28 Then they lead Jesus from Caiaphas into the Praetorium; now it was early; and they themselves did not enter into the Praetorium, so that they might not be defiled, but so that they might eat the Passover. 29 Therefore Pilate (Pilatos) went out to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" 30 They answered and said to him, "If this man were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him up to you." 31 Therefore Pilate said to them, "You take Him, and judge Him according to your law." Therefore the Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," 32 so that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled which He spoke, signifying by what death He was about to die. 33 Therefore Pilate entered into the Praetorium again, and called Jesus and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?" 34 Jesus answered him, "Are you saying this from yourself, or did others say it to you concerning Me?" 35 Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your nation and the chief priests delivered You up to me; what did You do?" 36 Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My officers would be fighting, so that I might not be delivered up to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from here." 37 Therefore Pilate said to Him, "So You are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, that I may testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice." 38 Pilate says to Him, "What is truth?" And having said this, he went out again to the Jews, and says to them, "I find no cause in Him. 39 But you have a custom that I release one to you at the Passover; do you wish therefore that I release to you the King of the Jews?" 40 Then they all cried out again, saying, "Not this one, but Barabbas!" 18:20 I spoke openly to the world No secret teaching for an inner circle. Be careful of any teacher who says the real truth is only for those on the inside.
18:21 Question those who have heard what I spoke to them A case was to rest on witnesses (Deut 19:15), not on forcing the accused to testify against himself. This hearing was improper.
18:23 if rightly, why do you strike Me? Calm, righteous dignity. Turning the other cheek (Matt 5:39) does not mean we may never speak up about wrong. It means we do not take revenge.
18:24 Annas sent Him bound to Caiaphas the high priest Matthew and Mark describe that trial: false witnesses, the high priest's demand, and Jesus' confession that He is the Christ, the Son of God (Matt 26:57-68; Mark 14:53-65).
18:25 He denied it and said, "I am not." Inside, Jesus says "I am" and stands firm. Outside, Peter says "I am not" and falls.
18:27 immediately a rooster crowed Just as Jesus said (13:38). The Lord looked at Peter, and Peter wept bitterly (Luke 22:61-62). John leaves the failure in the open, but Peter would be restored (21:15-19), preach boldly and give his life for Jesus. Failure does not have to be final.
18:28 so that they might not be defiled, but so that they might eat the Passover The Praetorium was the Roman governor's headquarters. Entering a Gentile's house would make them unclean, yet they were arranging the murder of an innocent man, straining out a gnat and swallowing a camel (Matt 23:24). The other Gospels call the Last Supper a Passover meal. Some explain this as the meals and sacrifices of the week-long feast, others as different calendars. Either way, the Lamb of God (1:29) died at Passover.
18:29 What accusation do you bring against this man? Pontius Pilate governed Judea about ten years. Every proper trial starts with a charge.
18:30 If this man were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him up to you Trust us, He's guilty. They had no charge that would hold up in a Roman court.
18:31 It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death They did not want a trial but an execution, and under Rome only the Romans could carry out the death penalty.
18:32 signifying by what death He was about to die The Jewish method would have been stoning. Handed to the Romans, Jesus was crucified, lifted up, exactly as He said (12:32). Even the political details were in God's hands.
18:33 Are You the King of the Jews? The leaders accused Him of claiming to be Christ, a King (Luke 23:2). To a Roman governor anyone claiming to be king was a possible rebel against Caesar.
18:34 Are you saying this from yourself What kind of king did Pilate have in mind, a political rebel, or who Jesus really is?
18:35 Your nation and the chief priests delivered You up to me He came to His own, and His own did not receive Him (1:11).
18:36 My kingdom is not of this world Its source and authority come from heaven, not armies or politics. If it did not, His servants would fight, as Peter tried. This does not mean His kingdom has nothing to do with the earth. The day is coming when "the kingdoms of the world have become those of our Lord and of His Christ" (Rev 11:15), and He will reign on earth a thousand years (Rev 20:4-6). He will establish it Himself, not His followers with swords.
18:37 For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world "Born" speaks of His birth as a man, "come into the world" of where He came from before it. Pilate thought he was judging Jesus, but Jesus was inviting Pilate to hear the truth (10:27).
18:38 What is truth? We do not know if Pilate sneered, sighed or longed. He did not wait for an answer and walked out on the One who is the truth (14:6). Many still ask Pilate's question and walk away before the answer comes. "I find no cause in Him" is the first of three times he says it (19:4, 6). The Lamb was without blemish.
18:40 Now Barabbas was a robber Mark says he took part in an uprising and committed murder (Mark 15:7). Barabbas means son of the father. A guilty murderer goes free, and the innocent Son of the Father takes his place. We are Barabbas. We deserved the cross, and Jesus died in our place.

Barabbas was a robber.

Condemned to Die

1 Then therefore Pilate (Pilatos) took Jesus (Iesous) and flogged Him. 2 And the soldiers, having woven a crown of thorns, put it on His head, and threw a purple robe around Him; 3 and they were saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they were giving Him slaps. 4 Therefore Pilate went outside again and says to them, "Look, I am bringing Him out to you, so that you may know that I find no cause in Him." 5 Therefore Jesus went outside, wearing the thorny crown and the purple robe. And he says to them, "Look, the man!" 6 Therefore when the chief priests and the officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify, crucify!" Pilate says to them, "You take Him and crucify Him; for I find no cause in Him." 7 The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to our law He ought to die, because He made Himself Son of God." 8 Therefore when Pilate heard this word, he was more afraid, 9 and he entered into the Praetorium again and says to Jesus, "Where are You from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. 10 Therefore Pilate says to Him, "Do You not speak to me? Do You not know that I have authority to crucify You, and I have authority to release You?" 11 Jesus answered, "You would have no authority against Me at all, unless it had been given to you from above; because of this, the one who delivers Me up to you has greater sin." 12 From this Pilate was seeking to release Him; but the Jews were crying out, saying, "If you release this man, you are not a friend of Caesar; everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar." 13 Therefore Pilate, having heard this word, brought Jesus outside, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called the Pavement (Lithostrotos), and in Hebrew, Gabbatha. 14 Now it was the Preparation of the Passover, and it was about the sixth hour. And he says to the Jews, "Look, your King!" 15 But they cried out, "Take Him away, take Him away, crucify Him!" Pilate says to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king except Caesar." 16 Then therefore he delivered Him up to them so that He might be crucified. Now they took Jesus and led Him away.

The Crucifixion

17 And bearing His cross, He went out to the place called Place of a Skull, which is called in Hebrew Golgotha, 18 where they crucified Him, and with Him two others, on this side and on that side, and Jesus in the middle. 19 And Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the cross. And it was written, "Jesus the Nazarene, the King of the Jews."

19:1 Pilate took Jesus and flogged Him Pilate had found no guilt (18:38) and seems to have hoped a brutal beating would satisfy the crowd. The Roman scourge had several leather straps, often weighted with bone or metal, that tore the back. Men sometimes died from it before reaching a cross. Every stripe on His back was for you and me (Isa 53:5).
19:2 having woven a crown of thorns, put it on His head, and threw a purple robe around Him Purple was the costly color of kings. They mocked the One through whom all things were made (1:1-3). The hands that made the thorn bush were struck by men He created, and He took it in silence.
19:5 Look, the man! I believe Pilate meant, does this beaten man look like a threat to anyone? He was trying to win pity. But Jesus is the Man, the one perfect human being, the second Adam (Rom 5:12-19). The world was looking at its Creator and did not recognize Him (1:10).
19:6 Crucify, crucify! The priests led the cry. For the third time Pilate found no guilt (18:38; 19:4), yet he did not set Jesus free.
19:7 He made Himself Son of God The real charge comes out, the law against blasphemy (Lev 24:16). They understood exactly what He claimed: equality with God (5:18; 10:30-33). If false, He was a blasphemer. If true, they were condemning their own God.
19:9 Where are You from? Romans were superstitious about sons of the gods, and Pilate's wife had warned him (Matt 27:19). He wanted to know if Jesus was more than a man. Pilate had already brushed off the truth (18:38), and Jesus was silent before His accusers as Isaiah foretold (Isa 53:7).
19:10 I have authority to crucify You, and I have authority to release You This is how the world thinks: whoever holds the keys, the money or the soldiers is in charge.
19:11 unless it had been given to you from above Pilate's authority was real but borrowed. God rules over every ruler (Rom 13:1; Dan 4:17). The one who delivered Jesus up is most likely Caiaphas (11:49-53; 18:24, 28), though some say Judas. Pilate was guilty, but the one who knew the Scriptures and rejected the Messiah had greater guilt. The more light we have, the more we are accountable.
19:12 you are not a friend of Caesar A title of honor for loyal officials. They threatened to report Pilate to Rome for freeing a so-called king. His career meant more to him than justice.
19:13 The Pavement, and in Hebrew, Gabbatha The judgment seat was where a governor gave his verdict. Both names, Greek and the everyday Aramaic, show John writing as an eyewitness about real places.
19:14 it was about the sixth hour Many believe Jesus was sentenced on the very day the Passover lambs were prepared, others take it as the Friday of Passover week (18:28). Either way, "our Passover was sacrificed for us: Christ" (1 Cor 5:7). Mark 15:25 says the third hour. Some think John counted from midnight, others that both writers rounded to blocks of the day. The Gospels agree He was condemned in the morning and died that afternoon, the day before the Sabbath.
19:15 We have no king except Caesar For centuries Israel confessed the LORD as King (Judg 8:23; 1 Sam 8:7). Now the men who led worship in God's temple chose a pagan emperor over their Messiah. When we reject Jesus, we always end up bowing to some other king.
19:16 he delivered Him up to them so that He might be crucified Pilate knew Jesus was innocent and condemned Him anyway. Millions still confess in the Apostles' Creed that Jesus suffered under Pontius Pilate. He tried to stay neutral and found out you cannot.
19:17 bearing His cross Condemned men carried their crossbeam. Along the way Simon of Cyrene was made to carry it (Mark 15:21), most likely because Jesus was too weak after the scourging. Calvary comes from the Latin for skull. The place was outside the walls, as the sin offering was burned outside the camp (Lev 16:27; Heb 13:11-12).
19:18 where they crucified Him, and with Him two others His first readers had seen crosses along Roman roads. It was Rome's most shameful and painful death, often slow over many hours. Placed between criminals, He was numbered with transgressors (Isa 53:12). The sinless One died among sinners, right where He came to rescue us.

20 Therefore many of the Jews read this title, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Greek, in Latin. 21 Therefore the chief priests of the Jews were saying to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but that He said, 'I am King of the Jews.'" 22 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written." 23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took His garments and made four parts, to each soldier a part, and also the tunic. Now the tunic was seamless, woven from the top throughout the whole. 24 Therefore they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but let us cast lots for it to see whose it will be," so that the Scripture might be fulfilled which says, "They divided My garments among themselves, and for My clothing they cast a lot." Therefore the soldiers indeed did these things. 25 But by the cross of Jesus were standing His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary (Maria) of Clopas (Klopas), and Mary the Magdalene. 26 Therefore Jesus, having seen His mother, and the disciple whom He was loving standing by, says to His mother, "Woman, look, your son!" 27 Then He says to the disciple, "Look, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home. 28 After this, Jesus, knowing that all things have now been finished, so that the Scripture might be accomplished, says, "I am thirsty." 29 Therefore a vessel full of sour wine was set there; and they, having filled a sponge with sour wine and having put it around hyssop, brought it to His mouth. 30 Therefore when Jesus had received the sour wine, He said, "It has been finished." And having bowed His head, He delivered up the spirit.

His Side Pierced

31 Therefore the Jews, since it was the Preparation, so that the bodies might not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for the day of that Sabbath was a great one), asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. 32 Therefore the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with Him. 33 But having come to Jesus, when they saw Him already dead, they did not break His legs; 34 but one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. 35 And the one who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true; and that one knows that he says true things, so that you may believe. 36 For these things took place so that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of His will not be broken." 37 And again another Scripture says, "They will look on Him whom they pierced."

19:20 it was written in Hebrew, in Greek, in Latin Rome posted the crime of the condemned. Hebrew for the Jews, Latin for Rome's government, Greek for the common people of the east. Jerusalem was packed with pilgrims. Without meaning to, Pilate preached a short sermon to the world: Jesus is King over all people.

19:22 What I have written, I have written Perhaps Pilate's way of getting back at them for forcing his hand. Whatever his reason, God kept the truth nailed above His Son's head.

19:23 the tunic was seamless, woven from the top throughout the whole Executioners got the victim's clothes. The tunic, worn next to the skin, was one piece, so they cast lots rather than tear it.

19:24 They divided My garments among themselves From Psalm 22:18, written by David about a thousand years earlier. That psalm opens with the cry Jesus made from the cross (Ps 22:1; Matt 27:46) and describes pierced hands and feet and mocking crowds. The soldiers had never read it. They were gambling, and did exactly what God said would be done.

19:25 by the cross of Jesus were standing His mother The disciples had scattered (16:32), but these women stayed near a Roman cross with soldiers all around. It may be three women or four. I lean toward four, with "His mother's sister" possibly Salome, mother of James and John (Mark 15:40; Matt 27:56), but the text does not say for certain.

19:26 Woman, look, your son! Dying, Jesus cared for His mother. "Woman" was respectful (2:4). His brothers did not yet believe (7:5), so He gave Mary to John, who shared her faith. Caring for our parents is part of following Christ (Exod 20:12; 1 Tim 5:4, 8).

19:28 I am thirsty Fully aware at every moment, He fulfilled Scripture (Ps 69:21; 22:15). The One who offered living water (4:10-14) and promised that those who come to Him will never thirst (6:35) thirsted Himself. He took our thirst so we could drink freely.

19:29 having put it around hyssop Sour wine was the cheap, vinegary drink of soldiers and workers. Hyssop was the plant Israel used to put the Passover lamb's blood on their doorposts (Exod 12:22). John quietly shows Jesus as the true Passover Lamb.

19:30 It has been finished One Greek word, tetelestai, it has been completed. Not a defeated man saying I'm finished, but a winner saying it is done. The work the Father gave Him was complete (4:34; 17:4), and the payment for sin was made in full. Nothing more needs to be added, not by us, any priest or any good works (Heb 10:12-14). He bowed His head and gave up His spirit when His work was done, not a moment before (10:17-18).

19:31 the day of that Sabbath was a great one The Sabbath of Passover week. A hanged body was not to remain overnight (Deut 21:22-23). A crucified man had to push up with his legs to breathe, so breaking them brought death quickly. They were careful about rules on the very day they demanded the death of the Son of God.

19:33 when they saw Him already dead, they did not break His legs Roman soldiers saw death every day and knew a dead man when they saw one. Jesus did not faint on the cross, as some skeptics claim. He died.

19:34 immediately blood and water came out Doctors have offered different medical explanations, and I will not try to settle them. John saw it, and it proves Jesus truly died. Some also see a picture of cleansing and forgiveness (1 John 5:6-8). John's main point is plain: the Son of God really died, and He died for us.

19:35 the one who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true John steps in as a witness under oath. He was there and wrote it "so that you may believe," the purpose of the whole book (20:31). This is eyewitness testimony, not legend.

19:36 A bone of His will not be broken No bone of the Passover lamb was to be broken (Exod 12:46; Num 9:12), and Psalm 34:20 says the LORD keeps all the righteous man's bones. The men beside Him had their legs broken. He did not.

19:37 They will look on Him whom they pierced From Zechariah 12:10. Years later John wrote that when Jesus comes with the clouds, "every eye will see Him, and those who pierced Him" (Rev 1:7). The One pierced on the cross is the One coming again.

19:38 Joseph from Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but concealed because of the fear of the Jews A rich council member (Matt 27:57; Mark 15:43). When the cause looked lost, he stepped forward and tied his name to a condemned man. Sometimes the cross does what nothing else could.

(Arimathaia), being a disciple of Jesus, but concealed because of the fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate gave permission. Therefore he came and took away the body of Jesus. 39 And Nicodemus (Nikodemos) also came, the one who at the first had come to Jesus by night, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, approximately 75 pounds (about a hundred litras).
40 Therefore they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, even as it is the custom among the Jews to prepare for burial. 41 Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. 42 Therefore there, because of the Preparation of the Jews, since the tomb was near, they laid Jesus.

The Empty Tomb

1 Now on the first day of the week Mary (Maria) the Magdalene comes early to the tomb, it still being dark, and she sees the stone taken away from the tomb. 2 Therefore she runs and comes to Simon Peter (Petros) and to the other disciple whom Jesus (Iesous) was loving dearly, and says to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him." 3 Therefore Peter went out, and the other disciple, and they were coming to the tomb. 4 Now the two were running together; and the other disciple ran ahead more quickly than Peter and came first to the tomb; 5 and having stooped down, he sees the linen cloths lying there; however, he did not enter. 6 Then Simon Peter comes, following him, and he entered into the tomb; and he sees the linen cloths lying there, 7 and the face cloth which had been on His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded up in one place by itself. 8 Then therefore the other disciple also, who had come first to the tomb, entered, and he saw and believed. 9 For they did not yet know the Scripture, that He must rise out from the dead. 10 Therefore the disciples went away again to their own homes.

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

11 But Mary was standing at the tomb outside, weeping. Therefore as she was weeping, she stooped down and looked into the tomb, 12 and she sees two angels in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had been lying. 13 And they say to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She says to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him." 14 And having said these things, she turned backward, and she sees Jesus standing there, and she did not know that it was Jesus. 15 Jesus says to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" She, thinking that He was the gardener, says to Him, "Sir, if You have carried Him off, tell me where You have laid Him, and I will take Him away."

19:39 And Nicodemus also came The man who came by night (3:1-2) and spoke up before the council (7:50-51). About seventy-five pounds of spices was an enormous amount, a burial fit for a king. Both men had been afraid, and both came forward at the cross. If you have been a quiet, secret believer, it is not too late to stand up for Jesus.
19:40 even as it is the custom among the Jews to prepare for burial The Jews did not embalm as the Egyptians did. The spices covered the smell and showed love and honor.
19:41 a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid Joseph's own tomb (Matt 27:60), fulfilling Isaiah 53:9 that the Servant would be with a rich man in His death. Sin began in a garden, Eden, and our rescue reached its turning point in a garden. The tomb was new and empty, and very soon it would be empty again.
20:1 on the first day of the week Mary the Magdalene comes early to the tomb Sunday. Buried Friday before sundown, Jesus lay in the tomb through the Sabbath and rose early Sunday. That is why Christians from the earliest days have gathered on the first day, the Lord's Day (Acts 20:7; Rev 1:10). Jesus had cast seven demons out of Mary (Luke 8:2). She stood at the cross (19:25), and now she was first at the tomb. Other women came too (Mark 16:1).
20:2 They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb Her first thought was that the body was stolen. Nobody was expecting a resurrection. The disciples did not make up a story they wanted to be true. They were grieving, confused and hiding. Only the facts changed their minds.
20:4 the other disciple ran ahead more quickly than Peter It adds nothing to the doctrine, but it is exactly what a man remembers sixty years later: I beat Peter to the tomb.
20:5 however, he did not enter Stunned, perhaps, or hesitating out of respect, or because touching a grave made a Jew unclean (Num 19:16). The text does not say.
20:7 the face cloth which had been on His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded up in one place by itself Grave robbers do not unwrap a body and leave the cloths neatly behind. Linen soaked in about seventy-five pounds of spices (19:39) would have stuck to the body, and a thief would have taken it wrappings and all. No one stole Jesus. He left them behind.
20:8 he saw and believed He did not see Jesus yet. He saw the empty tomb and the grave clothes and put it together. John is the first in this Gospel to believe in the resurrection, on the evidence before him.
20:9 they did not yet know the Scripture, that He must rise out from the dead The Old Testament spoke of it (Ps 16:10; Isa 53:10-12), and Jesus told them many times (Mark 8:31; 2:19-22). Only afterward did the pieces fall into place (Luke 24:25-27, 44-46). God is patient with slow learners.
20:11 Mary was standing at the tomb outside, weeping She stayed after the men left. She did not understand, but she did not leave. Sometimes faithfulness simply means staying close to Jesus when you are confused and hurting.
20:12 one at the head and one at the feet Some see the mercy seat on the ark, with a cherub at each end, where the blood of atonement was sprinkled (Exod 25:17-22). John does not say so, and I hold it loosely, but the place where Jesus lay had become the meeting place of God's mercy.
20:13 Woman, why are you weeping? The best news in history was in front of her, but she was so wrapped in grief she did not even seem startled by angels. Grief can blind us to what God is doing.
20:14 she did not know that it was Jesus Tears, early light, and no expectation of seeing Him alive. Others also did not know Him at first (Luke 24:16; 21:4). His risen body was real and physical, but it seems changed in some way.
20:15 thinking that He was the gardener The tomb was in a garden (19:41). She was ready to carry a grown man's body by herself. That is love.

16 Jesus says to her, "Mary!" She, having turned, says to Him, "Rabbouni!" which is to say, "Teacher!" 17 Jesus says to her, "Do not touch Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father; but go to My brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to My Father and your Father, and to My God and your God.'" 18 Mary the Magdalene comes, announcing to the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that He had said these things to her.

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

19 Therefore, it being evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors having been shut where the disciples were assembled because of the fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and says to them, "Peace to you." 20 And having said this, He showed them His hands and side. Therefore the disciples rejoiced, having seen the Lord. 21 Therefore Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you; even as the Father has sent Me, I also send you." 22 And having said this, He breathed on them, and says to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. 23 If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they have been retained."

Jesus and Thomas

24 But Thomas, one of the twelve, who is called Didymus (Didymos), was not with them when Jesus came.
25 Therefore the other disciples were saying to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in His hands the mark of the nails, and put my finger into the mark of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will certainly not believe." 26 And after eight days His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus comes, the doors having been shut, and He stood in the midst and said, "Peace to you." 27 Then He says to Thomas, "Bring your finger here, and see My hands; and bring your hand, and put it into My side; and do not be unbelieving, but believing." 28 And Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!" 29 Jesus says to him, "Because you have seen Me, Thomas, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Why This Book Was Written

30 Therefore Jesus indeed also did many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book; 31 but these have been written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name.

20:16 Mary! One word and she knew Him. Rabbouni is a warmer, more personal form of Rabbi. The Good Shepherd calls His own sheep by name (10:3). The risen Lord knows your name too.
20:17 Do not touch Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father The word means to cling to. She had lost Him once and did not want to let go. Things were different now. He would return to the Father and send the Spirit, and be with all His people everywhere (14:16-18; 16:7). For the first time He calls the disciples brothers. Yet He says "My Father and your Father," not our Father. He is Son by nature, and we become children by adoption through faith (1:12; Rom 8:15).
20:18 Mary the Magdalene comes, announcing to the disciples that she had seen the Lord The first to announce the resurrection. A woman's testimony carried little weight then. No one making up this story would have chosen a woman, once demon-possessed, as the first witness. The Gospels record it because it happened.
20:19 Peace to you Behind shut doors for fear of the leaders, they expected to be next. Locked doors did not stop Him. These men had abandoned Him, and Peter had denied Him three times. He came not with a rebuke but with shalom, keeping His promise (14:27).
20:20 He showed them His hands and side Not a ghost or a vision, but the same body that was crucified, now raised and glorified. He even ate fish before them (Luke 24:39-43). Their grief was turned into joy, as He promised (16:20-22).
20:21 even as the Father has sent Me, I also send you Peace is not only to keep but to carry to others (17:18). If you belong to Christ, you have been sent to your family, workplace and neighborhood.
20:22 He breathed on them, and says to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit." As God breathed the breath of life into Adam (Gen 2:7), the risen Lord breathes new life into His people. Some see this as only a promise of Pentecost, others as the full giving of the Spirit with Pentecost a later outpouring of power. I believe He gave the Spirit in a real way that night as a first gift and foretaste, with the full outpouring for their mission at Pentecost (Acts 1:8).
20:23 If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them Badly misused, so read it carefully. Only God forgives sins (Mark 2:7). Sent with His message and His Spirit (20:21-22), they can say with full authority to one who repents and believes, your sins are forgiven, and to one who rejects the gospel, your sins remain. "They have been retained" points to a matter already settled in heaven. The disciples declare what God has done. This belongs to the whole church as it carries the gospel, not to a special class of priests.
20:24 Thomas, one of the Twelve, who is called Didymus, was not with them We do not know why he was missing, but he missed seeing the risen Lord with the others. A warning about staying away from the gathering of believers (Heb 10:25).
20:25 Unless I see in His hands the mark of the nails Calling him doubting Thomas is a little unfair. The others did not believe Mary until they saw Him (Luke 24:11). Thomas was honest about his doubt and brave (11:16). He wanted the truth, and Jesus did not turn him away.
20:26 after eight days The next Sunday. The risen Lord met with His people on the first day of the week two Sundays in a row.
20:27 Bring your finger here, and see My hands Jesus had not been in the room when Thomas spoke, but He knew every word. He knows our doubts too. He does not scold honest seekers. He meets them where they are and calls them to faith.
20:28 My Lord and my God! The Bible does not say he ever touched the wounds. Seeing was enough. John began, "the Word was God" (1:1), and near the end a disciple calls the risen Jesus God, the clearest confession of His deity in the Gospels. A good man or prophet would have corrected him (Acts 14:11-15; Rev 19:10). Jesus did not, because it was true.
20:29 Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed Jesus was speaking of you and me. We have the written testimony of those who were there. "Not having seen Him, you love" (1 Pet 1:8). If you have trusted Christ on His Word, that blessing is yours.
20:31 these have been written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God John's purpose for the whole book. What to believe: that Jesus is the Messiah and the Son of God. How: by believing, a word used here far more than in the other Gospels, meaning trust and full reliance on Him. The result: life in His name, eternal life that starts now and never ends (3:16; 5:24; 17:3). Have you believed?

Breakfast by the Sea

1 After these things Jesus (Iesous) revealed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias; and He revealed Himself in this way. 2 There were together Simon Peter (Petros), and Thomas who is called Didymus (Didymos), and Nathanael from Cana (Kana) of Galilee (Galilaia), and the sons of Zebedee (Zebedaios), and two others of His disciples. 3 Simon Peter says to them, "I am going to fish." They say to him, "We also are coming with you." They went out and immediately went up into the boat; and in that night they caught nothing. 4 Now when morning had already come, Jesus stood on the shore; however, the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. 5 Therefore Jesus says to them, "Children, you do not have any fish, do you?" They answered Him, "No." 6 And He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." Therefore they cast, and they were no longer able to haul it in because of the multitude of the fish. 7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus was loving says to Peter, "It is the Lord!" Therefore Simon Peter, having heard that it was the Lord, tied on the outer garment, for he was naked, and cast himself into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the little boat, for they were not far from the land, but approximately 300 feet (two hundred cubits) away, dragging the net of fish. 9 Therefore when they got out onto the land, they see a fire of coals lying there, and fish lying on it, and bread. 10 Jesus says to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have now caught." 11 Simon Peter went up and drew the net onto the land, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not torn. 12 Jesus says to them, "Come, have breakfast." But none of the disciples was daring to question Him, "Who are You?" knowing that it was the Lord. 13 Therefore Jesus comes and takes the bread and gives it to them, and the fish likewise. 14 This was now a third time Jesus was revealed to His disciples, having been raised out from the dead.

Jesus Restores Peter

15 Therefore when they had had breakfast, Jesus says to Simon Peter, "Simon son of Jonah (Ionas), do you love Me more than these?" He says to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You dearly." He says to him, "Feed My lambs." 16 He says to him again, a second time, "Simon son of Jonah, do you love Me?" He says to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I love You dearly." He says to him, "Shepherd My sheep." 17 He says to him the third time, "Simon son of Jonah, do you love Me dearly?" Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, "Do you love Me dearly?" And he said to Him, "Lord, You know all things; You know that I love You dearly."

21:1 Jesus revealed Himself again to the disciples at the Sea of Tiberias Some time after the Jerusalem appearances the disciples went north to Galilee, as He told them (Matt 28:7, 10). The risen Jesus was not always visibly with them. He appeared at different times over forty days (Acts 1:3).
21:2 Thomas who is called Didymus, and Nathanael from Cana of Galilee The doubter of chapter 20 is now in the fellowship. Nathanael was promised he would see "greater things" (1:50), and he was about to see some. The sons of Zebedee are James and John.
21:3 I am going to fish Some think Peter was quitting and going back to his old life, others that he was waiting for Jesus' next word and needed to eat. The text does not tell us his heart. Night was the usual time to fish. Experienced men in familiar water came up empty. Without Him we can do nothing (15:5).
21:4 the disciples did not know that it was Jesus They were about a hundred yards out in early light and not looking for Him. As with Mary (20:14), He was there before they knew Him.
21:5 Children, you do not have any fish, do you? A friendly word, something like lads. Sometimes the Lord asks questions so we will admit we have come up empty on our own.
21:6 Cast the net on the right side of the boat In Luke 5:1-11 another night of empty nets ended in a huge catch, the day Jesus first called Peter to be a fisher of men. Now, after Peter's failure, Jesus repeats the miracle, as if to say, let's start over, Peter.
21:7 It is the Lord! John recognized Him first, as he first believed at the tomb (20:8). Peter acted first. He had denied the Lord three times, yet he did not hide from Him. He swam straight to Him. If you have failed Jesus, do not run from Him. Run to Him.
21:9 they see a fire of coals lying there, and fish lying on it, and bread Jesus made breakfast before they arrived. The only other charcoal fire in the New Testament is the one where Peter denied Him (18:18). I do not think that is an accident. Jesus would heal those memories in the same kind of setting where Peter fell.
21:10 Bring some of the fish which you have now caught He already had fish on the fire. He gives us everything, and then lets us share in His work.
21:11 full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three People have looked for hidden meanings in 153 for centuries. I take it plainly. Fishermen count their catch, and John remembered a huge haul. The unbroken net reminds us that what Jesus provides, He also preserves.
21:12 Come, have breakfast One of the most tender invitations in the Bible. The Lord of glory cooked breakfast for tired fishermen. Something about Him seemed different, yet they had no doubt it was Him.
21:13 takes the bread and gives it to them, and the fish likewise As when He fed the five thousand by this same sea (6:11). He is still the Bread of Life (6:35) and feeds His people with His own hands.
21:14 This was now a third time Jesus was revealed to His disciples The third appearance to the group (20:19, 26). He also appeared to individuals, and to more than five hundred at once (1 Cor 15:5-8). The resurrection was seen many times, by many people.
21:15 Simon son of Jonah, do you love Me more than these? Not Peter but his old name (1:42), perhaps a gentle reminder of how far he had fallen. "These" may mean the boats and nets, or the other disciples. I lean toward the second. Peter had boasted that even if all fell away, he would not (Matt 26:33). Now he answers humbly and compares himself to no one.
21:16 Shepherd My sheep To lead, guard and feed. Jesus, the Good Shepherd (10:11), made Peter an under-shepherd. Peter never forgot it. He told elders to "shepherd the flock of God" (1 Pet 5:2) and pointed to "the Chief Shepherd" (1 Pet 5:4).
21:17 Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time Three denials, three confessions. Peter could no longer trust his own boasting, only that Jesus saw his heart. Jesus first asks with agapao and Peter answers with phileo, and the third time Jesus uses phileo. Some see a lowering to Peter's level, while others note John uses both words for the same love (3:35; 5:20). At most it shows Jesus' gentleness. The main point is the threefold restoration.

Jesus says to him, "Feed My sheep. 18 Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were younger, you were dressing yourself and walking where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you and bring you where you do not want." 19 Now this He said, signifying by what death he would glorify God. And having said this, He says to him, "Follow Me."

The Disciple Whom Jesus Loved

20 Peter, having turned around, sees the disciple whom Jesus was loving following, who also had reclined at the supper on His chest and said, "Lord, who is the one who is delivering You up?" 21 Having seen him, Peter says to Jesus, "Lord, and what about this one?" 22 Jesus says to him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me." 23 Therefore this saying went out among the brothers, that that disciple does not die; and Jesus did not say to him that he does not die, but, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you?" 24 This is the disciple who is testifying concerning these things and who wrote these things; and we know that his testimony is true. 25 And there are also many other things, as many as Jesus did, which, if they were written one by one, I suppose not even the world itself would have room for the books being written. Amen.

21:18 you will stretch out your hands A phrase people used for crucifixion. Jesus was telling Peter how he would die.
21:19 signifying by what death he would glorify God By the time John wrote, Peter had died. Early tradition says he was crucified in Rome under Nero, and a later tradition adds that he asked to be crucified upside down, a detail we cannot confirm. Peter knew his death was coming (2 Pet 1:14). "Follow Me" were the first words Jesus said to many disciples (1:43; Mark 1:17). Following Jesus is something we do every day.
21:21 Lord, and what about this one? Told of his own hard death, Peter's first thought was, what about John? We all compare our road to someone else's.
21:22 If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me God has a different plan for each servant. Our job is not to compare but to follow. Jesus spoke plainly of His return in person: first for His church (14:3), then to the earth in power and glory (Rev 19:11-16).
21:23 Jesus did not say to him that he does not die A rumor said John would not die before Jesus returned. He corrects it carefully: it was a what if, not a promise. John lived long and wrote Revelation late in life, but he did die. Read what prophecy actually says, not what people assume. No one knows the day or the hour (Matt 24:36).
21:24 This is the disciple who is testifying concerning these things and who wrote these things John names himself the author, the beloved disciple who was there. "We know" may be the believers or elders around him adding their confirmation. This Gospel is the testimony of one who walked with Jesus.
21:25 not even the world itself would have room for the books being written A wonderful exaggeration. John gave a small selection, chosen with care so we would believe (20:31). There is far more to Jesus than any book can hold, and we will spend eternity getting to know Him.

ACTS

Introduction

Title

Many Bibles call this book The Acts of the Apostles. A better name might be The Acts of the Holy Spirit, because the Spirit is the One doing the work from start to finish. The apostles preach, travel and suffer, but it is the Spirit who gives them power, opens doors and closes them. Acts is the fifth book of the New Testament. It comes right after the four Gospels and picks up where they end, with Jesus risen from the dead, and it sets the stage for the letters that follow.

Author and Date

Acts does not name its author, but it opens by pointing back to "the first account" written to the same man, Theophilus (1:1; Luke 1:1-4). The early church agreed that both books were written by Luke, the beloved physician who traveled with Paul (Col 4:14). In several places Luke switches from "they" to "we" (16:10-17; 20:5-21:18; 27:1-28:16), which tells us he was there for those parts of the story.

Theophilus means friend of God. Luke calls him "most excellent" (Luke 1:3), a title used for high officials, so he may have been a Roman of some rank. Many conservative scholars date Acts around A.D. 60 to 62, because the book ends with Paul still under house arrest in Rome and says nothing about his death or the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70. Most other scholars date it later, usually A.D. 80 to 90. I hold the earlier date, about A.D. 62. If Paul had already been put to death, or the temple had already fallen, it is hard to believe Luke would leave either one out.

Background and Setting

Acts covers about thirty years, from Jesus' ascension (around A.D. 30 to 33) to Paul's two years under house arrest in Rome (around A.D. 60 to 62). The church begins as a group of Jewish believers in Jerusalem, worshiping at the temple and meeting in homes. Judea was under Roman rule, with Roman governors in Caesarea and Herod's family ruling parts of the land. The Sanhedrin, the Jewish ruling council led by the high priest, opposed the apostles from the start.

As the Gospel spread, it moved into the wider Roman world, held together by Roman roads, Roman law and the Greek language. Jews lived in nearly every city, and their synagogues gave Paul his first hearing wherever he went. Gentiles who worshiped Israel's God, called God-fearers, were often the first to believe. Paul made three missionary journeys (about A.D. 46 to 48, 49 to 52, and 53 to 57), then was arrested in Jerusalem, held two years in Caesarea, and sent to Rome as a prisoner (about A.D. 59 to 60).

Themes

Jesus gave the outline of the whole book in one verse: "you will be witnesses to Me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost part of the earth" (1:8). The church starts in Jerusalem (chs. 1-7), spreads through Judea and Samaria (chs. 8-12), and then reaches the Gentile world, ending with Paul preaching in Rome (chs. 13-28).

The Holy Spirit is mentioned more than fifty times. He fills believers and gives them boldness (2:4; 4:31), sends out missionaries (13:2-4), guides where they go and where they do not go (16:6-7), and helps the church settle hard questions (15:28). He brings each new group into the one church: Jews at Pentecost, Samaritans (8:17), Gentiles (10:44-45), and the disciples of John at Ephesus (19:6).

The message is the same for Jew and Gentile: salvation by grace through faith in Jesus, with nothing added (15:11). The Gospel grows through preaching, prayer and suffering, and nothing can stop it, not prison, not mobs, not shipwreck. Acts also has two main characters whose stories line up in ways that are hard to miss. Peter, the apostle to the Jews, and Paul, the apostle to the Gentiles, both heal a man lame from birth (3:1-10; 14:8-10), both are set free from prison (12:6-11; 16:25-26), both face down a sorcerer (8:18-24; 13:6-12), and both raise the dead (9:36-41; 20:9-12). God used the same Spirit and the same message through two very different men.

Christ in Acts

Acts is not really the story of Peter or Paul. It is the story of the risen Jesus building His church by His Spirit, continuing all that He "began both to do and to teach" (1:1). The apostles preach Christ crucified and raised (2:32-36), and "there is not salvation in any other" (4:12). Jesus stands at God's right hand to receive Stephen (7:56), meets Saul on the Damascus road (9:5), and stands by Paul in the barracks at night (23:11). He is the Righteous One the prophets foretold (7:52), the judge of the living and the dead (10:42), and the Lord of all (10:36). He will come again in the same way the disciples watched Him go (1:11).

Hard Passages

Some events in Acts happened once, at turning points in God's plan, while others show a pattern we are meant to follow. Part of studying Acts well is asking which is which. The notes take these questions up as they come: why the Spirit came after a delay in Samaria and Ephesus (8:14-17; 19:1-7), whether tongues and other sign gifts continue today (2:4; 10:46), how baptism relates to forgiveness (2:38; 22:16), and how God's choosing and our believing fit together (13:48).

Stephen's sermon raises questions of numbers and burial places (7:4, 14-16). The accounts of Paul's conversion differ on what the men with him heard (9:7; 22:9). Some readers wonder whether Paul compromised by circumcising Timothy and joining a vow in the temple (16:3; 21:26), or disobeyed the Spirit by going to Jerusalem (21:4). Where good teachers disagree, the notes name the views. A few verses found in the SLB, as in the King James Version, are missing from the earliest manuscripts (8:37; 15:34; 24:6-8; 28:29), and the notes point these out.

The Promise of the Spirit

1 The first account indeed I composed, O Theophilus (Theophilos), concerning all things which Jesus (Iesous) began both to do and to teach, 2 until the day when, having given orders through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He had chosen, He was taken up; 3 to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering by many clear proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking the things concerning the kingdom of God. 4 And being assembled together with them, He instructed them not to depart from Jerusalem (Hierosolyma), but to await the promise of the Father, "which," He said, "you heard from Me; 5 for John (Ioannes) indeed baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days after these." 6 So then those who had come together were asking Him, saying,
"Lord, are You at this time restoring the kingdom to Israel?"
7 And He said to them, "It is not yours to know times or seasons which the Father has set by His own authority. 8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be witnesses to Me both in Jerusalem (Hierousalem) and in all Judea (Ioudaia) and Samaria (Samareia), and to the uttermost part of the earth." 9 And having said these things, while they were looking, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him from their eyes. 10 And as they were looking intently into heaven as He was going, then look, two men stood by them in white clothing, 11 who also said, "Galilean men, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same manner as you watched Him going into heaven."

12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet (Elaion), which is near Jerusalem, being a Sabbath's journey away. 13 And when they had entered, they went up into the upper room where they were staying: both Peter (Petros) and James (Iakobos) and John and Andrew (Andreas), Philip (Philippos) and Thomas, Bartholomew (Bartholomaios) and Matthew (Matthaios), James son of Alphaeus (Alphaios) and Simon the Zealot, and Judas (Ioudas) son of James. 14 These all were steadfastly continuing with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women and Mary (Maria) the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers.

1:13 Acts 20:8; Luke 22:12; Matt 10:2-4
1:14 Acts 6:4; Eph 6:18; Acts 2:1,42,46

1:1 The first account indeed I composed, O Theophilus Luke wrote this book and his Gospel, "the first account," to the same man. Theophilus means friend of God or loved by God. He may have been a Roman official, since Luke calls him "most excellent" (Luke 1:3), or a new believer. Luke's Gospel told what Jesus "began" to do and teach. Acts tells what He kept on doing through His Spirit and His church.

1:2 the apostles whom He had chosen An apostle is one sent with the authority of the one who sent him. These men did not pick themselves. Jesus chose and trained them for about three years. Even the Son of God did His earthly work in the power of the Spirit. How much more do we need Him?

1:3 by many clear proofs, appearing to them during forty days Real and physical proofs. He ate with them and let them touch Him (Luke 24:39-43), and He appeared to more than five hundred at once (1 Cor 15:6). The resurrection was a fact seen by many witnesses. Forty is often a time of testing or preparing in Scripture. In His last days He spoke of the kingdom of God.

1:5 you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days after these The promise of the Father (Luke 24:49; John 14-16) came about ten days later at Pentecost. Sometimes God's first instruction is to wait. We cannot do His work without His power, and His timing is always right.

1:6 Lord, are You at this time restoring the kingdom to Israel? A fair question. The prophets promised God would restore the kingdom to Israel with the Messiah on David's throne (Isa 9:6-7; Jer 23:5-6; Amos 9:11). Some teach the disciples were confused and God is finished with Israel. I don't believe that. Jesus does not deny there will be a kingdom for Israel. He only says the timing is not theirs to know.

1:7 It is not yours to know times or seasons As in Matthew 24:36, no one knows the day or the hour. People have set dates for Christ's return again and again, and every one has been wrong. Our job is not to calculate. Our job is the next verse.

1:8 you will be witnesses to Me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost part of the earth The outline of the book: Jerusalem (chapters 1-7), Judea and Samaria (8-12), the ends of the earth (13-28). A witness tells what he has seen and heard. The Greek martus later gave us martyr, because so many of these witnesses died for their testimony. Being a witness is who we are, not only what we do. The power is the Spirit's, the message is Jesus, and the field is the world, starting where we live.

1:9 He was taken up, and a cloud received Him from their eyes The Ascension, near Bethany on the Mount of Olives as He blessed them (Luke 24:50-51). He went up bodily, in the body they had touched. A cloud often shows God's glory (Luke 9:34-35). He now sits at the Father's right hand and speaks to Him for us (Heb 7:25).

1:11 This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same manner The two men were angels, as at the tomb (Luke 24:4). He left bodily, visibly and in the clouds, and He will return the same way (Rev 1:7; 19:11). His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives (Zech 14:4). I believe this is His Second Coming to the earth at the end of the Tribulation, and that before it He comes for His church (1 Thess 4:16-17). The angels' point is plain: don't stand looking up. He is coming back, so get to work.

1:12 a Sabbath's journey away Jewish teachers limited Sabbath walking to about two thousand cubits, a little over half a mile. Luke means the Mount of Olives is close to the city. They went back "with great joy" (Luke 24:52), sure He was alive and had kept every promise.

1:13 the upper room where they were staying We don't know whose house it was, perhaps the room of the Last Supper or the home of Mary, John Mark's mother (12:12). Simon the Zealot may have once belonged to the Zealots, Jewish nationalists who wanted to overthrow Rome by force, and Matthew had collected taxes for Rome. In Christ, men who would have been enemies became brothers.

1:14 with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers The last time Mary is named in the Bible, and she is praying with the church. His brothers, the later sons of Mary and Joseph, did not believe during His ministry (John 7:5). The risen Jesus appeared to James (1 Cor 15:7). James later led the Jerusalem church and wrote James, and Jude wrote Jude. Nothing convinces a skeptic like meeting the risen Lord.

15 And in these days Peter, having stood up in the midst of the disciples, said (and the crowd of names together was about a hundred and twenty), 16 "Men, brothers, it was necessary for this Scripture to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit foretold through the mouth of David (Dabid) concerning Judas, who became guide to those who arrested Jesus; 17 for he was numbered with us and obtained the lot of this ministry. 18 (Now this man indeed acquired a field out of the wages of unrighteousness, and having fallen headlong, he burst open in the middle, and all his intestines gushed out. 19 And it became known to all those dwelling in Jerusalem, so that that field was called in their own language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.) 20 For it has been written in the book of Psalms, 'Let his homestead become desolate, and let there not be one dwelling in it,' and, 'May another take his office.' 21 Therefore it is necessary, of the men who accompanied us during all the time in which the Lord Jesus went in and went out among us, 22 beginning from the baptism of John until the day in which He was taken up from us, for one of these to become a witness with us of His resurrection." 23 And they put forward two: Joseph (Ioseph) called Barsabbas (Barsabas), who was surnamed Justus (Ioustos), and Matthias. 24 And having prayed, they said, "You, Lord, knower of the hearts of all, show which one of these two You have chosen 25 to take the lot of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place." 26 And they gave their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was counted together with the eleven apostles.

The Holy Spirit Comes at Pentecost

1 And when the day of Pentecost was being fulfilled, they were all with one accord together. 2 And suddenly there came out of heaven a sound as of a rushing violent wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3 And there appeared to them tongues being distributed, as of fire, and it sat upon each one of them. 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in other tongues, just as the Spirit was giving them to speak forth. 5 Now there were Jews dwelling in Jerusalem (Hierousalem), devout men from every nation of those under heaven. 6 And when this sound occurred, the multitude came together and was confounded, because each one was hearing them speaking in his own language. 7 And they were all amazed and were marveling, saying to one another, "Look, are not all these who are speaking Galileans? 8 And how do we hear, each in our own language in which we were born? 9 Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and those inhabiting Mesopotamia, both Judea (Ioudaia) and Cappadocia (Kappadokia), Pontus (Pontos) and Asia, 10 both Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt (Aigyptos) and the parts of Libya (Libye) that are around Cyrene (Kyrene),

2:9 Gen 24:10; Deut 23:4; Judg 3:8
2:10 Gen 12:10; Isa 19:23; Ezek 30:5

1:15 Peter, having stood up in the midst of the disciples The same Peter who denied Jesus three times. Jesus restored him (John 21:15-19), and now he leads.
1:17 he was numbered with us and obtained the lot of this ministry A man can be close to Jesus, hear His teaching, see His miracles and still not belong to Him. Being near the things of God is not the same as knowing God.
1:19 Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood Aramaic, the everyday language of the Jews then. Matthew 27:3-8 says Judas hanged himself and the priests bought the field with the money he threw back, so in a real sense it was his purchase. Many believe he hanged himself and then the rope or branch gave way. Scripture gives two views of the same terrible end.
1:20 May another take his office From Psalm 69:25 and 109:8, David's words about those who betrayed him, fulfilled in the one who betrayed the Son of David. God's plan was not ruined by one man's sin.
1:22 for one of these to become a witness with us of His resurrection The twelve held a unique office as eyewitnesses of His life and resurrection, the foundation of the church (Eph 2:20). Their names are on the foundations of the New Jerusalem (Rev 21:14). No one today can meet these qualifications.
1:23 Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias The only place either is named in Scripture. Both followed Jesus for years without being mentioned. God sees faithful people the world never hears about.
1:24 show which one of these two You have chosen They did not ask God to bless their choice. They asked Him to show His. Judas "turned aside to go to his own place" (1:25), a quiet but heavy phrase. He chose his own way and went where it led (John 17:12).
1:26 the lot fell on Matthias Casting lots was a way in the Old Testament to let God decide (Lev 16:8; Prov 16:33), not gambling but trusting Him with the result after obeying all they knew. It is the last time lots decide a matter in the Bible. After Pentecost believers are led by the Spirit within. Some ask whether they should have waited for Paul, but Scripture never says they were wrong. Matthias "was counted together with the eleven apostles."
2:1 when the day of Pentecost was being fulfilled One of three feasts when Jewish men came to Jerusalem (Deut 16:16), called the Feast of Weeks (Lev 23:15-21). Pentecost comes from the Greek for fiftieth, fifty days after Passover. It was a harvest feast, when the first loaves of the wheat harvest were offered. Jesus died at Passover as the Passover Lamb (1 Cor 5:7), and the Spirit came at the feast of firstfruits with the first great harvest of souls.
2:2 a sound as of a rushing violent wind Luke is careful: a sound like wind, and tongues "as of fire" (2:3). In Hebrew and Greek the same word can mean breath, wind or spirit (John 3:8). Fire often shows God's presence, as at the burning bush. John said Jesus would baptize "with the Holy Spirit and fire" (Luke 3:16).
2:3 it sat upon each one of them Not on the apostles only but on every believer in the room.
2:4 began to speak in other tongues A tongue here is a language, as the next verses make plain. What Jesus promised (1:5) had come. The Spirit who came on certain people for certain tasks in the Old Testament now lived in every believer. From this day the church is the dwelling place of God's Spirit (1 Cor 3:16; 6:19).
2:5 devout men from every nation of those under heaven Jews by birth and converts, many born in other lands where earlier exiles and trade had scattered them, who spoke those languages. God had gathered an international crowd for this exact day.
2:7 are not all these who are speaking Galileans? Galileans were seen as plain country people with a strong accent (Matt 26:73). These were real human languages, understood by people who spoke them from birth. The miracle was in the speaking.

and the visiting Romans, both Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretans and Arabs, we hear them speaking in our own tongues the great things of God." 12 And they were all amazed and were perplexed, saying one to another, "What would this mean?" 13 But others, mocking, were saying, "They are filled with new wine."

Peter's Sermon

14 But Peter (Petros), having stood up with the eleven, lifted up his voice and spoke forth to them, "Jewish men and all you who inhabit Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my declarations. 15 For these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is the third hour of the day; 16 but this is that which has been spoken through the prophet Joel (Ioel): 17 'And it will be in the last days, says God, I will pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy, and your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams; 18 and even upon My male slaves and upon My female slaves in those days I will pour out of My Spirit, and they will prophesy. 19 And I will give wonders in heaven above and signs on the earth below: blood and fire and vapor of smoke. 20 The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood, before the great and glorious day of the Lord comes. 21 And it will be that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved.'

22 Israelite men, hear these words: Jesus (Iesous) the Nazarene, a man attested to you by God by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did through Him in your midst, just as you yourselves also know, 23 this One, delivered up by the determined plan and foreknowledge of God, you took, and through lawless hands, having crucified Him, you killed; 24 whom God raised up, having loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible for Him to be held by it. 25 For David (Dabid) says concerning Him, 'I was foreseeing the Lord before me continually, because He is at my right hand, that I may not be shaken. 26 Because of this my heart was glad and my tongue rejoiced, and moreover my flesh also will dwell in hope; 27 because You will not abandon my soul to Hades, nor will You give Your Holy One to see decay. 28 You have made known to me paths of life; You will fill me with joy in Your presence.' 29 Men, brothers, it is permitted to speak with boldness to you concerning the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is among us to this day. 30 Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn to him with an oath that out of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, He would raise up the Christ to sit upon his throne, 31 having foreseen this, he spoke concerning the resurrection of the Christ, that His soul was not left to Hades, nor did His flesh see decay. 32 This Jesus God has raised up, of which we all are wit-

2:11 we hear them speaking in our own tongues the great things of God The list runs from the east, through Judea and Asia Minor, to Egypt, Rome, Crete and Arabia. A proselyte was a Gentile who had converted to Judaism, been circumcised and taken up the Law. At Babel God confused man's language and scattered the nations for their pride (Gen 11:1-9). At Pentecost He gave languages to gather people to Himself. Babel divided. Pentecost united, and the end is a crowd from every nation and tongue before the throne (Rev 7:9).
2:13 They are filled with new wine When God moves, some ask honest questions and some mock what they do not understand. We should not be surprised when that happens today.
2:14 Peter, having stood up with the eleven, lifted up his voice Seven weeks earlier he was too afraid to admit to a servant girl that he knew Jesus. Now he preaches Christ boldly before thousands. That is what the Holy Spirit does in a person.
2:15 it is the third hour of the day Hours were counted from sunrise, so about nine in the morning. On a feast day devout Jews would not eat or drink until after the morning time of prayer.
2:17 I will pour out of My Spirit upon all flesh From Joel 2:28-32. In the Old Testament the Spirit came on a few: prophets, priests, kings and judges. Moses wished all the Lord's people were prophets (Num 11:29), and at Pentecost that wish came true, for every believer regardless of age, sex or standing. The last days began at Pentecost and run until Christ returns (Heb 1:1-2; 1 John 2:18). We are living in them now.
2:20 The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood Some of Joel's words were fulfilled that day. The sun did not go dark that morning. I believe these signs are still future. Jesus named them before His return (Matt 24:29-30), and John saw them at the sixth seal (Rev 6:12). Pentecost began Joel's prophecy, and the day of the Lord, God's judgment in the Tribulation and at Christ's return, will finish it. Some teachers say they were fulfilled at the cross (Luke 23:44-45) or in A.D. 70.
2:21 everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved Paul quotes it in Romans 10:13. That is the heart of Peter's message and of ours.
2:22 a man attested to you by God by miracles and wonders and signs These things happened among them, "just as you yourselves also know." Peter did not ask them to believe something that happened far away.
2:23 delivered up by the determined plan and foreknowledge of God The cross was not an accident. God planned it before the foundation of the world (1 Pet 1:20). Yet the men who did it were guilty. God is in full control, and people are fully responsible for what they choose. We may not fully explain how both are true, but the Bible teaches both. "Lawless hands" means men without the Law, the Roman soldiers.
2:24 whom God raised up, having loosed the pains of death The turning point of every sermon in Acts: men killed Jesus, but God raised Him. Death could not keep the Author of life (3:15). He had no sin of His own, so death had no claim on Him.
2:27 You will not abandon my soul to Hades, nor will You give Your Holy One to see decay From Psalm 16:8-11. Hades is the Greek for the place of the dead, Sheol in Hebrew. Peter builds his case from the Bible his hearers already believed, as a lawyer builds a case in court.
2:29 his tomb is among us to this day David could not have meant only himself. He died, his body decayed, and all Jerusalem knew where his tomb was.
2:30 He would raise up the Christ to sit upon his throne God's oath to David (2 Sam 7:12-16; Ps 132:11). Christ translates the Hebrew Messiah, Anointed One. Jesus' body was not left in the grave and never decayed (2:31).
2:32 of which we all are witnesses The believers had seen the risen Jesus. They were living proof.

nesses. 33 Therefore, having been exalted by the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He has poured out this which you now see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself says, 'The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand, 35 until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet."' 36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly that God has made Him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified."

The First Church

37 And having heard this, they were pierced in the heart, and they said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "What shall we do, men, brothers?" 38 And Peter said to them, "Repent, and let each one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 For the promise is to you and to your children and to all those far off, as many as the Lord our God will call to Himself." 40 And with many other words he was testifying and exhorting, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation." 41 So then those who gladly received his word were baptized; and there were added on that day about three thousand souls. 42 And they were steadfastly continuing in the teaching of the apostles and in the fellowship, and in the breaking of the bread and in the prayers. 43 And fear came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were taking place through the apostles. 44 And all those believing were together and had all things in common; 45 and they were selling the possessions and the goods and dividing them to all, as anyone had need. 46 And every day, steadfastly continuing with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they were partaking of food with gladness and simplicity of heart, 47 praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord was adding to the church every day those who were being saved.

A Lame Man Healed

1 Now Peter (Petros) and John (Ioannes) were going up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. 2 And a certain man, being lame from his mother's womb, was being carried, whom they were placing every day at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful (Horaios), to ask alms from those going into the temple; 3 who, having seen Peter and John about to enter into the temple, was asking alms. 4 And Peter, having looked intently at him, with

2:33 He has poured out this which you now see and hear The sound, the fire and the languages proved Jesus is alive and reigning. The Spirit's coming is the evidence of the Son's ascension.
2:34 The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand From Psalm 110:1. Jesus used it to show the Messiah is David's Lord, not only his son (Luke 20:41-44). He is seated and waiting for His enemies to be put under His feet. He rides out to defeat them (Rev 19), and the last enemy destroyed is death (1 Cor 15:25-26).
2:36 God has made Him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified Lord means He is God, with full authority. Christ means He is the promised King of Israel. God reversed their verdict. Peter does not soften it, because they could not be saved until they saw their sin.
2:37 they were pierced in the heart The Spirit convicted them (John 16:8). Real conviction does not stop at feeling bad. It asks, what do I do now? Peter's sermon was not clever. It was true, full of Scripture and about Jesus. That is the preaching the Spirit uses.
2:38 Repent, and let each one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for forgiveness of sins To repent is to change your mind and turn around. Being baptized in Jesus' name meant openly siding with the man the city had just crucified. This verse plainly links repentance and baptism with forgiveness, and Christians read it differently. In Acts forgiveness comes through faith (10:43; 13:38-39; 16:31), and in Acts 10 the Spirit came before baptism. I believe salvation is by grace through faith in Christ alone (Eph 2:8-9), and baptism is the first step of obedience that follows, not optional, but the believer's response to grace, not what earns it.
2:39 to all those far off, as many as the Lord our God will call to Himself Their children, people far away, and the Gentiles (Eph 2:13, 17). God calls, and people respond. The promise reaches to us today.
2:40 Be saved from this perverse generation Perverse means crooked, the word used of Israel in Deuteronomy 32:5. Salvation is personal. Each had to step out for himself.
2:41 there were added on that day about three thousand souls First they received the word, then they were baptized. Three thousand from one sermon by a fisherman. At Sinai about three thousand died over the golden calf (Exod 32:28). At Pentecost about three thousand were given life. The letter kills, but the Spirit gives life (2 Cor 3:6).
2:42 in the teaching of the apostles and in the fellowship, and in the breaking of the bread and in the prayers The apostles' teaching, which we have in the New Testament. Fellowship, koinonia, sharing life together. The breaking of bread, likely both shared meals and the Lord's Supper (1 Cor 11:23-26). Prayer together, often and on purpose. This is still the pattern of a healthy church.
2:43 many wonders and signs were taking place through the apostles A holy fear came on the people. The miracles confirmed the apostles' message (Heb 2:3-4). Christians differ on whether the sign gifts continue the same way: some believe they ended with the apostles, some that they continue, and many hold a middle view that God still heals when He chooses while the apostles held a unique place. All agree God has not changed and still answers prayer.
2:44 had all things in common Voluntary love, not force, as Peter tells Ananias (5:4). Many new believers had come for the feast and stayed to learn, so the needs were real. When God's Spirit fills people, they see their things as tools to bless others.
2:46 steadfastly continuing with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house They did not leave Judaism. Jesus is the Messiah the temple pointed to. Big gatherings and small gatherings both mattered.
2:47 the Lord was adding to the church every day those who were being saved The church grows because God saves people. Our part is to be faithful in the things of verse 42, love one another and tell others about Jesus.
3:1 at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour About three in the afternoon, the time of the evening sacrifice. Peter and John had been fishing partners (Luke 5:10) and were sent together to prepare the Passover (Luke 22:8). Being filled with the Spirit did not make the apostles careless about prayer. It made them more faithful.
3:2 the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful He was more than forty years old (4:22) and had never walked a step. People coming to worship were often thinking of giving to the poor, as the Law commanded (Deut 15:7-11). Scripture does not say which gate this was. Many believe it was the large bronze gate on the east side leading into the Court of the Women.

John, said, "Look at us." 5 And he was giving heed to them, expecting to receive something from them. 6 But Peter said, "Silver and gold I do not have; but what I have, this I give to you. In the name of Jesus (Iesous) Christ the Nazarene, rise up and walk." 7 And having taken him by the right hand, he raised him up; and immediately his feet and ankles were strengthened. 8 And leaping up, he stood and was walking, and he entered with them into the temple, walking and leaping and praising God. 9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God. 10 And they were recognizing him, that this was the one who sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Peter Preaches in Solomon's Portico

11 Now as the lame man who had been healed was holding on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch called Solomon's, greatly amazed. 12 And Peter, having seen it, answered the people, "Israelite men, why do you marvel at this? Or why do you look intently at us, as if by our own power or godliness we had made him walk? 13 The God of Abraham (Abraam) and of Isaac (Isaak) and of Jacob (Iakob), the God of our fathers, has glorified His servant Jesus, whom you delivered up and denied in the presence of Pilate (Pilatos), when he had decided to release Him. 14 But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a man, a murderer, to be granted to you, 15 and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised up from the dead, of which we are witnesses. 16 And on the faith of His name, this man whom you see and know, His name has strengthened; and the faith which is through Him has given him this complete soundness before you all. 17 And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as also your rulers did. 18 But God has thus fulfilled the things which He foretold through the mouth of all His prophets, that the Christ would suffer. 19 Repent therefore and turn again, so that your sins may be blotted out, in order that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, 20 and He may send Jesus Christ, who was preached to you before, 21 whom heaven must indeed receive until the times of restoration of all things, of which God spoke through the mouth of all His holy prophets from the age. 22 For Moses indeed said to the fathers, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers; Him you shall listen to in all things, whatever He may speak to you. 23 And it will be that every soul which does not listen to that prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.' 24 And indeed all the prophets from Samuel (Samouel) and those in succession, as many as have spoken, also foretold these days. 25 You are sons of the

3:5 expecting to receive something from them He expected a few coins. We often come to God asking small things, and He has something far greater in mind (Eph 3:20).
3:6 Silver and gold I do not have; but what I have, this I give to you In the name of Jesus means by His authority, as His representative. A name in Scripture stands for the person. Many churches today have plenty of silver and gold. Do we still have what Peter had? Money can feed a man for a day. Only Jesus can change his life forever.
3:7 immediately his feet and ankles were strengthened Luke the doctor (Col 4:14) notes exactly what was healed. A man who had never walked did not need to learn how. He leaped. In the days of the Messiah "the lame will leap like the deer" (Isa 35:6). And he praised God (3:8).
3:10 they were recognizing him Everyone in the city had walked past him. A changed life is hard to argue with.
3:11 in the porch called Solomon's A long covered walkway of columns on the east side of the temple court, where Jesus taught (John 10:23) and the believers met (5:12). The healed man clung to the men who brought him the name of Jesus.
3:12 as if by our own power or godliness we had made him walk Peter could have built a following around himself. He turned every eye to Jesus, as Paul and Barnabas did at Lystra (14:14-15). That is the mark of a true servant of God.
3:13 has glorified His servant Jesus This is the God Israel always worshiped. Faith in Jesus was the fulfillment of the old promises, not a new religion. "Servant" points to Isaiah 52:13-53:12, where the Servant suffers for the people's sins and is then lifted up. Pilate wanted to release Him (Luke 23:13-22).
3:15 you killed the Author of life They asked for Barabbas, a man who took life (Luke 23:18-19), and killed the One who gives it. Author can also be translated Prince. Jesus is the source of all life (John 1:4), and death could not hold Him.
3:16 the faith which is through Him Faith is not a power we make up. It is trust placed in Jesus, and the power is in the One trusted. A little faith in a great Savior does great things.
3:17 I know that you acted in ignorance Jesus prayed, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing" (Luke 23:34). Ignorance did not make them innocent, but it left room for mercy, as Paul found (1 Tim 1:13).
3:18 that the Christ would suffer God used even their sin to fulfill what the prophets foretold. The cross was always His plan.
3:19 so that your sins may be blotted out To repent is to change your mind, and to turn again is to come back to God. Ink on papyrus could be sponged off and wax tablets smoothed over, as if nothing had been written (Isa 43:25; Ps 103:12). The record is gone. "Times of refreshing" are rest and new life, like cool water on a hot day.
3:21 whom heaven must indeed receive until the times of restoration of all things Jesus is in heaven until the appointed time, and then He returns to restore all things as the prophets promised: Israel gathered, the Messiah reigning from Jerusalem, the earth at peace (Isa 2:2-4; 11:1-10; Ezek 37:21-28; Amos 9:11-15). Peter ties His return to Israel turning to Him, as Paul does (Rom 11:25-27). I believe this comes when Jesus returns at the end of the Tribulation to set up His kingdom on earth (Rev 20). Amillennial teachers read it as the new heavens and earth with no special future for Israel.
3:22 The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me From Deuteronomy 18:15-19. The Jews were waiting for this Prophet (John 1:21; 6:14). Like Moses, Jesus delivered His people, spoke God's words and brought a covenant, but He is far greater (Heb 3:1-6). To refuse to listen to Jesus is to refuse God (3:23).
3:24 all the prophets from Samuel Samuel anointed David, and God's promise to David pointed to the Messiah (2 Sam 7:12-16). The whole Old Testament points to Him (Luke 24:27, 44).
3:25 in your seed all the families of the earth will be blessed The promise to Abraham (Gen 12:3; 22:18). The seed is finally Christ (Gal 3:16). Israel received the promise first, and through Jesus the blessing goes to every nation (1:8).

prophets and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, 'And in your seed all the families of the earth will be blessed.' 26 To you first, God, having raised up His servant Jesus, sent Him, blessing you in turning away each of you from your wickednesses."

Peter and John Before the Council

1 And while they were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came upon them, 2 being greatly disturbed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus (Iesous) the resurrection from the dead. 3 And they laid hands on them and put them in custody until the next day, for it was already evening. 4 But many of those who had heard the word believed; and the number of the men became about five thousand. 5 And it came to pass on the next day that their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem (Hierousalem), 6 and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas (Kaiaphas) and John (Ioannes) and Alexander (Alexandros), and as many as were of high-priestly descent. 7 And having placed them in the midst, they were inquiring, "In what power or in what name did you do this?" 8 Then Peter (Petros), having been filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders of Israel, 9 if we today are being examined concerning a good deed done to a sick man, by what means this man has been saved, 10 let it be known to you all and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, in Him this man stands before you sound. 11 This is the stone which was treated with contempt by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner. 12 And there is not salvation in any other; for neither is there another name under heaven which has been given among men by which we must be saved." 13 Now seeing the boldness of Peter and John, and having perceived that they were unlettered and ordinary men, they were marveling; and they were recognizing them, that they had been with Jesus. 14 And seeing the man who had been healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it. 15 But having commanded them to go outside the Council, they conferred with one another, 16 saying, "What shall we do to these men? For indeed, that a notable sign has come to pass through them is evident to all those inhabiting Jerusalem, and we are not able to deny it. 17 But so that it may not spread further among the people, let us threaten them with a threat to speak no longer in this name to any man." 18 And having called them, they commanded them not to speak at all nor to teach in the name of Jesus. 19 But Peter and John answering said to them,

"Whether it is righteous before God to listen to you rather than to God, you judge; 20 for we are not able not to speak the things which we have seen and heard." 21 And having further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing as to how they might punish them, on account of the people, because all were glorifying God for what had happened.

3:26 To you first Israel had the first chance to receive the Messiah (Rom 1:16). The greatest blessing is not money or even a healed body, but being turned from our sin and back to God, and it is still offered to all.
4:1 the captain of the temple and the Sadducees The captain kept order in the temple, second in rank to the high priest. The Sadducees, mostly wealthy priestly families, controlled the temple, held the five books of Moses above the rest of Scripture, and denied the resurrection, angels and spirits (23:8). Every time the apostles said God raised Him, they were saying the Sadducees were wrong.
4:3 for it was already evening They went up about three in the afternoon (3:1). Later Jewish law forbade trials at night, and it was likely already the custom. Jesus had warned this would happen (Luke 21:12).
4:4 the number of the men became about five thousand They could lock up the messengers but not the message (2 Tim 2:9). Luke's word means men, so with women and children the number was likely much larger. Weeks earlier there were about 120.
4:6 Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas The Sanhedrin, the Jewish high council of about seventy members led by the high priest, ruled on religious and many civil matters under Rome. Scribes were experts in the Law. Annas, father-in-law of Caiaphas (John 18:13), had been high priest and still held great power. This was the group that condemned Jesus weeks before.
4:7 In what power or in what name did you do this? They did not deny the miracle. The man stood right there (4:14). Without knowing it, they gave Peter the perfect opening.
4:8 Peter, having been filled with the Holy Spirit Jesus promised the Spirit would give words before rulers (Luke 12:11-12). Peter told the most powerful men in the nation that they killed the Messiah and God overruled them. Weeks before, he was afraid of a servant girl.
4:11 This is the stone which was treated with contempt by you, the builders From Psalm 118:22. A cornerstone lined up the whole building. The leaders, who were to build up God's people, threw Jesus away as useless, and God made Him the foundation. Jesus applied this verse to them (Luke 20:17), and Peter used it again (1 Pet 2:7).
4:12 there is not salvation in any other One of the clearest verses on salvation. Not religion, good works or another teacher, but Jesus only (John 14:6). The door is narrow because there is one Savior, and wide open because anyone from any nation may come. If there is only one cure for a deadly disease, the loving thing is to tell everyone where to find it.
4:13 they had been with Jesus "Unlettered and ordinary" does not mean they could not read. They had never studied under the rabbis. Their boldness and knowledge of Scripture pointed to one thing: they had spent time with Jesus. People should be able to say the same about us.
4:16 we are not able to deny it They could not deny the miracle and still would not believe. Their problem was not evidence but their hearts (Luke 16:31). So they tried to stop the message.
4:19 Whether it is righteous before God to listen to you rather than to God, you judge We are to respect those in authority (Rom 13:1-7; 1 Pet 2:13-17), but when men command us to disobey God, we must obey God. This is not rebellion but faithfulness. They did not riot. They refused to be silent and accepted what came next.
4:20 we are not able not to speak the things which we have seen and heard They had seen the risen Jesus. How could they keep quiet?

22 For the man on whom this sign of healing had taken place was more than forty years old.

The Believers Pray for Boldness

23 And having been let go, they came to their own people and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. 24 And having heard it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord and said, "Master, You are the God who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them, 25 who through the mouth of Your servant David (Dabid) said, 'Why did the nations rage, and the peoples devise vain things? 26 The kings of the earth took their stand, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord and against His Christ.' 27 For truly there were gathered together against Your holy servant Jesus, whom You anointed, both Herod (Herodes) and Pontius (Pontios) Pilate (Pilatos), with the nations and the peoples of Israel, 28 to do whatever Your hand and Your plan determined beforehand to happen. 29 And now, Lord, look upon their threats, and grant to Your slaves to speak Your word with all boldness, 30 in that You stretch out Your hand for healing, and signs and wonders take place through the name of Your holy servant Jesus." 31 And when they had prayed, the place in which they were assembled was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and were speaking the word of God with boldness.

All Things in Common

32 And of the multitude of those who had believed, the heart and the soul was one; and not one was saying that anything of his possessions was his own, but all things were common to them. 33 And with great power the apostles were giving the testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. 34 For neither was anyone needy among them; for as many as were owners of lands or houses, selling them, were bringing the proceeds of the things being sold 35 and were laying them at the feet of the apostles; and distribution was being made to each, as anyone had need. 36 And Joses (Ioses), who was surnamed Barnabas by the apostles (which is, being translated, Son of Encouragement), a Levite, a Cypriot by birth, 37 having a field, sold it and brought the money and laid it at the feet of the apostles.

Ananias and Sapphira

1 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira (Sappheire) his wife, sold a property, 2 and kept back some of the proceeds, his wife also being aware of it, and having brought a certain portion, he laid it at the feet of the apostles. 3 But Peter (Petros) said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart for you to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back some of the proceeds of the land? 4 While it remained, did it not remain yours? And having been sold, was it not in your own authority? Why is it that you put this deed in your

4:22 more than forty years old Lame his whole life, known by everyone, and now walking. The leaders feared the people more than God.
4:24 Master, You are the God who made the heaven and the earth Their first stop was their own people, and their first act was prayer. Master means the one with absolute authority. When we face threats, the first thing to remember is how big our God is.
4:25 Why did the nations rage, and the peoples devise vain things? They prayed Scripture, Psalm 2:1-2. When we don't know how to pray, we can pray God's own words back to Him. The psalm goes on to show God laughing at those who plot against His King.
4:27 both Herod and Pontius Pilate Herod Antipas, ruler of Galilee, mocked Jesus at His trial (Luke 23:6-12). Jews and Gentiles, rulers and crowds joined against Him.
4:28 to do whatever Your hand and Your plan determined beforehand to happen As in 2:23, they did what they wanted and were guilty, and yet God was in control. If God ruled at the cross, He ruled over the threats the believers now faced.
4:29 grant to Your slaves to speak Your word with all boldness Bond-servants who belonged fully to their Master. They did not ask God to remove the threats or punish their enemies. They asked for boldness to keep doing what they were told to stop, a model for persecuted believers today.
4:31 they were all filled with the Holy Spirit God answered exactly what they asked. These believers were filled at Pentecost and filled again here. I believe the Spirit comes to live in a believer once, when he believes (Eph 1:13), but we need to be filled again and again as we face new challenges and yield to Him (Eph 5:18). In Acts the result is always bold witness.
4:32 the heart and the soul was one Not a law or system but love (2:44-45). They still owned things but did not hold on to them. Unity comes not from agreeing on everything but from belonging to the same Lord.
4:33 with great power the apostles were giving the testimony of the resurrection The center of their message. "Great grace," God's undeserved favor, was on them all. Power in the message and grace in the people go together.
4:34 neither was anyone needy among them God told Israel obedience would leave no poor among them (Deut 15:4). It came true not by law but by love. Laying gifts at the apostles' feet trusted them to give fairly and gave to God, not for display. The next chapter shows what happens when someone gives to be seen.
4:36 Barnabas by the apostles (which is, being translated, Son of Encouragement), a Levite, a Cypriot by birth Levites served at the temple and were given no tribal land (Num 18:20-24), though by this time some owned property. Barnabas lived up to his name. He stood up for Saul (9:27), encouraged the church at Antioch (11:22-24) and traveled with Paul. Every church needs a Barnabas, and every one of us can be one.
5:1 a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a property The opening "But" sets this couple beside Barnabas (4:36-37). He gave everything from a sold field. They brought part as if it were the whole.
5:2 his wife also being aware of it Not one person's sudden slip but a plan the two agreed on. The sin was not keeping some money but pretending to give it all so they would look as generous as Barnabas.
5:3 to lie to the Holy Spirit Set beside verse 4, "You have not lied to men but to God," this shows the Holy Spirit is not a force or influence. He is God.
5:4 While it remained, did it not remain yours? Giving was free and voluntary. Ananias could have kept every penny and been honest. God judged the lie, not the size of the gift.

heart? You have not lied to men but to God." 5 And Ananias, hearing these words, having fallen down, breathed his last. And great fear came upon all those who heard these things. 6 And the younger men, having arisen, wrapped him up, and having carried him out, they buried him. 7 And it came to pass, after an interval of about three hours, that his wife came in, not knowing what had come to pass. 8 And Peter answered her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." And she said, "Yes, for so much." 9 Then Peter said to her, "Why is it that it was agreed together by you to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out." 10 And immediately she fell down at his feet and breathed her last; and the young men, having come in, found her dead, and having carried her out, they buried her beside her husband. 11 And great fear came upon the whole church and upon all those who heard these things.

Signs and Wonders

12 And through the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were taking place among the people; and they were all with one accord in the porch of Solomon. 13 And of the rest no one was daring to join them, but the people were magnifying them; 14 and all the more were believers in the Lord being added, multitudes both of men and women, 15 so that they were even bringing out the sick throughout the streets and placing them on beds and mats, so that when Peter came, at least the shadow might overshadow some of them. 16 And the multitude also from the surrounding cities was coming together into Jerusalem (Hierousalem), bringing sick people and those being tormented by unclean spirits, who were all being healed.

The Apostles Arrested and Freed

17 But the high priest, having risen up, and all those with him, which is the sect of the Sadducees, were filled with jealousy, 18 and they laid their hands on the apostles and put them in public custody. 19 But an angel of the Lord during the night opened the doors of the prison, and having brought them out, said, 20 "Go, and standing, speak in the temple to the people all the declarations of this life." 21 And having heard this, they entered into the temple at dawn and were teaching. Now the high priest having come, and those with him, they called together the Council, even all the senate of the sons of Israel, and sent to the prison house for them to be brought. 22 But the officers having come did not find them in the prison; and having returned, they reported, 23 saying, "We found the prison house indeed shut with all security and the guards standing outside before the doors; but having opened them, we found no one inside." 24 Now when the priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were perplexed concerning them, as to what this might become. 25 And a certain one, having come, reported to them, saying, "Look, the men whom you put in the prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people." 26 Then the captain, having gone with the officers, brought them, not with force, for they were afraid of the people, lest they be stoned. 27 And having brought them, they set them in the Council. And the high priest questioned them, 28 saying, "Did we not command you with a command

5:28 Acts 7:52; Matt 27:25; Acts 4:10,11

5:5 having fallen down, breathed his last Peter did not curse him. God acted. The "great fear" is not panic but deep respect for God's holiness. Why so severe when people lie in church every day? I believe because this was the beginning of the church. As God judged Achan when Israel entered the land (Josh 7) and Nadab and Abihu when the priesthood began (Lev 10:1-2), He showed at the start that He will not be mocked. He does not usually judge that quickly today, but His holiness has not changed.
5:9 to test the Spirit of the Lord Peter gave Sapphira a chance to tell the truth, and she stood by the lie. To test the Spirit is to push Him to see how far you can go. Scripture does not say whether they were true believers. Some see believers taken home early as discipline (1 Cor 11:30), others hearts never changed. Luke does not settle it, and neither should we too quickly.
5:11 great fear came upon the whole church The Greek ekklesia means an assembly, a gathering of people called together, and it comes from words meaning called out. God's people are called out by Him, and He has just shown how pure He wants them to be. He is looking for people who are honest with Him and with each other, not people who look spiritual on Sunday.
5:12 many signs and wonders Signs point beyond themselves, and wonders cause awe. They confirmed the apostles' message came from Jesus. Solomon's porch is where Peter preached after healing the lame man (3:11).
5:13 of the rest no one was daring to join them After Ananias and Sapphira no one joined casually. People respected the believers but knew this was not something to play with.
5:14 multitudes both of men and women Fear of God did not stop the growth. It purified the church. Luke names women, full members of God's family from the start.
5:15 at least the shadow might overshadow some of them The text says the people hoped for this, not that Peter's shadow had power of its own. The power was always God's.
5:16 the multitude also from the surrounding cities The gospel begins to spread out from Jerusalem, as Jesus said (1:8).
5:17 the sect of the Sadducees, were filled with jealousy They controlled the temple and denied the resurrection and angels (23:8). Every sermon about the risen Jesus attacked their beliefs and drew the crowds away. This time they arrested all the apostles.
5:19 an angel of the Lord during the night opened the doors of the prison A rescue by an angel, for a party that did not believe angels existed. God's timing speaks for itself.
5:20 speak in the temple to the people all the declarations of this life Not run and hide, but go right back. The gospel is not only ideas. It is life itself, eternal life in Jesus (John 14:6).
5:21 all the senate of the sons of Israel The Sanhedrin, the ruling council led by the high priest, the highest Jewish court of the day.
5:23 the guards standing outside before the doors No one broke out. Locked doors and guards at their posts, and God simply took them out.
5:26 they were afraid of the people, lest they be stoned The leaders worried more about the crowd than about God. When we care more about what people think than what God thinks, we make bad decisions every time.
5:28 you intend to bring upon us the blood of this man The high priest will not say the name of Jesus. Before Pilate the crowd cried that His blood be on them (Matt 27:25). Now the leaders felt the guilt pressing in.

not to teach in this name? And look, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring upon us the blood of this man." 29 But Peter and the apostles answering said, "It is necessary to obey God rather than men. 30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus (Iesous), whom you put to death, having hanged Him on a tree. 31 Him God exalted by His right hand as Prince and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. 32 And we are His witnesses of these declarations, and also the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those obeying Him."

Gamaliel's Advice

33 And having heard this, they were furious, and were taking counsel to kill them. 34 But a certain one, having stood up in the Council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law honored by all the people, commanded them to put the apostles outside for a short while. 35 And he said to them, "Israelite men, take heed to yourselves concerning these men, what you are about to do. 36 For before these days Theudas rose up, saying that he himself was somebody, to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves; who was killed, and all, as many as were persuaded by him, were dispersed and came to nothing. 37 After this man, Judas (Ioudas) the Galilean rose up in the days of the registration, and drew away many people after him; he also perished, and all, as many as were persuaded by him, were scattered. 38 And now I say to you, withdraw from these men and let them alone; for if this plan or this work is from men, it will be overthrown; 39 but if it is from God, you are not able to overthrow it, lest you even be found fighting against God." 40 And they were persuaded by him; and having called in the apostles and having beaten them, they commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and released them. 41 So then they were departing from the presence of the Council, rejoicing that they had been counted worthy to be dishonored for His name. 42 And every day, in the temple and from house to house, they did not cease teaching and preaching the gospel that Jesus is the Christ.

The Seven Chosen

1 Now in these days, when the disciples were multiplying, there arose a grumbling of the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily ministry. 2 And the twelve, having called near the multitude of the disciples, said, "It is not pleasing for us, having left the word of God, to serve tables. 3 Therefore, brothers, select from among you seven men being well attested, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we will appoint over this need; 4 but we will steadfastly continue in prayer and in the ministry of the word." 5 And the word was pleasing before all the multitude; and they chose Stephen (Stephanos), a man

6:4 Acts 1:14; Acts 2:42; Acts 20:19-31
6:5 Acts 11:24; Acts 6:3,8,10; Acts 21:8

5:29 It is necessary to obey God rather than men The heart of the chapter. We respect and obey authority (Rom 13:1-7; 1 Pet 2:13-17), but when a human authority commands us to disobey God, our first loyalty is to Him.
5:30 having hanged Him on a tree Pointing to the curse on one hanged on a tree (Deut 21:23; Gal 3:13). Even to the men who condemned Jesus, Peter offers forgiveness.
5:31 as Prince and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins God exalted the One they killed. Even repentance is His gift.
5:32 the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those obeying Him The Spirit confirms the apostles' eyewitness testimony. Obeying here means the obedience that comes from believing (Rom 1:5), not works that earn the Spirit.
5:33 they were furious The Greek pictures being sawn in two. They could not contain their rage.
5:34 a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law honored by all the people Pharisees were strict about the Law and its traditions and, unlike the Sadducees, believed in the resurrection and angels. Gamaliel was among the most honored rabbis of his day, and Paul studied under him (22:3).
5:37 Judas the Galilean rose up in the days of the registration The registration was Rome's census for taxes, and Judas led a revolt against it. Movements built around a man fall apart when the man is gone. Josephus writes of a Theudas and of Judas. His Theudas seems to come some years after this speech, so many scholars believe Gamaliel meant an earlier man. It was a common name, and Luke has proven a careful historian again and again.
5:39 if it is from God, you are not able to overthrow it Wise advice, but not faith. Gamaliel waited and saw. History has answered. Two thousand years later the church is on every continent, and every empire that tried to stamp it out has failed (Matt 16:18).
5:40 having beaten them A brutal flogging. The Law limited it to forty lashes (Deut 25:3), and the custom was to stop at thirty-nine (2 Cor 11:24).
5:41 rejoicing that they had been counted worthy to be dishonored for His name They did not complain or pity themselves. They counted it an honor, as Jesus said (Matt 5:11-12; John 15:20). It is the spirit of the faithful who "did not love their life until death" (Rev 12:11).
5:42 in the temple and from house to house The orders changed nothing. They preached Jesus as the Messiah in public and in homes, large gatherings and small. Our faith is meant to be lived in public and around our own kitchen tables.
6:1 there arose a grumbling of the Hellenists against the Hebrews Growth brings new problems. The Hellenists were Jews raised outside the land who mainly spoke Greek; many had moved back to Jerusalem later in life. The Hebrews were Jews from the land who spoke Aramaic. Their widows depended on the church's daily care, and the Greek-speaking widows were being missed.
6:2 It is not pleasing for us, having left the word of God, to serve tables The apostles were not saying that serving food was beneath them. Jesus Himself washed His disciples' feet (John 13:1-15). God had given them a specific job, and if they spent all their time running a food program, the teaching of God's Word would suffer.
6:3 full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom Even a job handing out food required spiritual men. In God's eyes there is no such thing as unspiritual work in His church. The church chose the men, and the apostles appointed them.
6:4 we will steadfastly continue in prayer and in the ministry of the word Prayer comes first in the list. Leaders who stop praying and studying the Word soon have nothing to give. Every church needs both the ministry of the word and the ministry of practical care.
6:5 Nicolas, a proselyte of Antioch All seven have Greek names, which suggests the church gave the problem to men from the group that had been overlooked. Nicolas was a proselyte, a Gentile who had converted to Judaism. So even before the Gospel went to the Gentiles in chapter 10, a man born a Gentile was helping lead the church. Philip appears again in chapter 8.

full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip (Philippos) and Prochorus (Prochoros) and Nicanor (Nikanor) and Timon and Parmenas and Nicolas (Nikolaos), a proselyte of Antioch, 6 whom they set before the apostles; and having prayed, they laid hands on them. 7 And the word of God was increasing, and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem (Hierousalem) was being multiplied exceedingly, and a great crowd of the priests were becoming obedient to the faith.

Stephen Seized

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people. 9 But certain ones arose of those from the synagogue which is called of the Freedmen, and of the Cyrenians and of the Alexandrians, and of those from Cilicia (Kilikia) and Asia, disputing with Stephen. 10 And they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he was speaking. 11 Then they secretly induced men, saying, "We have heard him speaking blasphemous declarations against Moses and God." 12 And they stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and having come upon him, they seized him and brought him to the Council. 13 And they set up false witnesses, saying, "This man does not stop speaking blasphemous declarations against this holy place and the law; 14 for we have heard him saying that this Jesus (Iesous) the Nazarene will overthrow this place and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us." 15 And all those sitting in the Council, having looked intently at him, saw his face as the face of an angel.

Stephen's Defense: Abraham and Joseph

1 And the high priest said, "Are these things then so?" 2 And he said, "Men, brothers and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham (Abraam) when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran (Charran), 3 and said to him, 'Go out from your land and from your kindred, and come into a land which I will show you.' 4 Then, having gone out from the land of the Chaldeans, he dwelt in Haran; and from there, after his father died, He removed him into this land in which you now dwell. 5 And He did not give him an inheritance in it, not even a foot's length; and He promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when he had no child. 6 And God spoke thus: that his seed will be a sojourner in a foreign land, and they will enslave it and mistreat it four hundred years. 7 'And the nation to which they will be in slavery I will judge,' said God, 'and after these things they will come out and serve Me in this place.' 8 And He gave him a covenant of circumcision; and thus he fathered Isaac (Isaak) and circumcised him on the eighth day, and Isaac fathered Jacob (Iakob), and Jacob the twelve

7:8 Gen 17:9; Gen 35:23; Gen 25:21

6:6 they laid hands on them Laying on hands showed that the church set these men apart for the work and stood behind them. The seven are often called the first deacons, since the Greek word for serving is the root of "deacon," though Luke does not use that title here.
6:7 a great crowd of the priests were becoming obedient to the faith Handling the problem well sped the church up. These were most likely ordinary priests who offered the daily sacrifices. Now they were coming to believe that Jesus was the final sacrifice, offered once for all (Heb 10:11-14).
6:8 Stephen, full of faith and power Stephen was chosen to wait on tables, but God was not finished with him. Faithfulness in small things often leads to greater things (Luke 16:10). Do not despise the job God has given you today.
6:9 the synagogue which is called of the Freedmen The Freedmen were most likely Jews who had once been slaves, or whose parents had been, and had been set free. Cyrene and Alexandria were in North Africa; Cilicia and Asia were Roman regions in what is now Turkey. Paul was from Tarsus, the main city of Cilicia, so it is possible, though not certain, that young Saul was among Stephen's opponents.
6:10 they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he was speaking Jesus had promised His followers a mouth and wisdom their enemies could not resist (Luke 21:15). Stephen's words did not come from training alone. The Spirit was speaking through him.
6:11 We have heard him speaking blasphemous declarations against Moses and God When they could not win the argument, they changed tactics. Blasphemy means speaking against God in a way that dishonors Him, and it was a capital crime under the Law (Lev 24:16).
6:12 they stirred up the people Until now the common people had been on the apostles' side (2:47; 5:13). This is the first time the crowd turns against the believers. The same pattern of false charges was used against Jesus (Matt 26:59-61).
6:14 this Jesus the Nazarene will overthrow this place Like most good lies, this one twisted a little truth. Jesus did predict that the temple would be destroyed (Matt 24:1-2), and the Romans burned it in A.D. 70. He also said He would raise up "this sanctuary" (John 2:19) in three days, but He was speaking of His body (John 2:19-21). Stephen probably taught that Jesus was greater than the temple and the Law.
6:15 saw his face as the face of an angel Scripture does not explain exactly what they saw. It may have been a calm look in a hostile room, or a real glow like Moses' face after he had been with God (Exod 34:29-35). They accused Stephen of speaking against Moses, and God gave him a face like Moses'.
7:1 Are these things then so The question meant, did you say these things about the temple and the Law, or not? This was most likely Caiaphas, who presided over Jesus' trial (Matt 26:57). Stephen stood before the same men, facing the same kind of false charges Jesus faced.
7:2 The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia Stephen opens respectfully and starts at the beginning of Israel's story. His first point answers the temple charge: God met Abraham in a pagan land, far from Israel, long before there was any temple. God's presence has never been locked inside one building.
7:4 having gone out from the land of the Chaldeans, he dwelt in Haran Genesis 12:1 records the call in Haran, but Genesis 15:7 and Nehemiah 9:7 both say God brought Abraham out of Ur of the Chaldeans. It seems God called Abraham first in Ur and then again in Haran.
7:5 He did not give him an inheritance in it, not even a foot's length Abraham lived his whole life in the Promised Land as a stranger, trusting God for what he could not see (Heb 11:8-10). God promised the land to a man with no child, and He kept both promises.
7:6 four hundred years The number comes from Genesis 15:13-14. Exodus 12:40 gives the time in Egypt as 430 years. Stephen, like Genesis 15:13, uses the rounded number.
7:8 He gave him a covenant of circumcision Circumcision was the physical sign that a man belonged to God's covenant people (Gen 17:9-14). The twelve patriarchs were the fathers of Israel's tribes. Stephen is showing the Council that he knows and honors their history. He is not speaking against Moses or the fathers.

patriarchs. 9 And the patriarchs, having become jealous of Joseph (Ioseph), sold him into Egypt (Aigyptos); and God was with him, 10 and rescued him out of all his tribulations, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he appointed him ruler over Egypt and all his house. 11 Now a famine came upon all the land of Egypt and Canaan (Chanaan), and great tribulation; and our fathers were not finding sustenance. 12 But Jacob, having heard that there was grain in Egypt, sent out our fathers the first time; 13 and at the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became evident to Pharaoh. 14 And Joseph, having sent, called for Jacob his father and all his kindred, seventy-five souls in all. 15 And Jacob went down into Egypt, and he died, he and our fathers; 16 and they were carried over into Shechem (Sychem) and were placed in the tomb which Abraham bought for a sum of silver from the sons of Hamor (Emmor) of Shechem.

Stephen's Defense: Moses

17 But as the time of the promise which God had sworn to Abraham was drawing near, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt, 18 until another king arose who did not know Joseph. 19 This man, having dealt treacherously with our race, mistreated our fathers, making them expose their infants so that they would not be kept alive. 20 At that time Moses was born, and he was beautiful to God; and he was brought up three months in the house of his father. 21 And when he had been exposed, the daughter of Pharaoh took him up and brought him up for herself as a son. 22 And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was mighty in words and in deeds. 23 And when a time of forty years was being fulfilled for him, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the sons of Israel. 24 And having seen a certain one being wronged, he defended him and carried out vengeance for the one being oppressed, having struck down the Egyptian. 25 And he was supposing that his brothers understood that God through his hand is giving them salvation; but they did not understand. 26 And on the following day he appeared to them as they were quarreling, and urged them to peace, saying, 'Men, you are brothers; why do you wrong one another?' 27 But the one wronging the neighbor pushed him away, saying, 'Who appointed you ruler and judge over us? 28 Do you want to kill me in the same way you killed the Egyptian yesterday?' 29 And Moses fled at this word, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian (Madiam), where he fathered two sons. 30 And when forty years had been fulfilled, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai (Sina), in a flame of fire of a bush. 31 And Moses, having seen it, marveled at the sight; and as he was approaching to look closely, there came a voice of the Lord to him: 32 'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.' And Moses, having become terrified, was not daring to look closely. 33 And the Lord said to him, 'Take off the sandal of your feet, for the place in which you stand is holy ground. 34 Having seen, I have seen the mistreatment of My people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and I have come down to deliver them; and now come, I will send you to Egypt.' 35 This Moses, whom they denied, saying, 'Who appointed you ruler and judge?', this one God sent as ruler and redeemer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him

7:9 the patriarchs, having become jealous of Joseph, sold him into Egypt Here is the pattern Stephen will keep returning to: God sends a deliverer, and his own people reject him. Joseph's brothers rejected him, but God used him to save the family that betrayed him. Jesus was rejected by His own people (John 1:11), and God used it to bring salvation to the world.

7:14 seventy-five souls in all Genesis 46:27 and Exodus 1:5 in our Hebrew-based Bibles say seventy. The Greek translation of the Old Testament, the Septuagint, says seventy-five there, counting some of Joseph's descendants. Stephen, likely a Greek-speaking Jew, used the number from the Greek version his listeners knew. Both are correct counts made in different ways.

7:16 the tomb which Abraham bought for a sum of silver from the sons of Hamor of Shechem Abraham bought the cave at Machpelah near Hebron (Gen 23), while Jacob bought land at Shechem from the sons of Hamor (Gen 33:19), where Joseph was buried (Josh 24:32). Stephen appears to sum up both burial places in one sentence; teachers offer several explanations. His point is that Israel's fathers were buried in the land, waiting for God's promise, and Shechem was in Samaria, a region the Council looked down on.

7:19 making them expose their infants so that they would not be kept alive Stephen draws on Exodus 1:8-22. Again God's people were living outside the Promised Land in a pagan nation, and God was still at work among them, keeping His promise to Abraham right on schedule.

7:22 Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians Egypt was one of the most advanced nations in the world. God placed Moses in Pharaoh's own house so he would be ready to lead (Exod 2:1-10). Stephen is plainly honoring Moses, answering the charge that he spoke against him.

7:25 he was supposing that his brothers understood that God through his hand is giving them salvation; but they did not understand Here is the pattern again. God sent a deliverer, and Israel did not recognize him (Exod 2:11-12). Stephen's listeners would soon realize he was not only talking about Moses.

7:27 Who appointed you ruler and judge over us The man God had chosen to deliver Israel was pushed away by the very people he came to help. He fled to Midian, east of Egypt (Exod 2:15-22), and spent the next forty years in the wilderness.

7:33 the place in which you stand is holy ground Stephen is retelling Exodus 3. He had been accused of speaking against "this holy place" (6:13). Now he points out that God called a patch of desert holy ground. Wherever God shows up is holy. God is not bound to a building in Jerusalem.

7:35 This Moses, whom they denied The man they rejected is the man God sent as ruler and redeemer. The Council knew how the story went. What they did not see was that they were repeating it. Jesus was rejected by His people, and God made Him "both Lord and Christ" (2:36).

in the bush. 36 This one led them out, having done wonders and signs in the land of Egypt and in the Red Sea and in the wilderness forty years. 37 This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers; Him you shall listen to.' 38 This is the one who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel who was speaking to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers; who received living oracles to give to us; 39 to whom our fathers were not willing to become obedient, but they pushed him away, and in their hearts they turned back to Egypt, 40 saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods who will go before us; for this Moses who brought us out from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.' 41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered a sacrifice to the idol, and were rejoicing in the works of their hands. 42 But God turned and delivered them up to serve the host of heaven, just as it has been written in the book of the prophets: 'Did you offer Me slain beasts and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? 43 And you took up the tabernacle of Moloch and the star of your god Remphan, the figures which you made to worship them; and I will remove you beyond Babylon.'

Stephen's Defense: The Tabernacle and the Temple

44 The tabernacle of the testimony was among our fathers in the wilderness, just as He who spoke to Moses commanded him to make it according to the figure which he had seen; 45 which also our fathers, having received it in turn, brought in with Joshua (Iesous) in the taking possession of the nations, whom God drove out from the face of our fathers, until the days of David (Dabid); 46 who found favor before God and asked to find a dwelling place for the God of Jacob. 47 But Solomon built Him a house. 48 But the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands, just as the prophet says: 49 'Heaven is My throne, and the earth is a footstool for My feet. What kind of house will you build for Me, says the Lord, or what is the place of My rest? 50 Did not My hand make all these things?' 51 You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and in ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit; as your fathers did, you also do. 52 Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who foretold concerning the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers, 53 you who received the law by ordinances of angels, and did not keep it."

The Stoning of Stephen

54 And hearing these things, they were furious in their hearts, and were gnashing their teeth at him. 55 But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, having looked intently into heaven, saw the glory of God, and Jesus (Iesous) standing at 7:37 The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers Moses' promise comes from Deuteronomy 18:15, and Peter applied it to Jesus (3:22-23). Moses himself pointed forward to Someone greater. When Stephen preached Jesus, he was doing exactly what Moses told Israel to do: listen to the Prophet God would raise up.

7:38 in the assembly in the wilderness The word for "assembly" is ekklesia, the same Greek word translated "church" elsewhere, meaning a called-out gathering. Israel was God's called-out people in the wilderness. Moses received "living oracles," God's Law that gives life to those who obey it. Stephen has no quarrel with the Law.
7:41 they made a calf in those days Stephen points to Exodus 32. The ones who truly broke the Law of Moses were Israel's own fathers, who worshiped a golden calf while God was handing Moses the Law.
7:42 God turned and delivered them up to serve the host of heaven The host of heaven means the sun, moon, and stars. When people keep choosing idols, God eventually gives them over to what they have chosen (Rom 1:24-28).
7:43 the tabernacle of Moloch and the star of your god Remphan Stephen quotes Amos 5:25-27. While Israel went through the motions of worship, they carried along the tent of Moloch, a Canaanite god tied to child sacrifice, and Remphan, a star god. Amos says "beyond Damascus" (Amos 5:27), warning the northern kingdom taken to Assyria; Stephen says "beyond Babylon," where Judah was later taken. He seems to sum up Israel's whole exile in one phrase.
7:44 The tabernacle of the testimony was among our fathers in the wilderness Now Stephen answers the temple charge directly. The tabernacle was a portable tent built by the pattern God showed Moses (Exod 25:8-9, 40). It was God's idea, and it moved with the people.
7:47 But Solomon built Him a house David's request is in 2 Samuel 7:1-2, and Solomon's building is in 1 Kings 6. From Abraham to Solomon is around a thousand years, and Israel worshiped God that whole time without a temple. God was with His people all along.
7:48 the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands Stephen is not speaking against the temple. Even Solomon admitted that heaven itself cannot contain God, much less a house (1 Kgs 8:27). The Council had made an idol of the building, trusting the temple more than the God of the temple. Today God's Spirit dwells in His people (1 Cor 3:16; 6:19).
7:49 Heaven is My throne, and the earth is a footstool for My feet Stephen quotes Isaiah 66:1-2. Jesus, the true dwelling place of God with man (John 1:14), had stood among them, and they rejected Him. In the New Jerusalem there will be no temple at all, because the Lord God and the Lamb are its temple (Rev 21:22).
7:51 You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and in ears Stiff-necked means stubborn, like an ox that will not bend its neck to the yoke. God used that word of Israel after the golden calf (Exod 33:5). Uncircumcised in heart means having the outward sign of the covenant without the inner reality (Deut 10:16; Jer 9:26).
7:52 the coming of the Righteous One The Righteous One is Jesus. Stephen was not condemning the Jewish people as a whole. He was a Jew, and thousands of Jews had already believed. He was calling out the leaders in front of him, as the prophets did. God has not given up on Israel (Rom 11:1-2, 25-27).
7:53 you who received the law by ordinances of angels, and did not keep it On angels in the giving of the Law, see Galatians 3:19 and Hebrews 2:2. The men accusing Stephen of breaking the Law were the true lawbreakers.
7:54 gnashing their teeth at him Gnashing teeth is a picture of raw rage. The Council had heard enough, and they knew the story Stephen told was about them.

the right hand of God; 56 and he said, "Look, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God." 57 And having cried out with a loud voice, they stopped their ears and rushed upon him with one accord; 58 and having cast him out of the city, they were stoning him. And the witnesses laid aside their garments at the feet of a young man called Saul (Saulos). 59 And they were stoning Stephen (Stephanos) as he was calling upon the Lord and saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." 60 And having knelt down, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." And having said this, he fell asleep.

The Church Scattered

1 And Saul (Saulos) was consenting to his killing. And on that day a great persecution arose against the church which was in Jerusalem (Hierosolyma); and all were scattered throughout the regions of Judea (Ioudaia) and Samaria (Samareia), except the apostles. 2 And devout men buried Stephen (Stephanos), and made great lamentation over him. 3 But Saul was ravaging the church, entering house after house; and dragging off men and women, he was delivering them to prison.

Philip in Samaria

4 Therefore those who had been scattered went about preaching the word as the gospel. 5 And Philip (Philippos), having gone down to a city of Samaria, was proclaiming the Christ to them. 6 And the crowds with one accord were giving heed to the things being spoken by Philip, in their hearing and seeing the signs which he was doing. 7 For from many of those having unclean spirits, they were coming out, crying with a loud voice; and many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. 8 And there was great joy in that city.

Simon the Sorcerer

9 Now a certain man named Simon was formerly in the city practicing sorcery and amazing the nation of Samaria, saying that he himself was someone great, 10 to whom they all were giving heed, from small to great, saying, "This man is the great power of God." 11 And they were giving heed to him because for a long time he had amazed them with the magic arts. 12 But when they believed Philip preaching the gospel, the things concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus (Iesous) Christ, they were being baptized, both men and

7:56 the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God Son of Man was Jesus' favorite name for Himself, from Daniel 7:13-14. Outside the Gospels this is the only place someone calls Him "the Son of Man." Jesus had told this Council they would see the Son of Man at the right hand of power (Matt 26:64). Usually He is seated there (Ps 110:1; Heb 1:3). Many believe He stood to welcome His first martyr home; others see Him standing as Stephen's witness and advocate. I find both encouraging.
7:58 having cast him out of the city, they were stoning him The Law required that blasphemers be stoned outside the camp (Lev 24:14). Under Roman rule the Jewish leaders could not carry out an execution on their own (John 18:31), so this looks less like a legal sentence and more like a mob that lost control.
7:58 a young man called Saul This is our first meeting with the man who would become the apostle Paul. The witnesses threw the first stones (Deut 17:7), and Saul watched their coats and approved (8:1; 22:20). He had no idea the Jesus Stephen saw in heaven would meet him on the road to Damascus.
7:59 Lord Jesus, receive my spirit On the cross Jesus said, "Father, into Your hands I will commit My spirit" (Luke 23:46). Stephen prays the same prayer to Jesus. He knew Jesus is God, and that to be absent from the body is to be at home with the Lord (2 Cor 5:8).
7:60 Lord, do not hold this sin against them Stephen sounds like his Savior, who prayed for those who crucified Him (Luke 23:34). That is what it looks like to be filled with the Spirit. His last words were forgiveness, not anger.
7:60 he fell asleep Scripture often calls a believer's death sleep (1 Thess 4:13-16). It does not mean the soul goes unconscious; Jesus received Stephen's spirit. The body rests until Christ comes for His church and "the dead in Christ will rise first" (1 Thess 4:16). Stephen's name means crown, and Jesus promises "the crown of life" (Rev 2:10) to those faithful until death.
8:1 Saul was consenting to his killing The young man holding the coats was not just standing by. He approved, and later he confessed it with deep regret (22:20; 1 Tim 1:13).
8:1 all were scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles Jesus said His followers would be witnesses in Jerusalem, then "in all Judea and Samaria" (1:8). The church had been slow to leave Jerusalem, and God used persecution to move them out. Scripture does not say why the apostles stayed. They may have felt called to keep leading there, or the persecution may have fallen mostly on Hellenistic believers like Stephen.
8:2 made great lamentation over him Stephen died with heaven opened before him, and still the believers grieved deeply. We grieve, but not as those who have no hope (1 Thess 4:13). Burying a man the Council had just stoned also took courage.
8:3 Saul was ravaging the church The word was used of a wild animal tearing its prey. Paul later said he persecuted the Way to the death (22:4). He did it believing he was serving God (Phil 3:6). A person can be sincere and sincerely wrong. Yet God was about to make the worst persecutor of the church its greatest missionary. Nobody is beyond the reach of God's grace.
8:4 those who had been scattered went about preaching the word as the gospel One of my favorite verses in Acts. The enemy meant persecution to stamp out the church, and God used it to scatter seed across the land. The preachers here were not apostles but ordinary believers. Every one of them was a witness, and that is still God's plan for us.
8:5 Philip, having gone down to a city of Samaria This is Philip of the seven (6:5), later called "Philip the evangelist" (21:8). The Samaritans were a mixed people descended from Israelites and the foreigners Assyria settled in the land after 722 B.C. (2 Kgs 17:24-41). They accepted only the five books of Moses and worshiped on Mount Gerizim (John 4:20). For a Jewish believer to preach Christ there crossed a line most Jews would never cross.
8:8 there was great joy in that city The miracles confirmed the message, as they had for the apostles. Jesus had already sown seed in Samaria at the well, and many Samaritans believed then (John 4:39-42). Philip was reaping a harvest Jesus had planted. Wherever the Gospel takes hold, joy follows.
8:9 practicing sorcery and amazing the nation of Samaria Sorcery means using occult powers or tricks to amaze people. Scripture is clear that it is sin (Deut 18:10-12; Gal 5:20), and sorcerers are listed among those outside God's kingdom (Rev 21:8; 22:15). Simon had a hold on the whole city, but Philip's message was about to break it.
8:12 when they believed Philip preaching the gospel Notice the order. They believed first, then they were baptized. Baptism is the believer's public step of obedience after putting faith in Jesus.

women. 13 And Simon himself also believed; and having been baptized, he was steadfastly continuing with Philip; and observing miracles and signs being done, he was amazed. 14 Now the apostles in Jerusalem, having heard that Samaria has received the word of God, sent Peter (Petros) and John (Ioannes) to them, 15 who, having come down, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit. 16 For He had not yet fallen upon any of them; but they had only been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 17 Then they were laying their hands on them, and they were receiving the Holy Spirit. 18 And Simon, having seen that through the laying on of the hands of the apostles the Holy Spirit is given, offered them money, 19 saying, "Give me also this authority, so that on whomever I lay my hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit." 20 But Peter said to him, "May your silver be with you for destruction, because you thought to acquire the gift of God through money! 21 You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before God.
22 Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray earnestly to God, if perhaps the intent of your heart will be forgiven you. 23 For I see you being in the gall of bitterness and the bond of unrighteousness." 24 And answering, Simon said, "You yourselves pray earnestly to the Lord on my behalf, so that nothing of what you have spoken may come upon me." 25 So they, having solemnly testified and having spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem (Hierousalem), and they preached the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.

26 And an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Rise up and go toward the south, on the road which goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is desert. 27 And having risen up, he went. And look, a man, an Ethiopian, a eunuch, a court official of Candace the queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship, 28 and he was returning, and sitting in his chariot he was reading the prophet Isaiah (Hesaias). 29 And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and be joined to this chariot." 30 And having run up, Philip heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you indeed understand what you are reading?" 31 And he said, "For how could I be able, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip, having come up, to sit with him. 32 Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this: "As a sheep He was led to slaughter, and as a lamb before the one shearing it is silent, so He does not open His mouth. 33 In His humiliation His judgment was taken away; and who will describe His generation? 8:13 Simon himself also believed Was Simon truly saved? Peter will say his heart is not right before God (8:21-23). Many teachers believe Simon's faith was only on the surface, a belief in the miracles rather than in Christ, like those Jesus did not entrust Himself to (John 2:23-25). Others believe he was a true but immature believer who fell into serious sin. I lean toward the first view, but Luke does not tell us how Simon's story ended.
8:16 He had not yet fallen upon any of them This is unusual. Normally a person receives the Spirit the moment he believes (Rom 8:9; Eph 1:13). I believe God was doing something special at a turning point. Jews and Samaritans had been enemies with rival places of worship. By waiting for Peter and John, God showed that the Samaritans were part of the one church, with the same Spirit, under the same apostles.
8:17 they were laying their hands on them, and they were receiving the Holy Spirit Jesus gave Peter "the keys of the kingdom" (Matt 16:19), and Peter is present when each new group comes in: Jews (ch. 2), Samaritans here, and Gentiles (ch. 10). Some see this passage as a pattern for a second experience of the Spirit after salvation. Others, like me, see a one-time event confirming that a new group had come in. This same John once wanted fire on a Samaritan village (Luke 9:51-56).
8:18 offered them money Simon saw something outward happen, perhaps signs like those at Pentecost. He wanted to buy God's power and use it as he had used his magic, to impress people and make money. His name gives us the word simony, the buying or selling of church offices or spiritual things.
8:20 you thought to acquire the gift of God through money God's gifts cannot be bought. Salvation itself is "not from yourselves; the gift is of God" (Eph 2:8), freely given by grace and never earned.
8:22 if perhaps the intent of your heart will be forgiven you The "if perhaps" does not mean God might refuse a truly repentant heart. It shows how serious Simon's sin was and that it would take true repentance, not just words.
8:23 in the gall of bitterness and the bond of unrighteousness Gall was a bitter, poisonous plant. Simon was poisoned inside and still a slave to sin. It was a hard thing to say to a man just baptized, but it was the truth he needed.
8:24 You yourselves pray earnestly to the Lord on my behalf Simon seems more worried about consequences than about his sin. He does not pray himself, and he does not say he is sorry. Some early writers told stories about him, but they come from outside the Bible, and I will not build anything on them.
8:25 they preached the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans Two Jewish apostles who once might have gone around Samaria to avoid it were now going village to village with the Good News.
8:26 This is desert Gaza was an old Philistine city near the coast in the southwest. Philip was in the middle of a revival, and God told him to leave for a lonely desert road. It did not make sense, but Philip went. Sometimes God moves us away from the excitement to reach one person, and that one person matters to God.
8:27 a eunuch, a court official of Candace the queen of the Ethiopians Biblical Ethiopia was the kingdom of Kush, south of Egypt, in what is now Sudan. Candace was the title of the ruling queen mother, as Pharaoh was a title. Under the Law a eunuch could not enter the assembly (Deut 23:1), but God promised eunuchs who held His covenant a name better than sons and daughters (Isa 56:3-5). That day had come.
8:28 he was reading the prophet Isaiah This man had traveled more than a thousand miles to worship in Jerusalem. He was hungry for God, and God sent Philip to meet him. People usually read aloud in those days, which is how Philip heard him.
8:31 For how could I be able, unless someone guides me I love the humility of this powerful official. He did not pretend to understand what he did not. That is the right heart for studying God's Word. We need the Spirit to open our eyes, and God often uses other believers to help us (Eph 4:11-12).
8:32 As a sheep He was led to slaughter The passage is Isaiah 53:7-8, written about seven hundred years before Jesus; the Great Isaiah Scroll from the Dead Sea Scrolls, copied over a century before Him, contains all of chapter 53. It describes His suffering in detail. Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world (John 1:29).

away from the earth." 34 And answering Philip, the eunuch said, "I beg you, concerning whom does the prophet say this? Concerning himself, or concerning some other man?" 35 And Philip, having opened his mouth and having begun from this Scripture, preached Jesus as the gospel to him. 36 And as they were going along the road, they came upon some water; and the eunuch says, "Look, water! What hinders me from being baptized?" 37 And Philip said, "If you believe from all your heart, it is permitted." And answering, he said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." 38 And he commanded the chariot to stop; and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. 39 And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him any longer; for he was going on his way rejoicing. 40 But Philip was found at Azotus (Azotos); and passing through, he was preaching the gospel to all the cities until he came to Caesarea (Kaisareia).

The Conversion of Saul

1 But Saul (Saulos), still breathing out threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, having gone to the high priest, 2 requested from him letters to Damascus (Damaskos), to the synagogues, so that if he found any being of the Way, both men and women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem (Hierousalem). 3 And as he was traveling, it came about that he was drawing near to Damascus; and suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. 4 And having fallen on the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul (Saoul), Saul, why are you persecuting Me?" 5 And he said, "Who are You, Lord?" And the Lord said, "I am Jesus (Iesous), whom you are persecuting. It is hard for you to kick against goads." 6 And trembling and astonished, he said, "Lord, what do You want me to do?" And the Lord said to him, "Rise up and enter into the city, and it will be told to you what you must do." 7 And the men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing indeed the voice but seeing no one. 8 And Saul rose up from the ground, and with his eyes opened, he was seeing no one; and leading him by the hand, they brought him into Damascus. 9 And he was three days without seeing, and he neither ate nor drank.

Ananias Sent to Saul

10 Now there was a certain disciple in Damascus named Ananias; and the Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Look, I am here, Lord." 11 And the Lord said to him, "Having risen up, go to the street which is called Straight (Euthys), and seek in the house of Judas (Ioudas) one named

9:11 Acts 21:39; Acts 22:3; Acts 9:30

8:34 concerning whom does the prophet say this The right question, and the one many Jewish readers have asked about Isaiah 53.
8:35 having begun from this Scripture, preached Jesus as the gospel to him Philip did not have to look far to find Jesus. He is the center of all Scripture (Luke 24:27).
8:37 If you believe from all your heart, it is permitted The SLB includes verse 37, as the King James Version does. Most modern translations leave it out or footnote it, because it is not in the earliest manuscripts of Acts. Either way, it fits the rest of Acts: faith comes first, then baptism as the believer's public confession.
8:38 they both went down into the water Many believers see "went down into the water" and "came up out of the water" as pointing to immersion, a picture of burial and new life with Christ (Rom 6:3-4). Other Christians baptize by pouring or sprinkling. What matters most is that this man believed in Jesus and obeyed Him.
8:39 he was going on his way rejoicing He had come looking for God and went home with Jesus in his heart. Tradition says he carried the Gospel home, but Scripture does not tell us. The Gospel was moving toward the ends of the earth (1:8).
8:40 Philip was found at Azotus Azotus was the old Philistine city of Ashdod, about twenty miles north of Gaza. Caesarea was a large port built by Herod the Great and the Roman capital of the province. About twenty years later Paul stays at Philip's house there (21:8-9). Whether God sends us to many or to one, the job is the same: tell them about Jesus.
9:1 still breathing out threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord Luke picks up where he left Saul in 8:3. This was not a passing anger. It was a settled mission.
9:2 if he found any being of the Way Damascus was a major city in Syria, about 150 miles northeast of Jerusalem, with a large Jewish population. Believers were already there, which shows how fast the Gospel spread after the scattering (8:4). The Way is one of the earliest names for the Christian faith (19:9, 23; 24:14), fitting for those who follow the One who called Himself "the way" (John 14:6).
9:3 a light from heaven flashed around him Paul later tells us it was about noon and the light was brighter than the sun (22:6; 26:13).
9:4 Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me Saul had never laid a hand on Jesus. He was arresting men and women in the church. But Jesus is so joined to His people that what is done to them is done to Him (Matt 25:40). If you belong to Christ, you never suffer alone. He takes it personally.
9:5 I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting Saul had been sure Jesus was a false teacher, dead and buried. Now he learned that Jesus was alive and speaking from heaven. A goad was a pointed stick for driving oxen; kicking against it only hurt the ox.
9:6 it will be told to you what you must do Jesus did not give Saul the whole plan. That is often how God leads us. He gives the next step, not the whole map. The man used to being in charge now had to obey and wait.
9:7 hearing indeed the voice but seeing no one God made sure there were witnesses that something real happened, but the message was for Saul. Later Paul says they did not hear the voice of the One speaking (22:9). The common explanation is that they heard a sound but did not see Jesus or understand the words.
9:9 he was three days without seeing The proud Pharisee who marched toward Damascus with letters of authority had to be led in by the hand. Everything he had believed about Jesus was wrong. God sometimes has to stop us in our tracks before He can rebuild us. Those three days were a time of quiet, and he spent them praying (9:11).
9:10 a certain disciple in Damascus named Ananias Not the Ananias of chapter 5. Paul later describes him as a devout man by the standard of the Law, well spoken of by all the Jews in the city (22:12).
9:11 the street which is called Straight Straight Street was a main road running east to west through Damascus. Tarsus was a leading city of Cilicia, in the southeast of modern Turkey. God was working on both ends, preparing Saul and Ananias at the same time.

Saul, of Tarsus (Tarseus); for look, he is praying, 12 and he saw in a vision a man named Ananias having come in and having put a hand on him, so that he may see again." 13 But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many concerning this man, how many evils he did to Your saints in Jerusalem; 14 and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all those calling on Your name." 15 But the Lord said to him, "Go, for this man is a vessel of choice to Me, to carry My name before Gentiles and kings and the sons of Israel. 16 For I will show him how many things he must suffer for the sake of My name." 17 And Ananias went away and entered into the house; and having laid his hands on him, he said, "Saul, brother, the Lord has sent me, Jesus, who appeared to you on the road by which you were coming, so that you may see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit." 18 And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he saw again at once; and having risen up, he was baptized;

Saul Preaches in Damascus

19 and having taken food, he regained strength. And Saul was with the disciples in Damascus some days. 20 And immediately in the synagogues he was proclaiming the Christ, that He is the Son of God. 21 And all those hearing were amazed and were saying, "Is this not the one who ravaged those calling on this name in Jerusalem, and had come here for this, that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?" 22 But Saul was being empowered all the more, and was confounding the Jews who dwell in Damascus, proving that this One is the Christ. 23 Now when many days were being fulfilled, the Jews plotted together to kill him; 24 but their plot became known to Saul. And they were watching the gates both by day and by night, so that they might kill him; 25 but the disciples, having taken him by night, let him down through the wall, having lowered him in a basket.

Saul in Jerusalem

26 And having arrived in Jerusalem, Saul was trying to be joined to the disciples; and all were afraid of him, not believing that he is a disciple. 27 But Barnabas, having taken hold of him, brought him to the apostles, and related to them how he had seen the Lord on the road, and that He had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus. 28 And he was with them, coming in and going out in Jerusalem, 29 and speaking boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, he was both speaking and debating with the Hellenists; but they were attempting to kill him. 30 But the brothers, having learned of it, brought him down to Caesarea (Kaisareia) and sent him away to Tarsus (Tarsos). 31 So then the churches throughout all Judea (Ioudaia) and Galilee (Galilaia) and Samaria (Samareia) had peace, being built up; and going on in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were multiplied.

9:13 how many evils he did to Your saints in Jerusalem Ananias was not arguing out of pride. He was afraid and told the Lord exactly how he felt. God is not offended when we bring Him our honest fears. Saints means holy ones. In the Bible a saint is not a super-Christian but every person who belongs to God.
9:15 this man is a vessel of choice to Me Everything the Lord said came true. Paul carried Christ's name to Gentiles all over the Roman world, stood before governors and King Agrippa (chs. 24-26), and as a rule went to the Jews first wherever there was a synagogue.
9:16 how many things he must suffer for the sake of My name The man who caused so much suffering would now suffer for the same name: beatings, stoning, shipwreck, hunger, and danger everywhere (2 Cor 11:23-28). Following Jesus is not a promise of an easy life. It is a promise that He will be with us through all of it.
9:17 Saul, brother Days earlier Saul was coming to drag Ananias off in chains. Now Ananias welcomes him as family. The Gospel turns enemies into brothers. Ananias was not an apostle but an ordinary disciple. God can use any believer who is willing to obey. Saul's three days of waiting were unusual, and Luke does not present them as a pattern for every believer.
9:18 having risen up, he was baptized Saul met the risen Lord and believed, then was baptized right away as his public step of obedience. Later Ananias tells him to "wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord" (22:16); the washing is tied to calling on the Lord in faith.
9:20 he was proclaiming the Christ, that He is the Son of God Saul wasted no time. The very first thing he preached was the truth he had fought against.
9:22 proving that this One is the Christ Christ is the Greek word that translates the Hebrew Messiah; both mean Anointed One. Saul knew the Old Testament deeply. Now that his eyes were opened he could see Jesus on every page, and he used those Scriptures to show that Jesus was the promised Messiah.
9:23 when many days were being fulfilled Paul tells us that after his conversion he went into Arabia, returned to Damascus, and three years later went up to Jerusalem (Gal 1:17-18). The many days likely cover that time.
9:25 having lowered him in a basket Paul mentions this escape in 2 Corinthians 11:32-33. The hunter had become the hunted. The man who arrived with letters of authority left hidden in a basket.
9:26 all were afraid of him Can you blame them? They had seen what he did to Stephen and to their families.
9:27 But Barnabas, having taken hold of him, brought him to the apostles We met Barnabas in 4:36, the "Son of Encouragement," and he lived up to his name. Every church needs a Barnabas, someone willing to take a risk on a new believer and vouch for him. Who in your life might need you to be that person?
9:29 debating with the Hellenists; but they were attempting to kill him The Greek-speaking Jews were the same group that argued with Stephen and had him killed (6:9). Now Saul stood where Stephen once stood. The brothers sent him through the seaport of Caesarea home to Tarsus, and he drops out of the story until Barnabas goes looking for him (11:25).
9:31 the churches throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace A beautiful summary. The church had peace but did not get lazy. It kept walking in the fear of the Lord and leaning on the Spirit, and peace and growth came together. Judea and Samaria, just as Jesus said (1:8). The fiercest persecutor had become a preacher.

33 And there he found a certain man named Aeneas (Aineas), lying on a mat for eight years, who was paralyzed. 34 And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus the Christ heals you; rise up and make your bed for yourself." And immediately he rose up. 35 And all those dwelling in Lydda and Sharon (Saron) saw him, who turned to the Lord.

Dorcas Raised

36 Now in Joppa (Ioppe) there was a certain female disciple named Tabitha, which translated is called Dorcas (Dorkas); she was full of good works and charitable deeds which she was doing. 37 And it came about in those days that she became sick and died; and having washed her, they laid her in an upper room. 38 And Lydda being near to Joppa, the disciples, having heard that Peter is in it, sent two men to him, imploring him not to delay to come through to them. 39 And Peter, having risen up, went with them; whom, having arrived, they brought up into the upper room; and all the widows stood beside him weeping and showing tunics and garments, as many as Dorcas was making while she was with them. 40 But Peter, having put them all outside and having bent the knees, prayed; and having turned to the body, he said, "Tabitha, rise up." And she opened her eyes, and having seen Peter, she sat up. 41 And having given her his hand, he raised her up; and having called the saints and the widows, he presented her living. 42 And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed on the Lord. 43 And it came about that he stayed many days in Joppa with a certain Simon, a tanner.

Cornelius' Vision

1 Now there was a certain man in Caesarea (Kaisareia) named Cornelius (Kornelios), a centurion of the cohort called Italian, 2 devout and fearing God with all his household, both doing many charitable deeds for the people and praying to God continually. 3 He saw clearly in a vision, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him and saying to him, "Cornelius!" 4 And he, having looked intently at him and having become afraid, said, "What is it, lord?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and your charitable deeds went up as a memorial before God. 5 And now send men to Joppa (Ioppe), and summon Simon, who is called Peter (Petros). 6 He is lodging with a certain Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea. He will tell you what you must do." 7 And when the angel who was speaking to Cornelius had departed, having called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those steadfastly attending him, 8 and having related all things to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Vision

9 Now on the next day, as those men were journeying and drawing near to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour. 10 And he became very hungry and was wanting to eat; but while they were preparing, a trance fell upon him, 11 and he sees heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending upon him like a great sheet, bound by four corners and being let down upon the earth, 12 in which were all the four-footed animals of the earth and the wild beasts and the creeping things and the birds of heaven.

9:34 Aeneas, Jesus the Christ heals you Lydda was about twenty-five miles northwest of Jerusalem toward the coast. Peter took no credit; he made clear who was doing the healing.
9:35 who turned to the Lord Sharon was the fertile coastal plain nearby. The miracle was not the goal. People turning to the Lord was the goal, and that is always the purpose of God's mighty works in Acts.
9:36 Tabitha, which translated is called Dorcas Joppa was a seaport on the Mediterranean (modern Jaffa, part of Tel Aviv). Both names mean gazelle. She was known for what she did for others. Lydda was only about ten to twelve miles away, and the believers had hope because of what God did there.
9:39 showing tunics and garments, as many as Dorcas was making What a picture of a life well spent. Her legacy was not money or fame. It was clothing that kept poor widows warm.
9:40 having put them all outside and having bent the knees, prayed Peter did what he had watched Jesus do with Jairus' daughter (Mark 5:40-41). And he prayed first. The power belonged to God, not to Peter.
9:43 a certain Simon, a tanner A detail easy to skip. A tanner worked with the skins of dead animals, and touching them made a person ceremonially unclean (Lev 11:39-40), so many Jews looked down on tanners. God was already loosening Peter's old ideas of clean and unclean. Chapter 10 takes that lesson much further.
10:1 a centurion of the cohort called Italian Caesarea, built by Herod the Great and named for Caesar Augustus, was the Roman capital of the province and full of soldiers. A centurion commanded about a hundred men; a cohort was a larger unit of several hundred.
10:2 devout and fearing God with all his household Men like Cornelius were often called God-fearers. They worshiped the God of Israel and followed much of His teaching but had not become full converts through circumcision. Cornelius was a sincere seeker, but he still needed to hear about Jesus to be saved (11:14).
10:3 about the ninth hour of the day About three in the afternoon, the regular hour of afternoon prayer at the temple (3:1).
10:4 Your prayers and your charitable deeds went up as a memorial before God In other words, God had noticed. He sees the seeking heart.
10:6 He will tell you what you must do The angel did not preach the Gospel to Cornelius. God gave that job to a man. Angels can point the way, but God has chosen to carry the message of salvation through believers like you and me.
10:8 he sent them to Joppa Cornelius did not wait. Joppa was about thirty miles south along the coast. When God speaks, the right response is to obey quickly.
10:9 Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour About noon. Flat roofs made a quiet place to rest and pray. While Cornelius' men were on the road, God was preparing Peter's heart. God often works on both sides of a meeting, as He did with Saul and Ananias.

13 And a voice came to him, "Having risen up, Peter, kill and eat." 14 But Peter said, "By no means, Lord; for I have never eaten anything common or unclean." 15 And a voice came again a second time to him, "What God has cleansed, you must not call common." 16 And this happened three times; and the vessel was taken up again into heaven. 17 Now while Peter was perplexed in himself as to what the vision which he had seen might be, then look, the men who had been sent from Cornelius, having inquired for the house of Simon, stood at the gateway. 18 And having called out, they were asking whether Simon, who is called Peter, is lodging here.
19 And while Peter was pondering over the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Look, three men are seeking you. 20 But having risen up, go down and go with them, doubting nothing, because I have sent them." 21 And Peter, having gone down to the men who had been sent from Cornelius to him, said, "Look, I am he whom you seek. What is the cause for which you are here?" 22 And they said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man and one fearing God, and well testified to by the whole nation of the Jews, was divinely instructed by a holy angel to summon you to his house and to hear declarations from you."

Peter in Cornelius' House

23 So having invited them in, he lodged them. And on the next day Peter went out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa went with him. 24 And on the next day they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius was expecting them, having called together his relatives and close friends. 25 And as it came about that Peter entered, Cornelius, having met him, fell at his feet and worshiped him. 26 But Peter raised him up, saying, "Rise up; I myself also am a man." 27 And talking with him, he entered, and he finds many gathered together. 28 And he said to them, "You yourselves know how unlawful it is for a Jewish man to be joined to or to come near to a foreigner; and to me God has shown to call no man common or unclean. 29 Therefore also I came without objection, having been summoned. So I ask, for what reason did you summon me?" 30 And Cornelius said, "Four days ago until this hour I was fasting, and at the ninth hour praying in my house; and look, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 and he says, 'Cornelius, your prayer was heard, and your charitable deeds were remembered before God. 32 Send therefore to Joppa and call for Simon, who is called Peter. He is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea; who, having come, will speak to you.' 33 So at once I sent to you, and you did well, having come. Now therefore we are all present before God to hear all the things commanded you by God."

The Gospel to the Gentiles

34 And Peter, having opened his mouth, said, "In truth I grasp that God is not one who shows partiality, 35 but in every nation the one fearing Him and working righteousness is acceptable to Him. 36 The word which He sent to the sons of Israel, preaching peace as the gospel through Jesus

10:13 Having risen up, Peter, kill and eat For a faithful Jew this was shocking. The Law divided animals into clean and unclean (Lev 11), and this sheet held both kinds mixed together. Peter later learned the vision was mainly about people (10:28), though it also fits the setting aside of the food laws for believers (Mark 7:19; Rom 14:14).
10:14 By no means, Lord The answer contradicts itself. You cannot really say "Lord" and "no" in the same breath. Yet how often do we do the same thing?
10:16 this happened three times Peter had denied the Lord three times, and three times the Lord asked, "Do you love Me?" (John 21:15-17). Now God repeats this lesson three times. God is patient with us when we are slow to understand.
10:20 because I have sent them The Holy Spirit speaks and directs as a Person. He is not just a force. He is God, and He was leading this whole event.
10:23 having invited them in, he lodged them A Jew giving a room to Gentiles was a big step. The lesson of the vision was already sinking in. Six brothers from Joppa went along (11:12) and would serve as witnesses to what God was about to do.
10:24 having called together his relatives and close friends Cornelius was so sure God would speak that he filled his house with people to hear it. When we know the Gospel is coming, we should bring others along.
10:26 Rise up; I myself also am a man Peter refused worship that belongs only to God. Even an angel refuses John's worship and tells him to worship God (Rev 19:10; 22:8-9). No servant of God, however great, should receive worship.
10:28 how unlawful it is for a Jewish man to be joined to or to come near to a foreigner The Law of Moses did not forbid a Jew to visit a Gentile. That rule came from Jewish tradition built up to keep people away from anything unclean. Peter now understood that the vision was not only about food. It was about people.
10:33 we are all present before God to hear all the things commanded you by God What a wonderful attitude. They were gathered before God, not just before Peter, and Cornelius wanted to hear everything, not just the parts he liked. Every time we open God's Word, that should be our posture too.
10:34 God is not one who shows partiality God does not favor one race or nation over another when it comes to salvation.
10:35 in every nation the one fearing Him and working righteousness is acceptable to Him This does not mean a person can be saved by being good enough apart from Jesus. If that were true, Cornelius would not have needed Peter. God gladly receives people from every nation who seek Him, and He makes sure they hear the truth about His Son.
10:36 He is Lord of all Not just Lord of the Jews. Lord of everyone, including the Romans in that room. These Gentiles had likely heard rumors about Jesus. Now they heard the truth from a man who walked with Him.
10:38 God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and with power Peter gives a short summary of Jesus' life: anointed by God, doing good, healing all oppressed by the devil, because God was with Him.

how God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all those being oppressed by the devil, because God was with Him. 39 And we are witnesses of all things which He did, both in the region of the Jews and in Jerusalem (Hierousalem); whom they killed, having hanged Him on a tree. 40 This One God raised up on the third day, and gave Him to become manifest, 41 not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen beforehand by God, to us, who ate and drank with Him after He rose out of the dead. 42 And He commanded us to proclaim to the people and to solemnly testify that He is the One appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. 43 To Him all the prophets bear witness, that through His name everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness of sins." 44 While Peter was still speaking these declarations, the Holy Spirit fell upon all those hearing the word. 45 And the believers of the circumcision, as many as had come with Peter, were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit has been poured out even upon the Gentiles. 46 For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and magnifying God. Then Peter answered, 47 "Can anyone hinder the water, so that these should not be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit just as we also have?" 48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to remain some days.

Peter Explains to the Church

1 Now the apostles and the brothers who were throughout Judea (Ioudaia) heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. 2 And when Peter (Petros) went up to Jerusalem (Hierosolyma), those of the circumcision were contending with him, 3 saying, "You went in to men having uncircumcision and ate with them!" 4 But Peter, having begun, was explaining it to them in order, saying, 5 "I was in the city of Joppa (Ioppe) praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain vessel descending like a great sheet, being let down by four corners out of heaven; and it came as far as me. 6 Having looked intently into it, I was observing it, and I saw the four-footed animals of the earth and the wild beasts and the creeping things and the birds of heaven. 7 And I heard a voice saying to me, 'Having risen up, Peter, kill and eat.' 8 But I said, 'By no means, Lord; for anything common or unclean has never entered into my mouth.' 9 But a voice answered me a second time out of heaven, 'What God has cleansed, you must not call common.' 10 And this happened three times, and all was drawn up again into heaven. 11 And look, immediately three men stood at the house in which I was, having been sent from Caesarea (Kaisareia) to me. 12 And the Spirit told me to go with them, doubting nothing. And these six brothers also went with me, and we entered into the house of the man. 13 And he related to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying to him, 'Send men to Joppa and summon Simon, who is called Peter, 14 who will speak declarations to you by which you will be saved, you and all your household.' 15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them, even as also upon us at 10:39 having hanged Him on a tree The phrase connects to Deuteronomy 21:23 and Galatians 3:13. Jesus took the curse that belonged to us.

10:41 who ate and drank with Him after He rose out of the dead That detail matters. The risen Jesus was not a ghost or a vision. He had a real body that could eat a meal (Luke 24:39-43).
10:42 the One appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead Every person who has ever lived will stand before Him one day (John 5:22; Rev 20:11-12).
10:43 everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness of sins The heart of the message. Not everyone who is Jewish, and not everyone who has done enough good works. Forgiveness comes through faith in Jesus. It is the same Gospel for Jew and Gentile, and the same Gospel for us today.
10:44 the Holy Spirit fell upon all those hearing the word Peter never got to the end of his sermon. Peter later calls this "the same gift" the apostles received at Pentecost (11:17).
10:46 they were hearing them speaking in tongues and magnifying God As God gave the Spirit with a visible sign to the Jews in chapter 2, and it seems to the Samaritans in chapter 8, He now does the same for the Gentiles. I believe God did this so no one could argue that Gentile believers were second-class members of the church. He confirmed it before six Jewish witnesses. Believers differ on whether tongues continue today.
10:47 Can anyone hinder the water If God had already accepted them, who could keep them out? They believed and received the Spirit, and baptism came afterward. They were saved by faith, and baptism followed as their act of obedience.
10:48 Then they asked him to remain some days Peter, who once would not eat with Gentiles, now stayed in a Gentile home. The wall between Jew and Gentile was coming down (Eph 2:14).
11:2 those of the circumcision were contending with him You would think this news would bring celebration. These were Jewish believers who felt the Law of Moses, including circumcision, still had to be kept. We will meet this group again in chapter 15.
11:3 You went in to men having uncircumcision and ate with them What bothered them was not so much that Peter preached to Gentiles as that he ate with them. Sharing a meal was a sign of fellowship and acceptance. Sometimes religious people are more upset about who sits at the table than about whether people are being saved.
11:4 was explaining it to them in order Peter did not get defensive, and he did not pull rank as the leading apostle. He answered to the church and simply told what God had done. When other believers question us, we do not need to argue or attack. Luke tells this story twice because it is so important.
11:12 these six brothers also went with me Peter had brought witnesses, and they were standing with him in Jerusalem.
11:14 who will speak declarations to you by which you will be saved Cornelius was a good, devout, generous man who prayed to God. But he still needed to hear about Jesus to be saved. Being religious is not the same as being saved. Salvation comes through hearing and believing the Gospel (Rom 10:14-17).
11:15 even as also upon us at the beginning At the beginning means Pentecost. The word of the Lord Peter remembered is recorded in 1:5.

the beginning. 16 And I remembered the declaration of the Lord, how He was saying, 'John (Ioannes) indeed baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' 17 If then God gave them the same gift as also to us, having believed on the Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, who was I to be able to hinder God?" 18 And having heard these things, they became silent, and they were glorifying God, saying, "Then God has given to the Gentiles also the repentance to life."

The Church at Antioch

19 So then those who had been scattered from the tribulation that came about over Stephen (Stephanos) passed through as far as Phoenicia (Phoinike) and Cyprus (Kypros) and Antioch (Antiocheia), speaking the word to no one except to Jews only. 20 But there were some of them, men, Cypriots and Cyrenians, who, having entered into Antioch, were speaking to the Hellenists, preaching the Lord Jesus as the gospel. 21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number, having believed, turned to the Lord. 22 And the word concerning them was heard in the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem, and they sent out Barnabas to go through as far as Antioch; 23 who, having come and having seen the grace of God, rejoiced, and was exhorting all with purpose of heart to remain with the Lord. 24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a large crowd was added to the Lord. 25 And Barnabas went out to Tarsus (Tarsos) to seek Saul (Saulos); 26 and having found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came about that for a whole year they were gathered together in the church and taught a large crowd; and the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch. 27 Now in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28 And one of them named Agabus (Agabos), having risen up, signified through the Spirit that a great famine was going to be over all the inhabited earth; which also came about under Claudius (Klaudios) Caesar. 29 And the disciples, according as anyone was prospering, each of them determined to send for ministry to the brothers dwelling in Judea; 30 which they also did, having sent it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

James Killed and Peter Imprisoned

1 Now about that time Herod (Herodes) the king put forth his hands to mistreat some of those from the church. 2 And he killed James (Iakobos) the brother of John (Ioannes) with a sword. 3 And having seen that it is pleasing to the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter (Petros) also. (Now those were the

12:3 Acts 24:27; Exod 23:15; Acts 25:9

11:17 who was I to be able to hinder God If God accepted them, Peter had no right to reject them. The gift came to those who believed. Faith is the key that opens the door, for Jew and Gentile alike.
11:18 Then God has given to the Gentiles also the repentance to life The leaders of the Jerusalem church agreed that Gentiles could be saved without first becoming Jews. Repentance is something we do, turning from sin to God, yet here it is also a gift from God. Both are true. God opens the door and draws us, and we must walk through it.
11:19 as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch Luke takes us back to the persecution after Stephen's death (8:1-4). Phoenicia was the coast north of Israel, in modern Lebanon; Cyprus is an island in the Mediterranean.
11:20 Cypriots and Cyrenians Cyrene was in North Africa, in modern Libya. These men were not apostles; their names are not even recorded. The SLB reads "Hellenists," which can mean Greek-speaking Jews, while many manuscripts read "Greeks." The contrast with "Jews only" in verse 19 shows that Gentiles were now hearing the Gospel.
11:21 a great number, having believed, turned to the Lord Faith and repentance go together. What Satan meant for harm, God used for good, as Joseph told his brothers (Gen 50:20). Antioch was one of the largest cities in the empire, a trading center known for loose morals and pagan temples. If the Gospel could take root there, it could take root anywhere, and Antioch became the church that sent Paul out on all three journeys.
11:22 they sent out Barnabas A wise choice. Barnabas was from Cyprus (4:36), so he understood people who had grown up among Gentiles.
11:23 having seen the grace of God, rejoiced Barnabas did not look for problems. He looked for God at work, and he found it.
11:24 he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith That is about the best thing anyone could say about a believer.
11:25 Barnabas went out to Tarsus to seek Saul Some years had passed since Saul was sent home (9:30). Barnabas could have kept the leadership in Antioch for himself. Instead he went and found the man God had called to the Gentiles.
11:26 the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch The word means those who belong to Christ. It may have started as a nickname from outsiders, but it stuck. It is used only three times in the New Testament (11:26; 26:28; 1 Pet 4:16). When people saw these believers, they thought of Christ. Can people tell by how you live whose you are?
11:28 a great famine was going to be over all the inhabited earth Claudius was emperor from A.D. 41 to 54. Early church prophets gave messages from the Spirit, sometimes about the future and often for strengthening (1 Cor 14:3), always to be tested (1 Thess 5:20-21). This prophecy was specific and came true, the test of a true prophet (Deut 18:22). Josephus describes a severe famine in Judea in the mid to late A.D. 40s.
11:29 according as anyone was prospering The disciples did not just hear the prophecy and worry. They acted. They gave according to what they had. Nobody was forced, and nobody was left out.
11:30 having sent it to the elders The first mention of elders in the church in Acts, the spiritual leaders who cared for and oversaw a local church. A mostly Gentile church sends help to a Jewish church that shortly before questioned whether Gentiles could be saved. Love crosses the lines people draw.
12:1 Herod the king put forth his hands to mistreat some of those from the church This is Herod Agrippa I, grandson of Herod the Great (Matt 2). Rome gave him rule over Judea from about A.D. 41 until his death in A.D. 44, and he worked hard to keep the Jewish leaders happy. "About that time" ties these events loosely to the famine relief of 11:27-30.
12:2 he killed James the brother of John with a sword James was one of the three closest to Jesus and the first apostle to die for his faith. Jesus had told James and John they would drink His cup (Mark 10:38-39). It can feel strange that God rescued Peter but let James die, and Scripture does not tell us why. Whether God delivers us from death or through death, He is still good and still in control.
12:3 having seen that it is pleasing to the Jews Herod was a politician. He did what made him popular. The days of Unleavened Bread were the week-long feast after the Passover, when Jerusalem was full of pilgrims.

days of Unleavened Bread.) 4 Whom also, having seized him, he put in prison, having delivered him to four squads of four soldiers to guard him, intending after the Passover to bring him out to the people. 5 So Peter was being kept in the prison; but fervent prayer was being made by the church to God for him.

Peter Set Free

6 And when Herod was about to bring him out, on that night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and guards before the door were keeping the prison. 7 And look, an angel of the Lord stood by, and a light shone in the cell; and having struck the side of Peter, he raised him up, saying, "Rise up quickly." And his chains fell off from his hands. 8 And the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and put on your sandals." And he did so. And he says to him, "Put your cloak around yourself and follow me." 9 And having gone out, he was following him; and he did not know that what was happening through the angel is true, but he was thinking he was seeing a vision. 10 And having passed through a first guard and a second, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which was opened to them by itself; and having gone out, they went on through one street, and immediately the angel departed from him. 11 And Peter, having come to himself, said, "Now I know truly that the Lord has sent out His angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews." 12 And having realized this, he came to the house of Mary (Maria), the mother of John who is called Mark (Markos), where many were gathered together and praying. 13 And when Peter knocked at the door of the gateway, a servant girl named Rhoda (Hrode) came to answer. 14 And having recognized the voice of Peter, from joy she did not open the gateway, but having run in, she reported that Peter was standing before the gateway. 15 And they said to her, "You are raving." But she was insisting that it was so. And they were saying, "It is his angel." 16 But Peter was continuing to knock; and having opened it, they saw him and were amazed. 17 And having motioned to them with his hand to be silent, he related to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Report these things to James and to the brothers." And having gone out, he went to another place. 18 Now when day came, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers over what then had become of Peter. 19 And Herod, having searched for him and not having found him, having examined the guards, commanded them to be led away. And having gone down from Judea (Ioudaia) to Caesarea (Kaisareia), he was staying there.

The Death of Herod

20 Now Herod was furiously angry with the Tyrians and Sidonians; and with one accord they came to him, and having persuaded Blastus (Blastos), who was over the bedchamber of the king, they were asking for peace, because their region was nourished from the royal land. 21 And on an appointed day Herod, having put on royal apparel and having sat on the judgment seat, was delivering a public address to them. 22 And the populace was crying out, "The voice of a god and 12:4 four squads of four soldiers Sixteen men took turns watching one fisherman. Herod may have heard that Peter had escaped from prison before (5:19), and he was not taking chances.

12:5 but fervent prayer was being made by the church to God for him Look at the word "but." On one side were a king, a prison, and sixteen soldiers. On the other was a church on its knees. They had already lost James, and they prayed in earnest. When we face something too big for us, prayer is not the last resort. It is the first and best thing we can do.
12:6 Peter was sleeping between two soldiers Peter likely faced execution the next morning, and he was sound asleep. That is the peace of God that goes beyond understanding (Phil 4:7). Peter may also have remembered that Jesus told him he would one day be old (John 21:18).
12:8 Gird yourself and put on your sandals God did the impossible part and removed the chains. He left the possible part to Peter, who still had to get dressed and walk.
12:9 he was thinking he was seeing a vision Peter had seen a vision on a rooftop in Joppa not long before, so it is easy to see why he thought this was another one.
12:11 Now I know truly that the Lord has sent out His angel This was not luck or a careless guard. It was the Lord. When God delivers us, we should be quick to give Him the credit.
12:12 the house of Mary, the mother of John who is called Mark It was the middle of the night, and they were still praying. John Mark would later travel with Barnabas and Saul, and he was Barnabas' cousin (Col 4:10).
12:14 from joy she did not open the gateway A small, human moment. Peter had just walked through an iron gate that opened by itself, and now he was stuck outside a gate a joyful servant girl forgot to open.
12:15 It is his angel Some Jews of the time believed each person had a guardian angel who might appear in his likeness. Jesus spoke of little ones whose angels see the Father's face (Matt 18:10). Scripture does not tell us much more, and we should not build too much on it.
12:16 they saw him and were amazed They prayed for Peter's release, and when God answered, they could not believe it. How often do we pray without really expecting God to answer? Yet God answered them anyway. He is faithful even when our faith is weak.
12:17 Report these things to James and to the brothers Not the apostle James who had just been killed, but James the brother of Jesus (Gal 1:19). He did not believe during Jesus' ministry (John 7:5), but the risen Lord appeared to him (1 Cor 15:7). He became a leader of the Jerusalem church (15:13; 21:18) and wrote the letter of James. Luke does not say where Peter went, and after chapter 15 Peter drops out of Acts.
12:19 commanded them to be led away Under Roman practice, a guard who lost a prisoner could face the prisoner's punishment. Herod took innocent lives to cover his embarrassment. His kingdom ran on fear and blame. God's kingdom runs on grace, where the only innocent Man who ever lived paid the price for us.
12:20 their region was nourished from the royal land Tyre and Sidon were Phoenician ports north of Israel. Blastus was the trusted official over the king's private rooms. These cities had depended on Israel for food since Solomon sent wheat and oil to Hiram (1 Kgs 5:11).
12:22 The voice of a god and not of a man Herod accepted their praise and did not correct them. Compare Peter, who said, "I myself also am a man" (10:26), and Paul and Barnabas, who tore their robes when people tried to worship them (14:14-15).

not of a man!" 23 And immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give the glory to God; and having become eaten by worms, he breathed his last. 24 But the word of God was growing and being multiplied. 25 And Barnabas and Saul (Saulos) returned from Jerusalem (Hierousalem), having fulfilled the ministry, having taken along with them also John, who was called Mark.

Barnabas and Saul Sent Out

1 Now there were in Antioch (Antiocheia), in the church that was there, some prophets and teachers: both Barnabas and Simeon (Symeon) who was called Niger, and Lucius (Loukios) the Cyrenian, and Manaen, foster brother of Herod (Herodes) the tetrarch, and Saul (Saulos). 2 And as they were ministering to the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart now for Me both Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." 3 Then, having fasted and having prayed and having laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

On Cyprus

4 So these, having been sent out by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia (Seleukeia), and from there they sailed to Cyprus (Kypros). 5 And having arrived in Salamis, they were proclaiming the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews; and they also had John (Ioannes) as an assistant. 6 And having passed through the island as far as Paphos, they found a certain magician, a Jewish false prophet, whose name was Bar-Jesus (Bariesous), 7 who was with the proconsul Sergius (Sergios) Paulus (Paulos), an intelligent man. This man, having called for Barnabas and Saul, sought to hear the word of God. 8 But Elymas the magician (for so his name is translated) was opposing them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. 9 But Saul, who is also Paul (Paulos), having been filled with the Holy Spirit, and having looked intently at him, 10 said, "O full of all deceit and all villainy, son of the devil, enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease perverting the straight ways of the Lord? 11 And now look, the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season." And immediately a mist and darkness fell upon him, and going about, he was seeking people to lead him by the hand. 12 Then the proconsul, having seen what had happened, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

Paul's Sermon at Pisidian Antioch

13 And having set sail from Paphos, those around Paul came to Perga (Perge) of Pamphylia; but John, having departed from them, returned to Jerusalem (Hierosolyma). 14 And they, having passed through from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia; and having gone into the synagogue on the Sabbath

12:23 because he did not give the glory to God God will not share His glory with anyone (Isa 42:8). An angel set Peter free; now an angel strikes the king who persecuted him. Josephus also records Herod Agrippa's sudden death at Caesarea during a festival after the crowd hailed him as a god. Palace, robes, and crowd could not keep him alive one more day. Real security is found only in belonging to the Lord.
12:24 the word of God was growing and being multiplied At the start of the chapter Herod was killing apostles. At the end Herod is dead and God's word is still spreading. Every ruler who has tried to stop God's word has failed.
12:25 Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, having fulfilled the ministry The ministry was the famine relief of 11:30. This sets the stage for chapter 13, when the church in Antioch sends Barnabas and Saul out on the first missionary journey.
13:1 some prophets and teachers Antioch in Syria had become the second home base of the Gospel (11:19-26). The list tells a story. Barnabas was a Levite from Cyprus. Niger is Latin for black, which may mean Simeon came from Africa. Lucius was from Cyrene in North Africa. Manaen was raised with Herod Antipas, who beheaded John the Baptist. Saul was a former Pharisee. God built this leadership from very different men, and the Gospel held them together.
13:2 as they were ministering to the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said They were not planning a mission strategy; they were worshiping. God often gives direction to people already busy seeking Him. "Set apart now for Me" shows the Spirit speaking as a Person. He may have spoken through one of the prophets. Saul had been told years earlier he would go to the Gentiles (9:15).
13:3 having laid their hands on them, they sent them away This did not give them a new gift or make them apostles. It showed that the whole church stood behind them and sent them in God's name. Missionaries are not lone rangers. They are sent by a praying church that keeps praying after they leave.
13:4 having been sent out by the Holy Spirit The church sent them, and the Spirit sent them; both are true. Seleucia was Antioch's port, and Cyprus was Barnabas' home island.
13:5 they were proclaiming the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews Salamis lay on Cyprus' east coast. Preaching first in the synagogues became Paul's usual pattern (17:2), to the Jew first and also to the Greek (Rom 1:16). John was John Mark, Barnabas' cousin (Col 4:10).
13:6 a certain magician, a Jewish false prophet, whose name was Bar-Jesus Paphos was the seat of Roman government on Cyprus. Bar-Jesus means son of Joshua. Satan does not sit still when someone with influence is about to hear the Gospel.
13:7 the proconsul Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man A proconsul was the Roman governor of a province, and this one wanted to hear the word of God.
13:9 Saul, who is also Paul The first time Luke calls him Paul. Saul was his Hebrew name, after Israel's first king; Paul was his Roman name. From now on, as he moves into the Gentile world, Luke uses Paul.
13:11 you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season Strong words, but Elymas was deliberately twisting "the straight ways of the Lord" (13:10). The blindness was for a season. It was judgment with mercy in it. Paul himself had been struck blind, and that blindness led to his salvation.
13:12 being astonished at the teaching of the Lord The sign got his attention, but the message won him. God may use many things to open a door, but people are saved by hearing and believing the Gospel. At the start of the journey a high Roman official comes to faith. The Gospel was for governors too.
13:13 John, having departed from them, returned to Jerusalem Now it is "those around Paul"; Paul has taken the lead. Scripture does not say why Mark left. Paul saw it as desertion (15:38). Yet years later he called Mark "useful to me for ministry" (2 Tim 4:11). Failure does not have to be final.
13:14 Antioch of Pisidia A different Antioch, north of Perga up in the mountains of Asia Minor.

day, they sat down. 15 And after the reading of the law and of the prophets, the synagogue rulers sent to them, saying, "Men, brothers, if there is among you a word of exhortation for the people, speak." 16 And Paul, having risen up and having motioned with his hand, said, "Men, Israelites, and you who fear God, listen. 17 The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and exalted the people during the sojourn in the land of Egypt (Aigyptos), and with an uplifted arm He brought them out of it. 18 And for a time of about forty years He put up with their ways in the wilderness. 19 And having destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan (Chanaan), He divided their land to them by lot. 20 And after these things, for about four hundred and fifty years, He gave them judges until Samuel (Samouel) the prophet. 21 And afterward they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul (Saoul) son of Kish (Kis), a man of the tribe of Benjamin (Beniamin), for forty years. 22 And having removed him, He raised up David (Dabid) for them as king, to whom also He said, having testified, 'I have found David the son of Jesse (Iessai), a man according to My heart, who will do all My wishes.' 23 From the seed of this man, according to promise, God raised up for Israel a Savior, Jesus (Iesous), 24 John having first proclaimed, before the face of His coming, a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. 25 And as John was fulfilling his course, he was saying, 'Whom do you suppose me to be? I am not He. But look, He is coming after me, the sandal of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.' 26 Men, brothers, sons of the family of Abraham (Abraam), and those among you who fear God, to you the word of this salvation was sent. 27 For those dwelling in Jerusalem (Hierousalem) and their rulers, not having known this One and the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, having judged Him, fulfilled them. 28 And having found no cause of death, they asked Pilate (Pilatos) that He be killed. 29 And when they had finished all the things written about Him, having taken Him down from the tree, they laid Him in a tomb. 30 But God raised Him out of the dead, 31 who appeared for many days to those who came up with Him from Galilee (Galilaia) to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to the people. 32 And we preach to you the promise made to the fathers as the gospel, 33 that God has fulfilled this to us their children, having raised up Jesus, as it has also been written in the second psalm, 'You are My Son; today I have begotten You.' 34 And that He raised Him up out of the dead, no longer about to return to corruption, He has spoken thus: 'I will give you the holy things of David, the sure things.' 35 Therefore He also says in another psalm, 'You will not give Your Holy One to see corruption.' 36 For David, having served the purpose of God in his own generation, fell asleep and was added to his fathers and saw corruption; 37 but He whom God raised up did not see corruption. 38 Therefore let it be known to you, men, brothers, that through this One forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you; 39 and from all things from which you were not able to be justified by the law of Moses, by this One everyone who believes is justified. 40 Beware therefore, lest what has been spoken in the prophets come upon you:

13:15 after the reading of the law and of the prophets A synagogue service included readings from the Law and the Prophets. Afterward the synagogue rulers could invite a visiting teacher to speak. God opened a door, and Paul walked through it.

13:16 Men, Israelites, and you who fear God, listen Paul speaks to Jews and to God-fearers, Gentiles who worshiped Israel's God without fully converting. He starts with their own history, and his point is simple: from the beginning it was God who acted. Israel's history is the story of His grace.

13:20 for about four hundred and fifty years, He gave them judges until Samuel the prophet The SLB, like the King James Version, ties the number to the period of the judges. Other translations place the 450 years before the judges, covering the time from Egypt to the conquest. Paul says "about," and his point is God's faithfulness through every age.

13:22 a man according to My heart, who will do all My wishes Paul, whose Hebrew name was Saul and who was also from Benjamin (Phil 3:5), mentions King Saul before David. The words recall 1 Samuel 13:14.

13:23 From the seed of this man, according to promise, God raised up for Israel a Savior, Jesus Paul's main point. Everything in Israel's history was leading to the Savior from David's line.

13:25 the sandal of whose feet I am not worthy to untie John's followers had spread beyond Judea (19:1-7), so some may have heard of him. The greatest prophet of that generation pointed away from himself to Jesus. That is the job of every believer.

13:27 not having known this One and the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath The irony: the rulers did not understand the prophets they heard every week, and in condemning Jesus they fulfilled those very prophecies. "The tree" in verse 29 recalls Deuteronomy 21:23.

13:30 But God raised Him out of the dead Those few words change everything. Men did their worst, and God overturned it.

13:31 who appeared for many days The resurrection was not a private vision. It was seen by many people over many days (1 Cor 15:3-8). Our faith rests on something that happened in history.

13:33 You are My Son; today I have begotten You Paul applies Psalm 2:7 to the resurrection. Jesus did not become God's Son then; He has always been the Son. The resurrection publicly declared who He was (Rom 1:4).

13:34 no longer about to return to corruption Lazarus was raised, but he died again. Jesus rose never to die again. The quotations come from Isaiah 55:3 and Psalm 16:10, the psalm Peter used at Pentecost (2:25-31). The blessings promised to David are sure because David's greater Son lives forever.

13:36 having served the purpose of God in his own generation, fell asleep David's body decayed, so Psalm 16 could not have been about David himself. And a lesson: we cannot serve every generation, but we can serve ours. God has placed each of us in this time on purpose.

13:39 by this One everyone who believes is justified The heart of the sermon. Justified means declared right with God. The Law could show sin but never remove it. Faith in Jesus does what the Law never could, the truth Paul later spells out in Romans and Galatians. Salvation is by grace, through faith, in Christ alone.

41 'See, you scoffers, and marvel, and perish; for I am working a work in your days, a work in which you will by no means believe, even if anyone declares it to you.'"

Turning to the Gentiles

42 And as they were going out from the synagogue of the Jews, the Gentiles were begging that these declarations be spoken to them on the next Sabbath. 43 And when the synagogue had been dismissed, many of the Jews and of the worshiping proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, were persuading them to continue in the grace of God. 44 And on the coming Sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of God. 45 But the Jews, having seen the crowds, were filled with jealousy, and were contradicting the things spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming. 46 And Paul and Barnabas, having spoken boldly, said, "It was necessary for the word of God to be spoken to you first; but since you thrust it away and judge yourselves not worthy of eternal life, look, we are turning to the Gentiles. 47 For thus the Lord has commanded us: 'I have set you for a light of the Gentiles, that you should be for salvation to the uttermost part of the earth.'" 48 And the Gentiles, hearing this, were rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord; and as many as had been appointed to eternal life believed. 49 And the word of the Lord was being carried through all the region. 50 But the Jews incited the worshiping and prominent women and the leading men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their district. 51 But they, having shaken off the dust of their feet against them, went to Iconium (Ikonion). 52 And the disciples were being filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

Iconium

1 Now it came about in Iconium (Ikonion) that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews and spoke in this way, so that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed. 2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up and made the souls of the Gentiles evil against the brothers. 3 So then they stayed a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who was bearing witness to the word of His grace, and granting signs and wonders to be done through their hands. 4 But the multitude of the city was divided; and some were with the Jews, and some with the apostles. 5 And when there came about a rush both of the Gentiles and of Jews with their rulers to mistreat and to stone them, 6 having become aware of it, they fled to the cities of Lycaonia (Lykaonia), Lystra and Derbe, and the surrounding region; 7 and there they were preaching the gospel.

