Yeruba'al) and Bedan and Jephthah (Yiftach) and Samuel, and He delivered you from the hand of your enemies all around, and you dwelt securely. 12 And you saw that Nahash (Nachash) the king of the sons of Ammon (Amon) came against you, and you said to me, 'No, but a king shall reign over us,' and the LORD your God was your king. 13 And now, look, the king whom you have chosen, whom you have asked for; and look, the LORD has set a king over you. 14 If you will fear the LORD and serve Him and listen to His voice, and not rebel against the mouth of the LORD, and both you and also the king who reigns over you will be after the LORD your God— 15 And if you will not listen to the voice of the LORD, and you rebel against the mouth of the LORD, then the hand of the LORD will be against you and against your fathers. 16 Even now, present yourselves and see this great thing which the LORD is doing before your eyes. 17 Is it not wheat harvest today? I will call to the LORD, and He will give thunder and rain; and know and see that your evil which you have done in the eyes of the LORD is great, in asking for yourselves a king." 18 And Samuel called to the LORD, and the LORD gave thunder and rain on that day; and all the 12:2 my sons, look, they are with you Perhaps a quiet admission that his sons had not been good judges, or a way of saying, hold them to account like anyone else. Then Samuel points to his own life. Everyone there had known him from the boy in the linen ephod to the gray-haired prophet.

12:3 testify against me before the LORD and before His anointed A ransom here is a bribe paid so a judge will look the other way. Samuel's sons took bribes (8:3). Samuel never had. These were exactly the things he warned a king would do: take, take, take (8:11-17). He led Israel for years and took nothing.
12:4 you have not taken anything from the hand of anyone Could you stand before those who know you best and ask that question? Paul could (Acts 20:33-34). A leader's greatest sermon is his life. Samuel's years spoke for him.
12:7 let me enter into judgment with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD Samuel speaks like a lawyer laying out a case, and the evidence is God's righteous acts, the things He did to save them. He had given leaders before. He did not need a king to save them.
12:9 they forgot the LORD their God The beginning of every disaster in Judges. They did not stop believing God existed. They forgot Him and lived as if He did not matter. So He gave them over to Sisera (Judg 4), the Philistines and Moab, the enemies they had made room for.
12:10 We have sinned, for we have forsaken the LORD When they confessed and called out, God answered.
12:11 the LORD sent Jerubbaal and Bedan and Jephthah and Samuel Jerubbaal is Gideon (Judg 6:32), and Jephthah is in Judges 11. Bedan is not named in Judges. The Greek and Syriac read Barak (compare Heb 11:32), and others think Bedan was another name for one of the judges. Samuel even named himself, since God used him at Mizpah (7:10).
12:12 the LORD your God was your king The threat from Nahash was building before the people asked for a king. Instead of crying out to God as their fathers did, they asked for a man.
12:13 the king whom you have chosen, whom you have asked for The name Saul, Sha'ul, even sounds like the word asked. And yet "the LORD has set a king over you." Both are true. The people chose, and God gave. He was still in charge, even of their wrong request.
12:14 If you will fear the LORD and serve Him and listen to His voice The Hebrew sentence breaks off, as if Samuel left the good result unspoken. A king changed nothing about the covenant. The same rule held for king and people: obey and be blessed, rebel and be judged, the choice Moses set before Israel (Deut 30:15-20).
12:17 Is it not wheat harvest today? Wheat harvest came in May or June, the dry season. Rain then was almost unheard of and could ruin a harvest. The people had been rejoicing (11:15), and Samuel wanted them to see their sin before they got too comfortable.
12:18 the LORD gave thunder and rain on that day As in chapter 7, God thundered at Samuel's prayer. This time it was not against the Philistines but a warning to Israel.

people feared the LORD and Samuel exceedingly. 19 And all the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, and let us not die; for we have added to all our sins an evil, in asking for ourselves a king." 20 And Samuel said to the people, "Do not be afraid. You, you have done all this evil; only do not turn aside from after the LORD, and serve the LORD with all your heart. 21 And you shall not turn aside, for you would go after futility, which cannot profit and cannot deliver, for they are futility. 22 For the LORD will not abandon His people, for the sake of His great name, for the LORD has been pleased to make you a people for Himself. 23 Also as for me, far be it from me to sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; and I will teach you the good and the upright way. 24 Only fear the LORD and serve Him in faithfulness with all your heart, for consider what great things He has done with you. 25 And if you surely do evil, both you and your king will be swept away."

War With the Philistines

1 Saul (Shaul) was a year old when he became king, and two years he reigned over Israel (Yisra'el). 2 And Saul chose for himself three thousand from Israel; and two thousand were with Saul at Michmash (Mikhmas) and in the hill country of Bethel (Bet-El), and a thousand were with Jonathan (Yonatan) at Gibeah (Giva) of Benjamin (Binyamin). And the rest of the people he sent away, each man to his tents. 3 And Jonathan struck the garrison of the Philistines which was at Geba (Geva), and the Philistines heard. And Saul blew the trumpet in all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear." 4 And all Israel heard, saying, "Saul has struck the garrison of the Philistines, and also Israel has made itself a stench to the Philistines." And the people were called together after Saul to Gilgal. 5 And the Philistines gathered to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, and people like the sand which is on the shore of the sea for multitude; and they came up and encamped at Michmash, east of Beth-aven (Bet-Aven). 6 And the men of Israel saw that it was distress for them, for the people were hard pressed; and the people hid themselves in caves and in thickets and in crags and in strongholds and in cisterns. 7 And Hebrews crossed the Jordan (Yarden) to the land of Gad and Gilead (Gilad). And Saul was still at Gilgal, and all the people trembled after him.

12:19 Pray for your servants to the LORD your God They called Him "your God," as if they did not dare call Him theirs. They named asking for a king as one more evil on top of their sins. That is true repentance: naming the sin and asking for mercy.
12:20 Do not be afraid. You, you have done all this evil Samuel did not pretend their sin was small, and he did not leave them in despair. The past could not be undone, but the future could still be faithful. You may be living with choices you cannot undo. God's word is still, do not be afraid, do not turn aside now, serve Him with all your heart from here on.
12:21 you would go after futility, which cannot profit and cannot deliver Futility is the word used in Gen 1:2 for the earth being formless. Idols are empty things. They promise much and give nothing.
12:22 the LORD will not abandon His people, for the sake of His great name The anchor of the chapter. Not because they deserved it, but for His name, since it pleased Him to choose them (Deut 7:7-8). I believe this still stands for Israel as a nation. Paul asks, "did God reject His people?" (Rom 11:1), and answers, "May it not be!" (Rom 11:1). God has a future for Israel (Rom 11:25-29). And He keeps every believer in Christ (John 10:28-29).
12:23 far be it from me to sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you Samuel had been pushed aside. He could have said, let your king pray for you. Instead he called prayerlessness a sin. If God has put people in our lives, we owe it to Him to pray for them, even when they have hurt us (Luke 6:28). He was retiring from judging, not from ministry.
12:24 consider what great things He has done with you Samuel's whole message in one verse. To fear the LORD is to hold Him in awe, so that we trust and obey Him above all. When we remember what God has done, serving Him is not a burden but a thank-you.
12:25 both you and your king will be swept away Centuries later it came true, when Judah and its king were carried to Babylon (2 Kgs 25). God's warnings are as sure as His promises.
13:1 Saul was a year old when he became king, and two years he reigned over Israel The SLB gives the Hebrew as it stands. This is the normal opening for a king's reign (2 Sam 5:4), but the numbers do not fit. Saul already had a grown son (13:2), and Paul says he reigned forty years (Acts 13:21). Most scholars believe a number was lost in early copying, since letters were often used for numbers. Some Greek copies leave the verse out, and a few say thirty. Bibles differ here for that reason.
13:1 two years he reigned over Israel It is honest to say a number was lost. That does not mean the Bible has failed. God inspired what the writers first wrote and has kept His Word with great care. Where copies differ it is usually a small detail like this, and no teaching depends on it. Saul was a grown man and reigned about forty years, from about 1050 to about 1010 B.C.
13:2 a thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah of Benjamin Saul's standing army of three thousand. This is our first meeting with Jonathan, who will become one of the finest men in the book.
13:3 Jonathan struck the garrison of the Philistines which was at Geba A garrison was a military outpost the Philistines kept inside Israel's land (10:5). Jonathan's attack was bold and an act of war. Yet the people heard, "Saul has struck the garrison" (13:4). Saul took the credit, a small detail that hints at his heart.
13:4 Israel has made itself a stench to the Philistines Now the Philistines would strike back. The people gathered at Gilgal, where Samuel had told Saul to wait (10:8).
13:5 thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen A huge number of chariots for a hill country battle. Some Greek and Syriac copies read three thousand. Either way, Israel was badly outmatched.
13:6 the people hid themselves in caves and in thickets and in crags and in strongholds and in cisterns Cisterns were pits dug to collect rainwater. Men were hiding in holes in the ground, and some crossed the Jordan and ran away altogether.
13:8 he waited seven days, to the appointed time which Samuel had set Saul did wait, most of the time. Every day more men slipped away. On the seventh day, with Samuel still not there, he made his choice.

gal; and the people scattered from him. 9 And Saul said, "Bring near to me the burnt offering and the peace offerings." And he offered up the burnt offering. 10 And it was, when he finished offering up the burnt offering, and look, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, to bless him. 11 And Samuel said, "What have you done?" And Saul said, "Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and you, you did not come at the appointed time of the days, and the Philistines were gathering at Michmash, 12 and I said, 'Now the Philistines will come down against me at Gilgal, and the face of the LORD I have not entreated'; and I forced myself, and I offered up the burnt offering." 13 And Samuel said to Saul, "You have acted foolishly; you have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God which He commanded you; for now the LORD would have established your kingdom over Israel forever. 14 And now your kingdom will not endure. The LORD has sought for Himself a man according to His heart, and the LORD has commanded him to be leader over His people, because you have not kept what the LORD commanded you." 15 And Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul mustered the people who were found with him, about six hundred men. 16 And Saul and Jonathan his son and the people who were found with them were staying in Geba of Benjamin, and the Philistines encamped at Michmash. 17 And the raiders came out from the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned toward the way of Ophrah (Ofra), to the land of Shual; 18 and one company turned toward the way of Beth-horon (Bet-Choron); and one company turned toward the way of the border that looks down over the valley of Zeboim (Tsevo'im), toward the wilderness. 19 And no craftsman was found in all the land of Israel, for the Philistines said, "Lest the Hebrews make sword or spear." 20 And all Israel went down to the Philistines to sharpen each man his plowshare and his mattock and his axe and his plowshare. 21 And the charge was approximately 1/4 ounce (a pim) for the plowshares and for the mattocks and for the three-pronged forks and for the axes, and to set the goads. 22 And it was on the day of battle, and neither sword nor spear was found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and with Jonathan; and one was found for Saul and for Jonathan his son. 23 And the outpost of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

Jonathan's Bold Climb

1 And it was one day, and Jonathan (Yonatan) the son of Saul (Shaul) said to the servant who carried his armor, "Come, and let us cross over to the outpost of the Philistines which is on the other side over there." And to his father he did not tell it. 2 And Saul was staying at the edge of Gibeah (Giva) under the pomegranate tree which is in Migron, and the people who were with him were about six hundred men. 3 And Ahijah (Achiya) the son of Ahitub (Achituv), the brother of Ichabod (I-Khavod), the son of Phinehas (Pinchas), the son of Eli, the priest of the LORD in Shiloh (Shilo), was carrying an ephod. And the people did not know that

13:9 he offered up the burnt offering Samuel had said, "I am coming down to you to offer up burnt offerings" (10:8), and he would tell Saul what to do. Saul waited for neither. It might look religious, but he was taking a role God had not given him and refusing to wait for God's word. In Israel the king was under God's word, not over it.
13:10 when he finished offering up the burnt offering, and look, Samuel came If Saul had waited a little longer, it would have been fine. How often do we give up on God just before He shows up? And Saul went out to bless Samuel as if nothing were wrong.
13:11 you, you did not come at the appointed time of the days Three excuses: the army was leaving, Samuel was late, and the enemy was near. Each was true. None was a reason to disobey.
13:12 I forced myself, and I offered up the burnt offering Then the religious reason, and a claim that he acted against his will. He blamed Samuel and the people and never once said, I did wrong. This is how disobedience usually sounds. We say, I had no choice, others let me down, and besides, I was trying to do something good.
13:13 You have acted foolishly In the Bible a fool is not someone who lacks brains but someone who acts as if God's word does not matter. And a sad sentence follows: God had something good in store for Saul. If he had obeyed, his family could have ruled for generations.
13:14 The LORD has sought for Himself a man according to His heart This was David, not yet named. Paul quotes it: "I have found David the son of Jesse, a man according to My heart" (Acts 13:22). That is not a man without sin, but one whose heart is set on God. When David sinned, he repented. When Saul sinned, he made excuses. Too harsh for one offering? It was the king deciding God's word could be set aside when things got hard, and chapter 15 shows it was his pattern.
13:15 about six hundred men He began with three thousand, and before that led far more (11:8). Fear and disobedience had shrunk his army to a handful.
13:17 the raiders came out from the camp of the Philistines in three companies North, west and east, plundering the land, and Saul could do nothing to stop them.
13:19 no craftsman was found in all the land of Israel A smith, a man who worked metal. The Philistines had learned to work iron and kept the skill to themselves so Israel could not make weapons.
13:21 the charge was approximately 1/4 ounce Israelite farmers had to pay their enemies to sharpen their tools. The charge was a pim, which was about two-thirds of a shekel. Stone weights marked pim have been found by archaeologists, which helped scholars understand this rare word.
13:22 neither sword nor spear was found in the hand of any of the people Only Saul and Jonathan had real weapons. This was the fruit of years of sin, but it also set up what God was about to do. He would win through Jonathan and one armor-bearer, and later through a shepherd boy with a sling. God does not need our weapons. He needs our trust.
13:23 the outpost of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash The two armies faced each other across a deep gorge. The stage was set for Jonathan's bold climb.
14:1 to his father he did not tell it Jonathan did not wait for orders. We are not told why he kept quiet. Perhaps he knew Saul would say no.
14:2 Saul was staying at the edge of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree The army was small, the king was sitting still, and the Philistines were raiding the land.
14:3 Ahijah the son of Ahitub, the brother of Ichabod Saul's priest came from Eli's family, the house God had judged, which fits a king about to be rejected too. The ephod held the Urim and Thummim used to ask God's will (Exod 28:30).

Jonathan had gone. 4 And between the passes by which Jonathan sought to cross over to the outpost of the Philistines there was a tooth of the crag on the one side and a tooth of the crag on the other side; and the name of the one was Bozez (Botsets), and the name of the other Seneh (Sene). 5 The one tooth was a pillar on the north in front of Michmash (Mikhmas), and the other on the south in front of Geba (Geva). 6 And Jonathan (Yehonatan) said to the servant who carried his armor, "Come, and let us cross over to the outpost of these uncircumcised; perhaps the LORD will act for us, for there is no restraint for the LORD to save by many or by few." 7 And his armor-bearer said to him, "Do all that is in your heart; turn aside for yourself. Look, I am with you according to your heart." 8 And Jonathan said, "Look, we are crossing over to the men, and we will reveal ourselves to them. 9 If they say thus to us, 'Be still until we reach you,' then we will stand in our place, and we will not go up to them. 10 And if they say thus, 'Come up to us,' then we will go up, for the LORD has given them into our hand; and this will be the sign for us." 11 And the two of them revealed themselves to the outpost of the Philistines; and the Philistines said, "Look, Hebrews coming out from the holes where they have hidden themselves!" 12 And the men of the outpost answered Jonathan and his armor-bearer, and they said, "Come up to us, and we will make known to you a thing!" And Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, "Come up after me, for the LORD has given them into the hand of Israel (Yisra'el)." 13 And Jonathan went up on his hands and on his feet, and his armor-bearer after him; and they fell before Jonathan, and his armor-bearer was killing after him. 14 And the first slaughter which Jonathan and his armor-bearer struck was about twenty men, within about half a furrow of an acre of field. 15 And there was trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the outpost and the raiders, they also trembled; and the earth quaked, and it became a trembling of God.

The LORD Saves Israel

16 And the watchmen of Saul at Gibeah of Benjamin (Binyamin) looked, and look, the multitude melted away, and it went here and there. 17 And Saul said to the people who were with him, "Muster, please, and see who has gone from us." And they mustered, and look, Jonathan and his armor-bearer were not there. 18 And Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring near the ark of God," for the ark of God was on that day with the sons of Israel. 19 And it was, while Saul spoke to the priest, and the tumult which was in the camp of the Philistines went on, going on and growing greater; and Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand." 20 And Saul and all the people who were with him were called together, and they came to the battle; and look, the sword of each man was against his neighbor, a very great panic. 21 And the Hebrews who were for the Philistines as formerly, who had gone up with them into the camp all around, they also turned to be with Israel who were with Saul and Jonathan. 22 And all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim (Efrayim) heard that the Philistines had fled, and they also pursued closely after them in the battle. 23 And the LORD saved Israel on that day; and the battle passed beyond Beth-aven (Bet-Aven).

14:4 the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh A deep gorge with steep rocky cliffs on each side. Jonathan would have to climb down one and up the other in plain view. No army would try it. That was the point.
14:6 the outpost of these uncircumcised Circumcision was the sign of God's covenant with Abraham (Gen 17:10-11). Calling the Philistines uncircumcised meant they were outside it. Jonathan was thinking in terms of God's promises, not soldiers.
14:6 there is no restraint for the LORD to save by many or by few The heart of Jonathan's faith. He said "perhaps," because he did not claim to know God's plan. But he knew God's power. Gideon won with three hundred (Judg 7). Jonathan was humble about God's will and bold about God's ability. That is a good balance for us.
14:7 Look, I am with you according to your heart Every bold servant of God needs friends like that.
14:10 this will be the sign for us Jonathan was not testing God out of doubt but asking guidance in a risky step, as Gideon did with the fleece (Judg 6:36-40) and Abraham's servant at the well (Gen 24:12-14). God's complete Word is our main guide, but it is not wrong to ask Him to open or close a door when we are trying to serve Him.
14:11 Hebrews coming out from the holes where they have hidden themselves! A mocking joke. Many Israelites really had been hiding in holes (13:6). Two men climbing a cliff would be easy to kill.
14:12 the LORD has given them into the hand of Israel That was the sign. Notice "into the hand of Israel," not into my hand. Jonathan fought for God's people, not his own name.
14:13 Jonathan went up on his hands and on his feet A hard climb. At the top, about twenty men fell in a small area (14:14).
14:15 the earth quaked, and it became a trembling of God The Hebrew can mean a very great panic or a panic sent by God. Both are true. God shook the ground and their hearts. Two men started the fight. God finished it.
14:18 Bring near the ark of God The Hebrew says ark, though the ark was at Kiriath-jearim (7:2). The Greek reads ephod, which fits 14:3, since the ephod was how the priest asked God's will. Either way, Saul meant to ask God what to do.
14:19 Withdraw your hand Stop, never mind. As the noise grew, Saul did not wait for God's answer, the same impatience as in chapter 13. Asking God only when it is convenient is not really seeking Him at all.
14:20 the sword of each man was against his neighbor The Philistines were killing each other, as Gideon's enemies had (Judg 7:22).
14:22 they also pursued closely after them in the battle Israelites who had served with the Philistines changed sides, and the men hiding in the hills came out. It is amazing how brave people get once the battle is already won.
14:23 the LORD saved Israel on that day The summary. Not Saul, not even Jonathan. The LORD.
14:24 Cursed is the man who eats food until the evening, and I will be avenged on my enemies My enemies, not the LORD's. Saul made it about himself. Fasting can be a good way to seek God (7:6), but this was a command from a king who wanted every minute for revenge. A hungry army cannot fight well, and his men paid for it.

Saul put the people under oath, saying, "Cursed is the man who eats food until the evening, and I will be avenged on my enemies." And none of the people tasted food. 25 And all the land came into the forest, and there was honey on the face of the field. 26 And the people came into the forest, and look, a flow of honey; and there was no one reaching his hand to his mouth, for the people feared the oath. 27 And Jonathan had not heard when his father made the people swear, and he stretched out the end of the staff which was in his hand and dipped it in the honeycomb, and he brought his hand back to his mouth, and his eyes brightened. 28 And a man from the people answered and said, "Your father surely made the people swear, saying, 'Cursed is the man who eats food today.'" And the people were weary. 29 And Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land. See, please, that my eyes have brightened, because I tasted a little of this honey. 30 How much more if the people had surely eaten today from the plunder of their enemies which they found! For now the slaughter among the Philistines has not been great." 31 And they struck the Philistines on that day from Michmash to Aijalon (Ayalon); and the people were exceedingly weary. 32 And the people rushed on the plunder, and they took sheep and oxen and calves, and they slaughtered them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood. 33 And they told Saul, saying, "Look, the people are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood." And he said, "You have acted treacherously; roll a great stone to me today." 34 And Saul said, "Disperse among the people, and say to them, 'Bring near to me each man his ox and each man his sheep, and slaughter them here and eat; and do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.'" And all the people brought near each man his ox in his hand that night, and they slaughtered them there. 35 And Saul built an altar to the LORD; it he began to build as an altar to the LORD. 36 And Saul said, "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder among them until the light of the morning, and let us not leave a man among them." And they said, "Do all that is good in your eyes." And the priest said, "Let us draw near here to God." 37 And Saul inquired of God, "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You give them into the hand of Israel?" And He did not answer him on that day. 38 And Saul said, "Draw near here, all the chiefs of the people, and know and see in what this sin has happened today. 39 For as the LORD lives, who saves Israel, even if it is in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die." And there was no one answering him from all the people. 40 And he said to all Israel, "You, you will be on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on one side." And the people said to Saul, "Do what is good in your eyes." 41 And Saul said to the LORD, the God of Israel, "Give perfect lot." And Jonathan and Saul were taken, and the people went out. 42 And Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and Jonathan my son." And Jonathan was taken. 43 And Saul said to Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done." And Jonathan told him and said, "I surely tasted with the end of the staff which was in my hand a little honey. Here I am; I will die." 44 And Saul said, "Thus may God do, and thus may He add; for you shall surely die, Jonathan." 45 And the people said to Saul, "Shall Jonathan die, who has worked this great salvation in Israel? Far be it! As the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for with God he has worked this day." And the people ransomed Jonathan, and he did not die. 46 And Saul went up from after the Philistines, and the Philistines went to their place.

14:26 the people feared the oath Food was right there, a flow of honey, and they could not touch it.
14:27 his eyes brightened Jonathan had not heard the oath. One taste, and his strength came back.
14:29 My father has troubled the land Troubled is the word used of Achan (Josh 7:25). Saul's oath meant to bring victory but weakened the army and cut the victory short (14:30). Was Jonathan wrong to say so? He spoke truth, though bluntly. Saying honestly that a leader's decision is foolish is not rebellion.
14:32 the people ate them with the blood God's law forbade it: "the life of the flesh is in the blood" (Lev 17:11), given "on the altar to make atonement for your souls" (Lev 17:11). Blood stood for life and pointed ahead to the blood of Christ (Heb 9:22). Saul's foolish command pushed the people into a real sin.
14:33 roll a great stone to me today So the animals could be slaughtered properly and the blood drained.
14:35 Saul built an altar to the LORD The first altar we hear of Saul building. Perhaps the writer quietly notes that it took a crisis for him to build one.
14:37 He did not answer him on that day Saul told the priest to stop asking before (14:19). Now that he wanted an answer, God gave none. At the end of his life he will ask and get no answer at all (28:6).
14:39 even if it is in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die Another rash oath. Saul did not know the sin, but he had already set the punishment. No one answered. They knew Jonathan had eaten.
14:42 Jonathan was taken Was Jonathan guilty? He broke an oath he never heard, an oath foolish in the first place. The real sins that day were Saul's rash command and the people's eating with the blood. The lot pointed at the broken oath, but God never said Jonathan must die. That was Saul's word, not God's.
14:43 Here I am; I will die Jonathan did not argue or make excuses. Compare how his father answered Samuel (13:11-12).
14:44 you shall surely die, Jonathan Saul was ready to kill his own son to keep his word and save face. Pride can make a man cruel even to those he loves.
14:45 for with God he has worked this day The people saw what Saul could not. God had been with Jonathan. To ransom means to buy someone free. We are not told whether a price or a substitute was given, or simply that they rescued him by their stand. The king was overruled by his own army. His authority was already slipping.
14:46 the Philistines went to their place Because of the oath and the night of confusion, the Philistines escaped. The victory was not as complete as it could have been.

Edom, and against the kings of Zobah (Tsova), and against the Philistines; and wherever he turned he condemned them.
48 And he did valiantly, and he struck Amalek (Amaleq), and he delivered Israel from the hand of those who plundered it.
49 And the sons of Saul were Jonathan and Ishvi (Yishvi) and Malchi-shua (Malkishua); and the names of his two daughters: the name of the firstborn was Merab (Merav), and the name of the younger Michal (Mikhal). 50 And the name of the wife of Saul was Ahinoam (Achino'am), the daughter of Ahimaaz (Achima'ats). And the name of the commander of his army was Abner (Aviner), the son of Ner, the uncle of Saul. 51 And Kish (Qish) was the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel (Avi'el). 52 And the war was severe against the Philistines all the days of Saul; and Saul would see every mighty man and every son of strength, and he would gather him to himself.

The Command Against Amalek

1 And Samuel (Shemu'el) said to Saul (Shaul), "The LORD sent me to anoint you as king over His people, over Israel (Yisra'el). And now, listen to the voice of the words of the LORD. 2 Thus says the LORD of armies: 'I have paid attention to what Amalek (Amaleq) did to Israel, what he set against him on the way, when he came up from Egypt (Mitsrayim). 3 Now go, and you shall strike Amalek, and you shall devote to destruction all that he has, and you shall not spare him; and you shall put to death from man to woman, from child to nursing infant, from ox to sheep, from camel to donkey.'" 4 And Saul summoned the people, and he mustered them at Telaim: two hundred thousand foot soldiers, and ten thousand men of Judah (Yehuda). 5 And Saul came to the city of Amalek, and he lay in wait in the wadi. 6 And Saul said to the Kenites, "Go, depart, go down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; and you, you did steadfast love with all the sons of Israel when they came up from Egypt." And the Kenites departed from among Amalek. 7 And Saul struck Amalek from Havilah (Chavila) as you come to Shur, which is facing Egypt. 8 And he seized Agag the king of Amalek alive, and all the people he devoted to destruction by the mouth of the sword. 9 And Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep and the cattle and the second ones and the lambs and all that was good, and they were not willing to devote them to destruction; and all the property that was despised and worthless, it they devoted to destruction.

The LORD Rejects Saul

10 And the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying, 11 "I regret that I have made Saul king, for he has turned back from after Me, and My words he has not carried out." And Samuel burned with anger, and he cried out to the LORD all

14:48 he did valiantly, and he struck Amalek We should give Saul his due. He fought enemies on every side and did real good for Israel. His problem was not lack of ability. It was lack of obedience.
14:50 Abner, the son of Ner, the uncle of Saul Merab and Michal will matter in David's story, and Abner will play a big part after Saul's death (2 Sam 2-3).
14:52 he would gather him to himself Samuel had warned that a king would take Israel's sons (8:11). Saul did. One of the men he would soon gather was a young shepherd from Bethlehem.
15:1 listen to the voice of the words of the LORD The LORD made Saul king, so the LORD had the right to command him. Listen is the key word of this chapter. In Hebrew it is shama, to hear and to obey. Saul had failed to listen at Gilgal (13:13). Now he had another chance.
15:2 I have paid attention to what Amalek did to Israel The Amalekites were desert nomads south of Israel, descendants of Esau (Gen 36:12). When Israel came out of Egypt, Amalek attacked without cause (Exod 17:8-16). They struck "all the stragglers behind you, and you were faint and weary; and he did not fear God" (Deut 25:18), the old, the sick and the slow. They kept up the same cruelty for centuries (Judg 3:13; 6:3; chapter 30).
15:3 you shall devote to destruction all that he has, and you shall not spare him One of the hardest verses in Scripture, and if it troubles you, it should. To devote to destruction is herem, something given wholly to the LORD so no one may keep or profit from it (Lev 27:28-29), used for His judgment on Canaan (Josh 6:17). It was not a war for land or plunder. Nothing was to be kept. It was a sentence carried out by God's command.
15:3 from child to nursing infant This was God's judgment, not Saul's idea or Israel's revenge. He is "the Judge of all the earth" (Gen 18:25), who alone gives life and may take it, and He had waited some four hundred years. He takes no pleasure in the death of the wicked (Ezek 33:11), and He spared the Kenites (15:6). I do not know all His reasons regarding the children, and Scripture does not give them. I believe little children who die are safe with God (2 Sam 12:23).
15:3 you shall put to death from man to woman This was a one-time command, given directly by God through His prophet, for that people at that time. It is never a pattern for anyone after. When Peter drew his sword, Jesus told him to put it away (Matt 26:52). Our battle "is not against blood and flesh" (Eph 6:12), and we are to love our enemies (Matt 5:44). Anyone who uses this chapter to excuse violence against any people, the Jewish people or any other, is twisting God's Word.
15:4 two hundred thousand foot soldiers, and ten thousand men of Judah The numbers are taken as written (see the note at 11:8). This chapter also points to the final judgment, when Christ returns as Judge (Acts 17:30-31). The only reason anyone will stand that day is that Jesus took the judgment on Himself.
15:5 the city of Amalek The Amalekites were mostly nomads, so this may have been their main camp or settlement.
15:6 you did steadfast love with all the sons of Israel The Kenites were the family of Moses' father-in-law (Judg 1:16). Steadfast love is hesed, loyal kindness. Long ago they had been kind to Israel, and God remembered it. His judgment was precise. He made a way out for those on His people's side, as He spared Rahab (Josh 6:25).
15:9 Saul and the people spared Agag and the best of the sheep Saul obeyed where it was easy and cost nothing, and disobeyed where it cost him something. He kept a king as a trophy and the best animals as plunder. God said this was a judgment, and Saul turned it into a raid. Partial obedience is disobedience. Saul did most of what God said and probably felt good about it, but he chose which parts to keep.
15:11 I regret that I have made Saul king Yet God "will not lie and will not regret" (15:29). When Scripture says God regretted, it describes His real sorrow and a change in how He deals with Saul. He grieves over sin (Gen 6:6; Eph 4:30). But He never changes His mind as if surprised or mistaken (Num 23:19; Mal 3:6). Saul changed, so God's dealings changed. His character and plan did not.
15:11 he cried out to the LORD all the night Samuel was angry, perhaps at Saul, perhaps at the whole situation. But he took it to God and spent the night in prayer. He loved Saul, and this hurt.

the night. 12 And Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning; and it was told to Samuel, saying, "Saul came to Carmel (Karmel), and look, he was setting up for himself a monument, and he turned around and passed on and went down to Gilgal." 13 And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, "Blessed are you by the LORD! I have carried out the word of the LORD." 14 And Samuel said, "And what is this voice of the sheep in my ears, and the voice of the cattle which I am hearing?" 15 And Saul said, "From the Amalekites they brought them, because the people spared the best of the sheep and the cattle in order to sacrifice to the LORD your God; and the rest we devoted to destruction." 16 And Samuel said to Saul, "Stop, and let me tell you what the LORD spoke to me this night." And he said to him, "Speak." 17 And Samuel said, "Though you were small in your eyes, were you not the head of the tribes of Israel? And the LORD anointed you as king over Israel. 18 And the LORD sent you on a journey, and He said, 'Go, and you shall devote to destruction the sinners, Amalek, and you shall fight against him until they have consumed them.' 19 And why did you not listen to the voice of the LORD, and you rushed on the plunder, and you did the evil in the eyes of the LORD?" 20 And Saul said to Samuel, "But I did listen to the voice of the LORD, and I went on the journey on which the LORD sent me, and I brought Agag the king of Amalek, and Amalek I devoted to destruction. 21 And the people took from the plunder sheep and cattle, the choicest of the devoted things, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal." 22 And Samuel said, "Does the LORD have delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as in listening to the voice of the LORD? Look, to listen is better than sacrifice, to pay attention than the fat of rams. 23 For rebellion is the sin of divination, and presumption is wickedness and teraphim. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, so He has rejected you from being king."

The Torn Robe

24 And Saul said to Samuel, "I have sinned, for I have transgressed the mouth of the LORD and your words, because I feared the people, and I listened to their voice. 25 And now, please forgive my sin, and return with me, and I will bow down to the LORD." 26 And Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel." 27 And Samuel turned around to go, and he took hold of the edge of his robe, and it tore. 28 And Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today, and He

15:12 he was setting up for himself a monument This Carmel was a town in the south of Judah, not Mount Carmel. The man once small in his own eyes (9:21) was putting up a monument to himself.

15:13 I have carried out the word of the LORD Did he believe it? Maybe. People can fool themselves. Or maybe he hoped Samuel would not ask questions.

15:14 what is this voice of the sheep in my ears I can almost hear the sheep bleating in the background. Sin has a way of making noise. You can claim you obeyed, but the evidence is right there.

15:15 the people spared the best of the sheep and the cattle in order to sacrifice to the LORD your God When Saul won, it was I. When something went wrong, it was they, the people. Then a religious reason. And "your God," not my God or our God. Then "the rest we devoted to destruction," we again for the good part.

15:17 Though you were small in your eyes, were you not the head of the tribes of Israel? God lifted up a humble man. As head, Saul was responsible and could not hide behind the people. Samuel calls Amalek "the sinners" (15:18). This was judgment on a guilty people, not conquest.

15:19 you rushed on the plunder The same word used of the hungry army rushing on the plunder (14:32). They had done it again, and Saul led them in it.

15:20 But I did listen to the voice of the LORD Saul still did not admit it. He did not see that bringing Agag back was the very problem.

15:21 the choicest of the devoted things, to sacrifice to the LORD your God The devoted things already belonged to God and were set apart for destruction. You cannot give God, as a gift, what is already His and what He told you to destroy.

15:22 to listen is better than sacrifice, to pay attention than the fat of rams One of the key verses of the Bible. Samuel did not say sacrifices were bad. God commanded them, and they pointed to Christ. The question is what God delights in more. To listen, shama, is to hear in a way that leads to doing. The fat was the best part, burned as God's portion (Lev 3:16). Even the best of the best offering is worth less than a heart that hears and obeys.

15:22 Does the LORD have delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices A sacrifice without obedience tries to buy God off: I will give You something religious if You let me run my life. He wants us, not our things. The prophets said it again and again (Hos 6:6; Mic 6:8; Prov 21:3). After his own sin David said, "The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit" (Ps 51:17). Jesus quoted Hosea against the Pharisees (Matt 9:13; 12:7; 23:23).

15:22 as in listening to the voice of the LORD We offer no animal sacrifices, since Christ's one sacrifice did what they never could (Heb 10:4, 10). But we can attend church, give and serve, and still refuse God in the one area He keeps touching. We are saved by grace through faith, not by obeying (Eph 2:8-9). But true faith listens. "If you love Me, keep My commandments" (John 14:15). What sheep are bleating in the background of your life?

15:23 rebellion is the sin of divination, and presumption is wickedness and teraphim Divination tried to learn the future by occult means (Deut 18:10-12). Teraphim were household idols (Gen 31:19). Most read it as rebellion is like divination, and presumption like idolatry. Setting your will above God's word is that kind of sin. Stubbornness is idolatry of self. At the end Saul really will go to a medium (chapter 28).

15:23 because you have rejected the word of the LORD, so He has rejected you from being king The punishment matched the sin. In chapter 13 Saul's family lost the throne. Now Saul himself was rejected as God's king, though he would keep it in name for years.

15:24 because I feared the people, and I listened to their voice At last, "I have sinned," but even here an excuse. This is the root. Saul listened to the people's voice instead of the LORD's. He cared more what his soldiers thought than what God thought. The fear of man is a trap (Prov 29:25).

15:26 I will not return with you Saul wanted Samuel with him so the people would see that all was well. Samuel would not pretend. Compare David: "I have sinned against the LORD" (2 Sam 12:13). David's confession was about God. Saul's was about his position.

15:28 He will give it to your neighbor, who is better than you Saul grabbed Samuel's robe, and it tore, and Samuel turned it into a picture of God's word. The neighbor was David. Years later David cut off the edge of Saul's robe in a cave (24:4-5). The torn robe followed Saul all his life.

will give it to your neighbor, who is better than you. 29 And also the Eminence of Israel will not lie and will not regret, for He is not a man, that He should regret." 30 And he said, "I have sinned; now please honor me before the elders of my people and before Israel, and return with me, and I will bow down to the LORD your God." 31 And Samuel returned after Saul, and Saul bowed down to the LORD.

Agag Put to Death

32 And Samuel said, "Bring near to me Agag the king of Amalek." And Agag came to him in fetters. And Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death has departed." 33 And Samuel said, "Just as your sword has made women childless, so your mother shall be childless among women." And Samuel hewed Agag to pieces before the LORD in Gilgal. 34 And Samuel went to Ramah (Rama), and Saul went up to his house at Gibeah (Giva) of Saul. 35 And Samuel did not again see Saul until the day of his death, for Samuel mourned over Saul; and the LORD regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

Samuel Anoints David

And Saul will hear, and he will kill me." And the LORD said, "A heifer of the cattle you shall take in your hand, and you shall say, 'To sacrifice to the LORD I have come.' 3 And you shall invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I, I will make known to you what you shall do; and you shall anoint for Me the one whom I say to you." 4 And Samuel did what the LORD spoke, and he came to Bethlehem

And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and he invited them to the sacrifice. 6 And it was, when they came, and he saw Eliab (Eli'av), and he said, "Surely His anointed is before the LORD." 7 And the 15:29 the Eminence of Israel will not lie and will not regret A name for God, the Glory or Strength of Israel. This decision was final. Saul could not talk God out of it. As Balaam said, "God is not a man, that He should lie" (Num 23:19).

15:30 now please honor me before the elders of my people "I have sinned" and "honor me" in one breath. His real concern was how it looked.
15:31 Samuel returned after Saul Perhaps to keep order, since Saul was still king and a public split might throw Israel into chaos. Perhaps also because one more thing had to be done.
15:32 Surely the bitterness of death has departed Agag came in chains but seems to have thought the danger past. Saul had spared him, and he expected to live. Some translations read it as Agag going in fear or bitterness.
15:33 Samuel hewed Agag to pieces before the LORD in Gilgal Agag was not an innocent captive but a king whose sword had left mothers childless, and the sentence matched his crimes. "Before the LORD" marks it as judgment in God's presence, not personal revenge. The old prophet did what the king refused to do. It was a unique act and gives no one today the right to take vengeance (Rom 12:19; 13:1-4).
15:33 Just as your sword has made women childless Saul did not finish the job, and partial obedience has long consequences. Amalekites will raid David's town (chapter 30) and one will claim to have killed Saul (2 Sam 1). Centuries later "Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite" (Esth 3:1) tried to wipe out the Jewish people. Many believe he descended from Agag.
15:35 Samuel did not again see Saul until the day of his death Samuel never again went to Saul as God's messenger, though Saul will come where Samuel is (19:24). Samuel did not gloat. He grieved. Watching someone you love throw away God's best is one of the most painful things in life.
15:35 the LORD regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel The chapter ends with God's sorrow. He was not surprised, but He was grieved. Sin always grieves Him. Yet the next chapter opens with oil and Bethlehem. Saul's failure did not stop God's plan. It never does.
16:1 How long are you mourning for Saul Samuel's grief was real and right (15:35). But there comes a time to stop looking back at what God has closed and look at what He is doing. God did not scold Samuel for caring. He gave him a new job.
16:1 I have seen among his sons a king for Myself Saul was the king the people asked for (8:5). This would be the king God chose. Jesse was the grandson of Boaz and Ruth (Ruth 4:17, 21-22), of the tribe of Judah, and Jacob had said the scepter would not depart from Judah (Gen 49:10). God's plan was right on schedule.
16:2 How can I go? And Saul will hear, and he will kill me Anointing another king was treason in Saul's eyes. The prophet was afraid of the king, a sign of how far Saul had fallen.
16:2 To sacrifice to the LORD I have come Was God telling Samuel to lie? No. He really went to sacrifice and did. He simply did not tell everyone the whole of why he came. Telling the truth does not mean we owe every person every detail. Samuel was to keep God's private business private until the right time.
16:3 I will make known to you what you shall do Samuel did not go knowing the name. He went trusting that God would show him. That is often how God leads: one step at a time.
16:4 the elders of the city trembled to meet him Samuel was a judge as well as a prophet, and his coming might mean judgment. They may have heard about Agag (15:33).
16:5 Sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice To sanctify themselves was to make themselves ceremonially clean, washing and preparing to come before God (Exod 19:10). The family invitation let Samuel see each of Jesse's sons.
16:6 Surely His anointed is before the LORD Eliab was the oldest (17:13), tall and good-looking, the kind of man people follow. Even a great prophet could judge by the outside.
16:7 Do not look at his appearance and at the height of his stature Do you hear the echo? Saul was chosen partly because he was taller than anyone (9:2; 10:23). Israel had already had a king who looked the part. God was not going to repeat the lesson.
16:7 man sees according to the eyes, and the LORD sees according to the heart The key verse of the book. We see the outside: height, looks, confidence, success. We are easily impressed and easily fooled, so we should be slow to judge and slow to trust someone because he looks strong. In the Bible the heart is the center of the person: mind, will, desires, what he loves and trusts. "You alone know the heart" (1 Kgs 8:39). Nothing is hidden from Him (Heb 4:13).
16:7 for it is not what man sees God sought "a man according to His heart" (13:14), not sinless, but turned toward God, as the Psalms show (Ps 23; 51). That is good news: God does not pass people by for being small or overlooked. It is a warning: a good outside cannot hide a heart far from God (Matt 15:8). Jesus had "no form to Him and no splendor" (Isa 53:2). When God looks at your heart today, what does He see? David prayed, "Create for me a pure heart, God" (Ps 51:10).

LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look at his appearance and at the height of his stature, for I have rejected him; for it is not what man sees, for man sees according to the eyes, and the LORD sees according to the heart." 8 And Jesse called Abinadab (Avinadav), and he made him pass before Samuel. And he said, "Also this one the LORD has not chosen." 9 And Jesse made Shammah (Shama) pass by. And he said, "Also this one the LORD has not chosen." 10 And Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen these." 11 And Samuel said to Jesse, "Are the young men finished?" And he said, "The youngest still remains, and look, he is shepherding the flock." And Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and bring him, for we will not turn around until he comes here." 12 And he sent and brought him. And he was ruddy, with beautiful eyes and good appearance. And the LORD said, "Arise, anoint him, for this is he." 13 And Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the Spirit of the LORD rushed on David from that day and onward. And Samuel arose and went to Ramah (Rama).

David Serves Saul

14 And the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD terrified him. 15 And the servants of Saul said to him, "Look, please, an evil spirit of God is terrifying you. 16 Please let our lord speak to your servants who are before you; let them seek a man who knows how to play on the lyre; and it will be, when an evil spirit of God is on you, that he will play with his hand, and it will be good for you." 17 And Saul said to his servants, "Please see for me a man who does well at playing, and bring him to me." 18 And one of the young men answered, and he said, "Look, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite who knows how to play, and a mighty man of valor, and a man of war, and discerning in speech, and a man of fine form, and the LORD is with him." 19 And Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and he said, "Send to me David your son, who is with the flock." 20 And Jesse took a donkey with bread and a skin of wine and one kid of the goats, and he sent them by the hand of David his son to Saul. 21 And David came to Saul and stood before him; and he loved him exceedingly, and he became his armor-bearer. 22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, "Please let David stand before me, for he has found favor in my eyes." 23 And it was, when the spirit of God was on Saul, and David took the lyre and played with his hand; and Saul was refreshed, and it was good for him, and the evil spirit departed from him.

16:8 Also this one the LORD has not chosen Samuel was now listening to God instead of his own eyes. He learned the lesson of 16:7 quickly.
16:10 Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel Seven, a full number. Jesse may have thought he brought every son worth bringing. Here Jesse has eight sons (17:12), but 1 Chr 2:13-15 names seven, with David seventh. One may have died young without children. Scripture does not say.
16:11 The youngest still remains, and look, he is shepherding the flock Youngest can also mean smallest or least. Jesse did not think to call David in. He got the jobs nobody else wanted, and even his father overlooked him. Have you ever felt overlooked? God sees you.
16:12 he was ruddy, with beautiful eyes and good appearance Ruddy means reddish, probably skin or hair. David was good-looking, so 16:7 does not mean God chose a plain man. Looks were not the reason. God took David "from the pasture, from after the flock" (2 Sam 7:8; Ps 78:70-72). And Jesus, the Son of David, said, "I am the good shepherd" (John 10:11).
16:13 anointed him in the midst of his brothers Before his family, but not the nation. Years would pass before he reigned over Judah and then all Israel (2 Sam 2:4; 5:3). Meanwhile he would tend sheep, serve Saul, run for his life and learn to trust God in caves. This is the first time his name appears. David may mean beloved.
16:13 the Spirit of the LORD rushed on David from that day and onward The same word used of Samson (Judg 14:6) and Saul (10:6; 11:6). In the Old Testament the Spirit came on judges, prophets, craftsmen and kings to empower them for their work. Here, for the first time, we are told the Spirit stayed.
16:14 the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul The order matters. The Spirit came on David, then left Saul. In the Old Testament the Spirit could be withdrawn, which is why David prayed, "do not take the Spirit of Your holiness from me" (Ps 51:11). Since Pentecost the Spirit is with believers "forever" (John 14:16), and we are sealed "for the day of redemption" (Eph 4:30). A Christian can grieve the Spirit, but He does not leave.
16:14 an evil spirit from the LORD terrified him A hard phrase. Many believe this was a real evil spirit God allowed as judgment. Others take spirit as a deep, dark torment of mind. Both agree God rules even evil spirits, as with Job (Job 1:12). He tempts no one (James 1:13), but He can use evil to carry out judgment (Judg 9:23; 1 Kgs 22:19-23). When people refuse Him, "God also gave them up" (Rom 1:24). To turn from the LORD is not freedom. It leaves us open to something worse.
16:16 a man who knows how to play on the lyre A lyre was a small stringed instrument, held in the arms and plucked. Music has a real effect on the soul. Sadly, Saul looked for music to ease his trouble but never looked to God to deal with it. He wanted relief, not repentance.
16:18 and the LORD is with him David was a musician, a man of valor, wise with words and fine in form. He had already faced a lion and a bear (17:34-36). The last item matters most. People could see it. Can people see that about you? Not that you are perfect, but that the LORD is with you?
16:20 Jesse took a donkey with bread and a skin of wine and one kid of the goats A skin was a goatskin bag used as a container. It was polite to bring a gift to a king (10:27).
16:21 he loved him exceedingly, and he became his armor-bearer An armor-bearer carried the king's weapons and shield and stayed by his side in battle, a place of great trust. The irony: the rejected king brings the chosen king into his own house and does not know it. God was training David where he could see how a kingdom ran and how a king could fail.
16:23 Saul was refreshed, and it was good for him, and the evil spirit departed from him Many of David's songs are in the Psalms, and believers have found comfort in them for three thousand years. But the relief was for a time. The spirit came back (18:10). Music could soothe Saul but could not change him. Only a heart turned back to God could. David came as a blessing, and Saul will soon hate him for it.
17:1 they encamped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim The Philistines lived on the coastal plain in five main cities and had iron weapons and trained soldiers (13:19-22). These places are in the low hills west of Bethlehem. They were pushing inland toward the heart of Judah.

(Azeqa), in Ephes-dammim (Efes-Damim). 2 And Saul (Shaul) and the men of Israel (Yisra'el) were gathered, and they encamped in the valley of Elah, and they arranged battle to meet the Philistines. 3 And the Philistines were standing on the mountain on this side, and Israel was standing on the mountain on that side, and the valley was between them. 4 And the champion went out from the camps of the Philistines, his name was Goliath (Golyat), from Gath (Gat); his height was approximately 9 feet 9 inches (six cubits and a span). 5 And a helmet of bronze was on his head, and he was clothed with body armor of scales; and the weight of the body armor was approximately 125 pounds (five thousand shekels) of bronze. 6 And leg armor of bronze was on his feet, and a javelin of bronze was between his shoulders. 7 And the shaft of his spear was like a beam of weavers, and the blade of his spear was approximately 15 pounds (six hundred shekels) of iron; and the bearer of the shield was walking before him. 8 And he stood and called out to the battle lines of Israel, and he said to them, "Why do you come out to arrange battle? Am I not the Philistine, and you servants of Saul? Choose for yourselves a man, and let him come down to me. 9 If he is able to fight with me and strikes me, then we will become servants to you; and if I, I prevail against him and strike him, then you will become servants to us, and you will serve us." 10 And the Philistine said, "I, I defy the battle lines of Israel this day. Give me a man, and let us fight together." 11 And Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, and they were dismayed and were exceedingly afraid.

17:2 they encamped in the valley of Elah A broad valley about fifteen miles west of Bethlehem, with a dry streambed through the middle. Visitors can still see it today.
17:3 the valley was between them Two armies on two hills. Whoever went down first would have to fight uphill, so they waited.
17:4 the champion went out from the camps of the Philistines, his name was Goliath, from Gath Champion means the man between, who fights alone between two armies. Battles were sometimes settled by single combat. Gath was known for very large men, descendants of the Anakim (Josh 11:22), the giants who frightened Israel's spies (Num 13:33). The text does not say Goliath was one of them, though that is the common view.
17:4 his height was approximately 9 feet 9 inches The Hebrew reads six cubits and a span. A cubit was about 18 inches, a span about 9. Most Greek copies and a Dead Sea Scroll of Samuel read four cubits and a span, about six feet nine inches. Either way he was a giant and a trained warrior from his youth (17:33), towering over everyone in Israel, Saul included.
17:5 he was clothed with body armor of scales Overlapping bronze plates like fish scales, weighing about 125 pounds. Why describe the armor so long? So we will feel what Israel felt. Every piece said, you cannot beat me. By the eyes, that was true. Remember 16:7.
17:7 the shaft of his spear was like a beam of weavers As thick as the wooden beam of a loom, with an iron point of about 15 pounds. A shield-bearer walked before him.
17:8 Am I not the Philistine, and you servants of Saul? You call yourselves an army? You are just Saul's slaves. The whole war would ride on one fight.
17:10 I, I defy the battle lines of Israel this day To defy is to taunt and heap shame. Goliath was not only insulting soldiers. As David saw, he was insulting the God of Israel.
17:11 they were dismayed and were exceedingly afraid The saddest line in the chapter. Saul should have gone out. He was the king and taller than all the people (10:23). They asked for a king to fight their battles (8:20). Here was the battle, and the king was in his tent. When the Spirit left Saul (16:14), his courage left with it.
17:12 this Ephrathite man from Bethlehem of Judah Ephrathah was an old name for Bethlehem (Ruth 4:11; Mic 5:2). The story turns to David as if we were meeting him for the first time.
17:15 David was going and returning from Saul to shepherd the flock of his father This explains how he could be Saul's musician and armor-bearer (16:21-23) and still be home with the sheep. The anointed king was still doing his chores.
17:16 he took his stand forty days Morning and evening. Forty days in Scripture is often a time of testing (Exod 24:18; Matt 4:2). For forty days Israel's fear grew.
17:18 their pledge you shall take Soldiers often depended on their families for food. The pledge was a token showing the brothers were alive and well. Jesse was a worried father. David did not go looking for a fight but on an errand. Some of the greatest things God does begin on an ordinary day while we do what we were asked.
17:20 he left the flock with a keeper David did not leave the sheep without care. He was faithful in small things before he was trusted with big ones (Luke 16:10). He arrived to the daily war cry. The armies lined up, shouted and went back. It was all noise.

Gath, from the battle lines of the Philistines; and he spoke according to these words, and David heard. 24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, then they fled from before him, and they were exceedingly afraid. 25 And the men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who is coming up? For to defy Israel he is coming up. And it will be, the man who strikes him, the king will make him rich with great riches, and his daughter he will give to him, and the house of his father he will make free in Israel." 26 And David said to the men who were standing with him, saying, "What will be done for the man who strikes this Philistine and removes reproach from upon Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he has defied the battle lines of the living God?" 27 And the people said to him according to this word, saying, "Thus it will be done for the man who strikes him." 28 And Eliab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men, and the anger of Eliab burned against David, and he said, "Why is this that you have come down? And with whom have you left that little flock in the wilderness? I, I know your arrogance and the evil of your heart, for to see the battle you have come down." 29 And David said, "What have I done now? Was it not a word?" 30 And he turned from beside him toward another, and he said according to this word; and the people brought him back word according to the former word. 31 And the words which David spoke were heard, and they told them before Saul, and he took him. 32 And David said to Saul, "Let the heart of no man fall on account of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine." 33 And Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him, for you are a youth, and he is a man of war from his youth." 34 And David said to Saul, "Your servant was shepherding for his father in the flock, and the lion would come, and the bear, and carry off a sheep from the herd, 35 and I would go out after it and strike it and deliver it from its mouth; and it rose up against me, and I took hold of its beard, and I struck it and killed it. 36 Both the lion and the bear your servant has struck; and this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, for he has defied the battle lines of the living God." 37 And David said, "The LORD who delivered me from the hand of the lion and from the hand of the bear, He will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." And Saul said to David, "Go, and the LORD will be with you." 38 And Saul clothed David with his garments, and he put a helmet of bronze on his head, and he clothed him with body armor. 39 And David girded his sword over his garments, and he undertook to walk, for he had not tested them. And David said to Saul, "I am not able to walk in these, for I have not tested them." And David removed them from upon himself. 40 And he took his staff in his hand, and he chose for himself five smooth stones from the wadi, and he put them in the shepherds' bag which was his, and in the pouch, and his sling was in his hand; and he drew near to the Philistine.

And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. 44 And the Philistine said to David, "Come 17:24 they fled from before him, and they were exceedingly afraid The whole army of God was running from one man.

17:25 the house of his father he will make free in Israel Free probably means free from taxes and service to the king. Saul offered money, a royal marriage and privileges, but did not go himself.
17:26 who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he has defied the battle lines of the living God? Uncircumcised meant outside God's covenant (Gen 17:10-11), with no promise and no claim on God's help. The Philistines' Dagon had fallen on his face before the ark (5:3-4). Israel's God was alive. Everyone else saw a giant. David saw a man mocking the living God. Fear looks at the size of the problem. Faith looks at the size of God.
17:28 I, I know your arrogance and the evil of your heart Unfair. David came because his father sent him. Eliab, the one Samuel thought would be king (16:6), may have been jealous since the anointing, or ashamed that his little brother asked the question every soldier should have. Those who criticize us most when we stand for God are sometimes those closest to us.
17:29 What have I done now? Was it not a word? I only asked a question. David turned away and would not let a family quarrel pull him from the real battle. Not every attack needs an answer.
17:32 Let the heart of no man fall on account of him David spoke courage into a king who had lost his own.
17:33 you are a youth, and he is a man of war from his youth A youth here is a young man, perhaps in his late teens. By human measure Saul was right. He was looking with the eyes again.
17:35 I took hold of its beard, and I struck it and killed it Lions and bears lived in the land, and a shepherd was expected to protect his flock at his own risk (Amos 3:12). David learned courage alone in the hills where no one watched. Private victories prepared him for the public one. God often trains us in hidden places for later work.
17:37 The LORD who delivered me from the hand of the lion and from the hand of the bear, He will deliver me The heart of David's faith. He did not say, I am strong enough. He said, God did it before, and He will do it again. When we remember what God has done, we can trust Him with what is in front of us. Saul said the right words, but still sent a boy to do a king's job.
17:39 I am not able to walk in these, for I have not tested them Saul gave his best, but armor for the tallest man in Israel would not fit a young man. This was not foolishness. David would fight with what God had already trained him to use.
17:40 he chose for himself five smooth stones from the wadi A wadi is a streambed dry most of the year. The sling was no toy but a weapon of war. Benjamin's slingers could hit a hair (Judg 20:16). Why five stones? Scripture does not say. Some point to Goliath's giant relatives (2 Sam 21:15-22). Others think David was simply ready if he missed. Either way, trusting God never means being careless.
17:42 he despised him, for he was a youth, and ruddy, with beautiful appearance Goliath judged by the eyes too. He saw a good-looking boy, not a warrior.
17:43 the Philistine cursed David by his gods Now the contest was in the open, the gods of the Philistines against the LORD. The threat to give David's flesh to the birds and beasts meant leaving him unburied, a great shame in that world.

to me, and let me give your flesh to the flying things of the heavens and to the living things of the field." 45 And David said to the Philistine, "You are coming to me with sword and with spear and with javelin, and I am coming to you in the name of the LORD of armies, the God of the battle lines of Israel, whom you have defied. 46 This day the LORD will hand you over into my hand, and I will strike you and remove your head from upon you, and I will give the corpses of the camp of the Philistines this day to the flying things of the heavens and to the living things of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God for Israel, 47 and that all this assembly may know that not by sword and by spear does the LORD save; for the battle belongs to the LORD, and He will give you into our hand." 48 And it was, when the Philistine arose and came and drew near to meet David, that David hurried and ran to the battle line to meet the Philistine. 49 And David sent his hand into the bag, and he took from there a stone and slung it, and he struck the Philistine on his forehead; and the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth. 50 And David was stronger than the Philistine with the sling and with the stone, and he struck the Philistine and killed him; and there was no sword in the hand of David. 51 And David ran and stood over the Philistine, and he took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him, and he cut off his head with it. And the slain of the Philistines fell on the way of Shaaraim (Sha'arayim), and to Gath and to Ekron. 53 And the sons of Israel returned from hotly pursuing after the Philistines, and they plundered their camps. 54 And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim), and his weapons he put in his tent.

Whose Son Is This?

55 And when Saul saw David going out to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner (Avner) the commander of the army, "Whose son is this youth, Abner?" And Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I do not know." 56 And the king said, "You, ask whose son this young man is." 57 And when David returned from striking the Philistine, and Abner took him and brought him before Saul, and the head of the Philistine was in his hand. 58 And Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, youth?" And David said, "The son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

17:45 I am coming to you in the name of the LORD of armies To come in someone's name is to come by his authority and represent him. David came in the name of the God who commands all the armies of heaven and earth. Goliath had the better weapons. David had the better God.
17:46 that all the earth may know that there is a God for Israel David did not say, I hope. He said, the LORD will. God would show the nations who He is. And Israel too must learn "that not by sword and by spear does the LORD save" (17:47). They had been trusting weapons and size, and so had their king.
17:47 for the battle belongs to the LORD A prophet told Judah the same: "the battle is not yours, but God's" (2 Chr 20:15). We often tell this as, you can beat your giants. God does help us face what is too big for us. But for David the battle was about God's name. When we face a giant, the question is not only how can I win, but how will God be honored in this?
17:47 He will give you into our hand Israel could not fight for itself. One man went out in their place, and his victory became theirs. The New Testament does not draw this line, so I offer it only as a picture. Jesus, the Son of David, went out alone and through death made powerless the one who held the power of death (Heb 2:14-15). "We more than conquer through the One who loved us" (Rom 8:37).
17:48 David hurried and ran to the battle line to meet the Philistine Israel had run from Goliath for forty days. David ran toward him.
17:49 the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth The one place his armor did not cover. Goliath fell on his face, as his god Dagon had before the ark (5:3).
17:50 there was no sword in the hand of David The writer wants us to see it. Just as David said, the LORD does not save by sword and spear. Another passage says Elhanan struck "Goliath the Gittite" (2 Sam 21:19), while Chronicles says he struck "Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite" (1 Chr 20:5). Many see a small copying slip in 2 Samuel, and others a second giant of the same name.
17:51 he took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him The weapon Goliath trusted was turned against him. The Philistines had promised to serve the winner (17:9), but they did not keep it. They ran.
17:52 the men of Israel and Judah arose and shouted the war cry The army that ran from Goliath chased the Philistines back to Gath and Ekron. One young man's faith stirred courage in thousands. One person's trust in God can wake up a whole church.
17:54 David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem Jerusalem was still held by the Jebusites until David took it (2 Sam 5:6-9). Most read this as telling ahead where the head ended up, once it was his city. Others think of the area Israel already held. Goliath's sword was later kept at Nob, and David received it back (21:9).
17:55 Whose son is this youth, Abner? David was already Saul's musician (16:19-22), so how could Saul not know him? Saul may have known David but wanted to know his family, now that he had promised to free the winner's house and give his daughter (17:25). His mind was troubled (16:14), and a court musician might not be known to the army commander. Chapter 16 may also tell events over time, not in strict order. Good teachers hold each answer.
17:58 The son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite David answered the question plainly. In the next chapter Saul takes him into his house for good.
18:1 the soul of Jonathan was bound with the soul of David Jonathan, who climbed to the Philistine outpost saying God could save "by many or by few" (14:6), found in David a man with the same faith. The phrase is used of Jacob's love for Benjamin (Gen 44:30), a deep, loyal love tying two lives together. This was not romantic love but the friendship of two men who shared faith and courage, sealed with a covenant.
18:2 he did not permit him to return to the house of his father David no longer went back and forth to Bethlehem (17:15). He now lived at Saul's court.

And Saul appointed him over the men of war, and it was good in the eyes of all the people and also in the eyes of the servants of Saul.

Saul's Jealousy

6 And it was, when they came, when David returned from striking the Philistine, that the women came out from all the cities of Israel (Yisra'el) to sing, and the dances, to meet Saul the king, with tambourines, with joy, and with three-stringed instruments. 7 And the women who were celebrating sang, and they said, "Saul has struck his thousands, and David his ten thousands." 8 And Saul burned with anger exceedingly, and this matter was evil in his eyes; and he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed the thousands; and yet for him there is only the kingdom." 9 And Saul was eyeing David from that day and onward. 10 And it was, on the next day, that an evil spirit of God rushed on Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house; and David was playing with his hand, as day by day; and the spear was in the hand of Saul. 11 And Saul hurled the spear, and he said, "I will strike into David and into the wall." And David turned from before him two times. 12 And Saul was afraid of David, for the LORD was with him, and from Saul He had departed. 13 And Saul removed him from beside him and appointed him for himself commander of a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people. 14 And David was successful in all his ways, and the LORD was with him. 15 And Saul saw that he was exceedingly successful, and he was in dread of him. 16 And all Israel and Judah (Yehuda) loved David, for he was going out and coming in before them.

David Marries Michal

17 And Saul said to David, "Look, my older daughter Merab (Merav), her I will give to you as a wife; only be for me a son of valor, and fight the battles of the LORD." And Saul said, "Let my hand not be on him, and let the hand of the Philistines be on him." 18 And David said to Saul, "Who am I, and who are my relatives, the clan of my father in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?" 19 And it was, at the time of giving Merab the daughter of Saul to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife. 20 And Michal (Mikhal) the daughter of Saul loved David, and they told Saul, and the matter was right in his eyes. 21 And Saul said, "I will give her to him, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him." And Saul said to David, "By a second time you will become my son-in-law today." 22 And Saul commanded his servants,

18:22 Ps 36:1-3; Ps 55:21; 2 Sam 13:28,29

18:3 Jonathan and David made a covenant A covenant is a solemn, binding promise made before God. This one comes up again and again (20:8, 16-17, 42; 23:18), and David kept it long after Jonathan's death by caring for his son Mephibosheth (2 Sam 9:1, 7).
18:4 Jonathan stripped himself of the robe which was on him, and he gave it to David Swords were rare in Israel (13:22), so this was his most precious gear. And Jonathan was the next in line. In a sense he was handing over his own place, as he later says (23:17). He had every human reason to be jealous and instead gave David his robe. Real love is glad when God lifts someone else up, even above us.
18:5 in every place where Saul sent him, he was successful The word also carries the idea of acting wisely. David succeeded because he was wise, and wise because the LORD was with him (18:14). Everyone liked him, even Saul's officials. For now.
18:6 the women came out from all the cities of Israel to sing The custom was to greet a victorious army with song and dance (Exod 15:20; Judg 11:34).
18:7 Saul has struck his thousands, and David his ten thousands In Hebrew poetry thousands and ten thousands together often mean a great many (Ps 91:7). The women may not have meant an insult. It was a song of joy. But Saul heard a comparison, and he came out second.
18:8 and yet for him there is only the kingdom Saul remembered Samuel's word, that the kingdom would go to a neighbor better than he (15:28). Now he thought he knew who that neighbor was.
18:9 Saul was eyeing David from that day and onward That is how jealousy begins, with a look and a thought. "Who will stand before jealousy?" (Prov 27:4). Where jealousy is, "there is disorder and every evil thing" (James 3:16). It looks quieter than murder, but in Saul it led to attempted murder within a day. Is there someone whose success bothers you? Bring it to God before it takes root.
18:10 he prophesied in the midst of the house On the evil spirit, see 16:14. Prophesied here means raving, speaking wildly under a spirit's power, not giving God's message. And see the contrast. David had a lyre in his hand. Saul had a spear in his.
18:11 David turned from before him two times Saul meant to pin him to the wall. God protected David, and David did not strike back.
18:12 Saul was afraid of David, for the LORD was with him, and from Saul He had departed The real reason for his fear. Saul could see God's hand on David and knew it had left him. A man who will not repent of his own sin often comes to hate the one in whom he sees God at work.
18:13 appointed him for himself commander of a thousand Saul wanted David out of sight and perhaps hoped he would die in battle. It backfired. To go out and come in before the people means to lead them in war and daily life, and they watched him do it.
18:16 all Israel and Judah loved David Everything Saul did to push David down only lifted him up. When God is lifting someone up, no one can hold him down.
18:17 let the hand of the Philistines be on him Merab was part of the promised reward (17:25). But Saul wanted the Philistines to do his dirty work, and he used religious words, "the battles of the LORD," to cover a murderous plan.
18:18 Who am I, and who are my relatives Saul once said nearly the same to Samuel (9:21). David did not reach for the throne. He would wait for God to give it.
18:19 she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as a wife Saul broke his promise. We are not told why. His word could not be trusted.
18:20 Michal the daughter of Saul loved David Scripture rarely says in so many words that a woman loved a man, but it does here.
18:21 that she may be a snare to him A snare is a trap. Saul was willing to use his own daughter's love as bait.

"Speak to David in secret, saying, 'Look, the king delights in you, and all his servants love you; and now, become son-in-law to the king.'" 23 And the servants of Saul spoke these words in the ears of David. And David said, "Is it a light thing in your eyes to become son-in-law to the king, and I am a poor man and lightly esteemed?" 24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, "According to these words David spoke." 25 And Saul said, "Thus you shall say to David: 'The king has no delight in a bride-price, but in a hundred foreskins of Philistines, to be avenged on the enemies of the king.'" And Saul planned to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. 26 And his servants told David these words, and the matter was right in the eyes of David to become son-in-law to the king. And the days were not completed. 27 And David arose and went, he and his men, and he struck among the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king, to become son-in-law to the king. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter as a wife. 28 And Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David, and Michal the daughter of Saul loved him. 29 And Saul was yet more afraid of David, and Saul was an enemy to David all the days. 30 And the commanders of the Philistines went out, and it was, as often as they went out, David was more successful than all the servants of Saul, and his name was exceedingly esteemed.

Jonathan Speaks for David

1 And Saul (Shaul) spoke to Jonathan (Yonatan) his son and to all his servants, to kill David; and Jonathan (Yehonatan) the son of Saul delighted in David exceedingly. 2 And Jonathan told David, saying, "Saul my father is seeking to kill you; and now, please be on guard in the morning, and stay in the secret place and hide yourself. 3 And I, I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I, I will speak about you to my father; and I will see what happens, and I will tell you." 4 And Jonathan spoke good about David to Saul his father, and he said to him, "Let the king not sin against his servant, against David, for he has not sinned against you, and for his deeds have been exceedingly good for you. 5 And he put his life in his palm and struck the Philistine, and the LORD made a great salvation for all Israel (Yisra'el); you saw and rejoiced. And why will you sin against innocent blood by killing David without cause?" 6 And Saul listened to the voice of Jonathan, and Saul swore, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death." 7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan told him all these words; and Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was before him as yesterday and the day before.

Michal Saves David

8 And there was war again; and David went out and fought against the Philistines, and he struck them with a great blow, and they fled from before him. 9 And an evil spirit of the LORD was on Saul, and he was sitting in his house, and his spear was in his hand, and David was playing with his hand. 10 And Saul sought to strike with the spear into David and into the wall; and he slipped away from before Saul, and he struck the spear into the wall. And David fled and escaped

18:23 I am a poor man and lightly esteemed A man gave a bride-price, a gift to the bride's father. A king's daughter would cost more than a shepherd's son could pay. David was not playing games. He was poor and knew it.
18:25 a hundred foreskins of Philistines A grim demand, proof that David had killed a hundred uncircumcised enemies (17:26). The writer tells us exactly why: "Saul planned to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines." He hoped David would die trying.
18:27 he struck among the Philistines two hundred men Before the time ran out, David brought twice what Saul asked. The writer does not dwell on the details, and neither will I. God protected David through every trap Saul set.
18:28 Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David His son loved David, his daughter loved him, and God was with him. Saul could no longer deny it.
18:29 Saul was an enemy to David all the days The tragedy of Saul. He saw that God was with David, and instead of humbling himself, he set himself against God's chosen man. When we fight what God is doing, we are fighting God.
18:30 his name was exceedingly esteemed Two ways to respond when God blesses someone else. Jonathan gave a robe. Saul threw a spear. Jonathan gave up his claim to the throne for his friend. "Greater love than this no one has, that one lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). Jesus gave His life for us.
19:1 Saul spoke to Jonathan his son and to all his servants, to kill David Saul had tried to trap David quietly (18:17, 21, 25). Now he gave an open order, even to the son most likely to refuse.
19:2 Saul my father is seeking to kill you Jonathan was caught between father and friend, and he did right. He honored his father but would not obey him in this. When a parent or ruler commands what God forbids, we must obey God rather than men (Acts 5:29).
19:4 Let the king not sin against his servant, against David Jonathan named it for what it was, sin, and reminded Saul of the facts. David's deeds had been good for him.
19:5 he put his life in his palm and struck the Philistine To put your life in your palm is to risk it, holding it where it could easily be taken. Jonathan gave the credit to the LORD and reminded Saul that he had rejoiced that day. Shedding innocent blood was a grave sin (Deut 19:10; 27:25). That is how a peacemaker speaks, with courage and respect.
19:6 As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death For a moment Saul's heart softened. But a promise made under pressure, without real repentance, rarely holds. Saul had made rash oaths before (14:24, 39, 44), and he broke this one within days.
19:8 there was war again David did what he always did. He served faithfully and won, and his success set off Saul's jealousy again.
19:9 his spear was in his hand, and David was playing with his hand Almost the same scene as 18:10-11. On the evil spirit, see 16:14.
19:10 David fled and escaped that night The spear stuck in the wall, so Saul threw it hard. This ended David's time at court. Until Saul dies, David is a man on the run, living in caves and deserts for years. But David never once threw the spear back.

that night. 11 And Saul sent messengers to the house of David to watch him and to kill him in the morning. And Michal (Mikhal) his wife told David, saying, "If you are not delivering your life this night, tomorrow you will be put to death." 12 And Michal let David down through the window, and he went and fled and escaped. 13 And Michal took the teraphim and put it on the bed, and the quilt of goats' hair she put at its head, and she covered it with the garment. 14 And Saul sent messengers to take David, and she said, "He is sick." 15 And Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up on the bed to me, to kill him." 16 And the messengers came, and look, the teraphim was on the bed, and the quilt of goats' hair at its head. 17 And Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me thus, and let my enemy go, and he has escaped?" And Michal said to Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go; why should I kill you?'"

Saul Among the Prophets Again

18 And David fled and escaped, and he came to Samuel (Shemu'el) at Ramah (Rama), and he told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went, and they dwelt in Naioth (Nayot). 19 And it was told to Saul, saying, "Look, David is in Naioth in Ramah." 20 And Saul sent messengers to take David; and he saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing, set over them; and the Spirit of God was on the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. 21 And they told Saul, and he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. And Saul again sent messengers, a third group, and they also prophesied. 22 And he also went to Ramah, and he came to the great cistern which is in Secu (Sekhu); and he asked and said, "Where are Samuel and David?" And one said, "Look, in Naioth in Ramah." 23 And he went there, to Naioth in Ramah; and the Spirit of God was on him also, and he went on, going and prophesying, until he came to Naioth in Ramah. 24 And he also stripped off his clothes, and he also prophesied before Samuel, and he fell down naked all that day and all the night. Therefore they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

The Covenant of David and Jonathan

1 And David fled from Naioth (Nayot) in Ramah (Rama), and he came and said before Jonathan (Yehonatan), "What have I done? What is my iniquity, and what is my sin before your father, that he is seeking my life?" 2 And he said to him, "Far be it! You shall not die. Look, my father does not do anything great or anything small without uncovering my ear; and why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so." 3 And David swore again, and he said, "Your father certainly knows that I have found favor in your eyes, and he has said, 'Let Jonathan not know this, lest he be grieved.' And yet, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, surely about a step is between me and death." 4 And Jonathan said to David, "Whatever your soul says, I will do for you." 5 And David said to Jonathan, "Look, tomorrow is the new moon, and I, I should surely sit with the king to eat; and you shall let me go, 19:11 Saul sent messengers to the house of David to watch him and to kill him in the morning The heading of Psalm 59 ties that psalm to this night. David cries, "Deliver me from my enemies, my God" (Ps 59:1), and sings that God is "a high refuge for me" (Ps 59:16). If you want to know what David felt, read Psalm 59.

19:12 Michal let David down through the window The house may have been built against the city wall, like Rahab's (Josh 2:15). Paul escaped Damascus the same way, in a basket through a window (2 Cor 11:32-33).

19:13 Michal took the teraphim and put it on the bed Teraphim were household idols (15:23), like those Rachel stole (Gen 31:19). With a goat-hair quilt for hair and a cloak over it, it looked like a man. Why was there an idol in David's house? Scripture does not say. It may have been Michal's. Old pagan habits lingered even in the king's family.

19:15 Bring him up on the bed to me, to kill him Sick or not, Saul wanted him dead.

19:17 Let me go; why should I kill you? Saul now calls David "my enemy." Michal lied to buy time and lied again to protect herself. David had said no such thing. The Bible records her lies but does not praise them. God did not need them to protect David. Her story does not end happily (25:44; 2 Sam 6:16, 23).

19:18 he came to Samuel at Ramah, and he told him all that Saul had done to him Where do you go when your life falls apart? David did not go to raise an army. He went to the old prophet who anointed him, to talk it through with someone who knew God.

19:18 they dwelt in Naioth A place in or near Ramah. The word may mean dwellings, and many think it was where Samuel's company of prophets lived together.

19:20 the Spirit of God was on the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied To prophesy here is to speak or sing praise under the Spirit's power, as the company did (10:5-6). The men came to capture David, and God's Spirit captured them instead. Three groups, and the same each time. God did not need a sword to protect David.

19:23 the Spirit of God was on him also Saul would not learn. The king who came to kill was overcome before he arrived.

19:24 he fell down naked all that day and all the night Naked most likely means stripped of his outer royal robe, as the word sometimes means (Isa 20:2). The proud king lay helpless before Samuel without the robes of his office, while David got away.

19:24 Is Saul also among the prophets? The saying first came when the Spirit came on Saul for good (10:11-12). Now it came in shame, the Spirit stopping him in his tracks. Being overcome by the Spirit for a moment is not being changed by Him. In the next chapter Saul still seeks David's life. No experience, however powerful, replaces repentance and faith.

20:1 What have I done? What is my iniquity David had served Saul faithfully, fought his battles, played for him and married his daughter, and still Saul wanted him dead. Sometimes we suffer when we have done nothing wrong, and the hardest part is not knowing why.

20:2 my father does not do anything great or anything small without uncovering my ear Jonathan had heard his father swear that David would not die (19:6). He did not want to believe the worst. That is a good quality in a son, but here he was wrong.

20:3 surely about a step is between me and death A vivid picture. David felt one step from the grave.

20:4 Whatever your soul says, I will do for you Jonathan stopped arguing and trusted his friend. A real friend takes your fear seriously even when he does not fully understand it.

20:5 tomorrow is the new moon The new moon began each month, marked with special sacrifices and a feast (Num 10:10; 28:11). The king's household ate together, and David was expected.

and I will hide myself in the field until the third evening. 6 If your father misses me at all, then you shall say, 'David earnestly asked leave of me to run to Bethlehem (Bet-Lechem) his city, for the yearly sacrifice is there for all the clan.' 7 If he says thus, 'Good,' there is peace for your servant; but if he certainly burns with anger, know that the evil has been determined by him. 8 And you shall do steadfast love toward your servant, for into a covenant of the LORD you have brought your servant with you. And if there is iniquity in me, put me to death yourself; and to your father, why should you bring me?" 9 And Jonathan said, "Far be it from you! For if I certainly know that the evil has been determined by my father to come on you, would I not tell it to you?" 10 And David said to Jonathan, "Who will tell me, or what if your father answers you harshly?" 11 And Jonathan said to David, "Come, and let us go out to the field." And the two of them went out to the field. 12 And Jonathan said to David, "The LORD, the God of Israel (Yisra'el)! When I sound out my father about this time tomorrow, or the third day, and look, there is good toward David, will I not then send to you and uncover your ear? 13 Thus may the LORD do to Jonathan, and thus may He add! If it pleases my father to bring the evil on you, then I will uncover your ear and send you away, and you shall go in peace. And may the LORD be with you, just as He has been with my father. 14 And will you not, while I am still alive, and will you not do with me the steadfast love of the LORD, that I may not die? 15 And you shall not cut off your steadfast love from my house forever, not even when the LORD cuts off the enemies of David, each one from the face of the ground." 16 And Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, and the LORD shall require it from the hand of the enemies of David. 17 And Jonathan again made David swear by his love for him, for with the love of his own soul he loved him. 18 And Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon, and you will be missed, for your seat will be empty. 19 And on the third day you shall go down quickly, and you shall come to the place where you hid yourself on the day of the deed, and you shall stay beside the stone Ezel. 20 And I, I will shoot three arrows to its side, as though sending them for myself to a target. 21 And look, I will send the lad, saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I say clearly to the lad, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you, take it,' then come, for there is peace for you and there is nothing wrong, as the LORD lives. 22 And if I say thus to the young man, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you,' go, for the LORD has sent you away. 23 And the matter which we have spoken, I and you, look, the LORD is between me and you forever."

Saul's Rage at the New Moon

24 And David hid himself in the field. And it was the new moon, and the king sat down at the food to eat. 25 And the king sat on his seat as time by time, on the seat by the wall; and Jonathan arose, and Abner (Avner) sat at the side of Saul (Shaul), and the place of David was empty. 26 And Saul did not speak anything on that day, for he said, "It is a chance event; he is not clean; surely he is not clean." 27 And it was, on the day after the new moon, the second day, and the place of David was empty. And Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why has the son of Jesse (Yishay) not come, both yesterday and today, to the food?" 28 And Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem. 29 And he said, 'Please let me go, for a sacrifice of the clan is ours in the city, and my brother, he has commanded me; and now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me get away and see my brothers.' Therefore he has not come to the table of the 20:6 the yearly sacrifice is there for all the clan Was the excuse true? Scripture does not say whether David went to Bethlehem. Families did hold such sacrifices, but David may have been asking Jonathan to cover for him. The Bible records it without praising it. David was a man after God's heart but not a perfect man, and soon he will lie outright when afraid (21:2, 13).

20:8 you shall do steadfast love toward your servant, for into a covenant of the LORD you have brought your servant Steadfast love is hesed, loyal love that keeps its promises, one of the great words of the Old Testament for God's covenant love. The covenant (18:3) was made before God. If I have truly done wrong, David said, I would rather die by your hand.
20:11 let us go out to the field Where they could not be overheard. Friends who face danger together need a safe place to talk.
20:13 may the LORD be with you, just as He has been with my father A common oath form: may God punish me, and more, if I fail. Jonathan understood. The LORD had once been with Saul, and now He was with David. Jonathan knew David would be king and was at peace with it.
20:14 do with me the steadfast love of the LORD, that I may not die When a new family took the throne, the new king often killed the old king's sons (1 Kgs 15:29). Jonathan asked for God's own kind of faithful kindness.
20:15 you shall not cut off your steadfast love from my house forever Jonathan asked David to protect his children after he was gone. David kept it. As king he asked, "Is there still anyone who is left of the house of Saul" (2 Sam 9:1), and he seated lame Mephibosheth at his table. Mephibosheth earned nothing. He was welcomed because of a covenant made with someone else. That is how we come to God's table, through His covenant in Christ.
20:16 Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David The covenant now reached beyond the two men to their families.
20:20 I will shoot three arrows to its side Words plain enough for the boy to hear without suspicion, yet telling David everything. The stone Ezel was a landmark in the field.
20:22 go, for the LORD has sent you away Even if David must run, it would be under God's hand. Jonathan saw God in both outcomes.
20:23 the LORD is between me and you forever God was the witness of their covenant. A friendship with God at its center is the strongest kind there is.
20:25 the place of David was empty Saul sat by the wall, his back protected, with Abner beside him. The scene is full of tension.
20:26 he is not clean; surely he is not clean A man ceremonially unclean, as from touching a dead body, could not eat a sacred meal until he was clean, usually at evening (Lev 7:20-21; 15:16). Saul assumed something like that.
20:27 Why has the son of Jesse not come Not David, not my son-in-law, but "the son of Jesse," a put-down, as if to say, that nobody from Bethlehem.

king." 30 And the anger of Saul burned against Jonathan, and he said to him, "Son of a perverse woman of rebelliousness! Do I not know that you are choosing the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of the nakedness of your mother? 31 For all the days that the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you and your kingdom will not be established. And now, send and take him to me, for he is a son of death." 32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and he said to him, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?" 33 And Saul hurled the spear at him to strike him; and Jonathan knew that it had been determined by his father to kill David. 34 And Jonathan arose from the table in burning anger, and he did not eat food on the second day of the new moon, for he was grieved for David, because his father had put him to shame.

The Arrows and the Farewell

35 And it was in the morning, and Jonathan went out to the field at the appointed time with David, and a small lad was with him. 36 And he said to his lad, "Run, please find the arrows which I am shooting." The lad ran, and he shot the arrow to make it pass beyond him. 37 And the lad came to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, and Jonathan called out after the lad, and he said, "Is not the arrow beyond you?" 38 And Jonathan called out after the lad, "Quickly! Hurry! Do not stand still!" And the lad of Jonathan gathered the arrows, and he came to his master. 39 And the lad did not know anything; only Jonathan and David knew the matter. 40 And Jonathan gave his weapons to the lad who was his, and he said to him, "Go, bring them to the city."

41 The lad went, and David arose from beside the south, and he fell on his face to the earth and bowed down three times. And they kissed, each his friend, and they wept, each with his friend, until David made his weeping great. 42 And Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, since we have sworn, the two of us, in the name of the LORD, saying, 'The LORD will be between me and you, and between my seed and your seed, forever.'" And he arose and went; and Jonathan went into the city.

1 And David came to Nob (Nov), to Ahimelech (Achimelekh) the priest; and Ahimelech trembled to meet David, and he said to him, "Why are you alone, and no man is with you?" 2 And David said to Ahimelech the priest, "The king commanded me a matter, and he said to me, 'Let no man know anything of the matter on which I am sending you and which I have commanded you.' And the young men I have directed to such and such a place. 3 And now, what is under your hand? Give five loaves of bread into my hand, or whatever is found." 4 And the priest answered David, and he said, "There is no common bread under my hand, but there is holy bread, if only the young men have kept themselves from a woman." 5 And David answered the priest, and he said to him, "Surely a woman has been withheld from us as yesterday and the day before, when I went out; and the vessels of the young men were holy, and it is a common journey; and how much more

20:30 Son of a perverse woman of rebelliousness! A vulgar insult meant to wound, aimed at Jonathan and even his mother in front of everyone.
20:31 you and your kingdom will not be established What was really in Saul's heart. He feared for his dynasty. He knew David was God's chosen man but would not accept it. A son of death is a man marked to die. There was no more pretending.
20:32 Why should he be put to death? What has he done? The same question David asked (20:1). It is the right question. David had done nothing to deserve death.
20:33 Saul hurled the spear at him to strike him Saul tried to kill his own son. Jealousy left unchecked will attack anyone in its way, even those we love most.
20:34 he was grieved for David, because his father had put him to shame His anger was right, and look what it was about. Not the insult to himself or his lost throne. He grieved for his friend.
20:38 Quickly! Hurry! Do not stand still! Spoken to the boy, but meant for David too. There was no time to waste.
20:41 they kissed, each his friend, and they wept, each with his friend David bowed three times, honoring the king's son even now. Men greeted and parted with a kiss on the cheek, as many still do in the Middle East (Gen 33:4; Acts 20:37). They would meet only once more (23:16-18). There is no shame in a man weeping over a friend. Jesus wept at Lazarus's tomb (John 11:35).
20:42 The LORD will be between me and you, and between my seed and your seed, forever David went into years of exile, Jonathan back to his father. Jonathan stayed loyal to both and betrayed neither, and he died fighting beside his father (31:2). David's lament says his love was "more than the love of women" (2 Sam 1:26), meaning loyal, self-giving friendship rarer than anything he had known. Jesus calls us friends and laid down His life for us (John 15:13-15).
21:1 David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest After Shiloh was destroyed (Jer 7:12), the priests were at Nob, just north of Jerusalem, "the city of the priests" (22:19). The text does not say when they moved. Ahimelech was Eli's great-grandson, son of Ahitub (22:9), and probably the Ahijah of 14:3, since the names mean much the same. He trembled because the king's famous son-in-law came alone and unexpected. Something was wrong.
21:2 The king commanded me a matter This was a lie. Saul had sent David nowhere. He was trying to kill him. There may have been a few men with David (Mark 2:25), but there was no mission. The lie protected no one. It cost Ahimelech his life, and David admitted it (22:22). The Bible does not hide its heroes' sins. We should not copy his lie but learn from what it cost.
21:4 There is no common bread under my hand, but there is holy bread Common bread was ordinary bread anyone could eat. Every Sabbath twelve fresh loaves, one for each tribe, were set before the LORD in the holy place, and the old ones were eaten by the priests (Lev 24:5-9). It was a sign that God's people lived in His presence and He fed them.
21:5 the vessels of the young men were holy A man who had relations with his wife was ceremonially unclean until evening (Lev 15:18), and soldiers on a holy mission kept themselves apart (Deut 23:9-11; 2 Sam 11:11). Vessels means their bodies or gear were ceremonially clean.

today will it be holy in the vessel." 6 And the priest gave him holy bread, for there was no bread there except the bread of the presence which was removed from before the LORD, to put hot bread in its place on the day it was taken away. 7 And there was a man of the servants of Saul (Shaul) on that day, detained before the LORD, and his name was Doeg the Edomite, the mighty one of the shepherds who belonged to Saul. 8 And David said to Ahimelech, "And is there not here under your hand a spear or a sword? For neither my sword nor my weapons have I taken in my hand, because the matter of the king was urgent." 9 And the priest said, "The sword of Goliath (Golyat) the Philistine, whom you struck in the valley of Elah, look, it is wrapped in the cloak behind the ephod. If you will take it for yourself, take it, for there is no other except it here." And David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."

David at Gath

10 And David arose and fled on that day from before Saul, and he came to Achish (Akhish) the king of Gath (Gat). 11 And the servants of Achish said to him, "Is this not David the king of the land? Is it not of this one that they sing in the dances, saying, 'Saul has struck his thousands, and David his ten thousands'?" 12 And David put these words in his heart, and he was exceedingly afraid of Achish the king of Gath. 13 And he changed his discernment in their eyes, and he acted like a madman in their hand, and he made marks on the doors of the gate, and he let his spittle run down on his beard. 14 And Achish said to his servants, "Look, you see a man acting like a madman. Why do you bring him to me? 15 Am I lacking madmen, that you have brought this one to act like a madman before me? Shall this one come into my house?"

The Cave of Adullam

1 And David went from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam (Adulam); and his brothers and all the house of his father heard, and they went down to him there. 2 And every man in distress and every man who had a creditor and every man bitter of soul gathered to him, and he became commander over them; and there were with him about four hundred men. 3 And David went from there to Mizpeh (Mitspe) of Moab (Mo'av), and he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and my mother go out to be with you until I know what God will do for me." 4 And he led them before the king of Moab, and they dwelt with him all the days David was in the stronghold. 5 And Gad the prophet said to David, "Do not remain in the stronghold; go, and you shall come for yourself

21:6 the priest gave him holy bread The loaves had just been replaced with hot bread, so it was a Sabbath (Lev 24:8). Was it right? Jesus pointed to David "when he had need and was hungry" (Mark 2:25) and said, "The Sabbath was made for the sake of man, not man for the sake of the Sabbath" (Mark 2:27). Meeting real need fits the heart of the law. "I desire mercy and not sacrifice" (Matt 12:7), the truth Samuel told Saul (15:22). Jesus pointed to David's need and the priest's mercy, not David's lie.
21:6 the bread of the presence Mark speaks of "Abiathar the high priest" (Mark 2:26), though Ahimelech was priest here. Abiathar was his son and was there (22:20). The Greek can mean in the passage about Abiathar (compare Mark 12:26). Abiathar was also the better-known high priest of that time, and the two names seem to be used for each other elsewhere (2 Sam 8:17; 1 Chr 24:6). Any of these is reasonable, and none means Jesus erred.
21:7 his name was Doeg the Edomite, the mighty one of the shepherds who belonged to Saul Detained before the LORD probably means kept at the tabernacle for a vow, purification or Sabbath rule. An Edomite descended from Esau. The writer drops this in like a warning bell. Someone was watching, and David saw him too (22:22).
21:8 the matter of the king was urgent Part of the same lie. David was unarmed.
21:9 There is none like it; give it to me Goliath's sword was kept behind the ephod, the high priest's garment with the Urim and Thummim (Exod 28:6, 30), as a memorial of what God had done. Every look at it would remind David of the giant. But the youth who said the LORD does not save by sword (17:47) now felt he needed one. Fear had crept in.
21:10 he came to Achish the king of Gath Goliath's hometown, and David carried the giant's sword. Perhaps he thought Saul would never look there, or that Saul's enemy would be welcome. Fear does not always think clearly.
21:11 Is this not David the king of the land? Perhaps a title for a famous leader, or word had spread that he would be king. They knew the song (18:7). To them David was the man who killed thousands of their people. He realized he had walked into a trap.
21:13 he let his spittle run down on his beard A man's beard was a sign of dignity, so drooling into it was deep shame. Some think people then also feared to harm a man who seemed mad. It worked. The man who faced Goliath in calm faith was drooling to save his life. He had taken his eyes off the LORD, and fear filled the space.
21:15 Am I lacking madmen Achish wanted no madman in his house and let David go. God did not leave him. Psalm 56 comes from this time: "In the day I fear, I will trust in You" (Ps 56:3). Psalm 34's heading names "Abimelech," likely a royal title for the Philistine king, and says, "from all my fears He rescued me" (Ps 34:4). "Taste and see that the LORD is good" (Ps 34:8) was written by a man just back from Gath. When fear wins, go back to the LORD, confess and trust Him again.
22:1 David went from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam Adullam was in the low hills of Judah, about halfway between Gath and Bethlehem, a region full of caves. Psalm 142 is headed "when he was in the cave" (Ps 142:0), and Psalm 57 also comes from a cave. His family was no longer safe either, and the brothers who once looked down on him (17:28) now came to him.
22:2 every man in distress and every man who had a creditor and every man bitter of soul gathered to him A creditor is someone you owe money. Men in trouble, in debt and bitter at life, not an impressive army. Yet God gave David a people to shepherd, and from them came his mighty men (2 Sam 23:8-39). God often builds His work from broken people (1 Cor 1:26-27). Jesus gathered tax collectors, fishermen and sinners and made them His own.
22:3 until I know what God will do for me Moab was east of the Dead Sea. David's great-grandmother Ruth was a Moabite (Ruth 4:13, 17), and Moab was Saul's enemy (14:47). David cared for his aging parents while running for his life. Honoring father and mother does not stop when life gets hard. He did not know the plan, but he knew God had one.
22:4 all the days David was in the stronghold The stronghold may have been the cave of Adullam or a fortress in Moab.
22:5 Do not remain in the stronghold; go, and you shall come for yourself into the land of Judah Our first meeting with Gad, who stayed with David all his life and helped record his reign (2 Sam 24:11; 1 Chr 29:29). David was to be king of Israel, not a refugee in Moab, so his place was among his people, though dangerous. God does not always lead us to the safest place. He leads us to the right place. David obeyed.

into the land of Judah (Yehuda)." And David went and came into the forest of Hereth (Cheret).

Saul Kills the Priests of Nob

6 And Saul (Shaul) heard that David and the men who were with him were known; and Saul was sitting in Gibeah (Giva) under the tamarisk at the high place, and his spear was in his hand, and all his servants were stationed by him. 7 And Saul said to his servants who were stationed by him, "Listen, please, Benjaminites! Will the son of Jesse (Yishay) also give to all of you fields and vineyards? Will he appoint all of you commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, 8 that all of you have conspired against me, and there is no one uncovering my ear when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you pained for me or uncovering my ear that my son has stirred up my servant against me as one lying in wait, as at this day?" 9 And Doeg the Edomite answered, and he was stationed over the servants of Saul, and he said, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob (Nov), to Ahimelech (Achimelekh) the son of Ahitub (Achituv). 10 And he inquired of the LORD for him, and he gave him provisions, and the sword of Goliath (Golyat) the Philistine he gave to him." 11 And the king sent to summon Ahimelech the son of Ahitub the priest, and all the house of his father, the priests who were in Nob; and all of them came to the king. 12 And Saul said, "Listen, please, son of Ahitub." And he said, "Here I am, my lord." 13 And Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in your giving him bread and a sword, and inquiring of God for him, to rise up against me as one lying in wait, as at this day?" 14 And Ahimelech answered the king, and he said, "And who among all your servants is like David, faithful, and son-in-law of the king, and turning aside to your bodyguard, and honored in your house? 15 Did I begin today to inquire of God for him? Far be it from me! Let the king not put anything against his servant, against all the house of my father, for your servant did not know anything of all this, small or great." 16 And the king said, "You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all the house of your father." 17 And the king said to the runners who were stationed by him, "Turn around and put to death the priests of the LORD, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he was fleeing and did not uncover my ear." And the servants of the king were not willing to stretch out their hand to fall on the priests of the LORD. 18 And the king said to Doeg, "You, turn around and fall on the priests." And Doeg the Edomite turned around, and he, he fell on the priests, and he killed on that day eighty-five men carrying a linen ephod. 19 And Nob, the city of the priests, he struck by the mouth of the sword, from man to woman, from child to nursing infant, and ox and donkey and sheep, by the mouth of the sword. 20 And one son of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub escaped, and his name was Abiathar (Evyatar), and he fled after David. 21 And Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD. 22 And David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day,

22:6 Saul was sitting in Gibeah under the tamarisk at the high place, and his spear was in his hand A tamarisk is a desert tree with feathery branches. David was gathering men in a cave. Saul sat under a tree, spear in hand, full of suspicion.

22:7 Will the son of Jesse also give to all of you fields and vineyards? Saul appealed to his own tribe. I am a Benjaminite and have rewarded you. Will a man of Judah do the same? Samuel warned that a king would take fields and give them to his servants (8:14), and Saul had.

22:8 all of you have conspired against me Saul accused everyone, even Jonathan. David was not lying in wait for Saul. He was hiding from him. A jealous, fearful heart sees enemies everywhere.

22:10 he inquired of the LORD for him Some of Doeg's report was true, the bread and the sword. Chapter 21 does not mention inquiring, though Ahimelech's answer suggests he had done it before (22:15). But Doeg left out that David lied and the priest thought he was on the king's business. True facts arranged to make an innocent man look guilty. Psalm 52 asks, "Why do you boast in evil, O mighty man?" (Ps 52:1).

22:12 Listen, please, son of Ahitub Saul did not even call him by name. The priests had come because they had nothing to fear. The trial was a show. Saul had already decided.

22:14 who among all your servants is like David, faithful An honest and brave answer. David was the king's son-in-law and captain of his guard. Why would a priest think him the king's enemy?

22:15 your servant did not know anything of all this, small or great Ahimelech had helped David before as the king's officer. He told the truth. He did not know.

22:16 You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and all the house of your father Saul weighed nothing and listened to nothing. He sentenced a whole family of priests to death.

22:17 the servants of the king were not willing to stretch out their hand to fall on the priests of the LORD Saul knew whom they served and still gave the order. His own guards refused. They feared God more than the king. Some orders must not be obeyed, even from a king (Acts 5:29).

22:18 he killed on that day eighty-five men carrying a linen ephod So Saul turned to the foreign informer who had no fear of God. The linen ephod was the simple garment ordinary priests wore (2:18). These were men dressed for God's service, and they were murdered.

22:19 from man to woman, from child to nursing infant, and ox and donkey and sheep Terrible to read, and it should be. Almost the same words God used of Amalek (15:3). Saul spared the guilty nation God judged and now poured out his fury on God's innocent priests. A hardened heart becomes merciful where God calls for justice and cruel where He calls for mercy. This was not God's command. It was murder, and Saul and Doeg bear the guilt.

22:19 Nob, the city of the priests Why did God allow it? Scripture does not give all His reasons. God had warned Eli that his family would be cut off, so "there will not be an old man in your house" (2:31), and Ahimelech was Eli's great-grandson (1 Kgs 2:27). That does not mean the victims deserved it. God can work through wicked men's sins to fulfill His word without approving them, as at the cross (Acts 2:23). If you have suffered injustice, God sees, and every wrong will be made right (Rev 21:4).

22:20 his name was Abiathar, and he fled after David God spared one. Abiathar brought the ephod (23:6), so David now had a priest and a way to seek God's will, while Saul had murdered his own priests. Saul cut himself off from God's guidance with his own hand.

22:22 I, I have caused the death of every soul of the house of your father Some of the most honest words David ever spoke. He saw Doeg at Nob and drew Ahimelech in by a lie. When Saul was confronted, he blamed the people (15:15, 21). David owned it. That does not undo the harm, but it is the beginning of a right heart before God.

because Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I, I have caused the death of every soul of the house of your father. 23 Stay with me; do not be afraid; for he who seeks my life seeks your life; for you are in safekeeping with me."

David Rescues Keilah

1 And they told David, saying, "Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah (Qe'ila), and they are plundering the threshing floors." 2 And David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go, and shall I strike these Philistines?" And the LORD said to David, "Go, and you shall strike the Philistines, and you shall deliver Keilah." 3 And the men of David said to him, "Look, we here in Judah (Yehuda) are afraid; and how much more if we go to Keilah against the battle lines of the Philistines?" 4 And David once again inquired of the LORD, and the LORD answered him and said, "Arise, go down to Keilah, for I am giving the Philistines into your hand." 5 And David and his men went to Keilah, and he fought against the Philistines, and he drove away their livestock, and he struck them with a great blow; and David delivered the inhabitants of Keilah. 6 And it was, when Abiathar (Evyatar) the son of Ahimelech (Achimelekh) fled to David at Keilah, an ephod came down in his hand. 7 And it was told to Saul (Shaul) that David had come to Keilah. And Saul said, "God has given him over into my hand, for he has shut himself in by entering a city of doors and bar." 8 And Saul summoned all the people to battle, to go down to Keilah, to lay siege against David and against his men. 9 And David knew that Saul was plotting the evil against him, and he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod near." 10 And David said, "O LORD, God of Israel (Yisra'el), Your servant has certainly heard that Saul is seeking to come to Keilah to destroy the city because of me. 11 Will the citizens of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down just as Your servant has heard? O LORD, God of Israel, please tell Your servant." And the LORD said, "He will come down." 12 And David said, "Will the citizens of Keilah deliver me and my men up into the hand of Saul?" And the LORD said, "They will deliver you up." 13 And David and his men, about six hundred men, arose, and they went out from Keilah, and they went about wherever they went about. And to Saul it was told that David had escaped from Keilah, and he ceased to go out. 14 And David dwelt in the wilderness in the strongholds, and he dwelt in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph (Zif). And Saul sought him all the days, and God did not give him into his hand.

Jonathan Strengthens David

15 And David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life; and David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Horesh (Choresh). 16 And Jonathan (Yehonatan) the son of Saul arose and went to David at Horesh, and he strengthened his hand in God. 17 And he said to him, "Do not be afraid, for the hand of Saul my father will not find you; and you, you will reign over Israel, and I, I will be second to you; and also Saul my father knows it is so." 18 And the two of them made a covenant

22:23 you are in safekeeping with me David could not bring back Abiathar's family, but he could protect the one who was left, and Abiathar stayed with him all his life. Jesus says something like it to all who come to Him: "no one will snatch them out of My hand" (John 10:28).
23:1 they are plundering the threshing floors Keilah was a walled town in the low hills of Judah, south of Adullam. A threshing floor was a flat, hard surface where grain was beaten from its husks, so this meant stealing a town's food for the year. Where was King Saul? Busy chasing David. A leader consumed by jealousy neglects the people he is meant to serve.
23:2 David inquired of the LORD David did not rush in. He asked God first, the first of many times in these chapters. Saul often acted first and asked later, or not at all.
23:3 we here in Judah are afraid They were already outlaws hiding from Saul. Now they were to take on the Philistine army too?
23:4 David once again inquired of the LORD He did not scold his men or simply push ahead. He went back to God. It is not wrong to ask again to be sure of His will, as Gideon did (Judg 6:36-40). God was patient with David's men.
23:5 David delivered the inhabitants of Keilah The outlaw did the king's job.
23:6 an ephod came down in his hand The high priest's ephod held the Urim and Thummim, sacred lots that gave God's answer to a yes or no question (Exod 28:30; Num 27:21). Scripture does not describe how they worked. The irony: Saul killed the priests, and now the last priest and the ephod were with David. Later God would not answer Saul "by Urim" (28:6).
23:7 God has given him over into my hand A city of doors and bar is a walled town with gates. Saul talked as if God were on his side while hunting God's chosen man. It is dangerous to claim God's blessing on our sin. He would call out the army against David, though he had not come to save Keilah from the Philistines.
23:11 Will the citizens of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? After all David had done, they would hand him over to save their own skins. They had seen what Saul did to Nob. Perhaps they were afraid, but it was still ingratitude.
23:12 They will deliver you up Saul did not come, and Keilah did not betray David, because David left. Yet God knew what they would have done. His knowledge is perfect. He knows every path we could take and where each leads (Ps 139:1-4). That is why it is so wise to ask Him before we choose.
23:13 about six hundred men David's band had grown from four hundred (22:2). They kept moving.
23:14 Saul sought him all the days, and God did not give him into his hand The wilderness of Judah is dry, rugged land of cliffs and canyons sloping to the Dead Sea, and Ziph was south of Hebron. This sentence sums up these chapters. Saul had the army and spies. David had six hundred men and caves. When God has a plan for your life, no enemy can cut it short.
23:16 he strengthened his hand in God One of the most beautiful verses in the book. Jonathan risked his life and his father's anger to find his friend, and he did not only cheer David up. He pointed him back to the LORD. That is the best a friend can do in a hard time. Who does that for you, and for whom can you do it?
23:17 you, you will reign over Israel, and I, I will be second to you Jonathan knew God's plan and accepted it with joy. And Saul knew it too (20:31; 24:20). He was fighting what he knew to be God's will.
23:18 the two of them made a covenant before the LORD They renewed their covenant (18:3; 20:16-17). This was the last time they saw each other. Jonathan's hope of being second would not come true in this life (31:2). "The two are better than the one" (Eccl 4:9), for when one falls the other lifts him up.

before the LORD; and David remained at Horesh, and Jonathan went to his house.

The Ziphites Betray David

19 And the Ziphites went up to Saul to Gibeah (Giva), saying, "Is not David hiding himself with us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah (Chakhila), which is on the south of the Jeshimon (Yeshimon)? 20 And now, according to all the desire of your soul, O king, to come down, come down; and ours is to deliver him up into the hand of the king." 21 And Saul said, "Blessed are you by the LORD, for you have had compassion on me. 22 Go, please, make it certain still more, and know and see his place where his foot is, and who has seen him there; for one has said to me, 'He is very crafty.' 23 And see and know from all the hiding places where he hides himself, and return to me with what is certain, and I will go with you; and it shall be, if he is in the land, then I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah." 24 And they arose and went to Ziph before Saul. And David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon in the Arabah (Arava), on the south of the Jeshimon. 25 And Saul and his men went to seek him; and they told David, and he went down to the rock and remained in the wilderness of Maon. And Saul heard, and he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon. 26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men were on that side of the mountain. And David was hurrying to go away from before Saul, and Saul and his men were surrounding David and his men to seize them. 27 And a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Hurry and come, for the Philistines have made a raid on the land." 28 And Saul turned back from pursuing after David, and he went to meet the Philistines. Therefore they called that place Sela-hammahlekoth (Sela-Hammachleqot). 29 And David went up from there, and he dwelt in the strongholds of Engedi.

David Spares Saul in the Cave

And David arose, and he cut off the skirt of the robe which belonged to Saul in secret. 5 And it was afterward, and the heart of David struck him because he had cut off the skirt which belonged to Saul. 6 And he said to his men, "Far be it for me from the LORD that I should do this thing to my lord, to the anointed of the LORD, to stretch out my hand against him, for he is the anointed of the LORD." 7 And David rebuked his men with the words, and he did not permit them to rise up against Saul. And Saul arose from the cave, and he

24:7 Ps 7:4; Matt 5:44; Rom 12:17-21

23:19 the Ziphites went up to Saul to Gibeah Men of David's own tribe betrayed him. The Jeshimon was the barren wasteland of the Judean desert. Psalm 54 is headed "when the Ziphites came and said to Saul" (Ps 54:0), and David says, "Look, God is my helper" (Ps 54:4). When his own people betrayed him, he turned to God.
23:21 Blessed are you by the LORD, for you have had compassion on me A twisted thing to say. Saul called the LORD's blessing on men for helping him hunt an innocent man, and he pitied himself. Self-pity and jealousy often go together.
23:23 I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah Saul would hunt David clan by clan.
23:26 Saul and his men were surrounding David and his men to seize them Maon was south of Ziph. The chase came down to one mountain, Saul's men circling both ends to close the trap. It looked like the end.
23:27 the Philistines have made a raid on the land At the last moment God stepped in, using the Philistines, Israel's enemies, to pull Saul away. The people Saul failed to fight at Keilah now forced him to stop chasing David.
23:28 they called that place Sela-hammahlekoth Rock of Escape, and perhaps also rock of separation, where Saul and David were parted. God's timing is perfect, even when it seems late. Have you felt surrounded with no way out? He may not deliver you as early as you want, but He is never too late.
23:29 he dwelt in the strongholds of Engedi An oasis on the western shore of the Dead Sea, with a spring and waterfalls in the desert and cliffs full of caves. It is still there today.
24:1 Look, David is in the wilderness of Engedi As soon as Saul was done with the Philistines, he was back to hunting David.
24:2 the Rocks of the Mountain Goats Three thousand chosen men against six hundred. Wild goats, the ibex, still climb the cliffs around Engedi today. The name tells how steep the country was.
24:3 Saul went in to cover his feet Shepherds used cave mouths as sheepfolds with low stone walls. To cover the feet is a polite way of saying he went in to relieve himself (Judg 3:24). From the dark back of the cave, David's men could see Saul against the light, and he could see nothing. Of all the caves in that wilderness, Saul walked into this one. God arranged the moment as a test.
24:4 Look, I am giving your enemy into your hand The Bible records no word of God in those terms. Perhaps the men put their own spin on God's promise that David would be king, though some think there was an unrecorded word. It is easy to hear what we want and call it God's voice. An open door is not always God's will.
24:4 he cut off the skirt of the robe which belonged to Saul in secret The skirt is the hem or edge. Saul once tore Samuel's hem, and Samuel said the kingdom was torn from him (15:27-28). Now David held a piece of Saul's robe. The kingdom was passing to David, but he would not grab it. Many also note that a robe's hem could stand for a man's authority.
24:5 the heart of David struck him Only a piece of cloth, but an act against the king's honor, a small step toward the very thing he refused to do. A tender conscience does not wait for something big to feel guilty.
24:6 to stretch out my hand against him, for he is the anointed of the LORD The heart of the chapter. Saul was wicked and rejected, and David still called him "my lord." God put Saul on the throne, and only God had the right to remove him. David had God's promise of the throne but would not take it by murder, as pagan kings did. He waited for God's way and time.
24:7 he did not permit them to rise up against Saul It took real leadership to hold back six hundred angry men from killing the man hunting them. Saul never knew how close he had come.

went on the way. 8 And David arose afterward, and he went out from the cave, and he called out after Saul, saying, "My lord the king!" And Saul looked behind him, and David bowed low, face toward the ground, and he bowed down. 9 And David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to the words of men, saying, 'Look, David is seeking your harm'? 10 Look, this day your eyes have seen that the LORD gave you today into my hand in the cave; and one said to kill you, and my eye had pity on you; and I said, 'I will not stretch out my hand against my lord, for he is the anointed of the LORD.' 11 And my father, see, yes, see the skirt of your robe in my hand; for in my cutting off the skirt of your robe and not killing you, know and see that there is not evil or transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against you; and you are lying in wait for my life to take it. 12 May the LORD judge between me and you, and the LORD will avenge me on you; and my hand shall not be against you. 13 Just as the proverb of the ancients says, 'From wicked ones comes forth wickedness'; and my hand shall not be against you. 14 After whom has the king of Israel come out? After whom are you pursuing? After a dead dog, after one flea! 15 And the LORD shall be judge, and He shall judge between me and you; and may He see, and may He plead my case, and may He vindicate me from your hand."