13:41 See, you scoffers, and marvel, and perish From Habakkuk 1:5, where God warned of judgment by the Babylonians that His people would not believe. A sermon full of good news still ends with a call to respond. The message that saves those who believe stands as a warning to those who refuse it.
13:43 persuading them to continue in the grace of God Proselytes were Gentiles fully converted to Judaism. Paul and Barnabas did not tell them to try harder at the Law. They told them to keep resting in what God had freely given.
13:45 the Jews, having seen the crowds, were filled with jealousy Sometimes religious people are the first to oppose the Gospel, especially when it reaches people they consider outsiders. Jealousy blinds us. We should be glad whenever anyone comes to hear about Jesus.
13:46 you thrust it away and judge yourselves not worthy of eternal life The word went to the Jews first because of God's plan and His faithfulness to His promises. The hearers judged themselves; God did not shut them out. The turning was local. In the very next city Paul goes straight back to the synagogue (14:1).
13:47 I have set you for a light of the Gentiles In Isaiah 49:6 God speaks to His Servant, the Messiah. Paul applies it to himself and Barnabas because they carry the Messiah's light. Reaching the Gentiles was God's plan all along, written in Israel's own Scriptures (1:8).
13:48 as many as had been appointed to eternal life believed God appointed people to eternal life, and they believed. Two verses earlier, those who refused judged themselves unworthy. Scripture holds both truths side by side: God is sovereign in salvation, and people are responsible for their response. I do not believe we have to choose one and throw out the other.
13:50 the worshiping and prominent women Likely Gentile women who worshiped at the synagogue and were married to powerful men. Opposition is not a sign of failure. Often it is a sign the message is getting through.
13:51 having shaken off the dust of their feet against them Jesus told His disciples to do this when a town refused them (Luke 9:5; 10:11). It meant they had done their part and the responsibility now belonged to the hearers.
13:52 the disciples were being filled with joy and the Holy Spirit Their teachers were gone and persecution had come, yet they were full of joy. That joy did not come from circumstances. It came from the Spirit living in them.
14:1 they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews and spoke in this way Iconium was about ninety miles east of Pisidian Antioch, and Paul and Barnabas went to the synagogue first as usual. God uses the message, but He also uses how we deliver it. They spoke with conviction and clarity, and a great multitude believed.
14:2 made the souls of the Gentiles evil against the brothers Unbelief is rarely content to stay quiet. It often works to pull others away too.
14:3 So then they stayed a long time Opposition did not drive them out right away; it made them dig in. The message comes first, and the miracles confirm it. Signs were God's stamp on the Gospel His servants preached (Heb 2:3-4).
14:4 some were with the Jews, and some with the apostles One of only two places where Barnabas is called an apostle (also 14:14). The word means one who is sent. He was not one of the twelve, but the Spirit and the church had sent him (13:2-4). The Gospel still divides people, as Jesus said it would (Luke 12:51).
14:6 they fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra and Derbe Fleeing was not cowardice. Jesus told His followers to flee to the next city when persecuted (Matt 10:23). There is a time to stand and a time to move on. When they arrived, they kept preaching. They changed their location, not their message.
14:8 being lame from the womb of his mother, who had never walked Luke stacks up the details so there is no doubt about this man's condition. The healing echoes Peter's healing of the lame man in chapter 3. The same Spirit was at work through Paul as through Peter.

ting, being lame from the womb of his mother, who had never walked. 9 This man was hearing Paul (Paulos) speaking; who, having looked intently at him and having seen that he has faith to be saved, 10 said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" And he was leaping up and was walking. 11 And the crowds, having seen what Paul did, lifted up their voice in Lycaonian, saying, "The gods, having become like men, have come down to us!" 12 And they were calling Barnabas Zeus, and Paul Hermes, because he was the leading speaker. 13 And the priest of the Zeus who is before their city, having brought bulls and wreaths to the gates, was wanting to sacrifice with the crowds. 14 But the apostles Barnabas and Paul, having heard it, having torn their garments, sprang into the crowd, crying out 15 and saying, "Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of like nature with you, preaching the gospel to you, to turn from these futile things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all the things in them, 16 who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to go in their ways. 17 And yet He did not leave Himself without witness, doing good, giving us rains from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness." 18 And saying these things, they scarcely restrained the crowds from sacrificing to them. 19 But Jews arrived from Antioch (Antiocheia) and Iconium, and having persuaded the crowds and having stoned Paul, they were dragging him outside the city, having supposed him to have died. 20 But when the disciples had surrounded him, having risen up, he entered into the city. And on the next day he went out with Barnabas to Derbe.

Return to Antioch

21 And having preached the gospel to that city and having made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and Iconium and Antioch, 22 strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter into the kingdom of God. 23 And having appointed elders for them in every church, having prayed with fastings, they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed. 24 And having passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. 25 And having spoken the word in Perga (Perge), they went down to Attalia (Attaleia). 26 And from there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. 27 And having arrived and having gathered the church together, they reported all that God had done with them, and that He had opened to the Gen-

14:9 having seen that he has faith to be saved Scripture does not say how Paul saw it, in the man's face or by the Spirit's showing. The word for saved is also used for being made well, so it likely means both. Faith came from hearing (Rom 10:17).
14:10 he was leaping up and was walking A man who had never walked did not need to learn how. God gave him the strength and the skill in the same moment.
14:11 The gods, having become like men, have come down to us They spoke in their own language, so at first Paul and Barnabas did not know what was happening. An old story from this region told of Zeus and Hermes visiting in disguise and being turned away by all but one poor couple. The people of Lystra may not have wanted to make the same mistake twice.
14:12 they were calling Barnabas Zeus, and Paul Hermes, because he was the leading speaker Zeus was the chief of the Greek gods, and Hermes was their messenger.
14:13 was wanting to sacrifice with the crowds Imagine how this would tempt a man who wanted fame. A true servant of God refuses glory that belongs only to Him. Herod accepted that kind of praise, and it cost him his life (12:21-23).
14:14 having torn their garments A Jewish sign of grief and horror at blasphemy. They did not want worship.
14:15 to turn from these futile things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth With pagans Paul does not start with Moses and the prophets, as in the synagogue. He starts with creation, something they can see every day. Idols are futile things; the Creator is the living God.
14:16 allowed all the nations to go in their ways This does not mean God approved of their idolatry. He was patient and held back His full judgment (17:30).
14:17 He did not leave Himself without witness Every harvest and every meal was a message from the one true God. Creation shows God's power and nature so clearly that people are without excuse (Rom 1:20). Creation cannot save anyone, but it points to the God who can.
14:18 they scarcely restrained the crowds from sacrificing to them Old beliefs do not let go easily. It took more than one sermon to turn a city from idols. We should not be discouraged when the people we share with do not change overnight.
14:19 having stoned Paul, they were dragging him outside the city Antioch was more than a hundred miles away. The same people who wanted to worship Paul now stoned him. How quickly a crowd can turn. Never build your life on people's praise. Paul later remembered, "once I was stoned" (2 Cor 11:25), and he bore "the marks of the Lord Jesus" (Gal 6:17).
14:20 having risen up, he entered into the city Scripture does not say whether Paul had died and was raised, or was left for dead and revived. Either way, it was the hand of God. He walked back into the city that had tried to kill him. Among those disciples may have been young Timothy, whose home was Lystra (16:1).
14:22 through many tribulations we must enter into the kingdom of God The shortest way home ran through Tarsus. Instead they went back through the cities where they had been attacked, to strengthen the new disciples. These tribulations are the ordinary hardships every believer faces in this life. Paul never promised an easy life, but he promised a sure one. Hardship is not a sign that God has left us.
14:23 having appointed elders for them in every church Elders would shepherd and teach the new believers after the missionaries left (Titus 1:5; 1 Pet 5:1-3). There was more than one in each church, and they were appointed with prayer and fasting, as Paul and Barnabas had been sent (13:3). The missionaries could not stay to protect these churches, but they knew who could.
14:26 from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled Perga had only been passed through before (13:13); Attalia was its port. The journey had lasted perhaps two years and covered well over a thousand miles by land and sea.
14:27 they reported all that God had done with them They did not tell what they had done for God, but what God had done with them. The church that sent them in prayer deserved to hear how God answered. Missionary reports still build the faith of the church.

tiles a door of faith. 28 And they stayed there no little time with the disciples.

The Jerusalem Council

1 And certain ones, having come down from Judea (Ioudaia), were teaching the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses (Moyses), you are not able to be saved." 2 So when no small dissension and debate had come about for Paul (Paulos) and Barnabas with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas and certain others of them to go up to the apostles and elders, to Jerusalem (Hierousalem), about this question. 3 So then, having been sent forward by the church, they were passing through Phoenicia (Phoinike) and Samaria (Samareia), relating in detail the conversion of the Gentiles; and they were bringing great joy to all the brothers. 4 And having arrived in Jerusalem, they were received by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all that God had done with them. 5 But some of those from the sect of the Pharisees who had believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses." 6 And the apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter. 7 And when there had been much debate, Peter (Petros), having risen up, said to them, "Men, brothers, you know that from early days God chose among us for the Gentiles to hear through my mouth the word of the gospel and to believe. 8 And God, the knower of hearts, bore witness to them, having given them the Holy Spirit, even as also to us; 9 and He made no distinction between us and them, having purified their hearts by faith. 10 Now therefore, why are you testing God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11 But through the grace of the Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ we believe that we are saved in the same manner as they also." 12 And all the multitude kept silent, and they were listening to Barnabas and Paul relating how many signs and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them. 13 And after they were silent, James (Iakobos) answered, saying, "Men, brothers, hear me. 14 Simeon (Symeon) has related how God first visited to take out of the Gentiles a people for His name. 15 And with this the words of the prophets agree, just as it has been written: 16 'After these things I will return, and I will rebuild the tent of David (Dabid) which has fallen, and I will rebuild its ruins, and I will set it upright, 17 so that the remnant of men may seek out the Lord, and all the Gentiles upon whom My name has been called upon them, says the Lord, who does all these things.' 18 Known from eternity to 14:28 they stayed there no little time with the disciples A time to rest and be refreshed. But trouble was coming: men from Judea would soon teach that Gentile believers had to be circumcised to be saved. Many scholars believe Paul wrote Galatians, to these very churches, during this time.

15:1 Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you are not able to be saved Circumcision was the sign of God's covenant with Abraham (Gen 17:10-14). These men were not saying Gentiles should not believe in Jesus. They were saying faith in Jesus was not enough. Any message that says Jesus plus something is no longer the Gospel. Paul called it a different gospel (Gal 1:6-9).

15:2 no small dissension and debate This was not a minor disagreement about style. The heart of the Gospel was at stake, and Paul would not give an inch (Gal 2:5). The church solved it not by splitting but by going together to the leaders and seeking God's answer as one body.

15:3 they were bringing great joy to all the brothers The churches of Phoenicia and Samaria were planted by believers scattered after Stephen's death (8:1-5; 11:19). They knew what it was to be outsiders welcomed by grace, and they rejoiced that Gentiles were being saved.

15:5 some of those from the sect of the Pharisees who had believed The Pharisees were the strict party known for careful keeping of the Law and the traditions. These men had truly believed. They loved God's Law and could not yet see how it fit with God's grace.

15:6 to see about this matter A good model. When the church faces a hard question, its leaders should come together, take time, listen, and look carefully at what God has said and done. They did not vote on feelings or tradition.

15:7 God chose among us for the Gentiles to hear through my mouth the word of the gospel The council let everyone speak. Peter means Cornelius (ch. 10). Peter, the apostle to the Jews, was the first one God sent to the Gentiles. He had seen it with his own eyes.

15:9 having purified their hearts by faith God had already answered the question. Cornelius' household received the Spirit, as the Jewish believers had, before anyone baptized or circumcised them (10:44-48). If God accepted them by faith alone, who were they to require more?

15:10 a yoke upon the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear A yoke was the wooden frame placed on oxen to pull a load. No Jew had ever kept the Law perfectly. If the Law could not save the Jews, why load it on the Gentiles? Jesus offers a yoke that is easy and light (Matt 11:28-30).

15:11 we believe that we are saved in the same manner as they also Peter turns it around: we Jews are saved the same way the Gentiles are, by grace. No one has an advantage, and no one adds anything. Everyone who is saved, from Abraham to today, is saved by grace through faith (Eph 2:8-9). Peter's last words in Acts are a fitting final word.

15:12 they were listening to Barnabas and Paul Barnabas is named first; Jerusalem had known and trusted him for years (4:36-37; 9:27). Sometimes the best thing a heated meeting can do is stop talking and listen to what God has been doing.

15:13 James answered James the brother of Jesus (Gal 1:19), not the apostle killed by Herod (12:2). He had become a leading elder of the Jerusalem church.

15:14 to take out of the Gentiles a people for His name James calls Peter by his Hebrew name, Simeon. Israel had always been called God's people. Now God was also gathering a people for His name from the nations.

15:16 I will rebuild the tent of David which has fallen James quotes Amos 9:11-12, which comes after judgment and ends with Israel restored to its land (Amos 9:14-15). I believe James is saying the Gentiles coming to God fits the plan the prophets saw. The rebuilding began with the resurrection of David's Son and will be completed when He returns to reign. God's work among the Gentiles does not cancel His promises to Israel.

15:18 Known from eternity to God are all His works Taking in the Gentiles was no surprise to God. He promised Abraham that all the families of the earth would be blessed through him (Gen 12:3). What was new to the Jerusalem church was very old to God.

God are all His works. 19 Therefore I judge not to trouble those from among the Gentiles who are turning to God, 20 but to write to them to abstain from the pollutions of the idols and the sexual immorality and the strangled thing and the blood. 21 For Moses from generations of old has in every city those who proclaim him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath."

The Council's Letter

22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders with the whole church to send men chosen from among them to Antioch (Antiocheia) with Paul and Barnabas: Judas (Ioudas) called Barsabbas (Barsabas), and Silas, leading men among the brothers, 23 having written through their hand these things: "The apostles and the elders and the brothers, to the brothers from among the Gentiles throughout Antioch and Syria and Cilicia (Kilikia): Greetings. 24 Since we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying that you must be circumcised and keep the law, to whom we gave no instructions, 25 it seemed good to us, having become of one accord, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 men who have handed over their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, and they themselves are reporting the same things through word of mouth. 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay upon you no greater burden except these necessary things: 29 to abstain from things sacrificed to idols and blood and what is strangled and sexual immorality. Keeping yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell." 30 So then they, having been sent off, came to Antioch; and having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter. 31 And having read it, they rejoiced at the encouragement. 32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brothers with many words and strengthened them. 33 And having spent a time there, they were sent away in peace from the brothers to the apostles. 34 But it seemed good to Silas to remain there. 35 But Paul and Barnabas were staying in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord as the gospel, with many others also.

Paul and Barnabas Part Ways

36 And after some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Having turned back now, let us visit our brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are." 37 And Barnabas determined to take along John (Ioannes), who is called Mark (Markos). 38 But Paul was thinking it fitting not to take along this one, who had withdrawn from them from Pamphylia and had not gone with them to the work. 39 So there came about a sharp disagree-

15:19 not to trouble those from among the Gentiles who are turning to God Do not make it harder for people to come to God than God Himself has made it. James was not ruling alone. He summed up what the council had heard, and the rest agreed (15:22, 25).

15:20 to abstain from the pollutions of the idols and the sexual immorality and the strangled thing and the blood Not conditions for salvation, which the council had just settled is by grace. Three concerned food especially offensive to Jews (Lev 17:10-14); sexual immorality was common in pagan temple worship. These guidelines helped Jewish and Gentile believers share the same table. Unlike the food rules, the ban on sexual immorality binds every believer in every age (1 Cor 6:18; 1 Thess 4:3).

15:21 Moses from generations of old has in every city those who proclaim him James' reason is practical. Jewish communities were everywhere, and careless offense would hurt the Gospel's witness among them. Freedom in Christ should be used in love, not in a way that makes a brother stumble (1 Cor 8:9-13; Rom 14:13-21).

15:22 Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas Sending trusted men in person meant no one could say Paul and Barnabas had twisted the decision. Silas becomes Paul's partner on the second journey (15:40); his Roman name was Silvanus (1 Thess 1:1).

15:24 some who went out from us have troubled you with words The church admitted the problem came from its own people. That kind of honesty is rare and needed in the church today.

15:26 men who have handed over their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ The letter settled a doctrinal question and publicly honored the men who had been attacked over it. Unity in the truth and love for the people go together.

15:28 it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us One of the most remarkable phrases in Acts. The council knew the Spirit had led them through Peter's testimony, the reports of God's work, and the words of Scripture. The close of the letter is not a threat but a loving word from one family to another.

15:31 they rejoiced at the encouragement Gentile believers who had been told they were not really saved now heard from Jerusalem that they were brothers, fully accepted by grace. The truth of the Gospel always brings joy and freedom.

15:32 being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brothers with many words and strengthened them New Testament prophets spoke to build up, encourage, and comfort (1 Cor 14:3). Encouragement is a gift the church never outgrows.

15:34 But it seemed good to Silas to remain there The SLB includes verse 34, as the King James Version does. Most modern translations leave it out or footnote it, since the earliest manuscripts lack it; many believe a copyist added it to explain how Silas was in Antioch in verse 40. Either way, Paul found him when he needed a partner.

15:35 with many others also Antioch now had many teachers and no longer depended on one or two men. Healthy ministry raises up other leaders. It may have been in this period that Paul confronted Peter in Antioch for pulling back from eating with Gentiles (Gal 2:11-14).

15:36 let us visit our brothers in every city Paul had a shepherd's heart, not only an evangelist's. He wanted to know the churches were growing, not only that they had been started. This begins the second missionary journey.

15:38 who had withdrawn from them from Pamphylia Both men had a point. Barnabas, the Son of Encouragement, wanted to give his cousin a second chance. Paul remembered Perga (13:13) and the hardships ahead; he had been stoned in Lystra and needed partners he could count on.

15:39 there came about a sharp disagreement Luke does not hide it. Two godly men who had risked their lives together could not agree, and Scripture does not say who was right. I believe God used both. The Gospel now went out in two directions, and Mark grew into a faithful servant. Paul later spoke warmly of Mark (Col 4:10; 2 Tim 4:11) and named Barnabas alongside himself (1 Cor 9:6). The break was real but not permanent.

ment, so that they were separated from one another, and Barnabas, having taken Mark, sailed away to Cyprus (Kypros). 40 But Paul, having chosen Silas, went out, having been committed by the brothers to the grace of God. 41 And he was passing through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Timothy Joins Paul

1 And he came to Derbe and Lystra. And look, a certain disciple was there named Timothy (Timotheos), the son of a certain believing Jewish woman, but of a Greek father, 2 who was well attested by the brothers in Lystra and Iconium (Ikonion). 3 Paul (Paulos) wanted this one to go out with him, and having taken him, he circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places; for they all knew his father, that he was a Greek. 4 And as they were traveling through the cities, they were delivering to them the decrees to keep, which had been decided by the apostles and the elders who were in Jerusalem (Hierousalem). 5 So then the churches were being strengthened in the faith and were increasing in number every day.

The Macedonian Call

6 And having passed through Phrygia and the Galatian region, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia, 7 having come to Mysia, they were attempting to go toward Bithynia, and the Spirit did not allow them. 8 And having passed by Mysia, they came down to Troas. 9 And a vision appeared to Paul during the night: a certain Macedonian man was standing, pleading with him and saying, "Having crossed over into Macedonia (Makedonia), help us!" 10 And when he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.

Lydia Believes

11 So having set sail from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrace (Samothrake), and on the following day to Neapolis, 12 and from there to Philippi (Philippoi), which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia, a colony. And we were in this city, staying some days. 13 And on the Sabbath day we went outside the city by a river, where it was customary for prayer to be; and having sat down, we were speaking to the women who had come together. 14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple of the city of Thyatira (Thyateira), worshiping God, was listening; whose heart the Lord opened to pay attention to the things being spoken by Paul. 15 And when she had been baptized, and her household, she pleaded with us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, having entered into my house, 15:40 Paul, having chosen Silas, went out Silas was a respected Jerusalem leader who could confirm the council's letter, and a Roman citizen like Paul (16:37). Disagreements are painful, but they do not stop God's work. Grace carried both teams forward.

16:1 a certain disciple was there named Timothy Lystra is where Paul had been stoned and left for dead, and he went back anyway. Timothy's mother was Eunice and his grandmother Lois, both women of faith (2 Tim 1:5).
16:2 who was well attested by the brothers in Lystra and Iconium Before Paul chose him, the local church already knew his character. That is still a good pattern for choosing leaders.
16:3 he circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places Had Paul not just won the argument that circumcision is not required? Yes, but that ruling was about salvation. Timothy had a Jewish mother, and an uncircumcised son of a Jewish mother would have closed synagogue doors before Paul opened his mouth. Paul gave up a freedom for the Gospel's sake (1 Cor 9:20). With Titus, where salvation itself was the issue, he refused (Gal 2:3).
16:4 the decrees to keep, which had been decided by the apostles and the elders The decisions of the Jerusalem Council (15:23-29).
16:5 the churches were being strengthened in the faith and were increasing in number every day Sound teaching and growth go together. The Gentile believers knew they were fully accepted without the Law of Moses, and that joy was contagious. A church that understands grace grows.
16:6 having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia Asia was the Roman province in the west of modern Turkey, where Ephesus was. Scripture does not say how the Spirit stopped them, whether by a prophetic word, an illness, or circumstances. A closed door from God is as much guidance as an open one.
16:7 the Spirit did not allow them Paul was not sitting still waiting for directions. He was moving, and God steered him as he moved. It is easier to steer a car that is rolling than one that is parked. Many Bibles read the Spirit of Jesus here; the SLB follows manuscripts that say only the Spirit. Scripture calls Him "the Spirit of Christ" (Rom 8:9).
16:9 Having crossed over into Macedonia, help us Macedonia was a region in northern Greece, so the Gospel was about to enter Europe for the first time. People rarely know that what they need most is Jesus, but God knows.
16:10 immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia Suddenly the story says "we." Most scholars believe this is where Luke joined Paul's team. These "we" sections return later, and they mean we are reading an eyewitness account.
16:11 we ran a straight course to Samothrace Samothrace is an island, and Neapolis was the port for Philippi. The trip took two days; going the other way later took five (20:6). God gave the wind at their backs when He was sending them.
16:12 a leading city of the district of Macedonia, a colony A colony was settled by retired Roman soldiers and treated as a little piece of Rome. Its citizens had Roman rights and were proud of it. That detail matters later in the chapter.
16:13 where it was customary for prayer to be This suggests Philippi had no synagogue. Jewish tradition required ten Jewish men to form one, so a small group might gather by the water instead. Paul had seen a man in his vision, but the first people he met in Europe were women at a prayer meeting. God's call does not always look the way we expect.
16:14 whose heart the Lord opened to pay attention to the things being spoken by Paul Thyatira, in Asia, was known for its dyes and later had one of the seven churches (Rev 2:18-29). Purple cloth was expensive, worn by the wealthy. Lydia was a Gentile who worshiped Israel's God. Paul spoke, Lydia listened, and God opened her heart. Both are true at once. We share faithfully and trust God to do what only He can do.
16:15 when she had been baptized, and her household A household included family and servants, and the text does not give their ages. I believe the pattern in Acts is that people heard, believed, and then were baptized. Lydia's faith showed itself at once in hospitality, and her house became the meeting place of the church in Philippi (16:40).

remain." And she prevailed upon us.

Paul and Silas in Prison

16 Now it came about, as we were going to the place of prayer, that a certain slave girl having a spirit of Python met us, who was bringing much profit to her masters by fortune-telling. 17 She, having followed after Paul and us, was crying out, saying, "These men are slaves of the Most High God, who proclaim to us a way of salvation." 18 And this she was doing for many days. But Paul, having been greatly annoyed and having turned, said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus (Iesous) Christ to come out from her." And it came out that very hour. 19 But her masters, having seen that the hope of their profit had gone out, having taken hold of Paul and Silas, dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. 20 And having brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men, being Jews, are greatly disturbing our city, 21 and they proclaim customs which are not lawful for us to accept or to practice, being Romans." 22 And the crowd rose up together against them, and the magistrates, having torn off their garments, were commanding them to beat them with rods. 23 And having laid many blows on them, they threw them into prison, having charged the jailer to keep them securely; 24 who, having received such a charge, threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

The Philippian Jailer

25 Now about midnight Paul and Silas, praying, were singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. 26 And suddenly there came about a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison house were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and the chains of all were loosed. 27 And the jailer, having become awake and having seen the doors of the prison opened, having drawn a sword, was about to kill himself, supposing the prisoners to have escaped. 28 But Paul called out with a loud voice, saying, "Do no harm to yourself, for we are all here!" 29 And having asked for lights, he rushed in, and having become terrified, he fell down before Paul and Silas. 30 And having brought them outside, he said, "Sirs, what must I do that I may be saved?" 31 And they said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household." 32 And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all those in his house. 33 And having taken them in that hour of the night, he washed them from the blows; and he was baptized, he and all his people, immediately. 34 And having brought them up into his house, he set a table before them, and he rejoiced with his whole household, having believed in God. 35 And when day had come, the magistrates sent the rod-bearers, saying, "Release those men." 36 And the jailer reported these words to Paul: "The magistrates have sent that you may be released. Now therefore, having gone out, go

16:16 a certain slave girl having a spirit of Python In Greek stories Python was the serpent tied to the oracle at Delphi, so the name was used for fortune-telling spirits.
16:17 These men are slaves of the Most High God What she said was true. So why did Paul stop her? The source was a demon. Satan sometimes mixes truth into his work so people will trust the messenger. Jesus also silenced demons who announced who He was (Mark 1:34).
16:18 I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out from her Paul had no power of his own. The authority was in the name of Jesus Christ.
16:19 having seen that the hope of their profit had gone out A girl had been set free from a demon, and all the owners could see was lost income. When the Gospel touches someone's wallet, opposition often follows, as in Ephesus (ch. 19).
16:21 being Romans Their charges said nothing about money. They played on pride and prejudice in a Roman colony quick to turn on outsiders.
16:22 were commanding them to beat them with rods A Roman punishment carried out by officers called lictors. Paul was beaten with rods three times (2 Cor 11:25).
16:24 threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks The darkest, most secure part of the jail. The stocks held their legs apart, painful on top of the beating. There was no trial and no chance to defend themselves.
16:25 about midnight Paul and Silas, praying, were singing hymns to God Bleeding, in the dark, feet locked down, and they worshiped. One of my favorite verses in Acts. Praise is not only for when life is good. God was still worthy in a prison cell. People are always watching how believers handle suffering, and the prisoners were listening.
16:26 the chains of all were loosed Normal earthquakes do not unfasten chains. God did this.
16:27 was about to kill himself, supposing the prisoners to have escaped A guard who lost his prisoners could face their penalty, and he would rather die by his own hand than in shame.
16:28 Do no harm to yourself, for we are all here Scripture does not say why the prisoners did not run. Perhaps they were stunned, or after the hymns they sensed God at work. Paul cared more about the jailer's life than his own freedom.
16:30 Sirs, what must I do that I may be saved The most important question anyone can ask. He may have heard the slave girl's cry about "a way of salvation" (16:17) for days, and he had heard the hymns at midnight. Hours earlier he locked these men in stocks. Now he was on his knees before them.
16:31 Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household The Gospel in one sentence. Not do these works, not keep the Law. Salvation is by grace through faith in Christ alone (Eph 2:8-9). "Your household" does not mean his faith would save his family automatically. The same offer was open to each of them, and each heard the word and believed (16:32-34).
16:33 he washed them from the blows; and he was baptized, he and all his people, immediately They heard the word, believed, and were baptized. Baptism followed faith. The hands that locked Paul in stocks were now washing his wounds. That is what new life in Christ looks like.
16:35 Release those men Perhaps the earthquake scared the magistrates, or they thought a beating and a night in jail were enough for two troublemakers.

in peace." 37 But Paul said to them, "Having beaten us publicly, uncondemned, men who are Romans, they threw us into prison; and now are they throwing us out secretly? No indeed! But having come themselves, let them bring us out." 38 And the rod-bearers reported these declarations to the magistrates, and they were afraid, having heard that they were Romans. 39 And having come, they pleaded with them, and having brought them out, they were asking them to go out from the city. 40 And having gone out of the prison, they went in to Lydia; and having seen the brothers, they encouraged them and went out.

Thessalonica

1 And having traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica (Thessalonike), where the synagogue of the Jews was. 2 And according to the custom of Paul (Paulos), he went in to them, and for three Sabbaths he was reasoning with them from the Scriptures, 3 opening and setting forth that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead, and that this is the Christ, Jesus (Iesous), whom I proclaim to you. 4 And some of them were persuaded and joined themselves to Paul and to Silas, and of the worshiping Greeks a great multitude, and of the leading women not a few. 5 But the unbelieving Jews, having become jealous, and having taken certain wicked men of the marketplace loiterers, and having gathered a crowd, were setting the city in an uproar; and having come upon the house of Jason (Iason), they were seeking to bring them to the populace. 6 But not having found them, they were dragging Jason and certain brothers before the city authorities, shouting, "These who have upset the inhabited earth have come here also, 7 whom Jason has received; and these all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that another is king, Jesus." 8 And they troubled the crowd and the city authorities, who were hearing these things. 9 And having taken the security from Jason and the rest, they released them.

Berea

10 And the brothers immediately sent away both Paul and Silas during the night to Berea (Beroia), who, having arrived, went into the synagogue of the Jews. 11 Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, who received the word with all eagerness, examining the Scriptures every day to see if these things might be so. 12 So then many of them believed, and of the prominent Greek women and of men not a few. 13 But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul in Berea also, they came there also, stirring up the crowds. 14 And then immediately the brothers sent Paul away to go as toward the sea; but both Silas and Timothy (Timotheos) were remaining there. 15 And those conducting Paul brought him as far as Athens (Athenai); and having received a command for Silas

16:37 Having beaten us publicly, uncondemned, men who are Romans Roman citizens could not be beaten without a trial. Scripture does not say why Paul did not say so the day before; he may have been shouted down. This was not wounded pride. If the city leaders publicly admitted their wrong, the brand-new church would be safer after the missionaries left.
16:40 having seen the brothers, they encouraged them and went out The men who had just been beaten were the ones doing the encouraging. The story shifts back to "they"; Luke seems to have stayed behind in Philippi.
17:1 they came to Thessalonica, where the synagogue of the Jews was They traveled the Via Egnatia, the great Roman road across Macedonia. Thessalonica, about a hundred miles from Philippi, was the provincial capital and an important port. From a strong church in a major city the Gospel could spread through the region, and from Thessalonica "the word of the Lord has sounded forth" (1 Thess 1:8).
17:2 for three Sabbaths he was reasoning with them from the Scriptures Going to the synagogue first was Paul's custom. He was not just telling stories; he was proving his case from the Old Testament.
17:3 it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead Many Jews expected a conquering king, not a suffering servant, so Paul showed them passages like Isaiah 53 and Psalm 16, as Jesus did on the Emmaus road (Luke 24:25-27). When we share our faith, we should let the Scriptures do the talking.
17:4 of the worshiping Greeks a great multitude Most of this church were Gentiles who had turned to God from idols (1 Thess 1:9). Paul's letters suggest he stayed longer than three weeks, working at his trade and receiving gifts from Philippi more than once (Phil 4:16; 1 Thess 2:9). The three Sabbaths may describe his time in the synagogue.
17:6 These who have upset the inhabited earth have come here also The King James has them say the believers turned the world upside down. They meant it as an insult, but it was a great compliment. A handful of believers with no army and no money were changing the Roman world. I pray the same could be said of the church today.
17:7 saying that another is king, Jesus A dangerous charge in a city that owed much to Rome. It twisted the truth, but it was not entirely wrong. Jesus is King, and Paul's letters to this church are full of His return (1 Thess 4:13-18; 2 Thess 2). His kingdom does not come by rebellion, but one day every ruler will answer to Him (Rev 19:16). We obey earthly authorities (Rom 13:1), but our first loyalty belongs to Jesus.
17:9 having taken the security from Jason and the rest Likely a bond or sum of money, a promise that Paul would leave and there would be no more trouble. Jason paid a price for opening his home. Paul later wrote that Satan hindered his return (1 Thess 2:18), and this pledge may be part of what kept him away.
17:10 went into the synagogue of the Jews Berea was about fifty miles southwest. Fresh from a riot, Paul went right back to preaching. He did not let opposition stop him.
17:11 examining the Scriptures every day to see if these things might be so One of the best verses in the Bible on how we should study. The Bereans were open but not gullible. They checked even an apostle against God's Word, every day. We should do the same with any pastor or teacher today, including me. Open your Bible and check what you hear.
17:12 So then many of them believed Honest study of the Scriptures leads to faith. God's Word holds up when we test it. Faith does not require us to turn off our minds.
17:13 they came there also, stirring up the crowds They traveled about fifty miles just to stop Paul. Opposition to the Gospel can be very determined. Paul was the main target, so he left, and Silas and Timothy stayed to strengthen the new believers.
17:15 those conducting Paul brought him as far as Athens A long journey south. Timothy did come to Athens, and Paul then sent him back to strengthen the Thessalonians (1 Thess 3:1-2).

and Timothy that they should come to him as quickly as possible, they departed.

Paul in Athens

16 Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he was seeing the city full of idols. 17 So then he was reasoning in the synagogue with the Jews and with those worshiping, and in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be there. 18 And some of the Epicurean and of the Stoic philosophers were conversing with him. And some were saying, "What would this seed-picker want to say?" And others, "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign deities," because he was preaching Jesus and the resurrection as the gospel to them. 19 And having taken hold of him, they brought him to Mars' Hill (Areios pagos), saying, "Are we able to know what this new teaching is which is spoken by you? 20 For you are bringing some strange things to our ears; therefore we want to know what these things might mean." 21 Now all the Athenians and the visiting foreigners were spending their time in nothing other than to tell something and to hear something newer.

Paul on Mars' Hill

22 And Paul, having stood in the midst of Mars' Hill, said, "Men, Athenians, I see you as very religious in all things. 23 For passing through and observing your objects of worship, I found also an altar on which had been inscribed, 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' Whom therefore you worship without knowing, Him I proclaim to you. 24 The God who made the world and all things in it, He, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands, 25 nor is He served by hands of men, as needing anything, He Himself giving to all life and breath and all things. 26 And He made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having determined the times appointed beforehand and the boundaries of their dwelling, 27 to seek the Lord, if perhaps they might feel for Him and find Him; and yet He is not far from each one of us. 28 For in Him we live and move and are, as also some of the poets among you have said, 'For we are also His offspring.' 29 Therefore, being offspring of God, we ought not to think the Divine to be like gold or silver or stone, an engraving of the art and imagination of man. 30 So then God, having overlooked the times of ignorance, now commands all men everywhere to repent, 31 because He has set a day in which He is about to judge the inhabited earth in righteousness by a man whom He has appointed, having provided assurance to all, having raised Him from the dead." 32 And having heard of a resurrection of the dead, some were mocking, but others said, "We will hear you again concerning this." 33 And so Paul went out

17:16 his spirit was provoked within him as he was seeing the city full of idols Athens was the cultural center of the Greek world, with famous temples, statues, and schools of philosophy. Paul saw what visitors missed: people worshiping false gods. When we look at our cities, do we see only buildings and culture, or people who need Jesus?
17:17 in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be there The agora was the center of public life, where people bought, sold, and argued about ideas. Paul went where the people were. That is still how the Gospel spreads best.
17:18 some of the Epicurean and of the Stoic philosophers Epicureans taught that the gods, if they existed, were far off and uninterested, and that the goal was a calm life free from pain and fear. Stoics taught that a divine reason runs through everything and the wise accept whatever happens without strong emotion. A seed-picker was a bird pecking seeds, then a man picking up scraps of ideas. Some think they took Resurrection, Anastasis in Greek, for a goddess.
17:19 they brought him to Mars' Hill Areopagus means hill of Ares, the Greek god of war, whom the Romans called Mars. The name also meant the council that met there, which oversaw matters of religion and teaching.
17:21 to tell something and to hear something newer A dry comment from Luke. They loved ideas the way some people love the latest news. But curiosity is not the same as seeking the truth.
17:22 I see you as very religious in all things Paul was neither flattering nor mocking them. He was starting where they were.
17:23 TO AN UNKNOWN GOD The Athenians were so worried about missing a god that they built an altar to one they did not know. Paul did not start with the Old Testament, which they did not know. He found a point of contact in their own culture and led them from there to the true God.
17:24 does not dwell in temples made with hands Imagine saying that within sight of the Parthenon and the great temples of Athens.
17:25 He Himself giving to all life and breath and all things The Athenians brought gifts as if their gods needed them. The true God needs nothing from us. Every breath is His gift. We do not keep God alive; He keeps us alive.
17:26 He made from one blood every nation of men From one man, Adam. The Athenians looked down on outsiders as barbarians, but every person comes from the same ancestor. There is one human race.
17:27 if perhaps they might feel for Him and find Him The picture is someone feeling around in the dark. But God is not hiding. He placed us where we are so we might look for Him.
17:28 For we are also His offspring Paul quoted their own poets to show that even their writers sensed people come from God. Quoting a pagan poet did not mean agreeing with everything he believed. Paul took a line that was true and used it to point to the God of the Bible.
17:29 we ought not to think the Divine to be like gold or silver or stone It makes no sense for the children to make the Father. Living people cannot come from lifeless statues made by men.
17:30 having overlooked the times of ignorance, now commands all men everywhere to repent This does not mean God excused sin or that ignorant people are automatically saved; creation leaves all without excuse (Rom 1:18-20). God was patient and had not yet brought final judgment. Now that the truth is known, He commands all people everywhere to repent.
17:31 by a man whom He has appointed, having provided assurance to all, having raised Him from the dead The Man is Jesus. The resurrection is God's guarantee that judgment is coming. The same Jesus who rose will judge the living and the dead (10:42; Rev 20:11-15).
17:32 some were mocking Greek thinking generally looked down on the body and hoped to be free of it after death, not to get it back. A man rising from the grave sounded foolish (1 Cor 1:23). The resurrection is always the dividing line. Without it, Christianity is just another philosophy (1 Cor 15:14).

from the midst of them. 34 But some men, having joined themselves to him, believed, among whom also were Dionysius (Dionysios) the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Corinth

1 Now after these things, Paul (Paulos), having departed from Athens (Athenai), came to Corinth (Korinthos). 2 And having found a certain Jew named Aquila (Akylas), of Pontus (Pontikos) by birth, who had recently come from Italy (Italia), and Priscilla (Priskilla) his wife, because Claudius (Klaudios) had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome (Hrome), he came to them; 3 and because he was of the same trade, he was staying with them and was working; for they were tentmakers by trade. 4 And he was reasoning in the synagogue every Sabbath, and was persuading both Jews and Greeks. 5 And when both Silas and Timothy (Timotheos) came down from Macedonia (Makedonia), Paul was pressed in the spirit, solemnly testifying to the Jews that Jesus (Iesous) is the Christ. 6 But when they were opposing and blaspheming, having shaken out the garments, he said to them, "Your blood be upon your head; I am clean. From now on I will go to the Gentiles." 7 And having moved from there, he came to the house of a certain man named Justus (Ioustos), who worshiped God, whose house was adjoining the synagogue. 8 And Crispus (Krispos), the synagogue ruler, believed in the Lord with all his household; and many of the Corinthians, hearing, were believing and were being baptized. 9 And the Lord said to Paul in the night through a vision, "Do not fear, but keep speaking, and do not be silent; 10 because I am with you, and no one will set upon you to harm you; because I have many people in this city." 11 And he stayed a year and six months, teaching among them the word of God.

Paul Before Gallio

12 But when Gallio (Gallion) was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and led him to the judgment seat, 13 saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law." 14 But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If indeed then it were some wrong or wicked crime, O Jews, according to reason I would have borne with you. 15 But if it is a question about a word and names and the law among you, you will see to it yourselves; for I do not want to be a judge of these things." 16 And he drove them from the judgment seat.

17:34 Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris Some say Paul's sermon in Athens failed because no large church appears there. I disagree. People believed, including a member of the city's leading council. Our job is to be faithful. The results belong to God.

18:1 Paul, having departed from Athens, came to Corinth Corinth, about fifty miles west of Athens, sat on a narrow strip of land between two seas with a port on each side. It was the capital of Achaia, wealthy, crowded, and so known for immorality that its name became a word for loose living. Paul came "in weakness and in fear and in much trembling" (1 Cor 2:3). God often does His greatest work through people who feel weak.

18:2 because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome Pontus was on the southern coast of the Black Sea. The Roman historian Suetonius mentions this expulsion, which most date to about A.D. 49, and ties it to disturbances among the Jews, possibly over preaching about Christ. God used an emperor's order to bring Aquila and Priscilla to Corinth right when Paul needed friends. Luke never mentions their conversion, so they may have been believers already.

18:3 they were tentmakers by trade The word may also mean leatherworkers. Jewish teachers were expected to learn a trade. Paul worked so he would not burden the churches and no one could say he preached for money (1 Cor 9:12-15; 2 Thess 3:8). He taught that preachers have a right to support (1 Cor 9:14) but chose to give it up. There is no shame in a minister working a regular job.

18:5 Paul was pressed in the spirit, solemnly testifying to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ Silas and Timothy seem to have brought a gift from Macedonia (2 Cor 11:9; Phil 4:15), so Paul could stop making tents and preach full time. Many Bibles follow manuscripts that say Paul gave himself fully to the word. Timothy's good report about the Thessalonians led Paul to write 1 Thessalonians from Corinth (1 Thess 3:6).

18:6 Your blood be upon your head; I am clean Shaking out his garments meant, I am done here, and I am not responsible for what you do with this. It echoes the watchman of Ezekiel 33, who is free of guilt if the people refuse his warning. This was a decision about Corinth, not a final rejection of the Jewish people. In the next city Paul went to the synagogue first (18:19).

18:7 whose house was adjoining the synagogue Titius Justus lived right next door to the synagogue. That must have made for some uncomfortable Sabbaths.

18:8 Crispus, the synagogue ruler, believed in the Lord with all his household Something remarkable: the synagogue leader himself believed, and Paul baptized him personally (1 Cor 1:14). Again the order: they heard, believed, and were baptized.

18:9 Do not fear, but keep speaking, and do not be silent Even Paul got afraid. He had been beaten in Philippi, chased from Thessalonica and Berea, and mocked in Athens. Jesus met him in that fear.

18:10 I have many people in this city Many of them had not yet believed, yet Jesus already called them His. God knew who would respond, and He sent Paul to preach so they could hear and believe. God's knowledge does not make our preaching unnecessary. It is the reason we can preach with confidence.

18:11 he stayed a year and six months One of Paul's longest stays anywhere. The Corinthian church had many problems, as his letters show, but it was a real church, and it grew. Some believe Paul wrote 2 Thessalonians during this time.

18:12 when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia Gallio was the brother of the philosopher Seneca. An inscription found at Delphi dates his governorship to about A.D. 51 or 52, one of the most helpful dates we have for Paul's life.

18:13 This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law They likely meant that Paul's teaching was not the Jewish religion, which Rome allowed, but something new outside it.

18:15 if it is a question about a word and names and the law among you, you will see to it yourselves Gallio treated the Christian faith as a dispute inside Judaism, which Rome protected. That ruling may have given the Gospel room to spread for years. God kept His promise of verse 10. No one harmed Paul.

17 Then all the Greeks, having seized Sosthenes the synagogue ruler, were beating him before the judgment seat. And none of these things was a concern to Gallio.

Return to Antioch

18 And Paul, having remained yet many days, having taken leave of the brothers, was sailing away to Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila, having shaved the head in Cenchrea (Kenchreai), for he had a vow. 19 And he came to Ephesus (Ephesos) and left them there; but he himself, having entered into the synagogue, reasoned with the Jews. 20 And when they were asking him to remain a longer time with them, he did not consent, 21 but took leave of them, having said, "I must by all means keep the coming feast in Jerusalem (Hierosolyma); but I will return to you again, God willing." And he set sail from Ephesus. 22 And having landed at Caesarea (Kaisareia), having gone up and having greeted the church, he went down to Antioch (Antiocheia).

Apollos

23 And having spent some time there, he went out, passing through the Galatian region and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples. 24 Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by birth, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus, being mighty in the Scriptures. 25 This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately the things concerning the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John (Ioannes). 26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. And having heard him, Aquila and Priscilla took him aside and expounded to him the way of God more accurately. 27 And when he was wanting to pass through into Achaia, the brothers, having encouraged him, wrote to the disciples to welcome him; who, having arrived, greatly helped those who had believed through the grace. 28 For he was powerfully refuting the Jews publicly, showing through the Scriptures Jesus to be the Christ.

18:17 having seized Sosthenes the synagogue ruler, were beating him before the judgment seat The judgment seat was the bema, a raised platform whose remains can still be seen in Corinth. A Sosthenes is later called "Sosthenes the brother" (1 Cor 1:1). If it is the same man, God turned a beaten synagogue leader into Paul's fellow worker.
18:18 having shaved the head in Cenchrea, for he had a vow Cenchrea was Corinth's eastern port. This was likely a Nazirite-type vow (Num 6), perhaps of thanks for God's protection. The Law could not save anyone, but a Jewish believer was still free to keep Jewish customs as devotion, as long as he did not trust in them for salvation.
18:19 he himself, having entered into the synagogue, reasoned with the Jews Ephesus was the leading city of the province of Asia, where the Spirit had earlier stopped Paul from preaching (16:6). Now the door was opening.
18:21 but I will return to you again, God willing Paul made plans but held them loosely under God's will (James 4:13-15). God did will it, and Paul came back for more than two years (ch. 19). The SLB, like the King James Version, includes the words about keeping the coming feast in Jerusalem; most modern translations leave them out, since the earliest manuscripts lack them.
18:22 having gone up and having greeted the church, he went down to Antioch Going up usually means up to Jerusalem in the hills. Antioch was the church that had sent him out. This ends the second missionary journey, about A.D. 52.
18:23 strengthening all the disciples The third missionary journey begins. Paul never forgot the churches he planted. Starting churches matters, but so does strengthening them. Every church needs someone who cares enough to come back.
18:24 an eloquent man, came to Ephesus, being mighty in the Scriptures Alexandria in Egypt was a great center of learning with a large Jewish community. Apollos knew the Old Testament well.
18:25 knowing only the baptism of John Apollos seems to have known that John pointed to Jesus as Messiah, and he preached that faithfully. What he lacked was fuller teaching about what came after, likely including Pentecost, the coming of the Spirit, and baptism in Jesus' name.
18:26 Aquila and Priscilla took him aside and expounded to him the way of God more accurately They did not correct him in public or embarrass him. And Apollos, gifted as he was, was humble enough to learn from a tentmaking couple. Priscilla is named first, as she often is. God uses husbands and wives who serve Him together.
18:27 who, having arrived, greatly helped those who had believed through the grace Salvation from first to last is God's gift (Eph 2:8). In Achaia, at Corinth, Apollos built on Paul's work. "I planted, Apollos watered, but God was causing it to grow" (1 Cor 3:6). They were not rivals. Each did the job God gave him.
19:1 Paul, having passed through the upper parts, came to Ephesus The upper parts were the inland region of Asia Minor; this was the return Paul promised "God willing" (18:21). Ephesus was one of the largest cities in the empire, a major port, and home of the temple of Artemis. Jesus later addressed His first letter in Revelation to this church (Rev 2:1-7).
19:2 Did you receive the Holy Spirit, having believed Paul expected the Spirit to be given when a person believes, and something seemed missing. Their answer likely does not mean they had never heard of the Spirit, since John promised Jesus would baptize with Him (Luke 3:16). It likely means they had not heard that the Spirit had been poured out.
19:4 John indeed baptized with a baptism of repentance John's baptism looked forward and prepared people for the Messiah. These men had stopped there. Like Apollos they were sincere but incomplete, though unlike him they do not seem to have known clearly about Jesus.
19:5 they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus They heard, believed, and then were baptized. I believe John's baptism and Christian baptism were different: one a sign of repentance in preparation, the other the believer's public step of faith in the Savior who has come. "Into the name" means by His authority and into belonging to Him, not that only this phrase may be spoken; Jesus gave the words in Matthew 28:19.

they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 And when Paul had laid the hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they were speaking in tongues and prophesying. 7 And all the men were about twelve. 8 And having entered into the synagogue, he was speaking boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading them of the things concerning the kingdom of God. 9 But when some were being hardened and were disbelieving, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, having withdrawn from them, he separated the disciples, reasoning every day in the lecture hall of a certain Tyrannus (Tyrannos). 10 And this continued for two years, so that all those dwelling in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

The Sons of Sceva

11 And God was doing miracles of no ordinary kind through the hands of Paul, 12 so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were carried from his skin to the sick, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out from them. 13 But some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists attempted to name the name of the Lord Jesus over those having the evil spirits, saying, "We adjure you by Jesus, whom Paul proclaims." 14 And there were some, seven sons of Sceva (Skeuas), a Jewish high priest, who were doing this. 15 But the evil spirit, answering, said, "Jesus I know, and Paul I am acquainted with; but you, who are you?" 16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was, leaping on them and having overpowered them, prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17 And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who were dwelling in Ephesus; and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was being magnified. 18 And many of those who had believed were coming, confessing and declaring their practices. 19 And many of those who had practiced the magic arts, having brought the books together, were burning them before all; and they counted up their prices and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver. 20 Thus with might the word of the Lord was growing and prevailing.

The Riot at Ephesus

21 Now when these things were fulfilled, Paul purposed in the spirit, having passed through Macedonia (Makedonia) and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem (Hierousalem), having said, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome (Hrome)." 22 And having sent into Macedonia two of those ministering to him, Timothy (Timotheos) and Erastus (Erastos), he himself stayed for a time in Asia. 23 And about that time there came about no small disturbance concerning the Way. 24 For a certain man named Demetrius (Demetrios), a silversmith, making silver shrines of Artemis, was bringing no little business to the craftsmen; 25 having gathered these together, and also the workmen in such things, he said, "Men, you

19:25 Acts 16:19; Hos 4:8; Hos 12:7,8

19:6 the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they were speaking in tongues and prophesying I believe this was one of the special moments when God confirmed that a new group was brought into the one church: Jews (ch. 2), Samaritans (ch. 8), Gentiles (ch. 10), and here followers of John. I believe the tongues were real languages, as at Pentecost (2:6-11). Whether tongues continue today is a question believers disagree on, and it is not a matter of salvation.
19:7 all the men were about twelve A rough number, and I do not think we should read too much into it. What matters is that these men moved from an incomplete faith to a full faith in Jesus.
19:8 the things concerning the kingdom of God Three months was a long time in one synagogue; they had invited him back (18:20). The kingdom of God is God's rule through Jesus the King, present now in believers' lives and coming in fullness when Jesus returns to reign on the earth (Rev 11:15; 20:4-6).
19:9 in the lecture hall of a certain Tyrannus The Way was an early name for the faith (9:2; 24:14). Tyrannus may have been a teacher who owned the hall. Some ancient manuscripts add that Paul taught there from the fifth hour to the tenth, about eleven to four, during the midday rest. If so, Paul worked at his trade in the morning and taught in the heat of the day.
19:10 all those dwelling in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus People came to Ephesus from all over the province, heard the Gospel, and took it home, and Paul's coworkers went out. Epaphras seems to have brought it to Colossae (Col 1:7). Most likely the other churches of Revelation 2 and 3 began in this time. Training believers to carry the message is how a whole region is reached.
19:12 even handkerchiefs or aprons were carried from his skin to the sick Likely the sweat-rags and work aprons from his tentmaking. Ephesus was a center of magic, and God showed His power was greater. The power was not in the cloth or in Paul. I would be careful with ministries that sell "anointed" cloths. Scripture records what God did here but never tells us to make a practice of it, much less sell it.
19:14 seven sons of Sceva, a Jewish high priest Sceva may have been from a priestly family, or he gave himself the title to impress people. His sons treated the name of Jesus like a magic formula. They did not know Jesus; they only knew His name worked for Paul.
19:15 Jesus I know, and Paul I am acquainted with; but you, who are you A serious warning. The demon did not know these men, because they did not belong to Jesus. His name is not a spell. Saying the right words without a real relationship with Christ is empty (Matt 7:21-23).
19:17 the name of the Lord Jesus was being magnified The failed exorcism did more for the Gospel than any success could have. Jesus is not a tool to be used. He is Lord, to be respected and obeyed.
19:18 many of those who had believed were coming, confessing and declaring their practices These people had already believed, but some were still holding on to old ways in secret. Now they brought them into the light.
19:19 fifty thousand pieces of silver A silver coin was about a day's wage, so this was a huge sum. They burned the books rather than sell them, so no one else would be harmed. Real repentance costs something. Is there anything we know we should get rid of but keep because of its value?
19:20 with might the word of the Lord was growing and prevailing One of Luke's summary statements marking the Gospel's progress (6:7; 9:31; 12:24). In a city soaked in magic and idolatry, God's Word won out.
19:21 After I have been there, I must also see Rome Purposed in the spirit may mean Paul's own spirit or the Holy Spirit's guidance. From here on, Paul is headed to Jerusalem and then Rome, carrying a gift from the Gentile churches to the poor believers in Jerusalem (Rom 15:25-26; 1 Cor 16:1-4). He did reach Rome, though as a prisoner.
19:22 he himself stayed for a time in Asia During this stay Paul wrote 1 Corinthians, saying a great door had opened to him and many were opposing (1 Cor 16:8-10). The next scene shows both were true.
19:24 making silver shrines of Artemis Likely small models of her temple sold to worshipers and visitors. Artemis, whom the Romans called Diana, was worshiped all over Asia, and her temple was counted among the seven wonders of the ancient world. As in Philippi (16:19), the Gospel touched people's money, and trouble followed.

know that from this business is our prosperity. 26 And you see and hear that not only of Ephesus but of almost all Asia, this Paul, having persuaded them, has turned away a considerable crowd, saying that those made through hands are not gods. 27 And not only is this trade of ours in danger of coming into disrepute, but also the temple of the great goddess Artemis is in danger of being reckoned as nothing, and also her magnificence is about to be brought down, whom all Asia and the inhabited earth worship." 28 And having heard this and having become full of rage, they were crying out, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" 29 And the whole city was filled with confusion; and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius (Gaios) and Aristarchus (Aristarchos), Macedonians, traveling companions of Paul. 30 And when Paul was wanting to go in to the populace, the disciples were not allowing him. 31 And some of the Asiarchs also, being friends to him, having sent to him, were urging him not to venture himself into the theater. 32 So then some were crying out one thing and some another; for the assembly was confused, and the majority did not know for what reason they had come together. 33 And they put forward Alexander (Alexandros) out of the crowd, the Jews pushing him forward. And Alexander, having motioned with the hand, was wanting to make a defense to the populace. 34 But having recognized that he is a Jew, one voice arose from all, crying out for about two hours, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" 35 And the town clerk, having quieted the crowd, says, "Men, Ephesians, for what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great goddess Artemis and of the thing fallen from heaven? 36 Therefore, these things being undeniable, it is necessary for you to be quieted and to do nothing rash. 37 For you have brought these men, who are neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of your goddess. 38 If then Demetrius and the craftsmen with him have a matter against anyone, court days are held, and there are proconsuls; let them bring charges against one another. 39 But if you are seeking anything concerning other matters, it will be settled in the lawful assembly. 40 For indeed we are in danger of being accused of insurrection concerning today, there being no cause for it, concerning which we will not be able to give an account of this commotion." 41 And having said these things, he dismissed the assembly.

Through Macedonia and Greece

1 And after the uproar had ceased, Paul (Paulos), having called the disciples to himself and having said farewell, went out to go to Macedonia (Makedonia). 2 And having passed through those districts and having exhorted them with many words, he came to Greece (Hellas). 3 And having spent three months there, when a plot was made against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, there came about a decision to return through Macedonia. 4 And there accompanied him as far as Asia Sopater (Sopatros), a Berean; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus (Aristarchos) and Secundus (Sekoundos); and Gaius (Gaios) of Derbe (Derbaios); and Timothy (Timotheos); and Asians, Tychicus (Tychikos) and

19:26 saying that those made through hands are not gods Demetrius' complaint is a great testimony to how far the Gospel had spread. Even Paul's enemies admitted it.
19:27 but also the temple of the great goddess Artemis is in danger of being reckoned as nothing Demetrius wrapped his concern about money in religious and civic pride. He talked about the goddess, but his first concern was profit.
19:29 they rushed with one accord into the theater The theater's ruins still stand, and most estimates say it seated about 25,000. It was the natural place for a large public gathering.
19:31 some of the Asiarchs also, being friends to him Asiarchs were wealthy leading men of the province tied to its public life and festivals. Paul was ready to face the mob, but wise friends held him back. It is good to have people who will tell us no. Some of the most powerful men in Asia were Paul's friends; the Gospel had reached every level of society.
19:32 the majority did not know for what reason they had come together That is how mobs work.
19:33 they put forward Alexander out of the crowd, the Jews pushing him forward The Jews probably wanted to show they were not part of Paul's group. But to the crowd, Jews and Christians were the same, since both refused idols. Whether this is Alexander the coppersmith (2 Tim 4:14), Scripture does not say, and the name was common.
19:35 the thing fallen from heaven The town clerk was the city's chief official and its link with the Roman authorities. The thing fallen from heaven was likely a meteorite or a stone believed to have fallen from the sky.
19:37 who are neither temple robbers nor blasphemers of your goddess A good testimony to how Paul preached. He taught the emptiness of idols, but he had not mocked the people's goddess. We can speak the truth plainly without attacking people.
19:39 it will be settled in the lawful assembly The regular meeting of the city's citizens. A mob in the theater was not the way to do it.
19:41 he dismissed the assembly Rome did not tolerate riots, and a disorderly city could lose freedoms. God used a city official to protect His church, as He used Gallio (18:14-16). The Lord does not always remove opposition, but He keeps His people. He will build His church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it (Matt 16:18).
20:2 having exhorted them with many words, he came to Greece Macedonia held the churches of Philippi, Thessalonica, and Berea (chs. 16-17). Luke covers months in a few words. Paul was not just starting churches; he went back to strengthen them. Greece here most likely means Corinth, where he had spent a year and a half (18:11).
20:3 when a plot was made against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria Most scholars believe Paul wrote Romans during these three months, around A.D. 57, as he prepared to take a gift to Jerusalem (Rom 15:25-26). A ship full of pilgrims would have been an easy place to kill a man and throw him overboard, so Paul went back the long way, by land.
20:4 there accompanied him as far as Asia Many believe these men represented the churches carrying the offering to Jerusalem (1 Cor 16:1-4; 2 Cor 8:19-21). Paul was careful with money and made sure trusted men from the churches were with him so no one could accuse him of stealing.

Trophimus (Trophimos). 5 These, having gone ahead, were waiting for us in Troas. 6 But we sailed away from Philippi (Philippoi) after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas within five days, where we stayed seven days.

Eutychus Raised

7 And on the first day of the week, the disciples having been gathered together to break bread, Paul was reasoning with them, being about to depart on the next day, and he prolonged his speech until midnight. 8 And there were many lamps in the upper room where they were gathered together. 9 And a certain young man named Eutychus (Eutychos) was sitting at the window, being overcome by deep sleep as Paul reasoned longer; having been overcome by the sleep, he fell down from the third story and was picked up dead. 10 But Paul, having gone down, fell upon him, and having embraced him, said, "Do not be alarmed, for his life is in him." 11 And having gone up and having broken bread and having eaten, and having talked a long while until daybreak, so he departed. 12 And they brought the boy alive, and were comforted not a little.

From Troas to Miletus

13 But we, having gone ahead to the ship, set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul on board from there; for so he had arranged, intending himself to go on foot. 14 And when he met us at Assos, having taken him on board, we came to Mitylene. 15 And having sailed from there, on the following day we arrived opposite Chios; and on the next day we put in at Samos, and having stayed at Trogyllium (Trogyllion), on the following day we came to Miletus (Miletos). 16 For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus (Ephesos), so that it might not happen to him to spend time in Asia; for he was hurrying, if it were possible for him, to be in Jerusalem (Hierosolyma) on the day of Pentecost.

Farewell to the Ephesian Elders

17 And from Miletus, having sent to Ephesus, he called for the elders of the church. 18 And when they had come to him, he said to them, "You know from the first day on which I set foot in Asia how I was with you the whole time, 19 serving the Lord with all humility, and many tears, and trials that happened to me through the plots of the Jews; 20 how I held back nothing of the things that were profitable, from declaring them to you and teaching you publicly and from house to house, 21 solemnly testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ. 22 And now look, I, bound in the spirit, am going to Jerusalem (Hierousalem), not knowing the things that will happen to me in it, 23 except that the Holy Spirit solemnly testifies in every city, saying that chains and tribulations await me. 24 But I make account of nothing, nor do I hold my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to solemnly testify to the gospel of the grace of God.

20:24 Acts 21:13; 2 Cor 4:1,8,9,16-18; Acts 1:17

20:5 were waiting for us in Troas The word "us" means Luke is back. The last "we" passage ended in Philippi (16:16-17), and it picks up again in Philippi, so it seems Luke stayed there several years and now rejoins Paul. Unleavened Bread was the week right after Passover.

20:7 on the first day of the week, the disciples having been gathered together to break bread One of the clearest early signs that Christians met on Sunday, the day Jesus rose (Luke 24:1; 1 Cor 16:2). Breaking bread most likely means the Lord's Supper shared with a meal. Paul had much to say and little time. If you have ever felt a sermon was too long, you are in good company.

20:9 he fell down from the third story and was picked up dead The many oil lamps made the crowded room warm and smoky. Luke was a physician (Col 4:14), and he was there. He does not say Eutychus looked dead or was knocked out. He says he was dead, and I take Luke at his word.

20:10 Do not be alarmed, for his life is in him Paul fell on him and embraced him as Elijah and Elisha did when God raised a child through them (1 Kgs 17:21; 2 Kgs 4:34). Some read these words to mean he was never really dead, but I believe Paul is saying God has just given the boy his life back.

20:12 they brought the boy alive, and were comforted not a little No panic and no big show. God had worked, and the church went right on worshiping. God cares about one sleepy young man in a window, and He cares about you too.

20:13 intending himself to go on foot Paul walked to Assos, about twenty miles. Scripture does not say why; perhaps he wanted time alone to pray before what waited in Jerusalem.

20:15 on the following day we came to Miletus Luke gives each day down the coast like a ship's log. That is the kind of detail an eyewitness remembers, and one reason we can trust Acts as real history.

20:16 to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost Stopping in Ephesus would have held him up for days. Pentecost came fifty days after Passover, when Jews from everywhere filled Jerusalem, and it was the day the Spirit came (2:1-4). Paul wanted to arrive with the Gentile churches' offering, a picture of Jews and Gentiles made one in Christ.

20:17 he called for the elders of the church Miletus was about thirty miles south of Ephesus. Elders were mature believers chosen to lead and care for a local church (14:23).

20:19 serving the Lord with all humility, and many tears They had watched Paul from the first day. His ministry was not done from a stage but up close, where people could see his life. That is still the best kind of ministry.

20:20 teaching you publicly and from house to house In the synagogue and the hall of Tyrannus (19:8-9), and in people's homes.

20:21 repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ The same message for Jews and Greeks, the Gospel in one line. Repentance is turning from sin to God; faith is trusting Jesus to save you. They go together like two sides of one coin.

20:22 I, bound in the spirit, am going to Jerusalem Paul felt a strong inner pull from God, as if already tied to this journey.

20:23 chains and tribulations await me Paul knew he was walking toward suffering, and he went anyway. He was not careless with his life. He was obedient with it.

20:24 so that I may finish my course with joy One of my favorite verses in Acts. Paul had one goal: to finish the race and ministry Jesus gave him. Near the end he wrote, "I have finished the race, I have kept the faith" (2 Tim 4:7). What is the course God has given you? Are you running it?

25 And now look, I know that you all, among whom I went about proclaiming the kingdom of God, will no longer see my face. 26 Therefore I testify to you on this day that I am clean from the blood of all. 27 For I did not hold back from declaring to you all the counsel of God. 28 Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Holy Spirit has placed you as overseers, to shepherd the church of God, which He purchased through His own blood. 29 For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; 30 and from among your own selves men will rise up, speaking perverted things, to draw away the disciples after them. 31 Therefore be watchful, remembering that for three years, night and day, I did not cease admonishing each one with tears. 32 And now, brothers, I commit you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all those who have been sanctified. 33 I coveted no one's silver or gold or clothing. 34 You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my needs and to those who were with me. 35 In all things I showed you that by laboring thus it is necessary to help those who are weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'" 36 And having said these things, having bowed his knees, he prayed with them all. 37 And there came about much weeping among all, and having fallen upon the neck of Paul, they were kissing him, 38 sorrowing most of all over the word which he had spoken, that they would no longer see his face. And they were accompanying him to the ship.

On to Jerusalem

1 And it happened, when we had set sail, having been drawn away from them, having run a straight course, we came to Cos (Kos), and on the next day to Rhodes (Hrodos), and from there to Patara. 2 And having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia (Phoinike), having gone on board, we set sail. 3 And having sighted Cyprus (Kypros) and having left it on the left, we were sailing to Syria, and we landed at Tyre (Tyros); for there the ship was unloading the cargo. 4 And having found disciples, we remained there seven days; they were telling Paul (Paulos) through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem (Hierousalem). 5 And when it happened that we had completed the days, having gone out, we were journeying, all of them accompanying us with wives and children as far as outside the city; and having bowed the knees on the shore, we prayed. 6 And having greeted one another, we went on board the ship, and they returned to their own homes. 7 And we, having completed the voyage from Tyre, arrived at Ptolemais; and having greeted the brothers, we stayed one day with them. 8 And on the next day, having gone out, we, those around Paul, came to Caesarea (Kaisareia); and having entered into the house of Philip (Philippos) the evangelist, who was of the seven, we stayed

20:25 will no longer see my face Paul expected not to see them again. Some believe he later returned to the area after his first Roman imprisonment (1 Tim 1:3; 2 Tim 4:20), so this may have been his expectation rather than a prophecy.
20:26 I am clean from the blood of all This goes back to the watchman of Ezekiel 33:1-9. Paul had warned them faithfully.
20:27 I did not hold back from declaring to you all the counsel of God All of God's plan and truth, not just the easy parts. A good teacher does not pick only the verses people like to hear.
20:28 take heed to yourselves and to all the flock The heart of the speech. A leader who does not guard his own walk with God cannot protect anyone else. Elders (20:17), overseers, and shepherds describe one office from three angles: maturity, responsibility, and care (1 Pet 5:1-2; Titus 1:5-7).
20:28 which He purchased through His own blood The church is God's, not theirs. Paul speaks of God shedding His own blood, which is only true because Jesus is God in the flesh. Every church member, even the hard ones, was bought at that price.
20:29 savage wolves will come in among you False teaching comes from outside and from inside, even from among the elders (20:30). It happened. Paul later left Timothy in Ephesus to stop strange doctrines (1 Tim 1:3-7), and decades later Jesus praised this church for testing false apostles but said they had left their first love (Rev 2:1-7).
20:31 for three years, night and day, I did not cease admonishing each one with tears That is a shepherd's heart.
20:32 I commit you to God and to the word of His grace Paul did not leave them to their own strength. Sanctified means set apart for God. Teachers and pastors come and go. God and His Word remain.
20:34 these hands ministered to my needs In Ephesus, as in Corinth, Paul likely supported himself as a tentmaker (18:3), as an example so they would work hard to help the weak.
20:35 It is more blessed to give than to receive This saying of Jesus is not found in the four Gospels. The apostles passed along teachings of Jesus that were remembered and treasured (John 21:25), and the Holy Spirit made sure this one was written down for us.
20:37 there came about much weeping among all Grown men, church leaders, crying openly over a brother they love. The early church was not just an organization. It was a family. Do we love our brothers and sisters in Christ like this?
21:3 we landed at Tyre Patara was on the southern coast of Asia Minor, and Phoenicia the coast north of Israel. Luke writes like an eyewitness because he was one; the "we" tells us he was on board.
21:4 they were telling Paul through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem The church in Tyre may have come from the believers scattered after Stephen's death (11:19). Was Paul disobeying the Spirit? I do not believe so. The Spirit had told Paul that chains awaited him (20:23), and he went "bound in the spirit" (20:22). The Spirit showed these believers what was coming, and out of love they concluded he should not go. The warning came from God; the advice came from people who loved him.
21:5 having bowed the knees on the shore, we prayed Whole families kneeling in the sand to pray for a man they had known only seven days. The love of Christ makes strangers into family very quickly.
21:8 the house of Philip the evangelist, who was of the seven We last saw Philip in chapter 8, where he preached in Samaria, led the Ethiopian to Christ, and settled in Caesarea (8:40). About twenty years have passed, and he is still faithful, still called the evangelist, still serving.

with him. 9 And this man had four daughters, virgins, prophesying. 10 And as we were remaining several days, a certain prophet named Agabus (Agabos) came down from Judea (Ioudaia). 11 And having come to us and having taken the belt of Paul, having bound both his own hands and feet, he said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: 'The man whose belt this is, the Jews in Jerusalem (Hierousalem) will bind in this way, and they will deliver him into the hands of Gentiles.'" 12 And when we heard these things, both we and those of that place were begging him not to go up to Jerusalem. 13 And Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus (Iesous)." 14 And when he was not persuaded, we fell silent, having said, "Let the will of the Lord be done." 15 And after these days, having packed up our baggage, we were going up to Jerusalem. 16 And some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing us to a certain Mnason, a Cypriot, an early disciple, with whom we might lodge.

Paul Visits James

17 And when we had arrived at Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. 18 And on the following day Paul was going in with us to James (Iakobos), and all the elders arrived. 19 And having greeted them, he was relating one by one each of the things which God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. 20 And having heard, they were glorifying the Lord. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many myriads of Jews there are who have believed, and all are zealous for the law. 21 And they have been informed about you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles apostasy from Moses, telling them not to circumcise the children nor to walk in the customs. 22 What then is it? Certainly a multitude must come together; for they will hear that you have come. 23 Therefore do this which we tell you: There are with us four men having a vow on themselves. 24 Having taken these, be purified with them and spend on them, so that they may shave the head; and all may know that the things of which they have been informed about you are nothing, but that you yourself also walk in line, keeping the law. 25 And concerning the Gentiles who have believed, we wrote, having judged that they should keep no such thing, except that they keep themselves from both what is sacrificed to idols and blood and what is strangled and sexual immorality." 26 Then Paul, having taken the men, on the following day, having been purified with them, was entering into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of the purification, until the offering was offered for each one of them.

Paul Seized in the Temple

27 And when the seven days were about to be completed, the Jews from Asia, having seen him in the temple, were stirring up all the crowd, and they laid the hands on him, 28 crying out, "Men, Israelites, help! This is the man who is teaching all men everywhere against the people and the law and this place; and besides, he has also brought Greeks into the 21:9 four daughters, virgins, prophesying Luke does not record what they said. Their gift shows that women were given prophecy in the early church, as Joel foretold and Peter preached at Pentecost (2:17-18).

21:11 having bound both his own hands and feet We met Agabus in 11:28. Old Testament prophets sometimes acted out their messages (Isa 20:2-4; Jer 13:1-11; Ezek 4:1-3), a picture no one would forget. It happened just so: Paul was seized by Jews and was a Roman prisoner for years.
21:12 both we and those of that place were begging him not to go up to Jerusalem Even Luke, the writer of this book, was pleading.
21:13 I am ready not only to be bound but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus Full of love and full of steel. Jesus "set His face steadfastly to go to Jerusalem" (Luke 9:51), knowing what waited for Him. Paul followed his Lord on that same road.
21:14 Let the will of the Lord be done The right place for any believer to land. They did not stop loving Paul; they handed it over to God, echoing Jesus' prayer in the garden (Luke 22:42). When we cannot change the situation or see the outcome, we can still pray this prayer.
21:16 a certain Mnason, a Cypriot, an early disciple Jerusalem was about sixty miles from Caesarea. Mnason may have been one of the very first believers. Paul was traveling with Gentile men, and not every Jewish believer would have been comfortable hosting them. Mnason was. Hospitality is a simple gift, but it mattered here.
21:18 Paul was going in with us to James, and all the elders arrived James is the brother of Jesus, leader of the Jerusalem church (12:17; 15:13; Gal 1:19). This is very likely when Paul handed over the offering from the Gentile churches (24:17; Rom 15:25-27).
21:19 each of the things which God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry It was what God had done. Paul was the tool, not the hero.
21:20 how many myriads of Jews there are who have believed, and all are zealous for the law Myriads means tens of thousands. Many Jewish believers still kept the Law and its customs as part of their life as Jews.
21:21 that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles apostasy from Moses The rumor was false. Paul taught that Gentiles did not need to become Jews to be saved (15:1-11; Gal 5:2-6). He never told Jews to stop being Jews, and he had Timothy circumcised (16:1-3). Rumors spread fast and hurt deeply, then and now.
21:24 be purified with them and spend on them, so that they may shave the head Most likely a Nazirite vow (Num 6:1-21): no haircut or wine for a set time, then shaving the head and offering sacrifices. Paying for their offerings was costly and would show that Paul still respected the Law and his people. He had made a similar vow himself (18:18).
21:25 concerning the Gentiles who have believed, we wrote This was not about Gentile believers. The Jerusalem Council's decision still stood (15:19-29).
21:26 having been purified with them, was entering into the temple Was Paul compromising? I do not believe so. To the Jews he became as a Jew, to win Jews (1 Cor 9:19-23). Keeping a Jewish custom was not wrong in itself. Teaching that it was needed for salvation would have been, and Paul never did. He gave up his own freedom to keep peace and open doors for the Gospel.
21:28 he has also brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place The Jews from Asia were likely from Ephesus, where Paul had been opposed (19:9; 20:19).

temple and has defiled this holy place." 29 For they had previously seen Trophimus (Trophimos) the Ephesian in the city with him, whom they were supposing that Paul had brought into the temple. 30 And the whole city was stirred, and there was a running together of the people; and having laid hold of Paul, they were dragging him outside the temple, and immediately the doors were shut. 31 And as they were seeking to kill him, a report came up to the commander of the cohort that all Jerusalem was in confusion, 32 who at once, having taken soldiers and centurions, ran down upon them; and they, having seen the commander and the soldiers, stopped beating Paul. 33 Then the commander, having drawn near, laid hold of him and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and he was inquiring who he might be and what he had done. 34 And some were shouting one thing, others another, in the crowd; and not being able to know the certainty because of the uproar, he commanded him to be brought into the barracks. 35 And when he came onto the stairs, it happened that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd; 36 for the multitude of the people was following, crying out, "Away with him!" 37 And as Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he says to the commander, "Is it permitted for me to say something to you?" And he said, "Do you know Greek? 38 Are you not then the Egyptian who before these days stirred up a revolt and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?" 39 And Paul said, "I am indeed a man, a Jew, of Tarsus (Tarseus) in Cilicia (Kilikia), a citizen of no insignificant city; and I beg you, allow me to speak to the people." 40 And when he had permitted him, Paul, having stood on the stairs, motioned with the hand to the people; and when there had been a great silence, he addressed them in the Hebrew language, saying,

Paul's Defense to the Crowd

1 "Men, brothers and fathers, hear my defense to you now." 2 And having heard that he was addressing them in the Hebrew language, they became even more quiet. And he says, 3 "I am indeed a Jewish man, born in Tarsus (Tarsos) of Cilicia (Kilikia), but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strictness of the ancestral law, being zealous for God, just as you all are today, 4 who persecuted this Way to the point of death, binding and delivering both men and women into prisons, 5 as also the high priest bears witness to me, and all the council of elders; from whom also, having received letters to the brothers, I was journeying to Damascus (Damaskos) to bring also those who were there bound to Jerusalem (Hierousalem), so that they might be punished. 6 And it happened to me, as I was journeying and drawing near to Damascus, about noon, suddenly out of heaven a great light flashed around me. 7 And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul (Saoul), Saul, why are you persecuting Me?' 8 And I answered, 'Who are You, Lord?' And He said to me, 'I am Jesus (Iesous) the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.'

21:29 Trophimus the Ephesian A Gentile from Ephesus (20:4). They jumped to a conclusion, and it nearly cost Paul his life. A stone barrier separated the Court of the Gentiles from the inner courts, and archaeologists have found its warning signs. Christ "broke down the middle wall of the barrier" (Eph 2:14). In the temple that wall still stood. In Christ it was gone.
21:30 immediately the doors were shut The doors of God's house were shut, and the man carrying the message of God's Messiah was outside them, a picture of what much of Israel did with the Gospel. But God has not rejected His people, and a day is coming when Israel will turn to Christ (Rom 11:1, 25-27).
21:31 a report came up to the commander of the cohort The cohort of several hundred soldiers was stationed in the Fortress of Antonia at the northwest corner of the temple area, watching the courts from above during the feasts. God used a pagan Roman officer to save His servant's life.
21:33 commanded him to be bound with two chains Probably chained between two soldiers. Agabus' prophecy had come true (21:11).
21:36 Away with him The same cry the crowd shouted about Jesus before Pilate (Luke 23:18; John 19:15). A servant is not greater than his master, and if they persecuted Him, they would persecute His followers (John 15:20).
21:38 Are you not then the Egyptian The commander was surprised to hear Greek. The Assassins were Jewish rebels who hid short daggers in their clothes and killed people in crowds. Josephus also writes of an Egyptian false prophet who led a following to the Mount of Olives and escaped when the Romans drove them off. The commander thought he finally had him.
21:39 a citizen of no insignificant city Tarsus was a well-known center of learning. Paul was no desert rebel. Then he asked to speak to the crowd that had just been beating him. He was not looking for escape but for an opportunity to tell them about Jesus.
21:40 he addressed them in the Hebrew language Most likely Aramaic, the everyday language of the Jews in that region. Speaking their language told the crowd, I am one of you. Bruised, chained, and surrounded by soldiers, Paul was about to preach.
22:1 Men, brothers and fathers, hear my defense to you now The same words Stephen used before the Council (7:2). Paul was there that day, and now he stands where Stephen stood.
22:2 they became even more quiet Most likely Aramaic. Paul was not a foreigner speaking down to them but one of their own. Meet people where they are, in words they understand.
22:3 brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel Gamaliel was one of the most respected teachers of the Law (5:34). "Zealous for God, just as you all are today" was not an insult. Paul was saying, I know how you feel, because I felt the same. Zeal for God is good, but zeal without knowledge can lead people far from Him (Rom 10:2).
22:4 who persecuted this Way to the point of death Paul admits his past openly. Our testimony is stronger when we are honest about who we were before Christ.
22:6 about noon, suddenly out of heaven a great light flashed around me At noon the sun is brightest, and this light outshone it (26:13).
22:8 I am Jesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting Jesus did not say My followers. He said Me. When someone attacks the church, he attacks Jesus Himself, because believers are His body.

9 And those who were with me indeed beheld the light and became terrified, but they did not hear the voice of the One speaking to me. 10 And I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Having risen up, go into Damascus, and there it will be told to you concerning all things which have been appointed for you to do.' 11 And as I was not seeing because of the glory of that light, being led by the hand by those who were with me, I came into Damascus. 12 And a certain Ananias, a pious man according to the law, being borne witness to by all the Jews who dwelt there, 13 having come to me and having stood by me, said to me, 'Saul, brother, look up.' And at that same hour I looked up at him. 14 And he said, 'The God of our fathers has designated you to know His will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice out of His mouth; 15 for you will be a witness for Him to all men of what you have seen and heard. 16 And now why do you delay? Having risen up, be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.' 17 And it happened to me, having returned to Jerusalem, and while I was praying in the temple, that I came into a trance, 18 and saw Him saying to me, 'Hurry, and go out quickly from Jerusalem, because they will not receive your testimony about Me.' 19 And I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that I was imprisoning and beating throughout the synagogues those who believe on You. 20 And when the blood of Stephen (Stephanos) Your witness was being poured out, I myself also was standing by and consenting to his killing, and guarding the garments of those who were killing him.' 21 And He said to me, 'Go, for I will send you far away to Gentiles.'"

Paul the Roman Citizen

22 And they were listening to him up to this word, and they lifted up their voice, saying, "Away from the earth with such a one! For it is not fitting for him to live." 23 And as they were shouting and flinging off the garments and throwing dust into the air, 24 the commander ordered him to be brought into the barracks, having said that he should be examined with scourges, so that he might know for what cause they were crying out against him like this. 25 And as they stretched him out with the straps, Paul (Paulos) said to the centurion who was standing by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman and uncondemned?" 26 And having heard this, the centurion, having gone to the commander, reported it, saying, "See what you are about to do; for this man is a Roman." 27 And the commander, having come near, said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" And he said, "Yes." 28 And the commander answered, "I acquired this citizenship with a great sum." But Paul said, "But I was even born so." 29 Therefore immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him; and the comman-

22:9 they did not hear the voice of the One speaking to me In 9:7 the men heard the voice but saw no one. This is not a contradiction. They heard a sound but did not understand the words. The same Greek word can mean to hear or to understand, as we say I hear you. Something similar happened when the Father spoke and some thought it had thundered (John 12:28-29).
22:10 What shall I do, Lord The question of a man who has just surrendered.
22:11 being led by the hand by those who were with me The proud Pharisee who rode out to arrest others had to be led like a child. God sometimes has to bring us low before He can lift us up.
22:12 a pious man according to the law, being borne witness to by all the Jews who dwelt there Paul wants this Jewish crowd to know that the man God sent him was a faithful, respected Jew, not a rebel against Moses.
22:13 Saul, brother, look up The first face Paul saw as a believer was the face of a man who called him brother.
22:14 The God of our fathers has designated you The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, whom this crowd worshiped. Following Jesus is not leaving the God of Israel; it is following Him. The Righteous One is a name for the Messiah (3:14; 7:52).
22:15 you will be a witness for Him to all men of what you have seen and heard Every believer is a witness. We tell others what Jesus has done for us.
22:16 be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord Some read this to mean baptism itself washes away sin. I believe the key words are "calling on the name of the Lord." Whoever calls on His name will be saved (2:21; Rom 10:13), and everyone who believes receives forgiveness through His name (10:43). Baptism is the outward picture of that inward washing. Still, "why do you delay?" Baptism is the first step of obedience and should not be put off.
22:17 while I was praying in the temple About three years after his conversion (Gal 1:18). The crowd had just accused him of defiling the temple (21:28). Paul tells them he prayed there and the Lord met him there. He loved God's house as much as they did.
22:20 I myself also was standing by and consenting to his killing Paul thought his past would make his witness convincing. Surely if a man like him had changed, they would want to know why (7:58; 8:1). But God knew their hearts better than Paul did.
22:21 I will send you far away to Gentiles God's plan from the start (9:15), and the word that set the crowd off.
22:22 Away from the earth with such a one That God would welcome Gentiles without first making them Jews was more than they could take. Yet God promised Abraham that all the families of the earth would be blessed through him (Gen 12:3), and the Servant would be "for a light of the nations" (Isa 49:6). It was God's plan all along.
22:23 flinging off the garments and throwing dust into the air Signs of rage and of rejecting what they had heard.
22:24 that he should be examined with scourges The commander did not understand Aramaic and likely had no idea what set off the uproar. Roman scourging used leather straps with bits of bone or metal and could cripple or kill, far worse than the synagogue's thirty-nine lashes (2 Cor 11:24). Jesus received it before His crucifixion (John 19:1).
22:25 Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman and uncondemned Roman law forbade scourging a citizen, much more one not tried. A Christian may use the protection of the law, as Paul did in Philippi (16:37). He was willing to suffer for Christ, but he did not seek suffering when God gave him a lawful way to avoid it.
22:28 But I was even born so Paul's father must have been a citizen, though Scripture does not say how the family gained it. We cannot buy our way into God's kingdom either. We are "born from above" (John 3:3), and "our citizenship exists in the heavens" (Phil 3:20).
22:29 the commander also was afraid, having learned that he was a Roman He had already broken the law by chaining a citizen. God was using Paul's citizenship to protect him and move him toward Rome. Paul would carry Christ's name before kings (9:15), and the road to those kings had just opened.

der also was afraid, having learned that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

Paul Before the Council

30 And on the next day, wanting to know the certainty, why he was being accused by the Jews, he released him from the chains and commanded the chief priests and all their Council to come; and having brought Paul down, he set him before them.

1 And Paul (Paulos), having looked intently at the Council, said, "Men, brothers, I have lived as a citizen in all good conscience toward God until this day." 2 And the high priest Ananias commanded those standing by him to strike his mouth. 3 Then Paul said to him, "God is about to strike you, whitewashed wall! And do you sit judging me according to the law, and, acting contrary to the law, command me to be struck?" 4 And those standing by said, "Do you revile the high priest of God?" 5 And Paul said, "I did not know, brothers, that he is high priest; for it has been written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'" 6 And Paul, having known that the one part was of Sadducees and the other of Pharisees, cried out in the Council, "Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of a Pharisee; concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged." 7 And when he had said this, a dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the multitude was divided. 8 For Sadducees indeed say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but Pharisees confess both. 9 And a great clamor arose; and the scribes of the party of the Pharisees, having risen up, were contending, saying, "We find no evil in this man; and if a spirit has spoken to him, or an angel, let us not fight against God." 10 And when much dissension had arisen, the commander, having feared that Paul would be torn apart by them, commanded the troop, having gone down, to take him by force out of their midst and to bring him into the barracks. 11 And on the following night the Lord, having stood by him, said, "Take courage, Paul; for as you have solemnly testified the things about Me at Jerusalem (Hierousalem), so you must also testify at Rome (Hrome)."

The Plot to Kill Paul

12 And when it had become day, certain of the Jews, having formed a conspiracy, bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. 13 And there were more than forty who had formed this sworn plot; 14 who, having come to the chief priests and the elders, said, "We have bound ourselves under a curse with a curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. 15 Now therefore you, with the Council, notify the commander, so that tomorrow he may bring him down to you, as though you were about to determine the things about him more accurately; and we, before he draws near, are ready to do away with him." 16 But the son of Paul's sister, having heard of the ambush, having come and having entered into 22:30 commanded the chief priests and all their Council to come The Council, the Sanhedrin, was the highest Jewish ruling body, about seventy elders, chief priests, and scribes. Paul had once worked for these men. Now he stood before them as the accused.

23:1 I have lived as a citizen in all good conscience toward God until this day Many of the Council would have known Paul from years before. He speaks to them as brothers, not as a prisoner begging mercy. He is not claiming he never sinned; he called himself the foremost of sinners (1 Tim 1:15). He means he always acted on what he believed God wanted, and now his conscience is clean because Christ has forgiven him.

23:2 the high priest Ananias commanded those standing by him to strike his mouth Not the Ananias of Damascus (22:12). This Ananias was high priest about A.D. 47 to 59, and Josephus describes him as greedy and violent. Jesus was also struck in the face before the high priest (John 18:22).

23:3 God is about to strike you, whitewashed wall A whitewashed wall looks clean outside but may be cracked underneath. Ezekiel used the picture for false prophets (Ezek 13:10-15), and Jesus called the Pharisees "whitewashed tombs" (Matt 23:27). Ananias sat to judge by the Law and broke it by ordering a man struck before he was found guilty (Lev 19:15; Deut 25:1-2). He was killed by Jewish rebels around A.D. 66; whether Paul spoke as a prophet or in anger, Scripture does not say.

23:5 You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people From Exodus 22:28. Why did Paul not know? Some think he had poor eyesight (Gal 4:15; 6:11). Others note he had been away for years, and the high priest may not have been in his robes. Others hear irony. As soon as he learned who it was, Paul submitted to God's Word. Mistreatment does not give us permission to sin in return, and when we get it wrong, we should own it quickly.

23:6 concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged The Sadducees were the wealthy priestly party that controlled the temple, gave first place to the five books of Moses, and denied the resurrection. The Pharisees believed in it. Some say Paul was just being clever. I believe he went straight to the heart of his message. The whole Gospel rests on the resurrection of Jesus (1 Cor 15:14-17).

23:8 Sadducees indeed say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit Jesus had told the Sadducees they were mistaken because they did not understand the Scriptures or the power of God (Matt 22:23-33).

23:9 We find no evil in this man These Pharisees still did not accept Jesus as Messiah, but they defended Paul because he agreed with them about the resurrection. God can use even the disagreements of His opponents to protect His people.

23:10 to take him by force out of their midst For the second time in two days Roman soldiers rescued Paul from his own people.

23:11 Take courage, Paul One of the most tender moments in Acts. Beaten, chained, and alone, Paul may have wondered if coming to Jerusalem was right. Jesus did not send a message; He came Himself and stood by him. He did not scold Paul but said he had witnessed faithfully, and He promised Rome (19:21; Rom 1:10-13). From that night on no plot and no storm could stop Paul until the promise came true.

23:12 bound themselves under a curse They called down a curse on themselves if they failed. Such zeal aimed the wrong way is sad. Jesus warned that those who killed His disciples would think they were "offering service to God" (John 16:2). Scripture does not say what became of the forty or their oath.

23:15 before he draws near, are ready to do away with him The men who claimed to guard God's Law went along with murder, though the Law says, "You shall not murder" (Exod 20:13). When people reject the truth, they often break the very rules they claim to defend.

23:16 the son of Paul's sister, having heard of the ambush The only mention of Paul's sister or her son. Forty men made a secret plan, and God had one young man in the right place to hear it. God's hand works in ordinary details.

the barracks, reported it to Paul. 17 And Paul, having called one of the centurions to him, said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to report to him." 18 So he, having taken him, brought him to the commander and says, "The prisoner Paul, having called me to him, asked me to bring this young man to you, since he has something to say to you." 19 And the commander, having taken hold of his hand and having withdrawn in private, was inquiring, "What is it that you have to report to me?" 20 And he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you that tomorrow you bring Paul down into the Council, as though they were about to inquire something more accurately about him. 21 Therefore do not be persuaded by them; for more than forty men of them are lying in wait for him, who have bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have done away with him; and now they are ready, awaiting the promise from you." 22 So then the commander dismissed the young man, having instructed him to tell no one "that you have reported these things to me."

Paul Sent to Felix

23 And having called to him a certain two of the centurions, he said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers so that they may go as far as Caesarea (Kaisareia), and seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, from the third hour of the night." 24 And he said to provide mounts, so that, having set Paul on them, they might bring him safely to Felix (Phelix) the governor, 25 having written a letter containing this form: 26 "Claudius (Klaudios) Lysias, to the most excellent governor Felix: greeting. 27 This man, having been seized by the Jews and being about to be done away with by them, having come upon them with the troop, I rescued him, having learned that he is a Roman. 28 And wanting to know the charge for which they were accusing him, I brought him down to their Council; 29 whom I found being accused concerning questions of their law, but having no accusation worthy of death or of chains. 30 And when it was disclosed to me that a plot against the man was about to be carried out by the Jews, I sent him to you at once, having instructed the accusers also to say before you the things against him. Farewell." 31 So then the soldiers, according to what had been ordered them, having taken up Paul, brought him through the night to Antipatris. 32 And on the next day, having let the horsemen go with him, they returned to the barracks; 33 who, having entered into Caesarea and having delivered the letter to the governor, also presented Paul to him. 34 And the governor, having read it, and having asked from what province he was, and having learned that he was from Cilicia (Kilikia), 35 said, "I will hear you fully when your accusers also have arrived." And he commanded him to be kept under guard in the Praetorium of Herod (Herodes).

Paul Before Felix

1 And after five days the high priest Ananias came down with the elders and a certain orator, Tertullus (Tertyllos), who informed the governor against Paul (Paulos). 2 And when he had been called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Since we are attaining much peace through you, and excellent accomplishments are being done for this nation through your foresight, 3 we accept it both in every way and everywhere, most excellent Felix (Phelix), with all thankfulness. 4 But in order that I may not hinder you any further, I beg you to hear us briefly in your kindness. 5 For having found this man a plague and one stirring up dissension among all

23:19 having taken hold of his hand and having withdrawn in private The word for young man could mean a teenager or someone in his early twenties. The commander's gentle way suggests he was quite young.
23:23 Prepare two hundred soldiers The third hour of the night was about nine in the evening. About 470 men protected one prisoner from forty. Jesus had promised Paul Rome, and now the Roman army itself was carrying him there. God can use anything and anyone to keep His promises.
23:26 Claudius Lysias, to the most excellent governor Felix Felix governed Judea from Caesarea; most date his term to about A.D. 52 to 59. We learn the commander's name for the first time.
23:27 I rescued him, having learned that he is a Roman Not quite what happened. Lysias learned Paul was a Roman after chaining him and nearly scourging him (22:25-29), and he left that out. People tell stories in ways that make themselves look best. God's Word tells the whole truth, even when it flatters no one.
23:29 having no accusation worthy of death or of chains Lysias is the first of several Roman officials who declare Paul innocent (25:25; 26:31-32). Like the charges against Jesus (Luke 23:4, 14-15, 22), these were about religion, not crime.
23:31 brought him through the night to Antipatris Roughly forty miles from Jerusalem, well away from the danger.
23:34 having learned that he was from Cilicia Felix asked to see whether the case was his to hear. Cilicia was under Roman rule, so it was.
23:35 in the Praetorium of Herod A palace built by Herod the Great, now the governor's headquarters. Paul would stay in Caesarea two years (24:27). God never wastes time. Paul would speak before a governor, another governor, and a king, as Jesus' promise was kept step by step.
24:1 a certain orator, Tertullus The elders were leaders who sat on the Sanhedrin. Tertullus was a trained speaker who knew how to argue in a Roman court. The leaders brought a professional, which shows how badly they wanted Paul silenced.
24:2 Since we are attaining much peace through you Flattery was the normal way to open before a Roman official, but this was far from the truth. Felix, governor from about A.D. 52 to 59, was a freed slave who rose through his brother's influence at court and put down unrest with harsh force; Josephus says the people hated him. Flattery is the tool of people without the truth on their side. Paul is respectful but never flatters.
24:5 having found this man a plague and one stirring up dissension among all the Jews throughout the world A plague meant a troublemaker who spreads disease wherever he goes. Stirring up dissension was a serious political charge, since Rome cared most about keeping order. A sect is a group split from a larger body; the Nazarenes were followers of Jesus of Nazareth. The charges were built to sound dangerous to a Roman governor.

the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes, 6 who also attempted to profane the temple, whom also we seized and wanted to judge according to our own law. 7 But Lysias the commander, having come up, took him away out of our hands with great violence, 8 having commanded his accusers to come to you; from whom you yourself, having examined him, will be able to know concerning all these things of which we accuse him." 9 And the Jews also agreed, declaring that these things were so. 10 And Paul answered, the governor having nodded to him to speak, "Knowing that for many years you have been a judge to this nation, I more cheerfully make my defense in the things concerning myself, 11 since you are able to know that it is not more than twelve days for me since I went up to worship in Jerusalem (Hierousalem). 12 And neither in the temple did they find me reasoning with anyone or making an uprising of a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor throughout the city; 13 nor are they able to prove the things of which they now accuse me. 14 But I confess this to you, that according to the Way which they call a sect, so I serve the God of my fathers, believing all things that are according to the law and that have been written in the Prophets, 15 having a hope toward God, which these themselves also await, that there is about to be a resurrection of the dead, both of the righteous and of the unrighteous. 16 And in this I myself strive always to have a conscience without offense toward God and men. 17 And after several years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings, 18 in which they found me purified in the temple, not with a crowd nor with tumult, but certain Jews from Asia, 19 who ought to be present before you and to accuse, if they should have anything against me. 20 Or let these themselves say if they found any wrongdoing in me when I stood before the Council, 21 other than concerning this one utterance which I cried out, standing among them: 'Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you today.'"

Felix Puts Paul Off

22 And having heard these things, Felix, knowing more accurately the things concerning the Way, put them off, having said, "When Lysias the commander comes down, I will determine the things concerning you." 23 And he ordered the centurion that Paul be kept, and that he have relief, and to forbid none of his own people to serve or to come to him. 24 And after some days, Felix, having arrived with Drusilla (Drousilla) his wife, who was a Jewish woman, sent for Paul

24:6 who also attempted to profane the temple The charge goes back to the false rumor that Paul brought a Gentile into the temple courts (21:28-29). None of it was true.
24:7 But Lysias the commander, having come up, took him away out of our hands with great violence The SLB includes the words from the end of verse 6 through the start of verse 8, as the King James Version does; most modern translations leave them out or footnote them, since the earliest manuscripts lack them. If original, they twist the facts again. There was no fair trial. A mob was beating Paul, and Lysias rescued him (21:30-32).
24:9 the Jews also agreed, declaring that these things were so A crowd agreeing does not make something true. In Acts the Gospel was often attacked with the same accusations repeated without proof (17:6-7; 21:21). Our job is to answer with the facts and a clean conscience, as Paul does next.
24:10 I more cheerfully make my defense No flattery, only respect: Felix's long experience meant he could understand the case. And Paul is cheerful, a prisoner on trial for his life, because the Lord had promised he would testify in Rome (23:11). This trial was not the end of the story.
24:11 it is not more than twelve days for me since I went up to worship in Jerusalem He came to worship, not to start a riot. Twelve days, much of it in Roman custody, was not much time to stir up a nation, and the facts were easy to check.
24:13 nor are they able to prove the things of which they now accuse me In a Roman court the accuser had to bring evidence. Tertullus gave a speech but no proof. Paul does not attack his accusers; he shows their case is empty. When falsely accused, we can stay calm and stick to what is true.
24:14 so I serve the God of my fathers, believing all things that are according to the law and that have been written in the Prophets Following Jesus is not a new religion that turned its back on Israel. Paul serves the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and believes all the Law and Prophets. The Christian faith is the fulfillment of what God promised Israel. Jesus is the Messiah the Old Testament pointed to.
24:15 a resurrection of the dead, both of the righteous and of the unrighteous Every person will be raised, some to life and some to judgment (John 5:28-29; Dan 12:2). I believe believers who have died are raised when Christ comes for His church (1 Thess 4:16), Tribulation martyrs when He returns to reign (Rev 20:4-6), and the rest of the dead after the thousand years for judgment (Rev 20:5, 11-15). Paul does not give the timing here, but everyone will face God.
24:16 to have a conscience without offense toward God and men Belief in the resurrection was not just doctrine to Paul. It shaped how he lived every day (23:1; 2 Cor 5:10). If we really believe we will give an account to God, it will change how we treat others, how we work, and what we say.
24:17 I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings The collection from the Gentile churches for the poor believers in Jerusalem (Rom 15:25-27; 1 Cor 16:1-4; 2 Cor 8-9), mentioned only here in Acts. The man accused of being a plague had come carrying money for the poor.
24:19 who ought to be present before you and to accuse The Jews from Asia, where Ephesus was, started the riot (21:27). They were the real witnesses, and Roman law took an absent accuser seriously. The people who started it all had disappeared.
24:21 Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you today The only thing the Council could point to was the sentence Paul cried out (23:6). That was the real issue all along. The whole Christian message rests on God raising Jesus from the dead (1 Cor 15:14, 17).
24:22 Felix, knowing more accurately the things concerning the Way, put them off Felix knew more about the Christians than the leaders realized, perhaps through his Jewish wife or from years governing a land where the church was growing. He knew Paul was innocent. Scripture never says Lysias came. It was a way to avoid a decision that would anger the leaders.
24:23 to forbid none of his own people to serve or to come to him Friends could bring food and visit. Luke was likely nearby during these two years, and many believe he gathered eyewitness accounts for his Gospel and Acts then (Luke 1:1-3). God was at work while Paul sat in custody.
24:24 Drusilla his wife, who was a Jewish woman The youngest daughter of Herod Agrippa I, who killed James and died struck by an angel (12:1-2, 20-23), and sister of Agrippa II (chs. 25-26). Josephus says she left her first husband to marry Felix.

and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. 25 And as he was reasoning about righteousness and self-control and the judgment that is about to be, Felix, having become frightened, answered, "For the present, go; and having found an opportunity, I will call for you." 26 And at the same time he was also hoping that money would be given to him by Paul, so that he might release him; therefore also, sending for him more often, he was conversing with him. 27 But when two years had been completed, Felix received a successor, Porcius (Porkios) Festus (Phestos); and wishing to lay up favors with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound.

Paul Appeals to Caesar

1 Festus (Phestos) therefore, having arrived in the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem (Hierosolyma) from Caesarea (Kaisareia). 2 And the high priest and the chief men of the Jews informed him against Paul (Paulos), and they were begging him, 3 asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem (Hierousalem), forming an ambush to do away with him on the way. 4 So then Festus answered that Paul was being kept at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to set out shortly. 5 "Therefore," he says, "let those among you who are in authority, having gone down with me, if there is anything amiss in this man, accuse him." 6 And having spent more than ten days among them, having gone down to Caesarea, on the next day, having sat on the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought. 7 And when he had arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many and weighty charges against Paul, which they were not able to prove, 8 while he was making his defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I sinned in anything." 9 But Festus, wishing to lay up a favor with the Jews, answering Paul, said, "Are you willing, having gone up to Jerusalem, to be judged there concerning these things before me?" 10 And Paul said, "I am standing before the judgment seat of Caesar, where I must be judged. To the Jews I have done no wrong, as you also know very well. 11 For if indeed I am doing wrong and have done anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die; but if there is nothing in the things of which these accuse me, no one can hand me over to them as a favor. I appeal to Caesar!" 12 Then Festus, having conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar; to Caesar you will go!"

Festus Consults Agrippa

24:25 righteousness and self-control and the judgment that is about to be Paul did not water down the message for a harsh ruler who had taken another man's wife. Felix was frightened, but fear is not repentance. One of the saddest verses in Acts: he heard the truth, felt its weight, and chose to wait. Scripture never says he found that time. "Now is a day of salvation" (2 Cor 6:2). If God is speaking to you today, do not put Him off.

24:26 he was also hoping that money would be given to him by Paul Bribes for releasing prisoners were against Roman law but common among corrupt officials. Felix may have heard of the large gift Paul brought (24:17). He heard the Gospel many times, listening for money, not truth. It is possible to sit under God's Word again and again and never let it change you.

24:27 wishing to lay up favors with the Jews, Felix left Paul bound Paul's custody in Caesarea likely ran from about A.D. 57 to 59; Josephus says Felix was recalled after trouble between Jews and Gentiles in Caesarea. Paul's freedom was traded for a politician's popularity. But the promise of Rome still stood (23:11). God's timing is not ours, but He is never late.

25:1 Festus therefore, having arrived in the province A wise new governor would meet the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem right away. Festus ruled from about A.D. 59 until he died in office about two years later. History remembers him as fairer than Felix, but even a fair man can be tempted to please the crowd.

25:3 forming an ambush to do away with him on the way Two years had not cooled their hatred. Before, forty plotters asked the chief priests for help (23:12-15); now the chief priests themselves ask for the ambush. Sin that is not dealt with grows.

25:5 let those among you who are in authority, having gone down with me Festus wanted to handle the case the proper Roman way, in his own court. He did not know about the ambush, but God did. We may never know how many times God has quietly closed a door that would have led us into harm.

25:6 having sat on the judgment seat When a Roman official sat on this raised platform, court was in session. Felix let the case sit for two years. Festus dealt with it the day after he returned.

25:7 many and weighty charges against Paul, which they were not able to prove As before Felix (24:13). Two years later they still had no evidence, only volume. A lie does not become true because it is repeated loudly for a long time.

25:8 Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar have I sinned in anything Caesar was the emperor's title; the emperor then was Nero. The three cover every charge. The Law and the temple were religious charges. Caesar was the political one that could get Paul executed. He denied them all with a clear conscience.

25:9 Festus, wishing to lay up a favor with the Jews New in office, Festus needed the leaders' goodwill. In Jerusalem Paul would be on his enemies' ground, with the ambush waiting. It is the temptation that pulled at Felix (24:27) and Pilate (Luke 23:23-24): treating justice as a favor traded for popularity.

25:10 I am standing before the judgment seat of Caesar, where I must be judged Not pride or stubbornness. A Roman court was the right place for a Roman citizen, and Jerusalem meant almost certain death. Paul was ready to die for Christ (21:13), but he would not throw his life away when God had said he would testify in Rome.

25:11 I appeal to Caesar Every citizen could appeal to the emperor, and the governor then had to send him to Rome. Paul was not running from suffering. He used the law God had put in place to carry him where God wanted him. It is not unspiritual to use legal rights to protect ourselves and the Gospel's work, as Paul did in Philippi (16:37) and Jerusalem (22:25).

25:12 You have appealed to Caesar; to Caesar you will go The council was the governor's legal advisors. These words fulfilled Jesus' promise (23:11) and God's first word about Paul, that he would carry His name before Gentiles and kings (9:15). No plan of man can overturn a promise of God.

25:13 Agrippa the king and Bernice Herod Agrippa II, son of the Agrippa of chapter 12 and great-grandson of Herod the Great (Matt 2:16). Rome let him rule territory north and east of Galilee, and he could appoint the high priest. He knew the Jewish faith well. Bernice was his sister and Drusilla's (24:24). The most powerful Jewish ruler of the day was about to hear the Gospel.

tus. 14 And as they were staying there many days, Festus laid before the king the things concerning Paul, saying, "There is a certain man left by Felix (Phelix) a prisoner, 15 about whom, when I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, asking for judgment against him; 16 to whom I answered that it is not the custom with Romans to hand over any man to destruction as a favor before the one being accused has the accusers face to face and receives an opportunity for defense concerning the charge. 17 Therefore, when they had come together here, I, having made no delay, on the next day, having sat on the judgment seat, commanded the man to be brought;
18 concerning whom the accusers, having stood up, were bringing no charge of the things which I was suspecting, 19 but they had certain questions against him concerning their own religion, and concerning a certain Jesus (Iesous) who had died, whom Paul was asserting to be alive. 20 And being at a loss concerning the inquiry about this, I was asking whether he would be willing to go to Jerusalem and there to be judged concerning these things. 21 But when Paul appealed to be kept for the decision of the Emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I might send him to Caesar." 22 And Agrippa said to Festus, "I myself also was wishing to hear the man." "Tomorrow," he says, "you will hear him." 23 Therefore on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp and had entered into the audience hall with both the commanders and the men who were of prominence in the city, and Festus had commanded, Paul was brought in. 24 And Festus says, "King Agrippa, and all you men who are present with us, you see this one, concerning whom all the multitude of the Jews petitioned me, both in Jerusalem and here, crying out that he must not live any longer. 25 But I, having found that he had done nothing worthy of death, and since he himself also appealed to the Emperor, determined to send him; 26 concerning whom I have nothing definite to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him before you all, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that, the examination having taken place, I may have something to write. 27 For it seems unreasonable to me, sending a prisoner, not also to indicate the charges against him."

Paul's Defense Before Agrippa

1 And Agrippa (Agrippas) said to Paul (Paulos), "It is permitted for you to speak for yourself." Then Paul, having stretched out the hand, was making his defense:
2 "Concerning all the things of which I am accused by Jews, King Agrippa, I have considered myself fortunate, being about to make my defense before you today, 3 especially knowing you to be an expert in all the customs and also questions among the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently. 4 So then, my manner of life from youth, which was from the beginning among my nation in Jerusalem (Hierosolyma), all the Jews know, 5 knowing me beforehand from the first, if they are willing to testify, that according to the strictest sect of our religion I lived as a Pharisee. 6 And now I stand being judged for the hope of the promise made by God to the fathers, 7 to which our twelve tribes, serving with earnestness night and day, hope to attain; concerning

26:7 James 1:1; Ezra 6:17; Matt 19:28

25:16 before the one being accused has the accusers face to face One of the best things about Roman law. Scripture affirms the same principle: a matter is settled by witnesses, not rumor (Deut 19:15; John 7:51).
25:19 a certain Jesus who had died, whom Paul was asserting to be alive The whole Christian faith seen from the outside. To Festus it was a strange argument about a dead man. To Paul it was everything. Either Paul was wrong, or Jesus is alive today and Lord of all. There is no middle ground, and every person must decide.
25:21 when Paul appealed to be kept for the decision of the Emperor Festus was at a loss, and in retelling he left out his real reason for suggesting Jerusalem, the favor to the Jews (25:9). Emperor translates Augustus, the title first given to Caesar Augustus and used by each emperor after him.
25:22 I myself also was wishing to hear the man Agrippa's great-uncle Herod Antipas had long wanted to see Jesus, hoping for a miracle (Luke 23:8). Agrippa may have been curious too, but God would use it. Jesus said His followers would be brought before kings and governors as a testimony (Luke 21:12-13).
25:23 when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp Royal robes and display on one side, a prisoner in chains on the other. Yet the man in chains had the true riches. The pomp of that day is long gone, but Paul's words are still changing lives. Caesarea had five cohorts, so five commanders may have been there.
25:25 having found that he had done nothing worthy of death The third Roman official to say Paul is innocent, after Lysias (23:29) and Felix (24:22-23). Like Jesus before Pilate (Luke 23:4, 14, 22), Paul was declared innocent again and again and still kept in chains.
25:27 it seems unreasonable to me, sending a prisoner, not also to indicate the charges against him A governor sending a prisoner to Caesar had to explain the charges, and Festus had none. It was worse than unreasonable; it was unjust to hold an innocent man at all. But God used even Festus' confusion to bring the Gospel before a king.
26:1 having stretched out the hand, was making his defense The way a public speaker began. Even in chains, Paul is not a beaten man pleading for mercy. He is an ambassador for Christ (Eph 6:20).
26:3 knowing you to be an expert in all the customs and also questions among the Jews Unlike Tertullus with Felix, this is not flattery but simply true. Festus did not understand the case, but Agrippa did. Paul could talk about the Law, the Prophets, and the Messiah with a man who knew what those words meant. This is the longest of Paul's defense speeches.
26:5 according to the strictest sect of our religion I lived as a Pharisee The Pharisees kept the Law in every detail along with their teachers' traditions, and they believed in angels and the resurrection. Paul was no outsider or rebel. He came from the most devoted part of Judaism.
26:6 I stand being judged for the hope of the promise made by God to the fathers The promise of the Messiah, and with Him the resurrection and the kingdom (Gen 22:18; 2 Sam 7:12-16; Dan 12:2). Paul's message is that it has come true in Jesus. The irony is painful: the people who should have welcomed the promise put Paul on trial for announcing it.
26:7 our twelve tribes, serving with earnestness night and day Paul still sees Israel as God's people with a promise that has not been canceled (Rom 11:1-2, 29). God is not finished with Israel.

which hope I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa. 8 Why is it judged incredible with you if God raises the dead? 9 So then I myself thought to myself that I must do many things contrary to the name of Jesus (Iesous) the Nazarene, 10 which I also did in Jerusalem; and I locked up many of the saints in prisons, having received the authority from the chief priests; and when they were being done away with, I cast my vote against them. 11 And punishing them often throughout all the synagogues, I was compelling them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly enraged against them, I was persecuting them even as far as to foreign cities. 12 In which pursuits also, journeying to Damascus (Damaskos) with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 at midday on the road, O king, I saw a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining around me and those journeying with me. 14 And when we had all fallen down to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew language, 'Saul (Saoul), Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against goads.' 15 And I said, 'Who are You, Lord?' And He said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 16 But rise up and stand on your feet; for to this end I have appeared to you, to designate you an attendant and a witness both of the things which you have seen and of the things in which I will appear to you, 17 rescuing you from the people and from the Gentiles, to whom I now send you, 18 to open their eyes and to turn them from darkness to light and from the authority of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who have been sanctified by faith which is in Me.' 19 Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 but I was declaring, first to those in Damascus and in Jerusalem, and to all the region of Judea (Ioudaia), and to the Gentiles, to repent and to turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. 21 Because of these things the Jews, having seized me in the temple, were attempting to kill me. 22 Therefore, having obtained the help that is from God, to this day I stand, testifying both to small and to great, saying nothing besides the things which both the prophets and Moses said were about to happen: 23 that the Christ is subject to suffering, that, first out of the resurrection of the dead, He is about to proclaim light to the people and to the Gentiles."

Festus and Agrippa Answer

24 And as he was saying these things in his defense, Festus (Phestos) said with a loud voice, "You are insane, Paul! Much learning is turning you to insanity." 25 But he says, "I am not insane, most excellent Festus, but I utter declarations of truth and soberness. 26 For the king knows about these things, to whom also I speak with boldness; for I am not persuaded that any of these things escapes his notice, not one;

26:26 Ps 119:46; Dan 3:27; Acts 2:1-12

26:8 Why is it judged incredible with you if God raises the dead A fair question. If God created life, why would it be hard for Him to give it back? The resurrection only seems impossible if we leave God out. Once we believe God exists and has power over His creation, the empty tomb makes perfect sense.
26:10 I cast my vote against them Some take this to mean Paul sat on the Sanhedrin; others think he simply gave his full approval, as at Stephen's death (8:1). Scripture does not settle it, and it is not the point. Paul was guilty.
26:11 I was compelling them to blaspheme To speak against Jesus. Telling the truth about our past is part of a real testimony, because it shows how great God's grace is (1 Tim 1:13-16).
26:13 a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun The glory of the risen Christ outshone the noon sun, like the face of Jesus in John's vision, shining like the sun in its strength (Rev 1:16).
26:14 It is hard for you to kick against goads A goad was a pointed stick for driving oxen; a stubborn ox that kicked back only hurt itself. The SLB has these words at 9:5 too, as the King James Version does. By fighting Jesus, Paul was only wounding himself. God may already have been pressing on his conscience, perhaps through Stephen's death. Fighting against God never works.
26:15 I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting Jesus is so joined to His people that what is done to them is done to Him. The church is His body (1 Cor 12:27). That should comfort every suffering believer and make us careful how we treat other Christians.
26:16 to designate you an attendant and a witness An attendant serves his Master; a witness tells what he has seen. The Lord did appear to Paul again and again (18:9; 22:17-18; 23:11; 2 Cor 12:1-4). Every believer is a witness in a sense (1:8).
26:18 to open their eyes and to turn them from darkness to light and from the authority of Satan to God One of the clearest descriptions of salvation in Acts. People without Christ are blind and under Satan's power (2 Cor 4:4). The Gospel opens their eyes, they turn to God, and He forgives and gives them a place in His family, all by faith in Jesus, not by works or the Law (Eph 2:8-9).
26:19 I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision Paul obeyed, and the order of his preaching matches the pattern Jesus gave (1:8).
26:20 doing works worthy of repentance Repentance is a change of mind and heart that turns from sin to God. Good deeds do not save us, but they are the fruit that shows the change is real (Eph 2:10; James 2:17-18). John the Baptist preached the same (Luke 3:8).
26:21 the Jews, having seized me in the temple, were attempting to kill me Paul was no criminal. He obeyed a vision from heaven and preached to Gentiles as well as Jews, and that was what his accusers could not stand (22:21-22).
26:22 having obtained the help that is from God, to this day I stand That is how he was still standing.
26:23 that the Christ is subject to suffering, that, first out of the resurrection of the dead Three points. The Messiah would suffer (Isa 53). He would be the first to rise, not to die again but in a glorified body (1 Cor 15:20). And He would proclaim light to Israel and the Gentiles (Isa 49:6). Jesus said the same after He rose (Luke 24:44-47).
26:24 Much learning is turning you to insanity To a Roman, a man rising from the dead was nonsense, and Festus thought Paul's books had gone to his head. The Gospel still sounds like foolishness to many (1 Cor 1:18, 23). That should not surprise or stop us.
26:25 I utter declarations of truth and soberness Paul answers calmly, giving the governor his proper title. Our faith is not blind. It rests on real events before many witnesses (1 Cor 15:3-8).
26:26 this has not been done in a corner Jesus taught in public and was crucified outside Jerusalem at a major feast. The empty tomb was talked about all over the city, and thousands believed there. Christianity is not built on hidden visions or secret knowledge, but on public facts.

for this has not been done in a corner. 27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe." 28 And Agrippa said to Paul, "In a little you are persuading me to become a Christian." 29 And Paul said, "I would pray to God that, both in a little and in much, not only you but also all who hear me today might become such as I also am, except for these chains." 30 And when he had said these things, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice (Bernike), and those sitting with them; 31 and having withdrawn, they were speaking to one another, saying, "This man is doing nothing worthy of death or of chains." 32 And Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Paul Sails for Rome

1 And when it was determined that we should sail away to Italy (Italia), they were delivering both Paul (Paulos) and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius (Ioulios), of the Augustan cohort. 2 And having boarded an Adramyttian ship, being about to sail to the places along Asia, we set sail, Aristarchus (Aristarchos), a Macedonian of Thessalonica (Thessalonike), being with us. 3 And on the next day we landed at Sidon; and Julius, having treated Paul kindly, allowed him, having gone to his friends, to receive care. 4 And from there, having set sail, we sailed under Cyprus (Kypros), because the winds were contrary. 5 And having sailed across the sea along Cilicia (Kilikia) and Pamphylia, we came down to Myra of Lycia (Lykia). 6 And there the centurion, having found an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, put us on board it. 7 And sailing slowly for many days, and having arrived with difficulty off Cnidus (Knidos), the wind not permitting us to go on, we sailed under Crete (Krete) off Salmone; 8 and coasting along it with difficulty, we came to a certain place called Fair Havens (Kaloi Limenes), near which was a city, Lasea (Lasaia). 9 And when considerable time had passed, and the voyage was already dangerous because the Fast also had already gone by, Paul was admonishing them, 10 saying to them, "Men, I perceive that the voyage is about to be with damage and much loss, not only of the cargo and of the ship but also of our lives." 11 But the centurion was persuaded by the pilot and the ship owner rather than by the things spoken by Paul. 12 And because the harbor was not suitable for wintering, the majority reached a decision to set sail from there also, if somehow they might be able, having arrived at Phenice (Phoinix), to winter there, a harbor of Crete looking toward the southwest and toward the northwest.

27:13 Job 37:17; Ps 78:26; Song 4:16

26:27 King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets A hard question. No would cost him standing with the people he ruled; yes would let Paul show him that the Prophets pointed to Jesus. Paul is no longer giving a speech. He is calling a man to decide.
26:28 In a little you are persuading me to become a Christian The King James has Agrippa say he is almost persuaded, as if he were close to believing. Most modern translations take it as a brush-off, maybe sarcastic: do you think you can make me a Christian so quickly? Either way, Agrippa did not believe that day. Being close is not the same as coming to Christ.
26:29 might become such as I also am, except for these chains The prisoner wishes the king, the governor, and the leading men could have what he has. Not his chains, but his Savior. Paul cared more about their souls than his own freedom.
26:31 This man is doing nothing worthy of death or of chains Declared innocent again, by a king and a governor together. Luke wanted Theophilus and any Roman official reading Acts to know that the Christian faith was not a crime against Rome.
26:32 This man could have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar It sounds like Paul made a mistake. He did not. Jesus had said he would testify in Rome (23:11), and the appeal was the road God used. What looks like a wrong turn can be God moving us exactly where He wants us (Rom 8:28).
27:1 a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan cohort The "we" tells us Luke is back. The "we" sections (16:10-17; 20:5-21:18; 27:1-28:16) are what he saw firsthand. A centurion commanded about a hundred soldiers.
27:2 Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us Adramyttium was a port on the northwest coast of Asia Minor. Aristarchus had been seized in the Ephesus riot (19:29; 20:4), and Paul later calls him "my fellow prisoner" (Col 4:10). God gave Paul faithful friends for the journey.
27:3 Julius, having treated Paul kindly Sidon was a port north of Caesarea. This is the first sign of something seen all through the chapter: Paul's character won him favor even with the officer guarding him (Prov 16:7).
27:4 we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary On the side of the island sheltered from the wind. Summer and fall winds there blow mostly from the west and northwest, making the westward trip toward Rome slow and hard. Myra was on the southern coast of what is now Turkey.
27:6 an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy Alexandria in Egypt was Rome's main source of grain, and big grain ships made the run regularly, often stopping at Myra. This one carried wheat (27:38).
27:8 a certain place called Fair Havens Cnidus was at the southwest tip of Asia Minor, Salmone the cape at Crete's eastern end, and Fair Havens on Crete's south coast. Real places in order, with real sailing conditions. This is history written by someone who was there.
27:9 the Fast also had already gone by The Day of Atonement, the one fast the Law commanded (Lev 16:29-31), in late September or early October. Open-sea sailing became risky after mid-September and mostly stopped from about November until spring.
27:10 the voyage is about to be with damage and much loss Not a guess. Paul was an experienced traveler who had already been shipwrecked three times (2 Cor 11:25).
27:11 the centurion was persuaded by the pilot and the ship owner rather than by the things spoken by Paul Reasonable from a human point of view. They were the professionals, and Paul was a prisoner and a preacher.
27:12 the majority reached a decision to set sail from there also Phenice was a better harbor farther west on Crete. The majority voted, and the majority was wrong. Popular opinion and expert advice are not always right. When God gives wisdom through one of His people, it is foolish to ignore it.
27:13 when a south wind blew gently, having thought that they had obtained their purpose How often we assume a choice was right because things look good. A soft breeze is not the same as God's approval.

they were coasting along Crete closer to shore. 14 But not long after, a tempestuous wind, which is called Euroclydon (Euroklydon), rushed down from it. 15 And when the ship was caught and was not able to face the wind, having given way to it, we were being driven along. 16 And having run under a certain small island called Clauda (Klaude), we were able with difficulty to get control of the lifeboat; 17 which having hoisted up, they were using supports, undergirding the ship; and fearing that they might fall into the Syrtis, having lowered the gear, they were driven along in this way. 18 And as we were being violently storm-tossed, on the next day they were making a jettison; 19 and on the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackle of the ship. 20 And when neither sun nor stars were appearing for many days, and no small tempest was pressing on us, from then on all hope that we would be saved was being taken away. 21 And when there had been long abstinence from food, then Paul, having stood up in their midst, said, "You ought indeed, O men, having obeyed me, not to have set sail from Crete, and to have avoided this damage and loss. 22 And now I urge you to take courage; for there will be no loss of life among you, except of the ship. 23 For there stood by me this night an angel of the God whose I am and whom I serve, 24 saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar; and look, God has granted you all those who are sailing with you.' 25 Therefore take courage, men; for I believe God that it will be so, in the way in which it has been told to me. 26 But we must fall upon a certain island."

The Shipwreck

27 And when the fourteenth night had come, as we were being driven about in the Adriatic Sea (Adrias), about the middle of the night the sailors were sensing that some land was drawing near to them. 28 And having taken soundings, they found approximately 120 feet (twenty fathoms); and having gone a little farther and having taken soundings again, they found approximately 90 feet (fifteen fathoms). 29 And fearing lest perhaps we might fall into rocky places, having cast four anchors out of the stern, they were praying for day to come. 30 And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the lifeboat into the sea under pretense as though they were about to cast out anchors from the bow, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these remain in the ship, you yourselves cannot be saved." 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the lifeboat and let it fall away. 33 And until day was about to come, Paul was urging all to partake of food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that, watching, you continue without food, having taken nothing. 34 Therefore I urge you to take food; for this is for your preservation; for not a hair will fall from the head of any of you." 35 And having said these things and having taken bread, he gave thanks to God before all, and having broken it, he began to eat. 36 And all, having

27:14 a tempestuous wind, which is called Euroclydon The name joins the Greek words for the east wind and a wave, a wind that churns the sea. Many Bibles call it Euraquilo, a northeaster. It came down off Crete's mountains, and the easy sail became a fight for their lives.
27:16 we were able with difficulty to get control of the lifeboat The small boat towed behind had probably filled with water. Luke says "we," so he may have been pulling on the ropes himself.
27:17 undergirding the ship They passed ropes or cables around the hull to hold the timbers together. The Syrtis were the dreaded sandbanks off North Africa. Lowering the gear slowed the ship so it would not race.
27:19 we cast out with our own hands the tackle of the ship Everyone was working, passengers too. Storms force us to let go of things we thought were important. What looked valuable in calm weather goes overboard when lives are at stake.
27:20 all hope that we would be saved was being taken away Sailors steered by the sun and stars, and without them they were lost. This may be the lowest point in Acts; even Luke had given up. If you are in a place where you cannot see light, keep reading. God is about to speak into the darkness.
27:21 You ought indeed, O men, having obeyed me, not to have set sail from Crete Not I told you so, to look good. Paul reminds them he spoke the truth before, so they will believe what he says next.
27:22 there will be no loss of life among you, except of the ship A change from 27:10. God had not changed. He had answered prayer and revealed His plan, as the next verses show.
27:23 an angel of the God whose I am and whom I serve Paul makes sure these pagan sailors know which God he means: not one of theirs, but the one true God, to whom Paul belongs.
27:24 God has granted you all those who are sailing with you God's promise (23:11) still stood; Paul could not die in this storm. "Granted" suggests Paul had been praying for them. Because of one faithful man the whole ship was spared. God sometimes shows mercy to many for the sake of His people (Gen 18:26).
27:25 for I believe God that it will be so That is faith. Paul could not see the shore, and the storm still raged, but he believed God would do what He said. God did not promise an easy rescue. The ship would be lost, but they would live. Sometimes God does not take us around the storm but through it, and He keeps us all the way.
27:27 as we were being driven about in the Adriatic Sea The name then covered the open sea between Greece, Italy, and Sicily. The sailors may have heard waves breaking on a shore.
27:29 they were praying for day to come Soundings measured depth with a weighted line; a fathom is about six feet, so the water was getting shallow fast. Some translations say they wished for daybreak. Either way, they longed for light.
27:31 Unless these remain in the ship, you yourselves cannot be saved The sailors meant to save themselves and leave everyone else. If God had promised all would live, why did it matter? His promise did not cancel human responsibility. He promised the outcome and used the sailors' skill to bring it about. God's sovereignty and our obedience work together (Phil 2:12-13).
27:34 not a hair will fall from the head of any of you Echoing Jesus' promise to care for His followers (Luke 21:18). Faith in God's promise does not mean ignoring common sense. They needed strength to reach shore.
27:35 he gave thanks to God before all A prisoner on a sinking ship, before soldiers, sailors, and prisoners, thanking God for bread. A simple act and a powerful testimony, and everyone took courage. It was an ordinary meal, not the Lord's Supper, but the words echo Jesus taking bread and giving thanks (Luke 22:19).

become encouraged, also took food themselves. 37 And we were, all the souls in the ship, two hundred seventy-six. 38 And having been satisfied with food, they were lightening the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. 39 And when it became day, they were not recognizing the land; but they were noticing a certain bay having a shore, onto which they determined, if they could, to drive the ship. 40 And having cut away the anchors, they were leaving them in the sea, at the same time having loosened the ropes of the rudders; and having hoisted the foresail to the blowing wind, they were making for the shore. 41 But having fallen into a place between two seas, they ran the vessel aground; and the bow, having stuck fast, remained immovable, but the stern was being broken up by the violence of the waves. 42 And the soldiers' plan was that they should kill the prisoners, lest anyone, having swum away, should escape. 43 But the centurion, wishing to bring Paul safely through, kept them from their purpose, and commanded those able to swim, having thrown themselves overboard first, to go out onto the land, 44 and the rest, some on planks and some on things from the ship. And so it happened that all were brought safely to the land.

Paul on Malta

1 And having been saved, then they recognized that the island is called Malta (Melite). 2 And the natives were showing us no ordinary kindness; for having kindled a fire, they received all of us because of the rain that had set in and because of the cold. 3 But when Paul (Paulos) had gathered a quantity of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper, having come out from the heat, fastened on his hand. 4 And when the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they were saying to one another, "Surely this man is a murderer, whom, though he has been saved from the sea, Justice has not permitted to live." 5 He then, having shaken off the creature into the fire, suffered no harm. 6 But they were expecting him to be about to swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But when they had been expecting it for a long while and saw nothing amiss happening to him, changing their minds, they were saying that he was a god. 7 Now in the parts around that place were lands belonging to the leading man of the island, named Publius (Poplios), who, having received us, entertained us hospitably three days. 8 And it came about that the father of Publius was lying down, oppressed with fevers and dysentery, to whom Paul, having gone in and having prayed, having laid his hands on him, healed him. 9 So when this had happened, the rest also who had infirmities in the island were coming and were being healed; 10 who also honored us with many honors, and when we were setting sail, they put on board the things for the need.

27:37 two hundred seventy-six A large ship. Luke gives the exact count so we know every one survived. Some ancient manuscripts have a different number, but 276 is the SLB reading and that of most translations.
27:38 throwing out the wheat into the sea So the ship would ride as high as possible and come closer to shore before grounding.
27:40 having loosened the ropes of the rudders The rudders were large steering oars on each side of the stern; the foresail was a small sail at the front.
27:41 the stern was being broken up by the violence of the waves A place between two seas was likely a sandbar or reef where currents met. The ship was lost just as Paul said (27:22). Everything God told him came true, even the hard part.
27:42 the soldiers' plan was that they should kill the prisoners A soldier who let a prisoner escape could suffer the prisoner's penalty (12:19; 16:27).
27:43 the centurion, wishing to bring Paul safely through Paul had won Julius' respect. For the second time in the chapter, many lives were spared because of one man.
27:44 all were brought safely to the land Not one of the 276 was lost. The ship and cargo were gone, but the promise of God held. The God who kept Paul is the same God who keeps you. He may not save the ship, but He will keep every promise He has made.
28:1 the island is called Malta A small island about sixty miles south of Sicily, right on the route from the east to Rome. Most scholars accept that this is the Malta we know, and St. Paul's Bay on its northeast coast has long been pointed to as the place of the wreck.
28:2 the natives were showing us no ordinary kindness Luke's word was used for anyone who did not speak Greek; it does not mean wild or uncivilized. They welcomed 276 shipwrecked strangers. God has placed a sense of right and compassion in every person (Rom 2:14-15). These islanders showed mercy to strangers, and God was about to show mercy to them.
28:3 when Paul had gathered a quantity of sticks The man whose word had saved everyone on the ship was out gathering firewood. Real leaders serve (Mark 10:43-45).
28:4 Justice has not permitted to live To the islanders Justice was a goddess who punished wrongdoers. They assumed bad things happen only to bad people, as many still do. Jesus corrected that idea (John 9:1-3; Luke 13:1-5). Suffering is not always a sign that someone has done wrong.
28:5 having shaken off the creature into the fire, suffered no harm Jesus promised His messengers "authority to tread upon serpents" (Luke 10:19). This was God's protection on His servant, not an invitation to go looking for snakes to prove faith. The snake attacked Paul while he was serving. Malta has no venomous snakes today, but island wildlife can change over two thousand years, and the islanders fully expected him to die.
28:6 changing their minds, they were saying that he was a god At Lystra the crowd went the other way, from god to stoning (14:11-19). One minute a murderer, the next a god. Paul was neither. He was a servant of the living God. We should not be shaken by what people say about us, good or bad.
28:7 the leading man of the island, named Publius "Leading man" was the real title of Malta's chief official under Rome, another sign of how careful a historian Luke was.
28:8 oppressed with fevers and dysentery Luke the physician (Col 4:14) describes the illness plainly. Paul prayed first, knowing the power came from God, then laid hands on him. The kindness Publius showed was returned many times over.
28:9 the rest also who had infirmities in the island were coming and were being healed Luke does not say whether a church began on Malta, but it is hard to imagine Paul healing people for three months without telling them about the One who healed them.
28:10 they put on board the things for the need People who had lost everything in the wreck left fully supplied. Paul probably wrote during this imprisonment that God will supply all our needs (Phil 4:19). He had seen it on Malta.

Paul Arrives in Rome

11 And after three months we set sail in an Alexandrian ship which had wintered at the island, with a figurehead, the Dioscuri. 12 And having put in at Syracuse (Syrakousai), we stayed three days, 13 from where, having gone around, we arrived at Rhegium (Hregion). And after one day, when a south wind came up, on the second day we came to Puteoli (Potioloi), 14 where, having found brothers, we were urged to stay with them seven days. And so we came to Rome (Hrome). 15 And from there the brothers, having heard the things concerning us, came out to meet us as far as Forum of Appius (Appiou Phoron) and Three Taverns (Treis Tabernai); and when Paul saw them, having given thanks to God, he took courage. 16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the camp commander; but Paul was permitted to stay by himself with the soldier who was guarding him.

Paul Preaches in Rome

17 And it came about after three days that Paul called together those who were the leading men of the Jews. And when they had come together, he was saying to them, "Men, brothers, I, though I had done nothing against the people or the ancestral customs, was delivered a prisoner from Jerusalem (Hierosolyma) into the hands of the Romans, 18 who, having examined me, were wanting to release me, because no ground for death existed in me. 19 But when the Jews were objecting, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, not as though I had anything of which to accuse my nation. 20 For this reason, therefore, I have called for you, to see you and to speak with you; for because of the hope of Israel I have this chain around me." 21 And they said to him, "We neither received letters concerning you from Judea (Ioudaia), nor did any of the brothers, having arrived, report or speak anything evil concerning you. 22 But we consider it fitting to hear from you what you think; for concerning this sect, indeed, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against." 23 And having appointed him a day, many more came to him at the lodging, to whom he was expounding, solemnly testifying to the kingdom of God, and persuading them of the things concerning Jesus (Iesous), both from the law of Moses and the prophets, from morning until evening. 24 And some were persuaded by the things being spoken, but some were disbelieving. 25 And being in disagreement with one another, they were departing after Paul had spoken one declaration: "Rightly the Holy Spirit spoke through Isaiah (Hesaias) the prophet to our fathers, 26 saying, 'Go to this people and say, "In hearing you will hear and you will certainly not understand, and seeing you will see and you will certainly not perceive; 27 for the heart of this people has been made dull, and with the ears they heard with difficulty, and their eyes they have closed; lest they should see with the eyes, and hear with the ears, and understand with the heart, and turn, and I

28:11 with a figurehead, the Dioscuri Three months meant early spring, when sailing resumed. The Dioscuri were the twins Castor and Pollux, believed to protect sailors. Luke names them only to identify the ship. Paul's safety depended not on carvings on a boat but on the God who had brought them through the storm.
28:13 on the second day we came to Puteoli Syracuse was Sicily's chief city, Rhegium on the toe of Italy. A south wind was right for going north. Puteoli was a major port on the Bay of Naples, about 140 miles from Rome by foot.
28:14 And so we came to Rome The brothers were fellow believers, and Julius again allowed the stay. After years of waiting, false charges, prison, and shipwreck, Paul arrived. He had wanted to visit Rome for years (19:21; Rom 1:10-13). He did not arrive the way he planned, but exactly as God promised.
28:15 when Paul saw them, having given thanks to God, he took courage The Forum of Appius was about forty miles from Rome, Three Taverns about thirty. Paul had written to these believers about three years before, and they walked for days to greet him. Even Paul needed encouragement. Never underestimate what it means to show up for a brother or sister in Christ.
28:16 Paul was permitted to stay by himself with the soldier who was guarding him He was likely chained to his guard (28:20), and soldiers taking turns meant a steady stream of Romans spent hours with Paul. His imprisonment became known throughout the praetorian guard and helped the Gospel spread (Phil 1:12-14). God turned Paul's chains into a pulpit.
28:17 Paul called together those who were the leading men of the Jews Even in Rome his pattern is the same: to the Jews first (13:46; Rom 1:16). He calls them brothers. He is not an enemy of Israel.
28:19 not as though I had anything of which to accuse my nation Paul had not come to get even with the Jewish leaders. He still loved his people (Rom 9:1-3).
28:20 because of the hope of Israel I have this chain around me The same hope he spoke of before Agrippa (26:6-7): the promised Messiah, the resurrection, and the kingdom promised to the fathers. Paul was a prisoner because he believed God kept His promise to Israel by sending Jesus.
28:21 We neither received letters concerning you from Judea Paul's ship sailed late and wintered on Malta, so messengers from Jerusalem may not have arrived before him. Or the Jerusalem leaders may have judged their case too weak to press in Rome.
28:22 concerning this sect, indeed, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against About ten years earlier Claudius had ordered Jews out of Rome (18:2), and Suetonius ties it to disturbances over one he called Chrestus, which many take as a garbled reference to Christ. The faith was already being argued about in the capital.
28:23 persuading them of the things concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and the prophets, from morning until evening An all-day Bible study. Paul did what Jesus did on the Emmaus road (Luke 24:27). From Genesis on, the Old Testament points to Jesus.
28:24 some were persuaded by the things being spoken, but some were disbelieving The same message and evidence, with two different results, from Jerusalem to Rome. No one can decide for someone else. Our job is to share the truth clearly and lovingly. The results belong to God.
28:25 Rightly the Holy Spirit spoke through Isaiah the prophet Paul believed Scripture is the very word of God, given through human writers (2 Tim 3:16; 2 Pet 1:21).
28:27 and turn, and I should heal them From Isaiah 6:9-10, which Jesus also quoted (Matt 13:14-15; John 12:39-41). The problem was never that God's message was unclear, but hearts that would not receive it. The saddest line is the last: if they turned, God would heal them. The door was open.

should heal them."' 28 Therefore let it be known to you that the salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they also will hear." 29 And when he had said these things, the Jews went away, having much discussion among themselves. 30 And Paul stayed two whole years in his own rented house, and was welcoming all who were coming in to him, 31 proclaiming the kingdom of God and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with all boldness, unhindered.

28:28 Ps 98:2; Isa 52:10; Lam 3:26
28:29 Acts 28:25; Matt 10:34-36; Luke 12:51
28:31 Acts 28:23; Matt 4:23; Acts 4:29,31

28:28 the salvation of God has been sent to the Gentiles; they also will hear The third time Paul says this (13:46; 18:6). It does not mean God has given up on Israel. In this very chapter Paul called them brothers and wore his chain for the hope of Israel. Israel's hardening is partial and temporary, "and so all Israel will be saved" (Rom 11:25-26). I believe that day is still ahead, when Christ returns.
28:29 the Jews went away, having much discussion among themselves The SLB includes this verse, as the King James Version does. Most modern translations leave it out or footnote it, since the earliest manuscripts lack it. It adds nothing new to 28:25.
28:30 Paul stayed two whole years in his own rented house Still a prisoner, but with an open door. Many believe he wrote Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, and Philemon in these years, letters that mention his chains and greet Luke, Aristarchus, Mark, and Timothy.
28:31 with all boldness, unhindered Paul was chained, but "the word of God has not been bound" (2 Tim 2:9). Luke does not tell how the trial ended. Many believe Paul was released, preached again, wrote 1 Timothy and Titus, was arrested again, and wrote 2 Timothy (2 Tim 4:6-8). Tradition says he was beheaded under Nero around A.D. 64 to 67. Acts was never only Paul's story. It is the risen Jesus building His church by His Spirit, and the last word in Greek means unhindered. Nothing has stopped it since.

ROMANS

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for the people who first received it, the believers "in Rome, beloved of God, called saints" (1:7). Romans is the sixth book of the New Testament and the first of Paul's letters in our Bibles. It is placed first, not because it was written first, but because it is his longest and fullest explanation of the gospel. If you want to know what the good news of Jesus Christ is, why we need it, and how it changes a life, Romans is the place to go.

Author and Date

Paul tells us in the very first verse that he wrote it (1:1). He dictated the letter to a helper named Tertius, who adds his own greeting near the end (16:22). Paul most likely wrote from Corinth, in Greece, near the end of his third missionary journey, around A.D. 56 or 57 (Acts 20:2-3). He was about to carry a gift from the Gentile churches to the poor believers in Jerusalem (15:25-26), and after that he hoped to visit Rome on his way to Spain (15:24, 28). Phoebe, a servant of the church at Cenchrea, the port of Corinth, most likely carried the letter to Rome (16:1-2).

Paul had not started the church in Rome and had never visited it. We do not know who first brought the gospel there; perhaps Jews from Rome who heard Peter at Pentecost (Acts 2:10) carried it home. The church met in homes (16:5) and was made up of both Jewish and Gentile believers, and that mix explains much of what Paul says. Some years before, the emperor Claudius had forced the Jews out of Rome (Acts 18:2). By the time Paul wrote, Jewish believers such as Priscilla and Aquila were back in Rome (16:3).

The Jewish believers needed to hear that keeping the Law of Moses could never make them right with God. The Gentile believers needed to hear that God had not thrown away His people Israel, and that they had no reason to look down on their Jewish brothers and sisters. Paul wrote to strengthen them in the gospel (1:11-15), to prepare for his visit and gain their help for the mission to Spain (15:22-24), and to urge Jews and Gentiles to receive one another, as Christ had received them both (15:7).

If Romans could be boiled down to two verses, it would be these: the gospel "is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, both to the Jew first and to the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith" (1:16-17). God shows us a righteousness that comes from Him, not from us, and it is received by faith from start to finish.

Paul starts with the bad news, because you will never want a Savior until you know you need one. Gentile and Jew alike stand guilty, "for all sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (3:23). Then he gives the good news: we are "justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus" (3:24). Justification is God's verdict that declares a guilty sinner right in His sight, the moment he believes. From there Paul shows how the gospel frees us from sin's power and gives us life by the Spirit (chs. 6-8), how God has not forgotten Israel (chs. 9-11), and how the gospel changes the way we live (chs. 12-15). Key verses include 1:16, 3:23-24, 5:8, 6:23, 8:28 and 12:1-2.

Many believers share their faith using a handful of verses from this letter, often called the Roman Road: all have sinned (3:23), sin's wage is death but God offers a gift (6:23), Christ died for us while we were still sinners (5:8), we receive Him by believing and confessing Him as Lord (10:9-10), anyone who calls on Him will be saved (10:13), and there is no condemnation for those in Christ (8:1).

Christ in Romans

Christ is the center of every part of the letter. He is the Son of David according to the flesh and declared the Son of God by the resurrection (1:3-4). In Him the righteousness of God is revealed, for God set Him forth "as a propitiation through faith in His blood" (3:25), so that God is both righteous and the One who justifies the believer (3:26). He is the second Adam, whose one act of obedience brings life where Adam's one sin brought death (5:12-21). He was handed over for our sins and raised for our justification (4:25). Because He died, rose, and intercedes for us, nothing "will be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (8:39). He is the root of Jesse on whom the Gentiles hope (15:12), and the Deliverer who "will come out of Zion" (11:26) to turn Israel back to God.

Hard Passages

Romans raises some of the deepest questions in the Bible. The notes name the views where godly teachers disagree. How God's choosing and our believing fit together (8:28-30; 9:6-24) is answered differently by the Reformed and Arminian views; both agree that God is sovereign, that every person is responsible to repent and believe, that salvation is all of grace, and that the gospel must go to everyone. Paul himself ends the subject not with a debate but in worship (11:33).

The notes also take up whether believers can lose their salvation (8:38-39; 11:22), who the "I" of 7:14-25 is, how "all sinned" in Adam (5:12), what "all Israel will be saved" means (11:26), and how Paul and James fit together on faith and works (3:28). On Israel, I hold the future restoration view. A part of Israel has been hardened "until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in" (11:25), and at the end of the age the nation will turn to Jesus as Messiah, because "the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable" (11:29). The church has not replaced Israel. A few readings in the SLB follow the Received Text where the earliest manuscripts differ (8:1; 16:24), and the notes point these out.

Greeting

1 Paul (Paulos), a slave of Jesus (Iesous) Christ, a called apostle, set apart for the gospel of God, 2 which He promised beforehand through His prophets in holy Scriptures,
3 concerning His Son, who came from the seed of David (Dabid) according to the flesh, 4 who was declared Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by the resurrection of the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, 5 through whom we received grace and apostleship for obedience of faith among all the Gentiles on behalf of His name, 6 among whom you also are, called of Jesus Christ; 7 to all who are in Rome (Hrome), beloved of God, called saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul's Longing to Visit Rome

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being proclaimed in the whole world. 9 For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of His Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers, 10 imploring, if somehow now at last I will be prospered by the will of God to come to you. 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart some spiritual gift to you, for you to be established; 12 and that is, to be encouraged together among you through the faith among one another, both yours and mine. 13 Now I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that many times I purposed to come to you, and was hindered until the present, so that I might have some fruit among you also, even as also among the other Gentiles. 14 Both to Greeks and to non-Greeks, both to wise and to foolish, I am a debtor; 15 so there is eagerness on my part to preach the gospel also to you who are in Rome.

The Power of God for Salvation

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, both to the Jew first and to the Greek. 17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith, even as it has been

1:1 Paul, a slave of Jesus Christ, a called apostle, set apart for the gospel of God Paul introduces himself three ways. A slave, or bond-servant, belongs completely to his master. An apostle is sent by Jesus with His authority. Set apart means his whole life was given to one message. This is the man who once hunted Christians (Acts 9:1-2). If God could turn Saul the persecutor into Paul the apostle, there is no one He cannot reach.
1:2 which He promised beforehand through His prophets in holy Scriptures The gospel was not Paul's new idea. God promised it long before; Isaiah 53, for example, describes a servant who would suffer for the sins of others. Paul quotes the Old Testament again and again in Romans to show God has worked one plan from the beginning.
1:3 who came from the seed of David according to the flesh The gospel is about a Person, God's Son. Jesus is fully human, from David's line, as God promised David a descendant who would reign forever (2 Sam 7:12-16).
1:4 who was declared Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by the resurrection of the dead Jesus is also fully God. The resurrection did not make Him the Son of God; He always was. It declared it openly. God put His stamp of approval on all Jesus said and did by raising Him from the grave.
1:5 for obedience of faith among all the Gentiles Paul joins the two, and obedience grows out of real faith. Real faith is never just facts we agree with; it changes how we live. The first half of Romans shows we are saved by faith, and the second half shows how that faith works out in obedience.
1:6 called of Jesus Christ So are you, if you belong to Him. God's call is personal.
1:7 beloved of God, called saints A saint is not a super-Christian in a stained-glass window. Every believer is a saint, someone set apart for God. The word describes who they are in Christ, not how perfect they are. Paul always puts grace before peace. We cannot have peace with God until we have received His grace.
1:8 your faith is being proclaimed in the whole world Rome was the capital, and news traveled from there everywhere. What a testimony, to have your faith talked about across the world for the right reasons.
1:9 how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers Paul had never met most of them, yet he carried them in prayer. We can pray faithfully for missionaries and churches we may never visit.
1:10 if somehow now at last I will be prospered by the will of God to come to you Paul did get to Rome, but as a prisoner in chains (Acts 28:16, 20). God answered his prayer, just not on Paul's terms. Sometimes God says yes in a way we would never have chosen.
1:12 to be encouraged together among you through the faith among one another, both yours and mine In the same breath that he offers a gift, Paul says he wants to be encouraged by them. He did not see himself as the expert coming to fix everyone. Every Christian has something to give and something to receive.
1:13 many times I purposed to come to you, and was hindered until the present His work in other places had kept him away (15:22). Fruit means people coming to faith and growing in it.
1:14 Both to Greeks and to non-Greeks, both to wise and to foolish, I am a debtor Why would Paul owe them anything? Jesus had given him the gospel to pass on. When someone hands you a treasure meant for others, you owe it to them. Every believer carries that same debt.
1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ Verses 16 and 17 are the theme of the whole letter. In Rome, a city of power and philosophy, a message about a crucified Jewish teacher sounded weak and foolish (1 Cor 1:23). Paul says it is the power of God itself, the power that saves.
1:16 to everyone who believes, both to the Jew first and to the Greek Salvation is not limited to one nation or class. "To the Jew first" reminds us that God made His promises to Israel first and Jesus came first to the Jewish people. But the door is open to every non-Jew as well.
1:17 the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith The right standing with God that God Himself gives. We could never earn it; we receive it by faith. From faith to faith means by faith from start to finish. We begin, continue, and finish by faith.
1:17 And the righteous by faith will live From Habakkuk 2:4. This verse changed history. When Martin Luther understood that God's righteousness is a gift received by faith, not a standard reached by effort, he later wrote that he felt born again and entered paradise through open gates (Preface to his Latin Writings, 1545). That understanding helped spark the Reformation.

written, "And the righteous by faith will live."

God's Wrath Against Sin

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven upon all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, 19 because what is known of God is manifest in them; for God manifested it to them. 20 For His invisible things, from the creation of the world, being understood by the things made, are clearly seen, both His eternal power and divinity, for them to be without excuse;
21 because, having known God, they did not glorify Him as God or give thanks, but were made futile in their reasonings, and their senseless heart was darkened. 22 Claiming to be wise, they were made foolish, 23 and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into a likeness of an image of corruptible man and of birds and of four-footed animals and of creeping things. 24 Therefore God also gave them up in the desires of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, 25 who exchanged the truth of God for the lie, and worshiped and served the creation rather than the One who created it, who is blessed to the ages. Amen. 26 Because of this God gave them up to passions of dishonor; for even their females exchanged the natural use for the use contrary to nature, 27 and likewise also the males, having left the natural use of the female, were inflamed in their desire toward one another, males with males committing the indecency, and receiving in themselves the recompense of their error which was fitting. 28 And even as they did not approve of having God in their knowledge, God gave them up to an unapproved mind, to do the things that are not proper, 29 having been filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malignity; gossips, 30 slanderers, haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 senseless, untrustworthy, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful; 32 who, having known the righteous decree of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do them but also approve of those who practice them.

God's Righteous Judgment

2:2 Ps 9:4,7,8; Jer 12:1; Zeph 3:5

1:18 the wrath of God is revealed from heaven Before the good news, Paul shows us the bad news. "For" ties it to verse 17: the gospel is needed because God's wrath is real. It is not a lost temper but His steady, holy opposition to all evil. If He were not angry at sin, He would not be good.
1:18 who suppress the truth in unrighteousness They hold it down, like a beach ball underwater. It keeps trying to come up, and they keep pushing it back down.
1:20 His invisible things, from the creation of the world, being understood by the things made, are clearly seen Creation points to its Creator. The stars, the ocean, a newborn baby, the design of a single cell all show His eternal power and divinity (Ps 19:1). Creation does not tell us about Jesus or the cross, but it tells us enough to know He exists and that we owe Him honor.
1:20 for them to be without excuse No one can say, I never had a clue. The problem is not lack of evidence. It is not wanting what the evidence points to.
1:21 they did not glorify Him as God or give thanks Where the slide begins: refusing to give God His place and refusing to be thankful. Ingratitude may seem small, but Paul puts it at the start of humanity's downward spiral. When we stop thanking God, our thinking becomes futile and our hearts grow dark.
1:23 changed the glory of the incorruptible God into a likeness of an image of corruptible man Bowing to a statue of a bird sounds strange to us, but idolatry is still everywhere. Money, success, pleasure, a relationship, or ourselves can take God's place. We are made to worship. If we will not worship God, we will worship something else.
1:24 Therefore God also gave them up The phrase appears three times (1:24, 26, 28). It is a frightening form of wrath: God removed His restraining hand and let people have what they wanted. Sometimes His judgment is simply letting us go our own way and live with the results.
1:25 who exchanged the truth of God for the lie Every sin begins as a lie we choose to believe, that something other than God will satisfy us or that God is holding out on us, the lie of Eden (Gen 3:4-5). Even here Paul breaks into praise. The Creator "is blessed to the ages."
1:26 exchanged the natural use for the use contrary to nature The second "gave them up" describes homosexual behavior, by women and men, as against God's design from the beginning (Gen 1:27; 2:24). Paul is not singling out one group as worse than everyone else. It is one clear example of rejecting the Creator's design, and gossip, arrogance, and disobedience to parents follow in the same list (1:29-31).
1:27 receiving in themselves the recompense of their error which was fitting Sin carries consequences built into it. We hold to what God's Word says without softening it, and we speak it with compassion, because we were all lost. The gospel is good news for every sinner who turns to Christ, including those who struggle with same-sex desire. Some in Corinth had come out of these sins and were washed and made righteous in Jesus' name (1 Cor 6:9-11).
1:28 God gave them up to an unapproved mind The deepest step. A play on words: they did not approve of having God in their knowledge, so He gave them a mind itself unapproved. Keep refusing the truth, and eventually we lose the ability to think straight about right and wrong.
1:29 having been filled with all unrighteousness Read the list slowly and honestly. Some sins we call shocking, like murder. Others we excuse every day, like gossip and pride. God puts them side by side. None of us can read this list and say, that is them, not me.
1:32 not only do them but also approve of those who practice them The bottom of the slide. It is one thing to fall into sin and feel ashamed. It is another to celebrate sin and applaud it. A culture that reaches that point calls wrong right. But Romans 1 is not the end. The darker the background, the brighter the good news of 3:21-26 shines.
2:1 Therefore you are without excuse, O man, everyone who judges The same word Paul used of the pagan world (1:20), now applied to the one who judges others while doing the same things. This does not mean Christians can never call sin what it is; Paul just did that for a chapter. The problem is condemning others while excusing ourselves, seeing the speck and missing the log (Matt 7:3-5). The sins that bother us most in others are often the ones we struggle with.

truth upon those who practice such things. 3 And do you suppose this, O man, you who judge those who practice such things and do them, that you will escape the judgment of God? 4 Or do you despise the riches of His kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance? 5 But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God, 6 who will render to each according to his works: 7 to those who by endurance in good work seek glory and honor and incorruptibility, eternal life; 8 but to those who are of selfish ambition and who disobey the truth but obey unrighteousness, fury and wrath, 9 tribulation and distress upon every soul of man who carries out the evil, both of the Jew first and of the Greek; 10 but glory and honor and peace to everyone who works the good, both to the Jew first and to the Greek. 11 For there is no partiality with God. 12 For as many as sinned without law will also perish without law; and as many as sinned in law will be judged through law; 13 for not the hearers of the law are righteous with God, but the doers of the law will be justified. 14 For when Gentiles who do not have law by nature do the things of the law, these, not having law, are a law to themselves, 15 who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness with them, and the thoughts between one another accusing or even defending them, 16 in the day when God will judge the secrets of men according to my gospel through Jesus (Iesous) Christ.

The Jew and the Law

17 Look, you are called a Jew, and you rely on the law, and you boast in God, 18 and you know the will, and you approve the things that excel, being instructed out of the law, 19 and you are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light of those in darkness, 20 an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of infants, having the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law; 21 you then who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who preach not to steal, do you steal? 22 You who say not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? 2:3 that you will escape the judgment of God God's judgment is "according to truth" (2:2), based on what really happened, not appearances. Being a critic of sin does not make anyone innocent of it.
2:4 the kindness of God leads you to repentance Some take God's patience for granted, assuming judgment will never come. His kindness has a purpose. Repentance is a real turning, a change of mind about sin and God that shows up in a change of direction, not just feeling sorry. If you are breathing today, God is still giving you time (2 Pet 3:9). Do not waste it.
2:5 you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath A hard, unrepentant heart is making deposits into an account that will one day be paid out in full. The day of wrath is the coming judgment, which Revelation shows at the Great White Throne, the final judgment of the unsaved (Rev 20:11-15).
2:6 who will render to each according to his works From Psalm 62:12 and Proverbs 24:12. Jesus says He comes with His reward to give to each according to his work (Rev 22:12).
2:7 to those who by endurance in good work seek glory and honor and incorruptibility, eternal life Is Paul saying people can earn eternal life? No; chapter 3 proves no one is justified by works. He describes two directions a life can take: one looking to God for what only God can give, the other living for self. Good works do not save, but they show a heart God has changed. Many good teachers instead read this as the Law's standard in theory, which no one meets (3:10-12). Either way, no one stands on his own record.
2:9 both of the Jew first and of the Greek "The Jew first" appeared about salvation (1:16), and now about judgment. Greater privilege brings greater responsibility. Anyone who grew up hearing the gospel will answer for more.
2:11 For there is no partiality with God Family background, church membership, reputation, and money change nothing. No one can buy his way in, and no one is shut out because of who he is.
2:12 as many as sinned without law will also perish without law God judges each person fairly, by the light he had. What about someone who never heard of Jesus? I do not claim to know every detail of how God will deal with each person. God will be perfectly fair, but everyone has sinned against the light he had, which is why Paul was so eager to preach everywhere (1:14-15). The best answer to that question is to go and tell them, and to support those who do.
2:13 not the hearers of the law are righteous with God, but the doers of the law will be justified Hearing the Law every Sabbath made no one right with God. Only doing it would, and that is the problem: no one does it perfectly. Be doers of the word and not hearers only (James 1:22).
2:15 who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness Every culture knows murder, stealing, and betrayal are wrong. The conscience is an inner witness that accuses or defends us. But no one has fully lived up even to his own conscience. It does not save anyone; it shows everyone knows enough to be guilty.
2:16 in the day when God will judge the secrets of men Not just what we did, but our thoughts and motives (1 Cor 4:5). The Judge will be Christ Jesus (John 5:22). That should make us tremble, and it should comfort us. The One who will judge us is the One who died for us.
2:17 you are called a Jew, and you rely on the law, and you boast in God Paul speaks to his own people and lists what they were proud of. Much of it was true and good. God gave Israel His Law and called them to be a light to the nations (Isa 42:6).
2:20 having the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law The problem was not the privilege but trusting in it instead of God, as if having the Law were the same as keeping it. Read this as a mirror. Many of us have Bibles and know the right answers. Does what you know match how you live?
2:21 you then who teach another, do you not teach yourself It is easy to teach what we do not practice. Every parent, pastor, and Bible study leader should feel the weight of these questions. People are watching how we live, not just listening.
2:22 You who abhor idols, do you rob temples Some who would never worship an idol may have profited from stolen idols or temple goods. Their outward hatred of idolatry did not stop their greed. They broke the very Law they bragged about.
2:24 the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you Paul quotes Isaiah 52:5 from the Greek Old Testament his readers used (Ezek 36:20-22). When God's people live like hypocrites, the world blames God. Our lives bring either honor or shame to His name.

God Is Faithful

1 What then is the advantage of the Jew? Or what is the profit of circumcision? 2 Much in every way. For first, indeed, it is that they were entrusted with the oracles of God.
3 For what if some disbelieved? Will their unbelief nullify the faithfulness of God? 4 May it not be! But let God be true, and every man a liar, even as it has been written, "That You may be justified in Your words, and may overcome when You are judged." 5 But if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts the wrath? I speak according to man. 6 May it not be! Otherwise how will God judge the world? 7 For if the truth of God abounded in my lie to His glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? 8 And why not, even as we are slandered and even as some affirm that we say, "Let us do the evil things that the good things may come"? Their judgment is just.

2:25 your circumcision has become uncircumcision Circumcision was the sign of the covenant with Abraham (Gen 17:10-11), and some believed it guaranteed their place with God. If you break the Law, the outward sign means nothing, like wearing a wedding ring while living unfaithfully.
2:26 will not his uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision If a Gentile keeps what the Law truly requires, God counts him as His own. Many understand Paul to mean Gentile believers whose hearts the Spirit has changed (2:29); others take it as a hypothetical, as in 2:7. Either way, no one is saved by his own record.
2:27 will judge you That Gentile will stand as a witness against the one who had every advantage and still broke the Law. What matters to God is not the outward mark but the obedience of the heart.
2:28 he is not a Jew who is one outwardly The high point of the chapter. Moses told Israel to circumcise their hearts (Deut 10:16), and God promised to do it so they would love Him (Deut 30:6).
2:29 circumcision is of the heart, in spirit, not in letter Paul is not saying the Jewish people no longer matter or that the church has taken Israel's place. Next he says the Jew's advantage is "much in every way" (3:2), and chapters 9 to 11 show God's plan for Israel. Outward religion alone cannot make anyone right with God. Baptism, church, and communion are good gifts, but none can replace a heart that belongs to God (1 Sam 16:7).
3:1 What then is the advantage of the Jew Paul knew his readers would push back. If being Jewish and circumcised guarantees no one a place with God, what was the point?
3:2 they were entrusted with the oracles of God The advantage is great. God entrusted Israel with His very words. The Old Testament came to us through Israel, through Moses, David, Isaiah, and the prophets, and the Jewish people carefully preserved it for centuries. Every Christian who reads the Bible owes them a debt. More privileges follow in 9:4-5.
3:3 Will their unbelief nullify the faithfulness of God God keeps His promises even when His people do not keep theirs. People fail. God never does.
3:4 May it not be Paul's strongest no, used again and again in Romans to reject a wrong idea completely. Paul echoes the psalmist, "Every man is a liar" (Ps 116:11), and Paul then quotes David's prayer after his sin with Bathsheba (Ps 51:4). When God judges sin, He is always in the right. Our faithfulness rises and falls; His does not (2 Tim 2:13).
3:5 Is God unrighteous who inflicts the wrath The objection: if my sin makes God's goodness look better, is He unfair to punish it? Paul repeats the kind of twisted reasoning people use.
3:6 Otherwise how will God judge the world If God could not punish sin, He could not judge the world at all, and even the objector agrees He will. The argument falls apart.
3:8 Let us do the evil things that the good things may come Some accused Paul of teaching this because he preached salvation by grace, not by the Law. He will answer fully in 6:1-2. If you preach grace the way Paul did, someone will accuse you of making sin cheap. If no one ever raises that question, you may not be preaching grace as freely as Paul did.
3:9 all are under sin Jews are not better off than Gentiles before God. Under sin means under its power and penalty, like a prisoner under a guard.
3:10 There is not a righteous one, not even one Paul gathers Old Testament verses, mostly from the Psalms (Ps 14:1-3; 53:1-3). The verdict is complete. People do kind and generous things, but Paul means goodness in God's eyes, a life from a heart fully devoted to Him and lived for His glory. By that standard, no one measures up.
3:11 there is none who seeks out God When anyone does seek God, it is because God sought him first. No one can come to Jesus unless the Father draws him (John 6:44).
3:12 together they were made worthless Like fruit gone bad. Everyone has turned aside.
3:13 their throat is an opened grave From the heart to the body, starting with the mouth (Ps 5:9; 140:3; 10:7). The mouth speaks out of what fills the heart (Matt 12:34). How many of us have said things we wish we could take back?
3:15 their feet are swift to shed blood People rush to violence and leave ruin behind; they have never known the way of peace (Isa 59:7-8). Read the news any day and you will see these verses played out.

they did not know; 18 there is no fear of God before their eyes." 19 Now we know that whatever the law says, it speaks to those in the law, so that every mouth may be stopped and all the world may become accountable to God. 20 Because by works of law no flesh will be justified before Him; for through law is knowledge of sin.

Righteousness Through Faith

21 But now apart from law the righteousness of God has been manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets, 22 and the righteousness of God through faith of Jesus (Iesous) Christ is to all and upon all who believe; for there is no distinction; 23 for all sinned and fall short of the glory of God, 24 being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, 25 whom God set forth as a propitiation through faith in His blood, for a demonstration of His righteousness because of the passing over of the sins that had previously occurred, in the forbearance of God; 26 for the demonstration of His righteousness at the present time, for Him to be righteous and the One justifying the one who is of faith of Jesus. 27 Where then is the boasting? It was excluded. Through what law? Of works? No, but through the law of faith. 28 Therefore we reckon a man to be justified by faith apart from works of law. 29 Or is God of Jews only? And is He not also of Gentiles? Yes, also of Gentiles, 30 since indeed God is one, who will justify the circumcision by faith and the uncircumcision through the faith. 31 Do we then nullify law through the faith? May it not be! But we establish law.

Abraham Justified by Faith

3:18 there is no fear of God before their eyes From Psalm 36:1, the root of all the rest. When people stop fearing God, the deep respect and awe of Him as holy Judge, nothing is left to hold back sin.

3:19 so that every mouth may be stopped and all the world may become accountable to God Picture a courtroom where the defendant has run out of arguments and stands silent. That is where the whole world stands before God. No excuses left.

3:20 by works of law no flesh will be justified before Him No one keeps the Law perfectly. Justified means declared righteous by God, like a judge announcing not guilty. It is a legal word about our standing before Him, not about feeling better or slowly becoming better. The Law is a mirror. It shows the dirt, but you cannot wash your face with a mirror. Only Christ can meet the need.

3:21 But now apart from law the righteousness of God has been manifested But now: two of the most beautiful words in the Bible. After three chapters of bad news, the good news breaks through. It is not a new plan; the Law and Prophets pointed to it all along (Gen 15:6; Hab 2:4).

3:22 through faith of Jesus Christ is to all and upon all who believe Faith earns nothing; it receives what God gives. The SLB keeps the Greek wording, which can mean faith in Jesus Christ, our trust in Him, or the faithfulness of Jesus Christ, His own obedience. Both are true. "There is no distinction" here means no difference in our need; in 10:12 it means no difference in God's offer.

3:23 for all sinned and fall short of the glory of God This levels every one of us, the pastor and the prisoner, the kind neighbor and the criminal. Fall short is present tense, our ongoing condition. Picture people jumping a canyon: some jump farther, but no one reaches the other side. We were made to reflect God's glory (Gen 1:27), and sin has smeared that image in all of us.

3:24 being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus The same "all" who sinned can be declared righteous freely, as a gift. Grace is undeserved favor; a gift you earn is a paycheck. Redemption means buying back, like paying to free a slave, and recalls Israel redeemed from Egypt. Jesus paid the price with His own blood (1 Pet 1:18-19).

3:25 whom God set forth as a propitiation through faith in His blood A sacrifice that satisfies God's righteous anger and turns it away. The word is the one used for the mercy seat on the Ark (Heb 9:5), sprinkled with blood on the Day of Atonement (Lev 16:14-15). Jesus is our mercy seat, set forth on the cross for all to see. The wrath of 1:18 fell on Him.

3:25 because of the passing over of the sins that had previously occurred, in the forbearance of God Animal sacrifices could never take away sin (Heb 10:4). God let those sins go because He was looking ahead to the cross. Abraham, Moses, and David were forgiven on credit, you could say, and Jesus paid the bill.

3:26 for Him to be righteous and the One justifying the one who is of faith of Jesus The biggest question in the Bible: how can a holy God forgive the guilty and stay just? At the cross He punished sin fully and offers forgiveness freely. This is the great exchange: Jesus took our sin, and God credits His righteousness to us when we believe (2 Cor 5:21). Theologians call this imputation, and chapter 4 explains it with Abraham.

3:27 Where then is the boasting? It was excluded If salvation is a gift received by faith, no one can brag. In heaven no one will say, I made it because I was better. Every voice will praise Jesus.

3:28 we reckon a man to be justified by faith apart from works of law Justification by faith alone, the truth the Reformers recovered. Works do not add to Christ's work; they follow as fruit (Eph 2:8-10). James says "a man is justified by works and not by faith only" (James 2:24), answering a faith that never shows itself in life. Paul says works can never earn our standing. Both agree saving faith is never alone.

3:30 since indeed God is one If salvation came through the Law it would belong mostly to the Jews. Because it comes by faith, it is open to all. One God saves Jew and Gentile the same way. At the foot of the cross the ground is level.

3:31 Do we then nullify law through the faith? May it not be! But we establish law The gospel takes the Law seriously. The Law said sin must be punished, and at the cross it was. The Law pointed to a Savior, and Jesus came. By the Spirit, believers live out what the Law was always about, loving God and others (8:4; 13:8-10).

4:1 What then will we say that Abraham our father has found according to the flesh Paul asks as a good teacher does, speaking as a Jew to Jewish readers. Did Abraham earn his right standing with God, or receive it?

4:2 he has a boast, but not before God If works had justified Abraham, people might have admired him. But no one stands before a holy God and boasts. Whatever good Abraham did, it never put God in his debt. Justified is the courtroom word of chapter 3, God's verdict that we are in right standing with Him.

4:3 And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness From Genesis 15:6. An old man with no children believed God's promise of descendants like the stars. Reckoned is an accounting word, to put something on someone's account. God placed righteousness on Abraham's account when he trusted Him. For the believer it is Christ's righteousness (2 Cor 5:21). This was before Isaac was offered and before Abraham was circumcised.

was reckoned to him for righteousness." 4 Now to the one who works, the wage is not reckoned according to grace but according to debt; 5 but to the one who does not work but believes on the One who justifies the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness, 6 just as David (Dabid) also speaks of the blessedness of the man to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works: 7 "Blessed are those whose lawless deeds were forgiven, and whose sins were covered; 8 blessed is the man to whom the Lord will by no means reckon sin." 9 Is this blessedness then upon the circumcision, or also upon the uncircumcision? For we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. 10 How then was it reckoned? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. 11 And he received a sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had in the uncircumcision, for him to be father of all who believe through uncircumcision, for the righteousness to be reckoned to them also, 12 and father of circumcision to those who are not of circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of the faith which our father Abraham had in the uncircumcision.

The Promise Through Faith

13 For the promise to Abraham or to his seed, that he would be heir of the world, was not through law, but through the righteousness of faith. 14 For if those of law are heirs, faith has been made empty and the promise has been nullified. 15 For the law brings about wrath; for where there is no law, neither is there transgression. 16 Because of this it is of faith, so that it may be according to grace, for the promise to be sure to all the seed, not to that which is of the law only, but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is father of us all, 17 even as it has been written, "A father of many nations I have made you," before God whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls the things that are not as though they are; 18 who against hope believed in hope, for him to become father of many nations according to what had been spoken, "So will your seed be." 19 And not having become weak in faith, he did not consider his own body, already having become dead, being about a hundred years old, and the deadness of the womb of Sarah (Sarra); 20 yet with respect to the promise of God he did not waver in unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, having given glory to God, 21 and having been fully convinced that what He has promised He is able also to do. 22 Therefore also it was reck-

4:4 the wage is not reckoned according to grace but according to debt A paycheck is not a favor; you earned it, and your boss owes it. If salvation worked that way, God would owe us. But God owes no one anything.
4:5 believes on the One who justifies the ungodly Not those who cleaned themselves up first, but the ungodly. That should set every one of us free. We do not work so God will accept us; He accepts us by grace, and then we work because we are accepted. Works are the fruit of salvation, not the root. Faith is not another work; it is the empty hand that receives the gift (Eph 2:8-9).
4:6 just as David also speaks A second witness, as the Law required (Deut 19:15). Abraham lived before the Law, David under it, and both tell the same story.
4:7 Blessed are those whose lawless deeds were forgiven, and whose sins were covered Psalm 32:1-2, which many believe David wrote after his sin with Bathsheba and Uriah's murder (2 Sam 11-12). Three pictures: the debt canceled, the sins covered from God's sight, and sin not charged to his account.
4:8 blessed is the man to whom the Lord will by no means reckon sin The other side of justification. God not only credits righteousness to us; He refuses to count our sin against us. If God could forgive David, He can forgive you.
4:10 Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision Abraham was declared righteous in Genesis 15 and circumcised in Genesis 17, at least thirteen or fourteen years later: about 85 when he took Hagar (Gen 16:3), 86 at Ishmael's birth (16:16), and 99 at his circumcision (17:24). When God declared him righteous, Abraham was for all practical purposes a Gentile who believed God.
4:11 a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had in the uncircumcision A sign points to something, and a seal confirms it. Circumcision did not make Abraham righteous; it marked a righteousness he already had by faith. Many trust an outward sign today, baptism as a child, growing up in church, or communion. These are good gifts, but they point to faith and cannot take its place.
4:12 who also walk in the steps of the faith which our father Abraham had Abraham is father of one family from two groups: Gentiles who believe and Jews who believe. Being born Jewish was never enough by itself. What counts is walking in Abraham's faith.
4:13 that he would be heir of the world God promised Abraham land, a great nation, and blessing for all families of the earth (Gen 12:1-3). In the end Abraham and his true children will inherit the earth (Matt 5:5; Rev 21:1-7). That promise came about 430 years before the Law (Gal 3:17), through the righteousness of faith.
4:15 the law brings about wrath If the inheritance depended on keeping the Law, the promise would be worthless, since no one keeps it. Where there is no law there is no transgression does not mean people without the Law have no sin. The written Law turns sin into open lawbreaking and makes guilt plain. It points out the problem but cannot fix it.
4:16 it is of faith, so that it may be according to grace, for the promise to be sure to all the seed If salvation depended on us, it would never be secure. Because it rests on God's grace received by faith, the promise is sure. Your salvation does not rest on how well you performed this week, but on what God promised and Christ did.
4:17 who gives life to the dead and calls the things that are not as though they are From Genesis 17:5, where Abram became Abraham, father of many. God said "I have made you" when Isaac was not yet born. When God says it, it is as good as done. Abraham's faith was not in his own ability but in the God who creates from nothing and raised Jesus.
4:18 who against hope believed in hope Every natural reason for hope was gone, but Abraham held on to God's word, "So will your seed be" (Gen 15:5).
4:19 he did not consider his own body, already having become dead Abraham, about a hundred, and Sarah past childbearing, fixed their hope on God's promise. Many Greek copies leave out "not," and many Bibles say he did face the facts of his body. Both make the same point: faith looks reality in the eye and trusts that God is bigger. Abraham laughed (Gen 17:17) and tried to help God with Hagar (Gen 16), but over his life his trust held.
4:20 was strengthened in faith, having given glory to God Faith grows as we keep looking at the One who promised rather than our circumstances. Faith honors God, because it says, You will do what You said.
4:21 having been fully convinced that what He has promised He is able also to do A good definition of faith.
4:22 Therefore also it was reckoned to him for righteousness Paul repeats Genesis 15:6 to tie the argument together.

oned to him for righteousness. 23 Now it was not written on account of him alone that it was reckoned to him, 24 but also on account of us, to whom it is about to be reckoned, to those who believe on the One who raised Jesus (Iesous) our Lord from the dead, 25 who was delivered over because of our trespasses, and was raised because of our justification.

Peace with God

1 Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, 2 through whom also we have had access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. 3 And not only this, but we also boast in the tribulations, knowing that the tribulation produces endurance, 4 and the endurance, proven character; and the proven character, hope; 5 and the hope does not put us to shame, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. 6 For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For scarcely will anyone die for a righteous man; for perhaps for the good man someone even dares to die. 8 But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. 9 Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we will be saved from the wrath through Him. 10 For if, being enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we will be saved by His life. 11 And not only this, but also we are boasting in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

Death in Adam, Life in Christ

12 Because of this, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin, and so death passed to all men, because all sinned; 13 for until law sin was in the world, but sin is not charged to account when there is no law. 14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the likeness of the trans-

4:24 but also on account of us These words were written for our sake, to show how God saves. Abraham believed God could bring life from a body as good as dead. We believe in the God who raised Jesus. It is the same faith in the same God. Abraham looked forward to the promise; we look back at its fulfillment.
4:25 who was delivered over because of our trespasses, and was raised because of our justification Possibly an early statement of faith. Jesus was handed over to death for our sins, and His resurrection is God's announcement that the payment was accepted. Some read it as raised to bring about our justification, others as raised because it had been secured. Both fit Scripture. The empty tomb is the proof.
5:1 having been justified by faith, we have peace with God Therefore points back to chapters 3 and 4. Not only the peace of God (Phil 4:7) but peace with God. Before Christ we were at war with Him, His enemies (5:10). Now the war is over and God is for us. This peace is not a feeling that comes and goes but a fact about where we stand, through Jesus, not through how well we are doing.
5:2 we have had access by faith into this grace in which we stand Access pictures being brought into a king's presence. Jesus brings us in, and we do not just visit; we stand there and live in grace. Biblical hope is not wishful thinking but confident expectation of what God has promised: sharing His glory when Jesus returns and we are made like Him (1 John 3:2).
5:3 we also boast in the tribulations Not enjoying suffering or looking for it, but rejoicing in it because we know what God is doing through it. Endurance is the ability to keep going under a heavy load.
5:4 and the endurance, proven character; and the proven character, hope Proven character is faith tested and found real, like metal through the fire. Each time God carries us through, our confidence in Him grows. I do not claim suffering is easy or always makes sense at the time, but the hard seasons are often where we grow most (James 1:2-4).
5:5 the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us Our hope will not leave us ashamed in the end. The first plain statement in Romans that every believer has been given the Spirit; chapter 8 says much more. God did not just tell us He loves us. He poured His love in until it overflows.
5:6 at the right time Christ died for the ungodly We were weak and could not save ourselves. When the fullness of time came, God sent His Son (Gal 4:4), not too early or too late, to die for people who did not deserve it.
5:7 for perhaps for the good man someone even dares to die We honor soldiers, police officers, and firefighters who give their lives for others, and we should. But even such sacrifice is usually for people we see as worth saving.
5:8 while we were still sinners, Christ died for us God did not wait for us to get better or to love Him first. While we were still in rebellion, Christ died for us. If you ever wonder whether God really loves you, do not look at your circumstances. Look at the cross.
5:9 we will be saved from the wrath through Him From the greater to the lesser: if God did the hardest thing, He will finish the job. His wrath against sin will be poured out fully on the day of judgment, shown in detail in Revelation (Rev 6:16-17; 14:10; 19:15). The believer need not fear that day. Jesus took God's wrath in our place, so there is none left for us.
5:10 being enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son Reconciled means a broken relationship restored, enemies made friends, even family. If Christ's death brought us to God, His resurrection life will surely keep us. He always lives to intercede for us (Heb 7:25).
5:11 we are boasting in God through our Lord Jesus Christ Paul cannot stop. The greatest gift of salvation is not just escaping punishment, or even heaven. It is God Himself, to know, enjoy, and be with forever.
5:12 just as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin Paul goes back to Eden. God told Adam he would die if he ate (Gen 2:17). He disobeyed, and spiritual and physical death followed. "Just as" begins a comparison that Paul breaks off to explain and then finishes in verse 18.
5:12 and so death passed to all men, because all sinned Godly Christians read this in different ways. I believe when Adam sinned, all humanity sinned in him as its head and representative, and "the many were constituted sinners" (5:19). So we are born with a sinful nature (Ps 51:5). We do not become sinners when we first sin; we sin because we are sinners. Others read it as every person following Adam's example. That is true too (3:23), but Paul's argument points to the effect of Adam's one sin.
5:13 sin is not charged to account when there is no law Sin was in the world before Moses, but without a written law it was not counted as specific law-breaking in the same way. Still people died.
5:14 death reigned from Adam until Moses They had not broken a direct command as Adam did, yet they died, because of Adam's sin and the nature they inherited. Death proves all humanity is caught up in Adam's fall, though I believe little children who die are safe with God.
5:14 who is a type of the One to come A type is an Old Testament person or event that points ahead to something greater. Each man is the head of a race, and what he did affects everyone joined to him. Paul calls Jesus "the last Adam" (1 Cor 15:45).

gression of Adam, who is a type of the One to come. 15 But not as the trespass, so also is the gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more the grace of God and the free gift in grace, which is of the one man Jesus Christ, abounded to the many. 16 And the bestowal is not as through one who sinned; for the judgment came from one to condemnation, but the gift came from many trespasses to a righteous verdict. 17 For if by the trespass of the one death reigned through the one, much more those who receive the abundance of grace and of the free gift of righteousness will reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ. 18 So then, as through one trespass it came to all men for condemnation, so also through one righteous act it came to all men for justification of life. 19 For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were constituted sinners, so also through the obedience of the one the many will be constituted righteous. 20 Now law came in alongside, so that the trespass might increase; but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more, 21 so that, just as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive to God

1 What then will we say? Will we continue in sin so that grace may abound? 2 May it not be! We who died to sin, how will we still live in it? 3 Or are you unaware that as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus (Iesous) were baptized into His death? 4 Therefore we were buried with Him through baptism into death, so that just as Christ was raised out of the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also may walk in newness of life. 5 For if we have become united with the likeness of His death, certainly we will also be united with the likeness of the resurrection, 6 knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, so that the body of sin might be rendered powerless, that we no longer be enslaved to sin. 7 For the one who has died has been justified from sin. 8 Now if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him, 9 knowing that Christ, having been raised out of the dead, no longer dies; death no longer rules

5:15 But not as the trespass, so also is the gift Adam and Christ are not equal opposites. Grace is not just strong enough to cancel what Adam did. It overflowed "much more."
5:16 the gift came from many trespasses to a righteous verdict Condemnation is the guilty verdict, the opposite of justification. One sin brought ruin. Christ's work answered the sins of every generation and brought a verdict of righteous.
5:17 those who receive the abundance of grace and of the free gift of righteousness will reign in life Not only does life reign; believers reign with Christ (2 Tim 2:12; Rev 20:6; 22:5), from subjects of death to kings with Him. The gift must be received. Grace is offered to all but becomes ours by faith.
5:18 through one righteous act it came to all men for justification of life Paul finishes the sentence of verse 12. Does "all men" mean everyone will be saved? No. Romans makes clear people must believe (1:16; 3:22; 10:9-13), and verse 17 says "those who receive." Christ's work is for all people, Jew and Gentile, and all who are in Christ are justified, as all in Adam are condemned.
5:19 through the obedience of the one the many will be constituted righteous Jesus lived the perfect obedience Adam failed to live and we have failed to live, all the way to the cross (Phil 2:8). His obedience is counted as ours. By birth we are all in Adam; by new birth through faith we can be in Christ. Which man are you connected to?
5:20 so that the trespass might increase; but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more The Law did not create sin but exposed it. A sign that says Wet Paint, Do Not Touch shows how much people want to touch. However deep sin goes, grace goes deeper. No one has sinned too much for God's grace.
5:21 so also grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life Two kings. Sin reigned and its kingdom ended in death. Grace reigns through righteousness, because Jesus paid in full. Someone will ask, then should we keep sinning? Paul answers in chapter 6.
6:1 Will we continue in sin so that grace may abound Paul raises the objection himself. Some accused him of teaching this (3:8), and there have always been people who treat grace as a license to live however they want.
6:2 We who died to sin, how will we still live in it Not that sin died, or that we no longer feel its pull, but that we died to it. Our relationship to sin has changed at the root. A dead man does not answer when his old boss calls. Sin still calls, but we are no longer under its rule.
6:3 as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death Early believers were baptized soon after they believed (Acts 2:41; 8:36-38; 16:33), so every reader remembered that day. Baptized into Christ means joined to Him, and so joined to His death. I believe Paul means water baptism picturing what happened inwardly when we believed; some teachers believe he means only Spirit baptism (1 Cor 12:13). The two belong together: the visible picture and the reality.
6:3 baptized into His death Does baptism itself save? I do not believe it does. Paul has shown for three chapters that we are justified by faith, and circumcision was a sign of faith Abraham already had (4:11). Baptism follows faith as obedience and public testimony, and every believer should be baptized (Matt 28:19). It is the picture, not the power. The thief on the cross had Jesus' promise of Paradise that day (Luke 23:43).
6:4 we were buried with Him through baptism into death Baptism pictures a funeral and a resurrection: down into the water, buried with Christ; up out of it, raised to walk in newness of life. That is why many churches immerse. Whatever the practice, the old life is over and a new one has started (2 Cor 5:17).
6:5 if we have become united with the likeness of His death The picture is two things growing together, like a branch grafted into a tree. Joined with Christ in His death, we share His resurrection now in new life and fully when our bodies are raised at His return (1 Cor 15:51-53).
6:6 our old man was crucified with Him The old man is who we were in Adam, ruled by sin, put to death with Jesus. "I have been crucified with Christ" (Gal 2:20).
6:6 so that the body of sin might be rendered powerless, that we no longer be enslaved to sin Rendered powerless means put out of business. The body is not evil; the body as a tool ruled by sin has lost its power. Before Christ we had no choice. Now the chains are broken. We still can sin, and we do, but we no longer have to.
6:7 the one who has died has been justified from sin The same legal word as chapters 3 to 5, though many Bibles say freed. A dead man cannot be arrested, taxed, or ordered around. Death ends all claims, and sin has no legal claim on one who died with Christ.
6:8 if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with Him Our union with Christ goes both ways, in His death and in His life, now and forever.
6:9 death no longer rules over Him Lazarus was raised and died again. Jesus rose with a glorified body, never to die again. "I was dead, and look, I am living to the ages of the ages" (Rev 1:18). Because we are in Him, death will not have the last word over us either.

over Him. 10 For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life that He lives, He lives to God. 11 So you also, consider yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but living to God in Christ Jesus our Lord. 12 Therefore let sin not reign in your mortal body, so that you obey it in its desires; 13 nor present your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but present yourselves to God as those living out of the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. 14 For sin will not rule over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

15 What then? Will we sin because we are not under law but under grace? May it not be! 16 Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves as slaves for obedience, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness? 17 But thanks be to God that you were slaves of sin, but you obeyed from the heart the form of teaching to which you were handed over. 18 And having been set free from sin, you were enslaved to righteousness. 19 I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just as you presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness, leading to lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification. 20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. 21 What fruit therefore were you having then in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. 22 But now, having been set free from sin and having been enslaved to God, you have your fruit leading to sanctification, and the end, eternal life. 23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

6:10 He died to sin once for all Jesus never sinned. He died to deal with sin, to pay its penalty and break its power, once, never to be repeated (Heb 9:26-28; 10:10).
6:11 consider yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but living to God in Christ Jesus our Lord The first command in Romans. Up to now Paul has told what God has done; now what to do about it. Consider is the accounting word of chapter 4, to count something true because it is true. When temptation comes, you can say, That is not who I am anymore. What God says is more real than what you feel.
6:12 let sin not reign in your mortal body Sin is a king who wants his throne back. It has no right to rule, but it will try, and the mortal body is where the fight takes place. What God has done is complete. Living it out takes daily choices.
6:13 present yourselves to God as those living out of the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God Members are eyes, hands, feet, tongue, and mind, each a tool or even a weapon. Eyes can look at what pulls us into sin or read God's Word. The tongue can tear down or build up. Every day we decide whose tools our bodies will be. You were dead; now you are alive. Live like it.
6:14 sin will not rule over you, for you are not under law but under grace A promise. The Law told people what to do but gave no power to do it. Grace forgives us and changes us. Under grace does not mean no moral standard. It means a new rule, God's favor and His Spirit working in us, not a system of earning His approval.
6:15 Will we sin because we are not under law but under grace The objection again in a new form: is it okay to sin now and then? The answer again is no.
6:16 you are slaves of the one whom you obey Much of Rome's population was enslaved, so everyone understood the picture. There are only two masters, sin leading to death and obedience leading to righteousness. The world says freedom means doing whatever we want. The Bible says that makes us slaves of sin.
6:17 you obeyed from the heart the form of teaching to which you were handed over Not outward rule-keeping but obedience from the heart. They were handed over to the teaching, as a slave to a new master. God put them under the shaping power of His truth.
6:18 having been set free from sin, you were enslaved to righteousness Real freedom is not freedom from all masters but freedom to serve the right One.
6:19 present your members as slaves to righteousness, leading to sanctification Human terms: serving God is not cruel as human slavery often was, but the picture helps. Sin always grows. Sanctification is being set apart for God and made more like Jesus. Justification happens in a moment; sanctification is lifelong. Holiness grows the same way sin does, one choice at a time.
6:21 What fruit therefore were you having then in the things of which you are now ashamed Many can look back on the damage: broken relationships, guilt, addiction, wasted years. Sin promises much and pays very little, and the end is death.
6:22 having been enslaved to God, you have your fruit leading to sanctification, and the end, eternal life But now, as in 3:21. Freed from sin and enslaved to God, the fruit is a holy, changed life, and the end is eternal life.
6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord Wages are earned; a gift is received. Sin pays its workers in full: physical death and eternal separation from God. Eternal life cannot be earned. It is God's free gift found only in Christ. If you have never received it, turn from sin and trust Jesus, who died for you and rose again. If you have, live as one set free.
7:1 for I speak to those who know law Most likely the Jewish believers in Rome, though many Gentile believers knew the Old Testament well too. A simple principle everyone accepts: a law has authority over a person only while he lives.
7:2 if the husband dies, she has been released from the law of the husband While her husband lives she is bound to him; after his death she is free to marry again with a clear conscience. Paul is not giving a full teaching on marriage and divorce. He uses a picture to make one point: death ends a legal obligation.
7:4 you also were put to death to the law through the body of Christ When Jesus died, all who belong to Him died with Him (6:3-6), freed from the Law as a way of being made right with God. We were set free to belong to the risen Jesus, like a bride to her husband, so that we may bear fruit to God. Freedom from the Law is never freedom to live as we please.

law through the body of Christ, for you to become another's, the One who was raised out of the dead, so that we may bear fruit to God. 5 For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins, which were through the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit to death. 6 But now we have been released from the law, that having died in which we were held fast, so that we serve in newness of the Spirit and not in oldness of the letter.

The Law and Sin

7 What then will we say? Is the law sin? May it not be! But I did not know sin except through law; for I also had not known covetousness except that the law was saying, "You shall not covet." 8 But sin, having taken an occasion through the commandment, worked out in me all covetousness; for apart from law sin is dead. 9 And I was once alive apart from law; but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died; 10 and the commandment, which was for life, this was found by me to be for death; 11 for sin, having taken an occasion through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. 12 So the law indeed is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

The Struggle with Sin

13 Then has that which is good become death to me? May it not be! But sin, so that it might be shown to be sin, through that which is good was working out death to me, so that sin through the commandment might become sinful beyond measure. 14 For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin. 15 For what I work out, I do not understand; for what I want, this I do not practice, but what I hate, this I do. 16 But if what I do not want, this I do, I agree with the law that it is good. 17 But now it is no longer I who work it out, but the sin dwelling in me. 18 For I know that good does not dwell in me, that is, in my flesh; for to want is present with me, but to work out the good I do not find. 19 For the good that I want, I do not do; but the evil that I do not want, this I practice. 20 But if what I do not want, this I do, it is no longer I who work it out, but the sin dwelling in me. 21 I find then the law, that for me, the one wanting to do the good, evil is present with me. 22 For I delight in the law of God according to the inward man, 23 but I see another law in my members, waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin which is in my members.

7:5 the passions of sins, which were through the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit to death In the flesh describes life before Christ, when the old sinful nature was in control. The Law did not create sin, but it stirred it up, and that life could bear only death.
7:6 so that we serve in newness of the Spirit and not in oldness of the letter But now, as in 3:21 and 6:22. The letter is the written code on stone that told us what to do but gave no power. The Spirit lives in the believer and changes us from inside, as God promised: His law on our hearts and His Spirit within us (Jer 31:33; Ezek 36:26-27).
7:7 Is the law sin? May it not be The Law is not the bad guy; it showed us our sin. Paul picks the tenth commandment (Exod 20:17). Most commands deal with outward acts, but coveting happens in the heart. A person could keep every outward rule and still be full of wrong desire.
7:8 sin, having taken an occasion through the commandment, worked out in me all covetousness Sin is pictured as an enemy using the command as a base to launch its attack. Tell someone not to do something, and he suddenly wants to do it more. Apart from law sin is dead means it lies quiet and unrecognized until the Law exposes it.
7:9 I was once alive apart from law; but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died Paul may mean his childhood before he understood the commands, or he may speak for Israel before Sinai. Either way, when the command came home to him, he saw he stood guilty before God.
7:10 the commandment, which was for life God gave the Law as a good path (Lev 18:5). Because of sin, what was meant for life showed Paul that he was spiritually dead.
7:11 sin, having taken an occasion through the commandment, deceived me Sin always deceives. It promised Eve she would be like God (Gen 3:4-5), and it promises us satisfaction and freedom. It delivers death.
7:12 the law indeed is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good The Law came from God and reflects His character. We should never speak badly of it. The problem was never the Law. The problem is us.
7:13 so that sin through the commandment might become sinful beyond measure It was sin, not the good command, that killed Paul. Think of an X-ray. It does not cause the broken bone but shows the break so it can be treated. The Law shows how broken we are so we will run to the only One who can heal us.
7:14 the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin Paul shifts to the present tense. Who is the "I" of 7:14-25? Some believe Paul describes himself before salvation, or anyone under the Law without the Spirit: "sold under sin" seems hard to fit with 6:18, and the Spirit is not named until chapter 8. Others believe he describes himself as a mature believer: the present tense continues, this man delights in God's Law (7:22), which the fleshly mind cannot do (8:7), and before salvation Paul thought himself blameless (Phil 3:6).
7:14 sold under sin I lean toward the second view: the ongoing struggle every believer has with the flesh until our bodies are redeemed (8:23; Gal 5:17; 1 John 1:8). Paul is not saying sin wins every battle. He is honest about the war. I respect believers who hold the other view. Either way, Romans 7 is not the end of the story. Romans 8 is.
7:15 for what I want, this I do not practice, but what I hate, this I do If you have ever promised God you would never do something again and then done it, you know what Paul means.
7:16 I agree with the law that it is good Hating the wrong he does shows Paul's heart is on God's side even when his actions fall short.
7:17 it is no longer I who work it out, but the sin dwelling in me Not an excuse; he has already owned it (7:15). His truest self, the one who loves God, is not the one who wants to sin. Sin is like an unwelcome tenant. It has been evicted from the throne but has not yet moved out of the building.
7:18 good does not dwell in me, that is, in my flesh Paul is careful. The Spirit lives in every believer, so he does not say nothing good is in him at all, only in his flesh, his fallen nature. In his own strength he cannot carry out what he wants.
7:20 it is no longer I who work it out, but the sin dwelling in me Paul repeats himself, perhaps on purpose. In the middle of a struggle we tend to go around in circles.
7:21 for me, the one wanting to do the good, evil is present with me Almost a rule he can count on. Some of the hardest temptations come right when we are trying hardest to serve God.
7:22 For I delight in the law of God according to the inward man In the deepest part of who he is, Paul joyfully agrees with God's Law.
7:23 waging war against the law of my mind Another power is at work in his body, trying to drag him back into sin's prison. This is a real battle, which is why we put on the full armor of God (Eph 6:10-18).

24 Wretched man I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death? 25 I thank God through Jesus (Iesous) Christ our Lord! So then I myself with the mind indeed serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.

Life in the Spirit

1 There is therefore now no condemnation to those in Christ Jesus (Iesous), who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and of death. 3 For the inability of the law, in that it was weak through the flesh: God, having sent His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh, 4 so that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. 5 For those who are according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. 6 For the mindset of the flesh is death, but the mindset of the Spirit is life and peace, 7 because the mindset of the flesh is hostility toward God; for it is not subject to the law of God, for neither can it be. 8 And those who are in the flesh are not able to please God. 9 But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, this one is not His. 10 And if Christ is in you, the body indeed is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 And if the Spirit of the One who raised Jesus out of the dead dwells in you, the One who raised Christ out of the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit dwelling in you. 12 So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh; 13 for if you live according to the flesh, you are about to die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. 15 For you did not receive a spirit of slavery again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry out, "Abba, Father!" 16 The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, 17 and if children, also heirs: heirs indeed of God, and fellow heirs of Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him so that we

7:24 Who will deliver me out of the body of this death A cry of despair, and the right question. Not what will set me free, a better plan or stronger will, but who. Some think of an ancient punishment that tied a dead body to a living prisoner. I cannot say Paul had that in mind, but the picture fits.
7:25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord Jesus has freed us from sin's penalty by His death, frees us more and more from its power by His Spirit, and will free us from its presence when He returns. Until then the battle goes on. If you hate your sin and long to do right, God is at work in you. Do not try to win this war in your own strength. Look to Jesus.
8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation to those in Christ Jesus If you remember one verse from Romans, this would be a good one. Condemnation is a courtroom word, the guilty verdict and its sentence. We all deserved it (3:23; 6:23), but for those joined to Christ by faith the verdict is reversed. Now, not someday or after we clean up. When Satan reminds you of your past, this verse is your answer.
8:1 who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit Many Greek copies end the verse at "Christ Jesus," but the same words appear in verse 4. The line does not make our safety depend on our walk. It describes the people who are in Christ.
8:2 the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and of death Law here means a ruling power. The power that held us captive in chapter 7 is overcome by the greater power of the Spirit bringing Christ's life into us. Gravity is still real, but an airplane's engines carry it above it.
8:3 God, having sent His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh The Law was not bad but weak through the flesh. It could show what was right but not give power to do it. So God sent His Son, fully human yet without sin (Heb 4:15; 2 Cor 5:21). On the cross God condemned sin in the flesh. The condemnation we deserved fell on Jesus, so none is left for us.
8:4 so that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us First because Christ's righteousness is credited to us, and then as it is worked out in us when we walk according to the Spirit (13:8-10).
8:5 those who are according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh Two kinds of people and two directions of life, not one bad day or one good day.
8:6 the mindset of the Spirit is life and peace Many search for peace in all the wrong places. Paul tells us where real peace is found.
8:7 the mindset of the flesh is hostility toward God Without the Spirit a person is at war with God and cannot submit to His Law. No amount of religious effort can please God when it comes from a heart that has not been made new (8:8).
8:9 if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, this one is not His Paul reminds the believers who they are. If the Spirit lives in you, you belong to the Spirit, not the flesh. And a clear test: every true believer has the Holy Spirit.
8:10 the body indeed is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness Our bodies still die because of sin, but if Christ is in you, you are made alive by God because of the righteousness He has given.
8:11 will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit dwelling in you Our bodies will not stay dead. The same Spirit who raised Jesus lives in every believer and will raise us at Christ's return (1 Cor 15:51-53; 1 Thess 4:16-17).
8:12 we are debtors, not to the flesh We owe the flesh nothing.
8:13 if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live Paul does not say, try harder and you will beat sin, nor sit back and do nothing. We do the fighting, but in the Spirit's strength. It is a daily choice to say no to what we know is wrong and to ask God for help, again and again.
8:14 as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God The mark of God's children. Here the Spirit's leading is first of all away from sin and toward holiness.
8:15 you received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry out, Abba, Father The old life was ruled by fear. In Rome adoption gave a brand-new legal standing and full rights to the father's inheritance. Abba is Aramaic for father, used in the family by children young and grown, full of closeness and trust. Jesus prayed this way in Gethsemane (Mark 14:36). Now we can call the holy God our Father.
8:16 The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God One way God gives assurance. The Spirit confirms deep inside, you belong to God. It is not a passing feeling; it rests on God's promises in His Word.
8:17 heirs indeed of God, and fellow heirs of Christ Everything that belongs to Jesus, we will share with Him (Rev 21:7). But the path to glory runs through suffering. Jesus suffered before He was glorified, and His followers will face hardship too.

may also be glorified with Him.

Future Glory

18 For I consider that the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory about to be revealed to us. 19 For the eager expectation of the creation eagerly awaits the revelation of the sons of God. 20 For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of the One who subjected it, in hope 21 that the creation itself also will be set free from the slavery of corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation groans together and suffers birth pains together until now. 23 And not only this, but also we ourselves, having the firstfruits of the Spirit, we ourselves also groan within ourselves, eagerly awaiting the adoption as sons, the redemption of our body. 24 For in hope we were saved; but hope that is seen is not hope; for what anyone sees, why does he also hope for it? 25 But if we hope for what we do not see, through perseverance we eagerly await it. 26 And likewise the Spirit also helps our weaknesses; for what we should pray as is necessary, we do not know, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with inexpressible groanings. 27 And the One who searches the hearts knows what the mindset of the Spirit is, because He intercedes for the saints according to God. 28 And we know that to those who love God all things work together for good, to those who are called according to His purpose. 29 For those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son, for Him to be the firstborn among many brothers; 30 and those whom He predestined, these He also called; and those whom He called, these He also justified; and those whom He justified, these He also glorified.

Nothing Can Separate Us

31 What then will we say to these things? If God is for us, who is against us? 32 He who indeed did not spare His own Son, but handed Him over for us all, how will He not also with Him freely give us all things? 33 Who will bring a charge against the elect of God? God is the One who justifies; 34 who is the one who condemns? Christ is the One who died, and rather also was raised, who is also at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us. 35 Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? 36 Just as

8:18 the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory about to be revealed to us Paul was beaten, stoned, shipwrecked, and imprisoned (2 Cor 11:23-27), and still says it is not worth comparing. If you are suffering now, your pain is real and God sees it. This verse invites us to look past today.
8:19 the eager expectation of the creation eagerly awaits the revelation of the sons of God Creation pictured on tiptoe. Believers look like everyone else now, but when Jesus returns His people will be revealed in glory.
8:20 the creation was subjected to futility When Adam sinned, God cursed the ground (Gen 3:17-19), and nature has been marked by decay and death. Creation did not choose it. God subjected it, but in hope.
8:21 the creation itself also will be set free from the slavery of corruption John sees a new heaven and earth, and God says, "Look, I make all things new" (Rev 21:5), with no more curse (Rev 22:3). God will not throw away His creation. He will rescue it and restore it.
8:22 the whole creation groans together and suffers birth pains together until now A hopeful picture. Labor pains are real, but not pointless; new life is on the way. Jesus used the same picture (Matt 24:8).
8:23 having the firstfruits of the Spirit The first part of the harvest promised the rest (Lev 23:10). The Spirit in us is God's guarantee of all He has promised.
8:23 eagerly awaiting the adoption as sons, the redemption of our body We are adopted already (8:15), but full adoption comes when our bodies are raised and made new at Christ's return. We are God's children but have not yet received all that comes with it.
8:24 For in hope we were saved Biblical hope is not wishful thinking but confident expectation based on God's promise, so we wait with perseverance, not giving up when things get hard (8:25).
8:26 the Spirit Himself makes intercession for us with inexpressible groanings Have you ever been so burdened you did not know what to pray? When we have no words, the Spirit prays for us.
8:27 He intercedes for the saints according to God The Father, who searches hearts, knows what the Spirit prays, and the Spirit always prays according to God's will. Even when our prayers are weak or confused, the prayers that reach the Father for us are perfect.
8:28 to those who love God all things work together for good One of the most loved and most misunderstood verses. It does not say all things are good. Cancer and betrayal are not good. It says God is at work in every one of them for those who love Him. Joseph could tell his brothers, "you planned evil against me; God planned it for good" (Gen 50:20). The good is defined next: being conformed to the image of His Son. God's goal is not always our comfort, but that we become like Jesus.
8:29 those whom He foreknew, He also predestined to be conformed to the image of His Son The golden chain: foreknew, predestined, called, justified, glorified, and no link breaks. Predestine means to decide the destination ahead of time, here likeness to Christ. Faithful Christians hold different views. The Reformed view reads foreknew as God setting His love on people beforehand, as "Only you have I known" (Amos 3:2), choosing them by grace alone. The Arminian view reads it as God knowing ahead who would freely believe and predestining them to be like His Son.
8:30 and those whom He justified, these He also glorified Glorified is past tense though still future for us, because it is so certain in God's mind. Glorified means our final, resurrected, sinless state when Jesus returns. Both views agree on far more than they disagree. Paul gave this chain for comfort, not argument. God has been at work in you from before time began, and He will finish what He started (Phil 1:6).
8:31 If God is for us, who is against us Plenty of things are against us, but none can win against a God who is for us.
8:32 He who indeed did not spare His own Son From the greater to the lesser. If God did not hold back Jesus, will He hold back anything else we truly need?
8:33 Who will bring a charge against the elect of God? God is the One who justifies Back in the courtroom. Satan is "the accuser of our brothers" (Rev 12:10), but the Judge Himself has declared us righteous.
8:34 who also intercedes for us The only One with the right to condemn is Jesus, the Judge of all. But He died, was raised, sits at God's right hand, and is "always living to intercede" (Heb 7:25) for us. The One who could condemn us is praying for us.
8:35 Who will separate us from the love of Christ Paul faced most of these himself (2 Cor 11:23-27). None of them can cut a believer off from Christ's love.
8:36 we were regarded as sheep of slaughter From Psalm 44:22. God's people have always suffered. Suffering is not a sign that God has stopped loving us.

it has been written, "For Your sake we are being put to death all the day; we were regarded as sheep of slaughter." 37 But in all these things we more than conquer through the One who loved us. 38 For I have been persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, 39 nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Paul's Sorrow for Israel

1 I speak the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Spirit, 2 that I have great grief and unceasing anguish in my heart. 3 For I myself was wishing to be accursed from Christ for the sake of my brothers, my kinsmen according to the flesh, 4 who are Israelites, whose is the adoption as sons, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service, and the promises; 5 whose are the fathers, and from whom is the Christ according to the flesh, who is over all, God blessed to the ages. Amen.

God's Sovereign Choice

6 But it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are of Israel, these are Israel; 7 nor because they are seed of Abraham (Abraam) are they all children, but, "In Isaac (Isaak) seed will be called for you." 8 That is, the children of the flesh, these are not children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as seed. 9 For this is the word of promise: "At this time I will come, and there will be a son to Sarah (Sarra)." 10 And not only this, but also Rebekah (Hrebekka), having conceived by one, Isaac our father; 11 for the children not yet having been born, nor having done anything good or evil, so that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works but of the One calling, 12 it was said to her, "The greater will serve the lesser." 13 Just as it has been written, "Jacob (Iakob) I loved, but Esau I hated." 14 What then will we say? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it not be! 15 For He says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whomever I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whomever I have compassion." 16 So then it is not of the one who wants nor of the one who runs, but of God who

8:37 in all these things we more than conquer through the One who loved us In them, not away from them. God does not always remove the trouble, but He makes us more than conquerors in the middle of it.
8:39 nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord Paul names everything in life and death, time and space, and the spirit world, and then anything he missed. Jesus said, "no one will snatch them out of My hand" (John 10:28). Some hold eternal security: God keeps those He saves, and one who falls away completely never truly belonged. Others hold that nothing outside us can separate us, but a believer can turn away by persistent unbelief. Both agree our security rests on God, and the warnings are serious (11:20-22).
9:1 I speak the truth in Christ, I am not lying Three witnesses: in Christ, not lying, and a conscience guided by the Spirit. Some accused Paul of turning his back on his own people, and he wants them to know the truth.
9:2 I have great grief and unceasing anguish in my heart When we talk about people who reject the gospel, we should never sound proud or careless. We should sound like Paul, heartbroken.
9:3 I myself was wishing to be accursed from Christ for the sake of my brothers Accursed is anathema, devoted to destruction. Paul knew it could not happen (8:39), but it shows the depth of his love. Moses prayed something similar after the golden calf (Exod 32:32). Both reflect Jesus, who did become a curse for us (Gal 3:13). Do you love lost people this much? I fall short here, but I want to grow.
9:4 whose is the adoption as sons, and the glory, and the covenants God called Israel His son (Exod 4:22). The glory was His visible presence in the tabernacle and temple. The covenants were His binding promises to Abraham, Moses, and David. Israel also received the Law, the worship, and the promises of the Messiah.
9:5 from whom is the Christ according to the flesh, who is over all, God blessed to the ages The greatest privilege: Jesus was born a Jew. The most natural reading is that Paul calls Jesus God. Some translations punctuate it differently, but the SLB follows the plain flow of the Greek. Jesus is fully man, born of Israel, and fully God, over all.
9:6 it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who are of Israel, these are Israel The main point of the chapter. Being born into Israel never automatically made someone part of the believing Israel. There has always been a faithful remnant within the nation. This does not mean the church replaced Israel. Paul is not speaking of Gentiles here but drawing a line inside Israel, between Jews who believe and Jews who do not.
9:7 In Isaac seed will be called for you Abraham had more than one son, but the promised line came through Isaac (Gen 21:12), born to Sarah when she was far too old (Gen 18:10). From the beginning God's family was built on His promise, not just physical birth.
9:11 the children not yet having been born, nor having done anything good or evil A stronger example: twins, same parents, same pregnancy. Before birth God said, "The greater will serve the lesser" (9:12; Gen 25:23), so that His purpose according to election might stand, not of works but of the One calling.
9:13 Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated From Malachi 1:2-3. In Hebrew speech, love and hate side by side often mean choose and not choose, or prefer and put second, as when Jesus said His followers must "hate" their families (Luke 14:26). Malachi also spoke of the nations from these two men, Israel and Edom.
9:13 Jacob I loved The Reformed view: God chose individuals for salvation before birth by His good pleasure alone, not by foreseen faith, stressing "not of works but of the One calling." The Arminian view: Paul speaks mainly of choosing a line to carry the promise and of nations, and where salvation is in view God chose those He foreknew would believe (8:29; 1 Pet 1:1-2). Both hold salvation is all of grace and God is not unfair.
9:14 Is there unrighteousness with God? May it not be Whatever we conclude about this chapter, we must start here. God is never unjust.
9:15 I will have mercy on whomever I have mercy From Exodus 33:19. Mercy by definition is not deserved; if God owed it, it would be payment. Justice would give each of us what our sin deserves. Mercy freely holds back what we deserve and gives what we do not.
9:16 it is not of the one who wants nor of the one who runs, but of God who has mercy Salvation does not start with our wanting or running. It starts with God. Whatever view we hold, every believer can say, I am saved because God was merciful to me.

has mercy. 17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I raised you up, so that I might show My power in you, and so that My name might be proclaimed in all the earth." 18 So then He has mercy on whom He wants, and He hardens whom He wants. 19 You will say to me then, "Why does He still find fault? For who has resisted His will?" 20 Rather, O man, who are you, the one answering back to God? Will the thing formed say to the One who formed it, "Why did You make me like this?" 21 Or does the potter not have authority over the clay, out of the same lump to make one vessel for honor, and another for dishonor? 22 And if God, wanting to show the wrath and to make known His power, endured with much patience vessels of wrath fitted for destruction, 23 and so that He might make known the riches of His glory upon vessels of mercy, which He prepared beforehand for glory, 24 whom He also called, even us, not only out of the Jews but also out of the Gentiles? 25 As He also says in Hosea (Hosee), "I will call that which was not My people 'My people,' and her who was not loved 'loved.' 26 And it will be that in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not My people,' there they will be called sons of the living God." 27 And Isaiah (Hesaias) cries out concerning Israel: "Though the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, the remnant will be saved; 28 for He is completing a word and cutting it short in righteousness, because the Lord will perform a word cut short upon the earth." 29 And just as Isaiah has foretold: "Unless the Lord of armies had left us a seed, we would have become as Sodom (Sodoma), and we would have been made like Gomorrah (Gomorra)."

Israel's Unbelief

30 What then will we say? That Gentiles, who were not pursuing righteousness, laid hold of righteousness, but a righteousness which is by faith; 31 but Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, did not attain to the law of righteousness. 32 Why? Because they pursued it not by faith, but as by works of law; for they stumbled over the stone of stumbling, 33 just as it has been written, "Look, I lay in Zion (Sion) a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense, and everyone who believes on Him will not be put to shame."

9:17 For this very purpose I raised you up From Exodus 9:16. God put Pharaoh on Egypt's throne at that moment so His power and name would be known in all the earth, and it worked. Canaan still talked of it forty years later (Josh 2:9-10), and the Philistines centuries later (1 Sam 4:8).
9:18 He hardens whom He wants God announced He would harden Pharaoh's heart (Exod 4:21; 7:3), and Pharaoh hardened his own heart (Exod 8:15, 32). Both are true. Calvinists stress God's sovereign will; Arminians stress that God's hardening confirmed the path Pharaoh chose. Both agree Pharaoh was guilty and God was right.
9:19 Why does He still find fault? For who has resisted His will If God is in control, how can He blame anyone? People still ask it today. It is a fair question, and Paul takes it seriously.
9:20 who are you, the one answering back to God Paul's first answer is a reminder of who we are talking to. He does not forbid hard questions; the Psalms are full of them. He warns against putting God on trial. A child asking his father why is different from a child telling his father he has no right to be in charge.
9:21 does the potter not have authority over the clay The picture comes from the prophets (Isa 29:16; 45:9; Jer 18:1-6). Arminians point to Jeremiah 18, where the potter turns from judgment when a nation repents. Calvinists answer that Paul's wording echoes Isaiah, where the stress is on the potter's right.
9:22 endured with much patience vessels of wrath fitted for destruction God put up with Pharaoh, rebellious Israel, and a sinful world for a long time, patience meant to lead to repentance (2:4). Paul says God prepared the vessels of mercy beforehand, but he does not say who fitted the vessels of wrath. Calvinists see God's active choice in both; Arminians see a careful difference, as if those vessels prepared themselves by their sin.
9:24 whom He also called, even us, not only out of the Jews but also out of the Gentiles A turning point: God's people now include believing Jews and Gentiles together. I do not claim to have this all figured out. God is completely sovereign, people are truly responsible (ch. 10), salvation is all grace, and the invitation is real (10:13). If you worry whether you are chosen, call on Him. Whoever comes to Jesus He "will certainly not cast out" (John 6:37).
9:25 I will call that which was not My people My people From Hosea 2:23 and 1:10, first spoken of the rebellious northern tribes whom God promised to bring back. Paul applies the principle to the Gentiles. The God who restores Israel can call people who were never His and make them sons of the living God.
9:27 the remnant will be saved From Isaiah 10:22-23. A remnant is a small part left from a larger whole. Even in Isaiah's day most of the nation was unfaithful, but God always kept a believing remnant. Paul's day followed the same pattern.
9:29 Unless the Lord of armies had left us a seed, we would have become as Sodom From Isaiah 1:9. Lord of armies translates the Hebrew Sabaoth, the Lord who commands the armies of heaven. Sodom and Gomorrah were wiped out (Gen 19). Israel was spared only by God's mercy in keeping a remnant, a sign of grace, not merit.
9:30 Gentiles, who were not pursuing righteousness, laid hold of righteousness, but a righteousness which is by faith The emphasis shifts from God's choice to human response. Gentiles who were not even trying heard the good news, believed, and were declared right with God.
9:32 Because they pursued it not by faith, but as by works of law Many in Israel were sincere and devoted but ran down the wrong road, trying to earn right standing. It is possible to attend every service and follow every rule and still miss God, trusting in what we do instead of what Christ has done.
9:33 Look, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense Paul joins Isaiah 28:16 and 8:14. The stone is Jesus, laid in Zion as the foundation. For those who trust Him He is sure; for those who refuse, a stone they trip over (1 Pet 2:6-8). The chapter that began with God's choice ends with a call to believe. Both truths sit side by side.
10:1 the desire of my heart and the supplication to God on behalf of Israel is for salvation After the hardest words about Israel's unbelief, Paul opens his heart. His belief in God's sovereignty did not stop him praying; it drove him to pray. Whatever you believe about election, it should never stop you praying for the lost or sharing the gospel with them.

God on behalf of Israel is for salvation. 2 For I bear witness about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. 3 For being unaware of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to the righteousness of God. 4 For Christ is the end of law for righteousness to everyone who believes. 5 For Moses writes of the righteousness which is of the law, that "The man who has done these things will live in them." 6 But the righteousness of faith speaks thus: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" that is, to bring Christ down; 7 or, "Who will descend into the abyss?" that is, to bring Christ up out of the dead. 8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart"; that is, the word of faith which we proclaim: 9 that if you confess with your mouth Lord Jesus (Iesous), and believe in your heart that God raised Him out of the dead, you will be saved; 10 for with the heart it is believed for righteousness, and with the mouth it is confessed for salvation. 11 For the Scripture says, "Everyone who believes on Him will not be put to shame." 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord of all is rich toward all who call on Him. 13 For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

How Will They Hear?

14 How then will they call on Him in whom they did not believe? And how will they believe in Him of whom they did not hear? And how will they hear without one proclaiming? 15 And how will they proclaim unless they are sent? Just as it has been written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, of those who preach the gospel of good things!" 16 But not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah (Hesaias) says, "Lord, who has believed our report?" 17 So faith is from report, and report through the word of God. 18 But I say, did they not hear? Rather, "Their sound has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the

10:2 they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge Paul knew it firsthand; his zeal once made him a persecutor (Phil 3:6; Acts 22:3-4). They were sincere, but sincerely wrong. You can be passionate about God and still miss Him. Sincerity does not save. Truth matters.
10:3 seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to the righteousness of God They did not understand that God offers His righteousness as a gift, so they tried to build their own. Receiving it takes humility, admitting our best falls short (3:23). Pride would rather earn it. Faith is willing to receive it.
10:4 Christ is the end of law for righteousness to everyone who believes End can mean the goal, the place the sacrifices, priesthood, and whole Law pointed, and the finish, the stopping point of the Law as a way to become right with God. Both fit. And it is for everyone who believes, a phrase that keeps coming in this chapter.
10:5 The man who has done these things will live in them The way of the Law (Lev 18:5). On paper it is true: perfect keeping would bring life. But no one except Jesus has done it, and stumbling in one point makes one guilty of all (James 2:10). Paul was blameless by the outward standard (Phil 3:6), but no one has kept it from the heart, which is what God looks at.
10:6 Who will ascend into heaven? that is, to bring Christ down Paul draws on Deuteronomy 30:11-14, where Moses said God's word was not too far away. Faith need not bring Christ down; He already came and lived among us.
10:7 Who will descend into the abyss? that is, to bring Christ up out of the dead Christ has already risen. We do not have to make some great journey or do some great work to reach God. God has already done the reaching. The work is finished.
10:8 The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart Salvation is not far away. The word of faith, the gospel about Jesus, is right here, and anyone anywhere can respond to it.
10:9 if you confess with your mouth Lord Jesus Confess means to say the same thing, to agree openly. Caesar was honored as lord, and within a few generations Christians were pressed to say Caesar is Lord. To say Jesus is Lord put Him above Caesar and self. For a Jew, Lord was the word the Greek Old Testament used for God Himself.
10:9 and believe in your heart that God raised Him out of the dead, you will be saved More than agreeing with a fact: trusting the risen Jesus with your whole self. The resurrection proves God accepted Christ's sacrifice (4:25); without it faith is useless (1 Cor 15:17). This is not a magic formula of words in order. It describes real faith, believed inside and spoken outside, and the promise is certain.
10:10 with the heart it is believed for righteousness, and with the mouth it is confessed for salvation With the heart one believes and is justified, declared right with God. With the mouth one confesses, the outward expression of salvation. A faith never willing to name Jesus before others should make us examine ourselves (Matt 10:32-33).
10:11 Everyone who believes on Him will not be put to shame Isaiah 28:16 again, with the weight on everyone. Your past and your background do not disqualify you.
10:12 the same Lord of all is rich toward all who call on Him Earlier no distinction because all have sinned (3:22-23); now because the same Lord is generous to all. We are equally lost and equally welcome. There is one way of salvation for Jew and Gentile.
10:13 everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved From Joel 2:32, quoted at Pentecost (Acts 2:21). In Joel, the LORD is the God of Israel, and Paul applies it to Jesus, another strong statement that Jesus is God. If you call on the Lord Jesus, trusting Him to save you, He will. If you never have, you can today, right where you are.
10:14 how will they hear without one proclaiming A chain of questions, each leading back to the one before. This is why missions and evangelism exist. God's normal way is people telling people. The one proclaiming is not only a pastor in a pulpit but anyone who announces the message. Every believer is sent to someone.
10:15 How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace From Isaiah 52:7, a messenger running across the mountains to tell Jerusalem the exile is over. Dusty, tired feet are not usually called beautiful, but to those waiting for good news they were the most beautiful sight in the world. When you share Jesus, God sees your feet as beautiful too.
10:16 Lord, who has believed our report Hearing is not accepting. The words open Isaiah 53 (Isa 53:1), the Suffering Servant chapter that describes Jesus' death centuries before. Even then Isaiah knew many would not believe.
10:17 So faith is from report, and report through the word of God Faith does not come out of thin air. It comes from hearing the message God has spoken. If you want your faith to grow, spend time in God's Word. If you want someone to come to faith, they need to hear it.
10:18 Their sound has gone out into all the earth From Psalm 19:4, where creation speaks of God to the world. Paul uses it to show the gospel had spread widely, often in the synagogues themselves, as Acts shows. Israel's problem was not lack of information.

inhabited world." 19 But I say, did Israel not know? First Moses says, "I will provoke you to jealousy by what is not a nation; by a nation without understanding I will anger you." 20 And Isaiah is very bold and says, "I was found by those not seeking Me; I became manifest to those not inquiring after Me." 21 But to Israel He says, "All the day I stretched out My hands to a people disobeying and contradicting."

The Remnant of Israel

1 I say then, did God reject His people? May it not be! For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham (Abraam), of the tribe of Benjamin (Beniamin). 2 God did not reject His people whom He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says in Elijah (Helias), how he pleads with God against Israel, saying, 3 "Lord, they have killed Your prophets, and they have torn down Your altars, and I alone was left, and they are seeking my life"? 4 But what does the divine answer say to him? "I have left for Myself seven thousand men who did not bow the knee to Baal." 5 So then also in the present time there has come to be a remnant according to the election of grace. 6 And if by grace, it is no longer from works; otherwise grace no longer becomes grace. But if from works, it is no longer grace; otherwise the work is no longer work. 7 What then? What Israel is seeking after, this it did not obtain, but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened, 8 just as it has been written, "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes not to see and ears not to hear, until this day." 9 And David (Dabid) says, "Let their table become a snare and a trap and an offense and a retribution to them; 10 let their eyes be darkened so as not to see, and bend their back continually."

The Olive Tree

11 I say then, did they stumble so that they might fall? May it not be! But by their trespass salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy. 12 But if their trespass is the riches of the world, and their failure the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fullness? 13 For I am speaking to you, the Gentiles. Inasmuch indeed as I am an apostle of Gentiles, I glorify my ministry, 14 if somehow I might provoke to jealousy my flesh and save some of them. 15 For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will the acceptance be but life out of the dead? 16 And if the firstfruit is holy, also the lump; and if the root is holy, also the 10:19 I will provoke you to jealousy by what is not a nation From Deuteronomy 32:21. The Gentiles had no Law, prophets, or covenants, and God warned He would use outsiders to provoke Israel. In chapter 11 this jealousy becomes a word of hope.

10:20 I was found by those not seeking Me Isaiah 65:1. The Gentiles were not looking for Israel's God, and many worshiped idols, yet God revealed Himself to them. God came looking for people who were not looking for Him. If you are a believer, that is your story too.
10:21 All the day I stretched out My hands to a people disobeying and contradicting Isaiah 65:2. A father with arms open wide all day, waiting for his children to come home. Israel's rejection was not because God was unwilling. Jesus wept over Jerusalem, wanting to gather her as a hen gathers her chicks (Matt 23:37). God's arms are still open, to Israel and to every reader.
11:1 did God reject His people? May it not be Paul's first evidence is himself, an Israelite of Abraham's seed and Benjamin's tribe. If God had thrown away the Jewish people, Paul would be lost too. The church has not replaced Israel, and the whole chapter shows God's promises to the Jewish people still stand.
11:2 God did not reject His people whom He foreknew God chose Israel knowing exactly what they would be like, stubbornness and all. He did not choose them by mistake, and He will not drop them now.
11:3 I alone was left, and they are seeking my life After his victory on Mount Carmel, Elijah fled from Jezebel, discouraged, thinking he was the last faithful one in Israel (1 Kgs 19).
11:4 I have left for Myself seven thousand men who did not bow the knee to Baal Have you ever felt like the only one at work, at school, or in your family trying to follow God? Elijah could not see the seven thousand, but God could. You are probably not as alone as you feel.
11:5 a remnant according to the election of grace In Paul's day thousands of Jews believed in Jesus, and the first church in Jerusalem was Jewish (Acts 2:41; 21:20). That remnant exists because of grace.
11:6 if by grace, it is no longer from works; otherwise grace no longer becomes grace Grace and earning cannot be mixed. Add something we must do to earn it, and it stops being a gift. That is true for Israel's remnant and for every one of us.
11:7 the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened The nation sought righteousness by works and did not find it. Hardened means unresponsive, unable to see or feel the truth.
11:8 God gave them a spirit of stupor From Deuteronomy 29:4 and Isaiah 29:10. This hardening is a judgment, and Israel is held responsible for their unbelief (10:21). But it is not the end of the story.
11:9 Let their table become a snare and a trap From Psalm 69:22-23. The place of blessing became a trap. The good gifts God gave Israel, the Law, temple, and heritage, became what they trusted instead of God.
11:11 did they stumble so that they might fall? May it not be Stumbling is not falling flat for good. Through their trespass salvation came to the Gentiles, as Acts shows again and again (Acts 13:46; 18:6; 28:28), and God's purpose was to make Israel jealous for their own Messiah. Does my life make Jewish people jealous for Jesus? Sadly, church history includes shameful acts against Jewish people done in Christ's name, the very opposite of this.
11:12 how much more their fullness Paul looks ahead to Israel's failure reversed. If God brought so much blessing through Israel's stumbling, imagine what He will do when they turn back to Him.
11:14 if somehow I might provoke to jealousy my flesh and save some of them Paul took his calling to the Gentiles seriously (Acts 9:15), but even that work had a Jewish goal. He never stopped loving his people.
11:15 what will the acceptance be but life out of the dead Some see a great spiritual revival in the world. Others see the resurrection that comes when Jesus returns in glory (Dan 12:2; Rev 20:4). I believe the church will be caught up before the Tribulation (1 Thess 4:16-17), so this would be the raising of Old Testament believers and Tribulation saints at His Second Coming. I lean toward this view, because 11:25-27 ties Israel's salvation to the coming of the Deliverer.
11:16 if the firstfruit is holy, also the lump; and if the root is holy, also the branches The first piece of dough offered to God made the whole batch holy (Num 15:17-21). The firstfruit and root most likely mean the patriarchs, with whom God made His covenant. Because the root is holy, God still has a claim on the nation that came from it.

branches. 17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them and became a fellow partaker of the root and of the richness of the olive tree, 18 do not boast over the branches. But if you boast, it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you. 19 You will say then, "The branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in." 20 Well said. By unbelief they were broken off, but you stand by faith. Do not think high things, but fear. 21 For if God did not spare the branches according to nature, take heed lest perhaps He may not spare you either. 22 Look then at the kindness and severity of God: toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, kindness, if you continue in the kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off. 23 And they also, if they do not continue in unbelief, will be grafted in; for God is able to graft them in again. 24 For if you were cut out of the olive tree that is wild according to nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, who are according to nature, be grafted into their own olive tree?

All Israel Will Be Saved

25 For I do not want you to be unaware, brothers, of this mystery, so that you may not be wise in yourselves, that a hardening in part has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in; 26 and so all Israel will be saved, just as it has been written, "The One who delivers will come out of Zion (Sion), and He will turn away ungodliness from Jacob (Iakob); 27 and this is the covenant from Me to them, when I take away their sins." 28 As regards the gospel, they are enemies on account of you; but as regards the election, they are beloved on account of the fathers. 29 For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. 30 For just as you also once were disobedient to God, but now were shown mercy by the disobedience of these, 31 so these also now were disobedient, so that by your mercy they also may be shown mercy.
32 For God has shut up all in disobedience, so that He may have mercy on all.

Praise to God

33 O depth of riches and of wisdom and of knowledge of God!
How unsearchable are His judgments and untraceable His ways! 34 For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has become His counselor? 35 Or who has first given to Him,

11:17 you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them The olive tree was a symbol of Israel (Jer 11:16). Unbelieving branches were broken off, and Gentile believers were grafted in to share the root and richness, the blessings promised to Abraham. Gentiles are grafted into Israel's tree. They do not get a new tree. The church is not a replacement for Israel.
11:18 it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you Gentile believers have no reason to look down on the Jewish people. Our salvation rests on promises God made to Israel. Our Bible came through Israel. Our Savior is a Jew.
11:20 By unbelief they were broken off, but you stand by faith. Do not think high things, but fear True, but be careful. Nobody stands by birth or goodness; everyone stands by faith alone. This is healthy fear, humble respect for God, who did not spare the natural branches (11:21).
11:22 Look then at the kindness and severity of God A God with only kindness would not be holy; with only severity He would leave us without hope. The God of the Bible is both.
11:22 if you continue in the kindness; otherwise you also will be cut off Those holding eternal security say the truly saved will continue because God keeps them (John 10:28-29; Phil 1:6), the warning is one means He uses, and one who falls away completely shows his faith was never real (1 John 2:19). Those holding conditional security say a believer can turn away by persistent unbelief (Heb 6:4-6; 10:26-29). Both agree the warning is real, grace is no license for pride, and God is faithful.
11:23 God is able to graft them in again Great hope for the Jewish people. The door is not shut. Any Jewish person who turns to Jesus is grafted back into his own tree.
11:24 how much more will these, who are according to nature, be grafted into their own olive tree Farmers graft a cultivated branch onto wild stock, not the reverse. God did something contrary to nature in grafting wild Gentiles into Israel's tree. It is far easier for Him to put the natural branches back.
11:25 a hardening in part has happened to Israel until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in A mystery is a truth once hidden and now made known, told so Gentiles would not think God had moved on. The hardening is partial, there is always a remnant; temporary, it lasts until; and it has an end, when every Gentile God intends to save has come in. Jerusalem is trampled "until the times of the nations are fulfilled" (Luke 21:24).
11:26 and so all Israel will be saved Views: a future national turning of the Jewish people to Jesus near the end of this age; all the elect, Jews and Gentiles, the church; or the believing Jewish remnant through history. Some hold that the church replaced Israel, which I do not. I believe the first fits best. In chapters 9-11 Israel means the Jewish people, verse 25 just contrasted Israel with Gentiles, and "until" points to a future change.
11:26 The One who delivers will come out of Zion From Isaiah 59:20-21 and 27:9. I understand the Deliverer to be Jesus at His Second Coming. When He returns in glory after the Tribulation, the Jewish people will look on the One they pierced and mourn for Him (Zech 12:10; Rev 1:7), and turn to Him.
11:27 when I take away their sins The New Covenant of Jeremiah 31:31-34, where God promises to forgive Israel's sin and remember it no more.
11:28 as regards the election, they are beloved on account of the fathers Many oppose the gospel, and their unbelief opened the door to the Gentiles. But God made unbreakable promises to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and He still loves their descendants because of them.
11:29 For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable They cannot be taken back. If God could cancel His promises to Israel, how could we trust His promises to us? Because He keeps His word to Israel, we know He will keep it to us. That answers the question that began in chapter 9.
11:31 so that by your mercy they also may be shown mercy Gentiles once disobedient received mercy through Israel's disobedience, and Israel will receive mercy through the mercy shown Gentiles. God weaves even rebellion into His plan of mercy.
11:32 God has shut up all in disobedience, so that He may have mercy on all Not that every person will be saved; salvation comes through faith. God has put Jews and Gentiles on the same level, so both receive salvation the same way, as a gift.
11:33 O depth of riches and of wisdom and of knowledge of God After eleven chapters Paul bursts into praise. God is greater than all his explanations. We will not answer every question about chapters 9-11, and that is okay. We can rest in a God wiser than we are.
11:35 who has first given to Him, and it will be repaid to him Paul draws on Isaiah 40:13 and Job 41:11. No one has advised God or put Him in debt. Everything we have, including salvation, is a gift.

A Living Sacrifice

1 Therefore I exhort you, brothers, through the compassions of God, to present your bodies as a living, holy sacrifice, well-pleasing to God, your reasonable service. 2 And do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, the good and well-pleasing and perfect will.

Gifts in the Body

3 For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone who is among you, not to be high-minded beyond what it is necessary to think, but to think so as to be sober-minded, as God has allotted to each a measure of faith. 4 For just as in one body we have many members, and all the members do not have the same function, 5 so we, the many, are one body in Christ, and each one members of one another. 6 And having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: whether prophecy, according to the proportion of the faith; 7 or ministry, in the ministry; or the one who teaches, in the teaching; 8 or the one who exhorts, in the exhortation; the one who gives, in generosity; the one who leads, in diligence; the one who shows mercy, in cheerfulness.

Marks of True Love

9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhorring the evil, clinging to the good; 10 in brotherly love devoted to one another, in honor preferring one another; 11 in diligence not lazy, in spirit fervent, serving the Lord; 12 in hope rejoicing, in tribulation enduring, in prayer continuing steadfastly;

15 Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep, 16 thinking the same thing toward one another, not thinking high things, but going along with the lowly. Do not be wise in yourselves. 17 Repaying no one evil for evil, taking

11:36 For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things God is the source of all things, holds them together, and is their goal. The right response to His plan is not argument. It is worship.
12:1 Therefore I exhort you, brothers, through the compassions of God When you see a therefore, ask what it is there for. Here it is there for eleven chapters. Paul does not threaten us into obedience. He reminds us how much mercy we have been shown and asks us to respond.
12:1 to present your bodies as a living, holy sacrifice, well-pleasing to God, your reasonable service An Old Testament sacrifice was killed on the altar. God asks for one that stays alive: our hands, eyes, time, and energy, given every day. An old saying goes that the trouble with a living sacrifice is that it keeps crawling off the altar, so this is a daily choice. The word can mean reasonable or spiritual. Worship is not only Sunday music. How you work, treat your family, and spend money on Monday is worship too.
12:2 do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind Do not let the world press you into its mold. Transformed is metamorphoo, as a caterpillar becomes a butterfly, the word used of Jesus' Transfiguration (Matt 17:2). What we put into our minds shapes who we become. The world teaches us all day through screens, music, and conversation. To think God's way, fill your mind with God's truth.
12:2 so that you may prove what the will of God is Prove means test and find it to be what it is, good, well-pleasing, and perfect. Many believers worry about finding God's will. A life given to God and a mind renewed by Him will recognize it. God is not hiding it from us.
12:3 not to be high-minded beyond what it is necessary to think, but to think so as to be sober-minded Paul's first word about church life is about pride. Not thinking poorly of yourself, but seeing yourself honestly. Whatever faith and gifts we have, God allotted them, which leaves no room for boasting (1 Cor 4:7).
12:5 we, the many, are one body in Christ, and each one members of one another As in 1 Corinthians 12, the eye does not try to be the hand. We belong to Christ and to each other. No Christian was meant to live the faith alone.
12:6 having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us Seven gifts are named: prophecy, ministry, teaching, exhorting (encouraging and urging on), giving, leading, and mercy. The list is not complete (1 Cor 12; Eph 4). Every believer has something to offer.
12:8 the one who gives, in generosity; the one who leads, in diligence; the one who shows mercy, in cheerfulness How we serve matters as much as whether we serve. Mercy with cheerfulness, not a sigh. If you do not know your gift, start serving. Many discover their gifts by doing what needs doing and seeing where God blesses it, and others often see our gifts before we do.
12:9 Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhorring the evil, clinging to the good Hypocrisy comes from a word for an actor wearing a mask. Christian love is real, not an act, and it has a backbone. Love does not approve of everything. It hates whatever harms the people it loves and holds tightly to what is good.
12:10 in brotherly love devoted to one another, in honor preferring one another Family love. Imagine a church where everyone competed to honor someone else instead of looking for honor for himself.
12:11 in spirit fervent, serving the Lord Fervent means boiling, on fire. Some see the Holy Spirit here, others our own spirit. Either way, a heart warm toward God, not lukewarm (Rev 3:15-16).
12:12 in hope rejoicing, in tribulation enduring, in prayer continuing steadfastly Three that belong together. We rejoice because we know how the story ends, endure because hard times will come, and keep praying because we cannot do the first two in our own strength.
12:13 sharing in the needs of the saints, pursuing hospitality Love gets practical. Traveling believers depended on hospitality. Today a meal, a spare room, or a ride can be one of the clearest ways to show Christ's love.
12:14 Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse Jesus' own teaching (Matt 5:44; Luke 6:28). Ask God to do them good. This goes against our nature and is only possible by the Spirit's power.
12:15 Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep Sometimes weeping with someone is easier than rejoicing, because envy creeps in. Love is glad when others are glad. When someone hurts, the best thing is often to sit and weep with them, not explain their pain away.
12:16 going along with the lowly. Do not be wise in yourselves Living in harmony does not mean agreeing on everything. Spend time with the overlooked, as Jesus did. The person who thinks he knows it all has stopped learning (Prov 3:7).
12:17 Repaying no one evil for evil No exceptions. Live so even unbelievers can see our conduct is honorable.

Submission to Authorities

1 Let every soul be subject to the higher authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist have been appointed by God. 2 So the one who sets himself against the authority has resisted the ordinance of God; and those who have resisted will receive judgment on themselves. 3 For the rulers are not a terror to the good works, but to the evil. And do you want not to fear the authority? Do the good, and you will have praise from it; 4 for he is a servant of God to you for the good. But if you do the evil, be afraid; for he does not bear the sword in vain; for he is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath to the one who practices the evil. 5 Therefore it is necessary to be subject, not only because of the wrath, but also because of the conscience. 6 For because of this you also pay taxes; for they are ministers of God, continuing steadfastly in this very thing. 7 Therefore render to all what is owed: the tax to whom the tax is owed, the revenue to whom the revenue, the fear to whom the fear, the honor to whom the honor.

Love Fulfills the Law

8 Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves the other has fulfilled the law. 9 For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, You shall not covet," and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this word, in the saying, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." 10 Love does not work evil to the neighbor; therefore love is the fulfillment of the law.

13:11 Prov 6:9; Eph 5:14; 1 Cor 15:34

12:18 if possible, so far as it is from you, being at peace with all men Some people will not be at peace no matter what you do. You control only your part. Make sure the problem is not on your side. Living at peace never means staying in danger or keeping silent about abuse. You can bless someone from a safe distance, and reporting a crime is not revenge (13:4).
12:19 Vengeance is Mine, I will repay From Deuteronomy 32:35. Give place to the wrath means leave room for God to act. Evil matters so much that God Himself will deal with it, perfectly. We can let go of revenge because we trust the Judge (Rev 19:2; 20:12).
12:20 you will heap coals of fire on his head From Proverbs 25:21-22. Some believe kindness will bring heavier judgment if he refuses to repent. Most believe it will make him burn with shame that may lead to repentance; some point to an Egyptian custom of carrying a pan of coals on the head to show sorrow. The second fits verse 21 best. The goal is to win the enemy, not punish him.
12:21 overcome the evil with the good Pay back evil with evil and evil has won, making us like the one who hurt us. Answer it with good and we overcome it. Jesus met the worst evil the world could do with the greatest good it has ever seen.
13:1 Let every soul be subject to the higher authorities No one is left out; Christians are not above the law of the land. Government is God's idea to keep order in a fallen world. This does not mean every ruler is good, but that no one holds power unless God allows it (Dan 2:21; John 19:11). The emperor then was Nero, who would later turn on the Christians, and tradition says Paul was executed under him. Paul was writing about Rome.
13:2 the one who sets himself against the authority has resisted the ordinance of God The judgment is most likely the government's own penalty, though resisting also displeases God. Must we obey no matter what? No. When the state commands sin or forbids what God commands, we obey God: "It is necessary to obey God rather than men" (Acts 5:29), as Daniel prayed (Dan 6:10) and the midwives spared the boys (Exod 1:17, 20-21).
13:2 those who have resisted will receive judgment on themselves Even then, those believers did not riot or take up arms. They disobeyed openly and accepted the consequences. The rule is submission; the exception is narrow. Disliking a law or leader is not the same as being commanded to sin.
13:3 the rulers are not a terror to the good works, but to the evil Government is meant to restrain evil, not good. If you do what is right, you usually have nothing to fear from the authorities.
13:4 he does not bear the sword in vain The sword stood for the power to punish, even with death. God gave government the right to use force to restrain evil and protect the innocent. Individuals are not to take revenge (12:19), but God has given the state the job of punishing crime. A Christian forgives personally, and the courts still carry out justice.
13:5 not only because of the wrath, but also because of the conscience Two reasons: we do not want to be punished, and better, we know God set up authority. A believer obeys the law even when no officer is watching.
13:6 For because of this you also pay taxes Taxes support the work God gave rulers. Jesus said to give Caesar what belongs to Caesar (Matt 22:21). Nobody enjoys taxes, but a Christian pays them honestly.
13:7 the fear to whom the fear, the honor to whom the honor Tax was a direct tax on people and land; revenue a tax on goods; fear is respect for authority; honor is esteem for those in office. We can disagree with a leader's policies and still speak of him with respect (1 Pet 2:17), even one we did not vote for.
13:8 Owe no one anything, except to love one another Some say this forbids all borrowing, but the point is broader. Pay what you owe and do not leave debts hanging. One debt is never paid off: love. Love is not a way around the Law; it is what the Law aimed at all along.
13:9 You shall love your neighbor as yourself Paul quotes the commandments about how we treat others (Exod 20:13-17), all summed up in Leviticus 19:18, as Jesus taught (Matt 22:39-40). If you love your neighbor, you will not take his wife, kill him, steal from him, lie about him, or want what is his. Love keeps the commandments without needing a list.
13:10 love is the fulfillment of the law Love never harms, and this is the love the Spirit produces in us (5:5; Gal 5:22).
13:11 now our salvation is nearer than when we believed We were saved when we believed, the past. We are being made holy, the present. One day we will be fully saved, body and all, when Jesus returns (8:23), the future. Every day brings us one day closer to Christ's return. It is the hour to wake up.

nearer than when we believed. 12 The night has advanced, and the day has drawn near. Therefore let us cast off the works of the darkness, and let us put on the armor of the light. 13 Let us walk properly, as in the day, not in revelings and drunkennesses, not in sexual immoralities and sensualities, not in strife and jealousy. 14 But put on the Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, for its desires.

Do Not Judge One Another

1 Now receive the one who is weak in the faith, not for disputes over reasonings. 2 One believes he may eat all things, but the one who is weak eats vegetables. 3 Let not the one who eats despise the one who does not eat, and let not the one who does not eat judge the one who eats; for God has received him. 4 Who are you, the one judging another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. And he will be made to stand, for God is able to make him stand. 5 One judges one day above another day, but another judges every day alike. Let each be fully assured in his own mind. 6 The one who regards the day regards it to the Lord, and the one who does not regard the day does not regard it to the Lord. The one who eats eats to the Lord, for he gives thanks to God; and the one who does not eat does not eat to the Lord, and he gives thanks to God. 7 For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself. 8 For if we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord. Therefore whether we live or we die, we are the Lord's. 9 For to this end Christ both died and rose up and lived again, so that He might rule over both the dead and the living. 10 But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you also, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. 11 For it has been written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee will bow to Me, and every tongue will confess to God." 12 So then each of us will give an account concerning himself to God.

Do Not Make Your Brother Stumble

13 Therefore let us no longer judge one another, but rather judge this: not to put a stumbling block or an offense before the brother. 14 I know and have been persuaded in the Lord Jesus (Iesous) that nothing is unclean of itself, except to the one who counts anything to be unclean, to that one it is

13:12 The night has advanced, and the day has drawn near The night is this present evil age; the day is when Christ returns, every eye seeing Him (Rev 1:7), who promised, "I am coming quickly" (Rev 22:20). Why still waiting two thousand years later? A thousand years is like a day to the Lord, and He is patient, not wanting anyone to perish (2 Pet 3:8-9). Each generation should live as if He could come in its lifetime.
13:12 let us cast off the works of the darkness, and let us put on the armor of the light Take them off like dirty clothes. The Christian life is a battle, and we need to be dressed for it (Eph 6:11-17).
13:13 not in strife and jealousy People do their worst things in the dark. Three pairs: wild partying, sexual sin and lack of self-control, and fighting and envy. We sometimes treat the respectable sins as less serious. God does not.
13:14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ We put on Christ once when we came to faith (Gal 3:27), and we do it every day by living like Him and drawing on His strength. In A.D. 386 young Augustine, struggling with lust and despair, heard a child chanting, take up and read. He opened Paul's letters to these verses and later wrote that light flooded his heart and the darkness of doubt vanished (Confessions 8.12).
13:14 make no provision for the flesh, for its desires To make provision is to plan ahead. Do not make it easy to sin. If something tempts you, do not keep it within reach, do not plan your weekend around it, and do not leave the door open.
14:1 receive the one who is weak in the faith, not for disputes over reasonings Not someone who doubts that Jesus saves, but a believer whose conscience is not yet free in areas God does not forbid. Do not bring him in to argue him out of his convictions. Reasonings are matters of opinion where sincere believers differ, not the core of the gospel, where Paul gave no room (Gal 1:8-9).
14:2 the one who is weak eats vegetables Meat in Rome's markets had often been offered to idols and was not prepared by Jewish food laws. Some believers, especially Jewish believers, avoided meat altogether to be safe (Dan 1:8, 12).
14:3 Let not the one who eats despise the one who does not eat The strong are tempted to look down on the weak as narrow; the weak are tempted to judge the strong as worldly. Paul speaks to both. If God has received someone, who are we to reject him?
14:4 To his own master he stands or falls A servant answered to his own master, not the neighbors. Every believer is the Lord's servant, and God is able to make him stand.
14:5 Let each be fully assured in his own mind Most likely the Sabbath and feast days of the Law. Paul does not settle the question. For Gentile believers it is a matter of conscience; the days were a shadow, and the substance belongs to Christ (Col 2:16-17). Convictions about Sunday, the Saturday Sabbath, Christmas, and Easter should not divide us.
14:6 The one who regards the day regards it to the Lord Both the one who eats and the one who abstains give thanks and try to please God. When we see that, it is much harder to look down on each other.
14:8 whether we live or we die, we are the Lord's A believer never leaves the Lord's hands, not even in death. And since each believer belongs to the Lord, it is the Lord's job to evaluate him, not mine.
14:9 so that He might rule over both the dead and the living By His death and resurrection Jesus earned the right to rule all His people, living and dead. He is Lord of all.
14:10 we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ Not the judgment of whether a believer is saved, which was settled at the cross (8:1), but the day believers give account of how they lived and are rewarded (2 Cor 5:10; 1 Cor 3:12-15). We will be too busy giving our own account that day to give anyone else's.
14:11 every knee will bow to Me, and every tongue will confess to God From Isaiah 45:23, which Paul applies to Jesus (Phil 2:10-11). Every person will one day bow before Him. The only question is whether we bow now in faith or later in judgment.
14:12 each of us will give an account concerning himself to God Concerning himself, not his brother. I will answer for my life, and you for yours.
14:13 not to put a stumbling block or an offense before the brother Instead of judging others, make a judgment about yourself. The question shifts from am I free to do this, to will this hurt my brother?
14:14 nothing is unclean of itself, except to the one who counts anything to be unclean Jesus taught that food cannot make a person unclean, "cleansing all the foods" (Mark 7:19), and Peter learned it in a vision (Acts 10:15). Paul stands with the strong. But one who believes a thing is wrong and does it anyway goes against his conscience, and that is sin for him.

unclean. 15 And if your brother is grieved because of food, you are no longer walking according to love. Do not destroy with your food that one for whom Christ died. 16 Therefore do not let your good be slandered. 17 For the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. 18 For the one who serves Christ in these things is well-pleasing to God and approved by men. 19 So then let us pursue the things of peace and the things of building up one another. 20 Do not tear down the work of God for the sake of food. All things indeed are clean, but it is evil for the man who eats with stumbling. 21 It is good not to eat meat nor to drink wine nor to do anything by which your brother stumbles or is offended or is weak. 22 Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Blessed is the one who does not judge himself in what he approves. 23 But the one who doubts has been condemned if he eats, because it is not of faith; and everything that is not of faith is sin.

1 Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves. 2 For let each of us please his neighbor for his good, toward edification. 3 For even Christ did not please Himself; but just as it has been written, "The reproaches of those reproaching You fell on Me." 4 For whatever things were written beforehand were written beforehand for our instruction, so that through the endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we may have the hope. 5 Now may the God of endurance and encouragement give you to be of the same mind with one another according to Christ Jesus (Iesous), 6 so that with one accord, with one mouth, you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. 7 Therefore receive one another, just as Christ also received us, to the glory of God. 8 Now I say that Jesus Christ has become a servant of the circumcision on behalf of the truth of God, in order to confirm the promises of the fathers, 9 and that the Gentiles glorify God for His mercy; just as it has been written, "Because of this I will praise You among the Gentiles, and I will sing praise to Your name." 10 And again it says, "Rejoice, Gentiles, with His peo-

14:15 Do not destroy with your food that one for whom Christ died Love limits liberty. Christ gave His life for that brother; can I not give up a meal for him? Destroy likely means serious damage to his faith, leading him to act against his conscience and drift from the Lord.
14:16 do not let your good be slandered Freedom is good, but used carelessly it may be spoken of as evil and bring reproach on the gospel.
14:17 the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit Food is not what the kingdom is about. When we fight over side issues, we lose sight of the main thing.
14:18 well-pleasing to God and approved by men Even unbelievers respect a Christian who is gracious and not argumentative.
14:19 let us pursue the things of peace and the things of building up one another Peace does not happen by accident; we have to chase it. Before speaking in a disagreement, ask: will this build my brother up or tear him down?
14:20 Do not tear down the work of God for the sake of food The work of God is your fellow believer, someone God is building. It makes no sense to knock that down over a plate of food.
14:21 It is good not to eat meat nor to drink wine nor to do anything by which your brother stumbles A mature believer is not the one who uses every freedom he has, but the one who can give one up out of love.
14:22 Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God Enjoy your freedom privately before God; there is no need to parade it before those it will hurt. Blessed is the one with a clear conscience about what he does.
14:23 everything that is not of faith is sin One who doubts and eats anyway is condemned, not to hell, but by his own conscience. If you are not sure something is right and do it anyway, you sin, even if the thing is not wrong in itself. When in doubt, do not.
15:1 we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak Paul counts himself among the strong, those whose faith is free about food and days. But strength is not a license; it is a load to carry. The strong are to bear with the scruples of weaker believers, not shrug them off, and not live to please themselves.
15:2 let each of us please his neighbor for his good, toward edification This is not people-pleasing for the sake of popularity. It is seeking what is truly good for a brother, what builds him up in the faith. The question is not what I may do, but what will help him grow.
15:3 The reproaches of those reproaching You fell on Me Christ is the great example. He did not live to please Himself. Paul quotes Psalm 69:9, where the righteous sufferer bears the insults aimed at God. Jesus took on Himself the reproach meant for the Father. If He gave up so much for us, we can give up a plate of meat for a brother.
15:4 whatever things were written beforehand were written beforehand for our instruction Paul has just quoted a psalm, and now he tells us why. The Old Testament was not only for Israel long ago; it was written for us too. Through its endurance and encouragement we have hope. We should never neglect the Old Testament.
15:5 the God of endurance and encouragement The endurance and encouragement we find in the Scriptures come from God Himself. Paul prays that He would give the Roman believers to be of the same mind with one another, not identical opinions on every matter, but one heart that follows Christ Jesus.
15:6 with one accord, with one mouth, you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ The goal of unity is worship. Picture a choir with many voices singing one song. Jewish and Gentile believers, weak and strong, were to praise God together with one mouth.
15:7 receive one another, just as Christ also received us Paul sums up chapters 14 and 15. How did Christ receive us? While we were still sinners (5:8), with all our faults. If He welcomed us like that, we can welcome one another. And when we do, it brings glory to God.
15:8 Jesus Christ has become a servant of the circumcision on behalf of the truth of God Jesus came first as a servant to Israel, the circumcision. He was born a Jew and ministered mainly to Jews (Matt 15:24). He did this to show that God is true to His word and to confirm the promises He made to the fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.
15:9 the Gentiles glorify God for His mercy Israel received promises; the Gentiles had none (Eph 2:12). They come in purely by mercy. Paul quotes Psalm 18:49, where David praises God among the Gentiles. He now strings together four Old Testament texts to show that God always meant the nations to praise Him.
15:10 Rejoice, Gentiles, with His people This is from Deuteronomy 32:43, the Song of Moses. Note the word "with." The Gentiles rejoice together with Israel, not in place of Israel. God has not traded Israel for the church; He has brought the nations in to share the blessing.

ple." 11 And again, "Praise the Lord, all the Gentiles, and extol Him, all the peoples." 12 And again Isaiah (Hesaias) says, "There will be the root of Jesse (Iessai), and the One rising to rule Gentiles; on Him Gentiles will hope." 13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you abound in the hope in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Paul the Minister to the Gentiles

14 Now I myself also have been persuaded concerning you, my brothers, that you yourselves also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another. 15 But I wrote to you more boldly, brothers, in part, as reminding you, because of the grace that was given to me by God, 16 for me to be a minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, serving the gospel of God as a priest, so that the offering of the Gentiles may become acceptable, sanctified in the Holy Spirit. 17 Therefore I have boasting in Christ Jesus in the things pertaining to God. 18 For I will not dare to speak anything of what Christ did not accomplish through me for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, 19 in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem (Hierousalem) and around as far as Illyricum (Illyrikon) I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ; 20 and so, aspiring to preach the gospel not where Christ was named, so that I may not build on another's foundation, 21 but just as it has been written, "Those to whom it was not announced concerning Him will see, and those who have not heard will understand."

22 Therefore I also was being hindered many times from coming to you. 23 But now, no longer having a place in these regions, and having a longing to come to you for many years, 24 whenever I go to Spain (Spania), I will come to you. For I hope, while passing through, to see you, and to be sent forward there by you, if first I am filled with you in part. 25 But now I am going to Jerusalem, ministering to the saints. 26 For Macedonia (Makedonia) and Achaia were pleased to make a certain contribution for the poor of the saints who are in Jerusalem. 27 For they were pleased, and they are their debtors. 15:11 Praise the Lord, all the Gentiles, and extol Him, all the peoples Paul quotes Psalm 117:1, the shortest psalm, and one of the clearest calls for every nation to praise the Lord.
15:12 There will be the root of Jesse, and the One rising to rule Gentiles The last quote is from Isaiah 11:10. Jesse was David's father, and the Root of Jesse is the Messiah from David's line (Rev 22:16). He will rule the nations, and they will hope in Him. Paul has quoted the Law, the Psalms and the Prophets, and all three agree.
15:13 the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing The word "hope" links this verse to the one before. God is the source of hope, and He fills us with joy and peace as we keep trusting Him. This is not something we work up. We abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.
15:14 able also to admonish one another Paul has spoken firmly, but he is not scolding. He is confident the Roman believers are full of goodness and knowledge, and able to counsel and correct one another. A healthy church does not leave all the admonishing to the pastor.
15:16 serving the gospel of God as a priest, so that the offering of the Gentiles may become acceptable Paul pictures his ministry as priestly service. A priest brought offerings to God; Paul brings the Gentiles themselves, saved through the gospel, as an offering to God. They are acceptable because they are sanctified, set apart, by the Holy Spirit.
15:18 what Christ did not accomplish through me for the obedience of the Gentiles Paul's only boast is in what Christ did through him. He will not speak of anything else. The aim of his work was the obedience of the Gentiles, the obedience that comes from faith (1:5), brought about by both word and deed.
15:19 from Jerusalem and around as far as Illyricum I have fully proclaimed the gospel of Christ God backed Paul's preaching with signs and wonders (Acts 14:3; 19:11-12). Illyricum lay on the Adriatic coast, roughly modern Albania and the former Yugoslavia. "Fully proclaimed" does not mean every person heard; it means Paul had planted churches in the key cities, and they could carry the gospel to the regions around them.
15:20 aspiring to preach the gospel not where Christ was named Paul was a pioneer. His ambition was to preach where no one had yet heard of Christ, so he would not build on another man's foundation. Today there are still thousands of people groups with little or no gospel witness.
15:21 Those to whom it was not announced concerning Him will see Paul finds his calling in Isaiah 52:15, from the passage about the Suffering Servant. Those who had never been told about Him would see and understand. That is what happens when the gospel reaches the unreached.
15:22 I also was being hindered many times from coming to you This is why Paul had not yet visited Rome. The work of planting churches in new places kept him busy. He was not avoiding them.
15:24 whenever I go to Spain, I will come to you Now that the eastern regions had churches, Paul looked west, to Spain at the far edge of the Roman world. He planned to visit Rome on the way and hoped the church there would help send him on, much as a home church sends out missionaries today.
15:26 a certain contribution for the poor of the saints who are in Jerusalem But first Paul had to go to Jerusalem. The believers in Macedonia and Achaia, northern and southern Greece, had gathered a gift for the poor believers there, who had suffered from famine and persecution. Paul spent years gathering this offering (1 Cor 16:1-4; 2 Cor 8-9).
15:27 if the Gentiles shared in their spiritual things, they ought also to minister to them in the fleshly things The Greek churches were glad to give, and Paul says they owed it. The gospel came to the Gentiles through the Jewish people. Sharing material blessings in return was right, and the gift showed that Jewish and Gentile believers really are one family.
15:28 having sealed this fruit to them, I will go away through you into Spain To seal the fruit means to deliver the gift safely. Paul did reach Rome, but not as he planned. He was arrested in Jerusalem, held two years, and sent to Rome as a prisoner (Acts 21-28). Whether he ever reached Spain we do not know for sure; some early church writers suggest he did, after his first imprisonment.
15:29 I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ Paul was confident that his visit would bring blessing. God answered his desire to see Rome, but in His own way. Sometimes He does the same with us.

15:30 to strive together with me in the prayers for me to God The word means to struggle or wrestle, like an athlete. Prayer is real work. Even the great apostle needed other people's prayers, and he asked for them.
15:31 so that I may be delivered from those who are disobedient in Judea Paul made two requests: rescue from unbelieving Jews who saw him as a traitor, and that his gift would be welcomed by Jewish believers still wary of him. A mob nearly killed him, but Roman soldiers rescued him (Acts 21:30-32). The brothers welcomed him (Acts 21:17), though many were still suspicious. God answered, though not as anyone expected.
15:33 Now the God of peace be with you all Paul has called God the God of endurance and encouragement (15:5) and the God of hope (15:13). Now He is the God of peace. In a church with tension between weak and strong, Jew and Gentile, that was exactly the God they needed.
16:1 Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the church that is in Cenchrea Cenchrea was the port just east of Corinth, where Paul most likely wrote Romans, and most scholars believe Phoebe carried this letter to Rome. The word for servant is diakonos, also translated "deacon" elsewhere (Phil 1:1). Some believe Phoebe held the office of deacon; others believe Paul is simply describing her faithful service. Either way, Paul honors her.
16:2 she herself also has been a patroness of many, and of me myself A patroness was someone who used her means to support others. Phoebe had helped many, Paul included, so he asks the Romans to receive her worthily of the saints and stand by her in whatever she needs.
16:3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus They were Jewish believers forced to leave Rome when the emperor Claudius expelled the Jews (Acts 18:2). Paul met them in Corinth and made tents with them. By now they were back in Rome, among his closest friends.
16:4 who laid down their own neck for my life They risked their lives for Paul, perhaps during the riot in Ephesus (Acts 19). We do not know the details, but all the Gentile churches were thankful.
16:5 the church at their house The early church had no church buildings; believers met in homes. Epaenetus was a firstfruit of Achaia, one of the first believers in southern Greece. Paul never forgot him.
16:6 Greet Mary, who toiled much for us That is all we know about her. Paul noticed her labor, and so did God (Heb 6:10).
16:7 who are of note among the apostles Andronicus and Junia were fellow Jews, once jailed for Christ, and believers before Paul. Some take this phrase to mean they were well known to the apostles; others, that they were counted among the apostles in a broader sense, as traveling missionaries, not members of the Twelve. The SLB reads Junia, a woman's name, as many do, which would likely make them a husband and wife team; some read Junias, a man's name. Godly scholars land in different places on both questions. Paul clearly held them in high regard.
16:9 Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved Ampliatus, Urbanus and Stachys were common names among slaves and freed slaves in Rome. In the church, a slave could be called "my beloved" by an apostle (Gal 3:28).
16:11 those of the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord Like the household of Aristobulus (16:10), this probably means servants or slaves. Narcissus may have been a powerful freedman who served the emperor Claudius. The gospel had reached into the homes of the powerful.
16:12 Greet Tryphena and Tryphosa, who toil in the Lord They may have been sisters, possibly twins. They and Persis are praised for hard work in the Lord. Women were deeply involved in the ministry of the early church.
16:13 Greet Rufus, the chosen one in the Lord, and his mother and mine Mark, likely writing for the church in Rome, names Simon of Cyrene, who carried Jesus' cross, as "the father of Alexander and Rufus" (Mark 15:21), as if his readers knew Rufus. This may be the same man. Rufus' mother had cared for Paul like a mother.
16:15 all the saints with them Paul greets two more groups (16:14-15), probably two more house churches, each with the believers gathered there.
16:16 Greet one another with a holy kiss A kiss on the cheek was a family greeting in that culture. Today it might be a handshake or a hug. The point is real affection between believers.
16:17 watch out for those causing the divisions and the stumbling blocks contrary to the teaching which you learned A sudden, serious warning. This differs from chapter 14. There Paul told believers to accept each other over disputable matters; here he warns about people who teach against the gospel itself. On secondary matters, we show grace. On the gospel, we stand firm.

ing which you learned, and turn away from them. 18 For such men do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and through smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the guileless. 19 For your obedience has reached to all; therefore I rejoice over you. But I want you to be wise indeed toward the good, and innocent toward the evil. 20 Now the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet quickly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen. 21 Timothy (Timotheos), my fellow worker, and 16:18 through smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the guileless Such teachers serve their own belly, their own appetites, not Christ. False teaching rarely sounds false. That is why we need to know God's Word well.

16:19 wise indeed toward the good, and innocent toward the evil Become an expert in what is good, and stay a beginner when it comes to evil.
16:20 the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet quickly This echoes Genesis 3:15, the first promise of the gospel, where the woman's seed would bruise the serpent's head. One day Satan will be thrown into the lake of fire forever (Rev 20:10). Believers share in that victory: under your feet.
16:21 Timothy, my fellow worker, and Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my kinsmen Timothy was like a son to Paul (Phil 2:22). The other three were fellow Jews. Jason may be the man who hosted Paul in Thessalonica (Acts 17:5-9).
16:22 I, Tertius, who wrote the letter, greet you in the Lord Paul dictated Romans, and Tertius wrote it down, adding his own greeting.
16:23 Erastus, the steward of the city, greets you Gaius was Paul's host in Corinth, and the whole church met in his home. A stone inscription found in Corinth names an Erastus who paid for paving a public square in return for his office as a city official. Many believe it is the same man.
16:24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all This repeats the blessing of 16:20. Most modern Bibles put it in a footnote because it is missing from the earliest manuscripts, but the SLB follows the Received Text, which includes it. It is a fitting prayer either way.
16:25 according to the revelation of the mystery kept secret in eternal times Paul ends with praise. God is able to strengthen you, to keep you standing (14:4). In the Bible a mystery is not a puzzle but a truth God kept hidden and has now revealed: His plan to save Jews and Gentiles alike through faith in Christ and make them one people (Eph 3:4-6).
16:26 made known to all the Gentiles for obedience of faith The prophets hinted at it; now it is made known to the nations. "Obedience of faith" is the phrase Paul used at the very start (1:5). Faith that is real leads to obedience. Paul has come full circle.
16:27 to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, be the glory to the ages Sixteen chapters about sin, grace, faith, the Spirit, Israel and Christian living all lead here: glory to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ.

1 CORINTHIANS

Introduction

Title

The letter takes its name from its first readers, "the church of God which is in Corinth" (1:2). It is the first of two letters to Corinth in our Bibles, though Paul and the church wrote to each other more than twice. Paul mentions an earlier letter that has not been kept for us (5:9), and the church had written to him with questions (7:1).

Author and Date

The letter opens with "Paul, a called apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes the brother" (1:1), and Paul closes it in his own hand (16:21). Sosthenes may be the synagogue ruler who was beaten in Corinth (Acts 18:17), now a believer, though Scripture does not say for sure. Some modern scholars doubt that Paul wrote a few of the letters that carry his name, but almost no one, old or new, doubts that he wrote this one. I take the letter at its word, as the church always has.

Paul wrote from Ephesus, near the end of his stay of about three years there on his third missionary journey: "I will remain in Ephesus until Pentecost" (16:8; Acts 19:10; 20:31). Most scholars date the letter about A.D. 55, a few years after the church began.

Background and Setting

Corinth sat on the narrow isthmus joining southern Greece to the mainland, with a port on each side. Goods moved across the isthmus rather than around the dangerous southern seas, and that made the city rich. The Romans destroyed the old Greek city in 146 B.C., and Julius Caesar rebuilt it as a Roman colony in 44 B.C. By Paul's day it was the capital of the province of Achaia, a busy city of traders, sailors, soldiers and freed slaves. It hosted the Isthmian Games every two years. Temples and idols were everywhere, and Corinth had a name for wealth, pride and sexual looseness.

Paul came to Corinth about A.D. 50 on his second journey, worked as a tentmaker with Aquila and Priscilla, and preached a year and six months (Acts 18:1-11). Crispus the synagogue ruler believed, with many others. The Roman governor Gallio threw out the case the Jewish leaders brought against Paul (Acts 18:12-17). Apollos later taught there (Acts 18:24-28). The church was mostly Gentile, mostly ordinary people, some of them slaves (1:26; 7:21; 12:2). After Paul left, reports came from Chloe's household (1:11), three men from the church visited him (16:17), and the church sent a letter of questions. 1 Corinthians answers both the reports and the letter. The church lived in Corinth, and too much of Corinth lived in the church.

The church in Corinth was "not lacking in any gift" (1:7), but it was proud, divided and confused about how a believer should live. Paul does not answer with a list of rules. Again and again he brings them back to the cross: "For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God" (1:18).

From there he works through one problem after another: division over leaders, open sexual sin, lawsuits between believers, marriage and singleness, food offered to idols, disorder at the Lord's Supper, the use of spiritual gifts, and doubts about the resurrection. The words "now concerning" mark the questions from their letter (7:1; 8:1; 12:1; 16:1). In the middle stands chapter 13: love is the more excellent way, and without it every gift is nothing. Near the end stands chapter 15, the fullest teaching in the Bible on the resurrection of the body. The body matters to God because it belongs to Him (6:19-20) and because He will raise it. Paul's last charge sums up the letter: "Let everything of yours be done in love" (16:14).

Christ in 1 Corinthians

Christ crucified is "the power of God and the wisdom of God" (1:24), and He "became to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption" (1:30). He is the only foundation (3:11), our Passover lamb sacrificed for us (5:7), the one Lord through whom are all things (8:6), and the Rock who went with Israel in the wilderness (10:4). The Lord's Supper proclaims His death "until He comes" (11:26). He is the firstfruits of the resurrection (15:20), the last Adam who gives life (15:45), and the One through whom God "gives us the victory" over death (15:57). At His coming for His church, the dead will be raised and the living changed "in the blink of an eye" (15:52).

Several passages in this letter are places where good Bible teachers disagree, and the notes give the main views without taking a hard side: what it means to "deliver such a one to Satan" (5:5); the case of a believer deserted by an unbelieving spouse (7:15); head coverings in worship (11:2-16); whether the sign gifts such as tongues and prophecy continue today, and what "the perfect" is (12-14; 13:10); women keeping silent in the churches (14:34-35); and baptism for the dead (15:29). The notes on the Lord's Supper (10:16; 11:23-29) present it as the remembrance and proclamation Jesus commanded and name the other views in a sentence.

Chapter 6 speaks of lawsuits and of sexual sin, including relations between men (6:9-11). The notes state plainly what the text says, and they also say what it never means: it is never a reason to keep a crime such as abuse from the authorities, and no sinner is beyond the washing Paul describes in 6:11. Chapter 7's teaching on marriage never requires anyone to stay in danger. The notes on 15:23 and 15:51-52 read Christ's coming for His church as the rapture before the Tribulation, with the other views named.

Greeting

1 Paul (Paulos), a called apostle of Jesus (Iesous) Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes the brother, 2 to the church of God which is in Corinth (Korinthos), to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called saints, together with all those who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, both theirs and ours: 3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving for God's Grace

4 I thank my God always concerning you for the grace of God which was given to you in Christ Jesus, 5 that in everything you were enriched in Him, in all speech and all knowledge, 6 just as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you, 7 so that you are not lacking in any gift, eagerly awaiting the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, 8 who will also confirm you to the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Divisions in the Church

10 Now I exhort you, brothers, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing, and there be no divisions among you, but you be made complete in the same mind and in the same judgment. 11 For it was made clear to me concerning you, my brothers, by those of Chloe, that there are quarrels among you. 12 Now I mean this, that each of you says, "I indeed am of Paul," and "I of Apollos," and "I of Cephas (Kephas)," and "I of Christ." 13 Has Christ been divided? Paul was not crucified for you, was he? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul? 14 I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus (Krispos) and Gaius (Gaios), 15 so that no one may say that I baptized into my name. 16 Now I also baptized the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized any other.

1:1 a called apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God An apostle is one sent by the risen Lord Himself to lay the foundation of the church. Paul did not appoint himself. Some in Corinth would question his authority (4:3; 9:1-3), so he makes it plain from the first line.
1:1 Sosthenes the brother A synagogue ruler named Sosthenes was beaten in Corinth when the Jews brought Paul to court (Acts 18:17). Many believe this is the same man, now a believer. Scripture doesn't say for sure, but if so, what a picture of God's grace.
1:2 to the church of God which is in Corinth Not Paul's church or Apollos' church, but God's. That alone answers much of chapter 1. To be "sanctified" is to be set apart for God, and every believer is a saint because he is "in Christ Jesus," not because he earned it. Paul will rebuke these believers for many sins, yet he still calls them saints. Our standing comes first, and it is the reason we are called to live holy lives.
1:3 Grace to you and peace Grace is God's undeserved favor, and peace is the rest that comes when we are right with Him. Grace always comes first. Paul names "God our Father" and "the Lord Jesus Christ" side by side as the source. No mere man could stand in that place.
1:4 I thank my God always concerning you This church was divided, proud and tolerating open sin, yet Paul thanks God for them and means it. He thanks God not for their behavior but for His grace given to them. It is easier to correct someone when you can honestly see God's grace in his life.
1:5 in everything you were enriched in Him, in all speech and all knowledge Speech and knowledge were the very things the Corinthians were proud of (8:1; 13:1-2). Paul says plainly they came from God. The changed lives and gifts in Corinth were proof that "the testimony of Christ," the gospel Paul preached, was true (1:6).
1:7 not lacking in any gift Their problem was not a lack of gifts but a lack of love and maturity. Gifts are not a sign of spiritual maturity, as chapters 12 to 14 will show. "The revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ" is His coming, when He will be seen as He is. The early church lived looking for Him, and that hope is meant to shape how we live (1 John 3:2-3; 1 Cor 15:51-52).
1:8 blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ Blameless does not mean they were sinless now. It means no charge will stand against them on that day, because they are in Christ. The One who began His work in them would finish it (Phil 1:6). Correction is coming, but it does not mean God has given up on them.
1:9 God is faithful Our security does not rest on our faithfulness but on His. Fellowship means sharing life together. If we are all called into fellowship with the same Son, how can we be divided against each other?
1:10 there be no divisions among you The word is schismata, from which we get schism, used of a tear in cloth. "Made complete" was used of mending nets. Paul wants the torn church mended. This does not mean agreement on every small matter (chapter 8 allows room for conscience), but they must not split into camps.
1:11 by those of Chloe Most likely members of Chloe's household, perhaps family or servants, who had traveled to Ephesus and told Paul what was happening. Scripture does not say who Chloe was. Paul names his source. He does not pass along anonymous gossip.
1:12 I indeed am of Paul Cephas is the Aramaic name for Peter. Some boasted in Paul who founded the church, some in Apollos the gifted speaker from Alexandria (Acts 18:24-28), some in Peter. "I of Christ" sounds right, but it seems even Christ's name was used as a badge to look down on others. None of these leaders asked for a fan club (3:6; 16:12). The problem was the people's pride.
1:13 Has Christ been divided? Three sharp questions, and each points to Christ. Christ has one body that cannot be cut up and handed out to groups. Only He was crucified for them, and they were baptized in His name because they belong to Him. No pastor or teacher, however gifted, can take His place.
1:14 Crispus and Gaius Crispus was the synagogue ruler who believed with his household (Acts 18:8). Gaius is likely the man who later hosted Paul and the church in Corinth (Rom 16:23). Paul is glad he baptized few, so no one could form a party around him.
1:16 I do not know whether I baptized any other The Holy Spirit inspired what Paul wrote, but that did not mean Paul was handed a list of every person he had baptized years before. He writes like a real man, remembering as he goes. Stephanas was among the first believers in that region (16:15).

17 For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel; not in wisdom of speech, so that the cross of Christ may not be made empty.

Christ the Power and Wisdom of God

18 For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. 19 For it has been written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the intelligence of the intelligent I will set aside." 20 Where is the wise man? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? 21 For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through the wisdom did not know God, God was pleased through the foolishness of the proclamation to save those who believe. 22 Since both Jews ask for a sign and Greeks seek wisdom, 23 but we preach Christ crucified, to Jews indeed a stumbling block, but to Greeks foolishness, 24 but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. 25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men. 26 For consider your calling, brothers, that there are not many wise according to the flesh, not many powerful, not many of noble birth. 27 But God chose the foolish things of the world, so that He might put the wise to shame; and God chose the weak things of the world, so that He might put the strong things to shame; 28 and God chose the lowborn things of the world and the despised things, and the things that are not, so that He might bring to nothing the things that are, 29 so that no flesh may boast before Him. 30 But from Him you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption, 31 so that, just as it has been written, "The one who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."

Paul's Preaching in Weakness

1 And I, having come to you, brothers, came not according to excellence of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God. 2 For I decided not to know anything among you except Jesus (Iesous) Christ, and Him crucified.

1:17 Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel Paul is not saying baptism doesn't matter. Jesus commanded it (Matt 28:19). But baptism is the believer's obedient public step after faith. It does not save. Paul also refused to win people with polished speech. Faith that rests on a speaker's skill rests on the speaker. The power is in the message of the cross.

1:18 the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing The key verse of the chapter. Crucifixion was the most shameful death in the ancient world, used for slaves and rebels. There are only two groups here, the perishing and those being saved, and how a person responds to the cross shows which group he is in. The gospel is not only about God's power. It is His power at work (Rom 1:16).

1:19 I will destroy the wisdom of the wise From Isaiah 29:14. Judah's leaders trusted their clever plans and political deals instead of God, and God said He would bring their wisdom to nothing. The cross does the same. The smartest people cannot reason their way to God.

1:20 Where is the scribe? The wise man may be the Greek philosopher, the scribe a Jewish expert in the Law of Moses, the debater the skilled arguer. With all their learning, the wise men of that age did not recognize God's Son. They crucified Him (2:8).

1:21 the foolishness of the proclamation to save those who believe It is not foolish preaching that saves. It is the message preached, which the world calls foolish. Salvation is not for the clever or well educated but for anyone who believes. A child and a professor come to God the same way.

1:22 Jews ask for a sign and Greeks seek wisdom The Jews wanted proof by power (Matt 12:38; John 6:30), the Greeks proof by reason (Acts 17:21). People today still want God to come to them on their terms, by a miracle or by an argument.

1:23 we preach Christ crucified Paul did not change the message to fit what people wanted. To the Jews it was a skandalon, a stumbling block, since the Law said a man hanged on a tree was under God's curse (Deut 21:23; Gal 3:13). To the Greeks it was foolish to worship a man who died like a criminal.

1:24 Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God The Jews wanted power and find in the crucified Christ power to forgive sin and give new life. The Greeks wanted wisdom and find God's plan to save sinners and still be just (Rom 3:26). "Those who are called" are the same people as "those who believe" (1:21). God's call and our faith go together.

1:25 the weakness of God is stronger than men Paul speaks from the world's point of view. The cross looked like defeat, and Rome and the Jewish leaders thought they had won. Three days later the tomb was empty. God's "weakness" broke the power of sin and death.

1:26 not many wise according to the flesh Most of the church were ordinary people, some of them slaves (7:21). Paul says not many, not none: Crispus and Erastus the city treasurer had position (Rom 16:23). But God did not build His church on such people. God loves to use nobodies.

1:27 But God chose the foolish things of the world "God chose" comes three times in verses 27-28. The world saw nothing in the Corinthian church, while God saw His chosen people. He turns the world's ranking upside down, as He did with a shepherd boy like David, fishermen like Peter and a persecutor like Paul.

1:29 so that no flesh may boast before Him The reason behind verses 26-28. If God saved only the smartest or strongest or best, we could boast. He saves by grace, through a cross the world calls foolish, and no one will stand before God and claim he earned it.

1:30 wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption God put them in Christ; they did not put themselves there. In Christ is everything we need. Righteousness: God declares us right with Him because of Christ, which is called justification. Sanctification: He sets us apart and makes us holy. Redemption: He bought us out of slavery to sin, and one day will redeem our bodies too (Rom 8:23).

1:31 The one who boasts, let him boast in the Lord Paul sums up Jeremiah 9:23-24, where the wise, strong and rich are told not to boast in themselves but in knowing the Lord. The Corinthians boasted in men (1:12). The safest boast points away from ourselves to Jesus Christ and His cross.

2:1 not according to excellence of speech or of wisdom Paul first came to Corinth about A.D. 50 (Acts 18:1). Corinth loved speakers. Traveling teachers called sophists gave dazzling speeches for pay. Paul chose not to compete. He came as a witness, not a performer, passing on God's own testimony about His Son.

2:2 except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified A choice Paul made after reasoning with the philosophers in Athens (Acts 17:16-34). He taught the Corinthians a year and a half (Acts 18:11), so this does not mean he taught nothing else. Everything flowed from the cross and led back to it. That is still the test of good preaching.

3 And I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling. 4 And my word and my preaching were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, 5 so that your faith may not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

Wisdom Revealed by the Spirit

6 But we speak wisdom among the mature, but wisdom not of this age, nor of the rulers of this age, who are being brought to nothing. 7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, the hidden wisdom, which God predestined before the ages for our glory, 8 which none of the rulers of this age has known; for if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. 9 But just as it has been written, "Things which eye has not seen and ear has not heard, and which have not come up into the heart of man, things which God has prepared for those who love Him." 10 But God revealed them to us through His Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God. 11 For who among men knows the things of the man except the spirit of the man which is in him? So also no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. 12 Now we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may know the things freely given to us by God, 13 which things we also speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in words taught by the Holy Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. 14 But a natural man does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; and he is not able to know them, because they are spiritually examined. 15 But he who is spiritual indeed examines all things, but he himself is examined by no one. 16 For who has known the mind of the Lord, who will instruct Him? But we have the mind of Christ.

2:3 in weakness and in fear and in much trembling Paul had just been run out of Philippi, Thessalonica and Berea and laughed at in Athens. In Corinth the Lord told him, "Do not fear, but keep speaking, and do not be silent" (Acts 18:9). Being afraid is not a sin. Paul felt fear and kept going, and God's power works best through people who know they are weak (2 Cor 12:9).
2:4 in demonstration of the Spirit and of power The word for demonstration was used in court for clear proof. The proof of Paul's message was what the Spirit did: sinners made new (6:11). Some take it to include the miracles God did through Paul (2 Cor 12:12; Rom 15:19). Either way the power was God's.
2:5 so that your faith may not be in the wisdom of men Faith won by a brilliant speech rests on a man, and the next brilliant speaker might talk it away. The Corinthians boasted in human leaders, but their faith was never meant to rest on any of them, Paul included.
2:6 we speak wisdom among the mature The gospel is not for simple minds only. Its depths are grasped by those who have grown in the faith, and in 3:1-2 Paul says the Corinthians had not. "The rulers of this age" are the world's powerful people. Some also see the powers of darkness behind them (Eph 6:12). Their power is passing away.
2:7 the wisdom of God in a mystery A mystery in the Bible is a truth God kept hidden and has now made known: His plan to save the world through His crucified Son. God planned it "before the ages." The cross did not catch Him by surprise, and its goal is that His people share Christ's glory (Rom 8:30).
2:8 they would not have crucified the Lord of glory Pilate, Herod and the high priests thought they were in control, but the cross was the very thing that defeated sin, death and Satan (Col 2:15). In the Old Testament glory belongs to God alone (Isa 42:8). The Man who died on the cross was God the Son.
2:9 Things which eye has not seen and ear has not heard Drawn from Isaiah 64:4, perhaps with Isaiah 65:17. The verse is often used of heaven, and what God has prepared there is beyond imagining. In context Paul means more: no human mind could have discovered God's plan of salvation. People did not figure out the cross. God revealed it (2:10).
2:10 the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God Paul speaks first of the apostles and prophets, to whom God gave His truth to write down (Eph 3:5), though every believer shares in the Spirit's help. The Spirit searches, knows and teaches. He is not a force. Only God can know the depths of God, so this verse shows the Spirit is a divine Person.
2:11 no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God Only you know your own heart. If we cannot know another person's thoughts, we could never know God's unless He shows us. That is why we need the Spirit to understand the Bible.
2:12 not receive the spirit of the world The spirit of the world is the way the world thinks. Every believer has received the Holy Spirit (Rom 8:9), so that we may know what God has "freely given": forgiveness, adoption, eternal life and all that is ours in Christ (1:30).
2:13 in words taught by the Holy Spirit The Spirit guided not only the apostles' ideas but their words, a strong statement about the inspiration of Scripture (2 Tim 3:16; 2 Pet 1:21). "Comparing spiritual things with spiritual things" may mean explaining spiritual truths in spiritual words, or explaining them to spiritual people.
2:14 a natural man does not accept the things of the Spirit of God The natural man is the person without the Spirit, not born again (Jude 19). He may be smart, but on his own he cannot know spiritual truth. That is why arguing someone into the kingdom doesn't work by itself. We share the gospel and pray, because only the Spirit opens blind eyes (2 Cor 4:4-6).
2:15 he himself is examined by no one Not that believers are above correction; Paul is about to correct the Corinthians sharply. The natural man cannot judge the spiritual man rightly, because he does not understand where the believer's life comes from. The world is not the final judge. God is (4:3-4).
2:16 But we have the mind of Christ Paul quotes Isaiah 40:13: no one can give God advice. Yet in the Scriptures the Spirit gave and in the Spirit who lives in us, God has shared His thoughts. That doesn't mean we know everything. Having the mind of Christ is a gift. Thinking with it takes growth.
3:1 as to fleshly men, as to infants in Christ A third kind of person: believers who have the Spirit but live like those who don't. The flesh is our fallen nature that still pulls toward sin. Paul still calls them "brothers." Being a baby is fine when you are newly born. The problem is when years go by and you are still a baby.
3:2 I gave you milk to drink, and not solid food When they were new, Paul fed them the basics, and that was right. Years later they prided themselves on knowledge but were still on milk (Heb 5:12-14). Spiritual age is not measured by how long we have been saved but by how much we have grown.

but even now you are not yet able, 3 for you are still fleshly. For where there is jealousy and strife and dissensions among you, are you not fleshly, and walking according to man? 4 For whenever someone says, "I indeed am of Paul (Paulos)," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not fleshly? 5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but servants through whom you believed, even as the Lord gave to each? 6 I planted, Apollos watered, but God was causing it to grow. 7 So neither is the one who plants anything, nor the one who waters, but God who causes it to grow. 8 Now the one who plants and the one who waters are one; and each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. 9 For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building.

The One Foundation

10 According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each one take heed how he builds on it. 11 For no one is able to lay another foundation besides the one being laid, which is Jesus (Iesous) the Christ. 12 Now if anyone builds on this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, 13 the work of each will become manifest; for the day will make it clear, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire will test the work of each, of what sort it is. 14 If the work of anyone which he built on it remains, he will receive a reward. 15 If the work of anyone is burned up, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire.

The Temple of God

16 Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? 17 If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him; for the temple of God is holy, which you are. 18 Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks that he is wise in this age, let him become foolish, so that he may become wise. 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it has been written, "He is the One catching the wise in their craftiness"; 20 and

3:19 Job 5:13; Isa 29:14; Esth 7:10
3:20 Ps 94:11; Jer 8:8; Jer 9:23

3:3 where there is jealousy and strife and dissensions among you They thought gifts and knowledge proved they were mature. Paul points to how they treated one another. Jealousy and quarreling are works of the flesh (Gal 5:19-21), and "walking according to man" means living like any unbeliever. The test of maturity is not how much we know but whether we love.
3:4 are you not fleshly? Paul does not defend his own group. He rebukes those loyal to him as much as the others. A godly leader wants people following Christ, not himself (11:1).
3:5 servants through whom you believed The word is diakonoi, from which we get deacon, someone who waits on others. Paul and Apollos were the means, not the source. No servant should be made a celebrity, and none should be despised.
3:6 I planted, Apollos watered, but God was causing it to grow Paul planted the church in Corinth. Apollos came later and strengthened the believers (Acts 18:27-28). No farmer can make a seed sprout. Preachers sow and water, but only God gives spiritual life and growth.
3:7 but God who causes it to grow This humbles every pastor and also frees him. We plant and water faithfully and leave the results to God. Church members should thank God for their leaders but not give them the glory that belongs to Him.
3:8 each will receive his own reward according to his own labor Paul and Apollos were not rivals but one team. God rewards not by fame or results but by the faithful work each one did. The quiet servant no one notices will not be forgotten by God.
3:9 you are God's field, God's building "God's" comes three times. The workers, the field and the building all belong to Him. "God's fellow workers" most likely means workers together under God, though some read it as working with God. Either way, it is a privilege to share in His work.
3:10 as a wise master builder I have laid a foundation A master builder planned the project and laid the foundation. Paul did that when he first preached Christ in Corinth, and he gives the credit to grace. "Let each one take heed how he builds" speaks first to teachers and leaders, but every believer builds something with his life.
3:11 no one is able to lay another foundation The only foundation for the church and the Christian life is Jesus Christ Himself. A church built on a personality, program, tradition or political cause is not on the true foundation, and a life built on anything else will not stand (Matt 7:24-27). Verses 12-15 are not about the foundation but what we build on it.
3:12 gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw Costly, lasting materials that survive fire, and cheap ones that burn. In context Paul means the work of building the church, especially teaching. Teaching true to Christ and done for His glory is gold. Shallow, worldly or self-serving work is straw. In a wider sense these are the works, motives and service of every believer.
3:13 the day will make it clear, because it is revealed in fire The day of the Lord's coming, when each believer stands before Him at "the judgment seat of Christ" (2 Cor 5:10). The fire is a picture of God's searching judgment. It tests "of what sort" the work is, not how much. A small work done for His glory may outlast a big work done for show (4:5).
3:14 he will receive a reward Scripture speaks of crowns and rewards for faithful believers (9:25; 2 Tim 4:8; James 1:12; 1 Pet 5:4; Rev 22:12). The judgment seat of Christ is not about whether a believer is saved. Salvation is a gift received by faith (Eph 2:8-9). The judgment seat is about rewards for how we served Christ after we were saved.
3:15 but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire A believer can lose rewards, but his salvation is not in question. He is like a man who escapes a burning house with his life but loses everything inside. Some use this verse to teach purgatory, but the fire tests the work, not the person, and it happens on "the day," not in a long process after death. Christ paid for our sins in full.
3:16 you are a temple of God The "you" is plural: the church as a whole. In a city full of temples to false gods, Paul says the church is God's temple, the inner holy place where He lives by His Spirit. In 6:19 he applies the same picture to each believer's body.
3:17 If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him The word can also mean ruin or corrupt. Many believe Paul warns false teachers who were never truly saved. Others see God's severe discipline on believers who harm His church, as in 11:30. Either way, it is a fearful thing to damage God's people. Gossip and division are not small things to God.
3:18 let him become foolish, so that he may become wise To become truly wise a person must be willing to look foolish to the world by accepting the message of the cross: admitting he cannot save himself and needs a crucified Savior. Pride says it already knows. Humility asks the Lord to teach it.
3:19 He is the One catching the wise in their craftiness From Job 5:13. God catches clever people in their own traps. Haman built gallows for Mordecai and was hanged on them himself (Esth 7:10). Human cleverness can never outwit God.
3:20 The Lord knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are futile From Psalm 94:11. This doesn't mean all learning is bad; Paul was highly educated. Human reasoning that shuts God out ends in emptiness, and God has already passed judgment on it.

again, "The Lord knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are futile." 21 So then let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, 22 whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas (Kephas), or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come, all are yours, 23 and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

Faithful Stewards

1 So let a man regard us as attendants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. 2 Now moreover, it is required in stewards that one be found faithful. 3 But to me it is a very small thing that I should be examined by you or by a human day; indeed, I do not even examine myself. 4 For I am conscious of nothing against myself, yet I am not justified by this; but the One who examines me is the Lord. 5 So then do not judge anything before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of the darkness and make manifest the purposes of the hearts; and then the praise will come to each from God.

Fools for Christ

6 Now these things, brothers, I have figuratively applied to myself and Apollos on account of you, so that in us you may learn not to think beyond what has been written, so that you may not be puffed up, one on behalf of the one against the other. 7 For who makes you different? And what do you have which you did not receive? And if you did indeed receive it, why do you boast as if not having received it? 8 Already you are satiated; already you became rich; apart from us you reigned; and I wish indeed that you did reign, so that we also might reign with you. 9 For I think that God has exhibited us the apostles last, as condemned to death; because we have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men. 10 We are fools on account of Christ, but you are wise in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are honored, but we are without honor. 11 Up to the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are poorly clothed, and are struck with fists, and wander homeless, 12 and we toil, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; 13 being slandered, we entreat. We have become as the scum of the world, the refuse of all things, until now.

3:21 let no one boast in men. For all things are yours Where chapters 1 to 3 have been heading. The Corinthians said they belonged to Paul or Apollos. Paul turns it around: the leaders belong to you, given by God as servants. Why shrink yourself to one leader's fan club when God has given you everything?
3:22 or the world or life or death, or things present or things to come Everything serves the believer. The world, because one day we will reign with Christ (6:2). Life, because we live it for Him. Even death, the doorway to being with Christ (Phil 1:21). Nothing is outside God's care for His people (Rom 8:38-39).
3:23 and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's All things belong to the believer, but the believer belongs to Christ (6:19-20). "Christ is God's" does not make Him less than God; He is "the Lord of glory" (2:8). It speaks of the Son's willing place in the plan of salvation (John 6:38; 15:28). The chain ends in God, with no place for boasting in men.
4:1 attendants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God The word for attendants was used of any servant carrying out his master's orders. A steward was a household manager, often a slave, put in charge of goods he did not own. Paul was trusted with God's revealed truth (2:7) to hand out faithfully, not to change.
4:2 it is required in stewards that one be found faithful Not popular, gifted or successful by the world's measure, but faithful. That frees anyone who serves God. You may not be the best speaker or have the largest ministry. God asks whether you were faithful with what He gave you (Matt 25:21).
4:3 I do not even examine myself "A human day" means a human court, set against the day of the Lord. The Corinthians' verdict on Paul carried little weight with him, and he did not trust even his own verdict on himself. This is humility. Only God sees the heart truly.
4:4 yet I am not justified by this Paul's conscience was clear, but that did not prove him innocent. Our consciences are not perfect, and we can be blind to our own faults. We should not live for people's praise or blame, nor rest on our own opinion of ourselves. The Lord's verdict is the one that matters.
4:5 do not judge anything before the time, until the Lord comes Paul is not forbidding all judgment; in 5:12 he tells the church to judge a sinning member. He means judging hidden motives and the final worth of someone's service. That waits for the judgment seat of Christ (3:13-15). Notice the word "praise." The Lord will find something to praise in each faithful servant.
4:6 not to think beyond what has been written Most likely, do not go beyond Scripture, especially the Old Testament verses on pride and wisdom Paul has quoted (1:19, 31; 3:19-20). "Puffed up" means swelled with pride like a bellows full of air. Paul uses the word six times in this letter, more than any other New Testament book.
4:7 what do you have which you did not receive? Three questions that cut through pride. If you differ from others, God made the difference. Every gift, ability and even our salvation was given. Imagine a man bragging about a present someone else bought him. Ask these questions whenever you are tempted to look down on someone.
4:8 Already you are satiated; already you became rich Irony. The Corinthians lived as if the kingdom had already come and they were reigning as kings. Believers will reign with Christ when He returns and sets up His kingdom (2 Tim 2:12; Rev 20:4-6). If the kingdom had truly come, the apostles would be reigning too, not suffering.
4:9 as condemned to death In a Roman victory parade the captives condemned to die in the arena came last. That is how Paul saw the apostles. The word for spectacle is the root of our word theater: men in an arena, watched by the world and by angels.
4:10 We are fools on account of Christ, but you are wise in Christ The Corinthians wanted a faith that made them look good in their city. The apostles had given that up. Which path looks more like Jesus, who was crucified in weakness (2 Cor 13:4) and despised (Isa 53:3)? Following Him does not usually make us popular.
4:11 Up to the present hour we both hunger and thirst Not ancient history but Paul's life as he wrote: hungry, poorly dressed, beaten, homeless.
4:12 working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless In Corinth Paul made tents to support himself (Acts 18:3). Greeks often looked down on manual labor, but Paul worked so as not to burden anyone (9:12). Blessing those who curse us is how Jesus taught us to respond (Luke 6:28).
4:13 the scum of the world, the refuse of all things Both words mean the filth scraped off a dirty pot or swept off a floor, and were also used of the lowest people in society. That is how the world saw the men God used to turn it upside down. When you are mistreated for Christ, you walk where the apostles walked, and Jesus before them.

A Father's Warning

14 I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved children I admonish you. 15 For if you have ten thousand guardians in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers; for in Christ Jesus (Iesous) through the gospel I begot
you. 16 Therefore I exhort you, become imitators of me.
17 Because of this I sent Timothy (Timotheos) to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, just as I teach everywhere in every church. 18 Now some were puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. 19 But I will come to you quickly, if the Lord wills, and I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power. 20 For the kingdom of God is not in word but in power. 21 What do you want?
Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

1 CORINTHIANS 5

Sin in the Church

1 Sexual immorality is actually reported among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles, so that someone has the wife of his father. 2 And you are puffed up, and did not rather mourn, so that the one who did this deed might be removed out of your midst. 3 For I indeed, as being absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged, as being present, the one who has so committed this, 4 in the name of our Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, when you and my spirit are gathered together, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, 5 to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. 6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? 7 Therefore cleanse out the old leaven, so that you may be a new lump, just as you are unleavened. For also our Passover was sacrificed for us: Christ. 8 So then let us celebrate the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

4:14 as my beloved children I admonish you The irony was sharp, but his heart is soft. To admonish is to warn and correct, as a good father does, neither ignoring wrong nor crushing the child. Speak the truth plainly, but with love as the motive and their good as the goal.
4:15 if you have ten thousand guardians in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers A guardian was a trusted household slave who walked the children to school and kept them in line, but he was not their father. Paul first brought them the gospel, and through it they were born again. That is why he could speak so plainly.
4:16 become imitators of me Not his gifts or success, but the humble, suffering way of the cross he just described (4:9-13). He adds the key in 11:1, "even as I also am of Christ." Every parent, pastor and teacher should be able to say something like this, not because we are perfect, but because we follow Jesus.
4:17 I sent Timothy to you Timothy had helped plant the church in Corinth (Acts 18:5), and Paul calls him his child, as a father raises a son. Paul taught the same gospel and way of life "in every church." Timothy may have arrived after this letter did (16:10).
4:18 as though I were not coming to you With Paul away and Timothy sent instead, some said he would never show up, and they made themselves big. When the teacher leaves the room, some students take over. God sees.
4:19 if the Lord wills Paul put his plans under the Lord's will (James 4:13-15), and they did change later (2 Cor 1:15-2:1). When he came he would test whether the proud talkers had any real spiritual power behind their words.
4:20 the kingdom of God is not in word but in power The kingdom of God is His rule. It shows itself in God's power changing lives, not in clever speech. Words matter, but empty talk without God's power is not the kingdom. The real proof is power that turns proud people into humble servants.
4:21 with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness? The rod was used by a father or guardian to discipline a child. Paul would deal firmly with the problems if he had to, but would rather come gently. The choice was theirs, and it leads straight into the sin of chapter 5.
5:1 someone has the wife of his father Porneia is a broad word for any sexual sin outside marriage between a man and a woman. This was most likely the man's stepmother, and "has" suggests an ongoing relationship. The Law forbade it (Lev 18:8; Deut 22:30), and Roman law did too. Paul does not mention disciplining the woman, which suggests she was not a believer.
5:2 And you are puffed up, and did not rather mourn The shocking part. The church knew, and instead of grieving they were proud, perhaps of how open-minded they were. Sin among God's people should break our hearts like a death, and grief should lead to action.
5:3 have already judged This is not the judging of hidden motives forbidden in 4:5. It was open sin, known to everyone, with no repentance. The church does not judge hearts, but it is responsible to deal with open, ongoing sin among its members, as Jesus taught (Matt 18:15-17).
5:4 when you and my spirit are gathered together Not one man's private decision but the whole church acting together, by Christ's authority and with Christ present (Matt 18:20). Discipline is never a pastor settling a grudge. It must be done prayerfully and carefully, never in anger or in a hurry.
5:5 to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh Most likely putting the man out of the church's fellowship, back into the world, Satan's domain (1 John 5:19; 1 Tim 1:20). "The destruction of the flesh" is read two ways: the breaking of his sinful nature as he hits bottom, or physical suffering, even death, as God's discipline (11:30). The goal is plain: "so that the spirit may be saved." Discipline aims to rescue, not to get rid of someone.
5:6 a little leaven leavens the whole lump Leaven was usually a piece of old fermented dough kept from an earlier batch. In Scripture it often pictures sin or false teaching spreading (Matt 16:6; Gal 5:9). Sin tolerated in a church does not stay small. It tells everyone else that sin doesn't matter.
5:7 our Passover was sacrificed for us: Christ Before Passover a Jewish family removed every bit of leaven from the house (Exod 12:15-20). "Just as you are unleavened": in Christ believers are already clean and new, so become what you are. The lamb's blood on the doorposts kept judgment from the house (Exod 12:13). Jesus is our Passover Lamb, who died at Passover time (John 1:29; 1 Pet 1:19).
5:8 the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth The Christian life is like an unending Feast of Unleavened Bread. Malice is ill will, wickedness is evil in action, and both belong to the old life. Sincerity was used of something held up to the sunlight and found clean.
5:9 I wrote to you in the letter An earlier letter to Corinth that we do not have. The Corinthians had misunderstood or twisted it. Not every letter an apostle wrote was meant to become Scripture. God kept the ones He wanted us to have.

immoral persons; 10 and not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the covetous, or swindlers, or idolaters, since then you ought to go out of the world. 11 But now I wrote to you not to associate with him, if anyone named a brother is sexually immoral, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler; with such a one not even to eat. 12 For what is it to me to judge those outside also? Do you not judge those inside? 13 But those outside God will judge. And you will remove the evil man from among yourselves.

Lawsuits Among Believers

1 Does anyone of you, having a matter against the other, dare to go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints? 2 Do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy of the smallest cases? 3 Do you not know that we will judge angels? How much more then the things of this life? 4 So if you indeed have cases concerning things of this life, those who are despised in the church, these do you seat as judges? 5 I say this to your shame. Thus is there not a wise man among you, not even one, who will be able to decide between his brother and brother? 6 But brother goes to law with brother, and this before unbelievers! 7 Already indeed then it is altogether a defeat in you, that you have lawsuits with one another. Why do you not rather suffer wrong? Why are you not rather defrauded? 8 But you yourselves do wrong and defraud, and these things to brothers!

Such Were Some of You

9 Or do you not know that unrighteous ones will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: neither sexually immoral persons, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate men, nor men who lie with males, 10 nor thieves, nor greedy persons, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. 11 And such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus (Iesous) and by the Spirit of our God.

5:10 1 Cor 10:27; 1 Cor 1:20; John 8:23
5:11 2 Thess 3:6,14; Matt 18:17; Rom 16:17

6:2 Dan 7:22; Matt 19:28; Luke 22:30
6:3 Luke 8:14; Matt 25:41; Jude 1:6
6:4 1 Cor 5:12; Acts 6:2-4

6:9 Lev 18:22; Gen 19:5; 1 Tim 1:9
6:10 1 Cor 5:11; Ps 50:17,18; Isa 1:23
6:11 1 Cor 1:2,30; Acts 22:16; Eph 5:26

5:10 since then you ought to go out of the world Paul never meant avoiding all unbelievers who sin. Believers must work, shop and live beside the greedy, the cheats and idol worshipers, and we are sent to them with the gospel (Matt 28:19-20). Jesus ate with sinners (Luke 15:1-2). We cannot reach people we refuse to be near.
5:11 if anyone named a brother The danger is the one who calls himself a believer and goes on in open, unrepentant sin. Greed and abusive words stand beside sexual sin on the list. Eating together meant acceptance, and some think the Lord's Supper is in view too. This is a loving refusal to pretend, meant to lead to forgiveness when he repents (2 Cor 2:6-8; 2 Thess 3:14-15).
5:12 Do you not judge those inside? Many churches get this backward, quick to condemn the world and slow to deal with sin among themselves. Be patient and loving with the lost. Hold those who claim Christ's name to His standard (1 Pet 4:17).
5:13 you will remove the evil man from among yourselves A phrase repeated in Deuteronomy (Deut 17:7; 22:21-24). God will judge the world. Discipline must be humble and loving, after private steps (Matt 18:15-17; Gal 6:1), never a tool to control people or silence concerns, and never a substitute for reporting abuse to the authorities. Many believe this man is the one Paul later asked the church to forgive (2 Cor 2:5-11). If so, the discipline worked.
6:1 dare to go to law before the unrighteous "Dare" shows Paul's shock. Greeks loved lawsuits, almost as a public sport, and Roman courts often favored people with money and status. "The unrighteous" does not mean every judge was corrupt but that they were not believers. God's family was airing its private quarrels before the unbelieving world.
6:2 the saints will judge the world Believers will share in Christ's rule when He comes (Dan 7:22, 27; Matt 19:28; Rev 20:4-6). If God will trust them with that, surely they can settle a small dispute between two church members.
6:3 we will judge angels Most likely the fallen angels who rebelled with Satan (2 Pet 2:4; Jude 6). Scripture does not say exactly what this will look like, and we should not go beyond it. When we keep eternity in view, our quarrels shrink to their real size.
6:4 those who are despised in the church, these do you seat as judges? Read two ways. As a question: are you setting unbelieving judges, whom the church has no reason to respect, over believers? Or as an ironic command: even the least in the church could handle these cases. Either way, taking them to unbelievers made no sense.
6:5 Thus is there not a wise man among you For all their boasting about wisdom, could they not find one person to settle a dispute? The church needs practical, godly wisdom that helps two believers make peace, and mature believers who can sit down with both sides.
6:6 brother goes to law with brother, and this before unbelievers The church preached love and forgiveness, then its members fought in public court over money. Jesus said the world would know His disciples by their love (John 13:35). When believers fight in public, the name of Christ is shamed.
6:7 Why do you not rather suffer wrong? Whoever won in court, the church had already lost. Hard teaching: better to be wronged, even cheated, than to take a brother to court (Matt 5:39-40). Sometimes the most Christlike thing is to let it go and trust God to make it right.
6:8 But you yourselves do wrong and defraud Some were doing the cheating, and to their own brothers. Paul speaks of civil disputes such as money, property and business, not crimes. God has given governments the job of punishing evil (Rom 13:1-4). Abuse, assault or theft should be reported to the authorities, and this passage must never be used to silence victims.
6:9 unrighteous ones will not inherit the kingdom of God "Do not be deceived": some in Corinth said what you do with your body doesn't matter. "Effeminate men" and "men who lie with males" translate malakoi and arsenokoitai. The second is formed from the words the Greek Old Testament uses in Leviticus 18:22 and 20:13. Together they name sexual relations between men as sin.
6:10 nor thieves, nor greedy persons, nor drunkards Greed, drunkenness and a cruel tongue sit on the same list, so no one can read it and feel superior. Paul is not saying a believer who once fell is lost. He describes lives marked by these sins without repentance, which show a person does not belong to Christ (1 John 3:9-10).
6:11 And such were some of you Perhaps the most hopeful words in the chapter: who they were, not who they are now. Washed (Titus 3:5), set apart, and justified, which is God's legal verdict that a believing sinner is right with Him. Father, Son and Spirit were all at work. No sin is beyond God's grace. Temptation is not the same as sin, and a believer fighting old desires should be loved, helped and pointed to Christ, not shamed.

Glorify God in Your Body

12 All things are lawful for me, but not all things are profitable; all things are lawful for me, but I will not be mastered by anything. 13 Foods are for the belly, and the belly for foods; but God will bring to nothing both it and them. And the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. 14 And God both raised up the Lord and will raise us up through His power. 15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Then having taken the members of the Christ, shall I make them members of a prostitute? May it not be! 16 Or do you not know that the one who is joined to the prostitute is one body with her? For "the two," He says, "will become one flesh." 17 But the one who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him. 18 Flee sexual immorality. Every sin that a man may do is outside the body, but the one who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. 19 Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and you are not your own? 20 For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

Marriage

1 Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me: it is good for a man not to touch a woman. 2 But because of sexual immoralities, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband. 3 Let the husband render to the wife the goodwill due her, and likewise also the wife to the husband. 4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does; and likewise also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. 5 Do not deprive one another, except perhaps by mutual agreement for a time, that you may devote yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control. 6 But I say this by way of concession, not by way of command. 7 For I wish all men to be even as I myself am. But each has his own gift from God, one in this way, and

6:12 All things are lawful for me Most likely a Corinthian slogan, perhaps twisting Paul's own teaching on freedom from the Law. Paul gives two limits: is it profitable, and is it taking control of me? Many things start as a choice and become a chain: drink, drugs, pornography, gambling, even food or a phone.
6:13 the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord "Foods are for the belly" was likely another slogan: the body will pass away, so feed every appetite. Paul says our bodies belong to the Lord, and "the Lord for the body." He cares for them, gave His own body for them, and will raise them.
6:14 will raise us up through His power Why the body matters. It will not stay dead. The resurrection is not only souls going to heaven but bodies raised and made new (Phil 3:21), the subject of chapter 15. So what we do with our bodies now matters to Him.
6:15 shall I make them members of a prostitute? May it not be! Believers' bodies are Christ's members, the parts He uses for His work. Prostitution was common in Corinth, as in most port cities. Joining a body that belongs to Christ to a prostitute is like dragging Christ into that sin. "May it not be" is Paul's strongest no.
6:16 will become one flesh Sex is never only physical. It joins two people whether they intend it or not. Paul says "He says" of Genesis 2:24, for God is the One speaking there. God designed sex for the lifelong union of husband and wife.
6:17 the one who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him A union deeper even than marriage. The Spirit unites us to Christ, so sexual sin brings a body that is one with Him into a shameful union. We cannot be joined to the Lord and to sin at the same time without great harm.
6:18 Flee sexual immorality Don't reason with it. Run, as Joseph left his coat in her hand (Gen 39:12). That may mean not going certain places, not being alone with certain people, or putting filters on a phone or computer. Sexual sin uses the body itself to break the union it was made for, and often leaves deep scars.
6:19 your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit In 3:16 the church was God's temple. Here it is each believer's body, for the Spirit lives in every believer (Rom 8:9). Our culture says your body belongs to you alone. Scripture says it belongs to God, and that covers purity and how we care for and use our bodies.
6:20 you were bought with a price Corinth saw slaves bought and sold every day. Jesus paid for our freedom with His own blood (1 Pet 1:18-19). The words "and in your spirit, which are God's" are in the Received Greek Text the SLB follows but not in most older Greek copies. Either way, the whole person belongs to God.
7:1 it is good for a man not to touch a woman "Now concerning" marks topics from the Corinthians' letter (7:25; 8:1; 12:1; 16:1). To touch a woman was a polite way of speaking of sexual relations. Many believe this line is a Corinthian saying Paul quotes and answers; others read it as Paul's own words that singleness is good. Some in Corinth said even married couples should give up sex. Paul will not let anyone call marriage second-class.
7:2 let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband One man and one woman, each belonging to the other, God's plan from creation (Gen 2:24). Paul is answering one question here. Marriage is far more than a guard against sin (Eph 5:22-33), but it is not less.
7:3 the goodwill due her The marriage relationship, including sexual relations, owed by each spouse to the other. In a world where men often had rights and women only duties, Paul gives both the same duties and rights. In Christ marriage is a partnership of mutual giving.
7:4 The wife does not have authority over her own body In marriage we have given ourselves to each other, and it works both ways. This is mutual self-giving, never a right to force or demand. Love "does not seek its own" (13:5). Any use of this verse to excuse abuse twists it into the opposite of what Paul meant.
7:5 Do not deprive one another One exception with three conditions: by mutual agreement, for a time, and for prayer. Then come together again. Paul is realistic. Satan looks for weak spots, and a cold marriage is one of them.
7:6 by way of concession, not by way of command Most likely the time apart in verse 5. Some take it as the instruction to marry in verse 2. Either way, Paul will not make rules where God has given freedom, and neither should we.
7:7 each has his own gift from God Paul was single as he wrote, never married or widowed. Scripture doesn't say which. Singleness is a gift, and so is marriage (Matt 19:11-12). A single believer's life is not on hold, and a married one has not settled for less.

another in that way. 8 But I say to the unmarried and to the widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am. 9 But if they do not have self-control, let them marry; for it is better to marry than to burn.

Divorce and Separation

10 And to those who have married I give charge, not I, but the Lord: a wife is not to be separated from her husband 11 (but if she is indeed separated, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband), and a husband is not to send away his wife. 12 But to the rest I say, not the Lord: if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she consents to dwell with him, let him not send her away. 13 And a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he consents to dwell with her, let her not send him away. 14 For the unbelieving husband has been sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife has been sanctified in the husband; otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy. 15 But if the unbe-liever separates himself, let him separate himself; the brother or the sister has not been enslaved in such cases; but God has called us in peace. 16 For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

Remain in Your Calling

17 Only, as God has assigned to each, as the Lord has called each, so let him walk. And so I prescribe in all the churches.
18 Was anyone called having been circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Was anyone called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised. 19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but what matters is keeping the commandments of God. 20 Let each remain in this, in the calling in which he was called. 21 Were you called as a slave?
Let it not concern you; but if you are indeed able to become free, rather make use of it. 22 For the one who was called in the Lord as a slave is a freedman of the Lord; likewise also the one who was called as free is a slave of Christ. 23 You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men.
24 Brothers, let each remain with God in that in which he was called.

7:8 it is good for them if they remain even as I am Good, not commanded and not better in every case. Paul affirms both singleness and marriage. A single believer is not a half-person. Jesus was never married, and He was the most complete man who ever lived.
7:9 it is better to marry than to burn To burn with desire. If someone struggles deeply with desire, marriage is God's good answer, and there is no shame in it. God made us with these desires and made marriage the right place for them.
7:10 not I, but the Lord Paul passes on what Jesus taught on earth (Matt 19:3-9; Mark 10:2-12). The word for separated was used of divorce in the Greek world, where either spouse could simply walk away. God's plan is marriage for life (Matt 19:6).
7:11 let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband If believers separate, two choices: stay unmarried or be reconciled, and keep that door open. This does not tell anyone to stay where they or their children are in danger. If you are being abused, getting to safety is not a sin. Reach out to your pastor, trusted believers and the authorities.
7:12 But to the rest I say, not the Lord Not less inspired, but a case Jesus did not address on earth: a spouse who came to faith while the other did not. Paul gives the answer as an apostle guided by the Spirit (7:40; 14:37). If the unbelieving spouse is willing to stay, the believer must not leave.
7:13 let her not send him away A Roman wife was expected to follow her husband's religion, so a Christian wife of a pagan was in a hard spot. Paul tells her to stay if he is willing (1 Pet 3:1-2). This is for people already married, not permission to marry an unbeliever (7:39).
7:14 the unbelieving husband has been sanctified in the wife Not saved, since verse 16 says he may yet be saved, but set apart in a special way, living in a home where God is at work and the gospel is lived daily. The children too are set apart under God's care, though each must come to faith for himself.
7:15 the brother or the sister has not been enslaved in such cases If an unbelieving spouse leaves, let him go. Teachers read the words not enslaved two ways. Many say the believer is free from the bond and may remarry (compare 7:39; Matt 19:9). Others say he is not bound to fight to keep the marriage but is still not free to remarry (7:11). Both agree the deserted believer is not to blame. If you have been left, God has not left you. Seek a godly pastor's counsel.
7:16 how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Read as hope (stay, you may win your spouse) or as release (you cannot be sure holding on will save him). Either way, only God saves. Never stop praying. Many unbelieving spouses have come to Christ through the quiet faith of a husband or wife.
7:17 as the Lord has called each, so let him walk God calls you where you are. Some changes are needed, like leaving sin behind, but marriage, job and background are usually not things you must throw away to follow Christ. Paul taught this "in all the churches."
7:18 Let him not become uncircumcised Some Jewish men tried to undo circumcision by surgery to avoid mockery at the baths and games. A Gentile believer did not need to become a Jew either, an error Paul fought hard (Gal 5:2-6; Acts 15:1-11).
7:19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing Startling words from a Jew, since circumcision was the covenant sign given to Abraham (Gen 17:10-11). In Christ it does not make anyone right with God. What God wants is a heart that loves and obeys Him, "faith working through love" (Gal 5:6), not an outward mark.
7:20 in the calling in which he was called The life situation a person was in when God called him to salvation. Said three times (7:17, 20, 24). You may change jobs or marry, but you need not change your outward situation to be a good Christian. A believing plumber does not have to become a pastor to serve God.
7:21 Were you called as a slave? Let it not concern you Roman slavery was common and not based on race; people became slaves through war, debt, birth or crime, and many were freed in time. Most read the rest as take your freedom if you can; some read it as make good use of your present state. Paul is not calling slavery good. A slave's standing before God is not lower than anyone's.
7:22 is a freedman of the Lord A freedman was a former slave set free. In Christ the slave is free from sin and death, and the free man is Christ's slave. Both stand equal before God (Gal 3:28). These verses were misused to keep people in chains, but Paul names "enslavers" among the lawless (1 Tim 1:10). Today they speak to our work: boss or newest employee, we serve Christ.
7:23 do not become slaves of men Christ bought every believer (6:20). Some in that day sold themselves into slavery to escape debt. More widely, don't become a slave to people's opinions or to anyone who would take Christ's place. You belong to Him.
7:24 let each remain with God The third time, now with the key words "with God." Married or single, rich or poor, God is with you there. Contentment does not come from changing our circumstances but from knowing God is with us in them.

The Unmarried and Widows

25 Now concerning the virgins, I do not have a command of the Lord; but I give judgment as one who has received mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. 26 I think then that this is good because of the present necessity, that it is good for a man to be thus. 27 Have you been bound to a wife? Do not seek release. Have you been released from a wife? Do not seek a wife. 28 But if you do marry, you have not sinned; and if the virgin marries, she has not sinned. But such will have tribulation in the flesh, and I am sparing you. 29 But this I say, brothers: the time has been shortened, so that from now on even those who have wives may be as though not having them, 30 and those who weep as though not weeping, and those who rejoice as though not rejoicing, and those who buy as though not possessing, 31 and those who use this world as though not using it to the full; for the form of this world is passing away. 32 But I want you to be without anxiety. The unmarried man is anxious for the things of the Lord, how he will please the Lord; 33 but the one who has married is anxious for the things of the world, how he will please his wife. 34 The wife and the virgin have been divided. The unmarried woman is anxious for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit; but the one who has married is anxious for the things of the world, how she will please her husband. 35 And this I say for your own benefit, not that I may cast a noose on you, but for what is seemly and devoted to the Lord without distraction. 36 But if anyone thinks he is behaving improperly toward his virgin, if she is past her prime, and so it ought to be, let him do what he wishes; he does not sin; let them marry. 37 But he who stands firm in his heart, not having necessity, but has authority over his own will, and has judged this in his heart, to keep his own virgin, does well. 38 So then also the one who gives her in marriage does well, but the one who does not give her in marriage does better. 39 A wife has been bound by law for as long a time as her husband lives; but if her husband falls asleep, she is free to be married to whom she wishes, only in the Lord. 40 But she is more blessed if she remains thus, according to my judgment; and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

7:25 Now concerning the virgins Young people never married, especially young women engaged or of age to marry. Jesus gave no direct teaching on this, so Paul gives his judgment as one made trustworthy by the Lord's mercy. The Spirit included it in Scripture, but Paul is careful to call it advice.
7:26 because of the present necessity The word means distress. Perhaps a particular crisis in Corinth such as famine or persecution, or the general distress of this fallen age as believers wait for the Lord. It was a hard time to start a family. This is advice for that situation, not a rule that all should stay single.
7:28 But if you do marry, you have not sinned Paul shuts down any teaching that marriage is sin, and later warns of false teachers who forbid it (1 Tim 4:1-3). Married life brings its own troubles, more to care for and more to lose in hard times. Paul wants to spare them extra pain.
7:29 the time has been shortened The word was used of a sail being taken in. The early church lived expecting Jesus at any moment, and so should we (Titus 2:13). Husbands are not to ignore their wives (7:3-5), but marriage belongs to this age (Matt 22:30) and must not become the most important thing in life.
7:31 the form of this world is passing away The word for form was used of the scenery in a play. Our sorrows and joys are real but not the end, and we may own and use things but should hold them loosely. Am I living for what is passing, or for what will last?
7:32 The unmarried man is anxious for the things of the Lord Anxious here means caring, in a good sense. A single person can go where God sends and give time freely, as Paul did, traveling the world for the gospel with no family to worry about.
7:34 The wife and the virgin have been divided A married person rightly cares for a spouse (Eph 5:25), so attention is divided. Paul is not saying married people are less spiritual. Pleasing your spouse is part of serving God. Marriage simply brings more responsibilities.
7:35 not that I may cast a noose on you A noose caught animals or tied someone up. Paul is not trapping anyone with rules. The goal is devotion to the Lord "without distraction," for some single and for others married. What distracts you from devotion to the Lord?
7:36 let him do what he wishes; he does not sin; let them marry Verses 36-38 are hard. One view: a father and his unmarried daughter, since fathers arranged marriages ("gives her in marriage," 7:38). The other: an engaged man and his betrothed ("let them marry"). Either way, marriage is not sin.
7:37 he who stands firm in his heart The decision to keep his virgin unmarried must be firm, freely made and under control. Paul wants no one pressured into singleness, and no one pressured into marriage.
7:38 does better Both choices are good. "Better" means better suited to the present distress and undistracted service, not more holy, for marriage is a gift (7:7, 28, 36). The right choice is the one God leads you to.
7:39 only in the Lord Marriage is for life. Death is called sleep for the believer because it is not the end (1 Thess 4:13-14), and a widow is free to remarry, but only a believer (2 Cor 6:14). Marrying someone who does not share your faith invites division at the deepest level of your life.
7:40 I think that I also have the Spirit of God Not doubt, but a gentle jab at those who claimed to be spiritual and questioned Paul. Elsewhere he advises younger widows to remarry (1 Tim 5:14). This counsel is given by an apostle with the Spirit and is God's Word to us.
8:1 Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up Idol sacrifices were mostly meat offered to a pagan god: part burned, part to the priests, part eaten at temple meals or sold in the market. In Corinth it was hard to buy meat or go to a dinner party without facing the question. "We all have knowledge" was probably a Corinthian saying. Paul is not against knowledge, only knowledge without love.
8:2 he has not yet known anything as it is necessary to know The person who thinks he has it all figured out shows he doesn't. Real knowledge of God makes a person humble. Knowing the Bible well while being harsh with everyone has missed the point.
8:3 this one has been known by Him What matters most is not what we know about God but that He knows us, loving us and owning us as His (Gal 4:9; 2 Tim 2:19). The Christian life begins with God's love for us, and love for Him shows itself in love for others (1 John 4:20-21).

anyone loves God, this one has been known by Him.
4 Therefore concerning the eating of the idol sacrifices, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God except one. 5 For even if indeed there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on the earth, as there are many gods and many lords, 6 yet to us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we for Him; and one Lord, Jesus (Iesous) Christ, through whom are all things, and we through Him. 7 But this knowledge is not in all men; and some, with conscience of the idol until now, eat food as an idol sacrifice, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8 But food does not commend us to God; for neither if we eat do we have more, nor if we do not eat do we lack. 9 But watch, lest somehow this right of yours become a stumbling block to those who are weak. 10 For if anyone sees you, the one having knowledge, reclining in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, since he is weak, be built up to eat the idol sacrifices? 11 And the brother who is weak will perish by your knowledge, for whom Christ died. 12 And thus sinning against the brothers and striking their conscience while it is weak, you sin against Christ. 13 Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat to the age, so that I may not cause my brother to stumble.