Saul Admits David Will Reign

16 And it was, when David finished speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And Saul lifted up his voice, and he wept. 17 And he said to David, "You are more righteous than I, for you, you have dealt good to me, and I, I have dealt evil to you. 18 And you, you have told today that you have done good with me, that the LORD delivered me up into your hand, and you did not kill me. 19 And if a man finds his enemy, will he send him away on a good way? And may the LORD repay you good in return for this day, for that which you have done to me. 20 And now, look, I know that you will certainly reign, and the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand. 21 And now, swear to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my offspring after me, and that you will not destroy my name from the house of my father." 22 And David swore to Saul. And Saul went to his house, and David and his men went up to the stronghold.

24:8 David bowed low, face toward the ground A risky move with three thousand men nearby, but David wanted Saul to know the truth. He bowed before the man who wanted him dead. That is humility and respect for God's order.
24:9 Why do you listen to the words of men David gave Saul a way to save face by blaming advisers who had poisoned his mind, men like Doeg.
24:11 my father, see, yes, see the skirt of your robe in my hand Saul was his father-in-law, and David still honored him as a son. The cloth said it all: if I wanted you dead, you would be dead. And he spoke plainly. Saul, not David, was lying in wait.
24:12 the LORD will avenge me on you; and my hand shall not be against you David did not say Saul's wrongs did not matter. God would deal with them. That is the difference between giving up and giving it to God. "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay" (Rom 12:19). When Jesus suffered, "He did not threaten, but He kept handing Himself over to the One who judges justly" (1 Pet 2:23).
24:13 From wicked ones comes forth wickedness An old saying. If I were wicked, I would have killed you. Judge for yourself what is in my heart.
24:14 After a dead dog, after one flea! A dead dog was the lowest thing a man could call himself (2 Sam 9:8), and one flea is not worth chasing. Humble, and a gentle rebuke too.
24:15 may He plead my case, and may He vindicate me from your hand God would be both judge and defender. When someone wrongs you, God does not ask you to call evil good, only not to take revenge. And David did not stay where Saul could kill him. He ran. Refusing revenge does not mean staying where you will be hurt. If someone is in danger, it is right to get to safety and go to the proper authorities (Rom 13:1-4).
24:16 Is this your voice, my son David? Saul could hardly believe it. For a moment the old Saul was touched, and he wept.
24:17 You are more righteous than I True, and Saul said it. David did what almost no one does. He repaid evil with good. "Overcome the evil with the good" (Rom 12:21).
24:20 I know that you will certainly reign Saul said aloud what he had long known (20:31; 23:17).
24:21 swear to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my offspring after me The same thing Jonathan asked (20:14-15). Saul knew what new kings usually did to the old king's family. David kept this oath too (2 Sam 9; 21:7).
24:22 David and his men went up to the stronghold David did not go home with Saul. Saul had wept and promised before (19:6), and two chapters later he will hunt David again. David forgave Saul but did not trust him. We can forgive fully and still be careful not to put ourselves back in harm's way. When we are tempted to take what God promised by our own methods, or pay back those who hurt us, the answer is still, "the LORD shall be judge" (24:15).
25:1 Samuel died, and all Israel gathered together, and they mourned for him Samuel served the LORD from childhood (3:19-20), the last judge, a great prophet and a man of prayer who anointed both Saul and David. The man who said he would not sin "by ceasing to pray for you" (12:23) was gone. For David, who first ran to him (19:18), it was a heavy loss. But God was still with him.
25:1 he went down to the wilderness of Paran A large wilderness far to the south. Some Greek copies read Maon, which fits the rest of the chapter. Either way, David moved south.
25:2 he was shearing his sheep in Carmel The Carmel in southern Judah where Saul set up his monument (15:12). Sheep-shearing was a time of feasting, a shepherds' harvest festival, when people were expected to be generous (2 Sam 13:23-24).

when he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. 3 And the name of the man was Nabal (Naval), and the name of his wife was Abigail (Avigayil). And the woman was good of insight and beautiful of appearance; and the man was hard and evil of deeds, and he was a Calebite. 4 And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. 5 And David sent ten young men, and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and ask him in my name about his welfare. 6 And you shall say thus: 'To life! And peace to you, and peace to your house, and peace to all that is yours. 7 And now I have heard that you have shearers. Now the shepherds who belong to you have been with us; we did not humiliate them, and nothing was missing to them all the days they were in Carmel. 8 Ask your young men, and they will tell you. And let the young men find favor in your eyes, for we have come on a good day. Please give whatever your hand finds to your servants and to your son, to David.'" 9 And the young men of David came, and they spoke to Nabal according to all these words in the name of David, and they waited. 10 And Nabal answered the servants of David, and he said, "Who is David, and who is the son of Jesse (Yishay)? Today the servants who break away, each from before his master, are many. 11 And shall I take my bread and my water and my slaughtered meat that I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men whom I do not know where they are from?" 12 And the young men of David turned around to their way, and they returned, and they came, and they told him according to all these words. 13 And David said to his men, "Gird on each man his sword." And they girded on each man his sword, and David also girded on his sword. And about four hundred men went up after David, and two hundred remained with the baggage. 14 And one young man of the young men told Abigail, the wife of Nabal, saying, "Look, David sent messengers from the wilderness to bless our master, and he railed at them. 15 And the men were very good to us, and we were not humiliated, and we did not miss anything all the days we went about with them, when we were in the field. 16 A wall they were around us both night and day, all the days we were with them shepherding the flock. 17 And now, know and see what you will do, for the evil has been determined against our master and against all his household; and he is a son of worthlessness, past speaking to."

Abigail Turns David Back

18 And Abigail made haste, and she took two hundred loaves of bread and two jars of wine and five prepared sheep and approximately 35 quarts (five seahs) of roasted grain and a hundred clusters of raisins and two hundred cakes of figs, and she put them on the donkeys. 19 And she said to her servants, "Pass on before me; look, I am coming after you." And she did not tell her husband Nabal. 20 And it was, she was riding on the donkey and going down in the cover of the mountain, and look, David and his men were going down to meet her; and she met them. 21 And David had said, "Surely in vain I have guarded all that this man has in the wilderness, and nothing of all that belongs to him was missing; and he has returned to me evil in place of good. 22 Thus may God do to the enemies of David, and thus may He add, if I leave of all that belongs to him until the morning one who urinates against a wall." 23 And Abigail saw David, and she made haste, and she came down from the donkey, and she fell before the face of David on her face, and she bowed down to the ground. 24 And she fell at his feet, and she said, "On me,

25:3 the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife was Abigail Nabal means fool, not one who lacks brains but one who lives as if God does not matter. "A fool has said in his heart, There is no God" (Ps 14:1). Abigail had insight. Nabal was hard and evil. And he was a Calebite, a descendant of faithful Caleb (Num 14:24), with none of Caleb's faith.
25:7 we did not humiliate them, and nothing was missing to them In that wild country raiders and wild animals were a constant danger. David's men were a wall around Nabal's flocks and never took a sheep for themselves.
25:8 to your servants and to your son, to David David asked humbly on a feast day. He called himself Nabal's son, a term of respect, and left the amount to Nabal.
25:10 Who is David, and who is the son of Jesse? Everyone in Israel knew David. Nabal pretended not to, as an insult, and called him a runaway slave.
25:11 shall I take my bread and my water and my slaughtered meat My bread, my water, my meat, my shearers. Nabal saw everything as his and thanked God for none of it. Jesus told of a rich man like this, to whom God said, "Fool! This night they are demanding your soul from you" (Luke 12:20).
25:13 Gird on each man his sword David did not pray, inquire of the LORD as at Keilah (23:2, 4) or wait. In the cave he was calm, thinking of the LORD. Here he was angry, thinking of his honor. Saul had wronged him far more, but a small insult on a bad day can do more to us than a great wrong. "Be angry, and do not sin" (Eph 4:26). David was about to sin.
25:14 he railed at them To rail is to scream insults. One of Nabal's servants saw what was coming and went to the one person in the house with sense.
25:16 A wall they were around us both night and day The servant confirmed every word David said.
25:17 he is a son of worthlessness, past speaking to A wicked, useless man (2:12). No one could reason with Nabal, and even his servants knew it.
25:18 Abigail made haste She did not wait or argue. Bread, wine, five sheep, about 35 quarts of roasted grain, raisins and figs, enough to feed David's army well.
25:19 she did not tell her husband Nabal Was it wrong to act without him? Nabal was about to get his household killed and could not be reasoned with. Abigail acted to save lives, and Scripture praises her. Godly submission in marriage never means standing by while a husband leads his family into destruction.
25:21 he has returned to me evil in place of good David was still fuming as he came down the mountain.
25:22 Thus may God do to the enemies of David, and thus may He add A terrible oath. The Hebrew uses a coarse expression for every male. David meant to kill every man and boy in the household, servants included, for one man's insult.
25:24 On me, me, my lord, be the iniquity She humbled herself completely and took the blame, though she had done nothing wrong.

me, my lord, be the iniquity; and please let your maidservant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your maidservant. 25 Please let not my lord set his heart to this man of worthlessness, to Nabal; for as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his name, and disgraceful folly is with him. And I, your maidservant, I did not see the young men of my lord whom you sent. 26 And now, my lord, as the LORD lives and as your soul lives, seeing that the LORD has restrained you from coming into bloodshed and from your hand saving you, now then let your enemies and those who seek evil against my lord be like Nabal. 27 And now, this blessing which your maidservant has brought to my lord, it shall be given to the young men who go about at the feet of my lord. 28 Please forgive the transgression of your maidservant; for the LORD will certainly make for my lord an enduring house, for my lord is fighting the battles of the LORD, and evil shall not be found in you throughout your days. 29 And a man has risen up to pursue you and to seek your life, and the life of my lord shall be bound up in the bundle of the living with the LORD your God; and the life of your enemies, He shall sling it out in the midst of the hollow of the sling. 30 And it shall be, when the LORD does for my lord according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and He appoints you ruler over Israel, 31 then this shall not be for you a staggering and a stumbling of heart for my lord, to pour out blood without cause and for my lord to save himself. And the LORD will do good to my lord, and you shall remember your maidservant." 32 And David said to Abigail, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has sent you this day to meet me. 33 And blessed be your discernment, and blessed be you, who have restrained me this day from coming into bloodshed and from my hand saving me. 34 And yet, as the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, who has restrained me from doing harm to you, unless you had made haste and come to meet me, surely there would not have been left to Nabal until the light of the morning one who urinates against a wall." 35 And David took from her hand what she had brought to him, and to her he said, "Go up in peace to your house. See, I have listened to your voice, and I have lifted up your face." 36 And Abigail came to Nabal, and look, he had a feast in his house like the feast of the king; and the heart of Nabal was good within him, and he was drunk to excess. And she did not tell him anything, small or great, until the light of the morning. 37 And it was in the morning, when the wine had gone out from Nabal, that his wife told him these things; and his heart died within him, and he became stone. 38 And it was about ten days later, and the LORD struck Nabal, and he died. 39 And David heard that Nabal had died, and he said, "Blessed be the LORD, who has pleaded the case of my disgrace from the hand of Nabal, and He has restrained His servant from evil; and the evil of Nabal the LORD has turned back on his own head." And David sent, and he spoke concerning Abigail, to take her for himself as a wife. 40 And the servants of David came to Abigail to Carmel, and they spoke to her, saying, "David has sent us to you to take you for himself as a wife." 41 And she arose, and she bowed down, face toward the ground, and she said, "Look, your maidservant is a maid to wash the feet of the servants of my lord." 42 And Abigail made haste and arose, and she rode on the donkey, and her five maids who walked at her feet went with her; and she went after the messengers of David, and she became his wife. 43 And David had taken Ahinoam (Achino'am) from Jezreel (Yizre'el), and the two of them also became his wives. 44 And Saul (Shaul) had given

25:25 as his name is, so is he Abigail did not defend her husband. She was honest. He is a fool, do not take a fool's words to heart. "A soft answer turns away rage" (Prov 15:1). She came with humility, a gift and the truth.
25:26 the LORD has restrained you from coming into bloodshed She spoke as if David had already decided not to do it, giving him a way back with honor. She said the LORD was holding him back, and she was right. God had sent her.
25:28 the LORD will certainly make for my lord an enduring house A lasting dynasty, words that look ahead to what God promised David (2 Sam 7:16). She spoke with prophetic insight, though Scripture does not call her a prophetess. You fight the LORD's battles, she reminded him, not your own.
25:29 the life of my lord shall be bound up in the bundle of the living with the LORD your God A bundle was a pouch for keeping precious things safe. God was keeping David's life like a treasure. And He would sling out David's enemies, a reminder of Goliath. David did not need to do it himself.
25:31 to pour out blood without cause Do you want to become king with innocent blood on your hands and on your conscience for life? Saul shed innocent blood at Nob. David did not want to become like Saul.
25:32 Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has sent you this day to meet me One of the best things about David. The future king, with four hundred armed men behind him, listened to a woman kneeling in the road and said, you are right, and God sent you. When Samuel rebuked Saul, he made excuses. When Abigail rebuked David, he gave thanks. Do you welcome correction? "Blessed are the peacemakers" (Matt 5:9).
25:35 I have lifted up your face He accepted her request.
25:36 he had a feast in his house like the feast of the king Nabal threw a party fit for a king while the real king hid in caves, with no idea how close he came to death. Abigail wisely waited until he was sober.
25:37 his heart died within him, and he became stone Perhaps a stroke or heart attack brought on by the shock. He was paralyzed.
25:38 the LORD struck Nabal, and he died The writer wants us to see who did it. Not David. The LORD.
25:39 the evil of Nabal the LORD has turned back on his own head God defended David's honor and kept him from sinning. The lesson of chapter 24 again: "the LORD shall be judge" (24:15). By waiting, David saw God do it far better than he could.
25:41 your maidservant is a maid to wash the feet of the servants of my lord Full of humility. She was willing to do the lowest job in David's house.
25:43 the two of them also became his wives This Jezreel was a town in Judah (Josh 15:56). The Bible records David's many wives but does not approve. God's plan was one man and one woman (Gen 2:24; Matt 19:5), and the king "shall not multiply wives for himself" (Deut 17:17). It brought great sorrow later, as 2 Samuel shows.
25:44 Saul had given Michal his daughter, the wife of David, to Palti While David was away, one more way of cutting him off from the royal family.

Michal (Mikhal) his daughter, the wife of David, to Palti the son of Laish (Layish), who was from Gallim (Galim).

David Spares Saul Again

1 And the Ziphites came to Saul (Shaul) to Gibeah (Giva), saying, "Is not David hiding himself on the hill of Hachilah (Chakhila), on the face of the Jeshimon (Yeshimon)?" 2 And Saul arose, and he went down to the wilderness of Ziph (Zif), and with him were three thousand men, the chosen of Israel (Yisra'el), to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. 3 And Saul encamped on the hill of Hachilah, which is on the face of the Jeshimon, by the way. And David was dwelling in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul had come after him into the wilderness. 4 And David sent spies, and he knew that Saul had come for certain. 5 And David arose, and he went to the place where Saul had encamped. And David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner (Avner) the son of Ner, the commander of his army; and Saul was lying in the encampment, and the people were encamped around him. 6 And David answered, and he said to Ahimelech (Achimelekh) the Hittite and to Abishai (Avishay) the son of Zeruiah (Tseruya), the brother of Joab (Yo'av), saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul into the camp?" And Abishai said, "I, I will go down with you." 7 And David and Abishai came to the people by night, and look, Saul was lying asleep in the encampment, and his spear was stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people were lying around him. 8 And Abishai said to David, "God has delivered up your enemy into your hand today; and now, please let me strike him with the spear, even into the ground, one time, and I will not repeat it on him." 9 And David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him; for who has stretched out his hand against the anointed of the LORD and been free from guilt?" 10 And David said, "As the LORD lives, surely the LORD will strike him; or his day will come, and he will die; or he will go down into battle, and he will be swept away. 11 Far be it for me from the LORD to stretch out my hand against the anointed of the LORD. And now, please take the spear that is at his head and the jug of water, and let us go for ourselves." 12 And David took the spear and the jug of water from the head of Saul, and they went for themselves; and there was no one seeing, and there was no one knowing, and there was no one awaking, for all of them were sleeping, for a deep sleep of the LORD had fallen on them. 13 And David passed over to the other side, and he stood on the top of the hill from afar; great was the place between them. 14 And David called out to the people and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Will you not answer, Abner?" And Abner answered, and he said, "Who are you who have called out to the king?" 15 And David said to Abner, "Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? And why did you not guard your lord the king? For one of the people came to destroy the king your lord. 16 This thing that you have done is not good. As the LORD lives, surely you are sons of death, who did not guard your lord, the anointed of the LORD. And now, see where the spear of the king is, and the jug of water that was at his head." 17 And Saul recognized the voice of David, and he said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" And David said, "It is my voice, my lord the king." 18 And he said, "Why is this, that my lord is pursuing after his servant? For what 26:1 the Ziphites came to Saul to Gibeah They had betrayed David before (23:19), and now they did it again.

26:2 with him were three thousand men, the chosen of Israel Not long before, Saul wept and said David would surely be king (24:16-20). His tears had not changed his heart. Real repentance turns around and goes a different way. Godly sorrow produces repentance, while worldly sorrow produces death (2 Cor 7:10).
26:4 David sent spies, and he knew that Saul had come for certain David did not panic or believe every rumor. He checked the facts.
26:5 Saul was lying in the encampment, and the people were encamped around him In an army camp the king slept in the middle, protected by wagons, baggage and soldiers. Saul was in the safest spot in the camp.
26:6 Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, the brother of Joab The Hittites were an old people of Canaan, and some, like Uriah later (2 Sam 11:3), served David. Zeruiah was David's sister (1 Chr 2:16), so Abishai and Joab were his nephews, fierce fighters who play a big part in 2 Samuel. Abishai was brave, and as we will see, quick to kill.
26:7 his spear was stuck in the ground at his head The sign of the king's authority and his weapon at hand, the same spear Saul had thrown at David (18:11; 19:10). Everyone was asleep.
26:8 please let me strike him with the spear, even into the ground, one time Almost exactly what David's men said in the cave (24:4). One blow, and David would not even have to do it himself. This was a greater temptation than the cave. He only had to say yes.
26:9 who has stretched out his hand against the anointed of the LORD and been free from guilt? Letting Abishai do it would be the same as doing it himself. The guilt would still be David's.
26:10 surely the LORD will strike him; or his day will come, and he will die; or he will go down into battle Three ways Saul's life might end, all in God's hands: struck like Nabal (25:38), old age, or battle. In the end he died in battle (31:3-6). Having just watched God deal with Nabal, David found it easier to trust God with Saul.
26:11 take the spear that is at his head and the jug of water Proof, like the robe in chapter 24. In the desert a water jug was life itself. David took the king's weapon and water and left the king alive.
26:12 a deep sleep of the LORD had fallen on them How could two men walk through three thousand soldiers unseen? God did it. The same word is used when God put Adam and Abram into a deep sleep (Gen 2:21; 15:12). Even with God opening the way, David did not take Saul's life. An opportunity from God is not a license to do what He has forbidden.
26:13 he stood on the top of the hill from afar This time David kept his distance. He had learned that Saul's moods could change quickly.
26:15 why did you not guard your lord the king? David mocked Abner. The great commander let someone walk right up to the king.
26:16 surely you are sons of death, who did not guard your lord, the anointed of the LORD Men who deserve to die, as a guard who let the king be killed would be. Saul had called David "a son of death" (20:31). David turned it around. Abner failed to protect the LORD's anointed, while David protected him.
26:18 what evil is in my hand? The same question David asked before (20:1; 24:11).

have I done, and what evil is in my hand? 19 And now, please let my lord the king hear the words of his servant: If the LORD has incited you against me, let Him smell an offering; but if the sons of mankind, cursed are they before the LORD, for they have driven me out today from having a share in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, 'Go, serve other gods.' 20 And now, let not my blood fall to the ground away from the presence of the LORD; for the king of Israel has come out to seek one flea, just as one pursues the partridge in the mountains." 21 And Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, my son David, for I will not do harm to you again, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Look, I have acted foolishly, and I have erred very greatly." 22 And David answered, and he said, "Look, the spear of the king! And let one of the young men pass over and take it. 23 And the LORD will return to each man his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the LORD gave you today into my hand, and I was not willing to stretch out my hand against the anointed of the LORD. 24 And look, just as your life was great this day in my eyes, so may my life be great in the eyes of the LORD, and may He deliver me from all distress." 25 And Saul said to David, "Blessed are you, my son David; you will both certainly do much and certainly prevail." And David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

David Among the Philistines

1 And David said to his heart, "Now I shall be swept away one day by the hand of Saul (Shaul). There is nothing good for me but that I should certainly escape to the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me, of seeking me any more in all the territory of Israel (Yisra'el), and I will be delivered from his hand." 2 And David arose, and he passed over, he and six hundred men who were with him, to Achish (Akhish) the son of Maoch (Maokh), the king of Gath (Gat). 3 And David dwelt with Achish in Gath, he and his men, each man and his household, David and his two wives, Ahinoam (Achino'am) the Jezreelite woman and Abigail (Avigayil) the wife of Nabal (Naval), the Carmelite woman. 4 And it was told to Saul that David had fled to Gath, and he did not again seek him any more. 5 And David said to Achish, "If, please, I have found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities of the field, and let me dwell there; and why should your servant dwell in the city of royalty with you?" 6 And Achish gave him Ziklag (Tsiqlag) on that day; therefore Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah (Yehuda) until this day. 7 And the number of the days that David dwelt in the region of the Philistines was a year and four months.

The Raids From Ziklag

8 And David and his men went up, and they made raids against the Geshurites and the Gizrites and the Amalekites; for they were inhabiting the land which was from of old, as you come toward Shur and to the land of Egypt (Mitsrayim).

26:19 If the LORD has incited you against me, let Him smell an offering David weighed every possibility. If God was behind it for some sin of David's, he would offer a sacrifice and make peace. If men were stirring Saul up, God would judge them.
26:19 they have driven me out today from having a share in the inheritance of the LORD In those days each land was thought to belong to its own gods. To be driven to a foreign land was in effect to be told to serve other gods. David did not mean he would. He meant his enemies were cutting him off from God's people and worship.
26:20 just as one pursues the partridge in the mountains Do not make me die in a foreign land. A partridge runs along the ground rather than flying, and hunters chased it until it was exhausted. That is how David felt.
26:21 I have acted foolishly, and I have erred very greatly Some of the most honest words Saul ever spoke, and he was right. But Saul said "I have sinned" to Samuel too (15:24, 30), and his heart did not change. Saying the right words is not the same as turning to God. David did not return.
26:22 Look, the spear of the king! David would not walk into Saul's camp again. He sent the spear back by a servant.
26:24 so may my life be great in the eyes of the LORD, and may He deliver me from all distress David did not ask Saul to protect him or trust his promise. He asked the LORD. He had learned that the only one he could fully trust was God.
26:25 David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place Saul blessed David again and as good as said he would be king. They never met again. Saul would die on Gilboa and David be crowned in Hebron. Chapters 24 and 26 are two events with different details, cave and camp, robe and spear, alone and with Abishai. They show a pattern, not a moment. Faith that holds once is good. Faith that keeps holding is better. "Let us not lose heart in doing the good" (Gal 6:9).
27:1 David said to his heart Not to the LORD, Gad or Abiathar, but to himself. In chapter 23 he asked God at every step. Here there is no prayer at all. God had promised him the throne and just put an army to sleep (26:12), and still David said Saul would get him. Discouragement makes us forget what God has said and done. David was tired, and that is understandable. But it was not faith.
27:1 I should certainly escape to the land of the Philistines He had just told Saul that being driven from the LORD's inheritance was like being told to serve other gods (26:19). Now he went on his own. Have you been there, tired of waiting and ready to take the easy way out? God does not abandon us, but the easy way often brings its own troubles.
27:2 he passed over, he and six hundred men who were with him, to Achish Last time David came alone and had to feign madness (21:10-15). Now he came with six hundred fighting men as Saul's known enemy, and Achish saw a useful ally. With families, this was a whole community.
27:4 he did not again seek him any more In one sense the plan worked. Saul could not chase David into Philistine land. But David paid for that safety.
27:5 why should your servant dwell in the city of royalty with you? Humble words, but in Gath he would be watched all the time. In a town of his own he could act unseen.
27:6 Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah until this day Ziklag was in the Negeb, assigned long before to Simeon and Judah (Josh 15:31; 19:5) but taken by the Philistines. This line shows the book was finished after there were kings of Judah, after the kingdom divided.
27:8 they made raids against the Geshurites and the Gizrites and the Amalekites Desert peoples between southern Judah and Egypt. These Geshurites of the south are named among the land still to be taken (Josh 13:2), and God had long condemned Amalek (Exod 17:14; Deut 25:17-19; 15:2-3).

9 And David would strike the land, and he would not let a man or a woman live, and he would take sheep and cattle and donkeys and camels and clothing; and he returned, and he came to Achish. 10 And Achish said, "Against where did you raid today?" And David said, "Against the Negeb (Negev) of Judah, and against the Negeb of the Jerahmeelites, and against the Negeb of the Kenites." 11 And David did not let a man or a woman live to bring them to Gath, saying, "Lest they tell about us, saying, 'Thus David has done, and thus has been his practice all the days that he has dwelt in the region of the Philistines.'" 12 And Achish trusted in David, saying, "He has certainly made himself odious among his people, in Israel; and he shall be to me a perpetual servant."

Achish Takes David to War

1 And it was in those days, and the Philistines gathered their armies for war, to fight against Israel (Yisra'el). And Achish (Akhish) said to David, "You will certainly know that you will go out with me in the camp, you and your men." 2 And David said to Achish, "Therefore you, you will know what your servant will do." And Achish said to David, "Therefore I will make you keeper of my head all the days."

Saul and the Medium at Endor

3 And Samuel (Shemu'el) had died, and all Israel had mourned for him, and they had buried him in Ramah (Rama), even in his own city. And Saul (Shaul) had removed the necromancers and the spiritists from the land. 4 And the Philistines gathered together, and they came, and they encamped at Shunem; and Saul gathered all Israel, and they encamped at Gilboa. 5 And Saul saw the camp of the Philistines, and he was afraid, and his heart trembled exceedingly. 6 And Saul inquired of the LORD, and the LORD did not answer him, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets. 7 And Saul said to his servants, "Seek for me a woman, a mistress of necromancy, and let me go to her, and let me consult her." And his servants said to him, "Look, a woman, a mistress of necromancy, is in En-dor." 8 And Saul disguised himself, and he put on other garments, and he went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Please divine for me by necromancy, and bring up for me the one whom I will name to you." 9 And the woman said to him, "Look, you, you know what Saul has done, that he has cut off the necromancers and the spiritist from the land. And why are you laying a snare for my life, to cause me to die?" 10 And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, "As the LORD lives, punishment shall not befall you in this matter." 11 And the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" And he said, "Bring up Samuel for me." 12 And the woman saw Samuel, and she cried out with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, "Why have

27:9 he would not let a man or a woman live Hard to read. Some teachers see David carrying out judgment on peoples God had already condemned, doing what Saul failed to do and securing Judah's border. He never raided Judah and later shared the plunder with its towns (30:26-31). Others note the text never says God commanded these raids or that David asked Him. Good teachers hold each view.
27:10 Against the Negeb of Judah The Negeb is the dry south country. The Jerahmeelites were a clan of Judah (1 Chr 2:9), and the Kenites friends of Israel (15:6). David lied to make Achish think he raided his own people.
27:11 Lest they tell about us The text gives the reason no one was left alive: to keep the lie hidden from Achish. The chapter begins in fear, not faith (27:1), and the book does not praise this. It records it, as Scripture records the sins of Abraham, Jacob and David himself. God gave no command here as He did about Amalek (15:2-3), and no one may use these verses to excuse violence or deceit. Out of fear, one wrong step led to another: to stay safe he lied, and to hide the lie he shed blood.
27:12 he shall be to me a perpetual servant Odious means hated, like a bad smell. Achish was completely fooled. God's anointed king looked like a Philistine's servant for life. But God's promises do not rest on our faithfulness. "If we are faithless, He remains faithful" (2 Tim 2:13). God does not give up on His own.
28:1 you will go out with me in the camp, you and your men The moment David's choice had been leading toward. Achish expected him to fight against Israel.
28:2 Therefore you, you will know what your servant will do It sounded like a promise and promised nothing. Achish made him his bodyguard. David was trapped. If he fought Israel, he could never be their king. If he turned on the Philistines, his men's families were in Philistine land. The writer leaves him in suspense and turns to Saul.
28:3 Saul had removed the necromancers and the spiritists from the land A necromancer claimed to call up the dead and speak with them. A spiritist claimed special knowledge from the spirit world. God's law forbade both as "an abomination to the LORD" (Deut 18:12; Lev 19:31; 20:27). Saul had obeyed this law earlier, which makes what follows sadder. And Samuel was gone, so Saul had no prophet.
28:4 they encamped at Gilboa The battle had moved north to the valley of Jezreel, Shunem on the north side and the ridge of Gilboa on the south.
28:5 he was afraid, and his heart trembled exceedingly The man who once rescued Jabesh-gilead with fire in his heart (11:6) now trembled. He knew God was no longer with him.
28:6 the LORD did not answer him, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets The three ways God spoke then. Saul had rejected God's word (15:23), murdered the priests so the ephod was with David (22:20; 23:6), and refused to listen. Those who refuse God's call may one day call and not be answered (Prov 1:24-28). Chronicles says he "did not inquire of the LORD" (1 Chr 10:14). He went through the motions without repentance. He wanted an answer, not God.
28:7 Seek for me a woman, a mistress of necromancy When God was silent, Saul did not fall on his face in repentance. He looked for another voice. Endor was on the north side of the valley, so he had to slip past the enemy army.
28:8 Saul disguised himself, and he put on other garments He took off his royal robes. In a sense it pictures his whole life, always trying to look like something he was not. The king who banned mediums crept out at night to consult one.
28:10 As the LORD lives, punishment shall not befall you in this matter Saul swore by the LORD's name that he would not enforce the LORD's law. His religion had become empty words.
28:11 Bring up Samuel for me In life Saul would not listen to Samuel. Now he was desperate to hear him.
28:12 the woman saw Samuel, and she cried out with a loud voice Something happened she did not expect, and in that moment she knew her visitor. Gods is elohim, which can mean a mighty spirit being (28:13). Samuel's robe marked him all his life (2:19; 15:27).

you deceived me? And you are Saul!" 13 And the king said to her, "Do not be afraid; for what have you seen?" And the woman said to Saul, "I have seen gods coming up from the earth." 14 And he said to her, "What is his appearance?" And she said, "An old man is coming up, and he is wrapped in a robe." And Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he bowed low, face toward the ground, and he bowed down.

Samuel's Word to Saul

15 And Samuel said to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me, to bring me up?" And Saul said, "It is very distressing for me; and the Philistines are fighting against me, and God has turned aside from me, and He has not answered me any more, neither by the hand of the prophets nor by dreams; and I have called you to make known to me what I shall do." 16 And Samuel said, "And why do you ask me, and the LORD has turned aside from you, and He has become your enemy? 17 And the LORD has done for Himself just as He spoke by my hand; and the LORD has torn the kingdom from your hand, and He has given it to your neighbor, to David. 18 Because you did not listen to the voice of the LORD, and you did not execute the burning of His anger on Amalek (Amaleq), therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day. 19 And the LORD will also give Israel with you into the hand of the Philistines; and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also give the camp of Israel into the hand of the Philistines." 20 And Saul made haste, and he fell his full length to the ground, and he was exceedingly afraid because of the words of Samuel; also there was no strength in him, for he had not eaten food all the day and all the night. 21 And the woman came to Saul, and she saw that he was exceedingly terrified, and she said to him, "Look, your maidservant has listened to your voice, and I have put my life in my palm, and I have listened to your words that you spoke to me. 22 And now, please listen, you also, to the voice of your maidservant, and let me set before you a piece of bread, and eat, and let there be strength in you, for you will go on the way." 23 And he refused, and he said, "I will not eat." And his servants, and also the woman, urged him; and he listened to their voice, and he arose from the ground, and he sat on the bed. 24 And the woman had a calf of the stall in the house, and she made haste, and she slaughtered it; and she took flour, and she kneaded it, and she baked it into unleavened bread. 25 And she brought it near before Saul and before his servants, and they ate; and they arose, and they went away on that night.

28:14 Saul knew that it was Samuel Was it really Samuel? Many conservative teachers say yes, sent by God: the text keeps calling him Samuel, the woman was terrified, and the prophecy came true the next day (31:6). God did something unique, as with Moses and Elijah on the mountain (Matt 17:3), not proving mediums have power. Others see an evil spirit posing as Samuel, since Satan "disguises himself as an angel of light" (2 Cor 11:14). Few think she was faking. I leave the first two open.
28:14 he bowed low, face toward the ground Whatever view we hold, this was sin. Saul died "also for asking of a medium" (1 Chr 10:13). God forbids trying to contact the dead (Deut 18:10-12; Isa 8:19), and there is a chasm the living cannot cross (Luke 16:26). If grief tempts you toward mediums, psychics or Ouija boards, do not open that door. Bring your grief to Jesus, who has "the keys of Hades and of Death" (Rev 1:18). Our hope for those who die in Christ is the resurrection (1 Thess 4:17).
28:15 God has turned aside from me, and He has not answered me any more Still no confession. Not, I have sinned and turned from God, but God has turned from me. Saul wanted advice, not repentance.
28:16 the LORD has turned aside from you, and He has become your enemy If God will not answer you, why would His prophet give a different word?
28:17 He has given it to your neighbor, to David The word spoken at Gilgal (15:28), now with the neighbor's name.
28:18 you did not execute the burning of His anger on Amalek It all went back to chapter 15. "To listen is better than sacrifice" (15:22). Saul's refusal to listen followed him to this night.
28:19 tomorrow you and your sons will be with me With me means in the realm of the dead, Sheol, the place of the departed. It does not say Saul's eternal state would be Samuel's. Scripture does not tell us about Saul's soul, and we should not say more than it does.
28:20 he fell his full length to the ground The tall king (9:2) lay stretched on a medium's floor, starving and terrified. Saul began with God's Spirit, God's prophet, a loyal son and a loving nation. He ended in the dark, in disguise, in a house God told him never to enter, hearing that it was over.
28:23 he listened to their voice Saul listened to his servants, the woman and the people. Everyone, it seems, but the LORD.
28:24 the woman had a calf of the stall in the house A stall-fed calf was kept for a special occasion, and unleavened bread was bread made quickly without yeast. She showed kindness to a broken man, and the Bible records it.
28:25 they arose, and they went away on that night Saul's last meal. He went out into the night and never came back. Of Judas the Gospel says, "and it was night" (John 13:30). If God seems silent to you, do not do what Saul did. His problem was never that God was unwilling to forgive. He never truly turned. "Return to Me" (Mal 3:7). "The one coming to Me I will certainly not cast out" (John 6:37).
29:1 the Philistines gathered all their armies to Aphek Aphek, on the coastal plain, where they gathered when they took the ark (4:1). This chapter comes before Shunem (28:4) in time. The writer told of Endor first and now steps back to show what happened to David.
29:2 David and his men were passing along at the rear with Achish The five rulers (6:16) reviewed their troops. Every step took David closer to battle against Saul, Jonathan and his own people. Scripture does not say what he planned. Perhaps he did not know himself.
29:3 What are these Hebrews? Hebrews was what foreigners often called Israelites. Achish defended David, with no idea that David had been raiding Israel's enemies, not Israel (27:10-12).

in him from the day he fell away until this day." 4 And the commanders of the Philistines were angry with him, and the commanders of the Philistines said to him, "Send the man back, and let him return to his place where you assigned him; and he shall not go down with us into the battle, and he shall not become an adversary to us in the battle. And with what could this one make himself acceptable to his lord? Is it not with the heads of those men? 5 Is not this David, of whom they sang in the dances, saying, 'Saul has struck down his thousands, and David his ten thousands'?" 6 And Achish called David, and he said to him, "As the LORD lives, surely you are upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the camp is good in my eyes; for I have not found evil in you from the day of your coming to me until this day. And in the eyes of the rulers you are not good. 7 And now, turn back, and go in peace, and you shall not do evil in the eyes of the rulers of the Philistines." 8 And David said to Achish, "But what have I done? And what have you found in your servant from the day that I was before you until this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?" 9 And Achish answered, and he said to David, "I know that you are good in my eyes like an angel of God; nevertheless the commanders of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us into the battle.' 10 And now, rise early in the morning, and the servants of your lord who have come with you; and you shall rise early in the morning, and it shall be light for you, and go." 11 And David rose early, he and his men, to go in the morning, to return to the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

Ziklag Burned

1 And it was, when David and his men came to Ziklag (Tsiqlag) on the third day, and the Amalekites had made a raid against the Negeb (Negev) and against Ziklag, and they had struck Ziklag, and they had burned it with fire. 2 And they had taken captive the women who were in it, from small to great; they had not killed anyone, and they had driven them away, and they had gone on their way. 3 And David and his men came to the city, and look, it was burned with fire, and their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive. 4 And David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice, and they wept until there was no strength in them to weep. 5 And the two wives of David had been taken captive, Ahinoam (Achino'am) the Jezreelite woman and Abigail (Avigayil) the wife of Nabal (Naval) the Carmelite. 6 And it was exceedingly distressing for David, for the people spoke of stoning him, for the soul of all the people was bitter, each man over his sons and over his daughters. And David strengthened himself in the LORD his God.

David Pursues the Amalekites

29:4 Is it not with the heads of those men? The commanders were not fooled. They expected David to turn in the battle and win back Saul's favor with Philistine heads, as Hebrews serving the Philistines had done at Michmash (14:21).
29:5 Saul has struck down his thousands, and David his ten thousands That song again (18:7; 21:11). It made Saul jealous, nearly got David killed in Gath, and now got him sent home.
29:6 As the LORD lives, surely you are upright Striking that a Philistine swore by the LORD, perhaps speaking in David's terms out of respect for his God. Achish liked and trusted David, but he was outvoted.
29:8 that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king? Achish heard "my lord the king" as himself. But David had called Saul "my lord the king" before (24:8; 26:17), so it may be another double-meaning answer like 28:2. Or he was simply keeping up his cover. Scripture does not tell us what was in his heart.
29:9 you are good in my eyes like an angel of God High praise from a Philistine.
29:11 David rose early, he and his men, to go in the morning The Philistines marched to the battle where Saul and Jonathan would die, and David went south. He had walked himself into a corner, and God got him out through the suspicion of Philistine commanders. Men of Manasseh also came over to him then (1 Chr 12:19-22). "To those who love God all things work together for good" (Rom 8:28). Our bad choices matter, but God is never trapped by them.
30:1 they had struck Ziklag, and they had burned it with fire Aphek to Ziklag was about fifty miles, a hard three-day march. While David marched with the Philistines, his town lay unguarded, and the Amalekites he had raided (27:8) paid him back. Saul had failed to finish what God said about Amalek (15:9). Partial obedience has long consequences.
30:2 they had not killed anyone The mercy of God. They likely meant to sell the captives as slaves. David had left no one alive in his raids (27:9, 11), yet the Amalekites left everyone alive. God was gracious to David in a way David had not been to others.
30:4 they wept until there was no strength in them to weep Picture coming home to smoking ruins and your family gone. Tough fighting men wept until nothing was left. There is no shame in weeping over loss. Grief is not a lack of faith.
30:6 the people spoke of stoning him Grief turned to anger, and anger looked for someone to blame. Men who had followed David since Adullam were ready to kill him. He had lost home and family, was an outlaw in Israel and unwelcome with the Philistines, and much of it came from his own choice.
30:6 David strengthened himself in the LORD his God One of the most important verses in 1 Samuel. Not the LORD in general, but his own God, who delivered him from the lion, the bear and Goliath. We are not told how. His psalms show him pouring out his heart (Ps 62:8), telling his soul to wait for God (Ps 42:5), remembering God's deeds and promises and trusting His character. Jonathan once strengthened him (23:16). Now there was no one, so David went to God himself.
30:6 for the soul of all the people was bitter This is the turning point of David's time in Philistia. Since 27:1 he had talked to himself instead of God. At the very bottom he turned back. Sometimes God lets us lose everything so we will find Him again. Is something leaving you without strength to weep? "Come to Me, all who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matt 11:28).
30:7 Please bring the ephod near to me Having strengthened himself in the LORD, David did what he had not done for a long time. The first time since 23:9-12 that we read of him inquiring of the LORD.

me." And Abiathar brought the ephod near to David. 8 And David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I pursue after this marauding band? Shall I overtake it?" And He said to him, "Pursue, for you will certainly overtake them, and you will certainly rescue them." 9 And David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and they came to the wadi of Besor, and those who were left behind remained. 10 And David pursued, he and four hundred men; and two hundred men who were too exhausted to cross the wadi of Besor remained. 11 And they found an Egyptian man in the open country, and they took him to David; and they gave him bread, and he ate, and they gave him water to drink. 12 And they gave him a slice of fig cake and two clusters of raisins, and he ate, and his spirit returned to him; for he had not eaten bread and had not drunk water three days and three nights. 13 And David said to him, "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?" And he said, "I am an Egyptian young man, a slave of an Amalekite man; and my master abandoned me, because I became sick three days ago. 14 We, we made a raid on the Negeb of the Kerethites and on that which belongs to Judah (Yehuda) and on the Negeb of Caleb (Kalev); and Ziklag we burned with fire." 15 And David said to him, "Will you bring me down to this marauding band?" And he said, "Swear to me by God that you will not kill me and that you will not deliver me up into the hand of my master, and I will bring you down to this marauding band." 16 And he brought him down, and look, they were spread out over the face of all the land, eating and drinking and celebrating because of all the great plunder that they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah. 17 And David struck them from the twilight until the evening of their next day; and not a man of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on the camels, and they fled. 18 And David rescued all that Amalek (Amaleq) had taken, and David rescued his two wives. 19 And nothing was missing to them, from the small and to the great, and to sons and daughters, and from the booty and to all that they had taken for themselves; David brought back everything. 20 And David took all the sheep and the cattle; they drove them before that livestock, and they said, "This is the booty of David."

Equal Shares

21 And David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to go after David, and whom they had left at the wadi of Besor; and they went out to meet David and to meet the people who were with him. And David approached the people, and he asked them about their welfare. 22 And every evil man and man of worthlessness from the men who had gone with David answered, and they said, "Because they did not go with me, we will not give them any of the booty that we have recovered, except to each man his wife and his children; and let them lead them away, and let them go." 23 And David said, "You shall not do so, my brothers, with what the LORD has given to us; and He has kept us, and He has given the marauding band that came against us into our hand. 24 And who will listen to you in this matter? For like the share of the one who went down into the battle and like the share of the one who remained with the baggage, together they shall share." 25 And it was from that day and onward, and he made it a statute and a judgment for Israel (Yisra'el) until this day. 26 And David came to Ziklag, and he sent some of the booty to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, "Look, for you is a blessing from the booty of the enemies of the LORD": 27 to those who were in Bethel (Bet-El), and to those who were in Ramoth (Ramot) of the Negeb, and 30:8 Pursue, for you will certainly overtake them, and you will certainly rescue them A marauding band is a raiding party. God did not scold David or say it was his own fault. He gave a promise. When we come back to God, He is ready to receive us and help.

30:10 two hundred men who were too exhausted to cross the wadi of Besor remained A wadi fills with water only in the rainy season. After three days' march, grief and an immediate pursuit, a third could not go on. David did not shame them. He left them to guard the supplies.

30:12 his spirit returned to him They fed him before they questioned him.

30:13 my master abandoned me, because I became sick three days ago The Amalekites threw people away when they were no longer useful, the cruelty God condemned (Deut 25:17-18). A sick slave left to die became the key to victory. Kindness to one man in need opened the door. God often places the answer to our prayers in the person we are tempted to ignore.

30:14 the Negeb of the Kerethites A people linked with the Philistines, perhaps from Crete. Later Kerethites served as David's royal bodyguard (2 Sam 8:18).

30:16 eating and drinking and celebrating because of all the great plunder They thought David was far away with the Philistine army, and they had plunder from Philistia and Judah. They were having a party.

30:17 four hundred young men who rode on the camels The battle lasted about a full day. The ones who escaped equaled David's whole fighting force, so the band was very large, and God gave his tired men the victory.

30:19 David brought back everything Every wife, every child, every possession. God did exactly what He promised (30:8). When He says He will rescue, He rescues.

30:20 This is the booty of David The men who wanted to stone David the day before were now praising him.

30:22 every evil man and man of worthlessness from the men who had gone with David They would give the two hundred their families back and nothing else.

30:23 with what the LORD has given to us The plunder was not theirs to keep. God kept them and gave the victory. It was a gift, not earned by the strong.

30:24 together they shall share Moses had divided plunder between those who fought and those who stayed (Num 31:27). In God's work everyone matters. Some serve on the front lines, some guard the baggage, and some are too worn out to do more than hold on. "Those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary" (1 Cor 12:22). Those who pray at home, teach the children and set up chairs share in the victory. Grace is shared, not earned.

30:25 he made it a statute and a judgment for Israel until this day David's ruling became law in Israel.

30:26 a blessing from the booty of the enemies of the LORD The Amalekites had raided Judah (30:14), so David was partly giving back what was taken. He wanted Judah to see he fought the LORD's battles.

1 SAMUEL 31

The Death of Saul and His Sons

1 And the Philistines were fighting against Israel (Yisra'el), and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and they fell slain on the mountain of Gilboa. 2 And the Philistines pursued closely after Saul (Shaul) and after his sons, and the Philistines struck down Jonathan (Yehonatan) and Abinadab (Avinadav) and Malchi-shua (Malkishua), the sons of Saul. 3 And the battle was heavy against Saul, and the archers, men with the bow, found him, and he writhed exceedingly because of the archers. 4 And Saul said to the bearer of his armor, "Draw your sword and pierce me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come, and they pierce me through, and they deal wantonly with me." And the bearer of his armor was not willing, for he was exceedingly afraid. And Saul took the sword, and he fell on it. 5 And the bearer of his armor saw that Saul had died, and he also fell on his sword, and he died with him. 6 And Saul died, and his three sons, and the bearer of his armor, also all his men, on that day together. 7 And the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley and who were on the other side of the Jordan (Yarden) saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons had died; and they abandoned the cities, and they fled, and the Philistines came, and they dwelt in them. 8 And it was on the next day, and the Philistines came to strip the slain, and they found Saul and his three sons fallen on the mountain of Gilboa. 9 And they cut off his head, and they stripped off his armor, and they sent into the land of the Philistines all around to bear the news to the house of their idols and to the people. 10 And they put his armor in the house of Ashtaroth, and his corpse they fastened on the wall of Beth-shean (Bet-She'an).

The Men of Jabesh-gilead

11 And the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead (Yavesh-Gilad) heard concerning him what the Philistines had done to Saul.

31:11 1 Sam 11:1; 2 Sam 2:4

30:31 to those who were in Hebron This Bethel was a southern town, not the famous one. These towns had sheltered David and his men. Hebron comes last, and it would be the first place he reigned (2 Sam 2:1-4). He thanked his helpers and made friends among Judah's elders. The same week Saul lost everything in the north, David recovered all.
31:1 they fell slain on the mountain of Gilboa The writer goes straight to the result. Gilboa is a long ridge on the southeast side of the Jezreel valley. Philistine chariots moved freely on the plain, and Israel was driven up the slopes. The people asked for a king to go out before them (8:20), and their king had led them here.
31:2 the Philistines struck down Jonathan and Abinadab and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul One of the saddest lines in the book. Jonathan, brave, humble and generous, knew David would be king, yet he fought beside his father to the end and betrayed neither. Why did God allow it? Scripture does not say. He shared in the judgment on his father's house. We leave this man of faith (14:6) with the Judge of all the earth, who does right (Gen 18:25). Another son, Ish-bosheth or Eshbaal (1 Chr 8:33), was not in the battle.
31:3 he writhed exceedingly because of the archers Saul was badly wounded and knew he could not escape.
31:4 lest these uncircumcised come, and they pierce me through, and they deal wantonly with me To deal wantonly is to abuse and mock. Saul knew what the Philistines did to Samson (Judg 16:21, 25). The armor-bearer would not do it, perhaps afraid to strike the LORD's anointed, as David refused to (24:6; 26:9).
31:4 Saul took the sword, and he fell on it Saul took his own life. The text records it plainly and does not praise it or call it noble. It was the last step of a long road away from God, not the reason for His judgment, spoken years before (1 Chr 10:13-14). Our lives belong to God. He gives life, and He alone has the right to take it (Deut 32:39; Job 1:21).
31:4 the bearer of his armor was not willing If you have lost someone to suicide, this chapter is not about your loved one. It is the story of one man who rejected God's word for years. It is not our place to say what Scripture does not. Salvation is by grace through faith in Christ (Eph 2:8-9), not by how a life ends. Pain and despair can overwhelm even a believer. God knows every heart. "The LORD is near to the broken of heart" (Ps 34:18).
31:5 he also fell on his sword, and he died with him If you are struggling with thoughts of ending your life, please do not keep it to yourself. Tell someone today: a pastor, a friend, a family member, a doctor or a crisis line. You are not a burden, and you are not alone. Saul had nowhere left to turn because he turned from God again and again. You do. "The one coming to Me I will certainly not cast out" (John 6:37).
31:6 Saul died, and his three sons, and the bearer of his armor, also all his men, on that day together All his men probably means his bodyguard and officers, since many fled (31:7) and Abner survived (2 Sam 2:8). Chronicles says "all his house" (1 Chr 10:6), meaning his house lost the throne that day, though Ish-bosheth lived on for a time.
31:6 Saul died In 2 Samuel an Amalekite claims he killed Saul at his request and brings David the crown (2 Sam 1:6-10). Most teachers think he lied, having found the body first, and hoped for a reward. Others think Saul's fall did not kill him at once. Either way, this chapter and 1 Chr 10:4-5 tell plainly how Saul died. And the irony: Saul lost his kingdom for sparing Amalek, and an Amalekite came to claim his death.
31:7 they abandoned the cities, and they fled, and the Philistines came, and they dwelt in them Israelites in the valley and even east of the Jordan fled, and the Philistines moved in. The reign of the king the people asked for ended with Israel worse off than when it began.
31:8 the Philistines came to strip the slain After a battle the winners went over the field to take weapons and valuables from the dead.
31:9 to bear the news to the house of their idols and to the people David once cut off Goliath's head and took his sword (17:51, 54). Now the Philistines did the same to Saul and gave the credit to their gods. When Israel was faithful, Dagon fell before the ark (5:3-4). Our sin gives the world reason to mock the name of God (Rom 2:24).
31:10 they put his armor in the house of Ashtaroth Ashtaroth is the plural of Ashtoreth, a Canaanite goddess of war and fertility (7:3-4; Judg 2:13). His head was fastened in Dagon's temple (1 Chr 10:10). Beth-shean was a strong city at the east end of the Jezreel valley. Saul took his life to avoid being mocked, and he was mocked anyway.
31:11 the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard At the start of his reign, full of the Spirit, Saul rescued Jabesh-gilead from the Ammonites (11:1-11). It was his finest hour, and they never forgot it.

12 And every man of strength arose, and they went all the night, and they took the corpse of Saul and the corpses of his sons from the wall of Beth-shean, and they went to Jabesh, and they burned them there. 13 And they took their bones, and they buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.

31:12 2 Chr 16:14; Jer 34:5; Amos 6:10

31:13 2 Sam 21:12-14; Gen 50:10; Gen 35:8

31:12 they went all the night, and they took the corpse of Saul and the corpses of his sons A dangerous night march across the Jordan valley into enemy territory to honor the man who once saved them. Israel did not usually burn the dead. Perhaps the bodies were badly mistreated, or they wanted to keep them from the Philistines. Scripture does not say.
31:13 they buried them under the tamarisk tree in Jabesh, and they fasted seven days A seven-day fast was deep mourning (Gen 50:10). David later praised them (2 Sam 2:5) and moved the bones to Kish's tomb (2 Sam 21:12-14). A kindness Saul did years before was remembered. And so the book ends. The impressive king the people asked for lay dead, while God's shepherd king waited at Ziklag. Through David's line God would send the King who reigns forever (Luke 1:32-33).

Introduction

Title

The book is named for Samuel, the prophet who anointed Israel's first two kings, though Samuel died before this part of the story begins (1 Sam 25:1). In the Hebrew Bible, 1 and 2 Samuel were one book, among the Former Prophets, the books that tell Israel's history from God's point of view. It was divided in two when it was translated into Greek, because it was too long for one scroll. 2 Samuel is the tenth book of the Bible, following 1 Samuel and coming before 1 Kings. It has 24 chapters and 695 verses. It begins with David weeping over Saul and Jonathan and ends with David buying a threshing floor in Jerusalem and building an altar to stop a plague.

Author and Date

The book does not name its author, and Samuel could not have written it. The acts of David were written "in the words of Samuel the seer, and in the words of Nathan the prophet, and in the words of Gad the seer" (1 Chr 29:29). Nathan and Gad were prophets who served David, and 2 Samuel was most likely put together from their records, with other sources such as the book of Jashar (1:18). Many modern critical scholars believe the book was edited much later, in the time of the exile, as part of a longer history running from Deuteronomy through Kings. I take the book at its word. It rests on the records of prophets who knew David, and its details read like the work of eyewitnesses.

It was probably written not long after David's death, likely in Solomon's time or soon after, about 970 to 930 B.C. It speaks of things that remained "until this day" (4:3; 6:8) and does not mention the division of the kingdom. Some scholars date it later. David reigned about 1010 to 970 B.C., seven years and six months in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem (5:4-5), which places the taking of Jerusalem about 1003 B.C.

Background and Setting

2 Samuel picks up the day after 1 Samuel ends. Saul has died on Mount Gilboa, and David is at Ziklag. Everything here rests on what came before: Israel's demand for a king like the nations (1 Sam 8), Saul's rejection (1 Sam 15), David's anointing (1 Sam 16), and his years running from Saul while refusing to harm the LORD's anointed (1 Sam 24; 1 Sam 26). It also reaches back to God's rules for Israel's king (Deut 17:14-20).

David first rules Judah from Hebron in the hill country, while Saul's son Ish-bosheth rules from Mahanaim east of the Jordan. From chapter 5 on, the center is Jerusalem, the city of David on Mount Zion. David's wars reach from the Philistine coast to Moab, Edom and Ammon, and north to the Aramean kingdoms of Damascus and Zobah.

David was the youngest son of Jesse of Bethlehem, a great-grandson of Ruth the Moabite (Ruth 4:17), a shepherd, musician and warrior, and the writer of many psalms. God called him a man after His own heart (Acts 13:22), not because he was sinless, but because he loved God and came back to Him in repentance. The first readers, Israel in the generations after David, needed to know why David's family sat on the throne, what God had promised it, and why even David's house suffered when the king sinned. The book does not always keep strict time order. Chapters 21 to 24 gather records from different parts of David's reign.

Themes

The theme of 2 Samuel is God's faithfulness to His chosen king. God keeps His word to make David king, gives him rest from his enemies, and promises him a house, a kingdom and a throne: "And your house and your kingdom will be established forever before you; your throne will be established forever" (7:16). David's hope rests on that promise, not on his own record: "He has made with me an everlasting covenant" (23:5).

Alongside that runs a second theme. Sin has consequences, even for a forgiven man. At the height of his power David falls into adultery and murder (chapter 11). When Nathan confronts him, he does not make excuses. He says, "I have sinned against the LORD" (12:13), and God forgives him. But the sword does not depart from his house (12:10). Tamar is wronged, Amnon is killed, Absalom rebels and dies, and the kingdom is torn by revolt. The book shows that God's grace is real and His discipline is real, and that we need both.

The book also teaches about waiting on God instead of grabbing what He has promised, about loyal love (hesed) kept when there is nothing to gain (9:1), about seeking the LORD in every new battle (5:19, 23), and about worship that costs something (24:24).

Christ in 2 Samuel

The clearest pointer to Christ is the covenant of chapter 7. God promised David a son whose throne would be established forever, and said, "I will be a father to him, and he will be a son to Me" (7:14). Hebrews applies those words to Jesus (Heb 1:5). The angel told Mary that God would give her Son "the throne of David His father," and that "of His kingdom there will be no end" (Luke 1:32-33). The New Testament opens by calling Jesus "son of David" (Matt 1:1), and Jesus calls Himself "the root and the offspring of David" (Rev 22:16).

I believe that Jesus, risen and now seated at the Father's right hand, will one day sit on the throne of David and reign over a restored Israel and the whole earth, as the prophets promised. The notes at chapter 7 give this reading and name the amillennial view fairly.

David is a picture of Christ in some ways, held lightly: the shepherd king from Bethlehem, chosen by God and rejected for a time, who crossed the Kidron and climbed the Mount of Olives in tears (15:23, 30), and who cried that he would have died in his son's place (18:33). But David is also a warning. Even the best king of Israel could not be the King we need. That King is Jesus, the Son of David who never sinned, who laid down His life for the sheep. The book ends at an altar on the hill where the temple would stand, with God's anger turned away by a sacrifice (24:25).

Hard Passages

2 Samuel has a great deal of violence: civil war, murder in the gate and in a bedroom (3:27; 4:5-12), and the harsh ways of ancient war with Moab (8:2) and Ammon (12:31). God strikes Uzzah dead for touching the ark (6:7). The notes explain it from God's plain law and His holiness, and point to the open way we have through Christ. David's adultery with Bathsheba and the killing of Uriah are told plainly, and the guilt is laid on David. Their baby dies (12:14-23), and the notes say that I believe little children who die are safe with God (12:23).

Amnon rapes his half-sister Tamar (chapter 13). The notes lay the guilt wholly on Amnon, say plainly that it was not her fault, and urge anyone who has been abused to tell someone safe and, where a crime was done, the authorities. Absalom takes his father's concubines (16:22), and Ahithophel takes his own life (17:23), which the notes tell soberly with a word for anyone struggling with such thoughts. Seven of Saul's descendants are put to death to end a famine (chapter 21). The notes explain the broken oath behind it, admit the tension with Deut 24:16, and say it is not a pattern for us. The LORD incites the census while Chronicles names Satan (24:1), and a plague follows (24:15). The notes give the common harmonization. Large numbers are taken as written, and differences with Chronicles are named honestly where they occur.

2 SAMUEL 1

The News of Saul's Death

1 And it was after the death of Saul (Shaul), and David had returned from striking Amalek (Amaleq), and David remained in Ziklag (Tsiqlag) two days. 2 And it was on the third day, and look, a man was coming from the camp, from being with Saul, and his garments were torn and earth was on his head. And it was, when he came to David, and he fell to the ground and bowed down. 3 And David said to him, "From where are you coming?" And he said to him, "From the camp of Israel (Yisra'el) I have escaped." 4 And David said to him, "What was the matter? Tell me, please." And he said, "The people have fled from the battle, and also many of the people have fallen, and they have died; and also Saul and Jonathan (Yehonatan) his son have died." 5 And David said to the young man who was telling him, "How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son have died?" 6 And the young man who was telling him said, "By chance I happened to be on the mountain of Gilboa, and look, Saul was leaning on his spear, and look, the chariotry and the masters of the horses had overtaken him. 7 And he turned behind him and saw me, and he called to me, and I said, 'Here I am.' 8 And he said to me, 'Who are you?' And I said to him, 'I am an Amalekite.' 9 And he said to me, 'Stand over me, please, and kill me, for agony has seized me, for all my life is still in me.' 10 And I stood over him and killed him, for I knew that he would not live after he had fallen. And I took the crown which was on his head and the armlet which was on his arm, and I have brought them to my lord here." 11 And David took hold of his garments and tore them, and also all the men who were with him. 12 And they mourned and wept and fasted until the evening for Saul and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD and for the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword. 13 And David said to the young man who was telling him, "From where are you?" And he said, "I am the son of a man, a sojourner, an Amalekite." 14 And David said to him, "How were you not afraid to stretch out your hand to destroy the anointed of the LORD?" 15 And David called one of the young men and said, "Draw near; fall on him." And he struck him down, and he died. 16 And David said to him, "Your blood be on your head, for your mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I myself have killed the anointed of the LORD.'"

The Song of the Bow

17 And David lamented this lamentation over Saul and over Jonathan his son. 18 And he said to teach the sons of Judah (Yehuda) "The Bow"; look, it is written in the book of Jashar (Yashar): 19 "The beauty, O Israel, is slain on your high places! How the mighty have fallen! 20 Do not tell it in Gath

1:1 after the death of Saul In Hebrew, 1 and 2 Samuel were one book, and this picks up right where 1 Samuel 31 left off. While Saul was dying on Gilboa, David was far to the south recovering what the Amalekites took from Ziklag (1 Sam 30). The two events happened at about the same time.
1:2 his garments were torn and earth was on his head The signs of mourning and bad news. He bowed before David because he already knew who would be king next and wanted to be on the right side of him.
1:4 also Saul and Jonathan his son have died Three blows. Think how much this news held. Saul had tried to kill David again and again. Jonathan was his closest friend, bound to him by covenant (1 Sam 18:1-4; 20:16-17). In one sentence David lost his enemy and his best friend, and the road to the throne God promised him opened.
1:10 I stood over him and killed him Was he telling the truth? The inspired account says Saul fell on his own sword when his armor-bearer refused (1 Sam 31:3-5). Most teachers believe the Amalekite found the body, took the crown and armlet, and made up the rest to win David's favor. Some think Saul had not yet died and the man finished him. Either way, his own words condemned him.
1:10 I took the crown which was on his head The irony: Saul lost his kingdom for not carrying out the LORD's judgment on Amalek (1 Sam 15:18-23). Now an Amalekite claims to have killed him and carries off his crown.
1:12 for the people of the LORD and for the house of Israel Not what the Amalekite expected. David and his men tore their clothes and fasted, not only for Saul and Jonathan but for the whole nation, beaten and shamed. David did not see this as his lucky day. A man who loves God's people grieves when they suffer, even if the suffering clears the way for him.
1:13 the son of a man, a sojourner, an Amalekite A sojourner was a foreigner living in Israel. He knew Israel's ways, who the king was and what it meant that he was anointed.
1:14 How were you not afraid to stretch out your hand to destroy the anointed of the LORD? To be anointed was to have oil poured on your head as a sign that God chose you for a task. Twice David had Saul at his mercy and refused to touch him for this reason (1 Sam 24:6; 26:9-11). He believed the life of the LORD's anointed was in God's hands, not man's.
1:16 your mouth has testified against you You are responsible for your own death, and your own words are the evidence. Was David too harsh? He was about to be king. Rewarding a man for killing the king would tell the nation that murder was the way to get ahead. David made it plain from day one that he did not take the throne by murder.
1:18 it is written in the book of Jashar A lament is a song of grief, and David was a gifted poet (1 Sam 16:18). "The Bow" probably comes from Jonathan's bow (1:22), or it was a tune's name. Jashar means upright, an old book of songs about Israel's heroes also quoted in Joshua 10:13. We no longer have it. It was not Scripture, but the writer used it as a historian uses a good source.
1:19 How the mighty have fallen! The beauty or glory of Israel was its king and his son, fallen on the heights of Gilboa. This refrain runs through the whole song.
1:20 Do not tell it in Gath Gath and Ashkelon were Philistine cities. Their women would sing over Israel's dead as Israel's women once sang over David's victories (1 Sam 18:6-7). The uncircumcised were outside God's covenant with Abraham (Gen 17:10-11). David did not want God's enemies mocking God's people.

(Gat); do not bear the news in the streets of Ashkelon (Ashqelon), lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised exult. 21 O mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew and no rain on you, nor fields of offerings! For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul, not anointed with oil. 22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, and the sword of Saul did not return empty. 23 Saul and Jonathan, the beloved and the pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not separated; they were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions. 24 O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet with luxuries, who put ornaments of gold on your clothing. 25 How the mighty have fallen in the midst of the battle! Jonathan is slain on your high places. 26 It is distressing to me for you, my brother Jonathan; you were very pleasant to me; your love to me was wonderful, more than the love of women. 27 How the mighty have fallen, and the weapons of war have perished!"

David Anointed King over Judah

1 And it was after this, and David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up into one of the cities of Judah (Yehuda)?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up." And David said, "Where shall I go up?" And He said, "To Hebron (Chevron)." 2 And David went up there, and also his two wives, Ahinoam (Achino'am) the Jezreelite and Abigail (Avigayil) the wife of Nabal (Naval) the Carmelite. 3 And his men who were with him David brought up, each man and his household, and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron. 4 And the men of Judah came, and they anointed David there as king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, "The men of Jabesh-gilead (Yavesh-Gilad) are those who buried Saul (Shaul)." 5 And David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-gilead and said to them, "Blessed are you by the LORD, because you have done this steadfast love with your lord, with Saul, and have buried him. 6 And now, may the LORD do steadfast love and faithfulness with you; and I also will do this good with you, because you have done this thing. 7 And now, let your hands be strong, and be sons of valor; for your lord Saul has died, and also the house of Judah has anointed me as king over them."

8 And Abner (Avner) the son of Ner, commander of the army which belonged to Saul, had taken Ish-bosheth (Ish-Boshet) the son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim (Machanayim). 9 And he made him king over Gilead (Gilad) and over the Ashurites and over Jezreel (Yizre'el) and over Ephraim (Efrayim) and over Benjamin (Binyamin) and over

2:9 Num 32:1-42; Josh 13:8-11; Ps 108:8

1:21 O mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew and no rain on you Poetry, a way of saying the place should be mourned forever. Soldiers rubbed oil on leather shields to keep them in shape. Saul's shield lay in the dirt, uncared for, like the king who carried it.
1:22 the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, and the sword of Saul did not return empty Whatever Saul's failures, he and his son fought hard and did not die as cowards.
1:23 in their death they were not separated A gracious line. David says nothing of Saul's jealousy, rages or spear. He remembers what was good. Jonathan stayed loyal to his father while he loved David, and died at his side.
1:24 O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul Saul made Israel stronger and richer than under the judges, and David gave him credit. When someone who hurt us dies or falls, we choose how we speak of them. David chose honor. He did not pretend Saul was perfect, but he did not settle scores. Love "does not count the evil" (1 Cor 13:5).
1:26 your love to me was wonderful, more than the love of women Some today read something sexual into this. That reads our own ideas into the text. In David's world men spoke openly of deep love for a friend. Jonathan's love was wonderful because it was selfless. The heir to the throne gave David his robe and weapons and said, "I, I will be second to you" (1 Sam 23:17). It asked for nothing and gave up a kingdom.
1:27 the weapons of war have perished The weapons of war are the warriors themselves, now gone. Jonathan's love is a small picture of a greater one. "Greater love than this no one has, that one lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). Jonathan gave up a throne for his friend. Jesus left heaven's throne and gave His life for us.
2:1 David inquired of the LORD The throne was promised years before (1 Sam 16:13), and the door was open. Many men would have marched on Saul's capital. David asked God, likely through Abiathar and the ephod (1 Sam 23:9-12; 30:7-8).
2:1 Where shall I go up? David wanted direction, not only permission. Hebron was Judah's chief city, where Abraham, Isaac and Jacob were buried (Gen 23:19; 49:29-31). Before a big step, ask God not only whether, but where and how.
2:2 his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelite and Abigail The king "shall not multiply wives for himself" (Deut 17:17), and God's plan was one man and one woman (Gen 2:24; Matt 19:4-6). Scripture records David's many marriages without approving them, and the rest of the book shows the trouble they brought.
2:3 they dwelt in the cities of Hebron The men who followed him through the hard years in the wilderness now settled with their households.
2:4 they anointed David there as king over the house of Judah David's second anointing. Samuel anointed him among his brothers (1 Sam 16:13), and a third, over all Israel, comes in chapter 5. God's promise came true one step at a time.
2:4 The men of Jabesh-gilead are those who buried Saul Saul rescued that town early in his reign (1 Sam 11), and its men walked all night to take down and bury his body (1 Sam 31:11-13).
2:5 you have done this steadfast love with your lord, with Saul Steadfast love is hesed, loyal love that keeps its commitments. David honored their loyalty to Saul and asked the LORD to repay it.
2:7 the house of Judah has anointed me as king over them Wisdom as well as kindness. Jabesh was east of the Jordan in the area loyal to Saul. David was telling them he did not see Saul's friends as his enemies, and gently inviting them to accept him.
2:8 Abner the son of Ner, commander of the army Saul's cousin (1 Sam 14:50). Mahanaim was east of the Jordan, safely away from the Philistines, who now held much of the land west of the river.
2:8 Ish-bosheth the son of Saul Ish-bosheth means man of shame. He is called Eshbaal, man of Baal, in 1 Chr 8:33. Baal also means lord or master, and some Israelites used it of the LORD early on. Many believe the writer changed baal to bosheth, shame, because later Israel could not bear to speak the false god's name. Mephibosheth (4:4) is likewise Merib-baal (1 Chr 8:34).

Israel (Yisra'el), all of it. 10 Ish-bosheth the son of Saul was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he reigned two years. Only the house of Judah was after David. 11 And the number of the days which David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

The Battle at the Pool of Gibeon

12 And Abner the son of Ner went out, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, from Mahanaim to Gibeon (Givon). 13 And Joab (Yo'av) the son of Zeruiah (Tseruya) and the servants of David went out, and they met them at the pool of Gibeon together. And they sat down, these at the pool on this side and these at the pool on that side. 14 And Abner said to Joab, "Let the young men arise, please, and let them play before us." And Joab said, "Let them arise." 15 And they arose and passed over by number, twelve for Benjamin and for Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve from the servants of David. 16 And they took hold, each man of the head of his neighbor, and his sword was in the side of his neighbor, and they fell together. And one called that place
Helkath-hazzurim (Chelqat-Hatsurim), which is in Gibeon. 17 And the battle was very severe on that day, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated before the servants of David. 18 And the three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab and Abishai (Avishay) and Asahel. And Asahel was swift on his feet, like one of the gazelles which are in the field. 19 And Asahel pursued after Abner, and he did not turn aside to go to the right or to the left from after Abner. 20 And Abner turned behind him and said, "Is this you, Asahel?" And he said, "It is I." 21 And Abner said to him, "Turn yourself aside to your right or to your left, and seize for yourself one of the young men, and take for yourself his spoil." And Asahel was not willing to turn aside from after him. 22 And Abner again said to Asahel, "Turn yourself aside from after me. Why should I strike you to the ground? And how would I lift up my face to Joab your brother?" 23 And he refused to turn aside, and Abner struck him with the back end of the spear in the belly, and the spear came out from behind him; and he fell there and died in his place. And it was, everyone who came to the place where Asahel had fallen there and died, they stood still. 24 And Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner. And the sun set, and they came to the hill of Ammah (Ama), which is before Giah (Giach) on the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. 25 And the sons of Benjamin gathered together behind Abner and became one band, and they stood on the top of one hill. 26 And Abner called out to Joab and said, "Shall the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it will be bitter at the end? And how long will you not tell the people to turn back from after their brothers?" 27 And Joab said, "As God lives, if you had not spoken, then surely from the morning the people would have gone up, each from after his brother." 28 And Joab blew the trumpet, and all the people stood still, and they no longer pursued after Israel, and they no longer continued to fight. 29 And Abner and his men went through the Arabah (Arava) all that night, and they crossed the Jordan (Yarden), and went through all the Bithron (Bitron), and came to Mahanaim. 30 And Joab returned from after Abner, and he gathered all the people, and of the servants of David nineteen men and Asahel were missing. 31 And the servants of David had struck down of Benjamin, even of the men of Abner, three hundred and sixty men; they died. 32 And they lifted up Asahel and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in Bethlehem (Bet-Lechem). And Joab and his men went all the night, and it became light for them at Hebron.

2:10 he reigned two years Yet David reigned seven and a half years in Hebron (2:11). Perhaps Abner needed years to win back the north from the Philistines before Ish-bosheth's rule took hold, or there was a gap after his death. Scripture does not explain, and both fit. The real power was Abner.
2:13 they met them at the pool of Gibeon together Gibeon was a town in Benjamin about six miles northwest of Jerusalem. Joab was David's nephew, son of his sister Zeruiah (1 Chr 2:16), and became commander of his army. A large pool cut into the rock has been found at Gibeon, though it is not certain it is this one.
2:14 Let the young men arise, please, and let them play before us It sounds like a game, but it was a contest of champions to the death.
2:16 they fell together All twenty-four died. Helkath-hazzurim means field of sharp edges or field of blades. The contest settled nothing, and full battle broke out. This is civil war: brothers in the same covenant killing each other for sport, then for real.
2:18 Asahel was swift on his feet, like one of the gazelles which are in the field The youngest son of Zeruiah set his eyes on the biggest prize, Abner himself, and would not turn aside.
2:21 seize for yourself one of the young men, and take for yourself his spoil Go after someone your own size and take his armor as a trophy. Abner did not want to kill him.
2:22 how would I lift up my face to Joab your brother? Abner knew killing Asahel would start a blood feud with Joab.
2:23 Abner struck him with the back end of the spear in the belly The butt of a spear was often sharpened or capped with metal to stick in the ground, and the running man rushed onto it. Asahel was brave, but his courage outran his wisdom. Warned twice, he would not listen. Young zeal without listening can be deadly.
2:26 Shall the sword devour forever? A question that should have been asked before the first sword was drawn, though Abner started the fight. The key word is brothers. These were not Philistines. When believers turn on each other in a church or a family, nobody really wins.
2:27 if you had not spoken Hard to follow. Joab may mean there would have been no battle had Abner not proposed the contest that morning, or that the chase would have gone on till morning had Abner not called for peace. Either way, he blew the trumpet to stop.
2:29 Abner and his men went through the Arabah all that night The Arabah here is the deep Jordan valley.
2:31 three hundred and sixty men Against nineteen and Asahel. David's men won a clear victory.
2:32 buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in Bethlehem David's hometown and the family home of Zeruiah's sons. Asahel died in battle after fair warning, but Joab would treat it as murder. Chapter 3 shows what that grudge cost.

David's Sons Born in Hebron

1 And the war was long between the house of Saul (Shaul) and the house of David. And David was going on and growing stronger, and the house of Saul was going on and growing weaker. 2 And sons were born to David in Hebron (Chevron). And his firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam (Achino'am) the Jezreelite; 3 and his second was Chileab (Kilav), by Abigail (Avigayil) the wife of Nabal (Naval) the Carmelite; and the third was Absalom (Avshalom) the son of Maacah (Ma'akha) the daughter of Talmai (Talmay) king of Geshur; 4 and the fourth was Adonijah (Adoniya) the son of Haggith (Chagit); and the fifth was Shephatiah (Shefatya) the son of Abital (Avital); 5 and the sixth was Ithream (Yitre'am), by Eglah (Egla) the wife of David. These were born to David in Hebron.

Abner Turns to David

6 And it was, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, and Abner (Avner) was strengthening himself in the house of Saul. 7 And Saul had a concubine, and her name was Rizpah (Ritspa) the daughter of Aiah (Aya). And he said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to the concubine of my father?" 8 And Abner was very angry over the words of Ish-bosheth (Ish-Boshet), and he said, "Am I a dog's head which belongs to Judah (Yehuda)? This day I do steadfast love with the house of Saul your father, to his brothers and to his friends, and I have not delivered you into the hand of David; and you charge against me the iniquity of the woman this day? 9 So may God do to Abner, and so may He add to him, for just as the LORD swore to David, so I will do for him: 10 to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to establish the throne of David over Israel (Yisra'el) and over Judah, from Dan even to Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva)." 11 And he was not able to answer Abner a word again, because he feared him. 12 And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, "Whose is the land?" saying, "Make your covenant with me, and look, my hand will be with you to bring all Israel around to you." 13 And he said, "Good; I will make a covenant with you. Only one thing I ask of you, saying, 'You will not see my face unless you first bring Michal (Mikhal) the daughter of Saul when you come to see my face.'" 14 And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, saying, "Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself for a hundred foreskins of the Philistines." 15 And Ish-bosheth sent and took her from her husband, from Paltiel the son of Laish (Layish). 16 And her husband went with her, going and weeping behind her, as far as Bahurim (Bachurim). And Abner said to him, "Go, return." And he returned. 17 And the word of Abner was with the elders of Israel, saying, "Both yesterday and the day before you were seeking David as king over you. 18 And now act, for the LORD has spoken to David, saying, 'By the hand of David My servant I will save My people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of all their enemies.'" 19 And Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin (Binyamin); and Abner also went to speak in the ears of David at Hebron all that was good in the eyes of Israel and in the eyes of all the house of Benjamin. 20 And Abner came to David at Hebron, and twenty men were with him. And David made a feast for 3:1 David was going on and growing stronger, and the house of Saul was going on and growing weaker Gibeon was only the beginning. God's promises do not always come true overnight. David was anointed as a young man and still had to wait and fight. If you are waiting on God, take heart. Slow is not the same as stopped.

3:2 his firstborn was Amnon, by Ahinoam the Jezreelite Six sons by six mothers. These names will come back. Amnon will sin terribly against his half-sister (chapter 13), and Adonijah will try to seize the throne (1 Kgs 1). Chileab is never mentioned again and may have died young. David's growing house was also a divided house, with many rivals and many claims to the throne.
3:3 Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur Geshur was a small kingdom northeast of the Sea of Galilee, so this was likely a political marriage to secure a border. Absalom will murder Amnon and try to take his father's throne (chapters 13 to 18).
3:6 Abner was strengthening himself in the house of Saul He was the real power behind Ish-bosheth's throne.
3:7 Why have you gone in to the concubine of my father? A concubine was a wife of lower rank. Rizpah returns in chapter 21. Taking a dead king's woman was a claim to his throne, as with Absalom (16:21-22) and Adonijah's request for Abishag (1 Kgs 2:22). Scripture does not say if the charge was true, but Abner did not deny it.
3:8 Am I a dog's head which belongs to Judah? Do you treat me like a worthless dog, a traitor on David's side? Abner reminded Ish-bosheth that he alone had kept him on the throne.
3:9 just as the LORD swore to David Abner knew all along that the LORD had sworn the kingdom to David, and he had fought what he knew was God's will. Dan to Beersheba means the whole land. He changed sides not from repentance but from anger. God can use even a proud man's temper for His purposes.
3:11 he was not able to answer Abner a word again, because he feared him A king afraid of his own general is no king at all.
3:12 Make your covenant with me A covenant is a binding agreement sealed by oath. Abner offered to deliver the kingdom.
3:13 unless you first bring Michal the daughter of Saul Saul gave her to David for a hundred Philistine foreskins (1 Sam 18:25-27), then gave her to Paltiel when David fled (1 Sam 25:44). David's demand was partly a husband's claim and partly political. A daughter of Saul at his side would help the north accept him as Saul's rightful heir.
3:16 her husband went with her, going and weeping behind her, as far as Bahurim One of the saddest lines in the book. We are not told what Michal felt, only that Paltiel loved her. The Law forbade taking back a wife who had married another (Deut 24:1-4), though David might argue his marriage was never lawfully ended. Teachers judge it differently. Michal was a piece in a political game. When people use people, someone always pays.
3:17 Both yesterday and the day before you were seeking David as king over you Many in the north had wanted David for a long time. The elders were the leaders of the tribes.
3:18 By the hand of David My servant I will save My people Israel This exact promise is not recorded elsewhere, but it fits all God said about David (1 Sam 16:12-13; 25:28-30). Abner, who fought God's plan, now preached it. He also spoke to Benjamin, Saul's tribe, the hardest to win.
3:20 David made a feast for Abner A shared meal sealed friendship and peace.

Abner and for the men who were with him. 21 And Abner said to David, "Let me arise and go and gather all Israel to my lord the king, so that they may make a covenant with you, and you will reign over all that your soul desires." And David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

Joab Murders Abner

22 And look, the servants of David and Joab (Yo'av) came from the raid, and they brought much plunder with them. And Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace. 23 And Joab and all the army which was with him came, and they told Joab, saying, "Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he has gone in peace." 24 And Joab came to the king and said, "What have you done? Look, Abner came to you; why is this, that you have sent him away, and he has fully gone? 25 You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing." 26 And Joab went out from David and sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the cistern of Sirah (Sira). And David did not know. 27 And Abner returned to Hebron, and Joab turned him aside into the middle of the gate to speak with him quietly, and he struck him there in the belly, and he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother. 28 And David heard afterward, and he said, "I and my kingdom are innocent before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner. 29 Let it whirl on the head of Joab and on all the house of his father; and let there not be cut off from the house of Joab one who has a discharge, and one with a skin disease, and one who takes hold of the spindle, and one who falls by the sword, and one lacking bread." 30 And Joab and Abishai (Avishay) his brother killed Abner, because he had killed Asahel their brother at Gibeon (Givon) in the battle. 31 And David said to Joab and to all the people who were with him, "Tear your garments and gird yourselves with sackcloth and mourn before Abner." And King David was walking after the bier. 32 And they buried Abner in Hebron, and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept. 33 And the king lamented over Abner and said, "Should Abner die like the death of a fool? 34 Your hands were not bound, and your feet were not brought near to bronze fetters; as one falls before sons of injustice, you have fallen." And all the people again wept over him. 35 And all the people came to make David eat bread while it was still day; and David swore, saying, "So may God do to me, and so may He add, if before the sun sets I taste bread or anything at all." 36 And all the people took notice, and it was good in their eyes, just as all that the king did was good in the eyes of all the people. 37 And all the people and all Israel knew on that day that it was not from the king to kill Abner the son of Ner. 38 And the king said to his servants, "Do you not know that a leader and a great man has fallen this day in Israel? 39 And I am weak this day, and anointed king; and these men, the sons of Zeruiah (Tseruya), are too hard for me. May the LORD repay the doer of the evil according to his evil."

The Murder of Ish-bosheth

4:2 Josh 18:25; Josh 9:17; 2 Sam 3:22

3:21 he went in peace Said three times in a few verses (3:21-23). The writer wants us sure of it. David gave his word for Abner's safety.
3:25 he came to deceive you Joab called Abner a spy. Partly concern for David, perhaps, but Abner had killed his brother, and if he brought Israel to David, he might take Joab's place as commander. Revenge and ambition easily dress themselves up as loyalty.
3:26 David did not know Joab acted behind the king's back. Abner had no reason to suspect anything.
3:27 he struck him there in the belly, and he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother This was murder. Asahel died in battle after two warnings, and Abner was under the king's peace. Hebron was a city of refuge, where a slayer was safe until a fair trial (Josh 20:7; 21:13). The avenger of blood had rights (Num 35:19), but this was not murder to avenge. The Lord says, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay" (Rom 12:19). Some teachers weigh Joab's claim differently.
3:28 I and my kingdom are innocent before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner David publicly cleared himself of any part in it.
3:29 one who takes hold of the spindle A discharge and skin disease made a man unclean. The spindle was used for spinning thread, women's work, so it may mean a man too weak to fight. David asked God to bring Joab's guilt back on his own house.
3:30 at Gibeon in the battle The writer makes it plain. Abner killed Asahel in war, not in murder.
3:31 King David was walking after the bier Sackcloth was rough goat's-hair cloth worn in grief, and the bier was the frame on which the body was carried. David made Joab himself mourn.
3:34 Your hands were not bound Abner was not a prisoner fairly tried but a free man struck down by treachery. David refused to eat until sunset. His grief was public and real.
3:37 it was not from the king to kill Abner the son of Ner This mattered. If the north believed David lured Abner to Hebron to kill him, they would never trust him. God protected David's name, and the kingdom stayed on its path to unity.
3:39 the sons of Zeruiah, are too hard for me Joab was too powerful, useful and popular to punish, so David left him to God. Many think David was too soft, and Joab killed again (20:8-10). On his deathbed David told Solomon to deal with him (1 Kgs 2:5-6). Leaders who will not deal with sin in those close to them often pay for it later. Still, God did repay.
4:1 his hands dropped, and all Israel was terrified To have your hands drop is to lose all strength and courage. Ish-bosheth had been propped up by Abner, and the writer does not even use his name here. When a leader's power rests on another man instead of on God, it falls when that man falls.
4:2 the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the sons of Benjamin These raiding captains came from Saul's own tribe. Beeroth was one of the Gibeonite towns (Josh 9:17) counted to Benjamin. Ish-bosheth was betrayed from inside his own house.

also is reckoned to Benjamin. 3 And the Beerothites fled to Gittaim (Gitayim), and they have been sojourners there until this day. 4 And Jonathan (Yehonatan) the son of Saul had a son stricken in the feet. He was five years old when the report of Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel (Yizre'el), and his nurse lifted him up and fled. And it was, as she hurried to flee, and he fell and became lame. And his name was Mephi-bosheth (Mefivoshet). 5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and they came in the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth (Ish-Boshet), and he was lying down for the noonday rest. 6 And they came there into the middle of the house, taking wheat, and they struck him in the belly; and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped. 7 And they came into the house, and he was lying on his bed in his bedchamber; and they struck him and killed him and removed his head; and they took his head and went by the way of the Arabah (Arava) all the night. 8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David at Hebron, and they said to the king, "Look, the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life; and the LORD has given to my lord the king vengeance this day on Saul and on his seed." 9 And David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and he said to them, "As the LORD lives, who has ransomed my soul from all trouble, 10 when the one who told me, saying, 'Look, Saul has died,' and he was like a bearer of good news in his own eyes, I took hold of him and killed him in Ziklag (Tsiqlag), that was my giving to him for his good news. 11 How much more, when wicked men have killed a righteous man in his own house on his bed! And now, shall I not require his blood from your hand and remove you from the earth?" 12 And David commanded the young men, and they killed them and cut off their hands and their feet and hanged them by the pool in Hebron. And the head of Ish-bosheth they took, and they buried it in the tomb of Abner in Hebron.

David King over All Israel

1 And all the tribes of Israel (Yisra'el) came to David at Hebron (Chevron), and they spoke, saying, "Look, we are your bone and your flesh. 2 Both yesterday and the day before, when Saul (Shaul) was king over us, you were the one who led out and brought in Israel. And the LORD said to you, 'You will shepherd My people Israel, and you will become ruler over Israel.'" 3 And all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David as king over Israel. 4 David was thirty years old when he became king; he reigned forty years. 5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah (Yehuda) seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim) he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

4:3 the Beerothites fled to Gittaim Some think the first people of Beeroth fled when Saul attacked the Gibeonites (21:1-2), and men of Benjamin settled in their town. Scripture does not say for certain.
4:4 his name was Mephibosheth The writer pauses to show that with Ish-bosheth gone, the only male heir of Saul's line left was a lame child. No one in Saul's house could stand against David. It also sets up chapter 9. In a chapter full of treachery, God quietly plants a seed of mercy.
4:5 he was lying down for the noonday rest People rested in the hottest part of the day, so the house would be quiet. The killers were his own officers, and he was asleep in his own bed. This was a cowardly crime.
4:6 taking wheat They may have pretended to collect grain for their troops, which gave them a reason to be in the house.
4:7 went by the way of the Arabah all the night They traveled down the Jordan valley through the night to reach David. The writer tells it plainly and quickly. The point is the treachery, and what David will do about it.
4:8 the LORD has given to my lord the king vengeance this day They put God's name on their murder. People still do wrong and say God was behind it. God had promised David the throne, and He would give it in His way and time. He did not need assassins. They also twisted the facts, since it was Saul, not his son, who sought David's life.
4:9 who has ransomed my soul from all trouble To ransom is to set free by paying a price. David was saying, the LORD has always rescued me. I never needed men like you to save me, and I do not need you now.
4:10 I took hold of him and killed him in Ziklag If David punished the Amalekite who only claimed to have killed Saul, a king who had hunted him, how much more would he punish these men.
4:11 wicked men have killed a righteous man in his own house on his bed Righteous here means innocent of any crime that deserved death, not perfect. God had said since Noah that whoever sheds man's blood, by man his blood shall be shed (Gen 9:6), and no ransom could be taken for a murderer (Num 35:31). David acted as a king must when innocent blood is shed.
4:12 cut off their hands and their feet and hanged them by the pool in Hebron The hands that killed and the feet that ran with the head were put on public display as a warning. This is a record of justice in an ancient kingdom, not a pattern for us. God gives government the duty of punishing evil (Rom 13:4), but calls each of us to love our enemies and leave vengeance to Him.
4:12 they buried it in the tomb of Abner in Hebron David gave Saul's son an honorable burial. The way to God's blessing is never through sin. When the throne came in chapter 5, no one could say David had bloody hands in getting it. God does not need us to cut corners to keep His promises.
5:1 we are your bone and your flesh With Abner and Ish-bosheth gone, the north had no leader. They gave three reasons for making David king. First, family. They were one people, and the civil war had been a war between brothers.
5:2 You will shepherd My people Israel Second, his record, for David had led Israel's armies even under Saul. Third and most important, God's call. A shepherd leads, feeds and protects. God is the Shepherd of Israel (Ps 23:1), and Jesus is "the good shepherd" (John 10:11), who lays down His life for the sheep.
5:3 King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD The king promised to rule justly under God and the people promised to follow him. Israel's king was never meant to be above God's law (Deut 17:18-20). This was David's third anointing, after Bethlehem and Judah. God is never late, even when we think He is slow.
5:4 David was thirty years old when he became king Thirty was the age for full service (Num 4:3). Joseph was thirty before Pharaoh (Gen 41:46), and Jesus was about thirty when He began His ministry (Luke 3:23).
5:5 in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years Most conservative scholars date David's reign about 1010 to 970 B.C., which places the taking of Jerusalem about 1003 B.C. Some date these a few years differently. Jerusalem has been the center of the story of God's people ever since.

Jerusalem Taken

6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusite, the inhabitant of the land; and he spoke to David, saying, "You will not come in here, but the blind and the lame will turn you away," saying, "David will not come in here." 7 And David captured the stronghold of Zion (Tsiyon); it is the city of David. 8 And David said on that day, "Whoever strikes a Jebusite, let him reach by the water shaft the lame and the blind, who are hated by the soul of David." Therefore they say, "The blind and the lame will not come into the house." 9 And David dwelt in the stronghold and called it the city of David. And David built all around, from the Millo and inward. 10 And David went on, going on and becoming great, and the LORD God of armies was with him.

David's House and Family

11 And Hiram (Chiram) king of Tyre (Tsor) sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and craftsmen of wood and craftsmen of wall stone; and they built a house for David. 12 And David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel, and that He had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel. 13 And David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem after he came from Hebron, and more sons and daughters were born to David. 14 And these are the names of those born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua (Shamua) and Shobab (Shovav) and Nathan (Natan) and Solomon (Shelomo), 15 and Ibhar (Yivchar) and Elishua and Nepheg (Nefeg) and Japhia (Yafia), 16 and Elishama and Eliada (Elyada) and Eliphelet (Elifelet).

Victories over the Philistines

17 And the Philistines heard that they had anointed David as king over Israel, and all the Philistines went up to seek David; and David heard and went down to the stronghold. 18 And the Philistines came and were spread out in the valley of Rephaim (Refa'im). 19 And David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You give them into my hand?" And the LORD said to David, "Go up, for I will certainly give the Philistines into your hand." 20 And David came to Baal-perazim (Ba'al-Peratsim), and David struck them down there, and he said, "The LORD has burst through my enemies before me, like a bursting out of waters." Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perazim. 21 And they abandoned their idols there, and David and his men carried them off. 22 And the Philistines went up yet again and were spread out in the valley of Rephaim. 23 And David inquired of the LORD, and He said, "You shall not go up; go around behind them, and come at them from in front of the balsam trees. 24 And let it be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then you shall act decisively, for then the LORD has gone out before you to

5:6 the blind and the lame will turn you away Jerusalem sat on the border of Judah and Benjamin and belonged to neither, since Israel had never taken it (Josh 15:63; Judg 1:21). It was a fine capital for a united nation. With deep valleys on three sides, the Jebusites mocked that even their blind and lame could defend it.
5:7 David captured the stronghold of Zion Zion was the fortified hill. The name later grew to mean the temple mount, then all Jerusalem, and finally God's people and His heavenly city (Ps 2:6; Heb 12:22).
5:8 let him reach by the water shaft The city drew water from a spring outside the wall through a tunnel, and many believe David's men climbed it. Joab went up first and became commander (1 Chr 11:6). Which tunnel, if any, is still debated.
5:8 the lame and the blind, who are hated by the soul of David David turned the Jebusite taunt back on them. It was not a statement about disabled people, for in chapter 9 David welcomes lame Mephibosheth to his table. The proverb that grew from this day is not clear, and good teachers explain it differently.
5:9 from the Millo and inward The Millo was likely a filled-in terrace or set of supporting walls on the hillside that made room for more buildings. The word comes from a Hebrew root meaning to fill.
5:10 the LORD God of armies was with him This is the secret of David's rise. It was not his skill or army but God's presence. The LORD of armies, the LORD of hosts in older Bibles, commands all the armies of heaven and earth.
5:11 Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees Tyre was a rich port north of Israel, in what is now Lebanon, famous for cedar. The nations now saw Israel as a real kingdom. Hiram reigned into Solomon's time (1 Kgs 5), so the writer may group this by subject rather than strict time order.
5:12 for the sake of His people Israel God did not make David king for David's sake. Any position God gives us, at work, at church or at home, is given so we can serve others, not ourselves.
5:13 David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem Scripture tells us plainly without approving it. The Law warned the king not to multiply wives (Deut 17:17). This would bring jealousy, rivalry and sin into his family, and Solomon would follow the pattern to his ruin (1 Kgs 11:1-4).
5:14 Nathan and Solomon Through Solomon the royal line came to Joseph, the legal father of Jesus (Matt 1:6-16). Through Nathan came Mary's line, according to many Bible teachers who read Luke's genealogy that way (Luke 3:31). God was already preparing the family line of the Messiah.
5:17 all the Philistines went up to seek David As long as Israel was divided, the Philistines were content. A united Israel under David was a threat. David went down to a stronghold, likely one he knew from his wilderness years.
5:19 David inquired of the LORD The Philistines spread out in the valley of Rephaim, southwest of Jerusalem. David did what he did in his best moments. He did not assume that being king meant he no longer needed to ask.
5:20 like a bursting out of waters Picture a flood breaking through a dam. Baal-perazim means master of breakthroughs. David gave the credit to the LORD.
5:21 they abandoned their idols there The Philistine gods could not even save themselves. David had them burned (1 Chr 14:12), as the Law commanded (Deut 7:5). Years earlier the Philistines carried off the ark (1 Sam 4:11). Now Israel carried off their idols.
5:23 You shall not go up; go around behind them Same enemy, same valley, but a different plan. Many leaders would have repeated what worked last time. Yesterday's victory does not mean we stop asking God today.
5:24 when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees The sound in the treetops was the LORD's army moving ahead of David. David's job was to wait for it, then move.

strike the camp of the Philistines." 25 And David did so, just as the LORD had commanded him, and he struck down the Philistines from Geba (Geva) until you come to Gezer.

The Ark on a New Cart

1 And David again gathered every chosen man in Israel (Yisra'el), thirty thousand. 2 And David arose and went, and all the people who were with him, from Baalah (Ba'ala) of Judah (Yehuda), to bring up from there the ark of God, over which the name is called, the name of the LORD of armies, who sits on the cherubim. 3 And they made the ark of God ride on a new cart, and they carried it from the house of Abinadab (Avinadav), which was on the hill; and Uzzah (Uza) and Ahio (Achyo), the sons of Abinadab, were leading the new cart. 4 And they carried it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill, with the ark of God; and Ahio was walking before the ark. 5 And David and all the house of Israel were playing before the LORD with all kinds of instruments of fir wood, and with lyres and with harps and with tambourines and with rattles and with cymbals. 6 And they came to the threshing floor of Nacon (Nakhon), and Uzzah stretched out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it, for the oxen had stumbled. 7 And the anger of the LORD burned against Uzzah, and God struck him down there for the error, and he died there beside the ark of God. 8 And David was angry because the LORD had broken out with a breaking out against Uzzah; and he called that place Perez-uzzah (Perets-Uza) until this day. 9 And David feared the LORD on that day, and he said, "How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?" 10 And David was not willing to turn aside the ark of the LORD to himself, to the city of David; and David turned it aside to the house of Obed-edom (Oved-Edom) the Gittite. 11 And the ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household.

The Ark Brought to the City of David

12 And it was told to King David, saying, "The LORD has blessed the household of Obed-edom and all that belongs to him, for the sake of the ark of God." And David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom to the city of David with rejoicing. 13 And it was, when the bearers of the ark of the LORD had stepped six steps, and he sacrificed an ox and a fatling. 14 And David was dancing with all his strength before the LORD, and David was girded with an ephod of linen. 15 And David and all the house of Israel were bringing up the ark of the LORD with shouting and with 5:25 from Geba until you come to Gezer David did just as the LORD commanded, and the Philistines were driven back toward their own land. David did not lean on his experience. He leaned on the LORD.

6:1 every chosen man in Israel, thirty thousand This was a national event. David wanted the whole nation to share in bringing God's presence to the new capital.
6:2 from Baalah of Judah Baalah is another name for Kiriath-jearim (Josh 15:9; 1 Chr 13:6), about eight or nine miles west of Jerusalem. The ark had been there since the Philistines sent it back (1 Sam 6:21 to 7:2), and Saul showed little interest in it (1 Chr 13:3).
6:2 who sits on the cherubim The ark was a gold-covered chest about three and three quarter feet long, holding the tablets of the Ten Commandments. Its lid was the mercy seat, with two golden cherubim over it (Exod 25:10-22). It was the place of God's throne on earth, not a lucky charm.
6:3 they made the ark of God ride on a new cart A new cart sounds respectful, but it was not what God said. The ark was to be carried on poles on the shoulders of the Kohathite Levites (Exod 25:14; Num 7:9). The Philistines had used a new cart (1 Sam 6:7-8). David copied the Philistines instead of reading God's Word.
6:3 Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab These men had grown up with the ark in their house. Familiarity may have made them careless.
6:5 playing before the LORD with all kinds of instruments Their worship was loud, joyful and sincere. But sincere is not the same as obedient.
6:6 Uzzah stretched out his hand to the ark of God and took hold of it A threshing floor was a flat, hard area where grain was beaten out. The oxen stumbled, the cart lurched, and Uzzah reached out to keep the ark from falling.
6:7 God struck him down there for the error This is one of the hardest verses in the book. No one was to touch the holy things, or they would die (Num 4:15), and Israel had seen Beth-shemesh (1 Sam 6:19-20). The trip was wrong from the start. With Levites carrying it, there would have been no oxen to stumble (1 Chr 15:13).
6:7 he died there beside the ark of God Uzzah treated the ark as though it needed his protection. God was also teaching Israel at a new beginning, as with Nadab and Abihu (Lev 10:1-3) and Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:1-11). Scripture does not tell us Uzzah's eternal state. We come near now through the blood of Jesus (Heb 10:19-22).
6:8 David was angry The same word for breaking out was used against the Philistines in 5:20. Now God broke out against His own people. David's anger is honest. It is not wrong to bring our confusion to God, but we must not stop there.
6:9 How shall the ark of the LORD come to me? David's anger turned to fear, and that was a good question. How can a holy God dwell among sinful people? The whole Bible answers it, and the final answer is the cross. David's fear led him back to God's Word.
6:10 the house of Obed-edom the Gittite A Gittite was usually a man from Gath, though some think he was a Levite from Gath-rimmon (Josh 21:24-25). Obed-edom is later listed among Levites serving at the ark (1 Chr 15:18, 24).
6:11 the LORD blessed Obed-edom and all his household The same ark that brought death to Uzzah brought blessing to Obed-edom. The difference was not in the ark but in how God's presence was received.
6:13 the bearers of the ark of the LORD had stepped six steps This time David did it God's way. He called the Levites and had them carry it on their shoulders with the poles (1 Chr 15:15). The sacrifice after six steps thanked God and sought His favor. David was taking no chances with God's holiness.
6:14 David was dancing with all his strength before the LORD The linen ephod was a simple garment worn by priests and those serving before the LORD (1 Sam 2:18). David had laid aside his royal robes. God's holiness did not kill David's joy. It shaped it. Reverence and joy belong together.

the sound of a trumpet. 16 And it was, as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, and Michal (Mikhal) the daughter of Saul (Shaul) looked down through the window, and she saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart. 17 And they brought in the ark of the LORD and set it in its place in the midst of the tent which David had pitched for it; and David offered up burnt offerings before the LORD, and peace offerings. 18 And David finished offering up the burnt offering and the peace offerings, and he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of armies. 19 And he distributed to all the people, to all the multitude of Israel, from man even to woman, to each one cake of bread and one date cake and one raisin cake. And all the people went, each to his house.

Michal Despises David

20 And David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and she said, "How the king of Israel has honored himself this day, who has uncovered himself this day in the eyes of the maidservants of his servants, as one of the worthless men shamelessly uncovers himself!" 21 And David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me above your father and above all his household, to appoint me ruler over the people of the LORD, over Israel; and I will play before the LORD. 22 And I will demean myself still more than this, and I will be lowly in my own eyes; and with the maidservants of whom you have spoken, with them I will be honored." 23 And to Michal the daughter of Saul there was no child until the day of her death.

David Wants to Build a House

1 And it was, when the king dwelt in his house, and the LORD had given him rest all around from all his enemies, 2 and the king said to Nathan (Natan) the prophet, "See now, I am dwelling in a house of cedar, and the ark of God is dwelling in the midst of the curtain." 3 And Nathan said to the king, "All that is in your heart, go, do, for the LORD is with you."

The LORD's Covenant with David

4 And it was in that night, and the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying, 5 "Go, and say to My servant, to David, 'Thus says the LORD: Are you the one who will build for Me a house for My dwelling? 6 For I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought up the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) from Egypt (Mitsrayim) even to this day, and I have been going about in a tent and in a tabernacle. 7 In all places where I have gone about among all the sons of Israel, did I speak a word with one of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Israel, saying, "Why have you not built for Me a house of cedar?"' 8 And now, thus you shall say to My servant, to David, 'Thus says the LORD of armies: I took you from the pasture, from after the flock, to be ruler over My people, over Israel. 9 And I have been with you wherever you went, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the 6:16 Michal the daughter of Saul looked down through the window Not the wife of David, but the daughter of Saul. She saw things as her father did. Saul cared little for the ark and much for his own dignity. Michal looked down on David from the window and in her heart, watching from a distance instead of joining in.

6:17 the tent which David had pitched for it The tabernacle of Moses was at Gibeon at this time (1 Chr 16:39; 2 Chr 1:3-4). David made a new tent in Jerusalem until a temple could be built.
6:17 burnt offerings before the LORD, and peace offerings A burnt offering was burned whole as an act of full surrender. A peace offering was shared, part burned to God and the rest eaten by the worshipers in fellowship with Him (Lev 3; 7:11-15).
6:19 from man even to woman Every person went home with bread, a date cake and a raisin cake. This was a feast for the whole nation.
6:20 who has uncovered himself this day in the eyes of the maidservants The linen ephod was a short garment, and David may have shown more than royal robes would have. But Michal's real problem was not his clothing. It was that the king had made himself lowly.
6:21 who chose me above your father and above all his household David reminded her that God had chosen him over Saul. His dancing was before the LORD, not before people.
6:22 I will be lowly in my own eyes David cared more about God's honor than his own. When others worship with joy, are we like Michal at the window with a critical heart? Jesus humbled Himself far more, even to death on a cross (Phil 2:5-8). We should never be too proud to worship Him.
6:23 there was no child until the day of her death Scripture does not say whether this was God's judgment, David no longer living with her as his wife, or both. Either way, no child of Saul through Michal would sit on David's throne.
7:1 the LORD had given him rest all around from all his enemies This chapter likely comes after some of the wars in chapter 8, since the writer often groups by subject. God had promised that when He gave rest, He would choose a place for His name (Deut 12:10-11).
7:2 the ark of God is dwelling in the midst of the curtain Cedar was the finest wood. David lived in comfort while the ark sat in a tent, and that bothered him. His desire came from a good heart. He wanted God honored above himself. Nathan the prophet appears here for the first time.
7:3 All that is in your heart, go, do It sounded like good advice, but Nathan spoke before he had heard from God. Even good men can give their own opinion when they should wait on the LORD.
7:5 Are you the one who will build for Me a house God corrected His prophet before morning, and He still called David My servant. God was not angry. He honored David's desire, but He had a different plan.
7:6 I have been going about in a tent and in a tabernacle God moved with His people and never asked for a house. Heaven cannot contain Him, much less a house built by men (1 Kgs 8:27). Everything good comes from God to us, not from us to God. David was also a man of war, and the temple would be built by a man of peace (1 Chr 22:8).
7:8 I took you from the pasture, from after the flock David had been the youngest son, so overlooked that his own father did not bring him in when Samuel came (1 Sam 16:11). God took him from there.
7:9 I will make for you a great name This echoes God's promise to Abraham (Gen 12:2). The covenant with David builds on the covenant with Abraham. Three thousand years later, David's name is still known around the world.

be a son to Me. When he commits iniquity, I will correct him with a rod of men and with strokes of the sons of mankind;
15 and My steadfast love will not depart from him, as I removed it from Saul (Shaul), whom I removed from before you. 16 And your house and your kingdom will be established forever before you; your throne will be established forever.'" 17 According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

David's Prayer

18 And King David went in and sat before the LORD, and he said, "Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my house, that You have brought me this far? 19 And this was yet small in Your eyes, O Lord GOD, and You have also spoken concerning the house of Your servant for a long time to come; and this is the law of mankind, O Lord GOD. 20 And what more shall David speak to You? And You, You know Your servant, O Lord GOD.
21 For the sake of Your word, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, to make Your servant know it. 22 Therefore You are great, O Lord GOD; for there is none like You, and there is no God except You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. 23 And who is like Your people, like Israel, one nation on the earth, whom God went to ransom for Himself as a people, and to make for Himself a name, and to do for you the greatness and awesome deeds for Your land, before Your people whom You ransomed for Yourself from Egypt, from nations and their gods? 24 And You established for Yourself Your people Israel to be Yours as a people forever; and You, O LORD, have become God to them. 25 And now, O LORD God, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, establish forever, and do just as You have

7:10 I will appoint a place for My people, for Israel, and I will plant it To plant a people is to settle them so they put down roots. Israel had peace under David and Solomon, but later came exile and the fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70. I believe this looks to the day Christ returns and Israel dwells safely under the Son of David (Amos 9:15; Ezek 37:24-25).
7:11 the LORD will make a house for you Here is the turning point. David wanted to build God a house. God says, I will build you a house. The Hebrew word bayit can mean a building, a household or a dynasty. God would build a house of kings for David.
7:12 I will raise up your seed after you Seed means offspring. Coming from your inward parts means from David's own body. This would be David's own son.
7:13 I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever The first fulfillment is Solomon, who built the temple (1 Kgs 8:20). But his kingdom split, the temple burned in 586 B.C., and Zedekiah was taken in chains (2 Kgs 25:7). The promise was bigger than Solomon. It reached to a Son of David who would reign forever (Isa 9:7; Jer 23:5).
7:14 I will be a father to him, and he will be a son to Me God would treat David's son with a father's love and discipline. Hebrews applies this directly to Jesus (Heb 1:5). In Solomon it was an adopted relationship. In Jesus it is true in the fullest sense, the eternal Son who became David's son by birth (Rom 1:3).
7:14 When he commits iniquity, I will correct him Jesus never sinned (Heb 4:15). This part belonged to Solomon and the kings, and the books of Kings are full of it. A prophecy can have a near and a far fulfillment. Some teachers add that Jesus bore the strokes for our sin (Isa 53:5), but the plain sense is about David's sons.
7:15 My steadfast love will not depart from him, as I removed it from Saul Here is the heart of the covenant. God took the kingdom from Saul's family but promised never to do that to David's. This covenant rests on God's promise, not the kings' faithfulness. Their sin could bring the rod but not cancel His word (Ps 89:34). Some teachers see conditional elements (1 Kgs 2:4).
7:16 your throne will be established forever God says forever three times in verses 13 to 16. Gabriel quoted this to Mary (Luke 1:32-33), and Peter said David foresaw the risen Christ on his throne (Acts 2:30-31). Jesus lives forever, so David's throne can be established forever. Its King cannot die again.
7:16 your house and your kingdom will be established forever before you I believe Jesus now sits on His Father's throne (Rev 3:21) and will sit on David's throne over a restored Israel when He returns, reigning a thousand years (Matt 25:31; Rev 20:4-6; Hos 3:5). Amillennial teachers see Christ reigning on David's throne now from heaven. They love the Lord too, but I believe the plain reading points to a future reign (Rom 11:29).
7:17 so Nathan spoke to David Nathan, who spoke too quickly the day before, now spoke exactly what God said. A good teacher is willing to admit he was wrong and then say exactly what God said.
7:18 Who am I, O Lord GOD David sat before the LORD, likely in the tent of the ark. Lord GOD stands for Adonai, Master, with God's name YHWH. David did not begin with what he deserved. He began amazed at grace.
7:19 this is the law of mankind This phrase is hard to translate. Some take it as, Is this the way You deal with men? This grace is beyond anything human. Others take it as a charter for all mankind, since the blessing of David's Son would reach the world. Either way, David knew he had been given something far bigger than himself.
7:20 You, You know Your servant David ran out of words. He did not need to explain himself. God already knew his heart, his weaknesses and his gratitude.
7:21 For the sake of Your word, and according to Your own heart God blessed David because of His promise and His own heart, not because David was great. Grace comes from who God is, not who we are. He saves us according to His own purpose and grace (2 Tim 1:9).
7:22 there is none like You David's thanks turned to praise. The more we see of God's grace, the greater He looks to us.
7:23 whom God went to ransom for Himself as a people God redeemed Israel from Egypt, driving out nations and their gods. David saw his own blessing as part of God's larger work with His people.
7:24 to be Yours as a people forever David believed God's choice of Israel was permanent, and so did Paul (Rom 11:1-2, 29). God's promise to David and His promise to Israel stand or fall together, and both stand.
7:25 establish forever, and do just as You have spoken Why ask God to do what He already promised? Because that is what faith does. Prayer takes hold of what God has promised and asks Him to do it. Our best prayers are built on God's word.

spoken. 26 And let Your name be great forever, saying, 'The LORD of armies is God over Israel'; and the house of Your servant David will be established before You. 27 For You, O LORD of armies, God of Israel, have uncovered the ear of Your servant, saying, 'I will build a house for you.' Therefore Your servant has found his heart to pray this prayer to You. 28 And now, O Lord GOD, You are God, and Your words are truth, and You have spoken this good to Your servant. 29 And now, be pleased, and bless the house of Your servant, to be forever before You; for You, O Lord GOD, have spoken, and with Your blessing the house of Your servant will be blessed forever."