Paul's Rights as an Apostle

1 Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus (Iesous) Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? 2 If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least to you I am; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. 3 My defense to those who examine me is this: 4 Do we not have a right to eat and to drink? 5 Do we not have a right to take along a sister as a wife, as also the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas (Kephas)? 6 Or is it only I and Barnabas who do not have a right to not work? 7 Who at any time serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not eat of the milk of the flock? 8 Do I speak these things according to man? Or does not the law also say these

9:8 1 Cor 7:40; Rom 6:19; 1 Thess 2:13

8:4 an idol is nothing in the world Paul agrees with the strong believers' facts. An idol is wood, stone or metal shaped by hands (Isa 44:9-20; Ps 115:4-8), and there is one God (Deut 6:4). Food offered to an idol is still just food.
8:5 so-called gods Corinth worshiped gods of sky, sea, love, war and harvest, and emperors were called lords and gods. They are not true gods, but people serve them, and in 10:20 Paul adds that demons stand behind idols. The idol is nothing, but idol worship is not harmless.
8:6 one God, the Father, from whom are all things One of the great statements of the faith. Paul takes Israel's confession that God is one and includes Jesus in it. The Father is the source; Jesus is the "one Lord" through whom all things were made (John 1:3; Col 1:16). "Lord" was the word the Greek Old Testament used for God's holy name. Jesus is not a second god. He shares fully in the one God's identity and work.
8:7 their conscience, being weak, is defiled Some had worshiped idols for years, and eating that food still felt like idol worship. The conscience is our God-given sense of right and wrong. A weak conscience is not a sinful one but one not yet fully taught. Going against it harms a person even when the thing itself is not wrong (Rom 14:23).
8:8 food does not commend us to God This cuts both ways. The strong are not more spiritual for eating, nor the weak for refusing. What defiles is what comes out of the heart (Mark 7:18-23). Since food doesn't matter to God, the strong should be willing to give it up for a brother.
8:9 lest somehow this right of yours become a stumbling block A right is not a duty to use it. A stumbling block trips a person into sin. Love asks not only whether I am free to do something, but how it will affect my brother.
8:10 reclining in an idol's temple Temples had dining rooms for banquets, weddings and birthday parties. "Built up" is irony: the strong said their knowledge would build up the weak, and it would, but in the wrong direction. In 10:14-22 Paul goes further and calls meals tied to idol worship wrong in themselves.
8:11 the brother who is weak will perish by your knowledge, for whom Christ died Perish here means ruined or destroyed. Paul is no longer weighing a menu but a soul. Teachers differ on how far the word goes, whether ruin of his faith and walk or a fall back into idolatry. If Christ loved him enough to die for him, can't we give up a meal?
8:12 you sin against Christ Striking is wounding. Christ is so joined to His people that what we do to them we do to Him, as He told Saul, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?" (Acts 9:4).
8:13 I will never eat meat to the age To the age means forever. Paul cared more for his brother than his rights, as chapter 9 shows. This does not let weaker believers control everyone by their opinions. Paul speaks of leading someone into sin, not annoying him. But love sets limits on our freedom.
9:1 Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Four questions that each expect yes. An apostle had to be a witness of the risen Lord (Acts 1:21-22), and Paul saw Him on the Damascus road (Acts 9:3-6; 15:8). The church in Corinth itself was proof of his calling (Acts 18:1-11).
9:2 you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord A seal pressed into wax showed a document was real and who owned it. The changed lives in Corinth were God's stamp on Paul's ministry. The best proof of a ministry is not a title or a diploma but the fruit God brings through it.
9:3 My defense to those who examine me The word is apologia, a legal answer in court, from which we get apologetics. Some were putting Paul on trial in their minds. His defense becomes his lesson: what giving up rights for others looks like.
9:4 Do we not have a right to eat and to drink? The same word for right as in 8:9. The strong talked about their rights, so Paul tells them about his: to have food and drink supplied by the church he served.
9:5 the brothers of the Lord and Cephas Peter had a wife (Matt 8:14-15). The Lord's brothers were James, Joses, Simon and Judas (Matt 13:55), the later sons of Mary and Joseph, who did not believe at first (John 7:5) but came to faith after the resurrection. Their wives traveled with them in ministry. Paul had the same right but did not use it (7:7-8).
9:6 only I and Barnabas Barnabas was Paul's partner on his first journey (Acts 13-14). Both paid their own way. In Corinth Paul made tents with Aquila and Priscilla (Acts 18:3). They had the same right as everyone else and chose not to use it.
9:7 Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Soldier, farmer, shepherd: no army makes soldiers buy their own food. Each is a picture of ministry. The church is God's field (3:9) and His flock (Acts 20:28), and the one who serves them has a right to live from that work.

things? 9 For in the law of Moses it has been written, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it threshes." Is it for the oxen that God cares? 10 Or does He say it entirely because of us? For it was written because of us, that the one who plows ought to plow in hope, and the one who threshes in hope ought to partake of his hope. 11 If we sowed spiritual things among you, is it a great thing if we will reap your fleshly things? 12 If others partake of this right over you, do we not more? But we did not use this right, but we bear all things, so that we may not give any hindrance to the gospel of the Christ. 13 Do you not know that those who work at the holy things eat of the temple, and those who attend at the altar share with the altar? 14 So also the Lord prescribed for those who proclaim the gospel to live from the gospel.

All Things to All Men

15 But I have used none of these things; and I have not written these things that it may be done thus to me; for it is better for me to die than that anyone should make my boasting empty. 16 For if I preach the gospel, there is no boasting for me; for necessity is laid on me; and woe is me if I do not preach the gospel! 17 For if I do this willingly, I have a reward; but if unwillingly, I have been entrusted with a stewardship. 18 What then is my reward? That, preaching the gospel, I may offer the gospel of the Christ without charge, so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel. 19 For being free from all men, I made myself a slave to all, so that I may gain the more. 20 And to the Jews I became as a Jew, so that I may gain Jews; to those under law as under law, so that I may gain those under law; 21 to those without law as without law (not being without law to God, but within law to Christ), so that I may gain those without law. 22 To the weak I became as weak, so that I may gain the weak. I have become all things to all men, so that by all means I may save some. 23 And this I do because of the gospel, so that I may become a fellow partaker of it.

Run to Win

24 Do you not know that those who run in a stadium all run, but one receives the prize? So run, that you may obtain it. 25 And everyone who competes exercises self-control in all things. They then do it that they may receive a perishable crown, but we an imperishable. 26 Therefore I run thus, not

9:9 You shall not muzzle an ox while it threshes From Deuteronomy 25:4. An ox walked in circles over the grain on the threshing floor, often pulling a heavy sled, and God said let it eat as it works. Paul is not saying God does not care for animals (Matt 10:29). The command teaches a wider principle about every worker.
9:10 the one who plows ought to plow in hope If God cares that an ox is fed while it works, how much more the people who labor in His kingdom. The Old Testament still teaches us today (10:11; Rom 15:4).
9:11 is it a great thing if we will reap your fleshly things? Fleshly things here are material things like food and money, not something bad. Which is worth more, eternal life or a meal? The one taught the Word should share good things with his teacher (Gal 6:6).
9:12 so that we may not give any hindrance to the gospel of the Christ The heart of the chapter. Paul had the right and laid it down. The word for hindrance was used of something cutting in to block the way. In a city of traveling teachers who charged for wisdom, no one would say Paul preached for money. It cost him (4:11-12). What rights might God ask you to lay down?
9:13 those who attend at the altar share with the altar Under the Law the priests received part of the sacrifices and the Levites received the tithes (Num 18:8-20; Deut 18:1-5). Providing for those who serve was God's own plan.
9:14 the Lord prescribed for those who proclaim the gospel to live from the gospel Jesus Himself said the worker is worthy of his wages (Luke 10:7; Matt 10:10; 1 Tim 5:18). Common sense, the Law, the temple and the words of Jesus agree. Churches today should care well for those who teach them.
9:15 it is better for me to die than that anyone should make my boasting empty His boasting was the joy of giving the gospel at no cost. Paul did at times accept gifts from other churches such as Philippi (Phil 4:15-16; 2 Cor 11:8-9), but he would not take support from the church he was serving in Corinth.
9:16 woe is me if I do not preach the gospel! Paul did not volunteer. Jesus met him and sent him (Acts 26:16-18). Like Jeremiah's fire shut up in his bones (Jer 20:9), he could not keep quiet. Every believer has a part in making Christ known (Matt 28:19-20). Do we feel any of that weight?
9:17 I have been entrusted with a stewardship A steward was not paid extra for doing his duty. Preaching was Paul's duty. What he could do willingly, above duty, he explains next.
9:18 I may offer the gospel of the Christ without charge Paul's reward was the joy of giving the gospel away. A right is something you may use, not something you must use. Freely we have received, so freely we give (Matt 10:8).
9:19 I made myself a slave to all, so that I may gain the more Paul was under no one's control, yet chose to put everyone's needs ahead of his own. "Gain" comes five times in verses 19-22, a word for winning people to Christ. His freedom was for others, the lesson of chapter 8.
9:20 to the Jews I became as a Jew Among Jews Paul kept Jewish customs to avoid needless offense. He had Timothy circumcised (Acts 16:3) and joined a temple vow (Acts 21:20-26). He never said anyone must keep the Law to be saved (Gal 2:16). He laid aside freedom only where the gospel's truth was not touched.
9:21 to those without law as without law Among Gentiles he ate with them and lived as one of them. Freedom from the Law of Moses never meant lawlessness. Paul lived under Christ's authority and the law of love (Gal 6:2), and grace is never a license to sin (Rom 6:1-2).
9:22 I have become all things to all men, so that by all means I may save some The weak are the tender consciences of chapter 8. This verse is twisted to mean a believer may do anything to fit in. Paul never sinned to reach sinners. He changed customs, diet and comforts, never the message. Only God saves, but He uses people, and some will believe.
9:23 so that I may become a fellow partaker of it Everything Paul gave up was for the gospel. He wanted to share its blessings with those he won. There is a joy in seeing someone come to Christ that cannot be had any other way.
9:24 those who run in a stadium all run, but one receives the prize Corinth hosted the Isthmian Games every two years near the city. Paul is not saying only one believer is saved. He calls us to run with an athlete's effort. Don't just jog along in the Christian life. Run to win.
9:25 a perishable crown, but we an imperishable Athletes trained for months, saying no to many good things. The prize was a wreath of leaves that crumbled within days. Believers run for crowns that never fade (2 Tim 4:8; James 1:12; 1 Pet 5:4). If an athlete disciplines himself for a wreath, how much more should we?
9:26 not as beating the air Paul knew where the finish line was, and his blows landed. Many believers stay busy but never fight the right battle. Is your effort going into things that count for eternity?

Warnings From Israel

1 Now I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, 2 and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, 3 and all ate the same spiritual food, 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink; for they were drinking from a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was the Christ. 5 But with most of them God was not well pleased; for they were laid low in the wilderness. 6 Now these things became examples for us, so that we would not be desirers of evil things, as they also desired. 7 And do not become idolaters, as some of them were; as it has been written, "The people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play." 8 Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed sexual immorality, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell. 9 Nor let us put the Christ to the test, as some of them also tested Him, and were destroyed by the serpents. 10 Nor grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and were destroyed by the destroyer. 11 Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages came. 12 Therefore let the one who thinks he stands watch, lest he fall. 13 No temptation has taken you except what is human; and God is faithful, who will not let you be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will also make the way out, so that you may be able to endure it.

The Lord's Table

9:27 I strike my body and bring it into slavery A boxing word for a blow under the eye, used as a figure. Paul took firm control of his body's desires. "Disqualified" was used of an athlete rejected from the contest. Many believe Paul means losing his reward and usefulness, since the context is prizes. Others believe one who preaches but does not live the gospel shows he was never saved. Either way, we must live what we teach.
10:1 our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea Paul calls Israel "our fathers" even to a mostly Gentile church, for in Christ they joined the same family of faith (Gal 3:7). The cloud led Israel by day (Exod 13:21), and God parted the Red Sea (Exod 14:21-22). "All" comes five times in verses 1-4. Every Israelite received these blessings.
10:2 all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea To baptize is to dip or immerse, with the idea of being joined to someone. Passing under the cloud and through the sea joined Israel to Moses as leader. An outward sign of belonging does not keep a person safe if the heart turns away. Israel had the sign, but many lacked faith (Heb 3:19).
10:4 the rock was the Christ The manna (Exod 16:4) and the water from the rock (Exod 17:6; Num 20:11) were spiritual because they came from God in a supernatural way. The Old Testament calls God the Rock of Israel (Deut 32:4). The One who cared for Israel in the wilderness was Christ, the Son of God, before He came in the flesh. Some later Jewish teachers told of a rock that rolled along behind Israel. Paul points to the Person behind the water.
10:5 they were laid low in the wilderness Of the adults who left Egypt, only Joshua and Caleb entered the land (Num 14:29-30). Laid low pictures bodies scattered across the sand. They all had the same blessings, but most never reached the goal. Israel started well and did not finish (9:24-27).
10:6 these things became examples for us The word is typos, a pattern or model. Paul starts with desire, because sin begins in the heart. Israel craved Egypt's meat and despised the manna, and the place was named graves of craving (Num 11:4-6, 33-34). Wanting what God has not given is where many falls begin.
10:7 The people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play From Exodus 32:6, the golden calf. Israel ate and drank at an idol feast, and it led to judgment. That hit close to home in Corinth, where the question was meals at idol temples. Play points to the revelry that went with idol worship.
10:8 in one day twenty-three thousand fell At Baal-peor Israel joined Moab's sexual sin and idol worship (Num 25:1-9). Numbers gives twenty-four thousand as the total. Many believe Paul gives the deaths "in one day" while Numbers includes the leaders executed (Num 25:4-5); others note both are round numbers. There is no real contradiction.
10:9 Nor let us put the Christ to the test Numbers 21:4-9: the people spoke against God, serpents came, and whoever looked at the bronze serpent lived, a picture Jesus applied to His cross (John 3:14-15). To test God is to see how far we can go before He acts. Most Greek copies, with the Received Text, read "the Christ"; a few read the Lord.
10:10 Nor grumble Perhaps Korah's rebellion and the plague that followed (Num 16:41-49), or the grumbling after the spies' report (Num 14). The destroyer is likely the angel of judgment, as in Egypt (Exod 12:23). Complaining says God is not good to us, and Paul sets it beside idolatry and immorality (Phil 2:14).
10:11 they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages came These events really happened, and God had them written to warn us. We live after the cross, with more light than Israel had, so more reason to obey and less excuse when we don't. The Old Testament was written for us (Rom 15:4).
10:12 let the one who thinks he stands watch, lest he fall Aimed at the strong who thought they could attend idol feasts safely. The person most likely to fall is the one who thinks he can't (Prov 16:18). The safest believer is the humble one who knows his weakness and leans on the Lord.
10:13 God is faithful, who will not let you be tempted beyond what you are able Your temptations are not unique, whatever Satan says. God sets the limits and provides a way out: to run, as Joseph did (Gen 39:12), to pray, to call a believing friend, to turn off the screen or leave the room. The verse does not promise an easy life. It promises we never have to sin, and there is forgiveness when we confess (1 John 1:9).
10:14 flee from idolatry One way out is simply to run, as with sexual sin (6:18). Don't see how close you can get. Paul calls them "my beloved." Idolatry is anything we put in God's place: money, pleasure, success, even people (1 John 5:21).
10:15 judge for yourselves what I say The Corinthians were proud of their wisdom, so Paul asks them to use it. Good teaching invites people to think and to check it against Scripture, as the Bereans did (Acts 17:11).

sensible men; judge for yourselves what I say. 16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of the Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a sharing in the body of the Christ? 17 Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body; for we all partake of the one bread. 18 Look at Israel according to the flesh: are not those who eat the sacrifices sharers in the altar? 19 What then do I say? That an idol is anything, or that an idol sacrifice is anything? 20 But I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God; and I do not want you to become sharers with the demons. 21 You are not able to drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons; you are not able to partake of the table of the Lord and of the table of demons. 22 Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than He?

Do All to the Glory of God

23 All things are lawful for me, but not all things are profitable; all things are lawful for me, but not all things build up. 24 Let no one seek his own good, but each that of the other. 25 Eat everything that is sold in the meat market, asking no questions because of conscience; 26 for "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness." 27 And if any of the unbelievers invites you and you want to go, eat everything that is set before you, asking no questions because of conscience. 28 But if anyone says to you, "This is an idol sacrifice," do not eat, because of that one who informed you, and because of conscience; for "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness." 29 Now I say conscience, not your own, but that of the other; for why is my freedom judged by another's conscience? 30 And if I partake with thanks, why am I slandered for that for which I give thanks? 31 Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all things to the glory of God. 32 Become without offense both to Jews and to Greeks and to the church of God, 33 even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own benefit, but that of the many, that they may be saved.

10:16 is it not a sharing in the blood of the Christ? The cup of blessing was a Passover cup over which thanks was said, given new meaning at the Last Supper (11:25). Sharing is koinonia, fellowship or participation. Scripture plainly shows the Supper as a remembrance Jesus commanded and a proclamation of His death (11:24-26). Catholic and Orthodox, Lutheran, Reformed and memorial views differ on how Christ is present. Paul's point: the meal joins us to the Lord, so we cannot also join ourselves to idols.
10:17 there is one bread, we who are many are one body A single loaf was broken and shared. How can people who share one loaf split into parties (1:10-13)? The Supper pictures the unity chapter 12 will teach.
10:18 are not those who eat the sacrifices sharers in the altar? In many offerings part was burned, part went to the priest and part was eaten by the worshiper (Lev 7:15; Deut 12:17-18). Eating was fellowship with the God of that altar, not a neutral act.
10:20 they sacrifice to demons and not to God The idol is nothing (8:4), but something stands behind it. Demons, fallen angels who serve Satan, use false religion to draw people from the true God, as Moses said (Deut 32:17). Going to an idol feast meant sitting in fellowship with the forces of darkness.
10:21 the table of the Lord and of the table of demons The Lord's Supper and the idol feast cannot go together. You cannot be loyal to Christ and share in worship that belongs to His enemies (Matt 6:24).
10:22 do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? God's jealousy is not petty. It is the right love of a husband who will not share his wife with another (Exod 20:5; Deut 32:21; Isa 42:8). The strong were proud of their strength, but playing with idols tests God's patience, as Israel did.
10:23 not all things build up Paul agrees in part with the slogan (6:12): believers are free from the Law's food rules. Mature believers ask not only what is allowed, but what will help others and build up the church.
10:24 Let no one seek his own good, but each that of the other The rule of love behind chapters 8 to 10. Jesus did not please Himself (Rom 15:3) but came to serve (Mark 10:45). The world says look out for number one. Christ says look out for others (Phil 2:4).
10:25 Eat everything that is sold in the meat market Much market meat came from temple sacrifices. A believer may buy and eat it without asking. Quoting Psalm 24:1, Paul says "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness." In the market it is just food, received with thanks (1 Tim 4:4-5).
10:27 if any of the unbelievers invites you and you want to go Paul assumes believers will have friendships and share meals with unbelievers. Eat what is served without making a scene. Jesus ate with sinners (Luke 15:1-2), and a shared table can open the door to sharing Christ.
10:28 This is an idol sacrifice If someone points it out, whether a troubled weaker believer or an unbeliever watching to see if the Christian will honor the gods, eating would look like approval of idol worship. The Received Text the SLB follows repeats Psalm 24:1 here; many older Greek copies do not.
10:29 not your own, but that of the other The believer's own conscience is clear, but he gives up eating for the other's sake. The questions that follow voice the strong believer's objection. Our liberty is real but not worth damaging someone's faith or our witness (Rom 14:16).
10:31 do all things to the glory of God The principle that settles the question. Eating and drinking are ordinary, and no part of life is too small to honor God. Ask, Can I do this for the glory of God? That one question settles a lot of gray areas.
10:32 both to Jews and to Greeks and to the church of God Three groups: Israel, the Gentiles, and the church of Jew and Gentile together in Christ. This is one reason many teachers keep Israel and the church distinct in God's plan. The church does not replace Israel, and God still has a future for that nation (Rom 11:25-29).
10:33 not seeking my own benefit, but that of the many, that they may be saved Not a people pleaser who changed his message (Gal 1:10), but one who gave up comfort and rights so nothing in his conduct stood between people and the gospel. That is the goal behind chapters 8 to 10.
11:1 Become imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ This belongs with 10:33. Bold words, but with a limit: follow me as I follow Christ. Every believer should be able to say something like this to a newer believer. Who is watching your walk, and where would they end up if they followed you?
11:2 you hold firmly the traditions, even as I delivered them to you The teaching handed down by the apostles (2 Thess 2:15), such as the gospel (15:3) and the Lord's Supper (11:23), not human traditions added to God's Word (Mark 7:8). We have that apostolic teaching written in the New Testament.

20 Therefore, when you come together in the same place, it is not to eat the Lord's supper; 21 for in the eating each one takes his own supper beforehand, and one is hungry, and another is drunk. 22 What! Do you not have houses in which to eat and to drink? Or do you despise the church of God and put to shame those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise you.

11:3 the head of a woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God Most teachers read head as authority and leadership (Eph 1:22; 5:23). Others read it as source, as the head of a river, pointing to verse 8. Many see both. Christ has a head too, yet He is fully God (John 1:1; 10:30). So headship does not mean lesser worth. Man and woman are equal before God (Gal 3:28), and Paul still speaks of an order between them.

11:4 Every man praying or prophesying, having something down over his head, dishonors his head Prophesying is speaking a message from God to the people (14:3). Head may mean his own head or Christ, his spiritual head, and Paul seems to play on both. In that setting a covered head in worship sent a message that did not fit a man's place under Christ.

11:5 every woman praying or prophesying with the head uncovered Paul assumes women prayed and prophesied in the meetings and tells them how: with the head covered. A shaved head on a woman was a sign of deep shame in that culture. For how this fits with 14:34-35, see the notes there.

11:6 let her cover herself Paul reasons from what everyone in Corinth agreed was shameful. If a shorn or shaved head disgraced a woman, they should see that an uncovered head in worship sent a similar message.

11:7 being the image and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man Women are fully made in God's image (Gen 1:27). Paul speaks of glory, who brings honor to whom. A good wife brings honor to her husband (Prov 12:4; 31:23). In worship, God's glory should be on display, not human glory.

11:9 woman because of the man God formed Adam first and then Eve from his side (Gen 2:18, 21-22). "Helper" in Genesis does not mean less important; the same Hebrew word is used of God (Ps 33:20). The order goes back before the fall, which is why many teachers say the principle is not only Corinthian culture.

11:10 the woman ought to have authority on the head, because of the angels One of the hardest verses in the New Testament. Most likely a sign of authority, the covering: either a sign she is under her husband's authority, or a sign of her own authority to pray and prophesy. "Because of the angels" most often means angels watch the church's worship (Eph 3:10; 1 Pet 1:12). Others see angels as examples of glad service. Scripture does not explain more, so hold views humbly.

11:11 neither is woman without man, nor man without woman, in the Lord Paul guards against taking verses 7-10 too far. The first woman came from man, but every man since is born of a woman, and all come from God. Headship is never a license to look down on women or treat them harshly.

11:13 is it fitting for a woman to pray to God uncovered? Fitting means proper in that setting. Many teachers therefore see the covering as a custom of that time and place, while the principle behind it, honoring God's order and not shaming one's head, holds for every age.

11:15 her long hair has been given to her instead of a covering Nature likely means the natural sense people share. Some believe long hair is the covering Paul means, so no other is needed. Others see the hair as a natural picture pointing to a cloth covering in worship. Either way, God built a difference between men and women into creation, and worship should honor it.

11:16 we have no such custom, nor do the churches of God No custom of women praying uncovered, or no custom of arguing over it. The main applications today: a covering is required; the covering was a custom and the lasting principle is God's order and the difference between men and women; long hair is the covering; or headship is mutual partnership. Godly believers hold each view. All agree that worship should glorify God and that men and women are equal in worth and need each other.

11:17 you come together not for the better but for the worse The gathering of God's people is meant to build them up (14:26). It is possible to attend church every week and leave worse than we came if our hearts are wrong toward God and each other.

11:18 I hear that divisions exist among you, and in part I believe it Not the leader parties of chapters 1-4, but rich against poor. Paul is fair; he does not assume every report is true.

11:19 so that those who are approved may become evident among you Divisions are not good, but when they happen they show who is truly faithful. Trouble in a church reveals hearts. The approved are those tested and proven genuine.

11:21 one is hungry, and another is drunk The Lord's Supper was often part of a shared meal, sometimes called a love feast (Jude 12). Many believe the wealthy came early and ate their own food and wine, while poor believers and slaves came after work and found nothing left. That was not the Lord's Supper but their own.

11:22 put to shame those who have nothing Feasting in front of the hungry showed contempt for the church. Christ died for rich and poor alike, and at His table we are equal. A church that makes some feel second-class at the Lord's table has missed the cross (James 2:1-4).

The Lord's Supper

23 For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus (Iesous), in the night in which He was being betrayed, took bread; 24 and having given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body, which is being broken for you; do this in My remembrance."
25 Likewise also He took the cup after having supped, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in My remembrance." 26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until He comes. 27 Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. 28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup. 29 For the one who eats and drinks unworthily eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the body of the Lord. 30 Because of this many among you are weak and sick, and many sleep. 31 For if we were judging ourselves, we would not be judged. 32 But being judged by the Lord, we are disciplined, so that we may not be condemned with the world. 33 So then, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. 34 And if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that you may not come together for judgment. And the rest I will set in order whenever I come.

Spiritual Gifts

1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not want you to be ignorant. 2 You know that you were Gentiles, carried away to the mute idols, however you were led. 3 Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus (Iesous) is accursed," and no one is able to say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. 4 Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; 5 and there are varieties of services, and the same Lord; 6 and there are varieties of workings, but it is the same God who works all things in all. 7 But to each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for 11:23 I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you Paul did not invent this teaching; it came from the Lord, directly or through the other apostles. Jesus gave this meal the night of His betrayal, at the Passover (Matt 26:17-30; Luke 22:7-20). Most scholars date 1 Corinthians before the Gospels, making this the earliest written account of the Supper.

11:24 do this in My remembrance Eucharisteo is to give thanks, so some churches call this meal the Eucharist. "Being broken" is in the Received Text the SLB follows; many older copies simply say "for you." Not a bone of His was broken (John 19:36); the breaking points to His body given up in death. Jesus commanded this meal. We remember a living Savior who died and rose again.
11:25 This cup is the new covenant in My blood A covenant is a binding agreement. Jeremiah promised a new covenant of hearts written on and sins forgiven (Jer 31:31-34). Sinai was sealed with animal blood (Exod 24:8). The new covenant is sealed with Jesus' blood (Heb 9:15). God made it "with the house of Israel" (Jer 31:31). I believe the church shares now in its forgiveness through Jesus' blood, and God will still keep its promises to the nation of Israel when Christ returns (Rom 11:26-27).
11:26 you proclaim the death of the Lord until He comes A sermon without words. The meal looks back to the cross, around at the body sharing one loaf (10:17), and forward to Jesus coming for His church (John 14:3). He will drink it new with us in His Father's kingdom (Matt 26:29).
11:27 whoever eats this bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily Some stay away because they feel unworthy, but none of us is worthy; that is why Jesus died. Unworthily describes the way we take it: in Corinth, like a party, drunk and shaming the poor. Taking it carelessly treats lightly the sacrifice He made.
11:28 let a man examine himself, and so let him eat Examine means to test, as metal was tested to see if it was genuine. Is there unconfessed sin or a grudge? The point is not to stay away but to confess, make things right (Matt 5:23-24), and then come to the table.
11:29 not discerning the body of the Lord Two main readings: recognizing that the bread stands for the Lord's body given on the cross, or recognizing the church as His body (10:17; 12:27). In Corinth both failures were happening, and both readings fit.
11:30 many among you are weak and sick, and many sleep God was disciplining the church, even with death. Sleep is the New Testament's gentle word for believers' death (15:6, 18; 1 Thess 4:13). Not every sickness is discipline for sin (John 9:2-3), but this shows it can be. Ask God if He wants to show you anything, without assuming the worst.
11:31 if we were judging ourselves, we would not be judged God's mercy gives us the chance to deal with our sin ourselves. It is far better to humble ourselves before Him than to wait for Him to humble us (James 4:10).
11:32 so that we may not be condemned with the world When God judges His children, it is discipline, the word for training a child, not condemnation (Heb 12:5-11; Rom 8:1). Even those in Corinth who died under His discipline were believers, asleep in Christ.
11:33 wait for one another A simple fix: wait until everyone arrives, and share. The hungry should eat at home. The church meal is about fellowship with the Lord and each other. Other matters would wait for Paul's visit (4:19; 16:5).
12:1 Now concerning spiritual gifts A new question from their letter. The Greek pneumatikon means things of the Spirit; the SLB supplies "gifts" from the context. The Corinthians were excited about spiritual things, but excitement is not understanding (Rom 10:2).
12:2 carried away to the mute idols Before Christ they were dragged off like prisoners by idols that could not speak. In Corinth's temples worshipers sometimes fell into ecstatic states and spoke strange words. A powerful spiritual experience does not prove it comes from God (10:20). Experiences must be tested.
12:3 no one is able to say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit Anyone can say the words. Paul means a true confession from the heart (Rom 10:9). So every true believer has the Spirit, and there are no second-class Christians. The test for any gift or experience: does it point people to Jesus as Lord? The Spirit glorifies Him (John 16:14).
12:4 varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit "Varieties" three times, "same" three times: variety in what is given, unity in who gives. The Spirit, the Lord Jesus and God the Father work together in the church. The word is charismata, gifts of grace, from which we get charismatic. They are given, not earned.
12:7 to each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good Every believer has at least one gift, and gifts are given to help others, not for our glory. The Corinthians used theirs to show off. A gift is a tool God puts in our hands to build up His church.

the common good. 8 For to one is given through the Spirit a word of wisdom, and to another a word of knowledge according to the same Spirit; 9 and to a different one faith by the same Spirit, and to another gifts of healings by the same Spirit; 10 and to another workings of miracles, and to another prophecy, and to another distinguishing of spirits, and to a different one kinds of tongues, and to another interpretation of tongues. 11 But the one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each individually as He wills.

One Body, Many Members

12 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the one body, being many, are one body, so also is the Christ. 13 For indeed by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free; and we were all made to drink into one Spirit. 14 For indeed the body is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot says, "Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body," it is not for this reason not of the body. 16 And if the ear says, "Because I am not an eye, I am not of the body," it is not for this reason not of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? 18 But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as He willed. 19 And if they all were one member, where would the body be? 20 But now there are indeed many members, but one body. 21 And the eye is not able to say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; or again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." 22 But much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary; 23 and those members of the body which we think to be less honorable, on these we put more abundant honor; and our unpresentable members have more abundant presentability, 24 but our presentable members have no need. But God has blended the body together, having given more abundant honor to the member that lacks, 25 so that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. 26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; if one member is glorified, all the members rejoice with it. 27 Now you are the body of Christ, and mem-

12:8 a word of wisdom, and to another a word of knowledge Likely the ability to apply God's truth wisely to real situations, and the ability to understand and explain it. Some see the word of knowledge as special revelation of facts not otherwise known. Scripture names these gifts without defining them in detail, so we should be humble.
12:9 faith by the same Spirit, and to another gifts of healings Every believer has saving faith, so this is a special confidence that God will do great things in a situation (13:2). The apostles healed as a sign their message was from God (Acts 3:6-8; 5:15-16; 19:11-12). God still heals in answer to prayer (James 5:14-15).
12:10 distinguishing of spirits, and to a different one kinds of tongues Miracles include acts like Elymas struck blind (Acts 13:11). Prophecy builds up, encourages and comforts (14:3). Distinguishing spirits tells whether a message comes from God, the human spirit or a demon (1 John 4:1). Tongues is speaking a language not learned. At Pentecost they were real human languages (Acts 2:4-11). Some believe Corinth's tongues were the same; others that they could include a heavenly or prayer language (13:1; 14:2).
12:11 distributing to each individually as He wills The Spirit is a Person with a will, and He chooses the gifts, so there is no room for envy or pride. Do all the gifts continue today? Cessationists believe the sign gifts confirmed the apostles' message and ended with them (Eph 2:20; Heb 2:3-4). Continuationists believe all continue until "the perfect comes" (13:10). Many stand in between. All agree no gift adds to Scripture, every gift must be tested by it, and love matters most.
12:12 so also is the Christ Not so also is the church, though that is what he means. The church is so joined to Jesus that Paul calls it by His name (Acts 9:4; Col 1:18).
12:13 by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body At the moment a person believes, the Spirit places him into Christ's body. Many take this as true of every believer at salvation, not a second experience. Pentecostal and charismatic teachers agree that every believer is placed in the body but also speak of a later filling or baptism for power (Acts 1:8). The body breaks down walls between Jew and Gentile, slave and free (John 7:37-39).
12:14 the body is not one member, but many A church where everyone has the same gift would be like a body that is all mouth. Our differences are part of God's design. The one who serves differently is not a threat to the body but a gift to it.
12:15 Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body For believers who feel their gift does not matter. Maybe you can't preach or sing. Feeling unimportant does not make you unimportant, and comparing yourself to others only makes you miserable. The body needs you where God put you.
12:17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? A giant eyeball that cannot hear or smell. Those who wanted everyone to speak in tongues were asking for a body that is all tongue.
12:18 God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as He willed The answer to both the proud and the discouraged. God did not make a mistake with your gifts or your church. Instead of wishing for someone else's gift, ask how He wants you to use yours.
12:20 many members, but one body Stress only unity and we try to make everyone the same; stress only variety and we split apart. A healthy church celebrates its differences and guards its unity.
12:21 I have no need of you Now the visible parts look down on the others. The eye cannot pick anything up without the hand. The gifted preacher needs the faithful one who prays, and the leader needs the one who sets up chairs.
12:22 those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary Heart, lungs and liver are hidden, but we cannot live without them. The one who prays daily, visits the sick or teaches children may seem less important than the person on the platform, but the church could not survive without them.
12:24 God has blended the body together We cover and care for the less presentable parts. Blended means mixed like ingredients. God lifts up the humble (Matt 20:16), and we should honor those the world overlooks.
12:25 that the members may have the same care for one another The Corinthians were full of divisions (1:10; 11:18). In a healthy body there are no favorites, rich over poor or gifted over plain.
12:26 if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it Stub your toe and the whole body feels it. Weep with those who weep (Rom 12:15). Rejoicing when another is honored is often harder. Can you celebrate when God blesses someone else?
12:27 Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually True of every local church. You are not just someone who attends but a member of a living thing through which Christ lives His life in the world.

bers individually. 28 And God has set some in the church: first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, administrations, kinds of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles? 30 Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? 31 But earnestly desire the better gifts. And yet I show you a way beyond comparison.

The Way of Love

1 If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have love, I have become sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. 2 And if I have prophecy, and know all the mysteries and all the knowledge, and if I have all the faith so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. 3 And if I give away all my possessions to feed others, and if I deliver up my body that I may be burned, but do not have love, I am profited nothing. 4 Love is patient, is kind; love is not envious; love does not boast, is not puffed up, 5 does not behave improperly, does not seek its own things, is not provoked, does not count the evil, 6 does not rejoice over unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. 8 Love never fails; but whether there are prophecies, they will be done away; whether tongues, they will cease; whether knowledge, it will be done away. 9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part; 10 but when the perfect comes, then that which is in part will be done away. 11 When I was a child, I was speaking as a child, I was thinking as a child, I was reasoning as a child; but when I became a man, I did away with the things of the child. 12 For now we see through a mirror in an enigma, but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I will fully know, even as I also have been fully known. 13 But now faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

12:28 first apostles, second prophets, third teachers The first three lay the foundation and build the church with the Word (Eph 2:20). Helps means aid to those in need. Administrations comes from the word for the one who steers a ship. Tongues, which the Corinthians prized most, comes last, a gentle correction of what matters most.
12:30 Do all speak in tongues? Each question expects the answer no. Not every believer has every gift. Some teach that every believer should speak in tongues as a sign of the Spirit's filling, but these verses show the gift is given to some and not others (12:11). No one should be made to feel less spiritual for lacking a particular gift.
12:31 earnestly desire the better gifts The gifts that do the most good, such as prophecy over tongues (14:1-5). Then Paul shows something greater than any gift, the way of love. Chapter 13 is not a break from the subject of gifts. It is the heart of it.
13:1 sounding brass or a clanging cymbal Paul starts with tongues, the gift Corinth prized most, and imagines every human language and even angels' speech. Without love it is noise. Sounding brass may be a gong, or the bronze vessels some theaters used to carry sound; clanging cymbals were used in pagan worship. Paul says "I," applying it to himself first.
13:2 but do not have love, I am nothing Prophecy, all mysteries, all knowledge, mountain-moving faith (Matt 17:20): imagine being the greatest Bible teacher who ever lived. Without love Paul does not say he has nothing. He says "I am nothing." The strong in Corinth were proud of their knowledge (8:1).
13:3 I am profited nothing Even giving everything to the poor or dying as a martyr can be done for show, pride or stubbornness (Matt 6:1-4). God looks at the heart. Why do you serve: for applause, for duty, or out of love? The Received Text the SLB follows reads "that I may be burned"; some older copies read that I may boast.
13:4 Love is patient, is kind Paul does not define love. He shows what it does; most of these words are verbs. Patient means long-tempered, putting up with people without striking back (2 Pet 3:9). Kindness reaches out to them. Love does not resent others' gifts or brag. "Puffed up," used of the Corinthians again and again (4:6, 18; 5:2; 8:1), is the opposite of love.
13:5 does not seek its own things, is not provoked, does not count the evil Love has good manners, unlike Corinth at the Lord's table (11:21-22). It puts others first (10:24, 33). It has a long fuse. "Count" is a bookkeeping word: love keeps no record of wrongs, as God keeps no list of our forgiven sins (Ps 103:12). Many marriages and friendships would heal if we stopped keeping score.
13:6 does not rejoice over unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth Love takes no pleasure in sin or in gossip about someone's fall (Prov 24:17). Love is not just being nice. Corinth tolerated open sin and called it openness (5:1-2). Love speaks the truth, but in love (Eph 4:15).
13:7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things Bears can mean covers: love does not broadcast others' faults (1 Pet 4:8). Believes all things is not gullible but gives the benefit of the doubt. Put your own name in verses 4-7 and it humbles us. Put Jesus' name there; only He has loved perfectly, and His love grows in us as we walk with Him (Gal 5:22).
13:8 Love never fails It never collapses or comes to an end. God is love (1 John 4:8). The gifts Corinth was proud of are temporary. Teachers disagree on when tongues and prophecy end, in the first century or at Christ's return. Prophecy and knowledge "will be done away," while tongues "will cease"; some see meaning in the difference, and others do not. All agree the gifts are temporary and love is eternal.
13:9 we know in part and we prophesy in part Our knowledge of God is real but partial, like pieces of a puzzle. No one knows everything about God. Hold firmly to what He made plain and be gracious where good believers disagree.
13:10 when the perfect comes Perfect means complete, the end goal. Three main views: Christ's return and the eternal state, when we see Him face to face (13:12), so the gifts continue until then; the completed New Testament, so prophecy and tongues ended with the last book; or the maturity of the church, sometimes linked to the end of the apostolic age. Each has thoughtful supporters.
13:11 when I became a man, I did away with the things of the child Our present state with its partial gifts is like childhood compared to what is coming. There is a gentle rebuke too: the Corinthians were acting like children over who had the best gift (3:1; 14:20). Love is the mark of maturity.
13:12 now we see through a mirror in an enigma, but then face to face Corinth was known for bronze work, and metal mirrors gave a dim image. Enigma is a riddle. We see God truly in His Word but not fully. One day we will see Him as He is (1 John 3:2). Many see "face to face" as pointing to Christ's return. Either way, our best day of knowing God is still ahead.
13:13 but the greatest of these is love Faith trusts God, hope looks to His promises, love gives itself for others. One day faith becomes sight and hope is fulfilled, but love goes on forever. It is God's own nature (1 John 4:16) and the greatest command (Matt 22:37-40). Would people describe you as gifted, or as loving?

Prophecy and Tongues

1 Pursue love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. 2 For the one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men, but to God; for no one hears him, but in the spirit he speaks mysteries. 3 But the one who prophesies speaks to men edification and exhortation and consolation. 4 The one who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but the one who prophesies edifies the church. 5 Now I want you all to speak in tongues, but rather that you may prophesy; for greater is the one who prophesies than the one who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets, so that the church may receive edification. 6 But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what will I profit you, unless I speak to you either in revelation, or in knowledge, or in prophecy, or in teaching? 7 Yet even lifeless things giving a sound, whether flute or harp, if they do not give a distinction in the tones, how will it be known what is piped or what is harped? 8 For indeed, if a trumpet gives an indistinct sound, who will prepare himself for battle? 9 So also you, unless you give speech that is clear through the tongue, how will what is spoken be known? For you will be speaking into the air. 10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of sounds in the world, and none of them is without sound. 11 If then I do not know the power of the sound, I will be a foreigner to the one who speaks, and the one who speaks will be a foreigner to me. 12 So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound for the edification of the church. 13 Therefore let the one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret. 14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful. 15 What then is it? I will pray with the spirit, but I will also pray with the mind; I will sing praise with the spirit, but I will also sing praise with the mind. 16 Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how will the one who fills the place of the uninstructed say the "Amen" at your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you say? 17 For you indeed give thanks well, but the other is not edified. 18 I thank my God, speaking in tongues more than you all; 19 but in the church I want to speak five words through my mind, so that I may instruct others also, rather than ten thousand words in a tongue. 20 Brothers, do not be children in your thinking; but in evil be infants, and in your thinking be mature. 21 In the law it has been written, "By other tongues and by other lips I will speak to this people, and not

14:1 Pursue love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts Ties chapters 12 to 14 together. Pursue means chase. Love is the goal, and love wants the gifts that help others most, especially prophecy, because it builds up the whole church.
14:2 the one who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men, but to God "Hears" means understands. People hear sounds but cannot follow the meaning, so what is said stays hidden. Paul does not call it evil but limited. In a church meeting the goal is to build up others too.
14:3 edification and exhortation and consolation Prophecy speaks to people in words they understand. Edification is building up like a house, exhortation urges people to act, consolation comforts the hurting. A good test for any message spoken in church today.
14:4 edifies himself, but the one who prophesies edifies the church Building yourself up is good, but in the meeting the goal is the whole body. The question is not what I get out of church but how I can help someone else. Love "does not seek its own things" (13:5).
14:5 I want you all to speak in tongues, but rather that you may prophesy Some read it as a real wish, others as a way of speaking like 7:7, since not all would (12:30). Tongues with interpretation can build up the church as prophecy does. The problem is tongues no one understands.
14:6 what will I profit you Paul, the most gifted man in the church, knew only clear words build up hearers: revelation, knowledge, prophecy or teaching. Before you share something in church, ask whether others can understand it and be helped.
14:8 if a trumpet gives an indistinct sound, who will prepare himself for battle? The army trumpet gave signals to attack or retreat. The church is in a spiritual battle (Eph 6:12) and needs clear signals from God's Word. A vague sermon is a trumpet with an uncertain sound.
14:9 you will be speaking into the air Here tongue means the one in your mouth. Words that reach no one accomplish nothing, like a boxer beating the air (9:26).
14:11 I will be a foreigner to the one who speaks Barbaros was the Greeks' word for anyone who did not speak Greek; other languages sounded like bar bar bar to them. Uninterpreted tongues made fellow believers feel like strangers.
14:12 seek that you may abound for the edification of the church Paul does not crush their zeal; he redirects it. The test of maturity is not how many or how dramatic your gifts are, but how much you build up others.
14:13 pray that he may interpret Paul does not shut down tongues but asks that the gift be used to build up the body. A believer can pray for a gift that would serve the church better.
14:14 my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful Some take "my spirit" as his own inner spirit, others as the Spirit's gift working through him. Either way the mind is left out, and God wants to be worshiped with the mind too (Matt 22:37).
14:15 I will pray with the spirit, but I will also pray with the mind Both, not one or the other. Some churches lean toward feeling with little thought, others toward thinking with little warmth. Paul wants both. God wants all of us.
14:16 say the "Amen" at your thanksgiving The uninstructed are likely visitors or believers without the gift. Amen is Hebrew for so be it, said aloud to agree with a prayer. A prayer in church is meant to be shared, one others can agree with and be built up by.
14:18 speaking in tongues more than you all Paul was not against tongues because he lacked the gift. He had it more than any of them and thanked God for it, so his counsel carries great weight.
14:19 five words through my mind Ten thousand was the largest number the Greeks had a single word for. A few words of clear teaching outweigh endless uninterpreted tongues. Clarity serves love.
14:20 in evil be infants, and in your thinking be mature The Corinthians acted like children fascinated by noise and show. Be like children in trust and humility (Matt 18:3), knowing as little of evil as possible, but grown up in understanding.
14:21 By other tongues and by other lips I will speak to this people From Isaiah 28:11-12; "the law" here means the Old Testament as a whole. Israel refused God's prophets, so God warned He would speak through Assyrian invaders whose language they could not understand, a sign of judgment on unbelief.

even so will they listen to Me, says the Lord." 22 So then tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelievers; but prophecy is not to the unbelievers, but to those who believe. 23 Therefore if the whole church comes together in the same place and all speak in tongues, and uninstructed men or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are mad? 24 But if all prophesy, and some unbeliever or uninstructed man comes in, he is convicted by all, he is examined by all; 25 and thus the secrets of his heart become manifest; and thus, having fallen on his face, he will worship God, declaring that God is truly among you.

Order in Worship

26 What then is it, brothers? Whenever you come together, each of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification. 27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret. 28 But if there is no interpreter, let him be silent in the church; and let him speak to himself and to God. 29 And let two or three prophets speak, and let the others discern. 30 But if something is revealed to another who is sitting by, let the first be silent. 31 For you are all able to prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be exhorted. 32 And the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets; 33 for God is not a God of disorder but of peace, as in all the churches of the saints. 34 Let your women be silent in the churches; for it has not been permitted to them to speak, but they are to be subject, as the law also says. 35 And if they want to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is shameful for women to speak in the church. 36 Or did the word of God go out from you? Or did it come to you only? 37 If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things which I write to you are commandments of the Lord. 38 But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant. 39 So, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. 40 Let all things be done properly and in order.

14:40 Col 2:5; Titus 1:5; 1 Cor 14:26-33
15:1 Rom 5:2; Gal 1:6-12; 2 Cor 1:24

14:22 tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelievers In Isaiah the sign was judgment on those who refused to hear. At Pentecost tongues were a sign to unbelieving Jews in Jerusalem (Acts 2:5-12). Verses 22-25 are hard to fit together. Most take Paul to mean uninterpreted tongues confirm unbelievers in unbelief, while prophecy builds up believers and can convict unbelievers too.

14:23 will they not say that you are mad? A visitor hears everyone speaking languages he cannot understand and thinks they have lost their minds. Our worship should help outsiders see Christ, not drive them away.

14:25 declaring that God is truly among you Clear truth convicts the visitor, shows him his sin and exposes his heart (Heb 4:12). He falls down and worships. When God's Word is spoken clearly, the Spirit uses it to draw people to Christ.

14:26 Let all things be done for edification Many took part: a psalm, a teaching, a tongue, a revelation. Worship is not a show by a few while everyone watches. Each member has something to give (12:7), and every part should build up the church.

14:27 by two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret Clear limits, one at a time, with interpretation. Speaking in tongues is under the speaker's control. The Spirit of God does not produce chaos.

14:28 let him be silent in the church; and let him speak to himself and to God With no interpreter, he can pray quietly but not address the church. If using a gift a certain way would not help others, love holds it back.

14:29 let two or three prophets speak, and let the others discern Prophecy was never accepted blindly but tested against the apostles' teaching (1 Thess 5:20-21; 1 John 4:1). Today we test every message by the written Word. No one who claims to speak for God is above being checked by Scripture.

14:31 so that all may learn and all may be exhorted No one should hog the floor. Paul's rules are not meant to stifle the Spirit but to make room for Him to speak through many in an orderly way.

14:32 the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets In Corinth's pagan religions a god was thought to take over a person against his will. The Holy Spirit does not work that way. Self-control is His fruit (Gal 5:23). Anyone who says the Spirit made him do it misunderstands Him.

14:33 God is not a God of disorder but of peace Worship should reflect God's character, seen in the order of creation. The Corinthians were part of a larger family of churches. The Greek allows "as in all the churches of the saints" to end verse 33 or begin verse 34.

14:34 Let your women be silent in the churches Paul plainly tells women to be silent in the meetings and in submission, "as the law also says," likely the order of creation (11:8-9). Yet 11:5 assumes women prayed and prophesied. Main readings: complete silence in the meeting; no part in weighing prophecies (14:29), which would place a woman in authority over the men's teaching; stopping disruptive questions (14:35); or a local Corinthian problem.

14:35 let them ask their own husbands at home Paul assumes women want to learn and encourages it, uncommon in that world. A few scholars, noting some copies place verses 34-35 after verse 40, think they were added later, but they are in every known Greek copy, and we take them as Paul's words. All agree men and women are equal before God (Gal 3:28), women prayed and prophesied (11:5; Acts 21:9), and meetings should be orderly. Study it with 1 Timothy 2:11-15.

14:36 did the word of God go out from you? The gospel came to Corinth from Jerusalem through the apostles. They acted as if they could set their own rules. No church may set aside Scripture because its culture thinks differently.

14:37 the things which I write to you are commandments of the Lord A truly spiritual person recognizes the apostles' authority. The Spirit who inspired Scripture never contradicts it, so a claimed word from God that does is not from Him.

14:38 let him be ignorant Paul will argue no further with one who refuses. Many older copies read that he is not recognized; the SLB follows the Received Text. Rejecting God's Word is a choice with consequences.

14:39 earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues Those who believe the sign gifts continue take this as a command for today. Those who believe they ended take it as a command for the church while they were active. Both agree the gifts were not worthless in Paul's day, and all must be done in love and order.

14:40 Let all things be done properly and in order Properly means fitting and decent. In order is a military word for soldiers in their ranks. Order is not the opposite of the Spirit but His work, for He is the Spirit of the God of peace.

15:1 the gospel which I preached to you Gospel means good news. Paul brings nothing new but goes back to the foundation, because their doubts about the resurrection struck at its heart. The gospel is not only how we begin the Christian life. It is the ground "in which you also have stood."

preached to you, which you also received, in which you also have stood, 2 through which you also are being saved, in what word I preached it to you, if you hold it fast, unless you believed in vain. 3 For I delivered to you among the first things what I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, 4 and that He was buried, and that He has been raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, 5 and that He appeared to Cephas (Kephas), then to the twelve. 6 After that He appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some also have fallen asleep. 7 After that He appeared to James (Iakobos), then to all the apostles. 8 And last of all, as to the untimely birth, He appeared also to me. 9 For I am the least of the apostles, who am not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. 10 But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace which was toward me did not become empty, but I toiled more abundantly than all of them, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. 11 Whether then I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.

If Christ Is Not Raised

12 Now if Christ is preached, that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised. 14 And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is empty, and your faith also is empty. 15 And we are also found to be false witnesses of God, because we testified against God that He raised the Christ, whom He did not raise if indeed then the dead are not raised. 16 For if the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised. 17 And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins. 18 Then also those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. 19 If in this life we have hoped in Christ only, we are more pitiable than all men.

Christ the Firstfruits

20 But now Christ has been raised from the dead; He became the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. 21 For since

15:21 John 11:25; Rom 6:23; Rom 5:12-17

15:2 if you hold it fast, unless you believed in vain Salvation has a past, present and future (Eph 2:8; Rom 13:11). This does not mean we hang on by our own strength. True faith keeps holding to the gospel. Teachers differ on how warnings like this fit with believers' security, but all agree real faith continues. If there is no resurrection, believing was in vain (15:14-17).
15:3 that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures Of first importance, the center of the faith. He really died, and He died for our sins, in our place, taking the punishment we deserved. That is substitution. The Old Testament foretold it (Isa 53:5-6). The cross was God's plan from the beginning.
15:4 He has been raised on the third day according to the Scriptures The burial proves He really died (Matt 27:57-60). The tense means He was raised and remains raised. Jonah pictured the third day (Matt 12:40), and God's Holy One would not see decay (Ps 16:10; Acts 2:27-31). Some hear an echo of Hosea 6:2, but there Israel speaks of its own revival. I believe those words still belong to Israel and will come true when the nation returns to the Lord.
15:5 He appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve Jesus appeared to Peter alone on the day He rose (Luke 24:34), a tender meeting after Peter's denial. The Twelve was the name for the apostles even with Judas gone (John 20:19-24). These were eyewitnesses still living who could be questioned.
15:6 more than five hundred brothers at one time Perhaps in Galilee (Matt 28:10, 16), though Scripture does not say. Writing about A.D. 55, Paul is saying most are still alive, so go ask them. A man does not invite people to check his story unless he is sure. For believers, death is "fallen asleep," because they will wake.
15:7 He appeared to James The brother of Jesus, who did not believe during His ministry (John 7:5) but became a leader in Jerusalem (Acts 15:13; Gal 1:19) and wrote the letter of James. What else would convince a man that his own brother was the Son of God? "All the apostles" may cover the forty days before the ascension (Acts 1:3-9).
15:8 as to the untimely birth, He appeared also to me Paul saw the risen Lord on the Damascus road after the ascension (Acts 9:3-6). Untimely birth can mean a baby born too early. Paul may mean he was born into the apostles abruptly, after the others, or he may be using a word his enemies called him.
15:9 because I persecuted the church of God Paul hunted believers and agreed to their deaths (Acts 8:3; 22:4; 26:10). He did not live in guilt, knowing he was forgiven, but he never lost the wonder of grace (1 Tim 1:15).
15:10 by the grace of God I am what I am Grace is God's kindness to those who deserve the opposite. It did not make Paul lazy; he worked harder than anyone. Grace and effort are not enemies. We work hard and give God the credit (Phil 2:12-13).
15:11 so we preach, and so you believed The Corinthians split over Paul, Apollos and Peter (1:12), but all preached the same death and resurrection. Truth does not change. We believe today the same gospel the apostles preached.
15:12 how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? Many Greeks thought the body worthless and only the soul lived on; others thought nothing survived death; some may have said the resurrection was spiritual and past (2 Tim 2:18). You cannot believe Christ rose and say the dead cannot rise.
15:14 then our preaching is empty, and your faith also is empty Paul walks through what follows if Jesus stayed in the grave. Empty means hollow. Christianity is not just a set of morals. It stands or falls on a historical event.
15:15 we are also found to be false witnesses of God The apostles would be liars about God Himself. People may die for a lie they believe is true, but the apostles were in a position to know. Men do not die for what they know is a lie.
15:17 you are still in your sins The resurrection proves God accepted Christ's death as payment for sin. He was raised because of our justification (Rom 4:25), our being declared righteous before God. If Jesus is still dead, we are still guilty. Everything depends on the empty tomb.
15:18 those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished No reunion, and every Christian funeral a hopeless goodbye. But we grieve, not as those who have no hope (1 Thess 4:13).
15:19 we are more pitiable than all men The apostles gave up homes, safety and often their lives. If there were no resurrection they were fools. Because our hope reaches beyond the grave, believers can suffer and even die with joy.
15:20 But now Christ has been raised from the dead After seven terrible ifs, two great words: but now. The firstfruits were the first part of the harvest brought to God, a promise the rest was coming (Lev 23:10-11). Many point out that Jesus rose on the day the firstfruits were waved. His resurrection is God's promise that all who belong to Him will be raised.

through a man came death, through a man also came the resurrection of the dead. 22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive. 23 But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, after that those of Christ at His coming, 24 then the end, when He delivers up the kingdom to the God and Father, when He brings to nothing all rule and all authority and power. 25 For He must reign until He has put all the enemies under His feet. 26 The last enemy is brought to nothing: death. 27 For He put all things in subjection under His feet. But when He says that all things have been put in subjection, it is evident that the One who put all things in subjection to Him is excepted. 28 And when all things have been put in subjection to Him, then the Son Himself also will be put in subjection to the One who put all things in subjection to Him, so that God may be all things in all.

29 Otherwise, what will those do who are baptized for the dead, if the dead are not raised at all? Why then are they baptized for the dead? 30 Why are we also in danger every hour? 31 I die every day, by your boasting which I have in Christ Jesus (Iesous) our Lord. 32 If according to man I fought wild beasts in Ephesus (Ephesos), what is the profit to me? If the dead are not raised, let us eat and let us drink, for tomorrow we die. 33 Do not be misled: bad associations corrupt good morals. 34 Sober up righteously, and do not sin; for some have ignorance of God. I say to your shame.

The Resurrection Body

35 But someone will say, "How are the dead raised? And with what kind of body do they come?" 36 Fool! What you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies. 37 And what you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but bare grain, if it should happen to be of wheat or of some one of the rest. 38 But God gives it a body just as He willed, and to each of the seeds its own body. 39 Not all flesh is the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fish, and another of birds. 40 And there are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies; but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another. 41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory. 42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption;

15:22 as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive Death came through Adam (Gen 2:17; 3:19), resurrection through Christ (Rom 5:12-21). Paul is not saying every person will be saved. All who belong to Christ will be raised to life with Him. Unbelievers will also be raised, but to judgment (John 5:28-29).

15:23 after that those of Christ at His coming Order was used for ranks of soldiers. Christ first, then His people. I believe this coming has two stages. Christ comes for His church before the seven-year Tribulation, raising the dead in Christ and changing living believers (15:51-52; 1 Thess 4:16-17). At the end of the Tribulation He returns visibly, and believers who died in that time are raised to reign with Him (Rev 20:4-6). Those who see one event read this as one resurrection at the end.

15:24 then the end, when He delivers up the kingdom to the God and Father Paul does not say how long between His coming and the end. Revelation 20 tells of Christ's thousand-year reign on earth, at the close of which every enemy is put down. This does not mean Christ stops ruling (Luke 1:33). His work of conquest is finished, and the kingdom passes into the eternal state.

15:25 He must reign until He has put all the enemies under His feet From Psalm 110:1. As I read Scripture, this reign reaches its full form in the thousand-year kingdom, when Christ rules on earth after He returns (Rev 20:1-6; Zech 14:9). Others see His present reign from heaven. Either way, every enemy will be under His feet.

15:26 The last enemy is brought to nothing: death Death was not part of God's good creation. It came through sin (Rom 5:12). Death and Hades will be thrown into the lake of fire (Rev 20:14), and there will be no more death (Rev 21:4).

15:27 He put all things in subjection under His feet From Psalm 8:6. Man lost much of his rule over creation through sin, and Jesus, the perfect Man, fulfills it (Heb 2:6-9). The Father, who does the subjecting, is not under the Son.

15:28 so that God may be all things in all The Son is fully God (John 1:1; Col 2:9). This speaks of His role. As He willingly obeyed the Father on earth (John 6:38), He will willingly honor the Father when His work is done (11:3). History ends with no rival, no rebellion, no sin.

15:29 who are baptized for the dead One of the hardest verses in the Bible. Main views: some in Corinth were baptized on behalf of dead believers, which Paul mentions ("those," not "we") without approving; people were baptized because of the testimony of believers who died; new believers filled the ranks of the dead like soldiers; or baptism with a view to one's own body's resurrection. No other Scripture teaches baptism for the dead, and no one can believe for someone else (Eph 2:8-9).

15:31 I die every day Paul faced death daily: beaten, stoned, shipwrecked, hunted (2 Cor 11:23-27). "By your boasting" is a strong oath: as surely as I boast in you. A man does not live like that for a lie.

15:32 I fought wild beasts in Ephesus Paul wrote from Ephesus (16:8). Some think he faced animals in the arena, but he was a Roman citizen and Acts does not mention it, so most see a figure for violent enemies (Acts 19:23-41). "Let us eat and let us drink" quotes Isaiah 22:13, where Jerusalem partied instead of repenting. What we believe about the future shapes how we live now.

15:33 bad associations corrupt good morals A well-known line from the Greek poet Menander. Wrong ideas lead to wrong living. This does not mean avoiding unbelievers (5:10), but being careful who shapes our beliefs and habits.

15:34 Sober up righteously, and do not sin Wake up like someone coming out of drunkenness. "Ignorance of God" may mean some in the church who did not truly know Him, or unbelievers around them whom the church had failed to reach. Either way, it was shameful.

15:35 with what kind of body do they come? How can a body that rotted or burned be raised? Honest questions people still ask. God already shows the answer every spring.

15:36 What you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies A seed must be buried and die before it grows (John 12:24). The answer was right in front of them. The death of a believer's body is not the end. It is planting.

15:38 God gives it a body just as He willed You plant a bare seed, not a full stalk. A wheat seed becomes wheat, not an oak. Our resurrection bodies will be connected to the bodies we have now, yet far greater.

15:41 star differs from star in glory God made fish for water and birds for sky, and sun, moon and stars each with its own glory. He is not limited to one kind of body. The God who made the stars can raise the dead.

15:42 It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption The first of four contrasts. Our bodies age, sicken and decay, and a believer's burial is a sowing. The raised body will never grow old, get sick or die again.

it is raised in incorruption. 43 It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. 44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body. 45 So also it has been written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul"; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. 46 However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural, after that the spiritual. 47 The first man is from the earth, made of dust; the second man is the Lord from heaven. 48 As is the one made of dust, such also are those made of dust; and as is the heavenly One, such also are the heavenly ones. 49 And just as we have borne the image of the one made of dust, we will also bear the image of the heavenly One.

Victory Over Death

50 Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does corruption inherit incorruption. 51 Look, I tell you a mystery: we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, 52 in an instant, in the blink of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. 53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. 54 And when this corruptible puts on incorruption, and this mortal puts on immortality, then the word that has been written will come to pass: "Death has been swallowed up in victory." 55 "Where, O death, is your sting? Where, O Hades, is your victory?" 56 Now the sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. 57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. 58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not empty in the Lord.

The Collection for the Saints

1 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I directed the churches of Galatia, so you also do. 2 On every first day of the week let each of you put aside by himself, storing up whatever he may be prospered, so that when I come there may not be collections then. 3 And when I arrive, whomever

16:3 1 Cor 4:19-21; 1 Cor 11:34; Acts 6:1-6

15:43 It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power Death is a humbling sight, but the raised body will share the glory of Jesus' body (Phil 3:21). The disabled will walk. The weak will be strong.
15:44 it is raised a spiritual body Not a body made of spirit like a ghost. Jesus' risen body could be touched, and He ate (Luke 24:39-43). A real body, ruled and filled by the Holy Spirit and fit for eternity.
15:45 the last Adam became a life-giving spirit Paul quotes Genesis 2:7. Adam headed the old race, and through him came death. Jesus heads a new humanity, and through Him comes life. Adam received life. Jesus gives it (John 5:21).
15:46 the spiritual is not first, but the natural Some in Corinth may have thought they were already fully spiritual. The spiritual body comes later. Our salvation is not complete until our bodies are raised (Rom 8:23).
15:47 the second man is the Lord from heaven Adam came from dust and returned to dust (Gen 2:7; 3:19). Jesus came from heaven and begins a new humanity. The Received Text the SLB follows has "the Lord" here; many older copies read only "from heaven."
15:49 we will also bear the image of the heavenly One Now we look like Adam: we tire, sicken and die. One day we will have bodies like His glorious body (Rom 8:29; 1 John 3:2).
15:50 flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God Our present mortal nature cannot enter God's eternal kingdom as it is. The body is not bad; God made it. But it is corrupted by sin and death, so we must be changed.
15:51 we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed A mystery is a truth God kept hidden and has now revealed (Rom 16:25). Some believers will be alive when Christ comes for His church, and all, living and dead, will be changed. This is the rapture, from the Latin word for being caught up in 1 Thessalonians 4:17. I believe it takes place before the seven-year Tribulation (John 14:1-3; 1 Thess 5:9). The Tribulation follows, and then Christ returns visibly to the earth at its end.
15:52 in an instant, in the blink of an eye, at the last trumpet Instant is atomos, from which we get atom, a moment too small to cut. This is the trumpet of God in 1 Thessalonians 4:16 that calls the church home, not the seventh trumpet of judgment in Revelation 11:15. A trumpet called soldiers to break camp, and last can mean the final call for the church in this age. Some link it to Matthew 24:31 or Revelation 11 and place the rapture later, but this passage gives a sudden change with no signs.
15:53 this mortal must put on immortality Like putting on clothes. "This" body that dies is the one changed and raised. God transforms our bodies rather than making new ones from nothing.
15:54 Death has been swallowed up in victory From Isaiah 25:8. Death has swallowed every generation since Adam. At the resurrection death itself is swallowed up. Jesus won this when He rose, and that day completes it for all who belong to Him.
15:55 Where, O death, is your sting? From Hosea 13:14, a taunt at a defeated enemy. Death's stinger has been pulled. A bee without its stinger may buzz, but it cannot hurt you. The Received Text has "O Hades" in the second line; many older copies repeat death.
15:56 the power of sin is the law Death is sin's penalty (Rom 6:23). The Law is good, but it shows our sin and condemns us (Rom 7:7-11). It cannot save. It shows we need a Savior.
15:57 thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ Jesus paid for our sin, met the Law's demands and rose, defeating death. God gives the victory as a gift received by faith, and there is no other way. If you have not trusted Christ, you can trust Him today.
15:58 your toil is not empty in the Lord Because the resurrection is true, nothing done for Christ is wasted. Steadfast is settled; immovable is unshaken by false teaching or hard times. Every prayer, kindness and word of witness counts for eternity (Heb 6:10). Keep going.
16:1 the collection for the saints The poor believers in Jerusalem, some of whom may have lost work or family support when they came to Christ, after famine in Judea (Acts 11:27-30). The collection mattered greatly to Paul (Rom 15:25-27; 2 Cor 8-9). It let Gentile believers show love to the Jewish believers who first brought them the gospel, proof that they were one body.
16:2 On every first day of the week A pattern for giving: regular, on Sunday when the church gathered on the day Jesus rose (Acts 20:7); by "each of you," not only the wealthy; set aside on purpose; in proportion to what God has given. Teachers differ on whether the tithe is the pattern for believers today. Planned giving is better than pressured giving.
16:3 these I will send to carry your gift to Jerusalem Paul did not handle the money himself. Trusted men chosen by the church carried it, to avoid even the appearance of wrong (2 Cor 8:20-21). Church money should be handled by more than one trusted person, with openness. "Gift" is charis, grace. Giving is an act of grace.

you approve through letters, these I will send to carry your gift to Jerusalem (Hierousalem). 4 And if it is fitting for me also to go, they will go with me.

Plans and Requests

5 Now I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia (Makedonia), for I am passing through Macedonia; 6 and with you perhaps I will stay, or even spend the winter, so that you may send me forward wherever I go. 7 For I do not want to see you now in passing; but I hope to remain some time with you, if the Lord permits. 8 But I will remain in Ephesus (Ephesos) until Pentecost; 9 for a great and effective door has opened to me, and many are opposing. 10 Now if Timothy (Timotheos) comes, see that he is with you without fear; for he works the work of the Lord, as I also do. 11 Therefore let no one despise him. But send him forward in peace, so that he may come to me; for I am expecting him with the brothers. 12 Now concerning Apollos the brother, I exhorted him much that he come to you with the brothers, and there was not at all a will that he come now; but he will come when he has opportunity.

Final Words and Greetings

13 Watch, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strengthened. 14 Let everything of yours be done in love. 15 Now I exhort you, brothers (you know the household of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and they have appointed themselves for service to the saints), 16 that you also be subject to such ones, and to everyone who works together and toils. 17 And I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus (Phourtounatos) and Achaicus (Achaikos), because these filled up your lack; 18 for they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore recognize such ones. 19 The churches of Asia greet you. Aquila (Akylas) and Priscilla (Priskilla) greet you heartily in the Lord, with the church at their house. 20 All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. 21 The greeting of Paul (Paulos) is with my hand. 22 If anyone does not love the Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, let him be accursed. Maran atha. 23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you. 24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

16:24 1 Cor 16:14; 1 Cor 4:14,15; 2 Cor 11:11

16:4 they will go with me Paul did go in the end (Acts 20-21; Rom 15:25), and the trip led to his arrest. He put the church's trust and the gospel's good name ahead of his own role.
16:5 when I pass through Macedonia Macedonia was northern Greece, with Philippi, Thessalonica and Berea. Corinth was in Achaia to the south. Paul made the trip (Acts 20:1-3), though plans changed, and some criticized him for it (2 Cor 1:15-17).
16:6 or even spend the winter Sea travel stopped in winter because of storms. To "send me forward" was to supply him for the next journey. Paul took no support for his preaching in Corinth (9:15) but let them help him on his way, part of the church's work (3 John 6-8).
16:7 if the Lord permits Paul wanted time to deal with the problems in person (11:34), and he held his plans loosely (James 4:13-15). "If the Lord wills" is not a phrase to tack on but an attitude of trust.
16:8 I will remain in Ephesus until Pentecost Paul wrote from Ephesus, probably in spring. Pentecost was the feast fifty days after Passover. He spent about three years there (Acts 20:31).
16:9 a great and effective door has opened to me, and many are opposing All Asia heard the word (Acts 19:10), and enemies came with the open door. Opposition is not always a sign we are in the wrong place. Sometimes it means God is at work. Paul stayed because of the door.
16:10 see that he is with you without fear Timothy may have been timid (2 Tim 1:7), and the Corinthians could be a hard group. He did the same work as Paul and deserved the same respect. Churches should encourage young leaders, not make them afraid.
16:11 let no one despise him Paul later told Timothy not to let anyone despise his youth (1 Tim 4:12). Do you encourage the younger believers and leaders in your church, or dismiss them?
16:12 Now concerning Apollos the brother Some had made Apollos head of a party (1:12; Acts 18:24-28). He did not want to go then, perhaps to avoid stirring that spirit. Paul calls him "the brother." There was no rivalry between them (3:5-9). The divisions were the church's doing.
16:13 Watch, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strengthened Four commands like a commander's orders. Watch like a guard for false teaching and temptation. Hold your ground on the gospel and the resurrection (15:1, 58). Act like men means be brave and mature, a call to the whole church. Be strong in the Lord's power (Eph 6:10).
16:14 Let everything of yours be done in love This balances the strong commands and sums up the letter. Divisions, lawsuits, pride in knowledge and gifts, and the Lord's Supper problems all came down to a lack of love. Is there an area where you are strong but not loving?
16:15 the firstfruits of Achaia Stephanas' household was among the first believers in Achaia, baptized by Paul (1:16). They appointed themselves to serve. No one forced them. Leadership in the church is earned by service, not talent or social position, and quiet servants deserve honor (16:16).
16:17 Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus They traveled from Corinth to Ephesus and may have brought the church's letter (7:1). They refreshed Paul. Some people in a church are refreshers. Recognize them, and ask whose spirit you could refresh this week.
16:19 Aquila and Priscilla greet you heartily in the Lord, with the church at their house Asia was the Roman province with Ephesus as its main city. This tentmaking couple worked with Paul in Corinth and taught Apollos in Ephesus (Acts 18:1-3, 26). The early church met in homes. A church is not a building but the people of God.
16:20 Greet one another with a holy kiss A kiss on the cheek was a common greeting among family and close friends, holy because it was a sign of Christian love (Rom 16:16; 1 Thess 5:26). Today a handshake or hug may do the same. Believers who had been divided should welcome one another as family.
16:21 The greeting of Paul is with my hand Paul usually dictated (Rom 16:22) and wrote the last lines himself, a personal touch and a mark the letter was truly his, since false letters were going around (2 Thess 2:2; 3:17).
16:22 let him be accursed. Maran atha Anathema means set apart for God's judgment (12:3). Not loving the Lord Jesus means rejecting the One who gave His life for us. Maran atha is Aramaic, the language Jesus spoke, meaning Our Lord, come! or Our Lord has come. Many take it as a prayer like Revelation 22:20. He is coming for His church, and we should live ready.
16:23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you Paul began with grace (1:3) and ends with it. Every correction in between is wrapped in grace. However badly we have failed, God's grace is greater (Rom 5:20).
16:24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus Paul's last word is love, for the whole church, even those who criticized him. It flowed from Christ's love for him. That kind of love can hold a divided church together.

2 CORINTHIANS

Introduction

Title

The letter takes its name from its first readers, "the church of God which is in Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia" (1:1). It is the second letter to Corinth in our Bibles, but not the second Paul wrote them. He had written an earlier letter (1 Cor 5:9), then 1 Corinthians, and then a hard letter "through many tears" (2:4) before this one.

Author and Date

The letter opens with "Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Timothy the brother" (1:1), and Paul names himself again in 10:1. The early church accepted it as Paul's, and even scholars who doubt some of the letters bearing his name almost all agree he wrote this one. Their questions are not about the author but about whether it was first one letter or several. Every Greek copy we have holds all thirteen chapters together, and I read it as it has come down to us, as one book.

Paul wrote from Macedonia after Titus met him there with good news (2:13; 7:5-7), perhaps from Philippi. Most scholars date it about A.D. 56, roughly a year after 1 Corinthians and before Romans.

Background and Setting

Corinth was the rich, proud capital of Achaia, a Roman colony full of trade, temples and people from all over the empire. Its people loved wisdom, fine speech and impressive speakers, which helps explain why some looked down on Paul (10:10). Paul had founded the church about A.D. 50 (Acts 18:1-18).

After 1 Corinthians, things got harder. Paul made a short visit that went badly, the painful visit (2:1; 12:14; 13:1). He then wrote a severe letter with many tears (2:4; 7:8). Bible teachers disagree on what that letter was: many think a letter God did not preserve, some think 1 Corinthians, others think chapters 10 to 13. Titus seems to have carried it. Paul waited anxiously at Troas, went on to Macedonia, and there Titus came with the news that most of the church had repented (2:12-13; 7:5-16).

Meanwhile men had come to Corinth with letters of commendation (3:1). They were Jewish (11:22), called themselves apostles, boasted of their speaking and experiences, took the church's money and lorded it over them (11:20), and mocked Paul as weak. Paul calls them "false apostles, deceitful workers" (11:13) who preached "another Jesus" and "a different gospel" (11:4).

This is Paul's most personal letter. We learn more about Paul as a man here than anywhere else: his sufferings, fears, tears, love for the churches, and a "thorn in the flesh" God would not take away (12:7). The heart of the letter is the Lord's answer to his prayer: "My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is perfected in weakness" (12:9).

In chapters 1 to 7 Paul explains his ministry and pours out his heart. God is the "God of all comfort" (1:3). The new covenant of the Spirit is far more glorious than the old covenant of the letter (chapter 3). We carry the treasure of the gospel in clay jars (4:7). Every believer will stand before the judgment seat of Christ (5:10). Anyone in Christ is a new creation, and God has given us the ministry of reconciliation (5:17-21). Godly sorrow leads to repentance (7:10). In chapters 8 and 9 he urges them to finish their gift for the poor in Jerusalem, for giving is a grace and "God loves a cheerful giver" (9:7). In chapters 10 to 13 he defends his apostleship against the false apostles, boasting not in strength but in weakness, so that he will not have to deal harshly with them when he comes (13:10).

Christ in 2 Corinthians

Every promise of God finds its yes in Christ (1:20). The glory of God shines "in the face of Jesus Christ" (4:6), who is "the image of God" (4:4). His love compels us, for He died for all and rose (5:14-15). God "made the One who did not know sin to be sin on our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him" (5:21). Though He was rich, "for your sake He became poor" (8:9). He is God's "indescribable free gift" (9:15). He "was crucified out of weakness, yet He lives by the power of God" (13:4), and that is the pattern of Paul's whole ministry.

Hard Passages

Several questions are open among good Bible teachers, and the notes give the main views: what the severe letter was (2:4); who the offender was whom the church disciplined and then forgave (2:5-11); what "naked" and the "building from God" mean in 5:1-4; who the "most eminent apostles" were (11:5; 12:11); what Paul's thorn in the flesh was (12:7); and whether signs and wonders continue today (12:12). The notes on 5:14-15 name both views on the extent of Christ's death, and the note on 13:5 gives both views on testing whether we are in the faith.

The notes read 5:10 as the judgment seat of Christ for believers' rewards, not for salvation, which was settled at the cross. They read the new covenant promises of chapter 3 as shared now by the church while still to be kept for the nation of Israel (3:16). They answer the misuse of 8:9 and 9:6 to promise believers wealth, and they speak plainly to anyone hurt by leaders like those of 11:20.

2 CORINTHIANS 1

Greeting

1 Paul (Paulos), an apostle of Jesus (Iesous) Christ through the will of God, and Timothy (Timotheos) the brother, to the church of God which is in Corinth (Korinthos), with all the saints who are in all Achaia: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The God of All Comfort

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassions and God of all comfort, 4 who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those in every affliction through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God; 5 because just as the sufferings of the Christ abound toward us, so also our comfort abounds through Christ. 6 And whether we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation, which is at work in the endurance of the same sufferings which we also suffer; or whether we are comforted, it is for your comfort and salvation; 7 and our hope for you is firm, knowing that as you are partners of the sufferings, so also of the comfort. 8 For we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning our affliction which happened to us in Asia, that we were weighed down excessively, beyond our power, so that we despaired even of living. 9 But we ourselves have had the sentence of death in ourselves, so that we would not be trusting in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead, 10 who delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver, in whom we have hoped that He will also still deliver us, 11 you also joining in helping for us by your petition, so that thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf for the gift toward us through many.

Paul's Change of Plans

12 For our boasting is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we conducted ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you. 13 For we write no other things to you than what you read or also understand; and I hope that you will understand even to the end, 14 just as you also understood us in part, that we are your boast, just as you also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus. 15 And in this confidence I was intending to come to you before, so that you might have a second grace, 16 and to pass through you into Macedonia (Makedonia), and again from Macedonia to come to you, and by you to be sent forward to Judea (Ioudaia).

1:1 an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God False teachers in Corinth would claim to be apostles and say Paul was not (11:5, 13), so he names his calling at once. Timothy had helped start the church (Acts 18:5). Achaia was southern Greece, with Corinth its chief city. Every believer is a saint, one set apart for God.
1:2 Grace to you and peace Grace is God's favor we could never earn, and peace is what it brings, peace with God and the peace of God. Paul names the Father and the Son side by side as the one source of every blessing. A Jewish man would never do that with a mere man.
1:3 the Father of compassions and God of all comfort Compassions are tender mercies, a father's pity for a hurting child. The word for comfort is paraklesis, to come alongside and strengthen, from the same family as the word Jesus used for the Holy Spirit, the Helper (John 14:16). There is no kind of pain God cannot comfort.
1:4 who comforts us in all our affliction Affliction is pressure, being squeezed and crushed. God does not promise to keep us out of it but to comfort us in it, and His comfort is meant to flow through us. The one who has walked through cancer, the loss of a child or a broken marriage and found God faithful can sit with another in that place as no one else can.
1:5 the sufferings of the Christ abound toward us Not that our suffering adds to the cross; His saving work is finished. Those who walk with Christ share the world's hostility toward Him (John 15:18-20). But the comfort keeps pace with the suffering, and it comes through Christ.
1:6 which is at work in the endurance of the same sufferings Everything that happens to Paul, hard or good, God uses for others. Endurance is bearing up under a load without giving up. God's comfort does not always remove the load. Often it gives strength to keep carrying it. If you suffer for Christ, the comfort is coming too (1:7).
1:8 so that we despaired even of living Asia was the Roman province where Ephesus was. Scripture does not say what happened: perhaps the riot in Ephesus (Acts 19:23-41), a severe illness, imprisonment or fierce persecution. Paul thought he would die. Mature believers are not people who never feel crushed, but people who know where to turn when they are.
1:9 not be trusting in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead Paul felt like a man already condemned. God sometimes lets us reach the end of our strength so we stop leaning on it. If He can raise the dead, there is nothing He cannot do for us.
1:10 who delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver Past, present and future. Paul's hope rests on what God has already done. Looking back at how God carried you gives reason to trust Him now, and for the believer even death cannot hold us.
1:11 you also joining in helping for us by your petition A petition is a prayer that asks. Paul believed their prayers really helped. God uses His people's prayers to do His work, and when many pray, many give thanks when the answer comes.
1:12 in simplicity and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom Paul begins answering his critics. His conscience was clear. Simplicity is singleness of heart, no hidden motives. Sincerity is purity with nothing fake mixed in. Fleshly wisdom is the clever, self-serving way the world works an angle.
1:13 we write no other things to you than what you read or also understand Some said Paul's letters had hidden meanings. There is nothing between the lines. He hopes that on "the day of the Lord Jesus," when Christ comes for His people, they will be proud of each other before Him (1:14).
1:15 so that you might have a second grace Paul had planned two visits, on the way to Macedonia and back, before sailing to Judea with the gift for Jerusalem. Earlier he said he would come after Macedonia (1 Cor 16:5-7). The changes made some think he could not make up his mind.

17 Therefore, when purposing this, did I then use the fickleness? Or what I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, so that with me there may be the "Yes, yes" and the "No, no"? 18 But God is faithful, that our word to you was not Yes and No. 19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you through us, through me and Silvanus (Silouanos) and Timothy, was not Yes and No, but in Him it has been Yes. 20 For as many as are the promises of God, in Him is the Yes, and in Him the Amen, to God for glory through us. 21 Now the One who establishes us with you into Christ and anointed us is God, 22 who also sealed us and gave the pledge of the Spirit in our hearts. 23 But I call on God as witness upon my soul, that to spare you I came no longer to Corinth. 24 Not that we lord it over your faith, but we are fellow workers of your joy; for by faith you have stood.

1 But I judged this for myself, not to come to you again in grief. 2 For if I grieve you, then who is the one who makes me glad, except the one who is grieved by me? 3 And I wrote this very thing to you, so that when I come I may not have grief from those from whom I ought to rejoice, having confidence in you all that my joy is the joy of you all. 4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you through many tears, not that you might be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have more abundantly toward you.

Forgive the Offender

5 But if anyone has grieved, he has not grieved me, but in part, so that I may not burden you all. 6 Sufficient for such a one is this punishment which is by the majority, 7 so that on the contrary you should rather forgive and comfort him, lest somehow such a one be swallowed up by more abundant grief. 8 Therefore I exhort you to confirm love toward him. 9 For to this end I also wrote, so that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in all things. 10 Now to whom you forgive anything, I also forgive; for I also, if I have forgiven anything, to whom I have forgiven it, have done so for your sake in the presence of Christ, 11 so that we may not be taken advantage of by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

2:12 Acts 16:8; Acts 14:27; 1 Cor 16:9

1:17 did I then use the fickleness? Fickle means unreliable. To plan "according to the flesh" is to say whatever is easy and change it when it suits you. Plans sometimes must change, but that does not make a man a liar. What matters is why.
1:19 was not Yes and No, but in Him it has been Yes Silvanus is Silas (Acts 18:5). If the Jesus they preached is completely reliable, how could His messengers be careless with their word? A faithful message calls for faithful messengers.
1:20 in Him is the Yes, and in Him the Amen One of the great verses of the Bible. Every promise God made, to Abraham, to David, to Israel and to us, finds its yes in Jesus. Amen means so be it, it is true. When we say Amen we agree with God's yes. Is there a promise you have been doubting?
1:22 who also sealed us and gave the pledge of the Spirit in our hearts God establishes us in Christ, anoints us as kings and priests were set apart with oil, seals us as His own, and gives the Spirit as a pledge, a down payment promising the rest. Our security rests on what God has done, not on how strong we feel.
1:23 to spare you I came no longer to Corinth A solemn oath. Coming then would have meant discipline and another painful visit (2:1). He waited to give them time to set things right. Sometimes love waits.
1:24 Not that we lord it over your faith, but we are fellow workers of your joy To lord it over is to rule harshly. Paul had authority but did not use it to control their faith. A leader's job is not to control people but to help them stand on their own feet with Christ.
2:1 not to come to you again in grief "Again" shows Paul had already made one grieving visit, often called the painful visit. Acts does not record it, but this verse with 12:14 and 13:1-2 shows it happened after 1 Corinthians. He changed his plans (1:15-23) not to avoid hard things but to deal with them a better way.
2:2 who is the one who makes me glad, except the one who is grieved by me? Paul's joy was tied up with the Corinthians. A good pastor does not enjoy confronting sin, as a good parent does not enjoy discipline. Love sometimes has to wound, but it never takes pleasure in it.
2:3 I wrote this very thing to you Instead of a second painful visit, a letter, so they could deal with the problem before he came. Paul believed the best about them even while they grieved him.
2:4 I wrote to you through many tears Anguish is distress pressing from every side. He wrote weeping, and the hard letter was a love letter (Prov 27:6). Teachers are not sure which letter this was: many think a separate letter we no longer have, others 1 Corinthians itself. Scripture does not say.
2:5 if anyone has grieved, he has not grieved me, but in part Paul does not name the man. Sin in a church is never only a private matter between two people. Some think he was the immoral man of 1 Corinthians 5:1-5. Many think he insulted Paul during the painful visit, which fits "the one having suffered wrong" (7:12). Scripture does not say for sure.
2:6 Sufficient for such a one is this punishment which is by the majority Church discipline is the loving correction of a member who keeps on in sin (Matt 18:15-17). Its goal is not to crush but to bring back, and when that is reached it should stop. Some churches never discipline. Others never stop.
2:7 you should rather forgive and comfort him The man had repented. To forgive is to let go of the debt. There is a sorrow that heals and a sorrow that drowns, and a church that disciplines but will not forgive is cruel. Is there someone who has said they are sorry whom you still keep at a distance?
2:8 confirm love toward him To confirm is to show it openly, as official as the discipline was. Forgiveness only whispered is not enough. Make your love plain in word and action.
2:9 whether you are obedient in all things The hard letter was a test. They disciplined the man. Would they be as obedient in forgiving him? It is often easier to be strict than merciful. God asks for both.
2:10 in the presence of Christ Paul stands with the church and will not let his own hurt stand in the way. We forgive as people forgiven much (Eph 4:32). Standing before Christ, our grudges look very small.
2:11 we are not ignorant of his schemes Satan is a real enemy with real plans. He had tried to ruin the church by unchecked sin. Now he could drown a repentant man in grief and make the church harsh. An unforgiving spirit is one of his favorite tools.

and a door had been opened to me in the Lord, 13 I have had no rest in my spirit, at my not finding Titus (Titos) my brother; but taking leave of them, I went out to Macedonia (Makedonia). 14 But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in the Christ, and makes manifest through us the scent of the knowledge of Him in every place. 15 For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing, 16 to the one a scent of death to death, and to the other a scent of life to life. And who is sufficient for these things? 17 For we are not like the many, peddling the word of God; but as from sincerity, but as from God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.

Ministers of a New Covenant

1 Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, like some, commendatory letters to you or commendatory ones from you? 2 You are our letter, inscribed in our hearts, known and read by all men, 3 being made manifest that you are a letter of Christ ministered by us, inscribed not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on fleshy tablets of heart. 4 And such confidence we have through the Christ toward God; 5 not that we are sufficient from ourselves to reckon anything as from ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God, 6 who also made us sufficient as ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit makes alive.

The Greater Glory

7 Now if the ministry of death, in letters engraved in stones, came about in glory, so that the sons of Israel were not able to look intently into the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, which was being brought to nothing, 8 how will the ministry of the Spirit not be more in glory? 9 For if the ministry of condemnation was glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness abound in glory. 10 For even what has been glorified has not been glorified in this respect, because of the surpassing glory. 11 For if what is being brought to nothing was through glory, much more what remains is in glory. 12 Therefore, having such hope, we use much boldness, 13 and not as Moses was putting a veil over his own face, so that the sons of Israel would not look intently into

3:13 Exod 34:33-35; Exod 34:29; Isa 25:7

2:13 I have had no rest in my spirit, at my not finding Titus my brother Troas was a port across the sea from Macedonia, and an open door means people ready to listen. Titus had likely carried the hard letter, and Paul was so burdened for news that he left the open door to find him. The story resumes in 7:5-7.
2:14 who always leads us in triumph in the Christ A Roman triumph was a victory parade: the general in front, his soldiers and captives behind, incense filling the streets. God is the conquering general. Some see Paul as one of God's captives, conquered by grace, others as a soldier sharing the victory. In Christ, God is always winning, even when Paul is restless.
2:15 we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God Offerings on the altar were a pleasing aroma to the Lord (Lev 1:9), and lives of faith are like that. The fragrance is the same everywhere. Not everyone receives it the same way.
2:16 to the one a scent of death to death, and to the other a scent of life to life In the triumph the incense meant victory for the soldiers and death for the captives at the end of the line. The gospel reminds those who refuse it of judgment and is the smell of life to those who receive it. Who is sufficient? No one on his own. Our sufficiency is from God (3:5).
2:17 not like the many, peddling the word of God A peddler was a street seller, often one who watered his wine for profit. Many treated God's Word as a product to sell. Paul spoke as a man who knew God was watching. Anyone who uses God's Word mainly for money or his own name is a peddler.
3:1 Or do we need, like some, commendatory letters to you or commendatory ones from you? Traveling believers often carried letters of introduction from their home church (Acts 18:27; Rom 16:1-2), a good practice. The false teachers came waving theirs and implied Paul had none. Did he really need a letter to introduce himself to his own spiritual children?
3:2 You are our letter, inscribed in our hearts, known and read by all men The church itself was living proof of Paul's ministry. Idol worshipers had become believers in Jesus. If people read your life like a letter, what would it tell them about Christ?
3:3 not on tablets of stone but on fleshy tablets of heart Christ is the author and Paul the carrier. At Sinai God wrote on stone (Exod 31:18). He promised to write His law on hearts (Jer 31:33) and give a heart of flesh and His Spirit (Ezek 36:26-27). Those promises were given to Israel. I believe the church shares now in their forgiveness and new heart through the Spirit, and God will keep every one of them to the nation of Israel when Christ returns (Rom 11:26-27).
3:5 our sufficiency is from God The answer to "who is sufficient for these things?" (2:16). Paul takes credit for nothing. You do not have to be enough. God is enough.
3:6 the letter kills, but the Spirit makes alive A covenant is a binding agreement. The old covenant was the Law given through Moses at Sinai. The new covenant was promised in Jeremiah 31:31-34 and made with Jesus' blood (Luke 22:20). This is not a call to look for hidden meanings instead of reading the Bible plainly. The letter is the Law on stone, holy and good (Rom 7:12), but it can only command and condemn. The Spirit gives new life.
3:7 the ministry of death, in letters engraved in stones, came about in glory The Law shows God's holy standard, and since we have all broken it, it shows we deserve death (Rom 6:23). Yet it came with real glory. Moses' face shone so that Israel could not look at it (Exod 34:29-35). That glory was fading.
3:8 how will the ministry of the Spirit not be more in glory? From the lesser to the greater. Under the old covenant the Spirit came on certain people for certain tasks. Under the new He makes His home in every believer (Rom 8:9).
3:9 the ministry of righteousness abound in glory Condemnation is the sentence of guilt, all the Law could give. Through faith in Christ God declares us righteous. That is justification (Rom 3:21-26). Which would you rather receive?
3:10 because of the surpassing glory A flashlight is bright at night but barely seen at noon in the desert. The old covenant's glory was real but outshined. It was temporary; the new covenant remains (3:11).
3:12 we use much boldness Hope in the Bible is not a maybe but sure confidence in what God has promised. Boldness is plain, open speech. The message is sure, so it needs no dressing up.
3:13 not as Moses was putting a veil over his own face Moses veiled his face after speaking to the people (Exod 34:33-35), and Paul says it kept them from watching the glory fade, a picture of the old covenant itself. Paul keeps nothing veiled.

the end of what was being brought to nothing. 14 But their minds were hardened. For until today the same veil remains at the reading of the old covenant, not being lifted, which is being brought to nothing in Christ. 15 But until today, when Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart. 16 But whenever it turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. 18 And we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

Treasure in Clay Jars

1 Because of this, having this ministry, just as we were shown mercy, we do not lose heart; 2 but we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness nor falsifying the word of God, but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every conscience of men before God. 3 And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled among those who are perishing, 4 in whom the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, so that the illumination of the gospel of the glory of the Christ, who is the image of God, would not shine forth on them. 5 For we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus (Iesous) as Lord, and ourselves your slaves for the sake of Jesus. 6 For it is God who said for light to shine out of darkness, who has shone in our hearts for the illumination of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the surpassing greatness of the power may be of God and not from us: 8 being afflicted in every way but not hemmed in, being perplexed but not despairing, 9 being persecuted but not forsaken, being struck down but not perishing, 10 always carrying around in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made manifest in our body. 11 For we who live are always being delivered to death for the sake of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made manifest in our mortal flesh. 12 So then death is at work in us, but life in you.

3:14 the same veil remains at the reading of the old covenant Paul speaks of his own people. Many read the Law but did not see where it pointed. The veil is removed only in Christ. He says this with sorrow, not contempt (Rom 9:1-5).

3:15 when Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart Moses means his books, read every Sabbath in the synagogue (Acts 15:21). The veil has moved from Moses' face to their heart. The Law points to Christ (Luke 24:27, 44). The problem is a heart not yet open, true of every person until God opens the eyes (4:4-6).

3:16 whenever it turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away Moses removed his veil whenever he went in to the Lord (Exod 34:34). True for any Jewish person who turns to Jesus the Messiah, and a promise for the nation. The hardening is partial until the full number of Gentiles comes in, then all Israel will be saved (Rom 11:25-27). The church has not replaced Israel. The nation will look on Him whom they pierced (Zech 12:10).

3:17 Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom Paul is not confusing the Persons of the Godhead. The Lord we turn to meets us by His Spirit, and many also see here that the Spirit is fully God. Freedom from the veil, the Law's condemnation and slavery to sin, not freedom to sin (Gal 5:1, 13).

3:18 are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory Only Moses went in to see God's glory. Now every believer does, seen in Jesus' face (4:6) and His Word, though still as in a mirror (1 Cor 13:12). Transformed is the word for Jesus' transfiguration (Matt 17:2). This is sanctification. We change not by trying harder but by looking at Jesus as the Spirit works. Moses' glory faded. Ours grows.

4:1 just as we were shown mercy, we do not lose heart This ministry is the new covenant of chapter 3, received by mercy. Paul never forgot he once persecuted the church (1 Tim 1:12-16). He had every reason to quit, attacked by the very church he started. When your calling comes from God's mercy, you keep going.

4:2 not walking in craftiness nor falsifying the word of God To renounce is to turn away for good. Craftiness is clever scheming. To falsify is to twist or water down the Word, mixing in error to please. Paul laid the truth out in the open and let consciences judge. We need no gimmicks or pressure, only plain truth lived honestly.

4:3 it is veiled among those who are perishing Why doesn't everyone believe? The gospel is not unclear. Hearts that refuse it cannot see it.

4:4 the god of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelieving Satan, "the ruler of this world" (John 12:31; 1 John 5:19). He is not truly a god or equal to God, but many serve him as if he were. He does not mind if people are religious or busy, as long as they do not see Jesus clearly. He is "the image of God." To see Him is to see the Father (John 14:9; Col 1:15). Only God can open blind eyes, so we pray.

4:5 we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord The false teachers talked about their gifts, letters and experiences. Paul refused to make himself the message and called himself their slave for Jesus' sake. The best preachers point away from themselves and serve people rather than using them.

4:6 God who said for light to shine out of darkness God spoke light into being on the first day (Gen 1:3). Every conversion is a new creation: He shines into a dark heart, as He did with light from heaven on the Damascus road (Acts 9:3-5). Never give up praying for someone you love.

4:7 we have this treasure in earthen vessels The treasure is the gospel. Earthen vessels were cheap clay jars that cracked and chipped. If the jar were gold, people would admire the jar. Plain clay shows the power is God's. Your weakness is the very place His power shows best.

4:8 being afflicted in every way but not hemmed in, being perplexed but not despairing Afflicted is squeezed from every side; hemmed in is trapped with no way out. Paul often did not know what to do next but never ran out of hope, because it rested on God and not his own answers.

4:9 being persecuted but not forsaken, being struck down but not perishing Hunted from city to city, never abandoned (Heb 13:5). Knocked down, once by real stones (Acts 14:19), but never knocked out. The Christian life is not about never falling but about the God who keeps raising us up.

4:10 carrying around in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus Paul faced daily the same hatred that led Jesus to the cross. When people saw him suffer and keep going with joy, they saw the risen Jesus at work. Our trials can be a window through which others see Christ.

4:11 so that the life of Jesus may also be made manifest in our mortal flesh Mortal means subject to death. God does not wait until we are strong to show His life through us. He does it in our weakness, now.

4:12 death is at work in us, but life in you Paul's suffering brought the Corinthians eternal life. That is the pattern of the cross, followed by every believer who serves at a cost. What are you willing to give up so someone else might live in Christ?

The Inner Man Renewed

13 But having the same spirit of faith, according to what has been written, "I believed, therefore I spoke," we also believe, therefore we also speak, 14 knowing that the One who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us through Jesus and will present us with you. 15 For all things are for your sake, so that the grace, having increased through the more people, may make the thanksgiving abound to the glory of God.
16 Therefore we do not lose heart; but even if our outer man is being brought to decay, yet the inner man is being renewed day by day. 17 For the momentary lightness of our affliction is producing for us, excessively to excess, an eternal weight of glory, 18 while we look not at the things being seen but at the things not being seen; for the things being seen are temporary, but the things not being seen are eternal.

2 CORINTHIANS 5

Our Heavenly Dwelling

1 For we know that if our earthly house of the tent is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. 2 For indeed in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our dwelling which is from heaven, 3 if indeed, having been clothed, we will not be found naked. 4 For indeed we who are in the tent groan, being burdened, because we do not wish to be unclothed but to be clothed, so that the mortal may be swallowed up by life.
5 Now the One having prepared us for this very thing is God, who also has given to us the pledge of the Spirit. 6 Therefore, being always confident and knowing that, while being at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord, 7 for we walk through faith, not through sight, 8 we are confident, and we are pleased rather to be absent out of the body and to be at home with the Lord. 9 Therefore we also are ambitious, whether being at home or being absent, to be well-pleasing to Him. 10 For it is necessary for all of us to be made manifest before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive back the things done through the body, according to what he did, whether good or evil.

The Ministry of Reconciliation

11 Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we have been made manifest to God; and I hope also to 4:13 I believed, therefore I spoke From Psalm 116:10, a psalmist near death who trusted God and said so. Real faith cannot keep quiet. If we believe the gospel is true and people are perishing without it, we will speak.

4:14 the One who raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us through Jesus The resurrection of Jesus is a fact of history, and God will raise all who belong to Him (1 Cor 15:20-23; 1 Thess 4:14). When the Lord comes for His church, Paul and the Corinthians will stand together before Him (1 Thess 4:16-17). Death is not the last word.
4:15 may make the thanksgiving abound to the glory of God As grace reaches more people, more give thanks, and God is glorified. Our suffering, service and salvation all point there.
4:16 the inner man is being renewed day by day The outer man is the body, and every gray hair and ache reminds us it is wearing out. The inner man, our life with God, can grow stronger. Some of the most spiritually alive people are old saints in failing bodies.
4:17 an eternal weight of glory Read 11:23-28 and it is hard to call Paul's suffering light. It is light only on the scale beside glory, heavy beyond measure and lasting forever. "Producing" means suffering is not wasted. That does not make pain easy, but it makes it meaningful.
4:18 the things being seen are temporary, but the things not being seen are eternal House, car, bank account, even our bodies will pass away. God, His Word, His kingdom and people's souls last forever. A believer who keeps looking at the eternal can make it through almost anything temporary.
5:1 if our earthly house of the tent is destroyed, we have a building from God Our body is a tent, temporary and easily taken down, and Paul was a tentmaker (Acts 18:3). The building God makes is permanent. Many believe it is the resurrection body, like Jesus' glorious body (Phil 3:21); others think of our heavenly dwelling more broadly. It is so certain Paul says "we have" it.
5:2 in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our dwelling which is from heaven To groan is to sigh under a burden of sickness, pain, aging and sin (Rom 8:23). Paul mixes a house and clothes, picturing the new body put on like a coat. A believer's groaning is homesickness for a better home.
5:3 we will not be found naked Naked means without a body. Greeks often saw the body as a prison to escape, but God made us body and soul. Many believe Paul means the time between death and resurrection, and that he would rather be alive and changed when Christ comes. Others think naked means found without Christ at the judgment. Either way, our hope is a new body, not floating as a spirit forever.
5:4 so that the mortal may be swallowed up by life Paul is not wishing to be rid of his body but to have something better. Everything in us that can die will be swallowed up by life, as a wave swallows a footprint (1 Cor 15:54). Life wins.
5:5 the pledge of the Spirit Our future body has been God's plan all along. The pledge is a down payment (1:22). If you have the Spirit, God has already started paying on His promise, and He finishes what He starts.
5:7 we walk through faith, not through sight While in the body we are away from home, not yet with the Lord face to face. Faith is not believing without reason but trusting the word of the One who has proven faithful, until faith becomes sight.
5:8 to be absent out of the body and to be at home with the Lord One of the most comforting verses for believers facing death and for those who have lost a believing loved one. No long sleep of the soul, no waiting room: the believer goes straight into Christ's presence (Phil 1:23). The body rests until the resurrection, but the person is with the Lord. If your loved one knew Jesus, they are home.
5:9 we also are ambitious Ambition depends on what you reach for. Paul's one great ambition was to please the Lord, alive or with Him. What is yours: money, comfort, success, being liked, or pleasing Jesus?
5:10 the judgment seat of Christ The bema was the raised platform where a judge heard cases or an official handed out prizes at the games. Paul stood before Gallio's bema in Corinth (Acts 18:12). "All of us" means believers. This does not decide heaven, settled at the cross (Rom 8:1; John 5:24). Believers' lives are shown for what they were, and Christ gives rewards (1 Cor 3:11-15). I believe the Lord comes for His church before the Tribulation (1 Thess 4:16-17; 5:9), and many place this judgment in heaven after that, before believers return with Him (Rev 19:11-14).
5:11 Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men The fear of the Lord is reverent awe for the holy God to whom we give account, the respect of a servant who wants to please his Master. It moved Paul to reason with people and urge them to believe.

have been made manifest in your consciences. 12 For we are not again commending ourselves to you, but giving you an occasion of boasting on our behalf, so that you may have an answer toward those boasting in appearance and not in heart. 13 For if we were beside ourselves, it was for God; or if we are of sound mind, it is for you. 14 For the love of Christ compels us, having concluded this: that if One died for all, then all died; 15 and He died for all, so that those who live may no longer live to themselves, but to the One who died for them and was raised. 16 Therefore from now on we know no one according to the flesh; and even if we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we no longer know Him so. 17 Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old things have passed away; look, all things have become new. 18 And all things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Jesus (Iesous) Christ and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation, 19 that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not reckoning their trespasses to them, and having placed in us the word of reconciliation. 20 Therefore on behalf of Christ we are ambassadors, as though God were urging through us; we implore you on behalf of Christ: be reconciled to God. 21 For He made the One who did not know sin to be sin on our behalf, so that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.

Now Is the Day of Salvation

1 And working together, we also urge you not to receive the grace of God in vain. 2 For He says, "In an acceptable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I helped you." Look, now is a well-accepted time; look, now is a day of salvation. 3 We are giving no cause of stumbling in anything, so that the ministry may not be blamed, 4 but in everything commending ourselves as servants of God: in much endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, 5 in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in sleeplessness, in fastings, 6 in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in genuine love, 7 in the word of truth, in the power of God, through the weapons of righteousness of the right hand and left, 8 through glory and dishonor, through

5:12 those boasting in appearance and not in heart Paul gives loyal believers an answer for his critics. The false teachers cared for polished speech, letters and outward show. God looks at the heart (1 Sam 16:7), and so should we.
5:13 if we were beside ourselves, it was for God Some called Paul crazy, as they did Jesus (Mark 3:21) and as Festus did Paul (Acts 26:24). If he seems out of his mind, that is between him and God. Either way, all he does is for God and others.
5:14 For the love of Christ compels us Christ's love for us, which also stirs our love for Him, presses Paul forward like banks driving a river. "If One died for all, then all died": His death counts as ours. Some believe Christ died for every person, making salvation available to all who believe; others that "all" means all who are in Christ. Both agree only believers receive the benefit, and the gospel must be offered to everyone.
5:15 no longer live to themselves, but to the One who died for them Christ did not die only so we could go to heaven but so we would stop living for ourselves. The center moves to Him, and that changes how we spend money, time and words. Who are you living for today?
5:16 we know no one according to the flesh Judging by looks, money, background or status. Before conversion Paul judged Jesus that way: a crucified carpenter could not be the Messiah. Now he knows Him as risen Lord, and every person is someone Christ died for.
5:17 if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation Not improved or cleaned up, but made new, as God did at creation. The old guilt, slavery to sin and standing before God have passed away. Believers still struggle (Gal 5:17), but with a new heart, a new Master and a new future. Your past does not define you. Christ does.
5:18 who reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ To reconcile is to bring enemies back together. The problem was on our side; we rebelled (Rom 5:10). God took the first step, made peace through Jesus, and makes His reconciled people His messengers.
5:19 not reckoning their trespasses to them "The world" shows how wide the offer is. To reckon is to put on someone's account. A trespass is a step across God's line. God did not count our sins against us because He counted them against Christ (5:21), and He has trusted us with this message.
5:20 we are ambassadors An ambassador speaks for his king in a foreign land, not his own message. Our home is in heaven (Phil 3:20). When we share the gospel, God Himself pleads through our voice: "be reconciled to God." He does not force people. He pleads with them. Have you been reconciled to God?
5:21 He made the One who did not know sin to be sin on our behalf Jesus never sinned (Heb 4:15; 1 Pet 2:22). On the cross God laid our sin on Him and treated Him as the sinner. He did not become a sinner but took the punishment our sins deserved (Isa 53:6). We receive His righteousness, credited to our account, which is called imputation. Our sin went to Him. His righteousness comes to us. That is the heart of the gospel.
6:1 not to receive the grace of God in vain Paul works together with God in the ministry of reconciliation (5:18-20). In vain means empty, without result. Some listened to false teachers preaching another gospel (11:4); others lived as if grace made no difference. Grace is meant to save us and change us (Titus 2:11-12).
6:2 now is a day of salvation From Isaiah 49:8, God's words to His Servant the Messiah, promising salvation to Israel and the nations. That day has come in Christ. No one is promised tomorrow. If you have never trusted Christ, today is the day.
6:3 We are giving no cause of stumbling in anything People judge the message by the messenger. When a Christian leader falls into scandal, many blame the gospel itself. Paul guarded his life so no one could call the ministry a fraud.
6:4 commending ourselves as servants of God: in much endurance The false teachers commended themselves with letters. Paul's proof is endurance under nine hardships in three groups: troubles in general, troubles men brought (beatings and jail in Philippi, Acts 16:22-24; riots, Acts 14:19; 19:29), and troubles accepted for the work. Distresses are tight places with no way out.
6:6 in the Holy Spirit, in genuine love Purity is moral cleanness and right motives, patience is slowness to anger with difficult people. All of it came from the Spirit, and Paul's love was not an act.
6:7 the weapons of righteousness of the right hand and left A soldier held his sword in the right hand and shield in the left. Paul's weapons attacked error and defended truth, never lies, flattery or manipulation (10:4).
6:8 as deceivers and yet true Praised and insulted, Paul served the same either way. If we only serve when we are praised, we are serving ourselves.

bad report and good report; as deceivers and yet true; 9 as being unknown and yet being well known; as dying, and look, we live; as being disciplined and yet not being put to death; 10 as being sorrowful, but always rejoicing; as poor, but making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

Open Your Hearts

11 Our mouth has been opened to you, Corinthians; our heart has been widened. 12 You are not restricted in us, but you are restricted in your affections. 13 Now in the same recompense (I speak as to children), you also be widened.

Do Not Be Unequally Yoked

14 Do not become unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership have righteousness and lawlessness? And what fellowship has light with darkness? 15 And what harmony has Christ with Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever? 16 And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? For you are a temple of the living God, just as God said, "I will dwell in them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be a people to Me." 17 "Therefore come out from the midst of them and be separate," says the Lord, "and do not touch an unclean thing, and I will receive you, 18 and I will be to you for a Father, and you will be to Me for sons and daughters," says the Lord Almighty.

1 Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

Paul's Joy at the Church's Repentance

7:7 Acts 11:23; Rom 1:12; Col 2:5

6:9 as dying, and look, we live A nobody to the world but known to God. Again and again God kept him alive (1:8-10; 11:23). Every trial was measured by God's hand (Ps 118:18).
6:10 as being sorrowful, but always rejoicing Paul wept over the churches and over Israel (Rom 9:2), yet joy never left. Happiness depends on what is happening; joy depends on who God is. He owned almost nothing, yet in Christ had everything (1 Cor 3:21-23). A believer with nothing but Christ is richer than a man with everything but Christ.
6:11 Our mouth has been opened to you, Corinthians Paul rarely names his readers like this. He has held nothing back, and his heart has room for all of them, even those who hurt him.
6:12 you are restricted in your affections Restricted is squeezed into a narrow space. Affections are the deep feelings of the heart. Some had pulled back their love after listening to his critics. When we let others turn us against someone who loves us, our own hearts shrink.
6:13 you also be widened A fair exchange: I opened my heart, now open yours. Paul speaks as their spiritual father (1 Cor 4:15). Love grows when it is returned.
6:14 Do not become unequally yoked with unbelievers A yoke joined two animals to pull together. The Law forbade plowing with an ox and a donkey (Deut 22:10). In context Paul calls the church to stop joining hands with people and practices that oppose Christ, amid Corinth's idols and false teachers. Most apply it first to marriage (1 Cor 7:39). Many extend it to binding partnerships that force compromise; others keep it to marriage and false religion. It does not forbid friendship with unbelievers (1 Cor 5:9-10), nor tell a believer already married to an unbeliever to leave (1 Cor 7:12-14).
6:15 what harmony has Christ with Belial? Five questions, each answered none. Belial means worthlessness and became a Jewish name for Satan. At the deepest level, in what they love and serve, believer and unbeliever do not share the same Lord.
6:16 you are a temple of the living God An idol in God's temple was one of Israel's worst sins (2 Kgs 21:4-7). God lives in His people by His Spirit (1 Cor 3:16; 6:19). Paul quotes Leviticus 26:12 and Ezekiel 37:27. In Ezekiel the promise is to Israel regathered to its land (Ezek 37:21-28). Paul does not move it to the church but shows God already lives among His people now. An idol is anything we love, trust or serve more than God.
6:17 come out from the midst of them and be separate From Isaiah 52:11, God's call to leave Babylon and its idols. To be separate is not to live in a bubble but to be set apart for God in belief, love and action. "I will receive you": separation is coming home to Someone.
6:18 you will be to Me for sons and daughters Echoing God's promise to David (2 Sam 7:14) and Isaiah 43:6. Every believer, man or woman, is God's child. We do not separate from the world to earn His love but because we already belong to a Father who loves us.
7:1 let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of flesh and spirit The promises are those of 6:16-18. Sins of the flesh are outward, like immorality and drunkenness; sins of the spirit are inward, like pride, bitterness and envy. Only Christ's blood cleanses guilt (1 John 1:7), but we must turn from what defiles. Perfecting holiness is a lifelong work, done in reverent fear of the holy God who lives among us.
7:2 we wronged no one, we corrupted no one, we exploited no one "Make room for us" repeats 6:13. To corrupt is to ruin someone's faith; to exploit is to take advantage, often for money. The false teachers did all three (11:20). Can we say the same about how we have treated others?
7:3 you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together Paul is not trying to make them feel guilty. These are words of lifelong commitment, as between best friends or husband and wife. That is how a true pastor loves his people.
7:4 I overabound with joy in all our affliction His troubles had not gone away, but God gave joy in the middle of them, and he is about to say why.
7:5 outside were conflicts, within were fears The story of 2:12-13 resumes. Opposition outside, worry about Corinth inside. Being a strong believer does not mean never feeling afraid. It means bringing those fears to God.
7:6 the One comforting the lowly, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus The lowly are those brought down by trouble (Isa 49:13). Paul received no vision. A friend walked through the door. God often comforts us through people. Whom might He send you to this week?
7:7 your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me Titus came back encouraged. They missed Paul, were sorry for the pain they caused, and now stood up for him. All Paul's fears turned to joy.

rejoiced the more. 8 For even if I grieved you with the letter, I do not regret it; even if I was regretting it (for I see that that letter grieved you, even if for an hour), 9 now I rejoice, not that you were grieved, but that you were grieved to repentance; for you were grieved according to God, so that you might suffer loss in nothing from us. 10 For the grief according to God produces repentance to salvation without regret, but the grief of the world produces death. 11 For look, this very thing, your having been grieved according to God, how much earnestness it has produced in you, yes, what defense, yes, what indignation, yes, what fear, yes, what longing, yes, what zeal, yes, what vindication! In everything you have proved yourselves to be pure in the matter. 12 So even if I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of the one having done wrong, nor for the sake of the one having suffered wrong, but for the sake of our earnestness on your behalf being made manifest to you before God. 13 Because of this we have been comforted in your comfort; and we rejoiced still more abundantly at the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you. 14 For if I have boasted anything to him about you, I was not put to shame; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, so also our boasting to Titus became truth. 15 And his affections are more abundantly toward you, as he remembers the obedience of all of you, how you received him with fear and trembling. 16 I rejoice therefore that in everything I am confident in you.

The Grace of Giving

1 Now we make known to you, brothers, the grace of God which has been given among the churches of Macedonia (Makedonia), 2 that in much testing of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generosity. 3 For according to their ability, I testify, and beyond their ability, they gave of their own accord, 4 with much appeal begging us to receive the grace and the fellowship of the ministry to the saints. 5 And not as we had hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God, 6 so that we urged Titus (Titos) that, just as he had begun before, so he would also complete this grace also among you. 7 But just as you abound in everything, in faith and speech and knowledge and all earnestness and in the love from you in us, see that you abound in this grace also. 8 I do not speak as a command, but through the earnestness of others also proving the genuine-

8:7 2 Cor 9:8; 1 Cor 1:5; Rom 15:14
8:8 1 Cor 7:6,12,25; 2 Cor 8:10; 2 Cor 9:7

7:8 even if I grieved you with the letter, I do not regret it The hard letter of 2:3-4. For a time Paul wished he had not sent it, as anyone lies awake after saying something hard to someone he loves. But the grief lasted only "for an hour" and led somewhere good.
7:9 grieved to repentance Paul rejoiced not in their pain but in what it produced. Repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of direction. Their sorrow was "according to God," grief over how sin offended Him, not only over the trouble it caused.
7:10 the grief according to God produces repentance to salvation without regret One of the most important verses on repentance. Godly sorrow sees sin as God sees it and turns to Him. Worldly sorrow grieves over being caught or over consequences, brings tears but no change, and leads to death. Peter wept, turned back and was restored (Luke 22:62; John 21:15-19). Judas felt remorse but did not turn to the Lord (Matt 27:3-5). Where is your sorrow leading you?
7:11 how much earnestness it has produced in you Seven fruits of godly sorrow: taking it seriously, eagerness to set things right, anger at the sin, holy fear, longing to be restored, zeal, and seeing justice done. Real repentance does not just feel sorry. It acts.
7:12 nor for the sake of the one having suffered wrong The offender of 2:5-8 and the one he wronged, perhaps Paul himself. Paul wrote not mainly to punish or defend but so they would see, before God, how deeply he cared for them.
7:13 his spirit has been refreshed by all of you Titus may have gone worried about his welcome. To refresh is to give rest and new strength. When a church treats God's servants well, it brings joy to everyone.
7:14 our boasting to Titus became truth Paul had told Titus the church would come through and was not put to shame. It is good to believe the best about people and speak well of them.
7:15 how you received him with fear and trembling Not terror of Titus, but humble seriousness, knowing he came with an apostle's authority and they had done wrong. They listened and obeyed rather than making excuses.
7:16 in everything I am confident in you The crisis is over, and trust restored clears the way for chapters 8 and 9. Repentance and forgiveness clear the way for working together again.
8:1 the grace of God which has been given among the churches of Macedonia Macedonia's churches included Philippi, Thessalonica and Berea (Acts 16:12; 17:1, 10). Paul calls their giving God's grace, a word that runs through these two chapters. A generous heart is evidence of God at work.
8:2 their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generosity They were suffering for their faith (1 Thess 1:6; 2:14) and in rock-bottom poverty, yet joy and poverty together produced rich generosity. Generosity does not depend on how much you have but on what has hold of your heart.
8:3 beyond their ability, they gave of their own accord Paul saw it himself. No one forced or begged them. Grace giving is not a tax or a fee but a free gift from a heart God has touched.
8:4 begging us to receive the grace and the fellowship of the ministry to the saints They begged Paul to let them give, perhaps because he hesitated at their poverty. Fellowship is koinonia, sharing. The saints are the poor believers in Jerusalem (Rom 15:26). Do you see giving as a burden or a privilege?
8:5 they first gave themselves to the Lord The secret of their giving. When a person has given his whole life to the Lord, giving money is no longer a hard question. If I have given myself to God, my money will follow.
8:6 so he would also complete this grace also among you Titus had begun gathering the gift in Corinth. Good intentions are not enough. God wants us to follow through.
8:7 see that you abound in this grace also Corinth abounded in faith, speech and knowledge (1 Cor 1:5) but could still be weak in giving. If we are growing in Christ, our generosity should be growing too.
8:8 I do not speak as a command Paul could have ordered an amount and chose not to. Love that is real shows in action (1 John 3:17-18). Paul never mentions the tithe in chapters 8-9 or sets a percentage. Some see the tithe as a good starting guide, since Abraham gave a tenth before the Law (Gen 14:20); others see it as part of the Law, with believers giving as each purposes (9:7). The passage plainly teaches willing, generous, proportionate giving.

ness of your love. 9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, that for your sake He became poor, being rich, so that you by His poverty might become rich. 10 And I give an opinion in this, for this is profitable for you, who began before, a year ago, not only to do but also to will. 11 But now also complete the doing, so that, just as there was the readiness of the willing, so also there may be the completing out of what you have. 12 For if the readiness is present, it is well-accepted according to what anyone may have, not according to what he does not have. 13 For it is not that there should be rest for others and affliction for you, 14 but by equality: at the present time your surplus is for their need, so that their surplus also may be for your need, so that there may be equality; 15 just as it has been written, "He who gathered much did not have excess, and he who gathered little did not lack."

Titus and the Brothers Sent

16 But thanks be to God, who gives the same earnestness for you into the heart of Titus; 17 for he indeed accepted the appeal, but being more earnest, he went out to you of his own accord. 18 And we sent with him the brother whose praise in the gospel is through all the churches; 19 and not only this, but he was also chosen by the churches as our fellow traveler with this grace which is being ministered by us for the glory of the Lord Himself and for your readiness, 20 avoiding this, that anyone should blame us in this bounty which is being ministered by us, 21 providing good things not only before the Lord but also before men. 22 And we sent with them our brother, whom we have often proved in many things to be earnest, but now much more earnest by his great confidence which is toward you. 23 Whether about Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you; or our brothers, they are apostles of the churches, the glory of Christ. 24 Therefore show to them, even before the face of the churches, the proof of your love and of our boasting about you.

The Gift Made Ready

1 For concerning the ministry to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you; 2 for I know your readiness, about which I boast of you to the Macedonians, that Achaia has been prepared since a year ago; and the zeal from you has stirred up the majority. 3 But I have sent the brothers, so that our boasting about you might not be made empty in this matter, so that, just as I was saying, you may be prepared; 4 lest perhaps, if Macedonians come with me and find you

9:4 2 Cor 9:2; 2 Cor 8:1-5; 2 Cor 8:24

8:9 for your sake He became poor, being rich The greatest reason to give. The Son shared the Father's glory (John 17:5), yet was laid in a feeding trough (Luke 2:7), had no place to lay His head (Matt 8:20), and was buried in a borrowed tomb, so that we might be rich in forgiveness and eternal life. Some use this verse to promise believers wealth, but Paul was often poor (6:10; 11:27). The riches are spiritual riches in Christ.
8:10 who began before, a year ago Corinth was first to start (1 Cor 16:1-2), but the trouble in the church seems to have stalled the gift. Paul gives advice, not a command.
8:11 now also complete the doing Many are quick to say yes and slow to follow through. Make your willingness real. The measure is "out of what you have."
8:12 it is well-accepted according to what anyone may have, not according to what he does not have God looks first at the willing heart and measures a gift by what it costs the giver. The poor widow's two coins were more than all the rich gave (Mark 12:41-44). God does not expect you to give what you do not have.
8:13 not that there should be rest for others and affliction for you Grace giving does not mean giving so much your family goes hungry or bills go unpaid. A believer must provide for his household (1 Tim 5:8). Generous, not reckless.
8:14 so that there may be equality Not everyone having exactly the same, or government forcing it, but believers freely helping one another. When one part of the body has more, it helps the part that has less. The church is a family.
8:15 He who gathered much did not have excess, and he who gathered little did not lack From Exodus 16:18. With the manna, everyone had just what he needed. God provides for His children, often through His people sharing.
8:17 he went out to you of his own accord God put the care for Corinth in Titus's heart. Paul asked, but Titus would have gone anyway, the best kind of servant.
8:18 the brother whose praise in the gospel is through all the churches Paul does not name him. Some early writers suggested Luke; others suggest Barnabas, Silas, Apollos or one of the men of Acts 20:4. We do not know, and it matters less than his good name.
8:19 chosen by the churches as our fellow traveler with this grace The churches, not Paul, chose him, on purpose. Gentiles helping Jewish believers showed the world Christ had made them one family (Eph 2:14), for the Lord's glory.
8:21 providing good things not only before the Lord but also before men Whenever money is involved, people ask questions, and Paul's critics already doubted him (12:16-18). More than one person handled the money, and the churches chose its carriers. Never let one person handle church money alone. Keep good records and be open about how gifts are used.
8:22 whom we have often proved in many things to be earnest A third, unnamed brother, tested many times. Faithfulness in small things had prepared him for a larger task (Luke 16:10).
8:23 they are apostles of the churches, the glory of Christ Apostle here is used in its general sense of a messenger sent by the churches, not one chosen by Christ like the Twelve or Paul. Their faithful lives brought honor to Jesus. What a thing to be said of anyone.
8:24 the proof of your love and of our boasting about you Other churches would hear how Corinth received these messengers. Love is proven by what we do. What does your giving say about your love for Christ and His people?
9:1 it is superfluous for me to write to you Superfluous means more than needed. Paul is tactful, reminding friends of something they already care about. Helping believers in need is called a ministry, a service to God.
9:2 the zeal from you has stirred up the majority Corinth's early eagerness inspired Macedonia, and now Macedonia's example inspires Corinth (8:1-5). Our faithfulness can stir others, and theirs can stir us (Heb 10:24). Achaia was Corinth's province.
9:3 so that, just as I was saying, you may be prepared Good intentions can fade, and the church's trouble had slowed things. Wise leaders do not just hope things get done. They make plans to help people follow through.
9:4 lest perhaps, if Macedonians come with me and find you unprepared Paul is gentle, even a little playful: we would be ashamed, not to mention you. Our follow-through should match our promises.

unprepared, we (that we may not say you) be put to shame in this confidence of boasting. 5 Therefore I considered it necessary to urge the brothers that they go ahead to you and arrange beforehand your previously announced blessing, that this be ready thus, as a blessing and not as covetousness.

God Loves a Cheerful Giver

6 Now this I say: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows with blessings will also reap with blessings. 7 Each one should give just as he purposes in the heart, not out of grief or out of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. 8 And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that, always having all sufficiency in everything, you may abound to every good work; 9 just as it has been written, "He scattered, he gave to the poor; his righteousness remains to the age." 10 Now may He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the produce of your righteousness, 11 you being enriched in everything for all generosity, which produces through us thanksgiving to God. 12 For the ministry of this service not only is fully supplying the needs of the saints, but is also abounding through many thanksgivings to God, 13 while through the proof of this ministry they are glorifying God for the submission of your confession to the gospel of Christ, and for the generosity of the fellowship toward them and toward all, 14 and by their supplication for you, longing for you because of the surpassing grace of God upon you. 15 Now thanks be to God for His indescribable free gift!

10:5 Matt 15:19; Rom 7:23; Rom 1:21
10:6 2 Cor 2:9; 2 Cor 7:15; Num 16:26-30

9:5 as a blessing and not as covetousness Covetousness is greed. Gathering early let the gift come from generous hearts rather than be squeezed out under last-minute pressure, which feels more like a tax than a blessing.
9:6 he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly Giving feels like loss, as a farmer throws good seed on the ground, but the seed grows. The harvest is God's grace and supply (9:8), righteousness (9:10) and thanksgiving to God (9:12), with treasure in heaven (Matt 6:19-21). Some say giving money guarantees getting rich. Paul does not. When God supplies material things, it is so we can keep giving (9:8, 11).
9:7 for God loves a cheerful giver Each one gives, not only the rich. Giving is purposed ahead of time, between the believer and God, not a reaction to an emotional appeal, and Paul sets no amount. Not with regret or under force. Cheerful is hilaros, glad. God gave His Son freely, and when we give with joy, we look like our Father.
9:8 God is able to make all grace abound to you All grace, always, all sufficiency, everything, every good work. The generous giver will have enough for his needs and to keep doing good. God gives to us so He can give through us.
9:9 He scattered, he gave to the poor From Psalm 112:9, the righteous man who fears the Lord. He scatters like a sower rather than hoarding, and what he gives for God's sake lasts.
9:10 He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food Echoing Isaiah 55:10. God gives both seed to plant and bread to eat, and as we keep giving, the fruit of our godly lives keeps growing.
9:11 being enriched in everything for all generosity The world says get rich to enjoy it. God says I will give you enough to share it. The gift passes from God to us to others and back to God as praise. We are a channel, not a reservoir.
9:12 the ministry of this service The word is leitourgia, often used of priestly service in the temple. Giving is worship. It met real needs in Jerusalem and caused many to thank God.
9:13 the submission of your confession to the gospel of Christ Confession is what you say you believe, submission your obedience to it. Many Jewish believers were unsure of Gentile believers. A Gentile gift to Jewish saints showed Christ's love crossing the old dividing wall (Eph 2:14).
9:14 by their supplication for you Corinth would give money, and Jerusalem would give earnest prayer. Believers who had never met would come to love one another. Generous giving knits hearts together across distance and background.
9:15 thanks be to God for His indescribable free gift After two chapters on giving, Paul bursts into praise for God's gift of His Son (John 3:16) and all that comes with Him (Rom 8:32). Every gift we give is a small echo of this one. Have you thanked God today for it?
10:1 through the meekness and gentleness of Christ "I myself, Paul": attacked personally, he answers personally. Meekness is not weakness but strength under control. Jesus was gentle and humble in heart (Matt 11:29), yet drove the money changers from the temple. The rest of the verse quotes his critics, who called him timid in person and bold only in letters, a coward.
10:2 some who reckon us as walking according to the flesh The false teachers accused Paul of worldly motives such as selfishness, fear or love of money. He begs the church to set things right so he need not be severe in person, but he will be if forced.
10:3 we do not wage war according to the flesh Paul is human like everyone else, but he refuses the world's methods: power, money, pressure, manipulation, smear campaigns and clever speech. Believers should not fight their battles by the flesh's rules.
10:4 the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly The Christian life is a real spiritual battle (Eph 6:12). The weapons are truth, righteousness, the gospel, faith, the Word of God and prayer (Eph 6:13-18), mighty because God works through them. A stronghold was a high-walled fortress. Pride, false religion and long-believed lies wall people in, and no human argument breaks those walls, but God's truth carried in prayer can.
10:5 taking every thought captive into the obedience of Christ Strongholds are reasonings and proud ideas raised like towers against the knowledge of God. A winning army takes prisoners. What thoughts run loose in your mind: fear, lust, bitterness, worry, pride? Capture each one, hold it up to God's Word, and make it obey Christ.
10:6 when your obedience has been fulfilled Paul would discipline the unrepentant rebels, but only after the church as a whole had come back. He would not punish the whole church for the sins of a few.

obedience has been fulfilled. 7 You are looking at the things according to appearance. If anyone is persuaded in himself that he is Christ's, let him reckon this again from himself, that just as he is Christ's, so also we are Christ's. 8 For even if I boast somewhat more abundantly concerning our authority, which the Lord gave to us for building you up and not for your demolition, I will not be ashamed, 9 so that I may not seem as if to terrify you through the letters. 10 For "the letters," he says, "are weighty and strong, but the presence of the body is weak, and the speech is despised." 11 Let such a one reckon this, that such as we are in word through letters when absent, such we are also in deed when present.

Boasting in the Lord

12 For we do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those commending themselves; but they, measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves with themselves, do not understand. 13 But we will not boast to the things beyond measure, but according to the measure of the sphere which God assigned to us, a measure to reach even as far as you. 14 For we are not overextending ourselves, as though not reaching to you; for we came even as far as you in the gospel of Christ, 15 not boasting to the things beyond measure in others' labors, but having hope, as your faith increases, to be enlarged among you according to our sphere, to abundance, 16 so as to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, not to boast in another's sphere in the things made ready. 17 But "he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord." 18 For not he who commends himself, that one is approved, but he whom the Lord commends.

2 CORINTHIANS 11

Paul and the False Apostles

1 I wish you were bearing with me a little in the foolishness; but indeed you are bearing with me. 2 For I am jealous for you with the jealousy of God; for I betrothed you to one husband, to present a pure virgin to Christ. 3 But I am afraid lest perhaps, as the serpent deceived Eve (Eua) by his craftiness, so your thoughts may be corrupted from the simplicity that is toward Christ. 4 For if indeed the one coming preaches another Jesus (Iesous) whom we did not preach, or you receive a different spirit which you did not receive, or a different gospel which you did not accept, you would bear with it well. 5 For I reckon that I have fallen short in nothing of

11:5 2 Cor 12:11,12; 1 Cor 15:10; Gal 2:6-9

10:7 You are looking at the things according to appearance Corinth was impressed by the false teachers' polish and judged Paul by plain looks and simple speech. Whatever they claimed of belonging to Christ, Paul could claim too. Do not judge by appearance (John 7:24).
10:8 for building you up and not for your demolition Paul's apostolic authority was real, given by the risen Lord, but its purpose was to build up. The false teachers used theirs to enslave and exploit (11:20). That is the test of spiritual leadership.
10:10 the presence of the body is weak, and the speech is despised "He" is likely a leader of the false teachers. Corinth loved great public speakers, and Paul refused to impress with fancy words (1 Cor 2:1-5). A later writing describes him as short and plain looking, though we cannot be sure. The gospel never depended on his looks or voice.
10:11 such we are also in deed when present Integrity means being the same near or far, seen or unseen. Are we the same in private as in public, online as in person, at church as at home?
10:12 measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves with themselves Irony: Paul would not dare rank himself with these self-praising men. Make your own measuring stick and you always measure up. Comparing ourselves with others leads to pride or despair, and neither is from God. The only true measure is His.
10:13 according to the measure of the sphere which God assigned to us A sphere is a field of work. God gave Paul the Gentiles (Gal 2:7-9), and Corinth was inside that field. The false teachers moved into a church someone else planted and acted as if it were theirs.
10:14 we came even as far as you in the gospel of Christ Paul brought the gospel to Corinth first (Acts 18:1-11; 1 Cor 3:6, 10). He is stating a fact, not bragging.
10:15 not boasting to the things beyond measure in others' labors The false teachers took credit for what God did through Paul. Paul hoped the church's growing faith would free him to move on. A healthy church becomes a launching point for reaching others.
10:16 to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you Paul's heart was for those who had never heard, as far as Rome and Spain (Rom 15:20-24). He broke new ground rather than taking credit in another's field. Every church should have a heart for the regions beyond.
10:17 he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord From Jeremiah 9:24, also quoted in 1 Corinthians 1:31. Not in wisdom, strength or riches, but in knowing the Lord. If God has done anything good through us, the credit is His.
10:18 not he who commends himself, that one is approved, but he whom the Lord commends Approved means tested and found genuine. Before His judgment seat (5:10), followers and impressive looks will not matter, only whether the Lord says well done (Matt 25:21).
11:1 bearing with me a little in the foolishness Paul is about to talk about his own credentials, which he finds foolish. Boasting is not the way of Christ, but to win back a church led astray by boasters, he uses their method for a moment while showing how empty it is.
11:2 I betrothed you to one husband, to present a pure virgin to Christ Godly jealousy guards what belongs to someone we love, as God is jealous for His people (Exod 34:14). In Jewish custom betrothal was a binding promise, with the wedding later, and a father guarded his betrothed daughter. Through his preaching Paul promised them to Christ. The church is His bride (Eph 5:25-27; Rev 19:7-8).
11:3 as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness The serpent came with clever questions and half-truths, twisting God's Word just enough (Gen 3:1-6). Simplicity is single-hearted devotion. False teaching usually comes as something added, more complicated or impressive, slowly pulling the heart from Christ alone. Beware of any teaching that leaves you with less of Jesus.
11:4 preaches another Jesus whom we did not preach They used His name, but with a different spirit and a different gospel, and the Corinthians bore it easily (Gal 1:8). Many groups use the name of Jesus but mean someone other than the eternal Son of God who died for our sins and rose bodily. Ask, which Jesus?
11:5 the most eminent apostles Or super-apostles. Many believe Paul speaks with irony of the false teachers themselves; others think he means the Twelve, whom the false teachers may have claimed to represent. Either way, Paul was no second-rate apostle.

the most eminent apostles. 6 But even if I am unskilled in speech, yet not in knowledge; but in every way we have been made manifest to you in all things. 7 Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I preached the gospel of God to you freely? 8 I robbed other churches, having received support for the ministry to you; 9 and being present with you and having been in need, I did not burden anyone; for the brothers who came from Macedonia (Makedonia) fully supplied my need; and in everything I kept myself unburdensome to you, and I will keep myself so. 10 The truth of Christ is in me, that this boasting will not be stopped as to me in the regions of Achaia. 11 Why? Because I do not love you? God knows! 12 But what I do, I will also do, so that I may cut off the occasion of those desiring an occasion, so that in what they boast they may be found just as we also are. 13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ. 14 And it is no marvel, for Satan himself disguises himself as an angel of light. 15 Therefore it is no great thing if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

Paul's Sufferings

16 Again I say, let no one think me to be a fool; but if otherwise, receive me even as a fool, so that I also may boast a little. 17 What I am speaking, I am not speaking according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. 18 Since many boast according to the flesh, I also will boast. 19 For you gladly bear with fools, being wise yourselves! 20 For you bear it if anyone enslaves you, if anyone devours you, if anyone takes from you, if anyone lifts himself up, if anyone strikes you in the face. 21 I speak as concerning dishonor, as though we were weak. But in whatever anyone is daring (I speak in foolishness), I also am daring. 22 Are they Hebrews? I also. Are they Israelites? I also. Are they the seed of Abraham (Abraam)? I also. 23 Are they servants of Christ? (I speak as being out of my mind) I am more: in labors more abundantly, in beatings exceedingly, in imprisonments more abundantly, in deaths often. 24 From the Jews five times I received forty lashes minus one. 25 Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked;

11:25 Deut 25:3; Acts 16:22,23,33,37; Acts 22:24

11:6 even if I am unskilled in speech, yet not in knowledge Unskilled means an amateur. Paul was not trained in the speaking style Greeks admired (1 Cor 2:1-4), but God revealed the gospel to him (Gal 1:11-12). A plain speaker with the truth is far better than a gifted speaker with error.
11:7 because I preached the gospel of God to you freely? Paul worked as a tentmaker rather than take Corinth's money (Acts 18:3). In Greek culture a teacher who did not charge was often thought worthless. With irony he asks if serving them free was a sin.
11:8 I robbed other churches Strong words for effect: poorer churches supported him while he served Corinth. He had the right to support (1 Cor 9:14) but gave it up there so no one could say he preached for money.
11:9 the brothers who came from Macedonia fully supplied my need When Silas and Timothy came, they brought gifts (Acts 18:5; Phil 4:15-16). Paul would keep serving Corinth without pay and give his critics nothing to grab.
11:11 Because I do not love you? God knows! Sometimes love gives, and sometimes it refuses to take. Our motives can be misunderstood, but God knows our hearts.
11:12 so that I may cut off the occasion of those desiring an occasion The false teachers wanted to say Paul was in it for money like them. If they were really his equals, let them serve without pay. They never would.
11:13 false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ Disguising means putting on a costume. Jesus warned of wolves in sheep's clothing (Matt 7:15). Test every teacher by the Word (1 John 4:1; Acts 17:11): what he teaches about Jesus and the gospel (11:4), whether he serves people or uses them (11:20), whether he points to Christ or himself (4:5).
11:14 Satan himself disguises himself as an angel of light Satan rarely shows up looking evil. He offered Eve wisdom (Gen 3:5) and quoted Scripture to Jesus (Matt 4:6). The most dangerous lies sound spiritual, reasonable and attractive. Many false religions began with a claimed message from an angel. Judge not by how bright the messenger looks but by God's Word.
11:15 whose end will be according to their works His servants talk about righteousness but serve the father of lies (John 8:44). Their disguise will not fool God (2 Pet 2:1-3). That should make every teacher tremble to handle God's Word rightly.
11:17 I am not speaking according to the Lord, but as in foolishness Not that these verses are uninspired, but that self-boasting is not how Jesus acted. Paul knowingly plays a fool's part to win them back.
11:18 many boast according to the flesh Bragging about background, family, education, achievements and spiritual experiences. Paul meets them on their ground, but his boasting ends in weakness.
11:19 you gladly bear with fools, being wise yourselves! Irony. The Corinthians thought themselves wise (1 Cor 4:10), yet gladly put up with foolish boasters, so surely they can bear Paul a few minutes.
11:20 if anyone strikes you in the face The false teachers enslaved, devoured, took advantage, lifted themselves up and treated the believers with contempt, maybe real violence. People sometimes follow and even defend leaders who abuse them. False shepherds feed on the flock (Ezek 34:2-4). If a leader has hurt you, that is not what Christ intends. He is the Good Shepherd who lays down His life (John 10:11).
11:21 as though we were weak Irony: Paul was too weak to treat them that way. Now he begins his foolish boast.
11:22 Are they Hebrews? I also Hebrews kept the language and customs; Israelites were the covenant people descended from Jacob; Abraham's seed were heirs of the promises. Paul was all three (Phil 3:5). He never stopped loving his people. He simply refused to trust his heritage for salvation.
11:23 in labors more abundantly, in beatings exceedingly, in imprisonments more abundantly Paul's proof is not successes or visions but sufferings. Acts records only one imprisonment before this letter (Acts 16:23), so there were others we do not know.
11:24 five times I received forty lashes minus one The Law allowed up to forty lashes (Deut 25:3), and thirty-nine were given to avoid going over by mistake. A brutal whipping from synagogue leaders five times, none recorded in Acts.
11:25 once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked Beating with rods was Roman punishment (Acts 16:22-23). The stoning was at Lystra, where he was left for dead (Acts 14:19). All three shipwrecks came before the one in Acts 27. These men who mocked Paul as weak had suffered nothing like this.

a night and a day I have spent in the deep; 26 in journeys from my own race, in dangers from the Gentiles, in dangers in the city, in dangers in the wilderness, in dangers in the sea, sleeplessness often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness; 28 besides the things outside, there is the pressure on me daily, the care for all the churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I do not burn? 30 If it is necessary to boast, I will boast of the things of my weakness. 31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, He who is blessed to the ages, knows that I am not lying. 32 In Damascus (Damaskos) the governor of Aretas the king was guarding the city of the Damascenes (Damaskenoi), wishing to seize me; 33 and through a window in a basket I was let down through the wall, and I escaped his hands.

2 CORINTHIANS 12

Visions and the Thorn in the Flesh

1 Indeed it is not profitable for me to boast; for I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. 2 I know a man in Christ fourteen years ago (whether in the body I do not know, or out of the body I do not know; God knows), such a one caught up to the third heaven. 3 And I know such a man (whether in the body or outside the body I do not know; God knows), 4 that he was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words, which it is not permitted for a man to speak. 5 On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on behalf of myself I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. 6 For if I desire to boast,
I will not be a fool, for I will speak the truth; but I refrain, lest anyone reckon to me beyond what he sees me to be or hears from me. 7 And so that I might not be exalted above measure by the surpassing greatness of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan, so that he might buffet me, so that I might not be exalted above measure. 8 Concerning this I begged the Lord three times that it might depart from me. 9 And He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is perfected in weakness." Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast in my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me.
10 Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in distresses, on behalf of Christ;

12:9 Phil 4:13; Isa 40:29; Eph 3:16
12:10 Rom 5:3; 2 Cor 13:4,9; James 1:2

11:26 in dangers among false brothers Travel, mostly on foot, through flooding rivers, bandit country, Jewish and Gentile opposition (Acts 9:23; 14:19; 16:19-24; 19:23-41), city mobs, wilderness and sea. Perhaps worst was betrayal from within.
11:27 in cold and nakedness Hard work, sleepless nights, hunger, and fastings that may mean going without because there was no food. Next time we complain about a hard day, read this verse.
11:28 the care for all the churches An inward weight beyond the outward sufferings: every report of false teaching, division or persecution from Galatia to Asia. It is often heavier than any outward hardship. Pray for your pastor and leaders.
11:29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Paul felt his people's struggles as his own, and burned with grief and anger when someone was led into sin. A true shepherd does not shrug when a sheep stumbles.
11:30 I will boast of the things of my weakness The turning point. The false teachers boasted in strength. Paul boasts in what showed his weakness, because there God's power was seen (4:7; 12:9). That is the way of the cross.
11:31 knows that I am not lying His list was so extreme some might think he made it up, and enemies called him a liar (6:8). God saw everything, and that was enough.
11:33 through a window in a basket I was let down through the wall Aretas was king of the Nabateans, an Arab kingdom; most identify him as Aretas IV, who ruled until about A.D. 40 (Acts 9:23-25). Roman soldiers won high honor for being first over an enemy wall. Paul was first down the wall, fleeing in a basket. He ends his boast with a humiliating escape on purpose.
12:1 I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord Boasting does nothing for the kingdom, but the false teachers bragged of spiritual experiences. A vision is something seen by God's power; a revelation is something God makes known. Paul had many (Acts 16:9; 18:9; 22:17-18; 27:23).
12:2 I know a man in Christ fourteen years ago, such a one caught up to the third heaven Paul speaks of himself as someone else, uncomfortable boasting, though verse 7 shows he is the man. About A.D. 42, during his quiet years in Tarsus and Syria-Cilicia (Acts 9:30; Gal 1:21). He kept quiet fourteen years. Jews often spoke of the sky, the heavens of sun and stars, and the third heaven where God dwells. He honestly did not know if he was in the body or not.
12:4 he was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible words Paradise is a Persian word for a garden or park, the dwelling of God where the righteous are with Him (Luke 23:43; Rev 2:7), the same place as the third heaven. Paul gives no tour of heaven. Many books today describe trips to heaven in detail. The man who really went said almost nothing.
12:5 on behalf of myself I will not boast, except in my weaknesses The experience was God's gift, not Paul's achievement. Spiritual experiences can be real gifts, but never a reason for pride.
12:6 lest anyone reckon to me beyond what he sees me to be or hears from me Paul holds back so people judge him by his life and teaching, not his visions. A wise rule for judging any teacher: does the life and teaching match God's Word?
12:7 there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan The word can mean a sharp stake or splinter. To buffet is to strike again and again. Satan meant it for harm; God meant it to keep Paul humble, as He allowed Satan to test Job (Job 1:12). Satan is never outside God's control. Paul does not name it. Many think of illness, perhaps eye trouble (Gal 4:13-15; 6:11), malaria or effects of beatings. Others think of persecution, since Israel's enemies were thorns in their sides (Num 33:55), or a spiritual struggle. Unnamed, every suffering believer can find himself in Paul's story.
12:8 I begged the Lord three times that it might depart from me God said no. That did not mean Paul lacked faith or had hidden sin. God had a better plan. Jesus also prayed three times in the garden and submitted to the Father (Matt 26:39-44). It is right to ask God to take away our pain, and right to trust Him when He does not.
12:9 My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is perfected in weakness The Lord gave something better than removal: grace that is enough every day. Perfected means brought to its full purpose. When we are weak, it is plain the strength is His. "Rest upon me" pictures Christ's power spread over him like a tent. Is there a weakness God has not removed? His grace is enough for you too.
12:10 for when I am weak, then I am strong Paul does not enjoy pain for its own sake but because it opens the door to Christ's power. A paradox sounds impossible but is true. This is the message of 2 Corinthians in one sentence.

for when I am weak, then I am strong.

Paul's Concern for the Church

11 I have become a fool in boasting; you compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by you; for in nothing did I fall short of the most eminent apostles, even if I am nothing. 12 Indeed the signs of the apostle were performed among you in all endurance, in signs and wonders and miracles. 13 For what is it in which you were made inferior to the rest of the churches, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong! 14 Look, a third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not burden you; for I do not seek what is yours, but you. For the children ought not to store up for the parents, but the parents for the children. 15 And I will most gladly spend and be utterly spent for your souls, even if, loving you more abundantly, I am loved less. 16 But be it so, I did not burden you; but being crafty, I caught you by deceit. 17 Did I exploit you through any of those whom I have sent to you? 18 I urged Titus (Titos), and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus exploit you? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Not in the same steps? 19 Again, do you think that we are defending ourselves to you? We speak before God in Christ; but all things, beloved, are for your building up. 20 For I fear lest perhaps, having come, I may find you not such as I wish, and I may be found by you such as you do not wish; lest perhaps there be strifes, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, slanders, whisperings, arrogances, disorders; 21 lest, when I come again, my God may humble me before you, and I may mourn over many of those who have sinned before and have not repented of the impurity and sexual immorality and sensuality which they practiced.

Final Warnings

1 This third time I am coming to you. "By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word will be established." 2 I have said before and I say beforehand, as being present the second time, and being absent now I write to those who have sinned before and to all the rest, that if I come again I will not spare anyone, 3 since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, who is not weak toward you but is powerful among you. 4 For indeed, if He was crucified out of weakness, yet He lives by the power of God. For indeed we also are weak in Him, but we will live with Him by the power of God toward you. 5 Test yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; prove yourselves. Or do you not recognize yourselves, that Jesus (Iesous) Christ is in you, unless indeed you are unapproved?

12:11 I have become a fool in boasting; you compelled me The Corinthians, who knew him, should have defended him. In himself he is nothing, but by grace he was behind no apostle (11:5).
12:12 the signs of the apostle were performed among you Signs point beyond themselves, wonders amaze, miracles are works of power (Acts 14:3; 19:11-12), done with endurance, not show. Some believe sign gifts belonged especially to the apostles and the founding of the church. Others believe God still works such miracles through His people. Both agree that the marks of a true servant include sound teaching and a godly life, not only signs.
12:13 Forgive me this wrong! Irony. His only "wrong" was not taking their money, which the false teachers twisted into a reason to look down on him.
12:14 a third time I am ready to come to you He came once to found the church (Acts 18) and once on the painful visit (2:1). "I do not seek what is yours, but you." Parents save for children, not the reverse. A true minister is not after what people have but after their souls.
12:15 even if, loving you more abundantly, I am loved less One of the saddest lines in the letter. Paul would be poured out completely for them and keep loving when love was not returned, as Jesus loved His own to the end (John 13:1).
12:16 being crafty, I caught you by deceit Another twisted charge: he did not take money himself but would skim the Jerusalem collection through his helpers.
12:18 Did Titus exploit you? The Corinthians knew Titus had not cheated them. Paul's helpers reflected his character. Look at the people a leader sends out. Do they show the same integrity?
12:19 all things, beloved, are for your building up It might seem Paul spent four chapters protecting his reputation. He speaks before God, and it was for their good. Rejecting Paul meant rejecting the true gospel he preached.
12:20 strifes, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, slanders, whisperings Sins of tongue and heart that tear a church apart. Rivalries are selfish ambitions; slanders are open attacks, whisperings gossip behind backs; disorders are chaos. These are as deadly to a church as any outward scandal.
12:21 have not repented of the impurity and sexual immorality and sensuality Sensuality is shameless indulgence with no self-control. Paul would mourn over them as for the dead. A true shepherd's heart breaks over sin in the church, and he longs for repentance while there is time.
13:1 By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word will be established From Deuteronomy 19:15; no one was convicted on one witness, and Jesus applied the rule in the church (Matt 18:16). Paul will act on proof, not rumors. Some think his three visits or repeated warnings are themselves the witnesses. Church discipline must be done with justice, not gossip.
13:2 if I come again I will not spare anyone Warned in person and now in writing, they cannot say they were not told. Paul stayed away to spare them (1:23), but patience has a limit. God's patience is meant to lead us to repentance, not make us careless (Rom 2:4).
13:3 since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me They doubted Paul's apostleship, comparing him with bold boasters. Proof was already among them: they were saved through his preaching and saw the signs of an apostle (12:12).
13:4 if He was crucified out of weakness, yet He lives by the power of God Jesus let men arrest, beat and crucify Him, and it looked like defeat. He lives by God's power. Paul shares the pattern: weak in himself, powerful in the risen Christ. God's power shows itself through weakness, as at the cross and the empty tomb.
13:5 Test yourselves to see whether you are in the faith They had put Paul on trial; now he turns it around. Testing is examining whether something is genuine, as gold is tested. Every true believer has Christ in him by the Spirit (Rom 8:9-10). Unapproved means not genuine, like a fake coin. This is not a call to live in constant fear but to an honest look: real faith, the Spirit's fruit, love for God and hatred of sin. Some read it as a call to confirm genuine faith (1 John 2:19), others as a warning to continue. If you find no real faith, turn to Him today (John 6:37).

6 But I hope that you will know that we are not unapproved.
7 Now I pray to God that you do no evil, not so that we may appear approved, but so that you may do what is good, though we may be as unapproved. 8 For we cannot do anything against the truth, but for the truth. 9 For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong; and this also we pray for, your perfection. 10 Because of this I write these things while absent, so that when present I may not deal severely, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up and not for demolition.

Final Greetings

11 Finally, brothers, rejoice, be perfected, be comforted, think the same thing, be at peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. 12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.
13 All the saints greet you. 14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

13:14 Rom 16:20,24; Rom 5:5; Jude 1:21

13:6 we are not unapproved If they found Christ in themselves, they had to admit Paul was genuine, since they came to Christ through him (3:2-3).
13:7 not so that we may appear approved, but so that you may do what is good If they repented, Paul would not need to show his power, and some might say he never proved himself. He does not care. A good leader cares more about his people's holiness than his own reputation.
13:8 we cannot do anything against the truth, but for the truth Paul's authority works only in line with truth. He could not punish the repentant or act unfairly to protect himself. A leader who uses his position to cover up wrong or punish the innocent has stepped outside his authority.
13:9 this also we pray for, your perfection The word means restored, put back in order, used of setting bones and mending nets (Mark 1:19). Paul gladly looks weak if they are strong.
13:10 so that when present I may not deal severely This explains the whole letter, especially chapters 10-13. He wrote strongly now so he would not have to act strongly later. Discipline is meant to restore, as God disciplines His children (Heb 12:10-11). He wounds to heal.
13:11 rejoice, be perfected, be comforted, think the same thing, be at peace Five short commands: joy in Christ after all the trouble, restoration, God's comfort (chapter 1), one mind, and an end to quarrels. Only here is God called "the God of love and peace."
13:12 Greet one another with a holy kiss A kiss on the cheek was a common greeting among family and close friends, holy because pure and sincere. A warm handshake or hug often does the same today. Some Bibles number verses 12-13 as one verse, so the numbering differs.
13:14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit One of the most beautiful blessings in the Bible and one of the clearest places naming Father, Son and Spirit side by side, three Persons who are one God. Grace seen at the cross (8:9), the Father's love (John 3:16), and the partnership the Spirit creates. After thirteen chapters of tears, defense and warning, the last word is grace, for all of them.

GALATIANS

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for its readers, "the churches of Galatia" (1:2). It is written to a group of churches spread across a region, not to one city or one person. Many Bible teachers have called it the Magna Carta of Christian freedom, because it sets believers free from the idea that we must earn God's favor by keeping rules. It is the only letter of Paul with no word of thanks for its readers at the start. He goes straight from his greeting to his astonishment that they were turning away so quickly (1:6). The gospel itself was at stake.

Author and Date

The letter opens with "Paul, an apostle" (1:1), names him again in 5:2, and closes with lines in his own hand in "large letters" (6:11). Paul was a Jew from Tarsus, trained as a Pharisee, who persecuted the church until the risen Jesus met him on the Damascus road (1:13-16; Acts 9:1-19). Almost no one, even among scholars who doubt some of Paul's other letters, questions that he wrote Galatians. I take it at its word, as the early church did.

Bible teachers give two main dates. Many who hold the south Galatia view date it about A.D. 49, after the first missionary journey and before the Jerusalem council of Acts 15. If so, Galatians may be Paul's first letter, which would explain why he never mentions the council's decision. Others date it about A.D. 53 to 57, during or after his long stay in Ephesus, and note how close its teaching is to Romans. Scripture does not say plainly where he wrote. The closing note in the SLB that it was written from Rome was added by later copyists.

The readers were mostly Gentiles (4:8; 5:2; 6:12). Paul had preached to them himself, and they had received him "as an angel of God" (4:14). Bible teachers hold two views on which churches these were. The south Galatia view takes them as Pisidian Antioch, Iconium, Lystra and Derbe, planted on the first journey (Acts 13:14 to 14:23), since the Roman province of Galatia reached that far south. The north Galatia view takes them as churches among the ethnic Galatians, a Celtic people farther north, perhaps visited in Acts 16:6 and 18:23.

After Paul left, other teachers came. They are often called Judaizers, from Paul's word in 2:14, which means to live like a Jew. They claimed to believe in Jesus but taught that Gentile believers had to be circumcised and keep the Law of Moses, with its special days (4:10; 5:2-4; 6:12-13). They also attacked Paul, saying he was not a true apostle and had his message second hand. Paul calls their message "a different gospel" (1:6) and answers them point by point.

In chapters 1 and 2 Paul lists his visits to Jerusalem to show his gospel did not come from the other apostles. The first, three years after his conversion (1:18), matches Acts 9:26-30. The second, "after fourteen years" (2:1), is harder to place. Some take it as the famine visit of Acts 11:27-30, which fits the early date. Others take it as the council of Acts 15, which fits the later date.

Themes

The heart of the letter is 2:16: "a man is not justified by works of law except through faith of Jesus Christ." To be justified is to be declared righteous by God, and it comes by faith in Christ, never by works of the Law (2:16; 3:11). Adding anything to the gospel turns it into another gospel, and Paul calls a curse on anyone who preaches one (1:6-9).

Paul defends his calling as an apostle, which came straight from Jesus Christ (1:1, 12). He shows from Abraham that God has always justified by faith (3:6-9), and that the Law, given 430 years after the promise, could not cancel it (3:17). The Law had a real purpose. It exposed sin and guarded God's people like a child-guardian until Christ came (3:19, 24). Now believers are sons and heirs, not slaves (4:7).

Freedom in Christ is not freedom to sin. It is freedom to walk by the Spirit and serve one another in love (5:13, 16). The Spirit, not the Law, produces the fruit that pleases God (5:22-23). None of this means God is finished with Israel. Paul's teaching on Abraham's seed and "the Israel of God" (6:16) does not move Israel's promises to the church.

Christ in Galatians

Christ "gave Himself for our sins, so that He might deliver us out of the present evil age" (1:4). Paul lives by faith in the Son of God, "who loved me and gave Himself up for me" (2:20). "Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us" (3:13), and He is the one Seed of Abraham to whom the promises were made (3:16). In the fullness of time God sent His Son, "born of a woman, born under law" (4:4), to redeem those under the Law and make them sons. Paul boasts in nothing "except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ" (6:14).

Hard Passages

The second visit to Jerusalem (2:1-10) is placed in two ways, as above. Peter's withdrawal at Antioch (2:11-14) shows that even an apostle could act against what he believed, and that no leader is above correction by the Word of God. "A mediator is not of one, but God is one" (3:20) has many explanations. "Baptized into Christ" (3:27) is read as Spirit baptism or water baptism, but in either case baptism follows faith and does not save. Galatians 3:28 is about equal standing in Christ, and teachers differ on how far it reaches into roles in home and church. "You fell away from grace" (5:4) is read differently by those with different views on eternal security. The allegory of Hagar and Sarah (4:21-31) is Paul's own, which gives us no license to allegorize Scripture freely. The notes name the main views on these.