2 SAMUEL 8

David's Victories

1 And it was after this, and David struck the Philistines and subdued them; and David took Metheg-ammah (Meteg-HaAmma) from the hand of the Philistines. 2 And he struck Moab (Mo'av), and he measured them with the line, making them lie down on the ground; and he measured two lines to put to death, and one full line to keep alive. And Moab became servants to David, bearers of tribute. 3 And David struck Hadadezer the son of Rehob (Rechov), king of Zobah (Tsova), as he went to restore his hand at the river Euphrates (Perat). 4 And David captured from him one thousand seven hundred horsemen and twenty thousand men on foot; and David hamstrung all the chariotry, and he left of it one hundred chariots. 5 And Syria (Aram) of Damascus (Dameseq) came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, and David struck down among Syria twenty-two thousand men. 6 And David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus, and Syria became servants to David, bearers of tribute. And the LORD saved David wherever he went. 7 And David took the shields of gold which were on the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). 8 And from Betah (Betach) and from Berothai (Berotay), cities of Hadadezer, King David took very much bronze. 9 And Toi (To'i) king of Hamath (Chamat) heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer, 10 and Toi sent Joram (Yoram) his son to King David to ask him of his welfare and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him; for Hadadezer was a man of wars with Toi. And in his hand were articles of silver and articles of gold and articles of bronze. 11 Also these King David consecrated to the LORD, with the silver and the gold which he had consecrated from all the nations which he had subdued: 12 from Syria and from Moab and from the sons of Ammon (Amon) and from the Philistines and from Amalek (Amaleq), and from the plunder of Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah. 13 And David made a name for himself when he returned from striking Syria in the Valley of Salt (Gay-Melach), eighteen thousand. 14 And he put garrisons in Edom; in all Edom he put garrisons, and all Edom became servants to David. And the LORD saved David wherever he went.

8:14 Heb 11:34; Gen 27:29,37,40; Gen 25:23

7:26 let Your name be great forever The great name promised to David (7:9) mattered less to him than God's own name.
7:27 Your servant has found his heart to pray this prayer to You David would never have dared ask for a forever dynasty. God promised it first, so David found courage to pray for it. God's promises give us boldness to pray.
7:28 Your words are truth Everything rests on this. If God's words are truth, His promise is as good as done.
7:29 the house of Your servant will be blessed forever It has been, in the Son of David, Jesus Christ. Everyone who believes in Him shares the blessing. Paul preached the resurrection as God giving the sure things of David (Acts 13:34). The promise is sure because the King is alive.
8:1 David took Metheg-ammah from the hand of the Philistines After this is a general link, not a strict time marker. Metheg-ammah means bridle of the mother city. Since 1 Chr 18:1 says David took Gath and its towns, many believe he took control of Gath. The town Goliath came from now answered to David.
8:2 he measured two lines to put to death, and one full line to keep alive This is surprising, since Ruth was a Moabite and David once left his parents with Moab's king (1 Sam 22:3-4). Scripture does not say what changed. Killing two of every three captives was a harsh practice of war. The Bible records it without excusing or praising it, and it is not a pattern for us.
8:2 Moab became servants to David, bearers of tribute They paid a regular tax as a conquered people. This may fulfill Balaam's word that a scepter from Israel would strike Moab (Num 24:17).
8:3 as he went to restore his hand at the river Euphrates Zobah was a strong Aramean kingdom north of Damascus. Aram is roughly Syria today. The Hebrew could mean Hadadezer or David was setting up power there. God promised Abraham the land to the Euphrates (Gen 15:18), and under David Israel's influence reached toward it for the first time.
8:4 one thousand seven hundred horsemen and twenty thousand men on foot First Chronicles 18:4 gives a thousand chariots and seven thousand horsemen. The common explanation is a copying error, since Hebrew numbers were easy to confuse. The main events are the same.
8:4 David hamstrung all the chariotry Cutting the horses' leg tendons made them useless for war. The king was not to multiply horses (Deut 17:16). Israel was to trust the LORD, not chariots (Ps 20:7). Solomon later ignored this (1 Kgs 10:26-29).
8:6 the LORD saved David wherever he went The victories were God's, doing what He promised in 7:9. The writer says it twice in this chapter so we will not miss it.
8:8 King David took very much bronze Solomon later used this bronze for the great basin, the pillars and the temple articles (1 Chr 18:8). David could not build the temple, but he gathered what it would need.
8:10 to ask him of his welfare and to bless him Hamath lay farther north on the Orontes River, and Hadadezer had been Toi's constant enemy. Toi made a treaty of friendship with the new power. David's name was becoming great, just as God said.
8:11 these King David consecrated to the LORD To consecrate is to set apart for God. David did not fill his own treasury. When God gives us success, we should give Him the glory and give back from what He gave (1 Chr 29:14).
8:13 when he returned from striking Syria in the Valley of Salt The Valley of Salt was near the Dead Sea in Edom, so many copies read Edom. In Hebrew, Aram and Edom look very much alike. Chronicles credits Abishai (1 Chr 18:12) and Psalm 60's title Joab. All fit with David as king over the campaign and the others as commanders, counting different parts.
8:14 all Edom became servants to David Edom, the nation descended from Esau, now served Israel. This fulfilled God's word to Rebekah that the older would serve the younger (Gen 25:23).

David's Officials

15 And David reigned over all Israel (Yisra'el); and David was doing justice and righteousness for all his people. 16 And Joab (Yo'av) the son of Zeruiah (Tseruya) was over the army, and Jehoshaphat (Yehoshafat) the son of Ahilud (Achilud) was recorder, 17 and Zadok (Tsadoq) the son of Ahitub (Achituv) and Ahimelech (Achimelekh) the son of Abiathar (Evyatar) were priests, and Seraiah (Seraya) was scribe, 18 and Benaiah (Benayahu) the son of Jehoiada (Yehoyada), and the Kerethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were priests.

2 SAMUEL 9

Kindness to Mephibosheth

1 And David said, "Is there still anyone who is left of the house of Saul (Shaul), that I may do steadfast love with him for the sake of Jonathan (Yehonatan)?" 2 And the house of Saul had a servant, and his name was Ziba (Tsiva); and they called him to David. And the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" And he said, "Your servant." 3 And the king said, "Is there not still anyone of the house of Saul, that I may do the steadfast love of God with him?" And Ziba said to the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan, stricken in the feet." 4 And the king said to him, "Where is he?" And Ziba said to the king, "Look, he is in the house of Machir (Makhir) the son of Ammiel (Ami'el), in Lo-debar (Lo-Devar)." 5 And King David sent and took him from the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo-debar. 6 And Mephibosheth (Mefivoshet) the son of Jonathan the son of Saul came to David, and he fell on his face and bowed down. And David said,
"Mephibosheth." And he said, "Look, your servant." 7 And David said to him, "Do not be afraid, for I will certainly do steadfast love with you for the sake of Jonathan your father, and I will restore to you all the land of Saul your father; and you, you will eat bread at my table continually." 8 And he bowed down and said, "What is your servant, that you have turned to the dead dog who is like me?" 9 And the king called Ziba the servant of Saul and said to him, "All that belonged to Saul and to all his household I have given to the son of your master. 10 And you shall work the land for him, you and your sons and your servants, and you shall bring in, and it will be bread for the son of your master, and he will eat it. And Mephibosheth the son of your master will eat bread continually at my table." And Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. 11 And Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so your servant will do." And Mephibosheth was eating at my table like one of the sons of the king. 12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, and his name was Mica (Mikha). And all who dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth. 13 And Mephibosheth was dwelling in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim), for he was eating continually at the table of the king; and he was

9:13 2 Sam 9:7,10,11

8:15 David was doing justice and righteousness for all his people Justice gives each person what is right. Righteousness does what agrees with God's standard. David at his best is a small picture of the coming Branch who will do justice and righteousness in the land (Jer 23:5). Jesus will rule with a justice that never fails.
8:16 Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder For all his faults, Joab stayed in command. The recorder kept official records and may have served as a royal spokesman.
8:17 Ahimelech the son of Abiathar Abiathar escaped Saul's massacre at Nob (1 Sam 22:20). This is likely his son, named for his grandfather, serving beside Zadok. Some think the names were reversed in copying. Zadok's family served as priests for centuries.
8:18 the Kerethites and the Pelethites These were foreign soldiers, likely from Crete and the Philistine coast, who served as David's bodyguard under Benaiah, later Solomon's commander.
8:18 the sons of David were priests Only Aaron's descendants could serve at the altar. First Chronicles 18:17 calls them first at the side of the king, chief officials. Many think the word kohen was used here for a royal officer, others for an honorary role. I do not believe they sacrificed at the altar. David did not try to do everything himself (Rom 12:4-8).
9:1 that I may do steadfast love with him for the sake of Jonathan Jonathan had made David promise not to cut off his steadfast love from his house forever (1 Sam 20:15). Years later, with no one to hold him to it, David remembered. Hesed keeps its promises when there is nothing to gain. And David went looking. Grace takes the first step.
9:3 the steadfast love of God David wanted to show the kind of love God shows, undeserved, generous and faithful. He had received it, and he wanted to pass it on.
9:3 stricken in the feet Ziba mentioned the lameness first, perhaps meaning he was no threat, or not worth the trouble. David did not ask about his condition. He asked where he was.
9:4 in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo-debar Lo-debar was in Gilead, east of the Jordan near Mahanaim. The name may mean no pasture. Machir would later help David when he fled Absalom (17:27-29). Mephibosheth lived in hiding, far from court, in a borrowed house.
9:5 King David sent and took him New kings often wiped out the last king's family. Mephibosheth had every reason to think he was being brought to his death.
9:6 he fell on his face and bowed down For a man lame in both feet, even getting down would have been hard. David spoke his own name, not a title.
9:7 Do not be afraid Then came three gifts. Kindness, for Jonathan's sake and a covenant made before he could remember. An inheritance, the family lands at Gibeah. A place at the table, which meant protection, provision and a place in the household. He would never be hungry or have to hide again.
9:8 the dead dog who is like me Dogs were scavengers, unclean and despised. Mephibosheth had nothing to offer, and that is what makes grace grace. We too were lame and far from the King, yet God shows us kindness for the sake of His Son (Rom 5:8). The New Testament does not name this as a picture, so I hold the details lightly.
9:10 Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants Ziba's large household would farm the land for Mephibosheth's household. Keep an eye on Ziba. He returns in chapter 16 with a story, and in chapter 19 we must decide whether to believe him.
9:11 like one of the sons of the king The words my table slip into David's own voice, as if quoting him. Mephibosheth was not a guest or charity case but family. God does not make us servants only. He makes us sons and daughters (Gal 4:4-7).
9:12 his name was Mica Jonathan's line would go on for many generations (1 Chr 8:34-40). David's kindness reached his children after him.
9:13 he was lame in both his feet Grace did not change his feet. But at the king's table his lameness was hidden. We are still weak and still stumble, but we sit at the King's table because of His love. Jesus said, "the one coming to Me I will certainly not cast out" (John 6:37).

lame in both his feet.

Hanun Insults David's Servants

1 And it was after this, and the king of the sons of Ammon (Amon) died, and Hanun (Chanun) his son reigned in his place. 2 And David said, "I will do steadfast love with Hanun the son of Nahash (Nachash), just as his father did steadfast love with me." And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants concerning his father. And the servants of David came into the land of the sons of Ammon. 3 And the leaders of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, "Is David honoring your father in your eyes because he has sent comforters to you? Has not David sent his servants to you in order to search out the city and to spy it out and to overthrow it?" 4 And Hanun took the servants of David and shaved off half of their beard and cut off their garments in the middle as far as their buttocks, and sent them away. 5 And they told David, and he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly humiliated. And the king said, "Remain at Jericho (Yericho) until your beard grows back, and return."

Joab Defeats Ammon and Syria

6 And the sons of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David; and the sons of Ammon sent and hired Syria (Aram) of Beth-rehob (Bet-Rechov) and Syria of Zobah (Tsova), twenty thousand foot soldiers, and the king of Maacah (Ma'akha) with one thousand men, and the men of Tob (Tov), twelve thousand men. 7 And David heard, and he sent Joab (Yo'av) and all the army, the mighty men. 8 And the sons of Ammon went out and drew up for battle at the entrance of the gate; and Syria of Zobah and Rehob (Rechov) and the men of Tob and Maacah were by themselves in the field. 9 And Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him, in front and behind; and he chose from all the chosen men of Israel (Yisra'el), and he drew them up to meet Syria. 10 And the rest of the people he put into the hand of Abishai (Avishay) his brother, and he drew them up to meet the sons of Ammon. 11 And he said, "If Syria is stronger than I, then you shall be salvation for me; and if the sons of Ammon are stronger than you, then I will come to save you. 12 Be strong, and let us show ourselves strong for our people and for the cities of our God; and the LORD will do what is good in His eyes." 13 And Joab drew near, and the people who were with him, for battle against Syria, and they fled from before him. 14 And the sons of Ammon saw that Syria had fled, and they fled from before Abishai and went into the city. And Joab returned from against the sons of Ammon and came to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). 15 And Syria saw that it was defeated before Israel, and they gathered themselves together. 16 And Hadadezer sent and brought out Syria that was beyond the River (Nahar); and they came to Helam (Chelam), and Shobach (Shovakh) the commander of the army of Hadadezer was before them. 17 And it was told to David, and he gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan (Yarden) and came to Helam. And Syria drew up to meet David, and they fought with him. 18 And Syria fled from before Israel, and David killed of Syria seven hundred chariot crews and forty thousand horsemen; and he struck down Shobach the commander of its army, and he died there. 19 And all the kings, the servants of Hadadezer, saw that they were defeated before Israel, and they made peace with 10:1 the king of the sons of Ammon died Ammon lay east of the Jordan with its capital at Rabbah, modern Amman. Hanun's father Nahash had threatened Jabesh-gilead early in Saul's reign (1 Sam 11:1-2). As Saul's enemy, he may have been friendly to David.

10:2 just as his father did steadfast love with me We are not told what kindness Nahash showed, perhaps help during David's years fleeing Saul. David remembered it and sent comfort, the kind of thing a good neighbor does when a family loses a father.
10:3 in order to search out the city and to spy it out David had just conquered Moab, Edom and Syria, so their suspicion is understandable. But it was wrong and cost them their kingdom. Rehoboam later lost most of his kingdom to bad advisers (1 Kgs 12:8-16). Be careful of voices that tell us to assume the worst about others.
10:4 shaved off half of their beard A man's beard was a sign of dignity and manhood, and cutting the robes left them exposed. Insulting a king's messengers was insulting the king. Jesus said the same of His messengers (Luke 10:16).
10:5 Remain at Jericho until your beard grows back Jericho was the first town after crossing the Jordan. David did not make them walk into Jerusalem in shame. A good leader protects the dignity of his people.
10:6 they had made themselves odious to David Odious means hateful, like a bad smell. Instead of apologizing they hired armies, paying a thousand talents of silver (1 Chr 19:6). Sin grows. Suspicion led to insult, and insult to spending a fortune to defend pride instead of making it right.
10:8 by themselves in the field The Ammonites held the city gate while the hired Syrians stood in the field. It was a trap, with Joab caught between them.
10:9 the front of the battle was against him, in front and behind Joab did what a good general does. He took the best men against the stronger Syrians and gave the rest to Abishai.
10:11 then I will come to save you Two brothers back to back, each ready to help the other.
10:12 the LORD will do what is good in His eyes This is one of Joab's finest moments. He called the men to do their part with courage and left the outcome to God. That is the right balance for us. We work hard, but we trust God with the result.
10:14 Joab returned from against the sons of Ammon The hired soldiers ran, and the Ammonites fled into the city. Joab did not besiege Rabbah yet, likely because the season for war was ending. That comes in the spring (11:1).
10:16 Syria that was beyond the River Hadadezer, already beaten in 8:3-8, brought troops from the Euphrates region to Helam, east of the Jordan.
10:18 seven hundred chariot crews and forty thousand horsemen First Chronicles 19:18 gives seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers. The likely explanation is a copying error in the numbers or a difference in counting.
10:19 Syria was afraid to save the sons of Ammon again God kept giving David rest from his enemies (7:11). But one war was unfinished. The greatest danger to David was not the armies of Syria. It was waiting on the roof of his own palace.

Israel and served them. And Syria was afraid to save the sons of Ammon again.

David and Bathsheba

1 And it was at the return of the year, at the time of the going out of the kings, and David sent Joab (Yo'av) and his servants with him and all Israel (Yisra'el); and they destroyed the sons of Ammon (Amon) and besieged Rabbah (Raba). And David was staying in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). 2 And it was at the time of the evening, and David arose from on his bed and walked about on the roof of the house of the king; and he saw from on the roof a woman bathing, and the woman was very good of appearance. 3 And David sent and inquired about the woman, and he said, "Is this not Bathsheba (Bat-Sheva), the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah (Uriya) the Hittite?" 4 And David sent messengers and took her, and she came to him, and he lay with her (and she was purifying herself from her uncleanness); and she returned to her house. 5 And the woman conceived; and she sent and told David and said, "I am pregnant."

David Tries to Cover His Sin

6 And David sent to Joab, "Send to me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent Uriah to David. 7 And Uriah came to him, and David asked about the welfare of Joab and about the welfare of the people and about the welfare of the battle. 8 And David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." And Uriah went out from the house of the king, and a gift of the king went out after him. 9 And Uriah lay down at the entrance of the house of the king with all the servants of his lord, and he did not go down to his house. 10 And they told David, saying, "Uriah has not gone down to his house." And David said to Uriah, "Are you not coming from a journey? Why have you not gone down to your house?" 11 And Uriah said to David, "The ark and Israel and Judah (Yehuda) are dwelling in booths, and my lord Joab and the servants of my lord are encamping on the face of the field; and I, shall I go to my house to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? As you live and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing!" 12 And David said to Uriah, "Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will send you away." And Uriah stayed in Jerusalem on that day and the next day. 13 And David called him, and he ate before him and drank, and he made him drunk; and he went out in the evening to lie down on his bed with the servants of his lord, and to his house he did not go down.

Uriah Killed

14 And it was in the morning, and David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it by the hand of Uriah. 15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, "Set Uriah toward the front of the face of the severe battle, and you shall turn back from after him, and he will be struck down and die." 16 And it was, when Joab was keeping watch on the city, and he put Uriah at the place where he knew that men of strength were there. 17 And the men of the city went out and fought with Joab, and some of the people fell, of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite also died. 18 And Joab sent and told David all the matters of the battle. 19 And he commanded the messenger, saying, "When you have finished speaking all the matters of the battle to the king, 20 and it will be, if the wrath of the king rises and he says to you, 'Why did you draw near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from on

11:17 2 Sam 12:9; Ps 51:14

11:1 at the time of the going out of the kings Spring, when the rains were over and the roads were dry. Kings led their armies out to war.

11:1 David was staying in Jerusalem The king belonged with his army, as in 10:17. Scripture does not say why he stayed. Idleness and comfort are often where temptation finds us. David faced lions, bears and Goliath without falling. He fell on a quiet evening at home.

11:2 he saw from on the roof a woman bathing Houses had flat roofs, and the palace stood high, looking into courtyards below. Seeing was not yet sin. David could have turned away. Instead he kept looking.

11:3 the wife of Uriah the Hittite That should have stopped him cold. Uriah was one of David's mighty men (23:39), and her father Eliam was too, likely the son of Ahithophel (23:34). A look, a longer look, a question, then action. Desire conceived gives birth to sin (Jas 1:14-15).

11:4 David sent messengers and took her The verbs are short. David sent, took, lay with her. The weight falls on the king. Teachers differ on whether Bathsheba was willing or could not refuse a king. The text never blames her, and Nathan's parable pictures her as a lamb taken. David abused the power God gave him to protect his people.

11:4 she was purifying herself from her uncleanness The Law required washing after her monthly time (Lev 15:19-28). Bathsheba was keeping the Law, and she could not already have been pregnant by her husband. The child was David's.

11:5 I am pregnant These are Bathsheba's only words in the chapter. David seemed to think it was over. It was not. Adultery was a capital crime under the Law (Lev 20:10). Instead of confessing, David chose to cover it up.

11:6 Send to me Uriah the Hittite A Hittite came from one of the old peoples of Canaan, but Uriah's name means the LORD is my light. He seems to have worshiped Israel's God.

11:8 Go down to your house and wash your feet The questions about the battle were pretense. To wash your feet meant to relax at home, and David meant more. He wanted the baby to seem to be Uriah's.

11:11 shall I go to my house to eat and to drink and to lie with my wife? The ark was in the field. Soldiers kept from their wives during a campaign (1 Sam 21:5). Uriah the foreigner kept the standard of holy war while the king of Israel had broken every one. Uriah was everything David should have been.

11:13 he made him drunk Even drunk, Uriah was more honorable than David sober. Sin is rarely content to stay small. A lie needs another lie, and a cover-up needs a bigger cover-up.

11:14 sent it by the hand of Uriah This is the coldest act in the chapter. Uriah carried his own death warrant, and David knew he was too loyal to open it.

11:15 he will be struck down and die This is the man who wrote Psalm 23. No one is beyond falling. "Let the one who thinks he stands watch, lest he fall" (1 Cor 10:12). Past faithfulness did not protect David. Only staying close to God day by day could have.

11:17 some of the people fell, of the servants of David Others died too. Sin spreads its damage further than we plan. And Joab now held David's secret, which may explain why David could never deal with him later.

the wall? 21 Who struck down Abimelech (Avimelekh) the son of Jerubbesheth (Yerubeshet)? Did not a woman throw an upper millstone on him from on the wall, and he died at Thebez (Tevets)? Why did you draw near to the wall?' then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite has also died.'" 22 And the messenger went, and he came and told David all that Joab had sent him for. 23 And the messenger said to David, "Indeed the men prevailed over us and came out against us into the field, and we were upon them up to the entrance of the gate. 24 And the archers shot at your servants from on the wall, and some of the servants of the king died; and your servant Uriah the Hittite has also died." 25 And David said to the messenger, "Thus you shall say to Joab: 'Do not let this thing be evil in your eyes, for the sword devours like this and like that. Strengthen your battle against the city and overthrow it.' And encourage him." 26 And the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband had died, and she mourned over her husband. 27 And the mourning passed, and David sent and gathered her to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. And the thing that David had done was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

Nathan's Parable

1 And the LORD sent Nathan (Natan) to David; and he came to him and said to him, "Two men were in one city, one rich and one poor. 2 The rich man had very many flocks and herds. 3 And the poor man had nothing at all except one little ewe lamb which he had bought; and he nourished it, and it grew up with him and with his sons together. From his morsel it would eat, and from his cup it would drink, and in his bosom it would lie, and it was like a daughter to him. 4 And a traveler came to the rich man, and he spared taking from his own flock and from his own herd to prepare a meal for the wayfarer who had come to him; and he took the ewe lamb of the poor man and prepared it for the man who had come to him." 5 And the anger of David burned greatly against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, surely the man who has done this is a son of death! 6 And the ewe lamb he shall repay fourfold, because he did this thing and because he had no pity." 7 And Nathan said to David, "You are the man! Thus says the LORD God of Israel (Yisra'el): 'I anointed you as king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul (Shaul). 8 And I gave you the house of your master and the wives of your master into your bosom, and I gave you the house of Israel and Judah (Yehuda); and if that were too little, I would add to you like these and like these. 9 Why have you despised the word of the LORD, to do the evil in My eyes? Uriah (Uriya) the Hittite you struck down with the sword, and his wife you took for yourself as a wife, and him you killed with the sword of the sons of Ammon (Amon). 10 And now the sword shall not depart from your house forever, because you despised Me and took the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.' 11 Thus says the LORD: 'Look, I am raising up evil against you from your own house, and I will take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbor, and he will lie with your wives before the eyes of this sun. 12 For you, you acted in secret; and I, I will do this thing before all Israel and before the sun.'"

11:21 Did not a woman throw an upper millstone on him from on the wall Going near the wall was a basic mistake, as Abimelech learned at Thebez (Judg 9:50-54). Joab knew one sentence about Uriah would calm the king. There is something chilling in how well the two men understood each other.
11:25 Do not let this thing be evil in your eyes That's war, people die, don't let it bother you. David, who wept over Saul and Abner, had no tears for Uriah. Sin had hardened his heart. Hold on to this phrase. The last verse answers it.
11:26 the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband had died Even now the text calls her Uriah's wife, as Matthew does (Matt 1:6).
11:27 the thing that David had done was evil in the eyes of the LORD Mourning usually lasted about seven days. To anyone watching, the king took in a soldier's widow and the secret seemed safe. But only the LORD's eyes count (Heb 4:13). Psalm 32 may describe David's silence that year (Ps 32:3). God shows us hidden sin not to crush us but so we will come back to Him.
12:1 the LORD sent Nathan to David God took the first step. David was not seeking God. God came seeking him, and that is grace. Confronting a king who had just killed a loyal soldier took courage, and it took wisdom. Nathan did not start with an accusation. He told a parable.
12:3 it was like a daughter to him The story fit exactly. David had many wives, Uriah had one, and David took her. The parable pictures Bathsheba as an innocent lamb, not as a partner in the theft.
12:5 the man who has done this is a son of death A son of death is a man who deserves to die. David the shepherd knew how a man could love a lamb. How easily we see sin in others and miss it in ourselves (Matt 7:3-5).
12:6 the ewe lamb he shall repay fourfold This was the Law's penalty (Exod 22:1). Many have noticed that four of David's sons died, the child, Amnon, Absalom and Adonijah (1 Kgs 2:24-25). Scripture does not call this the fulfillment, but it is a sobering pattern.
12:7 You are the man! Two words in Hebrew, and the trap closed. David had pronounced judgment on himself.
12:8 if that were too little, I would add to you like these and like these The wives of your master likely reflects the custom that a new king received the former king's household. God had been generous beyond measure and would have given more. David did not need to steal.
12:9 Why have you despised the word of the LORD To despise God's word is to treat it as if it does not matter. David had not swung the sword, but God said, you struck him down. Using the enemy's sword did not make David less guilty. God sees through every cover-up.
12:10 the sword shall not depart from your house forever David used the sword to kill Uriah, and now the sword would stay in his family. The rest of the book shows it in murder, rebellion and civil war among his sons. Notice, you despised Me. Sin against people is always sin against God.
12:11 he will lie with your wives before the eyes of this sun This came true when Absalom took his father's concubines on the palace roof, the same roof where David's sin began (16:22).
12:12 you acted in secret David's sin was secret, its consequences public. God does not cause anyone to sin, and Absalom was fully responsible. But God allowed the evil in David's house to work out as judgment. Whatever a man sows, this he will also reap (Gal 6:7).

David Confesses

13 And David said to Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD." And Nathan said to David, "The LORD also has taken away your sin; you shall not die. 14 Nevertheless, because by this thing you have utterly caused the enemies of the LORD to scorn, the son also who is born to you shall surely die."

The Child Dies

15 And Nathan went to his house. And the LORD struck the child that the wife of Uriah bore to David, and he became sick. 16 And David sought God for the boy; and David fasted a fast, and he would go in and spend the night and lie on the earth. 17 And the elders of his house stood beside him to raise him from the earth, and he was not willing, and he did not eat bread with them. 18 And it was on the seventh day, and the child died. And the servants of David were afraid to tell him that the child had died, for they said, "Look, while the child was alive we spoke to him, and he did not listen to our voice; and how shall we say to him, 'The child has died'? And he will do harm." 19 And David saw that his servants were whispering together, and David understood that the child had died. And David said to his servants, "Has the child died?" And they said, "He has died." 20 And David arose from the earth and washed and anointed himself and changed his garments, and he went into the house of the LORD and bowed down; and he went to his own house and asked, and they set bread before him, and he ate. 21 And his servants said to him, "What is this thing that you have done? For the sake of the child while he was alive you fasted and wept, and when the child died you arose and ate bread." 22 And he said, "While the child was still alive I fasted and wept, for I said, 'Who knows? And the LORD may be gracious to me, and the child may live.' 23 And now he has died; why is it that I am fasting? Am I able to bring him back again? I am going to him, and he will not return to me."

Solomon Born

24 And David comforted Bathsheba (Bat-Sheva) his wife, and he went in to her and lay with her; and she bore a son, and she called his name Solomon (Shelomo). And the LORD loved him, 25 and He sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet, and he called his name Jedidiah (Yedidya), for the sake of the LORD. 26 And Joab (Yo'av) fought against Rabbah (Raba) of the sons of Ammon and captured the royal city. 27 And Joab sent messengers to David and said, "I have fought against Rabbah; I have also captured the city of the waters. 28 And now gather the rest of the people and encamp against the city and capture it, lest I myself capture the city and my name be called over it." 29 And David gathered all the people and went to Rabbah and fought against it and captured it. 30 And he took the crown of their king from on his head, and its weight was approximately 75 pounds (a talent) of gold, and a precious stone, and it was on the head of David. And the spoil of the city he brought out, very much. 31 And the

12:31 1 Chr 20:3; 2 Sam 8:2; Ps 21:8,9

12:13 I have sinned against the LORD Two words in Hebrew, with no excuses, no blaming and no bargaining. Saul made excuses (1 Sam 15:20-21, 24). David confessed. That is why God called him a man after His own heart. His fuller confession is Psalm 51 (Ps 51:4, 17).
12:13 The LORD also has taken away your sin; you shall not die David deserved death twice over. God forgave him by grace through faith, looking ahead to the cross (Rom 4:7; Rom 3:25-26). No sin is so great that God will not forgive the one who truly confesses it (1 John 1:9).
12:14 you have utterly caused the enemies of the LORD to scorn Forgiveness and consequences are not the same. David's guilt was gone, but his public sin let God's enemies mock Him. The child was not guilty, and children are not to die for their fathers' sins (Deut 24:16). God, the giver of life, took a life back to Himself. Scripture does not give all His reasons.
12:15 the child that the wife of Uriah bore to David Again she is called the wife of Uriah. The child was the fruit of that sin.
12:16 David sought God for the boy Was David wrong to pray against what God had said? No. God has sometimes changed what He announced when people humbled themselves (Jonah 3:10; 2 Kgs 20:1-6). Prayer is never wasted, even when the answer is no. David loved this child.
12:18 on the seventh day, and the child died The servants feared David might do harm, perhaps to himself. If you have lost a child, or a baby before birth, these verses may be hard to read. God's Word does not hide this grief. God sees it.
12:20 he went into the house of the LORD and bowed down The first place David went was the house of God. Like Job (Job 1:20-21), he accepted from God's hand what he could not change. That is not the same as not grieving. It is grieving with trust.
12:22 Who knows? And the LORD may be gracious to me As long as there was hope, David prayed.
12:23 I am going to him, and he will not return to me Some say David meant only that he too would go to the grave. But his grief turned to peace, and most teachers believe he meant he would see his son again (Ps 23:6). I believe little children who die are safe with God. Jesus said of little children, "of such is the kingdom of God" (Mark 10:14). Believers differ on details, but David's words give real hope.
12:24 David comforted Bathsheba his wife This is the first time she is called his wife by name, and the first time we see David caring for her grief. She had lost a husband and a child.
12:24 the LORD loved him Grace upon grace. From a marriage that began in sin, God chose the son who would build the temple and stand in the Messiah's line (Matt 1:6). God did not approve how it began, but He did not hold it against the son or refuse to bless a repentant couple.
12:25 he called his name Jedidiah Jedidiah means beloved of the LORD. The prophet who brought the hard word now brought a gift. God was saying, I have not cast you off. He does not undo the past, but He can give a new beginning.
12:27 I have also captured the city of the waters This was likely the part guarding the water supply. Without water the city could not hold out long.
12:28 lest I myself capture the city and my name be called over it Joab wanted the king to have the honor. It was loyal, and perhaps also a pointed reminder that the king belonged with his army (11:1).
12:30 he took the crown of their king from on his head A talent of gold was very heavy, so some think it was held over David's head or worn only briefly. Some read their king as Milcom, the Ammonite god, whose name is close to the word for king.
12:31 he set them to the saw and to the picks of iron and to the axes of iron Most teachers today read this as forced labor, cutting, digging and making bricks. Some older translations read it as torture. Forced labor fits the words best. David was forgiven, but the sword was already waiting in his house.

people who were in it he brought out, and he set them to the saw and to the picks of iron and to the axes of iron, and he made them pass through the brick mold. And thus he did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim).

Amnon and Tamar

1 And it was after this, and Absalom (Avshalom) the son of David had a beautiful sister, and her name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. 2 And Amnon was in distress, so as to make himself sick because of Tamar his sister, for she was a virgin; and it was difficult in the eyes of Amnon to do anything to her. 3 And Amnon had a friend, and his name was Jonadab (Yonadav), the son of Shimeah (Shima), the brother of David; and Jonadab was a very shrewd man. 4 And he said to him, "Why are you so weak, son of the king, morning after morning? Will you not tell me?" And Amnon said to him, "Tamar, the sister of Absalom my brother, I love." 5 And Jonadab (Yehonadav) said to him, "Lie down on your bed and make yourself sick; and your father will come to see you, and you shall say to him, 'Please let Tamar my sister come and feed me bread, and let her make the food before my eyes, so that I may see it, and I will eat from her hand.'" 6 And Amnon lay down and made himself sick; and the king came to see him, and Amnon said to the king, "Please let Tamar my sister come and make two cakes before my eyes, so that I may eat from her hand." 7 And David sent to Tamar, to the house, saying, "Please go to the house of Amnon your brother and make the food for him." 8 And Tamar went to the house of Amnon her brother, and he was lying down. And she took the dough and kneaded it and made cakes before his eyes and cooked the cakes. 9 And she took the pan and poured them out before him, and he refused to eat. And Amnon said, "Send every man out from me." And every man went out from him. 10 And Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the chamber, so that I may eat from your hand." And Tamar took the cakes that she had made and brought them to Amnon her brother, into the chamber. 11 And she brought them near to him to eat, and he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister." 12 And she said to him, "No, my brother, do not humble me, for it is not done so in Israel (Yisra'el); do not do this disgraceful folly. 13 And I, where shall I carry my reproach? And you, you will be like one of the fools in Israel. And now, please speak to the king, for he will not withhold me from you." 14 And he was not willing to listen to her voice; and he was stronger than she, and he humbled her and lay with her.

Tamar Cast Out

15 And Amnon hated her with very great hatred, for the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, "Get up, go!" 16 And she said to him, "No, because this great evil, to send me away, is greater than the other that you have done with me." And he was not willing to listen to her. 17 And he called his young man who attended him and said, "Please send this woman away from me, outside, and lock the door after her." 18 And on her was a full-length tunic, for thus the daughters of the king, the virgins, would dress in robes. And his attendant brought her outside and locked the door after her. 19 And Tamar took ashes on her head, and the full-length tunic which was on her she tore; and she put 13:1 Amnon the son of David loved her After this ties the chapter to what came before. David sinned with a woman and covered it with a killing. Now one son sins against a woman, and another answers with a killing. The sword has come home. Amnon was the firstborn (3:2), and Tamar was Absalom's full sister and Amnon's half-sister.

13:2 so as to make himself sick because of Tamar his sister What is called love here is desire. The king's unmarried daughters were guarded, and Amnon could not get near her. Real love seeks the good of the other person (1 Cor 13:4-5). Amnon thought only of himself.
13:3 Jonadab was a very shrewd man Jonadab was Amnon's cousin, son of David's brother. Shrewd means clever, and here it is cleverness put to evil use.
13:5 Lie down on your bed and make yourself sick Jonadab did not warn him. He gave him a plan. A true friend tells us the truth when we are going wrong. Bad associations corrupt good morals (1 Cor 15:33).
13:7 Please go to the house of Amnon your brother David came because he loved his son, and he did not see the trap. But the father who should have protected his daughter sent her there. David's own sin began when he sent for a woman (11:4).
13:9 Send every man out from me Tamar went in kindness and obedience. She had no reason to fear her own brother.
13:11 Come, lie with me, my sister He calls her my sister even as he grabs her. He knew exactly who she was.
13:12 do not do this disgraceful folly Tamar's answer is brave and wise. She called it what it was, a wicked and shameful act the Law forbade (Lev 18:9).
13:13 you will be like one of the fools in Israel A fool in the Bible lives as if God does not matter. Tamar thought of what it would do to them both, then tried to buy time by asking him to speak to the king. She was looking for any way out.
13:14 he was stronger than she, and he humbled her and lay with her Scripture is plain and brief. Amnon raped his sister. She said no, she pleaded, and he used his strength against her. The whole guilt is his, and the Law said the young woman is a victim (Deut 22:25-26). What happened to Tamar was not her fault. If this happened to you, it was not your fault. God looks with compassion, not blame.
13:15 the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love This shows what his love had been all along. Lust that gets what it wants often turns to disgust. He could not stand to look at what he had done, so he could not stand to look at her.
13:16 this great evil, to send me away, is greater than the other A violated woman was left with no hope of marriage and no place in society. The Law bound such a man to provide for her (Exod 22:16; Deut 22:28-29), though teachers differ on how those laws applied to a half-sister. Amnon cast her out like garbage.
13:17 send this woman away from me He would not even say her name, and he locked the door as if she were the one who had done wrong.
13:18 a full-length tunic The robe marked her as a king's daughter who had not married.
13:19 going and crying out Ashes, a torn garment and a hand on the head were signs of deep grief and shame. Tamar did not hide what was done to her. She cried out in the open, telling the world a great wrong had been done and asking for justice. That took courage.

her hand on her head and went on, going and crying out.
20 And Absalom her brother said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? And now, my sister, keep silent; he is your brother. Do not set your heart on this matter." And Tamar dwelt, desolate, in the house of Absalom her brother.
21 And King David heard all these things, and he burned with anger exceedingly. 22 And Absalom did not speak with Amnon anything from bad to good, for Absalom hated Amnon because of the matter that he had humbled Tamar his sister.

Absalom Kills Amnon

23 And it was after two full years, and Absalom had sheepshearers at Baal-hazor (Ba'al-Chatsor), which is beside Ephraim (Efrayim); and Absalom invited all the sons of the king. 24 And Absalom came to the king and said, "Look, please, your servant has sheepshearers; please let the king and his servants go with your servant." 25 And the king said to Absalom, "No, my son, please let us not all go, and we will not be heavy on you." And he urged him, and he was not willing to go, and he blessed him. 26 And Absalom said, "If not, please let Amnon my brother go with us." And the king said to him, "Why should he go with you?" 27 And Absalom urged him, and he sent with him Amnon and all the sons of the king. 28 And Absalom commanded his servants, saying, "Please see: when the heart of Amnon is good with the wine, and I say to you, 'Strike down Amnon,' then you shall kill him. Do not be afraid; have I not commanded you? Be strong and become sons of strength." 29 And the servants of Absalom did to Amnon just as Absalom had commanded. And all the sons of the king arose, and they mounted, each man on his mule, and fled. 30 And it was, while they were on the way, and the report came to David, saying, "Absalom has struck down all the sons of the king, and not one of them is left." 31 And the king arose and tore his garments and lay on the earth, and all his servants were standing with torn garments. 32 And Jonadab the son of Shimeah, the brother of David, answered and said, "Let not my lord say that they have killed all the young men, the sons of the king, for Amnon alone has died; for by the mouth of Absalom it has been set since the day he humbled Tamar his sister. 33 And now, let not my lord the king set a word to his heart, saying, 'All the sons of the king have died,' for Amnon alone has died." 34 And Absalom fled. And the young man who was keeping watch lifted up his eyes and saw, and look, many people were coming from the way behind him, from the side of the mountain. 35 And Jonadab said to the king, "Look, the sons of the king have come; according to the word of your servant, so it has happened." 36 And it was, as he finished speaking, and look, the sons of the king came, and they lifted up their voice and wept; and also the king and all his servants wept a very great weeping. 37 And Absalom fled and went to Talmai (Talmay) the son of Ammihud (Amihud), the king of Geshur. And he mourned over his son all the days. 38 And Absalom fled and went to Geshur, and he was there three years. 39 And the soul of David the king longed to go out to Absalom, for he was comforted concerning Amnon, that he had died.

13:20 my sister, keep silent; he is your brother Taking her in was a kindness, but his words were not. Those who are abused are often told the same. Silence did not heal Tamar, and desolate means ruined, like a land laid waste. Tamar's cry was right. Tell someone safe, a pastor, a counselor, a trusted friend, and where a crime was done, the authorities. If you are in danger now, get to safety (Ps 34:18).
13:21 he burned with anger exceedingly David was angry, and he did nothing. He was king, judge and father, yet he did not punish Amnon or defend Tamar. Some ancient copies add that he would not grieve Amnon, his firstborn. Anger that never becomes right action does harm. If someone in your care is abused, anger is not enough. Act.
13:22 Absalom did not speak with Amnon anything from bad to good He said nothing to him at all. When those who should do justice do not, people often take it into their own hands.
13:23 after two full years Still nothing was done, and Absalom's hatred did not cool. Sheepshearing was a time of feasting, and Baal-hazor lay north of Jerusalem.
13:26 Why should he go with you? David seems to have sensed something was wrong, but he gave in. Once again David sent a child of his into danger.
13:28 when the heart of Amnon is good with the wine Absalom's plan mirrors Amnon's use of food and a pretended sickness. It also mirrors David, who made Uriah drunk (11:13) and had others kill him. David's sons were repeating their father's sins.
13:29 did to Amnon just as Absalom had commanded Was this justice for Tamar? No. It was murder. Absalom did not bring Amnon before the king or elders, and he removed the son ahead of him for the throne. Vengeance belongs to God (Rom 12:19). Revenge never heals the wound it claims to avenge.
13:30 not one of them is left News travels fast and gets worse as it goes.
13:32 by the mouth of Absalom it has been set since the day he humbled Tamar Jonadab knew. He gave Amnon the plan, watched Absalom plan murder for two years, and said nothing until it was done. He always knows the inside story and never does the right thing with it.
13:36 the king and all his servants wept a very great weeping This is the second son David has lost. Nathan's word was coming true (12:11). Sin's harvest is bitter, and it often falls on the people we love most.
13:37 Talmai the son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur Talmai was Absalom's grandfather (3:3). Geshur was a small kingdom northeast of the Sea of Galilee, outside David's reach. The one who mourned all the days is David, for Amnon.
13:39 the soul of David the king longed to go out to Absalom Some translations read that David's anger toward Absalom ceased. Either way his heart was pulled in two, and he did nothing. Love that will not discipline is not full love, and God disciplines those He loves (Heb 12:6). Sin left alone does not go away. It grows.
14:1 the heart of the king was toward Absalom Joab was hard and practical. He saw David torn and the kingdom unsettled with the likely heir in exile.

the heart of the king was toward Absalom (Avshalom). 2 And Joab sent to Tekoa (Teqoa) and took from there a wise woman, and he said to her, "Please act as a mourner, and please put on garments of mourning, and do not anoint yourself with oil, and you shall be like a woman who has been mourning over a dead person these many days. 3 And you shall go to the king and speak to him according to this word." And Joab put the words in her mouth. 4 And the Tekoite woman spoke to the king, and she fell on her face to the earth and bowed down and said, "Save, O king!" 5 And the king said to her, "What is the matter with you?" And she said, "Truly I am a widow woman, and my husband has died. 6 And your maidservant had two sons, and the two of them struggled together in the field, and there was no one to deliver between them; and the one struck the other and killed him. 7 And look, the whole clan has risen up against your maidservant, and they have said, 'Give up the one who struck his brother, so that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed, and let us destroy the heir also.' And they will extinguish my coal which is left, so as not to set for my husband a name and a remnant on the face of the ground." 8 And the king said to the woman, "Go to your house, and I, I will give command concerning you." 9 And the Tekoite woman said to the king, "On me, my lord the king, be the iniquity, and on the house of my father; and the king and his throne be innocent." 10 And the king said, "The one who speaks to you, you shall bring him to me, and he will not touch you again anymore." 11 And she said, "Please let the king remember the LORD your God, so that the avenger of blood will not multiply destroying, and they will not destroy my son." And he said, "As the LORD lives, not one of the hairs of your son shall fall to the earth." 12 And the woman said, "Please let your maidservant speak a word to my lord the king." And he said, "Speak." 13 And the woman said, "And why have you planned like this against the people of God? And by the king's speaking this word he is like one guilty, in the king's not bringing back his banished one. 14 For we shall surely die, and we are like water poured out on the earth, which cannot be gathered up; and God does not take away life, and He devises plans so that the banished one is not cast out from Him. 15 And now, that I have come to speak this word to the king my lord, it is because the people have made me afraid; and your maidservant said, 'Let me please speak to the king; perhaps the king will do the word of his maidservant. 16 For the king will hear, to deliver his maidservant from the hand of the man who seeks to destroy me and my son together from the inheritance of God.' 17 And your maidservant said, 'Please let the word of my lord the king be for rest; for like the angel of God, so is my lord the king, to hear the good and the bad.' And the LORD your God, may He be with you." 18 And the king answered and said to the woman, "Please do not hide from me anything that I am asking you." And the woman said, "Please let my lord the king speak." 19 And the king said, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?" And the woman answered and said, "As your soul lives, my lord the king, there is no going to the right or going to the left from all that my lord the king has spoken; for your servant Joab, he commanded me, and he put in the mouth of your maidservant all these words. 20 In order to change the face of the matter your servant Joab has done this thing; and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of the angel of God, to know all that is in the land."

Absalom Brought Home

21 And the king said to Joab, "Look, please, I have done this thing; and go, bring back the young man Absalom." 22 And Joab fell on his face to the earth and bowed down and blessed the king; and Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your eyes, my lord the king, in that the king has done the word of your servant." 23 And Joab arose and went to Geshur and brought Absalom to Jerusalem

14:2 Joab sent to Tekoa and took from there a wise woman Tekoa was about ten miles south of Jerusalem, later Amos's home (Amos 1:1). Joab gave her a costume and a script. Nathan told a story to bring David to the truth (12:1-7). Joab told one to bring David to the decision Joab wanted. Same method, very different purpose.
14:4 Save, O king! Kings heard cases from their people, and a widow had the right to come to the king for help.
14:7 they will extinguish my coal which is left The nearest relative was the avenger of blood (Num 35:19). But if this son died, the family line would end. The coal was the last live ember saved to start the fire in the morning. Her story was close enough to David's family that he should have seen it coming.
14:9 the king and his throne be innocent She offered to carry any guilt herself, pressing the king step by step toward a firm promise.
14:11 not one of the hairs of your son shall fall to the earth Now David was bound by his own oath. As with Nathan's parable, David passed judgment, and the judgment was turned on him.
14:13 in the king's not bringing back his banished one In pardoning her son, the king had condemned himself.
14:14 we are like water poured out on the earth, which cannot be gathered up Life is short. Once spilled, it cannot be gathered again. Do not waste the time you have with your son.
14:14 He devises plans so that the banished one is not cast out from Him One of the great sentences of the Old Testament, even from a hired speaker. God brought us home in Christ (Eph 2:13; 2 Cor 5:18-19). But He does it justly, with sin paid for at the cross. Her argument skipped justice. Absalom had not repented, and Amnon's murder was never answered.
14:16 from the inheritance of God She meant being cut off from their place among God's people.
14:17 like the angel of God, so is my lord the king She meant David was wise enough to sort right from wrong. Her speech mixed real truth, real flattery and real pressure.
14:19 Is the hand of Joab with you in all this? David was not fooled about who was behind it. He knew he had been played, but he also wanted to be. Joab gave him a reason to do what his heart already wanted.

(Yerushalayim). 24 And the king said, "He shall turn aside to his house, and my face he shall not see." And Absalom turned aside to his house, and the face of the king he did not see. 25 And like Absalom there was no man so handsome in all Israel (Yisra'el), to be praised greatly; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. 26 And when he shaved his head (and it was at the end of every year that he would shave it, for it was heavy on him, and he would shave it), he would weigh the hair of his head, approximately 5 pounds (two hundred shekels) by the weight of the king. 27 And to Absalom were born three sons and one daughter, and her name was Tamar; she was a woman beautiful of appearance. 28 And Absalom dwelt in Jerusalem two full years, and the face of the king he did not see. 29 And Absalom sent to Joab to send him to the king, and he was not willing to come to him; and he sent again a second time, and he was not willing to come. 30 And he said to his servants, "See, the plot of Joab is next to my hand, and he has barley there; go and set it ablaze with fire." And the servants of Absalom set the plot ablaze with fire. 31 And Joab arose and went to Absalom, to the house, and said to him, "Why have your servants set the plot that is mine ablaze with fire?" 32 And Absalom said to Joab, "Look, I sent to you, saying, 'Come here, and let me send you to the king to say, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would be good for me that I were still there."' And now let me see the face of the king; and if there is iniquity in me, then he shall put me to death." 33 And Joab went to the king and told him; and he called Absalom, and he came to the king and bowed down to him on his face to the earth before the king; and the king kissed Absalom.

Absalom Steals Hearts

1 And it was after this, and Absalom (Avshalom) made for himself a chariot and horses, and fifty men running before him. 2 And Absalom would rise early and stand beside the way of the gate; and it was, every man who had a case to come to the king for judgment, Absalom called to him and said, "From which city are you?" And he said, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel (Yisra'el)." 3 And Absalom said to him, "See, your matters are good and right, and there is no one listening to you from the king." 4 And Absalom said, "Who will make me a judge in the land, and to me every man who has a case and judgment would come, and I would justify him!" 5 And it was, when a man drew near to bow down to him, he would stretch out his hand and take hold of him and kiss him. 6 And Absalom did according to this manner to all Israel who came for judgment to the king; and Absalom stole the heart of the men of Israel.

Absalom's Conspiracy

7 And it was at the end of forty years, and Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go and pay my vow which I vowed to the LORD in Hebron (Chevron). 8 For your servant vowed a vow while I dwelt at Geshur in Syria (Aram), saying, 'If the LORD will indeed bring me back to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim),

14:24 my face he shall not see Absalom was home but not welcome, neither forgiven nor punished. I believe this was the worst of both choices, though some read it more kindly as a cautious first step. An open wound festers. Real reconciliation needs truth and repentance on one side and real forgiveness on the other (Luke 17:3-4).
14:25 from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him Israel was about to choose a king by looks again, as with Saul (1 Sam 9:2). Man sees the eyes, but the LORD sees the heart (1 Sam 16:7). Absalom was beautiful on the outside. His heart was another matter.
14:26 he would weigh the hair of his head About five pounds of hair, cut once a year. Remember that hair. It will matter in chapter 18.
14:27 her name was Tamar He named his daughter after his sister, which may tell us how much he loved her. In 18:18 he says he has no son, so it seems his sons died young. Scripture does not say how.
14:28 the face of the king he did not see Two years before the murder, three in Geshur, and now two more in the same city as his father without a word.
14:30 go and set it ablaze with fire Absalom gets what he wants by force. This is the man who waited two years to kill his brother.
14:32 if there is iniquity in me, then he shall put me to death Notice what he does not say. He never says he was wrong. He dares his father to judge him, knowing David will not.
14:33 the king kissed Absalom It looks like the father of the prodigal (Luke 15:20), but the prodigal came home confessing his sin (Luke 15:21). Absalom never did. A kiss without repentance did not reconcile them, and Absalom will soon use kisses to steal the people's hearts. God's forgiveness is free, but not cheap.
15:1 fifty men running before him Runners before a chariot were a sign of royalty. Samuel had warned that a king would make the people's sons run before his chariot (1 Sam 8:11). Absalom was acting like a king before he was one.
15:2 stand beside the way of the gate The city gate was where cases were heard and business was done. Absalom stopped every man coming to the king.
15:3 your matters are good and right He had not heard the other side. The first in his case seems right until his neighbor examines him (Prov 18:17). David may have grown distant after his sin and family troubles, but Absalom did not want to fix the problem. He wanted to use it.
15:4 I would justify him! He promised everybody what they wanted. Politicians have done this ever since.
15:5 he would stretch out his hand and take hold of him and kiss him The king's son refused to let people bow and treated them as equals. It looked humble. It was a strategy.
15:6 Absalom stole the heart of the men of Israel Stole is the right word. He took their hearts by flattery and deceit. Beware the leader who tells you only what you want to hear and runs down those in authority to take their place. The thief comes another way than the door (John 10:1).
15:7 at the end of forty years The SLB follows the Hebrew, which reads forty. Most teachers think it means four years after Absalom came back, as some ancient copies read, since David reigned forty years in all (5:4). Either way, the plot was long and patient.
15:8 then I will serve the LORD It was a religious cover for a political plot. Hebron was where David was first made king (2:4) and where Absalom was born (3:2-3), and some there may have resented the move to Jerusalem.

then I will serve the LORD.'" 9 And the king said to him, "Go in peace." And he arose and went to Hebron. 10 And Absalom sent spies through all the tribes of Israel, saying, "When you hear the sound of the ram's horn, then you shall say, 'Absalom has become king in Hebron.'" 11 And with Absalom went two hundred men from Jerusalem, invited, and going in their innocence, and they did not know anything. 12 And Absalom sent for Ahithophel (Achitofel) the Gilonite, the counselor of David, from his city, from Giloh (Gilo), while he was sacrificing the sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong, and the people were going on and increasing with Absalom.

David Flees Jerusalem

13 And the one bringing the news came to David, saying, "The heart of the men of Israel is after Absalom." 14 And David said to all his servants who were with him in Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us flee, for there will be no escape for us from before Absalom. Hurry to go, lest he hurry and overtake us and thrust the evil upon us and strike the city with the mouth of the sword." 15 And the servants of the king said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king chooses, look, your servants!" 16 And the king went out, and all his household at his feet; and the king left ten women, concubines, to keep the house. 17 And the king went out, and all the people at his feet, and they stood at the farthest house. 18 And all his servants were passing on beside him, and all the Kerethites and all the Pelethites and all the Gittites, six hundred men who had come at his foot from Gath (Gat), were passing on before the king. 19 And the king said to Ittai (Itay) the Gittite, "Why will you also go with us? Return and dwell with the king, for you are a foreigner, and also you are an exile from your place. 20 Yesterday was your coming, and today shall I make you wander with us to go? And I am going wherever I am going. Return, and take back your brothers; steadfast love and truth be with you." 21 And Ittai answered the king and said, "As the LORD lives and as my lord the king lives, surely in the place where my lord the king shall be, whether for death or for life, surely there your servant will be." 22 And David said to Ittai, "Go and pass on." And Ittai the Gittite passed on, and all his men and all the little ones who were with him. 23 And all the land was weeping with a great voice, and all the people were passing on; and the king was passing on in the wadi of Kidron (Qidron), and all the people were passing on, on the face of the way to the wilderness. 24 And look, Zadok (Tsadoq) also, and all the Levites with him, carrying the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down the ark of God, and Abiathar (Evyatar) went up, until all the people had finished passing out from the city. 25 And the king said to Zadok, "Take back the ark of God to the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the LORD, then He will bring me back and show me it and His habitation. 26 And if He says thus, 'I do not delight in you,' look, here I am; let Him do to me as it is good in His eyes." 27 And the king said to Zadok the priest, "Are you a seer? Return to the city in peace, and Ahimaaz (Achima'ats) your son and Jonathan (Yehonatan) the son of Abiathar, your two sons, with you. 28 See, I will be lingering in the plains of the wilderness until a word comes from you to tell me." 29 And Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem, and they remained there.

15:9 Go in peace Those were the last words David ever spoke to his son.
15:10 When you hear the sound of the ram's horn On one signal the news would spread through all the tribes at once.
15:11 going in their innocence, and they did not know anything The two hundred thought they were going to a religious feast. Their presence made it look as if leading men of Jerusalem backed Absalom.
15:12 Ahithophel the Gilonite, the counselor of David Ahithophel was the wisest man in the kingdom (16:23). He was very likely Bathsheba's grandfather, since her father Eliam (11:3) was his son (23:34). If so, he may have carried a grudge for years over Bathsheba and Uriah.
15:14 Arise, and let us flee David would leave the city rather than see it besieged and its people killed. I also see a broken man who knew this trouble came from his own sin (12:11). He would not cling to his throne. He would trust God with it.
15:16 the king left ten women, concubines, to keep the house A concubine was a wife of lower rank. This detail will matter in the next chapter.
15:17 they stood at the farthest house The king stopped at the last house on the edge of the city and watched his people pass by.
15:18 six hundred men who had come at his foot from Gath These Philistines had followed David since his years at Gath (1 Sam 27). Some of David's most loyal men were foreigners, while his own son and people turned against him.
15:20 steadfast love and truth be with you Ittai had only just come and owed David nothing. David released him with a blessing.
15:21 whether for death or for life, surely there your servant will be One of the great statements of loyalty in the Bible. A Philistine swore by the LORD, and he sounds like Ruth the Moabite (Ruth 1:16).
15:22 all the little ones who were with him Ittai brought his family into exile with the king. That is what it means to follow your king when it costs something (Matt 16:24).
15:23 the king was passing on in the wadi of Kidron A wadi runs only in the rainy season. The Kidron lies between Jerusalem and the Mount of Olives. About a thousand years later Jesus crossed it the night He was betrayed (John 18:1). David went for his own sins. Jesus went for ours.
15:24 carrying the ark of the covenant of God The priests brought the ark out so it could go with the king.
15:25 Take back the ark of God to the city David would not use the ark as a lucky charm, as Israel did in Eli's day and lost it (1 Sam 4:3-11). God cannot be carried around and used.
15:26 let Him do to me as it is good in His eyes This is the David we love. He does not demand that God restore him. He trusts God either way. Real faith does not use God to get what we want but surrenders to what He wants.
15:27 Are you a seer? This may mean, are you not a man who sees what is going on? Go back and keep watch.
15:28 I will be lingering in the plains of the wilderness David would wait near the fords of the Jordan for word. He trusted God and used good sense. Faith and planning are not enemies. Nehemiah prayed and set a guard (Neh 4:9).

David on the Mount of Olives

30 And David was going up by the ascent of the olive trees, going up and weeping, and his head was covered, and he was walking barefoot; and all the people who were with him covered each man his head, and they went up, going up and weeping. 31 And one told David, saying, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." And David said, "O LORD, please make the counsel of Ahithophel foolish." 32 And it was, David was coming to the top, where one would bow down to God, and look, Hushai (Chushay) the Arkite was to meet him, his tunic torn and soil on his head. 33 And David said to him, "If you pass on with me, then you will be a burden on me. 34 And if you return to the city and say to Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king; I was the servant of your father from of old, and now I am your servant,' then you will frustrate for me the counsel of Ahithophel. 35 And are not Zadok and Abiathar the priests with you there? And it shall be, every word that you hear from the house of the king, you shall tell to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests. 36 Look, there with them are their two sons, Ahimaaz the son of Zadok and Jonathan the son of Abiathar; and you shall send to me by their hand every word that you hear." 37 And Hushai the friend of David came into the city, and Absalom was coming into Jerusalem.

Ziba's Gift

1 And David passed on a little from the top, and look, Ziba (Tsiva) the servant of Mephibosheth (Mefivoshet) was to meet him, and a pair of saddled donkeys, and on them two hundred loaves of bread and one hundred clusters of raisins and one hundred cakes of summer fruit and a skin of wine. 2 And the king said to Ziba, "What are these to you?" And Ziba said, "The donkeys are for the household of the king to ride, and the bread and the summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for the weary in the wilderness to drink." 3 And the king said, "And where is the son of your master?" And Ziba said to the king, "Look, he is staying in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim), for he said, 'Today the house of Israel (Yisra'el) will restore to me the kingdom of my father.'" 4 And the king said to Ziba, "Look, all that belonged to Mephibosheth is yours." And Ziba said, "I bow down; may I find favor in your eyes, my lord the king."

Shimei Curses David

5 And King David came to Bahurim (Bachurim), and look, from there a man of the clan of the house of Saul (Shaul) was coming out, and his name was Shimei (Shimi) the son of Gera; he was coming out, coming out and cursing. 6 And he stoned David and all the servants of King David with stones; and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right and on his left. 7 And thus Shimei said when he cursed, "Get out, get out, man of blood and man of worthlessness! 8 The LORD has brought back on you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned; and the LORD has given the kingdom into the hand of Absalom (Avshalom) your son; and look, you are in your evil, for you are a man of blood!" 9 And Abishai (Avishay) the son of Zeruiah (Tseruya) said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please let me cross over and take off his head." 10 And the king said, "What is there to me and to you, sons of Zeruiah? Thus he curses, for the LORD has said to him, 'Curse

15:30 going up and weeping, and his head was covered, and he was walking barefoot A covered head and bare feet were signs of mourning and shame. Jesus wept over Jerusalem on this slope, prayed there, and rose to heaven from it (Acts 1:11-12). I believe His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives at His return after the Tribulation (Zech 14:4). David left in sorrow. Jesus will come as King.
15:31 O LORD, please make the counsel of Ahithophel foolish David did not panic. He prayed, and it was answered (17:14). Many see Ahithophel as a picture of Judas. Jesus applied Psalm 41:9 to Judas (John 13:18), and both men hanged themselves (17:23; Matt 27:5). Psalm 55:12-14 may also describe this betrayal.
15:32 Hushai the Arkite was to meet him, his tunic torn and soil on his head God's answer to that prayer was already walking toward David, in mourning for his king. Psalm 3, by its title, comes from this flight.
15:34 then you will frustrate for me the counsel of Ahithophel Hushai would pretend to switch sides. Scripture presents this as God's answer to David's prayer in a time of war (17:14), though teachers differ on how to judge deception in war (compare Josh 2). David prayed, and then he acted. Prayer is not an excuse to do nothing.
15:37 Absalom was coming into Jerusalem The two men entered the city at nearly the same time. The stage was set.
16:1 Ziba the servant of Mephibosheth was to meet him David had put Ziba over the land given back to Mephibosheth (9:9-10). It was a generous gift at the right moment.
16:2 the wine for the weary in the wilderness to drink It looked like loyalty. It may also have been an investment.
16:3 Today the house of Israel will restore to me the kingdom of my father That story does not make much sense. Why would Absalom, making himself king, hand the throne to Saul's lame grandson? In 19:26-27 Mephibosheth tells a very different story.
16:4 all that belonged to Mephibosheth is yours David was tired, hurt and ready to believe the worst. He made a major decision on one side of the story (Prov 18:17). Under stress we are tempted to judge quickly. That is when we most need to wait and hear the other side.
16:5 Shimei the son of Gera Bahurim was a village just east of the Mount of Olives on the road to the Jordan. Shimei threw stones even though David was surrounded by his mighty men.
16:7 man of blood and man of worthlessness A man of worthlessness was a scoundrel, a good-for-nothing.
16:8 all the blood of the house of Saul As for Saul's house, Shimei was wrong. David spared Saul (1 Sam 24; 1 Sam 26) and mourned Saul, Ish-bosheth and Abner. But David did have Uriah's blood on his hands. Sometimes a harsh critic is wrong in the details and still says something we need to hear.
16:9 Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? A dead dog meant a worthless nobody. Abishai said what many were thinking.
16:10 the LORD has said to him, Curse David David did not mean God made Shimei sin. God tempts no one to evil (Jas 1:13). He meant God was sovereign over this moment and might use even these curses to humble him. David would rather take the curse from God's hand than strike back.

David'; and who shall say, 'Why have you done so?'" 11 And David said to Abishai and to all his servants, "Look, my son who came out from my inward parts is seeking my life; and how much more now the Benjaminite! Leave him alone and let him curse, for the LORD has spoken to him. 12 Perhaps the LORD will look on my eye, and the LORD will repay me good instead of his cursing this day." 13 And David and his men went on the way, and Shimei was going on the side of the mountain alongside him, going and cursing; and he stoned with stones alongside him and showered dust. 14 And the king and all the people who were with him came weary, and he refreshed himself there. 15 And Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel (Achitofel) was with him. 16 And it was, when Hushai (Chushay) the Arkite, the friend of David, came to Absalom, and Hushai said to Absalom, "Let the king live! Let the king live!" 17 And Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your steadfast love with your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?" 18 And Hushai said to Absalom, "No, but whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel have chosen, his I will be, and with him I will remain. 19 And second, whom should I serve? Should it not be before his son? Just as I served before your father, so I will be before you." 20 And Absalom said to Ahithophel, "Give counsel for yourselves; what shall we do?" 21 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to the concubines of your father, whom he left to keep the house; and all Israel will hear that you have made yourself odious to your father, and the hands of all who are with you will be strong." 22 And they pitched the tent for Absalom on the roof, and Absalom went in to the concubines of his father before the eyes of all Israel. 23 And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counseled in those days, was as when a man inquires by the word of God; so was all the counsel of Ahithophel, both to David and to Absalom.

Ahithophel's Counsel

1 And Ahithophel (Achitofel) said to Absalom (Avshalom), "Please let me choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night. 2 And I will come upon him while he is weary and slack of hands, and I will terrify him, and all the people who are with him will flee, and I will strike down the king alone. 3 And I will bring back all the people to you. Like the returning of the whole is the man whom you are seeking; all the people will be at peace." 4 And the word was right in the eyes of Absalom and in the eyes of all the elders of Israel (Yisra'el).

Hushai's Counsel

5 And Absalom said, "Please call Hushai (Chushay) the Arkite also, and let us hear what is in his mouth, he also." 6 And Hushai came to Absalom, and Absalom said to him, saying, "According to this word Ahithophel has spoken. Shall we do his word? If not, you speak." 7 And Hushai said to Absalom, "The counsel that Ahithophel has counseled is not good this time." 8 And Hushai said, "You, you know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are bitter of soul, like a bear robbed of cubs in the field; and your father is a man of war, and he will not spend the night with the people.

16:11 Leave him alone and let him curse David's own son wanted him dead. Why be shocked at a Benjaminite? Later David told Solomon to deal with Shimei (1 Kgs 2:8-9), though he kept his own oath not to kill him (19:23).
16:12 Perhaps the LORD will look on my eye This may mean look on my tears or my affliction. When attacked unfairly, David left it to God. Jesus did the same and far more, entrusting Himself to the One who judges justly (1 Pet 2:23).
16:13 he stoned with stones alongside him and showered dust It must have gone on for a long way.
16:14 he refreshed himself there They likely reached the place by the Jordan where David told the priests to send word (15:28). After a day of grief and insult, God gave them rest. Psalm 3 may come from this night (Ps 3:5).
16:16 Let the king live! Let the king live! Hushai, the friend of David, may have held an official title as the king's trusted adviser.
16:17 Is this your steadfast love with your friend? Absalom was suspicious. Hesed is the loyal, covenant love that keeps faith.
16:18 whom the LORD and this people and all the men of Israel have chosen, his I will be Absalom heard it as about himself, but Hushai never said his name. The one the LORD had chosen was David. It was a double-edged answer, and Absalom was proud enough to take it as praise.
16:21 Go in to the concubines of your father Taking the former king's wives was a public claim to his throne (3:7; 12:8). It made the break final. To make yourself odious is to become a stench, so hated there could never be peace, and his followers would know there was no going back.
16:22 they pitched the tent for Absalom on the roof The writer does not linger. It was wicked, broke God's Law (Lev 18:8), shamed his father and wronged ten women who had no say. It happened on the roof where David first looked at Bathsheba (11:2). Absalom is fully to blame, but God had warned what David did in secret would be repaid in the open (12:11).
16:23 as when a man inquires by the word of God People treated Ahithophel's advice as if God had spoken. Yet his first advice was a gross public sin. Wisdom without the fear of the LORD is dangerous (Prov 9:10). David prayed that God would turn this counsel to foolishness (15:31), and in the next chapter God does.
17:1 I will arise and pursue after David this night Ahithophel wanted to strike fast, before David could rest and regroup.
17:2 I will strike down the king alone It was a cold and smart plan. Kill one man, and the war is over, with no long civil war.
17:4 the word was right in the eyes of Absalom and in the eyes of all the elders of Israel Nobody blinked at a plan to kill Absalom's own father. Humanly speaking it would have worked. David was exhausted and had not yet crossed the Jordan. But David had prayed (15:31).
17:5 let us hear what is in his mouth, he also Why a second opinion? Perhaps pride, perhaps doubt. Verse 14 tells us who was really behind it.
17:7 is not good this time Hushai started carefully. He did not attack Ahithophel's wisdom in general, only suggested that this once the great counselor had missed something.
17:8 like a bear robbed of cubs in the field Nothing is more dangerous than a mother bear robbed of her cubs. Hushai played on Absalom's fears.

9 Look, now he has hidden himself in one of the pits or in one of the places; and it will be, when some fall among them at the first, then whoever hears will hear and say, 'There has been a slaughter among the people who are after Absalom.' 10 And he also, a son of strength whose heart is like the heart of the lion, will utterly melt; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and that those who are with him are sons of strength. 11 For I counsel: let all Israel be surely gathered to you, from Dan even to Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva), like the sand which is by the sea for multitude, and your face going into the battle. 12 And we will come against him in one of the places where he is found, and we will light on him as the dew falls on the ground; and there will not be left of him and of all the men who are with him even one. 13 And if he is gathered into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it to the wadi until not even a pebble is found there." 14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Arkite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." And the LORD had commanded to frustrate the good counsel of Ahithophel, in order that the LORD might bring the evil upon Absalom.

The Messengers in the Well

15 And Hushai said to Zadok (Tsadoq) and to Abiathar (Evyatar) the priests, "Like this and like that Ahithophel counseled Absalom and the elders of Israel, and like this and like that I, I have counseled. 16 And now send quickly and tell David, saying, 'Do not spend the night tonight at the plains of the wilderness, and also be sure to pass over, lest the king and all the people who are with him be swallowed up.'" 17 And Jonathan (Yehonatan) and Ahimaaz (Achima'ats) were staying at En-rogel, and the maidservant would go and tell them, and they would go and tell King David; for they could not be seen coming into the city. 18 And a young man saw them and told Absalom; and the two of them went quickly and came to the house of a man in Bahurim (Bachurim), and he had a well in his courtyard, and they went down there. 19 And the woman took and spread the covering over the face of the well and spread crushed grain on it, and nothing was known. 20 And the servants of Absalom came to the woman, to the house, and said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" And the woman said to them, "They have passed over the brook of water." And they sought and did not find them, and they returned to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). 21 And it was after they had gone, and they came up from the well and went and told King David; and they said to David, "Arise and pass over the water quickly, for thus Ahithophel has counseled against you." 22 And David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they passed over the Jordan (Yarden); until the light of the morning, not even one was missing who had not passed over the Jordan. 23 And Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not done, and he saddled the donkey and arose and went to his house, to his city; and he gave command concerning his household, and he hanged himself and died; and he was buried in the tomb of his father.

Help at Mahanaim

24 And David had come to Mahanaim (Machanayim), and Absalom had passed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. 25 And Absalom had set Amasa in place of Joab (Yo'av) over the army; and Amasa was the son of a man, and his name was Ithra (Yitra) the Israelite, who had gone in to Abigail (Avigal) the daughter of Nahash (Nachash), the sister of Zeruiah (Tseruya), the mother of Joab. 26 And Israel

17:9 he has hidden himself in one of the pits Absalom knew the stories of David hiding in caves from Saul. Hushai did not have to lie much. He used the truth about David's skill to make the right plan look dangerous.
17:10 whose heart is like the heart of the lion, will utterly melt If any of Absalom's men fell first, word of a slaughter would spread and even the bravest would lose heart.
17:11 your face going into the battle Dan was the far north and Beersheba the far south. Hushai appealed to Absalom's pride, picturing him at the head of a vast army. Absalom loved to be seen.
17:13 we will drag it to the wadi until not even a pebble is found there It was grand and boastful, and it bought David the one thing he needed most, time.
17:14 the LORD had commanded to frustrate the good counsel of Ahithophel The key verse of the chapter and the answer to David's prayer in 15:31. Good means it would have worked. No counsel stands against the LORD (Prov 21:30). God often works through ordinary choices, a proud man's vanity, a friend's quick words, a second opinion (Prov 19:21).
17:16 be sure to pass over Hushai did not trust Absalom to stick with his decision. Trusting God's sovereignty did not make him careless. Sovereignty and our responsibility work together.
17:17 Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En-rogel En-rogel was a spring just south of the city. The priests' sons could not be seen going in and out, so a maidservant carried the message.
17:19 spread crushed grain on it, and nothing was known The well was likely a dry cistern, and the grain looked like grain set out to dry. This was in Bahurim, where Shimei had cursed David.
17:20 They have passed over the brook of water Like Rahab (Josh 2:4-6), an unnamed village woman risked her life for the LORD's anointed. Scripture does not judge her words, and teachers differ on deception to protect life in war. What it shows is her courage.
17:22 not even one was missing who had not passed over the Jordan They crossed in the dark, and God kept every one of them safe.
17:23 he hanged himself and died Ahithophel saw Absalom would lose and he would die a traitor. The wisest man in Israel set his house in order but not his soul. Like Judas (Matt 27:5), betrayal led to despair. If you are struggling with thoughts of ending your life, talk to someone today, a pastor, a friend, a doctor or a crisis line. God has not given up on you (Ps 34:18).
17:24 David had come to Mahanaim A fortified town in Gilead east of the Jordan, Ish-bosheth's old capital (2:8). It was a good place to gather an army.
17:25 Abigail the daughter of Nahash, the sister of Zeruiah Amasa was David's nephew and Joab's cousin. This was a family war through and through, with cousins leading both armies.

and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead (Gilad). 27 And it was, when David came to Mahanaim, and Shobi (Shovi) the son of Nahash from Rabbah (Raba) of the sons of Ammon (Amon), and Machir (Makhir) the son of Ammiel (Ami'el) from Lo-debar (Lo-Devar), and Barzillai (Barzilay) the Gileadite from Rogelim (Roglim), 28 beds and basins and vessels of a potter, and wheat and barley and flour and roasted grain, and beans and lentils and roasted grain, 29 and honey and curds and sheep and cheese of the herd, they brought for David and for the people who were with him to eat; for they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness."

David Sends Out the Army

1 And David mustered the people who were with him, and he set over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds. 2 And David sent out the people, the third in the hand of Joab (Yo'av), and the third in the hand of Abishai (Avishay) the son of Zeruiah (Tseruya), the brother of Joab, and the third in the hand of Ittai (Itay) the Gittite. And the king said to the people, "I also will surely go out with you." 3 And the people said, "You shall not go out; for if we indeed flee, they will not set their heart on us; and if half of us die, they will not set their heart on us; for now you are like ten thousand of us. And now it is good that you be for us from the city to help." 4 And the king said to them, "What is good in your eyes I will do." And the king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands. 5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man, with Absalom (Avshalom)." And all the people heard when the king commanded all the commanders concerning the matter of Absalom. 6 And the people went out into the field to meet Israel (Yisra'el), and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim (Efrayim). 7 And the people of Israel were defeated there before the servants of David, and the slaughter there was great on that day, twenty thousand. 8 And the battle there was spread out over the face of all the land, and the forest devoured more among the people than the sword devoured on that day.

The Death of Absalom

9 And Absalom happened to be before the servants of David. And Absalom was riding on the mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of the great oak, and his head caught fast in the oak, and he was put between the heavens and the earth, and the mule that was under him passed on. 10 And a certain man saw it and told Joab, and he said, "Look, I saw Absalom hanging in the oak." 11 And Joab said to the man who told him, "And look, you saw him! And why did you not strike him down there to the earth? And it would have been on me to give you ten pieces of silver and one belt." 12 And the man said to Joab, "Even if I were weighing on my hands a thousand pieces of silver, I would not stretch out my hand against the son of the king; for in our ears the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, 'Guard, whoever you are, the young man, Absalom.' 13 Or if I had done falsehood against my life (and nothing is hidden from the king), then you yourself would have stood aloof." 14 And Joab said, "Not thus will I wait before you." And he took three spears in his hand and thrust them into the heart of Absalom, while he was still alive in the heart of the oak. 15 And ten young men, the bearers of the armor of Joab, surrounded him and struck Absalom and killed him. 16 And Joab blew the ram's horn, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel, for Joab restrained the people. 17 And they took

17:27 Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the sons of Ammon Help came from three unexpected men. A son of Ammon's old king, Machir who had cared for Mephibosheth (9:4-5), so David's kindness was not forgotten, and the old and wealthy Barzillai (19:32).
17:29 The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness The writer enjoys every item on the list. David left Jerusalem with nothing, and God met him in the wilderness. Psalm 23:5 was not written at this time, but David knew from experience that God arranges a table before us in front of our adversaries.
18:2 the third in the hand of Ittai the Gittite The foreigner who swore loyalty in the darkest hour (15:21) was now trusted with a third of the army.
18:3 now you are like ten thousand of us If David died, the cause was lost. In 11:1 David should have gone to war and stayed home. Now he wants to go, and his people wisely keep him back. David listened.
18:5 Deal gently for my sake with the young man, with Absalom Absalom led an army to kill his father, and David still called him the young man and asked for mercy before the whole army. A son can break his father's heart and still be loved. God is patient, not wishing any to perish (2 Pet 3:9).
18:6 the battle was in the forest of Ephraim This forest was east of the Jordan in Gilead, rough and wooded hill country.
18:8 the forest devoured more among the people than the sword devoured Ravines, woods, rocks and pits took more lives than the fighting. Hushai's huge army of untrained men was helpless in that ground against tested soldiers. The LORD was bringing disaster on Absalom, as 17:14 said.
18:9 his head caught fast in the oak, and he was put between the heavens and the earth The mule was the mount of the king's sons (13:29), and it walked out from under him. Many think his famous hair caught him (14:26), though the text says only his head. He hung between heaven and earth. Pride goes before a fall (Prov 16:18).
18:11 ten pieces of silver and one belt It was a fine reward for killing the king's son.
18:12 I would not stretch out my hand against the son of the king This soldier had integrity. He heard the king's command himself.
18:13 then you yourself would have stood aloof He saw through Joab, who would have left him to take the blame. This nameless man understood his king and his commander better than Joab expected.
18:14 thrust them into the heart of Absalom Absalom was guilty of murder, incest and rebellion and deserved death under the Law (Deut 21:18-21). Humanly, Joab may have saved the kingdom. But he disobeyed a direct order in front of the army, as he did his own way with Abner (3:27) and soon Amasa (20:10). David never forgot (1 Kgs 2:5-6).
18:16 Joab restrained the people With Absalom dead, the rebellion was over. There was no reason for more of Israel to die.
18:17 they set up over him a very great heap of stones A heap of stones over a body was a mark of shame for the cursed (Josh 7:26; 8:29). The handsomest man in Israel was buried in a hole in the woods.

Absalom and threw him in the forest into the great pit, and they set up over him a very great heap of stones. And all Israel fled, each man to his tents. 18 And Absalom in his life had taken and set up for himself the pillar which is in the valley of the king, for he said, "I have no son in order to cause my name to be remembered." And he called the pillar by his own name, and it is called "the Monument of Absalom" to this day.

The News Reaches David

19 And Ahimaaz (Achima'ats) the son of Zadok (Tsadoq) said, "Please let me run and bear news to the king that the LORD has vindicated him from the hand of his enemies." 20 And Joab said to him, "You are not a man of news this day; and you shall bear news on another day, and this day you shall not bear news, for since the son of the king has died." 21 And Joab said to the Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen." And the Cushite bowed down to Joab and ran. 22 And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok again further said to Joab, "And whatever may be, please let me also run after the Cushite." And Joab said, "Why is it that you are running, my son, and you have no news that finds reward?" 23 "And whatever may be, I will run." And he said to him, "Run." And Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain and passed the Cushite. 24 And David was sitting between the two gates; and the watchman went to the roof of the gate, to the wall, and lifted up his eyes and saw, and look, a man running by himself. 25 And the watchman called out and told the king. And the king said, "If he is by himself, there is news in his mouth." And he came on, coming and drawing near. 26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called to the gatekeeper and said, "Look, a man running by himself!" And the king said, "This one also is bearing news." 27 And the watchman said, "I see the running of the first is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok." And the king said, "This is a good man, and he comes with good news." 28 And Ahimaaz called out and said to the king, "Peace!" And he bowed down to the king on his face to the earth and said, "Blessed be the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king." 29 And the king said, "Is there peace for the young man, for Absalom?" And Ahimaaz said, "I saw the great tumult at the sending of the servant of the king, Joab, and your servant, and I do not know what it was." 30 And the king said, "Turn aside, stand here." And he turned aside and stood. 31 And look, the Cushite came, and the Cushite said, "Let my lord the king receive news, for the LORD has vindicated you this day from the hand of all who rose up against you." 32 And the king said to the Cushite, "Is there peace for the young man, for Absalom?" And the Cushite said, "Let the enemies of my lord the king, and all who have risen up against you for evil, be like the young man." 33 And the king was shaken, and he went up to the upper room of the gate and wept; and thus he said as he went, "My son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! Would that I had died, I myself, in your place! Absalom, my son, my son!"

Joab Rebukes David

1 And it was told to Joab (Yo'av), "Look, the king is weeping, and he has mourned over Absalom (Avshalom)." 2 And the deliverance on that day became mourning for all the people, for the people heard on that day, saying, "The king is grieved over his son." 3 And the people stole away on that day to enter the city, just as the people who are humiliated steal away when they flee in the battle. 4 And the king covered his face, and the king cried out with a loud voice, "My son Absalom! Absalom, my son, my son!" 5 And Joab came to the king into the house and said, "You have put to shame today the faces of all your servants who rescued your life today, and the life of your sons and your daughters, and the life of your

18:18 it is called the Monument of Absalom to this day His sons seem to have died young. He built himself a grand memorial and ended under a pile of rocks. That is the difference between the honor we give ourselves and the honor God gives (Prov 29:23).
18:19 Please let me run and bear news to the king Ahimaaz had hidden in the well (17:18-21). He was eager, loyal and fast.
18:20 You are not a man of news this day Joab knew how David would take the news and seems to have wanted to protect the young man. The Cushite came from the land south of Egypt.
18:23 Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain and passed the Cushite The road through the Jordan valley was longer but easier.
18:24 David was sitting between the two gates The inner and outer gates of the walled entry. A crowd running meant a rout. A single runner meant a messenger.
18:27 This is a good man, and he comes with good news David was hoping. But he was not waiting for the battle report. He was waiting for news of his son.
18:29 Is there peace for the young man, for Absalom? Ahimaaz knew and lost his nerve. He could not bring himself to say it.
18:32 be like the young man The Cushite answered as gently as a soldier could. He did not say Absalom was dead. He did not have to.
18:33 My son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! Shaken means trembling all through. Five times David says my son, and nothing about the throne. There is love thrown back in his face, guilt over Nathan's sword (12:10), regret over years he did not act, and a death before reconciliation. If you grieve a child who turned away, God did not rebuke David's tears. Jesus wept (John 11:35). Keep praying.
18:33 Would that I had died, I myself, in your place! David could only wish it, and it could not have changed Absalom's heart. But the cry points to the One who could. God sent His Son to die in the place of rebels (Rom 5:8). We were Absalom, and the Son of David died so rebels could come home.
19:2 the deliverance on that day became mourning for all the people The soldiers who risked their lives slipped back into the city as if they had lost.
19:4 the king covered his face David's grief was real and right. But he was not only a father. He was the king, and his men needed him.

wives, and the life of your concubines, 6 by loving those who hate you and by hating those who love you. For you have made known today that commanders and servants are nothing to you; for I know today that if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead today, then it would be right in your eyes. 7 And now, arise, go out and speak to the heart of your servants; for by the LORD I swear that if you are not going out, not a man will lodge with you this night. And this will be worse for you than all the evil that has come on you from your youth until now." 8 And the king arose and sat in the gate. And they told all the people, saying, "Look, the king is sitting in the gate." And all the people came before the king. And Israel (Yisra'el) had fled, each to his tents. 9 And all the people were quarreling in all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies, and he rescued us from the hand of the Philistines; and now he has fled from the land, away from Absalom. 10 And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in the battle. And now, why are you keeping silent about bringing back the king?" 11 And King David sent to Zadok (Tsadoq) and to Abiathar (Evyatar) the priests, saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah (Yehuda), saying, 'Why will you be the last to bring back the king to his house? And the word of all Israel has come to the king, to his house. 12 You are my brothers; you are my bone and my flesh. And why will you be the last to bring back the king?' 13 And to Amasa you shall say, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? Thus may God do to me, and thus may He add, if you will not be commander of the army before me all the days in place of Joab.'" 14 And he turned the heart of every man of Judah like one man. And they sent to the king, "Return, you and all your servants." 15 And the king returned and came to the Jordan (Yarden). And Judah came to Gilgal to go to meet the king, to bring the king over the Jordan.

Shimei Pardoned

16 And Shimei (Shimi) the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, who was from Bahurim (Bachurim), hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet King David. 17 And a thousand men from Benjamin (Binyamin) were with him, and Ziba (Tsiva) the servant of the house of Saul (Shaul), and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they rushed into the Jordan before the king. 18 And the ferry passed over to bring over the household of the king and to do what was good in his eyes. And Shimei the son of Gera fell before the king when he passed over at the Jordan. 19 And he said to the king, "Let not my lord reckon iniquity to me, and do not remember what your servant did perversely on the day when my lord the king went out from Jerusalem (Yerushalayim), for the king to set it to his heart. 20 For your servant knows that I have sinned. And look, I have come today, first of all the house of Joseph (Yosef), to come down to meet my lord the king." 21 And Abishai (Avishay) the son of Zeruiah (Tseruya) answered and said, "Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the anointed of the LORD?" 22 And David said, "What is there to me and to you, sons of Zeruiah, that you should become an adversary to me today? Shall anyone be put to death in Israel today? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?" 23 And the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king swore to him.

Mephibosheth Meets the King

24 And Mephibosheth (Mefivoshet) the son of Saul came down to meet the king. And he had not tended his feet, and he had not tended his mustache, and his garments he had not washed, from the day the king went until the day when he came back in peace. 25 And it was, when he came to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?" 26 And he said, "My lord the king, my servant deceived me; for your servant said, 'Let me saddle the donkey for myself, and let me ride on it and go with the king,' for your servant is lame. 27 And he has slandered your servant to my lord the king. And my lord the 19:6 by loving those who hate you and by hating those who love you Joab was harsh, and he had just killed Absalom against orders. But he was right. Leaders do not get to grieve only in private. Faithful wounds from a friend can be better than kisses (Prov 27:6), even when the friend is a hard man.

19:7 not a man will lodge with you this night The army would melt away, and David would lose the kingdom he had just won back.
19:8 the king arose and sat in the gate The gate was where the king was seen and business was done. David did what he had to do.
19:10 why are you keeping silent about bringing back the king? The tribes remembered David's victories. Their new king was dead, and no one was taking the lead.
19:12 You are my brothers; you are my bone and my flesh Judah had backed Absalom at Hebron and seemed slow, perhaps ashamed. David appealed to family ties.
19:13 commander of the army before me all the days in place of Joab David gave the top post to the rebel general, his nephew. It said there would be no revenge and won Judah over. It was likely also a demotion of Joab for killing Absalom, though Scripture does not give David's motives. It set up the bloodshed of chapter 20.
19:15 Judah came to Gilgal Gilgal lay near the river on the west side.
19:17 they rushed into the Jordan before the king Shimei brought a thousand men of Benjamin, and Ziba came with his sons and servants to help the household across.
19:20 your servant knows that I have sinned First of the house of Joseph means first of the northern tribes. Was Shimei sorry or afraid? Probably both. But he confessed plainly.
19:22 that you should become an adversary to me today Cursing a ruler was serious (Exod 22:28). The Hebrew for adversary is satan, one who opposes. Abishai stood in the way of mercy. The king's return was a day of amnesty, not executions.
19:23 You shall not die David kept that oath. Later he told Solomon to deal wisely with Shimei, and Solomon put him to death when he broke Solomon's terms (1 Kgs 2:8-9, 36-46). Teachers differ on whether that undercuts the mercy shown here.
19:24 he had not tended his feet, and he had not tended his mustache For all the weeks David was gone, Mephibosheth lived as a man in mourning.
19:26 my servant deceived me He had told Ziba to saddle a donkey, being lame, and Ziba left without him.

king is like the angel of God; so do what is good in your eyes. 28 For all the house of my father were nothing but men of death to my lord the king; and you set your servant among those who eat at your table. And what righteousness is there still for me, even to cry out still to the king?" 29 And the king said to him, "Why do you still speak your words? I have said, 'You and Ziba shall divide the field.'" 30 And Mephibosheth said to the king, "Let him take even the whole, after my lord the king has come in peace to his house."

Barzillai

31 And Barzillai (Barzilay) the Gileadite had come down from Rogelim (Roglim), and he passed over the Jordan with the king to send him off at the Jordan. 32 And Barzillai was very old, a son of eighty years; and he had supplied the king during his stay in Mahanaim (Machanayim), for he was a very great man. 33 And the king said to Barzillai, "You pass over with me, and I will supply you with me in Jerusalem." 34 And Barzillai said to the king, "How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? 35 I am a son of eighty years today. Do I know between good and evil? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I still listen to the voice of male singers and female singers? And why should your servant still be a burden to my lord the king? 36 Your servant would pass over the Jordan with the king only a little way; and why should the king reward me with this reward? 37 Let your servant return, please, that I may die in my own city, near the grave of my father and my mother. And look, your servant Chimham (Kimham); let him pass over with my lord the king, and do for him what is good in your eyes." 38 And the king said, "Chimham shall pass over with me, and I will do for him what is good in your eyes; and all that you choose to ask of me I will do for you." 39 And all the people passed over the Jordan, and the king passed over. And the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned to his place. 40 And the king passed over to Gilgal, and Chimham passed over with him. And all the people of Judah brought the king over, and also half of the people of Israel. 41 And look, all the men of Israel were coming to the king, and they said to the king, "Why have our brothers, the men of Judah, stolen you away and brought the king and his household over the Jordan, and all the men of David with him?" 42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is near to me. And why is this, that it has burned you over this matter? Have we eaten at all from the king? Or has anything really been carried off for us?" 43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, "I have ten shares in the king, and also in David I have more than you. And why did you treat me with contempt? And was not my word first for me to bring back my king?" And the word of the men of Judah was harder than the word of the men of Israel.

The Revolt of Sheba

1 And there happened to be there a man of worthlessness, and his name was Sheba (Sheva) the son of Bichri (Bikhri), a Benjaminite. And he blew the trumpet and said, "There is no portion for us in David, and no inheritance for us in the son of Jesse (Yishay). Each to his tents, O Israel (Yisra'el)!" 2 And every man of Israel went up from after David, after Sheba the son of Bichri. And the men of Judah (Yehuda) clung to their king, from the Jordan (Yarden) even to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). 3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem. And the king took the ten women, concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and he put them in a house of confinement and sustained them, and he did not go in to them. And they were shut up until the day of their death, in widowhood

19:28 you set your servant among those who eat at your table Saul's family deserved nothing, and David gave him a seat at his table (9:7-13). Many teachers believe Mephibosheth told the truth. Weeks of mourning are hard to fake, and Ziba's story made little sense (16:3). Others think he hedged his bets. The text does not settle it.
19:29 You and Ziba shall divide the field David seems not to have wanted to sort it out, perhaps unable to tell who lied, or unwilling to make an enemy on a day of peace. If Mephibosheth was truthful, it was not full justice.
19:30 Let him take even the whole He did not want land. He wanted the king. That is the heart God looks for. The gifts are good, but the Giver is better. Can you say to the Lord, You are enough, even if I lose everything else?
19:32 he was a very great man Very great means very wealthy. Barzillai fed the king at Mahanaim (17:27-29).
19:35 Can I still listen to the voice of male singers and female singers? His answer is honest and gentle. He was too old for court life, and feasts and music would be wasted on him.
19:37 that I may die in my own city, near the grave of my father and my mother There is wisdom in knowing your season of life. Chimham was most likely his son. A place near Bethlehem later bore Chimham's name (Jer 41:17), so it seems David gave him land there.
19:39 the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him Barzillai gave when David had nothing and asked nothing for himself. Even a cup of cold water given to one of His own will not lose its reward (Matt 10:42).
19:40 also half of the people of Israel Notice half. The north was not fully on board.
19:41 stolen you away The northern tribes felt left out of the welcome.
19:43 I have ten shares in the king Ten tribes against one, and they had spoken first (19:9-11). Both sides claimed to love the king and fought over pride. This rivalry would split the kingdom after Solomon (1 Kgs 12:16). We can claim to love the King while fighting over who matters most (Matt 5:9).
20:1 There is no portion for us in David Sheba was a scoundrel from Saul's tribe. To go to your tents meant to break up the assembly and go home. Calling David the son of Jesse was an insult, as if he were just a farmer's boy. These words would be shouted again when the kingdom split (1 Kgs 12:16).
20:2 every man of Israel went up from after David Hours before, they claimed ten shares in the king (19:43). Now they walked away. Hurt pride had turned into rebellion.
20:3 they were shut up until the day of their death, in widowhood of life These women had done nothing wrong. Left behind, taken against their will, then shut away for life. David provided for them, but in the customs of that day no good way out seemed possible. Sin hurts more people than the sinner intends. God saw these women, even if history forgot their names.

Joab Murders Amasa

4 And the king said to Amasa, "Summon to me the men of Judah within three days, and you, stand here." 5 And Amasa went to summon Judah, and he delayed beyond the appointed time which he had appointed him. 6 And David said to Abishai (Avishay), "Now Sheba the son of Bichri will be worse for us than Absalom (Avshalom). You, take the servants of your lord and pursue after him, lest he find for himself fortified cities and snatch himself away from our eye." 7 And the men of Joab (Yo'av) went out after him, and the Kerethites and the Pelethites and all the mighty men; and they went out from Jerusalem to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. 8 They were at the great stone which is in Gibeon (Givon), and Amasa came before them. And Joab was girded with his robe, his clothing, and over it a belt with a sword fastened on his loins in its sheath; and he went forward, and it fell out. 9 And Joab said to Amasa, "Are you at peace, my brother?" And the right hand of Joab took hold of the beard of Amasa to kiss him. 10 And Amasa did not take heed of the sword which was in the hand of Joab; and he struck him with it in the belly and poured out his bowels to the ground, and he did not repeat it to him, and he died. And Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. 11 And a man from the young men of Joab stood over him and said, "Whoever delights in Joab, and whoever is for David, let him go after Joab!" 12 And Amasa was wallowing in the blood in the middle of the highway. And the man saw that all the people stopped, and he brought Amasa around from the highway into the field and threw a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came on him stopped. 13 When he had removed him from the highway, every man passed on after Joab to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

The Wise Woman of Abel

14 And he passed through all the tribes of Israel toward Abel (Avel) and Beth-maacah (Bet-Ma'akha), and all the Berites; and they assembled and went in also after him. 15 And they came and besieged him in Abel-beth-maacah, and they poured out a siege mound against the city, and it stood by the rampart. And all the people who were with Joab were destroying, to make the wall fall. 16 And a wise woman called out from the city, "Listen! Listen! Say, please, to Joab, 'Draw near to here, and let me speak to you.'" 17 And he drew near to her. And the woman said, "Are you Joab?" And he said, "I am." And she said to him, "Listen to the words of your maidservant." And he said, "I am listening." 18 And she spoke, saying, "They surely used to speak in former times, saying, 'They shall surely ask at Abel,' and so they finished. 19 I am one of the peaceable of the faithful of Israel. You are seeking to kill a city and a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?" 20 And Joab answered and said, "Far be it, far be it from me that I should swallow up or that I should destroy! 21 The matter is not so. For a man from the hill country of Ephraim (Efrayim), Sheba the son of Bichri is his name, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. Give him up, him alone, and let me go away from the city." And the woman said to Joab, "Look, his head will be thrown to you over the wall." 22 And the woman went to all the people in her wisdom, and they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri and threw it to Joab. And he blew the trumpet, and they were scattered from the city, each to his tents. And Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

20:5 he delayed beyond the appointed time Scripture does not say why. Perhaps Judah did not trust Absalom's general, or he was not up to the job.
20:6 Sheba the son of Bichri will be worse for us than Absalom In a walled city, Sheba would be long and costly to root out. David turned to Abishai. He would not turn to Joab, but he could not keep Joab out.
20:8 he went forward, and it fell out Gibeon was a few miles north of Jerusalem. Joab seems to have arranged it so the sword slipped out and he could pick it up in his left hand without alarm.
20:9 Are you at peace, my brother? Taking the beard to kiss was a normal greeting between relatives. Amasa watched Joab's right hand and his smile.
20:10 Amasa did not take heed of the sword which was in the hand of Joab Cold murder, just as with Abner (3:27). Both men had been on the other side, David had welcomed both, and both deaths removed a rival. David named it at the end (1 Kgs 2:5). A greeting of peace with a hidden sword brings to mind Judas's kiss (Matt 26:49).
20:11 Whoever delights in Joab, and whoever is for David He tied loyalty to David with loyalty to Joab. Joab simply stepped back into command as if nothing had happened.
20:12 threw a garment over him Out of sight, out of mind. It is a grim picture of how easily people move on from an injustice once it is covered up. Joab got away with it, for now.
20:14 toward Abel and Beth-maacah, and all the Berites Abel lay in the far north near Dan, at the foot of Mount Hermon. Few followed Sheba that far. His revolt was shrinking.
20:15 they poured out a siege mound against the city A ramp of earth let attackers reach the top of the wall. A whole town was about to pay for one rebel.
20:16 a wise woman called out from the city Like the woman of Tekoa she is called wise. But this woman spoke for herself, and she spoke the truth.
20:18 They shall surely ask at Abel Abel was famous for wise counsel. People settled disputes by going there. You should have asked us before attacking us.
20:19 You are seeking to kill a city and a mother in Israel A mother city was a leading town with villages around it like children. The town was part of the inheritance God gave Israel.
20:20 Far be it, far be it from me that I should swallow up From the man who just murdered his cousin, it sounds strange. But Joab was practical and did not want a siege if he could avoid one.
20:22 they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri and threw it to Joab The revolt that began with a trumpet ended with one. One wise woman saved a city by speaking up and seeking peace (Matt 5:9). One voice of wisdom at the right moment can stop much bloodshed.

The Gibeonites Avenged

1 And there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year. And David sought the face of the LORD. And the LORD said, "It is because of Saul (Shaul) and because of his house of blood, because he put to death the Gibeonites." 2 And the king called the Gibeonites and said to them. And the Gibeonites were not of the sons of Israel (Yisra'el), but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the sons of Israel had sworn to them, and Saul had sought to strike them down in his zeal for the sons of Israel and Judah (Yehuda). 3 And David said to the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement? And bless the inheritance of the LORD." 4 And the Gibeonites said to him, "It is not silver and gold that is for us with Saul and with his house, and it is not for us to put to death a man in Israel." And he said, "What you are saying, I will do for you." 5 And they said to the king, "The man who consumed us, and who planned against us that we should be destroyed from standing in all the territory of Israel, 6 let seven men from his sons be given to us, and we will impale them to the LORD at Gibeah (Giva) of Saul, the chosen of the LORD." And the king said, "I will give them." 7 And the king had compassion on Mephibosheth (Mefivoshet) the son of Jonathan (Yehonatan) the son of Saul, because of the oath of the LORD which was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. 8 And the king took the two sons of Rizpah (Ritspa) the daughter of Aiah (Aya), whom she had borne to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth, and the five sons of Michal (Mikhal) the daughter of Saul, whom she had borne to Adriel the son of Barzillai (Barzilay) the Meholathite. 9 And he gave them into the hand of the Gibeonites, and they impaled them on the mountain before the LORD. And the seven of them fell together; and they were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, at the beginning of the barley harvest.

Rizpah's Vigil

10 And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took the sackcloth and spread it out for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water was poured out on them from the heavens. And she did not permit the birds of the heavens to rest on them by day, or the living things of the field by night. 11 And it was told to David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done. 12 And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the citizens of Jabesh-gilead (Yavesh-Gilad), who had stolen them from the open square of Beth-shean
(Bet-She'an), where the Philistines had hung them on the day the Philistines struck down Saul on Gilboa. 13 And he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of the impaled

20:23 Joab was over all the army of Israel After the turmoil, the kingdom was set back in order. But Joab is at the top. He took back his post by murder, and David let it stand. Even a restored king lives with the results of his compromises.
20:24 Adoram was over the forced labor A new office over men drafted for the king's building projects.
20:26 Ira the Jairite was a priest to David Ira may have been a personal priest or a chief official, the same word used of David's sons in 8:18. Teachers differ.
21:1 David sought the face of the LORD One bad harvest can happen to anyone. Three in a row made David ask why. When trouble lingers, we should ask God whether He is telling us something. With Mephibosheth already at David's table, this was likely in the middle years of his reign.
21:1 because he put to death the Gibeonites This verse is the only record of Saul's crime. It had gone unpunished, and the blood cried out from the ground.
21:2 the sons of Israel had sworn to them The Gibeonites tricked Joshua into a treaty (Josh 9), yet Israel kept its oath for about four hundred years. Saul, perhaps thinking himself a patriot, broke an oath made in God's name. God takes our promises seriously, even old ones, even to outsiders. The godly man keeps his word to his own harm (Ps 15:4).
21:3 with what shall I make atonement? To make atonement is to cover a wrong and make peace, so it no longer stands between the two sides. Then they would pray for Israel instead of crying out against it.
21:4 It is not silver and gold that is for us Blood money was not allowed for murder (Num 35:31). As foreigners under Israel's protection, they had no right to take revenge on their own.
21:6 we will impale them to the LORD at Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of the LORD Gibeah was Saul's hometown. To impale here means to put to death and expose the bodies, a sign of dying under a curse. Seven was a number of completeness. The chosen of the LORD is a bitter phrase from them. Saul used that position to break the LORD's oath.
21:7 because of the oath of the LORD which was between them David had sworn never to cut off kindness from Jonathan's house (1 Sam 20:14-17, 42). The chapter turns on two oaths. Saul broke his people's oath and brought judgment. David kept his and spared a life.
21:8 the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul Michal had no children (6:23), and her sister Merab married Adriel (1 Sam 18:19). Two Hebrew manuscripts and some ancient translations read Merab here. Others think Michal raised her sister's sons. Rizpah was Saul's concubine (3:7).
21:9 at the beginning of the barley harvest In the spring, about April.
21:10 she did not permit the birds of the heavens to rest on them by day Rizpah camped on the rock until the rains, perhaps months later, driving off vultures and jackals. She could not save her sons' lives, but she would not let their bodies be shamed. If you grieve a loss you could not stop, faithful love still matters, and God saw it, for He had it written down.
21:12 who had stolen them from the open square of Beth-shean The men of Jabesh had rescued the bodies from the Philistines (1 Sam 31:11-13). Rizpah's quiet vigil reached the king and moved him to act.

men. 14 And they buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the land of Benjamin (Binyamin), in Zela (Tsela), in the tomb of Kish (Qish) his father. And they did all that the king commanded. And God was entreated for the land after this.

The Philistine Giants

15 And the Philistines again had war with Israel. And David went down, and his servants with him, and they fought with the Philistines. And David was weary. 16 And Ishbi-benob (Yishbi-Venov), who was among the descendants of the Rapha, the weight of whose spear was approximately 7.5 pounds (three hundred shekels weight) of bronze, and he was girded with a new sword, he spoke of striking down David. 17 And Abishai (Avishay) the son of Zeruiah (Tseruya) helped him, and he struck the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, "You shall not go out again with us to the battle, and you shall not quench the lamp of Israel." 18 And it was after this, and the war was again at Gob (Gov) with the Philistines. Then Sibbecai (Sibkhay) the Hushathite struck down Saph (Saf), who was among the descendants of the Rapha. 19 And the war was again at Gob with the Philistines, and Elhanan (Elchanan) the son of Jaare-oregim (Ya'are-Orgim) the Bethlehemite struck down Goliath (Golyat) the Gittite; and the shaft of his spear was like a beam of weavers. 20 And there was again war at Gath (Gat). And there was a man of stature, and the fingers of his hands and the toes of his feet were six and six, twenty-four in number; and he also was born to the Rapha. 21 And he taunted Israel, and Jonathan the son of Shimeah (Shima), the brother of David, struck him down. 22 These four were born to the Rapha in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

David's Song of Deliverance

1 And David spoke to the LORD the words of this song on the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul (Shaul). 2 And he said, "The LORD is my crag and my stronghold, and a rescuer for me; 3 the God of my rock, I take refuge in Him; my shield and the horn of my salvation, my high refuge and my place of escape; my savior, from violence You save me. 4 One to be praised, I call on the LORD, and from my enemies I am saved. 5 For the breakers of death surrounded me; the torrents of worthlessness overwhelmed me. 6 The cords of Sheol surrounded me; the snares of death confronted me. 7 In my distress I called on the LORD, and to my God I called; and He heard my voice from His temple, and my cry for help was in His ears. 8 And the earth shook back and forth and quaked; the foundations of the heavens trembled, and they shook back and forth, for it burned within Him. 9 Smoke went up in His nose, and fire from His mouth consumed; coals burned from Him. 10 And 21:14 God was entreated for the land after this God heard prayer and answered, not right after the executions but after the burial. This was not pagan human sacrifice. God named a real crime, and blood polluted the land (Num 35:33). The courts' law of Deut 24:16 was not set aside lightly here. I do not think this is a pattern for our justice, and it is right to feel its weight.

21:14 in the tomb of Kish his father David gave Saul's family an honorable burial together. Broken promises have consequences far beyond the one who broke them. The hanged man was under God's curse (Deut 21:23). Saul's sons died under their father's sin, but Jesus, who had no sin, became a curse for us (Gal 3:13).
21:15 David was weary These four records likely come from earlier in his reign. The giant-killer was older now and worn out.
21:16 among the descendants of the Rapha The Rapha were very tall warriors, the Rephaim, who once lived in Canaan (Deut 2:10-11).
21:17 you shall not quench the lamp of Israel Abishai saved the king's life. A lamp pictures life and hope. God later promised David a lamp before Him in Jerusalem (1 Kgs 11:36), and that promise led to Jesus, the light of the world (John 8:12).
21:18 Sibbecai the Hushathite struck down Saph Sibbecai was one of David's mighty men (1 Chr 11:29).
21:19 struck down Goliath the Gittite Did not David kill Goliath? Chronicles says Elhanan struck down Lahmi the brother of Goliath (1 Chr 20:5). Most conservative teachers think Samuel was miscopied, since the Hebrew words look alike. Others think Goliath was a family name. Either way, David killed the Goliath of 1 Sam 17, and Elhanan killed a giant of the same family years later.
21:20 the fingers of his hands and the toes of his feet were six and six This rare condition still occurs. He taunted Israel just as Goliath had (1 Sam 17:10). Jonathan was David's nephew, brother of the crafty Jonadab.
21:22 they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants David faced the first giant alone as a boy. Now his men faced these for him. A good leader raises up others who can fight. That is discipleship, courage passed to the next generation. If God is for us, who is against us (Rom 8:31)?
22:1 David spoke to the LORD the words of this song This song likely came from the years of rest after David became king (7:1) and is placed here as a look back over his life. It is nearly the same as Psalm 18. David spoke to the LORD. Before it was written in a book, it was prayer.
22:2 The LORD is my crag and my stronghold Hebrew poetry rhymes thoughts, not sounds. A line is said again in other words or set beside an opposite. A crag is a high cliff, a stronghold a mountain fortress. David hid in such places (1 Sam 22:1; 23:29), but he knew the rocks had not saved him. The LORD had.
22:3 the horn of my salvation A horn pictures strength, like a wild ox. It means the strong one who saves me. Zechariah used it of Jesus, a horn of salvation in the house of David (Luke 1:69). Hebrews puts David's kind of trust in the mouth of Christ (Heb 2:13).
22:4 I call on the LORD, and from my enemies I am saved That is the theme of the whole song.
22:5 the breakers of death surrounded me David pictures himself drowning with waves crashing over him. One thought said twice.
22:6 The cords of Sheol surrounded me Sheol is the grave, the place of the dead. Death was a hunter with ropes and traps. David knew it with Saul's spear, at Gath, and fleeing Absalom.
22:7 He heard my voice from His temple His temple here is His dwelling in heaven. The God who rules the universe heard one man's cry. He hears yours too.
22:8 for it burned within Him Then the song explodes. God answers like a thunderstorm, angry at those attacking His servant.
22:10 He bowed the heavens and came down He bent the sky down like a curtain and came.