Outline

I. Paul's Gospel Came From God (1:1-2:21)
- A. Greeting (1:1-5)
- B. No other gospel (1:6-10)
- C. Paul's call came from Christ (1:11-24)
- D. Paul's gospel accepted in Jerusalem (2:1-10)
- E. Paul opposes Peter at Antioch (2:11-14)
- F. Justified by faith in Christ (2:15-21)

II. Saved by Faith, Not by the Law (3:1-4:31)
  A. The Spirit received by faith (3:1-5)
  B. Abraham justified by faith (3:6-14)
  C. The Law cannot cancel the promise (3:15-18)
  D. The purpose of the Law (3:19-29)
  E. Sons and heirs, not slaves (4:1-7)
  F. Paul's concern for the Galatians (4:8-20)
  G. Hagar and Sarah (4:21-31)
III. Living in Freedom by the Spirit (5:1-6:18)
  A. Stand firm in freedom (5:1-12)
  B. Free to serve in love (5:13-15)
  C. Walk by the Spirit (5:16-26)
  D. Bear one another's burdens (6:1-10)
  E. Boast only in the cross (6:11-18)

Greeting

1 Paul (Paulos), an apostle—not from men, nor through a man, but through Jesus (Iesous) Christ and God the Father, the One who raised Him out from the dead— 2 and all the brothers with me, to the churches of Galatia: 3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 who gave Himself for our sins, so that He might deliver us out of the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, 5 to whom be the glory to the ages of the ages. Amen.

No Other Gospel

6 I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting from the One who called you in the grace of Christ, to a different gospel, 7 which is not another, except that there are some who are troubling you and wanting to distort the gospel of Christ. 8 But even if we, or an angel out of heaven, should preach the gospel to you contrary to what we preached to you, let him be accursed. 9 As we have said before, even now I say again: if anyone is preaching the gospel to you contrary to what you received, let him be accursed. 10 For am I now persuading men, or God? Or am I seeking to please men? For if I were still pleasing men, I would not be a slave of Christ.

Paul Called by God

11 Now I make known to you, brothers, the gospel which was preached by me, that it is not according to man. 12 For neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but through a revelation of Jesus Christ. 13 For you heard of my former way of life in Judaism, that beyond measure I was persecuting the church of God and was destroying it; 14 and I was advancing in Judaism beyond many contemporaries in my nation, being more abundantly a zealot for my ancestral traditions. 15 But when God was pleased, who set me apart from my mother's womb and called me through His grace, 16 to reveal His Son in me, so that I might preach Him as the gospel among the Gentiles, immediately I did not confer with flesh and blood, 17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem (Hierosolyma) to the apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia, and again I returned to Damascus (Damaskos).

1:1 not from men, nor through a man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father Paul defends his authority in his first words. An apostle is one sent with the authority of the sender. No group of men chose him, and no man passed the office to him. He sets Jesus beside the Father and against mere men. The risen Jesus called him on the Damascus road (Acts 9:3-6).
1:2 to the churches of Galatia Several congregations across a region, either in the south of the Roman province or in the north among the Galatian people (see the Introduction). Paul does not call them saints or thank God for them, as in other letters. The coldness is on purpose. Something was badly wrong.
1:3 Grace to you and peace In this letter grace is the whole issue. Grace plus works is no longer grace (Rom 11:6). Peace with God comes from knowing we are accepted because of what Christ has done (Rom 5:1).
1:4 who gave Himself for our sins, so that He might deliver us out of the present evil age The gospel in one sentence. No one took His life; He gave it (John 10:18), in our place. This age is one in which sin and Satan hold sway (2 Cor 4:4), and Christ died to rescue us out of it, by the Father's will. If His death was enough to deliver us, what can circumcision or Law-keeping add?
1:5 to whom be the glory to the ages of the ages Paul cannot speak of the cross without praise. If we could save ourselves even a little, we would get some credit. A test of any message called the gospel: does it give all the glory to God, or leave man room to boast?
1:6 I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting Where other letters give thanks, Paul is shocked. Deserting was used of a soldier leaving his post, and they were in the middle of it. To turn from the gospel of grace is to turn from God who called them. The false teachers did not deny Jesus. They added to Him, and Jesus plus the Law is a different gospel.
1:7 wanting to distort the gospel of Christ There are not two gospels. Troubling means unsettling, and false teaching always leaves God's people shaken. To distort is to twist into the opposite. Add works to grace and good news becomes bad news. They taught obedience not as the fruit of salvation but as the way to be saved (Acts 15:1).
1:8 or an angel out of heaven Accursed is anathema, set apart for God's judgment. Paul includes himself: the message matters more than the messenger (2 Cor 11:14). He says it twice (1:9) because souls are at stake. No preacher has the right to add to or take from the good news.
1:10 if I were still pleasing men, I would not be a slave of Christ The false teachers seem to have said Paul dropped circumcision to make the gospel easier. His curse in verses 8-9 hardly sounds like a man-pleaser. A slave belongs wholly to his master. We can fear what people think or serve Christ, but not both.
1:12 but through a revelation of Jesus Christ Paul begins a defense running through chapter 2. A revelation is an unveiling. He knew the church's preaching before and hated it. The risen Jesus showed him its meaning: the crucified Jesus is Lord, and sinners are made right with God by grace through faith in Him.
1:13 beyond measure I was persecuting the church of God Judaism here means the Jewish religion of Paul's day with its strict Law-keeping and traditions. He dragged believers to prison (Acts 8:3) and approved Stephen's death (Acts 8:1). No one talked Paul into the gospel. If God could save him, He can save anyone (1 Tim 1:15-16).
1:14 more abundantly a zealot for my ancestral traditions A rising star trained under Gamaliel (Acts 22:3), a Pharisee of the strict party (Phil 3:5-6). If anyone could earn righteousness by the Law, it was Paul. He tried that road with all his strength, and it led him to fight against God.
1:15 But when God was pleased, who set me apart from my mother's womb Paul did not find God. God found him. The words echo Jeremiah 1:5 and the Servant in Isaiah 49:1. He was called while persecuting the church. That is grace, favor given to one who deserved the opposite.
1:16 to reveal His Son in me Either an inner revelation in Paul's heart or God showing His Son through Paul to others, and both were true (1 Cor 15:8). The strict Pharisee who would not eat with Gentiles became their apostle. Flesh and blood means human beings. He sought no man's approval.
1:17 I went away into Arabia Most likely the Nabatean kingdom east and south of Damascus. Scripture does not say whether he went to be alone with God and the Scriptures or to preach. It fits the "many days" (Acts 9:23).

18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to get acquainted with Peter (Petros), and I remained with him fifteen days. 19 But I did not see another of the apostles, except James (Iakobos), the brother of the Lord. 20 Now as for what I write to you, look, before God, I am not lying. 21 Then I went into the regions of Syria and of Cilicia (Kilikia). 22 And I was unknown by face to the churches of Judea (Ioudaia) which are in Christ; 23 but they were only hearing that the one once persecuting us is now preaching as the gospel the faith which he once was destroying. 24 And they were glorifying God in me.

Paul Accepted by the Apostles

1 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem (Hierosolyma) with Barnabas, having taken along Titus (Titos) also. 2 And I went up according to a revelation, and I set before them the gospel which I proclaim among the Gentiles, but privately to those who were esteemed, lest somehow I should be running, or had run, in vain. 3 But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised; 4 but because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who came in by stealth to spy out our freedom which we have in Christ Jesus (Iesous), so that they might enslave us; 5 to whom not even for an hour did we yield in subjection, so that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. 6 But from those who were esteemed to be something—whatever they once were makes no difference to me; God does not receive the face of a man—for those who were esteemed conferred nothing to me; 7 but on the contrary, having seen that I have been entrusted with the gospel of the uncircumcision, even as Peter (Petros) with that of the circumcision— 8 for He who worked in Peter for the apostleship of the circumcision worked also in me toward the Gentiles— 9 and having known the grace that was given to me, James (Iakobos) and Cephas (Kephas) and John (Ioannes), those who were esteemed to be pillars, gave to me and to Barnabas right hands of fellowship, so that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision; 10 only that we should remember the poor, the very thing which I also was eager to do.

2:11 1 Tim 5:20; Acts 15:30-35; Gal 2:5

1:18 after three years I went up to Jerusalem to get acquainted with Peter The visit of Acts 9:26-30, likely three years from his conversion. The Greek word gives us history: to visit in order to get to know someone. Fifteen days is not long enough to be trained as an apostle. His gospel did not come from Jerusalem.
1:19 James, the brother of the Lord Not one of the Twelve but the brother of Jesus, a son of Joseph and Mary born after Jesus (Matt 1:25; 13:55-56). He did not believe during Jesus' ministry (John 7:5), but the risen Lord appeared to him (1 Cor 15:7). He led the church in Jerusalem (Acts 15:13) and wrote the letter of James.
1:20 before God, I am not lying Like an oath. His enemies must have said the Jerusalem leaders trained him and he changed their message. He calls God as witness.
1:21 the regions of Syria and of Cilicia The believers sent Paul to Tarsus, the main city of Cilicia, for his safety (Acts 9:29-30). Later Barnabas brought him to Antioch in Syria (Acts 11:25-26). Hundreds of miles from Jerusalem, he preached the gospel he had received from Christ.
1:23 the one once persecuting us is now preaching as the gospel the faith which he once was destroying Judea's believers had never seen his face, so he could not have been their student. The very churches the false teachers claimed to speak for rejoiced over him.
1:24 they were glorifying God in me They praised God, not Paul. When God saves someone with a dark past, give God the glory.
2:1 after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas Counted from his conversion or from the visit of 1:18. Some see the famine relief visit (Acts 11:27-30), fitting an early date for the letter; others the Jerusalem council (Acts 15), with the same people and question. The point is the same either way. Titus was a Gentile believer and later trusted helper (2 Cor 8:23; Titus 1:4).
2:2 I went up according to a revelation God led him, perhaps through Agabus' prophecy (Acts 11:28); he was not summoned for inspection. Paul was not unsure of his gospel, but rejection could split the church into Jewish and Gentile churches and tear his work apart. He wanted unity built on truth.
2:3 not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised Circumcision was the covenant sign given to Abraham (Gen 17:10-14). Titus, a believing Gentile accepted uncircumcised in Jerusalem, settled the question. Paul later circumcised Timothy, whose mother was Jewish, to open doors among Jews (Acts 16:3), not to make him right with God.
2:4 to spy out our freedom which we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might enslave us False brothers claimed to be believers but slipped in like spies. Freedom becomes a main theme of the letter (5:1, 13): freedom from the Law as a way to be right with God. Legalism always watches, measures and lays burdens God never gave.
2:5 so that the truth of the gospel might continue with you Not for an hour. Giving in on Titus would have told every Gentile that faith in Christ is not enough. Paul often gave way for peace (1 Cor 9:19-22), but when someone adds a requirement for salvation, love for people means guarding the truth that saves them.
2:6 God does not receive the face of a man To receive the face is to show favor because of who someone is. The pillars were real apostles, some of whom walked with Jesus, but that did not make their word outrank Paul's (Acts 10:34). They added nothing to his gospel.
2:7 I have been entrusted with the gospel of the uncircumcision Not two gospels (1:7) but two fields of work: Paul to the Gentiles, Peter to the Jews, one message. They saw the same God working through both men (2:8). The fruit proved the calling.
2:9 gave to me and to Barnabas right hands of fellowship Cephas is Aramaic for Peter; both names mean rock. Pillars hold up a building. This James is the Lord's brother (1:19); James the brother of John had been killed by Herod (Acts 12:2). A handshake meant partnership. They divided the work, not the faith.
2:10 only that we should remember the poor Judea's believers were often very poor, hit by famine (Acts 11:28-29). For years Paul gathered an offering for them (Rom 15:25-27; 1 Cor 16:1-3; 2 Cor 8-9). The true gospel never makes us careless about people in need. Grace that saves us opens our hands.
2:11 I opposed him to his face, because he was condemned Antioch in Syria was Paul's home church, with many Gentile believers (Acts 11:19-26). Peter had preached at Pentecost and opened the door to Gentiles at Cornelius' house (Acts 10), yet his own actions stood against him. No leader is above correction by God's Word. Paul did not go behind his back.

him to his face, because he was condemned. 12 For before certain ones came from James, he was eating with the Gentiles; but when they came, he was drawing back and separating himself, fearing those of the circumcision. 13 And the rest of the Jews also joined in hypocrisy with him, so that even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy. 14 But when I saw that they were not walking straight according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before all, "If you, being a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, why do you compel the Gentiles to Judaize?"

Justified by Faith

15 We are Jews by nature and not sinners of the Gentiles, 16 knowing that a man is not justified by works of law except through faith of Jesus Christ, even we believed in Christ Jesus, so that we might be justified by faith of Christ and not by works of law; because by works of law no flesh will be justified. 17 But if, seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also have been found sinners, is Christ then a minister of sin? May it not be! 18 For if I build again these things which I tore down, I prove myself a transgressor. 19 For I through law died to law, so that I might live to God. 20 I have been crucified with Christ; and I live—no longer I, but Christ lives in me; and what I now live in the flesh, I live in faith, that of the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me. 21 I do not set aside the grace of God; for if righteousness is through law, then Christ died for nothing.

By Faith or by Works of Law?

1 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you, not to obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus (Iesous) Christ was publicly portrayed among you as crucified? 2 This only I want to learn from you: did you receive the Spirit by works of law, or by hearing of faith? 3 Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now being perfected in the flesh? 4 Did you suffer so many things in vain? If indeed it was even in vain. 5 Therefore the One supplying the Spirit to you and working miracles among you—is it by works of law, or by hearing of faith?

3:5 Gal 3:2; 1 Cor 1:4,5; Acts 14:3,9,10

2:12 he was drawing back and separating himself, fearing those of the circumcision Jewish custom kept many from eating with Gentiles, but God had shown Peter not to call any man unclean (Acts 10:28). The tense suggests he pulled back little by little. Scripture does not say whether James sent these men or they only claimed his name. The Peter who denied Jesus out of fear (Matt 26:69-75) gave in to fear again.
2:13 even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy Hypocrisy is playing a part, acting against what one believes. Leaders always take others with them. Barnabas, who first stood up for Paul (Acts 9:27), was swept along. Two tables told the Gentiles they were second class unless they lived like Jews.
2:14 why do you compel the Gentiles to Judaize? Paul saw past the meals to the message. Public sin that led many astray called for public correction. To Judaize is to live as a Jew. Peter was asking of them what he had set aside. Later he stood with Paul (Acts 15:7-11) and called him "our beloved brother Paul" (2 Pet 3:15).
2:15 We are Jews by nature and not sinners of the Gentiles It is unclear where the speech to Peter ends; the thought runs straight on. Jews called Gentiles sinners because they lacked the Law. If even Jews with every advantage had to come to Christ by faith, how could anyone think the Law was the way?
2:16 a man is not justified by works of law except through faith of Jesus Christ The key verse of the letter. To be justified is to be declared righteous by God the Judge, not guilty because of Christ. Works of law are doing what the Law of Moses commands. Three times no, three times faith, ending with words from Psalm 143:2. The SLB's "faith of Jesus Christ" is a literal rendering. Most read faith in Christ, as "we believed in Christ Jesus" shows; some read Christ's faithfulness.
2:17 is Christ then a minister of sin? May it not be! Coming to Christ shows the Jew he is a sinner like the Gentiles, but Christ is not the cause of sin. He came to set sinners free from it. "May it not be" is Paul's strongest no. Grace never gives permission to sin (Rom 6:1-2).
2:18 if I build again these things which I tore down, I prove myself a transgressor The false teachers said leaving the Law makes a man a sinner. Paul says rebuilding it after coming to Christ, as Peter did, is the real transgression. It admits we were wrong to trust Christ alone.
2:19 I through law died to law, so that I might live to God The Law showed Paul his sin and sentenced him to death (Rom 7:9-11), and in Christ, who died under its curse (3:13), the sentence was carried out. A dead man has no more obligations under the law. The goal is not lawlessness but life for God.
2:20 I have been crucified with Christ One of the best-loved verses in the Bible. Every believer was joined to Jesus in His death (Rom 6:6). The proud Pharisee died with Christ, and Christ now lives in him by the Spirit. "In the flesh" here simply means in this earthly body. Paul lives daily trusting "the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me." He takes the cross personally, and so may you.
2:21 if righteousness is through law, then Christ died for nothing To set aside grace is to treat it as worthless, which adding the Law does. If we could be right with God by the Law, Jesus' death was a waste. He died because there was no other way. Every message that adds our works says the cross was not enough.
3:1 Who has bewitched you Foolish here means without understanding, not thinking things through. To bewitch is to cast a spell that clouds the mind. That is how strange their turn seemed to Paul, because he had preached the cross so plainly that it was as if they had seen it with their own eyes.
3:1 publicly portrayed The word was used for a public notice posted for all to read. Christ crucified had been set before them in full view. How could anyone who had seen the cross that clearly think it needed help from the Law?
3:2 did you receive the Spirit by works of law, or by hearing of faith One question settles it. These Gentiles had never kept the Law of Moses. They heard the gospel, believed it, and received the Holy Spirit. Every believer receives the Spirit at the moment of faith (Eph 1:13; Rom 8:9). Hearing of faith means hearing the message and believing it.
3:3 Having begun in the Spirit, are you now being perfected in the flesh To be perfected is to be brought to completion. The false teachers said faith is a good start but the Law finishes the job. The flesh here is human effort. If the Spirit began the work, the Spirit will finish it (Phil 1:6). We grow the same way we began, by faith.
3:4 Did you suffer so many things in vain In south Galatia Paul was driven out and stoned at Lystra, and the new believers shared that trouble (Acts 14:2, 5, 19, 22). Some read suffer more widely as experience, all they had gone through with God. Either way, turning back would waste it. Paul still holds out hope that it was not in vain.
3:5 the One supplying the Spirit to you and working miracles among you Paul asks again, now about the present. God was still giving His Spirit and doing mighty works among them, and He had done so before the false teachers ever arrived. It was because they believed, not because they kept the Law.

The Faith of Abraham

6 Just as Abraham (Abraam) believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness. 7 Know then that those who are of faith, these are sons of Abraham. 8 And the Scripture, having foreseen that God justifies the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham: "In you all the nations will be blessed." 9 So then those who are of faith are blessed with the believing Abraham. 10 For as many as are of works of law are under a curse; for it has been written, "Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all the things written in the book of the law, to do them." 11 Now that no one is justified by law before God is evident, because "The righteous by faith will live." 12 And the law is not of faith; rather, "The man who has done them will live in them." 13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us—for it has been written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree"— 14 so that the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles in Christ Jesus, so that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through the faith.

The Law and the Promise

15 Brothers, I speak according to man: even a man's covenant, once ratified, no one sets aside or adds to. 16 Now to Abraham the promises were spoken, and to his seed. He does not say, "And to seeds," as of many, but as of one, "And to your seed," who is Christ. 17 Now this I say: a covenant confirmed beforehand by God toward Christ, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years afterward, does not annul, so as to nullify the promise. 18 For if the inheritance is by law, it is no longer by promise; but God has granted it to Abraham through promise.

Why Then the Law?

19 Why then the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the seed should come to whom it has been promised, having been ordained through angels in the hand of a mediator. 20 Now a mediator is not of one, but God is one. 21 Is the law then against the promises of God? May it not be! For if a law had been given which was able to give life, righteousness

3:6 Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness This is Genesis 15:6. To reckon means to credit to someone's account. Abraham had no righteousness of his own to offer. He believed God's promise, and God credited righteousness to him. This happened years before his circumcision in Genesis 17 (Rom 4:9-12), and centuries before the Law.
3:7 those who are of faith, these are sons of Abraham To be a son of someone often means to follow in his steps. Those who believe God as Abraham did are his spiritual children, Jew or Gentile. This does not mean God is finished with Abraham's physical descendants, the nation of Israel (Rom 11:1, 25-29).
3:8 In you all the nations will be blessed God's promise in Genesis 12:3 and 18:18. Nations is the same word often translated Gentiles. Scripture is spoken of as seeing and preaching because what Scripture says, God says. From the start God meant to bless every nation through Abraham, and by faith. That is the gospel in seed form.
3:9 the believing Abraham The false teachers would have said Abraham the circumcised. Paul names faith as the main thing about him. His obedience was real (Gen 22; James 2:21-23), but it flowed from his faith and did not earn his standing. Believers share his blessing, which verse 14 names: righteousness and the promised Spirit.
3:10 as many as are of works of law are under a curse Paul quotes Deuteronomy 27:26. Look at the words all and continue. The Law demands perfect obedience, all the time. Break one command and you are guilty (James 2:10). Anyone who stands before God on his own Law-keeping chooses a standard he has already failed.
3:11 The righteous by faith will live Habakkuk 2:4, spoken when Babylon was about to sweep over Judah. Some read it as the one righteous by faith will live, others as the righteous will live by faith. Both are true and both fit Paul's point. Righteousness and life have always come by faith.
3:12 the law is not of faith The Law is not bad, but it works on a different principle. Faith trusts God to do what we cannot. The Law says do this and live, quoting Leviticus 18:5. If anyone kept it perfectly, he would live. The problem is us. That way is closed to sinners, and only faith remains.
3:13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law To redeem is to buy back by paying a price, as a slave was bought out of slavery. Paul quotes Deuteronomy 21:23. The body of an executed man hung on a tree was a sign he was under God's curse. On the cross Jesus took the curse we deserved (1 Pet 2:24). The innocent One took the place of the guilty.
3:14 so that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through the faith Two purposes, each starting with so that. Abraham's blessing reaches the Gentiles in Christ, and we receive the promised Spirit, the gift the prophets foretold (Joel 2:28; Ezek 36:26-27). Paul comes back to verse 2. The Spirit comes through faith.
3:15 even a man's covenant, once ratified, no one sets aside or adds to The Greek word can also mean a will. Once a will is signed and made official, no one can cancel it or add terms. If that holds among men, how much more with God. The false teachers wanted to add the Law as a new condition to God's covenant with Abraham.
3:16 who is Christ Paul knew seed can mean many descendants, and he uses it that way in verse 29. But the promise points finally to one Seed, reaching back to Genesis 3:15. Every promise finds its yes in Him (2 Cor 1:20). God also promised the land of Canaan to Abraham's seed as an everlasting possession (Gen 13:15; 17:8). Some teachers take those promises to pass to Christ and the church in a spiritual way. I believe Christ is the one Seed through whom every promise is kept, including the land promised to the nation of Israel, which He will give them when He reigns.
3:17 four hundred and thirty years afterward The Law came at Sinai long after the promise (Exod 12:40-41). Bible teachers count these years in slightly different ways, from the promise to Abraham or from its last confirmation to Jacob. Paul's point does not depend on the count. A later agreement cannot cancel an earlier one or add conditions to it.
3:18 God has granted it to Abraham through promise An inheritance is received as a gift, not earned. If it must be earned by the Law, it is a wage, not a promise. Granted means given freely in grace. Eternal life is not a paycheck (Rom 6:23). Because it rests on God's promise and not our Law-keeping, it is sure.
3:19 It was added because of transgressions A transgression is stepping over a line. The Law drew the line clearly so sin could be seen for what it is (Rom 3:20; 7:7). It was temporary, until Christ came. Angels had a part in giving it (Deut 33:2; Acts 7:53; Heb 2:2), and Moses was the mediator. The promise came straight from God.
3:20 a mediator is not of one, but God is one One of the hardest verses in Galatians, with many explanations. The plainest seems to be this. A mediator stands between two parties, and at Sinai the blessing depended on Israel keeping its part (Exod 24:3, 7). With Abraham, God acted alone, passing between the pieces while Abraham slept (Gen 15:12, 17). The promise rests on God, and He cannot fail.
3:21 if a law had been given which was able to give life The Law and the promise come from the same God and are not enemies. But the Law could tell us what is right without giving power to do it. It could show we were dead in sin but could not raise us (Rom 8:3). Only the Spirit gives life (2 Cor 3:6).

would indeed have been by law. 22 But the Scripture shut up all things under sin, so that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe. 23 But before the faith came, we were being held in custody under law, having been shut up for the faith which was about to be revealed. 24 So then the law has become our child-guardian to Christ, so that we might be justified by faith. 25 But the faith having come, we are no longer under a child-guardian. 26 For you are all sons of God through the faith in Christ Jesus. 27 For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. 28 There is not Jew nor Greek, there is not slave nor free, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. 29 And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to promise.

Sons and Heirs

1 Now I say, as long as the heir is a child, he differs in nothing from a slave, being lord of all, 2 but he is under guardians and stewards until the time appointed by the father. 3 So also we, when we were children, were enslaved under the elements of the world. 4 But when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under law, 5 so that He might redeem those under law, so that we might receive the adoption as sons. 6 And because you are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" 7 So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and if a son, also an heir of God through Christ.

Paul's Concern for the Galatians

3:22 the Scripture shut up all things under sin Picture a prison with every door locked. Scripture declared the whole world guilty, Jew and Gentile (Rom 3:9-19, 23). God shut every other door so the only way out would be faith in Christ. When we see we are locked up with no way to free ourselves, we are ready to look to Jesus.
3:23 before the faith came The faith here means the time of faith in Christ, which arrived in history when He came. Until then the Law held Israel under guard, kept them separate from the nations, and kept them for the faith about to be revealed.
3:24 child-guardian The Greek word is paidagogos. In wealthy homes this trusted servant, often a slave, took charge of a boy from about six until he was grown. He walked him to school and corrected him. He was not the teacher or the father, and his job was temporary. The Law led us to Christ by showing our need.
3:26 you are all sons of God When the boy grew up, the guardian's job was done (3:25). In the Roman world a son who came of age received the full rights of the family. Sons here is not about being male. It is the full standing of an heir, and every believer, man or woman, has it.
3:27 as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ To put on is to clothe yourself. Some take baptized into Christ as the Spirit placing every believer into Christ at faith (1 Cor 12:13). Others take it as water baptism, the public step showing that one belongs to Christ. Paul has just shown we are justified by faith, so baptism here is not a work that saves. Water baptism follows faith and pictures the union faith receives.
3:28 you are all one in Christ Jesus Later Jewish writings record a morning blessing thanking God for not being made a Gentile, a woman, or in some versions a slave. Many believe that attitude was common in Paul's day. In context Paul means how we become sons and heirs. Every believer comes the same way and has the same standing. This does not erase the differences (Eph 5:22-33; Rom 11). Some believe it opens every role in home and church equally to men and women. Others believe Scripture gives different roles with equal worth. Both agree it is first about our oneness.
3:29 heirs according to promise If you belong to Christ, the one Seed, you are part of Abraham's seed because you are in Him. Gentiles did not need to become Jews to be heirs. They needed Christ. This does not mean the church has replaced Israel. God's promises to the nation still stand (Rom 11:28-29).
4:1 as long as the heir is a child, he differs in nothing from a slave Paul goes back to the picture of 3:24. A young boy who will one day own his father's estate owns it all on paper, but as a child he cannot make his own choices, any more than a slave can. Guardians cared for the child and stewards managed his property until the day the father set (4:2).
4:3 the elements of the world The word was used for the letters of the alphabet, the first basic things learned, and for the basic parts the world was thought to be made of. Some take it as basic religious rules, the ABCs of religion, Jewish and pagan. Others take it as the spiritual powers pagans believed ruled the world and their festivals. Either way, life under them was slavery.
4:4 when the fullness of the time came God is never late. Jesus came at the time God set, as the father set the day for his son. Roman roads and peace, the Greek language, and synagogues scattered among the nations made the world ready. The Son existed before He was sent. Born of a woman means fully human, and born under law means a Jew under the Law of Moses, which He kept perfectly.
4:5 so that we might receive the adoption as sons Jesus kept the Law and then died under its curse in our place (3:13). In the Roman world an adopted son had the same rights as a son by birth, took the family name, and could inherit. Redemption sets us free. Adoption gives us a home.
4:6 God sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" God sent forth His Son (4:4), and now His Spirit. The Trinity is at work in our salvation. Abba is the Aramaic word a child used at home, and Jesus prayed it in the garden (Mark 14:36). We do not come to God like a frightened slave but like a child to a loving Father (Rom 8:15-16).
4:7 you are no longer a slave, but a son The you is singular here. Paul speaks to each reader. God's heirs will share in all He has prepared, eternal life and a place in His kingdom (Rom 8:17; 1 Pet 1:4). We are heirs only through Christ, not by anything we have done. Why trade that for the life of a slave?
4:8 those which by nature are not gods The Galatians had served idols of wood and stone that had no power to save. Behind the idols were demons (1 Cor 10:19-20), and serving them was slavery. Every person apart from Christ serves something that cannot satisfy or save.
4:9 having known God, or rather having been known by God Paul corrects himself. The deeper truth is that God took the first step. To be known by God is to be loved and chosen as His own. The elements are weak because they cannot save and poor because they have nothing to give. The Law was not idolatry, but using it to earn God's favor would put them back in chains.
4:10 You observe days and months and seasons and years Days likely means the Sabbath, months the new moons, seasons the yearly feasts like Passover, years the sabbath years. God gave these to Israel and they pointed to Christ (Col 2:16-17). The problem was keeping them to be right with God. Believers have freedom here (Rom 14:5-6), but a holy day must never be made a condition of salvation.

months and seasons and years. 11 I fear for you, lest somehow I have toiled for you in vain. 12 Become as I am, because I also have become as you are, brothers, I implore you. You wronged me in nothing. 13 And you know that because of weakness of the flesh I preached the gospel to you at the first; 14 and my trial in my flesh you did not despise nor spit out, but as an angel of God you received me, as Christ Jesus (Iesous). 15 What then was your blessedness? Hagar and Sarah

21 Tell me, you who want to be under law, do you not hear the law? 22 For it has been written that Abraham (Abraam) had two sons, one of the slave woman and one of the free woman. 23 But the one of the slave woman has been born according to the flesh, and the one of the free woman through the promise. 24 These things are spoken allegorically; for these are the two covenants: one indeed from Mount Sinai (Sina), bearing children for slavery, which is Hagar (Agar). 25 For the name Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and she corresponds to the present Jerusalem (Hierousalem); and she is a slave with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem above is free, which is the mother of us all. 27 For it has been written, "Rejoice, barren woman, you who do not bear; break forth and cry out, you who are not in labor; because many are the children of the desolate woman, more than of her who has the husband." 28 Now, brothers,

4:11 lest somehow I have toiled for you in vain To toil is to work until worn out. Paul was not a hired preacher who moved on and forgot. His fear is honest. Every pastor and parent knows it. When someone we love drifts from the truth, it hurts, and it should.
4:12 Become as I am, because I also have become as you are Among the Galatians Paul set aside his Jewish customs and lived free from the Law (1 Cor 9:21). He wants them free like him. They had treated him well at first, so this is not about hurt feelings. It is about the truth of the gospel, and he pleads in love, not anger.
4:13 because of weakness of the flesh I preached the gospel to you at the first It seems an illness held Paul in Galatia, and he used the time to preach. Scripture does not name it. Some suggest eye trouble (4:15; 6:11), others malaria or the effects of his stoning at Lystra (Acts 14:19), and some link it to his thorn in the flesh (2 Cor 12:7). We don't know. God worked through his weakness (2 Cor 12:9).
4:14 you did not despise nor spit out Whatever the illness was, it was hard to look at. People sometimes spat to ward off evil at the sight of sickness. The Galatians did not turn away. They received him as a messenger from heaven, even as Christ Himself (Matt 10:40). Now those same people were treating him as an enemy.
4:15 having gouged out your eyes, you would have given them to me Their blessedness was their first joy, and when people turn from grace to rules, joy is often the first thing to go. Some take the eyes as a sign Paul's illness was in his eyes. Others see a way of speaking, since the eyes were the most precious part. Either way, their love had been deep.
4:16 have I become your enemy, speaking truth to you Paul and his message had not changed. The friend who tells us what we need to hear is often treated as a foe, and the flatterer as a friend (Prov 27:6). A true friend speaks the truth in love (Eph 4:15).
4:17 They are zealous for you, not well The false teachers paid them much attention, but their motives were not good. They wanted to shut the Galatians out of the fellowship of grace, and perhaps from Paul, so they would depend on them. False teachers want people devoted to themselves. A true servant points people to Christ (2 Cor 4:5).
4:18 it is good to be zealously sought in a good thing always Zeal is good when its cause is good. Paul may mean he was glad for others to care for them while he was away, or that they should be zealous for the good always, not only when he was watching. Zeal alone is not enough. Paul once used his zeal to persecute the church (1:14; Phil 3:6).
4:19 I am again in labor until Christ is formed in you Paul pictures himself as a mother giving birth, feeling the pain all over again. His goal is that the life of Christ take shape in them, so they look like Jesus (Rom 8:29). A letter cannot carry a tone of voice, so he wishes he were there (4:20).
4:21 do you not hear the law Law is used two ways here. First it is the Law of Moses as a way of life, then the books of Moses, which include Genesis. If you want to live under the Law, Paul says, at least listen to what it says about freedom and slavery.
4:22 Abraham had two sons The story is in Genesis 16 and 21. Hagar, Sarah's Egyptian slave, bore Ishmael the natural way, when Abraham and Sarah tried to get the promised son by their own plan (Gen 16:1-4). Isaac was born long past Sarah's age because God kept His promise (Gen 18:10-14; 21:1-2). One came by human effort, the other by God's power.
4:24 These things are spoken allegorically An allegory is a story where people or things stand for something else. Paul treats Abraham's sons as real history that also gives a picture. Writing by the Spirit, he tells us plainly he is using a picture. That gives us no license to make every story an allegory of our own. We read Scripture plainly unless the text itself tells us otherwise. The Sinai covenant of the Law produces slaves.
4:25 she corresponds to the present Jerusalem Sinai was in Arabia, where Ishmael's descendants lived. Some link the name Hagar to an Arabic word for rock, though that is not certain. Paul means Jerusalem as the center of Judaism in his day, seeking righteousness by the Law. He is not saying God has rejected the Jewish people. He longed for their salvation (Rom 9:1-5; 10:1) and taught that God has a future for Israel (Rom 11:25-29).
4:26 the Jerusalem above is free, which is the mother of us all The heavenly city of God (Heb 12:22), the city Abraham looked for (Heb 11:10), which one day will come down out of heaven (Rev 21:2). Every believer, Jew or Gentile, belongs to it now (Phil 3:20). Hagar, Sinai and the present Jerusalem picture the way of Law and slavery. Sarah and the Jerusalem above picture promise and freedom.
4:27 Rejoice, barren woman, you who do not bear Isaiah 54:1. There the barren woman was Jerusalem in exile, promised more children than ever. Paul sees a picture of Sarah, barren for years and then mother of a great people, and of the family of promise growing from every nation. Isaiah's promise still belongs to Jerusalem, and God will keep it when He gathers her children (Isa 54:7). Paul does not move it to the church.
4:28 like Isaac, we are children of promise Isaac was a miracle child. Every believer is born again by God's power through His promise (John 1:12-13; 1 Pet 1:23). That gives confidence, because God's promise does not fail, and humility, because Isaac did not make himself, and neither did we.

like Isaac (Isaak), we are children of promise. 29 But just as at that time the one born according to the flesh was persecuting the one born according to Spirit, so also now. 30 But what does the Scripture say? "Cast out the slave woman and her son; for the son of the slave woman shall certainly not inherit with the son of the free woman." 31 Then, brothers, we are not children of a slave woman, but of the free woman.

Stand Firm in Freedom

1 In the freedom with which Christ set us free, stand firm therefore, and do not be entangled again in a yoke of slavery. 2 Look, I Paul (Paulos) say to you that if you are circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing. 3 And I testify again to every man who is circumcised that he is a debtor to do the whole law. 4 You were severed from Christ, you who are being justified by law; you fell away from grace. 5 For we by the Spirit, by faith, eagerly await the hope of righteousness. 6 For in Christ Jesus (Iesous) neither circumcision has any strength, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love. 7 You were running well; who hindered you, not to obey the truth? 8 The persuasion is not from the One who calls you. 9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump. 10 I am confident regarding you in the Lord that you will think nothing other; but the one who troubles you will bear the judgment, whoever he may be. 11 But I, brothers, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the cross has been abolished. 12 I wish that those who are upsetting you would even emasculate themselves!

5:12 Gal 5:10; Gal 1:8,9; Gen 17:14
5:13 1 Cor 9:19; 1 Pet 2:16; 1 Cor 8:9

4:29 the one born according to the flesh was persecuting the one born according to Spirit Ishmael mocked Isaac at the feast for his weaning (Gen 21:9). In Paul's day those who trusted the Law persecuted those who trusted the promise (Acts 13:45, 50; 14:2, 19). Those who trust their own goodness still often look down on those who rest in grace.
4:30 Cast out the slave woman and her son Sarah's words in Genesis 21:10, which God told Abraham to heed (Gen 21:12). The way of Law and the way of promise cannot live in the same house. For the Galatians this meant making no room for the false teaching in their churches.
4:31 we are not children of a slave woman, but of the free woman The sum of the allegory. Believers are children of Sarah, not Hagar, free and not slaves. When we remember who we are in Christ, we will not want to go back to chains, the warning of 5:1.
5:1 In the freedom with which Christ set us free, stand firm therefore This verse is the hinge of the letter, summing up chapters 3 and 4 and opening 5 and 6. Freedom was the whole point. To stand firm is to hold your ground like a soldier. A yoke was the frame laid on an ox's neck. Peter called the Law a yoke no one could bear (Acts 15:10), while Jesus offers a yoke that is easy and light (Matt 11:29-30).
5:2 if you are circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing Circumcision is not evil in itself. Paul had Timothy circumcised for his ministry among Jews (Acts 16:3). Paul means Gentile believers taking it in order to be right with God. Christ is everything or nothing. You cannot rest half on Christ and half on your own works.
5:3 he is a debtor to do the whole law The false teachers may have made circumcision sound like one small step. But the Law is one whole. Whoever takes it as a way to be right with God owes perfect obedience to every command for life (3:10; James 2:10). No one can pay that debt. That is why we need Christ, who paid it for us.
5:4 you fell away from grace Severed means cut off, made of no effect. Those seeking to be justified by the Law have stepped off the ground of grace onto works. Bible teachers disagree on what this means for eternal security. Some believe a true believer can turn away and be lost. Others believe those in view never truly rested in Christ, or that Paul means falling from grace as the way of righteousness, not losing salvation. I leave that open here. Grace and Law-keeping cannot be mixed as ways to be justified.
5:5 eagerly await the hope of righteousness We are already declared righteous by faith (2:16), but a day is coming when that righteousness will be complete and on full display, when we see Christ and are made like Him (1 John 3:2). Biblical hope is not a maybe. It is a sure thing not yet happened, and we wait with joy, not anxiety.
5:6 faith working through love Neither circumcision nor its lack has power to make anyone right with God. This phrase answers the question of faith and works. We are saved by faith alone, but saving faith is never alone. It shows itself in love. Paul and James agree (James 2:17-18). Works do not earn salvation. Real faith produces them.
5:7 You were running well; who hindered you Paul often pictures the Christian life as a race (1 Cor 9:24; 2 Tim 4:7). Hindered was used for cutting in on a runner or breaking up a road. Notice the truth is something to obey, not only believe. Is anyone cutting in on my race?
5:8 The persuasion is not from the One who calls you God called them by grace (1:6). Any message that pulls us from that grace, however convincing, does not come from Him. False teaching can sound wise and godly, so we test everything by God's Word (1 John 4:1; Acts 17:11).
5:9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump Leaven is yeast. In Scripture it often pictures sin or false teaching that spreads (Matt 16:6, 12; 1 Cor 5:6-8). The teachers may have been few and their rule may have sounded small, but it would spread through the whole church. False doctrine about the gospel is never harmless.
5:10 the one who troubles you will bear the judgment, whoever he may be Paul's confidence is in the Lord, not in the Galatians. He may mean a leader of the false teachers or each of them. Notice the balance. Paul is gentle with those led astray and firm with those leading them. We should be patient with confused believers but not soft on those who twist the gospel.
5:11 if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still persecuted The false teachers seem to have claimed Paul preached circumcision when it suited him, perhaps pointing to Timothy. If he did, his opponents would leave him alone. The cross offends human pride because it says we can do nothing to save ourselves (1 Cor 1:23). Add circumcision and the offense is gone, but so is the gospel.
5:12 would even emasculate themselves Hard words, and meant to be. If they think cutting the flesh makes them holy, let them go all the way. In Galatia the priests of the goddess Cybele castrated themselves in worship, and the Galatians would have known it. Circumcision used to earn God's favor is no better than pagan cutting. There is a right anger at those who harm the flock.
5:13 do not use the freedom as an opportunity for the flesh Now the other danger: freedom taken as license. Opportunity was used for a base of operations from which an army attacks. The flesh is our fallen nature that still wants to sin. Here is the surprise. We are set free from the Law to become slaves of love. Christian freedom is freedom to serve others.

be slaves to one another. 14 For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." 15 But if you bite and devour one another, watch out lest you be consumed by one another.

Walk by the Spirit

16 But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will certainly not carry out the desire of the flesh. 17 For the flesh desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are opposed to one another, so that the things which you wish, these you may not do. 18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under law. 19 Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are adultery, sexual immorality, impurity, debauchery, 20 idolatry, sorcery, hostilities, strifes, jealousies, outbursts of rage, rivalries, dissensions, factions, 21 envyings, murders, drunkennesses, revelries, and the things like these, which I tell you beforehand, just as I also said before, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. 22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. 24 And those of Christ crucified the flesh with the passions and the desires. 25 If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us also walk in line. 26 Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

5:14 You shall love your neighbor as yourself Leviticus 19:18, the second great command (Matt 22:37-40). Love does what the Law aimed at all along, for love does not murder, steal, or commit adultery against a neighbor (Rom 13:8-10). The Law could command love but could not produce it. The Spirit does.

5:15 if you bite and devour one another Paul pictures wild animals fighting until they destroy each other. Legalism often stirs up such fights, as people measure, judge and tear each other down. Biting words and gossip can tear a church apart faster than anything outside it.

5:16 walk by the Spirit, and you will certainly not carry out the desire of the flesh Paul's answer to the flesh is not more rules but the Holy Spirit. To walk is to live day by day, depending on Him and obeying what He shows us in God's Word. The desire will still be there, but we need not give in. The way to win is not to stare at our sin and try harder, but to keep in step with the Spirit.

5:17 so that the things which you wish, these you may not do Before Christ we felt little fight. Now the Spirit pulls one way and the flesh the other. Some read this phrase as the flesh keeping us from the good we want (Rom 7:15-19). Others read it as the Spirit keeping us from the evil the flesh wants. Both are true in a believer's life, and the battle itself is a sign the Spirit is at work.

5:18 if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under law The Spirit leads as a shepherd leads sheep or a father his son (Rom 8:14). The Law is not over us as master or judge, yet the Spirit leads us into the very righteousness it described. The false teachers feared people would run wild without the Law. The Law worked from the outside. The Spirit changes us from the inside.

5:19 the works of the flesh are evident First, sins of sexual life. Adultery is a married person's sin with someone other than the spouse. Sexual immorality is porneia, every kind of sexual sin outside marriage between husband and wife. Impurity is moral uncleanness. Debauchery is shameless sin out in the open. God made sex a good gift for marriage (Gen 2:24; Heb 13:4), and the flesh twists it.

5:20 idolatry, sorcery Sorcery is pharmakeia, which gives us pharmacy, used for magic that often involved drugs and potions. Then comes a long list of sins that tear people apart: hatred, quarrels, resentment, flashes of temper, selfish ambition, divisions, and factions formed around opinions. The sins of tongue and temper are as much works of the flesh as the sins of the bed.

5:21 those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God The list ends with excess, drunkenness and wild parties, and the things like these, so it is not complete. Practice speaks of a settled way of life. A believer can fall into any of these, and God forgives when we confess (1 John 1:9). But a life marked by them, with no sorrow and no change, shows a person does not belong to God's kingdom (1 Cor 6:9-11).

5:22 the fruit of the Spirit The flesh produces works, the Spirit fruit. Fruit grows from a living thing. And it is fruit, not fruits, one harvest with many sides. Love is the self-giving love God showed in Christ. Joy is gladness in God that does not depend on circumstances. Peace is rest with God and others. Patience is slowness to anger. Kindness is a good heart, goodness is doing good when it is hard, and faithfulness is being trustworthy.

5:23 gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law Gentleness is strength under control. Jesus was gentle (Matt 11:29) but never weak. Self-control is mastery over desires, the opposite of the sins of excess. No one breaks God's Law by being too loving. The whole list is a portrait of Jesus, His character growing in us as we stay close to Him (John 15:4-5).

5:24 those of Christ crucified the flesh with the passions and the desires When we came to Christ, we turned from the old way and said no to the flesh. It is still around, but it no longer rules us (Rom 6:6, 11-14). Crucifixion was a slow death, and the flesh does not die easily. But its sentence is passed. Each day we treat it as dead and do not feed it (Rom 13:14).

5:25 by the Spirit let us also walk in line Every believer has life by the Spirit (John 3:5-6). Walk in line is a different word from walk in verse 16. It was used for soldiers marching in rank, keeping step behind a leader, not running ahead and not falling behind. We are alive by the Spirit, so let us walk like it.

5:26 Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another Conceit is empty pride. It shows two ways: provoking those we look down on, and envying those we look up to. Both are signs of the flesh, even in people who think they are very spiritual. Those who walk by the Spirit have nothing to prove, because they rest in what Christ has done.

6:1 you who are spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness A trespass is a false step off the path, and caught may mean caught in the act or overtaken before he saw it coming. The spiritual are those who walk by the Spirit (5:16, 25), not those who think themselves better. Restore was used for setting a broken bone or mending a net. The goal is to make him whole, not to punish. No one is above falling, and pride is how we fall next.

6:2 Bear one another's burdens, and thus fulfill the law of Christ A burden is a weight too heavy to carry alone: a sin someone is fighting, a loss, a sickness. The false teachers wanted the Law of Moses. Believers have the law of Christ, to love one another as He loved us (John 13:34). He carried the heaviest burden when He bore our sins. When we carry each other's loads, we do what He did.

6:3 if anyone thinks himself to be something, being nothing, he deceives himself This is why some will not stoop to help. Apart from God's grace we are nothing. Pride also keeps us from letting others carry our burdens, when we would rather sink than admit a need. Christ's way is humility in helping and in being helped.

anyone thinks himself to be something, being nothing, he deceives himself. 4 But let each test his own work, and then he will have the boast in regard to himself alone, and not in regard to the other. 5 For each will bear his own load. 6 And let the one being taught the word share with the one teaching in all good things. 7 Do not be led astray; God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this he will also reap. 8 For the one sowing to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one sowing to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. 9 And let us not lose heart in doing the good, for in its own time we will reap, not fainting. 10 So then, as we have opportunity, let us work the good toward all, and especially toward those of the household of the faith.

Boasting in the Cross

11 See with what large letters I have written to you with my own hand. 12 As many as want to make a good showing in the flesh, these compel you to be circumcised, only so that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. 13 For not even those who are circumcised themselves keep the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast in your flesh. 14 But for me, may it not be to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. 15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. 16 And as many as will walk in line by this rule, peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God. 17 From now on let no one cause me troubles; for I bear on my body the marks of the Lord Jesus. 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

6:18 Rom 16:20,24; 2 Tim 4:22; Phlm 1:25

6:4 let each test his own work To test is to examine like gold in a fire. Instead of looking at others, each should look honestly at his own life and rejoice in what God has done there. Comparing ourselves with those who struggle is not the test. Comparison leads to pride or envy, the two sins of 5:26.
6:5 each will bear his own load This does not contradict verse 2. The burden there is a crushing weight. The load here was the pack each traveler or soldier carried himself. Each of us is responsible for his own walk and will give an account to God (Rom 14:12). Believers will stand before the judgment seat of Christ, not to be judged for salvation, but to receive what is due for what we have done (2 Cor 5:10).
6:6 let the one being taught the word share with the one teaching in all good things To share is to have fellowship, giving a part of what you have. This includes money but also prayer, encouragement and help (1 Cor 9:11, 14; 1 Tim 5:17-18). The false teachers may have been drawing support away from the true teachers.
6:7 whatever a man sows, this he will also reap To mock God is to treat Him with contempt, as if one could ignore Him and get away with it. Plant corn and you get corn. You reap more than you sow, and later than you sow. This is not about earning salvation but about the kind of life we are growing.
6:8 the one sowing to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life To sow to the flesh is to spend our time, money and strength feeding sinful desires, and the harvest is decay and ruin. To sow to the Spirit is to invest in His Word, prayer, worship, fellowship and service. Eternal life is God's gift received by faith (Rom 6:23). Here it is the full and final harvest of a Spirit-led life when Christ returns.
6:9 in its own time we will reap, not fainting Doing good is tiring when no one thanks or notices. A farmer does not dig up his seeds every morning. Some harvest comes in this life and some only before the Lord, but it is certain. God does not forget good done in His name (Heb 6:10).
6:10 especially toward those of the household of the faith Chances to do good do not last forever. We do good to all, since our neighbor is anyone in need (Luke 10:29-37). But the church is a family, and as a man cares for his own household first (1 Tim 5:8), believers have a special duty to each other. That care shows the world God's love (John 13:35).
6:11 See with what large letters I have written to you with my own hand Paul usually dictated (Rom 16:22) and then wrote a few lines himself to show the letter was his (2 Thess 3:17). Some think the large letters came from poor eyesight (4:13-15), others that he wrote large to underline his point, and some that he wrote the whole letter himself. Scripture does not say.
6:12 only so that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ Paul exposes their motives. Circumcised Gentile converts would be something to show off. Those who preached the cross alone were persecuted, but if their converts kept the Law, they could avoid trouble. They chose the easy road over the truth.
6:13 so that they may boast in your flesh The false teachers did not keep the whole Law either (3:10; 5:3). They picked parts like circumcision and ignored the rest. The Galatians were numbers to them. It is easy for any ministry to care more about numbers and show than souls. Paul wanted Christ formed in people (4:19).
6:14 may it not be to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ The cross was the most shameful death in Paul's world, kept for slaves and criminals. No one bragged about a cross. Paul saw it as the place where God's love and power were shown most clearly (1 Cor 1:18). The world here is life apart from God. At the cross it lost its hold on Paul, and he lost his interest in its approval.
6:15 but a new creation As in 5:6, the outward mark counts for nothing. God does not improve the old person. He makes a new one (2 Cor 5:17), a work from the inside out (John 3:3-7). That is why rules can never save. We need to be made new, and only God can do it.
6:16 and upon the Israel of God The rule is what Paul just said, and walk in line is the word of 5:25. Bible teachers read the Israel of God more than one way. Many dispensational teachers take it as Jewish believers in Jesus, singled out because the false teachers claimed to speak for Israel, and elsewhere Paul uses Israel for the Jewish people, even for a believing remnant within it (Rom 9:6; 11:5, 26). Others take it as the whole church, and some as a prayer for the nation. Whichever reading one takes, the church has not replaced Israel (Rom 11:25-29).
6:17 I bear on my body the marks of the Lord Jesus The word is stigmata, used for the brand burned into a slave's skin to show his owner. Paul's marks were scars from beatings and stoning (Acts 14:19; 2 Cor 11:23-27). The false teachers wanted the mark of circumcision on the Galatians. Paul bore the marks that showed he belonged to Jesus.
6:18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers The letter began with grace (1:3) and ends with it, the whole message of Galatians. In Greek, brothers is the last word before the amen. For all his hard words, Paul still sees them as family. We tell straying believers the truth, but we never stop calling them brothers and sisters. The closing note that the letter was written from Rome was added by later copyists and is not part of the letter.

EPHESIANS

Introduction

Title

The letter takes its name from its first readers, "the saints who are in Ephesus" (1:1). A few of the oldest Greek copies leave out the words "in Ephesus." For that reason many believe it was a circular letter, read first in Ephesus and then passed around to other churches in the province of Asia. Either way, the readers were mostly Gentile believers (2:11; 3:1).

Author and Date

The letter names Paul as its author twice (1:1; 3:1), and the early church accepted it as his without question. Many modern scholars, though not all, think a follower of Paul wrote it in his name after his death, pointing to its long sentences, some words Paul does not use elsewhere, and its likeness to Colossians. I take the letter at its word. It names Paul, speaks of his chains as a present fact (3:1; 4:1; 6:20) and asks for prayer for his preaching (6:19-20).

Paul wrote as a prisoner, most likely from Rome during his house arrest, about A.D. 60 to 62 (Acts 28:16, 30). Tychicus carried the letter (6:21-22), along with Colossians (Col 4:7-9) and most likely Philemon. Paul wrote Ephesians and Colossians at about the same time to churches in the same region, which explains why they share so many themes and phrases.

Background and Setting

Ephesus was one of the largest cities in the Roman province of Asia, on the west coast of what is now Turkey. It was a busy port and trade center, home to the great temple of the goddess Artemis, one of the wonders of the ancient world. The city was full of idol worship and magic. Paul spent about three years there on his third missionary journey (Acts 19:1-20; 20:31). When people came to Christ, many burned their books of magic in public (Acts 19:19). Paul later met the Ephesian elders at Miletus and warned them that false teachers would come (Acts 20:17-38).

Themes

Paul does not write to fix one big problem, as he does in Galatians or 1 Corinthians. He writes to show believers how rich they are in Christ, to show that Jews and Gentiles are now one body in Him, and to call them to live in a way that fits that calling.

The letter falls into two halves. Chapters 1 to 3 teach what God has done: He chose us, adopted us, redeemed us, forgave us, sealed us with His Spirit, made us alive with Christ, and broke down the wall between Jew and Gentile. Chapters 4 to 6 show how we live because of it: in unity, in purity, in the light, filled with the Spirit, in the home and at work, and armored for spiritual battle. The hinge is 4:1, "walk worthily of the calling."

The phrase "in Christ" and phrases like it run all through the letter. Every blessing God gives comes through our union with His Son. The church is His body (1:23), His temple (2:21) and His bride (5:25-32).

Christ in Ephesians

Every spiritual blessing is "in Christ" (1:3). God's plan for history is "to sum up all things in Christ" (1:10). The risen Christ is seated far above every power (1:20-21) and is head over all things to the church, His body (1:22-23). He is our peace, who broke down the middle wall (2:14), the cornerstone of God's temple (2:20), the conquering King who gives gifts to His people (4:8), and the Husband who loved the church and gave Himself up for her (5:25).

Hard Passages

Does God's choosing in 1:4-5 mean He chose specific people by His will alone, or that He chose in Christ all He knew would believe? Bible teachers have long disagreed, and the notes name both views without settling the question.

Can a believer lose the salvation sealed by the Spirit (1:13-14; 4:30)? The notes name both views and leave the question open.

What are "the lower parts of the earth" in 4:9? Three main views are given in the notes.

Do apostles and prophets continue today (2:20; 4:11)? The notes leave this open, while noting that all agree no one today adds to Scripture.

How should the commands to wives and husbands (5:22-33) and to slaves and masters (6:5-9) be read today? The notes explain what these verses teach and what they never mean: submission never means following a husband into sin or putting up with abuse, and Paul's words to slaves were never a blessing on slavery.

Outline

Greeting (1:1-2)
I. What God Has Done for Us in Christ (1:3-3:21)

1:1 an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God An apostle is one sent with the authority of the one who sent him. Paul did not choose this job. Jesus met him on the Damascus road and called him (Acts 9:3-6, 15; 26:15-18).
1:1 to the saints In the Bible every believer is a saint, one set apart for God. If you belong to Jesus, God calls you a saint today. Some of the oldest Greek copies leave out "in Ephesus," one reason many think this letter was passed around to several churches.
1:2 Grace to you and peace Grace is God's favor we did not earn, and peace is what comes because of it. Grace always comes first. Paul puts "God our Father" and "the Lord Jesus Christ" side by side as one source. A Jewish man like Paul would never do that with a mere man. He knew Jesus is God.
1:3 every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ Paul starts with worship before he gives a single command. Not some blessings, every one. They belong to the spiritual world where Christ reigns, so nothing on earth can take them away, and they all come through our union with Christ. "In Christ" and phrases like it run all through this chapter (2 Pet 1:3).
1:4 He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world Before God made the first star, He had His people in mind, and the goal was that we would be "holy and blameless before Him." Teachers have long disagreed on how God's choosing works. Some say He chose specific people by His will alone. Others say He chose in Christ all He knew would believe (Rom 8:29; 1 Pet 1:1-2). I leave that question open here. Both sides agree salvation is God's work from start to finish and every person is called to repent and believe (Acts 17:30).
1:5 having predestined us for adoption as sons To predestine is to decide ahead of time. In the Roman world an adopted son had all the rights of a natural-born son, took the father's name and shared his inheritance. God did it because He wanted to, "according to the good pleasure of His will."
1:6 to the praise of the glory of His grace Our salvation is meant to make God look good, not us. "The Beloved" is Jesus, the Son the Father loves (Matt 3:17).
1:7 the redemption through His blood Redemption is buying back by paying a price, as when a slave was set free. We were slaves to sin, and Jesus paid with His own blood (1 Pet 1:18-19). A trespass is a false step off God's path, and every one is forgiven out of "the riches of His grace," which never run out.
1:9 the mystery of His will In the Bible a mystery is not a puzzle. It is a truth God kept hidden in the past and has now made known to His people.
1:10 to sum up all things in Christ Right now the world is broken and divided. History is going somewhere: every rebel power will be put down and all creation brought together under one head, Jesus Christ. That day comes when He returns visibly to reign (Rev 11:15; 19:11-16). "The fullness of the times" points to God's perfect timing.
1:11 we were allotted The word can mean we were made God's own portion, or we were given an inheritance. Both are true in Scripture. God "works all things according to the counsel of His will." Nothing catches Him by surprise (Rom 8:28).
1:12 those who had first hoped in Christ Most likely Paul and the Jewish believers who believed first. In verse 13 he turns to "you also," the Gentile readers, laying the ground for chapter 2.
1:13 you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise Three steps: they heard the gospel, believed, and were sealed. Every believer receives the Spirit the moment he believes, not later as a reward (Rom 8:9). A seal marked ownership and protection, like a king's ring pressed into hot wax.
1:14 the pledge of our inheritance A pledge is a down payment that promises the rest is coming. The Spirit in us now is God's guarantee of all He promised, including the redemption of our bodies when Jesus comes for His church (Rom 8:23; 1 Thess 4:16-17). Teachers disagree on whether a true believer can lose salvation (compare Heb 6:4-6). I leave that open here. This verse plainly means for God's people to rest in His mark and His promise.
1:15 the faith among you in the Lord Jesus and the love toward all the saints Real faith in Christ shows itself in love for other believers (1 John 4:20), and Paul praises them for loving all the saints, not just the ones like them.
1:17 a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him Paul did not pray for easier lives. He prayed they would know God better. We already have every spiritual blessing (1:3), but many believers live like paupers when they are rich in Christ.

of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, 18 the eyes of your understanding having been enlightened, for you to know what is the hope of His calling, and what the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints are, 19 and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of the might of His strength, 20 which He worked in Christ, having raised Him out from the dead, and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above every principality and authority and power and lordship, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the coming one. 22 And He put all things under His feet, and gave Him as head over all things to the church, 23 which is His body, the fullness of the One who fills all things in all.

Made Alive by Grace

1 And you, being dead in the trespasses and the sins, 2 in which you once walked according to the age of this world, according to the ruler of the authority of the air, of the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience, 3 among whom we also all once lived in the desires of our flesh, doing the wishes of the flesh and of the thoughts, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest. 4 But God, being rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, 5 even us, being dead in the trespasses, He made alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), 6 and raised us up together and seated us together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus (Iesous), 7 in order that He might show in the coming ages the surpassing riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. 8 For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not from yourselves; the gift is of God, 9 not from works, so that no one may boast. 10 For we are His workmanship, having been created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we may walk in them.

One New Man in Christ

11 Therefore remember that formerly you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called "Uncircumcision" by what is called "Circumcision" in the flesh, made by hands, 12 that you were at that time apart from Christ, having been alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of the promise, not having hope and without God in the world. 13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off

1:18 the eyes of your understanding Many Greek copies read "heart." In the Bible the heart is the center of the whole person: mind, will and feelings. Biblical hope is a sure promise not yet arrived, not a wish. And God counts His people as His own riches.
1:19 the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe Paul piles up words for power. It is the power that raised Jesus from the dead, the greatest display of power in history, and it is at work for every believer.
1:20 seated Him at His right hand The place of honor and authority (Ps 110:1). Jesus is not only alive. He reigns.
1:21 far above every principality and authority and power and lordship These were names for ranks of spiritual powers, good and evil. Ephesus lived in fear of spirits and magic (Acts 19:18-19). Whatever powers exist, Jesus is far above them all, now and "in the coming one."
1:22 He put all things under His feet From Psalm 8:6. God gave man rule over creation and man lost it through sin. Jesus, the perfect Man, has won it back.
1:23 which is His body, the fullness of the One who fills all things in all A body carries out what the head wants. Christ fills all things, yet He makes His church the place where His life and presence are shown. The church is the living body of the risen Christ, far more than a building or a club.
2:1 you being dead in the trespasses and the sins Not sick, not weak. Dead. A dead man cannot help himself or move toward God. A trespass is a false step, and a sin is missing God's mark. You cannot see how good the good news is until you see how bad the bad news is.
2:2 the ruler of the authority of the air Satan, whom Jesus called "the ruler of this world" (John 12:31). Three forces ruled us before Christ: the way of the world, the devil, and our own flesh (2:3). Paul includes himself: "we also all once lived" this way.
2:3 by nature children of wrath We were born with a sinful nature, and by that nature we stood under God's wrath, His holy, settled opposition to evil. It is nothing like a human temper. No one is born good enough to stand before God on his own.
2:4 But God Two words change everything. God is rich in mercy, holding back the punishment we deserve, and He acted out of great love.
2:5 He made alive together with Christ A dead man needs more than advice. He needs life, and only God can give it. The power that raised Jesus (1:19-20) raised us. Paul cannot wait to say it: "by grace you have been saved."
2:6 seated us together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus Jesus was raised and seated (1:20), and believers are raised and seated with Him. Our bodies are on earth, but our position is with Christ.
2:7 in the coming ages Forever God will point to His people and show what His kindness in Christ can do. Every saved sinner is a trophy of His grace.
2:8 For by grace you have been saved through faith Maybe the clearest verse in the Bible on how a person is saved. Grace is God's undeserved favor. Faith is trusting God and receiving what He offers. "This" points to the whole thing, being saved by grace through faith, and all of it "is of God."
2:9 not from works, so that no one may boast If we could earn heaven, we would have something to brag about. No one in heaven will say, I made it because I was good. Every voice will praise Jesus (Rev 5:9-12).
2:10 we are His workmanship The Greek word poiema means something made, and gives us our word "poem." Verses 8-9 say we are not saved by good works. Verse 10 says we are saved for them. Good works are the fruit of salvation, not the root (2 Cor 5:17; James 2:17).
2:11 Uncircumcision A put-down Jews used for Gentiles. Circumcision was the covenant sign given to Abraham (Gen 17:10-11), but Paul notes it was only "in the flesh, made by hands," an outward mark, not a changed heart.
2:12 not having hope and without God in the world Five things the Gentiles lacked: no Messiah, no place in Israel, no claim on the covenant promises, no hope and no God. Ephesus had many gods but did not know the true one. That describes every person outside Christ today.
2:13 by the blood of Christ "But now" turns things around, just as "But God" did in verse 4. Not by becoming Jewish or keeping the Law, but by the death of Jesus. Isaiah 57:19 spoke of peace to the far and the near.

have become near by the blood of Christ. 14 For He Himself is our peace, who made both one and broke down the middle wall of the barrier, 15 having abolished the hostility in His flesh, the law of the commandments in ordinances, so that He might create the two in Himself into one new man, making peace, 16 and might reconcile both in one body to God through the cross, having killed the hostility by it. 17 And having come, He preached the gospel, peace to you, the ones far off, and to the ones near. 18 For through Him we both have the access by one Spirit to the Father. 19 So then you are no longer strangers and resident aliens, but fellow citizens of the saints and members of the household of God, 20 having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the cornerstone, 21 in whom the whole building, being fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, 22 in whom you also are being built together into a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

The Mystery Revealed

1 For this reason I, Paul (Paulos), the prisoner of Christ Jesus (Iesous) for you Gentiles, 2 if indeed you have heard of the stewardship of the grace of God which was given to me for you, 3 that by revelation He made known to me the mystery, even as I wrote before in brief, 4 by which, reading it, you are able to understand my insight into the mystery of Christ, 5 which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men as it has now been revealed to His holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit: 6 that the Gentiles are fellow heirs and fellow members of the body and fellow partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel, 7 of which I became a servant according to the gift of the grace of God given to me according to the working of His power. 8 To me, the less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given, to preach the gospel among the Gentiles, the unsearchable riches of Christ, 9 and to enlighten all as to what is the fellowship of the mystery which has been hidden from the ages in God, who created all things through Jesus Christ, 10 so that now the manifold wisdom of God may be made known to the rulers and to the authorities in the heavenly places through the church, 11 according to the purpose of the ages which He accom-

3:11 2 Tim 1:9; Eph 1:4,9,11; Isa 14:24-27

2:14 He Himself is our peace Jesus does not only make peace. He is our peace.
2:14 the middle wall of the barrier The temple in Jerusalem had a real wall between the Court of the Gentiles and the inner courts. Josephus records warning signs on it saying Gentiles who went farther would be put to death (Antiquities 15.417; Jewish War 5.193-194), and one of those stones was found in 1871. Jesus tore down the spiritual wall that stone wall stood for.
2:15 the law of the commandments in ordinances The Law of Moses as a system that set Israel apart: food laws, feast days, circumcision and sacrifices. Jesus fulfilled the Law (Matt 5:17), and its ceremonies no longer divide God's people. God's moral standard did not change. Paul quotes the fifth commandment in 6:2-3.
2:15 one new man Not Gentiles turned into Jews, or Jews into Gentiles, but something new: one body in Christ.
2:16 reconcile both in one body to God through the cross To reconcile is to bring enemies back together. Our biggest problem was that we were enemies of God (Rom 5:10). The cross dealt with that first, and then we could be made right with one another.
2:18 the access by one Spirit to the Father The whole Trinity is here, one God in three Persons. The Son opens the way, the Spirit brings us in and the Father welcomes us. Once only the high priest entered the Most Holy Place, once a year. Now every believer may come at any time (Heb 10:19-22).
2:19 fellow citizens of the saints God has no first-class and second-class children. This does not mean God has thrown away Israel (Rom 11:1-2, 25-29). His promises to Israel still stand, and I believe He has a future for the nation. Believing Gentiles now stand beside believing Jews on the same footing, through the same Messiah.
2:20 the foundation of the apostles and prophets Most likely the New Testament apostles and prophets (3:5; 4:11). Their teaching, now written in Scripture, is the foundation every generation builds on.
2:20 Jesus Christ Himself being the cornerstone The first stone laid, which every other stone lined up with (Isa 28:16; Ps 118:22; 1 Pet 2:6-7). A church that lines up with anything else is crooked.
2:21 a holy temple in the Lord God's presence once lived in the tabernacle and the temple. Now He lives in His people, each believer (1 Cor 6:19) and the church together. The building is still going up, one stone at a time.
3:1 the prisoner of Christ Jesus Paul was chained to a Roman guard, but he saw himself as the Lord's prisoner. He was arrested because a crowd thought he had brought Trophimus, a Gentile from Ephesus, into the temple (Acts 21:27-29). Verses 2-13 are a long side note, and the prayer picks up again in verse 14.
3:2 the stewardship of the grace of God A steward managed an estate for its owner and answered for it. God gave Paul the job of carrying His grace to the Gentiles.
3:3 by revelation Paul did not invent this, and no man taught it to him (Gal 1:11-12).
3:5 was not made known to the sons of men The Old Testament said the nations would be blessed through Abraham (Gen 12:3; Isa 49:6). What it did not show was how: Gentiles coming in on equal terms, without becoming Jews, as one body with Jewish believers.
3:6 fellow heirs and fellow members of the body and fellow partakers Three words that share a Greek prefix meaning "together with." All of it comes "through the gospel," not through the Law or circumcision. This does not cancel God's promises to the nation of Israel (Rom 11).
3:7 I became a servant Paul the Pharisee once hunted down Christians (Acts 8:3; 1 Tim 1:13). God took the church's greatest enemy and made him its greatest missionary. If God can use Paul, He can use you.
3:8 the less than the least of all the saints Lower than "the least of the apostles" (1 Cor 15:9). This is not false humility. Paul never got over the fact that God saved a man like him. "Unsearchable" riches are too deep to measure.
3:10 the manifold wisdom of God God uses the church to teach angels, good and evil (1:21; 6:12). Manifold means many-sided, like a jewel catching the light. When former enemies sit together at the Lord's table, the angels see something new (1 Pet 1:12). Nothing about the church is an afterthought.

plished in Christ Jesus our Lord, 12 in whom we have the boldness and the access in confidence through the faith of Him. 13 Therefore I ask you not to lose heart in my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

Paul's Prayer for Strength

14 For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 from whom every family in the heavens and on earth is named, 16 that He may grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in the inner man, 17 for Christ to dwell through faith in your hearts, having been rooted and founded in love, 18 so that you may be fully able to grasp with all the saints what is the breadth and length and depth and height, 19 and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled to all the fullness of God. 20 Now to Him who is able to do above all things, far more abundantly than what we ask or think, according to the power that is working in us, 21 to Him be the glory in the church in Christ Jesus to all the generations of the age of the ages. Amen.

Walk in Unity

1 I, therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, exhort you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called, 2 with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, 3 being diligent to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace: 4 one body and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling; 5 one Lord, one faith, one baptism; 6 one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in you all. 7 But to each one of us the grace was given according to the measure of the gift of Christ. 8 Therefore it says, "Having ascended on high, He took captivity captive, and He gave gifts to men." 9 Now "He ascended," what is it except that He also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? 10 The One who descended is Himself also the One who ascended far above all the heavens, so that He might fill all things. 11 And He Himself gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as shepherds and teachers, 12 for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the building up of the

4:12 Exod 28:32; Eph 4:16,29; Rom 15:14,29

3:12 the boldness and the access in confidence Coming before a king uncalled could cost your life (Esth 4:11). Through faith in Jesus we may come to the King of the universe any time, not because we are good enough but because He is.
3:13 not to lose heart They might have thought that if God's great apostle was in prison, the gospel was losing. Paul says his sufferings are "your glory." His chains were part of God's plan, not a failure of it.
3:14 I bow my knees Jews usually prayed standing (Mark 11:25), so kneeling showed deep feeling.
3:15 from whom every family in the heavens and on earth is named A play on words: Father is pater and family is patria. Every family God has made takes its name from Him.
3:16 the inner man Our spirit, the real person inside. Our bodies wear out, but the inner man can be renewed day by day (2 Cor 4:16). God gives "according to the riches of His glory," in proportion to His riches, not as a rich man tossing a coin.
3:17 for Christ to dwell through faith in your hearts Christ already lives in every believer. "Dwell" means to settle down and be at home. Paul prays that Jesus would be at home in every room of their lives, not a guest in the front room.
3:18 the breadth and length and depth and height Wide enough for every person, long enough to last forever, high enough to lift us to heaven, deep enough to reach the worst sinner.
3:19 the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge We can know it truly but never fully. "Filled to all the fullness of God" does not mean we become God. It means He fills us more and more with Himself.
3:20 far more abundantly than what we ask or think We can ask big things and imagine bigger ones. God is able to do far more, by the same resurrection power at work in us (1:19-20).
3:21 to Him be the glory in the church The church exists to bring glory to God. "Amen" means so be it. It closes the first half of the letter.
4:1 walk worthily of the calling "Therefore" points back to chapters 1-3. "Worthily" was a word for scales in balance. Our life should match our calling. We do not walk worthy to be saved. We walk worthy because we are.
4:2 with all humility and gentleness, with patience Humility is thinking rightly about ourselves (Rom 12:3), a trait the Greeks and Romans did not prize until Jesus showed it (Phil 2:5-8). Gentleness is strength under control, as with Moses (Num 12:3). Patience puts up with people for a long time. Love bears with others' faults because Christ bears with ours.
4:3 being diligent to keep the unity of the Spirit We do not create unity. The Spirit already made us one (2:14-18). Our job is to guard it, and that takes effort. I have seen more churches hurt by gossip and hard feelings than by false teaching.
4:4 one body and one Spirit Seven "ones" every true believer shares. "One faith" is the body of truth handed down by the apostles (Jude 3). "One baptism" is most likely water baptism, the public step every believer takes. Where these seven are shared, we should work hard to stay together.
4:8 Having ascended on high From Psalm 68:18, God going up in victory like a conquering king. A king who won came home leading captives and handing out spoils. Jesus went up in victory over sin, death and Satan, and gives gifts to His people. The psalm says "received" and Paul says "gave." A conquering king does both.
4:9 the lower parts of the earth Three main views: His coming to earth at His birth, His burial, or His going to the place of the dead (1 Pet 3:18-20). Each has good support, and I won't press one. The One who came down lowest went up "far above all the heavens" (Phil 2:5-11).
4:11 some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as shepherds and teachers These gifts are people. Apostles were sent directly by the risen Christ and had seen Him (1 Cor 9:1). Evangelists carry the gospel to new places (Acts 21:8). Shepherds and teachers, or pastors, care for and teach a local church, and Paul's Greek ties the two together. Teachers disagree on whether apostles and prophets continue today. I leave that open, as in my Acts study. All agree no one today adds to Scripture.
4:12 for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry The pastor's job is not to do all the ministry while everyone watches. He equips the saints, and the saints do the work. "Equipping" was used for setting a bone or mending a net. If you are on the sidelines, the body is missing something only you can give.

body of Christ, 13 until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a complete man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, 14 so that we may no longer be infants, being tossed by waves and carried about by every wind of teaching, in the trickery of men, in craftiness with a view to the scheming of error; 15 but speaking the truth in love, we may grow up into Him in all things, who is the head, Christ, 16 from whom the whole body, being joined together and held together through every joint of the supply, according to the working in the measure of each individual part, makes the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.

Put Off the Old, Put On the New

17 This therefore I say and testify in the Lord: you are no longer to walk as the rest of the Gentiles also walk, in the futility of their mind, 18 darkened in the understanding, being alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their heart, 19 who, having become callous, gave themselves over to sensuality for the practice of every impurity with greediness. 20 But you did not learn Christ this way, 21 if indeed you heard Him and were taught in Him, as truth is in Jesus (Iesous): 22 that you put off, concerning the former way of life, the old man, which is being corrupted according to the desires of deceit, 23 and be renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24 and put on the new man, which according to God was created in righteousness and holiness of the truth. 25 Therefore, having put off the falsehood, speak truth each one with his neighbor, because we are members of one another. 26 Be angry, and do not sin; let the sun not set on your anger, 27 nor give place to the devil. 28 Let the one who steals no longer steal, but rather let him labor, working with the hands what is good, so that he may have something to share with the one who has need. 29 Let no rotten word go out of your mouth, but whatever is good for building up of the need, so that it may give grace to those who hear. 30 And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. 31 Let all bitterness and rage and wrath and clamor and slander be removed from you, along with all malice. 32 And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave you.

4:13 the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ The standard for the church is Jesus Himself. We will not reach it fully in this life, but we keep growing until we see Him (1 John 3:2).
4:14 being tossed by waves Immature believers are like a small boat pushed around by every new teaching. Some teachers know exactly what they are doing. The best protection is to know the truth so well that the counterfeit stands out.
4:15 speaking the truth in love Truth without love is harsh. Love without truth is empty. Verse 16 pictures a healthy body where every part does its work and the whole grows in love.
4:17 the futility of their mind "Gentiles" here means unbelievers living without God. Their ignorance is not innocent. It flows from a hardened heart (4:18; Rom 1:21).
4:19 having become callous Their conscience is seared numb (1 Tim 4:2). Sensuality is sin done openly without shame, and greed always wants more. Sin never satisfies. It leaves a person hungrier.
4:20 you did not learn Christ this way Not learning about Christ, but learning Christ Himself. Jesus does not only tell the truth. He is the truth (John 14:6).
4:22 put off, concerning the former way of life, the old man Like taking off dirty clothes. The old man is who we were before Christ. Sin always lies. It promises pleasure and pays out death.
4:23 be renewed in the spirit of your mind Change starts in the mind (Rom 12:2). We cannot keep thinking the old way and live a new way. God renews us as we fill our minds with His Word.
4:24 put on the new man Believers have already put off the old and put on the new (Col 3:9-10). Here Paul says to keep living that way, day after day.
4:25 speak truth each one with his neighbor Quoting Zechariah 8:16. Lying to another believer is like your hand lying to your foot. A body that cannot trust its own members cannot work.
4:26 Be angry, and do not sin Psalm 4:4 in the Greek Old Testament the early church used. Not all anger is sin. Jesus looked on hard hearts with anger (Mark 3:5). But anger is like fire. Deal with it before the sun goes down, even if that means bringing it to God that night. Settled, simmering wrath is the kind to put away (4:31).
4:27 place to the devil A foothold. Anger left to sit hands Satan a key to your life. Many broken marriages and split churches started there.
4:28 so that he may have something to share with the one who has need The gospel does more than stop sin. It puts the opposite in its place. The taker becomes a giver.
4:29 Let no rotten word go out of your mouth The word was used for rotten fruit or spoiled fish: cursing, gossip, put-downs and crude jokes. Before you speak, ask two questions. Will this build up, and will it give grace?
4:30 Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God Only a person can be grieved, so the Spirit is a Person, not a force. He is grieved by the very sins listed around this verse. He is God's seal on us until our redemption is complete, when Jesus comes for His church and our bodies are raised or changed (Rom 8:23; 1 Cor 15:51-52).
4:31 bitterness and rage and wrath and clamor and slander These often come as a chain. Bitterness hides inside, boils over into rage and wrath, gets loud, turns to slander and ends in malice. Stop it at the start.
4:32 even as God also in Christ forgave you We forgive because we have been forgiven (Matt 18:21-35). Forgiving does not mean what they did was right, and trust may take time to rebuild. It never means a crime should not be reported or that you must stay where you are being hurt. It means you release the debt and leave it with God.
5:1 Be imitators of God The Greek word gives us "mimic." Children copy their parents, and we are to copy our Father.
5:2 walk in love, even as Christ also loved us and gave Himself up for us Real love gives itself away. Some Old Testament offerings were a pleasing aroma to the Lord (Lev 1:9). The death of Jesus was the perfect sacrifice that fully pleased the Father.

grance. 3 But sexual immorality and all impurity or greediness, let it not even be named among you, as is proper for saints; 4 and filthiness and foolish talk or coarse joking, the things not fitting, but rather thanksgiving. 5 For you know this, that every sexually immoral person or impure person or greedy person, who is an idolater, has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. 6 Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes on the sons of disobedience. 7 Therefore do not be partakers with them; 8 for you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light 9 (for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth), 10 discerning what is well-pleasing to the Lord. 11 And do not have fellowship with the unfruitful works of the darkness, but rather even expose them. 12 For it is shameful even to speak of the things being done by them in secret. 13 But all things, being exposed by the light, are made visible; for everything that is made visible is light.
14 Therefore it says, "Awake, you who are sleeping, and rise up from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."

Walk in Wisdom

15 Therefore see carefully how you walk, not as unwise but as wise, 16 redeeming the time, because the days are evil. 17 Because of this do not be foolish, but understanding what the will of the Lord is. 18 And do not be drunk with wine, in which is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit,
19 speaking to each other with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord, 20 giving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ to the God and Father, 21 submitting yourselves to one another in the fear of God.

Wives and Husbands

22 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord. 23 For the husband is head of the wife, as also Christ is head of the church, and He Himself is Savior of the body. 24 But as the church is subjected to Christ, so also the wives are to their own husbands in everything. 25 Husbands, love your own wives, even as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up for her, 26 so that He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water by the word,

5:3 let it not even be named among you Sexual immorality is any sexual sin outside marriage between a husband and wife. These sins should be so far from the church that no one could rightly link them with believers.
5:4 but rather thanksgiving Paul is not against laughter. He is against humor that drags sin into the room. A thankful mouth crowds out the filth.
5:5 has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God Paul means people whose whole lives are marked by these sins without repentance, not a believer who stumbles and gets back up (1 Cor 6:9-11). It is a real warning. If you hate your sin and keep running back to Jesus, that sorrow is a sign of His Spirit at work in you (1 John 1:9). Greed is idolatry because it puts something in God's place.
5:6 Let no one deceive you with empty words Some said what you do with your body does not matter. Paul calls that empty talk (Col 3:6).
5:7 do not be partakers with them Jesus ate with sinners. We can be friends with people without being partners in their sin.
5:8 you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord Not in darkness but darkness itself, and now light itself. Our nature has changed (Matt 5:14; John 8:12). Like the moon, we shine by reflecting Jesus.
5:9 the fruit of the Spirit Many Greek copies read "the fruit of the light," which fits this passage. Either way it is God at work in us.
5:11 rather even expose them First by living in the light, since darkness does not argue with light. At times it also means speaking up, gently and humbly (Gal 6:1). Verse 12 reminds us to expose darkness, not dwell on it.
5:14 Awake, you who are sleeping Scripture does not say where this saying came from. Many think it was an early Christian hymn built on passages like Isaiah 60:1.
5:16 redeeming the time Buying up the opportunity, like a merchant grabbing a bargain before it is gone. The days are evil, and if we drift, we drift the wrong way.
5:17 understanding what the will of the Lord is Most of God's will is already written plainly in Scripture. Do what you already know He wants, and He will lead you in the rest.
5:18 do not be drunk with wine The Bible does not forbid all wine, but it plainly forbids drunkenness (Prov 23:29-35; Gal 5:21).
5:18 be filled with the Spirit A command, plural and ongoing: keep on being filled. Every believer has the Spirit from salvation (1:13). Being filled is letting Him lead and control us day by day. Wine takes away self-control. The Spirit gives it (Gal 5:22-23).
5:19 psalms and hymns and spiritual songs The first sign of a Spirit-filled life is worship. Church music is believers teaching and encouraging one another (Col 3:16).
5:20 giving thanks always for all things Written from prison. We do not thank God for evil itself, but we can thank Him in every situation because He works all things for good (Rom 8:28).
5:21 submitting yourselves to one another in the fear of God Many Greek copies read "the fear of Christ." A Spirit-filled believer puts others first. This verse opens the section on marriage, family and work.
5:22 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord Paul speaks to wives directly and does not tell husbands to make them submit. Submission is about role, not worth. Jesus is equal with the Father yet came to do His will (Phil 2:6-8; John 6:38). It never means following a husband into sin (Acts 5:29), and it never means putting up with abuse. A husband who abuses his wife is breaking verses 25-29, and the church should stand with her. Some teachers see a lasting pattern of loving leadership here. Others note that verse 22 borrows its verb from verse 21 and read it through mutual submission. I teach its plain meaning and encourage you to study it prayerfully.
5:23 the husband is head of the wife Headship in Scripture means loving leadership and responsibility, not being a boss or a tyrant.
5:25 Husbands, love your own wives, even as Christ also loved the church The culture told husbands to rule. Paul tells them to love, and the standard is the cross. A husband lays down his life for his wife every day: his time, comfort, rights and preferences. A wife loved like that will rarely find submission a burden.
5:26 the washing of water by the word Many see the cleansing God's Word brings (John 15:3; 17:17). Some also see baptism. Either way, God uses His Word to make His people clean.

27 so that He might present her to Himself, the church glorious, not having spot or wrinkle or any of such things, but that she might be holy and blameless. 28 So husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself. 29 For no one ever hated his own flesh, but he nourishes and cherishes it, even as also the Lord does the church, 30 because we are members of His body, from His flesh and from His bones. 31 "Because of this a man will leave his father and mother and will be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh." 32 This mystery is great, but I speak with reference to Christ and to the church. 33 Nevertheless, you also, each one individually, let each so love his own wife as himself, and the wife must see that she fears the husband.

EPHESIANS 6

Children and Parents

1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. 2 "Honor your father and mother" (which is the first commandment with a promise), 3 "so that it may be well with you, and you will be long-lived on the earth." 4 And fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and admonition of the Lord.

Slaves and Masters

5 Slaves, obey the masters according to the flesh with fear and trembling, in the sincerity of your heart, as to Christ, 6 not by way of eye-service as men-pleasers, but as slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the soul, 7 with good will rendering service as to the Lord and not to men, 8 knowing that whatever good thing each one does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether slave or free. 9 And masters, do the same things to them, giving up the threatening, knowing that your own Lord also is in the heavens, and there is no partiality with Him.

The Armor of God

10 Finally, my brothers, be empowered in the Lord and in the strength of His might. 11 Put on the full armor of God so that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil, 12 because our wrestling is not against blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the world rulers of the darkness of this age, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. 13 Because of this take up the full armor of God, so that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all things, to stand. 14 Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, 15 and having shod the feet

6:14 Isa 59:17; Isa 11:5; Luke 12:35
6:15 Isa 52:7; Rom 10:15; 2 Cor 5:18-21

5:27 not having spot or wrinkle A bride carefully prepared for her wedding. One day Jesus will present His church holy and blameless (Rev 19:7-8).
5:29 nourishes and cherishes To nourish is to feed and help grow. To cherish is to keep warm. This is how Christ treats His church.
5:31 the two will become one flesh Genesis 2:24. A man's first loyalty changes, and he is joined to his wife like two things glued together. Jesus used this verse to show God means marriage to last (Matt 19:4-6).
5:32 This mystery is great From the beginning God designed marriage as a picture of Christ and the church. Every Christian marriage is meant to preach a small sermon about Jesus and His bride.
5:33 let each so love his own wife as himself Each command goes to one person. The husband answers for his love and the wife for her respect, even when the other falls short. That is about ordinary failures, not abuse, which should be brought into the light (5:11).
6:1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord Children were in the room when this letter was read. "In the Lord" sets a limit: no child obeys a command to sin, and no child must keep quiet about being hurt. If an adult is harming you, tell a teacher, a pastor or another adult you trust.
6:2 Honor your father and mother The fifth commandment (Exod 20:12; Deut 5:16). Obeying is for childhood. Honor lasts for life (1 Tim 5:4). Honoring parents who hurt you does not mean pretending it did not happen or putting yourself back in harm's way.
6:3 you will be long-lived on the earth The promise was given to Israel about the land. Paul applies it widely as a principle, not a guarantee that every obedient child will live to old age.
6:4 do not provoke your children to anger A Roman father had near-total power over his children. Paul tells fathers not to be harsh, unfair or never pleased (Col 3:21), and to raise children who know and love God. That job belongs to fathers first. A mother raising children alone carries a double load, and God sees it.
6:5 Slaves, obey the masters according to the flesh Many in the church were slaves. Roman slavery came through war, debt or birth and differed from race-based American slavery, but it was still one person owning another, and often cruel. Paul tells slave and master they answer to the same Lord, which cuts against the whole idea of owning a person (Phlm 16; 1 Cor 7:21). These verses were later misused in America to defend slavery, while other Christians reading the same Bible fought to end it. Today they speak to anyone who works for someone else.
6:6 not by way of eye-service as men-pleasers Like a worker who only works hard when the boss is watching. Your real boss is Jesus, and He sees and rewards every bit of good work (6:8).
6:9 giving up the threatening Masters could beat or even kill slaves, so this was a big change. The master on earth answers to a Master in heaven who shows no partiality. Every boss today should remember it.
6:10 be empowered in the Lord and in the strength of His might The same words for strength Paul used in 1:19 for the power that raised Jesus. We fight with His power, not ours.
6:11 Put on the full armor of God All of it, not the pieces we like. God provides it, and we put it on. The goal is to "stand." Christ has already won (Col 2:15). We hold the ground He has won.
6:12 our wrestling is not against blood and flesh The people who oppose us are not the real enemy. Behind them are ranks of evil spirits under Satan. We fight the devil and pray for the people (2 Tim 2:25-26). That never excuses anyone, and it never means ignoring abuse or crime.
6:13 in the evil day Some days are worse than others: strong temptation, great loss, flooding doubt. Put the armor on before that day comes.
6:14 having girded your loins with truth Paul was likely chained to a Roman soldier (Acts 28:16, 20), but these pictures come first from Isaiah 59:17, where the Lord Himself puts on armor. The soldier's belt held everything in place. A lying Christian is a soldier with his belt undone.
6:14 the breastplate of righteousness It covered the heart. Our righteousness before God comes from Christ alone (Phil 3:9), and living rightly protects the heart.
6:15 the readiness of the gospel of peace Roman sandals had nails in the soles like cleats. Peace with God gives firm footing (Rom 5:1) and makes us ready to carry that peace to others (Isa 52:7).

with the readiness of the gospel of peace; 16 above all, having taken up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one; 17 and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, 18 through all prayer and supplication, praying at every time in the Spirit, and for this very purpose watching with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints, 19 and for me, that a word may be given to me in the opening of my mouth, with boldness to make known the mystery of the gospel, 20 for which I am an ambassador in a chain, so that in it I may speak boldly, as it is necessary for me to speak.

Closing Words

21 But so that you also may know the things concerning me, what I am doing, Tychicus (Tychikos), the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make all things known to you, 22 whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know the things concerning us, and that he may encourage your hearts. 23 Peace to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ. 24 The grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ in incorruptibility. Amen.

6:24 Matt 22:37; 2 Cor 13:14; Col 4:18

6:16 the shield of faith The Roman shield was about four feet tall. The flaming arrows are Satan's lies, doubts, temptations and accusations. Faith answers with what God has said, and it stops all of them.
6:17 the helmet of salvation It guards the mind. Paul also calls it "the hope of salvation" (1 Thess 5:8).
6:17 the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God The only weapon for attack, a short sword for close combat. Jesus answered Satan three times with Scripture (Matt 4:1-11). We can only use the sword if we know it, one of the best reasons I know to read and memorize God's Word.
6:18 praying at every time in the Spirit All prayer, every time, all perseverance, all the saints. Prayer is how a soldier stays in touch with his commander, never a last resort (Rom 8:26).
6:20 an ambassador in a chain Ambassadors were supposed to be protected, not chained. Paul did not ask to be freed. He asked for boldness to speak.
6:21 Tychicus A trusted helper from the province of Asia (Acts 20:4). He carried this letter and Colossians (Col 4:7-8). God used a faithful helper we know little about to carry two books of the Bible.
6:24 in incorruptibility A love that does not decay or fade. The mark of a true believer is not perfection but an enduring love for Jesus.

PHILIPPIANS

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for its readers, "all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi" (1:1). It is one of four letters Paul wrote under arrest, often called the Prison Letters, with Ephesians, Colossians and Philemon. Of the four it is the most personal. Paul writes to old friends who had stood with him from the first day they heard the gospel (1:5).

Author and Date

The letter opens with "Paul and Timothy, slaves of Jesus Christ" (1:1). Timothy was with Paul and well known in Philippi, but Paul speaks all through the letter and speaks of Timothy as "he" (2:19-23). The early church accepted Paul as author without question, and almost all modern scholars agree. Some think our Philippians joins two or three letters because of the sharp turn at 3:2. I take it as one letter, as the church has always received it. A friend writing from prison may change subjects when a danger comes to mind, and the same themes run from first chapter to last.

Paul was in chains (1:7, 13, 17). He mentions the praetorium (1:13) and greets them from "Caesar's household" (4:22). Most Bible teachers believe he wrote from Rome during his house arrest, about A.D. 61 to 62 (Acts 28:16, 30). Some suggest an imprisonment in Ephesus a few years earlier, and others Caesarea (Acts 23:33-35; 24:27). Paul expected a decision on his case soon and hoped to visit them again (1:25-26; 2:23-24).

Background and Setting

Philippi was in Macedonia, in what is now northern Greece, named for Philip II, the father of Alexander the Great. After a famous battle near the city in 42 B.C., Rome made it a colony and settled many retired soldiers there. A Roman colony was a small piece of Rome set down in another land. Its people were Roman citizens and proud of it, which helps explain Paul's words about living as citizens (1:27) and "our citizenship exists in the heavens" (3:20).

It was the first church Paul planted in Europe, on his second journey, after the vision of the man of Macedonia (Acts 16:9). There was no synagogue, so Paul met women praying by the river. The Lord opened Lydia's heart, and she and her household were baptized. Paul cast an evil spirit out of a slave girl, and her masters had Paul and Silas beaten and jailed. At midnight they sang hymns, an earthquake shook the prison open, and the jailer and his household believed (Acts 16:13-34).

The Philippians gave to Paul again and again (4:15-16; 2 Cor 8:1-5). Hearing he was in prison, they sent a gift with Epaphroditus (4:18), who fell sick and nearly died (2:27). Now well, he went home, most likely carrying this letter.

Themes

The key word is joy. In the SLB, joy and rejoice appear sixteen times in four short chapters, written by a prisoner chained to a soldier and not knowing whether he would live or die. Paul's joy came from Christ, not his circumstances: "For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (1:21).

Paul thanks them for their partnership in the gospel and their gift (1:5; 4:10-18) and tells them his chains have spread the gospel (1:12-14). He calls them to unity and humility, with Jesus as the great example (2:1-11; 4:2-3). He warns against those who demanded circumcision (3:2-11) and those who lived for their appetites (3:18-19). He counts everything loss to know Christ and presses on toward the goal (3:8-14), waiting for the Savior from heaven (3:20-21). He teaches them to pray instead of worrying, to fill their minds with what is good, and to be content in every circumstance through Christ who strengthens (4:6-13).

Christ in Philippians

Philippians holds one of the greatest passages in the Bible about who Jesus is. "Existing in the form of God," He "emptied Himself, having taken the form of a slave," and "humbled Himself, having become obedient as far as death, even death of a cross" (2:6-8). God has highly exalted Him, "so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow" (2:10). Knowing Him is worth more than everything (3:8). From heaven "we eagerly await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, who will transform the body of our humiliation" (3:20-21), and He gives strength for every circumstance (4:13).

Hard Passages

What Christ emptied Himself of (2:7) has been much discussed. He did not stop being God. He added a full human nature and laid aside His glory and privileges. "Work out your own salvation" (2:12) does not mean earning salvation, for God is the One working in us (2:13). Philippians 1:6 is read differently by those with different views on eternal security. Being "with Christ" at death (1:23) shows that believers who die are with the Lord, aware, while their bodies await the resurrection (3:21). "If somehow I may attain to the resurrection of the dead" (3:11) expresses longing, not doubt. The notes name the main views on these.

Greeting

1 Paul (Paulos) and Timothy (Timotheos), slaves of Jesus (Iesous) Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi (Philippoi), with the overseers and deacons: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving and Prayer

3 I thank my God at all the remembrance of you, 4 always in every supplication of mine for you all, making the supplication with joy, 5 for your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, 6 being confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ; 7 even as it is right for me to think this about you all, because I have you in the heart, both in my chains and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all being fellow partakers of grace with me. 8 For God is my witness, how I long for you all in the affection of Jesus Christ. 9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment, 10 so that you may approve the things that are excellent, so that you may be pure and without offense for the day of Christ, 11 having been filled with fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

Paul's Chains Advance the Gospel

12 Now I want you to know, brothers, that the things concerning me have come rather to the advancement of the gospel, 13 so that my chains in Christ have become clearly known in the whole praetorium and to all the rest, 14 and most of the brothers in the Lord, having become confident by my chains, dare more abundantly to speak the word without fear. 15 Some indeed even from envy and strife, but some also from goodwill, preach Christ. 16 Those indeed out of selfish ambition proclaim Christ, not purely, supposing to

1:1 Paul and Timothy, slaves of Jesus Christ In other letters Paul calls himself an apostle. Here, writing to friends, he takes the lowest title there is. A Roman slave belonged completely to his master. A saint is not a special class of Christian but anyone set apart for God, and he greets them all, since he will soon address division (4:2-3). Overseers, also called elders and shepherds (Acts 20:17, 28), lead and shepherd the church. Deacons serve its practical needs.
1:2 Grace to you and peace Grace is God's favor we did not earn. Peace is what comes because of it: peace with God and the peace of God in our hearts (4:7). Grace always comes first. Paul sets God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ side by side as one source, for Jesus is God, as he will say plainly in chapter 2.
1:4 making the supplication with joy Every thought of these people led Paul to thanks, which the Corinthians and Galatians did not always give him. This is the letter's first mention of joy. Supplication is humble, earnest asking. Paul was in chains, yet his prayers were full of joy. Joy does not wait for good circumstances.
1:5 your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now Partnership is koinonia: fellowship, sharing, having something in common. They prayed, gave, and spread the gospel. The first day takes us back to Acts 16, when Lydia opened her home to Paul. For more than ten years this church had stood with him.
1:6 He who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ God began the work of saving them and making them like His Son, and God will bring it to its goal. The day of Jesus Christ is the day He comes for His church (1 Thess 4:16-17), when even our bodies will be changed (3:21). Many read this as a promise that God keeps every true believer to the end (John 10:28-29; Rom 8:38-39). Others believe a person can still turn away (Heb 6:4-6). All agree our hope rests on a faithful God who finishes what He starts.
1:7 in the defense and confirmation of the gospel Paul's confidence was not a guess. He had seen their faith for years. Defense is apologia, a legal defense in court. Paul was preparing to defend himself and the gospel before Rome. In standing with him they were fellow partakers of grace. He did not see them as a project. He had them in his heart.
1:8 how I long for you all in the affection of Jesus Christ Paul calls God to testify. The word for affection points to the deepest feelings of the heart. Paul loved them with the very love of Jesus, which does not come naturally but from Christ living in us.
1:9 that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment They were already a loving church, so Paul prays their love will overflow. Love without knowledge can be foolish and call anything kindness. Discernment is seeing clearly, telling right from wrong and good from best.
1:10 so that you may approve the things that are excellent Approve was used for testing metals to see if they were genuine. Love that knows God's Word chooses what is best, not merely what is acceptable. Without offense means not stumbling and not causing others to stumble. Living with the day of Christ in view changes how we live today.
1:11 having been filled with fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ This is the good fruit of a life made right with God. It comes through Jesus, for apart from Him we can do nothing (John 15:5). Its purpose is the glory and praise of God, not to make us look good.
1:12 the things concerning me have come rather to the advancement of the gospel Advancement was used for army engineers cutting a road ahead of the troops. Paul's arrest looked like a roadblock, and God turned it into a road. Paul had long wanted to go to Rome (Rom 1:13-15), though perhaps not in chains. When things go wrong, do we ask what God might be doing through it?
1:13 my chains in Christ have become clearly known in the whole praetorium The praetorium was the imperial guard, or the headquarters where they served. Under house arrest Paul was chained to a soldier (Acts 28:16, 20). The guards likely took turns, so one after another spent hours hearing him pray and teach. Soon all knew he was no criminal but in chains because of Jesus.
1:14 dare more abundantly to speak the word without fear Paul's arrest did not frighten the believers. They saw God's faithfulness and the gospel spreading, and they grew bolder. When one believer stands firm under pressure, others find courage too.
1:15 Some indeed even from envy and strife Two groups preached in Rome. Some preached out of selfish ambition, the spirit of a man running for office (1:16). Paul does not say their message was wrong, only their motives. Others preached out of love (1:17). Envy can be found even among those who serve Christ, so we should ask why we serve.

add affliction to my chains; 17 but those out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel. 18 What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and in this I rejoice, yes, and I will rejoice.

To Live Is Christ

19 For I know that this will turn out for me to salvation through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 20 according to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing I will be ashamed, but in all boldness, as always, also now Christ will be magnified in my body, whether through life or through death. 21 For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain. 22 But if to live in the flesh, this is fruit of work for me; and what I will choose, I do not make known. 23 For I am hard-pressed between the two, having the desire to depart and to be with Christ, which is very much better; 24 but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for your sake. 25 And being confident of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy of the faith, 26 so that your boasting may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my coming to you again.

Live Worthy of the Gospel

27 Only conduct yourselves as citizens worthily of the gospel of Christ, so that whether having come and seen you or being absent, I may hear the things concerning you, that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one soul striving together for the faith of the gospel, 28 and not being frightened in anything by those who oppose, which is to them indeed a demonstration of destruction, but to you of salvation, and this from God. 29 For to you it was granted on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer on behalf of Him, 30 having the same conflict such as you saw in me and now hear to be in me.

Unity Through Humility

1 If there is therefore any encouragement in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any affections and compassions, 2 fulfill my joy, so that you may think the same thing, having the same love, united in soul, thinking the one thing, 3 doing nothing according to selfish ambition or vain conceit, but in humility considering one another

2:2 Rom 12:16; 1 Cor 1:10; 1 Pet 3:8,9
2:3 Rom 12:10; Eph 4:2; Eph 5:21

1:18 whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and in this I rejoice Paul did not care who got the credit, only that Jesus was preached. This works only because the message was true. To those who preach a different gospel Paul is very hard (Gal 1:8-9). Here the gospel was right and only the motives wrong, and he left those to God.
1:19 this will turn out for me to salvation Paul was already saved. Some take salvation here as release from prison. Others take it as the good outcome of his whole life before God, whether he lives or dies, which the next verse fits. God would work through their prayers and the supply of the Spirit.
1:20 Christ will be magnified in my body, whether through life or through death Earnest expectation pictures a man stretching his neck to see what is coming. Paul's hope was not first to be released but that he would not be ashamed or back away from the truth. To magnify is to make great in the eyes of others.
1:21 For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain The key verse of the letter. For Paul life was not career, comfort, or even ministry. Life was Jesus. What would honestly fill in that blank for us? Only one who can say to live is Christ can say to die is gain. Death cannot take from him the One he loves most.
1:22 what I will choose, I do not make known To live in the flesh here means simply to go on living in this body, which would mean more fruitful work. Both choices are good, and the choice was really God's, but Paul shows us his heart.
1:23 having the desire to depart and to be with Christ, which is very much better Hard-pressed pictures a man squeezed from both sides. Depart was used for a ship lifting anchor or soldiers striking camp. A believer who dies does not fall into a long, unaware sleep. He goes to be with the Lord, aware and at home (2 Cor 5:8), while the body waits for the resurrection. If you have lost a loved one who knew Jesus, they are with Christ, and that is very much better.
1:24 to remain in the flesh is more necessary for your sake Paul's own desire was to go to Jesus, but the Philippians still needed him, so he puts their need ahead of his wish. This is the mind of Christ he will describe in 2:4.
1:25 I know that I will remain and continue with you all Paul seems to have sensed God would keep him alive for now. Many Bible teachers believe he was released, traveled again and wrote 1 Timothy and Titus, then was arrested again and wrote 2 Timothy. Progress is the same word as advancement in 1:12. He wanted them to move forward and find more joy in the faith.
1:27 conduct yourselves as citizens worthily of the gospel of Christ The word comes from the Greek for a city and its citizens. Philippi was a Roman colony proud of its citizenship. Paul tells them to live as citizens of a greater kingdom (3:20). Striving together is a word for athletes or soldiers working as a team. The Christian life is not a solo sport.
1:28 not being frightened in anything by those who oppose The church had enemies from its founding (Acts 16:19-24). Their calm courage would be a sign: to their enemies a warning that those who fight God's people are on the losing side, and to believers evidence of salvation from God.
1:29 not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer on behalf of Him Granted comes from the word for grace. It means given as a gift. Faith is a gift, and so is suffering for Christ. It is not a sign God has left us but a privilege that shows we belong to Him. The apostles left the council rejoicing that they had been counted worthy to suffer (Acts 5:41).
1:30 having the same conflict such as you saw in me Conflict is agon, which gives us agony, used for a hard struggle in the games or in battle. They had seen Paul and Silas beaten and jailed in their city (Acts 16:22-24) and now heard of his chains in Rome. They were not alone. The Lord who carried Paul would carry them.
2:1 If there is therefore any encouragement in Christ In Greek these four ifs are not doubts. Each has the sense of since. Every believer has received strength in Christ, the comfort of God's love, the shared life of the one Spirit in each of us, and God's tender mercy. If you have received all this from God, how can you hold back from your brothers and sisters?
2:2 fulfill my joy, so that you may think the same thing Paul already had joy in them (1:4). Seeing them united would make it full. This does not mean agreeing on every detail. It means one mindset, a heart set on Christ and His gospel. A church can differ on small things and still be of one mind on what matters most.
2:3 in humility considering one another as surpassing yourselves Selfish ambition is the word of 1:17. Vain conceit is empty glory, hungry for praise. The Greek and Roman world saw humility as weakness, the attitude of a slave, and Jesus turned that upside down. Humility does not mean thinking badly of yourself. It means thinking of yourself less and of others more.

as surpassing yourselves; 4 do not look at your own things, each one, but also the things of others, each one.

The Mind of Christ

5 For let this be thought in you which was also in Christ Jesus (Iesous), 6 who, existing in the form of God, did not consider being equal with God a thing to be grasped, 7 but emptied Himself, having taken the form of a slave, having come to be in the likeness of men; 8 and having been found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself, having become obedient as far as death, even death of a cross. 9 Therefore God also highly exalted Him and granted to Him a name, the one above every name, 10 so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven and those on earth and those under the earth, 11 and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Shine as Lights in the World

12 So then, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; 13 for God is the One who is working in you both to will and to work for the sake of His good pleasure. 14 Do all things without grumblings and disputes, 15 so that you may become blameless and innocent, children of God unblemished in the midst of a crooked and perverted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, 16 holding forth the word of life, for a boast to me for the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain nor toil in vain. 17 But if I am even being poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice and rejoice together with you all. 18 And in the same way you also, rejoice and rejoice together with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy (Timotheos) to you soon, so that I also may be encouraged, having come to know the things concerning you. 20 For I have no one of

2:4 but also the things of others Notice the word also. We may care for our own needs, but not only our own. Most church fights come from people looking only at their own things. Paul is about to show us the One who looked at our needs instead of His own rights.

2:5 let this be thought in you which was also in Christ Jesus Teachers call this the mind of Christ. Verses 6 to 11 are among the greatest words in the Bible about who Jesus is, and many scholars think they may have been an early hymn because of their short, balanced lines. Paul gives this deep truth to change how we treat one another.

2:6 existing in the form of God, did not consider being equal with God a thing to be grasped Form is morphe, the true nature of a thing, not only its appearance. Jesus did not just look like God. He was and is God, and existing tells us He always was (John 1:1). Since He already had equality, the sense is not something to grab but something to cling to or use for His own advantage. Adam reached to be like God (Gen 3:5). Jesus was God and did not cling to it.

2:7 but emptied Himself, having taken the form of a slave Some have taught that Jesus gave up being God or part of His divine nature. Paul does not say that, and it does not fit Scripture. In Him all the fullness of Deity dwells bodily (Col 2:9), and on earth He forgave sins and accepted worship. He emptied Himself by adding, not subtracting. He took on a full human nature, laid aside the glory He had with the Father (John 17:5), and chose not to use His rights and power for His own comfort. Teachers differ on the details, but He became fully man while remaining fully God (John 1:14).

2:8 He humbled Himself, having become obedient as far as death, even death of a cross Becoming a man was a giant step down, but Jesus kept going down. Crucifixion was the most shameful death in the Roman world, used for slaves and rebels, and a man hanged on a tree was under God's curse (Deut 21:23; Gal 3:13). If He humbled Himself that far for us, how can we refuse to humble ourselves before a brother or sister?

2:9 God also highly exalted Him and granted to Him a name, the one above every name Because He humbled Himself, God raised Him to the highest place, at His right hand (Eph 1:20-21). A name stands for the person and his position. Many teachers believe the name is Lord (2:11), the title the Greek Old Testament used for the name of God. The way up in God's kingdom is down (Luke 14:11).

2:10 at the name of Jesus every knee should bow Paul draws from Isaiah 45:23, where every knee bows to God alone. Paul gives that honor to Jesus, one more clear proof that Jesus is God. Those in heaven are angels, those on earth the living, and those under the earth the dead, and many include fallen angels and demons.

2:11 every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord This does not mean all will be saved (Matt 25:46; Rev 20:15). Some will bow in worship and love. Others will bow because they must, admitting at last what they refused to believe. Every person will bow one day. The question is whether we bow to Him now, willingly, as Lord and Savior.

2:12 work out your own salvation with fear and trembling Not earning salvation. God began the work (1:6), and righteousness comes through faith (3:9). Work out means to carry something through to its full result, like working a field. You do not work for your salvation. You work it out. Your is plural, so this is also the church's life together. Fear and trembling is deep respect for God and seriousness about sin, not terror.

2:13 God is the One who is working in you both to will and to work Working gives us our word energy. God changes our desires so we want what pleases Him, and He gives the power to do it. We do the working out. God does the working in. You are not left to grow on your own strength.

2:14 Do all things without grumblings and disputes Grumbling is the low muttering of a complaining heart. Paul likely had Israel in the wilderness in mind, grumbling again and again after God rescued them (Exod 16:2-8; Num 14:1-4; 1 Cor 10:10). A grumbling spirit can poison a whole church and says something about how we see God.

2:15 you shine as lights in the world Blameless means no one can rightly point a finger. Innocent means pure, unmixed. Unblemished was used for animals fit to offer to God. Crooked and perverted come from Moses' song about rebellious Israel (Deut 32:5). Lights is a word for stars in a dark sky. We do not shine by hiding from the world but in the middle of it.

2:16 holding forth the word of life Some Bibles read holding fast, keeping a firm grip. The SLB says holding forth, like holding out a torch. Both are true. When Jesus comes for His church, Paul wants to see the fruit of his running and labor standing firm.

2:17 if I am even being poured out as a drink offering on the sacrifice and service of your faith A drink offering was wine poured on or beside a sacrifice as its finishing touch (Num 15:1-10; 28:7). Paul sees their faith as the main sacrifice and his own life, perhaps his death, as the offering poured on it. That is humility. He used the same picture near the end (2 Tim 4:6), and still he rejoices.

2:18 rejoice and rejoice together with me Do not grieve over my chains, Paul says. Rejoice with me. Joy here is a command. We can choose to rejoice, because our joy rests on Christ, not on how things are going.

2:19 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon Timothy and Epaphroditus are living examples of the mind of Christ. Paul's plans are in the Lord. He makes plans but holds them loosely (James 4:13-15).

like soul, who will genuinely care for the things concerning you; 21 for they all are seeking their own things, not the things of Christ Jesus. 22 But you know his proven worth, that as a child with a father, he served with me for the gospel. 23 Therefore I hope indeed to send him immediately, whenever I see the things concerning me; 24 but I have been persuaded in the Lord that I myself also will come soon. 25 But I considered it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus (Epaphroditos), my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, but your messenger and minister of my need; 26 since he was longing for you all and was deeply distressed, because you heard that he was sick. 27 And indeed he was sick, near to death; but God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, so that I would not have sorrow upon sorrow. 28 Therefore I sent him all the more eagerly, so that, having seen him again, you may rejoice, and I may be less sorrowful. 29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy, and hold such men in honor, 30 because for the sake of the work of Christ he came near as far as death, having risked his life, so that he might fill up your lack of service toward me.

No Confidence in the Flesh

1 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you is indeed not troublesome to me, but for you it is safe. 2 Watch out for the dogs, watch out for the evil workers, watch out for the mutilation; 3 for we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit and boast in Christ Jesus (Iesous) and have not put confidence in the flesh, 4 although I myself have confidence even in the flesh. If any other man thinks to have confidence in the flesh, I more: 5 in circumcision eight days old, of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin (Beniamin), a Hebrew of Hebrews; according to the law, a Pharisee; 6 according to zeal, persecuting the church; according to the righteousness which is in the law, having become blameless. 7 But whatever things were gain to me,

2:21 they all are seeking their own things, not the things of Christ Jesus Timothy was of like soul with Paul and would genuinely care for them (2:20). Paul likely means the men available to send, not every believer in Rome. This is the opposite of 2:4. Which kind of person are you?
2:22 as a child with a father, he served with me for the gospel They had known Timothy since the church began (Acts 16:1-3; 17:14-15). Proven worth is character tested and found true, like metal in the fire. Paul calls him his true child in the faith (1 Tim 1:2), and he says Timothy served with him, not him.
2:24 I have been persuaded in the Lord that I myself also will come soon Paul was waiting to learn how his trial would go, and then he would send Timothy (2:23). He expected release and a visit, and his confidence is in the Lord.
2:25 Epaphroditus, my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, but your messenger Epaphroditus brought their gift (4:18). Paul gives him five titles: brother, sharing one Father; fellow worker, one work; fellow soldier, one battle; messenger, apostolos used in its plain sense of one sent by the church; and minister of Paul's need. He appears only in this letter, yet Paul honors him like a hero. God sees the service the world never notices.
2:26 was deeply distressed, because you heard that he was sick He was not upset about being sick but that they were worried. He thought of others even while suffering. Deeply distressed is the strong word used of Jesus in Gethsemane (Matt 26:37).
2:27 he was sick, near to death; but God had mercy on him Faithful believers get sick in the middle of God's work, and sickness is not always a sign of sin or weak faith. Paul does not say he healed him but that God had mercy. Healing is in God's hands. Paul left Trophimus sick at Miletus (2 Tim 4:20). And Paul admits losing his friend would have brought sorrow upon sorrow. Grief is not a lack of faith.
2:28 I sent him all the more eagerly Paul did not keep him though he needed him. Some might have wondered why Epaphroditus came home early, so Paul makes sure no one thinks he failed. Paul himself sent him.
2:29 hold such men in honor Welcome him with joy and honor. Who should we honor in the church? Not the most popular or gifted, but people like Epaphroditus who serve faithfully and risk everything for Christ.
2:30 having risked his life The word was used for a gambler who throws the dice and bets everything. Paul uses the words as far as death, which he used of Jesus in 2:8. Epaphroditus followed his Lord. Their lack of service is no criticism. They could not all come to Rome, so he did in person what they all wanted to do.
3:1 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord Finally can mean as for the rest, and Paul still has two chapters to go. Circumstances change, but the Lord does not. A good teacher repeats the important things. We do not always need new truth. We need to be reminded of old truth (2 Pet 1:12-13).
3:2 Watch out for the dogs, watch out for the evil workers, watch out for the mutilation Most Bible teachers believe these were Judaizers, Jewish teachers claiming to follow Jesus who said Gentiles must be circumcised and keep the Law to be saved (Acts 15:1-2; Gal 5:2-4). Some see Jews outside the church. Paul turns their words around. Jews sometimes called Gentiles dogs. Paul says they are the dogs. Circumcision is peritome, and Paul calls theirs katatome, a hacking or cutting down.
3:3 we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit and boast in Christ Jesus Three marks of God's true people: Spirit worship, not ritual (John 4:23-24), confidence in Christ, and none in the flesh, our family line, religious works and moral effort. Circumcision always pointed to the heart (Deut 10:16; 30:6; Rom 2:28-29). This does not mean God has cast off Israel, who still has a future (Rom 11). Paul answers one question: how is anyone made right with God?
3:4 If any other man thinks to have confidence in the flesh, I more Paul is not trusting his record or bragging. He is setting up his point. If his record could not save him, no one's can.
3:5 in circumcision eight days old, of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin He was circumcised on the eighth day as the Law commanded (Lev 12:3), not as an adult convert. Benjamin was the tribe of King Saul, whose name Paul shared, and it stayed loyal to David's house when the kingdom split. A Hebrew of Hebrews means raised in the Hebrew language and ways. The Pharisees were the strictest group in Judaism, and Paul trained under Gamaliel (Acts 22:3).
3:6 according to zeal, persecuting the church Paul dragged Christians to prison (Acts 8:3; 26:9-11), thinking he served God. A person can be sincere and sincerely wrong. Blameless does not mean sinless. By the outward standards people could see, no one could point to a rule he broke. Yet the command against coveting exposed his heart (Rom 7:7-11).
3:7 these I have considered loss because of Christ The language of business. Paul thought his credentials were profit. When he met Jesus on the Damascus road (Acts 9:1-6), he moved every one into the loss column. As long as he trusted himself, he could not trust Jesus.

these I have considered loss because of Christ. 8 But indeed, rather, I also consider all things to be loss because of the surpassing worth of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, because of whom I was made to suffer the loss of all things, and I consider them to be rubbish, so that I may gain Christ 9 and may be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through faith of Christ, the righteousness from God on the basis of faith; 10 to know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, 11 if somehow I may attain to the resurrection of the dead.

Pressing On Toward the Goal

12 Not that I have already received it or have already been perfected, but I pursue, if indeed I may lay hold of that for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus. 13 Brothers, I do not count myself to have laid hold of it; but one thing I do: forgetting the things behind and reaching forward to the things ahead, 14 I pursue toward the goal for the prize of the upward calling of God in Christ Jesus. 15 Therefore, as many as are perfect, let us think this; and if you think anything differently, God will reveal even this to you; 16 nevertheless, to what we have attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us think the same thing.

Our Citizenship Is in Heaven

17 Be fellow imitators of me, brothers, and observe those who walk thus, just as you have us for a pattern. 18 For many walk, about whom I often was telling you, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ, 19 whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, and the glory is in their shame, who think on the earthly things. 20 For our citizenship exists in the heavens, from which also we eagerly await a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, 21 who will transform the body of our humiliation, so that it may become conformed to the body of His glory, according to the working of His being able even to subject all things to Himself.

4:1 Phil 1:27; 1 Cor 16:13; Phil 1:8

3:8 I consider them to be rubbish, so that I may gain Christ Not only his record but all things. Notice the word my in Christ Jesus my Lord. Paul knew Him personally. He lost standing, career and comfort (2 Cor 11:23-27). Rubbish was used for garbage, scraps thrown to dogs, even dung. Like the man who sold all to buy the field (Matt 13:44), Paul traded everything for Jesus and counted himself the winner.
3:9 not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through faith of Christ Our best record is not good enough for a holy God (Isa 64:6). Here are two kinds of righteousness, one earned by the Law, the other from God received by faith. This is justification, God declaring a guilty sinner righteous because of Christ (Rom 3:21-26). Faith of Christ is usually read as faith in Christ, but some read it as Christ's faithfulness. Both are true, and the verse ends on the basis of faith.
3:10 to know Him and the power of His resurrection and the fellowship of His sufferings After more than twenty-five years Paul still wanted to know Jesus more, as a close friend. The power that raised Him works in believers (Eph 1:19-20). Our sufferings do not pay for sin, but suffering for Him brings us to know Him more deeply. Conformed to His death means dying to self and being ready to die for Him.
3:11 if somehow I may attain to the resurrection of the dead The if expresses longing and humility, not doubt, since Paul has just said he is in Christ. The phrase can be read as a resurrection out from among the dead. Believers will be raised first, when Jesus comes for His church (1 Thess 4:16), before the rest of the dead (Rev 20:5-6). Some read it more generally of the resurrection of all believers.
3:12 I pursue, if indeed I may lay hold of that for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus One of the most honest verses in the Bible. The great apostle says he has not arrived. Pursue was used of a hunter or a runner. Jesus took hold of Paul on the Damascus road for a purpose, and now Paul chases that purpose. We run after Him because He first took hold of us.
3:13 forgetting the things behind and reaching forward to the things ahead If Paul had not arrived, none of us have. One thing I do: one aim. Paul put behind him both his religious record and his forgiven sins as a persecutor. To forget is not to lose memory but to let the past no longer control us. Reaching forward pictures a runner leaning toward the line.
3:14 the prize of the upward calling of God in Christ Jesus The upward calling is God's call to come up, to be with Him and like Christ. Paul is not running to earn salvation, settled when he believed (3:9). He runs to finish well and receive the reward given faithful servants at the judgment seat of Christ (1 Cor 9:24-27; 2 Cor 5:10; 2 Tim 4:7-8).
3:15 as many as are perfect, let us think this Here perfect means mature, not having arrived (3:12). The mature are the ones who know they have not arrived and keep pressing on. Paul taught the truth and trusted God to correct those who did not yet see clearly.
3:16 to what we have attained, let us walk by the same rule While we wait for God to show us more, we live up to what we already know. The word was used for marching in line. Believers keep in step with each other.
3:17 Be fellow imitators of me Not pride, since he has just said he is not perfect. Follow me as I follow Christ (1 Cor 11:1). We all need examples to watch, and we are all an example to someone. Who is watching your walk?
3:18 the enemies of the cross of Christ A second danger, not the law-keepers of 3:2 but people claiming to be Christians who lived for themselves. They wanted Christ without the cross that calls us to die to self (Luke 9:23). Paul warns even weeping. We should warn with tears, not pride.
3:19 whose god is the belly, and the glory is in their shame Their road leads to ruin. Their appetites ruled them, the belly standing for every fleshly desire. They bragged of what should have shamed them, as our culture often does. Their minds were set on this world only (Col 3:2).
3:20 our citizenship exists in the heavens, from which also we eagerly await a Savior Philippi's people were proud citizens of Rome though they lived far from it. Believers are citizens of a greater city, their names written in heaven (Luke 10:20). We wait for Someone. This is the rapture, from a Latin word for caught up (1 Thess 4:16-17). I believe it comes before the seven-year Tribulation, because God has not appointed us to wrath (1 Thess 5:9; John 14:1-3). After the Tribulation He will return visibly with His saints to set up His kingdom (Rev 19:11-16; 20:1-6).
3:21 who will transform the body of our humiliation Our bodies tire, sicken, age and die. When Jesus comes for His church, He will change them to be like His resurrection body, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye (1 Cor 15:51-52), and we will be like Him (1 John 3:2). The power that will bring all things under Him will do it. If you are suffering in your body, it is not the end of the story.
4:1 my joy and crown, in this way stand firm in the Lord Paul calls them beloved twice in one verse. The crown is not a king's crown but the wreath given a winner at the games. They were his prize, proof his work was not in vain (2:16). In this way means as chapter 3 described: pressing on, living as citizens of heaven, and waiting for our Savior, in the Lord's strength.

4:2 I exhort Euodia and I exhort Syntyche to think the same thing in the Lord Two women had a falling out serious enough to reach Paul in Rome. We are not told what it was about. Paul takes no sides. He exhorts each one separately and equally, with the words of 2:2, calling both back to the mind of Christ.
4:3 true yokefellow, help these women A yokefellow pulls in the same yoke, like two oxen. We do not know who he was. Some suggest Epaphroditus, Luke or a church leader. Others think Syzygus was his real name and he lived up to it. Paul honors these women, who strove side by side with him in the gospel like athletes (1:27). The book of life is God's record of those who belong to Him (Rev 20:15; 21:27).
4:4 Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice The theme of the whole letter, said twice. Paul was in chains and two friends were fighting. We cannot always rejoice in our circumstances, but we can always rejoice in the Lord, because He does not change. Happiness depends on what happens. Joy depends on Who holds us. And it is a command, so joy is something we can choose.
4:5 Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is near Gentleness is hard to put in one word: fair, reasonable, patient, willing to yield when it is right. The Lord is near can be taken two ways, and both are true. He is near in His presence (Ps 145:18), and near in His coming, since He could come for His church at any moment (3:20). Either way, we need not fight for our rights.
4:6 Be anxious about nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving Anxious means pulled in different directions, a divided mind (Matt 6:25-34). Paul tells us what to do instead. Nothing is too big or too small to bring to God, and we bring it with thanks for what He has already done. Anxiety can also be a medical condition. This verse is an invitation, not a scolding, and getting help from a doctor or counselor is not a lack of faith.
4:7 the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts Paul does not promise God will give all we ask. He promises peace. Sometimes God changes our circumstances, and sometimes He changes us in the middle of them. A believer can be at peace in a hospital bed or a prison cell. Guard is a military word, a sentry at the gate.
4:8 whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable What we think about shapes who we become. True things match reality and God's Word, not lies or rumors. Honorable things deserve respect, and pure things are not stained by sin. Ponder means to count up, to let the mind dwell. This is the cure for the anxious mind. We do not just push bad thoughts out. We fill our minds with good ones. Does what we watch and read pass this test?
4:9 the God of peace will be with you Thinking right must lead to living right. They had learned Paul's teaching and seen it in his life. In 4:7 they had the peace of God. Here they have the God of peace Himself.
4:10 now at last you have revived the thinking on my behalf Revived was used for a plant blooming again in spring. Paul thanks them for their gift without making them feel guilty. They had not stopped caring. They had lacked a way to help.
4:11 I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am Paul is not hinting for more. Contentment is learned. It comes naturally to no one. Greek philosophers used the word for a man who needed nothing outside himself. Paul was content because Christ was enough. That does not mean never working to change things, but our peace does not depend on getting what we want.
4:12 I also know how to be humbled; I also know how to abound Paul had plenty and had gone hungry and cold (2 Cor 11:27). Initiated was used for being let in on a secret. Plenty has its own danger, making us proud and forgetful of God (Deut 8:11-14). Paul learned to handle both.
4:13 I have strength for all things in the One who strengthens me, Christ One of the most quoted and misused verses. It is not a promise to win the game or get the job. In context all things means plenty and want, comfort and chains. It is a verse about contentment. Strengthens means to pour power into. Paul's strength was borrowed, given day by day (2 Cor 12:9-10). That is a bigger promise. Whatever we face, Christ gives strength to stay faithful.
4:14 you did well, having had fellowship in my affliction Paul does not want to sound ungrateful. Fellowship is koinonia again (1:5). When we give to support someone serving Christ, we share in their work.
4:15 no church had fellowship with me in the account of giving and receiving except you only Business words again, like a ledger. When Paul left Macedonia, only they supported him, sending help to Thessalonica more than once (4:16; Acts 17:1) and later to Corinth (2 Cor 11:9). This church was not rich. The Macedonians gave out of deep poverty (2 Cor 8:1-5).
4:17 I seek the fruit that increases to your account Paul cared more about the givers than the gift. The picture is interest building in an account. This is not a promise that giving makes us rich, but that God sees and rewards faithful giving (Matt 6:19-21; 2 Cor 9:6-8).
4:18 an aroma of fragrance, an acceptable sacrifice, well-pleasing to God Paul writes like a receipt: paid in full. The smoke of offerings rose as a pleasing aroma to the Lord (Lev 1:9). Their gift to Paul was really a gift to God. Giving to support God's work is worship.

abound; I have been filled, having received from Epaphroditus (Epaphroditos) the things from you, an aroma of fragrance, an acceptable sacrifice, well-pleasing to God. 19 And my God will fill every need of yours according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus. 20 Now to our God and Father be the glory to the ages of the ages. 4:23 Rom 16:20,24; 2 Cor 13:14

4:19 my God will fill every need of yours according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus This follows their generous giving. They filled Paul's need, and God will fill theirs, the same word as I have been filled in 4:18. Every need, not every want. According to His riches, not merely out of them, in a way that matches how rich He is.
4:20 to our God and Father be the glory to the ages of the ages Paul cannot speak of God's riches without breaking into praise. To the ages of the ages means forever and ever. In 4:19 it was my God. Now it is our God.
4:22 especially those of Caesar's household Caesar's household meant not just the emperor's family but the many slaves, freedmen and officials serving his palace and government. If Paul wrote from Rome, as most believe, the gospel had reached into Nero's household. Paul's chains carried the gospel to the center of the empire.
4:23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all Paul ends as he began, with grace (1:2). Everything in the letter flows from it. The closing note in many Greek copies, that it was written from Rome and sent by Epaphroditus, was added later by copyists but agrees with the letter (2:25; 4:18, 22).

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for its readers, "the saints in Colosse and faithful brothers in Christ" (1:2). It is one of the four Prison Letters, with Ephesians, Philippians and Philemon. Colossians and Ephesians are often called twin letters. Paul wrote them at about the same time, sent them with the same man, and many of their themes and phrases match. Ephesians puts the spotlight on the church, the body of Christ. Colossians puts the spotlight on Christ, the head of the body.

Author and Date

The letter opens with "Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Timothy the brother" (1:1). It speaks in Paul's voice (1:23) and he signs it with his own hand (4:18). The early church accepted Paul as author. Some modern scholars think a follower wrote it after his death, pointing to its style and its high teaching about Christ. I take the letter at its word. It names Paul three times, speaks of his chains, and closes with real people, most of whom appear in Philemon, a letter almost no one doubts. Its teaching about Christ matches letters no one questions (1 Cor 8:6; Phil 2:5-11).

Paul wrote as a prisoner (4:3, 10, 18), most likely from Rome during his house arrest, about A.D. 60 to 62 (Acts 28:16, 30-31). A few suggest Ephesus or Caesarea, but Rome fits best with the visitors he received and the people around him. He wrote Colossians, Ephesians and Philemon at about the same time.

Background and Setting

Colosse sat in the Lycus River valley in the Roman province of Asia, in western Turkey, roughly a hundred miles east of Ephesus, with Laodicea about ten miles away and Hierapolis a little farther. It had once been an important town known for wool and cloth, but by Paul's day it had grown small. Many teachers call it the least important town Paul ever wrote to. A strong earthquake hit the valley in the early 60s A.D.

Paul had never been there (2:1). Epaphras, a man of Colosse, had brought them the gospel (1:7; 4:12), most likely after coming to faith during Paul's years in Ephesus (Acts 19:10). He came to Paul in Rome with news, good and bad, and prayed hard for the churches of the valley (4:12-13). Most of the readers were Gentiles (1:21; 2:13).

A false teaching had come in. Paul answers it mostly in 2:8-23. It was "philosophy and empty deceit" and "the tradition of men" (2:8). It had Jewish parts: circumcision, food laws, feasts, new moons and Sabbaths (2:11, 16). It claimed humility, the worship of angels, and visions (2:18), and it set harsh rules for the body (2:21). It seems to have treated Christ as one step toward God rather than God Himself. Some see an early form of Gnosticism, some a Jewish mysticism of visions and angels, and many a local mix. Paul's answer fits every teaching that says Jesus is not enough.

Tychicus carried the letter (4:7-8), and with him went Onesimus, the runaway slave of Philemon, now a believer (4:9). When the letter was read aloud in Colosse, Onesimus was in the room, and maybe Philemon too.

Themes

The theme is that Christ is supreme and that He is enough. "For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Deity bodily, and you have been filled in Him" (2:9-10). Believers need no secret knowledge, for in Christ "all the treasures of wisdom and of knowledge are hidden" (2:3). They need no rules about food and days, which were "a shadow of the things coming, but the body is of Christ" (2:17). They need no angels as go-betweens, for Christ is head over every ruler and authority (2:10, 15).

Like Ephesians, the letter moves from teaching to living. Because believers have been raised with Christ, they set their minds on things above (3:1-2), put to death the old sins and put on the new man (3:5-14), and let the word of Christ dwell in them richly (3:16). The new life reaches the home and the workplace (3:18-4:1), prayer and witness to outsiders (4:2-6), and faithful friends who serve together (4:7-17).

Christ in Colossians

Colossians holds one of the greatest passages about Jesus in the Bible (1:15-20). He "is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation," and "in Him all things were created" and "in Him all things hold together" (1:15-17). He is "the head of the body, the church," the "firstborn from the dead, so that in all things He Himself may come to hold first place" (1:18). Through Him God made "peace through the blood of His cross" (1:20). He blotted out our record of debt, "having nailed it to the cross," and triumphed over the powers (2:14-15). He is "Christ in you, the hope of glory" (1:27), and one day we will be revealed with Him in glory (3:4).

Hard Passages

"Firstborn of all creation" (1:15) speaks of rank, not of Christ being created, as the next verse shows. "Reconcile all things" (1:20) does not teach that all will be saved (3:6). "If indeed you continue in the faith" (1:23) is read differently by those with different views on eternal security. Filling up "the things lacking of the afflictions of Christ" (1:24) cannot mean His death was not enough. Baptism in 2:12 is read here as following faith, while others link it to circumcision and infant baptism. Teachers hold several views of the Sabbath today (2:16-17). The commands to wives and husbands (3:18-19) and to slaves and masters (3:22-4:1) are treated as in Ephesians. The notes name the main views.

Greeting

1 Paul (Paulos), an apostle of Jesus (Iesous) Christ through the will of God, and Timothy (Timotheos) the brother, 2 to the saints in Colosse (Kolossai) and faithful brothers in Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving for the Colossians

3 We give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, 4 having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the love toward all the saints, 5 because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, which you heard of before in the word of the truth of the gospel, 6 which is present among you, just as also in all the world, and is bearing fruit, just as also among you, from the day you heard and came to know the grace of God in truth; 7 just as you also learned from Epaphras our beloved fellow slave, who is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, 8 who also made known to us your love in the Spirit.

Paul's Prayer for the Church

9 Because of this we also, from the day we heard, do not cease praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the full knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, 10 for you to walk worthily of the Lord for all pleasing, bearing fruit in every good work and growing into the full knowledge of God; 11 being strengthened with all power according to the might of His glory, for all endurance and patience with joy; 12 giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us for the share of the inheritance of the saints in the light, 13 who rescued us out of the authority of the darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, 14 in whom we have the redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins;

1:1 an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God An apostle is one sent, carrying the authority of the sender. Paul had never met these believers, so he tells them why to listen. The risen Jesus called him (Acts 9:15). He calls Timothy, his young helper (Phil 2:19-22), not an apostle but the brother, a title every believer shares.
1:2 to the saints in Colosse and faithful brothers in Christ Every believer is a saint, set apart for God. These lived in a small town most of the empire had never heard of, but God knew each by name. They were in Colosse and in Christ at the same time. We live at a real address on earth, but our true life is in Christ. Grace always comes before peace.
1:3 We give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you Paul was in chains, yet his first thought was thanks. He thanks God, not the Colossians, because faith and love are God's work. He prayed for people he had never seen. Missionaries, persecuted believers and far churches all need our prayers.
1:4 your faith in Christ Jesus and the love toward all the saints Faith looks up to Christ, love reaches out to His people, and they go together (1 John 4:20). Faith is only as good as the One it rests on. The false teachers wanted to add other things to trust. Paul reminds them their faith was already in the right place.
1:5 the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens Biblical hope is a sure promise not yet arrived, stored safe in heaven where no thief or false teacher can touch it (1 Pet 1:4). Faith, love and hope appear together as in 1 Corinthians 13:13 and 1 Thessalonians 1:3, and hope fuels the other two. Paul points them back to the truth they first heard.
1:6 is bearing fruit, just as also among you The gospel is alive. It bears fruit in changed lives and spreads, and it was already moving across the empire. It was not a small local idea but the message God was using everywhere. Notice grace. The gospel is not what we must do to reach God but what God has done to reach us.
1:7 Epaphras our beloved fellow slave, who is a faithful minister of Christ Epaphras brought the gospel to Colosse. What they learned from him was right, and they needed no new teacher. Fellow slave uses doulos. Both men belonged to Jesus. Though he came because of a problem, he first told Paul of their love in the Spirit (1:8), a good example for any leader.
1:9 that you may be filled with the full knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding The false teachers offered special knowledge to a few. Paul prays for full knowledge of God's will for all. God does not hide His will. He has made it known in His Word and gives wisdom by His Spirit. Paul does not ask first for health or an easy life. What do we usually pray for others?
1:10 for you to walk worthily of the Lord for all pleasing Knowledge is meant to change how we live. To walk worthily is to live in a way that fits who the Lord is. Bearing fruit and growing in knowledge feed each other. As we obey what we know, we know God better. A Christian who is not growing is not standing still. He is drifting.
1:11 for all endurance and patience with joy The power is God's, measured by His glory, not our weakness. We might expect it to be for great works. Endurance holds up under hard circumstances, and patience holds back with hard people. Sometimes the greatest display of God's power in a believer is quiet, steady, joyful faithfulness.
1:12 who has qualified us for the share of the inheritance of the saints in the light To qualify is to make fit. None of us were fit for heaven on our own. The false teachers said they were not yet qualified and needed more rules and visions. Paul says the Father already qualified them. As each tribe received its share of the land by lot (Josh 14:1-2), each believer has a share in His kingdom.
1:13 who rescued us out of the authority of the darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of the Son of His love A rescue and a move. We lived under the rule of sin and Satan (Eph 2:1-2) and could not free ourselves. Transferred was used for conquering kings moving a whole people to another land. Both verbs are past. If you belong to Jesus, it has already happened.
1:14 in whom we have the redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins A slave was redeemed when someone paid the price to free him. Jesus paid with His own blood (1 Pet 1:18-19). Forgiveness means God sends our sins away. Every believer has it now. The false teachers' rules could not take away one sin.

The Supremacy of Christ

15 who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; 16 because in Him all things were created, the things in the heavens and the things on the earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or lordships or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through Him and for Him. 17 And He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. 18 And He is the head of the body, the church; who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that in all things He Himself may come to hold first place;
19 because in Him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, 20 and through Him to reconcile all things to Him, having made peace through the blood of His cross, through Him, whether the things on the earth or the things in the heavens.

Reconciled to God

21 And you, once being alienated and enemies in mind in the evil works, yet now He has reconciled 22 in the body of His flesh through the death, to present you holy and without blemish and beyond reproach before Him, 23 if indeed you continue in the faith, founded and steadfast and not being moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard, which was preached in all the creation which is under heaven, of which I, Paul, became a minister.

Paul's Ministry for the Church

24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up in turn the things lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for His body, which is the church, 25 of which I became a minister according to the stewardship of God which was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God, 26 the mystery which has been hidden from the ages and from the generations, but now was made manifest to His saints, 27 to whom God willed to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, who is Christ in you, the hope of glory; 28 whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, so that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus; 29 for which I also

1:29 1 Cor 15:10; Col 2:1; Eph 1:19

1:15 who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation Verses 15 to 20 may be an early hymn or confession, and every line lifts Jesus higher. No one can see the Father (John 1:18), but in Jesus the invisible God is made visible, the exact likeness because He is God (Heb 1:3; John 14:9). Some use firstborn to teach Jesus was created. In Scripture it often speaks of rank and heirship. God called Israel His firstborn (Exod 4:22) and made David, the youngest son, His firstborn (Ps 89:27). The next verse shows He made creation.
1:16 in Him all things were created Jesus is not created. He is the Creator (John 1:3), and so He is God. Thrones, lordships, rulers and authorities were words for ranks of angels and spiritual powers. The false teachers seem to have honored angels (2:18), but every angel was made by Jesus. Why worship a creature? You were made by Him and for Him.
1:17 He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together He did not begin in Bethlehem. He has always been (John 1:1-2; 8:58). He did not make the world and step back. He upholds all things now (Heb 1:3). Every star stays in place and your heart keeps beating because He keeps it so. The hands that hold the universe together were nailed to a cross for you.
1:18 He is the head of the body, the church A body takes its life and direction from its head. The church belongs to Christ, not to a pastor or a board. He is the firstborn from the dead, the first to rise never to die again, the first of a great harvest (1 Cor 15:20-23). He is first in creation and new creation. Is He first in your life, or one priority among many?
1:19 in Him all the fullness was pleased to dwell Most Bibles add God here, and 2:9 makes the sense clear. Fullness may have been the false teachers' word for spiritual powers between God and man. Paul puts it all in Jesus. He is not partly divine. Dwell means to live there to stay. We find God completely in Jesus.
1:20 having made peace through the blood of His cross To reconcile is to bring two warring sides together. Peace with God was made by blood, not rules or visions. This does not mean all will be saved. The letter speaks of God's wrath on the disobedient (3:6), and Jesus spoke of eternal punishment (Matt 25:46). God will bring all creation back under Christ's rule. Those who receive Him are reconciled as friends, and those who refuse Him will one day bow to Him as Lord (Phil 2:10-11).
1:21 once being alienated and enemies in mind in the evil works Alienated means cut off, strangers to God. Enemies in mind means our thinking was against Him, and it showed in our deeds. Sin starts in how we think about God.
1:22 in the body of His flesh through the death, to present you holy and without blemish Jesus made peace in a real human body that really died. Some false teachers said the body was evil and God would never take real flesh. Paul says our salvation was won in Jesus' flesh. On the last day God will see every believer holy, spotless, with no charge left, because Jesus paid.
1:23 if indeed you continue in the faith Those truly reconciled will continue, founded and steadfast. Some believe God keeps every true believer to the end, and continuing proves faith was real (1 John 2:19). Others believe one who believed can turn away and be lost. I leave that open here. The call is plain: keep holding to Christ. All the creation means the gospel had spread across the known world. The man writing once tried to destroy the church.
1:24 fill up in turn the things lacking of the afflictions of Christ A hard phrase. It cannot mean Christ's death was not enough, for He made peace through His blood (1:20) and we have forgiveness in Him (1:14). Many believe Christ still suffers when His people suffer (Acts 9:4). Others believe Paul means the sufferings the church must go through in carrying the gospel, which Christ gives His servants to share. Either way, Paul counted it an honor.
1:25 according to the stewardship of God which was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God A steward ran his master's house without owning it. Paul's charge was for Gentiles like the Colossians. To fulfill the word is to make it fully known, holding nothing back. The goal is not to say what people want to hear but to give them the whole Word of God.
1:26 the mystery which has been hidden from the ages and from the generations A biblical mystery is not a puzzle for a few but truth God hid in past ages and has now made known. The false teachers offered secrets for an inner circle. God's mystery is made manifest to every believer. Nothing in God's plan is kept from the ordinary Christian.
1:27 Christ in you, the hope of glory The Old Testament said the Gentiles would be blessed through Abraham's seed (Gen 12:3). It did not make plain that God would live in Gentile believers and make them one body with Jewish believers on equal terms (Eph 3:6). Not Christ near you, but in you, and so you have the sure promise of sharing His glory (3:4; Rom 8:18).
1:28 whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man The message is a Person, not a system or philosophy. Admonishing warns of danger. Teaching explains the truth. Both are needed. Every man appears three times, against the false teachers' inner circle. Perfect means mature. Paul wanted people not only saved but grown up in Christ.
1:29 striving according to His working which works in me in power Toil means work to the point of exhaustion, and striving gives us agony, used for athletes straining. Yet the power came from God. We do not sit back, and we do not work in our own strength. We work hard and rely on His power while we do (Phil 2:12-13).

toil, striving according to His working which works in me in power.

1 For I want you to know how great a struggle I have concerning you and those in Laodicea (Laodikeia), and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, 2 so that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, and to all the riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the full knowledge of the mystery of the God and Father and of Christ, 3 in whom all the treasures of wisdom and of knowledge are hidden. 4 And I say this so that no one may delude you with persuasive speech. 5 For even if I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order and the firmness of your faith in Christ.

2:15 Eph 4:8; Heb 2:14; Isa 53:12

2:1 how great a struggle I have concerning you and those in Laodicea Struggle is the word of 1:29, a hard contest. In prison Paul could not go to them, so he fought for them in prayer, for Colosse, for Laodicea about ten miles away, and for many who had never seen his face. Real love for the church does not stop at the people we know.
2:2 being knit together in love False teaching tears churches apart, and love ties them together. Paul wants them encouraged, united and sure of what they believe, so they are not shaken by every new teacher. The mystery is Christ Himself (1:27). The more we know Him, the less room there is for error.
2:3 in whom all the treasures of wisdom and of knowledge are hidden The false teachers claimed secret knowledge. Paul says all the treasures are in Christ. Hidden means stored up like treasure in a safe place, open to all who come to Christ and keep digging into His Word. You need no secret teacher or new revelation. You need to know Jesus better.
2:4 so that no one may delude you with persuasive speech To delude is to trick by false reasoning. False teaching rarely sounds false. It sounds wise, spiritual and deep. The test is not how persuasive the speaker is but whether the teaching matches what God has said and keeps Christ at the center.
2:5 seeing your order and the firmness of your faith in Christ Both are army words: soldiers standing in ranks and a solid line that does not break. Chained to Roman soldiers, Paul may have had that picture before him daily. He praises them first and then warns, a good way to correct anyone.
2:6 as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in Him With verse 7 this is the heart of the letter. They received Christ by faith as a gift of grace, and that is how they keep walking. They received a Person who is Lord, trusted as Savior and obeyed as Lord. We do not start by grace and finish by rules and effort (Gal 3:3).
2:7 having been rooted and being built up in Him Rooted like a tree, built up like a house on a solid foundation, established firm and settled. The first is already done, and the others keep going. Just as you were taught points back to Epaphras. A thankful heart is one of the best guards against false teaching, for a grateful person is not out looking for something more.
2:8 Watch out that no one will be the one who takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit The picture is a kidnapper or raider carrying off spoils. Paul is not against careful thinking but against a system that leaves out Christ. Some read the elementary principles of the world as the ABCs of religion before Christ (Gal 4:3, 9). Others read them as spiritual powers thought to rule the world. Either way, the test is whether it is according to Christ.
2:9 in Him dwells all the fullness of the Deity bodily One of the clearest verses on who Jesus is. Deity is all that makes God who He is, and all of it lives in Jesus. Bodily means He took a real human body and still has it, fully God and fully man forever. Dwells is present tense, true now as He sits at the Father's right hand. He is not one of many paths but God come in the flesh (John 1:14).
2:10 you have been filled in Him A play on words. All the fullness is in Christ, and you are filled in Him. Many Bibles say complete. In Christ you lack nothing you need for life with God, no special experience or higher level. He is head over every spiritual power. Why look to the servants when we have the Master?
2:11 circumcised with a circumcision made without hands The false teachers may have told Gentiles they needed circumcision (Gen 17:10-14). Paul says they have the real thing, done by God. It deals with the whole sinful nature, the circumcision of the heart (Deut 30:6; Jer 4:4). Some read the circumcision of Christ as what Christ does in us, others as His own death. Both point to His work, not ours.
2:12 having been buried with Him in the baptism, in which also you were raised with Him Baptism pictures our death, burial and rising with Christ (Rom 6:3-4). We were raised through faith in God's working. The water does not save. Baptism is the obedient public step after trusting Christ. Some link verses 11 and 12 and baptize infants of believing parents, as Israel circumcised its boys. Others, and this study, read it as baptism that follows faith. Both agree salvation is by grace through faith.
2:13 He made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all the trespasses We were not sick but dead, and a dead man cannot help himself. As Gentiles they were outside God's covenant people. God raised us with Christ (Eph 2:4-5) and forgave all our trespasses, past, present and future. In Christ there is no sin left on your account for God to punish (Rom 8:1).
2:14 having blotted out the handwriting against us in the decrees The handwriting was a written note of debt, an IOU signed in one's own hand. God's Law shows what we owe, and every sin adds to the bill. Ink then could be washed off, and God wiped the page clean. A crucified man's charge was sometimes nailed above him (John 19:19). God nailed our whole record of debt to the cross, paid in full.
2:15 having triumphed over them in it These are the evil spiritual powers that held us captive (Eph 6:12). Satan's greatest weapon against us was our guilt, and Jesus took it away. A Roman triumph was a parade where a victorious general led defeated enemies through the streets. What looked like Satan's victory was his defeat. Believers need not fear the powers of darkness.

the authorities, He made a public display of them openly, having triumphed over them in it.

Free From Human Rules

16 Therefore let no one judge you in food or in drink or in respect of a feast or a new moon or Sabbaths, 17 which are a shadow of the things coming, but the body is of Christ. 18 Let no one defraud you of the prize, delighting in humility and the worship of the angels, intruding into things which he has not seen, in vain being puffed up by the mind of his flesh, 19 and not holding fast the head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with the growth of God. 20 Therefore if you died with Christ from the elementary principles of the world, why, as if living in the world, do you submit to decrees, 21 "Do not handle, nor taste, nor touch," 22 which are all for decay with the using up, according to the commandments and teachings of men? 23 These things indeed have a reputation of wisdom in self-made worship and humility and severe treatment of the body, not in any honor, toward the indulgence of the flesh.

Set Your Minds on Things Above

1 If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. 2 Set your minds on the things above, not the things on the earth. 3 For you have died, and your life has been hidden with Christ in God. 4 When Christ, our life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him in glory.

Put Off the Old Man

2:16 let no one judge you in food or in drink or in respect of a feast or a new moon or Sabbaths Someone was saying the Colossians must keep food laws and holy days to be right with God. The list follows the Old Testament pattern of yearly feasts, monthly new moons and weekly Sabbaths (1 Chr 23:31; Hos 2:11). These were part of the Law given Israel, not the measure of a believer's standing. Romans 14:5-6 gives the same freedom.

2:17 which are a shadow of the things coming, but the body is of Christ A shadow is real but not the thing itself. When the person comes around the corner, you stop staring at his shadow. Jesus is our true rest (Matt 11:28; Heb 4:9-10). Good teachers disagree on the Sabbath today. Many believe it is fulfilled in Christ and most churches gather on Sunday. Others keep Sunday as the Christian Sabbath. Others hold the seventh day still binding. No one should judge another's standing with God by it.

2:18 Let no one defraud you of the prize, delighting in humility and the worship of the angels Defraud was used for an umpire who disqualifies an athlete, but the Father has qualified them (1:12). Their humility was a show that was really pride. Some read worship of the angels as praying to angels as go-betweens. Others read it as claiming in visions to join the angels' worship. Either way it took eyes off Christ, and angels refuse worship (Rev 22:8-9). Their visions came from a proud, fleshly mind.

2:19 not holding fast the head Letting go of Christ cuts one off from the source of life, however spiritual it looks. The body gets all it needs from the head, and each part passes it along. Real growth comes from God, through staying connected to Jesus and His people, not from rules or visions.

2:20 if you died with Christ from the elementary principles of the world If here means since. Our death with Christ cut us off from trying to please God by rules (Rom 7:4). It is like a man freed from prison who keeps going back to his cell each night. Chapter 3 is full of commands, so believers are not without rules. We are not made right or holy by human rules.

2:21 Do not handle, nor taste, nor touch The list grows stricter as it goes. Such things perish as they are used, and what goes into the mouth does not make a man unclean (Mark 7:18-19). They are teachings of men (Isa 29:13; Matt 15:9). Religion built on man-made rules can look very serious and still miss God.

2:23 have a reputation of wisdom in self-made worship and humility and severe treatment of the body They look good: worship people invent, false humility, harsh fasting and denial of the body. The last phrase is hard in Greek, but the point is clear. These rules have no real value against the flesh. You can keep every outward rule with a proud, lustful heart. Rules change what we do for a while. Only Christ changes who we are.

3:1 seek the things above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God If again means since. Being raised with Christ (2:12) is a present fact for every believer. To seek is to make something our aim. Our risen Lord sits in the place of honor and authority (Ps 110:1), and our hearts should go where He is. The false teachers looked down at rules about food and days. Paul tells believers to look up.

3:2 Set your minds on the things above Verse 1 is what we seek, and this is how we think. What fills your mind when you are not busy? Paul is not telling us to ignore jobs and families, for the rest of the chapter is about home and work. He tells us to see it all from heaven's point of view. A mind set on things above does more earthly good, not less.

3:3 your life has been hidden with Christ in God The old life ruled by sin died with Christ (Rom 6:6-7). Hidden means safe, kept where no one can take it (John 10:28-29). It also means unseen. People see an ordinary person paying bills. They do not see one united to the risen Lord of heaven. One day it will be seen.

3:4 When Christ, our life, is revealed, then you also will be revealed with Him in glory Christ is not part of our life. He is our life. I believe He will first come for His church before the seven-year Tribulation and catch up His people to meet Him in the air (1 Thess 4:16-17; John 14:1-3). At the end of the Tribulation He will return visibly to the earth with His people (Rev 19:11-14; Jude 14). Then the world will see Him in glory, and His people with Him. Why live for things that will be gone?

3:5 put to death your members which are on the earth Because we died with Christ, sin is an enemy to be killed, not a pet to be fed. Members are the body's parts used as tools for sin. Sexual immorality is any sexual sin outside marriage between husband and wife. Covetousness is always wanting more, and it is idolatry because whatever we crave more than God has become our god. Paul does not say manage these sins. He says put them to death.

3:6 the wrath of God is coming on the sons of disobedience God's wrath is His holy anger against sin, the right response of a holy God to evil. Believers will not face it, because Jesus took it for us (Rom 5:9; 1 Thess 5:9). That is no reason to take sin lightly. Why play with the very things that sent Jesus to the cross?

3:7 in which you also once walked Many of these Gentiles had lived in sexual sin and idol worship, as most of their world did. Notice once. Paul does not pretend their past did not happen, nor let them stay there. Your past is a place you came from, not the place you live.

in them. 8 But now you also, put off all these things: anger, rage, malice, slander, foul language out of your mouth. 9 Do not lie to one another, having put off the old man with his practices, 10 and having put on the new man, who is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of the One who created him, 11 where there is not Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free, but Christ is all and in all.

Put On the New Man

12 Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on hearts of compassions, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience, 13 bearing with one another and forgiving each other, if anyone has a complaint against anyone; just as Christ also forgave you, so also you. 14 And above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection. 15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which you also were called in one body; and be thankful. 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, in all wisdom teaching and admonishing yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart to the Lord. 17 And everything, whatever you do in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus (Iesous), giving thanks to the God and Father through Him.

3:8 anger, rage, malice, slander, foul language out of your mouth Put off like dirty clothes. Verse 5 named mostly sins of the body. This list is sins of the temper and tongue. Anger is settled and smoldering, rage a sudden blowup, malice wanting to hurt, slander tearing down a name. Churches often watch hard for the first list and go easy on this one. God does not.
3:9 Do not lie to one another, having put off the old man with his practices A church cannot be one body without trust (Eph 4:25), and that includes the small lies that make us look better. The old man is who we were in Adam, ruled by sin. That self was put off like old clothes, and lying belongs to the old wardrobe.
3:10 the new man, who is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of the One who created him Renewing is ongoing. God gave us a new nature and keeps shaping us. He made man in His image (Gen 1:27), sin marred it, and in Christ He is restoring it, making us like His Son (Rom 8:29). The knowledge here is true knowledge of God, not the false teachers' secret knowledge.
3:11 barbarian, Scythian, slave, free, but Christ is all and in all Every wall of the ancient world is named: race, religion, culture and rank. A barbarian was anyone who did not speak Greek, and the Scythians, from north of the Black Sea, were seen as the lowest of the low. The differences do not vanish, but none decides our place in God's family. If you look down on any group of people, this verse is for you.
3:12 as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on hearts of compassions Before the new clothes, Paul reminds them who they are: chosen, set apart and loved. We do not live this way to become God's people but because we are. Compassion is deep pity for the hurting, gentleness strength under control, patience putting up with people long without blowing up. Each is how Jesus treated people (Rom 13:14).
3:13 just as Christ also forgave you, so also you Paul is a realist. Someone will have a complaint. Bearing with is putting up with faults, and forgiving is letting go of a real wrong. Christ forgave freely, fully, and while we did not deserve it. Forgiving does not pretend it did not happen or always restore trust right away. It gives up our right to get even and leaves it with God.
3:14 put on love, which is the bond of perfection Love is like the belt that holds the other clothes in place. Without it, compassion becomes pity, kindness a show, and humility a pose. Perfection is maturity. The false teachers said it came by secret knowledge and harsh rules. Paul says it comes by love (1 Cor 13:1-3).
3:15 let the peace of God rule in your hearts Rule was used for an umpire making the call. When we are unsure or tempers rise, God's peace should make the call. Many older Greek copies read Christ instead of God, with the same meaning. This peace is meant to rule between believers in one body. Paul keeps coming back to thanks (1:3, 12; 2:7; 3:17; 4:2). A thankful heart is hard to stir into a fight.
3:16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly To dwell is to live at home. God's Word should not be a Sunday visitor but at home in us, filling every room. Every believer has a part in teaching and warning. Psalms are the Old Testament songs, hymns are songs of praise, and spiritual songs are others prompted by the Spirit. Singing is not filler before the sermon. It is to the Lord, and it starts in the heart.
3:17 whatever you do in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus No part of the day is outside the Lord's reach. To act in His name is to act as His servant, in a way that fits who He is. If you cannot do something in Jesus' name and thank God for it, that is a good sign you should not do it.
3:18 Wives, subject yourselves to your own husbands, as is fitting in the Lord The same household pattern appears in Ephesians 5:22-6:9. Paul speaks to wives directly, as a choice in their own walk, and does not tell husbands to make them submit. Submission is about role, not worth. Jesus is equal with the Father yet came to do His will (John 6:38). As is fitting in the Lord sets a limit. It never means following a husband into sin (Acts 5:29) or putting up with abuse. If you are being hurt or afraid at home, tell a pastor or a believer you trust and get to a safe place. Teachers differ on how this is lived out.
3:19 Husbands, love your wives, and do not be harsh toward them The culture expected husbands to rule. Paul tells them to love with agape, the self-giving love of Christ for the church (Eph 5:25). Harsh means bitter or sharp, irritated, cold or cruel with words. Husbands, does your wife feel loved, or managed?
3:20 Children, obey your parents in all things Paul speaks to children directly, so they were in the church when this was read aloud, and they matter to God. In all things assumes parents who are not asking a child to sin. When a child obeys, God is pleased, which gives small acts of obedience a big meaning.
3:21 Fathers, do not provoke your children, so that they may not become discouraged Roman fathers had near total power, and Paul limits it. To provoke is to push a child until he gives up, by harshness, unfairness, constant criticism or never being pleased. A discouraged child stops trying because he thinks he can never measure up. Our job is to train children, not crush them.
3:22 Slaves, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh Many in the church were slaves. Roman slavery came through war, debt or birth and differed from race-based American slavery, but it was still one person owning another, and often cruel. Onesimus was on his way home to Colosse (4:9). Paul tells slave and master they answer to the same Lord (4:1), which cuts against owning a person (Phlm 16; 1 Cor 7:21). These verses were later misused in America to defend slavery, while other Christians reading the same Bible fought to end it. Eyeservice is working hard only when the boss is watching.

Prayer and Wise Speech

2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, keeping watch in it with thanksgiving, 3 praying at the same time also for us, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, on account of which I also have been bound, 4 so that I may make it manifest, as I must speak. 5 Walk in wisdom toward those outside, redeeming the time. 6 Let your word be always in grace, seasoned with salt, to know how you must answer each one.