He bowed the heavens and came down, and thick darkness was under His feet. 11 And He rode on a cherub and flew, and He was seen on the wings of the wind. 12 And He set darkness around Him as shelters, a gathering of waters, thick clouds of the skies. 13 From the brightness before Him coals of fire burned. 14 The LORD thundered from the heavens, and the Most High gave His voice. 15 And He sent arrows and scattered them; lightning, and He routed them. 16 And the channels of the sea were seen; the foundations of the world were uncovered at the rebuke of the LORD, at the breath of the wind of His nose. 17 He sent from on high; He took me; He drew me out of many waters. 18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hate me, for they were stronger than I. 19 They confronted me in the day of my calamity, and the LORD was a support for me. 20 And He brought me out to the broad place; He freed me, for He delighted in me.

The LORD Rewards the Blameless

21 The LORD dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands He repaid me. 22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and I have not acted wickedly departing from my God. 23 For all His judgments were before me, and as for His statutes, I did not turn aside from them. 24 And I was blameless toward Him, and I kept myself from my iniquity. 25 And the LORD repaid me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness before His eyes. 26 With the loyal You show Yourself loyal; with the blameless mighty man You show Yourself blameless; 27 with the one who purifies himself You show Yourself pure, and with the crooked You show Yourself shrewd. 28 And the afflicted people You save, and Your eyes are on the haughty, whom You bring low. 29 For You are my lamp, O LORD; and the LORD lights up my darkness. 30 For by You I run against a band; by my God I leap over a wall. 31 As for God, His way is blameless; the word of the LORD is refined; He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.

God My Strength

32 For who is God except the LORD? And who is a rock except our God? 33 God is my refuge of strength, and He loosed my way to be blameless, 34 making my feet like the does, and on my high places He makes me stand, 35 training my hands for the battle, and my arms bend a bow of bronze. 36 And You have given me the shield of Your salvation, and Your answering makes me great. 37 You enlarge my step under me, and my ankles have not slipped. 38 I pursued my enemies and destroyed them, and I did not turn back until I had consumed them. 39 And I consumed them and shattered them, and they do not rise, and they fell under my feet. 40 And You girded me with strength for the battle; You make those who rise against me bow down under me. 41 And my enemies, You

22:11 He rode on a cherub and flew A cherub is a mighty angel, like those on the ark (Exod 25:18-22), pictured as God's chariot.
22:16 at the breath of the wind of His nose This recalls the Red Sea, when the waters stood up at the blast of His nostrils (Exod 15:8). The language is poetry, using Sinai, the sea and the storm to show what it felt like when God stepped in. When God rescues His people, all heaven moves. Our prayers are never small to Him.
22:17 He drew me out of many waters The great God came down for one reason, to pull David out. It is the word used when Moses was drawn out of the Nile (Exod 2:10).
22:18 they were stronger than I David was honest. Saul had an army, David a few hundred outlaws. But God was stronger than all of them.
22:20 He freed me, for He delighted in me A broad place is open ground, room to breathe, the opposite of a narrow canyon. God saved David not because he was strong but because He delighted in him. That is grace.
22:21 according to the cleanness of my hands He repaid me How can the man of chapter 11 say this? The song likely came before that sin. David means that against Saul he was in the right. He refused to touch the LORD's anointed (1 Sam 24:6; 26:9-11). Some teachers read these lines as fully true only of the Messiah.
22:24 I was blameless toward Him Blameless means whole and sincere, with an undivided heart, not perfect. When falsely accused we can say our hands are clean in that matter. When we sin, we come back as David did in Psalm 51. Our final righteousness is by faith (Rom 4:3-8), the righteousness of Christ credited to us (2 Cor 5:21).
22:26 With the loyal You show Yourself loyal God meets people where they stand. To the faithful He shows Himself faithful.
22:27 with the crooked You show Yourself shrewd God does not become crooked. The crooked find their schemes turned back on them, as Ahithophel did (17:14).
22:28 Your eyes are on the haughty, whom You bring low God lifts the humble and humbles the proud. Mary sang the same while carrying the Son of David (Luke 1:52).
22:29 You are my lamp, O LORD David's men called him the lamp of Israel (21:17). He was Israel's light only because God was his light.
22:30 by my God I leap over a wall With God, David could charge a troop or scale a wall. It is the language of a warrior who has seen God give strength beyond his own.
22:31 the word of the LORD is refined Refined means tested by fire, like silver with impurity burned out. God's word has no flaw. And this shield is for anyone who runs to Him, not just kings.
22:32 who is a rock except our God? There is only one. The gods of the nations were nothing.
22:34 making my feet like the does Sure-footed as a mountain deer on the rocks.
22:35 training my hands for the battle David did not credit himself for his skill. Whatever gifts you have came from God. Use them for Him and give Him the credit.
22:36 Your answering makes me great This is God answering David's prayers. Psalm 18:35 in the SLB reads Your humility, and the Hebrew words are close. Both are true. God's greatness stooped down to lift David up.
22:38 I pursued my enemies and destroyed them This is a warrior king in a hard age. These nations attacked Israel again and again, and God appointed David to give Israel rest (7:1, 9-11).

have given me their neck; those who hate me, and I destroyed them. 42 They looked, and there was no savior; to the LORD, and He did not answer them. 43 And I ground them like the dust of the earth; like the mud of the streets I crushed them, I beat them flat. 44 And You rescued me from the strivings of my people; You kept me for head of the nations; a people whom I did not know serve me. 45 Sons of foreignness cringe before me; at the hearing of an ear they obey me. 46 Sons of foreignness wither, and they gird themselves and come from their strongholds. 47 The LORD lives, and blessed be my rock; and may the God of the rock of my salvation be exalted, 48 the God who gives vengeances for me and brings down peoples under me, 49 and brings me out from my enemies; and above those who rise against me You lift me up; from a man of violence You deliver me.

David's Last Words

1 And these are the last words of David: the declaration of David the son of Jesse (Yishay), and the declaration of the man who was raised up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob (Ya'aqov), and the pleasant one of the songs of Israel (Yisra'el): 2 The Spirit of the LORD has spoken by me, and His speech is on my tongue. 3 The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spoke to me: One who rules over mankind is righteous, one who rules in the fear of God, 4 and he is like the light of morning when the sun rises, a morning with no clouds, from brightness, from rain, vegetation from the earth. 5 For is not my house so with God? For He has made with me an everlasting covenant, arranged in everything and preserved; for all my salvation and every desire, will He not make it grow? 6 And worthlessness, like thorns chased away are all of them, for they do not take them with a hand; 7 and the man who touches them arms himself with iron and the shaft of a spear, and with fire they will surely be burned at the dwelling.

David's Mighty Men

8 These are the names of the mighty men who belonged to David: Josheb-basshebeth (Yoshev-BaShevet) a Tachkemonite, chief of the officers; he was Adino the Eznite, against eight hundred slain at one time. 9 And after him was Eleazar (Elazar) the son of Dodo the son of an Ahohite, among the three mighty men with David when they taunted the Philistines who were gathered there for the battle, and the men of Israel went up. 10 He arose and struck down among the Philistines until his hand was weary and his hand clung to the sword. And the LORD worked a great deliverance on that day; and the people returned after him only to strip the 22:42 to the LORD, and He did not answer them At the end even his enemies cried to the LORD, but too late and not from the heart.

22:43 like the mud of the streets I crushed them We should not soften this, nor use it to make war on people today. Our battle is spiritual (Eph 6:12), and we are called to love our enemies (Matt 5:44). One day the Son of David will come as warrior King to put down every enemy of God (Rev 19:11-16).
22:44 You rescued me from the strivings of my people His own people turned on him too, Saul's house, Absalom and Sheba. God kept him for head of the nations, as Moab, Edom, Ammon and Syria came under Israel (8:1-14).
22:46 they gird themselves and come from their strongholds Foreigners came trembling out to make peace. What David saw in part, Jesus will fulfill in full on the throne of David (Isa 9:7).
22:47 The LORD lives, and blessed be my rock The song ends where it began, with praise. The idols of the nations are dead. The LORD lives.
22:48 the God who gives vengeances for me David did not take his own revenge on Saul. He left it to God, who dealt with Saul in His own time.
22:50 I will give thanks to You, O LORD, among the nations Paul quotes this to show that God always meant the nations to praise Him through the Messiah (Rom 15:9). The Son of David leads the nations in praise of His Father.
22:51 He does steadfast love to His anointed, to David and to his offspring forever This looks back to the covenant of chapter 7. His anointed is mashiach, Messiah. That promise finds its full answer in Jesus, the root and the offspring of David (Rev 22:16). David ended his song looking forward to Him, and so should we.
23:1 these are the last words of David Not his very last words (1 Kgs 2:1-9), but his final formal testament. He is the son of Jesse, a humble shepherd, raised up on high by God, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and Israel's sweet singer. Declaration is the prophets' word for a message from God.
23:2 The Spirit of the LORD has spoken by me A clear claim of inspiration. Jesus said David spoke in the Spirit (Matt 22:43), and Peter called him a prophet (Acts 2:30). This is how all Scripture came to us (2 Tim 3:16).
23:3 one who rules in the fear of God God gave David a picture of the ideal king. He rules justly, knowing he answers to Someone higher.
23:4 like the light of morning when the sun rises, a morning with no clouds A just ruler is like dawn after a dark night and sunshine after rain that makes the grass spring up. This was the standard for every son of David, and most failed it. I believe it points to Jesus, the righteous Branch (Jer 23:5) and the sun of righteousness (Mal 4:2). Some read it only as the ideal king.
23:5 He has made with me an everlasting covenant, arranged in everything and preserved This is the covenant of chapter 7 (7:16). Every detail ordered by God and made secure. David's hope did not rest on his record, which had serious failures, but on God's promise, fulfilled in Jesus (Luke 1:33). Our security also rests on what God has promised, not on how well we have done.
23:6 like thorns chased away are all of them The wicked are like thorn bushes. No one picks them up with bare hands.
23:7 with fire they will surely be burned at the dwelling You handle thorns with tools and in the end burn them. Jesus said the same of the weeds at the end of the age (Matt 13:40-43). The King who is sunrise to His people is fire to His enemies.
23:8 These are the names of the mighty men who belonged to David Many had been with him since his outlaw days, and their names were remembered because they were faithful. First Chronicles 11:11 calls the first Jashobeam with three hundred slain. Names and numbers are easy to miscopy, the most likely explanation.
23:10 his hand clung to the sword When Israel pulled back, Eleazar gripped the sword so long and hard his hand cramped around it.

slain*. 11 And after him was Shammah (Shama) the son of Agee (Age) the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered into a troop, and there was a portion of the field there full of lentils; and the people fled from before the Philistines. 12 And he took his stand in the middle of the portion and delivered it and struck down the Philistines. And the LORD worked a great deliverance.

Water from the Well of Bethlehem

13 And three of the thirty chiefs went down and came at harvest to David, to the cave of Adullam (Adulam); and a troop of Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim (Refa'im). 14 And David was then in the stronghold, and a garrison of Philistines was then in Bethlehem (Bet-Lechem). 15 And David craved and said, "Who will give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is at the gate?" 16 And the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water from the well of Bethlehem which was at the gate, and they carried it and brought it to David. And he was not willing to drink it, and he poured it out to the LORD. 17 And he said, "Far be it from me, O LORD, that I should do this! Is it the blood of the men who went with their lives?" And he was not willing to drink it. These things the three mighty men did. 18 And Abishai (Avishay) the brother of Joab (Yo'av) the son of Zeruiah (Tseruya), he was chief of the three. And he wielded his spear against three hundred slain, and he had a name among the three. 19 Was he not honored more than the three? And he became a commander to them; and to the three he did not come. 20 And Benaiah (Benayahu) the son of Jehoiada (Yehoyada) was the son of a man of strength, great of deeds, from Kabzeel (Qavtse'el). He struck down the two Ariel of Moab (Mo'av). And he went down and struck down the lion in the midst of the pit on the day of the snow. 21 And he struck down an Egyptian man, a man of appearance; and in the hand of the Egyptian was a spear. And he went down to him with the staff and seized the spear from the hand of the Egyptian and killed him with his own spear. 22 These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and he had a name among the three mighty men. 23 He was honored more than the thirty, and to the three he did not come. And David appointed him over his bodyguard.

The Thirty

24 Asahel the brother of Joab was among the thirty; Elhanan (Elchanan) the son of Dodo of Bethlehem; 25 Shammah the Harodite; Elika (Eliqa) the Harodite; 26 Helez (Chelets) the Paltite; Ira the son of Ikkesh (Iqesh) the Tekoite; 27 Abiezer (Avi'ezer) the Anathothite; Mebunnai (Mevunay) the Hushathite; 28 Zalmon (Tsalmon) the Ahohite; Maharai (Maharay) the Netophathite; 29 Heleb (Chelev) the son of Baanah (Ba'ana) the Netophathite; Ittai (Itay) the son of Ribai (Rivay) from Gibeah (Giva) of the sons of Benjamin (Binyamin); 30 Benaiah the Pirathonite; Hiddai (Hiday) from the wadis of Gaash; 31 Abi-albon (Avi-Alvon) the Arbathite; Azmaveth (Azmavet) the Barhumite; 32 Eliahba (Elyachba) the Shaalbonite; the sons of Jashen (Yashen); Jonathan (Yehonatan); 33 Shammah the Hararite; Ahiam (Achi'am) the son of Sharar the Hararite; 34 Eliphelet (Elifelet) the son of Ahasbai (Achasbay), the son of the Maacathite; Eliam the son of Ahithophel (Achitofel) the Gilonite; 35 Hezrai (Chetsray) the Carmelite; Paarai (Pa'aray) the Arbite; 36 Igal (Yigal) the son of Nathan (Natan) from Zobah (Tsova); Bani the Gadite; 37 Zelek (Tseleq) the Ammonite; Naharai (Nacharay) the Beerothite, the bearer of the armor of Joab the son of Zeruiah; 38 Ira the Ithrite; Gareb (Garev) the Ithrite; 39 Uriah (Uriya) the Hittite: all of them, thirty-seven.

23:12 he took his stand in the middle of the portion and delivered it One man defended one field of lentils. Twice the writer says the LORD worked a great deliverance. The men fought, but God won. Sometimes our battle is for one small patch of ground, a marriage, a child, a conscience, a church. Stand your ground.
23:13 to the cave of Adullam A scene from the outlaw years. The Philistines even held Bethlehem, David's hometown.
23:15 Who will give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem He was not giving an order. He was homesick, remembering the water of his boyhood.
23:16 he poured it out to the LORD The three risked their lives for a wish. A drink offering was poured out on the ground before the LORD.
23:17 Is it the blood of the men who went with their lives? The water cost too much to drink. David honored his men by not treating their sacrifice as ordinary, and gave the best he had to God. Paul spoke of being poured out as a drink offering (Phil 2:17). Some things are too costly to spend on ourselves.
23:18 he was chief of the three Abishai led a second group of three. He was fierce and often too quick to kill (16:9; 19:21), but he saved David's life (21:17).
23:20 he went down and struck down the lion in the midst of the pit on the day of the snow A trapped, angry lion on cold, slippery ground, and Benaiah went in after it. The two Ariel were champions of Moab.
23:21 killed him with his own spear Benaiah had only a staff against a giant with a spear.
23:23 David appointed him over his bodyguard Loyal and steady, Benaiah later became Solomon's commander in place of Joab (1 Kgs 2:35).
23:24 Asahel the brother of Joab was among the thirty Asahel died early in David's reign (2:23), so this list covers many years. Most of the thirty are only names to us, but God had them written down. Elhanan may be the one of 21:19.
23:34 Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite Probably Bathsheba's father (11:3), which would make Ahithophel her grandfather.
23:37 Zelek the Ammonite Foreigners too, like Igal from Zobah, were part of David's band through faith in Israel's God and loyalty to His king.
23:39 Uriah the Hittite: all of them, thirty-seven The writer saved Uriah for last. He stands in the roll of honor as a quiet reminder. God does not forget the faithful, and He does not hide the sins of His servants. The count likely includes the Three, Abishai, Benaiah and replacements. Joab is not here. The faithful are written in the Lamb's book of life (Rev 21:27).

David's Census

1 And the anger of the LORD again burned against Israel (Yisra'el), and He incited David against them, saying, "Go, count Israel and Judah (Yehuda)." 2 And the king said to Joab (Yo'av), the commander of the army who was with him, "Go about, please, in all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva), and enroll the people, that I may know the number of the people." 3 And Joab said to the king, "And may the LORD your God add to the people a hundred times as many as they are, while the eyes of my lord the king are seeing it. And my lord the king, why does he delight in this thing?" 4 And the word of the king prevailed against Joab and against the commanders of the army. And Joab and the commanders of the army went out from before the king to enroll the people, Israel. 5 And they passed over the Jordan (Yarden) and encamped in Aroer (Aro'er), south of the city that is in the middle of the wadi of Gad, and toward Jazer (Yazer). 6 And they came to Gilead (Gilad) and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi (Tachtim-Chodshi), and they came to Dan Jaan (Ya'an) and around to Sidon (Tsidon). 7 And they came to the fortress of Tyre (Tsor) and all the cities of the Hivites and the Canaanites, and they went out to the Negeb (Negev) of Judah, to Beersheba. 8 And they went about in all the land, and they came to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim) at the end of nine months and twenty days. 9 And Joab gave the number of the muster of the people to the king. And Israel was eight hundred thousand men of strength who drew the sword, and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.

The Choice of Judgment

10 And the heart of David struck him after he had counted the people. And David said to the LORD, "I have sinned exceedingly in what I have done. And now, O LORD, please take away the iniquity of Your servant, for I have acted exceedingly foolishly." 11 And David arose in the morning, and the word of the LORD came to Gad the prophet, the seer of David, saying, 12 "Go, and you shall speak to David, 'Thus says the LORD: Three things I am laying on you; choose for yourself one of them, and I will do it to you.'" 13 And Gad came to David and told him and said to him, "Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or three months of your fleeing before your opponents while he pursues you? Or that there be three days of pestilence in your land? Now know and see what word I shall bring back to Him who sent me." 14 And David said to Gad, "There is distress to me exceedingly. Let us fall, please, into the hand of the LORD, for His compassions are many; and into the hand of man let me not fall."

The Plague

15 And the LORD gave pestilence in Israel from the morning until the appointed time. And seventy thousand men of the people died, from Dan even to Beersheba. 16 And the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, and the LORD relented concerning the evil, and He said to the angel who was destroying among the people, "It is enough! Now let your hand drop." And the angel of the LORD was by

24:16 Acts 12:23; Exod 12:23; Gen 6:6

24:1 the anger of the LORD again burned against Israel Again points back to the famine of chapter 21. We are not told what Israel had done, perhaps the rebellions of Absalom and Sheba. Scripture does not say, but the problem began with the nation's sin, not only David's.
24:1 He incited David against them Did God make David sin? Chronicles says Satan incited David (1 Chr 21:1). Both are true. Satan tempted, but only with God's permission (Job 1:12). God tempts no one (Jas 1:13), and David owned the sin (24:10). God is sovereign even over temptation and can use the devil's work for His purposes (Gen 50:20).
24:2 that I may know the number of the people Moses counted Israel at God's command (Num 1). The sin was the heart behind it, most likely pride and trust in his army's size (Ps 20:7). The Law also required a ransom when Israel was counted, lest a plague come (Exod 30:12). We are not told whether that was done.
24:3 why does he delight in this thing? Joab had blood on his hands, but here he had better sense than the king. When even your Joab tells you not to do something, stop and listen.
24:8 at the end of nine months and twenty days The officers traced a great circle around the land, from Aroer through Gilead to Dan, Sidon and Tyre, and south to Beersheba. All that time David had to reconsider, and he did not.
24:9 Israel was eight hundred thousand men of strength First Chronicles 21:5-6 gives other totals and says Joab left out Levi and Benjamin. They may have counted differently, or numbers were miscopied. Some read thousand as a military unit or clan. I take the numbers as written while being honest that the books differ.
24:10 the heart of David struck him His conscience hit him, as when he cut Saul's robe (1 Sam 24:5). He did not wait for a prophet. He blamed no one. Can you say those words to God as quickly and plainly?
24:11 Gad the prophet, the seer of David Gad had been with David since his outlaw days (1 Sam 22:5).
24:13 Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? The SLB follows the Hebrew. Chronicles and the Greek read three years (1 Chr 21:12), fitting a three-three-three pattern, so a copying difference is most likely. Some count the three-year famine of chapter 21, the census year and three more.
24:14 Let us fall, please, into the hand of the LORD, for His compassions are many David chose wisely. Men can be cruel without limit. God, even when He disciplines, is full of compassion (Lam 3:22).
24:15 seventy thousand men of the people died We should not rush past this. David wanted to know how many men he had. Now he knew how many he lost. The people were not innocent bystanders (24:1), and a king's sins fall on his people. Scripture does not give all God's reasons, but sin is deadly serious and His judgment is real.
24:16 It is enough! Now let your hand drop The plague reached the capital's gates, and God cut it short. He turned from judgment in compassion. David had trusted that His compassions are many, and they were. Teachers differ on whether this angel is the Angel of the LORD seen elsewhere.
24:16 the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite A threshing floor was hard, flat ground, usually high where the wind could blow away chaff. Araunah was of Jerusalem's old people (5:6-9). Chronicles says the angel stood with sword drawn over Jerusalem (1 Chr 21:16).

the threshing floor of Araunah (Aravna) the Jebusite. 17 And David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who was striking down among the people, and he said, "Look, I have sinned, and I have done wrong; and these, the sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand be, please, on me and on the house of my father."

The Threshing Floor of Araunah

18 And Gad came to David on that day and said to him, "Go up, raise up an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." 19 And David went up according to the word of Gad, just as the LORD had commanded. 20 And Araunah looked down and saw the king and his servants passing on toward him. And Araunah went out and bowed down to the king with his face to the ground. 21 And Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" And David said, "To buy the threshing floor from you, to build an altar to the LORD, that the plague may be restrained from the people." 22 And Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what is good in his eyes. See, the oxen for the burnt offering, and the threshing sledges and the equipment of the oxen for the wood. 23 The whole, O king, Araunah gives to the king." And Araunah said to the king, "May the LORD your God accept you." 24 And the king said to Araunah, "No, but I will surely buy it from you for a price, and I will not offer up to the LORD my God burnt offerings without cost." And David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for silver, approximately 1.25 pounds (fifty shekels). 25 And David built an altar to the LORD there and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings. And the LORD was entreated for the land, and the plague was restrained from Israel.

24:17 these, the sheep, what have they done? David is a true shepherd again, offering himself in their place. He could not bear their punishment, having his own sin. But his cry points to the Good Shepherd who could (John 10:11). The LORD laid on Him the iniquity of us all (Isa 53:6).
24:18 raise up an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor The place where the judgment stopped would be the place of sacrifice.
24:22 See, the oxen for the burnt offering A burnt offering was wholly burned, given completely to God, a picture of surrender and atonement. The yokes and sledges would be wood for the fire. It was a generous offer.
24:24 I will not offer up to the LORD my God burnt offerings without cost Worship that costs nothing is worth little. We cannot buy God's favor, but real love gives what costs, like the widow's two coins (Mark 12:44) and our lives as living sacrifices (Rom 12:1). Most teachers say the silver bought the floor and oxen and the gold of 1 Chr 21:25 the whole site.
24:25 the LORD was entreated for the land A peace offering was shared in a meal, fellowship restored. God answered with fire (1 Chr 21:26). Solomon built the temple here on Mount Moriah (2 Chr 3:1), widely held to be where God provided a ram for Isaac (Gen 22:2, 14). Outside this city Jesus suffered for His people (Heb 13:12). The cross took away the sin of the world (John 1:29).

1 KINGS

Introduction

Title

The book is named for the kings whose reigns it records. In Hebrew, First and Second Kings were one book. The Greek translators divided it in two, and our Bibles follow that division. In the Hebrew Bible, Kings belongs to the Former Prophets, the books from Joshua through Kings that tell Israel's history from God's point of view. In our English Bibles it stands among the historical books, after 1 and 2 Samuel, and it picks up the story where 2 Samuel ends, with David old and his throne about to pass to his son.

Author and Date

The book does not name its writer. Jewish tradition holds that Jeremiah the prophet wrote Kings. Whoever wrote it was a prophet-historian who used older royal records and named them: "the book of the matters of Solomon" (11:41) and the records of the kings of Israel and of Judah (14:19, 29). Notes such as "to this day" (8:8; 9:21) show he was drawing on sources written while the temple still stood. The book as we have it was finished after the last event of 2 Kings, the release of King Jehoiachin in Babylon (2 Kgs 25:27-30), so about 560 to 540 B.C. Many modern critical scholars think Kings was put together over a long time as the last part of a larger history edited during or after the exile. I take the book as what it presents itself to be, a true and inspired record drawn from real sources.

Background and Setting

First Kings covers about 120 years, from the crowning of Solomon about 970 B.C. to the death of Ahab about 853 B.C. Solomon reigned about 970 to 930 B.C., and in his fourth year, about 966 B.C., he began the temple, which 6:1 says was the 480th year after the exodus. That is the main basis for dating the exodus about 1446 B.C. After Solomon died, the kingdom split about 930 B.C. into Israel, the ten northern tribes, and Judah in the south, ruled by David's line. From there the writer moves back and forth between the two kingdoms.

The reign lengths overlap in places, because some kings ruled alongside their fathers for a time and the two kingdoms did not always count a king's first year the same way. Scholars have worked out slightly different dates. These notes follow one standard set, the dates of Edwin Thiele, and give them with "about." Much of the book is told again in 2 Chronicles 1-18, which follows only the kings of Judah. Where the two give different numbers, the notes say so and give the common explanations.

The story moves between Jerusalem and the northern capitals of Shechem, Tirzah and finally Samaria, which Omri built (16:24). Other key places are Gibeon, where God appeared to Solomon; Tyre and Sidon to the north, Jezebel's homeland; Bethel and Dan, where Jeroboam set up golden calves; Mount Carmel; and Horeb, or Sinai, where Elijah fled.

Themes

Every king is measured by one standard: did he walk with the LORD as David his father did? Solomon put it into words at the dedication of the temple: "let your heart be complete with the LORD our God" (8:61). Then in his old age "his heart was not complete with the LORD his God" (11:4). Great gifts and a good start could not keep a heart that would not guard itself. The rest of the book shows king after king who failed the same test, and it shows that idolatry divides and destroys.

The book also shows that God keeps His word. He kept His promise to David with a son on his throne and a house for His name, and He kept His warnings by tearing the kingdom when Solomon turned to idols. Again and again a prophet speaks, and later the writer notes that it happened "according to the word of the LORD." God keeps a lamp burning for David in Jerusalem (11:36), and He never stops sending His word to call His people back. Through Elijah He answers by fire on Mount Carmel, and the people cry, "The LORD, He is the God" (18:39). The question Elijah asked is still ours: "How long will you be limping on the two crutches?" (18:21).

Christ in 1 Kings

First Kings opens with the question of who will sit on David's throne, and the whole Bible answers it in Jesus, the Son of David, to whom God gives "the throne of David His father" (Luke 1:32). Solomon's wisdom, peace and glory give a small picture of Christ's coming reign, and Jesus said of Himself, "something greater than Solomon is here" (Matt 12:42). The temple, where God put His name and His glory dwelt, points to Jesus, the Word who "became flesh and dwelt among us" (John 1:14), who spoke of His own body as the temple (John 2:19-21). Solomon's question, "will God really dwell on the earth?" (8:27), is answered at Bethlehem. Elijah, the prophet of fire and repentance, points ahead to John the Baptist, who came "in the spirit and power of Elijah" (Luke 1:17) to prepare the way of the Lord.

Hard Passages

Solomon has Adonijah, Joab and Shimei put to death to secure his throne (2:13-46). The notes explain each in its setting, a king's judgment on renewed treason, the Law's word on a deliberate murderer at the altar (Exod 21:14), and a broken oath, without making any of it a pattern for us.

Solomon's wives turn his heart to idols, among them Molech, whose worship included burning children (11:7). The text does not say Solomon did this, and the notes do not say so either.

A prophet is killed by a lion for disobeying God's plain word after a lying prophet deceived him (13:18-25), and another prophet dies the same way in 20:35-36. The notes explain why God dealt so severely with His messengers, and that this was judgment on disobedience, not a statement that the man was lost.

Elijah has the prophets of Baal put to death at the Kishon (18:40). The notes explain it as the sentence of Israel's covenant law (Deut 13:1-5), and they say plainly that it is no pattern for the church, which fights with truth and prayer (John 18:36; Luke 9:54-55).

Jezebel has Naboth stoned on false witness so Ahab can take his vineyard (21:8-14), and a lying spirit goes out to deceive Ahab's prophets (22:19-23). The notes show that God does not lie (Titus 1:2) but gives those who love the lie over to it, and that even then He told Ahab the truth.

1 KINGS

1 KINGS 1

David in His Old Age

1 And King David was old, advanced in days; and they covered him with garments, and he did not become warm. 2 And his servants said to him, "Let them seek for my lord the king a young woman, a virgin, and she shall stand before the king, and let her be an attendant to him; and she shall lie in your bosom, and my lord the king will become warm." 3 And they sought a beautiful young woman in all the territory of Israel (Yisra'el), and they found Abishag (Avishag) the Shunammite, and they brought her to the king. 4 And the young woman was exceedingly beautiful; and she became an attendant to the king and served him, and the king did not know her.

Adonijah Exalts Himself

5 And Adonijah (Adoniya) the son of Haggith (Chagit) was exalting himself, saying, "I will be king." And he made for himself chariotry and horsemen, and fifty men running before him. 6 And his father had never pained him in his days, saying, "Why have you done thus?" And also he was very good of appearance, and his mother bore him after Absalom (Avshalom). 7 And his words were with Joab (Yo'av) the son of Zeruiah (Tseruya) and with Abiathar (Evyatar) the priest, and they helped, following Adonijah. 8 And Zadok (Tsadoq) the priest, and Benaiah (Benayahu) the son of Jehoiada (Yehoyada), and Nathan (Natan) the prophet, and Shimei (Shimi), and Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David were not with Adonijah. 9 And Adonijah sacrificed sheep and cattle and fatlings by the stone of Zoheleth (Zochelet), which is beside En-rogel; and he invited all his brothers, the sons of the king, and all the men of Judah (Yehuda), the servants of the king. 10 And Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon (Shelomo) his brother, he did not invite.

Nathan and Bathsheba Go to David

11 And Nathan said to Bathsheba (Bat-Sheva) the mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king, and our lord David does not know it? 12 And now come, let me please counsel you with counsel, and save your life and the life of your son Solomon. 13 Go and go in to King David, and you shall say to him, 'Did you not, my lord the king, swear to your maidservant, saying, "Surely Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne"? And why has Adonijah become king?' 14 Look, while you are still speaking there with the king, I also will come in after you and confirm your words." 15 And Bathsheba went in to the king, into the room; and the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was serving the king. 16 And Bathsheba bowed low and bowed down to the king. And the king said, "What is it for you?" 17 And she said to him, "My lord, you swore by the LORD your God to your maidservant, 'Surely Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.' 18 And now, look, Adonijah has become king; and now, my lord the king, you do not know it. 19 And he has sacrificed oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and he has invited all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the commander of the army; and Solomon your servant he has not invited. 20 And you,

1:1 King David was old, advanced in days David was about seventy (2 Sam 5:4). The young man who killed Goliath could no longer keep himself warm in bed. The book opens by showing how weak the king had become, and the next verses show who tried to take advantage of it.
1:3 Abishag the Shunammite She came from the town of Shunem. She was a nurse and attendant, and "the king did not know her" (1:4), so she was not a wife in the full sense. That detail matters in chapter 2, when Adonijah asks for her.
1:5 Adonijah the son of Haggith was exalting himself Adonijah was David's fourth son (2 Sam 3:4). With Amnon and Absalom dead, he was likely the oldest son still living. In most kingdoms that made him the heir, but in Israel the king was to be the one the LORD chose (Deut 17:15), and God had chosen Solomon (1 Chr 22:9-10; 28:5). His chariots and fifty runners copied Absalom (2 Sam 15:1).
1:6 his father had never pained him in his days David never corrected him. A child who is never told no grows up believing he should have whatever he wants. David's failure to discipline his sons cost him dearly with Amnon and Absalom, and it shows up again here.
1:7 Joab the son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest Joab had led David's army for forty years and had a record of killing men when it suited him (2 Sam 3:27; 20:10). Abiathar had been with David since the days he fled from Saul (1 Sam 22:20-23). Long service did not keep them from choosing against God's plan.
1:8 Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet The men closest to David's heart and to God's word, along with David's own bodyguard, were not with Adonijah. That tells us something.
1:9 by the stone of Zoheleth, which is beside En-rogel En-rogel was a spring just south of Jerusalem in the Kidron Valley. A sacrificial feast like this was a coronation in all but name.
1:10 Solomon his brother, he did not invite You do not leave your rival off the guest list by accident. Adonijah knew who would not support him, and he knew Solomon was the one David had promised to put on the throne. He was trying to get there first.
1:12 save your life and the life of your son Solomon When a new king took the throne in that world, rivals and their mothers were often killed. Some see Nathan's plan as palace politics. I see a prophet who knew God's will for the throne (2 Sam 12:24-25) and acted to protect it. Faith does not sit still when God's word is being pushed aside.
1:17 you swore by the LORD your God to your maidservant Scripture does not record the moment David swore this, but Bathsheba and Nathan both speak of it as a known fact, and 1 Chronicles 22:9-10 shows God had told David that Solomon would reign.

my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. 21 And it will be, when my lord the king lies down with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be sinners." 22 And look, while she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in. 23 And they told the king, saying, "Look, Nathan the prophet." And he came before the king and bowed down to the king with his face to the earth. 24 And Nathan said, "My lord the king, have you said, 'Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne'? 25 For he has gone down today and has sacrificed oxen and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and he has invited all the sons of the king and the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest; and look, they are eating and drinking before him, and they have said, 'May King Adonijah live!' 26 And me, I your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Solomon your servant, he has not invited. 27 Has this thing come about from my lord the king, and you have not made known to your servant who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

David Makes Solomon King

28 And King David answered and said, "Call Bathsheba for me." And she came before the king and stood before the king. 29 And the king swore and said, "As the LORD lives, who has ransomed my soul from every distress, 30 surely just as I swore to you by the LORD the God of Israel, saying, 'Surely Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place,' surely so I will do this day." 31 And Bathsheba bowed low with her face to the earth and bowed down to the king, and she said, "May my lord King David live forever!" 32 And King David said, "Call Zadok the priest for me, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada." And they came before the king. 33 And the king said to them, "Take with you the servants of your lord, and make Solomon my son ride on the mule which is mine, and bring him down to Gihon (Gichon). 34 And Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet shall anoint him there as king over Israel, and you shall blow the ram's horn and say, 'May King Solomon live!' 35 And you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne, and he shall reign in my place; and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judah." 36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, "Amen! So may the LORD the God of my lord the king say. 37 Just as the LORD has been with my lord the king, so He will be with Solomon, and may He make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David." 38 And Zadok the priest went down, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Kerethites and the Pelethites, and they made Solomon ride on the mule of King David, and they brought him to Gihon. 39 And Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the tent and anointed Solomon. And they blew the ram's horn, and all the people said, "May King Solomon live!" 40 And all the people went up after him, and the people were playing on flutes and rejoicing with great joy, and the earth was split by their sound.

Adonijah Flees to the Altar

41 And Adonijah and all those invited who were with him heard it, and they had finished eating. And Joab heard the sound of the ram's horn, and he said, "Why is the sound of the city in an uproar?" 42 He was still speaking, and look, Jonathan (Yonatan) the son of Abiathar the priest came. And Adonijah said, "Come, for you are a man of worth, and you bring good news." 43 And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, "Indeed, our lord King David has made Solomon king. 44 And the king has sent with him Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada and the Kerethites and the Pelethites, and they have made him ride on the mule of the king. 45 And Zadok the priest and Nathan

1:21 I and my son Solomon will be sinners If David did nothing, they would be treated as traitors and likely put to death. Bathsheba's words were respectful but honest, a good pattern for anyone who must speak hard truth to someone in authority.
1:27 Has this thing come about from my lord the king A question that left David no room. Either he had changed his mind without telling his closest servants, or someone was stealing the throne. Two witnesses told the same story, as the Law required (Deut 19:15).
1:29 who has ransomed my soul from every distress The old king woke up, and his oath begins with praise. Looking back over Saul's spears, the caves, the wars and Absalom's revolt, David saw the LORD's hand rescuing him every time.
1:30 surely so I will do this day Not tomorrow. Today.
1:31 May my lord King David live forever The usual blessing given to a king. David would not live forever, but the throne God promised him would (2 Sam 7:16), and it is held forever by David's greater Son, Jesus Christ (Luke 1:32-33).
1:33 make Solomon my son ride on the mule which is mine A public sign that the king himself had chosen him. Gihon was the spring on the east side of Jerusalem, within earshot of Adonijah's feast at En-rogel.
1:34 anoint him there as king over Israel Anointing, pouring oil on the head, set a person apart for God's service. The Hebrew word for the anointed one is mashiach, from which we get the word Messiah.
1:37 may He make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David A good prayer for anyone who follows a godly leader. We should want the next generation to go further with God than we did.
1:38 the Kerethites and the Pelethites David's foreign bodyguard, loyal to the king himself.
1:39 took the horn of oil from the tent The tent David had set up for the ark on Mount Zion (2 Sam 6:17). The oil came from the place of God's presence.
1:40 the earth was split by their sound Adonijah had a feast for invited guests. Solomon had the people. Another King would ride into Jerusalem on a donkey's colt while the crowds shouted (Matt 21:5-9), and Solomon's ride is a small picture of that day.
1:41 Why is the sound of the city in an uproar Joab, an old soldier, knew the sound of a ram's horn.

the prophet have anointed him as king at Gihon, and they have gone up from there rejoicing, and the city was stirred. That is the sound which you have heard. 46 And also Solomon has sat on the throne of the kingship. 47 And also the servants of the king have come to bless our lord King David, saying, 'May God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and may He make his throne greater than your throne!' And the king bowed down on the bed. 48 And also thus the king has said: 'Blessed be the LORD the God of Israel, who has given today one sitting on my throne, and my eyes are seeing it.'" 49 And all those invited who belonged to Adonijah trembled and rose up, and they went, each to his way. 50 And Adonijah was afraid because of Solomon, and he arose and went and took hold of the horns of the altar. 51 And it was told to Solomon, saying, "Look, Adonijah fears King Solomon, and look, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.'" 52 And Solomon said, "If he will be a son of worth, not one of his hairs shall fall to the earth; and if evil is found in him, then he shall die." 53 And King Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar; and he came and bowed down to King Solomon. And Solomon said to him, "Go to your house."

David's Charge to Solomon

1 And the days of David drew near to die, and he commanded Solomon (Shelomo) his son, saying, 2 "I am going in the way of all the earth. And you shall be strong and become a man. 3 And you shall keep the charge of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commandments, and His judgments, and His testimonies, according to what is written in the law of Moses (Moshe), so that you may act wisely in all that you do and in every place where you turn there, 4 so that the LORD may establish His word which He spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your sons guard their way, to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul,' saying, 'there shall not be cut off to you a man from on the throne of Israel (Yisra'el).' 5 And also you yourself know what Joab (Yo'av) the son of Zeruiah (Tseruya) did to me, what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Israel, to Abner (Avner) the son of Ner and to Amasa the son of Jether (Yeter): and he killed them, and he put the blood of war in a time of peace, and he put the blood of war on his belt which was on his loins and on his sandals which were on his feet. 6 And you shall act according to your wisdom, and you shall not bring down his gray hair in peace to Sheol. 7 And to the sons of Barzillai (Barzilay) the Gileadite you shall show steadfast love, and they shall be among those eating at your table; for thus they drew near to me when I fled from before Absalom (Avshalom) your brother. 8 And look, with you is Shimei (Shimi) the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, from Bahurim (Bachurim); and he cursed me with a severe curse on the day I went to Mahanaim (Machanayim). And he came down to meet me at the Jordan (Yarden), and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.' 9 And now, do not hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man, and you will know what you shall do to him, and you shall bring down his gray hair with blood to Sheol." 10 And David lay down with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. 11 And the days which David reigned over Israel were forty years: in Hebron (Chevron) he reigned seven years, and in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim) he reigned

1:48 who has given today one sitting on my throne, and my eyes are seeing it David lived to see God keep the first part of His promise, and he gave the glory to the LORD.
1:49 they went, each to his way A crowd that gathers for a man's power scatters the moment the power is gone.
1:50 took hold of the horns of the altar The horns were the raised corners of the altar. Holding them was a cry for mercy and safety (Exod 21:13-14).
1:52 If he will be a son of worth, not one of his hairs shall fall to the earth This is mercy with a condition. Solomon did not punish Adonijah for the past. He gave him a future, if he would live as a loyal subject. Chapter 2 shows what Adonijah did with that mercy.
2:2 I am going in the way of all the earth David knew he was dying. Death is the road every person walks, kings included.
2:3 according to what is written in the law of Moses Real strength is keeping the charge of the LORD. David echoed what God told Joshua (Josh 1:7-8) and what Moses wrote for every king of Israel, who was to copy the Law and read it all his life (Deut 17:18-20).
2:4 If your sons guard their way God had promised David a house and a throne forever (2 Sam 7:12-16). That covenant would stand no matter what, and it is kept in Jesus. But each king's own enjoyment of the throne depended on obedience. God's promises do not depend on us, but our walk with Him affects how much of His blessing we enjoy.
2:5 he put the blood of war in a time of peace Joab murdered Abner (2 Sam 3:27) and Amasa (2 Sam 20:9-10), commanders David had made peace with. He also killed Absalom against David's order (2 Sam 18:5, 14) and had just backed Adonijah.
2:6 you shall not bring down his gray hair in peace to Sheol Sheol is the Hebrew word for the grave, the place of the dead. Under the Law a deliberate murderer was to die, and innocent blood left unpunished defiled the land (Num 35:31-33). David had said the sons of Zeruiah were too hard for him (2 Sam 3:39). Leaders who put off hard decisions often leave them to the next generation.
2:7 to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite you shall show steadfast love In the middle of hard words comes kindness. Steadfast love is hesed, loyal covenant love that keeps its word. Barzillai fed David when he fled from Absalom (2 Sam 17:27-29; 19:31-39). David never forgot a kindness, and neither does God (Matt 10:42).
2:8 Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite He cursed David and threw stones at him (2 Sam 16:5-13), then begged for mercy, and David swore not to kill him (2 Sam 19:18-23). David kept that oath. But cursing the king God anointed was a serious crime (Exod 22:28), and David left Solomon to deal with him wisely.
2:10 was buried in the city of David The old Jebusite stronghold of Zion that David captured (2 Sam 5:7). Peter preached at Pentecost that David's tomb was still there, and that David as a prophet spoke of the resurrection of Christ (Acts 2:29-31).
2:11 forty years About 1010 to 970 B.C. First Chronicles 29 tells of David's last days and Solomon's coronation from another angle.

thirty-three years. 12 And Solomon sat on the throne of David his father, and his reign was established exceedingly.

Adonijah's Request

13 And Adonijah (Adoniyahu) the son of Haggith (Chagit) came to Bathsheba (Bat-Sheva) the mother of Solomon. And she said, "Is your coming in peace?" And he said, "Peace." 14 And he said, "I have a word for you." And she said, "Speak." 15 And he said, "You yourself know that the kingship was mine, and all Israel had set their faces on me to be king; and the kingship has turned around and has become my brother's, for it was his from the LORD. 16 And now I am asking one petition from you; do not turn back my face." And she said to him, "Speak." 17 And he said, "Please speak to Solomon the king, for he will not turn back your face, that he may give me Abishag (Avishag) the Shunammite as a wife." 18 And Bathsheba said, "Good. I will speak for you to the king." 19 And Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose to meet her and bowed down to her, and he sat on his throne and placed a throne for the mother of the king, and she sat at his right hand. 20 And she said, "I am asking one small petition from you; do not turn back my face." And the king said to her, "Ask, my mother, for I will not turn back your face." 21 And she said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as a wife." 22 And King Solomon answered and said to his mother, "And why are you asking Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? And ask for him the kingship, for he is my brother older than I, both for him and for Abiathar (Evyatar) the priest and for Joab the son of Zeruiah!" 23 And King Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, "So may God do to me, and so may He add, surely against his own life Adonijah has spoken this word! 24 And now, as the LORD lives, who has established me and seated me on the throne of David my father, and who has made for me a house just as He spoke, surely this day Adonijah shall be put to death." 25 And King Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah (Benayahu) the son of Jehoiada (Yehoyada), and he fell on him, and he died.

Abiathar Removed and Joab Put to Death

26 And to Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to Anathoth (Anatot), to your fields, for you are a man of death; and on this day I will not put you to death, because you carried the ark of the Lord GOD before David my father, and because you were afflicted in all in which my father was afflicted." 27 And Solomon drove out Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, to fulfill the word of the LORD which He had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh (Shilo). 28 And the report came to Joab, for Joab had turned aside after Adonijah, and after Absalom he had not turned aside; and Joab fled to the tent of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar. 29 And it was told to King Solomon that Joab had fled to the tent of the LORD, and look, he is beside the altar. And Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, fall on him." 30 And Benaiah came to the tent of the LORD and said to him, "Thus says the king, 'Come out.'" And he said, "No, for here I will die." And Benaiah brought word back to the king, saying, "Thus Joab spoke, and thus he answered me." 31 And the king said to him, "Do just as he has spoken, and fall on him, and you shall bury him, and you shall remove the blood shed without cause, which Joab shed, from on me and from on the house of my father. 32 And the LORD will bring back his blood on his head, who fell on two men more righteous and better than he and killed them with the sword, and my father David did not know it: Abner the son of Ner, the commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, the commander of the army of Judah (Yehuda). 33 And their blood shall return on the head of Joab and on the head of his offspring forever; and for David and for his offspring and for his house and for his throne there shall be peace forever from

2:15 it was his from the LORD Adonijah's claim that all Israel wanted him was not quite true. But he admitted the truth: God had given the throne to Solomon.
2:17 that he may give me Abishag the Shunammite as a wife It sounded small. But in that world, taking a king's wife or concubine was a public claim to his throne (2 Sam 16:21-22; 3:7). Abishag had cared for David in his bed, and to the people she belonged to his household. Bathsheba may not have seen it. Adonijah surely did.
2:19 she sat at his right hand The place of honor. In Judah the king's mother held a respected place in the court.
2:22 And ask for him the kingship Solomon saw it at once. This was not about love. It was the old conspiracy, with Abiathar and Joab, trying again by another door.
2:24 surely this day Adonijah shall be put to death This is hard to read. Treason was punished by death in Israel as in every nation around it. Adonijah had been given mercy with a clear warning (1:52) and used it to try again. Solomon judged as a king protecting the throne God gave him. It is not a pattern for us. Jesus teaches us to forgive and leave vengeance to God (Matt 5:44; Rom 12:19), and the sword belongs to rightful government (Rom 13:4).
2:26 Go to Anathoth, to your fields, for you are a man of death He deserved to die for backing Adonijah, but he was spared for carrying the ark and sharing David's hardships. Anathoth was a priests' town a few miles northeast of Jerusalem. Jeremiah would later come from a priestly family there (Jer 1:1).
2:27 concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh Abiathar was the last of Eli's line in the high priest's office. More than a century earlier God said He would cut off Eli's house because of his sons' sins (1 Sam 2:27-36; 3:11-14). God's word waited a long time, but it came true. From here on Zadok's line held the high priesthood.
2:28 Joab fled to the tent of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar The writer notes that Joab had followed Adonijah, though not Absalom.
2:29 Go, fall on him Was it wrong to kill a man at the altar? The Law protected one who killed by accident, but a man who killed with cunning was to be taken from God's altar to die (Exod 21:14). Joab had murdered Abner and Amasa on purpose, by trickery.
2:32 two men more righteous and better than he Joab was brave, able and loyal to David in many ways. But he did whatever he thought best, even murder, and he never repented. A man can serve the king for forty years and still never bow his heart to the King's God.

the LORD." 34 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and fell on him and put him to death; and he was buried in his house in the wilderness. 35 And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army, and Zadok (Tsadoq) the priest the king put in the place of Abiathar.

Shimei's Oath and Death

36 And the king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, "Build for yourself a house in Jerusalem, and you shall dwell there, and you shall not go out from there here or there. 37 And it shall be, on the day you go out and cross the wadi of Kidron (Qidron), you shall surely know that you shall surely die; your blood shall be on your head." 38 And Shimei said to the king, "The word is good. Just as my lord the king has spoken, so your servant will do." And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days. 39 And it came about at the end of three years, and two servants of Shimei fled to Achish (Akhish) the son of Maacah (Ma'akha), the king of Gath (Gat). And they told Shimei, saying, "Look, your servants are in Gath." 40 And Shimei arose and saddled his donkey and went to Gath, to Achish, to seek his servants; and Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath. 41 And it was told to Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned. 42 And the king sent and called for Shimei and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD and warn you, saying, 'On the day you go out and go here or there, you shall surely know that you shall surely die'? And you said to me, 'The word is good; I have heard.' 43 And why have you not kept the oath of the LORD and the command which I commanded you?" 44 And the king said to Shimei, "You yourself know all the evil that your heart knows, which you did to David my father; and the LORD will bring back your evil on your head. 45 And King Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David will be established before the LORD forever." 46 And the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and fell on him, and he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

Solomon Loves the LORD

1 And Solomon (Shelomo) became son-in-law to Pharaoh king of Egypt (Mitsrayim), and he took the daughter of Pharaoh and brought her to the city of David until he had finished building his house and the house of the LORD and the wall of Jerusalem (Yerushalayim) all around. 2 Only, the people were sacrificing at the high places, for a house had not been built for the name of the LORD until those days. 3 And Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father; only, at the high places he was sacrificing and making offerings smoke. 4 And the king went to Gibeon (Givon) to sacrifice there, for that was the great high place; Solomon offered up a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

5 At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask what I shall give you." 6 And Solomon said, "You Yourself have shown great steadfast love to Your servant David my father, just as he walked before You in truth and in righteousness and in uprightness of heart with You; and You have kept for him this great steadfast love, and You have given him a son sitting on his throne, as it is this day. 7 And now, O LORD my God, You Yourself have made Your servant king in place of David my father, and I am a young lad; I do not know how to go out and to

2:35 Zadok the priest the king put in the place of Abiathar The men who stood by God's choice of king now held the army and the priesthood. Ezekiel would later name "the sons of Zadok" (Ezek 44:15) as serving in the temple of the coming kingdom.
2:37 cross the wadi of Kidron The valley east of the city, on the road toward Shimei's old home in Bahurim. Solomon did not put him to death. He kept this Benjaminite of Saul's family where he could watch him, with a fair and clear condition, and Shimei swore by the LORD to keep it (2:42).
2:39 at the end of three years Gath was a Philistine city. Shimei went after his runaway servants and brought them back.
2:44 You yourself know all the evil that your heart knows Shimei broke his oath before the LORD, and that carelessness showed his old curse (2 Sam 16) had never been dealt with in his heart. Scripture does not say he meant to rebel. But he knew the terms. It is a sobering picture of how we treat God's warnings. We grow comfortable and start to think the line does not really matter.
2:46 the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon The chapter closes as it began in verse 12. The threats to the throne God chose were gone.
3:1 Solomon became son-in-law to Pharaoh king of Egypt Royal marriages sealed treaties, and for Egypt to give a daughter to a foreign king showed how strong Israel had become. The writer does not judge it here. But the Law warned the king not to multiply wives or turn back toward Egypt (Deut 17:16-17), and in chapter 11 "the daughter of Pharaoh" (11:1) heads the list of women who turned his heart. Small compromises at the start often become big ones later.
3:2 the people were sacrificing at the high places A high place was a hilltop or raised spot used for worship. The Canaanites worshiped their gods at such places, and God told Israel to tear them down and worship at the one place He would choose (Deut 12:2-5). With no temple yet, people worshiped the LORD at local high places.
3:3 Solomon loved the LORD A beautiful thing to say of anyone. Then comes one small word: "only." All through Kings the high places will be a stubborn problem, even under good kings.
3:4 that was the great high place The tabernacle Moses built and its bronze altar were at Gibeon (1 Chr 16:39; 2 Chr 1:3-6). A burnt offering was an animal wholly burned on the altar, a gift given entirely to God. A thousand of them showed a young king who wanted to begin by seeking the LORD.
3:5 Ask what I shall give you Not a blank check for greed. God was testing what was in Solomon's heart, and what we ask for shows what we value. Second Chronicles 1:7-12 tells the same event.
3:6 You Yourself have shown great steadfast love to Your servant David my father Solomon did not start with what he wanted. He started with what God had done. He saw his throne as the fruit of God's hesed, His faithful covenant love, to David.
3:7 I am a young lad; I do not know how to go out and to come in Solomon was likely about twenty, a grown man, but he knew he was not ready. To go out and come in means to lead people in daily life and in battle.

come in. 8 And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a numerous people which will not be numbered and will not be counted for multitude. 9 And give to Your servant a listening heart to judge Your people, to discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this great people of Yours?" 10 And the thing was good in the eyes of the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. 11 And God said to him, "Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself many days, and have not asked for yourself wealth, and have not asked for the life of your enemies, and have asked for yourself discernment to hear judgment, 12 look, I have done according to your words. Look, I have given you a wise and discerning heart, so that like you there has not been one before you, and after you one like you shall not arise. 13 And also what you have not asked I have given you, both wealth and honor, so that there has not been a man like you among the kings all your days. 14 And if you walk in My ways, keeping My statutes and My commandments, just as David your father walked, then I will lengthen your days." 15 And Solomon awoke, and look, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and he offered up burnt offerings and made peace offerings, and he made a feast for all his servants.

A Wise Judgment

16 Then two women, prostitutes, came to the king and stood before him. 17 And the one woman said, "Please, my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I gave birth with her in the house. 18 And it came about on the third day of my giving birth, and this woman also gave birth; and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, except the two of us in the house. 19 And the son of this woman died in the night, because she lay on him. 20 And she rose in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me, and your maidservant was sleeping, and she laid him in her bosom, and her dead son she laid in my bosom. 21 And I rose in the morning to nurse my son, and look, he had died. And I looked carefully at him in the morning, and look, it was not my son whom I had borne." 22 And the other woman said, "No, for my son is the living one, and your son is the dead one." And this one was saying, "No, for your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one." And they spoke before the king. 23 And the king said, "This one is saying, 'This is my son, the living one, and your son is the dead one'; and this one is saying, 'No, for your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.'" 24 And the king said, "Take a sword for me." And they brought the sword before the king. 25 And the king said, "Cut the living child into two, and give the half to one and the half to the other one." 26 And the woman whose son was the living one said to the king, for her compassion grew warm over her son, and she said, "Please, my lord, give her the living child, and by no means kill him." And this one was saying, "He shall be neither mine nor yours; cut him." 27 And the king answered and said, "Give her the living child, and by no means kill him; she is his mother." 28 And all Israel (Yisra'el) heard the judgment which the king had judged, and they were afraid before the king, for they saw that the wisdom of God was within him to do justice.

Solomon's Officials

3:9 give to Your servant a listening heart to judge Your people In Hebrew the heart is the whole inner person: mind, will and feelings. A listening heart hears God and hears people, and so can judge rightly. Notice he calls them God's people, not his own. A good leader knows the people he leads belong to God.
3:10 the thing was good in the eyes of the Lord Here the SLB has "the Lord," meaning Master, rather than the name the LORD.
3:13 what you have not asked I have given you, both wealth and honor This is how God works: "seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you" (Matt 6:33). It does not mean wealth always follows godliness. It means God gives freely to those who want Him first. If anyone lacks wisdom, let him ask God (James 1:5). Have you asked Him?
3:14 then I will lengthen your days Wisdom was a gift. A long life of blessing depended on walking in it. Sadly, Solomon would have the wisdom without always walking in it. He died at about sixty.
3:15 stood before the ark of the covenant of the Lord The ark was the gold-covered wooden chest that held the tablets of the Ten Commandments, the sign of God's presence. A covenant is the binding agreement God made with Israel at Sinai. A peace offering was a sacrifice shared as a meal, a picture of fellowship with God. When God blesses us, the right response is worship, and then sharing the joy.
3:16 two women, prostitutes, came to the king The lowest people in society could bring their case straight to the king. That says something good about Solomon's court.
3:18 there was no stranger with us in the house No witnesses. One woman was lying, and one was grieving a stolen child. How could anyone know which?
3:25 Cut the living child into two Solomon did not intend to kill the baby. He was testing the hearts of the women. He knew a real mother would rather lose her son than see him die. His wisdom went past the words to the heart.
3:26 her compassion grew warm over her son The Hebrew word for compassion is close to the word for womb, the deep love of a mother for her child. Love gave him away, and the child was saved. Jealousy would rather destroy than lose.
3:28 they saw that the wisdom of God was within him to do justice They were in awe, knowing they could not fool him. This is what Solomon asked for in verse 9. It points to a greater Judge. Jesus knows every heart (John 2:24-25), the Father has given all judgment to the Son (John 5:22), and Jesus said "something greater than Solomon is here" (Matt 12:42).
4:2 Azariah the son of Zadok, the priest Likely Zadok's grandson (1 Chr 6:8-10), since "son" in Hebrew can mean descendant. Some of David's officials carried on, like the recorder (2 Sam 8:16), and Benaiah now held Joab's old post.

(Achilud), the recorder; 4 and Benaiah (Benayahu) the son of Jehoiada (Yehoyada) was over the army; and Zadok and Abiathar (Evyatar) were priests; 5 and Azariah the son of Nathan (Natan) was over the deputies; and Zabud (Zavud) the son of Nathan was a priest, the friend of the king; 6 and Ahishar (Achishar) was over the house; and Adoniram the son of Abda (Avda) was over the forced labor. 7 And Solomon had twelve deputies over all Israel, and they provided for the king and his household; a month in the year it was on each one to provide. 8 And these are their names: Ben-hur (Ben-Chur), in the hill country of Ephraim (Efrayim);

Naphtali (Naftali); he also took Basemath (Basmat) the daughter of Solomon as a wife; 16 Baana the son of Hushai (Chushay), in Asher and Bealoth (Be'alot); 17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah (Paruach), in Issachar (Yisashkhar);
18 Shimei (Shimi) the son of Elah (Ela), in Benjamin
(Binyamin); 19 Geber (Gever) the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the land of Sihon (Sichon) the king of the Amorites and of Og the king of Bashan; and there was one deputy who was in the land.

Solomon's Peace and Plenty

20 Judah (Yehuda) and Israel were many, like the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and rejoicing. 21 And Solomon was ruling over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt (Mitsrayim); they were bringing tribute and serving Solomon all the days of his life. 22 And the food of Solomon for one day was approximately 180 bushels (thirty kors) of fine flour and approximately 360 bushels (sixty kors) of meal, 23 ten fat cattle, and twenty pasture cattle, and a hundred sheep, besides deer and gazelles and roebucks and fattened birds. 24 For he was ruling over all the region beyond the River, from Tiphsah (Tifsach) and to Gaza (Aza), over all the kings beyond the River; and he had peace from all his sides all around. 25 And Judah and Israel dwelt in security, each man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan and to Beer-sheba (Be'er-Sheva), all the days of Solomon. 26 And
Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariotry, and twelve thousand horsemen. 27 And those deputies provided for King Solomon and for all who came near to the table of King Solomon, each in his month; they let nothing be

4:4 Zadok and Abiathar were priests Abiathar had been removed in chapter 2, so this list probably covers the whole reign, or Abiathar kept the title while Zadok held the office.
4:5 the friend of the king A trusted adviser. Two sons of Nathan served Solomon. Nathan's faithfulness in chapter 1 was remembered.
4:6 Adoniram the son of Abda was over the forced labor Men drafted to work on the king's projects. A name to remember: after Solomon's death the people stoned Adoniram, also called Adoram (12:18). Good government can slide into a heavy yoke.
4:7 Solomon had twelve deputies over all Israel Each district fed the court for one month a year. Some districts follow the old tribal borders and some do not. Two deputies married Solomon's daughters (4:11, 15). God knows the names of ordinary officials, and every one of them mattered to Him.
4:13 sixty great cities with walls and bars of bronze The strong cities Israel took from Og king of Bashan in Moses' day (Deut 3:4-5).
4:19 there was one deputy who was in the land Judah is not named among the twelve, and this line may refer to Judah under a separate officer. Some think Solomon spared his own tribe, which added to the bitterness of the northern tribes later (12:4). Others take it as one deputy over Gilead.
4:20 like the sand which is by the sea in multitude God promised Abraham his seed would be like the sand on the seashore (Gen 22:17). Here the writer shows that promise coming true, and the people were "eating and drinking and rejoicing."
4:21 from the River to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt The River is the Euphrates. God promised Abraham the land from the river of Egypt to the Euphrates (Gen 15:18). Was this the final fulfillment? I do not believe so. These kingdoms paid tribute, and within a generation much was lost. The prophets still looked forward to Israel living safely in its land under the Son of David (Ezek 37:24-25; Amos 9:14-15). I believe that day is still coming, when Christ reigns on the earth for a thousand years (Rev 20:4-6).
4:22 the food of Solomon for one day Enough to feed several thousand people: the royal family, officials, servants, guards and guests. A big court is a heavy load on the people who supply it.
4:24 he had peace from all his sides all around Solomon's name comes from shalom, peace. David was a man of war, and Solomon a man of rest (1 Chr 22:9). Tiphsah was on the Euphrates and Gaza on the coast near Egypt.
4:25 each man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan and to Beersheba Dan was the far north and Beersheba the far south. To sit under your own vine and fig tree meant living in peace on your own land with no enemy to fear. Micah used the same words for the coming kingdom (Mic 4:4). Solomon's peace was a small taste of Christ's kingdom.
4:26 forty thousand stalls of horses Second Chronicles 9:25 has four thousand. Most conservative scholars think a copyist made an error in one number, and many take four thousand as original. Others think the passages count different things. Either way it carries a warning, for the king was not to multiply horses (Deut 17:16), and Solomon would buy them from Egypt (10:28). Some trust in chariots and horses, but we in the name of the LORD (Ps 20:7).

lacking. 28 And the barley and the straw for the horses and for the swift steeds they brought to the place where it would be, each according to his rule.

Solomon's Wisdom

29 And God gave Solomon wisdom and very great understanding, and breadth of heart like the sand which is on the shore of the sea. 30 And the wisdom of Solomon was greater than the wisdom of all the sons of the east and than all the wisdom of Egypt. 31 And he was wiser than all mankind, than Ethan (Etan) the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Calcol (Kalkol), and Darda, the sons of Mahol (Machol); and his name was in all the nations all around. 32 And he spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs were a thousand and five. 33 And he spoke concerning the trees, from the cedar which is in Lebanon (Levanon) even to the hyssop which comes out in the wall; and he spoke concerning the animals and concerning the birds and concerning the moving things and concerning the fish. 34 And they came from all the peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

Hiram and Solomon

1 And Hiram (Chiram) the king of Tyre (Tsor) sent his servants to Solomon (Shelomo), for he had heard that they had anointed him king in place of his father; for Hiram had been one who loved David all the days. 2 And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, 3 "You yourself know David my father, that he was not able to build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the war with which they surrounded him, until the LORD put them under the soles of my feet. 4 And now the LORD my God has given me rest all around; there is no adversary and no evil occurrence. 5 And look, I am intending to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, just as the LORD spoke to David my father, saying, 'Your son, whom I will set in your place on your throne, he shall build the house for My name.' 6 And now command, and let them cut for me cedars from Lebanon (Levanon); and my servants shall be with your servants, and the wages of your servants I will give you according to all that you say; for you yourself know that there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians." 7 And it came about, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, and he rejoiced exceedingly, and he said, "Blessed be the LORD this day, who has given to David a wise son over this great people." 8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, "I have heard what you sent to me. I will do all your desire concerning timber of cedar and timber of cypress. 9 My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea; and I will make them into rafts on the sea to go to the place which you will send to me, and I will break them up there, and you shall carry them away. And you shall do my desire by giving the food of my household." 10 And Hiram was giving to Solomon timber of cedar and timber of cypress, all his desire. 11 And Solomon gave to Hiram approximately 120,000 bushels (twenty thousand kors) of wheat, food for his household, and approximately 1,200 gallons (twenty kors) of beaten oil; thus Solomon would give to Hiram year by year.

4:29 breadth of heart like the sand which is on the shore of the sea The people were as many as the sand, and Solomon's understanding was as wide. God had promised this in 3:12, and here He kept His word.

4:31 Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman The best-known wise men of Israel. Ethan and Heman may be the men named over Psalms 88 and 89. "The sons of the east" (4:30) were the peoples of Arabia and Mesopotamia known for wise sayings.

4:32 he spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs were a thousand and five Only part of these are in our Bibles: many sayings in Proverbs (Prov 1:1; 10:1; 25:1), and Song of Songs and Psalms 72 and 127 carry his name. God did not choose to keep the rest in Scripture.

4:33 from the cedar which is in Lebanon even to the hyssop which comes out in the wall The tallest tree and the smallest plant. Solomon's wisdom was about all of life under God, including His creation. All truth is God's truth, and the world shows His wisdom.

4:34 they came from all the peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon The queen of Sheba will be the most famous of these visitors (chapter 10). God's blessing on Israel was meant to draw the nations to Him.

5:1 Hiram the king of Tyre Tyre was a rich Phoenician port on the coast north of Israel, in what is now Lebanon. The Phoenicians were the great sailors and traders of the day, and the forests behind them grew the best cedar in the world.

5:1 Hiram had been one who loved David all the days Hiram had sent cedar and craftsmen for David's house (2 Sam 5:11). "Loved" here describes a loyal friendship between allies. Good relationships built by one generation can bless the next.

5:3 because of the war with which they surrounded him First Chronicles 22:8 adds that God told David he had shed much blood, so he would not build the house. Now there was rest, and the time had come.

5:5 he shall build the house for My name Solomon was not building a house to hold God, and he knew no building could (8:27). It was the place where God put His name, where His people would meet Him and call on Him. The promise of 2 Samuel 7:13 has a greater fulfillment: Jesus, the Son of David, is building a house of living stones (1 Pet 2:5; Eph 2:20-22), and His throne will have no end (Luke 1:32-33).

5:6 there is no one among us who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians Cedar was strong, sweet smelling and resistant to rot, the finest building wood of the ancient world. The wisest man on earth knew he needed the skills of others. God's work is often done by people working together, each giving what they do best (1 Cor 12:4-7).

5:7 Blessed be the LORD this day, who has given to David a wise son A foreign king from a land that worshiped Baal praised the LORD by name. In that day kings often honored the gods of their allies, so we should not read too much into it. But the God of Israel was being spoken of among the nations.

5:9 I will make them into rafts on the sea The rafts came to Joppa, the port closest to Jerusalem (2 Chr 2:16), and the timber was hauled about thirty-five miles inland and uphill. Tyre had little farmland and Israel had grain and oil, so each kingdom had what the other needed.

5:11 food for his household Second Chronicles 2:10 gives a larger list for the woodcutters. The two may be different payments, one for Hiram's household and one for the workers, or a number may have been miscopied. Either way, Solomon paid well.

12 And the LORD gave wisdom to Solomon, just as He had spoken to him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a covenant.

The Forced Labor

13 And King Solomon raised forced labor from all Israel (Yisra'el); and the forced labor was thirty thousand men. 14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month in relays; a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at his home. And Adoniram was over the forced labor. 15 And Solomon had seventy thousand carriers of burdens and eighty thousand hewers in the hill country, 16 besides the commanders of the overseers of Solomon who were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, who ruled over the people who were doing the work. 17 And the king commanded, and they quarried great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house, hewn stones. 18 And the builders of Solomon and the builders of Hiram and the Gebalites cut them to shape, and they prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

Solomon Builds the Temple

1 And it came about in the four hundred and eightieth year of the going out of the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) from the land of Egypt (Mitsrayim), in the fourth year, in the month of Ziv, that is the second month, of the reigning of Solomon (Shelomo) over Israel, and he built the house for the LORD. 2 And the house which King Solomon built for the LORD: its length was approximately 90 feet (sixty cubits), and its breadth approximately 30 feet (twenty cubits), and its height approximately 45 feet (thirty cubits). 3 And the porch in front of the temple of the house: its length was approximately 30 feet (twenty cubits), in front of the breadth of the house; its breadth was approximately 15 feet (ten cubits) in front of the house. 4 And he made for the house windows of closed frames. 5 And he built against the wall of the house an extension all around, against the walls of the house all around, of the temple and of the inner room; and he made side chambers all around. 6 The lowest extension was approximately 7.5 feet (five cubits) in its breadth, and the middle was approximately 9 feet (six cubits) in its breadth, and the third was approximately 10.5 feet (seven cubits) in its breadth; for he made ledges for the house all around on the outside, so as not to take hold in the walls of the house. 7 And the house, when it was built, was built of complete stone from the quarry; and hammers and the axe, any tool of iron, were not heard in the house when it was built. 8 The entrance of the middle side chamber was at the south side of the house; and by stairways they went up to the middle one, and from the middle one to the third. 9 And he built the house and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar. 10 And he built the extension against all the house, approximately 7.5 feet (five cubits) was its height; and it took hold of the house with timber of cedar.

The LORD's Word to Solomon

5:12 the two of them made a covenant The writer wants us to see this smooth agreement as God keeping His promise of wisdom (3:12). A covenant is a binding agreement sworn before God, here a treaty of peace and trade.
5:13 the forced labor was thirty thousand men A labor draft, like a military draft. A man worked one month in three and spent two at home (5:14). That was fair at first, but after Solomon's death the northern tribes complained of a hard yoke (12:4). Even good work for God can be done in ways that grind people down.
5:16 three thousand and three hundred Second Chronicles 2:17-18 says the 150,000 workers were foreigners living in Israel and gives 3,600 overseers. Adding the chief officers of 9:23 (550) here and of 2 Chronicles 8:10 (250) there, both totals come to 3,850.
5:17 great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house Huge, carefully shaped limestone blocks. Most of a foundation is never seen once the building stands, but everything rests on it. The wise man builds his house on the rock by hearing Jesus' words and doing them (Matt 7:24-25). What are you building on?
5:18 the Gebalites From Gebal, the city the Greeks called Byblos, north of Sidon. Israelites and foreigners worked side by side on the house of the LORD.
6:1 in the four hundred and eightieth year of the going out of the sons of Israel from the land of Egypt Solomon's fourth year was about 966 B.C., so this count puts the exodus about 1446 B.C. Jephthah's three hundred years (Judg 11:26) and Paul's summary (Acts 13:17-22) fit this well. Many scholars date the exodus in the 1200s B.C. and read 480 as twelve round generations. I take the number as written, a plain count tied to a month and a year. Israel measured its history from the day God brought it out of slavery. For believers, the cross is our exodus (Luke 9:31, where Jesus' "departure" is the Greek word exodos).
6:1 in the month of Ziv The second month, in the spring, about April and May. Second Chronicles 3:1 adds that the temple stood on Mount Moriah, at the threshing floor of Ornan.
6:2 its length was approximately 90 feet Sixty by twenty by thirty cubits (a cubit is about 18 inches). It was twice the size of Moses' tabernacle, with the same plan (Exod 26). The people worshiped in the courts outside. The building itself was God's house, where only the priests went in.
6:5 he made side chambers all around Three stories of rooms on three sides, likely for supplies, tithes and treasures (7:51; Neh 13:4-5). Their beams rested on ledges, so nothing was cut into the walls of God's house itself (6:6).
6:7 any tool of iron, were not heard in the house when it was built Every stone was finished at the quarry and fitted in quiet. Part of the reason was reverence, and it may recall the altar of uncut stone (Exod 20:25). Many teachers see a picture here: God shapes His "living stones" (1 Pet 2:5) in this life, often through hard things, and one day the whole house will be put together in peace. The New Testament does not tie that picture to this verse, but it fits.
6:9 he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar God cared about the details of His house, and so did the writer. Careful, faithful work done for God's glory is a kind of worship (Col 3:23).
6:12 if you walk in My statutes God stopped the building report to remind Solomon what mattered. The temple did not guarantee God's blessing. Obedience did. Jeremiah later warned against trusting in the temple while living in sin (Jer 7:4-11), and it fell in 586 B.C.

with you, which I spoke to David your father. 13 And I will dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel, and I will not forsake My people Israel."

The Inside of the Temple

14 And Solomon built the house and finished it. 15 And he built the walls of the house on the inside with boards of cedar; from the floor of the house to the walls of the ceiling he overlaid them with wood on the inside; and he overlaid the floor of the house with boards of cypress. 16 And he built approximately 30 feet (twenty cubits) from the rear parts of the house with boards of cedar, from the floor to the walls; and he built them for it on the inside, for an inner room, for the holy of holies. 17 And the house was approximately 60 feet (forty cubits), that is, the temple in front. 18 And the cedar on the house within was carved work of gourds and open flowers; all was cedar; no stone was seen. 19 And the inner room in the midst of the house within he prepared, to put there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. 20 And the inner room in front was approximately 30 feet (twenty cubits) in length, and approximately 30 feet (twenty cubits) in breadth, and approximately 30 feet (twenty cubits) its height; and he overlaid it with refined gold; and he overlaid an altar with cedar. 21 And Solomon overlaid the house within with refined gold, and he drew it across with chains of gold in front of the inner room, and he overlaid it with gold. 22 And all the house he overlaid with gold, until all the house was finished; and all the altar which belonged to the inner room he overlaid with gold.

The Cherubim and the Doors

23 And in the inner room he made two cherubim of olive wood; its height was approximately 15 feet (ten cubits). 24 And the one wing of the cherub was approximately 7.5 feet (five cubits), and the second wing of the cherub was approximately 7.5 feet (five cubits); from the ends of its wings and to the ends of its wings was approximately 15 feet (ten cubits). 25 And the second cherub was approximately 15 feet (ten cubits); one measure and one form belonged to the two cherubim. 26 The height of the one cherub was approximately 15 feet (ten cubits), and so was the second cherub. 27 And he put the cherubim in the midst of the inner house; and they spread out the wings of the cherubim, and the wing of the one touched the wall, and the wing of the second cherub was touching the second wall; and their wings in the middle of the house were touching wing to wing. 28 And he overlaid the cherubim with gold. 29 And all the walls of the house all around he carved with engraved carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, inside and outside. 30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, inside and outside. 31 And for the entrance of the inner room he made doors of olive wood; the pillar and the doorposts were a fifth. 32 And the two doors were of olive wood; and he carved on them carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, and he overlaid them with gold; and he hammered out the gold on the cherubim and on the palm trees. 33 And so he made for the entrance of the temple doorposts of olive wood, from a fourth. 34 And two doors of cypress wood: two sides of the one door were turning, and two leaves of the second door were turning. 35 And he carved cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, and he overlaid them with gold made even on the carved work. 36 And he built the inner court with three rows of hewn stone and a row of beams of cedar. 37 In the fourth year the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid, in the month of Ziv. 38 And in the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, that is the eighth month, the house was finished in all its parts and according to all its

6:13 I will dwell in the midst of the sons of Israel The heart of the whole Bible: God living among His people. It began in the garden, continued in the tabernacle (Exod 25:8) and temple, came to its fullest when "the Word became flesh and dwelt among us" (John 1:14), and will be complete when God dwells with His people forever (Rev 21:3).

6:16 for an inner room, for the holy of holies The back twenty cubits formed the most holy place. The front room, forty cubits long, was the holy place. The tabernacle had the same two rooms, divided by a veil (Exod 26:33).

6:18 carved work of gourds and open flowers Gourds and flowers suggest a garden, and many have seen a reminder of Eden, where God first walked with man. That is a picture the text does not explain, but it is worth thinking about.

6:20 approximately 30 feet in length, and approximately 30 feet in breadth, and approximately 30 feet its height A perfect cube. Scripture ends with another, the New Jerusalem (Rev 21:16). Only the high priest entered this cube, once a year. In the New Jerusalem the whole city is God's dwelling, and His people "will see His face" (Rev 22:4).

6:20 he overlaid an altar with cedar The altar of incense, which stood before the inner room (Exod 30:1-6). The whole house was covered with gold. Everything about the place said God is holy, glorious and worthy of the best.

6:23 two cherubim of olive wood Cherubim are a high order of angels who guard God's holiness and surround His throne. They guarded the way to the tree of life (Gen 3:24), and two small golden cherubim were on the ark's lid (Exod 25:18-20). These were about 15 feet tall.

6:27 their wings in the middle of the house were touching wing to wing Side by side, their wings filled the room wall to wall, and the ark would rest beneath them (8:6-7). It was a picture of God's throne, where He sits enthroned above the cherubim (Ps 80:1).

6:29 cherubim and palm trees and open flowers A garden guarded by heavenly beings. Eden was lost because of sin, and cherubim kept man out. In the temple the way back was opened only through the priest and the blood of sacrifice. In Christ the way is open to every believer (Heb 10:19-20).

6:31 the pillar and the doorposts were a fifth The Hebrew is not clear. It may mean a five-sided frame. The doorposts of 6:33, "from a fourth," were likely square. Second Chronicles 3:14 adds a veil before the inner room. When Jesus died, the veil of the later temple was torn from top to bottom (Mark 15:38). God Himself opened the way.

6:36 the inner court The courtyard around the temple, where the bronze altar stood. Jeremiah calls it "the upper court" (Jer 36:10). The rows of stone and cedar may have helped the walls stand up to earthquakes.

6:38 he built it in seven years Seven and a half, counted the way the Bible usually counts. The plans came from God through David (1 Chr 28:11-12, 19), and Solomon finished the work. God has given each of us good works to walk in (Eph 2:10). Will we finish the work He has given us?

plans. And he built it in seven years.

Solomon's Palace

1 And his house Solomon (Shelomo) built in thirteen years, and he completed all his house. 2 And he built the House of the Forest of Lebanon (Levanon): its length was approximately 150 feet (a hundred cubits), and its breadth approximately 75 feet (fifty cubits), and its height approximately 45 feet (thirty cubits), on four rows of pillars of cedars, and beams of cedars were on the pillars. 3 And it was paneled with cedar from above, over the side chambers which were on the pillars, forty-five, fifteen to the row. 4 And there were window frames, three rows, and window was toward window, three times. 5 And all the openings and the doorposts were squared in frame, and the front of window was toward window, three times. 6 And the porch of the pillars he made: its length was approximately 75 feet (fifty cubits), and its breadth approximately 45 feet (thirty cubits); and a porch was in front of them, and pillars and a threshold were in front of them. 7 And the porch of the throne where he would judge, the porch of the judgment, he made; and it was paneled with cedar from the floor to the floor. 8 And his house where he would dwell, the other court, was inward from the porch; it was like this work. And he made a house for the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Solomon had taken, like this porch. 9 All these were costly stones, according to the measurements of hewn stone, sawn with the saw, from inside and from outside, and from the foundation to the copings, and from outside to the great court. 10 And it was founded with costly stones, large stones, stones of approximately 15 feet (ten cubits) and stones of approximately 12 feet (eight cubits). 11 And above were costly stones, according to the measurements of hewn stone, and cedar. 12 And the great court all around had three rows of hewn stone and a row of beams of cedars, and so for the inner court of the house of the LORD and for the porch of the house.

Hiram the Bronze Worker

13 And King Solomon sent and took Hiram (Chiram) from Tyre (Tsor). 14 He was the son of a widow woman from the tribe of Naphtali (Naftali), and his father was a Tyrian man, a worker in bronze; and he was filled with the wisdom and the understanding and the knowledge to do any work in bronze. And he came to King Solomon, and he did all his work. 15 And he fashioned the two pillars of bronze: the height of the one pillar was approximately 27 feet (eighteen cubits), and a line of approximately 18 feet (twelve cubits) would go around the second pillar. 16 And two capitals he made to put on the tops of the pillars, a casting of bronze: the height of the one capital was approximately 7.5 feet (five cubits), and the height of the second capital was approximately 7.5 feet (five cubits). 17 Networks, a work of network, festoons, a work of chains, were for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars: seven for the one capital, and seven for the second capital. 18 And he made the pillars, and two rows all around on the one network, to cover the capitals which were on the top of the pomegranates; and thus he did for the second capital. 19 And the capitals which were on the top of the pillars were lily work in the porch, approximately 6 feet (four cubits). 20 And the capitals were on the two pillars also above, close beside the bulge which was beside the network; and the pomegranates were two hundred, in rows all around on the second capital. 21 And he set up the pillars at the porch of the temple; and he set up the right pillar and called its name Jachin (Yakhin), and he set up the left pillar and called its name Boaz. 22 And on the top of the pillars was lily work. And the work of the pillars was complete.

7:1 his house Solomon built in thirteen years The temple took seven (6:38). Some see a sign that Solomon's heart was already more on his own glory. Others note that the palace was a much larger group of buildings, that David had gathered the temple materials ahead of time (1 Chr 22:2-5), and that Solomon built the temple first. I think both observations are fair, and the writer may place these verses here to let us compare.

7:2 the House of the Forest of Lebanon A huge hall, larger than the temple, named for its rows of cedar pillars that looked like a forest. Solomon later stored gold shields there (10:17), so it may have served as an armory as well as a great hall.

7:7 the porch of the throne where he would judge, the porch of the judgment Where Solomon sat to hear cases like the one in chapter 3.

7:9 All these were costly stones Some stones were about 15 feet long, sawn and finished on every side. There is nothing wrong with a king having a palace, but the Law warned the king not to multiply silver and gold for himself (Deut 17:17). It is worth asking whether we spend more care on our own houses than on God's work.

7:14 the son of a widow woman from the tribe of Naphtali This Hiram was a craftsman, not King Hiram. Second Chronicles 2:13-14 calls him Huram-abi and says his mother was from Dan. She may have been born in one tribe and married into the other.

7:14 he was filled with the wisdom and the understanding and the knowledge The same words describe Bezalel, who made the tabernacle (Exod 31:3). God gives skill as surely as He gives spiritual gifts. A craftsman or artist who uses that skill for God is serving Him.

7:15 the two pillars of bronze Each about 27 feet tall and six feet thick, with capitals about 7.5 feet high decorated with networks, lilies and pomegranates. They did not hold up the roof. They stood free before the porch as a witness.

7:21 called its name Jachin Jachin means He will establish. Boaz likely means in Him is strength. Every worshiper passed between two pillars that said God will establish it, and in Him is strength. Jesus promises the one who overcomes, "I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God" (Rev 3:12).

The Sea and the Stands

23 And he made the sea, cast, approximately 15 feet (ten cubits) from its brim to its brim, round all around, and its height approximately 7.5 feet (five cubits), and a line of approximately 45 feet (thirty cubits) would go around it all around. 24 And gourds were under its brim all around, surrounding it, ten in approximately 18 inches (a cubit), encircling the sea all around; the gourds were two rows, cast in its casting. 25 It was standing on twelve oxen: three turning northward, and three turning westward, and three turning southward, and three turning eastward; and the sea was on them above, and all their hindquarters were inward. 26 And its thickness was approximately 3 inches (a handbreadth), and its brim was like the work of the brim of a cup, a blossom of lily; it would hold approximately 12,000 gallons (two thousand baths). 27 And he made the stands, ten, of bronze: the length of the one stand was approximately 6 feet (four cubits), and its breadth approximately 6 feet (four cubits), and its height approximately 4.5 feet (three cubits). 28 And this was the work of the stand: they had rims, and rims were between the crossbars. 29 And on the rims which were between the crossbars were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and on the crossbars there was a base above; and under the lions and the oxen were garlands, hanging work. 30 And four wheels of bronze belonged to the one stand, and axles of bronze; and its four feet had supports; under the laver were the supports, cast, with garlands at the side of each. 31 And its opening inside the capital and upward was approximately 18 inches (a cubit); and its opening was round, the work of a base, approximately 27 inches (a cubit and the half of a cubit); and also on its opening were carvings; and their rims were squared, not round. 32 And the four wheels were under the rims, and the hands of the wheels were on the stand; and the height of the one wheel was approximately 27 inches (a cubit and the half of a cubit). 33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their hands and their rims and their spokes and their hubs, everything was cast. 34 And there were four supports at the four corners of the one stand; its supports were from the stand. 35 And at the top of the stand was approximately 9 inches (the half of the cubit) in height, round all around; and on the top of the stand its hands and its rims were from it. 36 And he engraved on the plates of its hands and on its rims cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the clear space of each, and garlands all around. 37 Like this he made the ten stands: one casting, one measurement, one shape for all of them. 38 And he made ten lavers of bronze; the one laver would hold approximately 240 gallons (forty baths); the one laver was approximately 6 feet (four cubits); one laver was on the one stand, for the ten stands. 39 And he put the stands, five on the side of the house on the right and five on the side of the house on its left; and the sea he put on the right side of the house, eastward, opposite the south.

The Temple Furnishings

40 And Hiram made the lavers and the shovels and the bowls. And Hiram finished doing all the work which he did for King Solomon for the house of the LORD: 41 pillars, two; and the bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars, two; and the networks, two, to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; 42 and the pomegranates, four hundred, for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for the one network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals which were on the face of the pillars; 43 and the stands, ten, and the lavers, ten, on the stands; 44 and the one sea, and the twelve oxen under the sea; 45 and the pots and the shovels and the bowls, and all these utensils which Hiram made for King Solomon for the house of the LORD, were of polished bronze. 46 In the plain of the Jordan (Yarden) the king cast them, in the clay mold of the ground, between Succoth (Sukot) and Zarethan (Tsartan). 47 And Solomon left all the utensils unweighed, because of their very, very great abundance; the weight of the bronze was not searched out. 48 And Solomon made all the utensils which were in the house of the LORD: the altar of the gold, and the 7:23 he made the sea, cast A huge round bronze basin about 15 feet across, for the priests to wash in (2 Chr 4:6). Those who served at God's altar had to be washed (Exod 30:18-21). Why is it ten across and thirty around? Likely the width was measured outside the rim and the circumference below the flared lip. These are builders' round numbers, not a math lesson.

7:25 It was standing on twelve oxen Three facing each way, perhaps for the twelve tribes camped around the tabernacle (Num 2). The water that made the priests clean is a picture of Christ, who cleanses His church "by the washing of water by the word" (Eph 5:26).

7:26 it would hold approximately 12,000 gallons Two thousand baths. Second Chronicles 4:5 says three thousand. It may have usually held two thousand and could hold three thousand filled to the brim, or a copyist changed a number.

7:27 he made the stands, ten, of bronze Rolling carts for water, each carrying a basin of about 240 gallons (7:38), used to rinse the parts of the burnt offerings (2 Chr 4:6). Every part of worship mattered to God, even the plumbing. "Let all things be done properly and in order" (1 Cor 14:40).

7:40 the lavers and the shovels and the bowls Tools to carry away ashes and catch the blood of sacrifices. The list that follows sums up all Hiram's bronze work.

7:46 in the clay mold of the ground, between Succoth and Zarethan The clay soil of the Jordan Valley was good for molds. Hiram dug them in the ground and poured the molten bronze in.

7:47 the weight of the bronze was not searched out David had taken a great amount of bronze in war, and Solomon used it for the sea, pillars and utensils (1 Chr 18:8). The spoils of David's battles became the tools of Solomon's worship.

7:48 the table on which was the bread of the presence Twelve loaves set before God each Sabbath, one for each tribe (Lev 24:5-9). "The altar of the gold" is the incense altar. These were "a copy and shadow of the heavenly things" (Heb 8:5). The incense is a picture of prayer (Ps 141:2), and Jesus lives forever to pray for us (Heb 7:25). The bread is a picture of Him who is "the bread of life" (John 6:35).

1 KINGS 8

The Ark Brought into the Temple

1 Then Solomon (Shelomo) assembled the elders of Israel (Yisra'el) and all the heads of the tribes, the leaders of the fathers of the sons of Israel, to King Solomon in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim), to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the city of David; it is Zion (Tsiyon). 2 And every man of Israel assembled to King Solomon in the month of Ethanim (Etanim) at the feast; it is the seventh month. 3 And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests lifted up the ark. 4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD and the tent of meeting and all the utensils of holiness which were in the tent; and the priests and the Levites brought them up. 5 And King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel who were gathered to him were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and cattle which could not be counted and could not be numbered for multitude. 6 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, to the inner room of the house, to the holy of holies, to under the wings of the cherubim. 7 For the cherubim were spreading out wings toward the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered over the ark and over its poles from above. 8 And the poles were long, and the heads of the poles were seen from the holy place on the front of the inner room, and they were not seen outside; and they have been there to this day. 9 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of the stones which Moses (Moshe) placed there at Horeb (Chorev), where the LORD made a covenant with the sons of Israel when they came out from the land of Egypt (Mitsrayim). 10 And it was, when the priests came out from the holy place, and the cloud filled the house of the LORD, 11 and the priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD.

Solomon Blesses the Assembly

12 Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that He would dwell in thick darkness. 13 I have surely built a house of loftiness for You, an established place for You to dwell in forever." 14 And the king turned his face around and blessed all the assembly of Israel, and all the assembly of Israel was standing. 15 And he said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with His mouth with David my father, and with His hand has fulfilled it, saying, 16 'Since the day that I brought out My people Israel from Egypt, I did not choose a city from all the tribes of Israel to build a house for My name to be there; and I chose David to be over My people Israel.' 17 And it was with the heart of David my father to build a

7:49 the lampstands, five on the right and five on the left The tabernacle had one lampstand, and the temple ten. Jesus said, "I am the light of the world" (John 8:12).
7:51 Solomon brought in the holy things of David his father David gathered. Solomon built. God used both. The work God gives one generation often prepares for the work of the next.
8:1 to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the city of David The city of David was the older, lower part of Jerusalem, and the temple stood on higher ground to the north. The ark went up only a short distance, but it was a great step.
8:2 in the month of Ethanim at the feast; it is the seventh month In the fall, about September and October. The feast was the Feast of Booths, or Tabernacles, when Israel lived in shelters for a week to remember God's care in the wilderness (Lev 23:33-43). The temple was finished in the eighth month (6:38), so most understand that Solomon waited about eleven months for the great fall feast, when all Israel would come.
8:3 the priests lifted up the ark This time they did it right. David had once moved the ark on a cart, and Uzzah died (2 Sam 6:6-7). The Law said it must be carried on poles by the Levites (Num 4:15; 1 Chr 15:13-15).
8:4 the tent of meeting The tabernacle Moses made, which had stood at Gibeon. Its time was over, and its holy things were stored in the temple.
8:5 sacrificing sheep and cattle which could not be counted David once offered a sacrifice every six steps when he brought the ark up (2 Sam 6:13). The people's joy and worship overflowed.
8:8 they have been there to this day This shows the writer was using a record written while the temple still stood.
8:9 There was nothing in the ark except the two tablets of the stones Horeb is another name for Mount Sinai. Hebrews 9:4 says the ark once held the jar of manna and Aaron's rod (Exod 16:33-34; Num 17:10). By Solomon's day, after the ark had been captured and moved many times, only the tablets were left. Both statements are true for their own time. At the center of Israel's worship was God's Word, with His throne resting over His law.
8:10 the cloud filled the house of the LORD The same cloud of glory that led Israel out of Egypt and filled the tabernacle (Exod 40:34-35). Later Jewish teachers called it the shekinah, from a word meaning to dwell. It was the visible sign of God's presence.
8:11 the priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud When God shows up in His glory, human work stops. Second Chronicles 7:1-3 adds that fire fell from heaven. Centuries later Ezekiel saw the glory leave the temple because of Judah's sin (Ezek 10:18-19; 11:23). Then it came in a way no one expected: "we beheld His glory" (John 1:14). Ezekiel also saw the glory return to a future temple (Ezek 43:1-5), which I believe points to Christ's reign on earth in the coming kingdom.
8:12 He would dwell in thick darkness At Sinai Moses went near "the thick darkness where God was" (Exod 20:21), and God promised to appear in the cloud over the mercy seat (Lev 16:2). The windowless inner room was dark, and now the dark cloud filled it. The God who lives in unapproachable light chose to live in a dark room in Jerusalem, among sinful people.
8:15 who spoke with His mouth with David my father, and with His hand has fulfilled it That is the theme of Solomon's whole speech. What God says, He does.
8:16 I chose David to be over My people Israel For centuries God had not chosen a city for His house, but He chose a man to lead His people (2 Sam 7:6-8). God chose a man first, and then a place.

house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. 18 And the LORD said to David my father, 'Because it was with your heart to build a house for My name, you did well that it was with your heart. 19 Only you shall not build the house, but your son who comes out from your loins, he shall build the house for My name.' 20 And the LORD has established His word which He spoke; and I have risen in place of David my father, and I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD spoke, and I have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. 21 And I have set there a place for the ark, where the covenant of the LORD is, which He made with our fathers when He brought them out from the land of Egypt."

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

22 And Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of all the assembly of Israel, and he spread out his palms toward the heavens. 23 And he said, "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like You in the heavens above and on the earth beneath, keeping the covenant and the steadfast love for Your servants who walk before You with all their heart; 24 who have kept for Your servant David my father what You spoke to him; and You spoke with Your mouth, and with Your hand You have fulfilled it, as it is this day. 25 And now, O LORD, God of Israel, keep for Your servant David my father what You spoke to him, saying, 'A man shall not be cut off for you from before Me, sitting on the throne of Israel, if only your sons guard their way, to walk before Me just as you have walked before Me.' 26 And now, O God of Israel, let Your word be confirmed, please, which You spoke to Your servant David my father. 27 For will God really dwell on the earth? Look, the heavens and the heavens of the heavens cannot contain You; how much less this house which I have built! 28 And turn to the prayer of Your servant and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant is praying before You today, 29 that Your eyes may be open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which You have said, 'My name shall be there,' to listen to the prayer which Your servant prays toward this place. 30 And listen to the supplication of Your servant and of Your people Israel, which they pray toward this place; and You, may You listen at the place of Your dwelling, at the heavens; and hear, and forgive.

Prayers toward This House

31 When a man sins against his neighbor, and he lays an oath on him to make him swear, and he comes and swears before Your altar in this house, 32 then may You hear in the heavens, and act, and judge Your servants, to condemn the wicked, to bring his way on his head, and to justify the righteous, to give to him according to his righteousness. 33 When Your people Israel are struck down before an enemy because they sin against You, and they turn back to You and praise Your name, and pray and make supplication to You in this house, 34 then may You hear in the heavens, and forgive the sin of Your people Israel, and bring them back to the ground which You gave to their fathers. 35 When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain, because they sin against You, and they pray toward this place and praise Your name and turn back from their sin, because You afflict them, 36 then may You hear in the heavens, and forgive the sin of Your servants and of Your people Israel, for You will teach them the good way in which they shall walk; and give rain on Your land which You have given to Your people for an inheritance. 37 Famine, if it is in the land, pestilence, if it is, blight, mildew, locust, grasshopper, if it is, if its enemy besieges it in

8:18 you did well that it was with your heart A great comfort. Sometimes God says no to something good we want to do for Him. It does not mean the desire was wrong. God sees the heart, and David gathered the materials and drew the plans for his son to finish.
8:22 he spread out his palms toward the heavens Second Chronicles 6:13 says he stood on a bronze platform and then knelt, and verse 54 says he was "kneeling on his knees." The king of Israel humbled himself before the King of kings in front of the whole nation.
8:23 there is no God like You in the heavens above and on the earth beneath Real prayer begins not with our needs but with who God is. He keeps covenant and hesed, His loyal covenant love, and the finished temple was the proof (8:24).
8:26 let Your word be confirmed, please Solomon prayed God's promise back to Him. When we pray what God has already said, we pray with confidence. The kings of David's line failed, and the throne was empty for centuries after 586 B.C., but God's word was kept in Jesus, whose kingdom "will be no end" (Luke 1:33).
8:27 For will God really dwell on the earth The key verse of the chapter. The most beautiful building in the world cannot hold Him, nor can the highest heaven. God is present everywhere at once (Ps 139:7-10; Jer 23:24), and He "does not dwell in temples made with hands" (Acts 17:24). The temple was not a box for God but a meeting place, a sign that the great God had come near in grace. Solomon's question has a final answer: yes. God the Son took on flesh and lived among us (John 1:14), and "in Him dwells all the fullness of the Deity bodily" (Col 2:9). We cannot put God in a box, and yet He wants to be near us.
8:30 may You listen at the place of Your dwelling, at the heavens; and hear, and forgive The people pray toward the temple, but God hears from heaven. The first thing Solomon asked was forgiveness, for that was the people's deepest need. Daniel in exile prayed toward Jerusalem (Dan 6:10). We pray through a Person, our High Priest in the heavenly sanctuary (Heb 4:14-16).
8:31 When a man sins against his neighbor The first of seven cases. When there was no proof, a man swore an oath at the altar (compare Exod 22:10-11). When human courts cannot know the truth, God does. Only He sees every heart.
8:33 When Your people Israel are struck down before an enemy because they sin against You The Law warned of this (Lev 26:17; Deut 28:25). Sin, defeat, turning back, prayer, forgiveness and restoration: that is the pattern of repentance all through the Bible. God's discipline is meant to bring His people home.
8:35 When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain Another warning of the Law (Deut 11:16-17). It will happen under Ahab, and Elijah will pray for rain (17:1; 18:41-45; James 5:17-18).
8:36 You will teach them the good way in which they shall walk Solomon asked God not only to forgive and send rain, but to teach. Real repentance is not just being sorry. It is learning to walk God's way.

8:38 who know each the plague of his own heart A striking phrase. The real plague is not outside us. It is the sin in our own hearts.
8:39 for You, You alone, know the heart of all the sons of mankind God answers knowing exactly who is praying and why. The goal was that they would fear Him all their days (8:40). Answered prayer is meant to lead us to reverence Him more.
8:41 And also to the foreigner who is not of Your people Israel One of the most beautiful parts of the prayer. From the start, God planned to bless all nations through Abraham's seed (Gen 12:3). The temple was never a private club. Isaiah called it a house of prayer for all the peoples, and Jesus quoted him (Isa 56:7; Mark 11:17). Through Jesus the door is open wide to every nation (Eph 2:11-13).
8:44 by the way that You send them The condition was a battle God sent them to fight. His people were to depend on Him, not on chariots and horses.
8:46 for there is no man who does not sin Solomon knew human nature (Rom 3:23). Moses had warned of exile if the nation kept sinning (Lev 26:33; Deut 28:64), and it came: Israel to Assyria in 722 B.C., Judah to Babylon, with Jerusalem falling in 586 B.C.
8:47 We have sinned, and we have done perversely; we have acted wickedly Daniel prayed almost these words in Babylon (Dan 9:5), and God moved Cyrus to let the Jews go home in 538 B.C. (Ezra 1:1-4). God heard, just as Solomon asked. No sin is so great that God will not hear the one who truly turns back to Him.
8:51 from the midst of the furnace of iron Egypt was like a furnace for smelting iron, hot, hard and cruel, and God brought them out of it.
8:53 You have separated them to Yourself for an inheritance Israel's hope rested on God's choice, not their goodness. That choice still stands, for "the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable" (Rom 11:29), and Paul speaks of a day when all Israel will be saved (Rom 11:26).
8:56 not one word has fallen from all His good word Joshua said nearly the same near the end of his life (Josh 21:45; 23:14). God had kept every promise.
8:58 to incline our heart to Him Solomon knew the people could not keep God's law in their own strength. They needed God to turn their hearts. The new covenant promises exactly this, a new heart and God's Spirit within (Ezek 36:26-27; Jer 31:33).
8:59 the matter of a day in its day Each day's needs as they come.

day, 60 so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD, He is God; there is no other. 61 And let your heart be complete with the LORD our God, to walk in His statutes and to keep His commandments, as it is this day."

Sacrifices and the Feast

62 And the king and all Israel with him were sacrificing a sacrifice before the LORD. 63 And Solomon sacrificed the sacrifice of the peace offerings which he sacrificed to the LORD: twenty-two thousand cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. And the king and all the sons of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. 64 On that day the king consecrated the middle of the court which was before the house of the LORD, for there he offered the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat of the peace offerings; for the altar of bronze which was before the LORD was too small to contain the burnt offering and the grain offering and the fat of the peace offerings. 65 And Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly from Lebo-hamath (Levo-Chamat) to the Wadi of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, fourteen days. 66 On the eighth day he sent the people away, and they blessed the king and went to their tents, joyful and good of heart over all the goodness which the LORD had done for David His servant and for Israel His people.

The LORD Appears to Solomon Again

1 And it was, when Solomon (Shelomo) had finished building the house of the LORD and the house of the king and all the desire of Solomon which he delighted to do, 2 and the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, just as He had appeared to him at Gibeon (Givon). 3 And the LORD said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your supplication with which you have made supplication before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built, to put My name there forever; and My eyes and My heart shall be there all the days. 4 And you, if you walk before Me just as David your father walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you keep My statutes and My judgments, 5 then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel (Yisra'el) forever, just as I spoke concerning David your father, saying, 'A man shall not be cut off for you from on the throne of Israel.' 6 If you surely turn back, you and your sons, from following Me, and do not keep My commandments, My statutes which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them, 7 then I will cut off Israel from on the face of the ground which I have given to them; and the house which I have consecrated for My name I will cast out from before My face; and Israel shall become a proverb and a taunt among all the peoples. 8 And this house shall be high; everyone who passes by it will be appalled and will hiss, and they will say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land and to this house?' 9 And they will say, 'Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought out their fathers from the land of Egypt (Mitsrayim), and they took hold of other gods and bowed down to them and served them; therefore the LORD has brought on them all this calamity.'"

8:60 so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD, He is God; there is no other Israel's blessing was meant to be a witness to the world.
8:61 let your heart be complete with the LORD our God An undivided heart, wholly devoted to God. Sadly, of Solomon it will be said that "his heart was not complete with the LORD his God" (11:4). He preached it well. He did not finish it well. Pray for each other that we will live what we say.
8:63 twenty-two thousand cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep Huge numbers, but the feast lasted two weeks, all Israel was there, and peace offerings were mostly eaten by the worshipers, so this was a great national meal. I take the numbers as written. All those sacrifices could not take away sin. They covered it and pointed forward to the one "offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all" (Heb 10:10).
8:64 the altar of bronze which was before the LORD was too small So Solomon consecrated the middle of the court and offered there too. A grain offering was flour or baked bread given in thanks. The fat of the peace offerings was burned as God's portion.
8:65 seven days and seven days, fourteen days The seven-day dedication, then the seven-day Feast of Booths. Lebo-hamath to the Wadi of Egypt means from the far north to the far south.
8:66 On the eighth day he sent the people away This seems to count the day after the second seven, as Chronicles does with its closing assembly (2 Chr 7:8-10). A nation gathered around God's house, His glory in their midst, forgiveness asked and promised, and everyone going home glad. It is a picture of heaven, people from every nation rejoicing before the Lamb (Rev 7:9-10).
9:2 the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time About twenty years into his reign (9:10). Few people in Scripture had such a privilege, and it made his later turning away all the worse (11:9).
9:3 I have consecrated this house which you have built To consecrate is to set apart as holy. Solomon built the house, but only God could make it holy. Solomon asked that God's eyes be open toward it (8:29), and God answered with more, "My eyes and My heart." Second Chronicles 7:14 records more of this answer: if His people humble themselves, pray, seek His face and turn, He will hear, forgive and heal their land.
9:4 in integrity of heart and in uprightness David was far from perfect. He sinned terribly with Bathsheba and Uriah. But when confronted he repented, and he never turned to idols. Integrity of heart means a heart that is whole toward God.
9:5 I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever The covenant with David would never fail (2 Sam 7). But whether Solomon and his sons enjoyed its blessings depended on their walk with God (2:4; 8:25).
9:7 Israel shall become a proverb and a taunt among all the peoples Moses warned of this (Deut 28:37). The temple would not protect a people who served other gods. It came true: Solomon turned to idols (11:4-8), the north fell to Assyria in 722 B.C., and in 586 B.C. Nebuchadnezzar's army burned the temple (2 Kgs 25:9).
9:9 Because they forsook the LORD their God Almost the words of Moses (Deut 29:24-26). God is not fooled by beautiful buildings. He wants hearts. Jesus wept over Jerusalem and foretold the fall of the temple of His day (Luke 19:41-44), which came in A.D. 70. But judgment was never God's last word. The same prophets promised a return and a restored people (Jer 29:10-14; Ezek 37:21-28; Rom 11:26-27).

Solomon's Other Works

10 And it was at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the house of the king, 11 Hiram (Chiram) the king of Tyre (Tsor) had supported Solomon with timbers of cedars and with timbers of cypresses and with gold, according to all his desire; then King Solomon gave to Hiram twenty cities in the land of the Galilee (Galil). 12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given to him, and they were not right in his eyes. 13 And he said, "What are these cities which you have given to me, my brother?" And he called them the land of Cabul (Kavul) to this day. 14 And Hiram had sent to the king approximately 9,000 pounds (a hundred and twenty talents) of gold. 15 And this is the account of the forced labor which King Solomon raised to build the house of the LORD and his own house and the Millo and the wall of Jerusalem (Yerushalayim), and Hazor (Chatsor) and Megiddo (Megido) and Gezer. 16 (Pharaoh the king of Egypt had gone up and captured Gezer and burned it with fire, and he had killed the Canaanites who dwelt in the city, and he had given it as a dowry to his daughter, the wife of Solomon.) 17 And Solomon built Gezer and Beth-horon (Bet-Choron) the Lower, 18 and Baalath (Ba'alat) and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land, 19 and all the cities of storage which Solomon had, and the cities of the chariotry and the cities of the horsemen, and the desire of Solomon which he desired to build in Jerusalem and in the Lebanon (Levanon) and in all the land of his dominion. 20 All the people who remained of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the sons of Israel, 21 their sons who were left after them in the land, whom the sons of Israel were not able to devote to destruction, Solomon raised them for forced labor, laboring, to this day. 22 And of the sons of Israel Solomon did not make a slave; for they were the men of war, and his servants, and his commanders, and his officers, and the commanders of his chariotry and of his horsemen. 23 These were the commanders of the overseers who were over the work of Solomon, five hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people who were doing the work. 24 Only the daughter of Pharaoh went up from the city of David to her house which he had built for her; then he built the Millo. 25 And Solomon offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings three times in the year on the altar which he had built to the LORD, and burning incense with it, which was before the LORD. And he completed the house.

Solomon's Fleet

26 And King Solomon made a fleet of ships at Ezion-geber (Etsyon-Gever), which is beside Eloth (Elot) on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. 27 And Hiram sent in the fleet his servants, men of ships who knew the sea, with the servants of Solomon. 28 And they came to Ophir (Ofir) and took from there gold, approximately 31,500 pounds (four hundred and twenty talents), and brought it to King Solomon.