3:23 work from the soul, as to the Lord and not to men From the soul means with the whole heart. A slave with a hard master could sweep the floor for Jesus. Today this applies to anyone who works for someone else. Your boss may never notice. Jesus always does.
3:24 from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance Under Roman law a slave as a rule owned nothing and had no right to inherit. Paul promises Christian slaves an inheritance from the Lord. You may wear a company name tag, but you serve the Lord Christ, and He will reward your work at the judgment seat of Christ (2 Cor 5:10).
3:25 the one doing wrong will receive back what he did wrong, and there is no partiality The warning cuts both ways: the slave who cheated and the master who mistreated would both answer to God. God judges the boss by no softer standard than the worker. No one gets away with wrong because of rank, and no one is overlooked for being low.
4:1 Masters, grant to the slaves what is righteous and fair This belongs with chapter 3. A master could beat, sell or even kill a slave with little to fear from the law, yet Paul says slaves have a claim on what is right and fair. The same Greek word names both masters. The earthly master is himself a slave of the Lord in heaven and will answer to Him. Philemon of Colosse would hear this read with his own slave Onesimus in the room (4:9).
4:2 Continue steadfastly in prayer, keeping watch in it with thanksgiving To continue steadfastly is to keep at it and not give up (Luke 18:1). To watch is to stay awake and alert, as the disciples failed to do in the garden (Matt 26:40-41). Prayer without thanks soon becomes a list of complaints. Remembering what God has done gives faith for what we ask.
4:3 that God may open to us a door for the word Even the apostle needed the prayers of a small church he had never visited. He did not ask first for release, though he hoped for it (Phlm 22). He asked for openings to speak of Christ, which only God can give (1 Cor 16:9; Acts 14:27). He was bound for preaching Christ and asked for more chances to preach.
4:4 so that I may make it manifest, as I must speak Paul also asks for clarity. The best open door is wasted if the message is muddled. Lord, give me the chance, and then help me say it clearly. If Paul needed prayer to speak clearly, so do we.
4:5 Walk in wisdom toward those outside, redeeming the time Those outside are people who do not know Christ, and they are watching how believers live (1 Pet 2:12). To redeem was used for buying up goods at the market while they lasted. Opportunities to show and share Christ come and go (Eph 5:16). Is there someone you have been meaning to talk to about Jesus?
4:6 Let your word be always in grace, seasoned with salt Gracious speech is kind and full of the grace we received. Salt gave flavor and kept food from spoiling, so such speech is neither dull nor rotten. Not everyone needs the same answer. Some hurt, some are angry, some mock. Listen first, then answer with gentleness and respect (1 Pet 3:15).
4:7 Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant and fellow slave in the Lord Tychicus, from the province of Asia (Acts 20:4), carried this letter and Ephesians (Eph 6:21-22). He was not famous, but he could be trusted to carry the mail, tell the news, and encourage the church. Faithful people like him are the backbone of God's work. A person can encourage in a way a letter cannot (4:8).
4:9 with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you A quiet but powerful line. Onesimus was Philemon's runaway slave. He had left Colosse a slave who wronged his master and was coming back a brother in Christ. Paul gives him the words he used for Tychicus and calls him one of you, not a slave or a runaway. The church had to decide how to welcome him. The letter to Philemon tells more.
4:10 Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas Aristarchus of Thessalonica was dragged into the Ephesus riot and sailed with Paul to Rome (Acts 19:29; 20:4; 27:2). Some think he shared the imprisonment by choice. Mark, who wrote the Gospel, had left Paul on the first journey, and Paul and Barnabas split over him (Acts 13:13; 15:37-39). Now he is at Paul's side, later useful for ministry (2 Tim 4:11). Failure does not have to be the end of the story.
4:11 These, who are of the circumcision, are the only fellow workers Jesus was a common Jewish name, the Greek form of Joshua, and this man went by Justus. These three Jewish believers stood with Paul when many of his own people turned against him (Phil 1:15-17). Comfort is the word that gave a medical term for something soothing. A loyal friend in a hard time is a gift from God.
4:12 always struggling for you in the prayers, so that you may stand mature and complete Epaphras planted the church (1:7) and came to Rome. Struggling is the hard-contest word of 1:29 and 2:1. He wrestled in prayer that they would grow up, stand firm against false teaching, and be fully sure of God's will. That is how a faithful pastor prays.
4:13 he has much zeal for you and for those in Laodicea and those in Hierapolis The SLB reads zeal. Many older Greek copies read a word meaning hard labor or even pain. Either way, his prayers for the three churches of the Lycus valley cost him. Far from home, he could not fix the problems by being there, so he prayed. Prayer is often not the least we can do but the most.

14 Luke (Loukas), the beloved physician, greets you, and Demas. 15 Greet the brothers in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church in his house. 16 And when the letter has been read among you, cause that it also be read in the church of the Laodiceans, and that you also read the letter from Laodicea. 17 And say to Archippus (Archippos), "Take heed to the ministry that you received in the Lord, that you may fulfill it." 18 The greeting by my own hand, of Paul (Paulos). 4:14 Luke, the beloved physician, greets you, and Demas Luke wrote the Gospel and Acts and was with Paul in Rome. Since Paul just named his Jewish companions, most see Luke as a Gentile. Demas is named with no comment. Later Paul wrote that he had deserted him (2 Tim 4:10). A man can stand next to an apostle and still drift away.
4:15 Nymphas, and the church in his house Churches had no buildings and met in homes, as at Philemon's house (Phlm 2). A church is the people of God gathered around Jesus. The SLB reads Nymphas and his house. Some Greek copies read Nympha, a woman, and her house, and many modern Bibles follow them. Either way, a believer opened a home for God's people.
4:16 that you also read the letter from Laodicea Paul's letters were read aloud and shared, meant for the whole church then and now. Teachers hold three views of the letter from Laodicea: a lost letter of Paul, our Ephesians as a circular letter reaching Colosse by way of Laodicea, or Philemon. A later Epistle to the Laodiceans, pieced together from Paul's phrases, is not accepted as his. God has given us every word He meant us to have.
4:17 Take heed to the ministry that you received in the Lord, that you may fulfill it Archippus is called our fellow soldier in Philemon 2. He may have been of Philemon's household, perhaps his son, and may have led the church while Epaphras was away. Scripture does not say. Every believer has received some ministry, seen or unseen. Are you fulfilling yours?
4:18 Remember my chains Paul dictated and signed with his own hand to prove the letter was his (2 Thess 3:17). The chain on his wrist may have dragged across the page as he wrote. He began with grace (1:2) and ends with it. The false teachers offered rules. Paul leaves us the grace of God in Christ. The closing note naming Rome, Tychicus and Onesimus was added by later copyists.

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for its readers, "the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ" (1:1). It is the first of two letters Paul wrote to the believers in Thessalonica, and many Bible teachers believe it is the earliest letter he wrote. It gives us a picture of what Paul taught a brand new church in its first months.

Author and Date

The letter opens with "Paul and Silvanus and Timothy" (1:1). Silvanus is the man Luke calls Silas (Acts 15:40), and Timothy joined them at Lystra (Acts 16:1-3). Paul is the main voice, and more than once he speaks for himself alone (2:18; 3:5; 5:27). The early church accepted Paul as author, and almost all scholars today agree. I take the letter at its word, as the church always has.

From Berea Paul went to Athens and, worried about the Thessalonians, sent Timothy back to them (3:1-2). Paul went on to Corinth, where Silas and Timothy rejoined him (Acts 18:5), and Timothy's good report (3:6) led to this letter. Paul stayed in Corinth a year and six months, partly while Gallio governed Achaia (Acts 18:11-12), and an old inscription found at Delphi helps date Gallio's time to about A.D. 51 to 52. So most scholars date the letter about A.D. 51, from Corinth. The closing note in the SLB that it was written from Athens was added by later copyists.

Background and Setting

Thessalonica was the capital of the Roman province of Macedonia, in northern Greece. It had a good harbor, and the great Roman road, the Via Egnatia, ran through it, so it was busy with travelers, sailors and merchants. Rome made it a free city with its own leaders (Acts 17:6). It is still there today as Thessaloniki. News from such a city traveled fast, and so did the gospel (1:8).

Paul, Silas and Timothy came there on the second journey, after being beaten and jailed in Philippi (Acts 16:22-24; 2:2). For three Sabbaths Paul reasoned in the synagogue that the Christ had to suffer and rise and that Jesus is the Christ (Acts 17:2-3). Some Jews believed, with many Greeks and leading women. Then a mob attacked Jason's house and charged the believers with saying "another is king, Jesus" (Acts 17:7), and Paul and Silas were sent away by night (Acts 17:10). Paul may have stayed longer than three weeks, for he worked night and day (2:9) and Philippi sent him help more than once (Phil 4:16). Still, he left a church of brand new believers, mostly former idol worshipers (1:9), facing hard opposition.

Themes

Paul's summary of their story holds the whole letter. They "turned to God from the idols to serve a living and true God, and to await His Son from the heavens" (1:9-10). Paul thanks God for their faith, love and hope (1:3). He answers false charges by reminding them how he lived among them, gentle as a mother and faithful as a father (2:1-12). He encourages them to stand firm under persecution (3:1-5) and calls them to sexual purity, brotherly love and honest work (4:1-12).

Every chapter ends by looking to the coming of the Lord Jesus (1:10; 2:19; 3:13; 4:13-18; 5:23). Believers had died, and the others feared they would miss His coming. Paul answers with the clearest teaching in the Bible on what many call the rapture, when the dead in Christ will rise first and living believers will be caught up with them "to meet the Lord in the air" (4:17). Then he turns to the day of the Lord, which will come like a thief on an unbelieving world, but "God did not appoint us for wrath" (5:9). This study takes the view that the catching up comes before the Tribulation, and that the hope of His coming is meant to comfort us, make us holy, and keep us working and loving while we wait.

Christ in 1 Thessalonians

Jesus is the Son of God whom He "raised out of the dead," the One "who is delivering us from the wrath that is coming" (1:10). He "died for us, so that whether we keep watch or sleep, we may live together with Him" (5:10). Paul names the Father and the Son together as one source of grace and as acting as one (1:1; 3:11). "The Lord Himself will descend from heaven" for His people (4:16), and He will come again "with all His saints" (3:13). "And so we will always be with the Lord" (4:17).

Hard Passages

Paul's strong words about the Jews who opposed the gospel (2:14-16) are about those of his own day, not every Jewish person, and God's promises to Israel still stand (Rom 11:25-29). "Possess his own vessel" (4:4) is read as one's own body or as a wife. The catching away of 4:17 is placed before, in the middle of, or after the Tribulation by different teachers, and the notes give the reasons this study holds the pre-tribulation view. "The day of the Lord" (5:2) and "not appoint us for wrath" (5:9) are read in that frame. Whether the gift of prophecy continues (5:20) is left open. The notes name the main views.

Greeting

1 Paul (Paulos) and Silvanus (Silouanos) and Timothy
(Timotheos), to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ: grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

A Model Church

2 We give thanks to God always concerning you all, making mention of you in our prayers, 3 unceasingly remembering your work of faith and labor of love and endurance of hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father,
4 knowing, brothers beloved by God, your election, 5 because our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and in much full assurance, just as you know what sort of men we became among you for your sake. 6 And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much tribulation with joy of the Holy Spirit, 7 so that you became examples to all who believe in Macedonia (Makedonia) and Achaia. 8 For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out, so that we have no need to say anything. 9 For they themselves report concerning us what sort of entrance we had to you, and how you turned to God from the idols to serve a living and true God, 10 and to await His Son from the heavens, whom He raised out of the dead, Jesus, who is delivering us from the wrath that is coming.

Paul's Ministry in Thessalonica

1 For you yourselves know, brothers, our entrance to you, that it has not been in vain; 2 but even after having previously suffered and having been mistreated, just as you know, in Philippi (Philippoi), we had boldness in our God to speak

1:1 Paul and Silvanus and Timothy Silvanus is the Roman form of Silas, who was beaten and jailed with Paul at Philippi (Acts 16:19-25), and Timothy joined them on this journey (Acts 16:1-3). All three had preached in Thessalonica. Paul does not call himself an apostle here, for these believers trusted him. A church is an assembly of people, not a building. Paul sets the Father and the Son side by side as the one source of grace and peace.
1:2 We give thanks to God always concerning you all Paul thanks God, not the Thessalonians, because what he sees is God's work, and he thanks Him for all of them, not only the easy ones to love. From Corinth the three men kept praying for the church they had left. When did you last thank God for the people of your church by name?
1:3 your work of faith and labor of love and endurance of hope Faith, love and hope appear together often (1 Cor 13:13; Col 1:4-5; 5:8). Here Paul shows what each produces. Faith produces work, for faith that never works is not real (James 2:17-18). Labor is hard, tiring work, and love is willing to wear itself out. Endurance is staying under a heavy load. Their hope was Jesus Himself and His coming.
1:4 brothers beloved by God, your election These former idol worshipers were now loved by the living God. Election is God's choosing, and Paul knew it by the evidence in verse 5. Some believe God chose people based only on His will and grace. Others believe He chose in Christ all He foreknew would believe (Rom 8:29; 1 Pet 1:1-2). Both agree salvation is God's work and all are called to repent (Acts 17:30). God's love comes first, and a changed life is the evidence.
1:5 our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit The Spirit was opening hearts as Paul preached. Power may include miracles (Rom 15:18-19), but above all it is God's power to save (Rom 1:16). Full assurance can mean Paul's confidence or the hearers' conviction, and both were true. The messengers' lives matched the message. People listen to our words and watch our lives.
1:6 having received the word in much tribulation with joy of the Holy Spirit They followed Paul as he followed Christ (1 Cor 11:1). Tribulation here is pressure and trouble, the ordinary suffering of believers in this world (John 16:33), not the future seven-year Tribulation. The riot of Acts 17:5-9 shows what believing cost them. With the trouble came joy from the Spirit. A believer can have hard times and deep joy at once.
1:7 so that you became examples to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia Macedonia and Achaia covered most of Greece, north and south. Example was used for a mark pressed in like a stamp. After only a few months, these believers were already a pattern for older churches. You need not be a believer for many years to be an example, only faithful where God has put you.
1:8 from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth The word was used for a trumpet blast or rolling thunder. Thessalonica sat on a major Roman road with a busy harbor, and travelers carried the news. When Paul reached new towns, people already knew. Changed lives had done the talking. Our words still matter (Rom 10:14), but a changed life opens doors for them.
1:9 how you turned to God from the idols to serve a living and true God They turned to God, and so turned from idols. Repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of direction. They did not add Jesus to their gods. In Thessalonica idol worship was tied to family, trade guilds and festivals, so turning cost friends, business and standing. Anything we love, trust or serve more than God is an idol (1 John 5:21).
1:10 to await His Son from the heavens They turned, served and waited. In a few weeks they learned Jesus is coming from heaven (Acts 1:9-11). God's wrath is His settled judgment on a world that rejects Him, both the final judgment (Rev 20:11-15) and the wrath poured out in the Tribulation (Rev 6-19). I believe Jesus delivers His church from both, taking it out before the Tribulation's wrath falls (5:9). Deliver means to snatch out of danger. Some read this wrath as final judgment only, and some believe the church will be kept within the Tribulation. But we are waiting for Christ, not the Antichrist.
2:1 our entrance to you, that it has not been in vain Paul says you know again and again in this chapter (2:1, 2, 5, 9, 10, 11). He asks them to remember what they saw. His visit was short and ended in a riot, but it was not empty. A church was born. God judges a work not by how long it lasted or how smoothly it went, but by what He did through it.
2:2 having previously suffered and having been mistreated, just as you know, in Philippi At Philippi Paul and Silas were stripped, beaten with rods and put in stocks (Acts 16:19-24), illegal treatment for a Roman citizen (Acts 16:37). Most of us would have slowed down or softened the message. Paul's boldness came in our God, and the message was God's gospel. We can ask for the same boldness (Acts 4:29-31).

to you the gospel of God amid much conflict. 3 For our exhortation is not from error, nor from impurity, nor in deceit; 4 but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, who examines our hearts. 5 For neither did we at any time come with a word of flattery, just as you know, nor with a pretext for greed; God is witness; 6 nor seeking glory from men, neither from you nor from others, though being able to be weighty as apostles of Christ. 7 But we were gentle in your midst, as a nursing mother would cherish her own children. 8 So, longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls, because you have become beloved to us. 9 For you remember, brothers, our labor and toil; for working night and day so as not to burden any of you, we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. 10 You are witnesses, and God, how devoutly and righteously and blamelessly we were toward you who believe; 11 just as you know how each one of you, as a father his own children, we were exhorting you and encouraging and testifying, 12 that you should walk worthily of God, who calls you into His own kingdom and glory.

The Word Received in Suffering

13 Because of this we also give thanks to God unceasingly, that having received the word of hearing from us, the word of God, you accepted it not as the word of men, but just as it truly is, the word of God, which also works in you who believe. 14 For you, brothers, became imitators of the churches of God that are in Judea (Ioudaia) in Christ Jesus (Iesous), because you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, just as they also did from the Jews, 15 who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and drove us out, and are not pleasing God, and are opposed to all men, 16 forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved, so as to fill up their sins always; but the wrath has come upon them to the end.

2:16 Gen 15:16; 2 Kgs 22:17; Isa 5:25
2:17 Gen 48:11; 2 Kgs 5:26; Col 2:5

2:3 our exhortation is not from error, nor from impurity, nor in deceit Paul answers the charges against him. Some traveling teachers of that day used religion as cover for greed or sexual sin. Deceit was the word for bait on a hook. Paul did not trick people into the kingdom. He told the truth plainly.
2:4 approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel Approved means tested and found genuine, like metal in a fire. The gospel is not ours to change. We are stewards of what belongs to another (1 Cor 4:1-2). It is easy to say what people want to hear, but God tests our hearts. If we aim to please God, we are free from the fear of what people think (Gal 1:10).
2:5 neither did we at any time come with a word of flattery Flattery is dishonest praise used to get something. A pretext is a mask or cover story. On flattery Paul says you know, for they heard his words. On greed he says God is witness, for only God sees the heart. People still use Jesus' name to get rich. Look at the message, and look at the life.
2:6 though being able to be weighty as apostles of Christ To be weighty is to throw one's weight around, or to be a financial burden. As apostles they had the right to support and respect (1 Cor 9:4-14) and chose not to press it. Real authority in the church does not need to show off.
2:7 we were gentle in your midst, as a nursing mother would cherish her own children A nursing mother gives, not to get. Cherish means to warm, like a bird over its young. We picture Paul as stern, and he could be firm, but here he was gentle. Some Greek copies read infants instead of gentle. The SLB reads gentle, and the point is the same. Paul came as one who served.
2:8 to impart to you not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls Paul did not deliver a message and leave. He gave his time, energy and heart, because they had become beloved to him. The gospel is a message, but it travels best through people who love one another.
2:9 working night and day so as not to burden any of you Paul was a tentmaker (Acts 18:3), likely working from before sunrise into the evening and teaching in between. He had the right to support (1 Cor 9:14) but set it aside so no one could say he was in it for money and so he would not burden a poor church under pressure. He returns to this in 2 Thessalonians 3:7-9. Work is not beneath the gospel.
2:10 how devoutly and righteously and blamelessly we were toward you who believe Two witnesses: the Thessalonians saw his life, and God saw his heart. Devoutly is holy toward God, righteously right toward people. Blameless does not mean sinless but that no one had a fair charge against him. God asks this of every believer, and especially of leaders (1 Tim 3:2, 7).
2:11 as a father his own children Gentle like a mother (2:7), Paul also led like a father, urging, comforting and solemnly testifying, with each one, not only a crowd. To walk worthily of God is to live in a way that fits who He is (2:12). We do not earn His call. He called us, and we live like it. His kingdom is present in believers and also the future kingdom Christ will set up on the earth (Rev 20:4-6).
2:13 you accepted it not as the word of men, but just as it truly is, the word of God One of the clearest statements of what the apostles' message was. It came through a man but was God's word, as are the Scriptures they wrote (2 Tim 3:16-17; 2 Pet 3:15-16). God's Word is not dead ink. It works in believers (Heb 4:12). Do we receive the Bible as good advice, or as the word of God?
2:14 imitators of the churches of God that are in Judea The first Jewish believers had suffered from their own people (Acts 8:1-3), and Paul had been one of the persecutors (Gal 1:13). The Thessalonians, mostly Gentiles, suffered from their own countrymen, with the synagogue starting it and the city joining (Acts 17:5). Suffering for Christ joined them to a long line of believers.
2:15 who both killed the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and drove us out Some of Paul's strongest words about his own people, and he had been driven out of Thessalonica by night (Acts 17:10). Paul was a Jew (Phil 3:5), as were Jesus, the apostles and the first church, and thousands of Jews believed (Acts 2:41; 21:20). He means those of his day fighting the gospel's spread to the Gentiles, not every Jewish person and not Jewish people today. His heart's desire was their salvation (Rom 9:1-5; 10:1). These verses have been twisted to excuse hatred of Jewish people, a terrible sin. No one who loves a Jewish Savior can hate His people.
2:16 the wrath has come upon them to the end Filling up sins pictures sin reaching its full measure before judgment (Gen 15:16). Some see a judgment already begun, the hardening of Romans 11:7-10. Others see Paul treating the coming fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70 as so certain he speaks of it as done. To the end can mean fully, or at last. This is not God's final word about Israel. The hardening lasts until the fullness of the Gentiles comes in, and all Israel will be saved (Rom 11:25-26).
2:17 having been orphaned from you for the time of an hour, in face, not in heart Orphaned is a striking word, a parent who lost his children. Paul's enemies may have said he did not care. He could hardly stand being away, and leaving had not been his choice, for the believers sent him off by night (Acts 17:10).

eager to see your face with great desire. 18 Therefore we wanted to come to you, I Paul (Paulos) indeed, both once and twice, and Satan hindered us. 19 For what is our hope or joy or crown of boasting? Or is it not even you, before our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming? 20 For you are our glory and joy.

Timothy's Good Report

1 Therefore, no longer enduring it, we thought it good to be left behind in Athens (Athenai) alone, 2 and we sent Timothy (Timotheos), our brother and servant of God and our fellow worker in the gospel of Christ, to strengthen you and to encourage you concerning your faith, 3 that no one be shaken by these tribulations; for you yourselves know that we are appointed for this. 4 For indeed, when we were with you, we were telling you beforehand that we were about to be afflicted, just as it also came to pass, and you know. 5 Because of this I also, no longer enduring it, sent to know your faith, lest somehow the one who tempts had tempted you, and our labor should be in vain. 6 But now, Timothy having come to us from you and having brought us good news of your faith and love, and that you always have a good remembrance of us, longing to see us, just as we also long to see you, 7 because of this we were encouraged, brothers, over you in all our tribulation and distress through your faith; 8 for now we live, if you stand firm in the Lord. 9 For what thanksgiving are we able to render to God concerning you, for all the joy with which we rejoice because of you before our God, 10 night and day praying most exceedingly to see your face and to complete the things lacking in your faith?

Paul's Prayer for the Church

3:12 Phil 1:9; 1 Thess 4:9,10; 2 Thess 1:3

2:18 we wanted to come to you, I Paul indeed, both once and twice, and Satan hindered us Hindered was used for breaking up a road so an army could not pass. Scripture does not say what Satan used, perhaps Jason's pledge (Acts 17:9) or ongoing danger. Satan is real and works against the gospel, and Paul names him. Not every closed door is Satan's, for God closed doors too (Acts 16:6-7). Satan kept Paul out but could not stop the letter or the church.

2:19 before our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming What will Paul bring that day? Not money or fame but people. Coming is parousia, presence or arrival, used for a king's visit to a city (3:13; 4:15; 5:23). The crown is the victor's wreath. At the judgment seat of Christ believers receive rewards for faithful service, not a verdict on salvation, which the cross settled (2 Cor 5:10; 1 Cor 3:12-15). Pre-tribulation teachers place it after Christ comes for His church and before He returns with His saints. Who will be your joy that day?

2:20 you are our glory and joy Not only on that day, but now. A man in it for himself would never write like this. Paul answers the charge that he did not care by opening his heart. Real leaders find their joy in the growth of the people they serve (3 John 4).

3:1 we thought it good to be left behind in Athens alone No longer enduring means Paul could not hold in his worry any longer, as a roof holds out rain. Athens was the great city of learning and full of idols (Acts 17:16), a hard place to be alone. Paul gave up the company he wanted so the Thessalonians could have the help they needed.

3:2 we sent Timothy, our brother and servant of God and our fellow worker Three titles for a young man (1 Tim 4:12), so the church would receive him with the respect it gave Paul. To strengthen is to set firmly in place, like a support under a wall. To encourage is to come alongside and urge on. New believers need both. Is there a newer believer you could strengthen this week?

3:3 that no one be shaken by these tribulations; for you yourselves know that we are appointed for this Shaken was used for a dog wagging its tail, then for being charmed away from what one believes. Trouble for believers is no accident (John 16:33; Acts 14:22). These are the ordinary troubles God's people face in every age because the world hates Christ (John 15:18-20), not the future seven-year Tribulation. God appoints His people to suffer for Christ at times. He does not appoint us to His wrath (5:9).

3:4 we were telling you beforehand that we were about to be afflicted Paul did not sell the gospel with promises of an easy life. Some are told their problems will vanish if they come to Jesus, and when trouble comes they think God failed. Jesus said to count the cost (Luke 14:27-28). Because Paul warned them, the trouble confirmed his teaching.

3:5 lest somehow the one who tempts had tempted you The tempter is Satan (Matt 4:3), who had already hindered Paul (2:18). He uses pressure to make believers doubt God and give up, like a roaring lion seeking prey (1 Pet 5:8). But Paul's fear was not the end of the story.

3:6 Timothy having come to us from you and having brought us good news of your faith and love Silas and Timothy caught up with Paul in Corinth (Acts 18:5). Brought good news is the word usually used for preaching the gospel. To Paul, hearing they stood firm was like hearing the gospel again. His enemies had not turned the church against him. They longed to see him.

3:7 we were encouraged, brothers, over you in all our tribulation and distress through your faith In Corinth Paul worked with his hands and faced opposition (Acts 18:6). He sent Timothy to encourage them, and their faith encouraged him. You never know who is being strengthened by your faithfulness in hard times.

3:8 for now we live, if you stand firm in the Lord The worry had felt like death, and now Paul can breathe again. To stand firm is to hold one's ground like a soldier, and we stand in the Lord, not by our strength. The if is a reminder, not a doubt. Pastors and teachers know what Paul felt here.

3:9 what thanksgiving are we able to render to God concerning you Paul cannot find enough thanks, and he gives it to God, because their standing firm was God's work. It is easy to share bad news about people. Paul shows the joy of sharing good news and turning it into praise.

3:10 to complete the things lacking in your faith Most exceedingly means beyond all measure. Their faith was real but new, and Paul had not had time to teach everything. Complete was used for mending nets and setting broken bones. One gap was what happens to believers who die before the Lord comes, which Paul fills in chapter 4. Every believer has things lacking. That is a reason to keep growing in God's Word.

3:11 may our God and Father Himself and our Lord Jesus Christ direct our way to you Paul names the Father and the Son together with a singular verb for direct, thinking of them acting as one. This is one of many places showing Jesus is God, equal with the Father. Paul asked God to clear the road Satan had blocked, and years later he did return to Macedonia (Acts 20:1-2).

3:12 may the Lord make you increase and abound in love toward one another and toward all To abound is to overflow. Love goes to fellow believers and to all, even persecutors (Matt 5:44). That love does not come naturally, which is why Paul prays for it. He asks nothing he is not already doing.

and toward all, just as we also do toward you, 13 so as to strengthen your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

A Life That Pleases God

1 Finally then, brothers, we ask you and exhort you in the Lord Jesus (Iesous), just as you received from us how you must walk and please God, that you abound more. 2 For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. 3 For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality; 4 that each of you know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor, 5 not in the passion of lust, just as also the Gentiles who do not know God; 6 that no one go beyond and take advantage of his brother in the matter, because the Lord is an avenger concerning all these things, just as we also told you before and solemnly testified. 7 For God did not call us to impurity, but in sanctification. 8 So then, the one who rejects this does not reject man but God, who also gave His Holy Spirit to us.

Brotherly Love and Honest Work

9 Now concerning brotherly love, you have no need for me to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another; 10 for indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia (Makedonia). But we exhort you, brothers, to abound more, 11 and to aspire to live quietly and to attend to your own affairs and to work with your own hands, just as we commanded you, 12 so that you may walk properly toward those outside and may have need of nothing.

The Coming of the Lord

13 But I do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve, just as also the rest who have no hope. 14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so also God will bring with

4:13 Gen 50:1; 2 Pet 3:4; Eph 2:12
4:14 Rom 8:11; 2 Cor 4:13,14; Rev 1:18

3:13 at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints As love grows, hearts are made steady and lives more holy. Blameless means no fair charge against us, and one day nothing held against us because of Christ (Col 1:22). Saints means holy ones. Some take it as angels (Zech 14:5; Matt 25:31), and many as believers, or both. In the pre-tribulation view this is Christ's return to the earth at the end of the Tribulation with His people (Jude 14; Rev 19:14). They come with Him because He came for them first at the rapture (4:13-18). He comes for His saints before the Tribulation and with them at its end.

4:1 how you must walk and please God, that you abound more Finally here means now then, as for the rest. Paul is not scolding. They had received his teaching and begun to live it, and he urges them to grow more. We do not live holy lives to earn God's love. We live to please the One who saved us, as a loved child wants to make his father glad.

4:2 what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus Instructions was used for orders passed down the line in an army. In Thessalonica sexual freedom was normal, and many would have called Paul's teaching extreme. These were not his opinions but the Lord's commands. When God's Word speaks, it is not up to us to vote on it.

4:3 this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality People ask what God's will is for their lives. Here is a clear answer. Sanctification is being made holy, set apart for God and like Christ, begun at faith and continuing for life. Porneia covers every sexual act outside marriage between a man and a woman. To abstain is to keep away completely, not to see how close we can get. Sexual sin was everywhere then, often part of pagan worship, and God gives power to obey.

4:4 that each of you know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor Many take vessel as one's own body (2 Cor 4:7), learning to control it. Others take it as a wife (1 Pet 3:7), taken in holiness rather than lust. Both lead to the same place. The pagan world, not knowing a holy God, was driven by lust (4:5). Believers know Him (1 Cor 6:18-20). Self-control is learned. If you have struggled, do not give up. Ask God for help, and get help from mature believers you trust.

4:6 that no one go beyond and take advantage of his brother in the matter To go beyond is to cross a line, and to take advantage is to grab more than is yours. Sexual sin always wrongs someone, taking what belongs to God or to a spouse, present or future. Some read the matter as business dealings, but most see Paul still speaking of sexual sin. People may hide it from others, but not from God, who brings justice.

4:7 God did not call us to impurity, but in sanctification God did not call us to stay as we were. Remember this when temptation comes. You were not saved to live like that anymore. We are to be holy because the God who called us is holy (1 Pet 1:15-16).

4:8 the one who rejects this does not reject man but God, who also gave His Holy Spirit to us Some may have brushed off Paul's teaching as one man's opinion. To reject it is to reject God. The Spirit who lives in every believer is called Holy, and sexual sin drags Him into it (1 Cor 6:19). But He also gives power to live pure lives (Gal 5:16).

4:9 you yourselves are taught by God to love one another Brotherly love is philadelphia, the love of God's family for each other. The Spirit had planted it in their hearts. Love for one another is the mark of Christ's followers (John 13:34-35). If we have no love for other believers, that is a warning sign to take seriously (1 John 3:14).

4:10 toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia Their love reached other cities, perhaps welcoming travelers, helping the needy, or sending gifts. It went somewhere. Paul praises them, then asks for more. There is no point where we have loved enough.

4:11 to aspire to live quietly and to attend to your own affairs and to work with your own hands A play on words: be ambitious to be quiet. Mind your own business. Greeks looked down on hand labor, but Paul did it himself (2:9). Some in the church seem to have stopped working, perhaps because the Lord's coming seemed so near, or to live off others. Paul deals with it more strongly in 2 Thessalonians 3:6-15. Waiting for Jesus never means quitting our jobs (Luke 12:42-43).

4:12 that you may walk properly toward those outside and may have need of nothing Those outside are unbelievers, and the way we work is a witness. A lazy or nosy believer brings shame on Christ. One who works can care for his family and have something to give (Eph 4:28). Love is shown in quiet faithfulness and honest work.

4:13 concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve, just as also the rest who have no hope Believers had died since Paul left, and the others feared they would miss the Lord's coming. Jesus called Lazarus's death sleep (John 11:11). Sleep is something you wake from. The picture is of the body in the grave. The soul is at home with the Lord (2 Cor 5:8; Phil 1:23). Paul does not forbid grief, for Jesus wept (John 11:35). We grieve with hope. If you have lost someone who knew the Lord, these verses are for you.

4:14 so also God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep through Jesus If means since. Paul says Jesus died, not that He fell asleep. He faced the full weight of death and judgment for us, so for the believer death has become sleep. Our resurrection is tied to His (1 Cor 15:20-23). When He comes, the souls of believers who died come with Him, and then their bodies are raised and joined to them (4:16).

Him those who have fallen asleep through Jesus. 15 For this we say to you in the word of the Lord, that we who are living, who remain until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have fallen asleep; 16 because the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first; 17 then we who are living, who remain, will be caught away together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will always be with the Lord. 18 Therefore encourage one another with these words.

The Day of the Lord

1 Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that anything be written to you; 2 for you yourselves know accurately that the day of the Lord comes in this way, as a thief in the night. 3 For when they say, "Peace and security," then sudden destruction comes upon them, as the labor pain upon the pregnant woman, and they will by no means escape. 4 But you, brothers, are not in darkness, so that the day would overtake you like a thief; 5 you are all sons of light and sons of day; we are not of night nor of darkness. 6 So then let us not sleep, as the rest also do, but let us keep watch and be sober. 7 For those who sleep sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night. 8 But we, being of the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet the hope of salvation;

4:15 we who are living, who remain until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have fallen asleep In the word of the Lord may mean a saying of Jesus passed on or a direct revelation to Paul (Gal 1:11-12). By no means is a strong double negative. Living believers will have no advantage. Paul includes himself among those who might be alive, neither promising nor ruling out that Jesus would come in his lifetime. This is imminence: it could happen at any moment, with no event that must come first. I believe this is one strong reason for placing the rapture before the Tribulation. Paul gives no signs, only a call to be ready.
4:16 the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout of command, with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God Not an angel but the Lord Himself, keeping His promise (John 14:3). The shout was an officer's command to troops, the word of authority that once called Lazarus out (John 11:43). The only archangel named is Michael (Jude 9). Trumpets gathered God's people (Num 10:1-10). This is the last trumpet of 1 Corinthians 15:52, which calls the church home, not the judgment trumpets of Revelation 8-11. The dead in Christ go first, raised incorruptible.
4:17 will be caught away together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air Caught away is harpazo, to seize suddenly and carry off (Acts 8:39; Rev 12:5). The Latin rendering came from rapio, which gives us rapture. There is a reunion, and Jesus meets His people in the air without coming all the way down. Some note that meet was used for a party going out to welcome a visitor and escort him back, and they make the rapture and the Second Coming one event after the Tribulation. Others place it in the middle, or just before the worst of God's wrath. I respect them, but I believe it comes before the seven-year Tribulation. Jesus said He would take us to His Father's house (John 14:2-3). Paul gives no signs first (4:15). God did not appoint us for wrath (5:9). Jesus promised to keep the church from the hour of testing coming on the whole world (Rev 3:10). And Paul's comfort is to look up, not to prepare for the Tribulation. At its end Christ returns visibly with His saints (3:13; Rev 19:11-16) to set up His thousand-year kingdom (Rev 20:1-6). Above all, we will always be with the Lord.
4:18 Therefore encourage one another with these words Paul wrote this not to start arguments or make charts but to comfort. Picture a believer at the grave of a husband or child. The Lord is coming, the dead in Christ will rise first, we will be caught away together, and we will always be with Him. Read these words at a funeral, a hospital bed, or on a hard night. If you do not know Jesus yet, today is the day (2 Cor 6:2).
5:1 Now concerning the times and the seasons Times speaks of how long, seasons of the right moment or the character of an era, the same two words Jesus used in Acts 1:7. Paul had taught this already. In 4:13-18 he taught what they did not know. Now concerning marks a new subject, as in 4:9, something they did know. I believe this matters. The rapture and the day of the Lord are related, but they are not the same event.
5:2 the day of the Lord comes in this way, as a thief in the night The prophets used this phrase for the time when God steps into history to judge sin and set things right, a day of darkness, fury and distress (Amos 5:18; Zeph 1:15; Joel 2:31). In the pre-tribulation view this study follows, its future sense includes the seven-year Tribulation, Christ's return at its end, and the kingdom that follows. It begins with judgment and ends with blessing. A thief sends no letter ahead (Matt 24:43; 2 Pet 3:10). Others see it as the single day of Christ's return at the end.
5:3 when they say, "Peace and security," then sudden destruction comes upon them Notice they and them. This is the unbelieving world, feeling safe without God. Some scholars think the words may echo Roman slogans about the peace the empire brought. Destruction is not ceasing to exist but ruin. A pregnant woman knows the baby is coming but not the hour, and once labor starts it cannot be stopped (Matt 24:8). There will be no way out for those who reject God.
5:4 But you, brothers, are not in darkness, so that the day would overtake you like a thief They becomes you. Two reasons the day will not overtake believers. We know it is coming and what it will be like. And I believe Scripture teaches the church will not be on the earth when it begins, for Jesus comes for His church first (4:16-17). A thief only surprises those who are not ready.
5:5 you are all sons of light and sons of day To be a son of something is to be marked by it and belong to it. Jesus is the light of the world (John 8:12) who brought us out of darkness (Col 1:13; 1 Pet 2:9). You are all means every believer, not only the mature. Paul includes himself. We are people of the day, so the day of the Lord is not a day of wrath for us.
5:6 let us not sleep, as the rest also do, but let us keep watch and be sober This sleep is a different word from the sleep of death in 4:13-15. It means spiritual carelessness. Keep watch is a guard on night duty, and sober is clear-headed, not drunk on the world's pleasures or worries. Hope in the Lord's coming is meant to keep us awake. Are you living as though Jesus could come today?
5:7 those who sleep sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night Plain facts made into a picture. Spiritual sleep and drunkenness belong to the night, the world that does not know God. It makes sense for the world to live that way, but not for us. The night is far gone and the day is near (Rom 13:11-14).
5:8 having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet the hope of salvation Paul uses armor again, as in Ephesians 6:13-17, and Isaiah pictured the Lord with a helmet of salvation (Isa 59:17). The breastplate guarded the heart, and faith and love guard ours. The helmet guarded the head, and hope guards the mind. We are saved from sin's penalty, but part of salvation is still ahead, new bodies free from sin (Rom 8:23-24; 13:11). Faith, love and hope again (1:3).

9 because God did not appoint us for wrath, but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, 10 who died for us, so that whether we keep watch or sleep, we may live together with Him. 11 Therefore encourage one another and build up one another, just as you also are doing.

Life Together in the Church

12 But we ask you, brothers, to know those who labor among you and lead you in the Lord and admonish you, 13 and to esteem them most exceedingly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves. 14 Now we exhort you, brothers: admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient toward all. 15 See that no one repays anyone evil for evil, but always pursue what is good, both toward one another and toward all. 16 Rejoice always. 17 Pray unceasingly. 18 In everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you. 19 Do not quench the Spirit. 20 Do not despise prophecies. 21 Test all things; hold fast the good. 22 Abstain from every form of evil.

5:9 God did not appoint us for wrath, but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ One of the most important verses in the letter. To appoint is to set someone for a purpose. In context the wrath includes the day of the Lord's sudden destruction (5:2-3) as well as final judgment (1:10). The Tribulation is the time of God's wrath on the earth (Rev 6:16-17; 15:1). I believe this is one of the strongest reasons to place the rapture before it. Some teachers believe God will protect believers through it, as Israel in Goshen, or that the wrath is only final judgment. Those are honest views. But Paul does not say God keeps us safe in the middle of His wrath. He says He did not appoint us for it. Our rescue is through Jesus, not because we are better.

5:10 who died for us, so that whether we keep watch or sleep, we may live together with Him Jesus took the wrath we deserved. Most teachers read keep watch or sleep as alive or dead when He comes, back to the comfort of 4:13-18. Some read it as spiritually alert or careless, so that even the less watchful will be with Him. Either way, it rests on His death for us. The goal is not only escaping wrath but being with Jesus forever.

5:11 encourage one another and build up one another, just as you also are doing Almost the same as 4:18. The truth of the Lord's coming is meant to encourage. To build up is to build a house piece by piece. We need not wait for the pastor. Every believer can do this.

5:12 to know those who labor among you and lead you in the Lord and admonish you Leaders work to weariness, stand in front as guides under the Lord, and warn and correct. These were probably the elders appointed to shepherd the flock (Acts 14:23). To know them is to recognize and appreciate them and give their work the respect it deserves.

5:13 to esteem them most exceedingly in love because of their work Most exceedingly is the strong word of 3:10, and it is real affection, not grudging respect. It is because of the work God gave them, for they keep watch over souls and will give an account (Heb 13:17). Do you pray for and thank your leaders? Many church fights begin between leaders and members.

5:14 admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient toward all These commands are for the whole church. Disorderly was used for a soldier out of rank, here likely the idle who would not work (4:11; 2 Thess 3:6-11), who need warning. The fainthearted, perhaps grieving or worried about the day of the Lord, need comfort, not scolding. The weak in faith, conscience or body need support. Not everyone needs the same thing, but all of us need patience (1 Cor 13:4).

5:15 See that no one repays anyone evil for evil Under persecution it would be natural to strike back. Jesus taught otherwise (Matt 5:38-45; Rom 12:17). Pursue was a hunting word. We chase chances to do good, even to those who treat us badly. We can, because the Lord is the avenger (4:6; 2 Thess 1:6-7). We need not settle the score.

5:16 Rejoice always Some of the shortest verses in the Bible and some of the hardest to live. Our joy rests on the Lord, who never changes (Phil 4:4), and these believers had already received the word with joy in trouble (1:6).

5:17 Pray unceasingly Not every minute on our knees, but an attitude of prayer, talking with God through the day and turning every worry and joy into prayer (Phil 4:6).

5:18 In everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you In everything, not for everything. We do not thank God for evil, but in every situation we can thank Him, because He is with us and works all things for good for those who love Him (Rom 8:28). People want to know God's will. Here it is in plain words: rejoice, pray, give thanks.

5:19 Do not quench the Spirit To quench is to put out a fire, and the Spirit is often pictured as fire (Acts 2:3). We can dampen His work in us and our churches by ignoring Him, resisting Him, or living in sin.

5:20 Do not despise prophecies To despise is to treat as worthless. Before the New Testament was finished, God gave some the gift of prophecy, a message from God to the church (1 Cor 14:3), and some may have grown suspicious after false claims about the day of the Lord (2 Thess 2:2). Some believe the gift ended when the New Testament was complete, and this now calls us to honor the preaching of the written Word. Others believe it continues and should be welcomed and tested. Both agree on the next verse.

5:21 Test all things; hold fast the good Test as a metal worker tests gold. Paul does not say believe everything or reject everything. Test it by the Scriptures (Acts 17:11) and by whether it honors Jesus as Lord (1 John 4:1-3). What passes, hold tight.

5:22 Abstain from every form of evil Form can mean every kind or every appearance of evil. Either way, keep far away. Abstain is the word of 4:3. Holiness is not only doing good but staying away from evil.

5:23 may your spirit and soul and body be preserved whole, blamelessly, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ In the end God makes us holy. He is the God of peace who makes peace with us through Christ. Some believe spirit, soul and body show three parts of a person. Others see soul and spirit as two ways of naming the inner person, so Paul means the whole person. For the fifth time Paul looks to the Lord's coming (1:10; 2:19; 3:13; 4:15-17), when we will be like Him (1 John 3:2).

5:24 Faithful is the One who calls you, who also will do it We might think we could never do all this chapter asks. Look at God. He called you, and He will finish what He started (Phil 1:6). Our hope rests not on how strong we are but on how faithful He is.

5:25 Brothers, pray for us The great apostle asks brand new believers for prayer. The gospel work depends on prayer (Eph 6:18-20; 2 Thess 3:1-2). Paul prayed for them all through the letter, and prayer goes both ways in the body of Christ.

5:26 Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss A kiss on the cheek was the normal greeting among family and close friends, like a handshake or hug today (Rom 16:16; 1 Cor 16:20). Holy means pure, a sign of family love. All the brothers means rich and poor, Jew and Gentile, slave and free. The custom may differ in our culture, but welcome every believer as family.

kiss. 27 I charge you by the Lord that the letter be read to all the holy brothers. 28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

5:27 Col 4:16; 1 Thess 2:11; Num 27:23

5:28 Rom 16:20,24; 2 Thess 3:18; Rom 1:7

5:27 I charge you by the Lord that the letter be read to all the holy brothers To charge by the Lord is to place under oath before God. Most could not read and copies were few, so letters were read aloud in church. Paul knew this letter carried the Lord's authority, to be read like the Scriptures. Do you make time to hear and read God's Word?

5:28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you Paul began with grace (1:1) and ends with it. Every command, warning and hope rests on it. We are saved by grace, grow by grace, and will be kept by grace until He comes. The closing note that the letter was written from Athens was added by later copyists. Timothy reached Paul in Corinth (3:6; Acts 18:5).

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for its readers, "the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ" (1:1). It is Paul's second letter to that church, written only a few months after the first. It is short, but it holds some of the most important teaching in the New Testament about the day of the Lord and "the man of sin" (2:3), the one many Bible teachers call the Antichrist.

Author and Date

Like the first letter, this one opens with "Paul and Silvanus and Timothy" (1:1), and Paul closes it with a greeting in his own hand, "which is a sign in every letter" (3:17). The early church accepted it as Paul's. Some modern scholars think a later follower wrote it, pointing to its likeness to 1 Thessalonians, a cooler tone, and its teaching that certain events must come before the day of the Lord. But a letter to the same church by the same men a few months later would naturally sound like the first, and the two do not disagree. The first says the day will come suddenly on the unbelieving world. The second says it has not come yet and tells what will mark it. I take the letter at its word, as the church always has.

Silvanus and Timothy are still with Paul (1:1), and Acts shows the three together in Corinth (Acts 18:5) and not again afterward. So most scholars date the letter from Corinth about A.D. 51 or 52. A few think 2 Thessalonians came first, but "our letter" (2:15) seems to point back to the first, and most hold to the order in our Bibles. The closing note in the SLB that it was written from Athens was added by later copyists.

Background and Setting

These were the same young believers, mostly Gentiles who had turned from idols, still suffering for their faith (1:4). The persecution had grown worse. Someone had shaken them, by a spirit, a word, or a letter claiming to be from Paul, with the message that the day of the Lord had already come (2:2). If that were true, it would seem they had missed the Lord's coming for His people and were living in the time of God's wrath. No wonder they were troubled. And the problem of idle believers Paul mentioned before (1 Thess 4:11-12; 5:14) had grown worse.

Themes

Paul writes to comfort, to correct, and to command. In chapter 1 he promises that God sees their suffering and will repay those who afflict His people "at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with the angels of His power" (1:7). In chapter 2 he shows that the day of the Lord cannot have come, because "the apostasy" must come first and the man of sin must be revealed (2:3), and he is held back until the one restraining is taken out of the way (2:6-7). In chapter 3 he asks for prayer, commands the church to keep away from believers who refuse to work, and tells the rest, "do not grow weary doing good" (3:13). Through it all his message is, "stand firm and hold fast the traditions which you were taught" (2:15).

Chapter 2 is one of the hardest passages in Paul's letters, and teachers read it many ways. This study reads it plainly with Daniel 7, 9 and 11, Matthew 24, and Revelation. I believe the church will be caught up to meet the Lord before the seven-year Tribulation begins (1 Thess 4:16-17), that the man of sin will be revealed after the restrainer is taken out of the way, and that Christ will destroy him when He returns visibly to the earth at the end of the Tribulation (2:8; Rev 19:11-21). Where other good teachers see these things differently, the notes give their views fairly.

Christ in 2 Thessalonians

The Lord Jesus will be revealed from heaven in flaming fire, judging those who do not obey the gospel (1:7-8), and He will come "to be glorified in His saints and to be marveled at among all those who believe" (1:10). The lawless one, with all his false signs, will fall when "the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and will abolish by the appearing of His coming" (2:8). Believers are called "for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ" (2:14). He is "the Lord of peace" (3:16), named with the Father as the One who loved us and gave us "eternal comfort and good hope in grace" (2:16).

Hard Passages

"Eternal destruction" (1:9) is read as everlasting ruin away from the Lord's presence, though some teach that the lost will cease to exist. "The apostasy" (2:3) is read by most as a great departure from the faith, and by some as the departure of the church. "The temple of God" (2:4) is read here as a future temple in Jerusalem. The restrainer (2:6-7) is read as the Holy Spirit working through the church, removed in that role at the rapture, while others name the Roman Empire, human government, or others. The "working of delusion" (2:11) raises the question of whether those who rejected the gospel before the rapture can still believe. The notes name the main views.

Greeting

1 Paul (Paulos) and Silvanus (Silouanos) and Timothy (Timotheos), to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving and God's Righteous Judgment

3 We ought to give thanks to God always concerning you, brothers, just as it is fitting, because your faith is increasing exceedingly, and the love of each one of you all toward one another is abounding, 4 so that we ourselves boast in you in the churches of God for your endurance and faith in all your persecutions and the afflictions which you are bearing, 5 which is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, for you to be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer, 6 since it is righteous with God to repay affliction to those afflicting you, 7 and to you who are being afflicted, and from the glory of His strength, 10 when He comes to be glorified in His saints and to be marveled at among all those who believe, because our testimony to you was believed, in that day.

Paul's Prayer for the Church

11 For which we also pray always concerning you, that our God may count you worthy of the calling and may fulfill every good pleasure of goodness and work of faith with power, 12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1:1 to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father The greeting is almost word for word the first letter's, from the same three men to the same church. One small change: God the Father has become God our Father. For a church under persecution, that was a good place to start. Whatever their neighbors did, they belonged to God's family. Again Jesus stands with the Father, not below Him.

1:2 grace to you and peace Never a throwaway line. Grace is God's undeserved favor, and peace is the wholeness and rest of being right with God. Persecuted believers need both, grace to stand and peace in their hearts when everything around them is in an uproar.

1:3 your faith is increasing exceedingly, and the love of each one of you all toward one another is abounding Ought means we owe it. Giving thanks for them was simply right. Paul had prayed for their faith and love (1 Thess 3:10, 12), and God answered both. Hope is missing from the list this time, and some think that is because their hope had been shaken by the false teaching Paul answers in chapter 2.

1:4 for your endurance and faith in all your persecutions and the afflictions which you are bearing Paul did not boast of himself, but he gladly boasted of God's work in them, likely to the new church in Corinth. Bearing means they were still under it. Endurance does not mean we never feel the weight but that we keep going under it, trusting God the whole way.

1:5 evidence of the righteous judgment of God, for you to be counted worthy of the kingdom of God Their endurance showed God at work and pointed to the day He will judge rightly. This is not earning the kingdom (Eph 2:8-9). Counted worthy means shown to belong to it. The world rejected them because they were Christ's, and God never would. The kingdom here is Christ's coming reign on the earth (Rev 20:4-6; Matt 5:10).

1:6 it is righteous with God to repay affliction to those afflicting you This is justice, not bitter revenge. A judge who let evil go would not be good. Vengeance belongs to God (Rom 12:19; Deut 32:35), which is why believers need not take it (1 Thess 5:15). Their neighbors seemed to be getting away with it. They would not. God sees, and God will judge.

1:7 rest with us at the revelation of the Lord Jesus from heaven with the angels of His power Rest means relief, like a bowstring released. Revelation is apokalupsis, an unveiling. Jesus, hidden now from the world, will be shown to all, with His mighty angels (Matt 25:31). Some say this shows the church on earth until then, so the rapture comes after the Tribulation. In the pre-tribulation reading, the dead in Christ and those caught away are already with Him, and this is the day their rest is shown publicly as He comes with His saints (1 Thess 3:13) and the persecutors receive justice. Paul's focus is the certainty that God will set things right.

1:8 in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those not knowing God and on those not obeying the gospel Fire shows God's holy presence and judgment (Exod 3:2; 19:18), and Jesus returns as Judge (Rev 19:11-12). Those not knowing God turned from what He shows all people in creation and conscience (Rom 1:18-21). The gospel is a call to repent and believe, and to refuse it is to disobey God. The dividing line is what people do with Jesus.

1:9 eternal destruction away from the face of the Lord and from the glory of His strength Among the most solemn words in the Bible. Eternal means it does not end, as in eternal punishment beside eternal life (Matt 25:46). Destruction is ruin, the loss of all good, and most teachers through history have read it that way, though some teach the lost will cease to exist. The worst is being shut out from God, the source of every good gift (James 1:17). God does not want anyone to face it (2 Pet 3:9). If you have never turned to Jesus, do not put it off.

1:10 when He comes to be glorified in His saints For the lost that day is judgment. For believers it is glory. His saints come with Him, changed and glorified (1 Thess 3:13; Jude 14), and the world will see His greatness in what He made of them. We will marvel at Him and see Him as He is (1 John 3:2). The Thessalonians will share it because they believed Paul's message.

1:11 that our God may count you worthy of the calling God called them to His kingdom and glory (1 Thess 2:12), and Paul prays their lives would fit that calling, not to earn salvation. He asks God to complete every good desire and work of faith with His power. We want to do good and often fall short, so we ask God to finish what we cannot.

1:12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him A name stands for who a person is. Their lives were to show what Jesus is like. As they honor Him, they share His glory, for what happens to Him happens to those united with Him. It is all grace. The Greek can also be read as one Person, our God and Lord, Jesus Christ, as in Titus 2:13.

The Day of the Lord Has Not Come

1 Now we ask you, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ and our gathering together to Him, 2 that you not be quickly shaken from the mind nor be troubled, neither through a spirit nor through a word nor through a letter as if through us, as that the day of Christ has come. 3 Let no one deceive you in any way; because it will not come unless the apostasy comes first and the man of sin is revealed, the son of destruction, 4 who opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he sits down in the temple of God as God, displaying himself that he is God. 5 Do you not remember that while still being with you I was telling you these things?

The Restrainer and the Lawless One

6 And now you know that which is restraining, for him to be revealed in his own time. 7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already working; only the one restraining now will restrain until he is out of the midst. 8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and will abolish by the appearing of His coming, 9 the one whose coming is according to the working of Satan in every power and signs and wonders of falsehood, 10 and in every deceit of unrighteousness in those who are perishing, because they did not receive the love of the truth so that

2:9 Dan 8:23; Matt 24:24; Rev 18:23
2:10 Dan 8:23; 1 Cor 1:18; Prov 1:7

2:1 concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to Him Paul begins his correction by pointing them to their hope. Coming is parousia, the word of 1 Thessalonians 4:15. Gathering together appears elsewhere only in Hebrews 10:25. In the pre-tribulation reading this study follows, it is the event of 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17, when the dead in Christ rise and living believers are caught away to meet the Lord. The false teaching had shaken that very hope. Some teachers read both phrases of the Second Coming at the end of the Tribulation.

2:2 as that the day of Christ has come Shaken was used for a ship torn from its anchor, and troubled means alarmed (Matt 24:6). A spirit is likely a claimed prophecy, a word a teaching or report, and a letter perhaps one forged in Paul's name. If it does not match the apostles' teaching, reject it (Gal 1:8). The SLB follows the Received Text in reading the day of Christ, where most older copies read the day of the Lord. Both mean the time of God's judgment (1 Thess 5:1-11). Has come means already here. Their persecution may have made them think God's wrath had begun. If they had been taught the church goes through the Tribulation, such news might have made them brace themselves. It upset their whole hope because Paul had taught that the Lord comes for His church before the day of wrath (1 Thess 4:16-17; 5:9).

2:3 unless the apostasy comes first and the man of sin is revealed, the son of destruction Two things must come first. Apostasia means a departure, a standing away. Its only other use is for apostasy from Moses (Acts 21:21), so most teachers, including most who hold a pre-tribulation rapture, read it as a great turning from the faith at the end (1 Tim 4:1; 2 Tim 4:3; Matt 24:12). Some pre-tribulation teachers take it as the departure of the church at the rapture, and a few English Bibles of the 1500s read departing. Either way, the day had not come. The man of sin is a real man. Many older copies read man of lawlessness, the same thing, since sin is lawlessness (1 John 3:4). Many see him in Daniel's little horn and coming ruler (Dan 7:8; 9:26-27; 11:36) and the beast of Revelation 13, the antichrist (1 John 2:18). Son of destruction was said of Judas (John 17:12). His end is settled (Rev 19:20).

2:4 so that he sits down in the temple of God as God, displaying himself that he is God He sets himself above every god, true or false (Dan 11:36). The word is the sanctuary, the inner holy place. Read plainly with Daniel and Jesus, this points to a future temple in Jerusalem. The one who breaks the covenant stops the sacrifices in the middle of the seven years (Dan 9:27), and the abomination of desolation stands in the holy place (Matt 24:15; Rev 13:12-15). That is the midpoint of the Tribulation. Some read the temple as the church or as a figure, and others as first-century events like Caligula's attempt to set up his statue or the fall of the temple in A.D. 70. But no one then fulfilled all this, and the Lord did not destroy him at His coming (2:8). Satan has always wanted worship (Isa 14:13-14; Matt 4:8-9), but his time will be short.

2:5 while still being with you I was telling you these things A gentle rebuke. The tense means more than once. In a few weeks with brand new believers, Paul did not think prophecy too hard or unimportant to teach. Some say it only confuses or divides. God put it in His Word for our comfort and protection. Had they remembered, they would not have been shaken.

2:6 now you know that which is restraining, for him to be revealed in his own time To restrain is to hold back or keep in check. They knew what it was. We piece it together. Here the word is neuter, and in verse 7 masculine, so the restrainer is spoken of as a thing and a person. I believe this fits the Holy Spirit best. The Greek word for Spirit is neuter, yet He is a Person, and Jesus speaks of Him both ways (John 16:13). The man of sin will not come a day early. Even God's greatest enemy is under His control.

2:7 only the one restraining now will restrain until he is out of the midst Lawlessness is already at work behind the scenes (1 John 4:3; Eph 2:2), but it is held back. Only God is strong enough. I believe the restrainer is the Holy Spirit working through the church, the salt and light of the world (John 16:8; Matt 5:13-14). When the church is caught away, that restraining work through it is removed. The Spirit does not leave the world, for He is everywhere, and a great multitude will be saved in the Tribulation (Rev 7:9). Others name the Roman Empire and its law, as many in the early church did, human government (Rom 13:1-4), the preaching of the gospel, Paul himself, or Michael (Dan 12:1). But Rome fell long ago and the man of sin has not come. The church was still here, so the day of the Lord had not come.

2:8 whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and will abolish by the appearing of His coming Paul tells his end before his career. The Messiah slays the wicked with the breath of His lips (Isa 11:4), and the sword from His mouth ends the beast's reign (Rev 19:15, 20). Abolish means bring to nothing. The appearing is epiphaneia, a shining forth, joined to parousia. When Jesus returns visibly at the end of the Tribulation, the shining of His presence is enough. Parousia covers both stages of His coming, for His church in 2:1 and in judgment here, and context shows which. Those who see one coming read both as one event. The most powerful evil man in history will fall with one breath from Jesus.

2:9 whose coming is according to the working of Satan in every power and signs and wonders of falsehood He has a counterfeit parousia, with Satan behind him (Rev 13:2, 4). These are the words used of Jesus' miracles (Acts 2:22), copied. False christs will do great signs to lead astray (Matt 24:24), and the false prophet will call fire from heaven (Rev 13:13). Real supernatural works or clever tricks, they serve a lie. A miracle alone does not prove something is from God (1 John 4:1).

2:10 because they did not receive the love of the truth so that they might be saved Not that they never had a chance, but that they did not love the truth when it was offered. Jesus is the truth (John 14:6), and to refuse to love the truth is to refuse Him. It is not enough to know about it. Those who do not love the truth become open to every lie. So that they might be saved shows God's heart.

they might be saved. 11 And because of this God will send them a working of delusion, so that they believe the falsehood, 12 in order that all may be judged who did not believe the truth but delighted in unrighteousness.

2:11 God will send them a working of delusion, so that they believe the falsehood A hard verse. God cannot lie (Titus 1:2), but when people keep rejecting the truth, He gives them over to what they chose, as in Romans 1:24, 26, 28 and with Pharaoh (Exod 8:15, 32; 9:12). The falsehood is likely the great lie that the man of sin is God (2:4), the serpent's old lie (Gen 3:5). Some believe those who clearly heard and rejected the gospel before the rapture will not believe afterward. Others read it more generally. Many will come to Christ in the Tribulation (Rev 7:9-14). Rejecting the truth hardens the heart. Today is the day of salvation (2 Cor 6:2).

2:12 who did not believe the truth but delighted in unrighteousness Unbelief is not only a matter of the mind but of what the heart loves (John 3:19-20). People are not forced into sin. They take pleasure in it. No one will be condemned who did not choose to reject the truth, and no one who comes to Jesus will be turned away (John 6:37).

2:13 God chose you from the beginning for salvation in sanctification of the Spirit and faith in the truth After the perishing, a change of tone. These are beloved by the Lord. The SLB reads from the beginning with the Received Text, and some copies read as firstfruits. Teachers differ on how God's choosing works, as in 1 Thessalonians 1:4 (1 Pet 1:2). The Spirit sets us apart, and we believe the truth. The perishing did not believe it. These did.

2:14 to which He called you through our gospel, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ God's choosing in eternity became His calling in time, through the preaching of the gospel (Rom 10:14-17). Obtaining is the word of 1 Thessalonians 5:9. The call leads not to wrath but to glory (Rom 8:30; Col 3:4). The lawless one's followers share his destruction. Christ's share His glory.

2:15 stand firm and hold fast the traditions which you were taught, whether through word or through our letter Traditions means what is handed down, here the apostles' teaching, the same whether spoken or written in the first letter. Today we have it in the New Testament. Protestant teachers hold that Scripture is now the only sure and final rule. The Catholic and Orthodox churches also look to church tradition alongside Scripture. The standard is what the apostles taught. Hold fast to it and you will not be shaken.

2:16 may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God and our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope in grace Jesus is named first here, and in Greek loved and gave are singular, as direct was in 1 Thessalonians 3:11. The Father and the Son act as one. The comfort never runs out, and the hope will not let us down, the hope of His coming and our gathering to Him (2:1). Shaken hearts need comfort, and a settled heart leads to steady work and true words (2:17). Our hope is not meant to make us stare at the sky.

3:1 that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, just as also with you Paul had prayed for them (2:16-17), and now asks the same of them. His first request is not comfort or safety but that God's Word would run like a runner in a race (Ps 147:15) and be honored as it changes lives. It had run in Thessalonica (1 Thess 1:6; 2:13), and Paul wanted the same in Corinth. When you pray for missionaries and pastors, pray first for the Word to run.

3:2 that we may be delivered from perverse and evil men; for not all have the faith Perverse means twisted, and evil actively harmful. Paul faced such men in Corinth (Acts 18:6, 12-13). Not everyone receives the gospel, and some fight it. Paul asked for deliverance but kept preaching, and the Lord told him not to fear (Acts 18:9-10).

3:3 But the Lord is faithful, who will strengthen you and guard you from the evil Not all have faith, but the Lord is faithful, and the two words go together in Greek. To guard is to stand watch like a soldier. From the evil can also be read from the evil one, Satan (Matt 6:13; John 17:15). He hindered Paul and tempts believers, but he cannot snatch them out of the Lord's hand (John 10:28-29).

3:4 we are confident in the Lord concerning you Paul's confidence is in the Lord, not their strength. It also prepares them for hard commands about idle members. He starts with trust, not scolding. When we must correct someone, it helps to let them know first that we believe in what God is doing in them.

3:5 may the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the endurance of Christ Direct means to clear a straight road, the word of 1 Thessalonians 3:11. The love of God can mean His love for us or ours for Him, and both belong together (1 John 4:19). The endurance of Christ can mean the endurance He showed in suffering or patient waiting for His return. A heart directed there can face persecution, false teaching and hard work without giving up.

3:6 to withdraw from every brother walking disorderly The strongest language of the letter, with Christ's full authority. To withdraw is to pull back from close fellowship. Disorderly is the word of 1 Thessalonians 5:14, a soldier who breaks rank, here believers who refused to work. He is still called a brother. The goal is to bring him back. They knew better, for Paul had taught them (1 Thess 4:11-12).

3:7 you yourselves know how it is necessary to imitate us The Christian life is learned by watching others as well as by words (1 Thess 1:6; 2:9). Paul and his team did not break rank or wait for others to support them. Could you tell younger believers to follow your example? It is what God calls every believer toward (1 Cor 11:1; Phil 3:17).

you, 8 nor did we eat bread from anyone without payment, but in labor and toil, working night and day so as not to be a burden to any of you; 9 not that we do not have authority, but that we might give ourselves as an example to you, so that you imitate us. 10 For even when we were with you, we were commanding you this, that if anyone is not willing to work, neither let him eat. 11 For we hear that some are walking among you disorderly, not working at all, but being busybodies. 12 Now to such we command and exhort through our Lord Jesus Christ, that working with quietness they may eat their own bread. 13 But you, brothers, do not grow weary doing good. 14 And if anyone does not obey our word through the letter, take note of this one, and do not associate with him, so that he may be ashamed. 15 And do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

Closing Blessing

16 Now may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace continually in every way. The Lord be with you all. 17 The greeting by my own hand, of Paul (Paulos), which is a sign in every letter; thus I write. 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

3:17 1 Cor 16:21; Col 4:18; 2 Thess 1:5
3:18 Rom 16:20,24

3:8 nor did we eat bread from anyone without payment To eat bread is to make a living. Paul paid his own way as a tentmaker (Acts 18:3), working early to late so no one had to support him (1 Thess 2:9). He gratefully received gifts from Philippi (Phil 4:16) but did not demand them.
3:9 not that we do not have authority, but that we might give ourselves as an example to you Paul had the right to support. The worker is worthy of his food (Matt 10:10), and those who preach the gospel may live from it (1 Cor 9:14). Churches should support their pastors and missionaries. Paul set his right aside to give a living example against idleness. Christ gave up His rights for us (Phil 2:5-8), and love is willing to do the same.
3:10 if anyone is not willing to work, neither let him eat Notice not willing. Paul does not mean those who cannot work through sickness, age, disability or lack of a job. The church is called to care for them (Acts 20:35; Gal 6:10; 1 Tim 5:3-16). Some think the idle believed the Lord's coming was so near that work was pointless. Others think they were living off richer believers, as many then lived off wealthy patrons. Either way, get back to work. God gave Adam work before sin came (Gen 2:15).
3:11 not working at all, but being busybodies Only some, not the whole church. A play on words: not busy, but busybodies, meddling in others' lives. When we have nothing useful to do, we find something harmful. The sluggard is told to consider the ant (Prov 6:6), and gossip and laziness often travel together (1 Tim 5:13).
3:12 that working with quietness they may eat their own bread Paul both commands with authority and pleads as a fellow believer under the same Lord. Work, do it quietly without meddling, and eat food you have earned, as he said before (1 Thess 4:11). There is dignity in honest work.
3:13 do not grow weary doing good Now to the rest of the church, who may have been tired of supporting people who would not work and tempted to stop giving even to the truly needy. Keep doing good (Gal 6:9). If you have been taken advantage of or no one notices, the Lord does, and He will reward you (Heb 6:10).
3:14 take note of this one, and do not associate with him, so that he may be ashamed To take note is to mark him. Associate means close fellowship, the word of 1 Corinthians 5:9-11. The purpose is not punishment but to bring him to his senses. Shame that leads to repentance is good. This is church discipline, and its goal is always restoration (Matt 18:15-17; Gal 6:1).
3:15 do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother This balances the verse before. Discipline can easily turn proud and cold. Keep warning him as family, and the door stays open. The goal is to win your brother back (Matt 18:15).
3:16 may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace continually in every way Paul calls Jesus the Lord of peace, beside the God of peace (1 Thess 5:23). They had persecution, false teaching and idle members, and Paul prays for peace all the time and in every situation. Real peace is not the absence of trouble but the presence of the Lord (John 16:33). You all includes the idle ones just corrected.
3:17 The greeting by my own hand, of Paul, which is a sign in every letter Paul dictated (Rom 16:22) and wrote the greeting himself (1 Cor 16:21; Col 4:18). Someone may have sent a letter as if from him (2:2), so his handwriting proved this one genuine. The church was careful to receive only what truly came from the apostles, and we can trust the New Testament we have.
3:18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all Almost the ending of the first letter (1 Thess 5:28), with all added: the strong and weak, the workers and the idle. Grace began the letter (1:2) and ends it, and grace is what we need until we see Him. The closing note that it was written from Athens was added by later copyists.

1 TIMOTHY

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for the man it is written to, "Timothy, my genuine child in faith" (1:2). It is the first of the three Pastoral Letters, with 2 Timothy and Titus, which Paul wrote to guide the men he had left in charge of churches. Paul tells us why he wrote. He hoped to come soon, but if he was delayed, he wanted Timothy to know "how one must conduct oneself in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth" (3:15).

Author and Date

The letter opens with "Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ" (1:1), and the early church accepted all three Pastoral Letters as his. Many modern scholars think a follower wrote them after his death, pointing to differences in words and style, a church order they think came later, and events that do not fit into Acts. I take the letter at its word. It speaks of Paul's own past as a persecutor (1:12-16), names real people (1:20), and gives personal advice no forger would think to add, like a little wine for Timothy's stomach (5:23). A change of subject and readers explains a change of words.

Acts ends with Paul under house arrest in Rome (Acts 28:30-31). Many teachers, going back to the early church, believe he was released, traveled again, and was later arrested a second time and put to death in Rome. The travels in the Pastoral Letters (1:3; Titus 1:5; 3:12) fit best between the two imprisonments. Paul wrote after leaving Timothy in Ephesus and going on to Macedonia, most likely about A.D. 62 to 64. The closing note in the SLB naming Laodicea was added by later copyists.

Background and Setting

Timothy was from Lystra in Galatia, the son of a Jewish believing mother and a Greek father (Acts 16:1-3). His grandmother Lois and mother Eunice taught him the Scriptures from childhood (2 Tim 1:5; 3:15). Paul took him along on the second journey, and he became one of Paul's closest helpers. He was still fairly young (4:12), and he seems to have been a little timid and often sick (5:23; 2 Tim 1:7).

Ephesus was a great city of the province of Asia, on the west coast of what is now Turkey, home to the famous temple of Artemis. Paul had spent about three years there (Acts 19:1-20; 20:31). Saying goodbye to its elders, he warned that wolves would come in and men would rise up among them speaking twisted things (Acts 20:29-30). By the time of this letter, that warning had come true. False teachers in the church were spreading myths and endless genealogies, forbidding marriage and foods, and treating godliness as a way to get rich (1:3-7; 4:1-3; 6:5).

Themes

Paul writes to stop the false teachers (1:3-7), to give the pattern for prayer, worship and church leadership (chapters 2 and 3), to guide Timothy in caring for the different groups in the church, widows, elders, slaves and the rich (chapters 5 and 6), and to strengthen Timothy himself to stay faithful (4:12-16; 6:11-14).

Sound, healthy teaching produces "love out of a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith" (1:5), while false teaching breeds arguments and pride. The church is God's household, and its leaders must be above reproach in life and home (3:1-13). Godliness takes training like an athlete's (4:7-8). "Godliness with contentment is great gain," but "the love of money is a root of all the evils" (6:6, 10). All through it, Paul tells Timothy to watch his life and his teaching (4:16), guard the deposit of the gospel (6:20), and "fight the good fight of the faith" (6:12).

Christ in 1 Timothy

"Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners," and Paul calls himself the foremost of them (1:15). There is "one mediator of God and men, the man Christ Jesus" (2:5), "who gave Himself as a ransom for all" (2:6). The mystery of godliness is Christ: "God was manifested in flesh, was justified in spirit, was seen by angels, was proclaimed among the Gentiles, was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory" (3:16). Before Pontius Pilate He "testified the good confession" (6:13), and His appearing will be shown in God's own time (6:14-15).

Hard Passages

The roles of women in the church (2:11-15) are read differently by godly teachers, some as a lasting limit on women teaching or exercising authority over men in the church, others as a word to a local problem in Ephesus. "Saved through the childbearing" (2:15) has three main readings. "The husband of one wife" (3:2, 12) is read several ways. "Women likewise" (3:11) may mean deacons' wives or women deacons. "Savior of all men, especially of believers" (4:10) does not teach that all will be saved. The slavery passage (6:1-2) is treated as in Ephesians. The notes name the main views and take no side where good teachers differ.

1 TIMOTHY

1 TIMOTHY 1

Greeting

1 Paul (Paulos), an apostle of Jesus (Iesous) Christ according to the command of God our Savior and the Lord Jesus Christ our hope, 2 to Timothy (Timotheos), my genuine child in faith: Grace, mercy, peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

Warning Against False Teachers

3 Just as I urged you to remain in Ephesus (Ephesos), as I was going into Macedonia (Makedonia), so that you might charge some not to teach different doctrine, 4 nor to give heed to myths and endless genealogies, which bring about questionings rather than the building up of God which is in faith. 5 Now the goal of the charge is love out of a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith, 6 from which some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to empty talk, 7 desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they are saying nor about what things they confidently assert. 8 Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, 9 knowing this, that law is not laid down for a righteous one, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, 10 for the sexually immoral, for men who lie with males, for enslavers, for liars, for perjurers, and if anything else is opposed to the sound teaching, 11 according to the gospel of the glory of the blessed God, with which I was entrusted.

Thanks for God's Mercy

12 And I have thanks for the One who strengthened me, Christ Jesus our Lord, that He considered me faithful, appointing me to the ministry, 13 though formerly being a blasphemer and a persecutor and an insolent man; but I was shown mercy, because being ignorant I did it in unbelief; 14 and the grace of our Lord abounded beyond measure,

1:13 Acts 8:3; John 9:39-41; Acts 3:17
1:14 2 Tim 1:13; 1 Pet 1:3; Acts 15:11

1:1 according to the command of God our Savior and the Lord Jesus Christ our hope An apostle is one sent with the sender's authority. Timothy knew Paul well, but this letter would be read to the church in Ephesus, where some taught against Paul's gospel, so everyone needed to know these instructions came from the Lord. God our Savior is a title Paul uses often in these three letters. Our hope is not a wish but a Person coming back for us.

1:2 to Timothy, my genuine child in faith: Grace, mercy, peace Genuine was used for a child born in lawful marriage. Timothy was Paul's true son in the faith (Phil 2:22). To his usual greeting Paul adds mercy, as in 2 Timothy. Grace is favor we did not earn, mercy is God withholding the punishment we did earn, and peace follows both. A young pastor in a hard city needs all three.

1:3 so that you might charge some not to teach different doctrine This trip to Macedonia is not in Acts, one reason many believe Paul was released from his first Roman imprisonment and traveled again. To charge is to give an order like a commander. Different doctrine is teaching of a different kind from the apostles'. The false teachers were in the church, perhaps elders, as Paul had warned (Acts 20:29-30). Error often starts on the inside.

1:4 nor to give heed to myths and endless genealogies We do not know exactly what these were. Many think they were Jewish legends spun from Old Testament family lists (Titus 1:14). Others think they were early forms of what was later called Gnosticism, secret knowledge about spiritual beings. Either way, they stirred up questions and arguments but built no one up. Some teaching today makes people curious and argumentative without making them more like Jesus.

1:5 the goal of the charge is love out of a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith Sound teaching is not cold. It aims at changed hearts. A pure heart is cleansed by God and set on Him (Matt 5:8). A good conscience is clean because we are not hiding sin. Sincere faith is faith without a mask. When the result of teaching is arguing and pride, something is wrong with the teaching.

1:6 from which some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to empty talk The picture is an archer whose arrow misses the target. Their teaching sounded deep but was hollow. If our teaching does not lead people toward love and a pure heart, we have turned aside too, however clever it sounds.

1:7 desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they are saying They wanted the title and respect. The Law is the Law of Moses. They were sure of themselves and wrong. One can speak with great confidence about the Bible and not understand it. Confidence is not the same as truth.

1:8 the law is good, if one uses it lawfully Paul is not against the Law, which is holy, righteous and good (Rom 7:12). A tool used wrongly can do harm. The false teachers used it for speculation, or perhaps as a ladder to climb up to God. That is not what it was given for.

1:9 law is not laid down for a righteous one, but for the lawless and insubordinate The Law shows sin for what it is and holds back evil. One made right with God by faith does not live under it as his way to God. Paul's list follows the Ten Commandments: first sins against God, then against parents, life, marriage, property and truth. Enslavers (1:10) were those who kidnapped people to sell them, stealing a human being (Exod 21:16). Sound means healthy. Sin is spiritual sickness.

1:11 according to the gospel of the glory of the blessed God, with which I was entrusted The Law shows we need a Savior, and the gospel tells us who He is. Blessed means happy, full of joy in Himself. God is not a gloomy judge looking for reasons to punish. The gospel was handed to Paul like a treasure to guard.

1:12 He considered me faithful, appointing me to the ministry Paul never spoke of his ministry without thanking Jesus for it. Jesus did not wait until Paul earned it. He chose a man fighting against Him and trusted him with the work. Everyone who serves the Lord does it because He put us there and strengthens us.

1:13 though formerly being a blasphemer and a persecutor and an insolent man A blasphemer spoke against God, a persecutor hunted believers and voted for their deaths (Acts 8:3; 26:9-11), and an insolent man was violent and proud. Ignorance did not make Paul innocent, but he sinned without understanding who Jesus was, not with open eyes. God had mercy on him in his blindness, as Jesus prayed for those who crucified Him (Luke 23:34).

1:14 the grace of our Lord abounded beyond measure Overflowing, too much to measure. Paul's sin was great, but grace was greater (Rom 5:20). Grace turned his unbelief to faith and his hatred to love for the people he had hunted. Grace does not only forgive us. It changes us.

with faith and love which are in Christ Jesus. 15 Faithful is the word and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am foremost. 16 But because of this I was shown mercy, that in me, the foremost, Jesus Christ might display all His patience as a pattern for those who were going to believe on Him for eternal life. 17 Now to the King of the ages, incorruptible, invisible, only wise God, be honor and glory to the ages of the ages. Amen.

Fight the Good Fight

18 This charge I commit to you, child Timothy, according to the prophecies that went before concerning you, that by them you may wage the good warfare, 19 holding faith and a good conscience, which some, having thrust away, have suffered shipwreck concerning the faith, 20 among whom are Hymenaeus (Hymenaios) and Alexander (Alexandros), whom I handed over to Satan, so that they may be disciplined not to blaspheme.

1 TIMOTHY 2

Prayer for All People

1 I exhort, therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made on behalf of all men, 2 for kings and all those who are in authority, so that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and dignity. 3 For this is good and acceptable before God our Savior, 4 who desires all men to be saved and to come to the full knowledge of the truth. 5 For there is one God, and one mediator of God and men, the man Christ Jesus (Iesous), 6 who gave Himself as a ransom for all, the testimony in its own times, 7 for which I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am speaking the truth in Christ, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Men and Women in Worship

8 I desire, therefore, the men to pray in every place, lifting

1:15 Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am foremost The first of five faithful sayings in these letters (3:1; 4:9; 2 Tim 2:11; Titus 3:8), short sayings the church knew, each stamped true. Came into the world means He existed before His birth. He came not only to teach or set an example but to save sinners. Paul says I am, not I was. The closer he walked with Jesus, the more he saw his sin. If you think you are too far gone, remember Paul.

1:16 that in me, the foremost, Jesus Christ might display all His patience as a pattern Paul's life was a display case of God's patience in the worst sinner. Pattern means an artist's first sketch before the full painting. Paul's salvation was the sketch of what God would do for countless others. No one still living is beyond His reach.

1:17 Now to the King of the ages, incorruptible, invisible, only wise God A doxology, a short word of praise. He rules every age past and to come. He cannot decay or die. No one has seen Him in full glory (John 1:18). There is no other God and no wisdom like His. Good doctrine should always lead us to praise.

1:18 according to the prophecies that went before concerning you, that by them you may wage the good warfare The charge is the work of verse 3. Likely when Timothy was set apart, God spoke through prophets about him (4:14). Scripture does not say what they said. Ministry is a war, not against people but against error, sin and the devil (Eph 6:12).

1:19 holding faith and a good conscience, which some, having thrust away, have suffered shipwreck concerning the faith Faith likely means both trust in Christ and the truth believed, and a good conscience is living it with nothing hidden. A ship hits the rocks and breaks apart. When a person keeps doing what he knows is wrong, his beliefs soon drift. Many who leave the faith did not start with doubts but with sin they would not give up.

1:20 Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I handed over to Satan Hymenaeus taught that the resurrection had already happened (2 Tim 2:17-18). An Alexander appears in 2 Timothy 4:14, perhaps the same man. Handing over to Satan was putting someone out of the church's fellowship into the world where Satan rules (1 Cor 5:5). Some think it may have involved physical affliction. The goal was to teach them to stop blaspheming and bring them home.

2:1 that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made on behalf of all men Therefore ties this to chapter 1. The first weapon against false teaching is prayer, and first of all can mean first in importance. Petitions come from a sense of need, prayers is the general word, intercessions are for others, and thanksgivings are gratitude. The church should pray every way it can, for everyone, perhaps correcting false teachers who thought only a select few could know God.

2:2 for kings and all those who are in authority The emperor was most likely Nero, who would later persecute Christians. Paul still says pray for him. A peaceful land gives the church room to live godly lives and spread the gospel. Praying for leaders is not agreeing with all they do. Do you pray for those who lead your city and country, even the ones you did not vote for?

2:4 who desires all men to be saved and to come to the full knowledge of the truth Praying for all pleases God our Savior (2:3), for this is His heart toward the lost (Ezek 33:11; 2 Pet 3:9). No one is saved apart from the truth of the gospel. Some read all men as every person without exception. Others read it as all kinds of people, kings and commoners, Jews and Gentiles. Both agree the church must pray for and preach to everyone.

2:5 one mediator of God and men, the man Christ Jesus One God means He is God of Jews and Gentiles alike (Rom 3:29-30). A mediator stands between two parties to bring them together. Jesus is fully God, so He can reach God, and fully man, so He can reach us. He was not an angel who only looked human. No priest, saint, angel or church can stand between you and God. Jesus is enough, and the only way (John 14:6; Acts 4:12).

2:6 who gave Himself as a ransom for all A ransom is the price paid to free a captive. Jesus gave not money but Himself, taking our place (Mark 10:45). For all shows the reach of His work and the offer that goes to all. His death came at the time God planned (Gal 4:4), and now the testimony goes out in God's timing.

2:7 I was appointed a herald and an apostle, a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth A herald went ahead of a king to announce his message in public. The one Mediator gave Himself for all, so God sent a man to tell all, especially the Gentiles (Gal 2:7-9). Paul adds an oath, "I am speaking the truth in Christ, I am not lying," aimed at those in the church who doubted his calling.

2:8 the men to pray in every place, lifting up holy hands without anger and disputing In every place likely means every gathering of believers around Ephesus. Lifting the hands was a common way to pray (Ps 28:2; 134:2), but the point is that the hands are holy, from clean lives. The men seem to have been arguing, likely over the false teaching. You cannot lift holy hands while angry with your brother (Matt 5:23-24).

puffed up, he fall into the judgment of the devil. 7 And he must also have a good testimony from those outside, so that he may not fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

3:7 2 Cor 8:21; 2 Tim 2:26; 1 Cor 10:32

2:9 to adorn themselves in respectable apparel with modesty and self-control, not with braided hair or gold or pearls Wealthy Roman women piled their hair high, woven with gold and jewels, to show off wealth and draw the eye. Paul is not listing forbidden hairstyles. A believing woman should not dress to put her wealth or body on display (1 Pet 3:3-4). Modesty is not calling attention to oneself.

2:10 which is fitting for women professing reverence for God, through good works A woman who claims to worship God shows it best by how she serves others. This applies to all of us. What do people notice first about you, what you wear and own, or how you treat people? Clothes wear out. Good works for the Lord last forever.

2:11 Let a woman learn in quietness in all submission Paul commands that women learn, no small thing when many women were not taught the Scriptures and some rabbis would not teach them. Quietness is a settled spirit, a different word from the silence of 1 Corinthians 14:34 and the same root as the quiet life of verse 2. Submission is under the order God set in the church. All agree this lifts women up as learners. They differ on how far the quietness reaches.

2:12 I do not permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man That is what the text plainly says. Exercise authority is authentein, a rare word found only here in the New Testament. Many believe this applies to all churches in all times, reserving the office of pastor or elder and the teaching of the gathered church for qualified men, while women serve in many ways, including teaching women and children (Titus 2:3-4). Some draw the line only at the office of elder. Others believe Paul addressed a local problem in Ephesus, where some women were drawn in by false teachers (5:13-15; 2 Tim 3:6-7), and read authentein as seizing or domineering authority. All agree men and women are equal in worth (Gal 3:28), and women in Scripture prayed, prophesied and spread the gospel (Acts 18:26; Rom 16:1-3). Each church must study this with 1 Corinthians 11 and 14 and apply it with a clear conscience.

2:13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve Paul's reason points not to the culture of Ephesus but to creation before the fall (Gen 2:7, 21-22). Those who see verse 12 as for all times see this as the key. Those who see it as local reply that Paul uses Adam and Eve as an example to correct women being led astray. In the Lord man and woman depend on each other (1 Cor 11:11-12).

2:14 Adam was not deceived, but the woman, having been deceived, has come into transgression The serpent deceived Eve (Gen 3:1-6, 13). Adam sinned with open eyes, and Paul lays the blame for sin entering the world on him (Rom 5:12). Some see God's order reversed in the garden. Others see a picture of women in Ephesus deceived by false teachers. Paul is not saying women are less intelligent or more sinful than men.

2:15 she will be saved through the childbearing, if they remain in faith and love and sanctification with self-control One of the hardest verses in Paul. It cannot mean earning salvation by having children, for Jesus is the only Mediator and we are saved by grace through faith (Eph 2:8-9), and many godly women never have children. Some see the childbearing as the birth of Christ, the promised Seed (Gen 3:15). Others read saved as kept safe through childbirth, the pain that came with the fall (Gen 3:16). Others see a woman working out her salvation in her God-given calling. What is plain is the condition: real faith keeps going.

3:1 if anyone aspires to the office of overseer, he desires a good work The second faithful saying. Overseer is episkopos, which some older Bibles render bishop. The same men are called elders, for their maturity, and shepherds or pastors, for their work (Acts 20:17, 28; Titus 1:5-7; 1 Pet 5:1-2). It is good to want it, but it is a good work, not a high position, a hard job. A man should want it to serve God's people, not for a title.

3:2 the overseer must be above reproach, the husband of one wife Above reproach heads the list. It means no open, ongoing sin others can fairly point to, not sinlessness. The Greek reads a one-woman man. Some read it as ruling out polygamy, some as ruling out divorce and remarriage, some as faithful to his wife whatever his past before Christ, and a few as requiring marriage. Most agree a married overseer must be fully faithful to his wife. Hospitable is a lover of strangers. Able to teach is the one skill on the list, to explain and defend God's Word (Titus 1:9).

3:3 not given to wine, not a striker, not greedy for shameful gain Not a drinker, not quick with his fists, not using the ministry to make money. He must be gentle and willing to yield, not a lover of a fight or of money. A man who loves money will bend the truth to keep the giving up. A shepherd who is gentle and content can tell people the truth.

3:4 managing his own household well, having children in submission with all dignity A man's home is the testing ground for his leadership. With all dignity likely describes how he leads, with respect and not harshness. Take care of the church (3:5) is the word used of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:34-35). Leading a church is caring for people, and a man who has not led his own small family with love will not lead God's larger one well.

3:6 not a new convert, lest, having been puffed up, he fall into the judgment of the devil New convert means newly planted. Pride is the danger of a new believer given a high place too soon. The judgment of the devil is most likely the judgment the devil fell into through pride. A gifted new believer may look ready, but character takes time. Churches should not rush people into leadership because they are talented or well known.

3:7 he must also have a good testimony from those outside Neighbors, coworkers, business partners. Does he pay his bills, keep his word, work honestly? A leader with a bad name in town gives the devil a trap to bring shame on Christ. The life a man lives outside the church matters as much as what he does inside it.

Qualifications for Deacons

8 Deacons likewise must be dignified, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy for shameful gain, 9 holding the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience. 10 And let these also be tested first; then let them serve, being blameless. 11 Women likewise must be dignified, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things. 12 Let deacons be husbands of one wife, managing their children and their own households well. 13 For those who have served well acquire for themselves a good standing and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus (Iesous).

The Household of God

14 These things I am writing to you, hoping to come to you sooner; 15 but if I delay, I write so that you may know how one must conduct oneself in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. 16 And confessedly great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifested in flesh, was justified in spirit, was seen by angels, was proclaimed among the Gentiles, was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory.

1 TIMOTHY 4

A Warning About Apostasy

1 But the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and teachings of demons, 2 in the hypocrisy of liars, having been seared in their own conscience, 3 forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods which God created for receiving with thanksgiving by those who are faithful and have come to know the truth. 4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, being received with thanksgiving; 5 for it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer.

Train Yourself for Godliness

4:6 Col 4:7; Col 3:16; 1 Tim 1:10

3:8 Deacons likewise must be dignified, not double-tongued Deacon means servant. Many see the beginning of the work in the seven who cared for widows so the apostles could give themselves to prayer and the Word (Acts 6:1-6). Double-tongued is saying one thing to one person and another to the next. A deacon hears much in many homes, and he often handled the church's money and gifts to the poor, so honesty was a must.
3:9 holding the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience A mystery is a truth once hidden and now revealed, here the gospel summed up in verse 16. A deacon need not be a preacher, but he must hold sound doctrine firmly, and his life must match it. A man who believes rightly but lives a double life is not fit to serve, however practical his gifts.
3:10 let these also be tested first; then let them serve, being blameless Also shows overseers were tested too. This is not a formal exam but a time of watching to see if character is real. Blameless means much the same as above reproach. Good churches take their time choosing leaders.
3:11 Women likewise must be dignified, not slanderers The Greek word means women and can also mean wives. Some see the wives of deacons, who would work beside them. Others see women who served as deacons, pointing to Phoebe, a diakonos of the church at Cenchrea (Rom 16:1), and to likewise, which also began the deacons' list. Slanderers is diabolos, the word for the devil, the great slanderer. Gossip is the devil's work.
3:12 Let deacons be husbands of one wife, managing their children and their own households well The same standards for home and marriage apply to deacons, with the same range of readings as in verse 2. No man must have a perfect family, for every family has struggles, but he must be faithful and caring in the home God gave him.
3:13 those who have served well acquire for themselves a good standing and great boldness in the faith Good standing likely means respect in the church and approval before God. Boldness is confidence in speaking of the faith and in drawing near to God. Faithful service in small things strengthens faith. God sees and honors it (Matt 25:21). Many of the most faithful saints serve quietly behind the scenes.
3:15 how one must conduct oneself in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth Paul hoped to come soon (3:14) but put this in writing, and God kept it for every church. This is the key verse of the letter. The church is God's family, belongs to the living God, and like a pillar holds up the truth for all to see and like a foundation keeps it steady. When a church stops teaching the truth, it stops doing its God-given job.
3:16 God was manifested in flesh Confessedly means beyond all doubt. The six lines may be an early hymn. The eternal Son became a man (John 1:1, 14), was shown righteous by the Spirit, above all in His resurrection (Rom 1:4), was watched by angels, preached to the nations, believed on, and taken up to reign (Acts 1:9-11). The SLB follows the Received Text in reading God. Most older copies read who, meaning Christ. No teaching rests on this verse alone. Jesus is plainly called God elsewhere (John 1:1; 20:28; Titus 2:13).
4:1 in later times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and teachings of demons The Spirit had spoken plainly, through prophets, through Jesus (Matt 24:10-12), and through men like Paul (Acts 20:29-30). The later times began with Christ's first coming and run until He comes again (Heb 1:2), and it will grow worse near the end (2 Tim 3:1-5). Behind false teaching is a real enemy who feeds people lies dressed up as religion (2 Cor 11:13-15).
4:2 in the hypocrisy of liars, having been seared in their own conscience A hypocrite was an actor wearing a mask. Seared is a hot iron on skin. A brand marked a slave as his master's, and burned skin goes numb. Both fit. When a person keeps saying no to the truth, his conscience hardens until he can lie without feeling it. Listen to your conscience while it is still tender.
4:3 forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods They called marriage and sex unholy and set rules about what the godly may eat. It looked spiritual, but Paul says it comes from demons, because it treats God's good gifts as evil. God created marriage (Gen 2:24), Jesus blessed it (John 2:1-11), and the food laws were fulfilled in Christ (Mark 7:19; Col 2:16-17).
4:4 every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, being received with thanksgiving God called all He made very good (Gen 1:31). Sin spoiled the world but did not turn His gifts into evil. Some believers choose not to eat certain things or to stay single for the Lord, and that is fine (1 Cor 7:7; Rom 14:6). The error is making that choice a rule for everyone and calling it holiness.
4:5 it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer To sanctify is to set apart for God. His Word declares His gifts good, and our prayer of thanks receives them from His hand. This is a good reason to pray before meals, not to make food holy by magic words but to thank God for His gift.
4:6 you will be a good servant of Jesus Christ, being nourished in the words of the faith Timothy was to lay these truths before the church like a meal before a family. Servant is the word for deacon. To feed others he must first feed himself. A pastor not fed by God's Word soon has nothing to give, and that is true of every parent, teacher and group leader.

4:7 refuse the profane and old-womanish myths, and train yourself for godliness Profane means common, empty of anything holy. Old-womanish was a common saying for silly tales told to children. Paul is not insulting older women but calling the teaching childish nonsense. Train gives us gymnasium. Godliness takes discipline: the Word, prayer, worship, serving, saying no to sin. Grace saves us and also trains us (Titus 2:11-12).
4:8 bodily training is profitable for a little, but godliness is profitable for all things Paul is not against exercise, but it helps only for this life and only for a while. Godliness makes us better spouses, parents, workers and friends now, and it lasts into eternity. How much time do we spend on our bodies and hobbies, and how much training for godliness?
4:10 who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers The third faithful saying (4:9) may point back to verse 8 or forward to this verse. Toil is work until worn out. This cannot mean all will be saved, for those who reject Christ are lost (John 3:36). Some say God preserves and cares for every life and saves believers eternally. Others say Christ's death is enough for all and offered to all but saves those who believe. Either way, God is a saving God and the gospel is for everyone.
4:11 Command these things and teach them Not suggestions. Timothy was to command with apostolic authority and to explain so people understood. Commands without teaching can feel harsh. Teaching without commands can become a discussion that goes nowhere.
4:12 Let no one despise your youth, but be a pattern for the believers Timothy's age is not given, but after more than ten years with Paul (Acts 16:1-3) he was likely in his thirties, young for a leader correcting older men. He answers not by arguing but by living, in speech, conduct, love, spirit, faith and purity, especially toward women (5:2). Young believers, you need not wait to be an example.
4:13 give heed to the reading, to the exhortation, to the teaching The three main parts of a church meeting. The reading is the public reading of Scripture, as in the synagogue, when few owned a copy. Exhortation is preaching that calls people to act on it. Teaching explains what it means. A church that does these three is doing what God asks.
4:14 Do not neglect the gift in you, which was given to you through prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the council of elders Likely the gift of preaching and teaching, which could be neglected and grow weak. When Timothy was set apart, God spoke through prophets (1:18) and the elders laid hands on him, showing the church recognized God's call and stood behind him. Paul's hands were on him too (2 Tim 1:6). Your gifts came from God for a reason. Use them.
4:15 so that your progress may be evident in all Ponder means to think deeply, to care for and practice. Be in them means give yourself wholly. Progress was used of an army cutting a path forward. Timothy need not be perfect, but the church should see him growing. Can others see you growing?
4:16 Give heed to yourself and to the teaching The whole job in one line, his life and his doctrine. Many leaders fell watching one and ignoring the other. Paul does not mean Timothy saves himself by works. By keeping on in the truth he would persevere, and God would use his faithful teaching to bring others to salvation and keep them in it.
5:1 Do not rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father, younger men as brothers Timothy had to correct people older than himself. He was to do it as a godly son speaks to his father, with respect, appealing rather than scolding. Exhort means to come alongside and urge. Younger men are equals, not subordinates. Younger women are to be treated as sisters, in all purity, with no hint of anything improper (5:2). The church is not a company or a club. It is a family.
5:3 Honor widows who are truly widows A widow then often had no government help and no way to earn a living. God's people were commanded to care for widows (Deut 14:28-29), and the church did from the start (Acts 6:1). Honor here includes support. But not every woman who lost her husband needed the church's help.
5:4 let them learn first to show godliness toward their own household and to give recompense to their parents Caring for an aging parent is godliness, not just a nice thing. Our parents cared for us when we could not, and when they need help it is our turn. This keeps the command to honor father and mother. The church should not have to do what a family can.
5:5 she who is truly a widow and left alone has hoped in God With no family to lean on, she trusts the Lord and prays night and day, like Anna in the temple (Luke 2:36-37). A godly widow can have a great ministry of prayer. The church should never think of such women as a burden. They often hold a church up.
5:6 she who lives in self-indulgence has died while living She lives for luxury and ease. She is breathing but spiritually dead. The church's gifts would only feed her self-indulgence. The words apply to anyone. A life spent chasing pleasure looks full outside and is empty inside.
5:7 command these things, so that they may be above reproach The same idea as for overseers (3:2). How a church handles money and care for the needy is watched by outsiders. If families neglected parents, or gifts went to women living for pleasure, Christ's name would be dragged through the mud.

above reproach. 8 But if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. 9 Let a widow be enrolled who is not less than sixty years old, having been the wife of one husband, 10 being borne witness to for good works: if she has brought up children, if she has shown hospitality to strangers, if she has washed the feet of saints, if she has relieved those being afflicted, if she has followed after every good work. 11 But refuse younger widows; for when they grow wanton against Christ, they desire to marry, 12 having judgment, because they have set aside their first faith. 13 And at the same time they also learn to be idle, going around the houses; and not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, speaking the things they ought not. 14 I desire, therefore, younger women to marry, to bear children, to manage the household, to give no occasion to the one who opposes us for reviling; 15 for already some have turned aside after Satan. 16 If any believing man or believing woman has widows, let that one relieve them, and let the church not be burdened, so that it may relieve those who are truly widows.

Honoring Elders

17 Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who toil in word and teaching. 18 For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it is threshing," and, "The worker is worthy of his wages." 19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder except on the evidence of two or three witnesses. 20 Rebuke those who sin before all, so that the rest also may have fear. 21 I solemnly testify before God and the Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ and the elect angels, that you keep these things without prejudice, doing nothing out of partiality. 22 Lay hands on no one quickly, nor share in sins of others; keep yourself pure. 23 No longer drink water only, but use a little wine because of your stomach and your frequent ailments. 24 The sins of some men are evident beforehand, going before them to judgment; but for some they also follow after. 25 Likewise also the good

5:8 if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever Among the strongest words in the letter. Even many unbelievers care for their families and know it is right. A professing Christian who neglects parents, wife or children falls below the people around him. Faith shows up in how we care for those closest to us.

5:9 Let a widow be enrolled who is not less than sixty years old, having been the wife of one husband The church seems to have kept a list of widows it supported, who may also have served by praying, visiting and helping. Sixty was past the age most women then remarried. Wife of one husband most take as a faithful wife. Washing the feet of saints (5:10) was a servant's humble work. A woman who served others all her life was to be served when alone.

5:11 But refuse younger widows; for when they grow wanton against Christ, they desire to marry Not refuse help, but refuse the list, which seems to have included a pledge to serve Christ without remarrying. A young widow might make it in grief and later, naturally, want a husband. Most read the first faith she sets aside (5:12) as that pledge. Some read it as falling from faith by marrying an unbeliever. Paul does not want young women making a vow they will likely break.

5:13 they also learn to be idle, going around the houses With nothing but time, idleness opens the door to gossip and meddling. Paul says the same of idle men (2 Thess 3:11). When we have too much free time and no purpose, our mouths often get us into trouble. Honest work is a gift from God.

5:14 I desire, therefore, younger women to marry, to bear children, to manage the household The normal path then for a young widow, giving her a home, a family and a place to serve. Manage the household means to rule the house. A wife and mother had real authority and real work. The one who opposes may be an enemy of the church or Satan himself (5:15). A godly home shuts the critic's mouth.

5:15 for already some have turned aside after Satan It had already happened, perhaps by falling in with the false teachers (2 Tim 3:6) or into immoral lives. Paul's rules come from care, not unkindness. Rules in the church that look strict are often there because someone got hurt before.

5:16 let the church not be burdened, so that it may relieve those who are truly widows A church has only so much money. When families do their part, the church can do much more for those with no one. When we take care of our own, we free the church to care for those who have nobody else.

5:17 Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who toil in word and teaching Many believe double honor means both respect and pay, as the next verse shows. Toil is work to weariness. Good preaching takes hours of study and prayer. A church should not expect its pastor to give all his time to the Word and leave him struggling to feed his family.

5:18 You shall not muzzle an ox while it is threshing The ox treading grain could eat some of it (Deut 25:4), the verse Paul used in 1 Corinthians 9:9. The second saying is Jesus' words in Luke 10:7. Many teachers believe Paul calls both the Scripture, already placing Jesus' teaching beside the Old Testament as God's Word.

5:19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder except on the evidence of two or three witnesses From the Law (Deut 19:15) and Jesus (Matt 18:16). Leaders are easy targets, and a pastor who corrects people makes enemies. If every rumor were treated as true, no leader could last. But this is no shield for real sin. Churches must take real reports seriously, especially of abuse, and also protect leaders from gossip and lies.

5:20 Rebuke those who sin before all, so that the rest also may have fear Most likely elders shown by witnesses to be sinning and continuing in it. A leader's sin hurts the whole church, so it is dealt with openly, and other leaders take sin seriously. A church that hides its leaders' sins to protect its name ends up losing both its name and its people.

5:21 before God and the Lord Jesus Christ and the elect angels, that you keep these things without prejudice Paul calls heaven as witness. The elect angels did not fall with Satan and watch the church (1 Cor 4:9; Eph 3:10). Prejudice is judging before the facts. Partiality is favoring someone for who they are, a friend or big giver. Every church needs leaders who judge fairly.

5:22 Lay hands on no one quickly, nor share in sins of others; keep yourself pure Laying on of hands set elders apart (4:14). Watch a man's life first, as with deacons (3:10). If Timothy put an unfit man in charge, he would share the blame when that man fell. The best way to prevent a scandal is to be careful who is put in charge.

5:23 use a little wine because of your stomach and your frequent ailments A personal note, one mark of a real letter. Timothy seems to have drunk only water, perhaps to set an example (3:3; 5:22), but water then often made people sick. A little is no permission to drink much. Many believers choose not to drink at all, a wise choice especially for those who have struggled with alcohol. Keeping pure does not mean neglecting your health.

5:24 The sins of some men are evident beforehand, going before them to judgment This ties back to choosing elders. Some sins are open, and others come to light later. Good works too, plain or quiet, will come out in time (5:25). The lesson is patience. Nothing is hidden from God, and one day all will be made known (1 Cor 4:5).

works are evident beforehand, and those that are otherwise are not able to be concealed.

1 TIMOTHY 6

Slaves and Masters

1 Let as many as are slaves under a yoke regard their own masters worthy of all honor, so that the name of God and the teaching may not be blasphemed. 2 And those who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believers and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

False Teaching and the Love of Money

3 If anyone teaches different doctrine and does not agree with sound words, those of our Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, and with the teaching according to godliness, 4 he has been puffed up, understanding nothing, but being sick about controversies and disputes about words, out of which come envy, strife, blasphemies, evil suspicions, 5 useless wranglings of men corrupted in mind and deprived of the truth, supposing godliness to be a means of gain. Withdraw from such. 6 But godliness with contentment is great gain. 7 For we brought nothing into the world, and it is evident that neither are we able to carry anything out. 8 But having sustenance and coverings, with these we will be content. 9 But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful desires, which plunge men into ruin and destruction. 10 For the love of money is a root of all the evils, which some, stretching after it, have been led astray from the faith and have pierced themselves with many pains.

Fight the Good Fight of the Faith

11 But you, O man of God, flee these things, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, meekness. 12 Fight the good fight of the faith; lay hold of eternal life, to which you were also called, and you confessed the good confession before many witnesses. 13 I charge you before God, who gives life to all things, and Christ Jesus, who testified the good confession before Pontius (Pontios) Pilate (Pilatos), 14 that you keep the commandment without stain, above reproach, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,

6:1 Let as many as are slaves under a yoke regard their own masters worthy of all honor Many in the church were slaves. Roman slavery came through war, debt or birth and differed from race-based American slavery, but it was still one person owning another, and often cruel. A yoke was the bar on an ox's neck, and Paul does not pretend it was easy. He wants their lives to make the gospel look good. These verses were later misused in America to defend slavery, while other Christians reading the same Bible fought to end it. Paul listed enslavers among the lawless (1:10) and told slaves to take freedom if they could (1 Cor 7:21).

6:2 those who have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are brothers A slave with a Christian master might think equality in Christ meant he need not work as hard. Paul says serve all the more, for the work blesses a beloved brother. Today this applies to anyone who works for someone else. A Christian boss is a reason to work harder, and whoever your boss is, you serve Christ (Eph 6:7).

6:3 does not agree with sound words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ Sound means healthy, and these are Jesus' own words. The test of any teaching is whether it agrees with Jesus and His apostles. True doctrine leads to godliness. If a teaching makes people proud, greedy or quarrelsome, it is not from God, however spiritual it sounds.

6:4 he has been puffed up, understanding nothing, but being sick about controversies and disputes about words Proud, yet knowing nothing. Sound teaching is healthy, and he is sick with a craving for arguments. Its fruit is envy, strife, slander and suspicion. A church full of arguing is a sign something has gone wrong.

6:5 supposing godliness to be a means of gain. Withdraw from such They used religion to make money, and some still promise health and wealth to anyone who gives enough. Paul's answer is short. Get away from them.

6:6 But godliness with contentment is great gain Paul turns their words around. Contentment is being satisfied with what God gives. Greek thinkers used the word for a man with enough within himself. For the believer it comes from having Christ (Phil 4:11-13). A godly life and a content heart are richer than a millionaire who always wants more.

6:7 we brought nothing into the world, and it is evident that neither are we able to carry anything out We come with empty hands and leave the same way (Job 1:21; Eccl 5:15). Why give our lives to chasing what we cannot keep? The only treasures we carry into eternity are stored up in heaven (Matt 6:19-21).

6:8 having sustenance and coverings, with these we will be content Food and clothing, perhaps shelter too. This is no rule that Christians must be poor, for Paul speaks to the rich in verses 17-19. It is a call to measure life by what we need, not by what we want or others have. Do we thank God for what we have?

6:9 those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare The problem is not having money but setting the heart on getting rich. That desire tempts us to do wrong and traps us before we know it. Plunge pictures a man pulled under and drowned. Many have lost marriages, health, honesty and faith in the chase.

6:10 the love of money is a root of all the evils Paul does not say money is evil, but loving it. It is a root of many kinds of evil, not the only root of every sin. Stretching after it pictures a man reaching to grab, wandering from the faith as he reaches, and wounding himself. Does money have too much hold on my heart?

6:11 But you, O man of God, flee these things, and pursue righteousness Man of God was a title for Moses, Elijah and the prophets, one who belongs to God and speaks for Him. Paul says what to run from and what to run toward. Meekness is strength under control. The Christian life is always running from sin and toward Christ.

6:12 Fight the good fight of the faith; lay hold of eternal life Fight gives us agony, an athlete's hard contest. Timothy had eternal life, and Paul tells him to grab hold of it daily. The good confession likely points to his baptism or his setting apart, when he confessed that Jesus is Lord. Remember the day you first confessed Christ, and live up to it.

6:13 Christ Jesus, who testified the good confession before Pontius Pilate God gives life to all things, so Timothy need not fear death. Before the governor who sentenced Him, knowing what was coming, Jesus did not back down but said He was a king come to testify to the truth (John 18:36-37). That is the example when pressure comes.

6:14 that you keep the commandment without stain, above reproach, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ The commandment is likely the whole charge of this letter, the gospel and the life that fits it. Our faithfulness has an end point. One day Jesus will come for His church (1 Thess 4:16-17), and every believer will give account of how we served (2 Cor 5:10). Some apply this word for appearing to His visible return at the end of the Tribulation.

15 which He will display in His own times, the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of those who reign as kings and Lord of those who rule as lords, 16 who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no one of men has seen or is able to see, to whom be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

Charge to the Rich

17 Charge those who are rich in the present age not to be high-minded nor to have set their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but in the living God, who provides us all things richly for enjoyment, 18 to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, ready to share, 19 storing up for themselves a good foundation for the future, so that they may lay hold of eternal life. 20 O Timothy (Timotheos), guard the deposit, turning aside from the profane empty babblings and contradictions of the falsely called knowledge, 21 which some, professing, have missed the mark concerning the faith. The grace be with you. Amen.

6:20 Rom 3:2; 2 Tim 3:14; Col 2:8,18
6:21 2 Tim 2:18; 1 Tim 6:10; 1 Tim 1:6,19

6:15 the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of those who reign as kings and Lord of those who rule as lords God has set the day and will show it when He chooses (Acts 1:7). There is only one Sovereign, and every earthly ruler is under Him. Revelation gives Jesus this title at His return to reign (Rev 19:16). Roman emperors claimed to be lords and even gods. They answer to Him.
6:16 who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light Only God has life in Himself that never began and cannot end. His glory is so bright no sinner could come near and live (Exod 33:20). We know Him through His Son (John 1:18). When we see how great God is, our fears and our money look very small.
6:17 to have set their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but in the living God, who provides us all things richly for enjoyment Riches belong to the present age and do not last into the next. High-minded is thinking oneself better for having more. Money can be gone in a day. God is not against enjoying His gifts. He gives them to enjoy, but wants us to trust the Giver. By the standards of most of the world, many of us are the rich.
6:18 to be rich in good works, to be generous, ready to share A play on rich. Be richer in good works than in money. Ready to share is a heart quick to see a need and meet it. God blesses some with more so they can bless others. Money in a generous believer's hands becomes a tool for God's kingdom.
6:19 storing up for themselves a good foundation for the future, so that they may lay hold of eternal life By giving, the rich store treasure in heaven, a foundation that will not crumble (Matt 6:20). This is not buying eternal life, which is a free gift. A person who gives freely shows a heart set on eternity and grabs hold of the life that really is life.
6:20 O Timothy, guard the deposit You can hear Paul's heart. A deposit was something valuable left for safekeeping. It is the gospel God gave Paul and Paul gave Timothy, not to be changed, added to or lost. Knowledge is gnosis. A movement called Gnosticism later grew up claiming secret knowledge for a few. Paul says it is falsely so called, empty noise.
6:21 which some, professing, have missed the mark concerning the faith. The grace be with you Paul ends where he began (1:6), with a final warning. In the Received Text the you is singular, a last word to Timothy. Many older copies have the plural, for the whole church. Either way his last word is grace, for everything Timothy had to do he could only do by grace. The closing note that the letter was written from Laodicea was added by later copyists.

2 TIMOTHY

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for the man it is written to, Timothy, Paul's "beloved child" (1:2). It is the second of the three Pastoral Letters, with 1 Timothy and Titus, and most Bible teachers believe it is the last letter Paul ever wrote. It is a different kind of letter from 1 Timothy. It is not mainly about how to run a church. It is a father's last words to his son, written from a Roman prison by a man who knew he would soon be put to death.

Author and Date

The letter opens with "Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ" (1:1). As with 1 Timothy, the early church received it as Paul's, and many modern scholars doubt it for the same reasons of style and setting. I take the letter at its word. It is the most personal of all Paul's letters, full of names, memories, tears, and small requests: bring my cloak, bring the books, come before winter (4:13, 21). Those are the marks of a real man writing in a real prison.

Paul wrote from Rome (1:17). The early church remembered that he was put to death there under the emperor Nero, who persecuted Christians after the great fire of Rome in A.D. 64. Most who hold that Paul wrote it date the letter about A.D. 66 to 67, from his second imprisonment, shortly before his death.

Background and Setting

Many Bible teachers, going back to the early church, believe Paul was released from the house arrest described at the end of Acts, traveled and preached for a few more years, and was then arrested again. This second imprisonment was very different from the first. In Acts 28 Paul lived in his own rented house and welcomed visitors. Now he is chained like a criminal (1:16; 2:9), friends had to search hard to find him (1:17), and he has already had a first hearing in court where no one stood with him (4:16). Most of his friends have left him, the cell is cold, and he expects to die (4:6).

Timothy was likely still leading the church in Ephesus or nearby. Paul reminds him of the faith of his grandmother Lois and his mother Eunice (1:5), of the day Paul laid hands on him (1:6), and of the persecutions Timothy saw Paul endure in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra (3:11). Timothy seems to have been timid at times, and Paul writes to stir him up and strengthen him, and to call him to come quickly (4:9, 21).

Themes

Paul is passing the torch. He urges Timothy not to be ashamed of the gospel or of Paul His prisoner (1:8), for "God has not given us a spirit of cowardice, but of power and of love and of self-control" (1:7). Timothy must suffer hardship as a good soldier, and hand the truth on: "commit these to faithful men, who will be sufficient to teach others also" (2:2). He must be "a worker not needing to be ashamed, cutting straight the word of truth" (2:15).

Difficult times are coming, when people will have a form of godliness without its power and will heap up teachers who tell them what they want to hear (3:1-5; 4:3-4). The answer is Scripture. "Every Scripture is God-breathed and profitable" (3:16), able to make a person wise for salvation and fully equipped for every good work. So Timothy must preach the word, in season and out of season (4:2). Paul ends looking back on his life and ahead to his reward: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith" (4:7).

Christ in 2 Timothy

Christ Jesus "abolished death and brought life and incorruptibility to light through the gospel" (1:10). Paul calls Timothy to "remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, of the seed of David" (2:8), the risen King who keeps His promises. Even when we are faithless, He remains faithful (2:13). He stood by Paul when everyone else left (4:17). And He is the righteous Judge who will give the crown of righteousness to all who have loved His appearing (4:8). For His church that appearing is the blessed hope, when He comes for His own, and after the Tribulation He will return to the earth and reign in His kingdom (4:1).

Hard Passages

What Paul's "deposit" is (1:12) can be read two ways. Some have used the prayer for Onesiphorus (1:16-18) to support prayers for the dead, though the text does not say he had died. The warning "if we deny Him, He also will deny us" (2:12) is read in three main ways. Jannes and Jambres (3:8) are named from Jewish tradition, not from Exodus. "The mouth of a lion" (4:17) has several readings. The notes name the main views.

Outline

I. Strength for the Struggle (1:1-2:26)
  A. Greeting and thanks for Timothy's faith (1:1-7)
  B. Do not be ashamed of the gospel (1:8-14)
  C. Deserted by many, refreshed by one (1:15-18)
  D. Be strong in grace: soldier, athlete, farmer (2:1-13)
  E. A worker approved and a vessel for honor (2:14-26)
II. Faithful to the End (3:1-4:22)
  A. Difficult times in the last days (3:1-9)
  B. Hold to the God-breathed Scriptures (3:10-17)
  C. Preach the word (4:1-5)
  D. Paul's finished race (4:6-8)
  E. Personal words and final greetings (4:9-22)

1:1 according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus Paul is in chains and about to die, yet he does not doubt his calling, which God gave and a prison cell could not change. Writing from death row, the first thing he mentions is life. The life Jesus promises is not ended by an executioner. Whatever you face today, the promise of life in Christ is still true.
1:2 to Timothy, my beloved child In 1 Timothy it was my genuine child. Here it is beloved. This letter is warmer and more personal, written to the young man Paul loved like a son, knowing it may be the last time. Grace, mercy and peace again, and Timothy would need all three.
1:3 whom I serve from my forefathers with a pure conscience Paul served the God of his Jewish ancestors. Faith in Christ was not a new religion but the fulfillment of the faith of Abraham, Moses and David (Acts 24:14). Condemned as a criminal, he had nothing to hide before God. He could no longer preach in the marketplace, but he could pray for Timothy night and day. Who is praying for you like that, and for whom are you praying?
1:4 longing to see you, having remembered your tears They likely parted in tears, perhaps at Paul's arrest. The great apostle admits he missed his friend. Paul was not a cold man who cared only about doctrine. There is no shame in weeping or longing for company. Jesus wanted His friends near in His hour of sorrow (Matt 26:38).
1:5 the sincere faith in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice Sincere means without a mask. Timothy's father was a Greek and, as far as we know, not a believer (Acts 16:1). His Jewish mother and grandmother trusted God, later trusted Christ, and taught him the Scriptures from childhood (3:15). They are not famous, but their faith shaped a great leader. If you are raising or teaching children, your quiet faithfulness matters more than you know.
1:6 to rekindle the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands A fire burned low, with coals that need stirring into flame. The elders laid hands on him too (1 Tim 4:14). Timothy had not lost the gift. Hard times, criticism and fear make us pull back. We do not need a new gift. We need to use the one God gave.
1:7 God has not given us a spirit of cowardice, but of power and of love and of self-control Timothy seems to have been timid by nature (1 Cor 16:10). Fear does not come from God. By His Spirit He gives power to do what He calls us to, love that drives out fear (1 John 4:18), and self-control, a sound mind that thinks clearly under pressure. You are not left to face hard things in your own strength.
1:8 do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me His prisoner The gospel is about a crucified Jew from Galilee, and to Romans the cross was the most shameful death. It took courage to call Him Lord, and to stand by a chained criminal. Paul is Christ's prisoner, not Nero's. He asks Timothy to suffer not in his own strength but by the power of God.
1:9 who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace God rescues us and calls us to a holy life. We are not saved because we were good enough but because God purposed it and gave grace we did not deserve (Eph 2:8-9; Titus 3:5). Before eternal times means before the world began. Our salvation was no afterthought.
1:10 who abolished death and brought life and incorruptibility to light through the gospel What God planned before time, He showed when Jesus came. Appearing here is His first coming, and elsewhere His coming again (4:1, 8). He did not stop believers from dying, but He broke death's power (1 Cor 15:54-57; Heb 2:14-15). Incorruptibility is life that cannot decay. Waiting for execution, Paul could write this in peace.
1:11 I was appointed a herald and an apostle and a teacher of the Gentiles Almost as in 1 Timothy 2:7. A herald announced the king's message in public, an apostle was sent with authority, and a teacher explained. We are not apostles, but every believer passes the message on, in a pulpit, a classroom, a kitchen or a workplace.
1:12 I know whom I have believed, and I have been persuaded that He is able to guard my deposit for that day Not what but whom. Paul's confidence was in a Person he knew. A deposit is something valuable left for safekeeping. Some read it as Paul's life and soul entrusted to Christ, others as the gospel Christ entrusted to Paul, which Christ would guard after Paul died. Both are true. That day is when Christ comes and rewards His servants (4:8).
1:13 Hold the pattern of sound words which you heard from me, in faith and love A pattern is a model, like an architect's drawing. Sound doctrine alone is not enough, for a man can hold right words with a cold heart. Truth without love is harsh, and love without truth is empty. Jesus was full of both (John 1:14).
1:14 Guard the good deposit through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us In verse 12 Christ guards what is entrusted to Him. Here Timothy guards what was entrusted to him, the gospel. He does not do it alone. The Spirit who lives in every believer gives understanding and strength. We keep the faith not by cleverness or courage but by depending on Him.

good deposit through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

Deserted and Refreshed

15 You know this, that all those in Asia turned away from me, among whom are Phygelus (Phygellos) and Hermogenes. 16 May the Lord grant mercy to the household of Onesiphorus (Onesiphoros), because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chain, 17 but having been in Rome (Hrome), he sought me very diligently and found me. 18 May the Lord grant to him to find mercy from the Lord in that day. And how much he served in Ephesus (Ephesos), you know very well.

2 TIMOTHY 2

Strong in Grace

1 You therefore, my child, be strong in the grace which is in Christ Jesus (Iesous), 2 and the things which you heard from me through many witnesses, commit these to faithful men, who will be sufficient to teach others also. 3 You therefore suffer hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. 4 No one serving as a soldier entangles himself in the affairs of life, so that he may please the one who enlisted him. 5 And also if anyone competes, he is not crowned unless he competes lawfully. 6 The farmer who toils must be first to partake of the fruits. 7 Consider what I am saying; for may the Lord give you understanding in all things. 8 Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, of the seed of David (Dabid), according to my gospel, 9 in which I suffer hardship even to chains as an evildoer; but the word of God has not been bound. 10 Because of this I endure all things for the sake of the elect, so that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. 11 Faithful is the word: for if we died with Him, we will also live with Him; 12 if we endure, we will also reign with Him; if we deny Him, He also will deny us; 13 if we are faithless, He remains faithful; He is not able to deny Himself.

2:12 Matt 10:33; Rom 8:17; Rev 20:4,6
2:13 Rom 3:3; Num 23:19; 2 Thess 3:3

1:15 all those in Asia turned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes Asia is the province around Ephesus. When Paul was arrested, the believers there pulled away, likely from fear, and all probably means those who could have helped. We know nothing else of these two, remembered only for turning away when Paul needed them. How will you be remembered?

1:16 he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chain The opposite picture. Refresh means to cool, to give fresh air, and Onesiphorus brought new life into Paul's dark cell. Rome was huge, and being seen with a condemned prisoner was dangerous, but he searched diligently until he found him (1:17). That is what love looks like.

1:18 May the Lord grant to him to find mercy from the Lord in that day As he showed mercy, may he find mercy when Christ judges and rewards His people. Paul greets his household (1:16; 4:19), and some think he had died. Some have used this verse to support prayers for the dead, but the text does not say he had died, and that is too much weight for one verse. He had served faithfully in Ephesus too.

2:1 be strong in the grace which is in Christ Jesus Therefore points back to chapter 1. Many turned away, but Onesiphorus stood firm, and Timothy must too. The Greek means to keep on being made strong. Grace is not only how we are saved but the power by which we live and serve. When we feel weak, His power is made perfect in weakness (2 Cor 12:9).

2:2 commit these to faithful men, who will be sufficient to teach others also Paul, Timothy, faithful men, and others: four generations in one verse. Paul is about to die and knows the gospel will not survive because of one great leader but as believers train other believers. Commit is the idea of the deposit in chapter 1. Who taught you the faith, and to whom are you passing it on?

2:3 suffer hardship as a good soldier of Jesus Christ The first of three pictures. A Roman soldier marched for miles, carried heavy gear, slept on the ground and faced death. Paul promises no easy road. A good soldier does not complain or run. If our Commander suffered for us, we should not be surprised when serving Him costs us.

2:4 No one serving as a soldier entangles himself in the affairs of life A soldier on duty cannot run a business on the side. His focus is his mission and pleasing his commander. Paul made tents himself, so he does not forbid jobs or families. He warns against getting so wrapped up in this life that we forget whom we serve.

2:5 he is not crowned unless he competes lawfully In the Greek games the winner was crowned with a wreath of leaves, but one who cut corners lost the prize however fast he ran. We serve God His way, with no shortcuts around holiness or truth. Paul returns to the crown in 4:8. God rewards faithfulness on His terms.

2:6 The farmer who toils must be first to partake of the fruits Farming is slow work: plow, plant, weed and wait. Hard work in God's service will bear fruit even if it takes long, and the one who labors in the Word should be supported by it (1 Tim 5:17-18). A soldier must be focused, an athlete disciplined, a farmer patient. Every believer needs all three.

2:7 Consider what I am saying; for may the Lord give you understanding in all things Paul leaves the pictures for Timothy to think through. God's Word is meant to be pondered, not skimmed. We read, study and think, and God opens our minds by His Spirit. Bible study is both work and prayer.

2:8 Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, of the seed of David When ministry gets hard, remember Jesus. He suffered and died but did not stay dead, so suffering is not the end of the story for His followers. He was a real man in David's royal line, the King God promised would reign forever (2 Sam 7:12-16).

2:9 I suffer hardship even to chains as an evildoer; but the word of God has not been bound Evildoer is the word used for the criminals crucified with Jesus (Luke 23:32). Rome could lock up the preacher but not the message. Paul's prison letters have been read for nearly two thousand years. Whatever limits you face, illness, age or prison, God's Word is not limited.

2:10 I endure all things for the sake of the elect Paul knew God would save His people and that He uses the preaching of the gospel to do it, so he would suffer anything to get the message out. Teachers who differ on how election works agree that God's choosing never makes evangelism unnecessary. It gives confidence that our preaching is not in vain.

2:11 if we died with Him, we will also live with Him The fourth faithful saying, and verses 11 to 13 may be an early hymn. At faith we were joined to Christ's death, and our old self died with Him (Rom 6:3-8). So we will share His resurrection life. For Paul in a cell awaiting execution, this was not theory. Death would bring him into life with Christ.

2:12 if we endure, we will also reign with Him; if we deny Him, He also will deny us Those who keep going will reign with Christ in His kingdom on the earth (Rev 20:4-6; 2:26-27). Jesus gave the same warning about denial (Matt 10:33). Some believe it describes people never truly saved. Others believe a believer can turn away and be lost. Others believe it means losing reward and the honor of reigning, not salvation. It is a serious warning. Peter denied the Lord three times and was restored (John 21:15-19). A moment of weakness is not a settled denial.

2:13 if we are faithless, He remains faithful; He is not able to deny Himself The pattern breaks. God's faithfulness does not depend on ours. Faithless here may mean weak in trust. God cannot lie (Titus 1:2) or go back on His word. Our hold on Him may be weak, but His hold on us rests on who He is.

A Worker Approved

14 Remind them of these things, solemnly charging them before the Lord not to quarrel about words, which is profitable for nothing, to the ruin of those who hear. 15 Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker not needing to be ashamed, cutting straight the word of truth. 16 But avoid the profane empty babblings; for they will advance to more ungodliness, 17 and their word will spread like gangrene; among whom are Hymenaeus (Hymenaios) and Philetus (Philetos), 18 who have missed the mark concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection has already taken place, and they are overturning the faith of some. 19 Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God stands, having this seal: "The Lord knew those who are His," and, "Let everyone who names the name of Christ depart from unrighteousness." 20 Now in a great house there are not only golden and silver vessels, but also wooden and earthen ones, and some for honor and some for dishonor. 21 If therefore anyone cleanses himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified and useful to the Master, prepared for every good work. 22 And flee youthful desires, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart. 23 And refuse foolish and uninstructed controversies, knowing that they breed quarrels. 24 And a slave of the Lord must not quarrel, but be gentle toward all, able to teach, patient when wronged, 25 in meekness disciplining those who oppose, if perhaps God may give them repentance to the full knowledge of the truth, 26 and they may return to soberness out of the snare of the devil, having been captured by him for the will of that one.

Difficult Times

1 But know this, that in the last days difficult times will be present. 2 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, 3 unloving, irreconcilable, slanderers,

2:14 not to quarrel about words, which is profitable for nothing, to the ruin of those who hear The false teachers loved fights over fine points that had nothing to do with godly living. Ruin gives us catastrophe, an overturning. Some arguments about the Bible matter greatly, but many are people wanting to win. Will this help anyone love God more?
2:15 Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker not needing to be ashamed, cutting straight the word of truth A good motto for every Bible student. Approved means tested and found true, like a coin weighed. A sloppy workman is ashamed when the boss inspects. Cutting straight pictures cutting a straight road or furrow. The teacher handles God's Word carefully and accurately, not twisting it, drawing out what the text says.
2:16 avoid the profane empty babblings; for they will advance to more ungodliness Profane means empty of the holy, and babblings sound important but have nothing in them. The false teachers thought they were going deeper. Paul says they were advancing into ungodliness. Wrong belief leads to wrong living, so Timothy must not give these ideas a platform.
2:17 their word will spread like gangrene; among whom are Hymenaeus and Philetus Gangrene is rotting flesh that spreads and kills healthy tissue. Hymenaeus was named in 1 Timothy 1:20, and it seems he had not repented. They likely taught that the resurrection was only spiritual and already past at conversion (2:18), with no bodily resurrection. Christ rose bodily, and so will we (1 Cor 15:12-20). False teaching does real harm to real people.
2:19 the firm foundation of God stands, having this seal False teachers come and go, but God's foundation, likely His true church built on Christ, is not shaken. The seal is like an inscription on a foundation stone, with two sides. The first echoes Numbers 16:5 at Korah's rebellion. God knows His own, and no false teacher can snatch them. The second calls those who name Christ to turn from sin. God's knowing gives security, and turning from sin gives evidence.
2:20 in a great house there are not only golden and silver vessels, but also wooden and earthen ones A wealthy home had fine gold and silver dishes for guests and plain wood and clay ones for everyday and dirty work. The great house is likely the visible church, where true believers and false teachers are mixed for a time.
2:21 he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified and useful to the Master Cleansing himself from these most likely means from the dishonorable vessels, the false teachers and their sin. God does not need gold vessels. He needs clean ones. Useful to the Master is one of the best things ever said of a believer. Is your life clean enough for Him to pick up and use?
2:22 flee youthful desires, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace Youthful desires include sexual temptation and also pride, impatience, love of arguments and wanting to be noticed. Do not stand and fight. Flee, as Joseph did (Gen 39:12). Then run toward the good, with others who call on the Lord from a pure heart. We are not meant to fight temptation alone.
2:23 refuse foolish and uninstructed controversies, knowing that they breed quarrels Foolish means senseless, and uninstructed means ignorant. A wise leader learns to tell a real question that deserves an answer from a debate that only causes trouble. Sometimes the godly thing is to refuse the bait.
2:24 a slave of the Lord must not quarrel, but be gentle toward all, able to teach, patient when wronged The Master does not want His slave fighting. Able to teach is the overseer's quality (1 Tim 3:2). A servant of God will be wronged, even by fellow believers, and must bear it without bitterness. These are the marks of one who has been with Jesus.
2:25 in meekness disciplining those who oppose, if perhaps God may give them repentance Correction is still needed, but with meekness, strength under control. Repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of life, and God gives it. We speak the truth gently, and God changes hearts. The devil had trapped them like drunk men in a snare (2:26). They thought they were free thinkers. Our goal is not to win an argument but to see them set free.
3:1 in the last days difficult times will be present The last days began with Christ's first coming and the pouring out of the Spirit, and we have lived in them ever since. The New Testament also says the end of this age will see a great falling away. "Difficult times" means hard, dangerous seasons, dangerous to the soul. Paul warns Timothy so he will not be surprised, and he expects Timothy to face such men himself (3:5).
3:2 lovers of self, lovers of money The list begins with love of self, and that may be the root of all the rest. Love of money comes right after; the two go hand in hand. Boastful people brag with their mouths, and arrogant people look down on others in their hearts. Disobedience to parents marks a society that has lost respect for authority.
3:3 unloving, irreconcilable, slanderers Unloving means without the natural affection family members have for each other. Irreconcilable describes people who will not make peace or keep their word. Slanderers translates diabolos, the word used for the devil. "Without love of good" goes past doing evil to hating what is good. This is what people become when they turn from God (Rom 1:28-32).

without self-control, savage, without love of good, 4 traitors, reckless, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, 5 having a form of godliness, but having denied its power. And turn away from these. 6 For out of these are those who sneak into the households and take captive the weak women burdened with sins, being led away by various desires, 7 always learning and never being able to come to a knowledge of the truth. 8 Now in the way that Jannes (Iannes) and Jambres (Iambres) opposed Moses (Moyses), so also these oppose the truth, men depraved in mind, disqualified concerning the faith. 9 But they will not advance further; for their folly will be plain to all, as that of those two also became.

Hold to the Scriptures

10 But you have closely followed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, endurance, 11 persecutions, sufferings, such as happened to me in Antioch (Antiocheia), in Iconium (Ikonion), in Lystra. What persecutions I endured! And out of them all the Lord delivered me. 12 And indeed all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus (Iesous) will be persecuted. 13 But evil men and impostors will advance to the worse, deceiving and being deceived. 14 But you, abide in the things which you learned and were assured of, knowing from whom you learned them, 15 and that from childhood you have known the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. 16 Every Scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training which is in righteousness, 17 so that the man of God may be complete, fully equipped for every good work.

3:15 2 Tim 1:5; 2 Pet 1:20,21; Prov 8:17
3:16 Rom 15:4; Heb 4:12; 2 Pet 1:19-21
3:17 Exod 35:29; Deut 33:1; Josh 14:6

3:4 lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God The list began with love and comes back to it. What we love most is what rules us. God is not against pleasure; He gives us all things richly to enjoy (1 Tim 6:17). The trouble comes when pleasure takes His place. Your calendar and your bank account will tell you what you love most.

3:5 having a form of godliness, but having denied its power These people are religious. They may attend church and use the right words, but it is only an outward shape, a shell. Real godliness has power to break sin's hold and make people more like Jesus. Like the leaders who honored God with their lips while their hearts were far from Him, they have the look of faith without its life. Timothy was to turn away from them.

3:6 sneak into the households and take captive the weak women burdened with sins The false teachers crept in quietly, like thieves. Paul is not saying all women are weak. He describes certain women in Ephesus, burdened with guilt and pulled by their own desires, who were easy targets. A person carrying unconfessed sin looks for relief, and false teachers offer it in the wrong places. The cure is real forgiveness in Christ.

3:7 always learning and never being able to come to a knowledge of the truth How can a person keep learning and never arrive? When the goal is curiosity and not obedience, information without change. This is a danger for any of us who love to study. Bible knowledge that does not lead us to know and obey Christ only puffs us up.

3:8 Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses The Old Testament does not name Pharaoh's magicians, who copied some of Moses' signs (Exod 7:11, 22). Jewish tradition named two of them Jannes and Jambres, and Paul, writing under the Holy Spirit, uses those names as the names of real men. Like them, the false teachers could imitate God's work for a while. Disqualified means tested and found worthless, like a coin that fails the test.

3:9 they will not advance further; for their folly will be plain to all God sets a limit. Pharaoh's magicians failed at the gnats and confessed it was the finger of God (Exod 8:18-19), and later could not even stand before Moses because of the boils (Exod 9:11). False teachers may seem to succeed for a time, but God will expose them. Truth outlasts error, and God is still on His throne.

3:10 But you have closely followed my teaching, conduct, purpose "But you" sets Timothy apart from the false teachers. He had walked with Paul for years and seen his life up close. Teaching comes first in the list, but it is not alone: conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love and endurance follow. The false teachers had words without a life to match. Paul had both, and that is the kind of teacher worth following.

3:11 in Antioch, in Iconium, in Lystra These cities were in Timothy's home region, and Lystra was his hometown (Acts 16:1-2). On the first journey Paul was driven out of Antioch, threatened in Iconium, and stoned and left for dead at Lystra (Acts 14:19). Paul did not escape suffering, but the Lord brought him through every time. Deliverance does not always mean avoiding pain; it means He carries us through and brings us safely home (4:18).

3:12 all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted Few of us want to claim this promise, but Jesus said the same: if they persecuted Him, they will persecute us. The word "all" means every believer, not only apostles. For some today persecution means prison or death; for others it means being mocked, left out, or passed over at work. When it comes, it is not strange. It is part of following Jesus.

3:13 evil men and impostors will advance to the worse, deceiving and being deceived An impostor is a fake, a con man; the word was used for sorcerers who deceived with tricks. Such men think they are making progress, but they are going downhill. The deceiver ends up deceived himself. This is one reason the world does not simply get better on its own. Without God, people go from bad to worse.

3:14 abide in the things which you learned and were assured of, knowing from whom you learned them Again "but you." While others drift, Timothy must stay put. He did not need new teaching; he needed to keep holding what he had learned. He knew who had taught him, his grandmother Lois, his mother Eunice, and Paul, and he had seen their faithful lives. The character of those who taught us the faith is one of God's gifts.

3:15 from childhood you have known the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus The sacred writings are the Old Testament, learned at the knee of his mother and grandmother. They point to Christ (Luke 24:27), showing our sin, God's holiness, and His promise of a Savior. Read with faith in Jesus, they make a person wise for salvation. Parents and grandparents, read the Bible to your children. God's Word plants seeds even in small hearts.

3:16 Every Scripture is God-breathed and profitable One of the most important verses in the Bible about the Bible. God-breathed (theopneustos) means Scripture came out of God's own mouth. God did not merely bless what men wrote; He breathed it out. The writers used their own words and styles, but the Holy Spirit carried them along so that what they wrote was exactly what God wanted (2 Pet 1:20-21). Think of a road: teaching shows us the road, reproof tells us when we have left it, correction gets us back on it, and training in righteousness keeps us on it.

3:17 so that the man of God may be complete, fully equipped for every good work Fully equipped was used of a ship fitted out for a voyage with everything it needs. Scripture equips us for every good work, not some. The Bible is enough. We need no new revelations or secret knowledge like the false teachers offered. If we want to be ready for what God calls us to do, we must be in His Word.

Preach the Word

1 I solemnly testify therefore before God and the Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, who is about to judge the living and the dead, according to His appearing and His kingdom: 2 preach the word; be ready in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all patience and instruction. 3 For there will be a time when they will not endure sound teaching, but according to their own desires they will heap up teachers for themselves, being tickled in the hearing; 4 and they will on the one hand turn away the hearing from the truth, but will be turned aside to the myths. 5 But you, be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, fully carry out your ministry.

Finishing the Race

6 For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. 7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 8 From now on there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me in that day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved His appearing.

Personal Words and Greetings

9 Be diligent to come to me quickly; 10 for Demas has deserted me, having loved the present age, and has gone to Thessalonica (Thessalonike); Crescens (Kreskes) to Galatia, Titus (Titos) to Dalmatia. 11 Luke (Loukas) alone is with me. Take Mark (Markos) and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for ministry. 12 But Tychicus (Tychikos) I have sent to Ephesus (Ephesos). 13 When you come, bring the cloak that I

4:13 Acts 16:8,11; 1 Cor 4:11; 2 Cor 11:27

4:1 who is about to judge the living and the dead, according to His appearing and His kingdom Paul gives his final charge as in a courtroom, with God and Christ as witnesses. Every person who has ever lived will stand before Christ. Jesus will appear. For His church that appearing is the blessed hope, when He comes for His own (Titus 2:13; 1 Thess 4:16-17). After the Tribulation He will return visibly to the earth and set up His kingdom, reigning a thousand years (Rev 19:11-16; 20:1-6). Timothy was to serve with that future in front of him.

4:2 preach the word; be ready in season, out of season This is the heart of the charge: not opinions, stories, or self-help, but God's Word, announced publicly like a herald. Preach when it is welcome and when it is not. To reprove is to show people their error and convince them; to rebuke is to warn sharply; to exhort is to encourage and urge on. Patience, because people change slowly; instruction, because they need teaching, not just scolding.

4:3 they will not endure sound teaching, but according to their own desires they will heap up teachers for themselves, being tickled in the hearing A time will come when people in the church cannot stand healthy doctrine. They will gather a pile of teachers who say what their itching ears want, with nothing about sin, judgment, or repentance. The hearers drive this. When people want comfortable lies, someone will always sell them. With more teachers available than ever, we must test what we hear by God's Word.

4:4 turn away the hearing from the truth, but will be turned aside to the myths First they turn their ears from the truth by choice; then they are turned aside. A person who rejects the truth does not stay neutral. He is carried off into error, whether old legends like those in Ephesus or modern ideas that promise what the gospel does not. When people stop listening to God, they will believe almost anything.

4:5 But you, be sober in all things, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist "But you" again (3:10, 14). Whatever others do, Timothy must stay clear-headed. Faithful ministry will cost him. Even as a pastor guarding a church, he must keep telling the good news to those who have not heard. "Fully carry out your ministry" means finish the job and do not quit halfway. That charge is for every one of us, in home, church, or work.

4:6 I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come Paul is about to die. A drink offering of wine was poured on the altar with the sacrifices (Num 15:1-10), and Paul sees his death as an offering poured out to God (Phil 2:17). Departure was used of a ship pulling up anchor or a soldier taking down his tent. Death is not the end but leaving one place for another: away from the body, at home with the Lord (2 Cor 5:8).

4:7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith Paul looks back on about thirty years of ministry. Like a wrestler, he had struggled hard through beatings, stonings, shipwreck, and prison (2 Cor 11:23-28). Like a runner, he kept going to the end. Like a guard keeping a treasure, he held on to the gospel and handed it on unchanged. Could you say these words if your life ended today? It is not too late to start living so that you can.

4:8 the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me in that day The crown was the wreath given the winner in the Greek games. Bible teachers read it either as a crown rewarding a righteous life or as a crown that is righteousness itself, made perfect at the end. Rome judged Paul unfairly, but the Lord is a righteous Judge who will reward His servants at the judgment seat of Christ (2 Cor 5:10). That judgment is about rewards for service, not salvation, and "that day" is the day Christ comes for His own.

4:8 to all who have loved His appearing The crown is not only for apostles but for every believer who longs for Jesus to come. Do you love His appearing? People who truly long for Christ's coming live differently today (1 John 3:2-3).

4:9 Be diligent to come to me quickly The letter turns personal. The apostle who had faced mobs and storms did not want to face death alone. That is not weakness; it is being human. He says it again in 4:21. We do not know whether Timothy reached Rome in time. A visit, a call, or a letter to someone dying or lonely can mean more than we know.

4:10 Demas has deserted me, having loved the present age Demas had been Paul's fellow worker in his first imprisonment (Col 4:14; Phlm 24). He did not leave because of a false teacher. He left because he loved this world's comfort and safety more than Christ's appearing (compare 4:8). That is a warning to us all. Crescens and Titus had not deserted; they had gone on missions. Dalmatia lay on the eastern coast of the Adriatic Sea.

4:11 Take Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for ministry Luke, the doctor who wrote the Gospel and Acts, stayed faithful to the end. Years before, Mark left Paul and Barnabas on the first journey, and Paul's refusal to take him again split the two men (Acts 13:13; 15:37-39). Now Mark is useful to him. Mark had grown, and Paul had forgiven. This is the Mark who wrote the Gospel. If you have failed in the past, God is not done with you.

4:12 Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus Tychicus was a trusted helper who carried the letters to the Ephesians and Colossians (Eph 6:21-22; Col 4:7-8). Paul may have sent him to take Timothy's place while Timothy traveled, and possibly to carry this letter. Even near death Paul made sure the churches were cared for. A good leader plans for the work to go on without him.

4:13 bring the cloak that I left in Troas with Carpus, and the books, especially the parchments Winter was coming and the cell would be cold. The great apostle needed a coat. The books were likely scrolls, and the parchments, written on costly, lasting animal skin, may have been copies of the Old Testament, though we cannot be sure. Facing death, Paul still wanted to read and study. How much more do we need to keep studying God's Word?

left in Troas with Carpus (Karpos), and the books, especially the parchments. 14 Alexander (Alexandros) the coppersmith showed me much evil; may the Lord repay him according to his deeds. 15 You also beware of him, for he has exceedingly opposed our words. 16 At my first defense no one stood with me, but all deserted me; may it not be charged to them. 17 But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the proclamation might be fully carried out, and all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of a lion. 18 And the Lord will deliver me from every evil deed and will save me into His heavenly kingdom; to whom be the glory to the ages of the ages. Amen. 19 Greet Prisca (Priska) and Aquila (Akylas), and the house of Onesiphorus (Onesiphoros). 20 Erastus (Erastos) remained in Corinth (Korinthos), but Trophimus (Trophimos) I left in Miletus (Miletos) sick. 21 Be diligent to come before winter. Eubulus (Euboulos) greets you, and Pudens (Poudes) and Linus (Linos) and Claudia (Klaudia) and all the brothers. 22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

4:21 2 Tim 4:9,13; 2 Tim 1:4; Rom 16:21-23
4:22 Gal 6:18; Phlm 1:25; Col 4:18

4:14 Alexander the coppersmith showed me much evil; may the Lord repay him according to his deeds A coppersmith was a metalworker. He may be the Alexander of 1 Tim 1:20, though we cannot be sure. Perhaps he testified against Paul or helped have him arrested. Paul is not taking revenge but leaving it with God, who judges rightly (Rom 12:19; Ps 62:12). We need not pretend a deep wrong did not happen, but we can hand it to the Lord.
4:15 he has exceedingly opposed our words Alexander's hostility was against the gospel Paul's team preached, not only against Paul. Leaving vengeance to God does not mean being naive. We can forgive someone and still be careful around him, especially while he is still doing harm. Paul trusts God with Alexander's judgment and warns Timothy to protect himself.
4:16 At my first defense no one stood with me, but all deserted me; may it not be charged to them Many Bible teachers take this as a first hearing in Paul's trial, since a Roman case could be heard more than once before a verdict. Not one friend spoke for him. Yet Paul prays for them, as Jesus prayed for those who crucified Him and Stephen for those who stoned him (Acts 7:60). Paul once watched Stephen die; now he speaks like Stephen. That is what grace does over a lifetime.
4:17 But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me When everyone else left, the Lord did not (Heb 13:5). Even at his trial Paul preached, and the message reached the center of the Gentile world. "The mouth of a lion" may picture great danger, as in Ps 22:21. Some believe he was spared literal lions, others that he escaped death at that hearing, and others that it points to Nero or to Satan. Whichever it means, God rescued him for a time.
4:18 the Lord will deliver me from every evil deed and will save me into His heavenly kingdom Paul knows he will die soon (4:6). He means God will keep him from every evil that could destroy his soul or turn him from Christ. The Lord might not save him from the executioner, but He would save him through death. Death would be the door into the Lord's presence, and from a Roman dungeon Paul praises God.
4:19 Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the house of Onesiphorus Prisca is the short form of Priscilla. She and Aquila were tentmakers who worked with Paul in Corinth, risked their lives for him, and taught Apollos the way of God more accurately (Acts 18:1-3, 26; Rom 16:3-4). After all these years they were still faithful. Paul also remembers the family of the man who searched Rome to find him (1:16-18).
4:20 Trophimus I left in Miletus sick Erastus had traveled with Paul and Timothy (Acts 19:22); an Erastus was also city treasurer of Corinth (Rom 16:23), though we cannot be sure he is the same man. Trophimus was from Ephesus (Acts 21:29). Paul had healed many, yet he left Trophimus sick. Healing was not his to do whenever he wished. God does not always heal in this life, even faithful people, and that does not mean they lack faith.
4:21 Be diligent to come before winter Most ships stopped sailing the Mediterranean in winter because of the storms (Acts 27:9-12). If Timothy waited, he could not come until spring, and that might be too late. Eubulus, Pudens, Linus, and Claudia were believers in Rome who still cared for Paul. Some early writers name a Linus as an early leader of the church in Rome, but we cannot be certain he is the same man.
4:22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen As far as we know, these are the last words Paul wrote. The first blessing is for Timothy; in Greek the second "you" is plural, for the whole church with him. Paul's life began in hatred for Christ and ended with grace on his lips. Tradition says he was beheaded in Rome not long after. The race was over and the crown was waiting. The closing note that the letter was written from Rome when Paul stood before Nero the second time was added by later copyists.

TITUS

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for the man it is written to, "Titus, my true child according to our common faith" (1:4). It is the third of the Pastoral Letters, with 1 and 2 Timothy, and it is very close in subject to 1 Timothy. It is a short letter with one big idea: true teaching produces a godly life. Paul tells Titus to appoint faithful elders, to silence false teachers, and to teach every group in the church how to live in a way that makes the gospel look beautiful.

Author and Date

The letter opens with "Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ" (1:1). As with the letters to Timothy, the early church received it as Paul's, and some modern scholars doubt it for the same reasons. I take the letter at its word. It names Paul, it names real coworkers and real travel plans (3:12-13), and it fits well with what we know of Paul's work with Titus.

Paul and Titus had worked together on Crete, and Paul left Titus there to finish the work (1:5). This fits best in the time after Paul's release from his first imprisonment in Rome. Paul planned to spend the winter in Nicopolis, most likely the city on the west coast of Greece (3:12). Most who hold that Paul wrote it date it about A.D. 62 to 64, around the same time as 1 Timothy.

Background and Setting

Titus was a Greek, a Gentile believer, and one of Paul's most trusted helpers. He went with Paul and Barnabas to Jerusalem, where the apostles did not make him be circumcised (Gal 2:1-3). Later Paul sent him to Corinth to deal with problems there, and Titus came back with good news that comforted Paul (2 Cor 7:6-7). Titus is not named in the book of Acts. By the time of 2 Timothy he had gone to Dalmatia (2 Tim 4:10).

Crete is a large island in the Mediterranean Sea, south of Greece. Paul's ship passed along its coast on the way to Rome (Acts 27:7-13), but Acts has no record of Paul preaching there. Some people from Crete were in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2:11), and they may have carried the gospel home. Cretans had a bad name in the ancient world, and Paul quotes one of their own writers: "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy bellies" (1:12). The young churches lacked leaders, and false teachers, "especially those of the circumcision" (1:10), were ruining whole households for money.

Themes

Paul wrote to set the churches of Crete in order by appointing elders in every city (1:5), to silence false teachers, to teach sound doctrine to each group in the church, older men and women, younger women and men, and slaves (chapter 2), and to remind believers that God saved them by His mercy so that they would devote themselves to good works (chapter 3). Good works run all through the letter. We are not saved by them, but we are saved for them.

Twice Paul stops to explain the gospel itself, and these two passages are among the clearest in the Bible. "The grace of God has appeared, which brings salvation to all men" (2:11). It trains us to live godly lives now and teaches us to wait for the blessed hope. And God saved us "not by works which we did in righteousness, but according to His mercy" (3:5), through the new birth the Holy Spirit gives.

Christ in Titus

Paul calls God "our Savior" and Christ Jesus "our Savior" side by side all through the letter (1:3-4; 2:10, 13; 3:4, 6), for the Father and the Son are one God. Titus 2:13 is one of the clearest statements in the Bible that Jesus is God: we are "awaiting the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ." The blessed hope is His coming for His church before the Tribulation, and after the Tribulation He will return visibly to the earth in glory to reign. He "gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from all lawlessness" (2:14), and through Him the Spirit is poured out richly on us (3:6).

Hard Passages

"Husband of one wife" (1:6) is read in several ways, as in 1 Timothy 3:2, and "faithful children" may mean believing or well-behaved. The instructions for younger wives (2:4-5) and for slaves (2:9-10) need careful reading in their setting. "The washing of regeneration" (3:5) is read in different ways, and some take it of baptism. The notes name the main views.

Elders for Every City

5 For this reason I left you in Crete (Krete), so that you might set in order the things lacking and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you: 6 if anyone is blameless, a husband of one wife, having faithful children not under accusation of debauchery or insubordinate. 7 For the overseer must be blameless as God's steward, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not given to wine, not a striker, not greedy for shameful gain, 8 but hospitable, a lover of good, sensible, righteous, holy, self-controlled, 9 holding firmly to the faithful word according to the instruction, so that he may be able both to exhort in the sound teaching and to reprove those who contradict.

False Teachers on Crete

10 For there are many and insubordinate empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, 11 whom it is necessary to silence, who overturn whole households, teaching things which they ought not, for the sake of shameful gain. 12 One of them, their own prophet, said, "Cretans are

1:10 Acts 20:29; Rom 16:17-18; 2 Cor 11:12-15
1:11 2 Tim 3:6; 1 Tim 6:5; Titus 1:9
1:12 Acts 17:28; Rom 16:18; 1 Tim 4:2

1:1 Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ This is the only place Paul calls himself a slave of God. A slave belongs completely to his master, and Paul saw himself as God's property, there to do His will, and as an apostle sent with Christ's authority. His work was to bring God's chosen people to faith and the knowledge of the truth. That truth is "according to godliness": true doctrine always leads to a godly life, the theme of the whole letter.

1:2 in hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before eternal times In the Bible hope is not a wish but a certainty that has not yet arrived. Cretans were known as liars (1:12), but God cannot lie. It is not only that He does not; it would go against His very nature (Heb 6:18). Eternal life for His people was not a backup plan but His purpose from before the world began (2 Tim 1:9).

1:3 in His own seasons He revealed His word in the proclamation with which I was entrusted At the right time God made His promise known, not through a secret vision to a few but through public preaching. Paul did not choose this work; it was entrusted to him. Paul calls God "our Savior" here and Christ Jesus "our Savior" in 1:4, and he does this all through Titus. The Father and the Son are both our Savior, because they are one God.

1:4 to Titus, my true child according to our common faith Titus was a Greek, a Gentile, and Paul was a Jew, but they shared a common faith. In Christ the old wall between Jew and Gentile had come down (Eph 2:14). "My true child" likely means Paul led him to Christ and trained him, and it shows how Paul loved the men he worked with. Crete was a hard place to serve, and Titus needed the same grace, mercy, and peace as Timothy.

1:5 I left you in Crete, so that you might set in order the things lacking and appoint elders in every city To set in order is to straighten out what is still crooked or missing. The young churches on Crete lacked leadership above all. Elders are mature men who lead and shepherd a local church, and the plural shows each church was to have more than one. Titus was carrying out the apostle's directions, not his own plan. A church without godly leaders must be set right before it can grow strong.

1:6 if anyone is blameless, a husband of one wife, having faithful children Blameless means no charge can fairly be brought against him; not sinless, but no open, ongoing sin. As in 1 Tim 3:2, Bible teachers read "husband of one wife" as no polygamy, no divorce and remarriage, a man faithful to his wife whatever his past, or a man who must be married. All agree a married elder must be fully faithful to his wife. Some read "faithful" children as believing, others as trustworthy and well-behaved. Either way, his home should show that he leads well.

1:7 the overseer must be blameless as God's steward Paul uses elder (1:5) and overseer here for the same man: two names for one office. Elder points to maturity, overseer to the work of watching over the church. A steward managed a household for its owner. The church belongs to God, and the elder will answer to Him for it. He must not be stubborn, short-tempered, a drinker, violent, or in it for the money.

1:8 hospitable, a lover of good, sensible, righteous, holy, self-controlled Hospitable means a lover of strangers, with an open home. Sensible is a man who thinks clearly and acts wisely. Holy is devoted to God, and self-controlled rules his desires instead of letting them rule him. Like the list in 1 Tim 3, most of this is everyday character, not great gifts. God cares more about what kind of man an elder is than how well he speaks.

1:9 holding firmly to the faithful word according to the instruction An elder must hold tight to the trustworthy gospel as the apostles taught it and not let go under pressure. He has two jobs with the Word: to exhort, building up the church with healthy teaching, and to reprove, refuting those who speak against the truth. A shepherd feeds the sheep and drives off the wolves, and he can do neither without knowing the Word well.

1:10 many and insubordinate empty talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision Crete needed strong elders because false teachers were many. They refused authority, were full of words with nothing in them, and led people astray. Those of the circumcision were likely Jewish professing believers who taught that Gentile Christians must be circumcised and keep the Law of Moses to be right with God. Paul fought this all his life (Gal 2:3-5; Acts 15:1-2). Salvation is by grace through faith in Christ.

1:11 whom it is necessary to silence, who overturn whole households To silence is to stop the mouth, like muzzling an animal. This does not mean force, but refusing them a platform and answering them with the truth. The churches met in homes, and these men were ruining whole families. Money was behind it, and false teachers have often been in it for the money, as they still are (1 Tim 6:5).

1:12 One of them, their own prophet, said Paul quotes, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy bellies." Many believe the words come from Epimenides, a poet and wise man of Crete who lived several hundred years before Paul and was looked on as a kind of prophet. The Greeks even made a verb meaning to lie from the name of Crete. Paul is not insulting every Cretan but showing the culture Titus worked in. The gospel can change any people, whatever their reputation.

always liars, evil beasts, lazy bellies." 13 This testimony is true. For which reason reprove them severely, so that they may be sound in the faith, 14 not giving heed to Jewish myths and commandments of men who turn away from the truth. 15 All things indeed are pure to the pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure, but both their mind and conscience have been defiled. 16 They profess to know God, but by their works they deny Him, being detestable and disobedient and disqualified for every good work.

Sound Teaching for Every Age

1 But you, speak the things which are fitting for sound teaching: 2 older men are to be temperate, dignified, sensible, sound in the faith, in the love, in the endurance; 3 older women likewise are to be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not enslaved to much wine, teachers of good, 4 so that they may train the young women to be lovers of their husbands, lovers of their children, 5 sensible, pure, keepers at home, good, being subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God may not be blasphemed. 6 Likewise exhort the younger men to be sensible, 7 in all things presenting yourself as a pattern of good works; in the teaching, uncorruptness, dignity, incorruption, 8 sound speech beyond reproach, so that the one from the opposing side may be put to shame, having nothing evil to say concerning you. 9 Slaves are to be subject to their own masters, to be well-pleasing in all things,

2:8 Isa 66:5; 1 Pet 2:12,15; 1 Tim 6:3
2:9 Eph 6:5-8; Col 3:22-25; 1 Tim 6:1,2

1:13 reprove them severely, so that they may be sound in the faith The false teachers showed these very traits, and Titus could not be soft with them. But the goal of a hard rebuke is not to crush people but to heal them and bring them back to healthy faith. Even the harshest correction in the church should aim at restoring someone. Sometimes love has to speak strongly.

1:14 not giving heed to Jewish myths and commandments of men who turn away from the truth The false teachers taught myths, perhaps legends built on Old Testament stories (1 Tim 1:4), and man-made rules about food, washing, and the like. Jesus warned against the Pharisees teaching the commands of men as if they were God's (Mark 7:7-8). Whenever people add their own rules to God's Word and call them holiness, they are turning from the truth.

1:15 All things indeed are pure to the pure The false teachers made rules about clean and unclean. For the person whose heart Christ has made pure, God's good gifts are pure. Jesus taught that what defiles a man comes out of his heart, not what goes into him (Mark 7:15, 19). The problem is not in the food but in the heart. These men kept their rules carefully, but their minds and consciences were stained.

1:16 They profess to know God, but by their works they deny Him They said the right things, but their lives said the opposite. Our lives show whether we really know God (1 John 2:4). Disqualified means tested and found worthless, like a coin that fails the test. This verse sets up chapters 2 and 3, where Paul shows that real faith shows up in good works. What do your works say about whether you know God?

2:1 But you, speak the things which are fitting for sound teaching "But" sets Titus against the false teachers of chapter 1. He is to teach not only sound doctrine but the things that fit it, the kind of life that matches it. Sound doctrine is not only a list of truths to believe; it is a way of life. Right belief and right living belong together, and the rest of the chapter shows what that looks like for every age and station.

2:2 older men are to be temperate, dignified, sensible, sound in the faith, in the love, in the endurance Temperate is sober and clear-headed; dignified is worthy of respect; sensible is wise and self-controlled. They are to be healthy in their trust in God, their love for others, and their ability to keep going when life is hard. Men can grow bitter or set in their ways as they age. Paul calls them to grow instead, and to show younger men what a lifetime of following Christ looks like.

2:3 older women likewise are to be reverent in behavior, not slanderers, not enslaved to much wine, teachers of good Their whole way of life should show reverence for God, as if serving in His temple. Slanderers is again diabolos, the devil's own name; gossip is his work, a special danger when people have time on their hands (1 Tim 5:13). Drunkenness seems to have been a real problem on Crete. Older women have a teaching ministry, not from a pulpit, but just as important. Their wisdom is a gift to the church.

2:4 train the young women to be lovers of their husbands, lovers of their children It may seem strange to teach a woman to love her husband and children. But real love is more than a feeling. It is a commitment that must be learned, especially when marriage and parenting get hard. Who better to teach it than women who have walked that road?

2:5 sensible, pure, keepers at home, good, being subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God may not be blasphemed Younger wives are to be wise, morally pure, busy caring for their homes, kind, and under their own husbands' leadership. On Crete these qualities would show the world that the gospel makes good families. The submission is to their own husbands, not all men, a willing choice made as to the Lord (Eph 5:22-24), and it never means a wife must accept abuse. Husbands are commanded to love their wives as Christ loved the church (Eph 5:25). Believers apply "keepers at home" in different ways today, but all agree the home is a high calling, not a lesser one. When believers live this way, the gospel is honored.