9:11 twenty cities in the land of the Galilee Near the border of Tyre, in the inheritance of Asher. The Law said the land belonged to God and was not to be sold for good (Lev 25:23). Scripture does not comment, but it was a strange use of Israel's inheritance. Even the wisest man can make poor deals when his projects grow too big.
9:13 the land of Cabul The name sounds like a Hebrew phrase meaning as good as nothing. Hiram felt short-changed. Second Chronicles 8:2 says Solomon rebuilt cities Hiram had given him, so many think Hiram gave them back. Some think the towns were security for Hiram's gold (9:14), about 9,000 pounds.
9:15 Hazor and Megiddo and Gezer Hazor guarded the north, Megiddo the main pass through the Carmel ridge, and Gezer the road from the coast to Jerusalem. Archaeologists have found similar large gates at all three, and many date them to Solomon, though that is debated. The Millo was likely a terraced fill or fortification in Jerusalem.
9:16 as a dowry to his daughter, the wife of Solomon The city Israel never conquered (Josh 16:10) came to Israel as a wedding gift from Egypt.
9:19 the cities of the chariotry and the cities of the horsemen The kingdom was strong, organized and well defended.
9:21 whom the sons of Israel were not able to devote to destruction These Canaanites were left because Israel did not finish what God commanded in Joshua's day (Judg 1:27-36), and they were a constant temptation toward idolatry (Judg 2:3). Solomon made them permanent laborers. What we do not deal with fully, we often have to live with for a long time.
9:22 of the sons of Israel Solomon did not make a slave The Israelite draft of 5:13-14 was temporary, one month in three. The Canaanites were made laborers for life. Even so, the Israelite draft was heavy enough to be a complaint after Solomon died (12:4).
9:23 five hundred and fifty Second Chronicles 8:10 gives 250, perhaps counting only Israelite chiefs. As noted at 5:16, the totals of the two books come out the same.
9:24 the daughter of Pharaoh went up from the city of David to her house Solomon said she should not live where the ark had been, because those places were holy (2 Chr 8:11). He knew a wife who did not worship the LORD did not belong near holy things, and he married her anyway, and many after her. It is possible to know what is holy and still make room for what pulls you away from it.
9:25 three times in the year The three great feasts: Passover with Unleavened Bread, Weeks and Booths (Deut 16:16; 2 Chr 8:12-13). Solomon was still faithful in public worship. But a completed building is not a completed life. Would he finish well?
9:26 Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth on the shore of the Red Sea At the north end of the Gulf of Aqaba, a door to trade with Arabia, Africa and perhaps India. Israel had never been a seafaring nation, so Hiram sent sailors who knew the sea.
9:28 they came to Ophir No one knows for sure where Ophir was: southern Arabia, east Africa or India. Its gold was famous (Job 28:16; Ps 45:9). Second Chronicles 8:18 says 450 talents, a copying difference or a difference in what was counted. Solomon had everything, but wealth is not the measure of a life. Faithfulness is (Mark 8:36).

The Queen of Sheba

1 And the queen of Sheba (Sheva) was hearing the report of Solomon (Shelomo) concerning the name of the LORD, and she came to test him with riddles. 2 And she came to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim) with a very great retinue, camels carrying spices and very much gold and precious stones; and she came to Solomon and spoke to him all that was with her heart. 3 And Solomon told her all her matters; there was not a matter hidden from the king which he did not tell her. 4 And the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house which he had built, 5 and the food of his table, and the seating of his servants, and the standing of his ministers, and their clothing, and his cupbearers, and his burnt offering which he would offer up at the house of the LORD; and there was no more breath in her. 6 And she said to the king, "The word which I heard in my land about your words and about your wisdom was truth. 7 And I did not believe the words until I came and my eyes saw; and look, the half was not told to me; you have added wisdom and good to the report which I heard. 8 How blessed are your men! How blessed are these your servants who stand before you continually, who hear your wisdom! 9 May the LORD your God be blessed, who delighted in you to put you on the throne of Israel (Yisra'el); because the LORD loves Israel forever, and He has appointed you king, to do justice and righteousness." 10 And she gave to the king approximately 9,000 pounds (a hundred and twenty talents) of gold, and very many spices and precious stones; there never again came like that spice in abundance, which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon. 11 And also the fleet of Hiram (Chiram), which carried gold from Ophir (Ofir), brought from Ophir very many almug timbers and precious stones. 12 And the king made the almug timbers into a support for the house of the LORD and for the house of the king, and lyres and harps for the singers; almug timbers have not come thus, and have not been seen, to this day. 13 And King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire which she asked, besides what he had given her according to the hand of King Solomon. And she turned and went to her land, she and her servants.

Solomon's Wealth

14 And the weight of the gold which came to Solomon in one year was approximately 50,000 pounds (six hundred sixty-six talents) of gold, 15 apart from that from the men of the merchants, and the merchandise of the traders, and all the kings of Arabia (Arav), and the governors of the land. 16 And King Solomon made two hundred large shields of beaten gold; approximately 15 pounds (six hundred shekels) of gold he put on the one large shield; 17 and three hundred shields of beaten gold; approximately 3.75 pounds (three minas) of gold he put on the one shield; and the king put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon (Levanon). 18 And the king made a great throne of ivory, and he overlaid it with refined gold. 19 The throne had six steps, and the throne had a round top behind it, and arms were on this side and on this side at the place of the seat, and two lions were standing beside the arms. 20 And twelve lions were standing there on the six steps, on this side and on this side; it was not made

10:1 the queen of Sheba Sheba was a kingdom in southwest Arabia, in the area of modern Yemen, rich from the trade in spices and incense, more than a thousand miles from Jerusalem. Some think it also held lands across the Red Sea in Africa.
10:1 concerning the name of the LORD She heard not only of Solomon's fame but of his God. This is what Solomon prayed for (8:41-43). "Riddles" means hard questions, the puzzles wise people used to test each other.
10:2 spoke to him all that was with her heart She held nothing back, and every question got an answer. Do you bring God everything on your heart? A greater King invites us: "Come to Me, all who labor and are burdened" (Matt 11:28).
10:5 his burnt offering which he would offer up at the house of the LORD The Hebrew can also mean his stairway up to the temple.
10:5 there was no more breath in her Wisdom showed not only in his answers but in how he ordered his home, treated his workers and worshiped his God. People are watching our lives, not just listening to our words.
10:7 the half was not told to me The reality was greater than the report. Every believer who meets Christ face to face will say the same (1 Cor 2:9).
10:8 How blessed are your men She envied the servants who heard Solomon every day. How much more blessed are we, who can sit at the feet of Jesus every day in His Word?
10:9 because the LORD loves Israel forever A Gentile queen saw that Solomon's wisdom came from God, that God loved Israel, and that a king's purpose was "justice and righteousness." Whether she came to faith, Scripture does not say. But she praised the LORD by name.
10:10 there never again came like that spice in abundance Sheba was famous for frankincense and myrrh, gifts later brought to the child Jesus (Matt 2:11). Isaiah 60:6 pictures camels from Sheba bringing gold and frankincense to Jerusalem. I believe that looks forward to Christ's kingdom, when the nations bring their glory to Him (Rev 21:24).
10:11 very many almug timbers and precious stones No one is sure what almug wood was. Some think red sandalwood. It went into the temple and the palace and the singers' lyres and harps. Everything coming into Jerusalem was the finest of its kind.
10:13 all her desire which she asked She went home with more than she brought. No one ever comes to God and goes away poorer.
10:14 approximately 50,000 pounds of gold Six hundred sixty-six talents, about twenty-five tons a year. Revelation 13:18 also has 666, but Scripture does not connect the two, and I would not build anything on it. Moses warned the king not to multiply silver and gold (Deut 17:17), and Solomon was doing exactly that.
10:16 two hundred large shields of beaten gold Gold is too soft and heavy for battle. These were for royal parades. Five years after Solomon died, Shishak of Egypt took them all (14:25-28). Glory built on gold fades fast. God told Abraham, "I am a shield to you" (Gen 15:1).
10:18 a great throne of ivory The lion was the symbol of Judah (Gen 49:9-10), and the twelve lions may stand for the tribes. Jesus is "the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah" (Rev 5:5), and He will sit on the throne of His glory (Matt 25:31). Solomon's throne was a small picture of His.

thus for any kingdom. 21 And all the drinking vessels of King Solomon were gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold; there was no silver; it was not reckoned in the days of Solomon as anything. 22 For the king had a fleet of Tarshish on the sea with the fleet of Hiram; once every three years the fleet of Tarshish would come, carrying gold and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. 23 And King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom. 24 And all the earth was seeking the face of Solomon, to hear his wisdom which God had put in his heart. 25 And they were bringing, each his gift: vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and garments, and weapons, and spices, horses, and mules, the matter of a year in a year. 26 And Solomon gathered chariotry and horsemen; and he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen; and he stationed them in the cities of the chariotry and with the king in Jerusalem. 27 And the king made the silver in Jerusalem like the stones, and the cedars he made like the sycamores which are in the Shephelah, for abundance. 28 And the export of the horses which Solomon had was from Egypt (Mitsrayim) and from Kue; the traders of the king would take them from Kue at a price. 29 And a chariot came up and came out from Egypt for approximately 15 pounds (six hundred shekels) of silver, and a horse for approximately 3.75 pounds (a hundred and fifty shekels); and thus for all the kings of the Hittites and for the kings of Syria (Aram), by their hand they brought them out.

Solomon's Wives Turn His Heart

1 And King Solomon (Shelomo) loved many foreign women, and the daughter of Pharaoh: Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women, 2 from the nations of which the LORD had said to the sons of Israel (Yisra'el), "You shall not go in among them, and they shall not go in among you; surely they will turn aside your heart after their gods." To them Solomon clung in love. 3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned aside his heart. 4 And it was at the time of the old age of Solomon, his wives turned aside his heart after other gods; and his heart was not complete with the LORD his God, like the heart of David his father. 5 And Solomon went after Ashtoreth the god of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the detestable thing of the Ammonites. 6 And Solomon did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, and he did not fully follow after the LORD like David his father. 7 Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the detestable thing of Moab (Mo'av), on the mountain which is east of Jerusalem (Yerushalayim), and for Molech the detestable thing of the sons of Ammon (Amon). 8 And thus he did for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

10:22 a fleet of Tarshish Large ocean-going ships built for long voyages, wherever they sailed. Some take it as a voyage to Tarshish in Spain. The last word may mean peacocks or baboons.
10:23 King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom God kept His word of 3:12-13 to the letter.
10:24 to hear his wisdom which God had put in his heart The high point of Israel's history in the Old Testament. Many teachers see a preview of Christ's kingdom, when the nations come up to Jerusalem to be taught the ways of the LORD (Isa 2:2-4; Zech 14:16).
10:27 the cedars he made like the sycamores which are in the Shephelah The Shephelah was the low hill country west of Judah, full of common sycamore-figs. The most precious wood became as common as an ordinary tree.
10:28 the export of the horses which Solomon had was from Egypt and from Kue Kue was in Cilicia, in southern Turkey, famous for horses. Solomon was the middleman in the arms trade of the region. Set beside Deuteronomy 17:16-17: no multiplying horses, no going back to Egypt for them, no multiplying wives, silver and gold. Chapter 10 shows the gold, silver and horses. Chapter 11 shows the wives. Solomon's glory was God's gift, but he did not guard it by God's Word.
10:29 for all the kings of the Hittites and for the kings of Syria Jesus said Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like a lily (Matt 6:29). The queen came from the ends of the earth to hear Solomon, "and look, something greater than Solomon is here" (Matt 12:42). How much more should we listen to the Son of God, the wisdom of God Himself (1 Cor 1:24, 30)?
11:1 King Solomon loved many foreign women Many of these marriages sealed treaties, but the writer says he "loved" them. The issue was never race or nationality. Ruth was a Moabite, and she is in the line of David and of Jesus. The issue was faith: "surely they will turn aside your heart after their gods" (11:2; Deut 7:3-4). That is why believers are to marry "only in the Lord" (1 Cor 7:39; 2 Cor 6:14).
11:2 to them Solomon clung in love "Clung" is the word for a man holding fast to his wife (Gen 2:24) and for holding fast to the LORD (Deut 10:20). Solomon clung to the wrong things.
11:3 seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines A concubine was a secondary wife with fewer rights. The Law said the king must not multiply wives, lest his heart turn aside (Deut 17:17), and it happened just as God said. His plan for marriage was one man and one woman (Gen 2:24; Matt 19:4-6). Scripture records many wives but never holds them up as a model. Every time, it brought trouble.
11:4 his heart was not complete with the LORD his God, like the heart of David his father It was a slow drift in old age. These are the very words Solomon used to charge the people (8:61). David sinned terribly, but he never worshiped idols, and he repented with a broken heart (Ps 51). Wisdom is not the same as obedience. Solomon wrote, "guard your heart" (Prov 4:23), and did not guard his own. "Let the one who thinks he stands watch, lest he fall" (1 Cor 10:12).
11:5 Ashtoreth the god of the Sidonians A Canaanite goddess of fertility and war, worshiped with immoral rites. The writer calls these gods what God calls them, detestable things.
11:6 Solomon did the evil in the eyes of the LORD That phrase will be repeated about king after king through the rest of Kings. Solomon was the first.
11:7 on the mountain which is east of Jerusalem The Mount of Olives, facing the temple across the Kidron Valley. Molech's worship included burning children in the fire (Lev 18:21; 2 Kgs 23:10). The text does not say Solomon offered his children, and we should not say so. But he built shrines for detestable gods within sight of the house of the LORD, and they stood about three hundred years until Josiah tore them down (2 Kgs 23:13).
11:8 thus he did for all his foreign wives He wanted to keep everyone happy. A man who tries to please everyone ends up displeasing God.

The LORD Is Angry with Solomon

9 And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned aside from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, 10 and had commanded him concerning this matter, not to walk after other gods; and he did not keep what the LORD had commanded. 11 And the LORD said to Solomon, "Because this has been with you, and you have not kept My covenant and My statutes which I commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant. 12 Only in your days I will not do it, for the sake of David your father; from the hand of your son I will tear it away. 13 Only I will not tear away all the kingdom; one tribe I will give to your son, for the sake of David My servant and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen."

Solomon's Adversaries

14 And the LORD raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the seed of the king in Edom. 15 And it was, when David was with Edom, when Joab (Yo'av) the commander of the army went up to bury the slain, and he struck down every male in Edom 16 (for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom), 17 and Hadad (Adad) fled, he and Edomite men of the servants of his father with him, to go to Egypt (Mitsrayim); and Hadad was a small youth. 18 And they arose from Midian (Midyan) and came to Paran, and they took men with them from Paran and came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he gave him a house, and food he assigned to him, and land he gave to him. 19 And Hadad found favor in the eyes of Pharaoh exceedingly, and he gave him a wife, the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes (Tachpenes) the queen. 20 And the sister of Tahpenes bore to him Genubath (Genuvat) his son, and Tahpenes weaned him in the midst of the house of Pharaoh; and Genubath was in the house of Pharaoh among the sons of Pharaoh. 21 And Hadad heard in Egypt that David had lain down with his fathers, and that Joab the commander of the army had died; and Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Send me away, that I may go to my land." 22 And Pharaoh said to him, "But what are you lacking with me, that look, you are seeking to go to your land?" And he said, "No, but you shall surely send me away." 23 And God raised up to him an adversary, Rezon the son of Eliada (Elyada), who had fled from Hadadezer the king of Zobah (Tsova), his lord. 24 And he gathered men to himself and became commander of a raiding band, when David killed them; and they went to Damascus (Dameseq) and dwelt in it and reigned in Damascus. 25 And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, along with the harm which Hadad did; and he loathed Israel and reigned over Syria (Aram).

Jeroboam and the Torn Cloak

26 And Jeroboam (Yaravam) the son of Nebat (Nevat), an Ephrathite from the Zeredah (Tsereda), and the name of his mother was Zeruah (Tseru'a), a widow woman, a servant of Solomon, and he raised a hand against the king. 27 And this is the matter for which he raised a hand against the king: Solomon built the Millo; he closed up the breach of the city of David his father. 28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor; and Solomon saw the young man, that he was doing work, and he appointed him over all the burden of the house of Joseph (Yosef). 29 And it was at that time, and Jeroboam went out from Jerusalem, and Ahijah (Achiya) the Shilonite, the prophet, found him on the road; and he was covering himself with a new cloak; and the two of them were alone in the field. 30 And Ahijah took hold of the new cloak which was on him, and tore it into twelve pieces. 31 And he said to Jeroboam, "Take for yourself ten pieces; for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Look, I am tearing the kingdom

11:9 who had appeared to him twice At Gibeon (3:5) and after the temple was built (9:2), and both times God warned him. No one could say Solomon did not know better. The more light we are given, the greater our responsibility (Luke 12:48).

11:12 for the sake of David your father Even in judgment there was mercy. God's covenant with David held when David's son broke faith. That is how the gospel works. God forgives us "on account of His name" (1 John 2:12), for the sake of His Son, not because we deserve it.

11:13 one tribe I will give to your son Judah was left to David's house. Little Benjamin, on Jerusalem's border, went with Judah (12:21), but seems to be counted with Judah and Jerusalem rather than as a separate gift. So the cloak is torn into twelve, with ten for Jeroboam (11:30-32).

11:14 the LORD raised up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite Adversary is the Hebrew word satan, here a human enemy. Solomon had told Hiram there was "no adversary" (5:4). Now God sent one.

11:15 he struck down every male in Edom When David defeated Edom (2 Sam 8:13-14), Joab struck the men of fighting age in the area he occupied. Scripture records it without praising it. God did not forget the boy who escaped, and He used him years later as a rod of discipline against David's son.

11:22 But what are you lacking with me Hadad had a comfortable life in Egypt but wanted his land back. Egypt sheltered both Hadad and later Jeroboam (11:40). Solomon married Pharaoh's daughter to secure Egypt as a friend, and Egypt became a refuge for his enemies. Alliances made apart from God often fail us when we need them.

11:24 they went to Damascus Rezon had served Hadadezer of Zobah, whom David defeated (2 Sam 8:3-8). Damascus became the capital of Aram, or Syria, a kingdom that troubled Israel for two hundred years. When God's people turn from Him, He sometimes lets trouble come to bring them back (Heb 12:6).

11:26 Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite Here meaning from the tribe of Ephraim. The third adversary came from inside.

11:28 over all the burden of the house of Joseph The house of Joseph is Ephraim and Manasseh, the heart of the northern tribes. Jeroboam ran their forced labor and saw how heavy Solomon's yoke had become, and the workers likely looked to him.

11:29 Ahijah the Shilonite, the prophet From Shiloh, where the tabernacle once stood.

11:30 tore it into twelve pieces Prophets sometimes acted out God's message. When Saul tore Samuel's robe, Samuel said the LORD had torn the kingdom from him (1 Sam 15:27-28). Now God tore Solomon's.

away from the hand of Solomon, and I will give to you the ten tribes. 32 And the one tribe shall be his, for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, 33 because they have forsaken Me and have bowed down to Ashtoreth the god of the Sidonians, to Chemosh the god of Moab, and to Milcom the god of the sons of Ammon, and they have not walked in My ways, to do what is right in My eyes, and My statutes and My judgments, like David his father. 34 And I will not take all the kingdom from his hand; for I will make him a leader all the days of his life, for the sake of David My servant whom I chose, who kept My commandments and My statutes. 35 And I will take the kingship from the hand of his son and give it to you, the ten tribes. 36 And to his son I will give one tribe, so that there may be a lamp for David My servant all the days before Me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen for Myself to put My name there. 37 And you I will take, and you shall reign over all that your soul desires, and you shall be king over Israel. 38 And it shall be, if you listen to all that I command you, and walk in My ways, and do what is right in My eyes, keeping My statutes and My commandments, just as David My servant did, then I will be with you and build for you an enduring house, just as I built for David, and I will give Israel to you. 39 And I will afflict the seed of David on account of this, yet not all the days.'" 40 And Solomon sought to put Jeroboam to death; and Jeroboam arose and fled to Egypt, to Shishak (Shishaq) king of Egypt, and he was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

The Death of Solomon

41 And the rest of the matters of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the matters of Solomon? 42 And the days that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel were forty years. 43 And Solomon lay down with his fathers and was buried in the city of David his father; and Rehoboam (Rechavam) his son reigned in his place.

Israel Rebels against Rehoboam

1 And Rehoboam (Rechavam) went to Shechem (Shekhem), for all Israel (Yisra'el) had come to Shechem to make him king. 2 And it was, when Jeroboam (Yaravam) the son of Nebat (Nevat) heard (and he was still in Egypt (Mitsrayim), where he had fled from before King Solomon (Shelomo), and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt), 3 and they sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came, and they spoke to Rehoboam, saying, 4 "Your father made our yoke hard; and you, now lighten some of the hard service of your father and of his heavy yoke which he put on us, and we will serve you." 5 And he said to them, "Go, yet three days, and return to me." And the people went. 6 And King Rehoboam consulted with the elders who had been standing before Solomon his father while he was alive, saying, "How do you counsel to bring back word to this people?" 7 And they spoke to him, saying, "If today you will be a servant to this people, and serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be servants to you all the days." 8 And he forsook the counsel of the elders which they had counseled him, and he consulted with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. 9 And he said to 11:33 they have forsaken Me "They" includes Solomon and the people who followed his example. A leader's sin rarely stays private.

11:36 so that there may be a lamp for David My servant all the days before Me in Jerusalem A lamp burning in a house was a sign the family still lived there. God promised David's line would never be snuffed out. It kept burning through good kings and bad, through exile and return, until the true Light came, Jesus, the Son of David (Matt 1:1; John 8:12).
11:38 build for you an enduring house, just as I built for David Jeroboam was given the same kind of promise David received, on condition of obedience. Chapter 12 shows what he did with it. He became the measure of an evil king for the rest of the book.
11:39 yet not all the days Full of hope. The division would not last forever. The prophets promised that Israel and Judah would be one nation again under one King, David's Son (Ezek 37:15-24). I believe that will be fulfilled when Christ reigns on the earth.
11:40 Solomon sought to put Jeroboam to death Saul tried to kill the man God chose to replace him, and now Solomon did the same. It never works to fight against God's word. Shishak is the first Pharaoh in the Bible named by his own name, known from Egyptian records as Shoshenq I. He invaded Judah five years after Solomon died (14:25-26).
11:41 the book of the matters of Solomon The writer used older royal records, since lost. Second Chronicles 9:29 names others: Nathan, Ahijah and Iddo the seer.
11:43 Solomon lay down with his fathers After forty years, about 970 to 930 B.C. Did he repent? Scripture does not say. Many believe he wrote Ecclesiastes late in life and came back to "fear God and keep His commandments" (Eccl 12:13). Others are less hopeful, and Nehemiah held him up as a warning (Neh 13:26). I leave it with God. What we know is that all his wisdom and privilege could not keep his heart. Only God's grace can (Phil 1:6).
12:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem An old and holy place in the north. Abraham built an altar there (Gen 12:6-7), and Joshua renewed the covenant there (Josh 24). Judah had already accepted Rehoboam. The northern tribes wanted to meet him on their own ground, as David had become king over the north by a covenant with its elders (2 Sam 5:3).
12:4 Your father made our yoke hard A yoke was the wooden beam laid on the necks of oxen. They meant the forced labor and taxes that paid for Solomon's building (4:7; 5:13-14). They were not asking to be free of a king, only for a lighter load. That was a fair request.
12:5 Go, yet three days, and return to me Taking time to think was wise. What he did with the three days was not.
12:7 If today you will be a servant to this people Serve them, and they will serve you. Jesus taught the same: whoever would be great must be a servant, for the Son of Man came to serve and give His life (Mark 10:42-45). Leadership in God's kingdom has always looked like a towel and a basin, not a whip (John 13:14-15).
12:8 the young men who had grown up with him Rehoboam was forty-one (14:21), so these were not boys. They were palace friends who had grown up in Solomon's wealth. He did not want counsel. He wanted agreement. "He who listens to counsel is wise" (Prov 12:15). Do we ever shop for advice until we find the answer we already wanted?

them, "What do you counsel, that we may bring back word to this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten some of the yoke which your father put on us'?" 10 And the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall say to this people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, and you, lighten it from on us'; thus you shall speak to them: 'My little finger is thicker than the loins of my father. 11 And now, my father loaded on you a heavy yoke, and I, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, and I, I will discipline you with scorpions.'" 12 And Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, just as the king had spoken, saying, "Return to me on the third day." 13 And the king answered the people harshly, and he forsook the counsel of the elders which they had counseled him; 14 and he spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, and I, I will add to your yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, and I, I will discipline you with scorpions." 15 And the king did not listen to the people, for it was a turn of events from the LORD, in order to establish His word which the LORD spoke by the hand of Ahijah (Achiya) the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. 16 And all Israel saw that the king had not listened to them; and the people brought back word to the king, saying, "What portion is there for us in David? And there is no inheritance in the son of Jesse (Yishay). To your tents, O Israel! Now see to your own house, O David!" And Israel went to its tents. 17 And the sons of Israel who were dwelling in the cities of Judah (Yehuda), Rehoboam reigned over them. 18 And King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the forced labor, and all Israel stoned him with stones, and he died. And King Rehoboam exerted himself to go up in the chariot to flee to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). 19 And Israel has rebelled against the house of David to this day. 20 And it was, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, and they sent and called him to the congregation and made him king over all Israel; there was none following the house of David except the tribe of Judah alone.

Shemaiah Stops the War

21 And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, and he assembled all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin (Binyamin), a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men, makers of war, to fight with the house of Israel, to bring back the kingship to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. 22 And the word of God came to Shemaiah (Shemaya) the man of God, saying, 23 "Say to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, the king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and the rest of the people, saying, 24 'Thus says the LORD: "You shall not go up, and you shall not fight with your brothers the sons of Israel. Return, each man to his house, for this thing has come from Me."'" And they listened to the word of the LORD and turned back to go, according to the word of the LORD.

Jeroboam's Golden Calves

25 And Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim (Efrayim) and dwelt in it; and he went out from there and built Penuel (Penu'el). 26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom will return to the house of David. 27 If this people goes up to make sacrifices in the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will return to their lord, to Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah." 28 And 12:11 I will discipline you with scorpions Likely a whip with sharp pieces of metal or bone tied in, one that stings and tears.

12:13 the king answered the people harshly One harsh speech cost him most of his kingdom.
12:15 it was a turn of events from the LORD God had said through Ahijah He would tear ten tribes away (11:29-39). Rehoboam made his own proud choice, and Scripture holds him responsible. Yet God was ruling over it to keep His word. Both are true at once. The king's heart is in the LORD's hand (Prov 21:1). God never makes anyone sin, but He is never caught off guard, and He works even foolish choices into His plan.
12:16 To your tents, O Israel Nearly the cry of Sheba son of Bichri in David's day (2 Sam 20:1). The old split between north and Judah had never healed, and Rehoboam's pride tore it open. From here on in Kings, Israel usually means the ten northern tribes, and Judah the southern kingdom of David's line.
12:18 Adoram, who was over the forced labor Of all the men he could send to make peace, he sent the man in charge of the very thing they were angry about (4:6).
12:19 to this day The writer was using a source written while the northern kingdom still stood. The split lasted until Assyria carried Israel away in 722 B.C. (2 Kgs 17).
12:20 made him king over all Israel Jeroboam reigned about 930 to 909 B.C. Benjamin went with Judah too (12:21), likely counted with Judah as the one tribe left for David's sake (11:13, 32).
12:21 a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men I take the number as written. Some scholars think the Hebrew word for thousand can mean a military unit or clan, which would make the army smaller.
12:22 Shemaiah the man of God A common title for a prophet in Kings, a man who speaks with God's authority.
12:24 you shall not fight with your brothers the sons of Israel Even divided, they were one family. Rehoboam listened, the best thing he did in this chapter. When God closes a door, the wise thing is to stop pushing on it. There would still be fighting (14:30), but a full civil war was stopped.
12:25 Jeroboam built Shechem To build here means to fortify and enlarge. Penuel was east of the Jordan, where Jacob wrestled with God (Gen 32:30-31). The capital later moved to Tirzah (14:17), and Omri built Samaria (16:24).
12:26 Jeroboam said in his heart Trouble starts inside. Every man was to go up to God's chosen place three times a year (Deut 16:16), and Jeroboam feared worship would pull hearts back to Judah. God had already promised him an enduring house if he obeyed (11:38). Fear of losing what God gave him led him to disobey the God who gave it. How often does fear make us grab for control instead of trusting God?
12:28 Look, your gods, O Israel, which brought you up from the land of Egypt Almost the words said of Aaron's golden calf (Exod 32:4, 8). Many teachers think Jeroboam meant the calves as a stand for the LORD, like the cherubim over the ark. But God forbade any image to worship Him by (Exod 20:4-5), and He counted it as idolatry (14:9). His reason sounded kind: it is too much for you. False worship often comes dressed as convenience.

the king took counsel and made two calves of gold, and he said to them, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Look, your gods, O Israel, which brought you up from the land of Egypt!" 29 And he set the one in Bethel (Bet-El), and the other he put in Dan. 30 And this thing became a sin; and the people went before the one as far as Dan. 31 And he made a house of high places, and he made priests from the ends of the people, who were not of the sons of Levi. 32 And Jeroboam made a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast which was in Judah, and he offered up on the altar. So he did in Bethel, to sacrifice to the calves which he had made; and he stationed in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made. 33 And he offered up on the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, in the month which he had devised from his own heart; and he made a feast for the sons of Israel, and he offered up on the altar to burn incense.

The Man of God from Judah

1 And look, a man of God came from Judah (Yehuda) by the word of the LORD to Bethel (Bet-El), and Jeroboam (Yaravam) was standing at the altar to burn incense. 2 And he called out against the altar by the word of the LORD, and he said, "Altar, altar, thus says the LORD: 'Look, a son is about to be born to the house of David, Josiah (Yoshiyahu) is his name; and he will sacrifice on you the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and bones of man they will burn on you.'" 3 And he gave a sign on that day, saying, "This is the sign which the LORD has spoken: look, the altar is about to be torn apart, and the ash which is on it will be poured out." 4 And it was, when the king heard the word of the man of God which he called out against the altar in Bethel, and Jeroboam stretched out his hand from beside the altar, saying, "Seize him!" And his hand which he had stretched out against him dried up, and he was not able to bring it back to himself. 5 And the altar was torn apart, and the ash was poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD. 6 And the king answered and said to the man of God, "Entreat, please, the face of the LORD your God, and pray for me, and may my hand come back to me." And the man of God entreated the face of the LORD, and the hand of the king came back to him, and it was as at the first. 7 And the king spoke to the man of God, "Come with me to the house and refresh yourself, and let me give you a gift." 8 And the man of God said to the king, "If you give me half of your house, I will not go in with you, and I will not eat bread, and I will not drink water in this place. 9 For thus He commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, 'You shall not eat bread, and you shall not drink water, and you shall not return by the way which you went.'" 10 And he went by another way, and he did not return by the way by which he had come to Bethel.

The Old Prophet of Bethel

11 And a certain old prophet was dwelling in Bethel; and his son came and recounted to him every deed which the man of God had done that day in Bethel; the words which he had spoken to the king, and they recounted them to their father. 12 And their father spoke to them, "Which is the way that he went?" And his sons had seen the way which the man of God who came from Judah had gone. 13 And he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." And they saddled the donkey for 12:29 the one in Bethel, and the other he put in Dan Bethel was near his southern border on the road to Jerusalem, where Jacob met God (Gen 28:19). Dan was in the far north.

12:30 this thing became a sin The sin the rest of Kings names again and again. Nearly every king of Israel walked "in the way of Jeroboam" (15:34), and not one ever tore these calves down.
12:31 he made priests from the ends of the people, who were not of the sons of Levi God gave the priesthood to Aaron's family in Levi (Num 3:5-10). The northern priests and Levites, and many faithful people, moved to Judah rather than serve at Jeroboam's altars (2 Chr 11:13-16). A high place was a hilltop shrine God told Israel to tear down (Deut 12:2-5).
12:32 in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast which was in Judah The Feast of Booths was on the fifteenth of the seventh month (Lev 23:33-34). Jeroboam moved it a month. It looked like the real thing, but it was his own.
12:33 in the month which he had devised from his own heart The heart of false religion: not what God said, but what we devised. Anytime we shape worship around what is easy, popular or useful instead of what God has said, we walk his road. True worshipers worship "in spirit and truth" (John 4:23).
13:1 a man of God came from Judah by the word of the LORD to Bethel Scripture does not give his name. He came at the very moment Jeroboam stood at his altar, probably at the feast he had just invented (12:33).
13:2 Josiah is his name One of the most remarkable prophecies in the Bible, naming a king about three hundred years before his birth. About 622 B.C. Josiah burned bones on this altar "according to the word of the LORD" (2 Kgs 23:16), defiling it forever. Some critical scholars think the name was added later. I take it as written. God, who knows the end from the beginning (Isa 46:10), also named Cyrus ahead of time (Isa 44:28; 45:1).
13:3 he gave a sign on that day A visible proof given right then, so people could know the far-off prophecy came from God.
13:4 his hand which he had stretched out against him dried up The king's arm froze, pointing at the prophet, and the altar he made with his own hands broke in front of him (13:5). God showed all Israel that this new worship had no power.
13:6 Entreat, please, the face of the LORD your God "Your God," not mine. Jeroboam wanted the healing without the repentance. The man of God did not gloat. He prayed for the king who tried to seize him (Matt 5:44). God's kindness was meant to lead Jeroboam to repentance (Rom 2:4), but it did not (13:33).
13:7 Come with me to the house and refresh yourself If force could not silence the prophet, maybe friendship would win him. A meal and a gift would make it look as if prophet and king were at peace.
13:9 You shall not eat bread, and you shall not drink water To eat with someone was to share fellowship. God had no fellowship with Bethel's false worship. The prophet was to come, speak and leave, sharing nothing with that place, not even going back over its ground.
13:11 a certain old prophet was dwelling in Bethel A real prophet (13:20), but he lived at the center of false worship, and we never hear that he spoke against it. Perhaps he had grown comfortable, or quiet.

him, and he rode on it. 14 And he went after the man of God and found him sitting under the oak; and he said to him, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" And he said, "I am." 15 And he said to him, "Come with me to the house and eat bread." 16 And he said, "I am not able to return with you and to go in with you, and I will not eat bread, and I will not drink water with you in this place. 17 For a word came to me by the word of the LORD: 'You shall not eat bread, and you shall not drink water there; you shall not return to go by the way by which you went.'" 18 And he said to him, "I also am a prophet like you, and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, 'Bring him back with you to your house, and let him eat bread and let him drink water.'" He lied to him. 19 And he went back with him, and he ate bread in his house and drank water. 20 And it was, as they were sitting at the table, and the word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back. 21 And he called out to the man of God who had come from Judah, saying, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because you have rebelled against the mouth of the LORD, and you have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you, 22 and you went back, and you ate bread and drank water in the place of which He said to you, "Do not eat bread, and do not drink water," your corpse shall not come to the grave of your fathers.'" 23 And it was, after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, and he saddled the donkey for him, for the prophet whom he had brought back. 24 And he went, and a lion met him on the way and killed him; and his corpse was thrown down on the way, and the donkey was standing beside it, and the lion was standing beside the corpse. 25 And look, men were passing by, and they saw the corpse thrown down on the way, and the lion standing beside the corpse; and they came and spoke of it in the city in which the old prophet was dwelling. 26 And the prophet who had brought him back from the way heard, and he said, "He is the man of God who rebelled against the mouth of the LORD; and the LORD has given him to the lion, and it has mauled him and killed him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke to him." 27 And he spoke to his sons, saying, "Saddle the donkey for me." And they saddled it. 28 And he went and found his corpse thrown down on the way, and the donkey and the lion standing beside the corpse; the lion had not eaten the corpse, and it had not mauled the donkey. 29 And the prophet picked up the corpse of the man of God, and he laid him on the donkey and brought him back; and he came to the city of the old prophet to mourn and to bury him. 30 And he laid his corpse in his own grave, and they mourned over him, "Alas, my brother!" 31 And it was, after he had buried him, and he said to his sons, saying, "At my death you shall bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried; beside his bones lay my bones. 32 For the word which he called out by the word of the LORD against the altar which is in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria (Shomron), shall surely come to pass."

Jeroboam Does Not Turn Back

33 After this thing Jeroboam did not turn back from his evil way, and he again made priests of the high places from the ends of the people; whoever desired, he filled his hand, and he became one of the priests of the high places. 34 And by this thing it became the sin of the house of Jeroboam, and to wipe it out and to destroy it from the face of the ground.

13:14 found him sitting under the oak That detail matters. The man of God was on his way but no longer hurrying out of the land.
13:16 I am not able to return with you He repeated God's command word for word. He knew exactly what God had said, which is what makes the next verses so serious.
13:18 He lied to him Scripture does not say why. Perhaps he wanted the honor of hosting the man of God, or wanted to show the stern word could be bent. He used an angel's authority to say what God had not said. The man of God took the easier word instead of holding to God's plain one. Paul says, "even if we, or an angel out of heaven" (Gal 1:8), preach another gospel, reject it. God does not contradict Himself. When a claimed word goes against what He has plainly said, we need not wonder which to follow (1 John 4:1).
13:21 Because you have rebelled against the mouth of the LORD The liar became the messenger of judgment. Being deceived did not excuse him, because he had God's plain word and set it aside. Not being buried with one's fathers was a sign of shame and judgment.
13:24 a lion met him on the way and killed him The hardest part of the story. A hungry lion does not stand guard beside a man and his donkey without eating either. It was a sign from God. Why so severe? This man was God's messenger, sent to announce judgment on Bethel for disobeying God's word, and his death made the message louder: God means what He says, even for His prophets. More is required of those given more (Luke 12:48; James 3:1). The liar must answer to God too (Gen 18:25). His death was judgment on his disobedience as a prophet, not a statement that he was lost. God may discipline His servants severely in this life and still welcome them home.
13:26 He is the man of God who rebelled against the mouth of the LORD He did not admit his own lie. Sin often finds it easy to name someone else's failure.
13:28 the lion had not eaten the corpse, and it had not mauled the donkey Said twice so we do not miss it. Judgment went exactly as far as God allowed, and not one step further.
13:30 Alas, my brother He lay in a stranger's tomb in Bethel, not in the grave of his fathers, as God said. The grief seems real. Perhaps the old prophet finally saw the weight of what he had done.
13:31 beside his bones lay my bones He now believed the message completely and wanted his bones spared. They were. Three hundred years later Josiah said, "Let him rest; let no man disturb his bones" (2 Kgs 23:18). God's word came true to the last detail.
13:32 the cities of Samaria The city of Samaria was not built until Omri (16:24). Either the old prophet spoke ahead of time by God's word, or the writer used the name his readers knew for the region.
13:33 Jeroboam did not turn back from his evil way He saw an altar split and his own hand wither and be healed, and still did not repent. To fill the hand was the Hebrew way of saying to ordain a priest. Anyone who wanted the job could have it.
13:34 to wipe it out and to destroy it from the face of the ground The calves did not save Jeroboam's dynasty. They destroyed it (14:10; 15:29). When God warns us, the right response is not to ask for the symptoms to go away, but to turn from our sin.

Ahijah's Word against Jeroboam

1 At that time Abijah (Aviya) the son of Jeroboam (Yaravam) became sick. 2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, "Arise, please, and disguise yourself, and they will not know that you are the wife of Jeroboam, and go to Shiloh (Shilo). Look, Ahijah (Achiya) the prophet is there; he spoke concerning me to be king over this people. 3 And take in your hand ten loaves of bread and cakes and a jar of honey, and go to him; he will tell you what will happen to the lad." 4 And the wife of Jeroboam did so; and she arose and went to Shiloh and came to the house of Ahijah. And Ahijah (Achiyahu) was not able to see, for his eyes were fixed because of his old age. 5 And the LORD had said to Ahijah, "Look, the wife of Jeroboam is coming to seek a word from you concerning her son, for he is sick. Thus and thus you shall speak to her. And it will be, when she comes in, and she will be making herself unknown." 6 And it was, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet coming in at the entrance, and he said, "Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why is this that you are making yourself unknown? And I am sent to you with hard news. 7 Go, say to Jeroboam, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel (Yisra'el): "Because I raised you up from the midst of the people, and I made you leader over My people Israel, 8 and I tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you, and you have not been like My servant David, who kept My commandments and who walked after Me with all his heart, to do only what was right in My eyes, 9 and you have done evil, acting more than all who were before you, and you have gone and made for yourself other gods and molten images to provoke Me to anger, and Me you have cast behind your back, 10 therefore, look, I am about to bring calamity on the house of Jeroboam, and I will cut off from Jeroboam every one who urinates against a wall, shut up and set free in Israel; and I will sweep away after the house of Jeroboam, as one sweeps away dung until it is finished. 11 The one who dies of Jeroboam in the city the dogs will eat, and the one who dies in the field the birds of the heavens will eat; for the LORD has spoken."' 12 And you, arise, go to your house; when your feet come into the city, and the lad will die. 13 And all Israel will mourn for him and bury him; for this one alone of Jeroboam will come into a grave, because something good toward the LORD, the God of Israel, was found in him in the house of Jeroboam. 14 And the LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel, who will cut off the house of Jeroboam this day; and what? Even now! 15 And the LORD will strike Israel, as the reed sways in the water, and He will pluck up Israel from this good ground which He gave to their fathers, and He will scatter them beyond the River (Nahar), because they have made their Asherim, provoking the LORD to anger. 16 And He will give up Israel on account of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned and which he caused Israel to sin." 17 And the wife of Jeroboam arose and went and came to Tirzah (Tirtsa); she was coming to the threshold of the house, and the lad died. 18 And they buried him, and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by the hand of His servant Ahijah the prophet. 19 And the rest of the matters of Jeroboam, how he waged war and how he reigned, look, they are written in the book of the matters of 14:1 Abijah the son of Jeroboam became sick His name means my father is the LORD, a name that says more about God than Jeroboam's calves did.

14:2 disguise yourself He did not want his people to know he was asking a true prophet of the LORD for help instead of his own priests, and perhaps he hoped for a kinder word. When trouble came, he knew where God's true word could be found. His calves could not answer him. The plain gift of bread and honey (14:3) fit the disguise.
14:4 his eyes were fixed because of his old age Jeroboam tried to hide his wife from a man who could not see anyway. But the LORD sees everything.
14:6 Why is this that you are making yourself unknown No disguise works with God. "There is no creature hidden before Him" (Heb 4:13). Jeroboam could hide neither his true worship nor his wife from God.
14:7 I raised you up from the midst of the people God reminded him of grace first. A widow's son and labor boss (11:26-28), everything Jeroboam had, God gave him.
14:8 You have not been like My servant David David sinned badly, but he never turned to idols, and he always came back to God with a broken heart.
14:9 Me you have cast behind your back One of the saddest lines in Kings. Whatever Jeroboam meant by the calves (12:28), God calls them "other gods." He was not just ignored but thrown over the shoulder like something worthless. How do we treat the God who gave us everything?
14:10 as one sweeps away dung until it is finished God used strong words because this was strong sin. "Shut up and set free" seems to mean everyone, slave or free. Baasha wiped out the family (15:29).
14:11 the dogs will eat To lie unburied was the greatest shame in the ancient world. The same words will be spoken over Baasha's house (16:4) and Ahab's (21:24). The kings kept walking in Jeroboam's sin and kept reaping Jeroboam's end.
14:13 because something good toward the LORD, the God of Israel, was found in him In a family that turned from God, one boy had a heart toward the LORD. Scripture does not say what it was, but God saw and honored it. I believe his death was mercy: the righteous are taken away from the evil to come (Isa 57:1-2), and to be with God is far better (Phil 1:23). A child can love the Lord when his parents do not. If you are the only believer in your family, God sees you.
14:14 the LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel That was Baasha (15:27-29). The judgment was already on its way.
14:15 He will scatter them beyond the River The Euphrates. This came true about two hundred years later, when Assyria took Samaria in 722 B.C. (2 Kgs 17:6, 23). An Asherah was a wooden pole or carved image for the Canaanite fertility goddess Asherah. Asherim is the plural. A reed swaying in the water pictures a nation bending with every wind.
14:16 which he caused Israel to sin A leader's sin rarely stays with him. Jeroboam made a nation sin.
14:17 came to Tirzah Jeroboam's royal city, a few miles northeast of Shechem. The boy died at the very moment, just as God said. That gives confidence that God's word about the rest of the family and the nation would come true too.
14:19 the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel An official court record of Israel's kings, now lost. It is not our books of Chronicles.

Rehoboam's Reign in Judah

21 And Rehoboam (Rechavam) the son of Solomon (Shelomo) reigned in Judah (Yehuda). Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim), the city which the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put His name there. And Abijam (Aviyam) his son reigned in his place.

Abijam King of Judah

1 And in the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam (Yaravam) the son of Nebat (Nevat), Abijam (Aviyam) became king over Judah (Yehuda). 2 Three years he reigned in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim); and the name of his mother was Maacah (Ma'akha) the daughter of Absalom (Avishalom). 3 And he walked in all the sins of his father which he had done before him; and his heart was not complete with the LORD his God, like the heart of David his father. 4 But for the sake of David the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, by raising up his son after him and by establishing Jerusalem, 5 because David had done what was right in the eyes of the LORD, and had not turned aside from all that He had commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriah (Uriya) the Hittite. 6 And war was between Rehoboam (Rechavam) and Jeroboam all the days of his life. 7 And the rest of the 14:20 twenty-two years About 930 to 909 B.C. The LORD struck him and he died (2 Chr 13:20). Nadab lasted two years (15:25-28).

14:21 the city which the LORD had chosen from all the tribes of Israel to put His name there Rehoboam reigned about 930 to 913 B.C. He had the temple, the priests and true worship in his capital, every advantage Jeroboam lacked.
14:21 Naamah the Ammonite Named twice in this chapter (14:31). She was one of Solomon's foreign wives, from the people who worshiped Milcom (11:1, 5). A mother's influence goes deep.
14:22 they provoked Him to jealousy God's jealousy is not petty envy. It is the holy love of a husband who will not share his wife with another (Exod 34:14).
14:23 high places and pillars and Asherim The pillars were standing stones set up in Canaanite worship, often as symbols of a god.
14:24 there was a male cult prostitute in the land Canaanite religion included sexual rites at its shrines, thought to bring fertility. God strictly forbade it (Deut 23:17), and He drove the nations out for these very sins (Lev 18:24-28). A building cannot keep a heart. Solomon built idol shrines beside the temple, and his son's generation followed.
14:25 Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem About 925 B.C. He is known as Shoshenq I, and a list on an Egyptian temple wall names towns he claimed in Judah and Israel. Second Chronicles 12:2-12 adds that it came because they forsook the LORD, and that when they humbled themselves God spared them from destruction.
14:26 all the shields of gold which Solomon had made A few decades after the queen of Sheba saw Solomon's glory, the gold was gone to Egypt (10:16-17).
14:27 King Rehoboam made in their place shields of bronze He kept up appearances. From far off, bronze shines a little like gold, but it is not gold. Churches and believers can lose God's glory and keep the procession going. God is not fooled by bronze. He calls us back to a heart truly given to Him (Rev 2:4-5).
14:30 war was between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days Shemaiah stopped a full war (12:24), but fighting went on along the border.
14:31 Rehoboam lay down with his fathers The Bible's gentle way of saying a king died. One king made new gods, and the other let the old idols in. Yet God kept His word in both kingdoms, His warnings to Jeroboam and His lamp for David.
15:1 Abijam became king over Judah About 913 to 910 B.C. Second Chronicles 13 calls him Abijah and tells of a battle where he spoke to Jeroboam's army about the LORD and won.
15:2 Maacah the daughter of Absalom In the Bible "daughter" can mean granddaughter. Second Chronicles 13:2 names her mother's father as Uriel of Gibeah, so many think she was Absalom's granddaughter through Tamar (2 Sam 14:27). Verse 10 calls her Asa's "mother," meaning his grandmother, who kept the title of queen mother.
15:3 his heart was not complete with the LORD his God The same words used of Solomon (11:4). A divided heart passed from father to son to grandson.
15:4 for the sake of David the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem Abijam did not deserve it. God kept His promise (11:36) because He keeps His word.
15:5 except in the matter of Uriah the Hittite David's adultery with Bathsheba and murder of her husband (2 Sam 11). Scripture does not hide it. But David repented and God forgave him (2 Sam 12:13; Ps 51). Our standing with God rests not on our record but on His covenant and the One He has chosen. For us that is David's greater Son, Jesus.
15:7 war was between Abijam and Jeroboam Three short years and a life that left the lamp burning but did little to brighten it.

Asa King of Judah

9 And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel (Yisra'el), Asa king of Judah became king. 10 And forty-one years he reigned in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Maacah the daughter of Absalom. 11 And Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, like David his father. 12 And he made the male cult prostitutes pass away from the land, and he removed all the idols which his fathers had made. 13 And also Maacah his mother, he removed her from being queen mother, because she had made a horrid image for the Asherah; and Asa cut down her horrid image and burned it in the wadi Kidron (Qidron). 14 And the high places were not removed; only the heart of Asa was complete with the LORD all his days. 15 And he brought the holy things of his father and the holy things of the house of the LORD: silver and gold and utensils. 16 And war was between Asa and Baasha (Basha) king of Israel all their days. 17 And Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and he built the Ramah (Rama), so as not to permit anyone going out or coming in to Asa king of Judah. 18 And Asa took all the silver and the gold which remained in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the house of the king, and he gave them into the hand of his servants; and King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad the son of Tabrimmon (Tavrimon), the son of Hezion (Chezyon), king of Syria (Aram), who dwelt in Damascus (Dameseq), saying, 19 "There is a covenant between me and you, between my father and your father. Look, I have sent you a gift of silver and gold. Go, break your covenant with Baasha king of Israel, and let him go up from me." 20 And Ben-hadad listened to King Asa, and he sent the commanders of the armies which he had against the cities of Israel; and he struck Ijon (Iyon) and Dan and Abel-beth-maacah (Avel-Bet-Ma'akha) and all Chinneroth (Kinerot), with all the land of Naphtali (Naftali). 21 And it was, when Baasha heard, and he ceased from building the Ramah, and he stayed in Tirzah (Tirtsa). 22 And King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah, none was exempt; and they carried away the stones of the Ramah and its timber with which Baasha had built; and King Asa built with them Geba (Geva) of Benjamin (Binyamin) and the Mizpah (Mitspa). 23 And the rest of all the matters of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? Only in the time of his old age he was sick in his feet. 24 And Asa lay down with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoshaphat (Yehoshafat) his son reigned in his place.

Nadab and Baasha Kings of Israel

25 And Nadab (Nadav) the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years. 26 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, and he walked in the way of his father and in his sin with which he caused Israel to sin. 27 And Baasha the son of Ahijah (Achiya), of the house of Issachar (Yisashkhar), conspired against him; and Baasha struck him down at Gibbethon (Gibbeton), which belonged to the Philistines; and Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon. 28 And 15:10 forty-one years About 910 to 869 B.C. Asa saw seven kings of Israel come and go. In Israel kings rose and fell in a few years. In Judah, David's line held steady.

15:11 Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, like David his father After two generations of drift, a king who turned back. He cleared out what Rehoboam allowed (14:24) and Abijam kept.
15:13 he removed her from being queen mother The queen mother had real power and honor. It is one thing to tear down a stranger's idol and another to confront your own family. Whoever loves father or mother more than Jesus is not worthy of Him (Matt 10:37). The Kidron is the valley just east of Jerusalem. Sometimes faithfulness costs us at home.
15:14 the high places were not removed Probably places where people worshiped the LORD in the wrong place and way, not outright idol shrines. They lingered until Hezekiah and Josiah (2 Kgs 18:4; 23:8). Yet God judged Asa's heart as wholly His. God does not demand that we be flawless before He calls our heart true.
15:15 silver and gold and utensils Asa restored the treasuries Shishak emptied (14:26), and soon gave them away again.
15:17 he built the Ramah Ramah was about five miles north of Jerusalem on the main road. Baasha was choking Judah's road north, probably to stop northerners moving south to worship in Jerusalem (2 Chr 15:9).
15:18 Ben-hadad the son of Tabrimmon King of Syria in Damascus. Asa paid him with the temple treasures to break his treaty with Israel.
15:19 Go, break your covenant with Baasha king of Israel It worked on the surface. But the seer Hanani rebuked Asa for relying on Syria and not on the LORD (2 Chr 16:7-9). Years before, Asa had trusted God against a huge army from Cush (2 Chr 14:9-12). A believer can trust God in one great crisis and reach for a worldly answer in the next. Asa used God's money to buy what God would have given for free. What do we reach for first when pressure comes?
15:20 all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali Towns in the far north around the Sea of Galilee, then called Chinnereth. Dan, where one of Jeroboam's calves stood, was among them.
15:22 Geba of Benjamin and the Mizpah Asa used Baasha's own stones and timber to build two forts that pushed his border north. Jeremiah 41:9 mentions a cistern Asa dug at Mizpah.
15:23 in the time of his old age he was sick in his feet Second Chronicles 16:12 adds that he sought the physicians and not the LORD. Seeing a doctor is not wrong. Asa's fault was leaving God out of it. A man who once cried out to God against a huge army spent his last years not seeking Him.
15:25 he reigned over Israel two years About 909 to 908 B.C. Hebrew writers often counted part of a year as a year, so two years can begin in Asa's second year and end in his third (15:28).
15:27 Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him Not Ahijah the prophet. Gibbethon was a town on the western edge of the land.

Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned in his place. 29 And it was, when he became king, he struck down all the house of Jeroboam; he did not leave to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed it, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by the hand of His servant Ahijah the Shilonite, 30 because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned and with which he caused Israel to sin, by his provocation with which he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger. 31 And the rest of the matters of Nadab and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? 32 And war was between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. 33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah became king over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty-four years. 34 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, and he walked in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin with which he caused Israel to sin.

Jehu's Word against Baasha

1 And the word of the LORD came to Jehu (Yehu) the son of Hanani (Chanani) against Baasha (Basha), saying, 2 "Because I raised you up from the dust and made you leader over My people Israel (Yisra'el), and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam (Yaravam) and have caused My people Israel to sin, to provoke Me to anger with their sins, 3 look, I am about to sweep away after Baasha and after his house, and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat (Nevat). 4 The one who dies of Baasha in the city the dogs will eat, and the one of his who dies in the field the birds of the heavens will eat." 5 And the rest of the matters of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? 6 And Baasha lay down with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah (Tirtsa); and Elah (Ela) his son reigned in his place. 7 And also by the hand of Jehu the son of Hanani the prophet the word of the LORD came against Baasha and against his house, because of all the evil which he had done in the eyes of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he struck it down.

Elah and Zimri

8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah (Yehuda), Elah the son of Baasha became king over Israel in Tirzah, two years. 9 And his servant Zimri, commander of half the chariotry, conspired against him; and he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza (Artsa), who was over the household in Tirzah. 10 And Zimri came in and struck him down and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned in his place. 11 And it was, when he became king, as soon as he sat on his throne, he struck down all the house of Baasha; he did not leave him one who urinates against a wall, either of his redeemers or of his friends. 12 And Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken against Baasha by the hand of Jehu the prophet, 13 because of all the sins of Baasha and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned and with which they caused Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. 14 And the rest of the matters of Elah and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? 15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. 15:29 he did not leave to Jeroboam any that breathed Ahijah's word (14:10-11) came true within about two years of Jeroboam's death. Jeroboam made the calves to protect his family's throne (12:26-27), and the calves cost his family the throne. Sin never delivers what it promises.
15:30 because of the sins of Jeroboam Baasha did what God foretold, but that did not make him godly. God used his ambition as a tool of judgment and later judged him too (16:7). Being used by God is not the same as walking with God.
15:34 he walked in the way of Jeroboam About 908 to 886 B.C. He destroyed Jeroboam's house for this very sin and then did the same thing himself. We can condemn someone's sin and fall into it (Rom 2:1).
16:1 Jehu the son of Hanani A prophet, not the later king Jehu. His father was the seer who rebuked Asa (2 Chr 16:7), and Jehu later rebuked Jehoshaphat (2 Chr 19:2).
16:2 I raised you up from the dust Baasha came from nothing, and God gave him the throne. God still calls them "My people." Even in their rebellion, they were His.
16:3 I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat The same words of dogs and birds spoken over Jeroboam's family (14:11). Baasha destroyed that house with his own sword and still did not learn.
16:7 and because he struck it down Why judge Baasha for doing what God foretold? God used him, but Baasha did it for his own ambition, then sat on the throne doing the very sins he punished. God judged his heart and motives. Hosea says the same of Jehu (Hos 1:4). Being an instrument of God's plan never excuses a wicked heart.
16:8 Elah the son of Baasha became king over Israel About 886 to 885 B.C.
16:9 drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza While his army besieged Gibbethon (16:15), the king was drunk at a party. A drunk king is a defenseless king. Wine is not for kings (Prov 31:4-5), and "do not be drunk with wine" (Eph 5:18). A man who loses control of himself cannot guard anything else.
16:11 either of his redeemers or of his friends A redeemer here is a close relative whose duty was to protect the family or avenge a death (Num 35:19). Zimri left no one to avenge Elah.
16:13 with their vanities Empty, worthless things, here the idols. The Hebrew word is hevel, breath or vapor, the word Ecclesiastes uses for life without God. Idols are nothing but air.
16:15 Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah About 885 B.C., the shortest reign in Israel's history.
16:16 all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel Zimri was a chariot officer. Omri was the general, and the army followed its general.

And all Israel made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel on that day in the camp. 17 And Omri went up, and all Israel with him, from Gibbethon, and they laid siege to Tirzah. 18 And it was, when Zimri saw that the city was captured, and he went into the citadel of the house of the king, and he burned the house of the king over himself with fire, and he died, 19 because of his sins which he sinned, in doing the evil in the eyes of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to cause Israel to sin. 20 And the rest of the matters of Zimri, and his conspiracy which he conspired, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel?

Omri King of Israel

21 Then the people, Israel, were divided into halves: half of the people were after Tibni (Tivni) the son of Ginath (Ginat), to make him king, and half were after Omri. 22 And the people who were after Omri prevailed over the people who were after Tibni the son of Ginath; and Tibni died, and Omri became king. 23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel, twelve years; in Tirzah he reigned six years. 24 And he bought the hill Samaria (Shomron) from Shemer for approximately 150 pounds (two talents) of silver; and he built on the hill, and he called the name of the city which he built after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill, Samaria. 25 And Omri did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, and he did more evil than all who were before him. 26 And he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat and in his sin with which he caused Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. 27 And the rest of the matters of Omri which he did, and his might which he did, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? 28 And Omri lay down with his fathers and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab (Achav) his son reigned in his place.

Ahab and Jezebel

29 And Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah; and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years. 30 And Ahab the son of Omri did the evil in the eyes of the LORD more than all who were before him. 31 And it was, was it a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat? And he took as a wife Jezebel (Izevel) the daughter of Ethbaal (Etba'al) king of the Sidonians, and he went and served the Baal and bowed down to him. 32 And he set up an altar for the Baal in the house of the Baal which he built in Samaria. 33 And Ahab made the Asherah; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him. 34 In his days Hiel (Chi'el) the Bethelite built Jericho (Yericho); with Abiram (Aviram) his firstborn he laid its foundation, and with Segub (Seguv) his youngest he set up its gates, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by the hand of Joshua (Yehoshua) the son of Nun.

16:18 he burned the house of the king over himself with fire He took his own life in the palace he had seized a week earlier.
16:19 in walking in the way of Jeroboam In seven days Zimri had already shown which way he would walk. It does not take long to show what is in a heart. His name became a byword (2 Kgs 9:31).
16:21 the people, Israel, were divided into halves A split within the split. Comparing verses 15 and 23, this civil war lasted about four or five years. Scripture does not say how Tibni died.
16:23 in the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel, twelve years Likely when he became sole king. The twelve years count from his start in Asa's twenty-seventh year, about 885 to 874 B.C.
16:24 he bought the hill Samaria from Shemer For about 150 pounds of silver. Samaria sat on a high, steep hill on a main trade road, easy to defend. It stayed Israel's capital until 722 B.C., and in time the whole region took its name. The Moabite Stone speaks of Omri ruling Moab, and Assyrian records called Israel the house of Omri long after. But the Bible gives him a few verses. God does not measure a king by his buildings or his fame.
16:25 he did more evil than all who were before him Beyond the sins of Jeroboam, the writer does not say what. Micah 6:16 speaks of the statutes of Omri to Israel's shame. What will be said of our lives when the summary is written? Not how much we built, but whether we did right in the eyes of the LORD.
16:29 twenty-two years About 874 to 853 B.C. The rest of 1 Kings is mostly the story of his reign and of the prophet God sent to confront him.
16:30 more than all who were before him Each king went a step lower. Jeroboam made calves, Omri did more evil, and Ahab more still.
16:31 Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians Ethbaal ruled Tyre and Sidon, and his name means with Baal. The marriage was political, but it brought into Israel a strong-willed woman fully devoted to Baal who tried to wipe out the worship of the LORD (18:4). Her name became a byword for false teaching (Rev 2:20).
16:31 served the Baal and bowed down to him Baal was the chief god of the Canaanites and Phoenicians, a storm god believed to send rain and make the land fruitful. The word means lord or master. Jeroboam's calves corrupted the LORD's worship. Ahab brought in another god and built him a temple in the capital.
16:33 Ahab made the Asherah The wooden pole or image of the goddess thought to be Baal's partner. The question of the next chapters is who is God in Israel, and who sends the rain. God is about to answer, beginning with a drought.
16:34 according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by the hand of Joshua the son of Nun Joshua cursed anyone who would rebuild Jericho as a fortified city (Josh 6:26). The text does not say how Hiel's sons died. Some think by God's hand as the work went on, others that Hiel offered them as foundation sacrifices, a pagan practice of the time. Scripture does not say. In a land that forgot God's word, it still stood after five centuries.

Elijah Announces a Drought

1 And Elijah (Eliyahu) the Tishbite, from the sojourners of Gilead (Gilad), said to Ahab (Achav), "As the LORD, the God of Israel (Yisra'el), lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew and rain these years, except according to my word." 2 And the word of the LORD came to him, saying, 3 "Go from here and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the wadi Cherith (Kerit), which is east of the Jordan (Yarden). 4 And it shall be that you shall drink from the wadi, and I have commanded the ravens to provide for you there." 5 And he went and did according to the word of the LORD; and he went and dwelt by the wadi Cherith, which is east of the Jordan. 6 And the ravens were bringing him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and from the wadi he drank. 7 And it was, at the end of days, and the wadi dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

The Widow of Zarephath

8 And the word of the LORD came to him, saying, 9 "Arise, go to Zarephath (Tsarfat), which belongs to Sidon (Tsidon), and dwell there. Look, I have commanded a widow woman there to provide for you." 10 And he arose and went to Zarephath, and he came to the entrance of the city; and look, there was a widow woman gathering sticks. And he called out to her and said, "Please get me a little water in the vessel, that I may drink." 11 And she went to get it, and he called out to her and said, "Please get me a piece of bread in your hand." 12 And she said, "As the LORD your God lives, I have no cake, except the fullness of a palm of flour in the jar and a little oil in the jug; and look, I am gathering two sticks, and I will go in and prepare it for myself and for my son, and we will eat it, and we will die." 13 And Elijah said to her, "Do not fear; go, do according to your word; only make me a small cake from it first, and bring it out to me; and for yourself and for your son you shall make some afterward. 14 For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'The jar of flour shall not be used up, and the jug of oil shall not be lacking, until the day that the LORD gives rain on the face of the ground.'" 15 And she went and did according to the word of Elijah; and she ate, she and he and her household, many days. 16 The jar of flour was not used up, and the jug of oil was not lacking, according to the word of the LORD which He spoke by the hand of Elijah.

Elijah Raises the Widow's Son

17 And it was, after these things, the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became sick; and his sickness was very severe, until there was no breath left in him. 18 And she said to Elijah, "What is there to me and to you, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my iniquity to remembrance and to put my son to death!" 19 And he said to her, "Give me your son." And he took him from her bosom and carried him up to

17:19 Acts 9:37; 2 Kgs 4:10,21,32

17:1 Elijah the Tishbite, from the sojourners of Gilead He simply appears, with no family line or call story. His name means my God is the LORD, a challenge to a king who had made Baal his god. Tishbe was in Gilead, the rough hill country east of the Jordan.
17:1 As the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand Baal was believed to die and come back each year with the seasons. The LORD lives. Elijah stood before God like a servant ready before his master, not before Ahab.
17:1 there shall not be dew and rain these years, except according to my word God warned that if Israel turned to other gods He would shut the heavens (Deut 11:16-17; 28:23-24). Baal was the storm god who supposedly sent rain, so God struck him at the very point of his claim. Elijah did not control the weather. He prayed God's warning back to Him (James 5:17), and "the prayer of a righteous man, being at work, prevails much" (James 5:16).
17:3 hide yourself by the wadi Cherith A wadi is a stream bed that runs in the rainy season and dries out in the dry season. Ahab would search every nation for him (18:10). The drought of rain came with a drought of the word.
17:4 I have commanded the ravens to provide for you there Ravens were unclean birds (Lev 11:15), known for taking food, not giving it. God commanded the most unlikely helpers. Notice "there." God's provision was at the place of His direction.
17:6 bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening The pattern of manna in the morning and quail in the evening (Exod 16:8, 12-13). God was teaching Elijah to live day by day on His supply (Matt 6:11).
17:7 the wadi dried up, because there had been no rain in the land The prophet who prayed for the drought felt it himself. God's servants are not always spared hardships that fall on everyone. When one supply dries up, God already has the next one ready. Sometimes He lets the brook dry up because He wants to move us.
17:9 Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon A coastal town between Tyre and Sidon, Jezebel's homeland and the heart of Baal worship. God hid Elijah in the enemy's own country.
17:9 I have commanded a widow woman there to provide for you A widow was usually among the poorest of the poor. God chose the weakest person in the land to feed His prophet (1 Cor 1:27).
17:12 we will eat it, and we will die A woman at the end of herself. She said "the LORD your God," knowing his God's name. Whether she yet trusted Him, we are not told, but verse 24 shows her faith grew.
17:13 Do not fear The word God speaks over and over to people at their weakest. Make me one first sounds hard until we hear the promise. Elijah was asking her to put God first and trust His word. "Seek first the kingdom of God" (Matt 6:33).
17:15 she went and did according to the word of Elijah A pagan widow in Baal's country obeyed the LORD's word, while Israel would not. God did not fill her pantry. He gave enough for one more day, and then another. He often provides for today, not next year, so that we keep trusting Him.
17:16 the jar of flour was not used up Jesus brought up this widow at Nazareth: many widows were in Israel, "and to none of them was Elijah sent" (Luke 4:26), except a Gentile widow. They tried to throw Him off a cliff (Luke 4:28-29). God's grace has always reached beyond Israel to anyone who will believe.
17:17 there was no breath left in him The boy died. The woman, Elijah and the whole story treat him as dead, and so do I.
17:18 You have come to me to bring my iniquity to remembrance Like many grieving people, she thought her son's death was God punishing a past sin. Jesus spoke against that kind of thinking (John 9:2-3). Not every sorrow is a punishment, and God was about to show her mercy.

the upper room where he was dwelling, and he laid him on his own bed. 20 And he called out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, have You also brought harm on the widow with whom I am sojourning, by putting her son to death?" 21 And he stretched himself over the lad three times, and he called out to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, please let the soul of this lad return into his inward parts." 22 And the LORD listened to the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the lad returned into his inward parts, and he lived. 23 And Elijah took the lad and brought him down from the upper room into the house, and he gave him to his mother; and Elijah said, "See, your son is alive." 24 And the woman said to Elijah, "Now this I know, that you are a man of God, and the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth."

Elijah and Obadiah

1 And it was after many days, and the word of the LORD came to Elijah (Eliyahu) in the third year, saying, "Go, present yourself to Ahab (Achav), and let Me give rain on the face of the ground." 2 And Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. And the famine was severe in Samaria (Shomron). 3 And Ahab summoned Obadiah (Ovadyahu), who was over the household. And Obadiah was fearing the LORD greatly; 4 and it was, when Jezebel (Izevel) cut off the prophets of the LORD, and Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them, fifty men in the cave, and provided them with bread and water. 5 And Ahab said to Obadiah, "Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the wadis; perhaps we will find grass and keep horse and mule alive, and we will not cut off any of the livestock." 6 And they divided the land between them to pass through it; Ahab went by one way by himself, and Obadiah went by another way by himself. 7 And Obadiah was on the way, and look, Elijah came to meet him; and he recognized him, and he fell on his face and said, "Is this you, my lord Elijah?" 8 And he said to him, "I am. Go, say to your lord, 'Look, Elijah is here.'" 9 And he said, "What have I sinned, that you are giving your servant into the hand of Ahab, to put me to death? 10 As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my lord has not sent to seek you; and they said, 'He is not here,' and he made the kingdom and the nation swear that it had not found you. 11 And now you are saying, 'Go, say to your lord, "Look, Elijah is here."' 12 And it will be, I will go from you, and the Spirit of the LORD will carry you to where I do not know; and I will come to tell Ahab, and he will not find you, and he will kill me. And your servant has been fearing the LORD from my youth. 13 Has it not been told to my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, and I hid a hundred men of the prophets of the LORD, fifty by fifty men in the cave, and I provided them with bread and water? 14 And now you are saying, 'Go, say to your lord, "Look, Elijah is here"'; and he will kill me." 15 And Elijah said, "As the LORD of armies lives, before whom I stand, surely today I will present myself to him." 16 And Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

Elijah Meets Ahab

17 And it was, when Ahab saw Elijah, and Ahab said to him, "Is this you, troubler of Israel (Yisra'el)?" 18 And he said, "I have not troubled Israel, but you and the house of your

17:20 have You also brought harm on the widow Elijah did not understand either, and he brought his confusion straight to God. Prayer can be that honest.
17:21 he stretched himself over the lad three times Scripture does not explain why. Elisha later does something similar (2 Kgs 4:34). The soul here is nephesh, the life or living self. Elijah asked God to give the boy his life back.
17:22 the soul of the lad returned into his inward parts, and he lived The first time in the Bible a dead person is brought back to life. Elisha (2 Kgs 4:32-37) and Jesus (Luke 7:11-15) would do the same, and by faith women "received their dead by resurrection" (Heb 11:35). These people later died again, but they pointed ahead to Jesus, who rose never to die again (Rom 6:9), and to the resurrection of all who are His (1 Cor 15:20-23).
17:23 See, your son is alive At Nain Jesus "gave him to his mother" (Luke 7:15), just as Elijah did here.
17:24 the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth The resurrection settled her faith. Baal was said to die each year and need bringing back. The LORD brought back her son. No rain, the ravens, the flour: God's word came true each time. "Your word is truth" (John 17:17). We can stake our lives on it, one day at a time.
18:1 in the third year Luke and James say the drought lasted three years and six months (Luke 4:25; James 5:17). "The third year" likely counts from Elijah's move to Zarephath, or from his word to Ahab after the normal dry months had begun. God chose to send the rain after His prophet confronted the king and the people turned back.
18:3 Obadiah was fearing the LORD greatly His name means servant of the LORD. Feeding a hundred hidden prophets in a famine, under the nose of the queen who wanted them dead, was costly and dangerous (18:4). He is a picture of a believer serving God faithfully in a hard place. God has His people in every kind of place, even in Ahab's house.
18:5 perhaps we will find grass and keep horse and mule alive His people were starving and God's prophets hunted, and the king was looking for grass for his horses.
18:8 Go, say to your lord Elijah gently reminded Obadiah whose servant he was in the palace. Elijah's Lord was the LORD.
18:12 the Spirit of the LORD will carry you to where I do not know Elijah had a way of disappearing, and Obadiah feared he would pay with his life. He was a real believer, brave in secret but afraid of being exposed. Many of us are like him. God did not scold his fear. He gave him a promise.
18:15 As the LORD of armies lives, before whom I stand Sometimes translated LORD of hosts, a title for God as commander of all the armies of heaven. Elijah stood before Him, so he did not fear Ahab.
18:17 troubler of Israel To Ahab, Elijah was the problem.
18:18 I have not troubled Israel, but you and the house of your father People blame the messenger for trouble that comes from their own sin. Ahab wanted rain without repentance. The man who tells the truth about sin is not the troubler. The sin is. "The Baals" means the many local forms of Baal worship.

father, in that you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and you have walked after the Baals. 19 And now send, gather to me all Israel to the mountain of Carmel (Karmel), and the prophets of the Baal, four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the Asherah, four hundred, who eat at the table of Jezebel."

Fire on Mount Carmel

20 And Ahab sent among all the sons of Israel, and he gathered the prophets to the mountain of Carmel. 21 And Elijah drew near to all the people and said, "How long will you be limping on the two crutches? If the LORD is the God, walk after Him; and if the Baal, walk after him." And the people did not answer him a word. 22 And Elijah said to the people, "I, I alone am left a prophet of the LORD; and the prophets of the Baal are four hundred and fifty men. 23 And let them give us two young bulls, and let them choose for themselves the one young bull, and let them cut it in pieces and put it on the wood, and they shall not set fire; and I will prepare the other young bull and put it on the wood, and I will not set fire. 24 And you shall call on the name of your god, and I, I will call on the name of the LORD; and it shall be that the god who answers by fire, he is the God." And all the people answered and said, "The word is good." 25 And Elijah said to the prophets of the Baal, "Choose for yourselves the one young bull and prepare it first, for you are the many; and call on the name of your god, and do not set fire." 26 And they took the young bull which he gave them, and they prepared it, and they called on the name of the Baal from the morning until noon, saying, "O Baal, answer us!" And there was no voice, and there was no one answering. And they limped around the altar which he had made. 27 And it was, at noon, and Elijah mocked them and said, "Call out with a great voice, for he is a god; for he is musing, and he has gone aside, and he is on a journey; perhaps he is sleeping, and let him awake." 28 And they called out with a great voice, and they cut themselves according to their custom with swords and with lances, until blood poured out over them. 29 And it was, when noon passed, and they prophesied until the offering up of the grain offering; and there was no voice, and there was no one answering, and there was no attention. 30 And Elijah said to all the people, "Draw near to me." And all the people drew near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD which had been torn down. 31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob (Ya'aqov), to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, "Israel shall be your name." 32 And he built the stones into an altar in the name of the LORD; and he made a trench like a container of approximately 14 quarts (two seahs) of seed around the altar. 33 And he arranged the wood, and he cut the young bull in pieces, and he put it on the wood. And he said, "Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood." 34 And he said, "Do it a second time." And they did it a second time. And he said, "Do it a third time." And they did it a third time. 35 And the water went around the altar; and also he filled the trench with water. 36 And it was, at the offering up of the grain offering, and Elijah the prophet drew near and said, "O LORD, God of Abraham (Avraham), Isaac (Yitschaq), and Israel, today let it be known that You are God in Israel, and I am Your servant, and at Your word I have done all these things. 37 Answer me, O LORD, answer me, that this people may know that You, O LORD, are the God, and You have turned their heart back."

18:19 Gather to me all Israel to the mountain of Carmel A mountain ridge running inland from near modern Haifa, close to Jezebel's homeland and a place where Baal was worshiped. Elijah met Baal on his own ground. The prophets of Asherah are not mentioned again. Perhaps they did not come.
18:21 How long will you be limping on the two crutches Hobbling between two supports, never standing firm on either. They had not given up the LORD. They added Baal, to be safe. Their silence said they knew the answer but did not want to commit. "No one is able to serve two masters" (Matt 6:24). God does not accept half a heart.
18:22 I, I alone am left a prophet of the LORD Obadiah's hundred were in hiding. Elijah was the only one standing in the open.
18:24 the god who answers by fire, he is the God Baal was supposed to be the god of storm and lightning. Surely he could send fire. The people would not answer Elijah's call to choose, but they were glad to watch a contest.
18:25 for you are the many Elijah gave them every advantage: first choice of bull, first turn and the most people.
18:26 they limped around the altar which he had made The same word as in verse 21, a kind of ritual dance around the altar. "There was no voice."
18:27 Elijah mocked them At noon, when a sun or storm god should be strongest. "Gone aside" may be a polite way of saying he went to relieve himself. Elijah exposed the foolishness of idolatry before the nation, as Isaiah did (Isa 44:15-17). His words were meant to show that Baal was nothing.
18:28 they cut themselves according to their custom The Law forbade this (Lev 19:28; Deut 14:1). False religion often demands that people hurt themselves to get a god's attention. The true God gave His own blood for us.
18:29 there was no voice, and there was no one answering, and there was no attention They raved until the time of the evening sacrifice, mid-afternoon. Three times the writer says it. Baal did not answer, because Baal was not there.
18:30 he repaired the altar of the LORD which had been torn down Israel had torn down the LORD's altars (19:10). Before God's fire falls, true worship must be restored.
18:31 twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob The kingdom was divided, but in God's eyes there were still twelve tribes, one people, all belonging to the LORD (Gen 35:10).
18:34 Do it a second time Twelve jars of water in a drought, perhaps from the sea nearby or a spring that had not dried. Elijah made it humanly impossible. God sometimes waits until every human way out is closed, so no one can doubt who did it.
18:36 O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel After a day of shouting and dancing, a prayer you can say in less than a minute. He called on the God of the covenant and asked that the LORD be known as God, and all this as done at His word.
18:37 You have turned their heart back Elijah's deepest desire was not to win. It was for God's people to come back to God. That is the heart of every true servant of God.

38 And the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering and the wood and the stones and the dust, and the water which was in the trench it licked up. 39 And all the people saw, and they fell on their faces and said, "The LORD, He is the God! The LORD, He is the God!" 40 And Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of the Baal; let not one of them escape." And they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the wadi Kishon (Qishon) and slaughtered them there.

Elijah Prays for Rain

41 And Elijah said to Ahab, "Go up, eat and drink, for there is the sound of the roar of the rain." 42 And Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of the Carmel, and he crouched to the ground and put his face between his knees. 43 And he said to his servant, "Go up, please, look toward the sea." And he went up and looked, and he said, "There is nothing." And he said, "Go back," seven times. 44 And it was, at the seventh time, and he said, "Look, a small cloud like the palm of a man is coming up from the sea." And he said, "Go up, say to Ahab, 'Harness and go down, and the rain will not hold you back.'" 45 And it was, in a little while, and the heavens grew dark with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode and went to Jezreel (Yizre'el). 46 And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah, and he girded up his loins and ran before Ahab until you come to Jezreel.

Elijah Flees from Jezebel

1 And Ahab (Achav) told Jezebel (Izevel) all that Elijah (Eliyahu) had done, and all how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. 2 And Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "Thus may the gods do, and thus may they add, for about this time tomorrow I will make your life like the life of one of them." 3 And he saw, and he arose and went for his life, and he came to Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva), which belongs to Judah (Yehuda), and he left his servant there. 4 And he himself went into the wilderness a day's journey, and he came and sat under a certain broom tree; and he asked for himself to die, and he said, "It is enough now, O LORD; take my life, for I am not better than my fathers." 5 And he lay down and slept under a certain broom tree; and look, here was an angel touching him, and he said to him, "Arise, eat." 6 And he looked, and look, at his head was a cake baked on hot coals and a jug of water; and he ate and drank, and he lay down again. 7 And the angel of the LORD came back a second time and touched him and said, "Arise, eat, for the journey is too great for you." 8 And he arose and ate and drank, and he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb (Chorev).

18:38 the fire of the LORD fell The wood, the stones, the dirt and the water, nothing was left. God's fire had fallen when tabernacle worship began (Lev 9:24) and at the temple's dedication (2 Chr 7:1).
18:39 The LORD, He is the God At last they answered, saying what Elijah's name means. Do we need fire from heaven to believe? God has given greater proof by raising His Son from the dead (Acts 17:31). If the LORD is God, follow Him.
18:40 Elijah brought them down to the wadi Kishon and slaughtered them there A hard verse. Israel was a nation in covenant with God, and its Law said a prophet who led the people to other gods was to die (Deut 13:1-5; 17:2-5). These men served a queen who murdered the LORD's prophets (18:4, 13). It was a judgment under Israel's covenant, not private revenge. It is not a pattern for us. "My kingdom is not of this world" (John 18:36). Jesus rebuked James and John for wanting to call down fire (Luke 9:54-55). We fight false teaching with truth and prayer, and love those who oppose us (2 Cor 10:4; Matt 5:44). No one may use this verse to justify harming anyone over religion.
18:41 there is the sound of the roar of the rain Not a cloud in the sky, but Elijah heard it by faith in God's promise (18:1).
18:42 put his face between his knees Humble, earnest prayer. God had promised the rain, and Elijah still prayed seven times. God's promises do not make prayer unnecessary. They give us reason to pray with confidence (James 5:18).
18:44 a small cloud like the palm of a man To Elijah, that was enough. The drought ended, and God showed that He, not Baal, sends the rain.
18:46 he girded up his loins and ran before Ahab Tucking the long robe into the belt to run. God gave him strength to outrun the chariot about seventeen miles to Jezreel, like a herald before a king, as if to say the king could still return to the LORD. But the next chapter shows that even after a great victory, God's servants are still human.

19:1 all how he had killed all the prophets with the sword Not that the fire fell or that the people confessed the LORD. Only what Elijah had done and the deaths of her prophets.
19:2 Thus may the gods do, and thus may they add A curse-oath: may the gods punish me if I do not kill you. Some hearts do not soften even before fire from heaven. Why send a messenger and not soldiers? Perhaps she wanted to frighten him away and break the movement Carmel had started. If so, it worked.
19:3 he arose and went for his life The man who faced 450 prophets ran from one woman's threat, to Beersheba at the far southern edge of the land, out of Ahab's kingdom.
19:4 he asked for himself to die Great spiritual highs are often followed by deep lows. Elijah was worn out, alone, and felt like a failure because the queen was still on her throne. "Elijah was a man of like nature to us" (James 5:17). Feeling this low does not mean you have no faith. Elijah took his pain to God and said it honestly. If you feel this way, God has not left you. Tell someone you trust, and if you are thinking of ending your life, reach out for help today. A broom tree is a desert shrub that gives a little shade.
19:5 Arise, eat God did not give him a lecture. He let him sleep, and then He fed him with fresh bread warm from the coals.
19:7 the angel of the LORD came back a second time A special messenger who often speaks as the LORD Himself. Many teachers believe this was the Son of God appearing before His birth. God knew the journey was too much for Elijah. Sometimes the most spiritual thing you can do is eat a meal and sleep. "He remembers that we are dust" (Ps 103:14).
19:8 forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb Horeb is Mount Sinai, where God gave the Law. Moses was there forty days and nights (Exod 24:18), and Jesus fasted forty days in the wilderness (Matt 4:2). Elijah went back to where it all began.

The LORD Speaks at Horeb

9 And he came there into the cave and spent the night there; and look, the word of the LORD came to him, and He said to him, "What is there for you here, Elijah?" 10 And he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of armies; for the sons of Israel (Yisra'el) have forsaken Your covenant, Your altars they have torn down, and Your prophets they have killed with the sword; and I, I alone am left, and they have sought my life, to take it." 11 And He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD." And look, the LORD was passing by, and a great and strong wind was tearing the mountains and breaking the rocks before the LORD; the LORD was not in the wind. And after the wind an earthquake; the LORD was not in the earthquake. 12 And after the earthquake a fire; the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire a sound of a thin silence. 13 And it was, when Elijah heard, and he wrapped his face in his cloak and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. And look, a voice came to him, and it said, "What is there for you here, Elijah?" 14 And he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD, the God of armies; for the sons of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, Your altars they have torn down, and Your prophets they have killed with the sword; and I, I alone am left, and they have sought my life, to take it." 15 And the LORD said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus (Dameseq); and you shall come and anoint Hazael (Chaza'el) as king over Syria (Aram). 16 And Jehu (Yehu) the son of Nimshi you shall anoint as king over Israel; and Elisha the son of Shaphat (Shafat) from Abel-meholah (Avel-Mechola) you shall anoint as prophet in your place. 17 And it shall be that the one who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu will put to death; and the one who escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will put to death. 18 And I will leave in Israel seven thousand, all the knees which have not bowed to the Baal, and every mouth which has not kissed him."

The Call of Elisha

19 And he went from there and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, and he was plowing, twelve pairs of oxen before him, and he was with the twelfth. And Elijah passed over to him and threw his cloak on him. 20 And he left the oxen and ran after Elijah and said, "Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and I will walk after you." And he said to him, "Go, return, for what have I done to you?" 21 And he returned from following him, and he took the pair of oxen and sacrificed it, and with the equipment of the oxen he cooked them, the flesh, and he gave it to the people, and they ate. And he arose and walked after Elijah and served him.

army, and thirty-two kings were with him, and horse and chariotry; and he went up and laid siege against Samaria (Shomron), and he fought against it. 2 And he sent messengers to Ahab (Achav), the king of Israel (Yisra'el), into the city, and he said to him, "Thus says Ben-hadad: 3 'Your silver and your gold, it is mine; and your wives and your sons, the good ones, they are mine.'" 4 And the king of Israel answered and said, "According to your word, my lord the king: I am

19:9 What is there for you here, Elijah "The cave" may be the very cleft where God hid Moses as His glory passed (Exod 33:21-23). God asked, as He asked Adam, "Where are you?" (Gen 3:9), not because He did not know, but to help Elijah see his own heart.
19:10 I, I alone am left He had been zealous, and Israel had broken the covenant. But he was not alone (18:13). Discouragement often tells the truth about our pain and lies about our situation. It makes us feel more alone than we are.
19:11 the LORD was not in the wind God passed by as He passed by Moses here (Exod 34:5-6). Wind, earthquake and fire were signs of His power, as at Sinai (Exod 19:18) and on Carmel. But this time He was not in them.
19:12 a sound of a thin silence Often called the still small voice. The Hebrew suggests a soft whisper, a gentle stillness. I believe God was showing Elijah that His work is not always done in fire. The fire had not changed Jezebel's heart. God often works quietly, in hearts, over time, through His word, and He met His worn-out servant gently. "My sheep hear My voice" (John 10:27). Are we quiet enough to hear?
19:13 he wrapped his face in his cloak In awe, as Moses hid his face at the burning bush (Exod 3:6). Elijah gave the same answer word for word. God did not argue. He gave a new assignment and a new perspective.
19:15 Go, return on your way When we are discouraged, God often gives not a long explanation but the next step of obedience. To anoint meant to pour oil as a sign of God's choice for a task.
19:16 Elisha the son of Shaphat from Abel-meholah you shall anoint as prophet in your place Elijah himself anointed only Elisha (19:19). Elisha told Hazael he would be king (2 Kgs 8:7-15), and one of Elisha's young prophets anointed Jehu (2 Kgs 9:1-10). God's plan was bigger than one prophet.
19:17 the one who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu will put to death Elijah thought Jezebel had won. God told him the end of her house was already planned.
19:18 I will leave in Israel seven thousand To kiss an idol was worship (Hos 13:2). God had a remnant, a faithful few kept by His grace. Paul points to this verse: "there has come to be a remnant according to the election of grace" (Rom 11:5). God has not given up on Israel, and one day "all Israel will be saved" (Rom 11:26). When you feel like the only one standing for the Lord, you are not.
19:19 he was plowing, twelve pairs of oxen before him A well-off farming family. Elisha was at an ordinary job when God called him, like Peter and Andrew fishing. The prophet's cloak was a sign of his office. Throwing it on Elisha said, you will take my place.
19:20 Go, return, for what have I done to you Elijah seems to mean: go say your goodbyes, but think about what I have done. The call is from God, and the choice to answer is yours.
19:21 he took the pair of oxen and sacrificed it He burned his plow and yoke for firewood and fed his people. There was no going back. "No one having put his hand on the plow and looking at the things behind is fit for the kingdom of God" (Luke 9:62). The man who would do great miracles began as a servant, and God answered Elijah's loneliness with a friend.
20:1 thirty-two kings were with him Likely rulers of small city-states and tribes under Damascus. This is probably Ben-hadad II, the son or grandson of the Ben-hadad Asa paid (15:18), though some think it is the same man.
20:4 I am yours, and all that is mine Ahab gave in completely. He may have taken it as a formal way of agreeing to become a servant and pay tribute.

yours, and all that is mine." 5 And the messengers returned and said, "Thus says Ben-hadad, saying, 'Indeed I sent to you, saying, "Your silver and your gold and your wives and your sons you will give to me." 6 But about this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you, and they will search your house and the houses of your servants; and it will be, every desirable thing of your eyes they will put in their hand, and they will take it.'" 7 And the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and he said, "Know, please, and see that this one is seeking evil; for he sent to me for my wives and for my sons and for my silver and for my gold, and I did not withhold them from him." 8 And all the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen, and do not consent." 9 And he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, "Say to my lord the king, 'All that you sent to your servant for at the first I will do; and this thing I am not able to do.'" And the messengers went and brought him back word. 10 And Ben-hadad sent to him and said, "Thus may the gods do to me, and thus may they add, if the dust of Samaria will suffice for handfuls for all the people who are at my feet!" 11 And the king of Israel answered and said, "Speak: 'Let not one girding on boast like one loosening.'" 12 And it was, when he heard this word, and he was drinking, he and the kings, in the booths, and he said to his servants, "Set yourselves!" And they set themselves against the city. 13 And look, a certain prophet drew near to Ahab the king of Israel and said, "Thus says the LORD: 'Have you seen all this great multitude? Look, I am about to give it into your hand today, and you will know that I am the LORD.'" 14 And Ahab said, "By whom?" And he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'By the young men of the officials of the provinces.'" And he said, "Who will begin the battle?" And he said, "You." 15 And he mustered the young men of the officials of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he mustered all the people, all the sons of Israel, seven thousand. 16 And they went out at noon. And Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the booths, he and the kings, thirty-two kings helping him. 17 And the young men of the officials of the provinces went out at the first. And Ben-hadad sent, and they told him, saying, "Men have come out from Samaria." 18 And he said, "If they have come out for peace, seize them alive; and if they have come out for battle, alive seize them." 19 And these went out from the city, the young men of the officials of the provinces, and the army which was after them. 20 And they struck down each his man; and Syria fled, and Israel pursued them; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse, and horsemen with him. 21 And the king of Israel went out and struck down the horses and the chariotry, and he struck down among Syria a great slaughter.

The Battle at Aphek

22 And the prophet drew near to the king of Israel and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself, and know and see what you will do; for at the return of the year the king of Syria is coming up against you." 23 And the servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Gods of mountains are their gods; therefore they were stronger than we. But let us fight with them on the plain; surely we will be stronger than they. 24 And do this thing: remove the kings, each from his place, and put governors in their place. 25 And you, you shall muster for yourself an army like the army that fell from you, and horse like the horse, and chariotry like the chariotry; and let us fight with them on the plain; surely we will be stronger than they." And he listened to their voice and did so. 26 And it was at the return of the year, and Ben-hadad mustered Syria and went up to Aphek (Afeq) for battle with Israel. 27 And the sons of Israel were mustered and were provisioned, and they went to meet them. And the sons of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of goats, and Syria filled the land. 28 And the man of God drew near and said to the king of Israel, and he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because Syria has said, "The LORD is a god of mountains, and He is not a god of valleys," I will give all this great multitude into your hand, and you will know that I am the LORD.'" 29 And these 20:6 every desirable thing of your eyes they will put in their hand Not just tribute, but open plunder. Bullies are rarely satisfied. Give in once, and they ask for more. Sin works the same way. It never stops at what it first asks.

20:10 if the dust of Samaria will suffice for handfuls for all the people who are at my feet His army was so big there would not be enough dust for each soldier to carry off a handful.
20:11 Let not one girding on boast like one loosening The man putting on his armor should not brag like the man taking it off after he has won. Do not count your victory before it happens.
20:13 you will know that I am the LORD Surprising grace to the worst king Israel had seen. God was showing His glory and giving Ahab another chance to know Him after Carmel and the rain. He is "not wishing any to perish, but all to come to repentance" (2 Pet 3:9).
20:14 By the young men of the officials of the provinces Young aides serving the district governors, not the main army. God chose a small, unlikely force so the victory would clearly be His.
20:15 seven thousand God had just told Elijah of seven thousand faithful (19:18). Whether these numbers are connected, Scripture does not say.
20:16 Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the booths Booths were temporary shelters in the camp. Pride and drunkenness are a dangerous mix. He boasted of Samaria's dust and ended up running for his life (20:20).
20:22 at the return of the year Kings went to war in the spring, after the rains (2 Sam 11:1). God warned Ahab ahead of time.
20:23 Gods of mountains are their gods People thought each god ruled a certain area. On flat ground, where chariots were strong, they expected to win. Sound military advice, built on a false idea of God.
20:27 like two little flocks of goats Israel looked tiny and weak. Aphek was likely east of the Sea of Galilee, on open ground.
20:28 He is not a god of valleys The Syrians insulted God by making Him small, and He would show He was LORD of every place. "The earth is the LORD's, and its fullness" (1 Cor 10:26). There is no valley in our lives where God is not God.

encamped opposite these seven days. And it was on the seventh day, and the battle drew near; and the sons of Israel struck down Syria, one hundred thousand foot soldiers in one day. 30 And the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men who remained. And Ben-hadad fled and went into the city, a room within a room. 31 And his servants said to him, "Look, please, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel, that they are kings of steadfast love. Please let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes on our heads, and let us go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will keep your soul alive." 32 And they girded sackcloth on their loins and ropes on their heads, and they came to the king of Israel and said, "Your servant Ben-hadad says, 'Please let my soul live.'" And he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother." 33 And the men were watching for an omen, and they hastened and caught it, whether it was from him, and they said, "Your brother Ben-hadad!" And he said, "Go, take him." And Ben-hadad came out to him, and he brought him up on the chariot. 34 And he said to him, "The cities which my father took from your father I will return; and you will make streets for yourself in Damascus (Dameseq), just as my father made in Samaria." "And I, with the covenant, will let you go." And he made a covenant with him and let him go.

A Prophet Condemns Ahab

35 And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his companion by the word of the LORD, "Strike me, please." And the man refused to strike him. 36 And he said to him, "Because you have not listened to the voice of the LORD, look, you are about to go from me, and the lion will strike you down." And he went from beside him, and the lion found him and struck him down. 37 And he found another man and said, "Strike me, please." And the man struck him, striking and wounding. 38 And the prophet went and stood for the king by the way, and he disguised himself with the bandage over his eyes. 39 And the king was passing by, and he cried out to the king and said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and look, a man turned aside and brought a man to me and said, 'Guard this man. If he is indeed missing, then your life will be in place of his life, or you will weigh out approximately 75 pounds (a talent) of silver.' 40 And your servant was doing things here and there, and he was not there." And the king of Israel said to him, "So is your judgment; you yourself have decided it." 41 And he hastened and removed the bandage from over his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him, that he was one of the prophets. 42 And he said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because you have let go from your hand the man devoted by Me to destruction, your life will be in place of his life, and your people in place of his people.'" 43 And the king of Israel went to his house sullen and furious, and he came to Samaria.

Naboth's Vineyard

1 And it was after these things: a vineyard belonged to Naboth (Navot) the Jezreelite, which was in Jezreel (Yizre'el), beside the palace of Ahab (Achav), the king of Samaria (Shomron). 2 And Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard, and let it be mine for a garden of vegetables, for it is near beside my house; and I will give you in place of it a vineyard better than it. If it is good in your eyes, I will give you silver, the price of this one." 3 And Naboth said to Ahab, "Far be it from me, from the LORD, that I should give 20:30 the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men I take the numbers as written. Some scholars read the word for thousand here as a unit of soldiers. Either way, it was a crushing defeat from God's hand, with a wall falling as at Jericho. "A room within a room" means an inner chamber where Ben-hadad hid.

20:31 the kings of the house of Israel, that they are kings of steadfast love Hesed, loyal covenant kindness. Sackcloth and ropes on the head were signs of humble surrender.
20:32 He is my brother The word kings used for an equal treaty partner. The servants "were watching for an omen" (20:33) and seized on it.
20:34 I, with the covenant, will let you go Mercy can be good. But God gave this enemy into Ahab's hand twice, and Ahab made his own deal for trade and politics without asking God. Many think he wanted Ben-hadad as an ally against Assyria. Assyrian records say that in 853 B.C. Ahab joined Damascus at the battle of Qarqar against Shalmaneser III. Ahab trusted a treaty more than the God who had given him two victories.
20:35 a certain man of the sons of the prophets Groups of prophets who lived and learned together, often under a leader like Elijah or Elisha.
20:36 Because you have not listened to the voice of the LORD This echoes chapter 13. A man who knew he was hearing God's word set it aside, and a lion was the result. When God has spoken, our own ideas of what is kind or reasonable do not outrank His word. "To listen is better than sacrifice" (1 Sam 15:22). It sets up the word to Ahab, who also would not obey.
20:39 your life will be in place of his life Or a talent of silver, about seventy-five pounds, a huge sum. The same method Nathan used with David (2 Sam 12:1-7): let the king judge the story, then show him he is the man.
20:40 your servant was doing things here and there The prisoner got away while he was busy. Ahab judged at once, "you yourself have decided it."
20:42 the man devoted by Me to destruction This translates herem, something given over completely to God for judgment. Ahab let Ben-hadad go for a trade deal, as Saul spared Agag (1 Sam 15). His life would be required (chapter 22), and the Syrians he spared would bring terrible suffering on Israel (2 Kgs 6-10).
20:43 sullen and furious Angry, but not sorry. He resented God's word instead of repenting. The same words come in the next chapter, over a vineyard.
21:1 beside the palace of Ahab Ahab's capital was Samaria, but he also had a palace at Jezreel, in the fertile valley about twenty-five miles north.
21:2 I will give you in place of it a vineyard better than it It sounded like a fair offer: a better vineyard or a fair price.
21:3 that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you Why refuse a good deal? God gave each family its share of the land, and it was to stay in the family (Lev 25:23; Num 36:7). Naboth was not stubborn. He was faithful, and he would rather keep God's law than please the king.

the inheritance of my fathers to you." 4 And Ahab came to his house sullen and furious on account of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him, and he said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." And he lay down on his bed, and he turned away his face, and he did not eat bread. 5 And Jezebel (Izevel) his wife came to him and spoke to him, "Why is this, that your spirit is sullen and you are not eating bread?" 6 And he spoke to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for silver; or if you desire it, I will give you a vineyard in place of it.' And he said, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'" 7 And Jezebel his wife said to him, "You, now, do you exercise kingship over Israel (Yisra'el)? Arise, eat bread, and let your heart be glad. I myself will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite." 8 And she wrote letters in the name of Ahab, and she sealed them with his seal, and she sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, who dwelt with Naboth. 9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, "Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth at the head of the people. 10 And seat two men, sons of worthlessness, before him, and let them testify against him, saying, 'You have cursed God and the king.' And take him out and stone him, and let him die." 11 And the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who dwelt in his city, did just as Jezebel had sent to them, just as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them. 12 They proclaimed a fast and seated Naboth at the head of the people. 13 And the two men, sons of worthlessness, came and sat before him; and the men of worthlessness testified against him, against Naboth, before the people, saying, "Naboth has cursed God and the king." And they took him outside the city, and they stoned him with stones, and he died. 14 And they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned, and he has died." 15 And it was, when Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and had died, and Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for silver; for Naboth is not alive, for he has died." 16 And it was, when Ahab heard that Naboth had died, and Ahab arose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.

Elijah's Word against Ahab

17 And the word of the LORD came to Elijah (Eliyahu) the Tishbite, saying, 18 "Arise, go down to meet Ahab the king of Israel, who is in Samaria. Look, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it. 19 And you will speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "Have you murdered, and also taken possession?"' And you will speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "In the place where the dogs licked up the blood of Naboth, the dogs will lick up your blood, even yours."'" 20 And Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, O my enemy?" And he said, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do the evil in the eyes of the LORD. 21 Look, I am about to bring evil to you, and I will sweep away after you, and I will cut off from Ahab every one who urinates against a wall, and the one shut up and the one left free in Israel. 22 And I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam (Yaravam) the son of Nebat (Nevat), and like the house of Baasha (Basha) the son of Ahijah (Achiya), because of the provocation with which you have provoked Me to anger, and you have caused Israel to 21:4 Ahab came to his house sullen and furious The very words of 20:43, now over a garden. The king with palaces and a house of ivory (22:39) lay on his bed and pouted because one farmer would not sell. That is what coveting does (Exod 20:17). It makes rich men feel poor. Jesus warned, "guard yourselves from covetousness" (Luke 12:15), and James says wanting what we lack leads even to murder (James 4:2).

21:7 do you exercise kingship over Israel In Sidon kings took what they wanted. Jezebel did not understand, or care, that in Israel even the king was under God's law (Deut 17:18-20). Ahab had told her the refusal but not Naboth's reason.

21:8 she sealed them with his seal The royal seal made an order official. Ahab let her use it, or at least did not stop her. The elders and nobles were Naboth's neighbors, the men who should have judged fairly at the gate.

21:10 two men, sons of worthlessness Wicked, lawless men. A fast was called when some great sin had come on a town, and seating Naboth at the front marked him as the cause. The Law required two witnesses for a death sentence (Deut 17:6), and cursing God was punished by stoning (Lev 24:16). She used God's own law as a weapon. Every outward form was kept, and justice was murdered. Evil is never more dangerous than when it wears religious clothes.

21:11 did just as Jezebel had sent to them Not one refused or warned Naboth. Their silence made them partners in murder.

21:13 they took him outside the city, and they stoned him with stones, and he died His sons were killed too, so no heir was left (2 Kgs 9:26). An innocent, faithful man was killed by the powerful through lying witnesses in God's name. It brings to mind Jesus, against whom at last "two false witnesses" (Matt 26:60) came, who suffered outside the city (Heb 13:12), and Stephen (Acts 7:58). Naboth was not Christ, but God saw every one of them. If you have suffered injustice from those with power over you, God sees, and He will set things right (Rom 12:19). If you know someone being hurt this way, do what the elders of Jezreel did not. Speak up and help them get help.

21:16 Ahab arose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth He did not ask how Naboth died. He did not want to know. He threw no stone, but he wanted the vineyard, let Jezebel use his seal and took the profit. God held him responsible.

21:18 Arise, go down to meet Ahab the king of Israel No one in Jezreel spoke up for Naboth. God did.

21:19 Have you murdered, and also taken possession Two sins, and God named both. The dogs that licked Naboth's blood would lick Ahab's. "Whatever a man sows, this he will also reap" (Gal 6:7).

21:20 Have you found me, O my enemy First the troubler of Israel (18:17), now his enemy. A man who hates God sees God's messengers as enemies.

21:20 you have sold yourself to do the evil To sell yourself is to give yourself over as a slave. Ahab sold himself to sin for a vegetable garden (Mark 8:36).

21:22 like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha Both dynasties had been wiped out, and now Ahab's would be. "Every one who urinates against a wall" (21:21) is the blunt Hebrew for every male, as in 14:10.

sin. 23 And also of Jezebel the LORD has spoken, saying, 'The dogs will devour Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel.' 24 The one of Ahab who dies in the city the dogs will devour, and the one who dies in the field the birds of the heavens will devour." 25 Surely there was not one like Ahab, who sold himself to do the evil in the eyes of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife incited. 26 And he acted very abominably, walking after the idols, according to all that the Amorites had done, whom the LORD dispossessed from before the sons of Israel. 27 And it was, when Ahab heard these words, and he tore his clothes and put sackcloth on his flesh, and he fasted, and he lay down in the sackcloth, and he went about softly. 28 And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 29 "Have you seen that Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he has humbled himself before Me, I will not bring the evil in his days; in the days of his son I will bring the evil on his house."

Ahab and Jehoshaphat Seek Counsel

1 And they remained three years; there was no war between Syria (Aram) and Israel (Yisra'el). 2 And it was in the third year, and Jehoshaphat (Yehoshafat) the king of Judah (Yehuda) went down to the king of Israel. 3 And the king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that Ramoth-gilead (Ramot-Gilad) belongs to us, and we are keeping still from taking it from the hand of the king of Syria?" 4 And he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to battle at Ramoth-gilead?" And they said, "Go up, and the Lord will give it into the hand of the king." 7 And Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not here a prophet of the LORD still, that we may inquire of him?" 8 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man by whom to inquire of the LORD, and I, I hate him, for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil: Micaiah (Mikhayhu) the son of Imlah (Yimla)." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say so." 9 And the king of Israel called a certain officer and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imlah quickly." 10 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting, each on his throne, clothed in garments, at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria (Shomron); and all the prophets were prophesying before them. 11 And Zedekiah (Tsidqiya) the son of Chenaanah (Kena'ana) made for himself horns of iron, and he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'With these you will gore Syria until you destroy them.'" 12 And all the prophets were prophesying so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-gilead and succeed, and the LORD will give it into the hand of the king."

21:23 The dogs will devour Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel The rampart was the city wall. More than ten years later it came true to the letter, and Jehu said so (2 Kgs 9:30-37).
21:25 whom Jezebel his wife incited She stirred him up, but he chose it. Her sin did not excuse his.
21:26 according to all that the Amorites had done Among the nations God drove out for their wickedness (Gen 15:16). Ahab brought their sins back into the land.
21:27 he went about softly Torn clothes and sackcloth, a rough cloth of goat's hair, were signs of grief and repentance. Was it real? In the next chapter he still hates God's prophet, and Scripture does not say he tore down Baal's temple or gave back the vineyard. I think his humbling was real but not deep or lasting.
21:29 Because he has humbled himself before Me Amazing grace. God noticed even the imperfect humbling of a very wicked man. Ahab's own judgment still came (22:38), but the fall of his house waited until Joram (2 Kgs 9:24-26), who did evil himself (2 Kgs 3:1-3). God delayed judgment. He did not punish an innocent man. "I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked man" (Ezek 33:11). No one is too far gone to humble himself before God. But do not stop where Ahab stopped. True repentance turns from sin to God and trusts the One who took the judgment for us (James 4:10).
22:1 there was no war between Syria and Israel Likely the years Ahab and Ben-hadad stood together against Assyria (20:34).
22:2 Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went down to the king of Israel The long war between the kingdoms had ended. Jehoshaphat allied himself by marriage to Ahab (2 Chr 18:1), and his son married Ahab's daughter Athaliah (2 Kgs 8:18, 26), a marriage that would bring terrible trouble to Judah.
22:3 Ramoth-gilead belongs to us An important fortified city east of the Jordan. Ben-hadad seems never to have given it back as promised (20:34). The king Ahab spared was his problem again.
22:4 As I am, so are you A generous answer, but a godly king tying himself to an ungodly one. The prophet Jehu later rebuked him: "will you love those who hate the LORD?" (2 Chr 19:2).
22:5 Inquire, please, today for the word of the LORD He should have asked before he promised, but at least he asked.
22:6 about four hundred men Not Baal's prophets, who died at the Kishon. These spoke in the LORD's name, probably attached to Jeroboam's shrines and the court. Four hundred voices agreeing with the king did not sound like God to Jehoshaphat.
22:8 I, I hate him, for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil An honest confession of a dishonest heart. Ahab hated Micaiah not for lying but for telling the truth. People "will heap up teachers for themselves" (2 Tim 4:3) who say what they want to hear.
22:10 at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria A wide, flat open space, good for a large gathering. The scene was set for a show, the two kings in their royal robes.
22:11 horns of iron Horns pictured strength, like a bull goring its enemy. Zedekiah used the LORD's name, had a dramatic sign and four hundred agreeing with him, and he was wrong. A message is not true because it is loud, popular or uses God's name.

the word of one of them, and speak good." 14 And Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, surely what the LORD says to me, that I will speak." 15 And he came to the king, and the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we refrain?" And he said to him, "Go up and succeed, and the LORD will give it into the hand of the king." 16 And the king said to him, "Up to how many times will I make you swear that you will not speak to me anything but truth in the name of the LORD?" 17 And he said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains like the flock which has no shepherd. And the LORD said, 'These have no masters; let them return each to his house in peace.'" 18 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not say to you, 'He does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil'?" 19 And he said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of the heavens standing by Him, on His right and on His left. 20 And the LORD said, 'Who will entice Ahab (Achav), that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead?' And this one said thus, and this one was saying thus. 21 And the spirit came forth and stood before the LORD and said, 'I, I will entice him.' 22 And the LORD said to him, 'By what?' And he said, 'I will go out, and I will be a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all his prophets.' And He said, 'You will entice, and also you will prevail. Go out and do so.' 23 And now, look, the LORD has put a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all these your prophets; and the LORD has spoken evil concerning you." 24 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah drew near and struck Micaiah on the cheek and said, "Which way did the Spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak with you?" 25 And Micaiah said, "Look, you are about to see on that day, when you go into a room within a room to hide yourself." 26 And the king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and bring him back to Amon the official of the city and to Joash (Yo'ash) the son of the king, 27 and you will say, 'Thus says the king: "Put this one in the house of confinement, and feed him bread of oppression and water of oppression until I come in peace."'" 28 And Micaiah said, "If you indeed return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." And he said, "Hear, O peoples, all of them!"

The Death of Ahab

29 And the king of Israel went up, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, to Ramoth-gilead. 30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself and go into the battle; and you, put on your garments." And the king of Israel disguised himself and went into the battle. 31 And the king of Syria had commanded the commanders of the chariotry which belonged to him, thirty-two, saying, "Do not fight with small or with great, but with the king of Israel, him alone." 32 And it was, when the commanders of the chariotry saw Jehoshaphat, and they said, "Surely he is the king of Israel." And they turned aside against him to fight, and Jehoshaphat cried out. 33 And it was, when the commanders of the chariotry saw that he was not the king of Israel, and they turned back from after him. 34 And a man drew the bow in his innocence and struck the king of Israel between the joints and the body armor. And he said to his charioteer, "Turn your hand and take me out of the camp, for I am wounded."

22:14 surely what the LORD says to me, that I will speak A word every preacher and believer should remember. He would not shape the message to please anyone. "If I were still pleasing men, I would not be a slave of Christ" (Gal 1:10).

22:15 Go up and succeed Nearly the words of the four hundred, but his tone must have shown he was mocking them, for Ahab knew at once he did not mean it.

22:17 like the flock which has no shepherd A king is often called the shepherd of his people. Ahab would die, and the army would come home without him. Moses prayed against this (Num 27:17). Jesus had compassion on crowds "like sheep not having a shepherd" (Matt 9:36). Ahab led his sheep to ruin. The Good Shepherd gave His life for His (John 10:11).

22:19 I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of the heavens standing by Him The host of heaven here means the angels. Isaiah (Isa 6:1-3) and Daniel (Dan 7:9-10) also saw the LORD enthroned among heavenly beings.

22:22 I will be a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all his prophets A hard passage. God "cannot lie" (Titus 1:2) and tempts no one (James 1:13). Ahab had already chosen falsehood, and God gave him over to what he chose. Because people "did not receive the love of the truth" (2 Thess 2:10), God gives them up to the lie (Rom 1:24). God did not do the lying. He permitted a spirit and used it for His just sentence, as He permitted Satan to test Job (Job 1:6-12).

22:23 the LORD has put a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all these your prophets God told Ahab exactly what was happening, exposed the lying prophets and warned him. Even in judgment God gave him one last chance, and he chose the lie. Many take the vision as a real look into heaven's throne room with an evil spirit permitted to deceive, some think Satan himself as in Job 1, and others see a picture in the form of a heavenly council. Either way, God rules over all, God does not lie, and those who refuse the truth are given over to the lie they love.

22:24 struck Micaiah on the cheek Micaiah did not strike back. Jesus too was struck at His trial (John 18:22-23). Faithful servants of God have often been treated this way.

22:25 when you go into a room within a room to hide yourself When defeat came, Zedekiah would hide like Ben-hadad (20:30) and know who had spoken the truth.

22:27 bread of oppression and water of oppression Prison and barely enough to stay alive.

22:28 If you indeed return in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me The test of the Law (Deut 18:21-22), and Micaiah staked his life on it. "Hear, O peoples" opens the book of Micah too (Mic 1:2). We never hear of Micaiah again, but his word came true.

22:30 I will disguise myself and go into the battle He partly believed Micaiah and tried to dodge God's word, while his ally rode in royal robes. Why Jehoshaphat went, Scripture does not say. It nearly cost him his life.

22:32 Jehoshaphat cried out And the LORD helped him (2 Chr 18:31). God protected the king of Judah even in the wrong place.

22:34 a man drew the bow in his innocence Shot at random, it found the one small gap in the armor of the one man God had marked. No disguise could hide Ahab from God. "From the LORD is its every judgment" (Prov 16:33). There is no such thing as chance when God has spoken.

35 And the battle increased on that day, and the king was made to stand in the chariot opposite Syria; and he died in the evening, and the blood of the wound flowed into the bottom of the chariot. 36 And the cry passed through the camp as the sun went down, saying, "Each to his city, and each to his land!" 37 And the king died, and he came to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria. 38 And one washed the chariot at the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood, and the prostitutes bathed, according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken. 39 And the rest of the matters of Ahab, and all that he did, and the house of ivory which he built, and all the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? 40 And Ahab lay down with his fathers, and Ahaziah (Achazyahu) his son reigned in his place.

Jehoshaphat King of Judah

41 And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa became king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab the king of Israel. 42 Jehoshaphat was a son of thirty-five years when he became king, and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim); and the name of his mother was Azubah (Azuva) the daughter of Shilhi (Shilchi). 43 And he walked in all the way of Asa his father; he did not turn aside from it, doing what is right in the eyes of the LORD. Only the high places were not removed; the people were still sacrificing and making offerings smoke on the high places. 44 And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel. 45 And the rest of the matters of Jehoshaphat, and his might which he showed, and how he waged war, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? 46 And the rest of the male cult prostitutes who remained in the days of Asa his father, he swept away from the land. 47 And there was no king in Edom; a deputy was king. 48 Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir (Ofir) for gold, and it did not go, for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber (Etsyon-Gever). 49 Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." And Jehoshaphat was not willing. 50 And Jehoshaphat lay down with his fathers, and he was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoram (Yehoram) his son reigned in his place.

Ahaziah King of Israel

51 Ahaziah the son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel two years. 52 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, and he walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam (Yaravam) the son of Nebat (Nevat), who caused Israel to sin. 53 And he served the Baal and bowed down to it, and he provoked to anger the LORD, the God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

22:35 the king was made to stand in the chariot opposite Syria Propped up so his troops would not lose heart. At sunset the sheep went home without a shepherd, as Micaiah said (22:36).
22:38 the dogs licked up his blood Utter shame, as Elijah said (21:19). It came in Samaria, and the full judgment on his house came later at Naboth's field in the days of his son (21:29; 2 Kgs 9:24-26).
22:39 the house of ivory which he built Archaeologists at Samaria have found many carved ivory pieces from this period. Assyrian records say he brought a large chariot force to Qarqar. But God's verdict was written long before: "there was not one like Ahab" (21:25).
22:42 he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem About 872 to 848 B.C., counting a few years ruling alongside his father Asa.
22:43 doing what is right in the eyes of the LORD One of Judah's good kings. He sent teachers through Judah with the Book of the Law, appointed judges to judge in the fear of the LORD, and trusted God in a great battle (2 Chr 17-20). But like his father, he did not remove the high places.
22:44 Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel It ended about sixty years of conflict. But the peace came through the marriage alliance with Ahab's house, and Athaliah later tried to wipe out the royal line (2 Kgs 11:1).
22:47 there was no king in Edom; a deputy was king Edom, south of the Dead Sea, was under Judah's governor, giving access to Ezion-geber (9:26).
22:48 the ships were broken at Ezion-geber Trying to bring back Solomon's glory days. A prophet said the LORD broke them because he joined with Ahaziah (2 Chr 20:35-37). When Ahaziah asked again, Jehoshaphat refused. He had learned his lesson.
22:51 he reigned over Israel two years About 853 to 852 B.C.
22:52 in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Jeroboam Three bad examples, and he followed all of them. The book that began with Solomon's glory ends with Baal worship in Samaria. But God was not silent. He kept His promise to David and kept sending His word, by Ahijah, Jehu, Elijah and Micaiah, to any who would listen.

2 KINGS

Introduction

Title

The book is named for the kings whose reigns it records. In Hebrew, First and Second Kings were one book. The Greek translation of the Old Testament divided it in two, and our Bibles follow that division, so 2 Kings picks up in the middle of the story, with Ahab dead and his son on the throne of Israel. In the Hebrew Bible it is the last of the Former Prophets, the books from Joshua through Kings that tell Israel's history from God's point of view. In our English Bibles it stands among the historical books.

Author and Date

The book does not name its writer. Jewish tradition holds that Jeremiah the prophet wrote Kings, and some of the closing chapters are very close to Jeremiah 52. Whoever wrote it was a prophet or a man who thought like the prophets, and he used older records, which he names: the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel (1:18) and the same book for the kings of Judah (8:23). The last event in the book is the release of King Jehoiachin in the first year of Evil-merodach king of Babylon, about 560 B.C. (25:27). The book says nothing of the return from exile under Cyrus in 538 B.C., so it was most likely finished during the exile, about 560 to 540 B.C. Many modern critical scholars see Kings as the last part of a longer history put together and edited during or after the exile by several hands. I take the book as it presents itself, a true record written by one inspired writer from reliable sources, and treated as history by Jesus and the apostles.

Background and Setting

Second Kings covers nearly three hundred years, from the death of Ahab about 853 B.C. to Jehoiachin's release about 560 B.C. It follows both kingdoms downhill. Israel in the north, with its capital at Samaria, never had a king who removed Jeroboam's golden calves, and it fell to Assyria in 722 B.C. Judah in the south, with Jerusalem and the temple, had some godly kings, Joash, Hezekiah and Josiah among them, but it too turned away. The great turning points are the fall of Samaria in 722 B.C., Sennacherib's attack on Jerusalem in 701 B.C., the first deportation to Babylon in 605 B.C., the exile of King Jehoiachin in 597 B.C., and the fall of Jerusalem and the burning of the temple in 586 B.C.

The book was written for the people of Judah in exile in Babylon and the generations after them. They had lost their land, their king and their temple, and they needed to know why. Around the two kingdoms were Syria, with its capital at Damascus, Moab and Edom, and the Philistines on the coast. Behind them rose first Assyria and then Babylon, while Egypt to the south was a constant temptation to trust in horses and chariots instead of the LORD.

The writer dates each king by the reign of the king in the other kingdom, and some of the numbers seem not to fit at first. Most of the differences come from co-regencies, when a son reigned alongside his father, and from the two kingdoms counting a king's first year in different ways. These notes follow the dates of Edwin Thiele and give them with "about." Several kings of the two kingdoms had the same names at nearly the same time, and the SLB usually calls the king of Israel Joram and the king of Judah Jehoram, though both forms are the same name. Much of this history is told again in 2 Chronicles from Judah's side. Where the two give different numbers, the notes say so honestly. Most such differences come from errors in copying numbers or from different ways of counting, and none touches any teaching of the faith.

Kings is as much about prophets as about kings. Elijah and Elisha fill the first half. Jonah is named in 14:25, Isaiah stands beside Hezekiah, and Huldah speaks to Josiah. Amos and Hosea preached in Israel during these years, and Isaiah, Micah, Zephaniah, Habakkuk and Jeremiah in Judah. Reading 2 Kings alongside them helps both make sense.

Themes

God is patient, but He judges unrepentant sin. He sent prophet after prophet to call His people back, and when Samaria falls the writer stops to explain why: "Turn back from your evil ways, and keep My commandments" (17:13). Israel and Judah went into exile not because the LORD was weak or His promises failed, but because His people broke His covenant and would not listen. Patience is not the same as approval, and in the end He did what He said He would do.

Every king is measured by one standard, whether he did right in the eyes of the LORD as David did. Alongside the judgment runs God's mercy to the faithful few: the widow's oil, the Shunammite's son, Naaman washed clean, the hills full of chariots of fire, and an army struck down in one night while Hezekiah prayed. God rules over the nations, and Assyria and Babylon were only tools in His hand.

And God keeps His promise to David. Again and again, when a king of Judah deserves to lose everything, the LORD spares Judah "for the sake of David His servant" (8:19). The book ends with David's descendant alive in Babylon, released from prison and given a seat at the king's table (25:27-30). It calls every reader to turn back to the LORD while there is time.

Christ in 2 Kings

Elijah, taken up at the start of the book, was promised again before the day of the LORD (Mal 4:5), and Jesus said John the Baptist came in that role (Matt 11:14; Luke 1:17). Elisha's miracles are a small picture of the ministry of Jesus. Jesus Himself pointed to Naaman as a sign that God's grace reaches outsiders (Luke 4:27). Elisha fed a hundred men with twenty barley loaves (4:42-44), and Jesus fed five thousand with five (John 6:9-13). Elisha raised a mother's son near Shunem, and Jesus raised a widow's son at Nain, just over the hill (Luke 7:11-17).

Above all, 2 Kings shows God keeping David's lamp burning. When Athaliah tried to wipe out the royal line, one baby was saved (11:2). When Jerusalem fell, King Jehoiachin was spared, and he is named in the family line of Jesus, where he is called Jeconiah (Matt 1:12). God's promise to give David a son whose throne would last forever (2 Sam 7:16) did not die in Babylon. It led to Jesus, the Son of David, of whose kingdom "there will be no end" (Luke 1:33). When He returns, He will sit on that throne and reign from Jerusalem (Rev 19:11-16; 20:4-6).

Hard Passages

Fire falls on soldiers sent to arrest Elijah (1:9-12), and two bears maul young men from Bethel who mock Elisha (2:23-25). The notes explain both as God's judgment on open contempt for Him and His messenger, not a prophet's temper, and they say plainly that neither is a pattern for us (Luke 9:54-55; 6:28).

A king of Moab offers his son as a burnt offering on the wall (3:27), and later kings of Israel and Judah do the same (16:3; 17:17; 21:6). During the siege of Samaria a mother eats her child (6:24-31). The notes treat these as the horror the Law warned of when Israel broke the covenant (Deut 28:53-57), without dwelling on the details.

Jehu wipes out the house of Ahab, and God commends him, yet later says He will judge Jehu's house for the blood of Jezreel (10:30; Hos 1:4). The notes show that Jehu went beyond what God asked, for his own ends, and that God judges the heart. Athaliah kills her grandchildren to take the throne (11:1), an attack on God's promise to David that God overturned by saving one child.

Josiah sacrifices the priests of the high places of Samaria on their own altars (23:19-20). The notes explain it as the judgment foretold three centuries earlier (1 Kgs 13:2) under Israel's covenant law, and say it is no pattern for the church, which fights with truth, prayer and love (2 Cor 10:3-5). The LORD "was not willing to forgive" (24:4) speaks of the nation that never repented, not of anyone who turns to Him. The fall of Samaria and Jerusalem tells of war, exile and cruelty (17; 25), and the notes try to explain these chapters honestly and with care. If you lead a group, read those sections ahead of time and be ready to listen.

2 KINGS

2 KINGS 1

Ahaziah Seeks Baal-zebub

1 And Moab (Mo'av) rebelled against Israel (Yisra'el) after the death of Ahab (Achav). 2 And Ahaziah (Achazya) fell through the lattice in his upper room which was in Samaria (Shomron), and he became ill. And he sent messengers and said to them, "Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron (Eqron), whether I will live from this sickness." 3 And the angel of the LORD spoke to Elijah (Eliya) the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and speak to them: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron?' 4 And therefore thus says the LORD: 'The bed to which you have gone up, you will not come down from it, for you will surely die.'" And Elijah went. 5 And the messengers returned to him, and he said to them, "Why is this, that you have returned?" 6 And they said to him, "A man came up to meet us, and he said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you, and you will speak to him: "Thus says the LORD: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore the bed to which you have gone up, you will not come down from it, for you will surely die.'"'" 7 And he spoke to them, "What was the appearance of the man who came up to meet you and spoke these words to you?" 8 And they said to him, "A man, a possessor of hair, and a belt of leather girded on his loins." And he said, "That is Elijah the Tishbite."

Fire from Heaven

9 And he sent to him a commander of fifty and his fifty. And he went up to him, and look, he was sitting on the top of the hill. And he spoke to him, "Man of God, the king has spoken: 'Come down!'" 10 And Elijah answered and spoke to the commander of the fifty, "And if I am a man of God, let fire come down from the heavens and consume you and your fifty." And fire came down from the heavens and consumed him and his fifty. 11 And he returned and sent to him another commander of fifty and his fifty. And he answered and spoke to him, "Man of God, thus says the king: 'Come down quickly!'" 12 And Elijah answered and spoke to them, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from the heavens and consume you and your fifty." And the fire of God came down from the heavens and consumed him and his fifty. 13 And he returned and sent a third commander of fifty and his fifty. And the third commander of fifty went up, and he came and bowed down on his knees before Elijah, and he pleaded for favor with him and spoke to him, "Man of God, please let my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your eyes. 14 Look, fire has come down from the heavens and has consumed the two former commanders of fifties and their fifties; and now let my life be precious in your eyes." 15 And the angel of the LORD spoke to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." And he arose and went down with him to the king. 16 And he spoke to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of His word? Therefore the bed to which you have gone up, you will not come down from it, for you will

1:1 Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab First and Second Kings were one book, and the story picks up where 1 Kings ended. Moab, east of the Dead Sea, had been under Israel since David (2 Sam 8:2) and paid heavy tribute (3:4). Israel's power was slipping. When a people turn from the LORD, things begin to come apart.
1:2 fell through the lattice in his upper room A lattice was a wooden screen over a window or on a roof, for shade and air.
1:2 Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron Ekron was one of the five Philistine cities. Baal-Zebub means lord of the flies, perhaps Israel's mocking change of a name like Baal-Zebul, Baal the prince. By New Testament times Beelzebul was a name for Satan (Matt 12:24-26). Ahaziah knew of Carmel (1 Kgs 18:39) and still went to a foreign idol.
1:3 Is it because there is no God in Israel A question that cuts to the heart. Ahaziah acted as if the God of Israel did not exist or did not matter. When trouble comes, where do we turn first? The living God is not hard to find, and He invites us to come (James 1:5).
1:8 A man, a possessor of hair, and a belt of leather girded on his loins A hairy man, or a man in a rough garment of hair, as prophets often wore (Zech 13:4). John the Baptist dressed the same way (Matt 3:4). Jesus said John was the Elijah to come (Matt 11:14), who came "in the spirit and power of Elijah" (Luke 1:17).
1:9 a commander of fifty and his fifty A captain with a company of fifty men. He called Elijah "Man of God" and then ordered him down, using a holy title with no respect for the God behind it.
1:10 if I am a man of God, let fire come down from the heavens The same sign God gave on Carmel, proving who was the true God and His true prophet.
1:12 the fire of God came down from the heavens and consumed him and his fifty A hard passage. Elijah had no power to call fire on his own. God answered, and the fire was His judgment, not the prophet's temper. A king who had turned to Baal sent armed men to seize God's spokesman, after years of warning. Yet this is no pattern for us. When James and John wanted to call down fire, Jesus rebuked them (Luke 9:54-55). Our calling is to carry the gospel, love our enemies and leave judgment to God (Rom 12:19).
1:13 bowed down on his knees before Elijah Two came in pride and died. One came humbly and lived. "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble" (James 4:6).
1:15 Go down with him; do not be afraid of him Elijah once ran from Jezebel (1 Kgs 19:3). Here he walks into her son's palace and gives the same word a third time. God had restored His servant, and He can do the same for us after our failures.

surely die.'" 17 And he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And Joram (Yehoram) reigned in his place, in the second year of Jehoram (Yehoram) the son of Jehoshaphat (Yehoshafat) the king of Judah (Yehuda), for he had no son. 18 And the rest of the matters of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel?

Elijah Taken Up to Heaven

1 And it was, when the LORD was about to take up Elijah (Eliyahu) by the whirlwind to the heavens, and Elijah and Elisha went from Gilgal. 2 And Elijah said to Elisha, "Remain here, please, for the LORD has sent me to Bethel (Bet-El)." And Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." And they went down to Bethel. 3 And the sons of the prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD is about to take your master from over your head?" And he said, "I also, I know; be silent." 4 And Elijah said to him, "Elisha, remain here, please, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho (Yericho)." And he said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." And they came to Jericho. 5 And the sons of the prophets who were in Jericho drew near to Elisha and said to him, "Do you know that today the LORD is about to take your master from over your head?" And he said, "I also, I know; be silent." 6 And Elijah said to him, "Remain here, please, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan (Yarden)." And he said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." And the two of them went. 7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood opposite, at a distance; and the two of them stood by the Jordan. 8 And Elijah took his cloak and rolled it up and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there; and the two of them passed over on the dry ground. 9 And it was, when they had passed over, and Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask what I shall do for you before I am taken from you." And Elisha said, "And please let there be a double portion of your spirit to me." 10 And he said, "You have asked a hard thing. If you see me taken from you, let it be so to you; and if not, it will not be." 11 And it was, they were walking, walking on, and speaking; and look, a chariot of fire and horses of fire, and they separated between the two of them; and Elijah went up in the whirlwind to the heavens.

Elisha Takes Up the Cloak

12 And Elisha was seeing, and he was crying out, "My father, my father, the chariotry of Israel (Yisra'el) and its horsemen!" And he did not see him again. And he took hold of his clothes and tore them into two pieces. 13 And he took up the cloak of Elijah which had fallen from him, and he went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. 14 And he took the cloak of Elijah which had fallen from him and struck the waters, and he said, "Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?" He also struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, and Elisha passed over. 15 And the sons of the prophets who were in Jericho saw him from opposite, and

1:17 Joram reigned in his place Ahaziah reigned about two years, about 853 to 852 B.C., and had no son. These notes call the king of Israel Joram and the king of Judah Jehoram, as the SLB usually does, though both names are the same in Hebrew and mean the LORD is exalted. The two kingdoms had kings named Joram and Ahaziah at nearly the same time, related by marriage.
1:17 in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah Second Kings 3:1 says Jehoshaphat's eighteenth year. Both are true, because Jehoram ruled alongside his father for a few years. Shared reigns like this are called co-regencies.
1:18 the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel The northern royal record, now lost. The writer chose what to tell by asking one question: how did each king stand before the LORD?
2:1 when the LORD was about to take up Elijah by the whirlwind to the heavens The writer tells the ending first. God had planned it. A whirlwind is a violent storm wind, and God often showed Himself in storm (Job 38:1). Only Enoch had left the earth without dying before (Gen 5:24).
2:2 I will not leave you An oath. Scripture does not say why Elijah told him to stay, perhaps to spare him the parting or to test him. Three times Elisha could have stopped, and three times he kept going. It is easy to follow when the road is short. It takes a settled heart to follow all the way to the river (Ruth 1:16-17; Luke 9:62).
2:3 the sons of the prophets Groups of prophets who lived and learned together, with Elijah and later Elisha as leaders. Even at Bethel, the center of Jeroboam's calf worship (1 Kgs 12:28-29), God had a faithful group.
2:8 Elijah took his cloak and rolled it up and struck the waters The cloak was the prophet's outer robe and a sign of his office. Every Israelite would think of Moses at the Red Sea (Exod 14:21-22) and Joshua at this same river (Josh 3:15-17).
2:9 let there be a double portion of your spirit to me Not greed. The firstborn son received a double portion (Deut 21:17). Elisha asked to be Elijah's true heir so he could carry on the work, knowing he could not do it in his own strength.
2:10 You have asked a hard thing It was not Elijah's to give. Only God could give it. Elisha had to keep his eyes on his master to the end.
2:11 Elijah went up in the whirlwind to the heavens I take it as written. Elijah was taken up alive, body and all. He appeared later with Moses talking with Jesus (Matt 17:3). The chariot of fire was heaven's honor guard. Believers alive when Christ comes for His church will also be caught up without dying (1 Cor 15:51-52; 1 Thess 4:17), and Elijah's going up is a small picture of that day, though the New Testament does not name it as one. Jesus rose and went up Himself, and He "will come in the same manner" (Acts 1:11).
2:11 a chariot of fire and horses of fire Malachi said God would send Elijah before the day of the LORD (Mal 4:5). Jesus said John the Baptist came in that role (Matt 17:11-13). Many teachers also believe Elijah himself will come again before Christ's return, possibly as one of the two witnesses of Revelation 11.
2:12 My father, my father, the chariotry of Israel and its horsemen Elijah, a man of God, had been Israel's real defense, worth more than the king's army. King Jehoash would say the same over Elisha (13:14). Tearing clothes in two was a sign of grief.
2:14 Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah The question that matters. The power was never in the cloak. Elijah was gone, but the God of Elijah was not. When a faithful pastor, parent or teacher goes home, God's work does not die with them. He is still looking for people who will take it up.
2:15 The spirit of Elijah has rested on Elisha The prophets accepted him as their new leader.

they said, "The spirit of Elijah has rested on Elisha." And they came to meet him and bowed down to him to the ground. 16 And they said to him, "Look, please, there are with your servants fifty men, sons of valor. Please let them go and search for your master, lest the Spirit of the LORD has carried him off and cast him on one of the mountains or into one of the valleys." And he said, "You shall not send." 17 And they urged him until he was ashamed, and he said, "Send." And they sent fifty men, and they searched three days and did not find him. 18 And they returned to him, and he was remaining in Jericho; and he said to them, "Did I not say to you, 'Do not go'?"

The Water Healed and the Mockers of Bethel

19 And the men of the city said to Elisha, "Look, please, the location of the city is good, just as my lord sees; and the waters are bad, and the land is causing miscarriage." 20 And he said, "Bring me a new bowl, and put salt there." And they brought it to him. 21 And he went out to the outlet of the waters and threw salt there, and he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'I have healed these waters; there will not be from there again death and miscarriage.'" 22 And the waters were healed until this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke. 23 And he went up from there to Bethel; and he was going up on the way, and young lads came out from the city, and they mocked him and said to him, "Go up, bald one! Go up, bald one!" 24 And he turned behind him and saw them, and he cursed them in the name of the LORD. And two female bears came out from the forest and tore forty-two boys of them. 25 And he went from there to the mountain of Carmel (Karmel), and from there he returned to Samaria (Shomron).

Joram and the Revolt of Moab

1 And Joram (Yehoram) the son of Ahab (Achav) became king over Israel (Yisra'el) in Samaria (Shomron) in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat (Yehoshafat) the king of Judah (Yehuda), and he reigned twelve years. 2 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, only not like his father and like his mother; and he removed the sacred pillar of the Baal which his father had made. 3 Only he clung to the sins of Jeroboam (Yaravam) the son of Nebat (Nevat), with which he caused Israel to sin; he did not turn aside from it. 4 And Mesha the king of Moab (Mo'av) was a sheep breeder, and he would render to the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs and a hundred thousand rams, with their wool. 5 And it was, when Ahab died, and the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. 6 And King Joram went out on that day from Samaria, and he mustered all Israel. 7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me against Moab for battle?" And he said, "I will go up. As I am, so are you; as my people, so are your people; as my horses, so are your horses." 8 And he said, "Which is the way by which we will go up?" And he said, "The way of the wilderness of Edom."

Elisha's Word to the Three Kings

9 And the king of Israel and the king of Judah and the king of Edom went, and they went around, a journey of seven days; and there was no water for the camp and for the animals that were at their feet. 10 And the king of Israel said, "Alas! For the LORD has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab." 11 And Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not here a

2:16 lest the Spirit of the LORD has carried him off It had happened before (1 Kgs 18:12). Their three-day search found nothing and proved what had really happened.
2:19 the waters are bad, and the land is causing miscarriage Joshua had cursed the rebuilding of Jericho (Josh 6:26), and Hiel rebuilt it at the cost of his sons (1 Kgs 16:34).
2:21 I have healed these waters A little salt could never heal a spring. The LORD did, and Elisha said so. A spring at Jericho is still called Elisha's Spring. His first miracle was a healing, and his ministry would be full of help for ordinary people.
2:23 young lads came out from the city, and they mocked him One of the hardest passages in the Bible. The word na'ar is used of Joseph at seventeen (Gen 37:2), of David facing Goliath (1 Sam 17:33) and of grown servants. These were likely teens and young men, a mob from the city of the calf. "Go up" may mock Elijah's going up: go up like your master. They were mocking the LORD and His messenger.
2:24 he cursed them in the name of the LORD He handed the matter to God. The text says forty-two were mauled. It does not say how many died, and I will not add to it. The Law warned of wild animals if Israel kept rejecting God (Lev 26:21-22). This was judgment on a city's open contempt for God and a warning that Elisha spoke for the LORD (Gal 6:7). It is no pattern for us. "Bless those who curse you" (Luke 6:28), and Jesus prayed for those who mocked Him (Luke 23:34).
2:25 to the mountain of Carmel Where Elijah defeated the prophets of Baal. From there Elisha went to Samaria, and his ministry began in earnest.
3:1 Joram the son of Ahab became king over Israel in Samaria He reigned about 852 to 841 B.C.
3:2 he removed the sacred pillar of the Baal which his father had made A sacred pillar was a standing stone set up as an object of worship. "Only not like his father and like his mother" is faint praise.
3:3 he clung to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat The golden calves at Bethel and Dan (1 Kgs 12:26-30). Every king of Israel kept them. Joram made a partial reform but never came back to the LORD with his whole heart. Partial obedience is still disobedience.
3:4 Mesha the king of Moab was a sheep breeder The tribute was crushing. Mesha's own account has been found, the Moabite Stone, a black stone found in Moab in the 1800s, where he boasts that Omri and his son oppressed Moab and that his god Chemosh freed him.
3:7 As I am, so are you Jehoshaphat made this mistake with Ahab and nearly died (1 Kgs 22:4, 32-33), and again with Ahaziah (2 Chr 20:35-37). A good king kept making alliances with wicked men (2 Cor 6:14).
3:8 the way of the wilderness of Edom Around the south end of the Dead Sea, to strike Moab where it was weaker.
3:10 the LORD has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab Joram blamed God for a plan God never gave.
3:11 who poured water on the hands of Elijah A way of saying he had been Elijah's servant. Kings usually summoned prophets. Here three kings went down to one. Need has a way of humbling us.

prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD through him?" And one of the servants of the king of Israel answered and said, "Elisha the son of Shaphat (Shafat) is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah (Eliyahu)." 12 And Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him. 13 And Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What is there to me and to you? Go to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother." And the king of Israel said to him, "No, for the LORD has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Moab." 14 And Elisha said, "As the LORD of armies lives, before whom I stand, surely were it not that I lift up the face of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look at you, and I would not see you. 15 And now, bring me a musician." And it was, when the musician played, and the hand of the LORD was on him. 16 And he said, "Thus says the LORD: 'Make this wadi ditches, ditches.' 17 For thus says the LORD: 'You will not see wind, and you will not see rain, and that wadi will be filled with water, and you will drink, you and your livestock and your animals.' 18 And this is a light thing in the eyes of the LORD, and He will give Moab into your hand. 19 And you will strike every fortified city and every choice city, and every good tree you will fell, and all the springs of water you will stop up, and every good portion of land you will ruin with stones." 20 And it was in the morning, at the offering up of the grain offering, and look, water was coming from the direction of Edom, and the land was filled with the water.

Moab Defeated

21 And all Moab had heard that the kings had come up to fight against them; and they were called together, from everyone girding on a belt and upward, and they stood at the border. 22 And they rose early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and Moab saw the water opposite them red like blood. 23 And they said, "This is blood! The kings have surely fought one another, and they have struck each his neighbor. And now, to the plunder, Moab!" 24 And they came to the camp of Israel, and Israel rose up and struck Moab, and they fled before them; and they struck into it, even striking Moab. 25 And they tore down the cities, and on every good portion of land they threw each his stone and filled it, and every spring of water they stopped up, and every good tree they felled, until he left only its stones in Kir-hareseth (Qir-Chareset); and the slingers surrounded it and struck it. 26 And the king of Moab saw that the battle was too strong for him, and he took with him seven hundred men drawing the sword to break through to the king of Edom; and they were not able. 27 And he took his firstborn son who would reign in his place and offered him up as a burnt offering on the wall. And there was great wrath against Israel; and they departed from him and returned to the land.

The Widow's Oil

1 And a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant was fearing the LORD; and the creditor has come to take my two children for himself as slaves." 2 And Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house except a

3:13 Go to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother You serve Baal and the calves, so ask them.
3:14 were it not that I lift up the face of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah The LORD of armies is the name of God as commander of heaven's armies. For one godly king, God helped the whole army. One faithful person can bring blessing to many.
3:15 Bring me a musician Music did not force God to speak. It seems to have quieted Elisha's heart after his anger so he could listen, as David's music calmed Saul (1 Sam 16:23; 1 Chr 25:1).
3:16 Make this wadi ditches, ditches A wadi is a dry stream bed. They had to dig for water they could not see. God often asks us to prepare for the blessing before it comes.
3:18 this is a light thing in the eyes of the LORD What looked impossible to the kings was nothing to God.
3:19 every good tree you will fell The Law forbade cutting fruit trees in a siege (Deut 20:19-20), but that law concerned cities Israel would live among in its own land. Here God gave a special word against a rebel nation outside the land.
3:20 at the offering up of the grain offering The morning offering at the temple, so early morning. Rain may have fallen far off in Edom's hills and flooded down the wadi. Either way, it came as God said.
3:22 red like blood The red soil and the low morning sun made the pools look like blood. Having seen no rain, Moab thought the kings had turned on each other. God used the water that saved Israel to fool Moab.
3:27 offered him up as a burnt offering on the wall In despair the king sacrificed his heir to Chemosh before both armies. The Law called this an abomination (Lev 18:21; Deut 12:31), and God later judged Israel for doing the same (17:17; 21:6). False gods always demand more and give nothing. The true God did not ask for our son. He gave His own Son (John 3:16; Rom 8:32).
3:27 there was great wrath against Israel The text does not say whose wrath. Some think Moab's fury, driven to frenzy. Some think Israel's own horror, so the allies broke off. Others think the LORD's displeasure with Israel. It does not mean Chemosh had any power (Isa 45:5). The kings won by God's word and still went home without what they came for. Partial faith gave partial results.
4:1 your servant was fearing the LORD The prophets were not all single men. To fear the LORD means to honor Him with reverence and trust and to obey Him.
4:1 the creditor has come to take my two children for himself as slaves Under the Law a debtor could sell himself or his family into service for a limited time, to be treated as a hired worker, not ruled harshly (Exod 21:2; Lev 25:39-43). Still, losing her sons would leave her with nothing. God commands His people to protect widows and orphans (Exod 22:22-24; James 1:27).
4:2 what do you have in the house Elisha started with what she had. God often does. Moses had a staff, and a boy had five loaves (John 6). God asks us to give Him what is in our hands.

jar of oil." 3 And he said, "Go, ask for yourself vessels from outside, from all your neighbors, empty vessels; do not get few. 4 And you shall go in and shut the door behind you and behind your sons, and you shall pour out into all these vessels, and the full one you shall set aside." 5 And she went from him and shut the door behind her and behind her sons; they were bringing vessels to her, and she was pouring out. 6 And it was, when the vessels were full, and she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." And he said to her, "There is not another vessel." And the oil stopped. 7 And she came and told the man of God, and he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt; and you and your sons will live on the remainder."

The Shunammite Woman

8 And it was the day, and Elisha passed over to Shunem; and there was a great woman there, and she urged him to eat bread. And it was, as often as he passed by, he would turn aside there to eat bread. 9 And she said to her husband, "Look, please, I know that he is a holy man of God who passes by us continually. 10 Please let us make a small walled upper room, and let us put for him there a bed and a table and a chair and a lampstand; and it will be, when he comes to us, he will turn aside there." 11 And it was the day, and he came there, and he turned aside to the upper room and lay down there. 12 And he said to Gehazi (Gechazi) his servant, "Call this Shunammite." And he called her, and she stood before him. 13 And he said to him, "Say, please, to her, 'Look, you have taken care for us with all this care. What is there to do for you? Is there something to speak for you to the king or to the commander of the army?'" And she said, "I am dwelling in the midst of my own people." 14 And he said, "And what is there to do for her?" And Gehazi said, "Truly, she has no son, and her husband is old." 15 And he said, "Call her." And he called her, and she stood in the doorway. 16 And he said, "At this appointed time, when the time revives, you will be embracing a son." And she said, "No, my lord, man of God, do not lie to your maidservant." 17 And the woman conceived and bore a son at this appointed time, when the time revived, which Elisha had spoken to her.

The Shunammite's Son Raised

18 And the child grew, and it was the day, and he went out to his father, to the reapers. 19 And he said to his father, "My head, my head!" And he said to the servant, "Carry him to his mother." 20 And he carried him and brought him to his mother, and he sat on her knees until noon, and he died. 21 And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and she shut the door behind him and went out. 22 And she called to her husband and said, "Send me, please, one of the servants and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God and return." 23 And he said, "Why are you going to him today? It is not a new moon and not a Sabbath." And she said, "Peace." 24 And she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, "Drive and go; do not hold back for me in riding unless I say to you." 25 And she went and came to the man of God at the mountain of Carmel (Karmel). And it was, when the man of God saw her from opposite, and he said to Gehazi his servant, "Look, that Shunammite is there. 26 Now, run, please, to meet her, and say to her, 'Is it peace with you? Is it peace with your husband? Is it peace with the child?'" And she said, "Peace." 27 And she came to the man of God at the mountain, and she took hold of his feet; and Gehazi drew near to push her away. And the man of God said, "Let her alone, for her soul is bitter within her, and the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me." 28 And she said, "Did I ask for a son from my lord? Did I not say, 'Do not deceive me'?" 29 And he said to Gehazi, "Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go. If you meet a man, do not bless him; and if a man blesses you, do not answer him. And you shall put my staff on the face of the lad." 30 And the

4:3 do not get few The size of the miracle would depend on the size of her faith. How many jars would you have borrowed?
4:6 the oil stopped The oil did not run out. The jars did.
4:7 you and your sons will live on the remainder God paid her debt and provided for her future. He "is able to do above all things, far more abundantly than what we ask or think" (Eph 3:20). The miracle happened behind a shut door. God often does His deepest work in private.
4:8 a great woman A woman of wealth and standing in Shunem, in the valley of Jezreel.
4:10 a bed and a table and a chair and a lampstand Simple, but exactly what a traveling prophet needed. She gave without being asked and without expecting a return (Heb 13:2; Matt 10:41).
4:13 I am dwelling in the midst of my own people She was content and did not want favors from the powerful.
4:14 she has no son, and her husband is old A woman with no son had no one to care for her in old age and no heir for the land.
4:16 do not lie to your maidservant She had given up hoping, and hope hurt. God kept His word as He did for Sarah (Gen 18:10-14). Nothing is too hard for the LORD.
4:20 he sat on her knees until noon, and he died Perhaps sunstroke in the harvest heat. Every parent who has lost a child knows a little of what is in this verse.
4:21 laid him on the bed of the man of God No wailing, no neighbors. She put him in the prophet's room and went to find the prophet. That was faith.
4:23 It is not a new moon and not a Sabbath People seem to have visited prophets on holy days, the new moon at the start of each month and the Sabbath. "Peace" is shalom: it will be well. Carmel was some fifteen to twenty miles away.
4:27 the LORD has hidden it from me Even a great prophet did not know everything. God reveals what He chooses, when He chooses.
4:28 Did I ask for a son from my lord Honest grief, and God was not offended. Scripture is full of people who brought bitter questions to God, and He listened.
4:30 I will not leave you Elisha's own words to Elijah (2:2, 4, 6). She would not settle for the servant and the staff.

mother of the lad said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." And he arose and went after her. 31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and he put the staff on the face of the lad; and there was no sound, and there was no attention. And he went back to meet him, and he told him, saying, "The lad has not awakened." 32 And Elisha came into the house, and look, the lad was dead, laid on his bed. 33 And he went in and shut the door behind the two of them, and he prayed to the LORD. 34 And he went up and lay on the child, and he put his mouth on his mouth and his eyes on his eyes and his palms on his palms, and he crouched over him; and the flesh of the child became warm. 35 And he went back and walked in the house, once here and once there; and he went up and crouched over him. And the lad sneezed up to seven times, and the lad opened his eyes. 36 And he called Gehazi and said, "Call this Shunammite." And he called her, and she came to him. And he said, "Take up your son." 37 And she came and fell at his feet and bowed down to the ground; and she took up her son and went out.

Death in the Pot

38 And Elisha returned to Gilgal, and the famine was in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. And he said to his servant, "Set on the large pot, and cook stew for the sons of the prophets." 39 And one went out to the field to gather herbs, and he found a vine of the field and gathered from it gourds of the field, the fullness of his garment; and he came and sliced them into the pot of stew, for they did not know them. 40 And they poured it out for the men to eat. And it was, when they were eating from the stew, and they cried out and said, "Death is in the pot, man of God!" And they were not able to eat. 41 And he said, "Then bring flour." And he threw it into the pot, and he said, "Pour out for the people, that they may eat." And there was no bad thing in the pot.

A Hundred Men Fed

42 And a man came from Baal-shalishah (Ba'al-Shalisha), and he brought to the man of God bread of firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh grain in his sack. And he said, "Give to the people, that they may eat." 43 And his attendant said, "What, shall I set this before a hundred men?" And he said, "Give to the people, that they may eat; for thus says the LORD: 'They will eat and leave over.'" 44 And he set it before them, and they ate and left over, according to the word of the LORD.

Naaman the Leper

1 And Naaman, the commander of the army of the king of Syria (Aram), was a great man before his master and highly regarded, for by him the LORD had given salvation to Syria; and the man was a mighty man of valor, leprous. 2 And Syria had gone out in raiding bands, and they had taken captive from the land of Israel (Yisra'el) a young girl, and she was before the wife of Naaman. 3 And she said to her mistress, "Oh that my master were before the prophet who is in Samaria (Shomron)! Then he would recover him from his leprosy." 4 And he went in and told his master, saying, "Like this and like this the girl who is from the land of Israel spoke." 5 And the king of Syria said, "Go, go in, and let me send a letter to the king of Israel." And he went and took in his hand approximately 750 pounds (ten talents) of silver and approximately 150 pounds (six thousand shekels) of gold and ten changes of garments. 6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, "And now, when this letter comes to you, look, I have sent to you Naaman my servant, and you

4:31 there was no sound, and there was no attention The staff had no power of its own.
4:33 he prayed to the LORD Elisha did what Elijah did at Zarephath (1 Kgs 17:19-22). He prayed first.
4:34 the flesh of the child became warm Scripture does not say why he lay on the boy. It was no medical method. Perhaps it showed complete identification with the child in prayer. The life came from God.
4:37 she took up her son and went out "Women received their dead by resurrection" (Heb 11:35). At Nain, very near Shunem, Jesus raised a widow's son (Luke 7:11-17). Elisha had to pray and work. Jesus simply said, "Young man, I say to you, arise" (Luke 7:14). He is the Lord of life Himself.
4:38 the sons of the prophets were sitting before him Gathered to learn from him, in a time of famine.
4:40 Death is in the pot, man of God The wild gourds were likely a poisonous wild melon.
4:41 there was no bad thing in the pot The flour did not cure the poison. God did, as with the salt at Jericho (2:21). God protected those who trusted Him even from their own mistakes.
4:42 bread of firstfruits, twenty loaves of barley The firstfruits belonged to the LORD and went to the priests (Num 18:13; Deut 18:4). With the true priests far off in Jerusalem and false priests at the calf shrines, this man brought his offering to God's prophet.
4:43 What, shall I set this before a hundred men Almost the question Andrew asked (John 6:9). Jesus fed thousands with five barley loaves, with twelve baskets left over (John 6:13). Elisha's miracle is a small picture of what the Son of God would do.
5:1 by him the LORD had given salvation to Syria Syria, also called Aram, was the kingdom north of Israel with its capital at Damascus. The LORD gave victory to Israel's enemy through Naaman. God rules over all nations (Dan 4:17), and Naaman did not know it yet.
5:1 a mighty man of valor, leprous The verse builds him up and ends with one word that changes everything. Leprosy in the Bible covers a range of serious skin diseases, and it made a person unclean and cut off (Lev 13:45-46). We all have something like Naaman's "but," sin we cannot cure (Rom 3:23).
5:3 Oh that my master were before the prophet who is in Samaria A nameless captive girl, torn from her family, cared enough about her enemy to speak of God's power. You never know how God may use a few words of faith spoken in a hard place (1 Pet 3:15).
5:5 ten talents of silver About 750 pounds of silver and 150 pounds of gold. Naaman thought healing could be bought, and he went to the palace, not the prophet.

shall recover him from his leprosy." 7 And it was, when the king of Israel read the letter, and he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man is sending to me to recover a man from his leprosy? For surely know, please, and see that he is seeking an occasion against me."

Naaman Washed in the Jordan

8 And it was, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, and he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come, please, to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel." 9 And Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and he stood at the entrance of the house of Elisha. 10 And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash seven times in the Jordan (Yarden), and your flesh shall return to you, and be clean." 11 And Naaman was angry and went, and he said, "Look, I said to myself, 'He will surely come out to me, and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and recover the leprous one.' 12 Are not Amana and Pharpar (Parpar), the rivers of Damascus (Dameseq), better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" And he turned and went in a rage. 13 And his servants drew near and spoke to him and said, "My father, if the prophet had spoken a great thing to you, would you not do it? And how much more when he has said to you, 'Wash and be clean'?" 14 And he went down and dipped in the Jordan seven times, according to the word of the man of God; and his flesh returned like the flesh of a young lad, and he was clean. 15 And he went back to the man of God, he and all his camp, and he came and stood before him, and he said, "Look, please, I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. And now, please accept a blessing from your servant." 16 And he said, "As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will not accept it." And he urged him to accept it, and he refused. 17 And Naaman said, "And if not, please let there be given to your servant a load of a pair of mules of soil; for your servant will no longer offer burnt offering and sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD. 18 In this matter may the LORD forgive your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to bow down there, and he is leaning on my hand, and I bow down in the house of Rimmon, when I bow down in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD forgive your servant in this matter."

Gehazi's Greed

19 And he said to him, "Go in peace." And he went from him some distance of land. 20 And Gehazi (Gechazi), the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, "Look, my master has spared Naaman this Aramean from accepting from his hand what he brought. As the LORD lives, surely I will run after him and accept something from him." 21 And Gehazi pursued after Naaman. And Naaman saw one running after him, and he got down from the chariot to meet him, and he said, "Is it peace?" 22 And he said, "Peace. My master has sent me, saying, 'Look, just now two young men from the hill country of Ephraim (Efrayim), of the sons of the prophets, have come to me. Please give them approximately 75 pounds (a talent) of silver and two changes of garments.'" 23 And Naaman said, "Be willing, take approximately 150 pounds (two talents)." And he urged him, and he bound approximately 150 pounds (two talents) of silver in two bags, and two changes of garments, and he gave them to two of his servants, and they carried them before him. 24 And he came to the Ophel (Ofel), and he took them from their hand and deposited them in the house; and he sent the men away, and they went. 25 And he went in and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him,

5:7 Am I God, to kill and to make alive The king, most likely Joram, thought Syria was picking a fight. He did not even think of Elisha. He had less faith than the captive girl.
5:8 he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel That was the point. God would show this general who the true God was.
5:10 Go and wash seven times in the Jordan Elisha did not come out. Naaman needed to learn that healing came not from a prophet's show but from God, received by simple faith and obedience.
5:11 Naaman was angry He wanted a ceremony fit for a great man.
5:12 Are not Amana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better The Damascus rivers ran clear and cold from the mountains, and the Jordan was muddy. Many stumble over the gospel the same way. It is too simple. They want to do something great or pay something. God's way is humbling: come as you are and trust Him.
5:13 Wash and be clean Once again nameless servants give wise advice. If Elisha had asked something hard, Naaman would have done it gladly.
5:14 his flesh returned like the flesh of a young lad, and he was clean Seven times, no less. He had to keep obeying. The power was not in the water but in God's word, received by faith, "not from works, so that no one may boast" (Eph 2:9). Unless we become like little children, we will not enter the kingdom (Matt 18:3).
5:15 I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel This time he stood before the prophet. The Syrian general now knew the LORD as the only true God.
5:16 I will not accept it Naaman must know that God's grace is free. "Freely you received, freely give" (Matt 10:8). Jesus pointed to Naaman at Nazareth (Luke 4:27), and they tried to throw Him off a cliff (Luke 4:28-29), because God's grace was reaching past proud insiders to humble outsiders. It still does.
5:17 a load of a pair of mules of soil People thought each god belonged to his own land. His understanding was young, but his heart was right: no more sacrifice to other gods, only to the LORD.
5:18 the house of Rimmon The temple of Syria's storm god. Naaman's duty was to give the king his arm as he bowed.
5:19 Go in peace Elisha did not approve of idol worship, and Naaman was not asking to worship Rimmon. He asked mercy for an outward duty he could not escape, and Elisha left him in God's hands to grow. Teachers have long discussed this verse, and it is wise not to build a rule on it. New believers need patience and grace as they learn.
5:20 my master has spared Naaman this Aramean Notice the contempt. To Gehazi, Naaman was still a foreigner and enemy, and he swore by the LORD to do something greedy.
5:22 approximately 75 pounds of silver and two changes of garments A talent of silver. Gehazi had seen every miracle and still his heart was set on money. Being close to God's work is not the same as having a heart for God. Judas walked with Jesus and stole from the money bag (John 12:6).

"From where have you come, Gehazi?" And he said, "Your servant has not gone here or there." 26 And he said to him, "Did my heart not go with you when a man turned from on his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to accept the silver and to accept clothes and olive groves and vineyards and sheep and cattle and male servants and maidservants? 27 And the leprosy of Naaman shall cling to you and to your offspring forever." And he went out from before him leprous like snow.

The Floating Axe Head

1 And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "Look, please, the place where we are dwelling before you is too narrow for us. 2 Please let us go to the Jordan (Yarden), and let us take from there each one beam, and let us make for ourselves a place there to dwell there." And he said, "Go." 3 And the one said, "Be willing, please, and go with your servants." And he said, "I, I will go." 4 And he went with them, and they came to the Jordan, and they cut down the trees. 5 And it was, the one was felling the beam, and the iron fell into the water; and he cried out and said, "Alas, my lord! And it was borrowed!" 6 And the man of God said, "Where did it fall?" And he showed him the place; and he cut off a stick and threw it there, and he made the iron float. 7 And he said, "Take it up for yourself." And he stretched out his hand and took it.

The Chariots of Fire

8 And the king of Syria (Aram) was fighting against Israel (Yisra'el); and he took counsel with his servants, saying, "At such and such a place will be my camp." 9 And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Take care not to pass by this place, for Syria is going down there." 10 And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God had told him; and he warned him, and he was on guard there, not once and not twice. 11 And the heart of the king of Syria was enraged over this matter; and he called his servants and said to them, "Will you not tell me who of those who are ours is for the king of Israel?" 12 And one of his servants said, "No, my lord the king; for Elisha the prophet who is in Israel tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in the chamber of your bed." 13 And he said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and take him." And it was told to him, saying, "Look, he is in Dothan (Dotan)." 14 And he sent there horses and chariotry and a heavy army; and they came by night and surrounded the city. 15 And the attendant of the man of God rose early to arise, and he went out, and look, an army was surrounding the city, and horse and chariotry. And his servant said to him, "Alas, my lord! How shall we do?" 16 And he said, "Do not be afraid, for more are those who are with us than those who are with them." 17 And Elisha prayed and said, "LORD, please open his eyes, that he may see." And the LORD opened the eyes of the servant, and he saw; and look, the mountain was full of horses and chariotry of fire all around Elisha.

The Blinded Army

18 And they came down to him, and Elisha prayed to the LORD and said, "Please strike this nation with blindness." And He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. 19 And Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, and this is not the city. Come after me, and let me lead you to the man whom you seek." And he led them to Samaria (Shomron). 20 And it was, when they came to Samaria, and Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and look, they were in the midst of Samaria. 21 And the king of Israel said to Elisha when he saw them, "Shall I strike them

5:26 Did my heart not go with you God had shown Elisha everything. Gehazi made it look as if God's grace had a price, undoing the very lesson Elisha taught.
5:27 leprous like snow The foreigner who humbled himself went home clean. The insider who served himself went out unclean. "Know your sin, that it will find you" (Num 32:23). We meet Gehazi again in 8:4-5.
6:1 the place where we are dwelling before you is too narrow for us The group was growing. Even in a dark time, God was raising up people who wanted to learn His word.
6:3 I, I will go Elisha was not too important to go on a work trip with his students. Good leaders stay close to the people they serve.
6:5 Alas, my lord! And it was borrowed Iron tools were costly, and a poor prophet might have had to work off the debt.
6:6 he made the iron float Iron does not float. God made it float. Why a miracle over an axe head? Because He cares about small things. Cast your anxiety on Him, "because He cares about you" (1 Pet 5:7). Nothing that worries you is too small to bring to God.
6:10 not once and not twice Many times. God knows every plan made against His people.
6:12 the words that you speak in the chamber of your bed Even in his bedroom, the king had no secrets from God.
6:13 he is in Dothan About ten miles north of Samaria. The king planned to capture a man who knew all his plans, and sent a heavy army for one prophet.
6:16 more are those who are with us than those who are with them The servant could count the enemy. He could not see anyone on their side.
6:17 the mountain was full of horses and chariotry of fire all around Elisha Elisha did not pray for the army to leave. He prayed for his servant to see what was already there. The danger we see is real, but it is never the whole picture. Angels are "ministering spirits" (Heb 1:14), and "greater is the One in you than the one in the world" (1 John 4:4). When you are afraid, ask God to open your eyes to what faith knows is true.
6:18 Please strike this nation with blindness The word may mean a confusion or dazzling, so that they could not recognize where they were.
6:19 This is not the way, and this is not the city True enough. He was the man, and he led them to him, only not where they expected. The hunters became the captives in Samaria.

down? Shall I strike them down, my father?" 22 And he said, "You shall not strike them down. Would you strike down those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink and go to their master." 23 And he prepared for them a great feast, and they ate and drank; and he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the raiding bands of Syria did not again come into the land of Israel.

The Siege of Samaria

24 And it was after this, and Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his camp, and he went up and besieged Samaria. 25 And there was a great famine in Samaria; and look, they were besieging it, until the head of a donkey was sold for approximately 2 pounds (eighty shekels) of silver, and approximately 1/3 quart (a fourth of a kab) of doves' dung for approximately 2 ounces (five shekels) of silver. 26 And the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, and a woman cried out to him, saying, "Save, my lord the king!" 27 And he said, "If the LORD does not save you, from where shall I save you? From the threshing floor or from the winepress?" 28 And the king said to her, "What is the matter with you?" And she said, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and my son we will eat tomorrow.' 29 And we cooked my son and ate him. And I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son, that we may eat him'; and she has hidden her son." 30 And it was, when the king heard the words of the woman, and he tore his clothes; and he was passing by on the wall, and the people saw, and look, the sackcloth was on his flesh underneath. 31 And he said, "Thus may God do to me, and thus may He add, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat (Shafat) remains on him today!" 32 And Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And the king sent a man from before him. Before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you see that this son of a murderer has sent to remove my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door and press him back with the door. Is not the sound of the feet of his master behind him?" 33 He was still speaking with them, and look, the messenger was coming down to him. And he said, "Look, this evil is from the LORD. Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

2 KINGS 7

Elisha Promises Plenty

1 And Elisha said, "Hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the LORD: 'About this time tomorrow approximately 7 quarts (a seah) of fine flour will be for a shekel, and approximately 14 quarts (two seahs) of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria (Shomron).'" 2 And the officer who belonged to the king, on whose hand he leaned, answered the man of God and said, "Look, if the LORD were making windows in the heavens, could this thing be?" And he said, "Look, you will see it with your eyes, and from there you will not eat." 3 And four men were leprous at the entrance of the gate; and they said each to his neighbor, "Why are we sitting here until we die? 4 If we say, 'We will enter the city,' and the famine is in the city, and we will die there; and if we sit here, we will die. And now, come, and let us fall over to the camp of Syria (Aram). If they let us live, we will live; and if they put us to death, we will die." 5 And they arose in the twilight to go to the camp of Syria; and they came to the edge of the camp of Syria, and look, there was not a man there. 6 And the Lord had caused the camp of Syria to hear a sound of chariotry, a sound of horses, a sound of a great army; and they said each

6:22 Set bread and water before them Grace to enemies. Give your enemy bread (Prov 25:21; Rom 12:20), and love your enemies (Matt 5:44).
6:23 the raiding bands of Syria did not again come into the land of Israel Kindness did what swords could not. Those soldiers went home with a story about the God of Israel.
6:24 Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his camp Some time later. A royal name in Damascus, likely the Ben-hadad who fought Ahab (1 Kgs 20). A siege cut a city off from food.
6:25 the head of a donkey was sold for approximately 2 pounds (eighty shekels) of silver About two pounds of silver for the worst part of an unclean animal (Lev 11:2-7). "Doves' dung" may have been used for fuel or eaten in desperation, or it may be a common name for a wild seed or bulb.
6:27 From the threshing floor or from the winepress There was no grain and no wine. The king had nothing to give.
6:29 we cooked my son and ate him A horror, and I will not linger on it. Moses warned this would happen in a siege of judgment if Israel turned away (Lev 26:29; Deut 28:53-57). It was the curse of the broken covenant coming true. The woman did not seek justice for her child, only her bargain. Sin does not only hurt us. It hardens us (Lam 4:10). Read this with care in a group. God never wanted this, and He sent prophet after prophet to call them back (17:13).
6:30 the sackcloth was on his flesh underneath Rough cloth worn in grief or repentance, worn in secret.
6:31 if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today He blamed the prophet. Sackcloth on the outside did not mean a changed heart. Real repentance turns to God, not on God's messenger.
6:32 this son of a murderer The king was Ahab's son, and Ahab murdered Naboth (1 Kgs 21).
6:33 Why should I wait for the LORD any longer He knew the siege was God's judgment, and instead of repenting he gave up on God. When you feel that way, hold on. Deliverance was one day away.
7:1 about this time tomorrow God's answer to the king's "why should I wait" (6:33). A seah was about seven quarts, and the gate was the city's marketplace. Overnight, famine prices would crash. God often delivers at the very moment His people have given up.
7:2 if the LORD were making windows in the heavens, could this thing be Windows in the heavens meant blessing pouring from the sky (Gen 7:11; Mal 3:10). The officer was the king's right-hand man. Unbelief has a cost. He would see the promise come true and not share in it (Heb 11:6).
7:3 four men were leprous at the entrance of the gate Lepers had to live outside the city (Lev 13:46). To "fall over" to Syria meant to surrender. It was not faith but desperation, and God used the most unwanted men in Samaria to find His deliverance first.
7:6 the Lord had caused the camp of Syria to hear a sound of chariotry The Hittites here were kingdoms to the north, in what is now Syria and Turkey. God did not need Israel's army or even real chariots. A sound was enough. In chapter 6 He opened eyes, and here He opened ears.

to his brother, "Look, the king of Israel (Yisra'el) has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Egypt (Mitsrayim) to come against us." 7 And they arose and fled in the twilight, and they abandoned their tents and their horses and their donkeys, the camp just as it was, and they fled for their life. 8 And these lepers came to the edge of the camp, and they went into one tent and ate and drank, and they carried off from there silver and gold and clothes, and went and hid them; and they returned and went into another tent and carried off from there, and went and hid them. 9 And they said each to his neighbor, "We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we are keeping silent. If we wait until the light of the morning, iniquity will find us. And now, come, and let us go and tell the house of the king." 10 And they came and called to the gatekeeper of the city, and they told them, saying, "We came to the camp of Syria, and look, there was not a man there, or the sound of mankind, but the horses tied and the donkeys tied, and the tents just as they were." 11 And he called the gatekeepers, and they told it to the house of the king within.

The Siege Lifted

12 And the king arose in the night and said to his servants, "Let me tell you, please, what Syria has done to us. They know that we are hungry, and they have gone out from the camp to hide in the field, saying, 'When they come out from the city, we will seize them alive, and we will go into the city.'" 13 And one of his servants answered and said, "Please let some take five of the remaining horses that are left in it; look, they are like all the multitude of Israel that are left in it; look, they are like all the multitude of Israel that have come to an end; and let us send and see." 14 And they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them after the camp of Syria, saying, "Go and see." 15 And they went after them to the Jordan (Yarden), and look, all the way was full of clothes and equipment which Syria had thrown away in their haste. And the messengers returned and told the king. 16 And the people went out and plundered the camp of Syria. And there was approximately 7 quarts (a seah) of fine flour for a shekel and approximately 14 quarts (two seahs) of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD. 17 And the king had appointed the officer on whose hand he leaned over the gate; and the people trampled him in the gate, and he died, just as the man of God had spoken, who spoke when the king came down to him. 18 And it was, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, "Approximately 14 quarts (two seahs) of barley for a shekel, and approximately 7 quarts (a seah) of fine flour for a shekel, will be about this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria," 19 and the officer had answered the man of God and said, "And look, if the LORD were making windows in the heavens, could it be according to this word?" And he said, "Look, you will see it with your eyes, and from there you will not eat." 20 And it happened to him so; and the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

2 KINGS 8

The Shunammite's Land Restored

1 And Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise and go, you and your household, and sojourn wherever you can sojourn; for the LORD has called for the famine, and it will also come to the land seven years." 2 And the woman arose and did according to the word of the man of God; and she went, she and her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years. 3 And it was at the end of seven years, and the woman returned from the land of the Philistines; and she went out to cry out to the king for her house and for her field. 4 And the king was speaking to Gehazi (Gechazi), the servant of the man of God, saying, "Please recount to me all the great things that Elisha has done." 5 And it was, he was recounting to the king how he had restored the dead to life, and look, the woman whose son he had restored to life was crying out to the king for her house and for her field. And Gehazi said, "My lord the king, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life." 6 And the king asked the woman, and she recounted

7:7 they arose and fled in the twilight At about the same hour the lepers set out.
7:8 ate and drank, and they carried off from there silver and gold and clothes They had been starving and suddenly had more than they could carry.
7:9 This day is a day of good news, and we are keeping silent One of the clearest pictures in the Bible of what those who know Christ should do. We were outsiders with nothing, and God gave us everything. The gospel is not ours to hide (Rom 1:14-16). Who around you is starving and does not know there is bread just outside the gate?
7:12 They know that we are hungry He thought it a trick, a reasonable military worry. But he did not connect it with Elisha's word. He was still the man who had given up waiting on the LORD.
7:15 all the way was full of clothes and equipment which Syria had thrown away in their haste The trail ran to the Jordan, about twenty-five miles east. There was no trap. They threw away whatever slowed them down.
7:16 according to the word of the LORD Not close to it. Exactly what God said.
7:17 the people trampled him in the gate, and he died The writer repeats the whole exchange so we cannot miss it (7:18-20). God's word came true twice in one day, in blessing and in judgment. Scoffers will mock the promise of Christ's coming (2 Pet 3:3-4), but the Lord will do just what He said.
8:1 the LORD has called for the famine The Shunammite of chapter 4. The writer arranges the Elisha stories by subject more than by date, so this may come before chapters 5 to 7. Famine was a covenant warning (Deut 28:23-24), but God warned this faithful woman ahead of time. He knows those who are His (2 Tim 2:19).
8:3 to cry out to the king for her house and for her field Someone had taken them while she was gone, maybe a neighbor or the crown.
8:5 this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life Not luck. God arranged the timing to the minute, and she got back her land and seven years of its harvest (8:6). How Gehazi, now a leper (5:27), was talking with the king, Scripture does not say. Perhaps this came before chapter 5. God works through the right person at the right time (Rom 8:28).

it to him. And the king assigned to her a certain official, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the produce of the field from the day that she left the land until now."

Hazael Murders Ben-hadad

7 And Elisha came to Damascus (Dameseq), and Ben-hadad the king of Syria (Aram) was sick; and it was told to him, saying, "The man of God has come here." 8 And the king said to Hazael (Chazahel), "Take a gift in your hand, and go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD through him, saying, 'Will I live through this sickness?'" 9 And Hazael went to meet him, and he took a gift in his hand, even every good thing of Damascus, the load of forty camels; and he came and stood before him and said, "Your son Ben-hadad the king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, 'Will I live through this sickness?'" 10 And Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him, 'You will surely live'; and the LORD has shown me that he will surely die." 11 And he fixed his face and set it until he was ashamed; and the man of God wept. 12 And Hazael said, "Why is my lord weeping?" And he said, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the sons of Israel (Yisra'el): their fortresses you will send into fire, and their young men you will kill with the sword, and their infants you will dash in pieces, and their pregnant women you will rip open." 13 And Hazael said, "But what is your servant, the dog, that he should do this great thing?" And Elisha said, "The LORD has shown me you as king over Syria." 14 And he went from Elisha and came to his master, and he said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he said, "He said to me, 'You will surely live.'" 15 And it was on the next day, and he took the coverlet and dipped it in water and spread it over his face, and he died. And Hazael reigned in his place.

Jehoram King of Judah

16 And in the fifth year of Joram (Yoram) the son of Ahab (Achav) the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat (Yehoshafat) was king of Judah (Yehuda), Jehoram (Yehoram) the son of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah became king. 17 He was a son of thirty-two years when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). 18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, just as the house of Ahab did, for the daughter of Ahab became his wife; and he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD. 19 And the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of David His servant, just as He had said to him to give him a lamp for his sons all the days. 20 In his days Edom rebelled from under the hand of Judah, and they made a king over themselves. 21 And Joram passed over to Zair (Tsa'ir), and all the chariotry with him. And it was, he arose by night and struck Edom, which was surrounding him, and the commanders of the chariotry; and the people fled to their tents. 22 And Edom rebelled from under the hand of Judah until this day. Then Libnah (Livna) rebelled at that time. 23 And the rest of the matters of Joram and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? 24 And Joram lay down with his fathers, and he was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Ahaziah (Achazyahu) his son reigned in his place.

Ahaziah King of Judah

25 In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab the king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram the king of Judah became king. 26 Ahaziah was a son of twenty-two years when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem; and the name of his mother was Athaliah (Atalyahu) the daughter of

8:7 The man of God has come here Ben-hadad once sent an army to seize Elisha (6:13-14). Now he wanted to hear from Israel's God. Hard times change how people see God's servants.
8:8 Hazael God told Elijah at Horeb to anoint Hazael king over Syria (1 Kgs 19:15). Elijah never did it in person, and now his successor finishes the task.
8:10 You will surely live; and the LORD has shown me that he will surely die The sickness would not kill him, but he would still die by another cause. Elisha told Hazael the truth on both counts.
8:11 the man of God wept He stared until Hazael felt the prophet saw right into him.
8:12 Because I know the evil that you will do to the sons of Israel The cruelties of war in that age would fall on Israel (10:32-33; 13:3, 7). Elisha wept because he loved his people. God's prophets did not deliver judgment with dry eyes. Jesus wept over Jerusalem (Luke 19:41-44).
8:13 But what is your servant, the dog Humble surprise or false modesty? God did not make Hazael do evil. He knew Hazael's heart and would use this cruel man as a rod to discipline Israel (Isa 10:5).
8:15 he took the coverlet and dipped it in water and spread it over his face, and he died A coverlet was a thick cloth. Most teachers believe Hazael smothered the king. Some think the cloth was to cool a fever. His half-truth in verse 14 points to murder. Hazael ruled from about 842 B.C. and was a constant scourge to Israel.
8:16 Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah became king He began as co-regent with his father, from about 853 B.C., and reigned alone about 848 to 841 B.C. (2 Chr 21).
8:18 the daughter of Ahab became his wife Athaliah, daughter of Ahab and probably Jezebel. Jehoshaphat sealed his peace with Ahab by this marriage (2 Chr 18:1), and the good father's alliance became the son's ruin. Jehoram killed all his brothers (2 Chr 21:4). Marriage shapes a family for generations (Deut 7:3-4; 2 Cor 6:14).
8:19 to give him a lamp for his sons all the days A light that keeps burning, a living descendant on David's throne (2 Sam 7:16). No matter how bad a king of Judah was, God would not let David's line go out. That promise leads straight to Jesus, whose kingdom will have no end (Luke 1:32-33).
8:20 Edom rebelled from under the hand of Judah Edom had been under Judah since David (2 Sam 8:14). Isaac told Esau that one day he would break his brother's yoke (Gen 27:40), and so it happened.
8:22 then Libnah rebelled at that time A town on Judah's western border. Chronicles gives the reason: he had forsaken the LORD (2 Chr 21:10). "Joram" in verse 21 is the short form of Jehoram of Judah.
8:24 Joram lay down with his fathers He died of a terrible disease, and no one was sorry (2 Chr 21:18-20).
8:26 Ahaziah was a son of twenty-two years when he became king About 841 B.C. Second Chronicles 22:2 has forty-two in the Hebrew, which cannot be right since his father died at forty (8:17). Most think a copyist erred, and many English Bibles read twenty-two in both places.
8:26 Athaliah the daughter of Omri the king of Israel Omri was Ahab's father, so daughter here means granddaughter. She counseled her son to do evil (2 Chr 22:3). Jezebel's influence had reached into Jerusalem.

Omri the king of Israel. 27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD like the house of Ahab, for he was a son-in-law of the house of Ahab. 28 And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the battle against Hazael the king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead (Ramot-Gilad); and the Arameans wounded Joram. 29 And Joram the king returned to be healed in Jezreel (Yizre'el) from the wounds which the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramah (Rama), when he fought against Hazael the king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram the king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, for he was sick.

Jehu Anointed King of Israel

1 And Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him, "Gird up your loins, and take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth-gilead (Ramot-Gilad). 2 And you shall go in there, and look there for Jehu (Yehu) the son of Jehoshaphat (Yehoshafat) the son of Nimshi; and you shall go in and make him rise from the midst of his brothers, and bring him into a chamber within a chamber. 3 And you shall take the flask of oil and pour it on his head and say, 'Thus says the LORD: "I have anointed you as king over Israel (Yisra'el)."' And you shall open the door and flee, and you shall not wait." 4 And the young man, the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. 5 And he came, and look, the commanders of the army were sitting. And he said, "I have a word for you, commander." And Jehu said, "For which of all of us?" And he said, "For you, commander." 6 And he arose and went into the house, and he poured the oil on his head and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'I have anointed you as king over the people of the LORD, over Israel. 7 And you shall strike the house of Ahab (Achav) your master, and I will avenge the blood of My servants the prophets and the blood of all the servants of the LORD from the hand of Jezebel (Izevel). 8 And the whole house of Ahab shall perish, and I will cut off from Ahab every one who urinates against a wall, and the one shut up and the one left free in Israel. 9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam (Yaravam) the son of Nebat (Nevat), and like the house of Baasha (Basha) the son of Ahijah (Achiya). 10 And the dogs shall devour Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel (Yizre'el), and there will be no one burying her.'" And he opened the door and fled. 11 And Jehu went out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, "Is it peace? Why did this madman come to you?" And he said to them, "You know the man and his talk." 12 And they said, "A lie! Tell us, please." And he said, "Like this and like this he spoke to me, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: "I have anointed you as king over Israel."'" 13 And they hurried, and they took each his garment and put it under him on the bare steps; and they blew the trumpet and said, "Jehu is king!"

Jehu Kills Joram and Ahaziah

14 And Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram (Yoram). And Joram had been keeping guard at Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael (Chaza'el) the king of Syria (Aram); 15 and Joram (Yehoram) the king had returned to be healed in Jezreel from the wounds which the Arameans had inflicted on him when he fought against Hazael the king of Syria. And Jehu said, "If it is your will, let no escapee go out from the city to go to tell it in Jezreel." 16 And Jehu rode and went to Jezreel, for Joram was lying there; and Ahaziah (Achazya) the king of Judah (Yehuda) had come down to see Joram. 17 And the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he saw the company of Jehu as he came, and he said, "I see a company." And Joram said, "Take a horseman and send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'" 18 And the rider of the horse went to meet him and said, "Thus says the king: 'Is it peace?'" And Jehu said, "What is there to you and to peace? Turn around behind me." And the watchman reported, saying, "The messenger came to them, and he has not returned." 19 And he sent a second rider of a horse, and he came to them and said, "Thus says the king: 'Peace?'" And Jehu said, "What is there to you and to peace? Turn around behind me." 20 And the watchman reported, saying, "He came to them, and he has not returned; and the driving is 8:29 Joram the king returned to be healed in Jezreel Ramoth-gilead was where Ahab died (1 Kgs 22). It looks like a family visit, but God was bringing both kings of Ahab's house to the same place at the same time.

9:1 take this flask of oil in your hand Anointing with oil set a person apart for a task from God, especially a king (1 Sam 10:1; 16:13).
9:3 open the door and flee Dangerous work. Anointing a new king while the old one lived was treason in the eyes of the court. Jehu's father Jehoshaphat was not the king of Judah.
9:6 over the people of the LORD, over Israel Even in their sin, Israel belonged to Him.
9:7 I will avenge the blood of My servants the prophets Jezebel killed the LORD's prophets (1 Kgs 18:4, 13) and with Ahab murdered Naboth and his sons (1 Kgs 21; 9:26). That blood cried out to God, and He had not forgotten.
9:8 the whole house of Ahab shall perish Like the houses of Jeroboam and Baasha (1 Kgs 15:29; 16:11-12). Ahab's house was warned again and again and even given more time when he humbled himself (1 Kgs 21:27-29). God is patient, but His patience is not endless (Rom 12:19).
9:11 Why did this madman come to you The soldiers seem to have thought little of prophets.
9:13 they took each his garment and put it under him A sign of honor for a king, much like the crowds before Jesus (Matt 21:8). Joram had lost his army's loyalty.
9:15 Joram the king had returned to be healed in Jezreel About forty miles away. Jehu let no one slip out to warn him.
9:20 he drives with madness Jehu was known for driving his chariot like a wild man. Even at a distance, they knew him by how he came.

like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi, for he drives with madness." 21 And Joram said, "Harness." And one harnessed his chariot. And Joram the king of Israel and Ahaziah the king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu; and they found him in the portion of land of Naboth (Navot) the Jezreelite. 22 And it was, when Joram saw Jehu, and he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?" And he said, "What peace, while the prostitutions of Jezebel your mother and her sorceries are many?" 23 And Joram turned his hands and fled, and he said to Ahaziah, "Treachery, Ahaziah!" 24 And Jehu filled his hand with the bow, and he struck Joram between his arms, and the arrow went out from his heart, and he sank down in his chariot. 25 And he said to Bidkar (Bidqar) his officer, "Pick him up, throw him into the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember, I and you were riding in pairs behind Ahab his father, and the LORD lifted up this oracle against him: 26 'Surely I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons,' declares the LORD, 'and I will repay you in this portion of land,' declares the LORD. And now, pick him up, throw him into the portion of land, according to the word of the LORD." 27 And Ahaziah the king of Judah saw, and he fled by the way of Beth-haggan (Bet-Hagan). And Jehu pursued after him and said, "Him also, strike him down in the chariot," at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam (Yivle'am). And he fled to Megiddo (Megido) and died there. 28 And his servants made him ride to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim), and they buried him in his grave with his fathers in the city of David. 29 And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab, Ahaziah had become king over Judah.

The Death of Jezebel

30 And Jehu came to Jezreel, and Jezebel heard; and she put eye paint on her eyes and adorned her head, and she looked down through the window. 31 And Jehu came in at the gate, and she said, "Is it peace, Zimri, murderer of his master?" 32 And he lifted up his face to the window and said, "Who is with me? Who?" And two or three officials looked down at him. 33 And he said, "Let her fall." And they let her fall, and some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses, and he trampled her. 34 And he went in and ate and drank, and he said, "Attend, please, to this cursed woman and bury her, for she is a king's daughter." 35 And they went to bury her, and they did not find anything of her except the skull and the feet and the palms of the hands. 36 And they returned and told him, and he said, "It is the word of the LORD which He spoke by the hand of His servant Elijah (Eliyahu) the Tishbite, saying, 'In the territory of Jezreel the dogs shall devour the flesh of Jezebel; 37 and the corpse of Jezebel shall be like dung on the face of the field in the territory of Jezreel, so that they will not say, "This is Jezebel."'"

2 KINGS 10

The Sons of Ahab Killed

1 And Ahab (Achav) had seventy sons in Samaria (Shomron). And Jehu (Yehu) wrote letters and sent them to Samaria, to the officials of Jezreel (Yizre'el), the elders, and to the guardians of Ahab, saying, 2 "And now, when this letter comes to you, and the sons of your master are with you, and the chariotry and the horses are with you, and a fortified city and the weaponry, 3 then you shall select the good and the upright of the sons of your master and set him on the throne of his father, and fight for the house of your master." 4 And they were very, very afraid, and they said, "Look, the two kings did not stand before him; and how shall we stand, we?" 5 And the one who was over the house, and the one who was over the city, and the elders and the guardians sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, and all that you say to us we

9:21 in the portion of land of Naboth the Jezreelite Of all places to meet. Where Ahab's sin was committed, his son's judgment fell.
9:22 What peace, while the prostitutions of Jezebel your mother and her sorceries are many In the Bible prostitution often means idolatry, unfaithfulness to the LORD like adultery in a marriage (Hos 2:2-5). Sorceries are witchcraft. There can be no real peace where sin is welcomed and unrepented.
9:26 Surely I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons This tells us what 1 Kings 21 did not. Naboth's sons were killed too, so no heir could claim the vineyard. No injustice is hidden from God. If you have been wronged and no one on earth has made it right, God has seen, and He will repay (Heb 10:30).
9:27 at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam South of Jezreel. Second Chronicles 22:7-9 says his downfall was from God and that he hid in Samaria and was found. Many put the accounts together: wounded near Ibleam, he reached Megiddo and the region of Samaria, hid, and was found and killed.
9:29 in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab Verse 8:25 says the twelfth, likely two ways of counting a king's first partial year.
9:30 she put eye paint on her eyes and adorned her head She did not run or repent. She dressed as a queen to meet death on her own terms.
9:31 Is it peace, Zimri, murderer of his master Zimri killed King Elah and lasted seven days (1 Kgs 16:9-18). She was mocking Jehu: you will not last either.
9:33 Let her fall Two or three palace servants, likely men who had served and perhaps suffered under her. The writer does not tell this for shock but to show God's word came true.
9:34 he went in and ate and drank Jehu was cold about it. She was a king's daughter, of Ethbaal of Sidon (1 Kgs 16:31).
9:36 It is the word of the LORD which He spoke by the hand of His servant Elijah the Tishbite Spoken more than ten years before (1 Kgs 21:23). Elijah was in heaven, but his word had not died. God's warnings are as sure as His promises, and pride goes before destruction (Prov 16:18).
9:37 This is Jezebel No tomb and no marker. Her name lived on only as a warning. Jesus uses it for a false teacher in Thyatira who was given time to repent and refused (Rev 2:20). God is still patient, and judgment still comes. Today is the day to turn to Him.
10:1 Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria Sons here likely means sons and grandsons, the male line of the royal house, raised by guardians among the leading men. Any one could become a rallying point against Jehu. His letter was a threat forcing them to choose sides.
10:5 We are your servants Their loyalty to Ahab's house was about power, not principle. When the power shifted, so did they.

We will not make anyone king; do what is good in your eyes." 6 And he wrote to them a second letter, saying, "If you are mine, and you are listening to my voice, take the heads of the men, the sons of your master, and come to me about this time tomorrow to Jezreel." And the sons of the king, seventy men, were with the great men of the city, who were bringing them up. 7 And it was, when the letter came to them, and they took the sons of the king and slaughtered seventy men, and they put their heads in baskets and sent them to him to Jezreel. 8 And the messenger came and told him, saying, "They have brought the heads of the sons of the king." And he said, "Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning." 9 And it was in the morning, and he went out and stood, and he said to all the people, "You are righteous. Look, I conspired against my master and killed him; but who struck down all these? 10 Know then that nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab, will fall to the ground; and the LORD has done what He spoke by the hand of His servant Elijah (Eliyahu)." 11 And Jehu struck down all who remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men and his acquaintances and his priests, until he had not left him a survivor. 12 And he arose and came and went to Samaria. He was at Beth-eked (Bet-Eqed) of the shepherds on the way, 13 and Jehu found the brothers of Ahaziah (Achazyahu) the king of Judah (Yehuda), and he said, "Who are you?" And they said, "We are the brothers of Ahaziah, and we have come down to greet the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother." 14 And he said, "Seize them alive." And they seized them alive and slaughtered them at the pit of Beth-eked, forty-two men; and he did not leave a man of them. 15 And he went from there, and he found Jonadab (Yehonadav) the son of Rechab (Rekhav) coming to meet him; and he blessed him and said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart?" And Jonadab said, "It is." "And if it is, give your hand." And he gave his hand, and he took him up to himself into the chariot. 16 And he said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD." And they made him ride in his chariot. 17 And he came to Samaria, and he struck down all who remained of Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken to Elijah.

Jehu Destroys the Worship of Baal

18 And Jehu gathered all the people and said to them, "Ahab served the Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much. 19 And now, call to me all the prophets of the Baal, all who serve him and all his priests; let not a man be missing, for I have a great sacrifice for the Baal. Anyone who is missing shall not live." And Jehu acted with cunning, in order to destroy those who serve the Baal. 20 And Jehu said, "Sanctify a solemn assembly for the Baal." And they proclaimed it. 21 And Jehu sent through all Israel (Yisra'el), and all who serve the Baal came, and there was not a man left who did not come. And they went into the house of the Baal, and the house of the Baal was filled from end to end. 22 And he said to the one who was over the wardrobe, "Bring out clothing for all who serve the Baal." And he brought out the clothing for them. 23 And Jehu went, and Jonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of the Baal; and he said to those who serve the Baal, "Search and see, lest there be here with you any of the servants of the LORD, but only those who serve the Baal by themselves." 24 And they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. And Jehu had stationed for himself eighty men outside, and he had said, "The man who escapes from the men whom I am bringing into your hands, his life shall be in place of his life." 25 And it was, when he had finished offering the burnt offering, and Jehu said to the runners and to the officers, "Go in, strike them down; let not a man come out." And they struck them down by the mouth of the sword, and the runners and the officers threw them out; and they went to the city of the house of the Baal. 26 And they brought out the sacred pillars of the house of the Baal and burned it. 27 And they pulled down the sacred pillar of the 10:7 they took the sons of the king and slaughtered seventy men I do not want to read past how dark this is. Seventy men died for the family they were born into, killed by those meant to protect them. The heaps at the gate (10:8) were the way of ancient warfare, a public sign the old dynasty was finished.

10:9 but who struck down all these Clever. He admitted killing Joram but spread the blame, so the people were now part of it.
10:10 nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab, will fall to the ground To fall to the ground means to fail. Elijah's word was coming to pass (1 Kgs 21:21-24).
10:11 all his great men and his acquaintances and his priests God named Ahab's house. Jehu went further, to officials, friends and priests. Many teachers see here his zeal running past God's command into ambition.
10:13 the brothers of Ahaziah the king of Judah Relatives, for Chronicles calls them sons of Ahaziah's brothers (2 Chr 22:8). They were of David's line, though related to Ahab through Athaliah, and God's word did not name them. Many see this too as going beyond God's command, and with so many royal men dead, Athaliah could seize Judah's throne (11:1).
10:15 Jonadab the son of Rechab Leader of the Rechabites, who lived in tents, drank no wine and were known for faithfulness to the LORD and their father's rules for generations (Jer 35:6-10).
10:16 see my zeal for the LORD Zeal is burning eagerness. Jehu wanted a godly man's name to give his revolution a holy face. Real zeal for God does not need to be seen (Matt 6:1).
10:19 Jehu acted with cunning Scripture records his trick. It does not praise his lie. God's people are to speak the truth (Eph 4:25).
10:21 the house of the Baal The temple Ahab built in Samaria (1 Kgs 16:32).
10:23 servants of the LORD No one who belonged to the LORD would be caught in what came next.
10:27 they made it into latrines until this day The most shameful thing they could do to it.

Baal, and they pulled down the house of the Baal, and they made it into latrines until this day.

The Reign of Jehu

28 And Jehu destroyed the Baal from Israel. 29 Only the sins of Jeroboam (Yaravam) the son of Nebat (Nevat), with which he caused Israel to sin, Jehu did not turn aside from after them: the calves of gold that were in Bethel (Bet-El) and that were in Dan. 30 And the LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in doing what is right in My eyes, and according to all that was in My heart you have done to the house of Ahab, sons of the fourth generation shall sit for you on the throne of Israel." 31 And Jehu did not take care to walk in the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam, with which he caused Israel to sin. 32 In those days the LORD began to cut off in Israel; and Hazael (Chaza'el) struck them in all the territory of Israel, 33 from the Jordan (Yarden) toward the rising of the sun, all the land of Gilead (Gilad), the Gadites and the Reubenites and the Manassites, from Aroer (Aro'er), which is by the wadi Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan. 34 And the rest of the matters of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? 35 And Jehu lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; and Jehoahaz (Yeho'achaz) his son reigned in his place. 36 And the days that Jehu reigned over Israel were twenty-eight years in Samaria.

Athaliah and the Hidden King

1 And Athaliah (Atalya), the mother of Ahaziah (Achazyahu), saw that her son was dead, and she arose and destroyed all the offspring of the kingdom. 2 And Jehosheba (Yehosheva), the daughter of King Joram (Yoram), the sister of Ahaziah, took Joash (Yo'ash) the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the sons of the king who were being put to death, him and his nurse, in the chamber of the beds; and they hid him from before Athaliah, and he was not put to death. 3 And he was with her in the house of the LORD, hiding himself six years, and Athaliah was reigning over the land.

Joash Crowned

4 And in the seventh year Jehoiada (Yehoyada) sent and took the commanders of the hundreds of the Carites and of the runners, and he brought them to himself into the house of the LORD; and he made a covenant with them and put them under oath in the house of the LORD, and he showed them the son of the king. 5 And he commanded them, saying, "This is the thing that you shall do: the third of you who come in on the Sabbath and keep the watch of the house of the king, 6 and the third shall be at the Gate of Sur, and the third at the gate behind the runners; and you shall keep the watch of the house by turns. 7 And the two divisions among you, all who go out on the Sabbath, they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD for the king. 8 And you shall surround the king all around, each man and his weapons in his hand; and the one who comes into the ranks shall be put to death. And be with the king when he goes out and when he comes in." 9 And the commanders of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded; and they took each man his men, those who came in on the Sabbath with those who went out on the Sabbath, and they came to Jehoiada the 10:28 Jehu destroyed the Baal from Israel The Law said those who led Israel to other gods must die (Deut 13:6-11; 17:2-5), as Elijah did at the Kishon (1 Kgs 18:40). Israel was a nation under God's direct rule, and idolatry was treason against her King. We do not live under that covenant as a nation. Christ's people fight with the word and prayer, not the sword (2 Cor 10:3-5; Eph 6:12). But God still takes false worship seriously.

10:29 the calves of gold that were in Bethel and that were in Dan He tore down Baal but kept Jeroboam's calves, probably for Jeroboam's reason, to keep the people from Jerusalem. His religion served his throne. It is possible to fight hard against one sin while holding on to the one that keeps us comfortable and in control.
10:30 sons of the fourth generation shall sit for you on the throne of Israel God commended Jehu's judgment on Ahab's house and on Baal. Jehoahaz, Jehoash, Jeroboam II and Zechariah all reigned (15:12).
10:31 Jehu did not take care to walk in the law of the LORD He did the job but never gave God his heart. Later God said, "I will visit the bloodshed of Jezreel on the house of Jehu" (Hos 1:4). How could He commend and then judge? Jehu went beyond God's command, his motives were set on his own power, and God judges the heart (1 Sam 16:7), and his house kept the calves. A good result does not make every means good. Zechariah, the fourth, was murdered after six months (15:8-12), and Jehu's house ended in blood.
10:32 the LORD began to cut off in Israel Hazael took all the land east of the Jordan, as Elisha foresaw with tears (8:12), the lands Moses gave the two and a half tribes (Num 32). God used a foreign king to discipline His people.
10:36 twenty-eight years About 841 to 814 B.C. The Black Obelisk of Shalmaneser III shows Jehu, or his envoy, bowing before the king of Assyria with tribute. The man who drove like a madman still bowed before a greater earthly power. Only a heart that bows to the LORD is truly free.
11:1 she arose and destroyed all the offspring of the kingdom Instead of grieving, she grabbed for power and killed her own grandchildren. God had promised David's throne would last forever (2 Sam 7:16), and the Messiah would come from his line. This was an attack on God's promise itself. From the start the enemy has tried to destroy the seed of the woman (Gen 3:15), through Pharaoh and later Herod (Matt 2:16). Every time, God kept one child safe.
11:2 Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, the sister of Ahaziah Joram here is Jehoram of Judah. She was the baby's aunt, likely Athaliah's stepdaughter, and the wife of Jehoiada the priest (2 Chr 22:11). She risked her life. We never know how much may hang on one quiet act of courage for God.
11:3 in the house of the LORD, hiding himself six years Athaliah worshiped Baal and had no interest in the LORD's temple. The safest place for God's king was God's house.
11:4 the Carites and of the runners The Carites were likely foreign soldiers of the royal guard, and the runners the king's bodyguard. Imagine those hardened soldiers seeing a seven-year-old and learning David's line was alive.
11:7 the two divisions among you, all who go out on the Sabbath Jehoiada kept both the incoming and outgoing Sabbath guards at the temple, doubling his force without raising suspicion. He waited six years and then planned carefully. Faith and wisdom go together.

The Death of Athaliah

13 And Athaliah heard the sound of the runners, the people, and she came to the people at the house of the LORD. 14 And she looked, and look, the king was standing by the pillar according to the custom, and the commanders and the trumpets were with the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing on trumpets. And Athaliah tore her clothes and called out, "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!" 15 And Jehoiada the priest commanded the commanders of the hundreds, the appointed officers of the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks, and the one who comes after her, put him to death with the sword." For the priest had said, "Let her not be put to death in the house of the LORD." 16 And they laid hands on her, and she went by the way of the entrance of the horses to the house of the king, and she was put to death there. 17 And Jehoiada made the covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, to become a people for the LORD, and between the king and the people. 18 And all the people of the land went to the house of the Baal and tore it down; its altars and its images they broke in pieces thoroughly, and Mattan (Matan) the priest of the Baal they killed before the altars. And the priest appointed overseers over the house of the LORD. 19 And he took the commanders of the hundreds and the Carites and the runners and all the people of the land, and they brought the king down from the house of the LORD and came by the way of the gate of the runners to the house of the king; and he sat on the throne of the kings. 20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet; and Athaliah they had put to death with the sword at the house of the king. 21 Jehoash (Yeho'ash) was a son of seven years when he became king.

Joash King of Judah

1 In the seventh year of Jehu (Yehu) Jehoash (Yeho'ash) became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). And the name of his mother was Zibiah (Tsivya) from Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva). 2 And Jehoash did the right in the eyes of the LORD all his days in which Jehoiada (Yehoyada) the priest instructed him. 3 Only the high places were not removed; the people were still sacrificing and burning incense on the high places.

Joash Repairs the Temple

4 And Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the holy things that is brought into the house of the LORD, the money of one who passes over, the money of each man for the souls of his valuation, all the money that comes up on the heart of a man to bring into the house of the LORD, 5 let the priests take it for themselves, each man from his acquaintance; and they shall repair the breach of the house wherever a breach is found there." 6 And it was, in the twenty-third year of 11:10 the spear and the shields that had belonged to King David David's own weapons guarding David's heir, a sign this was the true king.

11:12 put on him the crown and the testimony Most likely a copy of God's law or covenant. Every king was to have his own copy and read it all his life (Deut 17:18-20), ruling under God's word.
11:14 the king was standing by the pillar according to the custom His place on official occasions. "The people of the land" means the common people of Judah.
11:14 Conspiracy! Conspiracy Rich coming from her. She took the throne by murdering children. The wicked often accuse others of what they have done.
11:15 Let her not be put to death in the house of the LORD Jehoiada would not defile the temple with her blood.
11:16 she was put to death there She reigned about 841 to 835 B.C., the only ruler of Judah not of David's line. Her end was like her mother's.
11:17 to become a people for the LORD A covenant is a binding agreement. The king and people promised the LORD to be His people, and then king and people made promises to each other. Real change in a nation, church or family begins when people return to God.
11:18 Mattan the priest of the Baal they killed before the altars Athaliah brought Baal to Jerusalem as her mother did to Samaria. The Law said those who led God's people to other gods must die (Deut 13:6-10).
11:20 the city was quiet When God's rightful King takes His throne, there is joy and rest, a small picture of the day Jesus will sit on David's throne and reign in righteousness (Isa 9:6-7; Luke 1:32-33).
11:21 Jehoash was a son of seven years when he became king Jehoash and Joash are long and short forms of one name, the LORD has given. In the Hebrew Bible this is 12:1. Matthew's list skips Ahaziah, Joash and Amaziah (Matt 1:8), perhaps for their tie to Ahab's house or to keep his groups of fourteen (Matt 1:17). Either way, Joash's rescue kept the line alive, and Jesus came from it.
12:1 he reigned forty years in Jerusalem About 835 to 796 B.C. Kings usually names the mother of each king of Judah, because the queen mother had real influence, as Athaliah showed. Beersheba was in the far south of Judah.
12:2 all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him High praise with a quiet warning built in. He did right as long as Jehoiada taught him.
12:3 only the high places were not removed Hilltop places of worship, some for idols and some for the LORD outside the place He chose (Deut 12:5-14). Even good kings left them until Hezekiah and Josiah. Joash's reform was real but not complete.
12:4 all the money of the holy things Census money (Exod 30:12-16), money paid in place of a person vowed to God (Lev 27:1-8), and freewill gifts. Athaliah's sons had broken into the temple and used its holy things for the Baals (2 Chr 24:7). The boy who grew up in the temple loved God's house.
12:6 the priests had not repaired the breach of the house A breach is a crack or damage. Joash was about thirty. Scripture does not say why the work stalled. Even godly leaders need accountability. Good intentions do not fix walls, and there is no shame in setting up a better system.

King Jehoash, the priests had not repaired the breach of the house. 7 And King Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest and for the priests, and he said to them, "Why are you not repairing the breach of the house? And now, do not take money from your acquaintances, for you shall give it for the breach of the house." 8 And the priests agreed not to take money from the people and not to repair the breach of the house. 9 And Jehoiada the priest took one chest and bored a hole in its lid, and he put it beside the altar, on the right side as a man comes into the house of the LORD; and the priests who kept the threshold put there all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD. 10 And it was, when they saw that the money in the chest was much, and the scribe of the king and the high priest came up, and they tied up and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD. 11 And they gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of the doers of the work who were appointed over the house of the LORD; and they paid it out to the craftsmen of wood and to the builders who were working on the house of the LORD, 12 and to the masons and to the cutters of stone, and to buy timber and hewn stones to repair the breach of the house of the LORD, and for all that went out on the house to repair it. 13 Only, there were not made for the house of the LORD basins of silver, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, any article of gold and article of silver, from the money that was brought into the house of the LORD; 14 for they gave it to the doers of the work, and they repaired the house of the LORD with it. 15 And they did not settle accounts with the men into whose hand they gave the money to give to the doers of the work, for they were working in faithfulness. 16 The money of guilt offering and the money of sin offerings was not brought into the house of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.

Hazael Threatens Jerusalem

17 Then Hazael (Chaza'el) the king of Syria (Aram) went up and fought against Gath (Gat) and captured it; and Hazael set his face to go up against Jerusalem. 18 And Jehoash the king of Judah (Yehuda) took all the holy things that Jehoshaphat (Yehoshafat) and Jehoram (Yehoram) and Ahaziah (Achazyahu), his fathers, the kings of Judah, had consecrated, and his own holy things, and all the gold that was found in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and of the house of the king, and he sent them to Hazael the king of Syria; and he went up from against Jerusalem. 19 And the rest of the matters of Joash (Yo'ash) and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? 20 And his servants arose and conspired a conspiracy, and they struck down Joash at Beth-millo (Bet-Millo), which goes down to Silla (Sila). 21 And Jozabad (Yozavad) the son of Shimeath (Shimat) and Jehozabad (Yehozavad) the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him down, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Amaziah (Amatsya) his son reigned in his place.

Jehoahaz King of Israel

1 In the twenty-third year of Joash (Yo'ash) the son of Ahaziah (Achazyahu), the king of Judah (Yehuda), Jehoahaz (Yeho'achaz) the son of Jehu (Yehu) became king over Israel (Yisra'el) in Samaria (Shomron), seventeen years. 2 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, and he walked after the sins of Jeroboam (Yaravam) the son of Nebat (Nevat), with which he caused Israel to sin; he did not turn aside from it. 3 And the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He gave them into the hand of Hazael (Chaza'el) the king of Syria (Aram) and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, all the days. 4 And Jehoahaz entreated the face of the LORD, and the LORD listened to him, for He saw the oppres-

12:9 Jehoiada the priest took one chest and bored a hole in its lid Simple and visible. The king's scribe and the high priest counted together, which protected everyone. Silver was weighed, since coins were not yet in use. The people gave gladly (2 Chr 24:10-11). Paul handled gifts with the same care (2 Cor 8:20-21), and churches should too.
12:13 basins of silver, snuffers, bowls, trumpets Every bit went first to the building. Leftover money later made new articles (2 Chr 24:14). First the walls, then the furnishings.
12:15 they were working in faithfulness The supervisors were so honest no one needed to check their books. Trust is built by faithfulness over time.
12:16 The money of guilt offering and the money of sin offerings Still the priests' as the Law allowed (Lev 5:16; 7:7). The guilt offering was for wrongs that needed payment as well as forgiveness. The sin offering was for sins done without meaning to.
12:18 Jehoash the king of Judah took all the holy things Gath was a Philistine city near Judah's western border. With Jehoiada gone, Joash reached for gold instead of God, and the temple he restored was stripped to buy off an enemy (2 Chr 24:23-24).
12:20 his servants arose and conspired a conspiracy Beth-millo was a raised area or fortification in Jerusalem. Chronicles explains: after Jehoiada died, Joash turned to idols and had Jehoiada's son Zechariah stoned in the temple court (2 Chr 24:17-25). Many teachers believe this is the Zechariah Jesus named (Luke 11:51). Joash's faith was real while he had someone to lean on, but seems never to have been his own. Every one of us needs a faith rooted in the LORD Himself (2 Tim 3:14-15). The people who teach us will not always be there. God will.
13:1 Jehoahaz the son of Jehu became king over Israel in Samaria, seventeen years About 814 to 798 B.C., the first of the four generations promised to Jehu (10:30).
13:2 he walked after the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat The verdict we will hear over and over for Israel's kings. Every king kept the calves at Bethel and Dan (1 Kgs 12:26-30).
13:3 the anger of the LORD burned against Israel God used a cruel foreign king as a rod, as He warned (Lev 26:17), and as Elisha wept to foresee (8:12).
13:4 Jehoahaz entreated the face of the LORD, and the LORD listened to him An evil king prayed, and God listened, "for He saw the oppression of Israel." His mercy was moved by His people's suffering.

sion of Israel, that the king of Syria oppressed them. 5 And the LORD gave Israel a savior, and they went out from under the hand of Syria; and the sons of Israel dwelt in their tents as yesterday and the day before. 6 Nevertheless they did not turn aside from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with which he caused Israel to sin; in it he walked. And also the Asherah remained standing in Samaria. 7 For he had not left to Jehoahaz a people except fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand foot soldiers, for the king of Syria had destroyed them and made them like the dust for trampling. 8 And the rest of the matters of Jehoahaz and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? 9 And Jehoahaz lay down with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; and Joash his son reigned in his place.

Jehoash King of Israel

10 In the thirty-seventh year of Joash the king of Judah, Jehoash (Yeho'ash) the son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel in Samaria, sixteen years. 11 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD; he did not turn aside from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he caused Israel to sin; in it he walked. 12 And the rest of the matters of Joash and all that he did, and his might, how he fought with Amaziah (Amatsya) the king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? 13 And Joash lay down with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat on his throne; and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

The Death of Elisha

14 And Elisha had become sick with his sickness of which he would die. And Joash the king of Israel went down to him and wept over his face, and he said, "My father, my father, the chariotry of Israel and its horsemen!" 15 And Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and arrows." And he took to himself a bow and arrows. 16 And he said to the king of Israel, "Make your hand ride on the bow." And he made his hand ride on it, and Elisha put his hands on the hands of the king. 17 And he said, "Open the window eastward." And he opened it. And Elisha said, "Shoot." And he shot. And he said, "An arrow of salvation of the LORD, and an arrow of salvation against Syria; and you will strike Syria in Aphek (Afeq) until making an end of them." 18 And he said, "Take the arrows." And he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, "Strike toward the ground." And he struck three times and stopped. 19 And the man of God was angry with him and said, "You should have struck five or six times; then you would have struck Syria until making an end of them. And now three times you will strike Syria." 20 And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of Moab (Mo'av) would come into the land at the coming of a year. 21 And it was, they were burying a man, and look, they saw the band, and they threw the man into the grave of Elisha; and the man went and touched the bones of Elisha, and he lived and rose up on his feet. 22 And Hazael the king of Syria had oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. 23 And the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion on them and turned to them because of His covenant with Abraham (Avraham), Isaac (Yitschaq), and Jacob (Ya'aqov); and He was not willing to destroy them, and He did not throw them from His face until now. 24 And Hazael the king of Syria died, and Ben-hadad his son reigned in his 13:5 the LORD gave Israel a savior Scripture does not name him. Some think Jehoash (13:25), others Jeroboam II (14:25-27), and many point to the king of Assyria, who attacked Damascus about this time. "In their tents as yesterday and the day before" means living at home in peace again.

13:6 the Asherah remained standing in Samaria A wooden pole or image for the Canaanite goddess Asherah, set up by Ahab (1 Kgs 16:33) and left even by Jehu. God rescued them, and they went right back. How often do we pray hard in trouble and forget God when it passes?
13:7 fifty horsemen and ten chariots and ten thousand foot soldiers Solomon had fourteen hundred chariots (1 Kgs 10:26). Israel was "like the dust for trampling."
13:9 Joash his son reigned in his place Joash and Jehoash are two forms of one name. This is Jehoash of Israel, not Joash of Judah, though they reigned at the same time.
13:10 sixteen years About 798 to 782 B.C. The writer sums up a king, then goes back to tell the stories that matter most. His son is the one we call Jeroboam II (13:13).
13:14 Elisha had become sick with his sickness of which he would die After more than fifty years of service. Elijah went up in a whirlwind, and Elisha died of illness. God chooses how each servant finishes, and both endings honored Him.
13:14 My father, my father, the chariotry of Israel and its horsemen Elisha's own words over Elijah (2:12). The king knew the old prophet was Israel's real strength, and he still kept Jeroboam's calves.
13:16 Elisha put his hands on the hands of the king The power behind the shot would be God's.
13:17 An arrow of salvation of the LORD, and an arrow of salvation against Syria East was toward Gilead, the land Hazael took (10:32-33). Salvation here means victory in battle. Aphek was where Ahab once won (1 Kgs 20:26-30).
13:18 he struck three times and stopped Having just heard that the arrows meant victory, he went through the motions half-heartedly.
13:19 You should have struck five or six times The king's small faith set a limit on what he received. God is not stingy, but He often gives in answer to faith and eagerness (James 4:2). Do we pray and serve with our whole heart, or strike the ground three times and stop?
13:20 the bands of Moab would come into the land at the coming of a year Raiding bands each spring, the season for war.
13:21 he lived and rose up on his feet Elisha asked a double portion (2:9), and Scripture records about twice as many miracles for him. The power was never in Elisha but in God, and His word through Elisha still lived. This is the only such event in Scripture, and no one made a shrine of the grave. The Bible never tells us to seek help from the remains of the dead. The God who did this would raise His own Son, "the resurrection and the life" (John 11:25).
13:23 because of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob One of the most tender verses in Kings. Israel did not deserve mercy, but God kept His word (Gen 15:18; 17:7-8). "Until now" shows the writer knew of Samaria's fall (17:23). God's patience is long but not endless (2 Pet 3:9). His covenant still stands, and He has a future for Israel (Rom 11:25-29).

place. 25 And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz returned and took the cities from the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, which he had taken from the hand of Jehoahaz his father in the battle. Three times Joash struck him, and he restored the cities of Israel.

2 KINGS 14

Amaziah King of Judah

1 In the second year of Joash (Yo'ash) the son of Joahaz (Yo'achaz), the king of Israel (Yisra'el), Amaziah (Amatsyahu) the son of Joash, the king of Judah (Yehuda), became king. 2 He was a son of twenty-five years when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem
(Yerushalayim). And the name of his mother was Jehoaddan (Yeho'adan) from Jerusalem. 3 And he did the right in the eyes of the LORD, only not like David his father; according to all that Joash his father had done, he did. 4 Only the high places were not removed; the people were still sacrificing and burning incense on the high places. 5 And it was, as soon as the kingdom was firm in his hand, and he struck down his servants who had struck down the king his father. 6 And the sons of those who struck him down he did not put to death, according to what is written in the book of the law of Moses (Moshe), which the LORD commanded, saying, "Fathers shall not be put to death for sons, and sons shall not be put to death for fathers; but each man shall be put to death for his sin." 7 He struck down Edom in the Valley of Salt, ten thousand, and seized Sela in the battle, and he called its name Joktheel (Yoqte'el) to this day.

Amaziah and Jehoash at War

8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash (Yeho'ash) the son of Jehoahaz (Yeho'achaz) the son of Jehu (Yehu), the king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face." 9 And Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah the king of Judah, saying, "The thornbush that was in Lebanon
(Levanon) sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife.' And the living thing of the field that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thornbush. 10 You have certainly struck down Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Be honored, and stay at your house; and why should you engage in strife to your harm, and fall, you and Judah with you?" 11 And Amaziah did not listen. And Jehoash the king of Israel went up, and they looked one another in the face, he and Amaziah the king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh (Bet-Shemesh), which belongs to Judah. 12 And Judah was defeated before Israel, and they fled, each man to his tents. 13 And Amaziah the king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah (Achazyahu), Jehoash the king of Israel seized at Beth-shemesh; and he came to Jerusalem and made a breach in the wall of Jerusalem, at the Gate of Ephraim (Efrayim) as far as the Gate of the Corner, approximately 600 feet (four hundred cubits). 14 And he took all the gold and the silver and all the articles that were found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the house of the king, and the hostages, and he returned to Samaria (Shomron). 15 And the rest of the matters of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah the king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? 16 And Jehoash lay down with his fathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam (Yaravam) his son reigned in his place.

The Death of Amaziah

17 And Amaziah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, lived after the death of Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel, fifteen years. 18 And the rest of the matters of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? 19 And they conspired a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish (Lakhish); and they sent after him to Lachish and put him to 13:25 three times Joash struck him Just as Elisha said, not five or six. God kept His promise, and the king's half-hearted faith kept the victory partial.

14:1 Amaziah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, became king About 796 to 767 B.C. Joahaz is a short form of Jehoahaz.
14:3 only not like David his father David is the measuring line for every king of Judah. Amaziah did right "only not with a complete heart" (2 Chr 25:2), and later he even worshiped the gods of Edom (2 Chr 25:14).
14:6 the sons of those who struck him down he did not put to death Ancient kings often wiped out a traitor's family. Amaziah held back because God's Word said so (Deut 24:16). Each person answers to God for his own sin (Ezek 18:20). God's Word should set the limits on what we do, even when our anger says otherwise.
14:7 he struck down Edom in the Valley of Salt, ten thousand Edom broke away under Jehoram (8:20-22). The Valley of Salt was likely south of the Dead Sea. Sela means rock, a fortress many think was at or near later Petra.
14:8 Come, let us look one another in the face A challenge to battle. Israelite soldiers Amaziah hired and sent home had raided Judah's towns (2 Chr 25:10, 13).
14:9 The thornbush that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon Jehoash's insulting fable. Judah was the thornbush, Israel the cedar.
14:10 your heart has lifted you up Good advice from a bad man. Pride had grown after one victory. "Before breaking is pride" (Prov 16:18).
14:11 Beth-shemesh A town in Judah west of Jerusalem.
14:13 at the gate of Ephraim as far as the gate of the corner About 600 feet of the north wall, the side facing Israel. A broken wall left the city open and humbled.
14:14 and the hostages Taken to make sure Judah behaved. Amaziah's father stripped the temple for Hazael (12:18), and now the son lost it to Israel through pride. Chronicles says it came from God, because he sought Edom's gods (2 Chr 25:20).
14:15 the rest of the matters of Jehoash A second formal close of his reign (13:12-13), placed here now that his war with Amaziah has been told.
14:19 they conspired a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish Lachish was a strong fortress southwest of Jerusalem. Chronicles links the plot to his turning from the LORD (2 Chr 25:27). Two kings in a row, father and son, were murdered by their own people. Half-hearted faith protected neither.

death there. 20 And they carried him on the horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David. 21 And all the people of Judah took Azariah (Azaryah), and he was a son of sixteen years, and they made him king in place of his father Amaziah. 22 He built Elath (Elat) and restored it to Judah after the king lay down with his fathers.

Jeroboam II King of Israel

23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash, the king of Israel, became king in Samaria, forty-one years. 24 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD; he did not turn aside from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat (Nevat), with which he caused Israel to sin. 25 He restored the border of Israel from Lebo-hamath (Levo-Chamat) to the sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, which He spoke by the hand of His servant Jonah (Yona) the son of Amittai (Amitay), the prophet who was from Gath-hepher (Gat-Hachefer). 26 For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter; and there was none shut up and none left, and there was no helper for Israel. 27 And the LORD had not spoken to wipe out the name of Israel from under the heavens; and He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash. 28 And the rest of the matters of Jeroboam and all that he did, and his might, how he fought and how he restored Damascus (Dameseq) and Hamath (Chamat) to Judah in Israel, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? 29 And Jeroboam lay down with his fathers, with the kings of Israel; and Zechariah (Zekharya) his son reigned in his place.

Azariah King of Judah

1 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam (Yaravam) the king of Israel (Yisra'el), Azariah (Azaryah) the son of Amaziah (Amatsya), the king of Judah (Yehuda), became king. 2 He was a son of sixteen years when he became king, and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). And the name of his mother was Jecoliah (Yekhalyahu) from Jerusalem. 3 And he did the right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Amaziah his father had done. 4 Only the high places were not removed; the people were still sacrificing and burning incense on the high places. 5 And the LORD struck the king, and he was leprous until the day of his death, and he dwelt in the house of separateness. And Jotham (Yotam) the son of the king was over the house, judging the people of the land. 6 And the rest of the matters of Azariah (Azaryahu) and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? 7 And Azariah lay down with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David; and Jotham his son reigned in his place.