2:6 exhort the younger men to be sensible Only one word for the young men, but a big one: self-controlled, sound-minded, wise. Paul has used it for elders (1:8), older men (2:2), and younger women (2:5). Young men often struggle most with their tempers, desires, tongues, and impulses.
Self-control is part of the fruit of the Spirit (Gal 5:23). It does not come by willpower alone; it grows as we walk with God.

2:7 in all things presenting yourself as a pattern of good works Titus was likely a younger man himself. It was not enough to tell the young men to be self-controlled; he must show them how. His teaching must be pure, untainted by error or by mixed motives like money (1:11), and given with a seriousness that makes people take God's Word seriously. People learn more from watching how we live than from listening to what we say.

2:8 so that the one from the opposing side may be put to shame, having nothing evil to say concerning you A teacher will be criticized, but he should not give people a good reason. The enemies of the gospel were watching, and if they found nothing to attack they would be ashamed. Peter says the same: live such good lives that unbelievers see your good works and glorify God (1 Pet 2:12). Your life can answer critics better than any argument.

2:9 Slaves are to be subject to their own masters Many slaves were in the church. Roman slavery was not the race-based slavery of American history; people became slaves through war, debt, or birth, and some were teachers, doctors, and managers. But one person still owned another, often cruelly. These verses were later misused in America to defend slavery, while other Christians, reading the same Bible, saw every person made in God's image and fought to end it. Paul never blessed slavery. He told slaves to take their freedom if they could (1 Cor 7:21) and called slave traders lawless (1 Tim 1:10). These are instructions for believers caught in a system they did not create.

not contradicting, 10 not pilfering, but showing all good faith, so that they may adorn the teaching of God our Savior in all things.

The Grace That Trains Us

11 For the grace of God has appeared, which brings salvation to all men, 12 training us that, having denied ungodliness and worldly desires, we should live sensibly and righteously and godly in the present age, 13 awaiting the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus (Iesous) Christ, 14 who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from all lawlessness and purify for Himself a special people, zealous for good works. 15 Speak these things, and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one despise you.

TITUS 3

Good Citizens

1 Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey, to be ready for every good work, 2 to blaspheme no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing all meekness toward all men. 3 For we also were once foolish, disobedient, being deceived, being slaves to various desires and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another.

Saved by His Mercy

4 But when the kindness and the love for mankind of God our Savior appeared, 5 not by works which we did in righteousness, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, 6 whom He poured out on us richly through Jesus (Iesous)

3:6 Ps 106:21; Isa 43:3; Isa 43:11

2:10 not pilfering, but showing all good faith, so that they may adorn the teaching of God our Savior in all things Pilfering is stealing small things on the side, and slaves who handled their masters' goods had many chances. To adorn is to make beautiful, like setting a jewel. A slave had no power in society, yet by honest work he could make the gospel beautiful. Today these verses apply to anyone who works for someone else. Honest, faithful work, even when no one is watching, makes the gospel look beautiful.

2:11 the grace of God has appeared, which brings salvation to all men Here is the reason behind everything Paul has said. God's grace appeared in Jesus, in His birth, life, death, and resurrection. Salvation is offered to every kind of person: old and young, men and women, slave and free, Jew and Gentile. Paul has just spoken to slaves, the lowest people in Roman society, and God's grace reaches them too. No one is outside its reach.

2:12 training us that, having denied ungodliness and worldly desires, we should live sensibly and righteously and godly in the present age Grace does not only save us; it trains us, like a parent raising a child or a coach an athlete. Some think grace means we can live however we want. Paul says the opposite. Grace teaches us to say no to living as if God does not matter and to the cravings of a world turned from Him. It teaches us to say yes: sensibly toward ourselves, righteously toward others, godly toward God, here and now.

2:13 awaiting the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ Believers are people who are waiting. The blessed hope is the coming of Jesus for His church. I believe Christ will come for His church before the seven-year Tribulation, catching up living believers to meet Him in the air and raising the dead in Christ (1 Thess 4:13-18; 1 Cor 15:51-52). That is why it is blessed. We are not waiting for the Tribulation or the Antichrist; we are waiting for Jesus. After the Tribulation He will return visibly to the earth in glory to reign (Rev 19:11-16). "Our great God and Savior Jesus Christ" is one of the clearest statements in the Bible that Jesus is God.

2:14 who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from all lawlessness and purify for Himself a special people, zealous for good works Jesus gave not something but Himself, on the cross. To redeem is to set free by paying a price, from sin's power as well as its penalty. Special means His very own, a treasured possession, as God said of Israel (Exod 19:5). Now He has a people from every nation, but the church has not taken Israel's place; God still has a future for the nation (Rom 11:25-29). We are not saved by good works but for them (Eph 2:8-10).

2:15 Speak these things, and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no one despise you Titus was to teach what Paul had written, encourage people to live it, and correct them when they did not, with the authority of God's Word, not his own. Paul told Timothy nearly the same (1 Tim 4:12). Titus might be young and the Cretans hard, but he need not back down. The way to keep others from despising you is to teach the truth and live it.

3:1 Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey, to be ready for every good work Cretans had a reputation for rebellion, and Crete was under Roman rule. Believers were to be good citizens, as Paul and Peter both taught (Rom 13:1-7; 1 Pet 2:13-17). This does not mean obeying a ruler who commands sin; the apostles said they must obey God rather than men (Acts 5:29). But otherwise Christians should keep the law, pay their taxes, respect authority, and be eager to do good in their communities.

3:2 to blaspheme no one, to be peaceable, gentle, showing all meekness toward all men To blaspheme here is to speak evil of someone. Believers should tear down no one with their words, not even rulers they disagree with or neighbors who mistreat them. Peaceable is not looking for a fight; gentle is fair and willing to yield; meekness is strength under control. And it is toward all men, not only believers or people we like. Think about how you speak of people online, at work, or at home.

3:3 For we also were once foolish, disobedient, being deceived, being slaves to various desires and pleasures Here is why we should be gentle with unbelievers: we used to be just like them, and Paul includes himself. We thought we were free, but we were slaves. Without Christ the human heart is full of ill will, jealousy, and hatred. When we remember where we came from, there is no room for pride. The only difference between us and the worst sinner we know is the grace of God.

3:4 But when the kindness and the love for mankind of God our Savior appeared What a turn. Verse 3 shows us at our worst; verse 4 shows God at His best. Kindness is His goodness toward those who do not deserve it. Love for mankind is philanthropia, which gives us philanthropy. God loves people. These appeared when Jesus came into the world. God did not wait for us to clean ourselves up; He came to us while we were still in our sin (Rom 5:8).

3:5 not by works which we did in righteousness, but according to His mercy He saved us This is as clear as the Bible gets. We are not saved by our good deeds, not even the best ones, but because God is merciful and does not give us the punishment we deserve. Salvation is all God's work. Regeneration is new birth, being born again (John 3:3-8), and renewal is being made new. Both are the work of the Holy Spirit.

3:5 through the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit Bible teachers read "the washing of regeneration" in different ways. Many believe it is the inner cleansing the Spirit does in new birth (Ezek 36:25-27). Others see baptism as the outward picture of that cleansing. Some churches teach that baptism itself brings new birth. But Scripture plainly teaches salvation by grace through faith (Eph 2:8-9), and this verse says "not by works which we did." Repentance and faith come first; baptism is the believer's obedient public step that follows.

3:6 whom He poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior The Spirit was not given in drops but poured out, a flood, richly. This happened first at Pentecost (Acts 2:17, 33), and it happens to every believer at faith in Christ (Rom 8:9). Jesus promised to send the Spirit (John 16:7), and He did. Notice the Trinity in verses 4-6: God our Savior, the Holy Spirit, and Jesus Christ our Savior all work together in our salvation.

Christ our Savior, 7 so that, having been justified by the grace of that One, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. 8 Faithful is the word, and concerning these things I want you to affirm confidently, so that those who have believed God may take care to devote themselves to good works. These things are the good and profitable things for men. 9 But avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and strifes and fights about the law; for they are unprofitable and futile. 10 Reject a factious man after one and a second admonition, 11 knowing that such a one has been perverted and is sinning, being self-condemned.

Final Instructions and Greetings

12 When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus (Tychikos), be diligent to come to me at Nicopolis (Nikopolis), for I have decided to winter there. 13 Diligently send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way, so that nothing may be lacking for them. 14 And let our people also learn to devote themselves to good works for the necessary needs, so that they may not be unfruitful. 15 All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

3:14 Phil 1:11; Col 1:10; Phil 4:17
3:15 Rom 16:1-20; Gal 5:6; Eph 6:23

3:7 having been justified by the grace of that One, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life To be justified is to be declared righteous by God, as a judge declares someone not guilty, by grace and not by anything we did (Rom 3:24; 4:5). We are not only forgiven but made heirs (Rom 8:17). The letter began with the hope of eternal life (1:2), and it returns here. Our past is forgiven, our present is filled with the Spirit, and our future is secure. That is the gospel.
3:8 Faithful is the word The fifth and last faithful saying in the Pastoral Letters points back to the gospel of verses 4-7. Titus was to teach it with confidence, over and over, so that believers would devote themselves to good works. We are not saved by good works (3:5), but those who are saved will do them. Grace is the root and good works are the fruit, and they bless families, churches, and towns.
3:9 avoid foolish controversies and genealogies and strifes and fights about the law The false teachers on Crete, like those in Ephesus, loved to argue about family trees and fine points of the Law of Moses (1 Tim 1:4, 7). Such arguments produce nothing good. Bible study that leads to endless arguing instead of godly living has missed the point. There is a place to defend the truth (1:9), but not for arguments that only stir up fights.
3:10 Reject a factious man after one and a second admonition A factious man causes divisions, forming a party around himself or his ideas. The Greek hairetikos gives us heretic, though here it means mainly a divisive person. Warn him once, then twice; if he still will not listen, have nothing more to do with him and refuse him a place in the fellowship, much like the steps in Matt 18:15-17. The church should be patient, but not endlessly.
3:11 such a one has been perverted and is sinning, being self-condemned Perverted means twisted, turned inside out. A man who keeps causing division after two warnings shows something is twisted inside. He was warned and chose not to listen, so he has passed judgment on himself. When the church separates from him, it is not condemning him; he has condemned himself. Even then, the hope is always that he will repent and return (2 Tim 2:25-26).
3:12 be diligent to come to me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to winter there Paul planned to send Artemas or Tychicus to take Titus's place so he could come. We know nothing else of Artemas; Tychicus was one of Paul's most trusted helpers (2 Tim 4:12). Nicopolis means city of victory. Several cities had that name, but most believe this was the one on the west coast of Greece. Sea travel stopped in winter, and Paul planned to spend it there, likely preaching.
3:13 Diligently send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way, so that nothing may be lacking for them Zenas may have been an expert in the Law of Moses or a Roman lawyer. Apollos was the gifted preacher from Alexandria who served in Ephesus and Corinth (Acts 18:24-28). The two may have carried this letter. Titus and the church were to supply what they needed for the journey. Helping traveling servants of God is an important ministry (3 John 5-8), and those who support them share in their work.
3:14 let our people also learn to devote themselves to good works for the necessary needs, so that they may not be unfruitful This is the third call for good works in this chapter (3:1, 8, 14), and helping Zenas and Apollos was a good place to start. Believers should meet real needs of travelers, the poor, the sick, and their own families. Cretans were known as "lazy bellies" (1:12); believers were to be the opposite, hard-working and generous. A life without good works is like a tree without fruit (Matt 7:17-20).
3:15 Grace be with you all. Amen Their bond was not family or nation but shared faith in Christ. Paul ends with grace as he began (1:4), and "you all" is a blessing on the whole church on Crete. The letter has called for blameless leaders, godly lives in every group, and devotion to good works, but none of it is possible without God's grace. Grace saves us, trains us, and will carry us until Jesus comes. The closing note that the letter was written from Nicopolis of Macedonia was added by later copyists.

PHILEMON

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for the man it is written to, "Philemon our beloved and fellow worker" (1). It is the shortest of Paul's thirteen letters and one of the four Prison Letters, written at the same time as Colossians and carried to the same town. Unlike Paul's letters to churches, it is personal. It is written to one man about one problem: a slave named Onesimus, who had wronged his master and left, has become a believer, and Paul is sending him home.

Author and Date

The letter opens, "Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy the brother" (1). Paul names himself three times (1, 9, 19) and writes part of it with his own hand (19). Very few scholars, even among those who doubt some of Paul's letters, doubt that he wrote Philemon. Its names match the end of Colossians, and it was accepted early as Paul's.

Paul was a prisoner (1, 9, 10, 13, 23). Most believe he wrote from Rome during his house arrest, about A.D. 60 to 62 (Acts 28:16, 30-31), at the same time as Colossians and Ephesians. Some suggest an earlier imprisonment in Ephesus, much closer to Colosse. Onesimus carried the letter home, traveling with Tychicus (Col 4:7-9).

Background and Setting

Philemon was a believer of some means who owned at least one slave and had a house large enough for the church to meet in. He seems to have come to Christ through Paul (19), most likely during Paul's years in Ephesus. Apphia was most likely his wife, and Archippus may have been their son. Since Colossians places Onesimus and Archippus in Colosse (Col 4:9, 17), most believe Philemon lived there too.

Onesimus, whose name means useful, had wronged his master, perhaps by stealing or by running off and leaving his work undone (18). Somehow he came to Paul in prison and there came to faith (10). Most believe he was a runaway who fled to Rome to get lost in the crowds. Some suggest he went to Paul on purpose, looking for a friend of his master to plead for him. Either way, he was a new man, and Paul was sending him back.

Roman slavery was not the same as race-based American slavery. People became slaves through war, debt or birth, and some held skilled jobs. But it was still one person owning another, and often cruel. A runaway could be beaten, branded, or even put to death. This letter was later misused in America to argue that runaway slaves must be returned. That reading turns it upside down. Paul was not hunting a runaway. He was pleading for one and calling his master to treat him as family.

Themes

The theme is the gospel at work in a broken relationship. Paul asks Philemon to forgive Onesimus and receive him "no longer as a slave, but above a slave, a beloved brother" (16). He appeals in love rather than command (8-9), so that Philemon's good deed would be willing, not forced (14). Paul does not attack slavery head on, but he cuts at its roots. Once master and slave see each other as brothers who answer to the same Lord, slavery cannot stand for long. Paul hints that he would like Onesimus back to serve with him (13, 21) but leaves the choice to Philemon.

Scripture does not tell us how Philemon answered. That the letter was kept and shared suggests he did what Paul asked. About fifty years later Ignatius wrote to the church in Ephesus and named its bishop Onesimus. Some believe this was the same man, but we cannot be sure.

Christ in Philemon

Philemon is a living picture of what Christ has done for us. Onesimus had wronged his master and owed a debt he could not pay. Paul stepped in and said, "receive him as me" (17), and "if he has wronged you in anything, or owes you, charge this to me" (18). That is substitution, one standing in the place of another. We owed God a debt we could never pay, and Jesus took it on Himself (Col 2:14). Our sins were put on His account, and His righteousness was put on ours (2 Cor 5:21). God receives us as He receives His own Son, because we are in Christ (Eph 1:6).

Hard Passages

Verse 6 is hard to put into plain English, and Bibles word it differently. Whether Paul is quietly asking for Onesimus's freedom (16, 21) is a hint many see, not a direct command. "An old man" (9) is very close in Greek to the word for ambassador, and some Bibles read it that way. The notes name the main views.

PHILEMON 1

Greeting

1 Paul (Paulos), a prisoner of Christ Jesus (Iesous), and Timothy (Timotheos) the brother, to Philemon our beloved and fellow worker, 2 and to Apphia the beloved, and to Archippus (Archippos) our fellow soldier, and to the church at your house: 3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon's Love and Faith

4 I thank my God, always making mention of you in my prayers, 5 hearing of your love and the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints, 6 so that the fellowship of your faith may become effective in the knowledge of every good thing which is in you toward Christ Jesus. 7 For we have much joy and encouragement over your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.

Paul's Appeal for Onesimus

8 Therefore, having much boldness in Christ to command you what is fitting, 9 for the sake of love I rather appeal to you, being such a one as Paul, an old man, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. 10 I appeal to you for my child, whom I have begotten in my chains, Onesimus (Onesimos), 11 who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me, 12 whom I have sent back; and you, receive him, that is, my own heart, 13 whom I was wishing to keep with myself, so that on your behalf he might serve me in the chains of the gospel. 14 But apart from your consent I wished to do nothing, so that your good deed might not be as according to necessity, but according to willingness. 15 For perhaps for this reason he was separated from you for an hour, so that you might have him back eternally, 16 no longer as a

1:1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus In most letters Paul opens as an apostle. Here he is about to ask a favor, not give an order, so he calls himself a prisoner. Philemon could hardly refuse a man in chains for Christ. Rome held the chains, but Paul saw himself as Christ's prisoner. Philemon was more than a host. He worked beside Paul for the gospel.

1:2 to Apphia the beloved, and to Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church at your house Apphia was most likely Philemon's wife. She ran the household, and her welcome of Onesimus would matter too. Archippus may have been their son (Col 4:17). The church met in Philemon's home, so this private matter would be known to all who gathered there. Our faith is never only a private matter.

1:3 Grace to you and peace Paul's usual greeting fits this letter well. He is about to ask Philemon to show grace to someone who did not deserve it and make peace with one who had wronged him. God gave us grace when we did not deserve it, and He asks us to pass it on.

1:5 hearing of your love and the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints Paul prayed for Philemon by name, with thanks (1:4). Love comes first here, perhaps because love is what he is about to ask for. Paul is about to add one more saint to that list. Real love for all the saints has to include the ones who have hurt us.

1:6 that the fellowship of your faith may become effective A hard verse to put into plain English, and Bibles word it differently. The fellowship of faith is the sharing that comes from belonging to Christ together. Paul prays it would get to work in action and lead to fuller knowledge of every good thing we have in Christ. Faith shared and lived out grows. Philemon was about to have a chance to put his faith to work.

1:7 the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother Refreshed was used for rest given a tired traveler or a soldier after a march. Hearts is the word for the inner parts, the deepest feelings, and Paul uses it again in verses 12 and 20. Philemon had refreshed many saints. Now Paul asks him to refresh one more. Notice the word brother. It will matter in this letter.

1:8 having much boldness in Christ to command you what is fitting As an apostle, Paul could have ordered Philemon. For love's sake he appeals instead (1:9). Love does not force, and a forced kindness is not much of a kindness. Paul wanted Philemon to act from his heart.

1:9 being such a one as Paul, an old man Paul was probably in his late fifties or early sixties, old for a man beaten, stoned and shipwrecked (2 Cor 11:23-27). The Greek for old man is very close to the word for ambassador, and some Bibles read it that way. Either way, he comes not as a boss but as a worn-out old friend in chains.

1:10 my child, whom I have begotten in my chains, Onesimus Paul calls him my child before he names him, so by the time Philemon reached the name, he knew this man was dear to Paul. Paul led him to Christ in prison and often called his converts his children (1 Cor 4:15; Gal 4:19). The gospel was not chained (2 Tim 2:9). God can use you right where you are.

1:11 who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me A play on words, for Onesimus means useful. He had not lived up to his name, but Christ changes people. The change was real enough that Paul staked his own name on it. Many who are written off are one encounter with Jesus away from becoming useful to God.

1:12 receive him, that is, my own heart Under Roman law a runaway slave could be harshly punished, and Onesimus was going home to face the man he had wronged. Becoming a believer does not erase our responsibilities. Real repentance faces the people we have hurt. Paul was sending a piece of himself.

1:13 so that on your behalf he might serve me in the chains of the gospel Onesimus had become a real help in prison, and Paul would have liked to keep him. On your behalf gently suggests that his service would count as Philemon's own, and Philemon owed Paul much (1:19). But Paul would not make that choice for him.

1:14 so that your good deed might not be as according to necessity, but according to willingness Keeping Onesimus would have taken a decision that belonged to Philemon. Paul wanted his goodness free, not forced. God does not want grudging obedience. He loves a cheerful giver (2 Cor 9:7). When we lead others, we should give them the same respect.

1:15 he was separated from you for an hour, so that you might have him back eternally Notice perhaps. Paul does not claim to know God's every purpose. He does not say he ran away but he was separated, as if God had a hand in it. The sin was real, yet God used it to bring him to Christ (Gen 50:20; Rom 8:28). Philemon lost a slave for a while and got back a brother forever.

1:16 no longer as a slave, but above a slave, a beloved brother The heart of the letter. He would be a brother to Philemon both in the flesh, in daily life in the same house, and in the Lord. Paul does not order his release, but many see a strong hint in these words and in verse 21. A master who sees his slave as a beloved brother cannot treat him as property. The gospel planted a seed that would help bring down the whole system. This was never a blessing on slavery.

slave, but above a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

Charge It to Me

17 If then you consider me a partner, receive him as me. 18 But if he has wronged you in anything, or owes you, charge this to me. 19 I, Paul, wrote with my own hand, I will repay it; that I may not say to you that you owe me even your own self besides. 20 Yes, brother, may I have benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in the Lord. 21 Having been persuaded of your obedience, I wrote to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say.

Final Greetings

22 And at the same time also prepare a lodging for me; for I hope that through your prayers I will be granted to you. 23 They greet you: Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, 24 as do Mark (Markos), Aristarchus (Aristarchos), Demas, Luke (Loukas), my fellow workers. 25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

1:25 2 Tim 4:22; Rom 16:20,24

1:17 If then you consider me a partner, receive him as me If Paul came to the door, Philemon would give him the best room. That is how he is to receive a slave who wronged him. God receives us as He receives His own Son because we are in Christ (Eph 1:6), and He calls us to receive one another the same way (Rom 15:7).
1:18 if he has wronged you in anything, or owes you, charge this to me Forgiveness is not pretending. There was a real wrong and a real debt. Charge this to me means put it on my account. That is the gospel. We owed a debt we could never pay (Col 2:14). Our sins were put on Christ's account and paid in full, and His righteousness was put on ours (2 Cor 5:21). That is substitution, one standing in another's place.
1:19 I, Paul, wrote with my own hand, I will repay it Paul takes the pen and writes like signing a promise to pay. Then a gentle reminder: Philemon came to Christ through Paul and owed him his very soul. Paul says he will not mention it, and mentions it. There may be a smile here, but the point is serious. Remembering how much we have been forgiven makes forgiving easier (Matt 18:21-35).
1:20 may I have benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in the Lord Benefit is related to the name Onesimus, another play on words. Philemon had refreshed many (1:7). Now Paul asks him to refresh Paul's own heart. Forgiving others brings joy to all who love us both, and above all to the Lord.
1:21 knowing that you will do even beyond what I say Paul has asked, not commanded, but he trusts Philemon will obey the Lord. Paul does not say what lies beyond receiving him as a brother. Many believe he hinted at freedom for Onesimus, or sending him back to help Paul. When God's people forgive, the best of them go further than they were asked.
1:22 prepare a lodging for me A guest room. Paul hoped to be released and come, and he would see for himself how Onesimus was treated. Prayer is not a formality. God uses it. Many believe Paul was released, traveled a few more years, and was later arrested again (2 Tim 4:6-8, 16-17). Scripture does not say whether he reached Colosse.
1:23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus Epaphras started the church in Colosse (Col 1:7; 4:12). He may have been arrested or chose to share Paul's imprisonment. The others appear in Colossians 4:10-14: Mark, who failed and was restored, Aristarchus, who stayed close through riot and shipwreck, Demas, who would later desert Paul (2 Tim 4:10), and Luke. A whole team was watching and praying.
1:25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit The letter begins and ends with grace. Philemon could show grace to Onesimus only by Christ's grace working in him. We cannot forgive in our own strength, but the grace that forgave us can work in us. Your is plural in Greek. The last word is for the whole church in Philemon's house, and for us.

HEBREWS

Introduction

Title

The title To the Hebrews was added early, and it fits the letter well. The readers were Jewish believers who knew the Law of Moses, the priests and the sacrifices, and the writer argues from the Old Testament on almost every page. Hebrews sits right after Paul's thirteen letters and before James. Unlike most letters, it opens with no name and no greeting. It begins with God Himself, speaking.

Author and Date

Hebrews does not name its writer. We know he was a man, that he knew Timothy (13:23), and that he heard the gospel from those who had heard the Lord Himself (2:3). Paul is the oldest suggestion, and some early churches in the east placed Hebrews among his letters. Others have named Barnabas, a Levite called "Son of Encouragement" (Acts 4:36), Luke, a careful writer of Greek, and Apollos of Alexandria, "mighty in the Scriptures" (Acts 18:24). Those who doubt Paul wrote it note that the Greek differs from his letters, that Paul always gives his name, and that Paul received the gospel straight from Jesus (Gal 1:11-12), while this writer says it was confirmed to him by others. The early teacher Origen is remembered for saying that only God knows who wrote it. That is still the honest answer. The letter's place in Scripture has never depended on knowing his name. The church received it because it teaches the same Christ the apostles preached.

Hebrews was most likely written before A.D. 70, when the Romans destroyed the temple. The writer speaks of the priests and their sacrifices as still going on (8:4; 10:1-2, 11), and if the temple had already fallen he would surely have mentioned it, since it proved his point. Most who hold this view date the letter in the 60s A.D. Some scholars date it later, in the 80s or 90s. Scripture does not give the date.

Background and Setting

The readers had been believers for some time (5:12). In their early days they suffered for Christ, lost property and stood by those in prison (10:32-34), but they had not yet faced death for their faith (12:4). Now they were growing tired. Some had stopped meeting with the other believers (10:25), and some were tempted to turn back to the temple and its sacrifices to escape pressure and shame. Scripture does not say where they lived. Some think of Jerusalem or Judea, near the temple. Others think of Rome, because the writer sends greetings from "Those from Italy" (13:24), and an early letter from the church in Rome, usually dated about A.D. 95, uses words from Hebrews.

The writer calls his letter "the word of exhortation" (13:22). It reads like a sermon written down. Teaching and warning go hand in hand all the way through.

Themes

God's last and greatest word is His Son, and the Son is better than everything that came before Him. The word better runs all through the letter: a better hope (7:19), a better covenant and better promises (8:6), better sacrifices (9:23), a better possession (10:34), a better country (11:16) and a better resurrection (11:35). Jesus is better than the prophets and the angels, better than Moses, and better than Joshua, who could not give Israel the true rest (4:8). He is a better High Priest than Aaron, after the order of Melchizedek, with a better tabernacle in heaven and a better sacrifice, His own blood, offered once for all. The old things were not bad. God gave them. But they were shadows, and Jesus is the real thing they pointed to.

Because the Son is so much greater, the writer keeps calling his readers to hold on. Do not drift away. Do not harden your hearts. Go on to maturity. Draw near and hold fast. Run the race, looking to Jesus. Five warning passages (2:1-4; 3:7-4:13; 5:11-6:12; 10:26-39; 12:14-29) stand beside strong promises (6:9-20; 7:25; 10:14, 39). Chapter 11 shows what living faith looks like, from Abel to the martyrs, and chapters 12 and 13 show how it runs, endures the Father's discipline, loves and worships.

Christ in Hebrews

No book of the Bible says more about who Jesus is and what He does now. He is the Son through whom God made the ages, "the radiance of the glory and the exact representation of His substance" (1:3). He is called God (1:8) and Lord of creation (1:10). He became fully human, sharing our blood and flesh, so that through death He might break the devil's power and set us free from the fear of death (2:14-15). He is the faithful Son over God's house (3:6), the greater Joshua who brings us into God's rest, and our great High Priest who was tempted in all things yet without sin (4:15). He offered Himself once for all (7:27), entered heaven itself by His own blood (9:12, 24), and sat down at God's right hand (10:12). He always lives to intercede for us (7:25), He is the mediator of the new covenant (8:6), the great Shepherd of the sheep (13:20), and He "will appear a second time" for those who eagerly await Him (9:28). "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever" (13:8).

Hard Passages

Who is in danger in the five warning passages, and what is the danger (2:1-4; 3:7-4:13; 6:4-8; 10:26-31; 12:14-29)? Good Bible teachers read them four ways: true believers facing God's discipline and loss of reward; people in the church who professed faith but never truly believed; true believers who can lose salvation; or the writer describing what would happen if a believer could fall away, to stir his readers up. The notes give these views fairly at each warning and do not settle the question. All agree the warnings are meant to be taken seriously, and the writer puts strong assurance right beside them.

Who was Melchizedek (7:1-3)? Most see a real king-priest whom Genesis presents without a family line, as a picture of Christ. Others see an appearance of the Son of God before His birth. The notes name the views.

How does the new covenant, promised to the house of Israel and the house of Judah (8:8-12), apply to the church? The notes explain that believers share its blessings now through the blood of Jesus, while God will keep His promise to Israel as a nation when Christ returns (Rom 11:25-29). The church has not replaced Israel.

Smaller questions, such as the Sabbath rest of 4:9, the altar of incense in 9:4, the word covenant or will in 9:16-17, and "our body washed with pure water" in 10:22, are treated in the notes with the main views named.

God Has Spoken in His Son

1 In many portions and in many ways God, having spoken long ago to the fathers in the prophets, 2 has in these last days spoken to us in a Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the ages; 3 who, being the radiance of the glory and the exact representation of His substance, and upholding all things by the word of His power, having made purification of our sins through Himself, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become so much better than the angels, as He has inherited a more excellent name than they.

The Son Above the Angels

5 For to which of the angels did He ever say, "You are My Son; today I have begotten You"? And again, "I will be to Him a Father, and He will be to Me a Son"? 6 And when He again brings the Firstborn into the world, He says, "And let all the angels of God worship Him." 7 And regarding the angels He says, "He who makes His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire." 8 But to the Son: "Your throne, O God, is to the age of the age; a scepter of uprightness is the scepter of Your kingdom. 9 You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness; because of this God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of exultation above Your companions." 10 And: "You, Lord, in the beginning laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the works of Your hands. 11 They will perish, but You remain; and they all will grow old like a garment, 12 and like a robe You will roll them up, and they will be changed. But You are the same, and Your years will not fail." 13 But to which of the angels has He ever said, "Sit at My right hand until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet"? 14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth for service for the sake of those who are about to inherit salvation?

1:14 Ps 91:11; Ps 91:12; Ps 34:7

1:1 In many portions and in many ways God, having spoken long ago to the fathers in the prophets The letter opens with God, not with a greeting. God is a God who speaks. He gave His truth a piece at a time over more than a thousand years, through Moses, David, Isaiah and many others, in visions, laws, songs and history. The writer does not run down the Old Testament. It was God speaking, and every piece pointed forward to Someone.

1:2 has in these last days spoken to us in a Son "These last days" is the age that began when Jesus came (Acts 2:16-17). Then, through the prophets. Now, in One who is a Son, not a servant. A prophet carried God's word. The Son is God's Word (John 1:1, 14).

1:2 through whom also He made the ages The Son was not made. He was there at the beginning, and the Father made everything through Him (John 1:3; Col 1:16). "The ages" covers the whole universe and all its history.

1:3 the radiance of the glory and the exact representation of His substance Radiance is the brightness that shines out from a light. You cannot have the sun without its light. The Greek word charakter is the mark a stamp leaves pressed into wax, matching the stamp exactly. If you want to know what God is like, look at Jesus (John 14:9).

1:3 having made purification of our sins through Himself, sat down The Creator became the sacrifice. That is the heart of the whole letter. The priests in the temple never sat down, because their work was never done (10:11). Jesus sat down because His work was finished (Ps 110:1).

1:4 having become so much better than the angels The first use of the word "better," which runs all through the letter. The Son became better as the One who came down, became a man, died, rose and was exalted (Phil 2:8-9). Jewish teachers held that angels had a part in giving the Law at Sinai (2:2; Acts 7:53), so the readers held them in high honor.

1:5 You are My Son; today I have begotten You Psalm 2:7, where God sets His King on Zion. Paul applied this "today" to the resurrection (Acts 13:33). The second quote is God's promise to David about his royal son (2 Sam 7:14). Solomon was the first fulfillment, but a throne forever finds its full meaning only in Jesus, the Son of David.

1:6 when He again brings the Firstborn into the world Firstborn here is not the first one created. It is the son with the place of honor and the right to inherit (Ps 89:27). "Again" may point to Christ's return to the earth in glory, or it may simply bring in another quote. Good teachers hold both. The quote follows the Greek Old Testament of Deuteronomy 32:43 (compare Ps 97:7). Angels refuse worship (Rev 22:8-9). They worship the Son, because He is God.

1:7 He who makes His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire Psalm 104:4. God uses His angels the way He uses wind and fire. They are mighty and fast, but they are servants. To the angels He says, you are My servants. To the Son He says, "Your throne, O God."

1:8 Your throne, O God, is to the age of the age From Psalm 45:6-7, a royal wedding song. The Father speaks to the Son and calls Him God, one of the clearest places in the New Testament where Jesus is called God. "To the age of the age" is a Greek way of saying forever. A scepter is the rod a king held as a sign of his authority.

1:9 God, Your God, has anointed You The Son is called God, and yet He has a God. That is no contradiction. It is the Trinity, one God in three Persons, and the Son as Messiah and as a man honors His Father.

1:10 You, Lord, in the beginning laid the foundation of the earth Psalm 102:25-27. In the psalm these words are spoken to the LORD, the God of Israel. The writer says they are spoken of the Son. So the Son is the Lord who made the heavens and the earth.

1:12 But You are the same, and Your years will not fail The world looks solid, but it is wearing out like old clothes, and one day He will roll it up and change it (2 Pet 3:10-13; Rev 21:1). Jobs, health and friends come and go. The One we trust does not change (13:8).

1:13 Sit at My right hand until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet Psalm 110:1, the Old Testament verse quoted most often in the New. Jesus used it to show the Messiah is David's Lord (Matt 22:41-46). A footstool means total victory. Jesus is seated now, waiting for the day every enemy is put down (10:12-13; 1 Cor 15:25). No angel was ever told to sit on God's throne.

1:14 ministering spirits, sent forth for service for the sake of those who are about to inherit salvation Every angel, even the mighty ones, is a servant sent out to serve God's people (Ps 91:11; Acts 12:7-11). We are not told to pray to them or worship them. "About to inherit" looks ahead to the whole of salvation we will receive when Jesus comes for His own.

HEBREWS 2

Do Not Drift Away

1 Because of this we must give heed more abundantly to the things which have been heard, lest we drift away. 2 For if the word spoken through angels was firm, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense, 3 how will we escape, having neglected so great a salvation, which, having received a beginning by being spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard, 4 God bearing witness with them, both by signs and wonders and various miracles, and by distributions of the Holy Spirit according to His will?

The Son Made Like His Brothers

5 For He did not subject to angels the world to come, concerning which we speak. 6 But someone has solemnly testified somewhere, saying, "What is man, that You are mindful of him, or a son of man, that You care for him? 7 You made him a little lower than the angels; You crowned him with glory and honor, and appointed him over the works of Your hands; 8 You put all things in subjection under his feet." For in subjecting all things to him, He left nothing unsubjected to him. But now we do not yet see all things subjected to him.
9 But we see Him who was made a little lower than the angels, Jesus (Iesous), because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, so that by the grace of God He might taste death for everyone. 10 For it was fitting for Him, because of whom are all things and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make perfect the founder of their salvation through sufferings. 11 For both the One who sanctifies and those who are being sanctified are all of one; for which reason He is not ashamed to call them brothers, 12 saying, "I will declare Your name to My brothers; in the midst of the assembly I will sing praise to You." 13 And again, "I will be trusting in Him." And again, "Look, I and the children whom God has given Me." 14 Since therefore the children have shared in flesh and blood, He Himself also likewise partook of the same, so that through death He might render powerless the one who holds the power of death, that is, the devil, 15 and might set free those who through fear of death were subject to slavery throughout all their life. 16 For surely He does not take hold of angels, but He takes hold of the seed of Abraham (Abraam).

2:1 lest we drift away The first warning in Hebrews, and the writer includes himself. The word was used of a ship drifting past the harbor, or a ring slipping off a finger. Drifting takes no effort. A believer stops reading the Word, stops praying, stops meeting with other believers, and slowly floats away. The answer is to pay close attention to what we have heard.

2:2 the word spoken through angels was firm The Law given at Sinai. Stephen and Paul both say angels had a part in delivering it (Acts 7:53; Gal 3:19; compare Deut 33:2). A transgression is stepping over a line. Disobedience here is refusing to listen. The punishment always fit the sin.

2:3 how will we escape, having neglected so great a salvation From the lesser to the greater: if the message brought by angels carried such weight, how much more the message brought by the Son? Many will be lost not because they fought the gospel but because they never took it seriously. The writer counts himself among those who received it from the apostles, one reason many think he was not Paul.

2:4 by signs and wonders and various miracles God backed up the apostles' preaching (Acts 2:43; 5:12; 14:3). The Spirit gives gifts as He chooses (1 Cor 12:11). Whether sign gifts continue the same way today, teachers answer differently. Teachers also read the warnings of Hebrews four main ways: true believers facing discipline and loss of reward, people in the church who never truly believed, true believers losing salvation, or a case put to stir the readers up. All agree the gospel is too great to neglect.

2:5 the world to come The age when Christ reigns and the kingdom promised in the prophets fills the earth. The future does not belong to the angels. It belongs to the Son and to the people He brings with Him.

2:6 What is man, that You are mindful of him Psalm 8:4-6. "Somewhere" does not mean the writer is unsure. He stresses what was said, not who said it. David looked at the night sky and felt small. Yet God gave man rule over the earth (Gen 1:26-28). A "son of man" here means a human being.

2:8 But now we do not yet see all things subjected to him That is honest. Man does not rule the world as God first intended. Sin broke it (Gen 3:17-19). Is the psalm wrong, then? No. Notice the word "yet." God's plan is waiting for the One who will fulfill it.

2:9 But we see Him who was made a little lower than the angels, Jesus The first time the name Jesus appears in the letter. When the Son became a man, He took the lower place Psalm 8 gives to man. What Adam lost, Jesus won back, and one day He will share His rule with His people (Rev 20:4-6). To "taste death" is to really die. He did it by grace, and for everyone.

2:10 to make perfect the founder of their salvation through sufferings The founder is a pioneer, a leader who goes first and opens the way. "Make perfect" does not mean Jesus had sin to fix. He was made complete for His work as our Savior. He could not lead us through suffering if He had never suffered. God's goal is "bringing many sons to glory."

2:11 He is not ashamed to call them brothers To sanctify is to set apart as holy for God. The Son of God, the One the angels worship, is not ashamed of His family, though we often give Him reasons. After His resurrection He called His disciples His brothers (Matt 28:10; John 20:17).

2:12 I will declare Your name to My brothers Psalm 22:22, where the psalm turns from suffering to victory. Psalm 22 begins with the cry Jesus prayed on the cross (Matt 27:46). The writer puts these words in the mouth of the risen Jesus. "Assembly" is ekklesia, the New Testament word for the church.

2:13 I will be trusting in Him From Isaiah 8:17-18. In a dark time Isaiah chose to wait for the LORD. In His life on earth Jesus lived by trust in His Father, which shows He was truly human. We are the children the Father has given into His care (John 6:37; 17:6).

2:14 so that through death He might render powerless the one who holds the power of death, that is, the devil Jesus had real blood and flesh. He got hungry and tired, wept and died. The devil held sin and judgment over people's heads. Jesus took that weapon away by paying for sin. The devil is still active (1 Pet 5:8), but his power over death is broken for every believer.

2:15 through fear of death were subject to slavery throughout all their life The fear of death shapes what people chase and what they run from. For the believer, death is the doorway home (2 Cor 5:8; Phil 1:21). We may still feel sad or afraid, but fear no longer has the last word.

2:16 He takes hold of the seed of Abraham To take hold is to grab someone in order to help, like rescuing someone drowning. Jesus did not come to rescue fallen angels. The readers were Jewish, and the Messiah came for them as God promised Abraham. All who believe are counted Abraham's seed by faith (Gal 3:7, 29), without erasing God's promises to Israel.

17 Therefore He was obligated to be made like the brothers in all things, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. 18 For in that He Himself has suffered, having been tempted, He is able to help those who are being tempted.

Jesus Greater Than Moses

1 Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider carefully the apostle and high priest of our confession, Christ Jesus (Iesous), 2 who was faithful to the One who appointed Him, as also Moses was in all His house. 3 For this One has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by as much as he who built the house has more honor than the house. 4 For every house is built by someone, but the One who built all things is God. 5 And Moses indeed was faithful in all His house as a servant, for a testimony of the things which would be spoken, 6 but Christ as a Son over His house, whose house we are, if indeed we hold fast the boldness and the boast of the hope firm until the end.

Do Not Harden Your Hearts

7 Therefore, just as the Holy Spirit says, "Today, if you hear His voice, 8 do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, in the day of the testing in the wilderness, 9 where your fathers tested Me, proved Me, and saw My works forty years. 10 Therefore I was angry with that generation, and said, 'They always go astray in the heart, and they have not known My ways'; 11 so I swore in My wrath, 'They shall not enter into My rest.'" 12 Take heed, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in falling away from the living God. 13 But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "Today," so that no one of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. 14 For we have become partakers of Christ, if indeed we hold fast the beginning of the assurance firm until the end, 15 while it is said, "Today, if you hear His

2:17 a merciful and faithful high priest The first time Jesus is called high priest, the great theme of chapters 4 to 10. A high priest had to be one of the people he represented, so the Son became like us "in all things." Propitiation is a sacrifice that satisfies God's just anger against sin and turns it away. On the Day of Atonement the high priest sprinkled blood on the mercy seat, the gold lid of the ark (Lev 16). Jesus did it once for all by His own blood (Rom 3:25; 1 John 2:2).
2:18 He is able to help those who are being tempted Jesus was really tempted and never gave in, so He felt the full weight of temptation longer than anyone who gives in (Matt 4:1-11). "Help" means to run to the aid of someone who cries out. When you are tempted, take it to Him (4:15-16).
3:1 consider carefully the apostle and high priest of our confession, Christ Jesus They are holy brothers because Jesus set them apart, not because they are better than others. Fix your mind on Him. Jesus is called an apostle only here in the New Testament. An apostle is sent from God to us; a high priest goes to God for us. Moses was God's messenger and Aaron the high priest. Jesus is both, and better than both.
3:2 who was faithful to the One who appointed Him, as also Moses was in all His house The words come from Numbers 12:7, where God defended Moses against Aaron and Miriam. "His house" is God's household, His people. The writer is about to say Jesus is greater, but he will not say a bad word about Moses.
3:3 by as much as he who built the house has more honor than the house People admire a fine house, but they give more credit to the builder. Moses was part of the house God was building. Jesus is the Builder. Moses belongs to the creation. Jesus is the Creator (1:2, 10).
3:4 the One who built all things is God In verse 3 Jesus builds the house. Here the builder of all things is God. The writer does not stop to explain, because chapter 1 already showed it. Jesus is God. A house points to a builder, and a world this ordered points to a Maker (Rom 1:20).
3:5 as a servant, for a testimony of the things which would be spoken The word is not slave but a trusted attendant, a servant with honor. The tabernacle, priests, sacrifices and feasts were pictures of what God would show later in Christ. Moses wrote about Him (John 5:46). Moses was a witness, not the final word.
3:6 but Christ as a Son over His house, whose house we are A servant works in the house. The son owns it and runs it. God's house is His people (1 Pet 2:5; Eph 2:19-22). The "if" here returns in verse 14, where the main readings are given.
3:7 just as the Holy Spirit says, "Today, if you hear His voice Psalm 95:7-11, and the Holy Spirit is the speaker. Notice "says," not said. God's Word still speaks today.
3:8 do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion At Massah and Meribah the people complained there was no water and tested God, asking whether He was with them (Exod 17:1-7). Over and over in the wilderness they grumbled and refused to trust Him.
3:9 saw My works forty years They saw the plagues, the Red Sea, the manna every morning and the water from the rock. Still they did not trust. Seeing miracles does not make a person believe.
3:10 they have not known My ways God's anger was not unreasonable after forty years of care. They knew His works, but not His ways. They saw what He did, but never came to trust who He is.
3:11 They shall not enter into My rest This happened at Kadesh, when the people refused to go into the land after the spies came back (Num 14:20-35). The rest in the psalm was Canaan. That whole generation, except Joshua and Caleb, died in the wilderness. Chapter 4 shows God's rest means more than the land.
3:12 an evil heart of unbelief in falling away from the living God He speaks to "any of you." Each must look to his own heart. We treat unbelief as a lack of information. Scripture calls it evil, because it calls God a liar (1 John 5:10). The Greek word gives us apostasy, turning away from what one once professed. For these readers, going back to the temple system after hearing the gospel would be turning from the living God.
3:13 exhort one another every day God's answer to drifting is other believers. To exhort is to come alongside and urge someone on, and once a week is not enough for a battle that goes on every day. Sin lies. Each time we say no to God, it gets easier to say no again. Who speaks into your life, and whose life are you speaking into?
3:14 For we have become partakers of Christ, if indeed we hold fast the beginning of the assurance firm until the end Partakers are sharers, companions. Good teachers read this "if" and the whole warning of 3:7-4:13 four ways. Holding fast shows we have become partakers, and true believers who drift face discipline and loss of reward, like the generation saved out of Egypt who lost the land. Or those who fall away professed faith but never truly believed. Or a true believer can lose his share in Christ. Or it is a real call that describes what unbelief would bring, while the writer expects his readers to endure (6:9). All agree real faith keeps going.
3:15 Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion We cannot answer yesterday, and we are not promised tomorrow (James 4:13-14). Putting off obedience is the first step toward a hard heart.

voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion." 16 For who, having heard, rebelled? But was it not all who came out of Egypt (Aigyptos) through Moses? 17 And with whom was He angry forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose corpses fell in the wilderness? 18 And to whom did He swear that they would not enter into His rest, except to those who disobeyed? 19 And we see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

A Rest for the People of God

1 Let us fear therefore, lest, while a promise of entering into His rest is left remaining, any of you should seem to have fallen short. 2 For indeed we have had the gospel preached to us, just as they also did; but the word of hearing did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard. 3 For we who have believed enter into the rest, just as He has said, "As I swore in My wrath, 'They shall not enter into My rest,'" although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. 4 For He has spoken somewhere concerning the seventh day in this way: "And God rested on the seventh day from all His works"; 5 and in this place again, "They shall not enter into My rest." 6 Since therefore it remains for some to enter into it, and those who formerly had the gospel preached to them did not enter because of disobedience, 7 again He appoints a certain day, "Today," saying through David (Dabid) after so long a time, just as it has been said, "Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts." 8 For if Joshua (Iesous) had given them rest, He would not have been speaking about another day after these things. 9 So then there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God. 10 For the one who has entered into His rest has also himself rested from his works, just as God did from His own. 11 Let us therefore be diligent to enter into that rest, so that no one may fall by the same example of disobedience. 12 For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and penetrating as far as the division of both soul and spirit, of both joints and marrows, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. 13 And there is no creature hidden before Him, but all things are naked and laid bare to the eyes of Him to whom our account is to be given.

3:16 was it not all who came out of Egypt through Moses Three questions in verses 16-18, each answered from Numbers. The rebels were the very people who put the blood on their doors at Passover and walked through the Red Sea. Being among God's people and seeing His works does not mean a person cannot harden his heart.
3:17 whose corpses fell in the wilderness The word is blunt. Their bodies fell just as God said (Num 14:29, 32). For forty years He was patient, feeding and leading them and keeping their clothes from wearing out (Deut 8:4). But the judgment was real.
3:18 except to those who disobeyed The Greek words for unbelief and disobedience are closely related. Unbelief shows itself in disobedience, and disobedience grows out of unbelief. God's promise did not fail. They did not trust the God who made it.
3:19 they were not able to enter in because of unbelief Not the giants, the walls or the armies. The problem was unbelief, and it still is. For believers, unbelief in God's promises keeps us from the peace and joy He wants us to have.
4:1 Let us fear therefore The promise of rest is "left remaining." God did not take it back when the wilderness generation failed. This is not a slave's fear of a beating but a healthy fear of missing what God offers. "Fallen short" pictures a runner who drops out before the finish line.
4:2 not being mixed with faith in those who heard Israel heard good news too, a land and rest. Hearing alone did not help them. Many sit under gospel preaching for years and it does them no good, because they never trust it for themselves. The word received by faith saves.
4:3 For we who have believed enter into the rest The rest is entered by faith, and the tense is present: we enter now. God's rest is not new. He finished His work of creation, and His rest has been waiting ever since for His people to share it.
4:4 And God rested on the seventh day from all His works Genesis 2:2. God did not rest because He was tired but because His work was complete. The seventh day has no evening and morning at its end, which many have taken as a picture of a rest that has no end. The rest offered Israel was a share in God's own peace.
4:6 it remains for some to enter into it When people refuse God's offer, He does not cancel it. He extends it to others (Matt 22:1-10). The door is still open. The question is whether we will go in.
4:7 saying through David after so long a time David wrote Psalm 95 hundreds of years after Joshua led Israel into the land. If the land were all God meant by rest, why was He still calling people to enter in David's day? Every generation hears God's call in its own Today.
4:8 For if Joshua had given them rest The land had rest from war for a time (Josh 21:44; 23:1), but Israel still faced enemies, sinned and later went into exile. Joshua and Jesus are the same name, Hebrew and Greek, meaning the LORD saves. The first Joshua brought Israel into the land. The greater Joshua brings His people into God's true rest.
4:9 So then there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God Sabbatismos, a keeping of the Sabbath, is used only here in the New Testament. Teachers see this rest as salvation rest now (Matt 11:28-30), the future rest of heaven or Christ's kingdom (Rev 14:13), or most often both: begun now by faith and entered fully when we are with Him. This verse does not settle whether Christians must keep a weekly Sabbath, and believers disagree on that (Rom 14:5-6; Col 2:16-17).
4:10 has also himself rested from his works, just as God did from His own We stop working to earn what God has already done. Jesus finished the work (John 19:30), and we rest in it (Rom 4:5). Believers still do good, but we stop trusting our works to make us right with God. Are you still trying to earn a gift?
4:11 Let us therefore be diligent to enter into that rest Be diligent to rest? Trusting Christ day by day takes effort when everything in us wants to take control or turn back. The wilderness generation is a warning sign put up for us (1 Cor 10:6, 11).
4:12 For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword God's Word is not a dead letter. It cuts through our excuses and reaches places no one else can, the deep parts of body and inner man. Teachers discuss how soul and spirit differ, but that is not the point here. "Judge" gives us our word critic. We read the Word, and it reads us.
4:13 all things are naked and laid bare to the eyes of Him to whom our account is to be given Adam and Eve tried to hide among the trees (Gen 3:8). People still hide behind busy lives, religion or excuses. "Laid bare" pictures a neck bent back and exposed. Every person will give an account (Rom 14:12; 2 Cor 5:10). For the believer, the next verse shows what to do with that fear.

Our Great High Priest

14 Having therefore a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus (Iesous) the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the confession. 15 For we do not have a high priest who is not able to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has been tempted in all things according to likeness, without sin. 16 Let us therefore come with boldness to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace for timely help.

4:14 a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God Israel's high priest passed through the curtain into the Most Holy Place once a year. Jesus has passed into the very presence of God. He is human, Jesus, and divine, the Son of God. Why would you leave the One who is already in heaven for you?

4:15 one who has been tempted in all things according to likeness, without sin Jesus can feel with us. He knows weakness from the inside: hunger, loneliness, pain, rejection, and the pull to take an easier path than the cross. He never gave in. Fully man and yet sinless, He can both understand us and help us.

4:16 Let us therefore come with boldness to the throne of grace Even Queen Esther feared for her life going in to the king uninvited (Esth 4:11). Boldness is not carelessness. It is confidence that we will not be turned away. Mercy is God not giving us what we deserve; grace is God giving us what we do not deserve. Do not run from God when you fail. Run to Him.

5:1 every high priest being taken from among men is appointed on behalf of men in the things relating to God A high priest is human, stands for the people, and deals with God for them. Gifts were offerings of thanks; sacrifices for sins dealt with guilt. His greatest work came on the Day of Atonement (Lev 16). Sin separates us from God, and we need someone to stand between.

5:2 being able to deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray Neither too hard nor too soft. He did not excuse sin, but he did not crush the sinner. The Law set apart sins of weakness or ignorance from sins done with a high hand in open defiance (Num 15:27-31). He was wrapped in weakness himself, like a heavy coat.

5:3 so also for himself, to offer for sins Before Aaron offered the goat for the people, he offered a bull for himself and his family (Lev 16:6, 11). Here Jesus is unlike every other high priest. He had no sins of His own (4:15; 7:26-27).

5:4 no one takes the honor for himself, but the one being called by God, just as also Aaron was God chose Aaron and his sons (Exod 28:1). Korah tried to take the priesthood and God judged him (Num 16). King Uzziah burned incense in the temple and was struck with leprosy (2 Chr 26:16-21). The priesthood was God's to give.

5:5 So also the Christ did not glorify Himself to become a high priest Even the Son waited on His Father's call (John 8:54). The God who declared Him Son (Ps 2:7) appointed Him High Priest. He is not a priest who happens to be the Son. He is the Son, and that is why He is the perfect Priest.

5:6 You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek Psalm 110:4, the same psalm that says, "Sit at My right hand" (1:13). Kings came from Judah and priests from Levi, and no one could be both. Psalm 110 speaks of a King who is also a Priest, after the king-priest who met Abraham (Gen 14:18-20). Aaron's priests died and were replaced. This Priest lives "forever."

5:7 with loud crying and tears to the One being able to save Him from death This sounds most like Gethsemane (Matt 26:36-44; Luke 22:41-44), and may include His cries on the cross. How was He heard, when He still died? God saved Him out of death by raising Him. "Reverence" is His godly fear and full surrender to the Father's will.

5:8 although being a Son, He learned obedience from the things which He suffered Jesus was never disobedient. As a man He learned by experience what obedience costs, step by step, until it led Him to the cross (Phil 2:8). If the Son learned obedience through suffering, we should not be surprised when God uses suffering in our lives (12:7-11).

5:9 He became to all those who obey Him the source of eternal salvation "Perfected" means made complete and fully fit for His work, as in 2:10. The old priests' work had to be repeated every year. His salvation lasts forever. Obeying the gospel means believing it (Rom 1:5; 10:16; Acts 6:7). Trusting Christ is the first act of obedience, and a life of obedience follows real faith.

5:10 having been designated by God a high priest God Himself gave Jesus this title. The writer wants to explain Melchizedek, but first he must deal with readers not ready for it, the third warning (5:11-6:12).

5:11 since you have become sluggish in your hearing The problem was not mainly the hard subject. "Sluggish" means slow, dull, lazy. They "have become" this way over time. Spiritual growth does not happen on its own. If we stop listening, even good teaching bounces off us.

5:12 though you ought to be teachers by this time Not everyone should teach in church (James 3:1), but every mature believer should be able to explain the faith (1 Pet 3:15). "The principles of the beginning" are the ABCs. Milk is fine for a newborn, but a grown man who can only drink milk has a problem.

5:13 inexperienced in the word of righteousness, for he is an infant This may mean the teaching about how God makes us right and how we live right, or mature speech that is right. Being a new believer is no sin. Everyone starts as an infant. The problem is staying there.

word of righteousness, for he is an infant. 14 But solid food is for the mature, for those who through practice have the senses trained for discernment of both good and evil.

HEBREWS 6

1 Therefore, having left the word of the beginning of the Christ, let us be carried on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, 2 of the teaching of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. 3 And this we will do, if indeed God permits. 4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5 and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the coming age, 6 and have fallen away, to renew them again to repentance, since they are crucifying again for themselves the Son of God and putting Him to open shame. 7 For land that has drunk the rain often coming upon it, and produces vegetation useful for those for whose sake it is also tilled, partakes of blessing from God; 8 but if it is bringing forth thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to a curse, whose end is for burning. 9 But concerning you, beloved, we have been persuaded of the better things and things accompanying salvation, even if we speak in this way. 10 For God is not unjust, to forget your work and the labor of love which you have shown toward His name, having ministered to the saints and still ministering. 11 And we desire each of you to show the same earnestness toward the full assurance of the hope until the end, 12 so that you may not become sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

God's Sure Promise

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham (Abraam), since He had no one greater by whom to swear, He swore by Himself, 14 saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you." 15 And thus, having waited patiently, he obtained the promise. 16 For men indeed swear by the greater one, and in all their dispute the oath is an end

5:14 those who through practice have the senses trained for discernment of both good and evil "Mature" means full-grown. "Trained" gives us our word gymnasium. Maturity does not come from hearing more but from using what we hear again and again. The result is discernment that sees through false teaching and smart-sounding temptation.

6:1 let us be carried on to maturity Leaving the first lessons does not mean throwing them away. A builder builds on the foundation. "Carried on" is passive: we do our part, but God carries us forward. The foundation comes in three pairs. First, repentance, a change of mind that turns from sin, and faith toward God. Dead works cannot give life, whether sins or rituals done to earn God's favor (9:14).

6:2 of the teaching of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment The second pair is outward acts. Baptisms is plural: the readers knew the washings of the Law (9:10), John's baptism and Christian baptism. Hands were laid on to bless, to set apart for service, and at times when the Spirit was given (Acts 6:6; 8:17; 13:3). The third pair is the future (John 5:28-29; Acts 24:15). All true, and all only the beginning.

6:3 if indeed God permits Not a pious phrase tacked on. We cannot make ourselves grow any more than a farmer can make a seed sprout (1 Cor 3:6-7; James 4:15).

6:4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened One of the most debated passages in the Bible. These people had the light of the gospel shine on them, tasted the heavenly gift, shared in the Spirit's work, tasted God's word, and saw miracles that gave a foretaste of the kingdom (2:4). Then they fell away. Who are they? See the note at 6:6.

6:6 and have fallen away, to renew them again to repentance, since they are crucifying again for themselves the Son of God For these readers, going back to the temple sacrifices meant siding with the crowd that cried out to crucify Him. Some read the Greek as meaning while they keep on doing this. Others read "impossible" as final. Good teachers hold four views. They are true believers facing loss of reward and severe discipline (1 Cor 3:12-15), like the wilderness generation. They were in the church but never truly believed, like Judas (1 John 2:19). They are true believers who lose salvation with no return. Or the writer describes what cannot happen to a true believer to show how serious it would be, and verse 9 shows he did not expect it of them. I do not settle it here. If you fear you have fallen beyond hope, that worry is itself a sign God is at work in you. Come. He will not cast out anyone who comes (John 6:37).

6:7 land that has drunk the rain often coming upon it The rain is like the gospel and the Spirit's work falling on those who hear. Good land bears a useful crop. The same rain brings different results, and what we produce shows what we are (Matt 13:3-23).

6:8 it is worthless and near to a curse, whose end is for burning Farmers sometimes burned off a field full of weeds. The four views read the burning as the loss of worthless works, as final judgment on those who never truly believed, or as the loss of one who fell away. The writer stops at "near to a curse" and then turns to hope.

6:9 But concerning you, beloved, we have been persuaded of the better things and things accompanying salvation The tone changes. "Things accompanying salvation" are the fruit that shows the root is alive. A pastor warns because he loves his people, and he speaks hope because he sees God's work in them. When we warn others, we should do it the same way.

6:10 For God is not unjust, to forget your work and the labor of love God keeps a record of every kindness. Nothing done for Him is wasted (Matt 10:42; 1 Cor 15:58). Caring for His people is caring for Him (Matt 25:40). Real faith works through love (Gal 5:6).

6:11 the full assurance of the hope until the end God wants "each of you" to be fully sure of what He promised. Assurance is not for a few super-Christians. It is His will for every believer who trusts Him (1 John 5:13).

6:12 imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises The same word "sluggish" as in 5:11. Faith trusts God's promises; patience waits for them. Faith without patience gives up too soon. Look for people in Scripture and in your church who have trusted God for the long haul, and follow them.

6:13 since He had no one greater by whom to swear, He swore by Himself From warning to assurance. After Abraham offered Isaac, God swore an oath (Gen 22:16-18). People swear by someone greater. There is no one greater than God, so He put His own name on the line.

6:14 Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you Genesis 22:17. The repeated words are a Hebrew way of saying something strongly. Through Abraham's Seed, Christ, blessing has come to the nations (Gal 3:8, 16), and God is still keeping His promises to Israel (Rom 11:28-29).

6:15 having waited patiently, he obtained the promise Abraham waited twenty-five years for Isaac (Gen 12:4; 21:5), then passed the test of offering him (11:17-19). He did not see all of the promise in his lifetime, but he saw enough to know God was faithful. God's timing is never wrong.

6:16 the oath is an end for confirmation An oath settled disputes then, as a witness in court swears today. If an oath settles things among men, how much more does God's oath settle things for us?

for confirmation. 17 In which God, desiring more abundantly to show to the heirs of the promise the unchangeableness of His purpose, guaranteed it by an oath, 18 so that through two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge may have strong encouragement to take hold of the hope being set before us, 19 which we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and firm, and entering into that within the veil, 20 where Jesus (Iesous) has entered as a forerunner for us, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek (Melchisedek).

Melchizedek the King-Priest

1 For this Melchizedek (Melchisedek), king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham (Abraam) returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, 2 to whom also Abraham apportioned a tenth of all, being first, when translated, king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace, 3 without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God, remains a priest perpetually. 4 Now consider how great this one was, to whom even Abraham the patriarch gave a tenth out of the best spoils. 5 And those indeed from the sons of Levi (Leui) who receive the priestly office have a commandment to collect a tenth from the people according to the law, that is, from their brothers, though they have come out of the loins of Abraham. 6 But the one whose ancestry is not traced from them has collected a tenth from Abraham, and has blessed the one having the promises. 7 Now apart from all dispute, the lesser is blessed by the better. 8 And here indeed dying men receive tithes, but there one receives them of whom it is testified that he lives. 9 And, so to speak, through Abraham even Levi, the one receiving tithes, has paid tithes, 10 for he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

A Priest Forever

11 If then indeed perfection were through the Levitical priesthood, for the people had received the law upon it, what further need was there for another priest to arise according to the order of Melchizedek, and not to be named according to the order of Aaron? 12 For when the priesthood is being changed, of necessity a change of law also takes place. 13 For He concerning whom these things are spoken has belonged to another tribe, from which no one has served at the altar.

6:17 the unchangeableness of His purpose, guaranteed it by an oath God's word alone is enough. He added an oath because He knows how weak our faith can be and wanted His children to be sure. "The heirs of the promise" are Abraham and all who share his faith.
6:18 in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge The two unchangeable things are His promise and His oath (Titus 1:2). In 6:4 it was impossible to renew those who fall away. Here it is impossible for God to lie. Set the two side by side. The picture is the cities of refuge, where a man who killed by accident could run and be safe (Num 35:9-15).
6:19 an anchor of the soul, both sure and firm, and entering into that within the veil An anchor keeps a ship from drifting (2:1). A normal anchor goes down into the sea. This one goes up, behind the veil into the Most Holy Place where God's presence was. Our hope is fastened to God's own throne.
6:20 where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us Israel's high priest went behind the veil alone, and no one could follow. A forerunner runs ahead to prepare the way for others. We will follow Him there (John 14:2-3). Our hope is as secure as Jesus Himself, and He lives forever.
7:1 this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High From Genesis 14:17-20. Abraham had rescued Lot by defeating four kings, and on his way home Melchizedek brought out bread and wine and blessed him. A king who was also a priest of the true God, long before Moses or Levi. Salem is most likely the early name of Jerusalem (Ps 76:2).
7:2 king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace Abraham gave a tenth, a tithe, freely, hundreds of years before the Law required it. Melchizedek means king of righteousness, and Salem is close to shalom, peace. Righteousness first, then peace: God makes us right with Him, and then we have peace with Him (Rom 5:1; Isa 9:6-7).
7:3 without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life A priest in Israel had to prove his line from Aaron (Ezra 2:61-62). Genesis gives Melchizedek no family line, birth or death. Most teachers hold he was a real king-priest whom that silence makes a type, or picture, of Christ, since he was "made like the Son of God." Others see an appearance of the Son of God before Bethlehem. An old Jewish tradition named him Shem, though few hold that today. Each view honors Christ, the real eternal Priest.
7:4 Now consider how great this one was To a Jewish reader there was no greater man than Abraham the patriarch, the father of the nation. Yet he gave Melchizedek a tenth "out of the best spoils," honoring him as the greater.
7:5 have a commandment to collect a tenth from the people according to the law The people tithed to the Levites, and the Levites tithed to the priests (Num 18:21-28), since they had no land like the other tribes. They took tithes from their own brothers only because the Law gave them that right.
7:6 has blessed the one having the promises Melchizedek was not a Levite, nor even a son of Abraham. He needed no law to give him the right. Abraham, who carried the blessing for the world (Gen 12:2-3), bowed to receive a blessing from this priest-king.
7:7 the lesser is blessed by the better When a priest blesses in God's name, the one blessing holds the higher place. This is no put-down of Abraham, but God had a priest whose order stood above the father of the nation, and so above the Levites who came from him.
7:8 there one receives them of whom it is testified that he lives Levi's priests served, took tithes and died. Scripture records no death for Melchizedek. The silence of Genesis pictures the Priest who really does live forever (7:16, 24-25).
7:9 And, so to speak, through Abraham even Levi, the one receiving tithes, has paid tithes "So to speak" shows this is a way of putting it. Levi was Abraham's great-grandson. In the Bible's way of thinking a man's descendants are counted as in him (7:10), so every priest from Levi in effect paid tithes to Melchizedek.
7:11 If then indeed perfection were through the Levitical priesthood Perfection is bringing people fully to God, sins dealt with and conscience clean (9:9; 10:1, 14). The Law and the priesthood went together. David wrote Psalm 110 long after Aaron's priesthood was set up. If it were enough, why promise a priest of a different order?
7:12 of necessity a change of law also takes place A big step for Jewish readers. God's moral standards do not change. But the priests, sacrifices and rituals given at Sinai were a temporary arrangement that has served its purpose. The Law was a guardian until Christ came (Gal 3:24-25).

14 For it is evident that our Lord has sprung out of Judah (Ioudas), as to which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. 15 And it is yet more abundantly evident if another priest arises according to the likeness of Melchizedek, 16 who has become such not according to a law of a fleshly commandment, but according to the power of an indestructible life. 17 For He testifies that, "You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek." 18 For indeed there is a setting aside of the preceding commandment because of its weakness and uselessness, 19 for the law perfected nothing; but there is the bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God. 20 And inasmuch as it was not apart from an oath 21 (for they indeed have become priests without an oath, but He with an oath through the One saying to Him, "The Lord has sworn and will not change His mind, 'You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek'"), 22 by so much Jesus (Iesous) has become the guarantee of a better covenant. 23 And they indeed have become many priests because they are prevented by death from continuing; 24 but He, because He abides forever, holds the priesthood permanently.
25 Therefore He is also able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through Him, always living to intercede for them. 26 For such a high priest was fitting for us: holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners, and having become higher than the heavens; 27 who does not have need every day, as the high priests do, to offer up sacrifices first for their own sins, then for those of the people; for this He did once for all when He offered up Himself. 28 For the law appoints men as high priests having weakness, but the word of the oath, which came after the law, appoints a Son, perfected forever.

7:14 our Lord has sprung out of Judah Everyone knew Jesus came from David's line in Judah (Matt 1:1-3; Rev 5:5). "Sprung" is used for the sun rising and for a plant springing up, and the prophets use it of the Branch from David (Jer 23:5). The Law gave no priests from Judah, so His priesthood belongs to another order.
7:16 but according to the power of an indestructible life Levi's priests got their place by birth. Jesus is a priest because of who He is. He died, but death could not hold Him, and He can never die again (Rom 6:9).
"Indestructible" means it cannot be broken up or dissolved.
7:17 You are a priest forever The third time the writer quotes Psalm 110:4 (5:6; 6:20). People we rely on move away, grow old and die. Our High Priest will never leave His post.
7:18 there is a setting aside of the preceding commandment because of its weakness and uselessness The law of the priesthood and its system has been put out of force. The Law is holy and good (Rom 7:12), but it could not do what we most needed. It could show sin but not take it away.
7:19 but there is the bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God The Law kept people at a distance. Only the high priest went into the Most Holy Place, and only once a year. Through Christ every believer can draw near.
7:21 The Lord has sworn and will not change His mind Levi's priests took office by birth with no oath. God swore an oath to His Son, and when God swears the matter is settled forever (6:17-18). He will never regret it or reverse it.
7:22 Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant A covenant is a binding agreement. The better covenant is the new covenant of Jeremiah 31, explained in chapter 8. "Guarantee" is used only here in the New Testament, of one who put up his own life or property to back a promise, like a cosigner. As long as He lives the covenant stands, and He lives forever.
7:23 they are prevented by death from continuing Aaron died and Eleazar took his place (Num 20:23-28), and so on down the generations. However good a priest was, death stopped him, and there was always a break in the work.
7:24 holds the priesthood permanently He will never have a successor. The priesthood cannot pass to another. The same Jesus who prayed for Peter (Luke 22:31-32) prays for you, and He will never stop.
7:25 Therefore He is also able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through Him, always living to intercede for them "To the uttermost" means completely, all the way and for all time. He does not save part way and leave the rest to us. To intercede is to speak to God on someone's behalf (Rom 8:34; 1 John 2:1). His death paid for our sins once for all, and His life in heaven keeps us. If you belong to Christ, the Son of God is praying for you today.
7:26 holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners He lived among sinners, ate with them and touched them, but was never one of them in character. Now He is separated in place too, seated at God's right hand. A sinful priest could only offer for others what he needed himself. Ours is spotless.
7:27 for this He did once for all when He offered up Himself Jesus was both Priest and sacrifice. He did not bring a lamb. He was the Lamb (John 1:29). "Once for all" returns in chapters 9 and 10. Nothing can be added to His sacrifice.
7:28 the word of the oath, which came after the law, appoints a Son, perfected forever The oath of Psalm 110:4 came centuries after the Law, showing God was replacing the old order. The Law gave weak men. God's oath gave His perfect Son.
8:1 Now the main point of the things being spoken is this: we have such a high priest After all the detail about Melchizedek, here is the point. There was no chair in the tabernacle, and the priests never sat while they served. Jesus sat down because His sacrifice was finished, and at the right hand of the throne. Our High Priest is also the King (1:3, 13; 10:12; 12:2).
8:2 the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man A minister here is one who serves in worship. "True" does not mean the earthly tent was false. God commanded it. True means real, the original, compared to a copy. Moses and the people built the earthly tent of gold, wood and cloth. The real one is God's own presence.
8:3 it was necessary for this One also to have something that He may offer A priest without an offering is not a priest. Jesus offered Himself and brought His own blood, not the blood of animals (7:27; 9:12). His work in heaven rests on that one offering.
8:4 For if indeed He were on earth, He would not even be a priest Jesus was from Judah, not Levi (7:14). The present tense, "there are the priests who offer," is one reason many believe Hebrews was written before A.D. 70, when Rome destroyed the temple and the sacrifices stopped.

the law, 5 who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses was divinely instructed when he was about to complete the tabernacle; for "See," He says, "that you make all things according to the pattern which was shown to you on the mountain." 6 But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as He is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises. 7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, a place would not have been sought for a second. 8 For finding fault with them, He says, "Look, days are coming, says the Lord, and I will complete with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah (Ioudas) a new covenant, 9 not according to the covenant which I made with their fathers in the day of My taking hold of their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt (Aigyptos); because they did not continue in My covenant, and I disregarded them, says the Lord. 10 For this is the covenant which I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: putting My laws into their mind, I will also inscribe them on their hearts; and I will be to them for God, and they will be to Me for a people. 11 And they shall certainly not teach each his neighbor and each his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord,' because all will know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them. 12 Because I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and their sins and their lawless deeds I will certainly not remember any more." 13 In saying "new," He has made the first obsolete; and what is growing obsolete and aging is near vanishing.

The Earthly Tabernacle

1 Therefore indeed even the first covenant had regulations of worship and the earthly holy place. 2 For a tabernacle was prepared, the first, in which were both the lampstand and the table and the presentation of the bread, which is called the Holy Place. 3 And behind the second veil was a tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies, 4 having a golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant covered on all sides with gold, in which was a golden jar having the manna, and the staff of Aaron which budded, and the tablets of the covenant; 5 and above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat; concerning which things it is not the time now to

8:5 who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things A shadow has the shape of what casts it, but you cannot shake hands with a shadow. God gave Moses exact directions (Exod 25:9, 40), because the tabernacle was a picture of heaven and of Christ's work. The ark, the altar, the lampstand and the veil all pointed to Him.
8:6 He is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises A mediator is a go-between who brings two sides together. Moses mediated the old covenant at Sinai. Jesus mediates the new by His own blood (9:15; 1 Tim 2:5). The old covenant depended on the people keeping their side (Deut 28). The new rests on what God promises He will do (8:10-12).
8:7 if that first covenant had been faultless The first covenant was not evil. It showed God's holiness, revealed sin and pointed to Christ, but it could not change the human heart. God's promise of a new one shows the old was never meant to be the last word.
8:8 For finding fault with them The fault was with the people, not God's side. The quote is Jeremiah 31:31-34, spoken near the fall of Jerusalem to Babylon. The kingdom had split, and God promised the new covenant to "the house of Israel and with the house of Judah," the whole nation brought back together. God has not forgotten that promise.
8:9 in the day of My taking hold of their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt A tender picture, like a father leading a child. Israel worshiped idols, ignored the prophets and broke the covenant again and again, so God let them go their own way and sent them into exile. People cannot keep God's Law in their own strength.
8:10 putting My laws into their mind, I will also inscribe them on their hearts The old Law was written on stone. The new is written on the heart, so we want to do God's will (Ezek 36:26-27). "I will be to them for God" is the heart of every covenant God makes, a real and lasting relationship.
8:11 because all will know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them This does not mean no teachers (Eph 4:11). Knowing God will not be for a few. Under the old covenant many had to be told to know Him. Do you know God that way, not just know about Him?
8:12 their sins and their lawless deeds I will certainly not remember any more Notice "because." All the rest rests on forgiveness. God does not forget as we do. He will never bring our sins up against us again. The old sacrifices reminded people of their sins every year (10:3). Under the new covenant they are gone (10:17).
8:13 In saying "new," He has made the first obsolete If the letter was written in the 60s, the temple fell only a few years later, in A.D. 70. Jesus called the cup the new covenant in His blood (Luke 22:20), so believers today, Jew and Gentile, share its blessings now: forgiveness, a new heart and knowing God. But the church has not replaced Israel. God will keep this promise to the house of Israel and Judah, and all Israel will be saved when Christ returns (Rom 11:25-29).
9:1 regulations of worship and the earthly holy place The writer is not mocking the old worship. God set it up, with rules about how to approach Him. He speaks of the tabernacle rather than the temple because it was the pattern God gave Moses (8:5), and the temple followed the same plan. Everything about it taught that God is holy and sinful people cannot just walk into His presence.
9:2 the lampstand and the table and the presentation of the bread, which is called the Holy Place The tent had two rooms. In the first, seven lamps burned every night (Exod 25:31-40; 27:20-21), and twelve loaves, one for each tribe, were set before the LORD and replaced every Sabbath (Lev 24:5-9). Both point to Jesus, the Light of the world and the Bread of life (John 8:12; 6:35).
9:3 behind the second veil was a tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies A thick curtain woven with cherubim separated the inner room (Exod 26:31-33). "Holy of Holies" is a Hebrew way of saying the holiest place of all, where God's presence dwelt. When Jesus died, the temple veil was torn from top to bottom (Matt 27:51). God Himself opened the way.
9:4 having a golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant The incense altar stood just before the veil (Exod 30:6), but its work belonged to the inner room. On the Day of Atonement the high priest carried coals and incense from it inside (Lev 16:12-13; 1 Kgs 6:22). Some take the word as a golden censer. The ark was a gold-covered chest (Exod 25:10-16). The manna, Aaron's staff and the tablets reminded Israel that God fed them, chose the priest and gave the Law (Exod 16:33; Num 17:8-10; Deut 10:5).
9:5 the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat The gold lid of the ark, with two cherubim spreading their wings over it, where God met with Moses (Exod 25:17-22). Below it was the broken Law, above it God's glory, and between them the blood (Lev 16:14-15). That is a picture of the gospel. The Greek word for mercy seat is the word Paul uses for Jesus as our propitiation (Rom 3:25).

speak in detail. 6 Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests enter continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services; 7 but into the second the high priest alone enters once in the year, not without blood, which he offers for himself and for the sins of ignorance of the people; 8 the Holy Spirit signifying this, that the way into the holy places has not yet been made manifest while the first tabernacle still has standing, 9 which is a symbol for the present time, in which both gifts and sacrifices are offered which are not able to make the one who worships perfect in regard to conscience, 10 being only in foods and drinks and various washings, and regulations of the flesh imposed until a time of reformation.

Once for All by His Own Blood

11 But Christ, having appeared as high priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not of this creation, 12 nor through blood of goats and calves, but through His own blood, entered once for all into the holy places, having obtained eternal redemption. 13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled sanctifies for the purification of the flesh, 14 how much more will the blood of the Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself unblemished to God, purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? 15 And because of this He is the mediator of a new covenant, so that, a death having taken place for redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. 16 For where there is a covenant, there is necessity for the death of the one who made it to be established. 17 For a covenant is firm over dead ones, since it never has force while the one who made it is living. 18 Therefore not even the first covenant has been inaugurated apart from blood. 19 For when every commandment according to the law had been spoken by Moses (Moyses) to all the people, having taken the blood of the calves and of the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, he sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, 20 saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God commanded to you." 21 And likewise he sprinkled with the blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry. 22 And almost all things are purified with blood according to the law, and apart from shedding of

9:6 the priests enter continually into the first tabernacle Lamps trimmed, incense morning and evening, bread changed every Sabbath. Their work never stopped, and they could never say, It is finished. The present tense fits a date before A.D. 70.

9:7 the high priest alone enters once in the year, not without blood One man, one room, one day a year, and only with blood (Lev 16:2, 34). Everyone else stayed outside. The way to God was narrow and mostly closed.

9:8 the Holy Spirit signifying this The Spirit designed the tabernacle to teach. As long as the old system stood, the way into God's presence was not yet open. The veil said, Keep out. The old covenant could show the problem but not solve it. Only Christ opened the way (10:19-20).

9:9 which is a symbol for the present time Parabole, the word that gives us parable. The conscience is the inner sense of right and wrong that accuses us when we sin. A man could bring his offering and go home still guilty. Rituals may cover guilt for a while. Only the blood of Christ removes it (9:14).

9:10 imposed until a time of reformation Rules about food, drink and washings taught that God is holy and kept Israel separate from the nations, but they could not change the heart (Mark 7:18-23). They were given for a set time, until God would set things right, and that time came with Christ.

9:11 But Christ, having appeared as high priest of the coming good things The turning point. The old system was a shadow of good things to come (10:1). Christ brings the things themselves: forgiveness, a clean conscience, access to God. He serves in God's real presence, which no human hand built.

9:12 but through His own blood, entered once for all into the holy places, having obtained eternal redemption The high priest brought the blood of a bull and a goat (Lev 16:14-15), once a year, every year. Jesus brought His own, once for all. Redemption is setting free by paying a price. The old sacrifices covered sin for a year. His redemption never wears off and never needs renewing.

9:13 the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled The ashes of a red heifer mixed with water cleansed anyone who touched a dead body (Num 19:1-22). These did work in their own way, making a person outwardly clean to share in worship again, but they reached only the flesh.

9:14 who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself unblemished to God, purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living God All three Persons of the Trinity are here. Unblemished like the lambs the Law required, but perfectly so (1 Pet 1:19), and no one forced Him (John 10:18). We are made clean not just to feel better but to serve. Do you carry guilt you have already confessed? His blood is enough.

9:15 a death having taken place for redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant Christ's death reaches back. Abraham, David and the prophets were saved by faith, and the price for their sins was paid at the cross (Rom 3:25-26). Canaan could be lost. The eternal inheritance cannot (1 Pet 1:4). The church shares this new covenant now, and Israel as a nation will receive all of it when He returns (8:13 note).

9:16 where there is a covenant, there is necessity for the death of the one who made it Diatheke, covenant, was also the normal word for a last will, and many Bibles read "will" in verses 16-17. A will takes effect only when its maker dies. Others read covenants in general, sealed by the death of an animal standing in for the one who made it (Gen 15:9-18). Either way, Jesus had to die for the promises to come into force.

9:18 not even the first covenant has been inaugurated apart from blood The Sinai covenant was sealed with the blood of sacrifices (Exod 24:3-8). Blood stands for life given up in death (Lev 17:11). A relationship with God, for sinners, can only be made through a death.

9:19 with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, he sprinkled both the book itself and all the people Hyssop was a small-leaved plant good for sprinkling. The writer adds details Exodus 24 does not record. Water, scarlet wool and hyssop were used together in other cleansings (Lev 14:4-7; Num 19:6, 18).

9:20 This is the blood of the covenant which God commanded to you Close to the words Jesus spoke over the cup at the Last Supper (Matt 26:28). His death would seal the new covenant as the blood at Sinai sealed the old.

9:21 he sprinkled with the blood both the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry Why cleanse a holy place built at God's command (Exod 40:9-11; Lev 8:10-15, 30)? It stood among a sinful people. Sin affects not just what we do but where we live and what we use.

9:22 apart from shedding of blood there is no forgiveness "Almost" is honest: a very poor person could bring flour (Lev 5:11-13), and some things were cleaned by water or fire (Num 31:22-23). One of the key verses in the Bible. Sin brings death (Rom 6:23), and forgiveness requires a death. It shows how serious sin is, how holy God is, and how deep His love is.

blood there is no forgiveness. 23 It was necessary therefore for the copies of the things in the heavens to be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ has not entered into holy places made by hands, copies of the true ones, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; 25 nor that He should offer Himself repeatedly, just as the high priest enters into the holy places every year with blood of another; 26 otherwise it would have been necessary for Him to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world; but now once, at the consummation of the ages, He has been revealed for the putting away of sin through the sacrifice of Himself. 27 And inasmuch as it is appointed to men to die once, and after this judgment, 28 so the Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, apart from sin, to those who eagerly await Him for salvation.

One Sacrifice for All Time

1 For the law, having a shadow of the coming good things, not the very image of the things, can never with the same sacrifices which they offer continually every year perfect those who draw near. 2 Otherwise, would they not have ceased being offered, because those serving, once purified, would no longer have any conscience of sins? 3 But in these there is a reminder of sins every year. 4 For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and of goats to take away sins. 5 Therefore, coming into the world, He says, "Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but a body You prepared for Me; 6 in burnt offerings and offerings for sin You did not delight. 7 Then I said, 'Look, I have come (in the scroll of the book it has been written of Me) to do Your will, O God.'" 8 Saying above, "Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offerings for sin You did not desire nor delight in" (which are offered according to the law), 9 then He has said, "Look, I have come to do Your will, O God." He takes away the first so that He may establish the second. 10 By which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus (Iesous) Christ once for all. 11 And every priest indeed stands every day ministering and repeatedly offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins; 12 but He, having offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, sat down at the right hand

9:23 but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these Heaven is not dirty with sin. Many think the way into God's presence had to be opened and set apart for sinners. Others think of Christ's cleansing reaching all creation (Col 1:20). "Better sacrifices" points to the one sacrifice of Christ, better than all the old ones.
9:24 but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us The high priest stood before God for a few minutes each year. Right now the Son of God stands in the Father's presence on your behalf, if you belong to Him (7:25).
9:25 nor that He should offer Himself repeatedly The high priest went in year after year "with blood of another." Jesus offered His own blood, once. To say His sacrifice must be repeated or added to is to say it was not enough.
9:26 but now once, at the consummation of the ages, He has been revealed for the putting away of sin through the sacrifice of Himself The consummation of the ages is the end point all earlier ages pointed to (Gal 4:4). The old sacrifices covered sin. Christ put it away, cancelled it.
9:27 it is appointed to men to die once, and after this judgment No second chance after death and no reincarnation. Death, then judgment. For those without Christ that means the great white throne (Rev 20:11-15). For believers, the judgment seat of Christ, for rewards, not salvation (2 Cor 5:10). Are you ready to meet God?
9:28 will appear a second time, apart from sin, to those who eagerly await Him for salvation He bore our sins on the cross (Isa 53:12; 1 Pet 2:24). The picture is the high priest coming back out of the Most Holy Place while the people waited to know the sacrifice was accepted. I believe Christ comes first for His church before the seven-year Tribulation (1 Thess 4:13-18; John 14:1-3), then returns visibly in glory at its end (Matt 24:29-31; Rev 19:11-16). Pre-tribulation teachers differ on whether this verse points mainly to the rapture or to His return as a whole. Are you waiting for Him?
10:1 having a shadow of the coming good things, not the very image of the things The Law had the outline of what Christ would bring, but not the reality itself (8:5). "The same sacrifices," "continually," "every year": the repetition proved they were not enough to bring worshipers fully and finally to God.
10:2 would they not have ceased being offered You do not keep paying a debt that has been paid in full. Cleansed once for all, worshipers would no longer carry a guilty conscience. The present tense again points to a date before A.D. 70.
10:3 But in these there is a reminder of sins every year The Day of Atonement brought sin back to mind. Under the new covenant God remembers sins no more (8:12; 10:17). Many believers still live as if under the old system, reminding themselves of sins God has forgiven (1 John 1:9). Live as one forgiven.
10:4 it is impossible for the blood of bulls and of goats to take away sins An animal cannot pay for a person's sin. It did not know right from wrong or choose to die for anyone. Old Testament believers were saved by faith in God's promise, and the payment was made later by Christ (9:15; Rom 3:25).
10:5 a body You prepared for Me Psalm 40:6-8, put in the mouth of Christ as He came into the world. God wanted obedience and a loving heart, not sacrifices for their own sake (1 Sam 15:22). The Greek Old Testament reads "body." The Hebrew speaks of ears God has opened. Both point to a servant ready to obey, and God prepared a body for His Son to offer as the true sacrifice.
10:7 Look, I have come to do Your will, O God The Old Testament scroll was written about Him (Luke 24:27, 44).
10:9 He takes away the first so that He may establish the second God commanded the sacrifices, but He took no pleasure in them apart from the hearts of the people or the Christ they pointed to. The first is the old system. The second is God's will done by Christ in His sacrifice.
10:10 we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all Here to be sanctified is to be set apart as holy for God, something He has done for us. Not through our works, feelings or religious efforts, but through His body offered once.
10:11 every priest indeed stands every day The priests never sat down. The same animals, the same blood, the same smoke rising from the altar, year after year, and it never took away one sin. That is not a criticism of the priests but the honest limit of a shadow.
10:12 having offered one sacrifice for sins for all time, sat down at the right hand of God The priests stand; Christ sat. They offered many; He offered one. He now waits, seated in victory, for every enemy to be put under His feet when He returns to reign (1 Cor 15:24-26; Rev 19:11-16). He is not rushing. The outcome is certain.

of God, 13 from then on waiting until His enemies are placed as a footstool for His feet. 14 For by one offering He has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. 15 And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after having said before, 16 "This is the covenant which I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: putting My laws on their hearts, I will also inscribe them on their minds," 17 He then says, "and their sins and their lawless deeds I will certainly not remember any more." 18 Now where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

Draw Near and Hold Fast

19 Having therefore, brothers, confidence for the entrance into the holy places by the blood of Jesus, 20 by a new and living way which He inaugurated for us through the veil, that is, His flesh, 21 and having a great priest over the house of God, 22 let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our body washed with pure water. 23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful; 24 and let us consider one another for stirring up of love and of good works, 25 not forsaking the assembling together of ourselves, as is the custom of some, but encouraging one another, and so much the more as you see the day drawing near.

Do Not Shrink Back

26 For if we sin willingly after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, 27 but a certain fearful expectation of judgment and a fury of fire about to devour the adversaries. 28 Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercies on the testimony of two or three witnesses. 29 How much worse punishment, do you think, will he be considered worthy of who has trampled on the Son of God, and has regarded as common the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? 30 For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, says the Lord." And again, "The Lord will judge His people." 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. 32 But remember the former days in which, having been enlightened, you endured a great

10:14 For by one offering He has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified One of the great assurance verses. "He has perfected" is done, and nothing can add to it or undo it. At the same time believers are being made holy in daily life. Our standing is complete; our growth is in progress. Your standing does not rise on good days and fall on bad ones.
10:15 And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us The Spirit who spoke through Jeremiah. The writer quotes Jeremiah 31 again (8:8-12) for one line: God will not remember sins any more. Believers share this forgiveness now, and Israel as a nation will receive all of it when Christ returns (Rom 11:26-27).
10:18 there is no longer an offering for sin The conclusion of the teaching half of the letter. Going back to the temple meant going from what had already helped them to what could not. No religious act adds to Christ's work. "It has been finished" (John 19:30).
10:19 confidence for the entrance into the holy places by the blood of Jesus "Therefore" points back to chapters 7-10 as the writer turns to living. Only the high priest went in, once a year, trembling. Now every believer may go in boldly.
10:20 by a new and living way which He inaugurated for us through the veil, that is, His flesh New, never open before. Living, because the way is a living Person. When His body was torn on the cross, the temple veil was torn too (Mark 15:37-38).
10:22 let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith The first of three "let us" commands. The priests were sprinkled with blood and washed before they served (Exod 29:4, 21). Many see "our body washed with pure water" as baptism, the outward sign of inward cleansing. Others see the cleansing of the Spirit and the Word (Eph 5:26; Titus 3:5).
10:23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful The readers were under pressure to let go. Our holding fast rests on His faithfulness (1 Thess 5:24). Our hope does not depend on how strong our grip is but on the One we hold.
10:24 let us consider one another for stirring up of love and of good works Think about one another the way you would work on a problem you want to solve. "Stirring up" usually meant provoking in a bad sense. Here we provoke one another to love. You cannot stir up someone you never see.
10:25 not forsaking the assembling together of ourselves, as is the custom of some Some had stopped meeting, perhaps from fear, coldness, or thinking they did not need it. Church is where we encourage and are encouraged, hear the Word, worship, pray and serve. A coal pulled out of the fire soon goes out. Most read "the day" as Christ's return (1 Thess 5:2-4; Rom 13:12). Some think it includes the coming fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70.
10:26 For if we sin willingly after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins The fourth warning (10:26-39). "Willingly" means deliberately, and the tense points to going on in it. In context the sin is rejecting Christ's sacrifice (10:29). Reject the one sacrifice that saves and there is no other. This does not mean every believer who sins knowingly is lost (1 John 1:9; 2:1).
10:27 a fury of fire about to devour the adversaries Adversaries are those who set themselves against God. For those who reject Christ, nothing is left but judgment.
10:28 Anyone who has set aside the law of Moses dies without mercies on the testimony of two or three witnesses Turning to idols brought death when proven by two or three witnesses (Deut 17:2-7). "Set aside" is open, deliberate rejection, not ordinary failure.
10:29 has regarded as common the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has insulted the Spirit of grace To trample is to treat as something to walk on. "By which he was sanctified" is part of why this passage is debated. It may mean set apart by his link with God's people or by his claim, or it may mean truly saved.
10:30 Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, says the Lord Deuteronomy 32:35-36. Paul uses the same words to tell believers not to take revenge (Rom 12:19). In the song of Moses, "The Lord will judge His people" means God judges between the faithful and the faithless among them (1 Pet 4:17).
10:31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God God is not an idol of wood or stone. He sees, acts and judges. Teachers read this warning the same four ways: true believers facing severe discipline, even death, and loss of reward; those who professed but never truly trusted; loss of salvation; or what would happen if a believer could turn away. Read it with verse 39. David chose to fall into the LORD's hands because His mercies are great (2 Sam 24:14). The hands that judge were pierced for us.
10:32 remember the former days in which, having been enlightened, you endured a great conflict of sufferings After warning comes encouragement, as in chapter 6. Remembering how God carried us before helps us keep going now. What has God brought you through?

conflict of sufferings, 33 partly being made a spectacle both by reproaches and by tribulations, and partly having become partners of those who were treated so. 34 For you both sympathized with my bonds and accepted with joy the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have in yourselves a better and abiding possession in the heavens. 35 Therefore do not throw away your boldness, which has a great reward. 36 For you have need of endurance, so that having done the will of God you may receive the promise. 37 "For yet a very little while, and the One who is coming will come and will not delay. 38 But the righteous will live by faith; and if he shrinks back, My soul takes no pleasure in him." 39 But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the preserving of the soul.

Faith from Abel to Noah

1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. 2 For by this the elders were commended. 3 By faith we understand the ages to have been formed by the word of God, so that the things which are seen have not come into being out of things that are visible. 4 By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain (Kain), through which he was commended as being righteous, God bearing witness about his gifts; and through it, having died, he still speaks. 5 By faith Enoch (Henoch) was taken up so as not to see death, and he was not found, because God had taken him up; for before his taking up he has been commended as having pleased God. 6 And without faith it is impossible to please Him; for the one who draws near to God must believe that He is, and that He becomes a rewarder to those who earnestly seek Him. 7 By faith Noah (Noe), having been divinely instructed concerning the things not yet seen, moved with reverent fear, prepared an ark for the salvation of his household, through which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.

The Faith of the Patriarchs

8 By faith Abraham (Abraam), being called, obeyed to go out into the place which he was going to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he was going. 9 By faith he sojourned in the land of the promise as in a foreign land, having dwelt in tents with Isaac (Isaak) and Jacob

10:33 being made a spectacle both by reproaches and by tribulations Some were mocked in public like people in an arena. Others stood with them and shared their shame.
10:34 For you both sympathized with my bonds The SLB follows the Greek text that reads "my bonds," the writer's own imprisonment. Many older copies read the prisoners. They took the seizing of their property with joy, because what they lost on earth could not touch what they had in heaven (Matt 6:19-20).
10:35 do not throw away your boldness, which has a great reward Like a soldier throwing away his shield to run. God rewards those who hold on.
10:36 For you have need of endurance Staying under a load without giving up. They had started well. Now they needed to finish well. The Christian life is a long race (12:1).
10:37 the One who is coming will come and will not delay Habakkuk 2:3-4, with words from Isaiah 26:20. From God's view it is "a very little while," and He counts time differently than we do (2 Pet 3:8-9). Live every day ready for Him.
10:38 But the righteous will live by faith Quoted three times in the New Testament (Rom 1:17; Gal 3:11). Here the point is living by faith while waiting. To shrink back is to pull away in fear, like a soldier backing from the battle line.
10:39 But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction He ends the warning with confidence and counts himself and his readers among the faithful. "The preserving of the soul" is the final salvation of the whole person. Faith keeps going, and God keeps those who trust Him. This leads into chapter 11.
11:1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen Not a full definition but a description of what faith does. "Assurance" is the word used of God's "substance" in 1:3, a solid foundation that holds up. "Conviction" is proof, being convinced. Faith is not wishful thinking. We cannot see God, heaven or Christ's return, but faith takes God at His word and lives as if they are real, because they are.
11:2 For by this the elders were commended The elders are the people of the Old Testament. God bore witness to them, not for perfect lives, since many were far from perfect, and not for keeping the Law, since some lived before it. By faith. That has always been the way people please God (Rom 4:1-5).
11:3 By faith we understand the ages to have been formed by the word of God God spoke, and it was (Gen 1:3; Ps 33:6, 9). He did not make the world from something already there. No one saw it happen. Before we trust God for anything else, we must believe He is the Creator.
11:4 By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain Cain brought fruit of the ground; Abel brought the firstborn of his flock and the fat portions (Gen 4:3-5). Abel's heart trusted God, and his offering showed it (1 John 3:12; Matt 23:35). He was the first man to die, killed by his brother, but his faith "still speaks." What will your life say when you are gone?
11:5 By faith Enoch was taken up so as not to see death In a chapter that keeps saying and he died, Enoch walked with God, and God took him (Gen 5:21-24). Only Elijah went the same way (2 Kgs 2:11). His going is often seen as a picture of believers alive at Christ's coming for His church, caught up without dying (1 Thess 4:17).
11:6 And without faith it is impossible to please Him Faith is not a nice extra. No works, religion or effort can take its place. We must believe that God exists, the living God who has made Himself known, and that He is good and rewards those who seek Him. He is not a God who hides or teases. Are you seeking Him?
11:7 By faith Noah, having been divinely instructed concerning the things not yet seen God told Noah a flood was coming (Gen 6:13-22). Some think it had never rained before, though Scripture does not say so plainly (Gen 2:5-6). His faith led to years of work on a huge boat on dry ground. His obedience left the world without excuse. He was counted righteous because he believed God.
11:8 and he went out, not knowing where he was going Called, then obeyed (Gen 12:1-4). At about seventy-five Abraham left Haran with no map, only a promise. God often shows us the next step, not the whole road.
11:9 By faith he sojourned in the land of the promise as in a foreign land To sojourn is to live as a stranger without settling down. The only land Abraham ever owned was a burial cave he bought (Gen 23). Three generations lived in tents that could be packed up and moved.

(Iakob), the fellow heirs of the same promise; 10 for he was awaiting the city having the foundations, whose architect and builder is God. 11 By faith even Sarah (Sarra) herself received power for the conception of seed, and gave birth beyond the time of age, since she considered Him faithful who had promised. 12 Therefore also from one man, and that one as good as dead, were born descendants just as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the countless sand which is by the shore of the sea. 13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them from afar, and having been persuaded of them, and having embraced them, and having confessed that they are strangers and sojourners on the earth. 14 For those who say such things make it manifest that they are seeking a homeland. 15 And if indeed they had been remembering that homeland from which they came out, they would have had opportunity to return. 16 But now they stretch out for a better one, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God; for He has prepared a city for them. 17 By faith Abraham, being tested, has offered up Isaac; and the one who had received the promises was offering up his only begotten son, 18 as to whom it was said, "In Isaac your seed will be called," 19 having reasoned that God was able to raise even from the dead, from where he also received him back in a figure. 20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. 21 By faith Jacob, dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph (Ioseph), and worshiped leaning on the top of his staff. 22 By faith Joseph, dying, made mention concerning the exodus of the sons of Israel, and gave instructions concerning his bones.

The Faith of Moses

23 By faith Moses, having been born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was beautiful; and they did not fear the edict of the king. 24 By faith Moses, having become great, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, 25 having chosen rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to have the temporary enjoyment of sin, 26 having esteemed the reproach of the Christ greater wealth than the treasures in Egypt (Aigyptos); for he was looking toward the reward. 27 By faith he left Egypt, not having feared the anger of the king; for he endured as seeing the Invisible One. 28 By faith he has kept the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, so that the one destroying the firstborn might not touch them. 29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as through dry land, which the Egyptians, having attempted, were swallowed up. 30 By faith the walls of Jericho (Hiericho) fell, having been encir-

11:10 for he was awaiting the city having the foundations, whose architect and builder is God Abraham looked beyond the land to the heavenly Jerusalem (12:22; Rev 21:2, 10-14). God's promise of the land to Abraham's descendants also still stands, and it will be kept to Israel in Christ's kingdom (Gen 17:8; Ezek 37:21-28).
11:11 since she considered Him faithful who had promised Sarah was about ninety (Gen 17:17; 18:11-14) and at first she laughed (Gen 18:12). In the end she trusted. Faith is not faith in faith. It is faith in God's faithfulness.
11:12 and that one as good as dead From an old man came a nation like the stars and the sand (Gen 15:5; 22:17). Nothing is too hard for God (Gen 18:14).
11:13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises Like travelers who see home from a distance, they saw what was coming and welcomed it. Abraham called himself a stranger and sojourner (Gen 23:4), and Jacob called his life a pilgrimage (Gen 47:9).
11:15 they would have had opportunity to return Abraham could have gone back to Ur or Haran. He did not. He was seeking a homeland.
11:16 Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God God calls Himself the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob (Exod 3:6). Jesus has gone to prepare a place for us (John 14:2-3). Do you live like a stranger here, or as if this world is all there is?
11:17 By faith Abraham, being tested, has offered up Isaac The greatest test of Abraham's life (Gen 22:1-19). Everything God promised was tied to Isaac. If Isaac died, how could God keep His word?
11:19 having reasoned that God was able to raise even from the dead Abraham's faith worked it through. God promised, God cannot lie, so God would raise Isaac. He told his servants they both would come back (Gen 22:5). God provided a ram, and in a figure Abraham received Isaac back from the dead. The picture points to Christ, the only Son, really offered and really raised.
11:20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come The blessing did not go as Isaac planned (Gen 27:27-40), but he trusted God's word would come true.
11:21 worshiped leaning on the top of his staff Jacob blessed Ephraim and Manasseh near death in Egypt (Gen 48:1-20). The staff follows the Greek Old Testament of Genesis 47:31, where the Hebrew speaks of the head of his bed. The wanderer ended his life worshiping.
11:22 gave instructions concerning his bones Joseph had all the power of Egypt, but Egypt was not home (Gen 50:24-25). Israel carried his bones out (Exod 13:19; Josh 24:32). Isaac, Jacob and Joseph all looked ahead at life's end to what God would do after they were gone.
11:23 they did not fear the edict of the king Pharaoh ordered every Hebrew boy thrown into the Nile (Exod 1:22). Amram and Jochebed hid Moses (Exod 2:1-3; 6:20). "Beautiful" means well-formed (Acts 7:20). Sometimes faith says no to those in power when they order us to do wrong (Acts 5:29).
11:25 than to have the temporary enjoyment of sin Moses grew up in the palace with wealth, learning and power (Acts 7:22). Sin does bring pleasure, but it does not last.
11:26 having esteemed the reproach of the Christ greater wealth than the treasures in Egypt Centuries before Jesus, Moses suffered for the same hope, the promised Messiah, and for standing with God's people. Looking toward the reward is not selfish. It is faith (11:6).
11:27 for he endured as seeing the Invisible One Moses left Egypt twice. Many think the Exodus is meant, since he did fear when he fled to Midian (Exod 2:14-15). He kept going because he kept his eyes on the God whom faith sees.
11:28 By faith he has kept the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood The blood of a lamb on the doorposts on the night of the last plague (Exod 12:1-13, 21-23). A picture of Christ our Passover Lamb (1 Cor 5:7).
11:29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as through dry land The same sea that saved Israel destroyed Egypt (Exod 14:21-31). The difference was faith in the God who opened the way.
11:30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell Marching around a city for seven days made no military sense (Josh 6:1-20). They obeyed, and the walls fell.

cled for seven days. 31 By faith Rahab (Hraab) the prostitute did not perish with those who disobeyed, having received the spies with peace.

Faith That Conquered and Suffered

32 And what more shall I say? For the time will fail me telling of Gideon (Gedeon), and Barak and Samson (Sampson) and Jephthah (Iephthae), and David (Dabid) and Samuel (Samouel) and the prophets, 33 who through faith conquered kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, 34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the mouths of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became mighty in war, put to flight armies of foreigners. 35 Women received their dead by resurrection; and others were tortured, not having accepted the release, so that they might obtain a better resurrection. 36 And others received trial of mockings and of scourgings, and in addition of chains and imprisonment. 37 They were stoned, they were sawed in two, they were tested, they died by slaughter of the sword; they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins, being destitute, being oppressed, being mistreated, 38 of whom the world was not worthy, wandering in deserts and mountains and caves and the holes of the earth. 39 And these all, having been commended through faith, did not receive the promise, 40 God having planned something better for us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

HEBREWS 12

Run the Race, Looking to Jesus

1 Therefore we also, having so great a cloud of witnesses encompassing us, having laid aside every weight and the sin that easily entangles, let us run with endurance the race lying before us, 2 looking to the founder and perfecter of the faith, Jesus (Iesous), who for the joy lying before Him endured the cross, having despised the shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. 3 For consider Him who has endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, so that you may not grow weary, fainting in your souls.

The Father's Discipline

4 You have not yet resisted to the point of blood, struggling against sin; 5 and you have forgotten the exhortation which addresses you as sons: "My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor faint when you are reproved by Him; 6 for whom the Lord loves He disciplines, and He scourges every son whom He receives." 7 If you endure discipline, God is dealing with you as with sons; for what son is there whom

11:31 By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who disobeyed A Canaanite woman with a sinful past who believed Israel's God was the true God (Josh 2:9-11; 6:22-25). She became part of Israel and an ancestor of Jesus (Matt 1:5). God's grace reaches anyone who believes.
11:32 Gideon, and Barak and Samson and Jephthah, and David and Samuel and the prophets Not perfect people. Gideon was fearful, Barak hesitant, Samson ruled by his desires, Jephthah rash in his vow, David guilty of great sin. Each, at a key moment, trusted God. God uses people who trust Him.
11:33 shut the mouths of lions Daniel in the lions' den (Dan 6:22). David and others conquered kingdoms, and judges and kings worked righteousness.
11:34 quenched the power of fire Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego came out of the furnace (Dan 3:27). Elijah, Elisha and David escaped those trying to kill them. God makes weak people strong (2 Cor 12:9-10).
11:35 Women received their dead by resurrection; and others were tortured, not having accepted the release The widows of Zarephath and Shunem received their sons back (1 Kgs 17:17-24; 2 Kgs 4:32-37). Then the chapter turns. Not every person of faith was delivered. Some refused release bought by denying God, looking for a better resurrection than coming back to this life. Jewish history tells of faithful people before Christ who died this way.
11:36 chains and imprisonment Jeremiah was beaten, put in stocks and thrown into a pit (Jer 20:2; 37:15; 38:6).
11:37 They were stoned, they were sawed in two Zechariah son of Jehoiada was stoned in the temple court (2 Chr 24:20-21). An old Jewish tradition says Isaiah was sawn in two under King Manasseh. Elijah wore a garment of hair (2 Kgs 1:8).
11:38 of whom the world was not worthy The world treated them as worthless. God says the world was not worthy of them. Obadiah hid a hundred prophets in caves (1 Kgs 18:4). Faith does not always lead to escape in this life, but it always leads to God's approval.
11:39 did not receive the promise Every person in this chapter was approved for faith, yet none received the full promise in his lifetime.
11:40 so that apart from us they should not be made perfect The "better" theme one more time. The Old Testament saints and believers today will be made complete together through Christ's work and share in the resurrection and the kingdom He brings. They ran their race. Now it is our turn.
12:1 having so great a cloud of witnesses encompassing us "Therefore" points back to chapter 11. Are they watching from heaven like fans in a stadium? Some teachers think so. Others think the point is that they are witnesses to us, lives that testify faith is worth it. Some weights are not sin but slow us down. Sin wraps around our feet like a long robe and trips us. This is a long-distance race, and God has set the course.
12:2 looking to the founder and perfecter of the faith, Jesus Not at ourselves, others or our problems. He is the pioneer who opened the way (2:10) and the One who completed the race perfectly. His joy was doing the Father's will, being raised and exalted, and bringing many sons to glory. He counted the shame as nothing beside it, and He will finish what He started in us (Phil 1:6).
12:3 consider Him who has endured such hostility from sinners against Himself He was hated, mocked, beaten, spit on and crucified by the people He came to save, and He was sinless. When we think about what He endured, our troubles take their right size. When you feel like giving up, stop and consider Him.
12:4 You have not yet resisted to the point of blood They had suffered loss, mockery and prison (10:32-34), but none had yet been killed. This does not make their suffering small. It gives it perspective. You have not reached the limit, and God will give strength.
12:5 My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, nor faint when you are reproved by Him Proverbs 3:11-12. Two wrong responses: shrug it off and learn nothing, or give up and think God has turned against us.
12:6 for whom the Lord loves He disciplines Discipline is child training, the whole work of raising a child, teaching and correction. "Scourges" is strong. God's training can hurt, but it is always the work of a loving Father, never an enemy.
12:7 for what son is there whom a father does not discipline Their hardships, persecution included, were not signs God had left them. Not every hardship is punishment for a specific sin. Sometimes it is (1 Cor 11:30-32), but often it is training to make us more like Christ (James 1:2-4). Endure it and ask what God is teaching.

a father does not discipline? 8 But if you are without discipline, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. 9 Furthermore, we indeed had the fathers of our flesh as correctors, and we respected them; shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? 10 For they indeed disciplined us for a few days according to what seemed good to them, but He for our benefit, so that we may share His holiness. 11 Now all discipline for the present does not seem to be of joy, but of grief; but afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it. 12 Therefore lift up the hands that hang down and the weakened knees, 13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that the lame may not be turned aside, but rather be healed.

Do Not Refuse Him Who Speaks

14 Pursue peace with all, and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord, 15 watching lest anyone fall short of the grace of God, lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and through this many be defiled; 16 lest there be any fornicator or profane person like Esau, who for one meal sold his birthright. 17 For you know that even afterward, when he wished to inherit the blessing, he was rejected; for he found no place of repentance, although he sought it with tears. 18 For you have not come to a mountain that can be touched and that has been kindled with fire, and to blackness and darkness and storm, 19 and to the sound of a trumpet and to a voice of words, which those who heard begged that no word be added to them. 20 For they could not bear what was being commanded: "If even a beast touches the mountain, it will be stoned or shot down with an arrow." 21 And so fearful was the sight that Moses said, "I am terrified and trembling." 22 But you have come to Mount Zion (Sion) and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem (Hierousalem), and to myriads of angels, 23 to the festal gathering and church of the firstborn who are enrolled in the heavens, and to God, the judge of all, and to the spirits of righteous men made perfect, 24 and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than that of Abel. 25 See that you do not refuse the One speaking. For if they did not escape who refused the 12:8 then you are illegitimate children and not sons A father might not bother training a child born outside marriage, who would not be his heir. If someone claims to be God's child but God never corrects him, something is wrong. God shaping you through hardship is evidence He loves you as His own.

12:9 shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live God gives us spiritual life. Some had fathers who were harsh, cruel or absent. God is not like that. His discipline is never abuse. Where an earthly father failed, the heavenly Father does not.

12:10 so that we may share His holiness Our fathers trained us for a short time, as best they knew, sometimes right and sometimes not. God never makes a mistake, and His goal is the highest there is, that we become like Him (Rom 8:28-29).

12:11 but afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it Scripture never asks us to pretend pain does not hurt. "Afterward" is the key word, like a farmer waiting for harvest. "Trained" is the athlete's word (5:14). Discipline bears fruit in those who let it train them.

12:12 lift up the hands that hang down and the weakened knees Tired runners let their arms drop and knees go weak. The words echo Isaiah 35:3, a promise of God's coming salvation.

12:13 make straight paths for your feet, so that the lame may not be turned aside Echoing Proverbs 4:26. When we run straight, weaker believers who are limping can follow. When we wander, others fall. Who is watching how you run?

12:14 Pursue peace with all, and the holiness without which no one will see the Lord The fifth and last warning (12:14-29). Pursue means to chase hard (Rom 12:18). Some take the holiness as what God gives every believer in Christ (10:10, 14), which always shows in a changing life. Others stress practical holiness needed to see and know the Lord in fellowship now. Either way, holiness is not optional.

12:15 lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and through this many be defiled "Watching" is the root of the word for overseer. Believers watch out for one another. The picture is Deuteronomy 29:18, a root bearing poison among God's people. Bitterness starts small and hidden, then spreads. One bitter person can poison a whole church.

12:16 any fornicator or profane person like Esau, who for one meal sold his birthright Profane means treating holy things as ordinary. Some read both words of Esau. Others apply only the second to him. He traded the rights of the firstborn for a bowl of stew (Gen 25:29-34). Are you trading something eternal for something gone tomorrow?

12:17 for he found no place of repentance, although he sought it with tears Jacob got the blessing and Esau could not get it back (Gen 27:30-40). Some say Isaac would not change his mind. Others say Esau found no real change of heart and wept over what he lost, not his sin. Some choices cannot be undone, even with tears. The four views of the warnings given at chapter 6 apply to 12:14-29 as well.

12:18 a mountain that can be touched and that has been kindled with fire Mount Sinai, with darkness, thunder, a trumpet growing louder, and God's own voice (Exod 19:16-25; Deut 4:11-12). The people begged Moses to speak instead (Exod 20:18-19). Sinai showed God's holiness and how far sinners are from Him.

12:20 If even a beast touches the mountain, it will be stoned or shot down with an arrow God's presence was so holy that no one could come near (Exod 19:12-13).

12:21 I am terrified and trembling Even Moses, who spoke with God face to face, was afraid (Deut 9:19). The old covenant's mountain is a place of fear and distance, and the readers were tempted to go back to it.

12:22 But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem Believers have already come by faith to God's dwelling, the city Abraham looked for (11:10, 16). This does not cancel God's promises for the earthly Jerusalem, the capital of Christ's kingdom on earth (Isa 2:2-4; Zech 14:4, 16). The heavenly city will one day come down (Rev 21:2, 10). At Sinai angels were present in terror. At Zion they gather in joy.

12:23 the festal gathering and church of the firstborn who are enrolled in the heavens A joyful assembly like a great feast. Firstborn speaks of their rights as heirs, and their names are written in God's book (Luke 10:20; Rev 21:27). "The spirits of righteous men made perfect" are believers who have died, now complete in His presence. Our loved ones who died in Christ are part of this gathering.

12:24 the blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than that of Abel Jesus is why we can come to God the Judge without fear (8:6; 9:15). Abel's blood cried from the ground for justice (Gen 4:10). Abel's blood said, Guilty. Jesus' blood says, Forgiven. Why would anyone go back to Sinai?

12:25 See that you do not refuse the One speaking The God who spoke in His Son (1:1-2). If refusing the message at Sinai brought judgment, refusing the One who speaks from heaven brings greater (2:2-3; 10:28-29).

One who instructed them on earth, much more will we not escape who turn away from the One who speaks from heaven, 26 whose voice shook the earth at that time; but now He has promised, saying, "Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also heaven." 27 Now this, "Yet once more," signifies the removal of the things being shaken, as of things that have been made, so that the things not being shaken may remain. 28 Therefore, receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us have grace, through which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear; 29 for our God is also a consuming fire.

Love and Holy Living

1 Let brotherly love continue. 2 Do not forget hospitality, for through this some have entertained angels without knowing it. 3 Remember the prisoners as bound with them, and those being mistreated, as being yourselves also in the body. 4 Marriage is to be honorable among all, and the bed undefiled; but God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers. 5 Let your way of life be without love of money, being content with the things present; for He Himself has said, "I will certainly not leave you, nor will I ever forsake you," 6 so that we, being confident, say, "The Lord is my helper, and I will not be afraid; what will man do to me?"

Outside the Camp

7 Remember those who lead you, who spoke the word of God to you; considering the outcome of their way of life, imitate their faith. 8 Jesus (Iesous) Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. 9 Do not be carried about by various and strange teachings; for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, by which those who walked in them were not profited. 10 We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no authority to eat. 11 For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the holy places by the high priest for sin are burned outside the camp. 12 Therefore Jesus also, so that He might sanctify the people through His own blood, suffered outside

12:26 Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also heaven At Sinai the mountain quaked (Exod 19:18). Haggai 2:6 promises a final shaking of all creation.
12:27 so that the things not being shaken may remain When God shakes heaven and earth, all that can be shaken will be removed (1:10-12; 2 Pet 3:10-13). That shaking is still future, at the end of this age when Christ returns to judge and reign. Only what is built on Christ will stand.
12:28 receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us have grace Christ's kingdom will never be overthrown (Dan 2:44; 7:14). Charis means both grace and thanks, and both fit. "Serve" is to worship as a priest does. God is our Father, but He is not our buddy. Worship should be joyful and never careless.
12:29 For our God is also a consuming fire Deuteronomy 4:24. The God who burned on Sinai has not changed. For those who refuse Him, that is terrifying. For those who come through Jesus, the fire that consumes sin purifies His people (1 Pet 1:7), because Jesus took the fire of judgment for us. Grace and awe go together.
13:1 Let brotherly love continue Philadelphia, love for brothers and sisters in the faith. They already had it (6:10; 10:33-34). Love grows cold under pressure or when people disappoint us, and it takes choosing again and again. All the deep teaching about Christ's priesthood should lead here (John 13:35).
13:2 through this some have entertained angels without knowing it There were few safe inns, and traveling believers depended on other believers. Abraham welcomed three visitors (Gen 18:1-8; 19:1), and Lot took in two angels (Gen 19:1-3). We never know how God may use a simple welcome (Matt 25:35, 40).
13:3 Remember the prisoners as bound with them Prisoners often depended on friends for food and care (10:34). "In the body" may mean still in this life, open to the same suffering, or part of one body in Christ (1 Cor 12:26). Believers around the world are in prison for their faith today. Do you remember them in prayer?
13:4 Marriage is to be honorable among all, and the bed undefiled God designed marriage, and sexual union within it is pure and good, kept only between husband and wife. Sexual sin outside marriage and adultery against one's spouse God takes seriously. It is a warning, and a call to come to Christ for a fresh start. No sin is beyond His cleansing for those who repent (1 Cor 6:9-11).
13:5 I will certainly not leave you, nor will I ever forsake you The love of money is a root of all kinds of evil (1 Tim 6:10), and these readers had lost property (10:34). From Deuteronomy 31:6, 8 and Joshua 1:5. The Greek stacks up its negatives, I will never, ever leave you. Contentment comes from knowing we have God.
13:6 The Lord is my helper, and I will not be afraid; what will man do to me Psalm 118:6. Faith hears God's promise and answers it. People may take our property or worse, but they cannot take God from us (Rom 8:31-39). Say this verse out loud, and believe it.
13:7 considering the outcome of their way of life, imitate their faith The leaders who first taught them, some perhaps already dead as faithful witnesses. Not their personality or every habit, but their faith. Who has finished well for you? Thank God for them.
13:8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever The center of the chapter, tying the letter together. Teachers come and go; Jesus remains. The same Christ who died and rose, our living High Priest now (7:25), forever unchanged (1:12). The readers did not need new teachings. They needed the same Jesus.
13:9 it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods Strange teachings pushed them around like a boat in the wind (Eph 4:14). Some seem to have been about Jewish food laws or meals tied to the temple. The heart is strengthened by grace, not diet (Col 2:20-23).
13:10 We have an altar from which those who serve the tabernacle have no authority to eat Priests could eat parts of many sacrifices (Lev 6:16, 26). Most teachers take the altar as the cross, Christ Himself and His sacrifice, which believers feed on by faith (John 6:51-56). Some take it as the Lord's Supper, and some churches teach the Supper is itself a sacrifice. On any reading the point rests on Christ's once-for-all sacrifice (10:10-14), received by faith.
13:11 are burned outside the camp On the Day of Atonement the bodies of the bull and goat were not eaten. They were carried outside and burned (Lev 16:27). The great sin offering was never the priests' food.
13:12 Therefore Jesus also, so that He might sanctify the people through His own blood, suffered outside the gate Jesus was crucified outside Jerusalem's walls (John 19:17, 20). Outside the camp was the place of lepers and the unclean (Lev 13:46) and of executions (Lev 24:14). He was cast out so we could be brought in.

the gate. 13 Therefore let us go out to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach. 14 For here we do not have an abiding city, but we are seeking the one to come. 15 Through Him then let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of lips confessing His name. 16 And do not forget doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased. 17 Obey those who lead you and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as those who will give an account, so that they may do this with joy and not groaning, for this would be unprofitable for you. 18 Pray for us; for we trust that we have a good conscience, desiring to conduct ourselves well in all things. 19 And I exhort you more abundantly to do this, so that I may be restored to you more quickly.

Blessing and Greetings

20 Now may the God of peace, who brought up from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep by the blood of the eternal covenant, our Lord Jesus, 21 equip you in every good work to do His will, working in you what is well pleasing before Him, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory to the ages of the ages. Amen. 22 And I exhort you, brothers, bear with the word of exhortation, for indeed I have written to you in few words. 23 Know that the brother Timothy (Timotheos) has been released, with whom, if he comes soon, I will see you.
24 Greet all those who lead you and all the saints. Those from Italy (Italia) greet you. 25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

13:13 let us go out to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach Leave the comfort of the old religion and the respect of your people, and stand with Jesus. It may cost the approval of family, friends or culture, as Moses chose the reproach of Christ (11:26). Are you willing?
13:14 For here we do not have an abiding city Jerusalem, with its temple and history, was destroyed by the Romans in A.D. 70, most likely only a few years later. We seek the city whose builder is God (11:10, 16; 12:22). We still care about this world, but hold it loosely (Phil 3:20).
13:15 let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of lips confessing His name Animal sacrifices ended in Christ, but believers offer spiritual sacrifices through Him (1 Pet 2:5). The phrase echoes Hosea 14:2. Not just on Sunday. Praise is a choice we make, not only a feeling we wait for.
13:16 for with such sacrifices God is well pleased Real worship is also in how we treat people (Phil 4:18). Who could you do good to or share with this week?
13:17 Obey those who lead you and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as those who will give an account Not blind obedience. No leader may command what God forbids (Acts 5:29), and this never means staying silent about abuse. Where leaders are faithful to the Word, support them. They watch like shepherds awake at night over the flock and will answer to God (James 3:1). Resisting good leaders wears them down and hurts the church.
13:18 Pray for us Even the writer of this deep letter needed prayer. A good conscience is God's gift, cleansed by Christ's blood (9:14; 10:22) and kept by honest living. Pray for your pastor and leaders.
13:19 so that I may be restored to you more quickly Something kept him away, but Scripture does not say what. He believed prayer would make a difference (James 5:16; Phlm 22). Do you believe your prayers matter?
13:20 who brought up from the dead the great Shepherd of the sheep by the blood of the eternal covenant God made peace with us through Christ (Rom 5:1). The only plain mention of the resurrection in Hebrews, though it has been under the surface all along. The Good Shepherd laid down His life (John 10:11) and the Chief Shepherd will appear (1 Pet 5:4). The resurrection was God's stamp of approval on the sacrifice.
13:21 equip you in every good work to do His will, working in you what is well pleasing before Him Equip is to put in order, like setting a broken bone or mending a net. God does not just tell us what to do. He works in us to do it (Phil 2:13), as the new covenant promised (8:10).
13:22 bear with the word of exhortation Hebrews reads like a sermon written down, strong in places, and he asks them to take it in with patience. For all he could have said about Christ, he kept it brief (9:5; 11:32).
13:23 the brother Timothy has been released Paul's young co-worker (1 Tim 1:2). No other New Testament passage tells of this arrest. The writer belonged to the circle of Paul and Timothy, one reason some have thought Paul wrote the letter. Hebrews was a real letter to real people with names and travel plans.
13:24 Those from Italy greet you Either believers in Italy greeting readers elsewhere, or believers from Italy with the writer greeting home. So some think it went to Rome, others that it was written from Italy. Scripture does not say for sure.
13:25 Grace be with you all The Christian life begins and continues with grace. No one is left out, not the weak, the weary, or those tempted to turn back (2 Cor 12:9). Everything we need is found in Jesus.

JAMES

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for its writer, "James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ" (1:1). It is the first of the seven General Letters (James, 1 and 2 Peter, 1, 2 and 3 John, and Jude), called general because most of them were written not to one city or one person but to believers spread over a wide area.

Author and Date

Several men in the New Testament are named James. James the son of Zebedee was put to death early, about A.D. 44 (Acts 12:1-2). Little is known of James the son of Alphaeus (Matt 10:3). The early church held that this letter came from James the brother of the Lord, the leader of the church in Jerusalem, and I take it that way. He is the only James who could write with this much authority to Jewish believers everywhere without needing to explain who he was. Jesus' brothers were the sons of Joseph and Mary, born after Jesus (Matt 1:25; 13:55-56). Some churches hold they were Joseph's sons by an earlier marriage or cousins. During Jesus' ministry His brothers did not believe in Him (John 7:5). After the resurrection the risen Lord appeared to James (1 Cor 15:7). He became a pillar of the Jerusalem church (Gal 1:19; 2:9), spoke the deciding words at the Jerusalem council (Acts 15:13-21), and was remembered in early tradition as James the Just. Yet he opens his letter calling himself a slave of the Lord Jesus Christ, not His brother. Some modern scholars think a later writer used his name, pointing to the letter's good Greek. But a Galilean who led a church for many years could well write good Greek, and the simple, early, Jewish setting fits James himself.

James most likely wrote from Jerusalem. Many date the letter about A.D. 45 to 49, which would make it perhaps the first New Testament book written. The church still meets in a "synagogue" (2:2), and James never mentions the debate over circumcising Gentile believers, settled at the Jerusalem council about A.D. 49. Others date it about A.D. 60 to 62. Early writers, Josephus among them, say James was put to death in Jerusalem about A.D. 62, so the letter came before then.

Background and Setting

James writes "to the twelve tribes which are in the dispersion" (1:1), the common name for Jewish people living outside the land of Israel. Read plainly, these are Jewish believers in Jesus scattered from their homes, many of them by the persecution that followed Stephen's death (Acts 8:1; 11:19). Some read the twelve tribes as a picture of the whole church, but the Jewish flavor of the letter fits the plain sense. Many readers were poor. Some were cheated by rich landowners and dragged into court (2:6; 5:4). Some were showing favor to the rich in their own meetings.

James writes like the wisdom books of the Old Testament. He uses short, strong sayings and pictures from everyday life: waves, flowers, mirrors, horses, ships, fire, springs, fig trees, farmers and rust. And he sounds a great deal like Jesus. He hardly ever quotes Him word for word, but the Sermon on the Mount echoes all through the letter: asking for wisdom (Matt 7:7), hearing and doing (Matt 7:24-27), mercy (Matt 5:7), moth and rust (Matt 6:19), and oaths (Matt 5:33-37). The man who grew up in the same house as Jesus had clearly listened to Him.

Themes

James is short, but it gives more than fifty commands in 108 verses. He is a pastor who wants his readers' faith to be real, and his theme is plain: "But be doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves" (1:22). He asks the same question again and again: does what you say you believe show up in how you live? He asks it about trials and temptation, about the poor and the rich, about the tongue, about wisdom, about plans for tomorrow, and about prayer.

Real faith counts trials as joy because God uses them to make us mature (1:2-4). It asks God for wisdom (1:5). It shows no favoritism (2:1). It works, because "the faith, if it does not have works, is dead by itself" (2:17). It bridles the tongue (3:2-12) and shows wisdom from above (3:17). It humbles itself before God (4:6-10), plans with "If the Lord wills" (4:15), waits patiently for the coming of the Lord (5:7-8), and prays (5:13-18). The letter ends with a call to turn back a brother who wanders (5:19-20).

Christ in James

James names Jesus only twice, but each time with great honor. He is "the Lord Jesus Christ" whom James serves as a slave (1:1), and "the Lord of glory" (2:1). James, who once did not believe in his brother, now sets Him beside God the Father. He calls believers to wait for "the coming of the Lord" (5:7-8), the Judge who "stands before the doors" (5:9). Prayer and anointing are done "in the name of the Lord" (5:14), and the good name of Jesus is the name called upon believers (2:7). Behind nearly every chapter stands the teaching of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount, lived out.

Hard Passages

Does James 2:14-26 contradict Paul, who says a man is justified by faith apart from works of law (Rom 3:28)? No. Paul answers how a guilty sinner is made right with God, and his answer is by faith alone. James answers how you can tell whether faith is real, and his answer is by its works. The notes explain that James uses justified of being shown righteous, and name the view that both men mean being declared righteous before God, with James speaking of the final verdict that weighs the evidence. Both readings agree that works never earn salvation.

What does 4:5 mean? It is one of the hardest verses in James to translate. It may speak of our fallen human spirit leaning toward envy, or of God jealously yearning over the spirit He made to dwell in us. The notes give both.

What is the oil of 5:14, and does 5:15 promise that every sick believer will be healed? The notes give the main views of the oil (medicine, a symbol of setting apart to God, and the Roman Catholic sacrament) and show from Scripture that God heals according to His will. The notes also name the views on oaths (5:12), on confession (5:16), and on the death a wanderer is saved from (5:20).

Joy in Trials

1 James (Iakobos), a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, to the twelve tribes which are in the dispersion: greetings. 2 Consider it all joy, my brothers, whenever you fall into various trials, 3 knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. 4 And let the endurance have a perfect work, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. 5 And if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from God, who gives to all generously and does not reproach, and it will be given to him. 6 But let him ask in faith, doubting nothing; for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, being blown by the wind and being tossed. 7 For let that man not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; 8 he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways. 9 But let the humble brother boast in his exaltation, 10 and the rich one in his humiliation, because like a flower of grass he will pass away. 11 For the sun rose with the scorching heat and withered the grass, and its flower fell, and the beauty of its appearance perished; so also the rich man will fade away in his pursuits. 12 Blessed is the man who endures trial, because having become approved he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to those who love Him.

Where Temptation Comes From

13 Let no one say when he is being tempted, "I am being tempted by God"; for God is unable to be tempted by evils, and He Himself tempts no one. 14 But each one is tempted by his own desire, being drawn away and being enticed. 15 Then the desire, having conceived, gives birth to sin; and the sin, having been brought to completion, brings forth death. 16 Do not be led astray, my beloved brothers. 17 Every good

1:1 James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ James the brother of the Lord, leader of the church in Jerusalem. He could have opened with his family tie to Jesus. Instead he calls himself a slave, one who belongs to a master. He once doubted his brother (John 7:5). Now he calls Him Lord and sets Him beside God as the One he serves.

1:1 to the twelve tribes which are in the dispersion: greetings Jewish believers scattered outside the land of Israel, many of whom had lost homes and jobs for following Jesus. The Greek greeting is close to the word for joy, and joy is where James starts.

1:2 Consider it all joy, my brothers, whenever you fall into various trials Not that the trial itself is a joy or that we pretend it doesn't hurt. "Consider" means to think it through and decide how we will see it. "Whenever," not if. "Various" means many colors and kinds: sickness, money trouble, loss, persecution. He means hard things that come as we follow Christ, not trouble we bring on ourselves by sin (Matt 5:10-12).

1:3 the testing of your faith produces endurance The word was used for putting metal in the fire to prove it real and burn away what was not (1 Pet 1:6-7). God does not test to find out whether our faith is real. He tests to make it stronger. Endurance is staying under a heavy load without giving up, still trusting God. You can't build muscle without lifting anything.

1:4 so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing "Let" means we can cut the process short by grumbling or quitting. Perfect here is mature, full-grown, not sinless. God is using the trial to make us like His Son (Rom 8:28-29). Ask not only how to get out of this, but what God is building in you through it.

1:5 And if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from God, who gives to all generously and does not reproach Wisdom is seeing life as God sees it and knowing how to live it out. To reproach is to throw something in your face. God never says, You again? He is glad when His children come (Matt 7:7).

1:6 the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea Not a passing question in the mind, but a heart that can't decide whether to trust God. A wave goes wherever the wind pushes it, like a person who prays one day and leans on his own plans the next.

1:8 he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways Prayer is not a way of keeping our options open. Double-minded means having two souls, one wanting God and one wanting its own way. Divided inside shows up everywhere outside. James returns to this word in 4:8.

1:9 let the humble brother boast in his exaltation The poor believer, low in the world's eyes, a theme all through the letter. In Christ he is a child of God, an heir of the kingdom (2:5), rich in faith. God has lifted him up.

1:10 and the rich one in his humiliation, because like a flower of grass he will pass away At the cross the rich believer learned money could not save him. He stands before God as a beggar like everyone else, and that keeps him from trusting what won't last. The picture is Isaiah 40:6-8: wildflowers bloom bright in spring, then the hot sun and dry east wind take them in days.

1:11 so also the rich man will fade away in his pursuits He may die in the middle of his busy plans. Riches are not evil, but they are short-lived.

1:12 Blessed is the man who endures trial, because having become approved he will receive the crown of life Blessed is the Beatitudes word (Matt 5:3-12). Approved is metal that passed the test. The crown was the winner's wreath, and here it is life in its fullness. We are saved by grace through faith, not by enduring. But those who truly belong to God keep going, and they endure because they love Him.

1:13 Let no one say when he is being tempted, "I am being tempted by God" The same Greek word can mean trial or temptation. People have blamed God for their sin since Adam said, "The woman whom You put with me" (Gen 3:12). God tests us to make us stand. Satan and our flesh tempt us to make us fall.

1:14 But each one is tempted by his own desire, being drawn away and being enticed The bait only works because something in us wants it. These are fishing words: a fish pulled from its hiding place, a worm on a hidden hook. Temptation shows the pleasure and hides the cost.

1:15 Then the desire, having conceived, gives birth to sin When we welcome desire instead of turning away, sin is born, grows up, and brings death (Rom 6:23). The opposite of verses 2-4. The best time to stop the chain is at the very beginning.

1:16 Do not be led astray, my beloved brothers Right after a hard warning, tenderness. A pastor warns people he loves. The lie to guard against is that God is the source of evil.

1:17 Every good giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning Every meal, friend, breath and spiritual blessing. God made the sun, moon and stars (Gen 1:14-18), but they change, and shadows move across the ground all day. God does not change (Mal 3:6).

giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning. 18 Having willed it, He brought us forth by the word of truth, for us to be a kind of firstfruits of His creatures.

Doers of the Word

19 So then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; 20 for the anger of a man does not produce the righteousness of God. 21 Therefore, having put aside all filthiness and excess of wickedness, receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. 22 But be doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. 23 Because if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, this one is like a man observing the face of his birth in a mirror; 24 for he observed himself and has gone away, and immediately he forgot what he was like. 25 But the one who looked intently into the perfect law, the law of freedom, and continued in it, this one, having become not a forgetful hearer but a doer of work, this one will be blessed in his doing. 26 If anyone seems to be religious among you, not bridling his tongue but deceiving his heart, the religion of this one is worthless. 27 Religion pure and undefiled before the God and Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their tribulation, and to keep oneself unstained from the world.

No Favoritism

1 My brothers, do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, the Lord of glory, with partiality. 2 For if a man with a gold ring, in splendid clothing, comes into your synagogue, and a poor man in filthy clothing also comes in, 3 and you look upon the one wearing the splendid clothing and say to him, "You sit here in a good place," and to the poor man you say, "You stand there," or "Sit here under my footstool," 4 were you not divided among yourselves, and did you not become judges with evil reasonings? 5 Listen, my beloved brothers: did not God choose the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom which He promised to those who love Him? 6 But you dishonored the poor man. Are not the rich oppressing you, and are they themselves dragging you into courts? 7 Are they not themselves blaspheming the good name which was called upon

2:6 1 Cor 11:22; Acts 17:6; Ps 14:6
2:7 Phil 2:9-11; Rev 13:5,6; Ps 111:9

1:18 Having willed it, He brought us forth by the word of truth Another birth word, the opposite of verse 15. Desire gives birth to death. God gives birth to new life by His own will (John 1:12-13), through the gospel (1 Pet 1:23). The first part of the harvest belonged to God and promised the rest was coming (Lev 23:10). One day He will make all creation new (Rom 8:19-23).
1:19 let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger About receiving God's Word, but it fits how we treat people too. Most of us have it backward. Anger often comes when we talk before we have listened (Prov 10:19; 17:27).
1:20 the anger of a man does not produce the righteousness of God Not all anger is sin (Mark 3:5; Eph 4:26). But most of ours is about our pride, rights and plans. When it rises, ask whose cause you are really defending.
1:21 receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls "Put aside" is taking off dirty clothes. Meekness is a teachable spirit that welcomes God's Word instead of arguing. The Word was planted like a seed at our new birth, and it keeps working in us until we see Christ.
1:22 But be doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves The theme verse. Most people then heard Scripture read aloud and could think listening was enough. To deceive here is to reason falsely, to talk ourselves into a lie. The test of a good Bible study is not how much we enjoyed it but what we do with it.
1:24 immediately he forgot what he was like Mirrors were polished metal, and a man had to look closely. He sees the dirt on his face and walks away doing nothing. God's Word shows us what we really are. Seeing our sin and walking away unchanged misses the point.
1:25 But the one who looked intently into the perfect law, the law of freedom, and continued in it "Looked intently" is the word for John bending to look into the empty tomb (John 20:5). The Law at Sinai showed sin but could not change the heart. In Christ God writes His word on our hearts (Jer 31:33), and obeying it is freedom. The blessing comes in the doing.
1:26 not bridling his tongue but deceiving his heart, the religion of this one is worthless Religious means outward worship: services, prayers, fasting. A bridle guides a horse. An unbridled tongue runs into gossip, harsh words, lies and complaining. James says much more in chapter 3.
1:27 to visit orphans and widows in their tribulation, and to keep oneself unstained from the world Orphans and widows had no provider and were easily cheated. God is the Father of the fatherless and defender of widows (Ps 68:5). To visit is to look after and care for. The world is the way of life that leaves God out. Many of us are good at one of these and weak at the other. James calls us to both.
2:1 do not hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with partiality Partiality is judging by the outside: money, clothes, looks, place in society. The word pictures receiving someone by his face. Next to the Lord of glory every human difference is small, and rich and poor need the same Savior. James does not call favoritism a minor flaw. It does not fit with faith in Jesus at all.
2:2 if a man with a gold ring, in splendid clothing, comes into your synagogue Wealthy Romans sometimes wore several gold rings to show their status. The poor man may own one set of clothes, dirty from work. "Synagogue" means a gathering, and these Jewish believers still used the word for their church meeting, one sign the letter was written early.
2:3 You sit here in a good place The rich man gets noticed and the best seat. The poor man is told to stand aside or sit on the floor. Many have walked into a church and felt unwanted, and some never came back. How does your church greet the person who has nothing to give?
2:4 did you not become judges with evil reasonings "Divided" has the same root as doubting in 1:6, a divided heart. They judged who was worth honoring by asking who could help them. That is how the world thinks.
2:5 did not God choose the poor of this world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom Being poor does not make anyone holy or saved. But God has often chosen the poor (1 Cor 1:26-29). Jesus was laid in a manger (Luke 2:7) and most of His first followers were fishermen and common people. In God's eyes the poor believer in the back row is royalty.
2:6 Are not the rich oppressing you, and are they themselves dragging you into courts Wealthy landowners and lenders often dragged the poor into court over debts, and courts usually sided with the rich. Not every rich person is wicked, but it made no sense to flatter the class pushing them around while shaming the people God chose.
2:7 blaspheming the good name which was called upon you The name of Jesus, called upon believers when they came to faith and were baptized, like a bride taking her husband's name. Honoring people for their money can mean honoring those who dishonor our Lord.

you? 8 If indeed you fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing well. 9 But if you show partiality, you are committing sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors. 10 For whoever keeps the whole law but stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all. 11 For He who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." Now if you do not commit adultery but murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. 12 So speak and so act, as being about to be judged through the law of freedom. 13 For the judgment will be merciless to the one who has not shown mercy; and mercy triumphs over judgment.

Faith Without Works Is Dead

14 What is the profit, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Surely the faith is not able to save him? 15 And if a brother or a sister is naked and lacking daily food, 16 and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and be filled," but you do not give them the things needed for the body, what is the profit? 17 So also the faith, if it does not have works, is dead by itself. 18 But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. 19 You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe, and shudder. 20 But do you want to know, O empty man, that the faith apart from the works is dead? 21 Was not Abraham (Abraam) our father justified by works, having offered Isaac (Isaak) his son on the altar? 22 You see that the faith was working together with his works, and by the works the faith was perfected. 23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "And Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness," and he was called a friend of God. 24 You see then that a man is justified by works and not by faith only. 25 And likewise also Rahab (Hraab) the prostitute, was she not justified by works, having received the messengers and having sent them out by another way?

2:8 If indeed you fulfill the royal law according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," Leviticus 19:18, the second great commandment (Matt 22:37-40). Royal because it is the law of the King and rules over the others (Gal 5:14). Your neighbor includes the poor man at the door.
2:9 But if you show partiality, you are committing sin Not bad manners. Sin. A transgressor steps over a line God has drawn, and the same law forbids partiality in judgment (Lev 19:15).
2:10 For whoever keeps the whole law but stumbles in one point, he has become guilty of all God's law is one whole, like a pane of glass. Crack it in one place and the whole pane is broken. That is why no one can be saved by keeping the law (Gal 3:10-11). We have all stumbled and all need a Savior.
2:11 Do not commit adultery The same God gave every command. Readers proud of keeping the big ones still sinned against Him by favoritism. There is no sin that does not matter to God.
2:12 So speak and so act, as being about to be judged through the law of freedom Believers will give an account (Rom 14:10-12; 2 Cor 5:10). That judgment does not decide heaven or hell, settled at the cross. It evaluates how we lived. The law of freedom (1:25) is God's Word written on a heart Christ has set free.
2:13 and mercy triumphs over judgment A person who never shows mercy shows he has never really received it (Matt 18:23-35). At the cross mercy triumphed over the judgment we deserved, and our mercy shows His has changed us (Matt 5:7).
2:14 if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Surely the faith is not able to save him Notice "says." The question is whether the claim is real. The Greek expects the answer no. That kind of faith, which only talks and never acts, is not the faith the Bible calls saving.
2:16 Go in peace, be warmed and be filled It sounds kind, even spiritual. The brother walks away still cold and hungry. Love is in deed and truth, not just word (1 John 3:17-18).
2:17 So also the faith, if it does not have works, is dead by itself James does not say faith plus works earns salvation. He says faith with no works is dead. A dead body looks like a person but cannot breathe or help anyone. Living things move and grow.
2:18 Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works The objector treats faith and works as separate gifts. No one can see faith directly. Works are how faith becomes visible. Where the objector's words end in this verse is debated, but the point is the same.
2:19 Even the demons believe, and shudder Every Jewish believer said daily that the LORD is one (Deut 6:4). Demons knew Jesus was the Son of God when the crowds did not (Mark 1:24; 5:7). Their belief is correct but only makes them tremble. Saving faith is more than agreeing with the truth. It rests our whole weight on Christ.
2:20 O empty man Hollow, like a pot with nothing inside. James turns to the Old Testament to show this is how faith has always worked. The SLB reads "dead" here. Many older copies read a word meaning useless or idle. The point is the same.
2:21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, having offered Isaac his son on the altar In Romans, Paul uses "justified" for a sinner declared righteous before God. James uses it here for being shown or proven righteous. God declared Abraham righteous by faith in Genesis 15:6, many years before Genesis 22. Offering Isaac did not make him right with God. It proved he already was. Some teachers hold both men mean declared righteous before God, with James speaking of the final verdict that takes account of the evidence. Both readings agree works do not earn salvation.
2:22 You see that the faith was working together with his works, and by the works the faith was perfected Partners, not rivals. Abraham climbed the mountain because he trusted God to keep His promise, even by raising Isaac (Heb 11:17-19). A seed is real before it sprouts, but you see what it is when it becomes a tree.
2:23 And Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness Genesis 15:6, the verse Paul uses in Romans 4:3 and Galatians 3:6. Genesis 22 "fulfilled" it by showing that what God said of Abraham was true. God called him His friend (Isa 41:8; 2 Chr 20:7). Real faith is not cold agreement but trust that walks with God.
2:24 You see then that a man is justified by works and not by faith only Does James contradict Paul (Rom 3:28)? No. Paul answers how a guilty sinner is made right with God: by faith alone (Rom 4:5; Eph 2:8-9). James answers how you can tell faith is real: by its works. "Not by faith only" means the dead, talking faith of verses 14-20. Paul adds that we are "created in Christ Jesus for good works" (Eph 2:10). Paul fought those who added works to faith. James fought those who thought faith needed no works. Both guard the same gospel from two sides.
2:25 Rahab the prostitute, was she not justified by works She hid the spies because she believed the LORD had given Israel the land (Josh 2:9-11). The opposite of Abraham, a Gentile and a prostitute, yet both showed real faith (Heb 11:31). God saved her and placed her in the line of Jesus (Matt 1:5).

26 For just as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also the faith apart from the works is dead.

Taming the Tongue

1 Let not many of you become teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive greater judgment. 2 For we all stumble in many ways. If anyone does not stumble in word, this one is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also. 3 Look, we put the bits of the horses into the mouths for them to obey us, and we also turn about their whole body. 4 Look, also the ships, being so great and being driven by strong winds, are turned about by a very small rudder wherever the impulse of the one steering wills. 5 So also the tongue is a small member and boasts great things. Look, how great a forest a small fire kindles! 6 And the tongue is a fire, the world of unrighteousness. So the tongue is set among our members, defiling the whole body and setting on fire the wheel of birth, and being set on fire by Gehenna. 7 For every kind of beasts and of birds, of creeping things and of sea creatures, is tamed and has been tamed by the human kind. 8 But no one of men is able to tame the tongue; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. 9 With it we bless the God and Father, and with it we curse men who have been made according to the likeness of God. 10 Out of the same mouth come forth blessing and cursing. These things ought not, my brothers, to be so. 11 Surely the spring does not pour forth from the same opening the sweet and the bitter? 12 Surely a fig tree is not able, my brothers, to produce olives, or a vine figs? So no spring is able to produce both salty and sweet water.

Wisdom from Above

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show out of his good conduct his works in the meekness of wisdom. 14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not boast and lie against the truth. 15 This wisdom is not coming down from above, but is earthly, natural, demonic. 16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition are,

2:26 Eccl 12:7; Ps 104:29; Ps 146:4

3:6 Prov 16:27; Mark 7:15,20-22; Matt 15:11-20
3:7 Gen 1:26; Mark 5:4
3:8 Ps 140:3; Rom 3:13; James 3:6
3:9 Gen 1:26; Gen 5:1; Gen 1:27
3:10 1 Pet 3:9; 1 Cor 3:3; Ps 50:16-20
3:12 Luke 6:43,44; Matt 7:16-20; Jer 2:21
3:13 James 2:18; 1 Pet 2:12; Ps 107:43
3:14 James 3:16; 2 Cor 12:20; Phil 2:3
3:15 Jude 1:19; James 3:17; James 1:5,17
3:16 1 Cor 3:3; James 3:14; Gal 5:20

2:26 For just as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also the faith apart from the works is dead Works are not the life of faith, and works do not save. Christ saves through faith. But real faith is alive, and life always shows. The question is not, Did I ever say I believe? It is, Is my faith alive?
3:1 Let not many of you become teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive greater judgment In church as in synagogue, men could stand and teach, and a teacher was honored. Some wanted the title for the wrong reasons. James says "we," putting himself under the warning. God gives teachers to His church (Eph 4:11). Take the job seriously and teach with fear and care.
3:2 If anyone does not stumble in word, this one is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also We all stumble, and most often with words. Perfect is mature, as in 1:4. The tongue is the hardest part to master. Only Jesus did it fully (1 Pet 2:22). The more God has our tongue, the more He has the rest of us.
3:3 we put the bits of the horses into the mouths for them to obey us The first of three pictures of a small thing steering a big one. A small pull on the reins turns a thousand-pound horse. The same word "bridle" as in 1:26 and 3:2.
3:4 are turned about by a very small rudder Some ships carried hundreds of people (Acts 27:37) and were driven by strong winds, yet a small rudder steered them. One sentence can start a friendship or end one, lead a person toward Christ or push him away. Who is steering your tongue?
3:5 Look, how great a forest a small fire kindles Dry hillsides catch fire, and one spark burns for miles. One piece of gossip can spread through a church or family and do damage that takes years to repair (Prov 18:21).
3:6 being set on fire by Gehenna The tongue can hold a whole world of evil: lies, gossip, slander, cursing, boasting, flattery. Like smoke staining a house, it stains the whole person. "The wheel of birth" is the whole course of life turning like a wheel. Gehenna was the Valley of Hinnom outside Jerusalem, where children had once been burned to idols (Jer 7:31), and Jesus used the name for hell.
3:7 is tamed and has been tamed by the human kind God gave man rule over the animals (Gen 1:26-28). People have trained horses, elephants, falcons, dogs, even lions and snakes. That makes the next verse all the more striking.
3:8 But no one of men is able to tame the tongue; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison Unruly means restless, always ready to strike, like a snake (Ps 140:3). No man can tame it, but God can. The Spirit produces self-control (Gal 5:22-23). Ask God every day to guard your mouth (Ps 141:3).
3:9 and with it we curse men who have been made according to the likeness of God We bless God in prayer and song, then use the same tongue to tear people down. Every person bears God's image (Gen 1:26-27). We cannot truly honor God while we treat the people He made with contempt.
3:10 These things ought not, my brothers, to be so Praise on Sunday, temper at home or in traffic on Monday. James does not say everybody does it. It is a sign the heart still needs to change (Matt 12:34).
3:11 Surely the spring does not pour forth from the same opening the sweet and the bitter Springs near the Dead Sea gave bitter, salty water. One spring does not give both. What comes out shows what is underneath.
3:12 Surely a fig tree is not able, my brothers, to produce olives A tree bears fruit by what it is (Matt 7:16-20). We all stumble (3:2), but the pattern of our words over time shows what kind of tree we are. To change your words, ask God to change your heart.
3:13 Let him show out of his good conduct his works in the meekness of wisdom Back to the would-be teachers who thought themselves wise. Wisdom is not measured by how much you know or how well you argue, but by how you live, with a humble spirit that does not need to win. True wisdom has a gentle face.
3:14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart Bitter jealousy is the sour feeling when someone else gets the attention or position we want. Selfish ambition was a word for one who campaigned by stirring up groups against each other. Such a person is not wise, however many verses he can quote.
3:15 earthly, natural, demonic It looks only at this life, comes from the human soul without God's Spirit (1 Cor 2:14), and is the kind of thinking the devil loves. Pride and selfish ambition were Satan's own sins. The world calls it smart and driven. James calls it what it is.
3:16 there is disorder and every evil thing God is not the author of disorder but of peace (1 Cor 14:33). People take sides, talk behind backs, and every decision becomes a fight. Many church splits and family breakups trace back to these two sins hidden under the surface (Ps 139:23-24).

there is disorder and every evil thing. 17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and of good fruits, impartial, and without hypocrisy. 18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Draw Near to God

1 From where come wars and fightings among you? Is it not from here, out of your pleasures that are waging war in your members? 2 You desire and do not have; you murder and are jealous and are not able to obtain; you fight and wage war. But you do not have because you do not ask. 3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, so that you may spend it on your pleasures. 4 Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that the friendship of the world is hostility with God? Whoever therefore chooses to be a friend of the world is made an enemy of God. 5 Or do you think that the Scripture speaks in vain? Does the spirit which dwelt in us yearn with envy? 6 But He gives greater grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble." 7 Be subject therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 8 Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded. 9 Be miserable and mourn and weep; let your laughter be turned to mourning and the joy to gloom. 10 Be humbled before the Lord, and He will exalt you.

Do Not Judge Your Brother

11 Do not speak against one another, brothers. The one who speaks against a brother and judges his brother speaks against the law and judges the law; but if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. 12 There is one Lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. But you, who are you who judge the other?

If the Lord Wills

13 Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a city and will spend one year there and will trade and will make a profit"; 14 you who do not know the things of tomorrow. For what is your life? For it is a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes.

4:13 Gen 11:3; Prov 27:1; Gen 11:7

3:17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and of good fruits, impartial, and without hypocrisy Pure first: clean, with no hidden motives. Reasonable means willing to listen and be persuaded. Impartial means no favorites (2:1). Without hypocrisy, the same inside as outside. The list sounds like Jesus Himself and like the fruit of the Spirit (Gal 5:22-23).
3:18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace A farmer sows and later reaps. Peacemaking is not avoiding every conflict but bringing people together in truth and love (Matt 5:9). Every day, with tongue and actions, we sow disorder or peace. What harvest are you sowing?
4:1 From where come wars and fightings among you Not wars between nations but quarrels inside the church. "Pleasures" gives us hedonism, selfish desires camped inside us like an army. The fight outside starts with a fight inside. Before we blame the other person, we should look at our own hearts.
4:2 But you do not have because you do not ask We want, we can't get, so we fight. "Murder" may mean bitter fights that turned violent, and Jesus taught that hate is the root of murder (Matt 5:21-22). How many fights could be avoided if we prayed first?
4:3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly With evil motives, treating God like a vending machine. Prayer brings our will in line with His (Matt 6:10). He loves to give good gifts (1:17) but will not feed our selfishness. When prayers seem unanswered, ask what you are really asking for and why.
4:4 Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that the friendship of the world is hostility with God The prophets called Israel's idolatry adultery against her Husband (Jer 3:20; Hos 1:2). The world here is not the people God loves (John 3:16) but the way of living that leaves Him out, its pride, greed and lusts (1 John 2:15-17). Notice "chooses." We cannot be best friends with both.
4:5 Does the spirit which dwelt in us yearn with envy One of the hardest verses in James to translate. James gives the sense of many Scriptures, not one exact verse. Some read it of our fallen human spirit leaning toward envy, which explains verses 1-2. Others read it of God jealously yearning over the spirit He caused to dwell in us. He will not share His people with the world (Exod 20:5). Either way, the next verse answers.
4:6 But He gives greater grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble." Grace greater than our sin, pride and the pull of the world. Proverbs 3:34 in the Greek Old Testament, also quoted in 1 Peter 5:5. "Opposes" is a military word, to line up against in battle. Grace flows downhill to the low places.
4:7 Be subject therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you The first of ten commands calling us back to God. To be subject is to place yourself under authority like a soldier under his captain. First submit, then resist. We stand against the devil by standing under God (1 Pet 5:8-9), and he will run.
4:8 Draw near to God, and He will draw near to you God does not stand with arms crossed. Like the prodigal's father, He runs to meet us (Luke 15:20). Priests washed their hands before coming to the altar (Exod 30:19-21). Hands stand for what we do, hearts for what we want. The double-minded (1:8) try to love God and the world at once.
4:9 let your laughter be turned to mourning and the joy to gloom Not against joy (1:2). Some were laughing off their sin while living as friends of the world. Godly sorrow leads to repentance (2 Cor 7:10; Matt 5:4), and then God turns mourning into real joy.
4:10 Be humbled before the Lord, and He will exalt you The proud lift themselves up and God brings them down (Matt 23:12; 1 Pet 5:6). God's way up is always down. We don't have to fight for our place. He will give it in His time.
4:11 Do not speak against one another, brothers Talking someone down, often behind his back, is another kind of pride. The law says love your neighbor (2:8), and slander acts as if it doesn't apply to us. James is not forbidding calling sin what it is, but setting ourselves up as final judge over others.
4:12 There is one Lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy Only God knows every heart and judges with perfect fairness. We don't know all the facts (Matt 7:1). Believers still correct one another (Gal 6:1), and churches deal with sin (1 Cor 5), but we never take God's seat.
4:13 Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a city Many Jews of the dispersion were traders who traveled city to city. Nothing is wrong with planning, business or profit. The problem is what's missing. "We will" over and over, and God is not in the plan at all.
4:14 For it is a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes "Do not boast yourself about the day of tomorrow" (Prov 27:1). Like steam over a cup of coffee or your breath on a cold morning. Not meant to scare us, but to humble us and teach us to depend on God for each day.

15 Instead of your saying, "If the Lord wills, we will both live and do this or that." 16 But now you boast in your arrogant claims; all such boasting is evil. 17 Therefore to one who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.

Warning to the Rich

1 Come now, you rich, weep, wailing over your miseries that are coming upon you. 2 Your riches have rotted, and your garments have become moth-eaten. 3 Your gold and silver have corroded, and their rust will be for a testimony against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have stored up treasure in the last days. 4 Look, the wage of the workers who mowed your fields, which has been fraudulently kept back by you, cries out, and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of armies. 5 You lived in luxury on the earth and lived in self-indulgence; you fed your hearts as in a day of slaughter. 6 You condemned, you murdered the righteous one; he does not resist you.

Patience Until the Lord Comes

7 Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Look, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it until it receives the early and late rain. 8 You also be patient; strengthen your hearts, because the coming of the Lord has drawn near. 9 Do not groan against one another, brothers, so that you may not be condemned; look, the Judge stands before the doors. 10 Take as an example, my brothers, of suffering hardship and of patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. 11 Look, we count blessed those who endure. You have heard of the endurance of Job (Iob), and you have seen the outcome of the Lord, that the Lord is very compassionate and merciful. 12 But above all, my brothers, do not swear, neither by heaven nor by the earth nor by any other oath; but let your yes be yes, and your no be no, so that you may not fall under judgment.

5:11 Job 1:21; Job 2:10; Job 42:10
5:12 Gen 42:15; Mal 3:5; Matt 5:33-37

4:15 If the Lord wills, we will both live and do this or that James does not say don't plan. Plan with God in it. Paul lived this way (Acts 18:21; 1 Cor 4:19). Not a phrase to tack on, but a heart that says, Lord, my time is in Your hands.
4:16 all such boasting is evil "Arrogant claims" was used of one who brags about what he can't deliver, like a traveling salesman. Boasting about tomorrow claims what only God has (1 Cor 4:7).
4:17 Therefore to one who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin Sin is also failing to do what is right. Back to the theme: doers, not hearers only (1:22). What good thing has God shown you to do that you have been putting off?
5:1 Come now, you rich, weep, wailing over your miseries that are coming upon you The same "Come now" as in 4:13. Most likely not believers. James speaks as the prophets spoke to the nations, as if they stood in the room (Isa 13:6; Amos 6:1). He does not call them brothers or call them to repent. He warns of judgment, and that comforted the poor believers. God sees, and He will set it right.
5:2 Your riches have rotted, and your garments have become moth-eaten Wealth was kept in grain, oil and fine clothing, and grain rots and moths eat clothes. James speaks as if it has already happened, as the prophets did, because it is that certain (Matt 6:19-20).
5:3 You have stored up treasure in the last days Gold and silver do not really rust, but even the most lasting wealth loses its value. The rust is a witness in court that the money sat unused while others went hungry. The last days began with Christ's first coming (Heb 1:2). What folly, to stockpile for a world that is passing away.
5:4 the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of armies Day laborers were paid each evening and needed that money to feed their families that night. The Law forbade holding wages overnight (Lev 19:13; Deut 24:14-15). The wages cry out like Abel's blood (Gen 4:10). The poor have no defender on earth, but the God of heaven's armies hears. A warning to every employer today.
5:5 you fed your hearts as in a day of slaughter Like the rich man who feasted while Lazarus starved at his gate (Luke 16:19-25). Cattle keep eating, not knowing the day of slaughter has come. The rich were fattening themselves for their own destruction.
5:6 You condemned, you murdered the righteous one; he does not resist you The rich used power and courts to crush the poor (2:6), and some died of it. Most read "the righteous one" as the righteous poor in general. Some also see a pointer to Jesus, the Righteous One (Acts 3:14), who was condemned and did not resist.
5:7 Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord God will judge, so His people need not take revenge. Patient means long-tempered. The early rain came in the fall to soften the ground for planting, and the late rain in spring to fill out the grain. A farmer cannot make it rain. He works and waits.
5:8 strengthen your hearts, because the coming of the Lord has drawn near Make your heart firm and steady. Was James wrong, writing nearly two thousand years ago? No. Near means His coming could happen at any time, with nothing else on God's calendar required first. I believe Jesus will come for His church before the seven-year Tribulation (John 14:1-3; 1 Thess 4:13-18), and after it He will return visibly to judge and reign (Matt 24:29-31; Rev 19:11-16). James does not separate the stages, and pre-tribulation teachers apply these verses to one or the other. Every generation is called to live ready.
5:9 Do not groan against one another, brothers Under pressure people turn on each other, grumbling under their breath (4:11). The Judge stands at the courtroom door. Believers will stand at the judgment seat of Christ, not to decide salvation but for how we lived and the rewards He gives (2 Cor 5:10).
5:10 the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord Jeremiah was thrown into a muddy pit (Jer 38:6), and Elijah ran for his life (1 Kgs 19:1-3; Matt 5:12). They suffered while doing what God told them. Suffering does not always mean we have done wrong. Sometimes it means we are doing exactly what is right.
5:11 You have heard of the endurance of Job, and you have seen the outcome of the Lord Job lost his children, wealth and health, asked hard questions and struggled, but did not turn from God. God restored him with twice as much (Job 42:10-17). We may not see the end of our story yet, but we know the heart of the One writing it.
5:12 But above all, my brothers, do not swear Not foul language but oaths, calling on heaven, earth or Jerusalem to back a word, sometimes with clever loopholes (Matt 23:16-22). Almost the same as Jesus' words (Matt 5:33-37). Many hold James forbids casual or evasive oaths, not a solemn oath in court, since God swore by Himself (Heb 6:13) and Paul called God as witness (Rom 1:9). Others, including some church groups, hold all oaths are forbidden. Be a person of your word.