Zechariah and Shallum

8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Zechariah (Zekharyahu) the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in Samaria (Shomron), six months. 9 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his fathers had done; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat (Nevat), with which he caused Israel to sin. 10 And Shallum (Shalum) the son of Jabesh (Yavesh) conspired against him

14:21 Azariah, and he was a son of sixteen years Also called Uzziah (15:13, 32). Many believe he began reigning alongside his father, perhaps after Amaziah's capture, about 792 B.C., which explains how their dates overlap.
14:22 he built Elath and restored it to Judah A port on the Gulf of Aqaba, Judah's gateway to sea trade.
14:23 Jeroboam the son of Joash, the king of Israel, became king in Samaria, forty-one years We call him Jeroboam II. His years count from about 793 B.C., when he shared his father's throne, to 753 B.C.
14:25 he restored the border of Israel from Lebo-hamath to the sea of the Arabah From the entrance to Hamath in the far north to the Dead Sea, close to Solomon's borders (1 Kgs 8:65). Syria was weak and Assyria busy elsewhere.
14:25 Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet who was from Gath-hepher The same Jonah God sent to Nineveh (Jonah 1:1). Gath-hepher was in Galilee, a few miles from Nazareth. Jesus spoke of Jonah's three days in the fish as a sign of His own death and resurrection (Matt 12:40).
14:26 none shut up and none left, and there was no helper for Israel No one at all, slave or free, was spared. God's compassion moved before Israel repented.
14:27 He saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash Grace and one more chance. Israel used its new wealth for luxury and injustice. Amos and Hosea preached in these days (Amos 1:1; Hos 1:1), against those on beds of ivory while the poor were crushed (Amos 6:4), and Amos said Jeroboam's house would fall by the sword (Amos 7:9). Good times are not proof that God approves. Sometimes they are His patience giving room to repent (Rom 2:4).
14:28 he restored Damascus and Hamath to Judah in Israel The wording is hard, and teachers read it in a few ways. It may mean he brought these areas, once part of David and Solomon's kingdom, back under Israel's control. Zechariah would be the last of Jehu's four generations (10:30).
15:2 he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem About 792 to 740 B.C., counting years shared with his father and later his son.
15:3 he did the right in the eyes of the LORD Chronicles calls him Uzziah and tells much more: towers, wells, a love of farming, a strong army, and "in the days that he sought the LORD, God made him prosper" (2 Chr 26:5). Judah grew stronger than at any time since Solomon.
15:5 the LORD struck the king, and he was leprous until the day of his death A leper was unclean, unfit to come near God's house or live among the people (Lev 13:45-46). Kings gives the fact, and Chronicles the reason: in pride he went into the temple to burn incense, a work God gave only to priests (2 Chr 26:16-21). It was his father's sin, pride after success. Isaiah saw the Lord "in the year of the death of King Uzziah" (Isa 6:1). The king who pushed into God's presence was dead, and Isaiah saw the true King on His throne.
15:5 in the house of separateness A house set apart. Jotham ran the palace and judged the people.
15:8 Zechariah the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in Samaria, six months In 753 B.C.
15:10 struck him down before the people Killed in public.

Menahem King of Israel

13 Shallum the son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah (Uziya) the king of Judah, and he reigned a month of days in Samaria. 14 And Menahem (Menachem) the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah (Tirtsa) and came to Samaria, and he struck down Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria and put him to death, and he reigned in his place. 15 And the rest of the matters of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he conspired, look, they are written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel. 16 Then Menahem struck Tiphsah (Tifsach) and all who were in it and its territories from Tirzah, for it did not open; and he struck it; all its pregnant women he ripped open. 17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi became king over Israel, ten years in Samaria. 18 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he caused Israel to sin, all his days. 19 Pul the king of Assyria (Ashur) came against the land; and Menahem gave to Pul approximately 75,000 pounds (a thousand talents) of silver, for his hands to be with him, to strengthen the kingdom in his hand. 20 And Menahem exacted the silver from Israel, from all the mighty men of wealth, to give to the king of Assyria, approximately 20 ounces (fifty shekels) of silver for each man. And the king of Assyria returned and did not remain there in the land. 21 And the rest of the matters of Menahem and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel? 22 And Menahem lay down with his fathers, and Pekahiah (Peqachya) his son reigned in his place.

Pekahiah and Pekah

23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah the king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, two years. 24 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he caused Israel to sin. 25 And Pekah (Peqach) the son of Remaliah (Remalyahu), his officer, conspired against him and struck him down in Samaria, in the citadel of the house of the king, with Argob (Argov) and with Arieh (Arye); and with him were fifty men of the sons of the Gileadites. And he put him to death and reigned in his place. 26 And the rest of the matters of Pekahiah and all that he did, look, they are written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel. 27 In the fifty-second year of Azariah the king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah became king over Israel in Samaria, twenty years. 28 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD; he did not turn aside from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he caused Israel to sin. 29 In the days of Pekah the king of Israel, Tiglath-pileser (Tiglat-Pileser) the king of Assyria came and took Ijon (Iyon) and Abel-beth-maacah (Avel-Bet-Ma'akha) and Janoah (Yanoach) and Kedesh (Qedesh) and Hazor (Chatsor) and Gilead (Gilad) and Galilee (Galil), all the land of Naphtali (Naftali); and he carried them into exile to Assyria. 30 And Hoshea the son of Elah (Ela) conspired a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck him down and put him to death, and he reigned in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. 31 And the rest of the matters of Pekah and all that he did, look, they are written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Israel.

15:12 That was the word of the LORD which He spoke to Jehu Jehoahaz, Jehoash, Jeroboam II and Zechariah. God's promise came true exactly (10:30), and so did His warning about the bloodshed of Jezreel (Hos 1:4). The house of Jehu began in blood and ended in blood.
15:13 he reigned a month of days in Samaria In 752 B.C. Tirzah was the old capital before Samaria. The man who seized the throne by murder lost it the same way (Matt 26:52).
15:16 Then Menahem struck Tiphsah I will not dwell on the cruelty. The Bible records it so we know how far Israel had fallen. An Israelite king did to his own people what Elisha wept to think Hazael would do (8:12), the crime Amos condemned in Ammon (Amos 1:13). When a nation turns from God, it soon turns on the weak. God sees, and He judges such cruelty.
15:17 ten years in Samaria About 752 to 742 B.C.
15:19 Pul the king of Assyria came against the land Another name for Tiglath-pileser III, who built Assyria into a great empire (1 Chr 5:26 uses both names). Menahem paid about 75,000 pounds of silver to keep his shaky throne.
15:20 all the mighty men of wealth Fifty shekels each, about 20 ounces, which some figure means about sixty thousand men taxed. A turning point: Israel now paid tribute to Assyria. Hosea called Ephraim, another name for Israel, a silly dove calling to Egypt and going to Assyria (Hos 7:11). Israel looked everywhere for help except to the LORD.
15:23 Pekahiah the son of Menahem became king over Israel in Samaria, two years About 742 to 740 B.C.
15:25 Pekah the son of Remaliah, his officer, conspired against him The citadel was the strongest part of the palace. The Hebrew can be read that Argob and Arieh died with the king or helped kill him.
15:27 twenty years Hard to fit if counted from here, since Israel fell less than twenty years later. Many believe Pekah had set himself up as a rival king in Gilead about 752 B.C., when Menahem took Samaria, and his years count from then.
15:29 he carried them into exile to Assyria About 733 to 732 B.C. Exile means being carried from your homeland as captives, which Assyria did to break conquered peoples. This was Israel's first great exile. Isaiah spoke of this land, Zebulun and Naphtali humbled first, but "Galilee of the nations" (Isa 9:1) would see a great light. That light came when Jesus began His ministry in Galilee (Matt 4:13-16).
15:30 Hoshea the son of Elah conspired a conspiracy against Pekah Hoshea became Israel's last king. Four of the last six kings of Israel were murdered by the men who replaced them. "The twentieth year of Jotham" likely counts on from the start of his reign while Ahaz held most of the power.

Ahaz King of Judah

1 In the seventeenth year of Pekah (Peqach) the son of Remaliah (Remalyahu), Ahaz (Achaz) the son of Jotham (Yotam), the king of Judah (Yehuda), became king. 2 Ahaz was a son of twenty years when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim); and he did not do the right in the eyes of the LORD his God like David his father. 3 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel (Yisra'el), and he even made his son pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had dispossessed from before the sons of Israel. 4 And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places and on the hills and under every luxuriant tree. 5 Then Rezin (Retsin) the king of Syria (Aram) and Pekah the son of Remaliah, the king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem for battle; and they besieged Ahaz, and they were not able to fight. 6 At that time Rezin the king of Syria restored Elath (Elat) to Syria, and he cleared out the Judeans from Eloth (Elot); and the Edomites came to Elath and dwelt there to this day. 7 And Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser (Tiglat-Pileser) the king of Assyria (Ashur), saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me from the hand of the king of Syria and from the hand of the king of Israel, who are rising up against me." 8 And Ahaz took the silver and the gold that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the house of the king, and he sent it to the king of Assyria as a bribe. 9 And the king of Assyria listened to him, and the king of Assyria went up to Damascus (Dameseq) and seized it, and he carried it into exile to Kir (Qir), and Rezin he put to death.

16:13 Lev 1:1-3

15:33 he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem Counted from about 750 B.C., when he took charge for his leprous father, to about 732 B.C. His mother may have come from a priestly family.
15:34 he did the right in the eyes of the LORD He did not go into the temple as his father had, and "he had set his ways before the LORD his God" (2 Chr 27:6). He learned from his father's mistake.
15:37 the LORD began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah Notice who sends them. Syria and Israel were allying against Assyria and turned on Judah when she would not join. With Ahaz, Judah would take a long step down.
16:2 he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem Counted from about 735 B.C., when he began sharing power with Jotham, to about 715 B.C.
16:2 he did not do the right in the eyes of the LORD his God like David his father Uzziah and Jotham, for all their faults, did right. Ahaz did not. The LORD was still "his God" by covenant, whether Ahaz honored Him or not.
16:3 he even made his son pass through the fire Most take it as child sacrifice. Ahaz "burned his sons in the fire" (2 Chr 28:3) in the valley of the son of Hinnom, just south of Jerusalem. A few think it could mean a dedication rite, but Chronicles and the prophets make plain that real children died (Jer 7:31; Ezek 16:20-21). God forbade it in the strongest words and drove out the Canaanites for it (Lev 18:21; Deut 12:31; 18:10). False gods take the very lives they promise to protect. The LORD did not demand our children. He gave His own Son (Rom 8:32). Read this with care in a group. The same sin returns in 17:17 and 21:6.
16:4 under every luxuriant tree Green and leafy. Canaanites worshiped on hilltops and under green trees, thought to be full of life and fertility. Ahaz did not just leave the high places. He worshiped at them himself.
16:5 they were not able to fight They could not take the city. Syria and Israel wanted to replace Ahaz with a king of their own (Isa 7:6). Many in Judah were killed or captured before the prophet Oded had the captives sent home (2 Chr 28:5-15).
16:6 Rezin the king of Syria restored Elath to Syria The port Azariah rebuilt (14:22).
16:7 I am your servant and your son The words of a vassal, a lesser king who gives up his freedom. God sent Isaiah to tell Ahaz not to fear these burned-out sticks and to trust Him: "If you do not believe, surely you will not be established" (Isa 7:9). Ahaz refused God's sign, and God gave it anyway: "the virgin is pregnant and bearing a son" (Isa 7:14), fulfilled when Jesus was born of the virgin Mary (Matt 1:22-23). Immanuel means God with us.
16:8 sent it to the king of Assyria as a bribe The writer calls it what it was.
16:9 he carried it into exile to Kir About 732 B.C. The plan worked for a time, but Judah now belonged to Assyria, which "distressed him" (2 Chr 28:20) and would come for Judah too (18:13; Isa 8:7-8). When we turn from God to the world for help, the world always sends a bill.
16:10 the likeness of the altar and its pattern Scripture does not say whether it was Assyrian or Syrian. God gave Moses the pattern for His altar (Exod 27:1-8).
16:11 Uriah the priest built the altar Isaiah names him a reliable witness (Isa 8:2), but here he went along without a word, unlike the eighty priests who stood up to Uzziah (2 Chr 26:17-18). A priest's job was to guard God's altar, not copy one from a pagan city.
16:13 he burned his burnt offering and his grain offering A burnt offering was wholly burned in worship and surrender, a grain offering was flour or bread given in thanks, a drink offering was wine poured out, and a peace offering was a fellowship meal. All the right forms on the wrong altar.

he burned his burnt offering and his grain offering, and he poured out his drink offering, and he sprinkled the blood of the peace offerings that were his on the altar. 14 And the bronze altar that was before the LORD, he brought near from the front of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and he put it on the side of the altar northward. 15 And King Ahaz commanded Uriah the priest, saying, "On the great altar burn the burnt offering of the morning and the grain offering of the evening, and the burnt offering of the king and his grain offering, and the burnt offering of all the people of the land and their grain offering and their drink offerings; and all the blood of a burnt offering and all the blood of a sacrifice you shall sprinkle on it. And the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by." 16 And Uriah the priest did according to all that King Ahaz commanded. 17 And King Ahaz cut off the rims of the stands and removed the laver from on them; and the sea he took down from on the bronze oxen that were under it, and he put it on a pavement of stones. 18 And the covered way of the Sabbath that they had built in the house, and the outer entrance of the king, he turned from the house of the LORD because of the king of Assyria. 19 And the rest of the matters of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? 20 And Ahaz lay down with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Hezekiah (Chizqiyahu) his son reigned in his place.

Hoshea and the Fall of Samaria

1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz (Achaz) the king of Judah (Yehuda), Hoshea the son of Elah (Ela) became king in Samaria (Shomron) over Israel (Yisra'el), nine years. 2 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, only not like the kings of Israel who were before him. 3 Against him Shalmaneser the king of Assyria (Ashur) came up; and Hoshea became a servant to him and rendered him tribute. 4 And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea, for he had sent messengers to So the king of Egypt (Mitsrayim), and he had not brought up tribute to the king of Assyria as year by year; and the king of Assyria shut him up and bound him in a house of prison. 5 And the king of Assyria came up into all the land, and he went up to Samaria and besieged it three years. 6 In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria captured Samaria and carried Israel into exile to Assyria, and he made them dwell in Halah (Chalach) and on the Habor (Chavor), the river of Gozan, and in the cities of Media (Maday).

Why Israel Was Exiled

7 And it was so, because the sons of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who brought them up from the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and they feared other gods, 8 and they walked in the statutes of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed from before the sons of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they made. 9 And the sons of Israel did secretly things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built for themselves high places in all their cities, from a tower of watchmen to a city of fortification. 10 And they set up for themselves pillars and Asherim on every high hill and under every

16:14 the bronze altar that was before the LORD Solomon's altar, pushed aside for the king's new one. Many hearts do the same. We may not throw God out. We move Him to the side and put something we like better in the center.
16:15 the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by Likely kept for seeking omens, or set aside for later. Either way, the one place God promised to meet His people through sacrifice was set aside. Uriah obeyed the king rather than God (16:16).
16:17 the sea he took down from on the bronze oxen The great basin for the priests' washing (1 Kgs 7:23-39). The bronze probably went as tribute.
16:18 because of the king of Assyria Scripture does not explain these changes. Ahaz finally shut the temple doors and made altars on every corner of Jerusalem (2 Chr 28:24). Rearranging God's house to please a man is always dangerous, in a temple or a church.
16:20 Hezekiah his son reigned in his place A wonder of grace. The worst king so far had a son who would be one of the best. A child does not have to follow his father's sins. Hezekiah reopened the temple doors his father shut (2 Chr 29:3).
17:1 Hoshea the son of Elah became king in Samaria over Israel, nine years About 732 to 722 B.C. He killed Pekah to take the throne (15:30).
17:2 only not like the kings of Israel who were before him Scripture does not say how. The kingdom fell under one of its less wicked kings. Judgment had been building for two centuries, and Hoshea was the king when the bill came due.
17:3 Shalmaneser the king of Assyria Shalmaneser V. Tribute was a yearly payment from a weaker king to a stronger one, the price of being left alone.
17:4 So the king of Egypt Scholars are not sure which Egyptian ruler he was. Egypt was weak and divided, and no help came (Hos 7:11). Israel's last king vanishes from the story in chains.
17:6 in the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria captured Samaria In 722 B.C., after a three-year siege of the strong hill city (1 Kgs 16:24). Shalmaneser V began it and died about the time it ended. Sargon II later claimed the victory and carried out the deportation (Isa 20:1). The exiles were scattered to the Habor river region, in what is now northern Syria and Iraq, and to Media, in northwest Iran. Moses warned exactly this (Deut 28:64), as did Amos and Hosea (Amos 5:27; Hos 9:3). God's warnings are not empty.
17:7 because the sons of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God The writer's sermon begins. The first answer is about the relationship. God rescued them from Egypt, and "they feared other gods," meaning worshiped them. Sin among God's people starts with forgetting what He has done for us.
17:8 and of the kings of Israel, which they made The Canaanite customs God drove out, and Jeroboam's man-made religion. Man-made religion took the place of God's Word.
17:9 from a tower of watchmen to a city of fortification "Secretly" can mean covering things over. Idolatry was everywhere, from the smallest lookout post to the largest walled city.
17:10 pillars and Asherim on every high hill and under every luxuriant tree Pillars were standing stones of Canaanite worship, and Asherim were wooden poles or images of the goddess Asherah. The Canaanites lost the land for these sins, and now Israel lost it for the same ones.

luxuriant tree. 11 And they burned incense there on all the high places, like the nations whom the LORD carried into exile from before them; and they did evil things to provoke the LORD to anger. 12 And they served the idols, of which the LORD had said to them, "You shall not do this thing." 13 And the LORD warned Israel and Judah by the hand of all the prophets and every seer, saying, "Turn back from your evil ways, and keep My commandments, My statutes, according to all the law that I commanded your fathers and that I sent to you by the hand of My servants the prophets." 14 And they did not listen, and they hardened their neck like the neck of their fathers, who did not believe in the LORD their God. 15 And they rejected His statutes and His covenant that He made with their fathers, and His testimonies with which He warned them; and they walked after vanity and became vain, and after the nations that were around them, concerning whom the LORD had commanded them not to do like them. 16 And they forsook all the commandments of the LORD their God, and they made for themselves a molten image, two calves; and they made an Asherah, and they bowed down to all the host of the heavens, and they served the Baal. 17 And they made their sons and their daughters pass through the fire, and they divined divinations and practiced omens, and they sold themselves to do the evil in the eyes of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger. 18 And the LORD was very angry with Israel, and He removed them from His face; none was left but the tribe of Judah alone. 19 Also Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God, and they walked in the statutes of Israel which they had made. 20 And the LORD rejected all the offspring of Israel, and He afflicted them and gave them into the hand of plunderers, until He had thrown them from before Him. 21 For He tore Israel from the house of David, and they made Jeroboam (Yaravam) the son of Nebat (Nevat) king; and Jeroboam drove Israel away from after the LORD and caused them to sin a great sin. 22 And the sons of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam that he did; they did not turn aside from it, 23 until the LORD removed Israel from His face, as He had spoken by the hand of all His servants the prophets. And Israel went into exile from its ground to Assyria to this day.

The Peoples Settled in Samaria

24 And the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon (Bavel) and from Cuth (Kuta) and from Avva (Ava) and from Hamath (Chamat) and Sepharvaim (Sefarvayim), and he made them dwell in the cities of Samaria in place of the sons of Israel; and they possessed Samaria and dwelt in its cities. 25 And it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, they did not fear the LORD; and the LORD sent the lions among them, and they were killing among them. 26 And they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations that you carried into exile and made dwell in the cities of Samaria do not know the custom of the God of the land; and He has sent the lions among them, and look, they are killing them, because they do not know the custom of the God of the land." 27 And the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Take there one of the priests whom you carried into exile from there, and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the custom of the God of the land." 28 And one of the priests whom they had carried into exile from Samaria came and dwelt in Bethel

17:12 You shall not do this thing They knew. God told them plainly in the first two commandments (Exod 20:3-5).
17:13 Turn back from your evil ways The key verse of the whole book. A seer is an older name for a prophet (1 Sam 9:9). Elijah, Elisha, Micaiah, Jonah, Amos, Hosea and many unnamed: God warned for two hundred years before He judged.
17:14 they hardened their neck like the neck of their fathers, who did not believe in the LORD their God An ox that will not bend to the yoke (Exod 32:9). Unbelief always comes before disobedience (Heb 3:19).
17:15 they walked after vanity and became vain Vanity is emptiness, something with no weight. We become like what we worship (Ps 115:8). If we chase emptiness, we become empty. The covenant at Sinai was like a marriage, and they walked out on it.
17:16 all the host of the heavens The sun, moon and stars, worshiped as gods.
17:17 they divined divinations and practiced omens Divination tries to learn the future or the gods' will through signs, and omens were read from things like birds or the insides of animals. God forbade all of it (Deut 18:10-12). "Sold themselves" means gave themselves over like slaves (1 Kgs 21:25; Rom 6:16).
17:18 He removed them from His face God's anger is not a man's temper but His settled, holy opposition to evil. To be removed from His face is to be sent from His presence and land. Judah here includes Benjamin and others who had moved south.
17:19 also Judah did not keep the commandments of the LORD their God Judah watched Israel fall and walked the same road. Its turn came in 586 B.C.
17:20 until He had thrown them from before Him It did not happen at once. For years God let enemies afflict them, hoping they would turn. Was God finished with Israel? No. The same prophets foretold a day when God would gather all Israel as one nation under one King (Ezek 37:15-28; Hos 3:4-5), and "all Israel will be saved" (Rom 11:26).
17:21 Jeroboam drove Israel away from after the LORD and caused them to sin a great sin God split the kingdom after Solomon's sin (1 Kgs 11:11, 31). One man's choice to protect his throne (1 Kgs 12:26-28) set the course for nineteen kings and two hundred years. Not one king, not even Jehu, removed the calves.
17:23 as He had spoken by the hand of all His servants the prophets Ahijah warned Jeroboam's wife of this (1 Kgs 14:15-16). God is patient, but His patience has a purpose. He waits so we will turn (1 Cor 10:11). The same God who judges sin judged our sin at the cross, and the way back is still open.
17:24 the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon and from Cuth Assyria moved conquered peoples across the empire so none would stay home long enough to rebel. More came later (Ezra 4:2, 10). Samaria here is the whole region.
17:25 the LORD sent the lions among them The emptied land filled with wild animals, as the Law warned (Lev 26:22; Exod 23:29). But the writer says the LORD sent them. The land still belonged to Him.
17:26 the custom of the God of the land They thought every land had its own god, and they saw the LORD as just another local god.
17:28 he was teaching them how they should fear the LORD He settled at Bethel, home of Jeroboam's calf, likely a priest of the north's mixed religion. He taught them to add the LORD to their gods, with no sign he taught that the LORD is the only God.

(Bet-El), and he was teaching them how they should fear the LORD. 29 And they were making, nation by nation, its own gods, and they put them in the house of the high places that the Samaritans had made, nation by nation in their cities in which they were dwelling. 30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 and the Avvites (Avim) made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites were burning their sons in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. 32 And they were fearing the LORD, and they appointed for themselves from among all of them priests of high places, and they were making offerings for them in the house of the high places. 33 The LORD they were fearing, and their own gods they were serving, according to the custom of the nations from which they had carried them into exile. 34 To this day they are doing according to the former customs; they are not fearing the LORD, and they are not doing according to their statutes and according to their judgment and according to the law and according to the commandment which the LORD commanded the sons of Jacob (Ya'aqov), whose name He made Israel. 35 And the LORD made a covenant with them and commanded them, saying, "You shall not fear other gods, and you shall not bow down to them, and you shall not serve them, and you shall not sacrifice to them; 36 but the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, Him you shall fear, and to Him you shall bow down, and to Him you shall sacrifice. 37 And the statutes and the judgments and the law and the commandment which He wrote for you, you shall be careful to do all the days; and you shall not fear other gods. 38 And the covenant that I made with you, you shall not forget; and you shall not fear other gods. 39 But the LORD your God you shall fear, and He will deliver you from the hand of all your enemies." 40 And they did not listen, but according to their former custom they were doing. 41 And these nations were fearing the LORD, and their idols they were serving; also their sons and the sons of their sons, as their fathers did, they are doing to this day.

Hezekiah King of Judah

1 And it was, in the third year of Hoshea the son of Elah (Ela), the king of Israel (Yisra'el), Hezekiah (Chizqiya) the son of Ahaz (Achaz), the king of Judah (Yehuda), became king. 2 He was a son of twenty-five years when he became king, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). And the name of his mother was Abi (Avi) the daughter of Zechariah (Zekharya). 3 And he did the right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done. 4 He removed the high places and broke the pillars and cut down the Asherah, and he crushed to pieces the bronze serpent that Moses (Moshe) had made, for until those days the sons of Israel were burning incense to it; and he called it Nehushtan. 5 In the LORD, the God of Israel, he trusted; and after him there was none like him among all the kings of Judah, and among those who were before him. 6 And he clung to the LORD; he did not turn aside from after Him, and he kept His commandments which the LORD had commanded Moses. 7 And the LORD was with him; in all where he

17:29 the Samaritans The first time the word appears in the Bible, here meaning the people of the region of Samaria who built those shrines.
17:31 the Sepharvites were burning their sons in the fire Little is known of some of these gods. The settlers brought the very sin that helped bring Israel's exile.
17:33 The LORD they were fearing, and their own gods they were serving Mixing the worship of the true God with other religions. It may look tolerant. God calls it unfaithfulness. "No one is able to serve two masters" (Matt 6:24). It is a danger for us when we try to add Jesus to a life still run by money, pleasure or other spiritual ideas.
17:36 Him you shall fear Four times in five verses: you shall not fear other gods. With the command came a promise of deliverance (17:39). The LORD does not share His people, because He alone is God, and anything else we worship will fail us.
17:41 their idols they were serving The origin of the Samaritans of the New Testament. They opposed the returned Jews (Ezra 4:1-5; Neh 4:1-2), later built a temple on Mount Gerizim, and accepted only the books of Moses. "Jews do not associate with Samaritans" (John 4:9). Jesus told the Samaritan woman, "You worship what you do not know" (John 4:22). Yet her town confessed, "this is truly the Savior of the world" (John 4:42). Jesus made a Samaritan the hero of a parable (Luke 10:30-37), and Philip preached Christ in Samaria (Acts 8:5-8). The God who judged Samaria's sin did not stop loving its people.
18:1 Hezekiah the son of Ahaz, the king of Judah, became king About 715 to 686 B.C. One of the hardest dates in Kings. If his fourteenth year was 701 B.C. (18:13), he reigned alone from about 715, but Hoshea's third year was about 729 B.C. Many think he shared the throne with Ahaz from about 729 and some numbers count from that start. Scripture does not give enough to be certain, and none of it changes what the text teaches.
18:3 according to all that David his father had done The highest praise for a king of Judah, given this fully only to Asa (1 Kgs 15:11), Hezekiah and Josiah (22:2). The son of the worst king became one of the best.
18:4 he removed the high places The first king of Judah to do it, even those used for the LORD, so all worship went to the place God chose (Deut 12:5).
18:4 he crushed to pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made More than seven hundred years old (Num 21:8-9). They turned God's means of healing into an idol. Nehushtan sounds like the Hebrew for bronze and serpent: just a piece of bronze. Jesus said it pictured Himself: "as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up" (John 3:14). Good things God has used, a building, a tradition, a Bible on a shelf, can become idols if we worship them in place of the God they point to.
18:5 in the LORD, the God of Israel, he trusted Trust ties chapters 18 and 19 together (18:19). In trust Hezekiah was unmatched. Josiah is unmatched in turning to the LORD by the law (23:25). Each was outstanding in his own way.
18:6 he clung to the LORD The word for a husband holding fast to his wife (Gen 2:24).
18:7 he rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him His father made Judah Assyria's servant (16:7), and Hezekiah broke that tie. He also opened and cleansed the temple and held a great Passover, inviting even the northern tribes (2 Chr 29:3; 30:1-27).

went out, he prospered. And he rebelled against the king of Assyria (Ashur) and did not serve him. 8 He struck down the Philistines as far as Gaza (Aza) and its territories, from a tower of watchmen to a city of fortification. 9 And it was, in the fourth year of King Hezekiah (Chizqiyahu), that was the seventh year of Hoshea the son of Elah, the king of Israel, Shalmaneser the king of Assyria came up against Samaria (Shomron) and besieged it. 10 And they captured it at the end of three years; in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that was the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Israel, Samaria was captured. 11 And the king of Assyria carried Israel into exile to Assyria, and he led them into Halah (Chalach) and on the Habor (Chavor), the river of Gozan, and into the cities of Media (Maday), 12 because they had not listened to the voice of the LORD their God, and they had transgressed His covenant, all that Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded; and they did not listen, and they did not do it.

Sennacherib Invades Judah

13 And in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib (Sancheriv) the king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and seized them. 14 And Hezekiah the king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria, to Lachish (Lakhish), saying, "I have sinned; turn back from me. That which you put on me I will bear." And the king of Assyria imposed on Hezekiah the king of Judah approximately 22,500 pounds (three hundred talents) of silver and approximately 2,250 pounds (thirty talents) of gold. 15 And Hezekiah gave all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the house of the king. 16 At that time Hezekiah cut off the doors of the temple of the LORD and the doorposts which Hezekiah the king of Judah had overlaid, and he gave them to the king of Assyria.

The Rabshakeh's Taunts

17 And the king of Assyria sent the Tartan and the Rab-saris and the Rabshakeh from Lachish to King Hezekiah with a heavy army to Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem; and they went up and came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is on the highway of the field of the launderer. 18 And they called to the king; and there went out to them Eliakim (Elyaqim) the son of Hilkiah (Chilqiyahu), who was over the house, and Shebna (Shevna) the scribe, and Joah (Yo'ach) the son of Asaph (Asaf), the recorder. 19 And the Rabshakeh said to them, "Say, please, to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: What is this trust in which you trust? 20 You have said, only a word of lips, "Counsel and strength are for the war." Now on whom do you rely, that you have rebelled against me? 21 Now look, you rely for yourself on the staff of this crushed reed, on Egypt (Mitsrayim), on which a man will lean, and it will go into his palm and pierce it. So is Pharaoh the king of Egypt to all who rely on him. 22 And if you say to me, "We trust in the LORD our God," is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has removed, and he has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, "Before this altar you shall bow down in Jerusalem"? 23 And now, make a wager, please, with my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to put riders on them for yourself. 24 And how will you turn back the face of one governor of the least of the servants of my master, and you rely for yourself on Egypt for chariotry and for horsemen? 25 Now, have I come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, "Go up against this land and destroy it."'" 26 And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah and Shebna and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Speak, please, to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand; and do not speak with us in Judean in the ears of the people who are on the wall." 27 And the Rabshakeh said to them, "To your master and to 18:10 in the sixth year of Hezekiah The writer retells Samaria's fall from Judah's side to set the scene. The empire that swallowed Israel was next door, and Judah had just rebelled.

18:12 because they had not listened to the voice of the LORD their God Israel fell for not listening. Would Judah listen and trust?

18:13 in the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib the king of Assyria came up In 701 B.C. On a clay prism Sennacherib boasted that he took many walled towns and shut Hezekiah up in Jerusalem like a bird in a cage, and received heavy tribute. He never claims to have taken Jerusalem, and he says nothing of how the campaign ended for his army (19:35). He had the siege of Lachish carved on his palace walls at Nineveh.

18:14 I have sinned; turn back from me A moment of fear. He emptied the treasuries and stripped the gold from the temple doors (18:16), about 22,500 pounds of silver and 2,250 pounds of gold. The gold did not buy peace. Compromise with sin does not make it go away. It only makes it hungrier.

18:17 the Tartan and the Rab-saris and the Rabshakeh Titles, not names: the commander in chief, a chief court officer, and a high official, perhaps chief cupbearer, who did the talking.

18:17 by the conduit of the upper pool The very spot where Isaiah told Ahaz to trust the LORD (Isa 7:3). Ahaz called Assyria in, and now Assyria stood there demanding the city. God sometimes brings us back to the place of our failures to give us a second chance to trust Him.

18:19 What is this trust in which you trust A master class in fear, attacking every place Judah might lean.

18:21 the staff of this crushed reed, on Egypt A cracked reed breaks and stabs the hand that leans on it. On this point he was right, as Isaiah said (Isa 30:1-3; 31:1).

18:22 whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has removed Clever and twisted. He made Hezekiah's faithfulness look like an insult to God, for a pagan could not imagine a god who wanted fewer altars. Satan still takes our obedience and tries to make us doubt it.

18:23 I will give you two thousand horses Pure mockery: Judah could not even find two thousand riders.

18:25 have I come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it A half-truth. Assyria was "the rod of My anger" (Isa 10:5), but God would punish its arrogance (Isa 10:12). The best answer to the enemy's half-truths is the whole truth of God's Word.

18:26 Speak, please, to your servants in Aramaic The language of diplomacy, known to educated officials. "Judean" is Hebrew, the language of the common people. He refused, aiming to turn the people against their king.

you has my master sent me to speak these words? Is it not to the men who sit on the wall, to eat their excrement and to drink the water of their feet with you?" 28 And the Rabshakeh stood and called out with a great voice in Judean, and he spoke and said, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria. 29 Thus says the king: 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you from his hand. 30 And do not let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will certainly deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." 31 Do not listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria: "Make a blessing with me and come out to me, and eat each man from his vine and each man from his fig tree, and drink each man the waters of his cistern, 32 until I come and take you to a land like your land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees of oil and honey; and live, and you will not die." And do not listen to Hezekiah, for he misleads you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us." 33 Have the gods of the nations really delivered, each one his land, from the hand of the king of Assyria? 34 Where are the gods of Hamath (Chamat) and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim (Sefarvayim), Hena, and Ivvah (Ivva), that they have delivered Samaria from my hand? 35 Who among all the gods of the lands are those who have delivered their land from my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?'" 36 And the people kept silent and did not answer him a word, for it was the command of the king, saying, "Do not answer him." 37 And Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with clothes torn, and they told him the words of the Rabshakeh.

Hezekiah Seeks Isaiah

1 And it was, when King Hezekiah (Chizqiyahu) heard, and he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth, and he went into the house of the LORD. 2 And he sent Eliakim (Elyaqim), who was over the house, and Shebna (Shevna) the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah (Yeshayahu) the prophet, the son of Amoz (Amots). 3 And they said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah: 'A day of distress and rebuke and contempt is this day, for children have come to the birth opening, and there is no strength to give birth. 4 Perhaps the LORD your God will hear all the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria (Ashur) has sent to taunt the living God, and will rebuke him for the words which the LORD your God has heard. And you shall lift up a prayer for the remnant that is found.'" 5 And the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah. 6 And Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall say to your master: 'Thus says the LORD: "Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the young men of the king of Assyria have blasphemed Me. 7 Look, I am about to put a spirit in him, and he will hear a report and return to his land; and I will make him fall by the sword in his land."'"

Sennacherib's Letter

8 And the Rabshakeh returned and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah (Livna), for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish (Lakhish). 9 And he heard concerning Tirhakah (Tirhaqa) the king of Cush (Kush), saying, "Look, he has come out to fight with you." And he again sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 10 "Thus you shall say to Hezekiah the king of Judah (Yehuda), saying, 'Do not let your God, in whom you are trusting, deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem (Yerushalayim) will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." 11 Look, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands, devoting them to destruction; and will you be delivered? 12 Did the gods of the nations deliver them, whom my fathers destroyed: Gozan and Haran (Charan) and Rezeph (Retsef) and the sons of Eden who were in Telassar (Telasar)? 13 Where is the king of Hamath (Chamat), and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim (Sefarvayim), Hena, and Ivvah (Ivva)?'"

18:29 Thus says the king Mocking the prophets' "Thus says the LORD."
18:32 until I come and take you to a land like your land Surrender meant exile, made to sound pleasant. Temptation promises a good life and hides the chains (Matt 4:8-9). The world's offers always come with a hidden price.
18:35 that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand His great mistake was putting the LORD with the idols of the nations. Samaria fell because the LORD gave it up for its sin (17:18), not because Assyria was stronger than God.
18:36 the people kept silent and did not answer him a word There is no point arguing with someone trying to frighten you. Some battles are won by silence and prayer. Torn clothes (18:37) showed grief and distress.
19:1 he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth Rough cloth worn in grief and repentance. Then he went straight into the house of the LORD.
19:2 Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz His first appearance in Kings, after nearly forty years of preaching in Jerusalem since King Uzziah died (Isa 6:1).
19:3 children have come to the birth opening, and there is no strength to give birth A mother in labor too weak to deliver. Judah had reached the crisis with no strength left.
19:4 to taunt the living God Hezekiah saw the real issue. It was an insult to the living God, and the LORD would answer for His own name. A remnant is what is left after disaster. With the rest of Judah taken, only Jerusalem remained. When we are weakest, go to God and ask others to pray.
19:6 Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard Loud, but only words. "Young men" can mean servants or boys. To God they were errand boys.
19:7 I will make him fall by the sword in his land God would change the king's mind, send him home and bring him down there. All three happened (19:9, 36-37).
19:9 Tirhakah the king of Cush Cush was the land south of Egypt, and its kings ruled Egypt then. The report God promised had begun.
19:10 Do not let your God, in whom you are trusting, deceive you A step beyond the Rabshakeh. Now God Himself was called a liar.

Hezekiah's Prayer

14 And Hezekiah took the letters from the hand of the messengers and read them; and he went up to the house of the LORD, and Hezekiah spread it out before the LORD. 15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD and said, "O LORD, the God of Israel (Yisra'el), who sits on the cherubim, You are He, the God, You alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; You made the heavens and the earth. 16 Incline, O LORD, Your ear and hear; open, O LORD, Your eyes and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib (Sancheriv), with which he has sent him to taunt the living God. 17 Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their land, 18 and they have put their gods into the fire, for they were not gods, but the work of the hands of man, wood and stone; and they have destroyed them. 19 And now, O LORD our God, save us, please, from his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You, O LORD, are God, You alone."

Isaiah's Answer

20 And Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'What you have prayed to Me concerning Sennacherib the king of Assyria I have heard.' 21 This is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him: 'She has despised you, she has mocked you, the virgin daughter of Zion (Tsiyon); behind you she has shaken her head, the daughter of Jerusalem. 22 Whom have you taunted and blasphemed? And against whom have you raised a voice, and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel! 23 By the hand of your messengers you have taunted the Lord, and you have said, "With the abundance of my chariots I have gone up to the height of the mountains, to the remotest parts of Lebanon (Levanon); and I will cut down the tallness of its cedars, the choice of its cypresses; and I will enter the lodging place of its farthest end, the forest of its fruitful land. 24 I have dug and drunk foreign waters, and I will dry up with the sole of my feet all the streams of Egypt (Matsor)." 25 Have you not heard? From long ago I did it, from days of antiquity I formed it; now I have brought it about, and you are to make fortified cities crash into ruined heaps. 26 And their inhabitants were short of hand; they were dismayed and they were ashamed; they were the vegetation of the field and the greenery of grass, the grass of the roofs, and blight before standing grain. 27 And your sitting down and your going out and your coming in I know, and your raging against Me. 28 Because your raging against Me and your arrogance has come up into My ears, I will put My hook in your nose and My bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came. 29 And this will be the sign for you: eating this year aftergrowth, and in the second year self-seeded growth, and in the third year sow and reap, and plant vineyards and eat their fruit. 30 And the escaped remnant of the house of Judah that remains will again take root downward and make fruit upward. 31 For from Jerusalem a remnant will go out, and an escaped remnant from Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD of armies will do this. 32 Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: He will not come into this city, and he will not shoot an arrow there, and he will not come before it with a shield, and he will not pour out a siege mound against it. 33 By the way by which he came, by it he will return, and into this city he will not come, declares the LORD. 34 And I will defend this city to save it, for My own sake and for the sake of David My servant.'"

19:14 Hezekiah spread it out before the LORD He did not argue or panic. He laid the letter open before God.
19:15 who sits on the cherubim The golden angel figures on the lid of the ark, where God's presence rested (Exod 25:22). Before asking anything, Hezekiah reminded himself who God is. Sennacherib ruled many nations. The LORD made the heavens.
19:18 for they were not gods, but the work of the hands of man, wood and stone He was honest. Assyria had destroyed nations, and of course their gods could not save. They were not real.
19:19 so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You, O LORD, are God, You alone Above all he wanted God's name known, as Jesus taught us to pray first, "let Your name be sanctified" (Matt 6:9). When trouble comes in writing, a diagnosis, a bill, a legal letter, spread it before the LORD, remember who He is, tell Him the facts, and ask Him to act for His glory.
19:21 the virgin daughter of Zion Zion is the hill of Jerusalem, and the daughter of Zion is the city pictured as a young woman, shaking her head at the fleeing king.
19:22 the Holy One of Israel Isaiah's favorite name for God. To blaspheme is to speak with contempt against God.
19:25 From long ago I did it The heart of God's answer. Sennacherib thought he conquered by his own strength. God planned it, and Assyria was only the axe in His hand (Isa 10:15).
19:27 your sitting down and your going out and your coming in I know Nothing about him was hidden.
19:28 I will put My hook in your nose Assyria led captives with hooks or rings through the nose or lips. God would lead its king home like an animal.
19:29 in the third year sow and reap With the fields ruined, they would eat what grew on its own for two years, and then life would return to normal.
19:30 will again take root downward and make fruit upward Judah was a stump, but the roots were alive.
19:31 the zeal of the LORD of armies will do this The same promise Isaiah gave of the Child on David's throne (Isa 9:7). God's burning love for His people and His name guarantees both the rescue and the kingdom of His Son.
19:32 he will not pour out a siege mound against it A ramp of earth against the wall, as at Lachish. At Jerusalem there would be no siege at all, not even one arrow.
19:34 for My own sake and for the sake of David My servant God's faithfulness to David (2 Sam 7:16) keeps Judah alive again and again in Kings.

The Angel of the LORD Strikes Assyria

35 And it was in that night, and the angel of the LORD went out and struck down in the camp of Assyria one hundred and eighty-five thousand; and they rose early in the morning, and look, all of them were dead corpses. 36 And Sennacherib the king of Assyria departed and went and returned, and he dwelt in Nineveh (Ninve). 37 And it was, he was bowing down in the house of Nisroch his god, and Adrammelech (Adrammelekh) and Sharezer (Sharetser) his sons struck him down with the sword; and they escaped to the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon (Esar-Chadon) his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah's Illness and Recovery

1 In those days Hezekiah (Chizqiyahu) became sick to the point of dying. And Isaiah (Yeshayahu) the son of Amoz (Amots), the prophet, came to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Command your house, for you are dying, and you will not live.'" 2 And he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, saying, 3 "Please, O LORD, remember, please, how I have walked before You in faithfulness and with a complete heart, and I have done what is good in Your eyes." And Hezekiah wept with a great weeping. 4 And it was, Isaiah had not yet gone out of the middle court, and the word of the LORD came to him, saying, 5 "Return, and you shall say to Hezekiah the ruler of My people, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: "I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Look, I am healing you. On the third day you will go up to the house of the LORD. 6 And I will add to your days fifteen years, and from the hand of the king of Assyria (Ashur) I will deliver you and this city; and I will defend this city for My own sake and for the sake of David My servant."'" 7 And Isaiah said, "Take a cake of figs." And they took it and put it on the boil, and he lived. 8 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What will be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I will go up on the third day to the house of the LORD?" 9 And Isaiah said, "This will be the sign for you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing which He has spoken: the shadow has gone forward ten steps; or shall it return ten steps?" 10 And Hezekiah said, "It is easy for the shadow to stretch out ten steps; no, but let the shadow return backward ten steps." 11 And Isaiah the prophet called to the LORD, and He brought the shadow back on the steps by which it had gone down on the steps of Ahaz (Achaz), backward ten steps.

The Envoys from Babylon

12 At that time Merodach-baladan (Berodakh-Baladan) the son of Baladan, the king of Babylon (Bavel), sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. 13 And Hezekiah listened to them, and he showed them all the house of his treasure, the silver and the gold and the spices and the good oil, and the house of his weapons, and all that was found in his storehouses. There was not a thing which Hezekiah did not show them in his house and in all his

19:35 the angel of the LORD went out and struck down in the camp of Assyria one hundred and eighty-five thousand Scripture does not say how. Some suggest a plague, and God can use natural means, but the text says the angel did it in one night. I take it as written, number and all, though some read "thousand" as a military unit. In some places the angel of the LORD speaks as the LORD Himself (Gen 22:11-12; Exod 3:2-6), and many believe those were the Son of God before His birth. Here he is God's messenger of judgment, as in Egypt (Exod 12:23) and David's day (2 Sam 24:16). Hezekiah did not fight. He prayed, and God fought for him (Ps 20:7). Sennacherib's prism says nothing about this night.
19:37 Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him down with the sword Assyrian records also tell of this murder, about 681 B.C., some twenty years later. It came true as God said (19:7), in the house of the god who could not save him. Hezekiah went into the house of his God and was saved. Sennacherib went into the house of his god and was killed.
20:1 in those days Hezekiah became sick to the point of dying The promise of verse 6 suggests this came before or during Sennacherib's attack, about 701 B.C. The writer tells it after chapter 19 to keep that story together. To "command your house" means to give final instructions and put your affairs in order.
20:2 he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD Away from everyone, alone with God.
20:3 how I have walked before You in faithfulness and with a complete heart Not a claim to be sinless or to earn healing, but a plea for God to remember a faithful life. He was only about thirty-nine. Before Christ rose, believers did not see the life to come as clearly as we do (2 Tim 1:10), and he may have had no son yet for the throne.
20:4 Isaiah had not yet gone out of the middle court God answered before the prophet left the palace grounds. Sometimes His answers come slowly, sometimes in minutes.
20:5 I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears God remembered His promise as "the God of David your father." Not one tear is lost (Ps 56:8).
20:6 I will add to your days fifteen years Did prayer change God's mind? His first word was true: from a human view the sickness was fatal. His second showed what He planned to do in answer to prayer. Scripture teaches that God is sovereign and that prayer truly matters (James 5:16). Teachers explain how these fit in different ways, but every one of them would tell you to pray.
20:7 Take a cake of figs Pressed figs were used as a poultice, laid warm on a sore to draw out infection. A boil is an infected sore. God is the healer whether by miracle or medicine. There is no conflict between praying and seeing a doctor (1 Tim 5:23; Col 4:14).
20:8 What will be the sign Not unbelief. God had given signs before (19:29), unlike Ahaz, who refused one (Isa 7:10-12).
20:9 ten steps The "steps of Ahaz" were likely a stairway that told the time by the moving shadow, like a sundial.
20:11 He brought the shadow back Scripture does not say how, and I will not guess. The God who stood the sun still for Joshua (Josh 10:12-14) can do what He pleases with a shadow. Babylon's envoys asked about this sign (2 Chr 32:31).
20:12 Merodach-baladan the son of Baladan, the king of Babylon Babylon was not yet a great empire but under Assyria's thumb, and he fought for years to break free. A king healed by a miracle and standing up to Assyria was a good ally. The get-well gift had a political purpose.
20:13 There was not a thing which Hezekiah did not show them After his healing "his heart was haughty" (2 Chr 32:25), and God left him "to test him" (2 Chr 32:31). He showed off his wealth and weapons instead of the God who healed him, and he courted a foreign power, the thing Isaiah warned against.

And Hezekiah said, "From a distant land they have come, from Babylon." 15 And he said, "What did they see in your house?" And Hezekiah said, "All that is in my house they saw; there was not a thing which I did not show them in my storehouses." 16 And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD: 17 'Look, days are coming, and all that is in your house, and what your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried to Babylon; not a thing will be left, says the LORD. 18 And some of your sons who will come out from you, whom you will father, they will take away; and they will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.'" 19 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "Good is the word of the LORD which you have spoken." And he said, "Is it not so, if peace and security will be in my days?" 20 And the rest of the matters of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool and the conduit and brought the waters into the city, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah (Yehuda)? 21 And Hezekiah lay down with his fathers, and Manasseh (Menashe) his son reigned in his place.

Manasseh King of Judah

1 Manasseh (Menashe) was a son of twelve years when he became king, and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). And the name of his mother was Hephzibah (Cheftsi-Vah). 2 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had dispossessed from before the sons of Israel (Yisra'el). 3 And he again built the high places which Hezekiah (Chizqiyahu) his father had destroyed, and he raised up altars for the Baal and made an Asherah, just as Ahab (Achav) the king of Israel had done, and he bowed down to all the host of the heavens and served them. 4 And he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "In Jerusalem I will put My name." 5 And he built altars for all the host of the heavens in the two courts of the house of the LORD. 6 And he made his son pass through the fire, and he practiced soothsaying and practiced omens, and dealt with a medium and spiritists. He multiplied doing the evil in the eyes of the LORD, to provoke Him to anger. 7 And he put the carved image of the Asherah that he had made in the house of which the LORD had said to David and to Solomon (Shelomo) his son, "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen from all the tribes of Israel, I will put My name forever. 8 And I will not again make the foot of Israel wander from the ground which I gave to their fathers, only if they take care to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law which My servant Moses (Moshe) commanded them." 9 And they did not listen, and Manasseh led them astray to do the evil more than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed from before the sons of Israel.

20:14 from a distant land they have come, from Babylon You can almost hear the pride.
20:17 what your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried to Babylon What he showed off would belong to those he showed it to. When Isaiah spoke, Assyria was the great power and Babylon its subject. Only God could have known Babylon would carry Judah away (24:13; 25:13-17).
20:18 they will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon Sons means descendants. A eunuch was a court servant, many made unable to have children, and the word came to mean court officials. About a hundred years later Daniel and his friends of Judah's royal offspring were taken to serve Nebuchadnezzar (Dan 1:3-7).
20:19 Is it not so, if peace and security will be in my days Some hear self-centered relief. Others hear humble acceptance and thanks for delay, as with Josiah (22:20). He did humble himself, and the wrath did not come in his days (2 Chr 32:26). Perhaps both are true. He did not weep for the generations to come as he had wept for himself. Do we care about the generations after us, or only peace in our own days?
20:20 how he made the pool and the conduit and brought the waters into the city He sent the Gihon spring's water to the west side of the city of David (2 Chr 32:30), so an attacker would find none. The tunnel can still be walked, about a third of a mile through solid rock to the pool of Siloam, and an old inscription inside tells how two teams cut from opposite ends and met. At Siloam Jesus sent a man born blind to wash and see (John 9:7).
20:21 Manasseh his son reigned in his place The king who trusted the LORD like no other had a son who would lead Judah into the worst evil it had known.
21:1 he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem The longest reign of any king of either kingdom, about 697 to 642 B.C., counting about ten years alongside his father. Hephzibah means my delight is in her. Godly parents cannot choose for their children. Each generation must choose the LORD for itself.
21:2 according to the abominations of the nations An abomination is something God hates. The writer compares Manasseh to the Canaanites God removed for their sins.
21:3 just as Ahab the king of Israel had done Ahab was the byword for wickedness in the north, and now Judah had its own Ahab. He undid his father's reforms one by one. The worship of the sun, moon and stars was strong in Assyria and Babylon in his day.
21:4 he built altars in the house of the LORD He brought idolatry into God's own house, filling the courts with altars to the stars (21:5).
21:6 he made his son pass through the fire Child sacrifice, as with Ahaz (16:3), in the valley of the son of Hinnom (2 Chr 33:6). The valley's name, Gehinnom, became Gehenna, the word Jesus used for hell (Mark 9:43).
21:6 dealt with a medium and spiritists Soothsaying and omens try to read the future through signs. A medium claims to speak with the dead, and a spiritist seeks knowledge from spirits. God forbade every one (Deut 18:10-12). They are not harmless games, then or now. If you have been involved in anything like this, confess it, turn from it and trust Christ, who has power over every dark thing (Col 2:15).
21:7 the carved image of the Asherah that he had made in the house In the temple itself, where God promised to put His name forever.
21:8 only if they take care to do according to all that I have commanded them God's promise had a condition, and Manasseh trampled it.
21:9 to do the evil more than the nations whom the LORD had destroyed God's own people became worse than the Canaanites. And "they did not listen." A wicked leader can lead a nation astray, but the people chose to go.

The LORD's Word against Judah

10 And the LORD spoke by the hand of His servants the prophets, saying, 11 "Because Manasseh the king of Judah (Yehuda) has done these abominations, he has done evil more than all that the Amorites did who were before him, and he has also made Judah sin with his idols, 12 therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Look, I am bringing calamity on Jerusalem and Judah, so that everyone who hears of it, his two ears will tingle. 13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the measuring line of Samaria (Shomron) and the level of the house of Ahab, and I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes the bowl: he wipes it and turns it over on its face. 14 And I will abandon the remnant of My inheritance and give them into the hand of their enemies, and they will be for spoil and for plunder to all their enemies, 15 because they have done the evil in My eyes and have been provoking Me to anger from the day that their fathers came out from Egypt (Mitsrayim) and until this day.'" 16 And also Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, until he had filled Jerusalem from end to end, apart from his sin with which he made Judah sin, to do the evil in the eyes of the LORD. 17 And the rest of the matters of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin which he sinned, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? 18 And Manasseh lay down with his fathers and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uzza (Uza); and Amon his son reigned in his place.

Amon King of Judah

19 Amon was a son of twenty-two years when he became king, and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Meshullemeth (Meshulemet) the daughter of Haruz (Charuts) from Jotbah (Yotva). 20 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as Manasseh his father had done. 21 And he walked in all the way in which his father had walked, and he served the idols which his father had served and bowed down to them. 22 And he forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and he did not walk in the way of the LORD. 23 And the servants of Amon conspired against him and killed the king in his house. 24 And the people of the land struck down all who had conspired against King Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah (Yoshiyahu) his son king in his place. 25 And the rest of the matters of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? 26 And someone buried him in his tomb in the garden of Uzza; and Josiah his son reigned in his place.

Josiah King of Judah

1 Josiah (Yoshiyahu) was a son of eight years when he became king, and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). And the name of his mother was Jedidah (Yedida) the daughter of Adaiah (Adaya) from Bozkath (Botsqat). 2 And he did the right in the eyes of the LORD, and he walked in all the way of David his father, and he did not turn aside to the right or left. 3 And it was, in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan (Shafan) the son of Azaliah (Atsalyahu), the son of Meshullam (Meshulam), the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying, 4 "Go up to Hilkiah (Chilqiyahu) the high priest, that he may total the 21:10 by the hand of His servants the prophets Unnamed. God did not stay silent even in the darkest years.

21:11 more than all that the Amorites did God told Abraham He would wait until the Amorites' sin was complete (Gen 15:16). Now Judah's was.
21:12 his two ears will tingle News so shocking that ears would ring, the words God used in Eli's day (1 Sam 3:11).
21:13 the measuring line of Samaria and the level of the house of Ahab Builder's tools. God would measure Jerusalem by the same standard He used for Samaria, with the same result (Amos 7:7-9). He has no softer standard for His favorite city. Wiping a bowl and turning it over pictures a finished dish. Jerusalem would be emptied.
21:15 from the day that their fathers came out from Egypt and until this day Manasseh's sin was the last straw on a load piling up for centuries.
21:16 until he had filled Jerusalem from end to end From one end to the other. The victims were likely the faithful who opposed his idolatry and the poor with no defender. An old Jewish tradition says Isaiah was sawn in two under Manasseh, and many think Hebrews 11:37 has him in mind, but Scripture does not say how Isaiah died. When Judah fell, the LORD "was not willing to forgive" this innocent blood (24:4; Gen 4:10).
21:17 his sin which he sinned Chronicles tells the rest: Assyria took him to Babylon in chains, and "he humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers" (2 Chr 33:12). God heard and brought him back, "and Manasseh knew that the LORD, He is God" (2 Chr 33:13), and he removed the idols. Both books are true. God forgave Manasseh the man, and the damage to the nation remained, and judgment still came (23:26). If God could forgive Manasseh, He can forgive anyone (1 Tim 1:15-16). But forgiveness does not always undo the harm our sin has done to others.
21:18 in the garden of Uzza Not in the tombs of David's line.
21:19 he reigned two years in Jerusalem About 642 to 640 B.C.
21:20 just as Manasseh his father had done He followed the idolater, not the repentant man, and "multiplied guilt" (2 Chr 33:23). Our children learn from how we live for decades, not only from how we end.
21:24 the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place Likely the leading landowners and citizens, who stood for David's line. Three hundred years earlier, a man of God named Josiah as the king who would tear down Bethel's altar (1 Kgs 13:2). Now that boy, eight years old, sat on the throne.
22:1 he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem About 640 to 609 B.C. An eight-year-old king needs advisers, and Scripture does not name them. Someone taught that boy well.
22:2 he did not turn aside to the right or left The language of Moses (Deut 5:32; 17:20). Josiah is one of only a few kings compared to David with no "only" attached. At sixteen "he began to seek the God of David his father" (2 Chr 34:3). Jeremiah and Zephaniah began preaching in his reign (Jer 1:2; Zeph 1:1).
22:3 in the eighteenth year of King Josiah About 622 B.C., when he was twenty-six. The scribe was the king's secretary, a high officer of state.
22:4 the keepers of the threshold Priests who guarded the temple doors and received the gifts. After Manasseh, the temple was badly run down.

money that is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the threshold have gathered from the people. 5 And let them put it into the hand of the doers of the work who are appointed over the house of the LORD; and let them give it to the doers of the work who are in the house of the LORD, to repair the breach of the house: 6 to the craftsmen and to the builders and to the masons, and to buy timber and hewn stones to repair the house. 7 Only, the money that is given into their hand shall not be accounted with them, for they are working in faithfulness."

The Book of the Law Found

8 And Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, "The book of the law I have found in the house of the LORD." And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it. 9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the king and brought back word to the king, and he said, "Your servants have poured out the money that was found in the house, and they have put it into the hand of the doers of the work who are appointed over the house of the LORD." 10 And Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "A book Hilkiah the priest has given to me." And Shaphan read it before the king. 11 And it was, when the king heard the words of the book of the law, and he tore his clothes. 12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam (Achiqam) the son of Shaphan, and Achbor (Akhbor) the son of Micaiah (Mikhaya), and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah (Asaya) the servant of the king, saying, 13 "Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for the people and for all Judah (Yehuda) concerning the words of this book that has been found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all that is written concerning us."

Huldah's Word

14 And Hilkiah the priest and Ahikam and Achbor and Shaphan and Asaiah went to Huldah (Chulda) the prophetess, the wife of Shallum (Shalum) the son of Tikvah (Tiqva), the son of Harhas (Charchas), keeper of the garments; and she was dwelling in Jerusalem in the Second Quarter; and they spoke to her. 15 And she said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel (Yisra'el): 'Say to the man who sent you to me, 16 "Thus says the LORD: Look, I am bringing calamity to this place and on its inhabitants, all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read, 17 because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other gods, so as to provoke Me to anger with all the work of their hands; and My wrath will be kindled against this place, and it will not be quenched."' 18 And to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus you shall say to him: 'Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: "As for the words which you have heard, 19 because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become a horror and a curse, and you tore your clothes and wept before Me, I also have heard, declares the LORD. 20 Therefore look, I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be gathered to your graves in peace, and your eyes will not look on all the calamity which I am bringing on this place."'" And they brought back word to the king.

2 KINGS 23

Josiah Renews the Covenant

1 And the king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah (Yehuda) and Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). 2 And the king went up to the house of the LORD, and every man of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests and the prophets and all the people, from small to great; and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that had been found in the house of the LORD.

22:7 for they are working in faithfulness Almost the words used in Joash's day (12:15). Honest work done for God is noticed and trusted.
22:8 The book of the law I have found in the house of the LORD Most believe it was Deuteronomy, or the whole Law including it. Josiah's reforms match Deuteronomy closely: one place of worship, no high places or mediums, Passover in Jerusalem, the covenant curses. Moses commanded the book be kept by the ark (Deut 31:26) and copied by each king (Deut 17:18-19). In Manasseh's years it may have been hidden by faithful priests or buried in neglect. Many critical scholars think Deuteronomy was written about this time and "found." I do not accept that. The text says found, not written, and all treated it as the old law their fathers failed to keep (22:13). Jesus quoted Deuteronomy as God's Word against Satan (Matt 4:4, 7, 10).
22:10 Shaphan read it before the king The most important news is often mentioned last.
22:11 he tore his clothes He was not just moved. He was broken. He knew Judah had done everything God warned against.
22:13 for me and for the people and for all Judah He included himself. That is real conviction of sin. God's Word does not just inform us. It reads us (Heb 4:12). He did not hide the book or explain it away.
22:14 Huldah the prophetess A woman who spoke God's message. The wardrobe may be the priests' garments or the king's. The Second Quarter was a newer part of the city. With Jeremiah and Zephaniah preaching, the king's men went to her, so she must have been known and trusted. God used women to speak His word in many ages (Exod 15:20; Judg 4:4; Luke 2:36).
22:15 Say to the man who sent you to me To God the king was simply "the man." In judgment God speaks to kings and commoners alike.
22:17 it will not be quenched Josiah's reforms would be real and good but would not turn back judgment. The people's repentance did not go deep (Jer 3:10).
22:19 because your heart was tender Soft before God, easily moved by His Word, quick to grieve over sin, the opposite of the hard neck (17:14). "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble" (James 4:6).
22:20 you will be gathered to your graves in peace He died in battle (23:29), so in peace here means before the calamity came. He was spared seeing the city besieged, the temple burned and his sons dragged away. Sometimes God's mercy is to take His faithful servants home before the storm.
23:2 he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant The king himself read it to everyone, from the least to the greatest. Moses had commanded that the law be read to all the people so they could hear and learn to fear the LORD (Deut 31:10-13). Revival in the Bible almost always begins with God's Word read and heard again (Neh 8:1-8).

3 And the king stood by the pillar and made the covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD and to keep His commandments and His testimonies and His statutes with all the heart and with all the soul, to establish the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood in the covenant.

Josiah's Reforms

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah (Chilqiyahu) the high priest and the priests of the second rank and the keepers of the threshold to bring out from the temple of the LORD all the articles that were made for the Baal and for the Asherah and for all the host of the heavens; and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron (Qidron), and he carried their dust to Bethel (Bet-El). 5 And he did away with the idol priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed, and who burned incense on the high places in the cities of Judah and the surroundings of Jerusalem, and those who burned incense to the Baal, to the sun and to the moon and to the constellations and to all the host of the heavens. 6 And he brought out the Asherah from the house of the LORD, outside Jerusalem, to the wadi Kidron, and he burned it at the wadi Kidron and crushed it to dust, and he threw its dust on the grave of the sons of the people. 7 And he tore down the houses of the male cult prostitutes that were in the house of the LORD, where the women were weaving houses for the Asherah. 8 And he brought all the priests from the cities of Judah, and he defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba (Geva) to Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva); and he tore down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the Gate of Joshua (Yehoshua) the governor of the city, which were on a man's left at the gate of the city. 9 Only, the priests of the high places did not go up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread in the midst of their brothers. 10 And he defiled Topheth (Tofet), which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom (Hinom), so that a man would not make his son and his daughter pass through the fire to Molech. 11 And he did away with the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, from the entrance of the house of the LORD by the chamber of Nathan-melech (Netan-Melekh) the eunuch, which was in the precincts; and the chariots of the sun he burned with fire. 12 And the altars that were on the roof of the upper room of Ahaz (Achaz), which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh (Menashe) had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, the king tore down; and he ran from there and threw their dust into the wadi Kidron. 13 And the high places that were on the face of Jerusalem, which were on the south of the Mount of Destruction, which Solomon (Shelomo) the king of Israel (Yisra'el) had built for Ashtoreth the detestable thing of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the detestable thing of Moab (Mo'av), and for Milcom the abomination of the sons of Ammon (Amon), the king defiled. 14 And he broke the pillars and cut down the Asherim, and he filled their place with bones of man.

The Altar at Bethel

15 And also the altar that was at Bethel, the high place which Jeroboam (Yaravam) the son of Nebat (Nevat), who made Israel sin, had made, also that altar and the high place he tore down; and he burned the high place, he crushed it to dust, and he burned the Asherah. 16 And Josiah (Yoshiyahu) turned and saw the graves that were there on the mountain;

23:3 the king stood by the pillar and made the covenant before the LORD Likely one of the two great bronze pillars at the temple entrance, where Joash stood when he was crowned (11:14). "With all the heart and with all the soul" is the language of the greatest commandment (Deut 6:5; Matt 22:37-38).
23:3 all the people stood in the covenant They agreed to it. Whether their hearts truly changed is another matter. Jeremiah said Judah did not return to God "with all her heart, but rather with falsehood" (Jer 3:10).
23:4 he carried their dust to Bethel Bethel was where Jeroboam's false worship began. Josiah sent the ashes of Judah's idols back to the place where Israel's idolatry started.
23:5 he did away with the idol priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed Priests of false gods who burned incense at the high places, to Baal, and to the sun, moon and stars.
23:6 he threw its dust on the grave of the sons of the people The common burial ground, an unclean place. The Asherah that Manasseh set up in God's house (21:7) ended as dust on the graves of common people.
23:7 he tore down the houses of the male cult prostitutes that were in the house of the LORD Pagan worship often included sexual rituals, and here they went on inside the temple area, though God had forbidden it (Deut 23:17). The worship of false gods always ends up degrading people, body and soul.
23:8 from Geba to Beersheba Geba was on Judah's northern edge and Beersheba on its southern edge, so this covered the whole kingdom. To defile a high place made it unclean and unfit for worship, so it could never be used again.
23:9 they ate unleavened bread in the midst of their brothers These seem to have been Levites who had sacrificed at the high places, perhaps even to the LORD, but in the wrong place. They could share the priests' food but no longer serve at the altar. It was both mercy and discipline.
23:10 he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom The place where children were sacrificed to Molech, the god of the Ammonites. Jeremiah preached against this very place (Jer 7:31-32).
23:11 the chariots of the sun Sun worship pictured the sun god riding across the sky in a chariot. These horses and chariots stood at the very entrance to the temple.
23:12 the altars that were on the roof People worshiped the stars on the rooftops (Jer 19:13; Zeph 1:5). Manasseh had removed his altars after his repentance (2 Chr 33:15), so it seems they were rebuilt under Amon, or never fully destroyed.
23:13 which were on the south of the Mount of Destruction Part of the Mount of Olives. Solomon built these high places for Ashtoreth, Chemosh and Milcom more than three hundred years earlier (1 Kgs 11:5-7), and they had stood ever since. A sin we tolerate can outlive us by generations.
23:14 he filled their place with bones of man Human bones made a place unclean (Num 19:16). No one would worship there again.
23:15 the altar that was at Bethel Bethel had been part of the northern kingdom. With Assyria now weak, Josiah could reach into the old territory of Israel.
23:16 according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed About three hundred years earlier, on the very day Jeroboam stood at this altar, a man of God from Judah named Josiah and said human bones would be burned on it (1 Kgs 13:2). Now it happened exactly as spoken. God's Word does not fail, even across centuries.

and he sent and took the bones from the graves and burned them on the altar and defiled it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things. 17 And he said, "What is this monument that I am seeing?" And the men of the city said to him, "The grave of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which you have done against the altar of Bethel." 18 And he said, "Let him rest; let no man disturb his bones." And they spared his bones, with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria (Shomron). 19 And also all the houses of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke Him to anger, Josiah removed; and he did to them according to all the deeds that he had done at Bethel. 20 And he sacrificed all the priests of the high places who were there on the altars, and he burned bones of man on them; and he returned to Jerusalem.

Josiah Keeps the Passover

21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, "Keep a Passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in this book of the covenant." 22 For one had not been kept like this Passover since the days of the judges who judged Israel, and all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah. 23 But in the eighteenth year of King Josiah this Passover was kept to the LORD in Jerusalem. 24 And also the mediums and the spiritists and the teraphim and the idols and all the detestable things that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, Josiah purged, so as to establish the words of the law that were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest had found in the house of the LORD. 25 And like him there was no king before him who turned back to the LORD with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses (Moshe); and after him one like him did not arise.

The Death of Josiah

26 Only, the LORD did not turn back from the burning of His great anger, with which His anger burned against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him. 27 And the LORD said, "Also Judah I will remove from My face, as I removed Israel; and I will reject this city which I chose, Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, 'My name shall be there.'" 28 And the rest of the matters of Josiah and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? 29 In his days Pharaoh Neco (Nekho) the king of Egypt (Mitsrayim) went up to the king of Assyria (Ashur), to the river Euphrates (Perat); and King Josiah went to meet him, and he killed him at Megiddo (Megido) when he saw him. 30 And his servants carried him dead in a chariot from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his tomb. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz (Yeho'achaz) the son of Josiah and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.

23:18 Let him rest; let no man disturb his bones The bones of the old prophet from Samaria buried with him were spared too (1 Kgs 13:31-32). The man who spoke God's word was honored by the king who fulfilled it.
23:20 he sacrificed all the priests of the high places who were there on the altars Hard to read. These were not Judah's priests, whom Josiah spared (23:9), but priests of the mixed worship of Samaria (17:29-33). The Law required death for anyone who led God's people to other gods (Deut 13:1-10; 17:2-7), and this was the judgment foretold three centuries earlier (1 Kgs 13:2).
23:20 he burned bones of man on them This was a king acting under the Mosaic covenant, when Israel was a nation under God's direct rule. It is not a pattern for us. Jesus rebuked His disciples for wanting fire on a Samaritan village (Luke 9:54-55), and we fight false teaching with the truth, prayer and love, not the sword (2 Cor 10:3-5). Yet it shows how seriously God takes leading people into false worship (Matt 18:6).
23:21 Keep a Passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in this book of the covenant The feast remembering the night the blood of a lamb turned away the destroyer (Exod 12), to be kept at the one place God chose (Deut 16:1-8).
23:22 since the days of the judges who judged Israel Hezekiah had kept a great Passover too (2 Chr 30). This one was likely kept more fully according to the book, by the whole nation in the one place (2 Chr 35:1-19).
23:23 in the eighteenth year of King Josiah All of this reform happened in a single year, the year the book was found.
23:23 this Passover was kept to the LORD in Jerusalem Josiah's Passover looked back to the exodus. Ours looks back to the cross: "For also our Passover was sacrificed for us: Christ" (1 Cor 5:7).
23:24 the teraphim Household idols, small images used for luck or fortune-telling (Gen 31:19). The book drove everything he did.
23:25 with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might Josiah kept Deuteronomy 6:5 more fully than any king. Hezekiah was unmatched in trust (18:5); Josiah was unmatched in turning to the LORD according to His law.
23:26 the LORD did not turn back from the burning of His great anger A hard verse. Josiah's reform was the work of a king, and the people's hearts had not truly changed. As soon as he died, his sons went right back to evil (23:32, 37).
23:26 because of all the provocations with which Manasseh had provoked Him Josiah's faithfulness was not wasted. His reform gave a generation the chance to hear God's Word, and Jeremiah, Daniel and Ezekiel grew up in those years. Judgment on a nation does not cancel God's grace to individuals who turn to Him.
23:27 I will reject this city which I chose, Jerusalem The house where God said His name would be was rejected too. The judgment that fell on Samaria would fall on Jerusalem.
23:29 Pharaoh Neco the king of Egypt went up to the king of Assyria This was 609 B.C. Nineveh had fallen to the Babylonians and Medes in 612 B.C., as Nahum foretold, and Neco marched north to help what was left of Assyria against Babylon.
23:29 he killed him at Megiddo when he saw him Neco said God had told him to hurry, but Josiah disguised himself and fought, and "he did not listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God" (2 Chr 35:22). Scripture does not say why. Whatever the reason, he did not ask the LORD first, and it cost him his life at thirty-nine.
23:30 his servants carried him dead in a chariot from Megiddo All Judah mourned, and Jeremiah wrote laments (2 Chr 35:24-25). Zechariah later spoke of the mourning in the plain of Megiddo as a picture of the day Israel will mourn for Him whom they pierced (Zech 12:10-11). That day is still ahead, when the Lord Jesus returns and Israel looks on Him and believes.

Jehoahaz and Jehoiakim

31 Jehoahaz was a son of twenty-three years when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Hamutal (Chamutal) the daughter of Jeremiah (Yirmeyahu) from Libnah (Livna). 32 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. 33 And Pharaoh Neco imprisoned him at Riblah (Rivla) in the land of Hamath (Chamat), from reigning in Jerusalem; and he put a fine on the land, approximately 7,500 pounds (one hundred talents) of silver and approximately 75 pounds (a talent) of gold. 34 And Pharaoh Neco made Eliakim (Elyaqim) the son of Josiah king in place of Josiah his father, and he changed his name to Jehoiakim (Yehoyaqim). And Jehoahaz he took, and he came to Egypt and died there. 35 And the silver and the gold Jehoiakim gave to Pharaoh; only he assessed the land to give the silver at the command of Pharaoh. From each man according to his assessment he exacted the silver and the gold from the people of the land, to give to Pharaoh Neco. 36 Jehoiakim was a son of twenty-five years when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Zebudah (Zevuda) the daughter of Pedaiah (Pedaya) from Rumah (Ruma). 37 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

Jehoiakim Rebels

1 In his days Nebuchadnezzar (Nevukhadnetsar) the king of Babylon (Bavel) came up, and Jehoiakim (Yehoyaqim) became a servant to him three years; and he turned and rebelled against him. 2 And the LORD sent against him the raiding bands of the Chaldeans (Kasdim) and the raiding bands of Syria (Aram) and the raiding bands of Moab (Mo'av) and the raiding bands of the sons of Ammon (Amon); and He sent them against Judah (Yehuda) to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD which He had spoken by the hand of His servants the prophets. 3 Surely at the command of the LORD it came about in Judah, to remove them from His face, for the sins of Manasseh (Menashe), according to all that he had done, 4 and also for the innocent blood that he had shed; and he filled Jerusalem (Yerushalayim) with innocent blood, and the LORD was not willing to forgive. 5 And the rest of the matters of Jehoiakim and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the matters of the days of the kings of Judah? 6 And Jehoiakim lay down with his fathers, and Jehoiachin (Yehoyakhin) his son reigned in his place. 7 And the king of Egypt (Mitsrayim) did not again come out from his land any more, for the king of Babylon had taken, from the wadi of Egypt to the river Euphrates (Perat), all that had belonged to the king of Egypt.

Jehoiachin and the First Exile

8 Jehoiachin was a son of eighteen years when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Nehushta (Nechushta) the daughter of Elnathan (Elnatan) from Jerusalem. 9 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father had done. 10 At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar the 23:31 he reigned three months in Jerusalem That was 609 B.C. Jeremiah calls him Shallum (Jer 22:11). His mother's father Jeremiah of Libnah was not the prophet.

23:32 he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD In three months he showed which way he would go. Josiah's reforms had not reached his own son's heart.
23:33 Pharaoh Neco imprisoned him at Riblah in the land of Hamath Riblah in Syria was Neco's headquarters. Judah now belonged to Egypt. The fine was about 7,500 pounds of silver and 75 pounds of gold.
23:34 he changed his name to Jehoiakim Changing a man's name showed that Neco was his master. Jehoahaz died in Egypt, as Jeremiah said: "He will not return there again" (Jer 22:11).
23:35 he assessed the land The king who should have protected his people made them pay for his throne.
23:36 he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem About 609 to 598 B.C.
23:37 according to all that his fathers had done He built a fine palace with unpaid labor while the poor suffered, and God reminded him that his father "judged the cause of the poor and needy" (Jer 22:16). He later cut up Jeremiah's scroll and burned it (Jer 36:23). His father tore his clothes at God's Word. The son burned it.
24:1 Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came up About 605 B.C. That year Nebuchadnezzar defeated Neco at Carchemish (Jer 46:2). In this campaign some temple vessels and young men of the royal family, Daniel among them, were taken to Babylon (Dan 1:1-6). That was the first deportation.
24:1 he turned and rebelled against him Jeremiah warned him again and again to submit to Babylon, because God had given the nations into Nebuchadnezzar's hand for a time (Jer 25:8-11; 27:6-8). Jehoiakim would not listen.
24:2 the LORD sent against him the raiding bands of the Chaldeans The Chaldeans were the people of southern Babylonia, and the name came to mean the Babylonians in general. Notice who sent them. Babylon's army was carrying out God's judgment, spoken by His prophets.
24:4 the LORD was not willing to forgive God forgave Manasseh himself when he repented (2 Chr 33:12-13). This speaks of the nation, which never repented of the innocent blood and went on in it (Jer 7:6; 22:3, 17). It does not mean God refuses anyone who turns to Him. In these same years He promised to restore all who sought Him with all their heart (Jer 29:12-14).
24:4 he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood Judgment delayed is not judgment cancelled. God had waited through Hezekiah's faith and Josiah's reform. But today is still the day of salvation for anyone who turns to Christ (2 Cor 6:2).
24:6 Jehoiakim lay down with his fathers About 598 B.C. Jeremiah said he would have "the burial of a donkey" (Jer 22:19), and Chronicles says Nebuchadnezzar bound him in bronze fetters (2 Chr 36:6). Scripture does not say exactly how these fit together. The king who burned God's Word came to a shameful end.
24:7 the king of Egypt did not again come out from his land any more The wadi of Egypt was a dry riverbed on Judah's southwest border. Egypt, the power Judah kept looking to for help, could no longer help anyone. No rescue would come.
24:8 Jehoiachin was a son of eighteen years when he became king About 598 to 597 B.C. Jeremiah calls him Coniah and Jeconiah (Jer 22:24; 24:1). Elnathan was likely the official of Jeremiah 26:22 and 36:12, 25. Chronicles says eight years (2 Chr 36:9), most likely a copying error, since he had wives when he went to Babylon (24:15).

king of Babylon went up to Jerusalem, and the city came under siege. 11 And Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came against the city, and his servants were besieging it. 12 And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he and his mother and his servants and his officials and his eunuchs; and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. 13 And he brought out from there all the treasures of the house of the LORD and the treasures of the house of the king, and he cut in pieces all the articles of gold which Solomon (Shelomo) the king of Israel (Yisra'el) had made in the temple of the LORD, just as the LORD had spoken. 14 And he carried into exile all Jerusalem and all the officials and all the mighty men of valor, ten thousand exiles, and every craftsman and smith; none was left except the poor of the people of the land. 15 And he carried Jehoiachin into exile to Babylon; and the mother of the king and the wives of the king and his eunuchs and the leaders of the land he led as exiles from Jerusalem to Babylon. 16 And all the men of valor, seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths, one thousand, all were mighty men, makers of war, the king of Babylon brought them as exiles to Babylon. 17 And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah (Matanya) his uncle king in his place, and he changed his name to Zedekiah (Tsidqiyahu).

Zedekiah King of Judah

18 Zedekiah was a son of twenty-one years when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And the name of his mother was Hamutal (Chamutal) the daughter of Jeremiah (Yirmeyahu) from Libnah (Livna). 19 And he did the evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. 20 For because of the anger of the LORD it came about in Jerusalem and in Judah, until He threw them out from His face. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

2 KINGS 25

The Fall of Jerusalem

1 And it was in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, Nebuchadnezzar (Nevukhadnetsar) the king of Babylon (Bavel) came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem (Yerushalayim), and he encamped against it, and they built a siege wall against it all around. 2 And the city came under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah (Tsidqiyahu). 3 On the ninth of the month, and the famine was severe in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land. 4 And the city was broken into, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the garden of the king, and the Chaldeans (Kasdim) were against the city all around; and he went by the way of the Arabah (Arava). 5 And the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king and overtook him in the plains of Jericho (Yericho); and all his army was scattered from him. 6 And they seized the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah (Rivla), and

25:5 Isa 30:16; Jer 24:8; Jer 39:5
25:6 2 Kgs 23:33; Jer 34:21,22; 2 Chr 33:11

24:12 Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon He surrendered. It may have been the wisest thing he ever did, sparing the city and temple for eleven more years. Jeremiah told the kings that surrender to Babylon was God's way of mercy (Jer 38:17).
24:12 in the eighth year of his reign That was 597 B.C. Babylonian records also tell of Nebuchadnezzar taking Jerusalem that year and appointing a new king.
24:13 just as the LORD had spoken The word Isaiah gave Hezekiah a hundred years earlier (20:17). Some of these vessels appear at Belshazzar's feast (Dan 5:2-3), and Cyrus gave them back when the exiles returned (Ezra 1:7-11).
24:14 every craftsman and smith Smiths were metalworkers who could make weapons. Babylon took everyone who could lead a revolt or arm one.
24:15 he carried Jehoiachin into exile to Babylon Among the exiles was a young priest named Ezekiel, who dated his prophecies by "the exile of King Jehoiachin" (Ezek 1:2). God sent a prophet into exile with His people. He did not abandon them there.
24:15 the leaders of the land God called these exiles good figs and promised to bring them back and "give them a heart to know Me" (Jer 24:7). Those left in Jerusalem thought the exiles were rejected. God said the opposite. What looks like the worst thing can be where God begins to make us new.
24:16 seven thousand These numbers seem to overlap with the ten thousand of verse 14, which may be a round total. Jeremiah 52:28 gives 3,023, which may count only certain men or a different group. The writers counted in different ways.
24:17 he changed his name to Zedekiah Mattaniah was Josiah's son, Jehoiachin's uncle; Chronicles calls him brother (2 Chr 36:10), which may mean relative. Zedekiah means the LORD is righteous, a name he would not live up to. Nebuchadnezzar put him under oath (Ezek 17:13).
24:18 he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem About 597 to 586 B.C. His mother was Hamutal, so he was the full brother of Jehoahaz (23:31).
24:19 according to all that Jehoiakim had done "He did not humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet" (2 Chr 36:12). He often asked Jeremiah for a word from God but was too afraid of his officials to obey it (Jer 37:17; 38:5, 14-28).
24:20 Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon He broke his oath and sent to Egypt for help (Ezek 17:15), bringing Nebuchadnezzar back to Jerusalem for the last time.
25:1 in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month The winter of 588 B.C. The day was remembered for generations. Ezekiel in Babylon was told to write down its name (Ezek 24:1-2), and after the exile the Jews kept fasts on the anniversaries of these dark days (Zech 8:19).
25:1 they built a siege wall against it all around A ring of earthworks and towers that sealed the city in. The siege lasted about a year and a half.
25:3 the famine was severe in the city The fourth month (Jer 52:6), in the summer of 586 B.C. Lamentations tells of children begging for bread with no one to give it (Lam 4:4). It was everything Moses warned of if Israel broke the covenant (Deut 28:52-53). God grieved over the suffering, even as He allowed it.
25:4 the city was broken into Zedekiah and the men of war slipped out by night through a gate likely near the southeast corner of the city, toward the Arabah, the Jordan valley.
25:5 overtook him in the plains of Jericho He got about fifteen miles, and the men who fled with him left him.
25:6 they spoke judgment with him At Riblah in Syria, Nebuchadnezzar's headquarters. He was put on trial for breaking his oath.

25:22 Jer 39:14; 2 Kgs 22:12; Jer 40:5,6-12
25:23 Jer 40:7-9,11,12

25:7 the sons of Zedekiah they slaughtered before his eyes One of the saddest verses in the Bible. The last thing Zedekiah saw was the death of his sons.
25:7 brought him to Babylon Jeremiah told him surrender would spare his life and the city (Jer 38:17-18). Ezekiel said, "he shall not see it, and he shall die there" (Ezek 12:13). He arrived in Babylon blind. Zedekiah asked for God's word many times but never obeyed it. Knowing what God says is not enough (James 1:22).
25:8 in the fifth month, on the seventh of the month August of 586 B.C., about a month after the wall was broken. Jeremiah 52:12 gives the tenth. He may have arrived on the seventh and set the fire on the tenth, or one number may have changed in copying.
25:9 he burned the house of the LORD Solomon's temple, where God had put His name, had stood nearly four hundred years. The writer does not describe the flames. He simply says it.
25:9 all the houses of Jerusalem The people trusted the building instead of the God who lived there, saying "The temple of the LORD" while they lived in sin (Jer 7:4). God would rather have no temple than one that hid His people's sin. Jesus warned of the temple of His day too (Matt 24:1-2), and it was destroyed in A.D. 70.
25:10 the walls of Jerusalem all around A city without walls was helpless. They lay in ruins until Nehemiah rebuilt them about 445 B.C.
25:11 the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon Even those who had gone over to Babylon were taken.
25:12 some of the poor of the land The rich who oppressed the poor were taken away, and the poor were given vineyards and fields (Jer 39:10). There is a quiet justice in that. God sees the poor (Ps 9:18).
25:16 there was no weight for the bronze of all these articles Like reading the inventory of a burned house. Solomon named the pillars Jachin and Boaz, names that speak of God establishing and of strength (1 Kgs 7:21). Ahaz cut up the stands (16:17) and Hezekiah stripped the doors (18:16). What Judah's kings began to strip away, Babylon finished.
25:17 a network and pomegranates were on the capital all around The writer describes the pillars one last time, as they were first made (1 Kgs 7:15-22). The symbols of God's strength and stability were broken and carried off by a pagan king.
25:18 Seraiah the head priest The grandson of Hilkiah, who found the book of the law, and an ancestor of Ezra (1 Chr 6:13-15; Ezra 7:1).
25:21 the king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah These were the leaders who had urged Zedekiah to rebel.
25:21 Judah went into exile from its ground The sentence the whole book has been building toward, just like Israel (17:23). The covenant curse came true (Deut 28:63). Jeremiah said the exile would last seventy years (Jer 25:11; 29:10).
25:22 Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan A godly family. Shaphan read the book of the law to Josiah (22:10), and Ahikam protected Jeremiah (Jer 26:24). Gedaliah governed from Mizpah, a few miles north of the ruined city.

the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. 24 And Gedaliah swore to them and to their men, and he said to them, "Do not be afraid of the servants of the Chaldeans. Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well for you." 25 And it was in the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed of the kingship, came, and ten men with him, and they struck down Gedaliah, and he died, and the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah. 26 And all the people arose, from small to great, and the commanders of the armies, and they went to Egypt (Mitsrayim), for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

Jehoiachin Released

27 And it was in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin (Yehoyakhin) the king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh of the month, Evil-merodach (Evil-Merodakh) the king of Babylon, in the year he became king, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin the king of Judah from the house of prison. 28 And he spoke good things with him, and he set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon. 29 And he changed the clothes of his prison, and he ate bread continually before him all the days of his life. 30 And his allowance, a continual allowance, was given to him from the king, the portion of a day in its day, all the days of his life.

25:25 Zech 7:5; Zech 8:19; Jer 40:15,16
25:26 Jer 43:4-7; Jer 41:16-18; Jer 42:14-22
25:27 Matt 1:12; Jer 52:31-34; Gen 40:13,20
25:28 Dan 2:37; Dan 5:18,19; Jer 27:6-11
25:29 2 Sam 9:7; 2 Kgs 24:12; Gen 41:14,42
25:30 Neh 11:23; Neh 12:47; Dan 1:5

25:24 Dwell in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well for you The same counsel Jeremiah gave (Jer 27:12; 40:9). Jeremiah himself stayed with Gedaliah (Jer 40:6). For a short time it looked as though the poor of Judah might live in peace.
25:25 of the seed of the kingship Ishmael was of the royal family. He may have resented a ruler not of David's line, or been sent by the king of the Ammonites (Jer 40:14). Gedaliah had been warned and would not believe it (Jer 40:13-16).
25:26 they went to Egypt, for they were afraid of the Chaldeans Jeremiah told them God would protect them in the land, but they would die in Egypt (Jer 42:9-17). They went anyway and took Jeremiah (Jer 43:4-7). God had brought His people out of Egypt with a mighty hand. Now the last of them went back against His word, as Moses warned (Deut 28:68).
25:27 lifted up the head of Jehoiachin the king of Judah from the house of prison About 560 B.C. Nebuchadnezzar's son released him, perhaps as goodwill at the start of his reign. Jeremiah 52:31 gives the twenty-fifth day. To lift up the head means to raise to honor, as with Joseph's fellow prisoner (Gen 40:13, 20-21).
25:28 he set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon The book ends with a light: a son of David alive, out of prison and honored. Jerusalem was in ruins and the temple ashes, but the line was not cut off. God kept David's lamp burning (1 Kgs 11:36), even in Babylon.
25:29 he changed the clothes of his prison Jeremiah said no descendant of Jehoiachin would prosper on David's throne (Jer 22:30). Matthew lists him in Jesus' legal line through Joseph (Matt 1:11-12), but Jesus was born of the virgin Mary, whose line runs to David through Nathan (Luke 3:31). Many teachers see this as how God kept both words. Of Jesus' kingdom "there will be no end" (Luke 1:33).
25:30 his allowance, a continual allowance, was given to him from the king A small picture of what God does for us. We were prisoners of sin. In Christ, God lifts up our heads, takes away our prison clothes, clothes us in His righteousness (Isa 61:10), and seats us at His table forever.

1 CHRONICLES

Introduction

Title

In the Hebrew Bible, 1 and 2 Chronicles were one book, and it stood last of all, at the very end of the Old Testament. Its Hebrew title means the words of the days, which we might put as the events of the times. The Greek translators split it in two and called it by a name meaning the things left out, because it gives details that Samuel and Kings do not. Our title goes back to Jerome, who called it a chronicle of the whole of sacred history. That Hebrew order may explain Jesus' words about the blood of the righteous "from the blood of Abel the righteous to the blood of Zechariah" (Matt 23:35). Abel's death is in Genesis and Zechariah's in 2 Chronicles 24:20-22, so many Bible teachers believe Jesus was speaking of the whole Old Testament, from the first book to the last.

Author and Date

The book does not name its writer. Jewish tradition holds that Ezra the priest and scribe wrote Chronicles, and there are good reasons for it. The last verses of 2 Chronicles are nearly the same as the first verses of Ezra (2 Chr 36:22-23; Ezra 1:1-3), as though one book picks up where the other leaves off, and both share a deep interest in the temple, the priests and Levites, the law of Moses and family records. Many scholars today speak only of the Chronicler, an unnamed writer or group of writers, and some place the book later, in the 300s B.C. I take the Jewish tradition as the most likely answer, while saying plainly that Scripture does not name him.

The book was written after the return from exile. The family of David in 3:17-24 runs several generations past Zerubbabel, who led the first return in 538 B.C., and the gifts for the temple are valued in darics, a Persian coin (29:7). It was most likely written about 450 to 430 B.C., in the days of Ezra and Nehemiah. The writer used older records, which he names: "the book of the kings of Israel and Judah" (9:1) and the words of Samuel the seer, Nathan the prophet and Gad the seer (29:29). Much of chapters 10 to 21 follows 2 Samuel closely, and he also had family records, temple records and lists of officers. The Holy Spirit guided him in what he chose and how he told it.

Background and Setting

First Chronicles was written for the Jews who had come back to Judah from exile in Babylon, and for their children.
Jerusalem and its temple had fallen in 586 B.C. In 538 B.C. Cyrus king of Persia let them go home, and they rebuilt the temple by 516 B.C. But they were a small and poor community in a little province of the Persian empire, with no king of their own.

The book covers more ground than any other. Its family lists run from Adam to the people who came back from Babylon (chapters 1 to 9). Its story covers one reign, David's, from the death of Saul about 1010 B.C. to David's death about 970 B.C. He reigned seven and a half years in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem (3:4; 29:27). Second Chronicles goes on with Solomon and the kings of Judah to the exile and Cyrus' decree.

The first readers already had Samuel and Kings, which explained why Israel went into exile. Chronicles asks a different question: now that we are back, what is God still doing with us? So it keeps its eyes on the line of David, the temple where God put His name, and the worship of God by priests, Levites and singers. That is why it leaves out much of David's family trouble, like Bathsheba and Absalom's revolt, and spends whole chapters on the ark and the Levites. The writer is not hiding David's sins. His readers knew them, and he tells David's sinful census in full (chapter 21).

In several places Chronicles gives a different number from Samuel or Kings for the same event, such as three hundred slain in 11:11 and eight hundred in 2 Samuel 23:8. The notes take the numbers as written in each place and hold that the original writings were without error. Numbers were the easiest thing to miscopy over centuries of hand copying, sometimes the two books count different groups, and some scholars read the Hebrew word for thousand as a clan or military unit in some lists. The notes point these out where they come up rather than hide them. Dates follow the standard conservative reckoning and are given with "about."

Themes

God's promises to His people still stand, above all His covenant with David. A covenant is a binding agreement, a promise sealed with an oath. In chapter 17 God promises David a son whose throne will last forever: "I will set him in My house and in My kingdom forever, and his throne shall be established forever" (17:14). The kingdom is God's, and the son of David sits "on the throne of the LORD" (29:23). The family lists tied the returned people to Abraham and David and to their land, and showed them that God had not forgotten any of the tribes.

The worship of God belongs at the center of the life of His people. Half the book is about the ark, the temple, the priests, the Levites, the singers and the gatekeepers. David's great desire was to build a house for God, and he spent his last years getting everything ready for it, down to the weight of every lamp. The refrain of the book is the Levites' song: "Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; for His steadfast love is forever" (16:34).

The key word is seek. Saul died for his unfaithfulness, and "he did not inquire of the LORD" (10:14). David sought God, first by bringing back the ark, then by learning to seek Him "according to the ordinance" (15:13). The lesson of Uzzah is that God is holy and must be approached His way. David's charge to Solomon and the leaders sums up the book: "set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God" (22:19). The book also shows a king after God's heart who sinned, confessed it plainly, and found mercy at an altar (21:8, 26-27), and it teaches that everything we give God was His first (29:14).

Christ in 1 Chronicles

The family lines of 1 Chronicles trace the very line the New Testament follows to Jesus. Matthew opens with "The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, son of David, son of Abraham" (Matt 1:1), and Luke traces Jesus back to Adam (Luke 3:23-38), just as Chronicles begins with Adam. Both pass through Judah, Perez, Boaz, Jesse and David, and Matthew goes on through Solomon, the kings, Jeconiah, Shealtiel and Zerubbabel (Matt

1:6-13).

The covenant of chapter 17 is fulfilled in Jesus. The angel told Mary that God would give her Son "the throne of David His father" (Luke 1:32), and "of His kingdom there will be no end" (Luke 1:33). Hebrews applies God's words about David's son to Christ: "I will be to Him a Father, and He will be to Me a Son" (Heb 1:5). I believe that promise will be fully seen when Jesus returns and reigns on David's throne over a restored Israel and the whole earth (Rev 20:4-6).

The temple David prepared for was built on the threshing floor of Ornan, where the angel's sword was put away when a sacrifice was offered (21:18-30; 2 Chr 3:1), on Mount Moriah, where God provided a ram in place of Isaac (Gen 22:13-14). It is a picture of the place where God meets sinners on the ground of a sacrifice, which Christ gave once for all (Heb 10:10-12). David's prayer for the sheep, "let Your hand be on me" (21:17), points to the Good Shepherd who lays down His life for the sheep (John 10:11).

Hard Passages

Saul falls on his own sword at Gilboa (10:4). The notes say plainly that the Bible records this without praising it, that God alone judges the heart, and they urge anyone struggling with thoughts of ending their life to reach out for help today. The writer's own verdict is about Saul's unfaithfulness over many years (10:13-14), and the notes add that this does not mean every hard or early death is a punishment.

God strikes Uzzah dead for touching the ark (13:9-10). The notes explain it from the Law itself (Num 4:15): the whole plan copied the Philistines instead of obeying God, and God was teaching Israel that He is holy. In Christ we now draw near by His blood (Heb 10:19).

Satan incites David to count Israel (21:1), while 2 Samuel 24:1 says the LORD incited him. The notes show how both are true without making God the author of sin (James 1:13), and they deal honestly with the seventy thousand who died in the plague (21:14). Elhanan kills the brother of Goliath (20:5), which helps explain 2 Samuel 21:19, and the notes read 20:3 as forced labor, following the parallel in 2 Samuel 12:31.

David warns Solomon that if he forsakes God, "He will reject you forever" (28:9). The notes take the warning seriously while holding that those truly born again are kept by God (John 10:28-29). The number differences between Chronicles and Samuel are pointed out where they come up and explained honestly. Long name lists fill chapters 1 to 9, and the notes give one short note to each group, drawing out the stories tucked inside them, like the prayer of Jabez (4:9-10).

1:1 Adam, Seth, Enosh Ten generations from the first man to Noah, the line of Genesis 5, with no ages and no stories. The writer could assume his readers knew the stories behind each name.
1:1 Adam He starts with Adam, not Abraham or Jacob. Israel's story is part of the story of the whole human race. Luke traces Jesus' line back to "Adam, the son of God" (Luke 3:38). The Savior of Israel is also the Savior of the world.
1:4 Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth Through Noah's three sons all the nations came.
1:5 The sons of Japheth This section follows Genesis 10, the Table of Nations. From Japheth came peoples who spread north and west, such as Javan, the Greeks.
1:8 The sons of Ham Cush, Mizraim (Egypt), Put and Canaan. Among the Canaanite peoples are those Israel would later meet in the land: the Jebusite, the Amorite, the Hivite and others.
1:10 he began to be a mighty man on the earth Nimrod, from the line of Ham.
1:17 The sons of Shem Elam, Asshur (Assyria), Aram and others. Why list the nations at all? Because God never forgot them. He chose Israel for the sake of the nations, and all the families of the earth would be blessed in Abraham (Gen 12:3).
1:19 in his days the earth was divided Many Bible teachers connect this with the scattering of the nations at Babel (Gen 11:1-9). Scripture does not explain it further, so I will not build on it.
1:24 Shem, Arpachshad, Shelah Now the writer narrows the focus to the line of Genesis 11:10-26.
1:27 Abram, he is Abraham The name everything has been building to. God changed Abram's name to Abraham, father of a multitude (Gen 17:5). Ten generations from Adam to Noah, ten from Shem to Abraham, and out of all the nations God called one man. The small, weak returned exiles came from the man God chose and promised to bless.
1:28 The sons of Abraham were Isaac and Ishmael The writer's pattern all through these chapters: side branches first and briefly, then back to the main line. The side branches are not forgotten. God blessed Ishmael too (Gen 17:20). But the promise ran through Isaac and Jacob.
1:34 The sons of Isaac were Esau and Israel Jacob is called by his God-given name, Israel (Gen 32:28), the name of the whole nation.

(Yisra'el).

The Sons of Esau and the Kings of Edom

35 The sons of Esau were Eliphaz (Elifaz), Reuel, and Jeush (Yeush) and Jalam (Yalam) and Korah (Qorach). 36 The sons of Eliphaz were Teman and Omar, Zephi (Tsefi) and Gatam, Kenaz (Qenaz) and Timna and Amalek (Amaleq). 37 The sons of Reuel were Nahath (Nachat), Zerah (Zerach), Shammah (Shama), and Mizzah (Miza). 38 And the sons of Seir (Se'ir) were Lotan and Shobal (Shoval) and Zibeon (Tsivon) and Anah (Ana) and Dishon and Ezer (Etser) and Dishan. 39 And the sons of Lotan were Hori (Chori) and Hemam (Homam); and the sister of Lotan was Timna. 40 The sons of Shobal were Alvan (Alyan) and Manahath (Manachat) and Ebal (Eval), Shephi (Shefi) and Onam. And the sons of Zibeon were Aiah (Aya) and Anah. 41 The sons of Anah were Dishon. And the sons of Dishon were Hemdan (Chamran) and Eshban and Ithran (Yitran) and Cheran (Keran). 42 The sons of Ezer were Bilhan and Zaavan, Akan (Ya'aqan). The sons of Dishan (Dishon) were Uz and Aran. 43 And these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before a king reigned over the sons of Israel: Bela the son of Beor; and the name of his city was Dinhabah (Dinhava). 44 And Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah from Bozrah (Botsra) reigned in his place. 45 And Jobab died, and Husham (Chusham) from the land of the Temanites reigned in his place. 46 And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who struck Midian in the field of Moab (Mo'av), reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Avith (Avit). 47 And Hadad died, and Samlah (Samla) from Masrekah (Masreqa) reigned in his place. 48 And Samlah died, and Shaul from Rehoboth (Rechovot) of the River (Nahar) reigned in his place. 49 And Shaul died, and Baal-hanan (Ba'al-Chanan) the son of Achbor (Akhbor)

53 chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar (Mivtsar), 54 chief Magdiel, chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom.

3 The sons of Judah were Er and Onan and Shelah (Shela); three were born to him from the daughter of Shua, the Canaanite woman. 1:35 The sons of Esau Esau, also called Edom, from Genesis 36. Edom was Israel's brother nation and often its bitter enemy. In the writer's own day the Edomites had moved into the south of Judah. Yet God kept their record too.
1:36 Amalek Father of a people who would fight Israel for centuries.
1:38 the sons of Seir The people who lived in that land before Esau's family took it over.
1:43 the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before a king reigned over the sons of Israel Edom had kings first, but Israel's King would last. The kings of Edom each died, one after another (1:44-51). God's promise to David's house, which this book is building toward, would not die.
2:1 These are the sons of Israel The returned exiles were mostly from Judah, Benjamin and Levi, but the writer begins with all twelve. In his mind God's people were still one people, all of Israel. The prophets say God will one day gather all the tribes again (Ezek 37:15-22).
2:3 Er, the firstborn of Judah, was evil in the eyes of the LORD, and He put him to death Scripture does not say what Er's evil was, and I will not guess. It tells us the LORD is the Judge of all, and His judgment was just.
2:4 Tamar his daughter-in-law The whole sad story is in Genesis 38. The writer is honest. The line of David, and of the Messiah, came through sinners and broken families. Matthew names Tamar too (Matt 1:3). God did not choose this family because it was good. He chose it in grace.
2:7 Achan, the troubler of Israel, who acted unfaithfully in the devoted thing Achan kept what God had devoted to Him at Jericho, and it brought defeat on all Israel (Josh 7). Unfaithfully is a key word in Chronicles. It comes back when Saul dies (10:13) and when the nation goes into exile (9:1).
2:10 the leader of the sons of Judah Nahshon led his tribe in the wilderness (Num 2:3).
2:12 Boaz fathered Obed, and Obed fathered Jesse The same line that ends the book of Ruth (Ruth 4:18-22). Boaz married Ruth the Moabite, and Matthew names her too (Matt 1:5).

15 Ozem (Otsem) the sixth, David the seventh; 16 and their sisters were Zeruiah (Tseruya) and Abigail (Avigayil). And the sons of Zeruiah were Abishai (Avishay) and Joab (Yo'av) and Asahel, three. 17 And Abigail bore Amasa; and the father of Amasa was Jether (Yeter) the Ishmaelite.

The Family of Caleb

18 And Caleb (Kalev) the son of Hezron fathered children with Azubah (Azuva), a wife, and with Jerioth (Yeriot); and these were her sons: Jesher (Yesher) and Shobab (Shovav) and Ardon. 19 And Azubah died, and Caleb took for himself Ephrath (Efrat), and she bore to him Hur (Chur). 20 And Hur fathered Uri, and Uri fathered Bezalel (Betsalel). 21 And afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir (Makhir) the father of Gilead (Gilad), and he took her, and he was a son of sixty years; and she bore to him Segub (Seguv). 22 And Segub fathered Jair (Ya'ir), and to him belonged twenty and three cities in the land of Gilead. 23 And Geshur and Syria (Aram) took Havvoth-jair (Chavvot-Ya'ir) from them, Kenath (Qenat) and its villages, sixty cities. All these were the sons of Machir the father of Gilead. 24 And after the death of Hezron in Caleb-ephrathah (Kalev-Efrata), and the wife of Hezron was Abijah (Aviya), and she bore to him Ashhur (Ashchur) the father of Tekoa (Teqoa).

The Family of Jerahmeel

25 And the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were: the firstborn Ram, and Bunah (Buna) and Oren and Ozem, Ahijah (Achiya). 26 And Jerahmeel had another wife, and her name was Atarah (Atara); she was the mother of Onam. 27 And the sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were Maaz (Ma'ats) and Jamin (Yamin) and Eker (Eqer). 28 And the sons of Onam were Shammai (Shamay) and Jada (Yada). And the sons of Shammai were Nadab (Nadav) and Abishur (Avishur). 29 And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail (Avichayil), and she bore to him Ahban (Achvan) and Molid. 30 And the sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim (Apayim); and Seled died without sons. 31 And the sons of Appaim were Ishi (Yishi). And the sons of Ishi were Sheshan. These were the sons of Jerahmeel. 34 And Sheshan had no sons, but daughters; and Sheshan had a slave, an Egyptian, and his name was Jarha (Yarcha). 35 And Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his slave for a wife, and she bore to him Attai (Atay). 36 And Attai fathered Nathan (Natan), and Nathan fathered Zabad (Zavad); 37 and Zabad fathered Ephlal (Eflal), and Ephlal fathered Obed; 38 and Obed fathered Jehu (Yehu), and Jehu fathered Azariah; 39 and Azariah fathered Helez (Chelets), and Helez fathered Eleasah (Elasa); 40 and Eleasah fathered Sismai (Sismay), and Sismai fathered Shallum (Shalum); 41 and Shallum fathered Jekamiah (Yeqamya), and Jekamiah fathered Elishama.

More Clans of Caleb

42 And the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were Mesha his firstborn; he was the father of Ziph (Zif); and the sons of Mareshah (Maresha) the father of Hebron (Chevron). 43 And the sons of Hebron were Korah (Qorach) and Tappuah (Tapuach) and Rekem (Reqem) and Shema. 44 And Shema fathered Raham (Racham) the father of Jorkeam (Yorqe'am); and Rekem fathered Shammai. 45 And the son of Shammai was Maon, and Maon was the father of Beth-zur (Bet-Tsur). 46 And Ephah (Efa) the concubine of Caleb bore Haran (Charan) and Moza (Motsa) and Gazez; and Haran fathered Gazez. 47 And the sons of Jahdai (Yahday) were Regem and Jotham (Yotam) and Geshan and Pelet and Ephah and Shaaph (Sha'af). 48 The concubine of Caleb, Maacah (Ma'akha), bore Sheber (Shever) and Tirhanah (Tirchana). 49 And she bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah (Madmana), Sheva the father of Machbenah (Makhbena) and the father of Gibea (Giva); and the daughter of Caleb was Achsah (Akhsa). 50 These were the sons of Caleb the son of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah: Shobal (Shoval) the father of Kiriath-jearim (Qiryat-Ye'arim), 51 Salma the father of Bethlehem (Bet-Lechem), Hareph (Charef) the father of Beth-gader (Bet-Gader). 52 And Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim had sons: Haroeh (Ro'e), half of the Menuhoth. 53 And the clans of Kiriath-jearim were the Ithrite and the Puthite and the Shumathite and the Mishraite; from these came out the Zorathite and the Eshtaolite. 54 The sons of Salma were Beth-

2:15 David the seventh First Samuel 16:10-11 makes eight sons. Most Bible teachers believe one son died young or without children and is not counted. Either way, David was the youngest, the one no one expected God to choose. From Judah through Perez to David, Matthew and Luke give the same names on the way to Jesus (Matt 1:3-6; Luke 3:31-33).
2:16 their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail Their sons Joab, Abishai, Asahel and Amasa would be David's army commanders. A real family, with nephews who served him, and sometimes troubled him.
2:20 Bezalel The craftsman God filled with His Spirit to build the tabernacle (Exod 31:1-5). A book so focused on worship names the man who built Israel's first house of worship.
2:21 Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir Their descendant Jair held twenty-three cities in Gilead. The families of Israel were tied together by marriage across tribes.
2:25 the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron Most of these names are known only from here.
2:35 Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his slave for a wife An Egyptian slave became part of a family of Judah, and his descendants were counted among God's people for thirteen generations (2:36-41). Israel itself had been slaves in Egypt. Grace has always reached past the borders we draw.
2:51 Salma the father of Bethlehem In these lists, father of a town often means its founder or leader. These were towns of the hill country of Judah where many returned exiles lived. Bethlehem was David's hometown and would be the birthplace of Jesus (Mic 5:2; Matt 2:6).

(Atrot-Bet-Yo'av), and the half of the Manahathite, the Zorite. 55 And the clans of scribes, the inhabitants of Jabez

They are the Kenites who came from Hammath (Chamat), the father of the house of Rechab (Rekhav).

Eliphelet, nine. 9 All were the sons of David, besides the sons of concubines; and Tamar was their sister.

2:55 the house of Rechab The Kenites were the people of Moses' father-in-law, who joined Israel (Judg 1:16), and the Rechabites were later praised for their faithfulness (Jer 35). Once again, people from outside Israel were found among God's people.

3:1 the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron Six sons from six mothers. Daniel is called Chileab in 2 Samuel 3:3. Amnon, Absalom and Adonijah bring back painful memories (2 Sam 13-18; 1 Kgs 1). Many wives did not bring David peace but rivalry and grief, as God had warned (Deut 17:17).

3:4 seven years and six months His reign in Hebron, then thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

3:5 Bath-shua the daughter of Ammiel Another form of Bathsheba (2 Sam 11:3; 12:24). Matthew traces Jesus' line through Solomon (Matt 1:6-16) and Luke through Nathan (Luke 3:31). Many teachers believe Matthew gives Joseph's line, Jesus' legal right to the throne, and Luke gives Mary's, His blood descent. God took a marriage that began in sin and, after David's repentance, used it in His plan of salvation.

3:10 the son of Solomon was Rehoboam The kings of Judah, father to son. Athaliah, who seized the throne for six years (2 Kgs 11), is left out. She was not of David's line.

3:13 Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son For nearly four hundred years, about 970 to 586 B.C., a son of David sat on the throne in Jerusalem, through good kings and bad. God's promise did not depend on how well David's sons behaved. It depended on Him.

3:15 the sons of Josiah Three of them reigned: Shallum (Jehoahaz), Jehoiakim and Zedekiah. Jehoiakim's son Jeconiah reigned three months before Babylon took him (2 Kgs 24:8-15).

3:17 the sons of Jeconiah the prisoner Carried off in 597 B.C., he spent thirty-seven years in prison (2 Kgs 25:27-30). Jeremiah said none of his offspring would prosper on David's throne (Jer 22:30), yet his line went on, and Matthew names Jeconiah, Shealtiel and Zerubbabel (Matt 1:12). God kept the family alive in exile.

3:19 the sons of Pedaiah were Zerubbabel Ezra and Haggai call him the son of Shealtiel (Ezra 3:2; Hag 1:1). Perhaps Pedaiah raised up a son in his brother's name (Deut 25:5-6), or son means grandson in one list. Scripture does not say. Zerubbabel led the first return and rebuilt the temple, and God called him His signet ring (Hag 2:23).

3:24 seven These were men the first readers may have known. The royal family lived among them, without a crown but not without a promise. About five hundred years after Zerubbabel, from this family, Jesus was born.

4:4 the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Bethlehem We do not know most of these people beyond their names. But God knew them, and their names were kept. The writer shows the returned people that their towns and clans had roots going back centuries.
4:9 Jabez was honored more than his brothers Then the list stops. In Hebrew the name Jabez sounds like the word for pain, a reminder of his hard beginning every time someone called him. Jabez did not let his pain define him. He took it to God.
4:10 Jabez called to the God of Israel The God of the covenant, not some other god. He asked honestly for blessing, for room for his family in the land, for God's hand and for protection, and many teachers understand the harm as harm from evil as well as hardship. The prayer is unfinished in the Hebrew, as if he simply left it with God (Phil 4:6; Matt 7:7-11).
4:10 God brought what he had asked That is all we are told. The text does not tell us to repeat his words as a formula for a larger life. We can ask wrongly (James 4:3), God hears what we ask "according to His will" (1 John 5:14), and sometimes He gives grace instead (2 Cor 12:7-9). The blessing is in God, not in the words.
4:14 for they were craftsmen Ge-harashim means the valley of craftsmen. Some clans were named for their trades.
4:15 Caleb the son of Jephunneh The faithful spy who followed the LORD fully (Num 14:24).
4:18 Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh An Egyptian princess became part of a family of Judah. Her name means daughter of the LORD, perhaps a name she took when she joined His people.
4:22 the words are ancient The writer's records were old, passed down for many generations.
4:23 with the king in his work they dwelt there Potters who did skilled work for the king. God's people are potters and weavers, builders and farmers, not only kings and priests. Whatever we do, we work at it from the heart, as for the Lord (Col 3:23).
4:27 all their clan did not multiply as much as the sons of Judah Jacob said Simeon would be scattered in Israel (Gen 49:5-7) because of Shechem (Gen 34). Simeon received towns within Judah's land (Josh 19:1-9) and in time blended into Judah.

Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; and his brothers had not many sons, and all their clan did not multiply as much as the sons of Judah. 28 And they dwelt in Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva) and Moladah (Molada) and Hazar-shual (Chatsar-Shu'al) 29 and in Bilhah (Bilha) and in Ezem (Etsem) and in Tolad 30 and in Bethuel (Betu'el) and in Hormah (Chorma) and in Ziklag (Tsiqlag) 31 and in Beth-marcaboth (Bet-Markavot) and in Hazar-susim (Chatsar-Susim) and in Beth-biri (Bet-Biri) and in Shaaraim (Sha'arayim). These were their cities until David reigned. 32 And their villages were Etam and Ain (Ayin), Rimmon (Rimon) and Tochen (Tokhen) and Ashan, five cities, 33 and all their villages that were around these cities as far as Baal. These were their dwelling places, and their genealogical enrollment belonged to them: 34 and Meshobab (Meshovav) and Jamlech (Yamlekh) and Joshah (Yosha) the son of Amaziah (Amatsya), 35 and Joel (Yo'el) and Jehu (Yehu) the son of Joshibiah (Yoshivya), the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, 36 and Elioenai (Elyo'enay) and Jaakobah (Ya'aqova) and Jeshohaiah (Yeshochaya) and Asaiah (Asaya) and Adiel and Jesimiel (Yeshimi'el) and Benaiah (Benaya), 37 and Ziza the son of Shiphi (Shifi), the son of Allon (Alon), the son of Jedaiah (Yedaya), the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah (Shemaya). 38 These who came by names were leaders in their clans; and the house of their fathers spread out abundantly. 39 And they went to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east of the valley, to seek pasture for their flock. 40 And they found pasture, rich and good, and the land was wide on both sides, and quiet and at ease; for those dwelling there before were from Ham (Cham). 41 And these who were written by names came in the days of Hezekiah (Chizqiyahu) the king of Judah, and they struck their tents and the Meunites (Meunim) who were found there, and they devoted them to destruction until this day, and they dwelt in their place, for pasture for their flock was there. 42 And from them, from the sons of Simeon, five hundred men went to the mountain of Seir (Se'ir); and Pelatiah (Pelatya) and Neariah (Ne'arya) and Rephaiah (Refaya) and Uzziel (Uzi'el), the sons of Ishi, were at their head. 43 And they struck the remnant of the escaped ones of Amalek (Amaleq), and they have dwelt there until this day.

The Tribe of Reuben

1 And the sons of Reuben (Reuven) the firstborn of Israel (Yisra'el)—for he was the firstborn, and when he profaned the beds of his father his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph (Yosef) the son of Israel, and not to be enrolled in the genealogy according to the birthright; 2 for Judah (Yehuda) prevailed among his brothers, and from him came a leader, and the birthright belonged to Joseph— 3 the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel were Hanoch (Chanokh) and Pallu (Palu), Hezron (Chetsron) and Carmi (Karmi). 4 The sons of Joel (Yo'el) were Shemaiah (Shemaya) his son, Gog his son, Shimei (Shimi) his son, 5 Micah (Mikha) his son, Reaiah (Re'aya) his son, Baal his son, 6 Beerah (Be'era) his son, whom Tiglath-pileser (Tilegat-Pilne'eser) the king of Assyria (Ashur) carried into exile; he was a leader of the Reubenites. 7 And his brothers, by his clans, in the enrollment of their generations, were: the chief, Jeiel (Ye'i'el), and Zechariah (Zekharyahu), 8 and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel; he was dwelling in Aroer (Aro'er), and as far as Nebo (Nevo) and Baal-meon (Ba'al-Meon). 9 And to the east he dwelt as far as the entrance of the wilderness from the river Euphrates (Perat), for their livestock had multiplied in the land of Gilead (Gilad). 10 And in the days of Saul (Shaul) they made war with the Hagrites, and they fell by their hand; and they dwelt in their tents over all the face of the east of Gilead.

The Tribe of Gad

11 And the sons of Gad dwelt opposite them in the land of Bashan as far as Salecah (Salkha): 12 Joel was the chief, and Shapham (Shafam) the second, and Janai (Ya'anay) and Shaphat (Shafat) in Bashan. 13 And their brothers of the house of their fathers were Michael (Mikha'el) and Meshullam (Meshulam) and Sheba (Sheva) and Jorai (Yoray) and Jacan (Yakan) and Zia and Eber (Ever), seven. 14 These were the sons of Abihail (Avichayil) the son of Huri (Churi), the son of Jaroah (Yaroach), the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai (Yeshishay), the son of Jahdo (Yachdo), the son of Buz; 15 Ahi (Achi) the son of Abdiel (Avdi'el), the 4:31 These were their cities until David reigned Ziklag was where David lived while hiding from Saul (1 Sam 27:6).

4:40 they found pasture, rich and good In the days of Hezekiah, about 715 to 686 B.C., Simeonites moved out to find more land and settled in place of the Meunites.
4:43 they struck the remnant of the escaped ones of Amalek God had said He would blot out Amalek's memory (Exod 17:14; Deut 25:17-19), and Saul failed to finish it (1 Sam 15). Centuries later a small group of Simeonites did. God's word does not fail, even when it takes a long time.
5:1 when he profaned the beds of his father his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph Reuben slept with his father's concubine (Gen 35:22), and Jacob took the birthright (Gen 49:3-4), the double share and the right to lead. Ephraim and Manasseh each became a tribe, so Joseph received the double share (Gen 48:5).
5:2 Judah prevailed among his brothers, and from him came a leader The double portion went to Joseph, but the leadership to Judah (Gen 49:10). That leader was David, and in the end the Lion of the tribe of Judah, Jesus Christ (Rev 5:5).
5:6 Tiglath-pileser the king of Assyria carried into exile He ruled about 745 to 727 B.C. and took many from the northern and eastern tribes about 733 B.C. (2 Kgs 15:29).
5:10 the Hagrites A desert people. Reuben was a tribe of herdsmen living on the edge of the wilderness.

son of Guni, was chief of the house of their fathers. 16 And they dwelt in Gilead, in Bashan, and in its villages, and in all the pasture lands of Sharon, as far as their limits. 17 All of them were enrolled in the genealogy in the days of Jotham (Yotam) the king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam (Yaravam) the king of Israel.

Victory over the Hagrites

18 The sons of Reuben and the Gadites and the half of the tribe of Manasseh (Menashe), from the sons of strength, men carrying shield and sword, and bending the bow, and trained in war, were forty and four thousand and seven hundred and sixty, going out to war. 19 And they made war with the Hagrites and Jetur (Yetur) and Naphish (Nafish) and Nodab (Nodav). 20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagrites were given into their hand, and all who were with them; for they cried out to God in the battle, and He was entreated by them, because they trusted in Him. 21 And they took captive their livestock: their camels, fifty thousand; and flock, two hundred and fifty thousand; and donkeys, two thousand; and souls of man, a hundred thousand. 22 For many slain fell, for the battle was from God. And they dwelt in their place until the exile.

The Half Tribe of Manasseh

23 And the sons of the half of the tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land; from Bashan to Baal-hermon (Ba'al-Chermon) and Senir and the mountain of Hermon (Chermon), they multiplied. 24 And these were the chiefs of the house of their fathers: even Epher (Efer) and Ishi (Yishi) and Eliel and Azriel and Jeremiah (Yirmeya) and Hodaviah (Hodavya) and Jahdiel (Yachdi'el), men mighty of strength, men of names, chiefs of the house of their fathers. 25 And they acted unfaithfully against the God of their fathers, and they played the prostitute after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed from before them. 26 And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul the king of Assyria and the spirit of Tiglath-pileser the king of Assyria, and he carried them into exile, the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half of the tribe of Manasseh, and he brought them to Halah (Chalach) and Habor (Chavor) and Hara and the river of Gozan, until this day.

1 CHRONICLES 6

The High Priests

1 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath (Qehat), and Merari. 2 And the sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar (Yitshar), and Hebron (Chevron), and Uzziel (Uzi'el). 3 And the sons of Amram: Aaron (Aharon), and Moses (Moshe), and Miriam (Miryam). 5:17 in the days of Jotham the king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the king of Israel About 793 to 732 B.C., so these records were written down before Assyria came. The writer used real records kept for centuries.
5:20 they cried out to God in the battle, and He was entreated by them, because they trusted in Him To be entreated means God listened to their plea and answered. They were trained soldiers, but the writer credits their faith, not their skill. Do you pray only after everything else has failed, or cry out to Him in the middle of the fight?
5:22 the battle was from God They lived in that land until the exile.
5:24 men mighty of strength, men of names They had size, strength and famous leaders.
5:25 they played the prostitute after the gods of the peoples of the land The Bible often calls idol worship spiritual adultery, because God's people belonged to Him as a wife to her husband. They went after the very gods of the peoples God had destroyed before them.
5:26 the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul the king of Assyria Pul was another name for Tiglath-pileser (2 Kgs 15:19). God used a pagan king to carry out His judgment. In verse 20 these tribes trusted God and won. In verse 25 they were unfaithful and lost everything. Strength and success are no protection if our hearts turn from God.
6:1 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari Levi's tribe was set apart to serve God at the tabernacle and later the temple (Num 3:5-13). Every priest was a Levite, but only Levites of Aaron's family were priests, who alone offered sacrifices at the altar and went into the holy place.
6:3 Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam Nadab and Abihu are named, though they died for offering strange fire (Lev 10:1-2). The high priests run through Eleazar and Phinehas, who was zealous for God (Num 25:10-13), to Zadok in David's day, and on to Hilkiah, who found the book of the law (2 Kgs 22:8).
6:15 Jehozadak went away when the LORD sent Judah and Jerusalem into exile by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar Notice who sent them: the LORD, not Nebuchadnezzar. Jehozadak's son Jeshua was the high priest who came back with Zerubbabel (Ezra 3:2). The line of priests, like the line of kings, survived the exile.

Shimei (Shimi). 18 And the sons of Kohath: Amram and Izhar and Hebron and Uzziel. 19 The sons of Merari: Mahli (Machli) and Mushi. And these are the clans of the Levite according to their fathers. 20 Of Gershom: Libni his son, Jahath (Yachat) his son, Zimmah (Zima) his son, 21 Joah (Yo'ach) his son, Iddo (Ido) his son, Zerah (Zerach) his son, Jeatherai (Ye'atray) his son. 22 The sons of Kohath: Amminadab (Aminadav) his son, Korah (Qorach) his son, Assir (Asir) his son, 23 Elkanah (Elqana) his son, and Ebiasaph (Evyasaf) his son, and Assir his son, 24 Tahath (Tachat) his son, Uriel his son, Uzziah (Uziya) his son, and Shaul his son. 25 And the sons of Elkanah: Amasai (Amasay) and Ahimoth (Achimot). 26 As for Elkanah—the sons of Elkanah: Zophai (Tsofay) his son, and Nahath (Nachat) his son, 27 Eliab (Eli'av) his son, Jeroham (Yerocham) his son, Elkanah his son. 28 And the sons of Samuel (Shemu'el): the firstborn, and the second, Abijah (Aviya). 29 The sons of Merari: Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah (Uza) his son, 30 Shimea (Shima) his son, Haggiah (Chagiya) his son, Asaiah (Asaya) his son.

The Temple Singers

31 And these are those whom David appointed over the direction of song in the house of the LORD, from the resting of the ark. 32 And they were serving before the tabernacle of the tent of meeting with song, until Solomon built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem; and they stood according to their custom over their service. 33 And these are those who stood, and their sons. From the sons of the Kohathite: Heman the singer, the son of Joel (Yo'el), the son of Samuel, 34 the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah (Toach), 35 the son of Zuph (Tsuf), the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath (Machat), the son of Amasai, 36 the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah (Tsefanya), 37 the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, 38 the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel (Yisra'el). 39 And his brother Asaph (Asaf), who stood at his right: Asaph the son of Berechiah (Berekhyahu), the son of Shimea, 40 the son of Michael (Mikha'el), the son of Baaseiah (Ba'aseya), the son of Malchijah (Malkiya), 41 the son of Ethni (Etni), the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah (Adaya), 42 the son of Ethan (Etan), the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, 43 the son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi. 44 And the sons of Merari their brothers were on the left: Ethan the son of Kishi (Qishi), the son of Abdi (Avdi), the son of Malluch (Malukh), 45 the son of Hashabiah (Chashavya), the son of Amaziah (Amatsya), the son of Hilkiah, 46 the son of Amzi (Amtsi), the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, 47 the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi. 48 And their brothers the Levites were given for all the service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

The Work of Aaron's Sons

49 And Aaron and his sons were making offerings smoke on the altar of the burnt offering and on the altar of the incense, for all the work of the holy of holies, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded. 50 And these are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, 51 Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, 52 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, 53 Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.

6:22 Korah his son The man who rebelled against Moses (Num 16). Yet his sons did not die with him (Num 26:11), and their descendants became singers and gatekeepers. Several psalms carry the title of the sons of Korah (Ps 42; 44-49; 84). God can redeem a family's story.
6:28 the sons of Samuel Samuel the prophet came from Kohath. Calling his father an Ephrathite (1 Sam 1:1) means he lived in the hill country of Ephraim, not that he was of that tribe. As a Levite, Samuel could serve at the tabernacle from boyhood (1 Sam 2:18).
6:31 from the resting of the ark When David brought the ark to Jerusalem (chapters 15-16), he set Levites to lead singing before it until Solomon built the temple.
6:33 Heman the singer From Kohath, the grandson of Samuel. Asaph from Gershom stood at his right (6:39) and Ethan from Merari at his left (6:44). Psalms 50 and 73-83 carry Asaph's name, Psalm 88 Heman's and Psalm 89 Ethan's.
6:39 his brother Asaph Why trace the singers so carefully? Because worship mattered, and the men who led it had to be the ones God called. These men gave us part of our Bible. When we sing God's praise, we join a choir David organized three thousand years ago.
6:49 to make atonement for Israel The burnt offering was burned whole on the altar, and the holy of holies was the inner room where the ark stood. Atonement means covering sin and bringing people back to God through a sacrifice. Those sacrifices could never take away sins for good, but Jesus offered Himself once for all (Heb 10:11-14).
6:57 Hebron The priests received thirteen cities in Judah and Benjamin, among them Anathoth, later the hometown of Jeremiah, a priest (Jer 1:1).

6:67 Shechem The Levite towns from the other tribes, the same list as Joshua 21. A city of refuge was where someone who killed a person by accident could flee and be safe until his case was judged (Num 35:9-15). Six of them were Levite towns.
6:81 Heshbon and its pasture lands God scattered His servants among all His people to teach the law (Deut 33:10; 2 Chr 17:8-9) and remind every tribe that Israel belonged to Him. The LORD was their inheritance (Num 18:20). Believers today are "a royal priesthood" (1 Pet 2:9), scattered so others can see and hear about God.
7:2 their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand and six hundred Issachar was a large tribe in the fertile valley of Jezreel. These numbers likely come from David's census (21:1-6; 27:23-24), real army records.
7:6 Benjamin: Bela and Becher and Jediael, three These names do not match the other lists exactly (Gen 46:21; Num 26:38-41; 8:1-5). Family lists can name sons, grandsons or clans, and use different names for the same person. Benjamin gets a longer list in chapter 8, as Saul's tribe and the tribe that stood with Judah.

and Zethan (Zetan) and Tarshish and Ahishahar
(Achishachar). 11 All these were the sons of Jediael, according to the heads of the fathers, mighty men of valor, seventeen thousand and two hundred, going out in the army for the battle. 12 And Shuppim (Shupim) and Huppim (Chupim) were the sons of Ir; Hushim (Chushim), the sons of Aher (Acher).

Naphtali and Manasseh

13 The sons of Naphtali (Naftali): Jahziel (Yachtsi'el) and Guni and Jezer (Yetser) and Shallum (Shalum), the sons of Bilhah (Bilha). 14 The sons of Manasseh (Menashe): Asriel, whom his concubine the Aramean bore; she bore Machir (Makhir) the father of Gilead (Gilad). 15 And Machir took a wife for Huppim and for Shuppim, and the name of his sister was Maacah (Ma'akha); and the name of the second was Zelophehad (Tselofchad); and Zelophehad had daughters. 16 And Maacah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh; and the name of his brother was Sheresh (Sharesh); and his sons were Ulam and Rakem (Reqem). 17 And the sons of Ulam: Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. 18 And his sister Hammolecheth (Hamolekhet) bore Ishhod and Abiezer (Avi'ezer) and Mahlah (Machla). 19 And the sons of Shemida were Ahian (Achyan) and Shechem (Shekhem) and Likhi (Liqchi) and Aniam.

The Tribe of Ephraim

20 And the sons of Ephraim (Efrayim): Shuthelah (Shutelach), and Bered his son, and Tahath (Tachat) his son, and Eleadah (Elada) his son, and Tahath his son, 21 and Zabad (Zavad) his son, and Shuthelah his son, and Ezer and Elead (Elad). And the men of Gath (Gat) who were born in the land killed them, because they went down to take their livestock. 22 And Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him. 23 And he went in to his wife, and she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Beriah (Beri'a), because it was in calamity in his house. 24 And his daughter was Sheerah (She'era), and she built Beth-horon (Bet-Choron) the lower and the upper, and Uzzen-sheerah (Uzen-She'era). 25 And Rephah (Refach) was his son, and Resheph (Reshef), and Telah (Telach) his son, and Tahan (Tachan) his son, 26 Ladan his son, Ammihud (Amihud) his son, Elishama his son, 27 Nun his son, Joshua (Yehoshua) his son. 28 And their possession and their dwelling places were Bethel (Bet-El) and its towns, and to the east Naaran, and to the west Gezer and its towns, and Shechem and its towns, as far as Ayyah (Ayya) and its towns; 29 and alongside the sons of Manasseh: Beth-shean (Bet-She'an) and its towns, Taanach (Ta'anakh) and its towns, Megiddo (Megido) and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these dwelt the sons of Joseph (Yosef) the son of Israel (Yisra'el).

The Tribe of Asher

7:13 The sons of Naphtali One verse for a whole tribe. Naphtali lived in Galilee, the land Isaiah promised would see a great light (Isa 9:1-2), and the light came when Jesus began His ministry there (Matt 4:13-16). The tribe with the shortest list saw the Light of the world first.
7:15 Zelophehad had daughters He had no sons, and his five daughters asked Moses for their father's inheritance. God said they were right (Num 27:1-7).
7:18 Abiezer The clan of Gideon (Judg 6:11). The lists remember women as well as men, by name.
7:22 Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him Even in a family list, God records a father's grief. Our sorrow is not hidden from Him (Ps 56:8). He named a later son Beriah, because calamity had come to his house.
7:24 built Beth-horon the lower and the upper Sheerah, Ephraim's daughter, a woman who built cities.
7:27 Joshua his son He led Israel into the land God promised. His name means the LORD saves, and in its shorter Hebrew form it is the same name as Jesus.
7:40 All these were the sons of Asher When Jesus was presented at the temple, Anna, "of the tribe of Asher" (Luke 2:36), gave thanks and spoke of Him. Centuries after Assyria scattered the north, a daughter of Asher was there to welcome the Messiah. The tribes were scattered, but not lost to God.
8:1 Benjamin fathered Bela his firstborn Ehud in 8:6 may be the left-handed judge who saved Israel from Moab (Judg 3:15), though the name was common.

Gera and Shephuphan (Shefufan) and Huram (Churam).
6 And these are the sons of Ehud (Echud)—these are the heads of fathers of the inhabitants of Geba (Geva), and they carried them into exile to Manahath (Manachat)— 7 and Naaman and Ahijah (Achiya) and Gera—he carried them into exile—and he fathered Uzza (Uza) and Ahihud (Achichud).
8 And Shaharaim (Shacharayim) fathered sons in the country of Moab (Mo'av) after he had sent them away; Hushim (Chushim) and Baara were his wives. 9 And he fathered from Hodesh (Chodesh) his wife: Jobab (Yovav) and Zibia (Tsivya) and Mesha and Malcam (Malkam), 10 and Jeuz (Yeuts) and Sachia (Sakhya) and Mirmah (Mirma). These were his sons, heads of fathers. 11 And from Hushim he fathered Abitub (Avituv) and Elpaal. 12 And the sons of Elpaal: Eber (Ever) and Misham and Shemed (Shamed)—he built Ono and Lod and its towns— 13 and Beriah (Beri'a) and Shema—they were the heads of the fathers of the inhabitants of Aijalon (Ayalon); they put to flight the inhabitants of Gath (Gat)— 14 and Ahio (Achyo), Shashak (Shashaq), and Jeremoth (Yeremot), 15 and Zebadiah (Zevadya) and Arad and Eder, 16 and Michael (Mikha'el) and Ishpah (Yishpa) and Joha (Yocha), the sons of Beriah. 17 And Zebadiah and Meshullam (Meshulam) and Hizki (Chizqi) and Heber (Chever), 18 and Ishmerai (Yishmeray) and Izliah (Yizli'a) and Jobab, the sons of Elpaal. 19 And Jakim (Yaqim) and Zichri (Zikhri) and Zabdi (Zavdi), 20 and Elienai (Eli'enay) and Zillethai (Tsiletay) and Eliel, 21 and Adaiah (Adaya) and Beraiah (Beraya) and Shimrath (Shimrat), the sons of Shimei (Shimi). 22 And Ishpan (Yishpan) and Eber and Eliel, 23 and Abdon (Avdon) and Zichri and Hanan (Chanan), 24 and Hananiah (Chananya) and Elam and Anthothijah (Antotiya), 25 and Iphdeiah (Yifdeya) and Penuel (Penu'el), the sons of Shashak. 26 And Shamsherai (Shamsheray) and Shehariah (Shecharya) and Athaliah (Atalya), 27 and Jaareshiah (Ya'areshya) and Elijah (Eliya) and Zichri, the sons of Jeroham (Yerocham). 28 These were heads of fathers according to their generations, heads; these dwelt in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim).

The Family of Saul

29 And in Gibeon (Givon) dwelt the father of Gibeon, and the name of his wife was Maacah (Ma'akha); 30 and his son, the firstborn, Abdon, and Zur (Tsur) and Kish (Qish) and Baal and Nadab (Nadav), 31 and Gedor and Ahio and Zecher (Zekher). 32 And Mikloth (Miqlot) fathered Shimeah (Shima). And they also dwelt opposite their brothers in Jerusalem, with their brothers. 33 And Ner fathered Kish, and Kish fathered Saul (Shaul), and Saul fathered Jonathan (Yehonatan) and Malchi-shua (Malkishua) and Abinadab (Avinadav) and Esh-baal. 34 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-baal (Meriv-Ba'al); and Merib-baal fathered Micah (Mikha).
35 And the sons of Micah: Pithon (Piton) and Melech (Melekh) and Tarea (Ta'area) and Ahaz (Achaz). 36 And Ahaz fathered Jehoaddah (Yeho'ada), and Jehoaddah fathered Alemeth (Alemet) and Azmaveth (Azmavet) and Zimri; and Zimri fathered Moza (Motsa). 37 And Moza fathered Binea (Bina); Raphah (Rafa) his son, Eleasah (Elasa) his son, Azel (Atsel) his son. 38 And Azel had six sons, and these are their names: Azrikam (Azriqam), Bocheru (Bokhru), and Ishmael (Yishma'el) and Sheariah (She'arya) and Obadiah (Ovadya) and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel. 39 And the sons of Eshek (Esheq) his brother: Ulam his firstborn, Jeush (Yeush) the second, and Eliphelet (Elifelet) the third. 40 And the sons of Ulam were men mighty of valor, bending the bow, and having many sons and sons' sons, one hundred and fifty. All these were of the sons of Benjamin.

Those Who Returned to Jerusalem

8:8 in the country of Moab A reminder of Ruth's family, who also went to Moab (Ruth 1:1).
8:12 he built Ono and Lod and its towns Lod is the town later called Lydda, where Peter healed Aeneas (Acts 9:32-35).
8:28 these dwelt in Jerusalem The families who lived in or near the capital. A man of Benjamin standing in the ruins could find his own family's name, know his people had been there, and know God had brought them back.
8:33 Kish fathered Saul Eshbaal is the son called Ish-bosheth in 2 Samuel 2:8. In Saul's day baal, meaning lord or master, could still be used of the LORD. Later, when Baal became the name of a hated false god, scribes in Samuel replaced it with bosheth, shame. Chronicles kept the older form.
8:34 Merib-baal Called Mephibosheth in 2 Samuel 4:4 and 9:6, the crippled son of Jonathan whom David brought to his own table (2 Sam 9).
8:40 having many sons and sons' sons, one hundred and fifty Saul's dynasty ended at Gilboa, but David's kindness kept Saul's line alive, and it grew to a large family of fighting men. God judged Saul but did not wipe out his family. The apostle Paul was also a Benjamite named Saul (Phil 3:5; Acts 13:9, 21).
9:1 they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah The writer tells us where his lists came from: official records.
9:1 for their unfaithfulness The reason for the exile in one plain line. Not because Babylon was strong or God weak. To be unfaithful is to break faith, to betray a trust. Judah worshiped idols and ignored His prophets (2 Chr 36:14-16).
9:2 the temple servants Helpers who did the heavy work of the temple, perhaps descended from the Gibeonites (Josh 9:27) and others (Ezra 8:20). These were the first to resettle after the exile. God's judgment was real, but it was not the end.
9:3 some of the sons of Ephraim and Manasseh Some from the north had joined Judah over the years (2 Chr 11:16; 30:11), and their descendants came back too. The returned people were not only Judah. They were Israel.

Ephraim (Efrayim) and Manasseh (Menashe): 4 Uthai (Utay) the son of Ammihud (Amihud), the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the sons of Perez (Perets) the son of Judah. 5 And of the Shilonite: Asaiah (Asaya) the firstborn, and his sons. 6 And of the sons of Zerah (Zerach): Jeuel (Yeu'el), and their brothers, six hundred and ninety. 7 And of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu (Salu) the son of Meshullam (Meshulam), the son of Hodaviah (Hodavya), the son of Hassenuah (Hasenu'a), 8 and Ibneiah (Yivneya) the son of Jeroham (Yerocham), and Elah (Ela) the son of Uzzi (Uzi), the son of Michri (Mikhri), and Meshullam the son of Shephatiah (Shefatya), the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah (Yivniya); 9 and their brothers according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were heads of fathers according to the house of their fathers.

The Priests and Levites

10 And of the priests: Jedaiah (Yedaya) and Jehoiarib (Yehoyariv) and Jachin (Yakhin), 11 and Azariah (Azarya) the son of Hilkiah (Chilqiya), the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok (Tsadoq), the son of Meraioth (Merayot), the son of Ahitub (Achituv), the leader of the house of God; 12 and Adaiah (Adaya) the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur (Pashchur), the son of Malchijah (Malkiya), and Maasai (Ma'asay) the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah (Yachzera), the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith (Meshilemit), the son of Immer (Imer); 13 and their brothers, heads of the house of their fathers, one thousand and seven hundred and sixty, mighty men of valor for the work of the service of the house of God. 14 And of the Levites: Shemaiah (Shemaya) the son of Hasshub (Chashuv), the son of Azrikam (Azriqam), the son of Hashabiah (Chashavya), of the sons of Merari; 15 and Bakbakkar (Baqbaqar), Heresh (Cheresh), and Galal, and Mattaniah (Matanya) the son of Mica (Mikha), the son of Zichri (Zikhri), the son of Asaph (Asaf); 16 and Obadiah (Ovadya) the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun (Yedutun); and Berechiah (Berekhya) the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah (Elqana), who dwelt in the villages of the Netophathite.

The Gatekeepers

17 And the gatekeepers: Shallum (Shalum) and Akkub (Aquv) and Talmon and Ahiman (Achiman) and their brother Shallum was the chief. 18 And until now, in the gate of the king eastward, they are the gatekeepers for the camps of the sons of Levi. 19 And Shallum the son of Kore (Qore), the son of Ebiasaph (Evyasaf), the son of Korah (Qorach), and his brothers of the house of his father, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent; and their fathers were over the camp of the LORD, keepers of the entrance. 20 And Phinehas (Pinchas) the son of Eleazar (Elazar) was leader over them formerly; the LORD was with him. 21 Zechariah (Zekharya) the son of Meshelemiah (Meshelemya) was gatekeeper of the entrance of the tent of meeting. 22 All of them who were chosen to be gatekeepers at the thresholds were two hundred and twelve. They were in their villages, their enrollment by genealogy. David and Samuel (Shemu'el) the seer appointed them in their faithfulness. 23 And they and their sons were over the gates of the house of the LORD, of the house of the tent, for guard duties. 24 On four sides were the gatekeepers: east, west, north, and south. 25 And their brothers in their villages were to come for the seven days, from time to time, with these. 26 For in faithfulness were they, the four mighty ones of the gatekeepers; they were the Levites. And they were over the chambers and over the treasuries of the house of God. 27 And they spent the night around the house of God, for the guard duty was on them; and they were over the key, and opened morning by morning.

Other Levite Duties

28 And some of them were over the articles of the service, for by number they brought them in, and by number they took them out. 29 And some of them were appointed over the articles, and over all the articles of the holy place, and over the fine flour and the wine and the oil and the frankincense and the spices. 30 And some of the sons of the priests were mixers of the mixture of the spices. 31 And Mattithiah (Matitya), of the Levites—he was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite—was in faithfulness over the work of the flat cakes.

9:13 mighty men of valor for the work of the service of the house of God The same words used for soldiers in chapter 7, but their battle was the daily work of God's house. Serving God faithfully in the ordinary tasks of worship takes strength and courage too.
9:16 in the villages of the Netophathite Near Bethlehem. Jeduthun was another name for Ethan the singer (6:44; 15:17; 16:41), so the singers' families from David's day were still serving after the exile.
9:19 keepers of the entrance The writer looks back to the wilderness, when the Korahites guarded the tent and Phinehas was over them, and the LORD was with him (9:20).
9:22 David and Samuel the seer appointed them in their faithfulness Every night someone stood guard and every morning someone opened the doors. No one wrote psalms about the man with the key, but the writer says they served in faithfulness. A son of Korah would rather stand at the threshold of God's house than dwell in the tents of wickedness (Ps 84:10). God sees the doorkeepers.
9:27 over the key, and opened morning by morning They spent the night around the house of God.
9:28 by number they brought them in, and by number they took them out Every cup and bowl was counted.

32 And some of the sons of the Kohathite, some of their brothers, were over the bread of the arrangement, to prepare it Sabbath by Sabbath. 33 And these were the singers, heads of fathers of the Levites, in the chambers, exempt, for by day and night it was on them in the work. 34 These were the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their generations, heads; these dwelt in Jerusalem.

Saul's Family Again

Merib-baal (Meri-Va'al) fathered Micah (Mikha). 41 And the sons of Micah: Pithon (Piton) and Melech (Melekh) and Tahrea (Tachre'a). 42 And Ahaz (Achaz) fathered Jarah (Yara), and Jarah fathered Alemeth (Alemet) and Azmaveth (Azmavet) and Zimri; and Zimri fathered Moza (Motsa); 43 and Moza fathered Binea (Bina); and Rephaiah (Refaya) his son, Eleasah (Elasa) his son, Azel (Atsel) his son. 44 And Azel had six sons, and these are their names: Azrikam, Bocheru (Bokhru), and Ishmael (Yishma'el) and Sheariah (She'arya) and Obadiah and Hanan (Chanan). These were the sons of Azel.

1 CHRONICLES 10

The Death of Saul

1 And the Philistines fought against Israel (Yisra'el), and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and they fell slain on the mountain of Gilboa. 2 And the Philistines pursued closely after Saul (Shaul) and after his sons, and the Philistines struck down Jonathan (Yonatan) and Abinadab (Avinadav) and Malchi-shua (Malkishua), the sons of Saul. 3 And the battle was heavy on Saul, and the archers with the bow found him, and he was in anguish because of the archers. 4 And Saul said to the bearer of his weapons, "Draw your sword and pierce me through with it, lest these uncircumcised come and deal wantonly with me." And the bearer of his weapons was not willing, for he was very afraid. And Saul took the sword and fell on it. 5 And the bearer of his weapons saw that Saul had died, and he also fell on the sword and died. 6 And Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house; together they died. 7 And every man of Israel who was in the valley saw that they had fled, and that Saul and his sons had died; and they abandoned their cities and fled, and the Philistines came and dwelt in them. 8 And it came about on the next day that the Philistines came to strip the slain, and they found Saul and his sons fallen on the mountain of Gilboa. 9 And they stripped him, and took his head and his weapons, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to bring the news to their idols and to the people. 10 And they put his weapons in the house of their gods, and his skull they fastened in the house of Dagon. 11 And all Jabesh-gilead (Yavesh-Gilad) heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 and every man of valor arose, and they took the corpse of Saul and the corpses of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and they buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

9:32 the bread of the arrangement The twelve loaves set before the LORD in the holy place, Sabbath by Sabbath (Lev 24:5-9). The Sabbath was the seventh day, the day of rest God gave Israel.
9:33 by day and night it was on them in the work Worship went on around the clock. Every task, from counting cups to baking bread, was part of worship. Whatever we do, we do all to the glory of God (1 Cor 10:31).
9:35 the father of Gibeon Saul's family is repeated from 8:29-38 with small differences in spelling. The lists are finished and the story is about to begin with Saul's last battle. Here his family is the doorway into the history of the kings.
10:1 they fell slain on the mountain of Gilboa The Philistines were a sea people on the southern coast, Israel's great enemy in the days of Saul and David. Gilboa is a ridge on the edge of the Jezreel Valley. The writer tells Saul's story only by its end. Sometimes the way a life ends tells us what it was really built on.
10:2 the Philistines struck down Jonathan David's dearest friend died fighting beside his father.
10:4 Saul took the sword and fell on it A hard verse, and some may know the pain of losing someone this way. The Bible records what Saul did. It does not praise it. It shows a man at the end of a long road of turning from God, alone, afraid and without hope. Scripture does not answer every question about those who take their own lives. God is merciful, and He alone judges the heart. If you are struggling with thoughts of ending your life, please talk to someone today, a pastor, a friend, a doctor or a crisis line. There is help and hope in Christ.
10:5 he also fell on the sword and died Most Bible teachers believe the Amalekite of 2 Samuel 1, who claimed to have killed Saul, was lying to win David's favor.
10:6 all his house; together they died Eshbaal lived on and reigned two years (2 Sam 2:8-10), so this means Saul's household in the battle and the end of his house as a ruling family. One king's unfaithfulness brought ruin on a whole people (10:7).
10:10 his skull they fastened in the house of Dagon Dagon was the chief Philistine god. Years before, Dagon had fallen on his face before the ark (1 Sam 5:1-5). Now the Philistines thought Dagon had won.
10:12 they buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh Saul had rescued Jabesh-gilead early in his reign (1 Sam 11), and they never forgot it. David blessed them for it (2 Sam 2:5-6). We can be honest about a fallen leader's sins and still remember any good he did.

Why Saul Died

13 And Saul died for his unfaithfulness in which he was unfaithful against the LORD, concerning the word of the LORD which he did not keep, and also for asking of a medium, to inquire of it, 14 and he did not inquire of the LORD; and He put him to death, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse (Yishay).

David Anointed King over Israel

1 And all Israel (Yisra'el) gathered together to David at Hebron (Chevron), saying, "Look, we are your bone and your flesh. 2 Even yesterday, even the day before, even when Saul (Shaul) was king, you were the one who led out and the one who brought in Israel; and the LORD your God said to you, 'You shall shepherd My people Israel, and you shall be leader over My people Israel.'" 3 And all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David as king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Samuel (Shemu'el).

David Takes Jerusalem

4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem
(Yerushalayim)—it is Jebus (Yevus)—and there were the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land. 5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You shall not come in here." And David captured the stronghold of Zion (Tsiyon); it is the city of David. 6 And David said, "Whoever strikes down a Jebusite first shall become chief and commander." And Joab (Yo'av) the son of Zeruiah (Tseruya) went up first, and he became chief. 7 And David dwelt in the fortress; therefore they called it the city of David. 8 And he built the city all around, from the Millo and to the surrounding area; and Joab restored the rest of the city. 9 And David went on, going and becoming great, and the LORD of armies was with him.

David's Mighty Men

10 And these were the chiefs of the mighty men who belonged to David, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel. 11 And this is the number of the mighty men who belonged to David:
Jashobeam (Yashov'am) the son of Hachmoni (Chakhmoni), the chief of the officers; he wielded his spear against three hundred slain at one time. 12 And after him was Eleazar (Elazar) the son of Dodo the Ahohite; he was among the three mighty men. 13 He was with David at Pas-dammim
(Pas-Damim), and the Philistines were gathered there for battle; and there was a portion of the field full of barley, and the people fled from before the Philistines. 14 And they took their stand in the midst of the portion and delivered it, and struck down the Philistines; and the LORD saved with a great deliverance.

Water from the Well of Bethlehem

15 And three of the thirty chiefs went down to the rock to David, to the cave of Adullam (Adulam), while the camp of the Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim (Refa'im). 16 And David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then at Bethlehem (Bet-Lechem). 17 And David craved, and said, "Who will give

11:17 Num 11:4,5; 2 Sam 23:15,16; Ps 143:6

10:13 Saul died for his unfaithfulness in which he was unfaithful against the LORD The word used of Achan (2:7), the eastern tribes (5:25) and Judah (9:1): breaking faith with God. Saul offered a sacrifice he had no right to offer (1 Sam 13:8-14) and disobeyed about Amalek (1 Sam 15). To obey is better than sacrifice (1 Sam 15:22).
10:13 for asking of a medium, to inquire of it A medium claimed to speak with the dead, which God's law forbade (Lev 19:31; Deut 18:10-12). Saul had driven them out, yet the night before the battle he went to one at Endor (1 Sam 28).
10:14 he did not inquire of the LORD First Samuel 28:6 says Saul asked and the LORD did not answer. I believe the writer means Saul never truly sought God. He asked once, in a panic, and when he heard nothing he went to a medium. To seek God in Chronicles means to turn to Him with your whole heart and keep at it.
10:14 He put him to death, and turned the kingdom over to David the son of Jesse The writer says the LORD did it, a verdict on Saul's whole reign that only God could give. It does not mean every hard or early death is a punishment. Seeking the LORD is the big question in Chronicles. Where do you go when you are afraid and God seems silent?
11:1 all Israel gathered together to David at Hebron Chronicles skips the seven and a half years David ruled only Judah and the war with Ish-bosheth (2 Sam 2-4). The writer wants us to see that all Israel came together.
11:2 You shall shepherd My people Israel David was family, he had already led their armies, and most of all God had spoken. A king was not to use the people but to care for, feed, protect and lead them. The Son of David would say, "I am the good shepherd" (John 10:11).
11:3 they anointed David as king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Samuel To anoint is to pour oil on someone's head to set him apart for God's service. Samuel had anointed David privately years before (1 Sam 16:13). God's word came true, in God's time.
11:4 David and all Israel went to Jerusalem Still held by the Jebusites, whom Israel had never driven out (Josh 15:63). The city sat on a high ridge and was hard to attack.
11:6 Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first Second Samuel 5:8 suggests the attack went up through the water shaft. Joab would be David's commander for most of his reign, a hard and sometimes ruthless man.
11:8 the Millo Probably a set of stone terraces.
11:9 the LORD of armies was with him The title means God commands the armies of heaven and earth. David grew great, but not by his own strength. God set His King on Zion (Ps 2:6), and I believe Jesus will one day reign there as the Son of David.
11:11 he wielded his spear against three hundred slain at one time Second Samuel 23:8 gives eight hundred and another name. Most likely a copying slip in one book, since numbers were easy to miscopy, or the two count different fights.
11:14 the LORD saved with a great deliverance Everyone else ran, a few stood firm, and the LORD gets the credit.
11:17 Who will give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem Probably a sigh more than an order, a homesick longing for the water he drank as a boy.

me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is at the gate?" 18 And the three broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water from the well of Bethlehem, which was at the gate, and they carried it and brought it to David; and David was not willing to drink it, and he poured it out to the LORD. 19 And he said, "Far be it from me, from my God, to do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men with their lives? For with their lives they brought it." And he was not willing to drink it. These things the three mighty men did.

Abishai and Benaiah

20 And Abishai (Avishay) the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three; and he wielded his spear against three hundred slain, and he had a name among the three. 21 More than the three, by two, he was honored, and he became a commander for them; but to the three he did not come. 22 Benaiah (Benaya) the son of Jehoiada (Yehoyada) was the son of a valiant man, great of deeds, from Kabzeel (Qavtse'el); he struck down the two Ariel of Moab (Mo'av); and he went down and struck down the lion in the midst of the pit on the day of the snow. 23 And he struck down the Egyptian man, a man of stature, approximately 7.5 feet (five cubits) tall; and in the hand of the Egyptian was a spear like a weavers' beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and he snatched the spear from the hand of the Egyptian and killed him with his own spear. 24 These things Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did, and he had a name among the three mighty men. 25 Look, he was honored more than the thirty, but to the three he did not come. And David appointed him over his bodyguard.

The Mighty Men of the Forces

26 And the mighty men of the forces were: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan (Elchanan) the son of Dodo from Bethlehem, 27 Shammoth (Shamot) the Harorite, Helez (Chelets) the Pelonite, 28 Ira the son of Ikkesh (Iqesh) the Tekoite, Abiezer (Avi'ezer) the Anathothite, 29 Sibbecai (Sibkhay) the Hushathite, Ilai (Ilay) the Ahohite, 30 Maharai (Maharay) the Netophathite, Heled (Cheled) the son of Baanah (Ba'ana) the Netophathite, 31 Ittai (Itay) the son of Ribai (Rivay) from Gibeah of the sons of Benjamin (Binyamin), Benaiah the Pirathonite, 32 Hurai (Churay) from the wadis of Gaash, Abiel (Avi'el) the Arbathite, 33 Azmaveth (Azmavet) the Baharumite, Eliahba (Elyachba) the Shaalbonite, 34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan (Yonatan) the son of Shagee (Shage) the Hararite, 35 Ahiam (Achi'am) the son of Sachar (Sakhar) the Hararite, Eliphal (Elifal) the son of Ur, 36 Hepher (Chefer) the Mecherathite, Ahijah (Achiya) the Pelonite, 37 Hezro (Chetsro) the Carmelite, Naarai (Na'aray) the son of Ezbai (Ezbay), 38 Joel (Yo'el) the brother of Nathan (Natan), Mibhar (Mivchar) the son of Hagri, 39 Zelek (Tseleq) the Ammonite, Naharai (Nacharay) the Beerothite, the bearer of the weapons of Joab the son of Zeruiah, 40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb (Garev) the Ithrite, 41 Uriah (Uriya) the Hittite, Zabad (Zavad) the son of Ahlai (Achlay), 42 Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him, 43 Hanan (Chanan) the son of Maacah (Ma'akha), and Joshaphat (Yoshafat) the Mithnite, 44 Uzzia (Uziya) the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel (Ye'i'el) the sons of Hotham (Chotam) the Aroerite, 45 Jediael (Yedi'a'el) the son of Shimri, and Joha (Yocha) his brother, the Tizite, 46 Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai (Yerivay) and Joshaviah (Yoshavya) the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah (Yitma) the Moabite, 47 Eliel and Obed (Oved) and Jaasiel (Ya'asi'el) the Mezobaite (Metsovaya).

1 And these are the ones who came to David at Ziklag (Tsiqlag) while he was still kept back from before Saul (Shaul) the son of Kish (Qish); and they were among the mighty men, helpers in the battle, 2 equipped with the bow, using the right hand and using the left with stones and with arrows on the bow; of the brothers of Saul, from Benjamin (Binyamin). 3 The chief was Ahiezer (Achi'ezer), and Joash (Yo'ash), the sons of Shemaah (Shema'a) the Gibeathite; and 11:18 David was not willing to drink it, and he poured it out to the LORD The water had cost his men's lives at risk, too precious to drink, so he gave it to God. Pouring out a drink offering was worship (Gen 35:14). When we think of what Jesus gave for us, His own blood, what can we do but pour out our lives to Him?

11:21 to the three he did not come There were ranks even among heroes.
11:22 he went down and struck down the lion in the midst of the pit on the day of the snow A snowy day, bad footing, and every advantage with the lion. Some of God's servants are called to do hard things in hard places. Benaiah later became Solomon's commander (1 Kgs 2:35).
11:23 a spear like a weavers' beam Benaiah went at him with only a staff and killed him with his own spear.
11:39 Zelek the Ammonite Some of David's mighty men came from outside Israel. Chronicles adds sixteen names after Uriah (11:41-47), many from east of the Jordan.
11:41 Uriah the Hittite Chronicles does not tell the story of Bathsheba, but it does not erase Uriah. He was a loyal soldier whom David wronged terribly (2 Sam 11). Great leaders are still sinners, and God remembers the faithful who were wronged.
11:47 Eliel and Obed and Jaasiel the Mezobaite A king does not reign alone. Jesus said there is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends (John 15:13), and He did exactly that for us.
12:1 these are the ones who came to David at Ziklag Ziklag was the Philistine town where David lived while Saul hunted him (1 Sam 27:6). He was an outlaw with no throne and no promise of safety. Yet men came to him.
12:2 using the right hand and using the left Left-handed fighters were a Benjamite specialty (Judg 20:16). These were Saul's own kin, turning their backs on relatives to follow the man God had chosen. Whoever loves father or mother more than Jesus is not worthy of Him (Matt 10:37).

Jeziel (Yezi'el) and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth (Azmavet); and Beracah (Berakha), and Jehu (Yehu) the Anathothite;
4 and Ishmaiah (Yishmaya) the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty and over the thirty; and Jeremiah (Yirmeya), and Jahaziel (Yachazi'el), and Johanan (Yehochanan), and Jozabad (Yozavad) the Gederathite;
5 Eluzai (Eluzay), and Jerimoth (Yerimot), and Bealiah (Ba'alya), and Shemariah (Shemaryahu), and Shephatiah (Shefatyahu) the Haruphite; 6 Elkanah (Elqana), and Isshiah (Yishiyahu), and Azarel, and Joezer (Yo'ezer), and Jashobeam (Yashov'am), the Korahites; 7 and Joelah (Yo'ela) and Zebadiah (Zevadya), the sons of Jeroham (Yerocham) from Gedor.
8 And from the Gadites there separated themselves to David at the stronghold toward the wilderness mighty men of valor, men of war for battle, arraying shield and spear; and their faces were the faces of a lion, and they were like gazelles on the mountains in making haste: 9 Ezer the chief, Obadiah (Ovadya) the second, Eliab (Eli'av) the third, 10 Mishmannah (Mishmana) the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, 11 Attai (Atay) the sixth, Eliel the seventh, 12 Johanan the eighth, Elzabad (Elzavad) the ninth, 13 Jeremiah (Yirmeyahu) the tenth, Machbannai (Makhbanay) the eleventh. 14 These were of the sons of Gad, chiefs of the army; the least was one for a hundred, and the greatest for a thousand. 15 These are the ones who crossed over the Jordan (Yarden) in the first month, and it was overflowing over all its banks; and they put to flight all those in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

Amasai and the Men of Benjamin and Judah

16 And some of the sons of Benjamin and Judah (Yehuda) came to the stronghold to David. 17 And David went out before them, and he answered and said to them, "If you have come to me for peace, to help me, I shall have a heart toward you for unity; but if to betray me to my foes, while there is no violence in my hands, may the God of our fathers see and rebuke it." 18 And the Spirit clothed Amasai (Amasay), the chief of the officers: "We are yours, David, and with you, son of Jesse (Yishay)! Peace, peace to you, and peace to your helper; for your God has helped you." And David received them and made them chiefs of the band. 19 And some from Manasseh (Menashe) fell away to David when he came with the Philistines against Saul for battle; but they did not help them, for by counsel the lords of the Philistines sent him away, saying, "At the cost of our heads he will fall away to his master Saul." 20 When he went to Ziklag, there fell away to him from Manasseh: Adnah (Adnach), and Jozabad, and Jediael (Yedi'a'el), and Michael (Mikha'el), and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zillethai (Tsiletay), chiefs of the thousands who belonged to Manasseh. 21 And they helped David against the band, for they were all mighty men of valor, and they were commanders in the army. 22 For at that time, day by day, they came to David to help him, until there was a great camp, like the camp of God.

The Army That Made David King

23 And these are the numbers of the heads of those armed for war who came to David at Hebron (Chevron) to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the mouth of the LORD.
24 The sons of Judah bearing shield and spear were six thousand eight hundred, armed for war. 25 Of the sons of Simeon (Shimon), mighty men of valor for war, seven thousand one hundred. 26 Of the sons of the Levites, four thousand six hundred. 27 And Jehoiada (Yehoyada) was the leader of the house of Aaron (Aharon), and with him were three thousand seven hundred; 28 and Zadok (Tsadoq), a young man, mighty of valor, and the house of his father, twenty-two commanders. 29 And of the sons of Benjamin, the brothers of Saul, three thousand; and until now the greater part of them were keeping the charge of the house of Saul. 30 And of the sons of Ephraim (Efrayim), twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, men of names in the house of their fathers. 31 And of the half-tribe of Manasseh, eighteen thousand, who were designated by names to come to make David king. 32 And of the sons of Issachar (Yisashkhar), knowing understanding of the times, to know what Israel (Yisra'el) should do: their chiefs were two hundred, and all their brothers were at their command. 33 Of Zebulun (Zevulun), those going out to war, arraying battle with all weapons of battle, fifty 12:15 it was overflowing over all its banks They crossed a flooded river in spring to join David. Nothing would keep them from him.

12:17 may the God of our fathers see and rebuke it David had been betrayed before (1 Sam 23:19). He went out to meet them carefully and left the judgment with God.
12:18 the Spirit clothed Amasai The Spirit came on him like a garment. Complete loyalty, peace, and the confession that God was with David. This is how we come to the Son of David, not with conditions but telling Him we are His, and He receives all who come (John 6:37).
12:19 the lords of the Philistines sent him away They feared he would turn on them in the fight (1 Sam 29). On the way back, chiefs of Manasseh joined him and helped against the raiders who burned Ziklag (12:21; 1 Sam 30).
12:22 until there was a great camp, like the camp of God A few hundred outlaws in a cave grew day by day. God builds His work that way. The church began with a handful, and day by day the Lord added to their number (Acts 2:47).
12:23 according to the mouth of the LORD Every tribe is counted, about 340,000 men in all. I take the numbers as written. Some scholars think the word for thousand may mean a military unit. Either way, the whole nation came.
12:28 Zadok, a young man, mighty of valor The young Zadok, later David's priest, came with twenty-two commanders.
12:32 knowing understanding of the times, to know what Israel should do They could read the moment and see it was time to follow David. The church needs people who know God's Word and can see what it means for our times.
12:33 not a heart and a heart Without a divided heart. They were all in.

thousand, and to help with not a heart and a heart. 34 And of Naphtali (Naftali), a thousand commanders, and with them, with shield and spear, thirty-seven thousand. 35 And of the Danites, arraying battle, twenty-eight thousand six hundred. 36 And of Asher, those going out to war, to array battle, forty thousand. 37 And from beyond the Jordan, of the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all weapons of war for battle, one hundred twenty thousand. 38 All these, men of battle, helpers of the battle line, came with a whole heart to Hebron to make David king over all Israel; and also all the rest of Israel were of one heart to make David king. 39 And they were there with David three days, eating and drinking, for their brothers had prepared for them. 40 And also those near to them, as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, were bringing bread on donkeys and on camels and on mules and on oxen, food of flour, fig cakes and raisin clusters, and wine and oil, and oxen and sheep in abundance; for there was joy in Israel.

1 CHRONICLES 13

The Ark Brought from Kiriath-jearim

1 And David consulted with the commanders of the thousands and of the hundreds, with every leader. 2 And David said to all the assembly of Israel (Yisra'el), "If it seems good to you, and if it is from the LORD our God, let us spread out, let us send to our brothers who remain in all the lands of Israel, and with them the priests and the Levites in the cities of their pasture lands, that they may gather to us; 3 and let us bring back the ark of our God to us, for we did not seek it in the days of Saul (Shaul)." 4 And all the assembly said to do so, for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. 5 And David assembled all Israel, from Shihor (Shichor) of Egypt (Mitsrayim) even to the entrance of Hamath (Chamat), to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim (Qiryat-Ye'arim). 6 And David and all Israel went up to Baalah (Ba'ala), to Kiriath-jearim, which belongs to Judah (Yehuda), to bring up from there the ark of God, the LORD, who sits on the cherubim, where the name is called. 7 And they made the ark of God ride on a new cart from the house of Abinadab (Avinadav), and Uzzah (Uza) and Ahio (Achyo) were leading the cart. 8 And David and all Israel were celebrating before God with all their strength, and with songs and with lyres and with harps and with tambourines and with cymbals and with trumpets.

The Death of Uzzah

9 And they came to the threshing floor of Chidon (Kidon), and Uzzah stretched out his hand to take hold of the ark, for the oxen stumbled. 10 And the anger of the LORD burned against Uzzah, and He struck him down because he had stretched out his hand on the ark; and he died there before God. 11 And David was angry because the LORD had broken out with a breaking out against Uzzah; and he called that place Perez-uzza (Perets-Uza) until this day. 12 And David feared God on that day, saying, "How shall I bring the ark of God to me?" 13 And David did not remove the ark to himself to the city of David, and he turned it aside to the house of Obed-edom (Oved-Edom) the Gittite. 14 And the ark of God remained with the household of Obed-edom in his house

12:38 came with a whole heart to Hebron to make David king over all Israel After years of division and war, Israel was one.
12:40 for there was joy in Israel A picture of the kingdom to come. When God's King reigns and His people come with a whole heart, there is feasting and joy (Matt 8:11). The returned exiles had no king, and this gave them something to hope for.
13:1 David consulted with the commanders of the thousands and of the hundreds David did not act alone. Chronicles puts this before the events of chapter 14, which Samuel tells first. The writer often arranges by theme to show David's heart for God's presence at the very start of his reign.
13:3 we did not seek it in the days of Saul Saul died because he did not seek the LORD (10:14). David's first act as king over all Israel is to seek God by bringing back the ark, the sign of His presence.
13:4 the thing was right in the eyes of all the people Right in their eyes. The trouble came because they did not ask whether the way was right in God's eyes.
13:6 who sits on the cherubim The golden cherubim on the ark marked it as the earthly throne of the invisible King. It had stayed at Kiriath-jearim many years, perhaps seventy or more, since the Philistines sent it back (1 Sam 4; 6:7-12; 7:1-2).
13:7 they made the ark of God ride on a new cart It must have seemed a fine idea. A new cart was clean and honorable, and it had worked for the Philistines.
13:8 celebrating before God with all their strength The joy was real and their hearts sincere. But God had not told them to carry the ark on a cart.
13:9 Uzzah stretched out his hand to take hold of the ark, for the oxen stumbled A threshing floor was a flat, hard place where grain was beaten. The cart jolted and Uzzah reached out to keep the ark from falling.
13:10 He struck him down because he had stretched out his hand on the ark Hard to read. God had said the Kohathites were to carry the ark on their shoulders with poles (Exod 25:12-15; Num 7:9), and "shall not touch the holy thing, and die" (Num 4:15). Uzzah's family had kept the ark for years and should have known. The whole plan copied the Philistines instead of obeying God.
13:10 he died there before God The ark was the throne of the holy God, not an object needing human help. The ground was not unclean; sinful hands were. This was about God's holiness, as with Nadab and Abihu (Lev 10:1-3) and Beth-shemesh (1 Sam 6:19). In Christ we have "confidence for the entrance into the holy places by the blood of Jesus" (Heb 10:19).
13:11 David was angry because the LORD had broken out with a breaking out against Uzzah Perez-uzza means the breaking out against Uzzah. David's great day of worship ended at a grave. Have you ever been angry with God when things went wrong while you were trying to serve Him? The Bible does not hide it.
13:12 How shall I bring the ark of God to me His anger turned to fear, and that was the right question, though he did not yet have the answer.
13:13 Obed-edom the Gittite A Levite (15:18, 21; 26:4), probably from the Levite town of Gath-rimmon.
13:14 the LORD blessed the household of Obed-edom The same ark that brought death to Uzzah brought blessing to Obed-edom. God's holiness is a danger to those who handle Him carelessly and a blessing to those who honor Him.

1 CHRONICLES 14

David's House and Family

1 And Hiram (Churam) the king of Tyre (Tsor) sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and craftsmen of wall and craftsmen of wood, to build a house for him. 2 And David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel (Yisra'el), that his kingdom was highly exalted for the sake of His people Israel. 3 And David took more wives in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim), and David fathered more sons and daughters. 4 And these are the names of the children who were his in Jerusalem: Shammua (Shamua) and Shobab (Shovav), Nathan (Natan) and Solomon (Shelomo), 5 and Ibhar (Yivchar) and Elishua and Elpelet (Elpalet), 6 and Nogah and Nepheg (Nefeg) and Japhia (Yafia), 7 and Elishama and Beeliada (Be'elyada) and Eliphelet (Elifelet).

Victories over the Philistines

8 And the Philistines heard that David had been anointed as king over all Israel, and all the Philistines went up to seek David; and David heard, and he went out before them. 9 And the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim (Refa'im). 10 And David inquired of God, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? And will You give them into my hand?" And the LORD said to him, "Go up, and I will give them into your hand." 11 And they went up to Baal-perazim (Ba'al-Peratsim), and David struck them down there; and David said, "God has broken out against my enemies by my hand like the breaking out of waters." Therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim. 12 And they abandoned their gods there; and David spoke, and they were burned with fire. 13 And the Philistines yet again made a raid in the valley. 14 And David inquired of God again, and God said to him, "You shall not go up after them; turn around from them, and you shall come to them from in front of the balsam trees. 15 And let it be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then you shall go out to battle, for God has gone out before you to strike down the camp of the Philistines." 16 And David did just as God had commanded him, and they struck down the camp of the Philistines from Gibeon (Givon) even to Gezer. 17 And the name of David went out into all the lands, and the LORD put the dread of him on all the nations.

1 CHRONICLES 15

Preparing to Bring Up the Ark

1 And he made houses for himself in the city of David, and he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it. 2 Then David said, "No one is to carry the ark of God except the Levites, for the LORD chose them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister to Him forever." 3 And David assembled all Israel (Yisra'el) to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim) to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place, which he had prepared for it. 4 And David gathered the sons of Aaron (Aharon) and the Levites: 5 of the sons of Kohath (Qehat), Uriel the chief, and his brothers, one hundred twenty; 6 of the sons of Merari, Asaiah (Asaya) the chief, and his brothers, two hundred twenty; 7 of the sons of Gershom, Joel (Yo'el) the chief, and

14:1 Hiram the king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees Tyre was a wealthy trading city on the coast north of Israel, in what is now Lebanon, and its cedar was the finest building wood in the ancient world. Hiram later helped Solomon build the temple (2 Chr 2:3-16).
14:2 for the sake of His people Israel It was the LORD who made David king, and He did it for His people. God gives authority for the good of those under it. The greatest must be the servant of all (Mark 10:43-45).
14:3 David took more wives in Jerusalem The Bible records David's many wives but does not approve of them (Deut 17:17). God's design from the beginning was one man and one woman (Gen 2:24; Matt 19:4-6). David's marriages brought jealousy, rivalry and violence, and Solomon's wives turned his heart (1 Kgs 11:1-4). God does not approve of our sins, but He is not stopped by them.
14:4 Nathan and Solomon The two sons through whom Matthew and Luke trace the line to Jesus.
14:8 the Philistines heard that David had been anointed as king over all Israel While he ruled only Judah they may have seen him as no threat, since he had once lived among them. They raided the valley of Rephaim, just southwest of Jerusalem.
14:10 David inquired of God He did not assume. He asked.
14:11 God has broken out against my enemies by my hand like the breaking out of waters Baal-perazim means lord of breaking out. God had broken out against Uzzah (13:11). The same God who broke out in judgment on careless worship broke out in power for an obedient king.
14:12 they were burned with fire Second Samuel 5:21 says they carried the idols away. Chronicles adds that they were burned, as the law commanded (Deut 7:5, 25). The Philistines once carried off the ark. Now their gods were left on the battlefield and burned.
14:14 David inquired of God again Same enemy, same valley, and he could have assumed the same answer. He did not.
14:15 When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees A sign that God's own army was moving ahead of him. Yesterday's guidance is not a formula for today. Keep seeking God every time, do exactly what He says, and wait for Him to go before you.
14:17 the LORD put the dread of him on all the nations David's fame grew, but the LORD did it.
15:1 he prepared a place for the ark of God and pitched a tent for it He built his own house but did not forget God's house.
15:2 No one is to carry the ark of God except the Levites David had gone back to the law. He asked his question from 13:12 and found the answer in God's Word (Num 4:15; Deut 10:8). He did not give up on bringing God's presence to the center. He gave up on doing it his own way.
15:5 the sons of Kohath Six Levite families, 862 men. Elizaphan, Hebron and Uzziel were branches of Kohath (Exod 6:18-22), so four of six groups came from the family God appointed to carry the holy things (Num 4:4-15). This time no one was going to guess.

his brothers, one hundred thirty; 8 of the sons of Elizaphan (Elitsafan), Shemaiah (Shemaya) the chief, and his brothers, two hundred; 9 of the sons of Hebron (Chevron), Eliel the chief, and his brothers, eighty; 10 of the sons of Uzziel (Uzi'el), Amminadab (Aminadav) the chief, and his brothers, one hundred twelve. 11 And David called for Zadok (Tsadoq) and for Abiathar (Evyatar) the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 and he said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers of the Levites; consecrate yourselves, you and your brothers, and bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel to the place that I have prepared for it. 13 For because at the first time you were not there, the LORD our God broke out against us, for we did not seek Him according to the ordinance." 14 And the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel. 15 And the sons of the Levites carried the ark of God, just as Moses (Moshe) had commanded according to the word of the LORD, on their shoulder with the poles on them.

The Levite Singers Appointed

16 And David said to the commanders of the Levites to appoint their brothers the singers with instruments of song, harps and lyres and cymbals, sounding aloud, to raise a sound of joy. 17 And the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel, and of his brothers, Asaph (Asaf) the son of Berechiah (Berekhyahu); and of the sons of Merari their brothers, Ethan (Etan) the son of Kushaiah (Qushayahu); 18 and with them their brothers of the second rank: Zechariah (Zekharyahu), Ben, and Jaaziel (Ya'azi'el), and Shemiramoth (Shemiramot), and Jehiel (Yechi'el), and Unni (Uni), Eliab (Eli'av), and Benaiah (Benayahu), and Maaseiah (Ma'aseyahu), and Mattithiah (Matityahu), and Eliphelehu (Elifelehu), and Mikneiah (Miqneyahu), and Obed-edom (Oved-Edom), and Jeiel (Ye'i'el), the gatekeepers. 19 And the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were to sound aloud with cymbals of bronze; 20 and Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with harps on Alamoth; 21 and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah (Azazyahu), with lyres on the Sheminith, to lead. 22 And Chenaniah (Kenanyahu), the commander of the Levites in the lifting up, was instructing in the lifting up, for he was skilled. 23 And Berechiah and Elkanah (Elqana) were gatekeepers for the ark. 24 And Shebaniah (Shevanyahu), and Joshaphat (Yoshafat), and Nethanel (Netanel), and Amasai (Amasay), and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, were blowing on the trumpets before the ark of God; and Obed-edom and Jehiah (Yechiya) were gatekeepers for the ark.

The Ark Brought into the City of David

25 And it was David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of the thousands who went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-edom with joy. 26 And it was, when God helped the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. 27 And David was wrapped in a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the commander of the lifting up of the singers; and on David was an ephod of linen. 28 And all Israel was bringing up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the ram's horn, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with harps and lyres. 29 And it was, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal (Mikhal) the daughter of Saul (Shaul) looked down through the window and saw King David skipping and celebrating; and she despised him in her heart.

15:12 consecrate yourselves, you and your brothers To set yourself apart as holy for God's service, with washing, keeping from anything unclean, and preparing the heart (Exod 19:10-15).
15:13 we did not seek Him according to the ordinance An ordinance is a rule God has set. David said "we" and did not blame Uzzah alone. It is possible to be very excited about God and still ignore what He has said. True worshipers worship "in spirit and truth" (John 4:23). Spirit without truth was the problem in chapter 13.
15:15 just as Moses had commanded according to the word of the LORD, on their shoulder with the poles on them That phrase is the difference between chapter 13 and chapter 15.
15:16 to raise a sound of joy Obedience did not mean the joy had to go. It meant the joy would be led by those God appointed.
15:20 on Alamoth Alamoth and Sheminith (15:21) are musical terms whose exact meanings are lost. Many think Alamoth means a high pitch and Sheminith a lower one, perhaps an octave. Both appear in psalm titles (Ps 46; 6; 12).
15:22 for he was skilled Lifting up may mean leading the music or directing the carrying of the ark. God values skill offered to Him.
15:24 gatekeepers for the ark Obed-edom, in whose house the ark had stayed, now served as a gatekeeper and musician. He had seen God's blessing up close and wanted to stay near His presence.
15:26 when God helped the Levites who carried the ark When they did it His way, He helped them. Second Samuel 6:13 tells of a sacrifice after six steps. The two may describe offerings at the start and along the way.
15:27 an ephod of linen A linen garment like a vest or apron worn by priests. The king set aside his royal robes to worship with the worshipers.
15:29 Michal the daughter of Saul looked down through the window Called the daughter of Saul, not the wife of David. She shared her father's attitude toward the ark (13:3). The same event can fill one heart with joy and another with scorn. Have you held back in worship for fear of what others think? Michal stayed at the window. David was in the procession.

1 CHRONICLES 16

The Ark in Its Tent

1 And they brought the ark of God and set it in the midst of the tent which David had pitched for it; and they brought near burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. 2 And David finished offering up the burnt offering and the peace offerings, and he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. 3 And he distributed to every man of Israel (Yisra'el), both man and woman, to each a loaf of bread and a date cake and a raisin cake. 4 And he appointed some of the Levites before the ark of the LORD as ministers, both to make remembrance and to give thanks and to praise the LORD God of Israel: 5 Asaph (Asaf) the chief, and second to him Zechariah (Zekharya), Jeiel (Ye'i'el), and Shemiramoth (Shemiramot), and Jehiel (Yechi'el), and Mattithiah (Matitya), and Eliab (Eli'av), and Benaiah (Benayahu), and Obed-edom
(Oved-Edom), and Jeiel, with instruments of harps and with lyres; and Asaph was sounding aloud with the cymbals; 6 and Benaiah and Jahaziel (Yachazi'el) the priests were with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

David's Psalm of Thanks

7 On that day, then David first appointed to give thanks to the LORD by the hand of Asaph and his brothers: 8 "Give thanks to the LORD; call on His name; make known His deeds among the peoples. 9 Sing to Him; sing praises to Him; speak of all His wonders. 10 Glory in the name of His holiness; let the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice. 11 Seek the LORD and His strength; seek His face continually.
12 Remember His wonders which He has done, His portents, and the judgments of His mouth, 13 O seed of Israel His servant, sons of Jacob (Ya'aqov), His chosen ones! 14 He is the LORD our God; His judgments are in all the earth.
15 Remember His covenant forever, the word which He commanded for a thousand generations, 16 which He made with Abraham (Avraham), and His oath to Isaac (Yitschaq); 17 and He confirmed it to Jacob for a statute, to Israel as an everlasting covenant, 18 saying, 'To you I will give the land of Canaan (Kena'an), the portion of your inheritance,' 19 when you were men of number, as few, and sojourners in it. 20 And they went about from nation to nation, and from a kingdom to another people. 21 He did not permit any man to oppress them, and He rebuked kings on their account: 22 'Do not touch My anointed ones, and to My prophets do no harm.' 23 Sing to the LORD, all the earth; bear the good news of His salvation from day to day. 24 Recount His glory among the nations, His wonders among all the peoples. 25 For great is the LORD, and to be praised exceedingly; and He is to be feared above all gods. 26 For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, and the LORD made the heavens.
27 Splendor and majesty are before Him; strength and joy are in His place. 28 Ascribe to the LORD, O families of peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength. 29 Ascribe to the LORD the glory of His name; lift up an offering and come before Him; bow down to the LORD in the adornment of holi-

16:1 burnt offerings and peace offerings before God A burnt offering was burned whole, a gift wholly given to God (Lev 1). A peace offering was a fellowship meal, part burned for God and the rest eaten before Him (Lev 3; 7:11-15). The people gave themselves to God, then ate together before Him.
16:3 both man and woman The king fed the people, and no one went home empty. When God's people gather to worship, they should go home blessed and cared for, not only taught.
16:4 to make remembrance and to give thanks and to praise the LORD God of Israel Three verbs that describe worship: remembering what God has done, thanking Him for it, and praising Him for who He is.
16:7 David first appointed to give thanks to the LORD by the hand of Asaph and his brothers The beginning of the ministry of song that went on through the temple's days and that the returned exiles were restoring (Ezra 3:10-11).
16:8 Give thanks to the LORD; call on His name These verses match Psalm 105:1-7. Hebrew poetry rhymes thoughts, not sounds. One line says something and the next repeats, adds to or contrasts it. We call this parallelism (16:11).
16:10 let the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice Saul did not seek the LORD (10:14). David had learned to seek Him according to the ordinance (15:13), and now calls all Israel to seek His face continually (16:11).
16:12 Remember His wonders which He has done God's people are called to remember. Forgetting is the first step toward unfaithfulness. He is Israel's God, but His judgments are in all the earth (16:14).
16:15 Remember His covenant forever Psalm 105:8 says God has remembered it. Chronicles calls the people to remember it too.
16:18 To you I will give the land of Canaan God promised the land to Abraham and his descendants and called it everlasting (Gen 12:7; 15:18; 17:8). I believe God still means it and will keep it with the nation of Israel (Rom 11:28-29). The returned exiles were back in that very land, few, as the patriarchs had been (16:19).
16:21 He rebuked kings on their account As with Pharaoh and Abimelech (Gen 12:17; 20:3).
16:22 Do not touch My anointed ones Sometimes used to say no one may question a church leader. In context, the anointed ones are the patriarchs, and God is warning the kings of the nations. Leaders should be honored, but still tested by God's Word (Acts 17:11; 1 John 4:1).
16:23 bear the good news of His salvation from day to day This part matches Psalm 96. Israel was always meant to tell the nations about the true God, and Jesus sent His followers to do the same (Matt 28:19). Every time we share the good news, we sing David's song.
16:26 all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, and the LORD made the heavens The Philistines had just left their gods to be burned (14:12). Idols are made. The LORD is the Maker.
16:28 ascribe to the LORD glory and strength We cannot add to God's glory. To give Him glory means to recognize it and say it aloud.

ness. 30 Tremble before Him, all the earth; also the world is established; it shall not be shaken. 31 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; and let them say among the nations, 'The LORD reigns.' 32 Let the sea thunder, and its fullness; let the field exult, and all that is in it. 33 Then the trees of the forest shall shout for joy before the LORD, for He comes to judge the earth. 34 Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; for His steadfast love is forever. 35 And say, 'Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us and deliver us from the nations, to give thanks to the name of Your holiness, to glory in Your praise.' 36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting and to everlasting." And all the people said, "Amen," and praised the LORD.

Worship in Jerusalem and Gibeon

37 And he left there, before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, Asaph and his brothers, to minister before the ark continually, according to the matter of each day on its day; 38 and Obed-edom and their brothers, sixty-eight; and Obed-edom the son of Jeduthun (Yedutun) and Hosah (Chosa) were for gatekeepers; 39 and Zadok (Tsadoq) the priest and his brothers the priests before the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place which was at Gibeon (Givon), 40 to offer up burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the burnt offering continually, morning and evening, and according to all that is written in the law of the LORD which He commanded Israel; 41 and with them Heman and Jeduthun and the rest of those chosen, who were designated by names, to give thanks to the LORD, for His steadfast love is forever; 42 and with them, Heman and Jeduthun, were trumpets and cymbals for those sounding aloud, and the instruments of the song of God; and the sons of Jeduthun were for the gate. 43 And all the people went, each to his house; and David turned to bless his house.

David Desires to Build a House

1 And it was, when David dwelt in his house, that David said to Nathan (Natan) the prophet, "Look, I am dwelling in a house of cedars, and the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under curtains." 2 And Nathan said to David, "All that is in your heart, do, for God is with you."

God's Covenant with David

3 And it was, in that night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, 4 "Go, and you shall say to David My servant, 'Thus says the LORD, "You shall not build Me the house to dwell in. 5 For I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel (Yisra'el) until this day, and I have been from tent to tent and from tabernacle to tabernacle.
6 Wherever I have walked about in all Israel, did I speak a word with one of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, 'Why have you not built Me a house of cedars?'"' 7 And now, thus you shall say to My servant David, 'Thus says the LORD of armies, "I took you from the pasture, from following the flock, to be leader over My people Israel. 8 And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a name like the name of the great ones who are on the earth. 9 And I will appoint a place for My people Israel, and I will plant it, and it shall dwell in its place and shall not be disturbed again; and the sons of injus-

16:33 for He comes to judge the earth Creation rejoices because His judgment will set right everything wrong. The earth groans under sin (Rom 8:19-22). I believe this looks ahead to Christ's visible return to judge and reign (Rev 19:11-16; 20:4-6).
16:34 Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good; for His steadfast love is forever The refrain of Chronicles (Ps 106:1), sung at the temple's dedication (2 Chr 5:13; 7:3), in battle (2 Chr 20:21), and at the new temple's foundation (Ezra 3:11). Steadfast love is hesed, God's loyal covenant love that never lets go.
16:35 gather us and deliver us from the nations Perhaps some Israelites still lived among foreign peoples, or David looked ahead to scattering (Deut 30:1-5). For the first readers it was exactly their prayer. The prophets say God will one day gather all Israel to their land (Ezek 36:24; Jer 23:3-8).
16:36 all the people said, Amen Amen means so be it, it is true. The song ended with the whole people agreeing with God.
16:39 the tabernacle of the LORD at the high place which was at Gibeon Moses' tent and the bronze altar were a few miles northwest of Jerusalem. Many high places held idols, but this one held the true tabernacle. For a time there were two centers: the ark with its songs, and the altar with its sacrifices. They came together in Solomon's temple (2 Chr 5:2-7).
16:43 David turned to bless his house After blessing the nation, David went home to bless his family. A leader's first congregation is his own household.
17:1 the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under curtains David lived in comfort and the ark sat in a tent. His desire came from a good heart. He wanted God honored above himself.
17:2 All that is in your heart, do, for God is with you Nathan spoke before he had heard from God. Even good men can give their own opinion when they should wait on the LORD.
17:4 You shall not build Me the house to dwell in God corrected His prophet that night and called David "My servant." He was not angry, and He honored David's desire, but He had a different plan. David gives another reason in 22:8: he had shed much blood.
17:6 Why have you not built Me a house of cedars God never asked for a house. The heavens cannot contain Him (1 Kgs 8:27). Everything good comes from God to us, not from us to God.
17:7 I took you from the pasture, from following the flock So overlooked his father did not call him in for Samuel (1 Sam 16:11).
17:8 I will make for you a name like the name of the great ones who are on the earth An echo of God's promise to Abraham (Gen 12:2). The covenant with David builds on the covenant with Abraham. Three thousand years later, David's name is known around the world.
17:9 it shall dwell in its place and shall not be disturbed again Partly fulfilled under David and Solomon, but Israel was later carried off. It still looks ahead. God will plant Israel and they will never be plucked up again (Amos 9:15), when Christ returns and Israel dwells safely under the Son of David (Ezek 37:24-25).

tice shall not again wear it out as at the first, 10 and from the days that I commanded judges over My people Israel. And I will subdue all your enemies. And I have declared to you that the LORD will build a house for you. 11 And it shall be, when your days are fulfilled to go with your fathers, that I will raise up your seed after you, who shall be from your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. 12 He shall build Me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. 13 I will be to him a father, and he shall be to Me a son; and My steadfast love I will not remove from him, as I removed it from him who was before you. 14 And I will set him in My house and in My kingdom forever, and his throne shall be established forever."'" 15 According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

David's Prayer

16 And King David went in and sat before the LORD, and he said, "Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house, that You have brought me this far? 17 And this was small in Your eyes, O God; and You have spoken concerning the house of Your servant for a time far off, and You have regarded me according to the order of the man of the ascent, O LORD God. 18 What more can David add to You for the glory of Your servant? And You know Your servant. 19 O LORD, for the sake of Your servant and according to Your heart You have done all this greatness, to make known all the great things. 20 O LORD, there is none like You, and there is no God except You, according to all that we have heard with our ears. 21 And who is like Your people Israel, one nation on the earth, whom God went to ransom for Himself as a people, to make for You a name by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before Your people whom You ransomed from Egypt (Mitsrayim)? 22 And You made Your people Israel Your own people forever; and You, O LORD, became their God. 23 And now, O LORD, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, let it be confirmed forever, and do as You have spoken. 24 And let it be confirmed, and let Your name be great forever, saying, 'The LORD of armies is the God of Israel, God to Israel'; and the house of David Your servant is established before You. 25 For You, O my God, have uncovered the ear of Your servant, to build a house for him; therefore Your servant has found courage to pray before You. 26 And now, O LORD, You are God, and You have spoken this good thing concerning Your servant. 27 And now You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant, to be forever before You; for You, O LORD, have blessed, and it is blessed forever."

17:10 the LORD will build a house for you The turning point. The Hebrew bayit can mean a building, a household or a dynasty. David would not build a house of cedar for God. God would build a house of kings for David.
17:11 I will raise up your seed after you Seed means offspring, one of David's own sons.
17:12 I will establish his throne forever First Solomon, who built the temple (22:9-10; 2 Chr 6:10). But Solomon's kingdom split, his temple burned, and when Chronicles was written no son of David had reigned for well over a hundred years. The promise was bigger than Solomon. It reached to a Son of David who would reign forever.
17:13 I will be to him a father, and he shall be to Me a son God took the kingdom from Saul but promised never to do that to David's family. Kings could be disciplined, but the line would never be cast off. Hebrews applies this to Jesus (Heb 1:5), the eternal Son of God who became David's son by birth (Rom 1:3). Chronicles leaves out 2 Samuel 7:14's line on correction, keeping its eyes on the promise.
17:14 I will set him in My house and in My kingdom forever The key verse of the book. Second Samuel 7:16 says your house and your kingdom. Chronicles says My house and My kingdom. Solomon sat "on the throne of the LORD" (29:23). The throne of David is the LORD's throne on earth.
17:15 so Nathan spoke to David Nathan, who spoke too quickly the night before, now spoke exactly what God said. Gabriel used the words of this covenant for Mary's Son: "of His kingdom there will be no end" (Luke 1:33). Peter said God raised Jesus "to sit upon his throne" (Acts 2:30). Its King cannot die again.
17:15 According to all these words and according to all this vision I believe the throne of David is a real throne over a real Israel in Jerusalem, and Jesus will sit on it when He returns (Matt 25:31) and reigns a thousand years (Rev 20:4-6). "For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable" (Rom 11:29). Amillennial teachers, who see Christ reigning on it now from heaven, take the promise seriously too.
17:16 Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house He likely went into the tent of the ark and sat in humble worship. His first words were not about what he deserved. He was amazed at grace.
17:17 according to the order of the man of the ascent A hard phrase. Some think David meant God treated him as a man of high rank. Others take it as God showing him the line of generations to come. Either way, he had been given something far bigger than himself.
17:18 You know Your servant David ran out of words. God already knew his heart, his weakness and his gratitude.
17:19 according to Your heart You have done all this greatness Grace comes from who God is, not from who we are. God saves us by His own purpose and grace, not by our works (2 Tim 1:9).
17:21 whom God went to ransom for Himself as a people To ransom is to pay the price to set someone free. David saw his blessing as part of God's larger work with His people.
17:22 You made Your people Israel Your own people forever David believed God's choice of Israel was permanent. So did Paul (Rom 11:1-2). For the small community back from Babylon, they were still God's own people.
17:23 do as You have spoken Prayer is not talking God into something. It is taking hold of what He has promised and asking Him to do it.
17:24 let Your name be great forever God's name mattered more to David than the great name God promised him (17:8).
17:25 Your servant has found courage to pray before You To uncover the ear is to tell someone a secret plainly. David would never have dared ask for a dynasty forever. God promised first. His promises give us boldness to pray.
17:27 You, O LORD, have blessed, and it is blessed forever In 2 Samuel 7:29 David asks God to bless his house. Here he rests in the fact that God has. That blessing is kept in Jesus Christ, son of David (Matt 1:1). The promise is sure because the King is alive.

1 CHRONICLES 18

David's Victories

1 And it was after this that David struck down the Philistines and subdued them, and he took Gath (Gat) and its daughter towns from the hand of the Philistines. 2 And he struck down Moab (Mo'av), and Moab became servants to David, bearers of tribute. 3 And David struck down Hadadezer king of Zobah (Tsova) toward Hamath (Chamat), as he went to set up his hand at the river Euphrates (Perat). 4 And David captured from him a thousand chariots and seven thousand horsemen and twenty thousand men on foot; and David hamstrung all the chariotry, and he left of it one hundred chariots. 5 And Syria (Aram) of Damascus (Dameseq) came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, and David struck down in Syria twenty-two thousand men. 6 And David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus, and Syria became servants to David, bearers of tribute. And the LORD saved David wherever he went. 7 And David took the shields of gold which were on the servants of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). 8 And from Tibhath (Tivchat) and from Cun (Kun), cities of Hadadezer, David took very much bronze; with it Solomon (Shelomo) made the bronze sea and the pillars and the articles of bronze. 9 And Tou (To'u) king of Hamath heard that David had struck down all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, 10 and he sent Hadoram his son to King David to ask him of his welfare and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him down; for Hadadezer was a man of wars with Tou; and with him were all kinds of articles of gold and silver and bronze. 11 Also these King David consecrated to the LORD, with the silver and the gold which he had carried off from all the nations: from Edom and from Moab and from the sons of Ammon (Amon) and from the Philistines and from Amalek (Amaleq). 12 And Abishai (Avishay) the son of Zeruiah (Tseruya) struck down Edom in the Valley of Salt (Gay-Melach), eighteen thousand. 13 And he put garrisons in Edom, and all Edom became servants to David. And the LORD saved David wherever he went.

David's Officials

14 And David reigned over all Israel (Yisra'el), and he was doing justice and righteousness for all his people. 15 And Joab (Yo'av) the son of Zeruiah was over the army, and Jehoshaphat (Yehoshafat) the son of Ahilud (Achilud) was recorder; 16 and Zadok (Tsadoq) the son of Ahitub (Achituv) and Abimelech (Avimelekh) the son of Abiathar (Evyatar) were priests; and Shavsha was scribe; 17 and Benaiah (Benayahu) the son of Jehoiada (Yehoyada) was over the Kerethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were the first at the side of the king.

1 CHRONICLES 19

Hanun Shames David's Servants

1 And it was after this that Nahash (Nachash) the king of the sons of Ammon (Amon) died, and his son reigned in his place. 2 And David said, "I will do steadfast love with Hanun (Chanun) the son of Nahash, for his father did steadfast love with me." And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And the servants of David came into the 18:1 it was after this that David struck down the Philistines and subdued them After this ties the wars to the promise. God had just said He would subdue David's enemies (17:10), and now He does. Gath was one of the five chief Philistine cities, Goliath's hometown.

18:2 bearers of tribute Tribute was a yearly payment a weaker nation made to a stronger one. The writer keeps his eyes on the result: the nations around Israel came under David, as God said.
18:3 as he went to set up his hand at the river Euphrates Zobah was an Aramean kingdom north of Damascus. To set up his hand means to establish his rule. God had promised Abraham the land as far as the Euphrates (Gen 15:18).
18:4 David hamstrung all the chariotry Second Samuel 8:4 gives seventeen hundred horsemen, most likely a copying difference. God told kings not to multiply horses (Deut 17:16). David would not trust in chariots (Ps 20:7).
18:6 the LORD saved David wherever he went The key line. David was a skilled soldier, but the victories were the LORD's. A garrison was a post of soldiers stationed to hold a territory.
18:8 with it Solomon made the bronze sea and the pillars and the articles of bronze Chronicles adds this. The bronze sea was the huge basin where the priests washed (2 Chr 4:2-6), and the pillars stood at the temple's front (2 Chr 3:15-17). David could not build the temple, but every victory gathered materials for it. Nothing done for the Lord is wasted, even what we do not live to see finished.
18:10 to ask him of his welfare and to bless him Tou of Hamath, north of Zobah, wanted peace with the new power in the region.
18:11 Also these King David consecrated to the LORD He did not keep the treasure of his victories but later gave it toward the temple (26:26-27; 29:2-5). "What do you have which you did not receive?" (1 Cor 4:7).
18:12 Abishai the son of Zeruiah struck down Edom in the Valley of Salt Second Samuel 8:13 credits David, and Psalm 60's title Joab with twelve thousand. David was king, and Joab and Abishai his commanders in the field. The numbers may count different parts of the battle.
18:14 he was doing justice and righteousness for all his people Justice gives each what is due, and righteousness lives by God's standard. God would raise up for David a righteous Branch to do justice and righteousness in the land (Jer 23:5). What David did in part, Jesus will do perfectly when He reigns.
18:16 Shavsha was scribe The royal secretary. The recorder kept the records and announced decisions. Samuel's Ahimelech and Seraiah (2 Sam 8:17) show names spelled more than one way or changed in copying.
18:17 the sons of David were the first at the side of the king Second Samuel 8:18 calls them priests. Chronicles explains they were chief officials, not altar priests, which only Aaron's sons could be. The Kerethites and Pelethites were David's foreign guard. A kingdom needs order, and Chronicles will show the same care in worship.
19:1 Nahash the king of the sons of Ammon died Ammon lay east of the Jordan around Rabbah, where Amman, Jordan's capital, stands today.
19:2 I will do steadfast love with Hanun the son of Nahash Loyal kindness kept up over time. We are not told what Nahash did for David, perhaps in the years he ran from Saul, Nahash's enemy (1 Sam 11).

land of the sons of Ammon to Hanun to comfort him. 3 And the commanders of the sons of Ammon said to Hanun, "Is David honoring your father in your eyes, because he has sent comforters to you? Is it not in order to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land that his servants have come to you?" 4 And Hanun took the servants of David and shaved them, and he cut off their garments in the middle, as far as the buttocks, and sent them away. 5 And some went and told David about the men, and he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly humiliated. And the king said, "Remain at Jericho (Yericho) until your beard grows, and then you shall return."

War with Ammon and Syria

6 And the sons of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious with David, and Hanun and the sons of Ammon sent approximately 75,000 pounds (a thousand talents) of silver to hire for themselves chariotry and horsemen from Mesopotamia (Aram-Naharayim) and from Aram-maacah (Aram-Ma'akha) and from Zobah (Tsova). 7 And they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people; and they came and encamped before Medeba (Medva). And the sons of Ammon were gathered from their cities and came for battle. 8 And David heard, and he sent Joab (Yo'av) and all the army of the mighty men. 9 And the sons of Ammon went out and arrayed battle at the entrance of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. 10 And Joab saw that the face of the battle was against him, front and back; and he chose from all the chosen men in Israel (Yisra'el) and arrayed them to meet Syria (Aram). 11 And the rest of the people he put in the hand of Abishai (Avishay) his brother, and they arrayed themselves to meet the sons of Ammon. 12 And he said, "If Syria is too strong for me, then you shall be to me for deliverance; and if the sons of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will save you. 13 Be strong, and let us show ourselves strong for our people and for the cities of our God; and the LORD shall do what is good in His eyes." 14 And Joab and the people who were with him drew near before Syria for battle, and they fled from before him. 15 And the sons of Ammon saw that Syria had fled, and they also fled from before Abishai his brother and went into the city. And Joab came to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). 16 And Syria saw that they had been defeated before Israel, and they sent messengers and brought out Syria which was beyond the River, and Shophach (Shofakh) the commander of the army of Hadadezer was before them. 17 And it was told to David, and he gathered all Israel and crossed over the Jordan (Yarden), and he came to them and arrayed battle against them. And David arrayed battle to meet Syria, and they fought with him. 18 And Syria fled from before Israel, and David killed of Syria seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand men on foot, and he put to death Shophach the commander of the army. 19 And the servants of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated before Israel, and they made peace with David and served him. And Syria was not willing to save the sons of Ammon anymore.

1 CHRONICLES 20

Rabbah Taken

1 And it was, at the time of the return of the year, at the time of the going out of the kings, and Joab (Yo'av) led out the force of the army, and he destroyed the land of the sons of Ammon (Amon), and he came and besieged Rabbah (Raba); and David was remaining in Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). And Joab struck Rabbah and overthrew it. 2 And David took the crown of their king from on his head, and he found it to be the weight of approximately 75 pounds (a talent) of gold, and in it was a precious stone; and it was on the head of David.

19:3 Is David honoring your father in your eyes Suspicious people often read evil into kindness. Hanun listened to bad counsel, and it cost his nation dearly.
19:4 he cut off their garments in the middle A beard was a mark of manhood and dignity (2 Sam 10:4), and to cut it off was a deep insult, to the men and to David who sent them.
19:5 Remain at Jericho until your beard grows He did not make them walk into Jerusalem in shame. A good leader protects the honor of those who serve under him.
19:6 a thousand talents of silver About thirty-seven tons, to hire chariots and horsemen. Samuel counts the hired men differently (2 Sam 10:6). Ammon bought an army far bigger than its own.
19:10 the face of the battle was against him, front and back Trapped between two armies, Joab split his forces with his brother Abishai, and each would help the other.
19:13 the LORD shall do what is good in His eyes Joab was not always godly, but here he spoke what every believer needs. Do your part with all your strength and leave the outcome to God. That is not fatalism. Can you face your hardest battles that way?
19:15 they also fled from before Abishai his brother Men fighting for pay do not fight like men fighting for their home. But the war was not finished.
19:16 beyond the River Beyond the Euphrates. This time David himself led all Israel across the Jordan.
19:18 seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand men on foot Second Samuel 10:18 gives seven hundred charioteers and forty thousand horsemen. Again most likely copying, or different parts of the army counted.
19:19 Syria was not willing to save the sons of Ammon anymore What began with Hanun's suspicion ended with his allies gone. "Before breaking is pride" (Prov 16:18).
20:1 at the time of the going out of the kings Spring, after the winter rains, when roads were dry and there was food in the fields. A siege surrounds a city and cuts it off until it falls.
20:1 David was remaining in Jerusalem Where 2 Samuel 11 begins the story of Bathsheba. Chronicles moves past it, not to hide David's sin, since its readers had Samuel and the next chapter tells the census in full, but to keep its eyes on God's purpose for David's house and the temple.
20:2 in it was a precious stone So heavy a crown was likely worn only briefly, or it was the crown of the idol Milcom, since the Hebrew for their king and Milcom are very close.

And the plunder of the city he brought out, very much. 3 And the people who were in it he brought out, and he sawed them with the saw and with sharp instruments of iron and with saws. And thus David did to all the cities of the sons of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

The Giants Defeated

4 And it was after this, and a battle arose at Gezer with the Philistines. Then Sibbecai (Sibkhay) the Hushathite struck down Sippai (Sipay), one of those born of the Rephaim, and they were subdued. 5 And there was again a battle with the Philistines, and Elhanan (Elchanan) the son of Jair (Ya'ir) struck down Lahmi (Lachmi) the brother of Goliath (Golyat) the Gittite, and the wood of his spear was like a beam of weavers. 6 And there was again a battle at Gath (Gat), and there was a man of stature, and his digits were six and six, twenty-four; and he also was born to the Rapha. 7 And he taunted Israel (Yisra'el), and Jonathan (Yehonatan) the son of Shimea (Shima), the brother of David, struck him down. 8 These were born to the Rapha in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

1 CHRONICLES 21

David's Census

1 And Satan stood up against Israel (Yisra'el), and he incited David to count Israel. 2 And David said to Joab (Yo'av) and to the leaders of the people, "Go, count Israel from Beersheba (Be'er-Sheva) and to Dan, and bring it to me, so that I may know their number." 3 And Joab said, "May the LORD add to His people a hundred times as many as they are! Are they not, my lord the king, all of them my lord's for servants? Why does my lord seek this? Why should it become guilt for Israel?" 4 And the word of the king prevailed over Joab, and Joab went out and went about in all Israel, and he came to Jerusalem (Yerushalayim). 5 And Joab gave the number of the muster of the people to David. And all Israel was a thousand thousands and a hundred thousand men drawing a sword, and Judah (Yehuda) was four hundred seventy thousand men drawing a sword. 6 And Levi and Benjamin (Binyamin) he did not enroll in their midst, for the word of the king was abhorrent to Joab. 7 And it was evil in the eyes of God concerning this matter, and He struck Israel. 8 And David said to God, "I have sinned exceedingly in that I have done this thing. And now, please cause the iniquity of Your servant to pass away, for I have acted exceedingly foolishly."

The Plague

9 And the LORD spoke to Gad, the seer of David, saying, 10 "Go, and you shall speak to David, saying, 'Thus says the LORD: Three things I am holding out over you; choose for yourself one of them, and I will do it to you.'" 11 And Gad came to David and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: 'Take for yourself 12 either three years of famine, or three months of being swept away before your adversaries, with the sword of your enemies overtaking you, or three days of the sword of the LORD, and pestilence in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying in all the territory of Israel.' 20:3 the people who were in it he brought out The Hebrew here can be read as sawed, but 2 Samuel 12:31 differs by a single letter and means he set them to work with saws, iron tools and the brick mold. I take it as forced labor, as many teachers do. Scripture records the harsh world of ancient war without holding it up as a pattern.
20:4 one of those born of the Rephaim A people of great size in Canaan long before Israel (Deut 2:10-11, 20-21; 3:11), some living on among the Philistines. Sibbecai was one of David's mighty men (11:29; 27:11).
20:5 Elhanan the son of Jair struck down Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite Second Samuel 21:19 says Elhanan struck down Goliath. Many believe Chronicles keeps the original reading and letters were confused in copying Samuel, or there was more than one Goliath. Chronicles agrees with 1 Samuel 17: David killed Goliath. The spear like a weaver's beam matches Goliath's (1 Sam 17:7).
20:6 his digits were six and six, twenty-four A rare condition that still occurs. He taunted Israel as Goliath had. Jonathan was David's nephew.
20:8 they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants David faced the first giant alone. Now his men faced these. A good leader raises up others, and David's faith became theirs. God gave rest as He promised (17:8, 10). What giants taunt you? "If God is for us, who is against us?" (Rom 8:31).
21:1 Satan stood up against Israel, and he incited David to count Israel Satan means adversary, the one who accused Job (Job 1:6-12) and tempted Jesus (Matt 4:1-11). Second Samuel 24:1 says the LORD, already angry with Israel, incited David. Both are true. Satan tempted, but only with God's permission (Job 1:12), and God used it to judge Israel's sin. God tempts no one (James 1:13), and David owned the sin as his (21:8, 17).
21:1 he incited David The enemy often attacks right after great victories, when we feel strong. The devil prowls around looking for someone to devour (1 Pet 5:8).
21:2 so that I may know their number God had commanded censuses before (Num 1; 26). The problem was David's heart, wanting to measure his strength instead of trusting the LORD who gave every victory. Some teachers think the ransom of Exodus 30:12 was neglected too.
21:3 Why should it become guilt for Israel When a man like Joab tells you you are doing wrong, you should listen. David overruled him.
21:5 a thousand thousands and a hundred thousand men drawing a sword Second Samuel 24:9 gives 800,000 and 500,000. The books may count different groups, Chronicles may include the standing army of chapter 27, numbers were easy to miscopy, or thousand may mean a unit. I take them as written and do not claim to know exactly how they fit.
21:6 Levi and Benjamin he did not enroll in their midst Levi was never counted for war (Num 1:47-49). Benjamin perhaps because the tabernacle was at Gibeon, or the plague came first. Joab began to count but did not finish (27:24).
21:8 I have sinned exceedingly in that I have done this thing Iniquity is sin, the crooked thing done. David did not blame Satan, Joab or the pressures of being king. That is why he was a man after God's heart (Acts 13:22): when he sinned, he came back and confessed it. Can you say those words to God as plainly?
21:9 Gad, the seer of David A seer is a prophet who sees what God shows him. Gad had been with David since his days in hiding (1 Sam 22:5). Forgiveness does not always remove the consequences of sin.
21:12 either three years of famine Pestilence is a deadly spreading disease, a plague. Second Samuel 24:13 says seven years. Three fits the pattern of three years, months and days, and the Greek of 2 Samuel also reads three, so most think seven came in through copying.

sider what word I shall bring back to Him who sent me." 13 And David said to Gad, "It is great distress to me. Please let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for His compassions are very great; and into the hand of man let me not fall." 14 And the LORD put a pestilence on Israel, and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men. 15 And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; and as he was destroying, the LORD saw and relented concerning the calamity, and He said to the angel who was destroying, "Enough! Now let your hand drop." And the angel of the LORD was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. 16 And David lifted up his eyes and saw the angel of the LORD standing between the earth and the heavens, and his sword drawn in his hand, stretched out over Jerusalem. And David fell, and the elders, covered in sackcloth, on their faces. 17 And David said to God, "Was it not I who said to count the people? And I am he who has sinned and has surely done evil; and these, the sheep, what have they done? O LORD my God, please let Your hand be on me and on the house of my father, and not on Your people for a plague."

The Threshing Floor of Ornan

18 And the angel of the LORD said to Gad to say to David that David should go up to set up an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. 19 And David went up by the word of Gad, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD. 20 And Ornan turned and saw the angel, and his four sons with him were hiding themselves. And Ornan was threshing wheat. 21 And David came to Ornan, and Ornan looked and saw David, and he went out from the threshing floor and bowed down to David with his face to the ground. 22 And David said to Ornan, "Give me the place of the threshing floor, so that I may build on it an altar to the LORD. For the full price give it to me, so that the plague may be restrained from upon the people." 23 And Ornan said to David, "Take it for yourself, and let my lord the king do what is good in his eyes. See, I give the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing sledges for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering; I give everything." 24 And King David said to Ornan, "No, for I will certainly buy it for the full price; for I will not take what is yours for the LORD, and offer up a burnt offering for nothing." 25 And David gave to Ornan for the place approximately 15 pounds (six hundred shekels) of gold by weight. 26 And David built there an altar to the LORD, and he offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings, and he called to the LORD, and He answered him with fire from the heavens on the altar of the burnt offering. 27 And the LORD spoke to the angel, and he returned his sword to its sheath. 28 At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, and he sacrificed there. 29 And the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses (Moshe) had made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering were at that time in the high place at Gibeon (Givon). 30 And David was not able to go before it to seek God, for he was terrified because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

21:13 let me fall into the hand of the LORD, for His compassions are very great Even in judgment God is more merciful than men. When we have sinned, the safest place to run is to God.
21:14 there fell of Israel seventy thousand men David wanted to know the size of his army, and now it was seventy thousand smaller. Hard to read. God's anger had already burned against Israel (2 Sam 24:1). A leader's sin always affects those he leads. Scripture never says God was unjust. The Judge of all the earth does right (Gen 18:25).
21:15 the LORD saw and relented concerning the calamity To relent is to turn from bringing the full judgment. God did not change His character. He showed it. Ornan is called Araunah in Samuel, another form of the name. A threshing floor was usually on a hilltop where the wind blew away the straw.
21:16 his sword drawn in his hand, stretched out over Jerusalem Chronicles gives this terrible picture that Samuel does not. Sackcloth was rough goat-hair cloth worn for grief and repentance.
21:17 these, the sheep, what have they done David asks that the blow fall on him. He could not take the people's punishment, being a sinner himself, but his prayer points to the Good Shepherd who lays down His life for the sheep (John 10:11). What David asked for, Jesus did.
21:18 to set up an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite God Himself chose the place where judgment would end. This time David obeyed right away.
21:24 I will not take what is yours for the LORD, and offer up a burnt offering for nothing Worship that costs us nothing is worth little. We cannot buy God's favor, but real love gives what costs. What does your worship cost you?
21:25 approximately 15 pounds Second Samuel 24:24 says fifty shekels of silver. Most teachers understand the silver paid for the threshing floor and oxen, and the gold for the whole hilltop where the temple would stand.
21:26 He answered him with fire from the heavens on the altar of the burnt offering Fire showed God accepted the sacrifice, as at the tabernacle (Lev 9:24), the temple (2 Chr 7:1) and Carmel (1 Kgs 18:38). A peace offering was shared in a meal, a sign of fellowship restored.
21:27 he returned his sword to its sheath Judgment ended because a sacrifice was offered on God's altar, in God's place, in God's way. The gospel in picture form. The sword was put away not because the sin was small, but because a sacrifice was made.
21:29 the altar of the burnt offering were at that time in the high place at Gibeon David could not go there, terrified of the angel's sword (21:30). God had shown him a new place.
21:30 he was terrified because of the sword of the angel of the LORD This is Mount Moriah (2 Chr 3:1), where God provided a ram in place of Isaac (Gen 22:2, 13-14). Just outside that city, about a thousand years after David, Jesus "suffered outside the gate" (Heb 13:12). David's altar stopped one plague. The cross took away the sin of the world (John 1:29).
22:1 This is the house of the LORD God Moses said God would choose a place to put His name (Deut 12:5), and Israel had waited more than four hundred years. The temple stood where God's judgment was turned away by a sacrifice.

this is the altar for burnt offering for Israel (Yisra'el)." 2 And David said to gather the sojourners who were in the land of Israel, and he appointed stonecutters to cut hewn stones to build the house of God. 3 And iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates and for the clamps David prepared, and bronze in abundance without weight, 4 and cedar timbers without number, for the Sidonians and the Tyrians had brought cedar timbers in abundance to David. 5 And David said, "Solomon (Shelomo) my son is a youth and tender, and the house to build for the LORD is to be made exceedingly great, for a name and for beauty to all the lands. Please let me prepare for it." And David prepared in abundance before his death.

David's Charge to Solomon

6 And he called for Solomon his son and commanded him to build a house for the LORD, the God of Israel. 7 And David said to Solomon, "My son, as for me, it was in my heart to build a house for the name of the LORD my God. 8 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 'You have shed blood in abundance, and you have made great wars. You shall not build a house for My name, for you have shed much blood on the earth before Me. 9 Look, a son is to be born to you; he will be a man of rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies all around; for Solomon will be his name, and peace and quietness I will give to Israel in his days. 10 He will build a house for My name, and he will be to Me a son, and I will be to him a father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.' 11 Now, my son, may the LORD be with you, and you will prosper, and you will build the house of the LORD your God, as He spoke concerning you. 12 Only may the LORD give you insight and understanding, and may He give you charge over Israel, and to keep the law of the LORD your God. 13 Then you will prosper, if you take care to do the statutes and the judgments which the LORD commanded Moses (Moshe) concerning Israel. Be strong and be courageous; do not fear, and do not be dismayed. 14 And look, in my affliction I have prepared for the house of the LORD approximately 7.5 million pounds (one hundred thousand talents) of gold, and approximately 75 million pounds (a thousand thousands of talents) of silver; and for the bronze and for the iron there is no weight, for it is in abundance; and timbers and stones I have prepared, and to them you will add. 15 And with you in abundance are doers of work: stonecutters and craftsmen of stone and wood, and every skillful one in every work. 16 Of the gold, of the silver, and of the bronze and of the iron there is no number. Arise and act, and may the LORD be with you."

David's Charge to the Leaders

17 And David commanded all the officials of Israel to help Solomon his son: 18 "Is not the LORD your God with you? And He has given you rest all around, for He has given into my hand the inhabitants of the land, and the land has been subdued before the LORD and before His people. 19 Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; and arise and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD and the holy articles of God into the house that will be built for the name of the LORD."

1 CHRONICLES 23

The Levites Counted

1 And David was old and satisfied with days, and he made Solomon (Shelomo) his son king over Israel (Yisra'el). 2 And he gathered all the leaders of Israel and the priests and the Levites. 3 And the Levites were counted from the age of thirty years and upward; and their number by their heads, of men, was thirty-eight thousand. 4 Of these, to oversee the work of the house of the LORD were twenty-four thousand, 22:2 the sojourners who were in the land of Israel Foreigners living among Israel. Solomon later used them as laborers for the temple (2 Chr 2:17-18).

22:5 Solomon my son is a youth and tender Young and untried. The house had to be magnificent to show the nations what kind of God Israel served. Told no by God, David did not sulk. He found the part he could do and gave it everything.
22:8 you have shed much blood on the earth before Me Chronicles tells this here for the first time. David's wars were not sinful in themselves; God sent him and gave the victory (18:6, 13). But the temple was a house of rest and peace, to be built by a man of peace.
22:9 Solomon will be his name Shelomoh sounds like shalom, peace. God named him before he was born.
22:10 I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever The words of chapter 17, applied to Solomon by name. The greater fulfillment is the Prince of Peace, of whose kingdom and peace there will be no end (Isa 9:6-7).
22:12 may the LORD give you insight and understanding Solomon later asked for exactly this, and God gave it (2 Chr 1:10-12). A father's prayer for his son was answered.
22:13 Be strong and be courageous The words spoken to Joshua when he took up Moses' work (Deut 31:7-8; Josh 1:9). God's work passes from one generation to the next, and the next needs courage. Each king's own blessing depended on walking with God.
22:14 in my affliction I have prepared for the house of the LORD Through hard labor or in spite of troubles. I take the huge amounts as written, while some think they are round royal terms or changed in copying. David gave on a scale no one had seen.
22:16 Arise and act, and may the LORD be with you There comes a time when planning is done and it is time to work.
22:19 set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God First seek, then build. Saul did not seek the LORD (10:13-14). A sanctuary is a holy place set apart for God. The returned exiles had been called to arise and build (Ezra 1:3; Hag 1:8), and the church is God's temple today (1 Cor 3:16-17; Eph 2:21-22).
23:1 David was old and satisfied with days He had lived a full life. First Kings 1 tells of Adonijah's attempt and Solomon's quick anointing. Chronicles gives only the result and tells of a public anointing in 29:22.
23:3 the Levites were counted from the age of thirty years and upward This census was not a sin. David counted men for God's service by God's pattern (Num 4), not to measure his own strength as in chapter 21.