The Prayer of Faith

13 Is anyone among you suffering hardship? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. 14 Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, having anointed him with oil in the name of the Lord. 15 And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he has committed sins, it will be forgiven him. 16 Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man, being at work, prevails much. 17 Elijah (Helias) was a man of like nature to us, and he prayed with prayer that it would not rain; and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. 18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth sprouted its fruit.

Turning Back a Wanderer

19 Brothers, if anyone among you is led astray from the truth and someone turns him back, 20 let him know that the one who turns back a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

5:16 John 9:31; 1 John 3:22; Ps 34:15
5:17 1 Kgs 17:1; 1 Kgs 18:1; 1 Kgs 18:37
5:18 1 Kgs 18:42; 1 Kgs 18:45; 1 Kgs 18:43
5:19 Gal 6:1; Matt 18:15; Ps 119:21,118
5:20 Ps 32:1; Prov 10:12; 1 Pet 4:8

5:13 Is anyone among you suffering hardship? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise Not grumbling (5:9), not giving up. Prayer for hard times, praise for good times. Many psalms begin with tears and end in praise.
5:14 Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, having anointed him with oil in the name of the Lord Elders are the shepherds of a local church (Acts 20:17, 28; 1 Pet 5:1-2), and the sick person takes the first step. Some see the oil as medicine, a common treatment then (Luke 10:34), so the verse means care plus prayer. Others see a symbol of setting apart to God, as the apostles anointed the sick (Mark 6:13). The Roman Catholic Church bases its sacrament of the anointing of the sick on this verse. The power is "in the name of the Lord."
5:15 And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up Save here means make well. The prayer of faith trusts God and leaves the outcome to Him. Not every sick believer is healed: Paul left Trophimus sick (2 Tim 4:20) and kept his thorn (2 Cor 12:7-9). Some read a general promise that God often heals, always by His will (1 John 5:14). Others include the spiritually weary. "If" shows not all sickness comes from sin (John 9:1-3), though some does (1 Cor 11:30).
5:16 Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed God forgives when we confess to Him (1 John 1:9), but there is healing when we bring sin into the light with a trusted believer who prays with us. Roman Catholic teaching links this to confession to a priest. Most Protestants read believers confessing to each other. Not every sin needs telling to everyone, but secrets kept in the dark tend to grow. A righteous man is not a perfect one but one walking with God.
5:17 Elijah was a man of like nature to us He called down fire (1 Kgs 18:36-38), then ran in fear and asked to die (1 Kgs 19:3-4). God shut the sky over Israel's idolatry (1 Kgs 17:1). Jesus also gives "three years and six months" (Luke 4:25). The word came to Elijah "in the third year" (1 Kgs 18:1), most likely counting from when Elijah went into hiding.
5:18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain On Carmel he bowed with his face between his knees and sent his servant seven times until a small cloud rose (1 Kgs 18:41-45). His prayer was powerful not because he was special but because his God is, and He is our God.
5:19 if anyone among you is led astray from the truth and someone turns him back Someone in the church who drifted in belief or life. Not the elders or pastor only. "Someone." It takes love, courage and humility (Gal 6:1). It is easier to talk about a wanderer than to him. James calls us to go.
5:20 will save a soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins The wanderer's soul, and his sins covered (Ps 32:1; 1 Pet 4:8). Some take the death as physical death under God's discipline (1 Cor 11:30). Others take eternal death, either because one who wanders away completely never truly belonged (1 John 2:19) or because a believer can be lost. Good teachers have long disagreed on that wider question. Love does not let a brother walk away without trying to bring him home.

1 PETER

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for its writer, "Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ" (1:1). It is the first of two letters from him in the New Testament and one of the seven General Letters, written to a wide group of believers rather than to one church or one person.

Author and Date

Peter's given name was Simon. He was a fisherman from Galilee, the brother of Andrew, and Jesus named him Peter, which means rock (John 1:40-42). He was one of the three closest to Jesus. He denied Him three times on the night of His arrest, and after the resurrection Jesus restored him and told him to feed His sheep (John 21:15-17). In this letter he calls himself "the fellow elder and witness of the sufferings of Christ" (5:1). The early church accepted Peter as the author. Some modern scholars doubt it, saying the Greek is too polished for a Galilean fisherman. But Peter says he wrote "through Silvanus" (5:12), who may have helped him write it down, and by then Peter had preached for about thirty years, much of it among Greek-speaking people. I take the letter at its word.

Silvanus is the Silas of Acts, Paul's partner on his second journey (Acts 15:22, 40). Mark is John Mark, whom Peter calls "my son" (5:13). Early church writers said Mark's Gospel records Peter's preaching. Peter sends greetings from "She who is in Babylon" (5:13). Most teachers take this as the church in Rome, since Babylon was the great city of exile and Revelation uses the name for a world city set against God (Rev 17-18). Others take it as the old city in Mesopotamia. Early writers say Peter ministered in Rome and died there under Nero. If he wrote from Rome, the letter dates to about A.D. 64, shortly before Nero's persecution.

Background and Setting

Peter writes "to the elect exiles of the dispersion" in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia (1:1), Roman provinces in what is now Turkey. Dispersion was the word for Jews living outside Israel, and some teachers believe Peter wrote mainly to Jewish believers. But he says his readers once lived in "ignorance" (1:14), were redeemed from ways handed down from their fathers (1:18), and used to do "the will of the Gentiles" (4:3). Most believe the churches were mostly Gentile, with Jewish believers among them, and that Peter uses Israel's words to describe their place as strangers in this world.

The letter shows no government campaign to wipe them out yet. Peter still says to honor the king (2:17). Their suffering came from slander, scorn, unfair masters and unbelieving husbands, and the pressure of being different (2:12, 18-20; 3:1, 16; 4:4, 14). Peter warns that a "burning" trial was coming (4:12), and he wants them ready.

Themes

The key verse holds the whole letter: God "begot us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead" (1:3). Our hope is alive because Jesus is alive. The words suffer and suffering run all through these five chapters, but so do hope, grace and glory. Trials test our faith like fire tests gold (1:7). They last "a little while" (1:6; 5:10). Christ suffered first and left us an example (2:21), and His path went through the cross to the crown.

Believers are a chosen and holy people, living stones in God's house and a royal priesthood (2:4-10), called to be holy as He is holy (1:15-16). Peter gives some of the most practical teaching in the New Testament: how to live under a government that does not honor God, how to work for a harsh master, how to live with an unbelieving spouse, how to answer those who ask about our hope (3:15), how to suffer as a Christian without shame (4:16), and how elders should shepherd God's flock (5:1-4). His purpose is plain: "this to be the true grace of God, in which you stand" (5:12).

Christ in 1 Peter

Christ is the Lamb without blemish whose precious blood redeemed us (1:18-19), foreknown before the foundation of the world (1:20). The Spirit of Christ spoke through the prophets of His sufferings and the glories after them (1:11). He is the living Stone the builders rejected, now the chosen cornerstone (2:4-8). He suffered for us, leaving us an example, and "Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree" (2:21-24), the Servant of Isaiah 53. He "suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, so that He might bring us to God" (3:18). He is risen, at God's right hand, with every power subject to Him (3:22). He is the Shepherd and Overseer of our souls (2:25) and the Chief Shepherd who will appear (5:4).

Hard Passages

What does foreknowledge mean in 1:2? Teachers have long disagreed whether God chose those He knew would believe, or whether His foreknowing is His prior choosing love. The notes name both views and leave the question open.

How should the words to servants (2:18-25) and to wives and husbands (3:1-7) be read today? The notes explain Roman household slavery plainly, name the misuse of these verses, and apply them to work today. They teach the words to wives and husbands as written, say plainly that submission never means accepting abuse or following a husband into sin, and note that teachers differ on how the passage is lived out.

Who are "the spirits in prison" (3:19), and what does it mean that "the gospel was preached also to the dead" (4:6)? These are among the hardest verses in the New Testament. The notes give the main views without a verdict and show that Scripture does not teach a second chance after death (Heb 9:27).

Does "baptism now saves us" (3:21) mean the water saves? The notes show Peter's own explanation, the pledge of a good conscience through the resurrection of Jesus, and name the sacramental view fairly. Salvation is by grace through faith, and baptism follows faith.

Does 2:9-10 mean the church has replaced Israel? No. The church shares Israel's spiritual blessings through Christ, while God's promises to the nation of Israel stand (Rom 11:1-2, 26-29).

Greeting to the Elect Exiles

1 Peter (Petros), an apostle of Jesus (Iesous) Christ, to the elect exiles of the dispersion of Pontus (Pontos), Galatia, Cappadocia (Kappadokia), Asia, and Bithynia, 2 according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: may grace and peace be multiplied to you.

A Living Hope

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy begot us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, 4 to an inheritance imperishable and undefiled and unfading, reserved in the heavens for you, 5 who are being guarded by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6 In this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if it is necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, 7 so that the testing of your faith, much more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire, may be found for praise and honor and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ; 8 whom, not having seen Him, you love; in whom, now not seeing Him but believing, you greatly rejoice with joy inexpressible and glorified, 9 receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of souls. 10 Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied of the grace toward you sought out and searched out diligently, 11 searching into what or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating, as He testified beforehand the sufferings for Christ and the glories after these. 12 To them it was revealed that not to themselves but to us they were ministering these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven, things into which angels desire to look intently.

Called to Be Holy

1:13 Exod 12:11; 1 Kgs 18:46; 2 Kgs 4:29

1:1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ An apostle is one sent with the authority of the one who sent him. This is the Peter who once said he did not know Jesus (Luke 22:57). Grace made the man who denied Him into His messenger.
1:1 to the elect exiles of the dispersion Elect means chosen. Exiles are temporary residents in a land not their own. The dispersion was the word for Jews scattered outside Israel, and Peter uses it for believers in five Roman provinces in what is now Turkey. If you feel out of place in this world, that is a reminder of where you belong.
1:2 according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ All three Persons at work. Moses sprinkled blood on the people when they promised to obey the covenant (Exod 24:7-8). Some teachers take foreknowledge as God knowing ahead who would believe and choosing them in Christ (Rom 8:29). Others note that in Scripture "to know" often means to set one's love on someone, and the same word is used of Christ in verse 20. I leave that open, as in my Romans and Ephesians studies. Both agree salvation is God's work and everyone is called to repent and believe. These sufferers were not an accident. Grace is not just given but multiplied.
1:3 who according to His great mercy begot us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead The new birth Jesus told Nicodemus about (John 3:3-7). Biblical hope is a sure promise not yet arrived. It is living because it rests on a living Savior. When Jesus died, Peter's hope died too. When he saw the empty tomb (Luke 24:12) and ate with the risen Lord (John 21:12-15), it came back to life.
1:4 to an inheritance imperishable and undefiled and unfading, reserved in the heavens for you Three words that each begin with "not" in Greek. It cannot perish like a city, be polluted like land, or wilt like a flower. For people losing jobs, friends and good name for their faith, this was comfort (Matt 6:19-20). It has your name on it, kept in the safest place there is.
1:5 who are being guarded by the power of God through faith The word was used of soldiers standing watch over a city. God's power is the guard, and faith is how we rest under it. We are saved now from sin's penalty, and the rest comes when Jesus returns and we receive new bodies (Rom 8:23; 1 John 3:2). That salvation is "ready." God waits only for the right time.
1:6 though now for a little while, if it is necessary, you have been grieved by various trials Peter does not pretend the pain isn't real. "Various" means many-colored. Even a long trial is short beside eternity (2 Cor 4:17), and God allows it only "if it is necessary." Suffering is never meaningless for the believer.
1:7 much more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire Gold was heated until impurities rose and were skimmed off. Even gold will be gone one day. Tested faith lasts forever and brings praise when Jesus is revealed. Your trials are not proving God has left you. They are proving your faith is real.
1:8 whom, not having seen Him, you love Peter had seen Jesus. His readers had not, yet they loved Him (John 20:29). "Joy inexpressible" already has a taste of heaven in it. It does not come from circumstances, so it does not depend on them.
1:10 the prophets who prophesied of the grace toward you sought out and searched out diligently Isaiah wrote of the Servant pierced for our sins (Isa 53:5), David of pierced hands and feet (Ps 22:16), and they searched their own writings. We have what they longed to see (Matt 13:17).
1:11 the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating, as He testified beforehand the sufferings for Christ and the glories after these The prophets did not make up their message (2 Pet 1:21), and Christ existed before Bethlehem. They saw the cross and the crown, but not always the time between. Peter once tried to talk Jesus out of the cross (Matt 16:21-23). Suffering comes before glory.
1:12 things into which angels desire to look intently The prophets served people they would never meet, and the same Spirit spoke through the apostles. The word is the one used of Peter stooping into the empty tomb (Luke 24:12). Angels have never been redeemed, and they watch grace at work in sinners with wonder. How much more should we treasure it?
1:13 having girded up the loins of your mind, being sober Men wore long robes and tucked them into the belt before running or working so they would not trip. Do that with your mind. Sober means clear-headed, not drunk on this world. Set your hope all the way on what is coming, not half on Jesus and half on this world.

the revelation of Jesus Christ, 14 as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves to the desires that were formerly in your ignorance, 15 but as the One who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all your conduct, 16 because it has been written, "Be holy, because I am holy." 17 And if you call on as Father the One who judges impartially according to the work of each one, conduct yourselves in fear during the time of your sojourning, 18 knowing that you were redeemed not with perishable things, silver or gold, from your futile conduct handed down from your fathers, 19 but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot, 20 who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was made manifest in the last of the times for your sake, 21 who through Him believe in God, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

Born Again by the Living Word

22 Having purified your souls in the obedience of the truth through the Spirit for sincere brotherly love, love one another fervently out of a pure heart, 23 having been begotten again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the word of God, living and abiding forever.

24 Because "All flesh is like grass, and all the glory of man like the flower of grass. The grass withered, and its flower fell off, 25 but the declaration of the Lord abides forever." And this is the declaration which was preached as the gospel to you.

1 PETER 2

Living Stones and a Royal Priesthood

4 Coming to Him, a living stone, rejected indeed by men but chosen and precious in the sight of God, 5 you yourselves also, as living stones, are being built up, a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus (Iesous) Christ. 6 Therefore also it is contained in the Scripture: "Look, I lay in Zion (Sion) a stone, a cornerstone, chosen, precious, and the one who believes on

1:14 not conforming yourselves to the desires that were formerly in your ignorance A child takes after his father. To conform is to be pressed into a mold (Rom 12:2). "Ignorance" of God is one reason most teachers believe many readers were Gentiles who grew up without knowing the true God.

1:15 but as the One who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all your conduct Holy is set apart, different, belonging to God. Not just on Sunday but at home, at work and where no one sees. God said it to Israel (Lev 11:44-45; 19:2). Holiness is not rules to earn God's love but what happens when we belong to a holy God and His Spirit lives in us.

1:17 the One who judges impartially according to the work of each one We call Him Father (Rom 8:15), but He does not wink at sin. For believers this is not a judgment of whether we are saved but of how we lived (2 Cor 5:10). Fear here is reverence, and our time here is a temporary stay.

1:18 knowing that you were redeemed not with perishable things, silver or gold To redeem is to buy back by paying a price, as a ransom freed a slave. Silver could buy a slave's freedom but never a sinner's. Many readers had been raised in idol worship passed down for generations, empty and going nowhere.

1:19 but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot The Passover lamb had to be perfect, and its blood on the doorposts protected God's people (Exod 12). Jesus is "the Lamb of God" (John 1:29). Nothing on earth is worth more than that blood, and it was shed for you.

1:20 who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was made manifest in the last of the times for your sake The cross was not God's backup plan (Rev 13:8). The last times began at His first coming, and we live in them now. God's eternal plan had you in mind.

1:21 so that your faith and hope are in God The resurrection and ascension are the Father's stamp of approval on all Jesus did. Not in ourselves, our circumstances, the government or the economy. Then trials cannot take them away.

1:22 love one another fervently out of a pure heart Sincere means without a mask, like the actors' masks in Greek theater. Fervently means stretched out, like a runner straining for the line. Love takes effort, especially when people are hard to love. When the world is against us, we need each other.

1:23 having been begotten again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the word of God, living and abiding forever Every human life starts from a seed that will die. God uses His Word to give new birth (James 1:18), and because the seed lasts, so does the life. Same Father, same seed. That is why we are family.

1:24 All flesh is like grass Isaiah 40:6-8. Grass grew green after the rains and dried up fast under the sun. Wealth, fame, beauty and power bloom and fall.

1:25 but the declaration of the Lord abides forever Everything else passes, but God's Word will not (Matt 24:35). The persecutors would wither like grass. The Word that saved these believers would stand forever. Building on anything else is building on grass.

2:1 having put aside all malice and all deceit and hypocrisies and envies and all slanders Because we are born again and called to love (1:22-23), some things must go. Malice wishes harm. Deceit says one thing and means another. Hypocrisy wears a mask. Envy resents what others have. Slander tears down with words. Take them off like dirty clothes. They choke out new life.

2:2 like newborn babies, long for the pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow A hungry newborn wants nothing else. Some milk then was watered down, but God's Word never is. Many Greek copies, including the oldest, add words meaning to salvation. A believer not taking in the Word is like a baby not eating. How hungry are you for it?

2:3 if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is kind An echo of Psalm 34:8. "If" here means since. Once you taste something good, you want more, and the craving grows from the first taste.

2:4 Coming to Him, a living stone, rejected indeed by men but chosen and precious in the sight of God Living because He rose. Israel's leaders threw Him out, and Peter told them so to their faces (Acts 4:10-11). "Coming" is present tense: once for salvation, then day by day. If you have felt rejected, so was He, and God's opinion is the one that counts.

2:5 as living stones, are being built up, a spiritual house, a holy priesthood God's house was once a temple of cut stones. Now it is His people (Eph 2:19-22). In Israel only priests went near the altar. Now every believer has access to God through Jesus and offers spiritual sacrifices: praise, doing good, sharing, giving our whole selves (Rom 12:1; Heb 13:15-16). Imperfect offerings are accepted because of Him.

2:6 Look, I lay in Zion a stone, a cornerstone, chosen, precious Isaiah 28:16. The cornerstone was laid first and every other stone lined up by it. The Greek doubles its negative: you will never be put to shame. People may mock now, but on the last day no one who trusted Him will be ashamed.

Him will by no means be put to shame." 7 To you therefore who believe is the preciousness; but to those who are disobedient, "The stone which the builders rejected, this has become the head of the corner," 8 and "A stone of stumbling and a rock of offense"; who stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which they also were appointed. 9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for His possession, so that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light; 10 who once were not a people, but now are the people of God; who had not received mercy, but now have received mercy.

Good Conduct Among the Gentiles

11 Beloved, I urge you as sojourners and exiles to abstain from fleshly desires, which wage war against the soul, 12 keeping your conduct among the Gentiles good, so that in that in which they slander you as evildoers, they may, observing your good works, glorify God in the day of visitation.

Submitting to Rulers

13 Be subject therefore to every human institution for the Lord's sake, whether to the king as being supreme, 14 or to governors as being sent through him for vengeance on evildoers and praise of those who do good. 15 Because so is the will of God, that by doing good you put to silence the ignorance of foolish men; 16 as free, and not having the freedom as a covering for malice, but as slaves of God. 17 Honor everyone, love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the king.

Following Christ's Steps

18 Household servants, be subject in all fear to the masters, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the crooked. 19 For this is favor, if because of conscience toward God someone endures griefs, suffering unjustly. 20 For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten, you endure? But if, when you do good and suffer, you endure, this is favor before God. 21 For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, so that you may follow His steps; 22 who committed no sin, nor was deceit

2:7 The stone which the builders rejected, this has become the head of the corner Psalm 118:22, which Jesus quoted of Himself (Matt 21:42). The builders were the religious leaders who should have known Him. Every person chooses: precious cornerstone or rejected stone.
2:8 A stone of stumbling and a rock of offense Isaiah 8:14. A large rock in the path holds you up if you build on it and trips you if you ignore it. No neutral ground. Some read "to which they also were appointed" as God appointing these people to stumble. Others read that God appointed the stumbling as the sure result for anyone who disobeys. Either way, Peter places the blame on their disobedience.
2:9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for His possession Israel's titles from Sinai and Isaiah (Exod 19:5-6; Isa 43:20-21), now used of believers, Jew and Gentile, grafted in (Rom 11:17). This does not mean the church has replaced Israel. God has not rejected His people (Rom 11:1-2), "all Israel will be saved" (Rom 11:26), and His promises of land and kingdom stand. Covenant theology reads these titles as the church becoming the new Israel. We are saved to proclaim what He has done. Who in your life needs to hear it?
2:10 who once were not a people, but now are the people of God From Hosea 1:9-10 and 2:23, where Hosea's children were named no mercy and not My people. Paul applies Hosea to Gentiles (Rom 9:24-26). Some believe the church has received Hosea's promise to Israel. I believe Peter uses the words because God showed these believers the same mercy, while the promise still belongs to Israel, kept when Israel turns to Christ at His return and He reigns a thousand years.
2:11 I urge you as sojourners and exiles to abstain from fleshly desires, which wage war against the soul A sojourner lives somewhere without citizenship. Ours is in heaven (Phil 3:20). Fleshly desires are not harmless fun but soldiers trying to destroy the soul. A traveler need not adopt a foreign land's worst habits.
2:12 keeping your conduct among the Gentiles good Gentiles here means unbelievers. Christians were slandered as disloyal for refusing to worship the emperor and as haters for skipping pagan feasts. Peter's answer is not to argue louder but to live better (Matt 5:16). "The day of visitation" is when God comes, in mercy when they turn to Him or in judgment.
2:13 Be subject therefore to every human institution for the Lord's sake, whether to the king as being supreme Not because rulers are always right, but because it honors the Lord. The emperor was most likely Nero, who would later kill many Christians (Rom 13:1-7). When man's law and God's clash, "It is necessary to obey God rather than men" (Acts 5:29). Otherwise, believers should be the best citizens in the land.
2:14 for vengeance on evildoers and praise of those who do good Governors like Pontius Pilate were sent by the emperor. God set up government to restrain evil and reward good (Rom 13:3-4), and even a bad one usually does some of it. That holds whether those in charge belong to our political party or not.
2:15 that by doing good you put to silence the ignorance of foolish men Part of God's will, written plainly. It is hard to keep calling someone an evildoer when he is the best neighbor on the street and the first to help. Our lives can answer what our words cannot.
2:16 not having the freedom as a covering for malice, but as slaves of God We are free in Christ (John 8:36; Gal 5:1). Freedom used as an excuse is just sin with a nice label. Real freedom is being free to do what we should.
2:17 Honor everyone, love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the king Every person bears God's image. Believers are family. Only God gets fear. The king gets honor, on the same level as "everyone." The early Christians honored the emperor but would not call him lord or burn incense to him.
2:18 Household servants, be subject in all fear to the masters, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the crooked Oiketai, household slaves. Many in the empire, and in the church, were slaves through war, debt or birth, some working as teachers, doctors and managers. It was not the race-based slavery of American history, but it was still one person owning another and often cruel. These verses were later misused to defend slavery, while other Christians saw every person as made in God's image and fought to end it. Peter gave instructions for believers caught in a system they did not create. Today: be a good worker even under a bad boss. That never means staying quiet about abuse.
2:19 For this is favor, if because of conscience toward God someone endures griefs, suffering unjustly Charis, usually grace, here something God finds pleasing. The servant endures because he thinks about God, who sees and will make it right.
2:20 But if, when you do good and suffer, you endure, this is favor before God Taking punishment you earned is nothing special. Not looking for suffering, but how we respond when unfair suffering finds us.
2:21 Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, so that you may follow His steps "Example" was the letters a teacher wrote at the top of a child's slate for the child to trace. Peter walked in those footprints for about three years. If He suffered unjustly and trusted God, we can too.
2:22 who committed no sin, nor was deceit found in His mouth Isaiah 53:9. Peter lived with Jesus day and night. If anyone would have seen a flaw, it was Peter. His suffering was completely unjust, and only a sinless man could die for others' sins (2 Cor 5:21).

found in His mouth; 23 who, being reviled, did not revile in return; suffering, He did not threaten, but He kept handing Himself over to the One who judges justly; 24 who Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, so that, having died to sins, we might live to righteousness; by whose wound you were healed. 25 For you were like sheep going astray, but you have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

Wives and Husbands

1 Likewise, wives, be subject to your own husbands, so that even if any are disobedient to the word, through the conduct of the wives they may be won without a word, 2 having observed your pure conduct in fear. 3 Whose adorning, let it not be the outward adorning of braiding of hair and of putting around of gold ornaments or of putting on of garments, 4 but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in the imperishable quality of the gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth before God. 5 For in this way formerly also the holy women who hoped in God were adorning themselves, being subject to their own husbands, 6 as Sarah (Sarra) obeyed Abraham (Abraam), calling him lord, whose children you have become, doing good and not fearing any terror. 7 Husbands, likewise, dwelling with them according to knowledge, as with a weaker vessel, the female one, rendering honor to them as also co-heirs of the grace of life, so that your prayers may not be cut off.

Blessing Instead of Revenge

8 Now finally, all of you be like-minded, sympathetic, loving as brothers, tender-hearted, courteous, 9 not repaying evil for evil or insult for insult, but on the contrary blessing, knowing that to this you were called, so that you may inherit a blessing. 10 For the one desiring to love life and to see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil, and his lips not to speak deceit; 11 let him turn away from evil and let him do good; let him seek peace and let him pursue it. 12 Because the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and His ears toward their supplication; but the face of the Lord is against those doing evil.

3:11 Ps 37:27; Matt 5:9; Ps 34:14
3:12 Prov 15:3; Deut 11:12; Zech 4:10

2:23 who, being reviled, did not revile in return They spat on Him, struck and mocked Him (Mark 14:65), and He prayed for them (Luke 23:34). He kept handing Himself over to the Father who judges justly. When wronged, we do not have to take revenge (Rom 12:19).
2:24 who Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree From example to Savior. The tree is the cross. He took what we deserved so we could receive what He deserved. The cross does not only forgive us. It changes us. "By whose wound you were healed" is Isaiah 53:5, and in context this is first the healing of our souls from sin. Some teachers also see physical healing in the atonement, received in full in our new bodies (Rom 8:23). Beaten slaves heard that Jesus was beaten too.
2:25 For you were like sheep going astray, but you have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls Isaiah 53:6. Sheep don't mean to get lost. They follow the next patch of grass. Jesus is the Good Shepherd (John 10:11), and He told Peter three times to feed His sheep (John 21:15-17). You have a Shepherd who will never mistreat you.
3:1 Likewise, wives, be subject to your own husbands "Likewise" ties back to citizens and rulers (2:13) and servants and masters (2:18), each "for the Lord's sake." Submission does not mean a wife is worth less. Jesus is equal with the Father yet submitted to His will (John 6:38; 1 Cor 11:3). It is about role, not worth, to "your own" husband, and it is her choice in her own walk with God. A Roman wife was expected to follow her husband's religion, so a believer with a pagan husband was in a hard place. Her life can do the talking.
3:2 having observed your pure conduct in fear He may not listen to sermons, but he watches how she lives. Her respect grows out of reverence for the Lord. Submission never means accepting abuse, threats or control, and never means following a husband into sin (Acts 5:29). If you are being hurt or are afraid in your own home, tell a pastor or a believer you trust and get to a safe place. Teachers differ on how this is lived out: a lasting pattern of the husband's loving leadership, or living within that day's household customs without needless offense.
3:3 let it not be the outward adorning of braiding of hair and of putting around of gold ornaments or of putting on of garments Not a ban on braids or jewelry, or the list would forbid clothes too. Wealthy Roman women spent hours on hairstyles woven with gold and pearls, and the culture said a woman's value was in her looks. Real beauty is not put on from outside, and that is true for men as well.
3:4 the hidden man of the heart, in the imperishable quality of the gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth before God Who we are when no one is looking. Outward beauty fades. This never does. Gentle is strength under control, as in Jesus (Matt 11:29). Quiet is a calm, settled spirit, not anxious or quarrelsome. Which gets more of your time, the outside or the inside?
3:5 the holy women who hoped in God Their beauty came from trust in God. They were not trusting their husbands to be perfect.
3:6 as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord A common word of respect, like calling a man sir (Gen 18:12). Sarah was not perfect. She laughed at God's promise. But she followed Abraham when he left home at God's call. Faith lets a woman do right without being ruled by fear.
3:7 Husbands, likewise, dwelling with them according to knowledge, as with a weaker vessel Peter does not let husbands off easy. Know her, study her, care what she thinks and feels. "Weaker" most likely means less physical strength and, in Peter's world, much less power in society, not weaker in mind, spirit or worth. Never use your strength against her. Handle her like fine china. They are equal heirs of life, and a man who mistreats his wife cannot expect God to hear his prayers.
3:8 all of you be like-minded, sympathetic, loving as brothers, tender-hearted, courteous Like-minded is sharing the same goal, not thinking alike on every small thing. Sympathetic is feeling with others (Rom 12:15). Many Greek copies read a word meaning humble-minded instead of courteous. It starts with each of us choosing to live this way.
3:9 not repaying evil for evil or insult for insult, but on the contrary blessing Jesus did neither (2:23). To bless is to speak well of someone and ask God to do him good (Luke 6:28). That is not natural. It is supernatural. We do not earn salvation this way, but God rewards children who live like His Son.
3:10 let him keep his tongue from evil, and his lips not to speak deceit Psalm 34:12-16, written after David escaped danger by pretending to be insane before a Philistine king. It starts with our words (James 3:5-6).
3:11 let him seek peace and let him pursue it It is not enough to stop doing wrong. Start doing right. Chase peace like a hunter chasing game.
3:12 Because the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and His ears toward their supplication When we suffer for doing right, it can feel like no one notices. God does. He is not neutral about evil. Peter quotes only the first half of Psalm 34:16, leaving out the cutting off of the wicked, which leaves room for repentance, but the warning stands.

Ready to Give an Answer

13 And who is he who will harm you, if you become imitators of that which is good? 14 But even if you should suffer because of righteousness, you are blessed. And do not fear their fear, nor be troubled; 15 but sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready always for a defense to everyone who asks you an account concerning the hope in you, with gentleness and fear, 16 having a good conscience, so that in that in which they speak against you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame. 17 For it is better, if the will of God wills it, to suffer doing good than doing evil.

Living for the Will of God

3:13 And who is he who will harm you, if you become imitators of that which is good Many Greek copies read zealous for what is good. Living well keeps us out of much harm. And no one can do lasting harm to our inheritance or souls (1:4-5; Matt 10:28).
3:14 But even if you should suffer because of righteousness, you are blessed Doing good sometimes brings suffering (Matt 5:10). From Isaiah 8:12-13. When we fear God, we need not be ruled by fear of people.
3:15 but sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and be ready always for a defense Many Greek copies read sanctify Christ as Lord. To sanctify here is to set apart as holy, to give Him first place, as Isaiah 8:13 says to regard the LORD as holy. Defense is apologia, a lawyer's answer in court. We need not be scholars, but we should know what we believe and why, and share it "with gentleness and fear." We want to win people, not debates.
3:16 having a good conscience If we defend our hope but live like hypocrites, our answer means nothing. Our good conduct flows from union with Christ. Our job is not to defend our reputation but to live so their words are proved false.
3:17 it is better, if the will of God wills it, to suffer doing good than doing evil Suffering is not outside God's control. If it comes, it comes for a purpose. Suffering for wrong is the result of sin. Suffering for right is following Jesus.
3:18 Because Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, so that He might bring us to God "Once," never repeated (Heb 9:26-28; 10:10). The righteous for the unrighteous is substitution, the heart of the gospel. "Made alive in the spirit" is read as the Holy Spirit who raised Him (Rom 8:11), or as Jesus' own spirit or the realm of the spirit. Either way, death could not hold Him.
3:19 He preached to the spirits in prison One of the hardest verses in the New Testament. Some believe Christ preached in the spirit through Noah, "a herald of righteousness" (2 Pet 2:5), to people who rejected it and are now held for judgment. Some believe He proclaimed His victory, like a herald announcing a king's triumph, to fallen angels held in prison (2 Pet 2:4; Jude 6; Gen 6:1-4). Some believe that between His death and resurrection He went to the dead of Noah's day. A few hold He offered them salvation, but judgment follows death (Heb 9:27). I leave this open. Christ is Lord over every spirit, human or angel.
3:20 while the ark was being prepared, into which few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water God waited patiently the many years the ark took to build. People kept eating, drinking and marrying to the day of the flood (Matt 24:37-39). Only eight. Being few does not mean being wrong. God's patience is great, but it has an end (2 Cor 6:2).
3:21 to which also an antitype, baptism, now saves us An antitype is what an earlier picture pointed to. Noah passed through the water and came into a new world. Churches with a sacramental view believe God uses baptism to bring new birth. Most Bible-teaching Protestants see it as the outward sign and public pledge of salvation through faith. Peter explains: not washing the body, but "the pledge of a good conscience toward God," and saved "through the resurrection of Jesus Christ." Cornelius received the Spirit before baptism (Acts 10:43-48), and the thief was promised paradise without it (Luke 23:42-43). Repentance and faith come first. Baptism is the fruit, not the root (Matt 28:19).
3:22 angels and authorities and powers having been subjected to Him The hard passage ends where it was heading, with Jesus on the throne. Every spiritual power, whatever the spirits in prison were, and whatever stands behind the persecutors, is under His feet (Eph 1:20-22). Through the cross to the crown (Rom 8:17).
4:1 you also arm yourselves with the same mind, because the one who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin "Arm" is a soldier's word. Take up Christ's attitude like weapons. The phrase most likely means one who has chosen to suffer for doing right rather than give in has broken with sin's control. Some read it of our union with Christ, who died, so that we died to sin (Rom 6:6-7). Either way, a believer ready to suffer for Christ is done living for sin.
4:2 so as no longer to live the remaining time in the flesh for the desires of men, but for the will of God None of us knows how long our remaining time is. There are only two ways to live. The time you have left is a gift. Don't spend it on what will not last.
4:3 having walked in sensualities, lusts, drunkenness, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries Gentiles here means unbelievers. Roman social life centered on pagan festivals, with temple meals, heavy drinking and sexual sin as part of worship. That list could describe many parties today. The gods' names have changed, but the sins have not.
4:4 in which they think it strange, your not running with them into the same overflow of debauchery Old friends were surprised and offended, because a changed life makes others feel guilty. The picture is a crowd rushing headlong into a flood. Believers are not the strange ones. The strange thing is running toward your own destruction.

flow of debauchery, blaspheming you; 5 who will give an account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. 6 For to this end the gospel was preached also to the dead, so that they might be judged indeed according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

Serving as the End Draws Near

7 But the end of all things has drawn near; therefore be of sound mind and be sober for the prayers. 8 And above all things, having fervent love among yourselves, because love will cover a multitude of sins; 9 be hospitable to one another without grumbling; 10 each one, as he has received a gift, serving it among yourselves, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. 11 If anyone speaks, let him speak as oracles of God; if anyone serves, let him serve as from the strength which God supplies; so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus (Iesous) Christ, to whom is the glory and the power to the ages of the ages. Amen.

Suffering as a Christian

12 Beloved, do not think it strange at the burning among you, which is taking place for a trial for you, as though a strange thing were happening to you; 13 but insofar as you share in the sufferings of Christ, rejoice, so that also at the revelation of His glory you may rejoice, exulting. 14 If you are insulted in the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. On their part He is blasphemed, but on your part He is glorified. 15 For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evildoer, or as a meddler in other people's matters; 16 but if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this respect. 17 For it is the time for the judgment to begin from the house of God; and if it begins first from us, what will be the end of those disobeying the gospel of God? 18 And if the righteous one is saved with difficulty, the ungodly and sinner, where will he appear? 19 Therefore also those suffering according to the will of God, let them commit their own souls in doing good, as to a faithful Creator.

4:18 Prov 11:31; Luke 23:31; Ezek 18:24
4:19 Isa 40:28; 1 Pet 3:17; Ps 31:5

4:5 who will give an account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead Jesus is the Judge (John 5:22; Acts 10:42), and He is "ready." We do not need to take revenge on those who mock us. God will make everything right.
4:6 For to this end the gospel was preached also to the dead Another hard verse. Many believe it means people now dead who heard the gospel while alive. They died, as all do, perhaps condemned by men, but "live according to God in the spirit." Others link it to 3:19, or take "the dead" as the spiritually dead (Eph 2:1). The first fits Peter's flow, but good teachers hold each. In every view the gospel gives life death cannot destroy, and there is no second chance after death (Heb 9:27).
4:7 But the end of all things has drawn near; therefore be of sound mind and be sober for the prayers Was Peter wrong? Near means the next great event on God's calendar could come at any time. Nothing else must happen before Jesus comes for His church (Titus 2:13). Not a call to quit our jobs and wait on a mountaintop, but to pray clearly. Peter fell asleep in Gethsemane when told to watch and pray (Mark 14:37-38).
4:8 because love will cover a multitude of sins Above all, love. From Proverbs 10:12. Love does not pay for sin. Only Christ's blood does. Love forgives and keeps no record of wrongs (1 Cor 13:5). It lets the small offenses go. That does not mean ignoring serious sin or abuse.
4:9 be hospitable to one another without grumbling Inns were few, dirty and dangerous, so traveling believers depended on Christian homes, and churches met in homes. Hospitable means a lover of strangers. It costs time, food and space. Today it may be dinner, a ride, or making a newcomer at church feel welcome.
4:10 as good stewards of the manifold grace of God Every believer has at least one gift (Rom 12:6-8; 1 Cor 12:7), for others' good, not our glory. A steward managed his master's property and answered for it. Manifold is the many-colored word from 1:6. Trials come in many colors, and so does grace. What gift has God given you?
4:11 If anyone speaks, let him speak as oracles of God; if anyone serves, let him serve as from the strength which God supplies Speakers handle God's truth, not their opinions. Servers work in God's strength, not their own. Not us, not our church, not our ministry: "so that in all things God may be glorified."
4:12 do not think it strange at the burning among you A tender word for a hard subject. The burning is the refiner's furnace (1:7). Many believers think following Jesus should make life go well, but He said we would have trouble (John 16:33). Expect it, and you will not be thrown off when it comes.
4:13 but insofar as you share in the sufferings of Christ, rejoice Our suffering does not pay for sin. When we suffer for following Him, we walk where He walked (John 15:18-20). After being beaten, Peter and the apostles left rejoicing (Acts 5:41).
4:14 because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you Jesus said the same (Matt 5:11-12). God's glory rested on the tabernacle as a cloud. Now His Spirit rests on His people, and many who suffered for Christ say they never felt Him nearer. The last sentence of the verse is in many Greek copies, though not all.
4:15 or as a meddler in other people's matters Not all suffering is for Christ. Breaking the law and being punished is justice. Busybodies are listed with murderers and thieves. Some believers bring trouble on themselves by being pushy or nosy and then call it persecution.
4:16 but if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed The name appears only three times in the New Testament (Acts 11:26; 26:28), most likely given first by outsiders, maybe as an insult. Many Greek copies read in this name. Peter once denied Jesus three times in a courtyard (Mark 14:66-72). Grace changed him.
4:17 For it is the time for the judgment to begin from the house of God God's house is His people (2:5). Not condemnation (Rom 8:1) but testing and purifying, like a father's discipline (Heb 12:6-11). Peter may have Ezekiel 9:6 in mind. If God's children go through the refining fire, what will happen to those who reject Him?
4:18 And if the righteous one is saved with difficulty Proverbs 11:31 in the Greek Old Testament. Not that God barely saves us, but that the road to final salvation passes through many trials (Acts 14:22). God brings every one of His people through. Pray for those you love who do not know Jesus.
4:19 let them commit their own souls in doing good, as to a faithful Creator To commit is to hand over for safekeeping, like a deposit in a bank, the word Jesus used on the cross (Luke 23:46). Suffering is no excuse to stop doing good. The God who made the universe can keep your soul safe.

1 PETER 5

Shepherd the Flock of God

1 The elders among you I exhort, I the fellow elder and witness of the sufferings of Christ, the one also a partaker of the glory about to be revealed: 2 shepherd the flock of God among you, exercising oversight not under compulsion but willingly, nor for shameful gain but eagerly; 3 nor as exercising lordship over the portions allotted to you, but becoming examples to the flock. 4 And when the Chief Shepherd has been manifested, you will receive the unfading crown of glory.

Humble Yourselves and Stand Firm

5 Likewise, younger ones, be subject to the elders. And all of you, being subject to one another, clothe yourselves with humility, because God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble. 6 Therefore be humbled under the mighty hand of God, so that He may exalt you in due time, 7 having cast all your anxiety on Him, because He cares about you. 8 Be sober, be watchful, because your adversary, the devil, walks around as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. 9 Resist him, firm in the faith, knowing that the same sufferings are being accomplished in your brotherhood in the world. 10 And the God of all grace, the One who called us to His eternal glory in Christ Jesus (Iesous), you having suffered a little, may He Himself perfect, establish, strengthen, settle you. 11 To Him be the glory and the power to the ages of the ages. Amen.

Final Greetings

12 Through Silvanus (Silouanos), the faithful brother, as I regard him, I have written to you through few words, exhorting and testifying this to be the true grace of God, in which you stand. 13 She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, greets you, and Mark (Markos) my son. 14 Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to you all who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

5:14 Song 1:2; Rom 16:16; Eph 6:23

5:1 The elders among you I exhort, I the fellow elder and witness of the sufferings of Christ An elder (presbyteros) was a mature believer chosen to lead a local church, also called overseer and shepherd (Acts 20:17, 28; Titus 1:5-7), names for the same office. Peter does not call himself chief apostle or head of the church but "fellow elder," beside them, not above. He saw the arrest, trial and cross, and had a preview of the glory on the mountain (2 Pet 1:16-18).
5:2 shepherd the flock of God among you What Jesus told Peter by the Sea of Galilee (John 21:16). The church belongs to God, who bought it with His Son's blood (Acts 20:28), not to the pastor. Elders may be paid (1 Tim 5:17-18), but money must never be the reason. A hireling runs when the wolf comes (John 10:12-13).
5:3 nor as exercising lordship over the portions allotted to you, but becoming examples to the flock Rulers of the Gentiles lord it over people, but not so among you (Mark 10:42-45). A good elder does not bully or control. People forget sermons but remember how their pastor treated his wife, handled money and responded when wronged. That goes for parents, bosses and Sunday school teachers too.
5:4 And when the Chief Shepherd has been manifested, you will receive the unfading crown of glory Every elder is an under-shepherd. Winners of the games got a crown of leaves that wilted in days. This one never fades, given at the judgment seat of Christ (2 Cor 5:10), which follows His coming for His church before the Tribulation. Many faithful pastors serve small churches for little pay. The Chief Shepherd sees.
5:5 And all of you, being subject to one another, clothe yourselves with humility Younger may mean in age or those who are not elders. Not blind obedience, since erring elders must be corrected (1 Tim 5:19-20). "Clothe" pictures a servant tying on an apron. Peter may have remembered Jesus tying on a towel and washing his feet (John 13:4-5). Proverbs 3:34 again: pride puts us in a fight with God.
5:6 Therefore be humbled under the mighty hand of God, so that He may exalt you in due time The hand that brought Israel out of Egypt (Deut 26:8) and also disciplines. Accept what He allows, trust His timing, stop fighting Him. Joseph waited years in slavery and prison before God raised him (Gen 41:39-41).
5:7 having cast all your anxiety on Him, because He cares about you Tied to verse 6. Pride says I can handle it. Humility admits I can't. "Cast" is the word for throwing cloaks onto the colt (Luke 19:35). All of it, not just the big things. Not one sparrow falls without the Father knowing (Matt 10:29-31). What do you need to throw onto Him?
5:8 your adversary, the devil, walks around as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour Peter knew what it was to sleep when he should have watched (Mark 14:37-38). Adversary is an opponent in court; devil means slanderer. He is a real fallen angel, not a cartoon with a pitchfork. A lion looks for the weak, the young and the one wandered from the herd. Stay close to the flock and the Shepherd.
5:9 Resist him, firm in the faith We stand our ground (James 4:7) on what God has said, as Jesus answered every temptation with Scripture (Matt 4:1-11). The devil wants us to think no one understands. Believers in many countries face prison and death today. Pray for them.
5:10 And the God of all grace Compared to eternal glory our suffering is short and small (Rom 8:18). "Perfect" is to repair or restore, like mending a torn fishing net, and Peter knew about nets. Establish, strengthen, settle: make firm, give power, set on a foundation. "He Himself" does it.
5:11 To Him be the glory and the power to the ages of the ages. Amen The devil prowls, persecutors seem strong, but their power is short-lived. God reigns and will have the last word.
5:12 Through Silvanus, the faithful brother, as I regard him Silas, Paul's partner on his second journey (Acts 15:40). "Through" may mean he wrote the letter down as Peter's helper, carried it, or both. Their trials did not mean they had missed God's grace. They were standing in the middle of it.
5:13 She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, greets you, and Mark my son Most teachers take "she" as the church and Babylon as Peter's name for Rome. Old Babylon took God's people into exile, and Revelation uses the name for a world city set against God (Rev 17-18). Others take it as the old city in Mesopotamia. John Mark once left Paul and Barnabas (Acts 13:13; 15:37-39) and later was useful again (2 Tim 4:11). A person who fails can be restored, and Peter knew that better than anyone.
5:14 Greet one another with a kiss of love A kiss on the cheek was a common family greeting, and in the church it showed one family (Rom 16:16). A warm handshake or hug may serve today. Peter began with grace and peace (1:2) and ends with a peace no persecutor could take (John 14:27).

2 PETER

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for its writer, "Simon Peter, a slave and apostle of Jesus Christ" (1:1). It is his second letter (3:1) and his last word to the church. He knows "the putting off of my tent is soon" (1:14), and like a father whose time is short, he spends his last letter reminding his children of what matters most.

Author and Date

The writer was with Jesus "on the holy mountain" and heard the Father's voice (1:16-18), which points to the transfiguration (Matt 17:1-8). He says Jesus had shown him that his death was near (1:14; John 21:18-19), and he calls Paul "our beloved brother" (3:15). Of all the New Testament books, 2 Peter is the one most doubted, in the early church and today. Some early writers were slow to accept it, though in time the whole church received it as Scripture. Many modern scholars believe someone wrote it in Peter's name after his death, pointing to Greek that differs from 1 Peter, its likeness to Jude, and its mention of Paul's letters as a group. But a man can write differently with a different helper or none, and 1 Peter names Silvanus as a helper (1 Pet 5:12) while this letter names no one. The letter claims Peter again and again and warns hard against deceivers. It is hard to believe a deceiver wrote it. I take it at its word.

Early church writers say Peter was put to death in Rome under Nero, who died in A.D. 68. So the letter most likely dates to about A.D. 67 to 68, shortly before Peter's death, probably from Rome, a few years after 1 Peter. Some place it about A.D. 65.

Background and Setting

Peter writes "to those who have obtained a faith equally precious with ours" (1:1). Since he calls this his second letter to them (3:1), most teachers believe the readers are the same believers in Asia Minor who received 1 Peter. In the first letter the danger came from outside, from neighbors and rulers. Here it comes from inside. False teachers had slipped into the churches, promising freedom while living in sin, exploiting believers for money, and mocking the promise of Christ's return (2:1-3, 19; 3:3-4).

Much of chapter 2 is close to Jude 4-18. Both warn of false teachers, use the angels who sinned and Sodom as examples, mention Balaam, and call the teachers waterless and dark. Some think Peter used Jude, some that Jude used Peter (compare Jude 17-18 with 2 Pet 3:3), and some that both drew on common teaching. Scripture does not say, and it does not change the meaning.

Themes

The words know and knowledge run through this short letter. The answer to false teaching is not a new secret knowledge but "the full knowledge" of Jesus Christ (1:2-3, 8; 2:20). God's power has already given us everything for life and godliness (1:3), and real faith grows, adding virtue, knowledge, self-control, endurance, godliness, brotherly affection and love (1:5-7).

The gospel rests on eyewitness testimony and on the sure word of Scripture, for "prophecy was never borne by the will of man, but being borne by the Holy Spirit, holy men of God spoke" (1:21). God knows how to rescue the godly and how to keep the unrighteous for judgment (2:9). The Lord is not slow about His promise but patient, "not wishing any to perish, but all to come to repentance" (3:9). The day of the Lord will come like a thief, and we look for new heavens and a new earth where righteousness dwells (3:10-13). Peter's last words sum it up: "grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ" (3:18).

Christ in 2 Peter

Peter calls Jesus "our God and our Savior Jesus Christ" (1:1), one of the plainest statements of His deity in the Bible. He is Lord and Savior again and again (1:11; 2:20; 3:2, 18). Peter saw His majesty on the holy mountain and heard the Father call Him "My Son, the beloved" (1:17). He is "the Master who bought them" (2:1), the One whose coming the scoffers deny (3:4), and "the morning star" who will rise when the day dawns (1:19). The letter ends with glory to Him forever (3:18).

Hard Passages

Who are the angels cast into Tartarus (2:4)? Some take them as the sons of God of Genesis 6:1-4, others as angels who fell with Satan in his first rebellion. The notes give both.

What does "denying the Master who bought them" (2:1) say about whom Christ died for? The notes give the main readings without settling the question.

Who are those whose last state is worse than the first (2:20-22)? Teachers read them as true believers who lose salvation, true believers who lose fellowship and reward, or people never truly born again. The notes name all three and leave the wider question of eternal security open.

How does the day of the Lord in 3:10-13 fit with Christ's return and His kingdom? The notes place it in the pre-tribulation view of the series: Christ comes for His church, the day of the Lord begins with the Tribulation, Christ returns visibly and reigns a thousand years, and the burning of the present heavens and earth comes after the thousand years (Rev 20:11; 21:1). The amillennial view and the view that fire renews rather than destroys are named fairly. The notes also give the two readings of "not wishing any to perish" (3:9).

Outline

  D. Eyewitnesses and the sure prophetic word (1:16-21)
II. False Teachers and Their End (2:1-22)
  A. False teachers will come (2:1-3)
  B. God judges the ungodly and rescues the godly (2:4-9)
  C. The character of the false teachers (2:10-16)
  D. Empty promises of freedom (2:17-22)
III. The Day of the Lord Will Come (3:1-18)
  A. Scoffers in the last days (3:1-7)

B. The Lord is patient, and the day will come (3:8-13)
C. Be diligent and grow (3:14-18)

2 PETER

2 PETER 1

Greeting

1 Simon Peter (Petros), a slave and apostle of Jesus (Iesous) Christ, to those who have obtained a faith equally precious with ours in the righteousness of our God and our Savior Jesus Christ: 2 May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the full knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord,

Add to Your Faith

3 as His divine power has given to us all things pertaining to life and godliness, through the full knowledge of Him who called us through glory and virtue, 4 through which He has given to us the precious and very great promises, so that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption in the world in lust. 5 And for this very reason also, having brought in all diligence, supply in your faith virtue, and in virtue knowledge, 6 and in knowledge self-control, and in self-control endurance, and in endurance godliness, 7 and in godliness brotherly affection, and in brotherly affection love. 8 For these things, being in you and abounding, make you neither idle nor unfruitful toward the full knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. 9 For he in whom these things are not present is blind, being short-sighted, having taken forgetfulness of the purification of his former sins. 10 Therefore, brothers, be diligent rather to make your calling and election sure; for doing these things, you will by no means ever stumble. 11 For in this way the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be richly supplied to you.

Peter's Reminder Before His Death

12 Therefore I will not neglect to remind you always concerning these things, though you know them and have been established in the present truth. 13 And I consider it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by a reminder, 14 knowing that the putting off of my tent is soon, as also

1:14 2 Tim 4:6; John 21:18,19; Deut 4:21,22

1:1 Simon Peter, a slave and apostle of Jesus Christ The name he was born with and the name Jesus gave him, the rock (John 1:42). Many Greek copies read Simeon, the Hebrew form James used (Acts 15:14). Slave first, then apostle. Before he speaks with authority, he bows as a servant.
1:1 to those who have obtained a faith equally precious with ours in the righteousness of our God and our Savior Jesus Christ Every believer's faith is as precious as the apostles'. Same Savior, same salvation. In Greek one article covers both titles, and the grammar most naturally calls Jesus both God and Savior. A Jewish man who prayed to the one true God all his life calls Jesus God (Titus 2:13; John 20:28).
1:2 in the full knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord Epignosis, full personal knowledge, the knowledge of a friend, not a stranger reading a biography. The word runs through the letter (1:3, 8; 2:20). The false teachers claimed special knowledge. The knowledge that matters is knowing Jesus.
1:3 His divine power has given to us all things pertaining to life and godliness We need no new experience, secret teaching or special ceremony. God called us by showing His glory and goodness, which Peter saw (1:16-18). Many believers live as spiritual beggars when they are rich in Christ.
1:4 so that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature God's promises are the channel through which His power reaches us. We do not become God or little gods. We remain creatures. Through new birth we share His moral character, His life in us by His Spirit (2 Cor 3:18). The world is rotting from the inside through sinful desire, and the false teachers would lead people back into it (2:19).
1:5 supply in your faith virtue, and in virtue knowledge God's gift does not make us lazy. It makes us eager. "Supply" was used of a wealthy man who paid for a city's play or choir, going above and beyond. Salvation is by grace through faith alone (Eph 2:8-9), but real faith grows. Virtue is moral excellence. This is not a checklist but a whole life growing together.
1:6 and in knowledge self-control, and in self-control endurance, and in endurance godliness Self-control is mastering desires instead of being mastered, and the false teachers lacked it (2:10, 14). Knowledge without it becomes pride. Endurance is steady patience under trial. Godliness is living with God in view in everything.
1:7 and in godliness brotherly affection, and in brotherly affection love Philadelphia, family love among believers (1 John 4:20), then agape, the self-giving love God showed in sending His Son (John 3:16), reaching even enemies. The list begins with faith and ends with love (1 Cor 13:13). Which do you most need God to grow in you?
1:8 make you neither idle nor unfruitful Not just present but abounding (John 15:5, 8). Idle is a tool sitting in a shed. Unfruitful is a tree with no apples. The more we know Christ, the more these grow, and the more they grow, the better we know Him.
1:9 having taken forgetfulness of the purification of his former sins He sees today's pleasures and worries but not eternity. When we forget how much God forgave us, we get careless and comfortable. The one forgiven much loves much (Luke 7:47). Do you remember what God saved you from?
1:10 be diligent rather to make your calling and election sure Not making ourselves saved. God's calling and election are His work (1 Pet 1:1-2). We confirm it, show it to be real. If you wonder whether you are saved, don't look for a feeling. Look at whether your faith is growing. Never stumbling does not mean never sin (1 John 1:8) but never falling away into ruin.
1:11 the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be richly supplied to you The same word "supply" as in verse 5. Every believer will enter, but not all the same way (1 Cor 3:12-15). Peter wants a rich welcome, like an athlete coming home to cheering crowds. How we live does not earn salvation, but it shapes our rewards (2 Cor 5:10).
1:12 Therefore I will not neglect to remind you always concerning these things We forget and drift. A good pastor does not chase new ideas to entertain. The false teachers came with new teachings. Peter came with old truths.
1:13 as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by a reminder A tent is a temporary home, easily taken down (2 Cor 5:1-4). "Stir up" is to wake someone from sleep, like shaking a friend awake.
1:14 knowing that the putting off of my tent is soon, as also our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me Jesus told Peter by the Sea of Galilee how he would die (John 21:18-19). Early church writers say Peter was crucified in Rome under Nero. He had known for over thirty years and did not live in fear. These are his last words to the church.

our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me. 15 And I will also be diligent that at every time after my departure you may have the means to make remembrance of these things.

Eyewitnesses and the Sure Word

16 For not having followed cleverly devised myths did we make known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but having become eyewitnesses of His majesty. 17 For having received from God the Father honor and glory, such a voice having been borne to Him by the Majestic Glory, "This is My Son, the beloved, in whom I was well pleased," 18 and this voice we heard borne from heaven, being with Him on the holy mountain. 19 And we have the prophetic word as more sure, to which you do well taking heed, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts; 20 knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from private interpretation; 21 for prophecy was never borne by the will of man, but being borne by the Holy Spirit, holy men of God spoke.

2 PETER 2

False Teachers Will Come

1 But there were also false prophets among the people, as also among you there will be false teachers, who will secretly bring in heresies of destruction, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction. 2 And many will follow their ways of destruction, because of whom the way of the truth will be blasphemed. 3 And in covetousness they will exploit you with fabricated words; for whom the judgment from long ago is not idle, and their destruction does not slumber.

God Judges the Ungodly and Rescues the Godly

4 For if God did not spare angels who sinned, but having cast them into Tartarus, delivered them to chains of gloom, having been reserved for judgment; 5 and did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah (Noe), the eighth person, a herald of righteousness, having brought a flood on the world of the ungodly; 6 and having reduced the cities of Sodom (Sodoma) and Gomorrah (Gomorra) to ashes, He condemned them with an overthrow, having set them as an example to those about to live ungodly; 7 and rescued righteous Lot, being distressed by the conduct of the lawless in sensuality

2:7 Gen 19:29; Gen 13:13; Gen 19:22

1:15 after my departure Exodus in Greek, the word used for Jesus' coming death when Moses and Elijah spoke with Him on the mountain (Luke 9:31), and Peter heard it. For a believer, death is an exodus to the promised land. Early writers say Mark's Gospel preserves Peter's preaching, so some think Peter had it in mind too.
1:16 For not having followed cleverly devised myths The false teachers called the apostles' teaching of Christ's coming a made-up story. The Greek world was full of myths of gods coming down to earth. The gospel rests on what real people saw and heard (1 John 1:1-3). "Power and coming" most likely means His return in glory, of which Peter saw a preview.
1:17 This is My Son, the beloved, in whom I was well pleased The transfiguration (Matt 17:1-8; Mark 9:2-8; Luke 9:28-36). "The Majestic Glory" is a reverent way of naming God. Peter wanted three shelters as if Jesus, Moses and Elijah were equals (Matt 17:4). The Father's voice set him straight.
1:18 being with Him on the holy mountain "We heard," three men, the same voice, the same time. Holy because God revealed Himself there. Some think it was Mount Hermon near Caesarea Philippi (Matt 16:13), others Mount Tabor. Scripture does not say.
1:19 And we have the prophetic word as more sure Some read that the transfiguration made the prophecies more sure by showing a preview of their fulfillment. Others read that Scripture is more sure than Peter's own experience. Either way, it is a firm foundation. This world is a dark place, and Scripture is a lamp that shows where to step (Ps 119:105). Jesus is "the bright and morning star" (Rev 22:16). When He comes, we will no longer need a lamp.
1:20 that no prophecy of Scripture comes from private interpretation Not that believers cannot read the Bible for themselves. Nor mainly a warning against twisting it, though that is true (3:16). Verse 21 shows Peter means where prophecy came from. No prophet came up with his own explanation and called it God's Word.
1:21 for prophecy was never borne by the will of man, but being borne by the Holy Spirit, holy men of God spoke "Borne" is the word for a ship carried by the wind (Acts 27:15, 17), the Spirit filling the sails. They used their own words and styles; Isaiah does not sound like Jeremiah. But they wrote exactly what God wanted. All Scripture is God-breathed (2 Tim 3:16), and Peter tells us how. It is not man's opinion about God but God's Word through men.
2:1 as also among you there will be false teachers, who will secretly bring in heresies of destruction Israel had false prophets who told people what they wanted to hear (Jer 23:16-17; Deut 13:1-5), and the church will have false teachers from inside. A heresy departs from the core truth of the faith. They slip it in quietly, mixed with some truth.
2:1 even denying the Master who bought them Some read this as showing Christ's death paid for all people, even those who finally reject Him. Others take it as the teachers' own claim that Christ had bought them, or of Christ as Master who owns all people by right. Either way they deny Him with their teaching and their lives.
2:2 And many will follow their ways of destruction, because of whom the way of the truth will be blasphemed Not a few, but many (Matt 24:11). Error spreads fast when it lets people live as they please. When people who claim Christ live immoral lives, unbelievers mock the Way (Acts 9:2; 19:9).
2:3 And in covetousness they will exploit you with fabricated words Behind the false teaching is greed. "Fabricated" is like something molded out of plastic. Some today promise health and wealth if you send money, or invent new revelations. Watch anyone more interested in your wallet than your soul. God's judgment may seem slow, but it is wide awake.
2:4 For if God did not spare angels who sinned, but having cast them into Tartarus The first of three examples. In Greek stories Tartarus was the deepest pit of the underworld, below even Hades. Peter uses the word for a real place where God holds these angels bound for the final judgment. Some believe they are the sons of God of Genesis 6:1-4 who sinned with women before the flood, since Jude 6-7 seems to link their sin with Sodom's and Peter mentions the flood next. Others believe they fell with Satan in his first rebellion, some bound now while others roam as demons. Good teachers hold both.
2:5 but preserved Noah, the eighth person, a herald of righteousness The whole world before the flood was destroyed (Gen 6:5-7), and eight were saved (1 Pet 3:20). Noah warned people while he built, and they did not listen. Now Peter adds that God also rescues the godly, even when the whole world goes the wrong way.
2:6 having reduced the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes Destroyed by fire from heaven (Gen 19:24-25) for sexual immorality (Jude 7) and for pride, plenty and refusing to help the poor (Ezek 16:49-50). Jesus pointed to Sodom as a warning of judgment to come (Luke 17:28-30).
2:7 and rescued righteous Lot In Genesis 19 Lot does not look very righteous. He chose Sodom's good land (Gen 13:10-13), offered his daughters to a mob, and hesitated to flee. Yet Peter calls him righteous three times. He believed God, and God counted him righteous.

8 (for by seeing and hearing, that righteous man, dwelling among them, day after day tormented his righteous soul with their lawless works), 9 the Lord knows how to rescue the godly out of trials, and to keep the unrighteous for the day of judgment, being punished,

The Character of False Teachers

10 and especially those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement and despise lordship. Bold, self-willed, they do not tremble, blaspheming glorious ones, 11 whereas angels, being greater in strength and power, do not bring a blasphemous judgment against them before the Lord. 12 But these, like irrational animals, natural creatures born for capture and corruption, blaspheming in things of which they are ignorant, will utterly perish in their corruption, 13 being about to receive the wage of unrighteousness, considering the self-indulgence in the daytime as a pleasure, blots and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions while feasting with you, 14 having eyes full of an adulteress and unceasing from sin, enticing unstable souls, having a heart trained in covetousness, children of a curse; 15 having forsaken the straight way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor (Bosor), who loved the wage of unrighteousness, 16 but he had a rebuke for his own lawbreaking: a mute donkey, having spoken with a man's voice, restrained the madness of the prophet.

Empty Promises of Freedom

17 These are springs without water, clouds driven by a storm, for whom the gloom of the darkness has been reserved forever. 18 For speaking arrogant words of futility, they entice by the lusts of the flesh, by sensualities, those who truly escaped from those who live in error,
19 promising them freedom, themselves being slaves of corruption; for by what anyone has been overcome, by this also he has been enslaved. 20 For if, having escaped the defilements of the world through the full knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus (Iesous) Christ, and having been entangled again in these, they are overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. 21 For it would have been better for them not to have fully known the way of righteousness, than having fully known it, to turn from the holy

2:21 Prov 16:31; Ezek 18:24; Luke 12:47

2:8 day after day tormented his righteous soul with their lawless works He did not approve of their sin. It hurt him. Yet he paid a heavy price for living so close to it: his wife, his home and much of his family. God rescues His own even when they have chosen poorly. Does the sin around you still bother you, or have you grown used to it?
2:9 the Lord knows how to rescue the godly out of trials, and to keep the unrighteous for the day of judgment The point of all three examples. Noah was shut in the ark before the rain, and Lot brought out before the fire (Gen 19:22). Some teachers see a picture of God keeping His church from the hour of trial on the whole world (Rev 3:10; 1 Thess 1:10). Others say Peter simply means God cares for His people in every age, and note that Noah was kept safe through the flood. I believe Christ will come for His church before the Tribulation, but that rests on the passages that speak of it directly (John 14:1-3; 1 Thess 4:13-18; 5:9), not on this picture.
2:10 and despise lordship. Bold, self-willed, they do not tremble, blaspheming glorious ones They live for sinful desire and reject the authority of Christ, Scripture and church leaders. The glorious ones are most likely angelic beings, possibly fallen ones. They talk big about the devil and the spiritual world with no idea what they are dealing with.
2:11 whereas angels, being greater in strength and power, do not bring a blasphemous judgment against them before the Lord Michael the archangel would not slander the devil but left the rebuke to the Lord (Jude 9). Believers resist the devil with real authority in Christ (James 4:7), but humbly, in the Lord's name. Pride in spiritual things is a dangerous sign.
2:12 like irrational animals, natural creatures born for capture and corruption Wild animals act on instinct and follow their appetites into the hunter's trap. They claim special knowledge yet are ignorant of what they mock. The sin they love will destroy them (Gal 6:7-8).
2:13 blots and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions while feasting with you Sin pays its wages (Rom 6:23). Even pagans thought partying in broad daylight shameful. Christ wants His church without spot (Eph 5:27), and these men are the spots. The church shared meals, often with the Lord's Supper, which Jude calls love feasts (Jude 12). They sat at those tables deceiving believers.
2:14 having eyes full of an adulteress and unceasing from sin, enticing unstable souls Adultery of the heart (Matt 5:28) is where they live. "Enticing" is a fishing word, baiting a hook, and they target new believers not grounded in the Word, which is why Peter keeps urging growth (1:5-8; 3:17-18). "Trained" gives us gymnasium. They exercised their greed until it was strong.
2:15 having followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wage of unrighteousness Balak of Moab offered Balaam money to curse Israel, and God made him bless instead (Num 22-24). He still wanted the money and later taught Balak to lead Israel into idolatry and sexual sin (Num 31:16; Rev 2:14). He knew about God but loved money more.
2:16 a mute donkey, having spoken with a man's voice, restrained the madness of the prophet An angel stood in the road with a sword, the donkey saw him, and Balaam beat her until God opened her mouth (Num 22:21-35). A dumb animal had more spiritual sense than the prophet. We take the story plainly, as Peter does.
2:17 These are springs without water, clouds driven by a storm In a dry land, finding an empty spring could mean death. The farmer hopes for rain and the wind drives the clouds away. They promise much and deliver nothing. Many Greek copies read mists. The same gloom that holds the fallen angels (2:4) waits for them.
2:18 those who truly escaped from those who live in error Big, empty talk, baited with sinful pleasure, because it lets people sin without guilt. Many Greek copies read those barely escaping. Their targets had just turned from the pagan life. New believers need to be protected and taught well.
2:19 promising them freedom, themselves being slaves of corruption The great lie: you are free, so do what you want. Whatever controls you is your master, whether alcohol or pornography or anything else. The Son sets us free (John 8:34-36). True freedom is not freedom to sin but freedom from sin.
2:20 the last state has become worse for them than the first Among the most serious words in the New Testament. Some believe these are true believers who lose salvation. Others believe true believers who fall into sin and lose fellowship and reward, facing God's discipline. Others believe they were never truly born again, cleaned up for a time but never changed (Matt 12:43-45). I leave open, as in my other studies, whether a true believer can lose salvation. Turning back after knowing the truth is a terrible thing.
2:21 For it would have been better for them not to have fully known the way of righteousness Knowledge brings responsibility (Luke 12:47-48). Sodom never heard what these heard (Matt 11:23-24). The holy commandment is the whole teaching of Christ handed down by the apostles.

commandment delivered to them. 22 But the thing of the true proverb has happened to them: "A dog having returned to its own vomit," and, "A sow having washed, to wallowing in the mire."

Scoffers in the Last Days

1 This is now, beloved, a second letter I am writing to you, in which I stir up your pure mind by a reminder, 2 to remember the words spoken beforehand by the holy prophets, and the commandment of us, the apostles of the Lord and Savior, 3 knowing this first, that in the last of the days scoffers will come, walking according to their own lusts, 4 and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For from the time the fathers fell asleep, all things continue in this way from the beginning of creation." 5 For this is hidden from them willingly, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth, having been formed out of water and through water by the word of God, 6 through which the world at that time, having been flooded with water, perished. 7 But the present heavens and the earth, by the same word, have been stored up for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

The Day of the Lord Will Come

8 But do not let this one thing be hidden from you, beloved, that one day with the Lord is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day. 9 The Lord is not slow concerning the promise, as some consider slowness, but is patient toward us, not wishing any to perish, but all to come to repentance. 10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the elements, burning with heat, will be dissolved, and the earth and the works in it will be burned up. 11 Then, all these things being dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, 12 looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens, being set on fire, will be dissolved, and the elements, burning with heat, melt? 13 But according to His promise we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.

3:12 Isa 34:4; 2 Pet 3:10; Mic 1:4
3:13 Isa 65:17; Isa 66:22; Rev 21:1,27

2:22 A dog having returned to its own vomit Proverbs 26:11, and a common saying about a washed sow. Neither animal changed its nature, and many teachers see support for the view that these were never changed inside. Others see a vivid picture of the shame of going back. Do not return to what God rescued you from. If you have drifted, the door of repentance is still open (1 John 1:9).
3:1 This is now, beloved, a second letter I am writing to you Most teachers take the first letter as 1 Peter, so these are the same believers in Asia Minor. "Beloved" four times in this chapter after the hard words of chapter 2. Even a sincere, clear mind needs to be stirred up and reminded.
3:2 the words spoken beforehand by the holy prophets, and the commandment of us, the apostles The prophets spoke often of the day of the Lord (Isa 13:9-11; Joel 2:1-2; Zech 14:1-9). Peter sets the apostles' teaching beside them with the same authority, the foundation of the church (Eph 2:20). We test every new idea by what they wrote.
3:3 in the last of the days scoffers will come, walking according to their own lusts The last days began at Christ's first coming (Heb 1:2; Jude 18). Their problem is not the evidence but their desires. If Jesus is coming to judge, they must answer for how they live. It is easier to mock His coming than to change.
3:4 Where is the promise of His coming "The fathers" may be the patriarchs or the first generation of believers who had died. Nothing changes, they say. The world runs on natural laws and God never steps in. Many say the same today.
3:5 For this is hidden from them willingly They choose to ignore it. God made the world by His word (Gen 1:3; Ps 33:6, 9; Heb 11:3) and made dry land appear out of the waters (Gen 1:6-10). A God who made it all by His word can step in whenever He chooses.
3:6 the world at that time, having been flooded with water, perished The water God used to form the earth became the means of destroying it (Gen 7:11-12, 21-23). All things did not continue as they were. The days before His coming will be like Noah's (Matt 24:37-39). Judgment can come suddenly on a world that thinks it is safe.
3:7 But the present heavens and the earth, by the same word, have been stored up for fire God promised never again to destroy the earth by flood (Gen 9:11). He never promised it would not be judged by fire. He is keeping this world for a set day, and the scoffers laugh at the judgment waiting for them.
3:8 that one day with the Lord is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day An echo of Psalm 90:4. God does not experience time as we do. Two thousand years to Him are like a couple of days. This is not a formula for dating the end, and date-setters have always been wrong (Matt 24:36).
3:9 The Lord is not slow concerning the promise, as some consider slowness, but is patient toward us, not wishing any to perish, but all to come to repentance Not late, but waiting on purpose. Repentance is a change of mind that leads to a change of direction. Many read "any" and "all" as God's sincere desire that every person be saved (1 Tim 2:4; Ezek 33:11). Others read "us" as the elect, with God waiting until every one has come. Both agree no one who comes is turned away (John 6:37). Do not mistake God's waiting for God's approval.
3:10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night Suddenly, on a world not ready (Matt 24:43; 1 Thess 5:2-4). In the Old Testament it is God stepping in to judge His enemies and set up His rule (Isa 2:12; Joel 2:31; Zeph 1:14-18). In its future sense it is a long period. Christ first comes for His church (1 Thess 4:16-17). Then the day of the Lord begins with the seven-year Tribulation, Christ returns visibly at its end (Rev 19:11-16) and reigns a thousand years (Rev 20:1-6). The burning Peter describes comes after the thousand years, when the present heavens and earth flee away (Rev 20:11; 21:1). Many Greek copies read that the earth and its works will be found, laid bare before God. Amillennial teachers see the return, judgment and new creation as one event, and some see a renewal by fire rather than destruction (Rom 8:19-22).
3:11 what sort of people ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness Peter does not give this teaching to scare us or feed our curiosity. Our houses, money, cars and stuff will all be dissolved. Why live for them? What are you investing in that will last?
3:12 looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God How do we hurry it? Some point to prayer (Matt 6:10), some to spreading the gospel, since God waits for people to repent (Matt 24:14), some to holy living. Others take hastening as eagerly desiring. Isaiah spoke of the heavens rolled up like a scroll (Isa 34:4).
3:13 But according to His promise we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells The scoffers asked where the promise is. Here it is (Isa 65:17; 66:22; Rev 21:1-5). "Dwells" is to settle down and be at home. Here righteousness is a stranger and believers are exiles. There no more sin, death, tears or false teachers, and God lives with His people forever.

Be Diligent and Grow

14 Therefore, beloved, looking for these things, be diligent to be found by Him without blot and without blemish, in peace; 15 and consider the patience of our Lord to be salvation, as also our beloved brother Paul (Paulos), according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you, 16 as also in all the letters, speaking in them concerning these things, among which are some things hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable distort, as also the other Scriptures, to their own destruction. 17 You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, guard yourselves so that you do not, having been led away with the error of the lawless, fall from your own steadfastness, 18 but grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus (Iesous) Christ. To Him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

3:18 Col 1:10; Eph 4:15; Isa 43:11

3:14 be diligent to be found by Him without blot and without blemish, in peace The false teachers were "blots and blemishes" (2:13). Christ is the Lamb without blemish (1 Pet 1:19). Salvation is a gift, but holy living takes effort. Everyone with this hope purifies himself (1 John 3:3).
3:15 consider the patience of our Lord to be salvation, as also our beloved brother Paul If Jesus had come back the day before you believed, where would you be? Paul once corrected Peter to his face (Gal 2:11-14), but there was no lasting grudge. Paul wrote of God's patience and Christ's coming (Rom 2:4; 1 Thess 4:13-5:11). They preached the same gospel.
3:16 among which are some things hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable distort, as also the other Scriptures Even Peter found some of Paul hard. If you struggle with Romans, you are in good company. The false teachers twisted grace into a license to sin (Rom 6:1-2). "Distort" is the word for stretching someone on a rack. Peter puts Paul's letters with "the other Scriptures," one of the clearest places the New Testament calls New Testament writings Scripture (1 Tim 5:18).
3:17 guard yourselves so that you do not, having been led away with the error of the lawless, fall from your own steadfastness Forewarned is forearmed. The false teachers enticed unstable souls (2:14). "Led away" is like a swimmer pulled out by the tide. Not necessarily losing salvation, but losing stability, joy and usefulness to God. Who are you listening to?
3:18 But grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ The best protection against error is growing in what is true. A healthy, growing tree is hard to uproot. Peter's last recorded words are praise to Jesus. The man who once denied Him gives Him glory to "the day of eternity," a day that never ends.

1 JOHN

Introduction

Title

The letter carries no name and no greeting. The early church called it John's first letter because it is the longest of the three letters written by the apostle John. It reads more like a pastor's message to churches he knows and loves than a normal letter. Again and again he calls his readers "little children."

Author and Date

The letter does not name its writer, but the early church was united in saying John the apostle, the son of Zebedee, wrote it. The writer heard, saw, and touched "the Word of life" (1:1), so he was an eyewitness of Jesus. His style and words are very close to the Gospel of John: light and darkness, truth and lies, love, abiding, eternal life, and being born of God. Some modern scholars believe a circle of John's students wrote these letters, and some point to Papias, who seems to mention a second man known as John the elder. I take the letter at its word. The writer claims to be an eyewitness, speaks with an apostle's authority (4:6), and sounds just like the Gospel the early church said John wrote.

Early Christian writers say John lived in Ephesus late in his life. Most date the letter to about A.D. 85 to 95, written from Ephesus. John was then an old man, probably the last of the apostles still living.

Background and Setting

John does not name the churches, but most believe he wrote to the churches in and around Ephesus, in the Roman province of Asia, likely the same area as the seven churches of Revelation 2 and 3. The readers knew John well and had been taught the truth from the beginning (2:24).

Some men had left the church and were spreading a teaching that denied Jesus Christ had come in the flesh (2:19, 22; 4:2-3). Many in the Greek world believed the body was bad and only the spirit was good. One form of this teaching, later called Docetism, said Jesus only seemed to have a body. A teacher in Ephesus named Cerinthus taught that the Christ came on the man Jesus at His baptism and left before He died. Irenaeus tells how John once ran out of a public bathhouse in Ephesus because he heard Cerinthus was inside. We cannot be sure John had these exact men in mind, but their ideas fit what he fights against. These teachers also claimed special knowledge of God and seem to have said that sin in the body did not matter.

Themes

John tells us his purpose plainly: "These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life" (5:13). He gives simple tests that show who truly knows God: believing that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God come in the flesh; keeping His commandments; and loving one another.

John does not write in a straight line. He circles back to the same themes of truth, obedience, and love, each time going a little deeper. "God is light, and darkness is not in Him at all" (1:5), so we walk in the light and confess our sins. "God is love" (4:8), so His children love one another. And "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous so that He may forgive us the sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1:9). John also writes so that his readers' joy may be full (1:4), so that they will not sin (2:1), and to warn them about those who were deceiving them (2:26).

Christ in 1 John

Jesus is "the Word of life" whom the apostles heard, saw, and touched (1:1). He is "an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous One" and "the propitiation for our sins" (2:1-2). He came in the flesh (4:2), and "the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world" (4:14). He was revealed to take away sins and to destroy the works of the devil (3:5, 8). When He is revealed, "we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is" (3:2). The one who has the Son has life (5:12).

Hard Passages

Does 1:9 apply to unbelievers coming to salvation or to believers keeping fellowship with God? The notes give both readings.

What does it mean that Christ is the propitiation for the sins of the whole world (2:2)? The notes name the main views.

How can John say the one born of God does not sin (3:6-9) when he also says we all sin (1:8)? Most teachers understand John to mean the settled habit of a life, not a single act. The notes name the other readings.

Who are the antichrists, and how do they relate to the coming antichrist (2:18-22; 4:3)? The notes place the coming antichrist in the series' pre-tribulation, future view.

The words "in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit" (5:7-8) are printed in the SLB but absent from almost all Greek copies before the late Middle Ages. The notes explain this plainly and point to the passages that teach the Trinity clearly.

What is the sin to death (5:16-17)? The notes name three views. They also give the two readings of "keeps himself" (5:18) and of "This is the true God" (5:20).

1 JOHN

1 JOHN 1

The Word of Life

1 That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we looked upon and our hands handled, concerning the Word of life— 2 and the life was manifested, and we have seen and bear witness and proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was manifested to us— 3 that which we have seen and heard we proclaim to you, so that you also may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus (Iesous) Christ. 4 And these things we write to you so that your joy may be made full.

Walking in the Light

5 And this is the message which we have heard from Him and announce to you, that God is light, and darkness is not in Him at all. 6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him and walk in the darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. 7 But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin. 8 If we say that we do not have sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous so that He may forgive us the sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

1 JOHN 2

Our Advocate with the Father

1 My little children, these things I write to you so that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus (Iesous) Christ the Righteous One; 2 and He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. 3 And by this we know that we have come to know Him, if we keep His commandments. 4 The one saying, "I have come to know Him," and not keep-

2:4 1 John 1:6,8,10; James 2:14-16; Titus 1:16

1:1 That which was from the beginning Straight back to John 1:1. John means Jesus, the eternal Son who existed before anything was made. Then he piles up proof: heard, seen, looked upon, handled. He walked with Jesus about three years, leaned on Him at the Last Supper (John 13:23), and touched Him after He rose (Luke 24:39; John 20:27).
1:1 our hands handled, concerning the Word of life The false teachers said Jesus only seemed to have a real body. John answers them on the first line. The eternal Word became real flesh, and John touched Him.
1:2 and the life was manifested To be manifested is to be made visible, brought into the open. A witness tells what he knows firsthand. Eternal life is not only a length of time. It is a Person, and to have Jesus is to have that life (5:12).
1:3 so that you also may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ Koinonia, sharing something in common, partners in it. Far more than coffee after church. The false teachers claimed a special closeness to God. Real fellowship with God comes only through the Son, shared with all who hold to what the apostles taught.
1:4 so that your joy may be made full Not a thin, partial joy. Things, success and feelings never fill us. Jesus spoke so His joy would be in His disciples and their joy full (John 15:11). John heard that and passes it on.
1:5 that God is light, and darkness is not in Him at all The first great statement about God here. Later, "God is love" (4:8), and we need both. Light stands for truth and holiness, darkness for lies and sin. A few Greek copies read promise instead of "message." Good news, because God can be fully trusted. Hard news, because sin cannot hide from Him.
1:6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him and walk in the darkness, we lie The first of three "If we say" claims (1:6, 8, 10). Some said what you did with your body did not matter if your spirit knew God. To walk is a way of life, not one slip. Truth is something we do, not only believe.
1:7 the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin Walking in the light is not never sinning, since cleansing is promised. It is living honestly before God, out in the open. Honest with God, we can be honest with each other. "Cleanses" keeps on cleansing, and it covers "all sin."
1:8 If we say that we do not have sin, we deceive ourselves Every believer still has a sin nature in this body (Rom 7:14-25). Becoming a Christian makes us forgiven, with new life and power to fight sin, not sinless. Be careful with any teacher who says he has arrived.
1:9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous so that He may forgive us the sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness To confess is to say the same thing as God about it, no excuses, no blaming. How is it right for a holy God to forgive? Jesus already paid (2:2), so God is just to His Son. Many read this as written to believers for daily fellowship, like a child who still belongs but needs to make it right. Others see a call to anyone, saved or not. Both agree confession does not earn forgiveness. When you have confessed, believe what God says.
1:10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar Verse 8 denied a sin nature. This denies ever sinning. God says all have sinned (Rom 3:23). The way into the light starts with admitting the truth about ourselves. That is where the Christian life begins.
2:1 My little children, these things I write to you so that you may not sin An old man writing like a loving grandfather. Forgiveness is never a license to sin. It is a reason to stop. An advocate stands beside you and speaks for you, like a lawyer for the defense. Parakletos is the word Jesus used for the Spirit (John 14:16). The Spirit helps us on earth. Jesus is our Advocate in heaven. He does not plead our innocence. He pleads His own righteousness and blood, and that case never loses.
2:2 And He Himself is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world Propitiation is a sacrifice that satisfies God's just anger against sin and turns it away. Jesus did not only offer the payment. He is it. Many believe He died for every person, enough for all and offered to all, received by those who believe (John 3:16; 1 Tim 2:6). Others believe "the whole world" means people from every nation, with His death aimed at those who would believe (John 11:51-52). Both agree no one is saved apart from faith and the gospel goes to everyone.
2:3 And by this we know that we have come to know Him, if we keep His commandments The first test of real faith, not how to get saved but how to know we are. The false teachers claimed special knowledge. Real knowledge of God shows up in life. Not perfection (2:1), but direction.
2:4 is a liar, and the truth is not in him Blunt but honest. A person can know all the right words and songs and not know Jesus (Matt 7:21-23). A man who says he loves his wife but never comes home has empty words.

ing His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 but whoever keeps His word, truly in him the love of God has been perfected. By this we know that we are in Him. 6 The one saying he abides in Him ought, just as that One walked, himself also to walk in this way.

The Old and New Commandment

7 Brothers, I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning. 8 Again, a new commandment I am writing to you, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. 9 The one saying he is in the light and hating his brother is in the darkness until now. 10 The one loving his brother abides in the light, and a stumbling block is not in him. 11 But the one hating his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness blinded his eyes. 12 I write to you, little children, because the sins have been forgiven you on account of His name. 13 I write to you, fathers, because you have come to know Him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, young children, because you have come to know the Father. 14 I have written to you, fathers, because you have come to know Him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

Do Not Love the World

15 Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him; 16 because all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boasting of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world. 17 And the world is passing away, and its lust; but the one doing the will of God abides forever.

Warning About Antichrists

18 Young children, it is the last hour; and as you heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen; from which we know that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us; but they went out so that they might be manifested that they all are not of us. 20 And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you

2:5 but whoever keeps His word, truly in him the love of God has been perfected Perfected is brought to its goal. God's love is meant to produce obedience. "His word" is wider than commands, everything Jesus taught. Being "in Him" is John's way of speaking of union with Christ.
2:6 just as that One walked, himself also to walk in this way To abide is to stay, remain, live in, the vine and branches word (John 15:4-7). Jesus walked in obedience, love, truth, humility and prayer. Does my life look more like Jesus than it did a year ago?
2:7 I am not writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment The command to love (2:9-11), heard when they first learned of Jesus and as old as Leviticus 19:18. The false teachers liked fresh secrets. We need to obey what we have already heard.
2:8 Again, a new commandment I am writing to you Old and new. Jesus gave it a new standard, His own love at the cross (John 13:34). A new day dawned when He came, and every time a believer loves as He loved, its light shines brighter.
2:9 The one saying he is in the light and hating his brother is in the darkness until now Some claimed to be enlightened. Hate gives them away. Not a passing disagreement but ongoing bitterness, contempt, wishing harm. We can be right on doctrine and still be in the dark if we hate the people sitting near us.
2:10 The one loving his brother abides in the light, and a stumbling block is not in him A stumbling block trips you or makes another fall. Hate always makes someone fall. Much trouble in families and churches comes from bitterness no one deals with.
2:11 because the darkness blinded his eyes A bitter person often cannot see how far he has gone and thinks everyone else is the problem. The longer he stays, the less he sees. Deal with bitterness quickly (Eph 4:26-27, 31-32).
2:12 I write to you, little children, because the sins have been forgiven you on account of His name Most likely all his readers, as in 2:1 and 2:28. Before he warns, he assures. Before we can obey, love or resist the world, we need to know we are forgiven.
2:13 I write to you, fathers Some see three age groups in the church. Others see stages of growth every believer moves through. Fathers know Jesus deeply after years. Young men are in the thick of the battle and winning by God's strength. Even the newest believer knows God as Father.
2:14 you are strong, and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one Repeating was a way to underline. Jesus beat Satan in the wilderness with Scripture (Matt 4:1-11). There is no shortcut. Read it, think on it, memorize it, obey it.
2:15 Do not love the world nor the things in the world Not the planet or its people, whom God loves (John 3:16), but the whole system of life that leaves God out (James 4:4). Not a call to leave society or hate good things God made, but to check what we are living for.
2:16 the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boasting of life Craving what feels good, wanting what we see, and pride in what we have and have done. Eve saw the fruit was good for food, pleasing to the eyes and desirable to make wise (Gen 3:6). Satan tempted Jesus the same three ways (Luke 4:1-13). Eve fell. Jesus stood.
2:17 but the one doing the will of God abides forever Money, status and pleasure are already on their way out. What we do for God is never wasted.
2:18 Young children, it is the last hour; and as you heard that the antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen The last days began when Jesus went back to heaven (Acts 2:17; Heb 1:2). Antichrist means one against Christ and one who sets himself in Christ's place. Paul calls him "the lawless one" (2 Thess 2:8). Daniel 9:27 tells of a seven-year covenant, and Revelation 13 shows him as the beast. I believe that after Christ takes His church, he will rise during the seven-year Tribulation until Jesus destroys him (Rev 19:20). The false teachers were previews.
2:19 They went out from us, but they were not of us They sat in the meetings, maybe taught, then left. Their leaving made plain they never truly belonged. Teachers discuss how far to apply this to others who walk away, and the wider question of eternal security I leave open. It comforts those who stayed. God knows His own.
2:20 And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know all things Kings and priests were anointed, and Christ means anointed one. This anointing is the Spirit given to every believer. Most take the Holy One as Jesus, who promised the Spirit (John 14:26; 16:13); some take the Father. They were not missing anything they needed.

know all things. 21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is the liar except the one denying that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, the one denying the Father and the Son. 23 Everyone denying the Son does not have the Father either; the one confessing the Son has the Father also. 24 You therefore, what you heard from the beginning, let it abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also will abide in the Son and in the Father. 25 And this is the promise which He Himself promised us: the eternal life. 26 These things I have written to you concerning those deceiving you. 27 And as for you, the anointing which you received from Him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will abide in Him. 28 And now, little children, abide in Him, so that when He is manifested we may have boldness and not be ashamed before Him at His coming. 29 If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness has been begotten of Him.

Children of God

1 See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we may be called children of God! Because of this the world does not know us, because it did not know Him. 2 Beloved, now we are children of God, and it has not yet been revealed what we will be. But we know that when He is revealed, we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is. 3 And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure. 4 Everyone who practices sin also practices lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness. 5 And you know that He was revealed so that He might take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin. 6 Everyone who abides in Him does not sin; everyone who sins has not seen Him, nor has he known Him. 7 Little children, let no one lead you astray; the one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous. 8 The one who practices sin is of the devil, because the devil sins from the

2:21 no lie is of the truth Much of what we need is reminding, not new information (2 Pet 1:12-13). Truth and lies do not mix. A teaching that denies who Jesus is cannot come from God, however much else it gets right.
2:22 Who is the liar except the one denying that Jesus is the Christ The core lie. Some seem to have taught that "the Christ" was a spirit that came on the man Jesus and left before the cross. The early writer Irenaeus tells of Cerinthus in Ephesus teaching something like that. We cannot be sure he is the one John meant. To reject the Son is to reject the Father who sent Him.
2:23 Everyone denying the Son does not have the Father either No having God without Jesus. Some religions honor Jesus as a prophet or good teacher but deny He is God's Son. No one comes to the Father but through Him (John 14:6). This is not narrow-mindedness. It is the truth.
2:24 what you heard from the beginning, let it abide in you Hold on to the original gospel the apostles preached. When the truth lives in us, we live in God. Sound teaching is not dry religion. It keeps us close to God Himself.
2:25 And this is the promise which He Himself promised us: the eternal life What is at stake (John 3:16; 10:28; 17:2-3). Not just endless life but the life of God, knowing the Father and the Son, beginning now. Why trade it for a teacher's clever ideas?
2:26 concerning those deceiving you Not just mistaken but actively leading believers off the path. Deception rarely announces itself. It sounds spiritual, smart and kind. Be anchored, not suspicious of everyone.
2:27 and you have no need that anyone teach you Not that Christians need no teachers. God gave them (Eph 4:11), and John is teaching right here. They needed no false teacher or new revelation to add to what they had. The Spirit always points to Jesus and agrees with the Word He inspired.
2:28 so that when He is manifested we may have boldness and not be ashamed before Him at His coming Parousia, His arrival or presence. I believe this points to His coming for His church before the Tribulation (1 Thess 4:16-17; John 14:1-3). Then every believer stands at the judgment seat of Christ for rewards, not salvation (2 Cor 5:10). Abiding now is how we get ready for then.
2:29 everyone who practices righteousness has been begotten of Him Children share their father's nature. Doing right does not make us God's children. Being born of God makes us start doing right (John 3:3-7). A new birth always shows up in a new life.
3:1 See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we may be called children of God "What kind of" carries surprise: where did a love like this come from? He did not just forgive us and leave us outside the house. He brought us in and gave us His name (Eph 1:5). If the world does not understand you, it did not understand Jesus either.
3:2 But we know that when He is revealed, we will be like Him, because we will see Him just as He is Children now, not someday. We do not know every detail of what we will be. I believe this looks to the rapture, when Jesus comes for His church and changes our bodies in a moment (1 Cor 15:51-52; Phil 3:20-21), free from sin and death. When you are discouraged with yourself, remember God is not finished with you.
3:3 And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure Hope is a sure expectation of what God promised. If an important guest were coming, you would clean up first. If Jesus could come at any moment, we want Him to find us living for Him. This is not saving ourselves but taking part in what God is doing in us.
3:4 and sin is lawlessness Not just mistakes or falling short of potential, but rebellion, living as if God's law did not apply. "Practices" is present tense, to keep on doing as a way of life, and it is the key to the verses that follow.
3:5 He was revealed so that He might take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin The first reason He came. The Lamb of God takes away sin (John 1:29). Only a spotless sacrifice could take our place (2 Cor 5:21; 1 Pet 2:22-24). If He came to take sin away, how can His people be comfortable in it?
3:6 Everyone who abides in Him does not sin With verse 9, one of the hardest sayings in the letter, since 1:8 says we all sin. Most read the present tense as a settled habit of life: the believer does not keep on sinning as a way of life. Others say John describes the new nature, which does not sin though the old still does. Others think he means the open lawlessness the false teachers excused. All reject sinless perfection in this life (1:8-10).
3:7 let no one lead you astray; the one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous Someone was saying you can be righteous without living it. Doing right does not make us right with God (Rom 3:22-24), but real righteousness shows, as a good tree bears good fruit (Matt 7:17-18). Believe the life, not the words.
3:8 For this purpose the Son of God was revealed, so that He might destroy the works of the devil The devil has sinned since his first rebellion. The second reason Jesus came: to break sin, lies, death and bondage. He defeated Satan at the cross (Col 2:15; Heb 2:14-15) and will throw him into the lake of fire (Rev 20:10). Why would God's child keep doing the works Jesus came to destroy?

beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was revealed, so that He might destroy the works of the devil. 9 Everyone who has been born of God does not practice sin, because His seed abides in him; and he is not able to sin, because he has been born of God. 10 By this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest: everyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, and neither is the one who does not love his brother.

Love One Another in Deed and Truth

11 For this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another, 12 not as Cain (Kain) who was of the evil one and slaughtered his brother. And because of what did he slaughter him? Because his works were evil, but those of his brother were righteous. 13 Do not marvel, my brothers, if the world hates you. 14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. The one who does not love the brother abides in death. 15 Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer; and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. 16 By this we have known the love of God, that He laid down His life for us; and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. 17 But whoever has the goods of the world and sees his brother having need and shuts his compassion from him, how does the love of God abide in him? 18 My little children, let us not love in word nor in tongue, but in deed and in truth. 19 And by this we know that we are of the truth, and before Him we will assure our hearts, 20 that if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart and knows all things. 21 Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God, 22 and whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do the things pleasing before Him. 23 And this is His commandment, that we should believe in the name of His Son Jesus (Iesous) Christ and love one another, just as He gave the commandment to us. 24 And the one who keeps His commandments abides in Him, and He in him. And by this we know that He abides in us, by the Spirit whom He has given to us.

1 JOHN 4

Test the Spirits

1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. 2 By this you know the Spirit of

3:9 because His seed abides in him; and he is not able to sin, because he has been born of God Sperma, the new life God plants at new birth (1 Pet 1:23). The same readings as verse 6 apply. Most say the believer cannot go on sinning as the settled pattern of his life, because God's life in him will not let him rest in it. A real child of God in sin is miserable there. If you hate your sin and long to be free, that is a sign of God's life in you.
3:10 By this the children of God and the children of the devil are manifest Only two families, with two marks, righteousness and love. Some are strict about right and wrong but cold. Some are warm but careless about holiness. A child of God has both.
3:11 that we should love one another Agape is not a feeling that comes and goes but a choice to seek another's good at cost to ourselves (John 13:34-35; 15:12). Fellow believers are often hardest to love, because we know each other's faults up close.
3:12 not as Cain who was of the evil one and slaughtered his brother The first murder (Gen 4:1-8). God accepted Abel's offering, and instead of turning to God, Cain turned on his brother out of jealousy and guilt. A good life can make an evil person angry because it shows up what he is.
3:13 Do not marvel, my brothers, if the world hates you If the world hated Jesus, it will hate His people (John 15:18-19). Not an excuse to be unkind and call it persecution. But when we are mocked for following Him, we should not be shocked.
3:14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers A test of assurance. We do not pass to life because we love. We love because we have passed to life (John 5:24). Love is one of the clearest signs of spiritual life.
3:15 Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer Anger in the heart is the root of murder (Matt 5:21-22), murder in seed form. A murderer can be forgiven, as Paul was, but settled hatred and eternal life cannot live in the same heart. Bring it to the cross.
3:16 By this we have known the love of God, that He laid down His life for us Love is not first a feeling. It is Jesus giving up His life for those who did not deserve it. For most of us laying down our lives means giving up time, comfort, money and rights for others, a little at a time.
3:17 sees his brother having need and shuts his compassion from him Love opens the wallet. He has the means, he sees the need, and he closes his heart on purpose (James 2:15-16). Real love does not look away.
3:18 let us not love in word nor in tongue, but in deed and in truth Kind words are part of love, but love that is only words is not love. "In truth" means sincerely, not for show. Who have you helped lately? Love that never costs anything is probably not the kind John describes.
3:20 God is greater than our heart and knows all things Loving in deed assures our hearts. Many sincere believers still feel accused after they have confessed and turned. God is greater than our feelings. He knows our failures and the real faith He put in us. Our hearts can be wrong. He never is (1:9; 2:1-2).
3:21 Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God Walking honestly with nothing hidden, we come to Him like a child to a loving father.
3:22 and whatever we ask we receive from Him Not a blank check, and obedience does not earn answers. One who lives to please God asks for what pleases Him, so his prayers line up with God's will (5:14-15; John 15:7).
3:23 that we should believe in the name of His Son Jesus Christ and love one another All the commands in one, with two parts. Faith aims up toward Jesus, love aims out toward others. "The name" is everything He is: Son, Christ, Savior.
3:24 by the Spirit whom He has given to us The two-way abiding of John 15:4. The first time John names the Spirit outright, though he spoke of the anointing (2:20, 27). The Spirit is God's presence in the believer and gives assurance (Rom 8:16).
4:1 do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are of God Behind every teacher is a spirit, the Holy Spirit or a spirit of error (4:6). To test is to examine, as a jeweler tests gold, as the Bereans checked Paul by the Scriptures (Acts 17:11). A believer who believes everything is not open-minded. He is unprotected.
4:2 every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ having come in the flesh is of God The test is what a teacher says about Jesus. The false teachers said Jesus only seemed to have a body, an early form of what was later called Docetism, from dokeo, to seem. They thought the physical world evil, so God could never truly take on flesh. To confess is to openly agree and stand on it: fully God and fully man, born, crucified and risen in a real body.

God: every spirit that confesses Jesus (Iesous) Christ having come in the flesh is of God, 3 and every spirit that does not confess Jesus Christ having come in the flesh is not of God.
And this is the spirit of the antichrist, which you have heard that it is coming, and now it is already in the world. 4 You are of God, little children, and have overcome them, because greater is the One in you than the one in the world. 5 They are of the world; because of this they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. 6 We are of God; the one who knows God listens to us; he who is not of God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

God Is Love

7 Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God, and everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God.
8 The one who does not love has not known God, because God is love. 9 By this the love of God was revealed among us, that God has sent His only begotten Son into the world so that we might live through Him. 10 In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as a propitiation for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. 12 No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us, and His love is perfected in us. 13 By this we know that we abide in Him and He in us, because He has given to us of His Spirit. 14 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world. 15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. 16 And we have known and have believed the love that God has in us. God is love, and the one who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.
17 By this love has been perfected with us, so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment, because just as He is, so also are we in this world. 18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment, and the one who fears has not been perfected in love. 19 We love Him because He first loved us. 20 If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how is he able to love

4:3 And this is the spirit of the antichrist The final Antichrist has not yet come. He will be revealed after the church is taken up, during the Tribulation (2 Thess 2:3-8). But the spirit behind him shows itself every time someone denies who Jesus is. A group may use Jesus' name and still not be of God.
4:4 because greater is the One in you than the one in the world After warning, comfort. The One in you is the Spirit. The one in the world is Satan, "the ruler of this world" (John 12:31), real and strong but a created being, not God's equal. You do not win by your strength. You win because God lives in you.
4:5 and the world listens to them They speak the world's language and tell people what they want to hear (2 Tim 4:3-4). A message with no repentance and no cross will always be popular. A big crowd does not prove a message true.
4:6 the one who knows God listens to us "We" most likely means the apostles, eyewitnesses who taught with Christ's authority, whose teaching we now have in the New Testament. The second test: does a teaching agree with the Word they gave? Any message that contradicts Scripture is from the spirit of error.
4:7 let us love one another, because love is of God From testing teachers to loving one another. Truth and love belong together. All real love has its source in God, and new birth gives us His nature. A believer who loves shows the family likeness.
4:8 because God is love Not only that God loves, but that love is what He is. Everything He does is loving, even judgment, and since He is also light (1:5), His love is never soft on sin. Love is not God, as if any feeling we call love were divine. The Bible defines love by God, not God by our ideas of love.
4:9 God has sent His only begotten Son into the world so that we might live through Him Not by looking at our circumstances but at what He did. Only begotten means one of a kind (John 3:16). We were dead in sin. When you wonder whether God loves you, look at the manger and the cross.
4:10 not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as a propitiation for our sins Love did not start with us (Rom 5:8). God's own love provided the sacrifice His own justice required (2:2). A gift that cost the Father His Son.
4:11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another "If" means since. God loved you when you were hard to love and did not wait for you to deserve it. When we struggle to love, look again at how much God loved us.
4:12 No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us The Son has made Him known (John 1:18). The invisible God becomes visible, in a way, when His people love one another. His love reaches its goal when it flows through us to others.
4:13 because He has given to us of His Spirit Every believer receives the Spirit when he believes (Rom 8:9; Eph 1:13). His work shows in faith in Christ, love for others, hunger for the Word and a growing hatred of sin. These tests are meant to give confidence, not anxiety.
4:14 the Father has sent the Son as Savior of the world An eyewitness speaking. The Samaritans used the same title (John 4:42). A Savior rescues, and we could not save ourselves from sin, death and judgment.
4:15 Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God Even demons know who Jesus is (James 2:19). To confess is to agree with God about Him and trust Him (Rom 10:9). "Whoever" is a wide door.
4:16 And we have known and have believed the love that God has in us Known because God showed it at the cross. Believed because we trust what He says even when we do not feel it. To abide in love is a place we live, receiving it and passing it on.
4:17 so that we may have confidence in the day of judgment, because just as He is, so also are we in this world God sees us in His Son. Jesus took the judgment, so there is no condemnation for those in Him (Rom 8:1). For believers it is the judgment seat of Christ, for rewards, not salvation (2 Cor 5:10). Boldness, not dread.
4:18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment Not the healthy fear of the Lord, which is reverence (Prov 9:10), but a criminal's terror before a judge. Many believers live with a low-grade dread that God is angry with them. The answer is not to try harder but to look at the cross. Jesus took the punishment.
4:19 We love Him because He first loved us Our love is always a response, so we cannot boast. If your love feels small or cold, do not try to work it up. Go back to His love for you, and it will grow.
4:20 for the one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how is he able to love God whom he has not seen If we fail the easier test, how can we claim the harder? Our love for God is tested in the kitchen, at the office and in the church parking lot.

God whom he has not seen? 21 And this commandment we have from Him, that the one who loves God should love his brother also.

Faith That Overcomes the World

1 Everyone who believes that Jesus (Iesous) is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the One who begot also loves the one who has been begotten of Him. 2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep His commandments. 3 For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments; and His commandments are not burdensome. 4 For everything that has been born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that has overcome the world: our faith. 5 Who is the one who overcomes the world, except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? 6 This is the One who came through water and blood, Jesus the Christ; not by the water only, but by the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the One who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. 7 For there are three who testify in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. 8 And there are three who testify on earth: the Spirit and the water and the blood; and the three are in agreement as one. 9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God which He has testified concerning His Son. 10 The one who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself; the one who does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has testified concerning His Son. 11 And this is the testimony, that God has given to us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. 12 The one who has the Son has life; the one who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

That You May Know

13 These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know that you have eternal life, and so that you may believe in the name of the Son of God. 14 And this is the confidence that we have toward Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. 15 And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked

4:21 that the one who loves God should love his brother also A command, not a suggestion. Jesus joined the two great commandments (Mark 12:29-31). Separate them and both die. Who is God calling you to love right now?
5:1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God Notice the tense. Believing is the evidence that new birth has already happened. God gives the new life, and faith is its first sign. To believe that Jesus is the Christ is to believe that the man Jesus is the promised Messiah and Son of God, exactly what the false teachers denied (2:22).
5:1 everyone who loves the One who begot also loves the one who has been begotten of Him If you love a father, you will love his children. Loving God means loving everyone He has brought into His family. Faith and love go together again.
5:2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep His commandments In 4:20 love for God was shown by love for the brothers. Here John turns it around. Real love for people is not going along with whatever they want. Love for God's children never asks us to disobey God.
5:3 His commandments are not burdensome Obedience is not a crushing load for the one who has been born of God, because He gives a new heart that wants to please Him. Jesus said, "My yoke is easy and My burden is light" (Matt 11:30).
5:4 this is the victory that has overcome the world: our faith The world here is the whole system set against God, with its lies and its pull. We do not win by trying harder but by trusting the One who said, "I have overcome the world" (John 16:33). Our faith joins us to His victory.
5:5 the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God The overcomer is not a special class of super Christians. Every true believer overcomes, because faith rests on who Jesus is.
5:6 This is the One who came through water and blood, Jesus the Christ Many understand the water as Jesus' baptism and the blood as His death. The false teachers said the Christ came on Jesus at baptism and left before the cross. John insists the same Jesus Christ came through both. Others connect the words with the water and blood from His side (John 19:34).
5:6 the Spirit is the One who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth The Holy Spirit bears witness to Jesus, inside the believer and through the Word He inspired. He cannot lie, so His testimony settles the matter.
5:7 For there are three who testify in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one The Father, the Word (the Son, John 1:1), and the Spirit agree in one testimony about Jesus. These words are absent from almost all Greek copies before the late Middle Ages. They came from Latin sources, and Erasmus added them in his third edition (1522), so many modern Bibles omit them or give them in a footnote. Nothing rests on this verse alone. The Trinity is taught plainly elsewhere (Matt 28:19; 2 Cor 13:14).
5:8 the Spirit and the water and the blood; and the three are in agreement as one The Law required two or three witnesses (Deut 19:15). God gives three that agree: the Spirit, Jesus' baptism, and His death all point to the same Son of God.
5:9 If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater We accept human witnesses every day in court and in ordinary life. How much more should we trust God when He speaks about His own Son.
5:10 the one who does not believe God has made Him a liar Unbelief is not a neutral position. To refuse God's testimony about Jesus is to call God a liar. That is why rejecting Christ is so serious.
5:11 God has given to us eternal life, and this life is in His Son Eternal life is not a reward we earn or a thing apart from Jesus. It is found in Him. God gives it as a gift.
5:12 The one who has the Son has life It is that simple. Life is not about how good you are, but whether you have the Son. You receive Him by believing in His name (John 1:12).
5:13 so that you may know that you have eternal life John wrote his Gospel so that people would believe (John 20:31). He wrote this letter so that believers would know. God wants His children to have assurance, not to live in fear about where they stand with Him.
5:14 if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us Prayer is not a way to bend God to our will but to line ourselves up with His. Jesus prayed, "not My will, but Yours be done" (Luke 22:42). When we pray what God wants, we can pray with confidence.
5:15 we know that we have the requests that we have asked from Him The answer may not come at once, but it is as good as given. We can thank God ahead of time for what He has promised.

from Him. 16 If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not to death, he will ask, and He will give him life, for those who sin not to death. There is a sin to death; I do not say that he should make request concerning that. 17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not to death. 18 We know that everyone who has been born of God does not sin; but the one who was born of God keeps himself, and the evil one does not touch him. 19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the evil one. 20 And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know the One who is true; and we are in the One who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and the eternal life. 21 Little children, guard yourselves from idols. Amen.

5:21 1 Cor 10:7,14; 1 John 2:1; Exod 20:3,4

5:16 There is a sin to death Good teachers hold different views. Some see physical death as God's discipline on a believer who keeps sinning (Acts 5:1-11; 1 Cor 11:30). Some see a settled rejection of Christ like the false teachers who left (2:19, 22). Some link it with blasphemy against the Spirit (Mark 3:28-29). If you are worried you have committed it, your concern is a good sign. Jesus said, "the one coming to Me I will certainly not cast out" (John 6:37).
5:16 he will ask, and He will give him life We are to pray for a brother caught in sin, not gossip about him. God answers such prayer with restoration.
5:17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not to death No sin is small, but most sin is not the final kind. That should keep us from both taking sin lightly and giving up hope for a brother.
5:18 the one who was born of God keeps himself, and the evil one does not touch him As in 3:9, John means the habit of a life, not a single act. The SLB reads "keeps himself," so the believer guards his own life. Many copies read "keeps him," which points to Jesus, the One born of God, keeping the believer safe. Both are true: Satan cannot lay hold of one who belongs to God.
5:19 the whole world lies in the evil one The world system is in Satan's grip, lying in his lap. He is the one who "has blinded the minds of the unbelieving" (2 Cor 4:4). We belong to God, so we should not be surprised when the world thinks differently.
5:20 the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know the One who is true We could never find God by our own reasoning. Jesus came and opened our minds to know Him. Knowing God is personal, not just knowing facts about Him.
5:20 This is the true God and the eternal life Many read "This" as Jesus Christ, the nearest name, which makes this one of the clearest statements of His deity. Others read it as the Father, the One who is true. Either way, John has just said we are in the Father by being in His Son.
5:21 Little children, guard yourselves from idols Ephesus was home to the great temple of Artemis (Acts 19:23-27), and idols were everywhere. But an idol is anything that takes God's place, including a false Jesus like the one the false teachers preached. John ends with a father's warning: keep yourselves for the true God.

2 JOHN

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for its writer, who calls himself simply "the elder" (1:1). It is one of the shortest books in the Bible, short enough to fit on a single sheet of papyrus. Only 3 John is shorter in the Greek.

Author and Date

The early church held that "the elder" was John the apostle, the same man who wrote 1 John and the Gospel of John. The words and themes are the same: truth, love, the commandment from the beginning, Jesus Christ coming in the flesh, the antichrist, and joy made full. By the time he wrote, John was an old man and the last living apostle, and the churches knew who "the elder" was without being told his name.

Most date 2 John to about A.D. 85 to 95, written from Ephesus, around the same time as 1 John.

Background and Setting

John writes "to the elect lady and to her children" (1:1). Some believe she was a real Christian woman, perhaps one who opened her home to the church, and her children were her family. Others believe the elect lady is a way of speaking of a local church, with her children as its members and "your elect sister" (1:13) as John's own church. John moves between singular and plural "you," and the commands fit a congregation, but the letter also reads naturally as a note to a real person. Scripture does not settle it, and the message is the same either way.

In the first century, teachers and missionaries went from town to town and depended on believers for food and a place to stay. That was good, but it also opened the door to false teachers. A church that welcomed a teacher into the home where it met gave him a platform.

Themes

The theme of 2 John is walking in truth and love together. John reminds his readers of the command they have had from the beginning, "that we love one another" (1:5), and then warns them about deceivers who deny that Jesus Christ came in the flesh (1:7). Love does not mean opening the door to everyone. "This is love, that we walk according to His commandments" (1:6). John writes to encourage the lady and her children to keep walking in the truth, to warn them not to welcome such teachers, and to tell them he hopes to visit soon.

Christ in 2 John

Grace, mercy, and peace come "from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father" (1:3), the two named side by side as equals. The deceivers deny "Jesus Christ coming in flesh" (1:7), but the true Jesus is the eternal Son who became a real man. And "the one who abides in the teaching of Christ, this one has both the Father and the Son" (1:9).

Hard Passages

Who is the elect lady (1:1)? The notes give both the woman view and the church view.

What does John mean by "do not receive him into your house, and do not say to him, Greetings" (1:10)? The notes apply it to welcoming and supporting teachers who deny Christ came in the flesh, not to ordinary kindness toward people in error or toward unbelieving family.

Outline

2 JOHN

2 JOHN 1

Greeting in Truth

1 The elder, to the elect lady and to her children, whom I love in truth, and not I only, but also all those who have known the truth, 2 because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever: 3 Grace, mercy, and peace will be with you from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus (Iesous) Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

Walking in Truth and Love

4 I rejoiced greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, just as we received commandment from the Father. 5 And now I ask you, lady, not as writing to you a new commandment, but the one which we have had from the beginning, that we love one another. 6 And this is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, just as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it.

Guard Against Deceivers

7 For many deceivers have entered into the world, those who do not confess Jesus Christ coming in flesh; this is the deceiver and the antichrist. 8 Watch yourselves, so that we do not lose the things we have worked for, but receive a full reward. 9 Everyone who transgresses and does not abide in the teaching of Christ does not have God; the one who abides in the teaching of Christ, this one has both the Father and the Son. 10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house, and do not say to him, "Greetings"; 11 for the one who says to him,
"Greetings," shares in his evil works.

Closing

12 Having many things to write to you, I did not want to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and to speak mouth to mouth, so that our joy may be made full. 13 The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

1:12 3 John 1:13; John 15:11; John 16:24
1:13 2 John 1:1; 1 Pet 5:13

1:1 The elder John does not give his name. An elder is an older man and also a leader who shepherds God's people, and Peter called himself a fellow elder (1 Pet 5:1). By this time John was the last living apostle, and the churches knew exactly who "the elder" was.
1:1 to the elect lady and to her children There are two main views. Some believe she was a real Christian woman, perhaps one who hosted a church in her home, with her own family as her children. Others see a picture of a local church and its members, pointing to John's shift between singular and plural "you" and to "your elect sister" in verse 13. Both views fit the message.
1:2 because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever Truth is the key word of this letter, five times in the first four verses. In John's writing truth is tied to Jesus Himself, "the way and the truth and the life" (John 14:6). It lives in believers, it does not wear out, and it makes us family.
1:3 Grace, mercy, and peace will be with you Grace is God's favor we did not earn. Mercy is God not giving us the punishment we did deserve. Peace is what comes when grace and mercy have done their work. John's greeting is also a promise: these "will be" with every believer who walks in the truth.
1:3 from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love John sets the Father and the Son side by side as equals, the same point he made against the false teachers in his first letter. Truth and love are the two great themes of the letter.
1:4 I rejoiced greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth Not money, numbers, or success made John glad, but people living out the truth. To walk in truth is to live by it every day. "Some" may mean only those he had met, or it may hint that not all were walking in truth.
1:5 that we love one another This is no new command but the one Jesus gave the night before He died (John 13:34), the same one John wrote about in his first letter (1 John 2:7-8; 3:11). A church fighting false teaching can grow harsh. It is possible to defend the truth and lose our love. John wants both.
1:6 this is love, that we walk according to His commandments Love means keeping His commandments, and His commandment is to love. The two cannot be pulled apart. Love is not a warm feeling that ignores what God says. Real love wants what God wants for a person, and His commands are always for our good.
1:7 many deceivers have entered into the world, those who do not confess Jesus Christ coming in flesh Traveling false teachers denied that the eternal Son of God truly became a man, the same error John fought in 1 John 4:2-3. They carry the spirit of the Antichrist who is still to come in the Tribulation. A wrong view of Jesus goes to the heart of the gospel.
1:8 Watch yourselves, so that we do not lose the things we have worked for, but receive a full reward Be on guard about what you believe and who you listen to. Salvation is a free gift, but believers will receive rewards from Christ for faithful service, and rewards can be gained or lost (1 Cor 3:12-15; 2 Cor 5:10). John wants them to receive a full reward.
1:9 Everyone who transgresses and does not abide in the teaching of Christ does not have God To transgress here is to go beyond, to run ahead. The false teachers claimed to move on to something deeper. Going beyond the teaching of Christ, both the teaching about Him and the teaching He gave, is not progress. It is leaving God behind. Stay with what you received, and you have both the Father and the Son.
1:10 do not receive him into your house, and do not say to him, "Greetings" Traveling teachers depended on believers for food and a place to stay, and churches met in homes, so welcoming a teacher gave him a platform. This is about people spreading a false gospel that denies Christ came in the flesh, not about being rude to a neighbor or an unbelieving family member. We can show kindness and share the gospel. We must not help error spread.
1:11 shares in his evil works The word is related to koinonia, fellowship. Helping a false teacher's work makes you a partner in it. Whose teaching do we support with our money and invite into our homes and churches? Sometimes the loving thing is to keep the door shut to those who deny Christ.
1:12 I hope to come to you and to speak mouth to mouth, so that our joy may be made full The paper was papyrus and the ink was soot and gum. Some things are better said face to face. John used the same words in 1 John 1:4. Fellowship in person brings a fullness of joy that letters and screens cannot.
1:13 The children of your elect sister greet you If the lady is a church, her sister is another church, probably John's own. If she is a woman, these are her sister's children. Either way, believers are family across the miles.

3 JOHN

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for its writer, who again calls himself "the elder" (1:1). It is the shortest book in the Bible in the Greek, a personal note to one man, Gaius.

Author and Date

As in 2 John, the writer calls himself "the elder." The early church held that he was John the apostle, and the style, the words, and the love for truth all match 1 and 2 John. Most date 3 John to about A.D. 85 to 95, around the same time as 1 and 2 John, and most believe John wrote it from Ephesus.

Background and Setting

The letter is addressed to "Gaius the beloved" (1:1). Gaius was a very common name in the Roman world, and the New Testament mentions several men by that name (Acts 19:29; 20:4; Rom 16:23; 1 Cor 1:14). We do not know whether this Gaius was any of them. He was a believer whom John loved, who walked in truth, and who opened his home to traveling workers. John may have led him to faith, since he counts him among "my children" (1:4).

Diotrephes was a leader in the church Gaius knew, a man "who loves to be first" (1:9). He refused John's letter and the traveling brothers, spread evil talk about John, and put out of the church those who wanted to welcome them. Demetrius had a good report from everyone (1:12), and he may have carried this letter.

Themes

John writes to thank Gaius for his hospitality to the traveling workers and to urge him to keep supporting them, so that "we may become fellow workers for the truth" (1:8). He deals openly with the pride of Diotrephes, commends Demetrius, and tells Gaius he hopes to see him soon. The key verse sets two examples side by side: "do not imitate what is evil, but what is good" (1:11). Walking in truth, faithful hospitality, and humble leadership run through the letter, and John's greatest joy is to "hear of my children walking in truth" (1:4).

Christ in 3 John

The missionaries went out "on behalf of His name" (1:7), the name of Jesus Christ. Supporting them is serving Him.
Diotrephes, who loved to be first, stands against the One who said the one who wants to be great must be a servant (Mark 10:42-45).

Hard Passages

Does 1:2 promise wealth and health to every believer? The notes read it as a customary wish for a friend's well-being, the way people open a letter by hoping all is well, and not as a promise of riches.

Outline

I. Gaius Praised (1:1-8)
  A. Greeting and prayer (1:1-4)
  B. Faithful hospitality (1:5-8)
II. Diotrephes Rebuked (1:9-11)
III. Demetrius Commended and Closing (1:12-14)

3 JOHN

3 JOHN 1

Greeting to Gaius

1 The elder, to Gaius (Gaios) the beloved, whom I love in truth. 2 Beloved, concerning all things I pray that you prosper and be in health, just as your soul prospers. 3 For I rejoiced greatly when brothers came and testified to your truth, just as you walk in truth. 4 I have no greater joy than these things, that I hear of my children walking in truth.

Faithful Hospitality

5 Beloved, you do faithfully whatever you do for the brothers and for the strangers, 6 who testified of your love before the church. You will do well to send them forward in a manner worthy of God. 7 For on behalf of His name they went out, taking nothing from the Gentiles. 8 We therefore ought to receive such men, so that we may become fellow workers for the truth.

Diotrephes Rebuked

9 I wrote to the church; but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, does not receive us. 10 Because of this, if I come, I will bring to remembrance his works which he does, talking nonsense against us with evil words; and not being content with these, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who want to he forbids and casts them out of the church. 11 Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good. The one who does good is of God; but the one who does evil has not seen God.

Demetrius Commended

12 Demetrius (Demetrios) has been testified to by all, and by the truth itself; and we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true. 13 I had many things to write, but I do not want to write to you with ink and pen; 14 but I hope to see you soon, and we will speak mouth to mouth. Peace to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

1:13 2 John 1:12
1:14 Gen 43:23; Dan 4:1; Gal 5:16

1:1 to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth Gaius was a common Roman name. The New Testament mentions a Gaius in Corinth (Rom 16:23; 1 Cor 1:14), one from Macedonia (Acts 19:29), and one from Derbe (Acts 20:4). We do not know if this is any of them. We do know John loved him with a real love rooted in their shared faith, and calls him "beloved" three more times (verses 2, 5, 11).
1:2 I pray that you prosper and be in health, just as your soul prospers A warm, normal prayer for a friend, like opening a letter by hoping all is well. Notice the standard: John prays that body and circumstances would do as well as Gaius' soul already did. Some use this verse to promise wealth and health to every believer. That stretches it too far. It shows God cares about our whole lives, but it is not a promise of riches.
1:3 testified to your truth, just as you walk in truth Gaius did not just hold the truth. He lived it, and others could see it. If other believers spent time with us and reported back, what would they say?
1:4 I have no greater joy than these things, that I hear of my children walking in truth "My children" probably means people John led to Christ or taught in the faith. Any parent understands this. Our greatest joy is not our children's paycheck or house but seeing them walk with God. Pray that your spiritual children would walk in truth.
1:5 you do faithfully whatever you do for the brothers and for the strangers Inns were few, unsafe, and often known for bad behavior, so traveling missionaries depended on believers for a bed and food. Gaius welcomed even ones he had never met, and kept doing it. Hospitality is not small in the Bible (Heb 13:2).
1:6 You will do well to send them forward in a manner worthy of God To send forward meant giving what they needed for the next part of the journey: food, money, supplies, maybe a guide (Rom 15:24; Titus 3:13). When we help God's servants, we should treat them in a way that honors the God who sent them, not grudgingly or cheaply but generously.
1:7 For on behalf of His name they went out, taking nothing from the Gentiles They went for the name of Jesus Christ. Here Gentiles means the unbelievers they were trying to reach. They did not want anyone to think the gospel was for sale, as Paul also refused support in Corinth and Thessalonica (1 Cor 9:12-18; 1 Thess 2:9). So the church had to provide for them.
1:8 so that we may become fellow workers for the truth Not everyone is called to go, but everyone can share the work by giving, praying, and opening a home. The missionary's fruit becomes ours. This is the opposite of 2 John 10-11: welcoming a false teacher makes you a partner in evil, and welcoming a true servant makes you a partner in the truth.
1:9 Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, does not receive us Diotrephes blocked John's letter to the church. John does not say he taught false doctrine. His problem was pride and a love of control. Jesus said the one who wants to be great must be a servant (Mark 10:42-45). Diotrephes had it backwards.
1:10 talking nonsense against us with evil words Diotrephes spread malicious gossip about John, refused hospitality to the traveling workers, and put out of the church anyone who wanted to welcome them. This is what a leader who loves to be first does. John will not ignore it. If he comes, he will bring it into the open and deal with it truthfully.
1:11 do not imitate what is evil, but what is good The key verse of the letter. We all imitate someone. John sets Diotrephes and Demetrius side by side. "The one who does evil has not seen God" echoes 1 John 3:6-10. A person's life shows his true family, whatever position he holds in the church.
1:12 Demetrius has been testified to by all, and by the truth itself Demetrius may have carried this letter. He had three witnesses: the believers who knew him, the truth itself because his life matched it, and John's own word. The world's praise can be flattery, but when the truth backs up your life, that is a good name worth having (Prov 22:1).
1:13 I do not want to write to you with ink and pen Almost the same words as 2 John 12. Hard things like the trouble with Diotrephes are better handled in person, where tone is not lost. When there is conflict in a church or a family, it is usually better to sit down and talk than to send a letter, an email, or a text.
1:14 Peace to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name A fitting blessing for a man in a church conflict. Calling believers "the friends" is unusual in a New Testament greeting, but Jesus called His disciples His friends (John 15:14-15). In God's family no one is just a face in the crowd.

JUDE

Introduction

Title

The letter is named for its writer, "Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ, and brother of James" (1:1). In Greek the name is Judas, the same as Judah, a very common Jewish name. It is the last letter before the Bible's final book, short but one of the most urgent letters in the New Testament.

Author and Date

Bible teachers have long held that the writer is the Jude, or Judas, named with James as one of the brothers of Jesus (Matt 13:55; Mark 6:3). The James he names is most likely the leader of the church in Jerusalem (Acts 15:13; Gal 1:19). Jesus' brothers were the sons of Joseph and Mary, born after Jesus (Matt 1:25; 13:55-56), so Jude was His half-brother. Some churches hold that the brothers were Joseph's sons by an earlier marriage or cousins. Like James in his letter, Jude does not call himself the brother of the Lord but a slave of Jesus Christ. That humble way of speaking fits a man who once did not believe in Jesus (John 7:5) and later worshiped Him as Lord (Acts 1:14).

Jude does not give a date. Most place it between about A.D. 65 and 80, and many narrow it to about 68 to 80. Verse 17 speaks of the apostles' words as something the readers had heard earlier. Jude does not mention the fall of Jerusalem in A.D. 70, and some take that as a hint he wrote before it.

Background and Setting

Jude writes "to those who are called, sanctified in God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ" (1:1), with no city or region named. His many examples from the Old Testament and from Jewish writings suggest readers who knew the Jewish Scriptures well, so many believe they were mostly Jewish believers. Jude had wanted to write about the salvation all believers share, but ungodly men had crept into the church, turning God's grace into an excuse for sin and denying Jesus Christ as Master and Lord (1:3-4).

Much of Jude is very close to 2 Peter 2 and 3:1-3. Teachers do not agree whether Jude used 2 Peter, Peter used Jude, or both drew on a common warning. Scripture does not tell us, and the message is the same. Jude also mentions Michael's dispute over the body of Moses (1:9), which early writers linked to a Jewish book called the Assumption of Moses, and a prophecy of Enoch (1:14-15) that closely matches a line in a Jewish book called 1 Enoch. Neither book is part of the Bible. Jude was led by the Holy Spirit to record these things as true, but quoting a true line does not make a whole book Scripture, as Paul's quotes from Greek poets show (Acts 17:28; Titus 1:12).

Themes

The theme of Jude is standing firm for the truth while staying close to God. The key verse is his call "to contend earnestly for the faith once for all delivered to the saints" (1:3). Jude gives example after example of how God judges those who turn from Him: Israel in the wilderness, the angels who sinned, Sodom and Gomorrah, Cain, Balaam, and Korah. Then he tells the faithful to remember what the apostles foretold, to build themselves up, to pray in the Holy Spirit, to "keep yourselves in the love of God" (1:21), and to reach out with mercy to those who are wavering. The letter that begins with believers "kept for Jesus Christ" (1:1) ends with one of the best-known blessings in the Bible.

Christ in Jude

Jesus Christ is "the only Master, God, and our Lord Jesus Christ" (1:4), whom the false teachers deny by how they live. Believers are kept for Him (1:1) and wait "for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life" (1:21). The Lord will come "with His holy myriads" to judge the ungodly (1:14-15). And God our Savior, through Him, "is able to keep you from stumbling, and to present you blameless before the presence of His glory with exultation" (1:24).

Hard Passages

What does "written beforehand for this judgment" (1:4) mean? The notes give two readings: foretold in Scripture and prophecy, or God's eternal plan.

Who are the angels who left their own dwelling (1:6)? The notes give both main views: the sons of God of Genesis 6:1-4, or angels who fell with Satan.

How should we understand Michael and the body of Moses (1:9) and the prophecy of Enoch (1:14-15)? The notes explain Jude's use of these Jewish writings. They place the coming of the Lord with His holy myriads at the Second Coming after the Tribulation, when the church, taken up before it, returns with Him.

What is praying in the Holy Spirit (1:20)? The notes read it as Spirit-led prayer and mention the reading that connects it with tongues.

JUDE 1

Greeting

1 Jude (Ioudas), a slave of Jesus (Iesous) Christ, and brother of James (Iakobos), to those who are called, sanctified in God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ: 2 Mercy to you and peace and love be multiplied.

Contend for the Faith

3 Beloved, while making all diligence to write to you concerning our common salvation, I had necessity to write to you, exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith once for all delivered to the saints. 4 For certain men have crept in unnoticed, those who long ago were written beforehand for this judgment, ungodly men, changing the grace of our God into sensuality and denying the only Master, God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

God's Judgment on the Ungodly

5 But I want to remind you, though you once knew this, that the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt (Aigyptos), afterward destroyed those who did not believe. 6 And angels who did not keep their own domain, but left their own dwelling, He has kept in eternal chains under darkness for the judgment of the great day, 7 just as Sodom (Sodoma) and Gomorrah (Gomorra) and the cities around them, having in the same manner as these indulged in sexual immorality and gone after other flesh, are set forth as an example, undergoing the penalty of eternal fire. 8 Yet in the same way these dreamers also defile the flesh, and set aside authority, and blaspheme glorious ones. 9 But Michael the archangel, when he was disputing with the devil, arguing about the body of Moses, did not dare to bring against him a judgment of blasphemy, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you!" 10 But these blaspheme whatever things they do not know; and whatever things they understand naturally, like the irra-

1:1 Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ, and brother of James Jude does not boast of his family ties to Jesus. He calls himself a slave who belongs to his Master. Most believe this James is the leader of the Jerusalem church (Acts 15:13; Gal 1:19), the brother of the Lord. That makes Jude one of the brothers of Jesus (Matt 13:55; Mark 6:3), a son of Joseph and Mary born after Jesus.

1:1 called, sanctified in God the Father and kept for Jesus Christ Three things are true of every believer. We are called by God, set apart for Him, and kept, guarded by God for Jesus. Jude comes back to the word "kept" at the end (verses 21, 24).

1:2 Mercy to you and peace and love be multiplied Mercy is God's compassion holding back the judgment we deserve, peace the calm of being right with God, and love His self-giving care. Before he writes about judgment, Jude prays that his readers would have more and more of all three. That is the place to stand when we face hard truth.

1:3 to contend earnestly for the faith once for all delivered to the saints Jude planned a letter about "our common salvation," but something urgent came up. To contend earnestly is the word for an athlete straining or a soldier fighting. The faith is the body of apostolic truth, handed down one time, complete. We do not add to it. We guard it and pass it on. That does not mean fighting with people. It means standing firm.

1:4 certain men have crept in unnoticed, those who long ago were written beforehand for this judgment The danger was inside the church; these men slipped in quietly, like spies. Teachers read this two ways. Some see it as their judgment foretold long ago in Scripture and in prophecy like Enoch's (verses 14-15). Others see God's eternal plan. Either way, God was not surprised by them.

1:4 changing the grace of our God into sensuality and denying the only Master, God, and our Lord Jesus Christ Two marks of the false teachers. They treated grace as permission to sin, and they denied the Lord, not always in words but by how they lived.

1:5 having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe The first of three examples of judgment. God brought Israel out with great power, yet most of that generation died in the wilderness for unbelief (Num 14:26-35; Heb 3:16-19). Being in the crowd that came out of Egypt did not protect those who did not believe. Being in the church did not make the false teachers safe.

1:6 angels who did not keep their own domain, but left their own dwelling There are two main views. Many believe they are the sons of God of Genesis 6:1-4, angels who left heaven and took human women, pointing to verse 7, which says Sodom sinned "in the same manner as these." Others see angels who fell with Satan, some now bound while others roam free. Peter writes of the same angels (2 Pet 2:4). Notice the play on words: they did not keep their domain, so God has kept them in chains.

1:7 Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them The third example (Gen 19). Gone after other flesh means flesh not theirs to have. The men of Sodom tried to force themselves on the two visitors in Lot's house, who were angels (Gen 19:4-9). Scripture names their sin plainly, including the sexual sin of men with men, and also their pride and neglect of the poor (Ezek 16:49-50).

1:7 set forth as an example, undergoing the penalty of eternal fire The fire that fell on them pictures a judgment that does not end. God's patience is real, but so is His judgment. The answer for any sinner, of any kind, is to turn to Christ, who forgives all who come to Him (1 Cor 6:9-11).

1:8 these dreamers also defile the flesh, and set aside authority, and blaspheme glorious ones They may have claimed dreams to back their teaching, or they lived in a dream world. Like Sodom they defile the flesh. Like the angels they reject the Lord's rule. And they speak with contempt of angelic beings. Pride that mocks what it does not understand always comes before a fall.

1:9 Michael the archangel, when he was disputing with the devil, arguing about the body of Moses Michael is the chief angel (Dan 10:13; 12:1; Rev 12:7). God buried Moses and no one knows his grave (Deut 34:5-6), but the Old Testament does not tell of this dispute. Early writers said Jude drew on a Jewish book called the Assumption of Moses, though the surviving copies lack the scene. Jude records the event as true. That does not make the source book Scripture, just as Paul quoted pagan poets (Acts 17:28; Titus 1:12).

1:9 May the Lord rebuke you Even Michael, the greatest of the angels, did not speak against the devil on his own authority. He left judgment to the Lord, using the words spoken to Satan when he accused Joshua the high priest (Zech 3:2). If Michael was that careful, how foolish were men who mocked spiritual powers.

1:10 like the irrational animals, in these things they are corrupted They claimed deep spiritual insight but understood spiritual things no better than an animal. The only things they did understand were bodily appetites, and in those very things they were destroying themselves.

tional animals, in these things they are corrupted. 11 Woe to them! For they went in the way of Cain (Kain), and rushed into the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the rebellion of Korah (Kore). 12 These are hidden reefs in your love feasts, feasting together with you without fear, shepherding themselves; clouds without water, carried about by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, uprooted; 13 wild waves of the sea, foaming up their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of darkness has been kept forever. 14 And Enoch (Henoch), the seventh from Adam, also prophesied about these, saying, "Look, the Lord came with His holy myriads, 15 to execute judgment against all, and to convict all the ungodly among them concerning all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way, and concerning all the harsh things which ungodly sinners have spoken against Him." 16 These are grumblers, complainers, walking according to their lusts, and their mouth speaks arrogant words, flattering faces for the sake of profit.

Keep Yourselves in the Love of God

17 But you, beloved, remember the words that were spoken beforehand by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, 18 that they were saying to you that in the last time there will be scoffers, walking according to their own lusts of ungodliness. 19 These are the ones who separate themselves, natural men, not having the Spirit. 20 But you, beloved, building yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, 21 keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life. 22 And on some have mercy, making a distinction; 23 but others save with fear, snatching them out of the fire, hating even the tunic stained by the flesh.

1:23 Amos 4:11; Zech 3:2; Rev 3:4,18
1:24 Job 9:4; Eph 3:20; 2 Cor 4:14

1:11 they went in the way of Cain, and rushed into the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the rebellion of Korah Cain murdered his brother and would not listen to God (Gen 4:3-8; 1 John 3:12). Balaam would curse Israel for money and later taught her enemies to lead her into sin (Num 22-24; 31:16; Rev 2:14). Korah rose against Moses and Aaron and was swallowed by the earth (Num 16). Hatred, greed, and pride: the false teachers showed all three.
1:12 hidden reefs in your love feasts The love feasts were shared church meals, often with the Lord's Supper. A hidden reef tears open a ship from beneath the water. These men sat at the table looking harmless and wrecked people's faith, caring only for themselves, not the flock (Ezek 34:2). They are clouds that promise rain and give nothing, and trees with no fruit at harvest, dead at the root and pulled out of the ground.
1:13 wild waves of the sea, foaming up their own shame; wandering stars The sea throws foam and trash on the beach (Isa 57:20), and these men left only the mess of shameful living. Sailors steered by the stars, but a wandering star could guide no one. Air, land, sea, and sky: wherever you look, the false teachers are empty and dangerous, and their end is certain.
1:14 Enoch, the seventh from Adam, also prophesied about these Enoch walked with God and was taken up without dying (Gen 5:21-24; Heb 11:5), the seventh counting Adam. Jude's words closely match a line in a Jewish writing called 1 Enoch, put together long after Enoch lived. Neither the Jewish people nor almost all of the church accepted it as Scripture. Jude records this prophecy as true by the Holy Spirit, which gives it God's stamp without making the whole book part of the Bible.
1:14 Look, the Lord came with His holy myriads A myriad is ten thousand, a word for a countless number. I believe this points to the Second Coming of Christ at the end of the Tribulation, when He returns to the earth with His saints and His angels to judge (Zech 14:5; Matt 25:31; Rev 19:11-16). The church, taken up to be with Him before the Tribulation, returns with Him then.
1:15 to convict all the ungodly among them concerning all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way The word ungodly, in one form or another, appears four times in this verse. Jude wants us to hear it. The Lord's coming judgment reaches deeds and words alike.
1:16 grumblers, complainers, walking according to their lusts Like Israel in the wilderness, never satisfied with what God gave. They boasted with big words and flattered the rich and powerful for gain. Grumbling, boasting, and flattery all come from a heart that lives for itself. A godly person is content, humble, and honest in speech.
1:17 remember the words that were spoken beforehand by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ "But you" sets the faithful apart. When false teaching comes, we should not be shaken as if God had lost control. The apostles told us ahead of time, as Paul warned the Ephesian elders of savage wolves (Acts 20:29-30).
1:18 in the last time there will be scoffers, walking according to their own lusts of ungodliness A scoffer mocks God's truth and those who believe it. Peter gives almost the same warning (2 Pet 3:3), and much of Jude is close to 2 Peter 2. Teachers do not agree whether Jude used Peter, Peter used Jude, or both drew on a shared warning. Scripture does not say, and it does not change the message. The last time is the age since Jesus came.
1:19 These are the ones who separate themselves, natural men, not having the Spirit They drew lines in the church, probably claiming to be more spiritual than others. The irony is that they were natural men, Paul's word for one who does not receive the things of the Spirit (1 Cor 2:14). Everyone who belongs to Christ has His Spirit (Rom 8:9). Whatever they claimed, they were not believers.
1:20 building yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit The first two of four commands. We build on the faith once delivered by learning, obeying, and growing in God's Word together. Praying in the Spirit means prayer with His help and guidance, in line with His will (Rom 8:26-27; Eph 6:18). Some connect it with tongues, but most read it as all Spirit-led prayer. The false teachers did not have the Spirit. The faithful pray in Him.
1:21 keep yourselves in the love of God God's love is steady. Jude means stay in the place where His love is enjoyed, as Jesus said to abide in His love (John 15:9-10). In verse 1 we are kept by God. Here we keep ourselves. God holds us, and we stay close to Him.
1:21 waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life The believer lives looking ahead. When Jesus comes for His church, His mercy will bring us into the fullness of eternal life. That is our blessed hope (Titus 2:13).
1:22 on some have mercy, making a distinction Some who are wavering under the false teachers need gentle care. Not everyone is in the same place, and the faithful must discern who needs what.
1:23 others save with fear, snatching them out of the fire, hating even the tunic stained by the flesh Others need urgent rescue, like pulling someone from a burning house (Amos 4:11; Zech 3:2). The tunic was the garment next to the skin. Love the sinner, but hate the sin so much you will not touch what it has stained. Rescue people without being pulled into their sin (Gal 6:1).
1:24 to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to present you blameless before the presence of His glory with exultation A letter that began with "kept" ends with the One who keeps. Only God can keep us on our feet. One day we will stand blameless before Him, not in our own goodness but because of Christ, with overflowing joy. The God who saved you is able to finish what He started (Phil 1:6).

with exultation, 25 to the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and authority, both now and to all the ages. Amen.

1:25 Isa 45:21; Ps 72:19; Isa 43:3

1:25 to the only wise God our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and authority, both now and to all the ages Glory is His shining greatness, majesty His royal greatness, dominion His might, and authority His right to rule. His glory is not only future but right now. A letter about false teachers ends in worship. We do not fight for the truth to win arguments, but because the God of truth deserves all glory.

REVELATION

Introduction

Title

The book names itself in its first words: "The revelation of Jesus Christ" (1:1). Revelation means an unveiling, the pulling back of a curtain. This book unveils Jesus Christ and the finishing chapter of God's plan for mankind. It is the only book in the Bible that opens with a promised blessing on those who read it, hear it, and keep it (1:3).

Author and Date

The writer calls himself John four times (1:1, 4, 9; 22:8). Tradition holds that he is John the apostle, one of the twelve, who also wrote the Gospel of John and the three letters of John. He wrote while he was exiled on the island of Patmos, in the Aegean Sea off the coast of Asia Minor, "because of the word of God and because of the testimony of Jesus Christ" (1:9). Rome punished those who spread the teachings of Christ as it tried to stamp out the worship of anyone but the emperor.

Most interpreters date the book about A.D. 95, during the reign of the emperor Domitian. Some hold an early date of A.D. 64 to 68, under Nero.

Background and Setting

Revelation was written to seven real churches in the Roman province of Asia, in what is now western Turkey: Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea (1:11). Some were faithful under persecution, and some were growing cold or compromising with the world. The risen Christ appeared to John and gave him a message for each church and a series of visions about the future.

Revelation draws on the whole Bible, especially Daniel, Ezekiel, Isaiah, and Zechariah, and Jesus' own teaching on the Mount of Olives (Matt 24-25). I read it the way I read the rest of Scripture, by what Dr. David L. Cooper called the Golden Rule of Interpretation: when the plain sense of Scripture makes common sense, seek no other sense. Prophecy that has been fulfilled came true exactly as written, and I expect the rest to be fulfilled the same way. Revelation explains many of its own symbols, and the notes point those out.

This edition takes the dispensational premillennial view. The church is caught up to be with Christ before the Tribulation begins (3:10; 1 Thess 4:16-17), and it is not seen on the earth from chapter 4 until it returns with Him (19:14). The Tribulation is Daniel's seventieth seven (Dan 9:24-27), seven years whose two halves Revelation measures as 1,260 days, 42 months, and "a time and times and half a time" (12:14). Christ then returns in glory, reigns on the earth for a thousand years, and fulfills His promises to Israel. Where good teachers disagree, the notes name the main views and say which one I hold.

Themes

Jesus Christ will return and win. Chapter 1 records what John saw, chapters 2 and 3 "the things which are," and chapters 4 to 22 "the things which are about to take place after these" (1:19). God is on His throne before any judgment falls (chapter 4), and only the Lamb is worthy to open the scroll (chapter 5).

The judgments come in three series of seven, seals, trumpets, and bowls, each growing out of the one before. Between them Revelation pauses to show God's people: the 144,000 and the great multitude (chapter 7), the little scroll and the two witnesses (chapters 10 and 11), and the woman, the dragon, and the two beasts (chapters 12 to 14). Babylon falls (chapters 17 and 18), Christ returns (chapter 19), Satan is bound and Christ reigns a thousand years (chapter 20), and God makes all things new (chapters 21 and 22).

I often call Revelation a book of love. God shows us how the story ends so that we can prepare and not come under His wrath. It brings hope to believers and a strong warning to those who do not believe, and it ends with an open invitation: "let the one who thirsts come" (22:17). Seven blessings run through the book (1:3; 14:13; 16:15; 19:9; 20:6; 22:7; 22:14). No one knows the day or the hour of Christ's coming, and every date ever set has failed, but we are to watch and be ready.

Christ in Revelation

Revelation is about Jesus from its first verse to its last. He is "the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth" (1:5). He walks among His churches (1:13). He is the Lion of the tribe of Judah and "a Lamb standing as having been slain" (5:5-6), the only One worthy to take the title deed to the earth. He returns on a white horse as "King of kings and Lord of lords" (19:16), and He reigns on the earth. At the end He says, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last" (22:13), and His last words are, "Yes, I am coming quickly" (22:20).

Hard Passages

Revelation has more disputed passages than any other book, and the notes name the main views on each. Among them: who the twenty-four elders are (4:4); who rides the white horse of the first seal (6:2), which I take as the Antichrist; who the great multitude are (7:9-14); whether the trumpets are literal or symbolic (8:6-12); who the two witnesses are (11:3); who the woman clothed with the sun is (12:1), which I take as Israel; what the beast's healed death wound and the number 666 mean (13:3, 18); and who Babylon the great is (17:18).

The notes on 3:10 and 4:1 explain why I believe the church is taken up before the Tribulation, and the notes on 7:9 and 11:12 name the mid-tribulation reading. The notes on 20:1-6 take the thousand years as a literal reign of Christ on the earth and name the amillennial and postmillennial views. The 144,000 (7:4) are taken as Jewish believers, and the notes decline readings that move God's promises to Israel over to the church (1:6; 5:10; 21:3).

Prologue and Blessing

1 The revelation of Jesus (Iesous) Christ, which God gave to Him to show to His slaves what things must take place quickly; and He signified it by sending through His angel to His slave John (Ioannes), 2 who testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to all things that he saw. 3 Blessed is the one who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy and keep the things written in it; for the time is near.

Greeting and Doxology

4 John, to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from Him who is and who was and who is coming, and from the seven Spirits who are before His throne, 5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His blood, 6 and made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him be the glory and the dominion to the ages of the ages. Amen. 7 Look, He is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, and those who pierced Him; and all the tribes of the earth will wail because of Him. Yes, amen. 8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end," says the Lord, "who is and who was and who is coming, the Almighty."

The Vision of the Son of Man

9 I, John, who am also your brother and fellow partaker in the tribulation and in the kingdom and endurance of Jesus Christ, was on the island that is called Patmos because of the word of God and because of the testimony of Jesus Christ. 10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like that of a trumpet, 11 saying, "I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last"; and, "What you see, write in a book and send it to the seven churches that are in Asia: to Ephesus (Ephesos) and to Smyrna and to Pergamum (Pergamos) and to Thyatira (Thyateira) and to Sardis (Sardeis) and to Philadelphia (Philadelphia) and to

1:1 The revelation of Jesus Christ This book unveils Jesus Christ. It is the finishing chapter of God's plan from the beginning of time, delivered to John by Jesus' angel, the last recorded message God sent to give us hope.
1:1 what things must take place quickly This phrase gives the book urgency. More than 1,900 years have passed, but we still need to stay alert and ready, because God's timing is not the same as ours (2 Pet 3:8).
1:2 who testified to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to all things that he saw John was given the responsibility and the privilege of witnessing the events of the end times and writing them down, so followers of Christ would know what to look for in the last days.
1:3 Blessed is the one who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy and keep the things written in it Revelation is the only book in the Bible that opens with a promised blessing for those who read, hear, and keep it. The blessing is not ours just for reading or hearing. We have to take the words to heart and live every day expecting Jesus. This is the first of seven blessings in the book (1:3; 14:13; 16:15; 19:9; 20:6; 22:7; 22:14).
1:4 to the seven churches that are in Asia Each church was chosen because it represented a particular situation or problem (chapters 2 and 3). Seven appears again and again in Revelation, 54 times in all. In Scripture it generally stands for completion, fulfillment, and perfection.
1:4 the seven Spirits who are before His throne Many understand the seven Spirits as the Holy Spirit, not seven separate spirits but the one perfect Spirit of God in His fullness (4:5; 5:6). Isaiah 11:2 describes the Spirit's sevenfold nature.
1:5 the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth Jesus is King over all, ruling over death and the whole earth. Firstborn from the dead means He is first in rank and the first to rise never to die again (Ps 89:27).
1:5 To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His blood This puts the whole book in context: it is about the redemption of mankind. The blessing of eternal life comes only to those who accept Christ as Lord and Savior and truly turn from their sins.
1:6 made us kings and priests to His God and Father As kings we have overcome the world and conquered Satan, and as priests we have access to God's holiest place. God first called Israel "a kingdom of priests and a holy nation" (Exod 19:6). Some teachers read this verse to mean the church has taken Israel's place, but I take it plainly: everyone washed in Christ's blood serves God as a priest, and God's calling and promises to Israel still stand for Israel.
1:7 Look, He is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see Him This is Jesus' actual Second Coming, not the rapture of the church. He will come down from above (Matt 24:30; Acts 1:9-11). We do not know whether every eye sees Him through technology or by His own power, but no one will miss it.
1:7 and those who pierced Him; and all the tribes of the earth will wail because of Him This points back to Zechariah 12:10, where the people of Jerusalem will look on Him whom they pierced and mourn. Everyone will realize He is holy and that we have sinned against Him. Every knee will one day bow (Rom 14:11), and those who rejected Him will face Him at the Great White Throne a thousand years after His return (20:11-15).
1:8 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end Alpha and Omega are the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. He existed before time began and will exist after time has stopped. And this eternal Lord came down to live among us, because He wants us with Him forever.
1:9 your brother and fellow partaker in the tribulation and in the kingdom and endurance of Jesus Christ John is a member of the church like us and knows the same trials. The tribulation here is not the Tribulation described later in Revelation but the everyday struggles all believers face (John 16:33).
1:9 was on the island that is called Patmos because of the word of God and because of the testimony of Jesus Christ Patmos is a small Aegean island south of Samos where Roman authorities exiled prisoners. John was there because of his ministry, as Rome tried to stamp out the worship of anyone but the emperor. Here he wrote Revelation, most likely between A.D. 93 and 96.
1:10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day The Lord's day has historically meant the first day of the week, Sunday, the day Jesus rose. In the Spirit describes the state John was in when he received the vision. A voice like a trumpet speaks of the Lord's authority.
1:11 send it to the seven churches that are in Asia Some say the seven churches represent seven stages of church history. I do not necessarily agree with that view. I believe they represent different phases a Christian can go through. I would not say the whole world is now in the lukewarm phase of Laodicea when Christians are being persecuted all over the world in Jesus' name.

REVELATION 2

To Ephesus

1 "To the angel of the Ephesian church write: These things says the One who holds the seven stars in His right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands: 2 I know your works and your labor and your endurance, and that you are not able to bear evil men; and you have tested those who claim to be apostles and are not, and you have found them false; 3 and you have borne up, and you have endurance, and for the sake of My name you have labored and have not grown weary. 4 But I have this against you, that you have left your first love. 5 Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I am coming to you quickly and will remove your lampstand out of its place, unless you repent. 6 But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. 7 The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who overcomes, I will give to him to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God."

1:12 I saw seven golden lampstands Verse 20 explains these as the seven churches. A church is a lampstand because it carries the light of the gospel.
1:13 One like a son of man, clothed in a robe reaching to the feet, and girded around at the breasts with a golden sash Jesus stands among His churches, as He promised (Matt 28:20). The long robe is priestly, and the golden sash speaks of readiness for His work. In Daniel 7:13 "one like a son of man" is a heavenly figure who receives an everlasting kingdom, and the Son of Man was Jesus' favorite name for Himself.
1:14 His head and hair were white, like white wool, like snow; and His eyes were like a flame of fire The white hair is a crown of glory, like the Ancient of Days in Daniel 7:9. His blazing eyes see into every heart. It is hard to look at purity when our lives are full of sin.
1:15 His feet were like fine bronze, as refined in a furnace; and His voice was like the sound of many waters Feet like bronze show Him standing firm in the midst of His enemies. His voice like rushing waters will be heard by everyone. He will make His presence and His will known at the appointed time (Ezek 43:2).
1:16 out of His mouth a sharp two-edged sword going forth The sword is His Word, which both destroys and gives life (Heb 4:12). The seven stars in His hand are the messengers of the churches, held under His direction (verse 20). His face shone too bright for mortal man to look at.
1:17 I fell at His feet as dead. And He laid His right hand on me John, who once leaned on Jesus at supper, fell as if dead before His glory, as Daniel did (Dan 10:9). Jesus reassured him with a touch and a word. The same hand that holds the stars rests on His servant.
1:18 I was dead, and look, I am living to the ages of the ages. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of Death Jesus removes all fear from John. He is the Living One who died and now lives forever. The keys show His ultimate authority over life and death. Only He can open doors no one else can open and shut doors no one else can shut.
1:19 Write the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which are about to take place after these This verse gives the outline of the whole book: what John has seen (chapter 1), the things that are, the letters to the churches (chapters 2 and 3), and the things that will take place after these (chapters 4 to 22).
1:20 the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches The word angel means messenger. These are His angels, or messengers, sent to watch over His churches, and Christ holds them in His hand. The lampstands are the churches themselves, whose purpose is to spread the gospel and carry Christ's light.
2:1 To the angel of the Ephesian church write Paul founded the church in Ephesus (Acts 19), the leading city of the province. Christ comes to it as the One who holds the messengers and walks among the churches. He is not far off. He is present with every church and sees what is happening in it.
2:2 you have tested those who claim to be apostles and are not, and you have found them false Christ knows both the good and the bad, so the church must listen. He commends their hard work, their patience, and their hatred of sin. They tested false teachers and proved them liars, just as Paul had warned (Acts 20:29-30).
2:3 for the sake of My name you have labored and have not grown weary They endured hardship in His name and never grew tired of His Word.
2:4 you have left your first love They had not abandoned Christ, but they had lost their passionate desire for Him. Their faith had grown cold and stale. A church can have sound doctrine and busy hands and still have a cold heart.
2:5 Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent, and do the first works Three steps back: remember how you loved Him at first, repent, and do again what you did then. If they do not, He will remove their lampstand, His blessing and their witness, from its place.
2:6 you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate We do not know much about the Nicolaitans. Early church writers describe them as a group inside the church who taught that Christians could take part in pagan feasts and sexual sin. The name comes from the Greek words for conquer and people. Christ hates what they do, and so did the Ephesians.
2:7 To the one who overcomes, I will give to him to eat of the tree of life Each letter is for every church, and each promises a reward to the one who overcomes. The Christian life is a fight against sin, Satan, the world, and the flesh. The tree of life, lost to mankind after the fall (Gen 3:22-24), will be given back to the faithful (22:2).

To Smyrna

8 "And to the angel of the church of the Smyrnaeans write:
These things says the First and the Last, who became dead and came to life: 9 I know your works and tribulation and poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who say that they themselves are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. 10 Fear nothing of what you are about to suffer. Look, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, so that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life. 11 The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who overcomes will by no means be harmed by the second death."

To Pergamum

12 "And to the angel of the church in Pergamum (Pergamos) write: These things says the One who has the sharp two-edged sword: 13 I know your works, and where you dwell, where the throne of Satan is; and you hold fast My name and did not deny My faith, even in the days in which Antipas was My faithful witness, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. 14 But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality. 15 So you also have some who hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans, which I hate. 16 Repent; or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of My mouth. 17 The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who overcomes, I will give to him to eat of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a receives it."

To Thyatira

18 "And to the angel of the church in Thyatira (Thyateira) write: These things says the Son of God, who has His eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet are like fine bronze: 19 I know your works and love and service and faith and your endurance, and your works, and the last are more than the first. 20 But I have a few things against you, that you allow the woman Jezebel (Iezabel), who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and to lead astray My slaves to commit sexual immorality and to eat things sacrificed to idols. 21 And I gave her time that she might repent of her sexual immorality, and she did not repent. 22 Look, I am casting her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of their works. 23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches will know that I am the

2:8 the First and the Last, who became dead and came to life Smyrna is now the city of Izmir in Turkey. To a church facing death, Jesus introduces Himself as the One who has already passed through death and lives.
2:9 I know your works and tribulation and poverty (but you are rich) This persecuted church endured much and stayed faithful. They had little money but were rich in spiritual blessing, the opposite of Laodicea (3:17).
2:9 those who say that they themselves are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan These men claimed the name but did not share the faith of Abraham (Rom 2:28-29). This describes specific opponents of the church in Smyrna, people opposed to the gospel who wanted worldly power, and it must never be used against Jewish people as a whole.
2:10 you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life Christ does not promise to spare them, but He tells them not to fear. Not all would be imprisoned, and the suffering would last only a short time. If faithfulness leads to death, they receive the crown of life, promised to those who stay faithful under trial (James 1:12).
2:11 The one who overcomes will by no means be harmed by the second death The second death is not the death of the body but eternal death, complete separation from God in the lake of fire (20:14). It has no power over those who take part in the first resurrection (20:6).
2:12 the One who has the sharp two-edged sword Pergamum, about 60 miles north of Smyrna, was a Roman capital of Asia and a center of pagan worship. Christ comes with the sword of His Word to a church where pagan practices were creeping in.
2:13 where the throne of Satan is Pergamum was a hotbed of pagan worship and worldly sin. Yet the church held fast His name under pressure and persecution. Antipas died for his love of Christ. We know little else about him; his name is a short form of Antipater, meaning like the father.
2:14 some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling block before the sons of Israel When Balaam could not curse Israel, he taught Balak to draw Israel into idol feasts and sexual sin (Num 25:1-3; 31:16). Some in Pergamum were doing the same thing, eating food sacrificed to idols and practicing sexual immorality.
2:15 some who hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans, which I hate Christ takes doctrine seriously and hates any compromise with immorality. Doctrinal purity should never be traded for political or social acceptance, as was happening in Pergamum.
2:16 I will make war against them with the sword of My mouth Christ calls them back to the truth that comes from His Word, not from the world. He fights error with His Word.
2:17 the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written The hidden manna pictures communion with Christ, the true bread from heaven (John 6:32-35). In that day a white stone was given to those acquitted at trial and a black stone to those found guilty, so the white stone pictures being cleared of the guilt of sin. The new name is our adopted identity in Christ's kingdom.
2:18 the Son of God, who has His eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet are like fine bronze His blazing eyes show His piercing, perfect knowledge. His bronze feet show His steadfastness, purity, and holiness.
2:19 the last are more than the first Unlike Ephesus, Thyatira was doing more now than when it began. Our love for Christ should grow and become more visible in our lives as the years go on.
2:20 you allow the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess Like Ahab's queen who led Israel into Baal worship (1 Kgs 16:31), this woman led believers into sexual immorality and idol feasts, the same sin Christ named in Pergamum (2:14). The church's sin was tolerating her teaching.
2:21 I gave her time that she might repent of her sexual immorality, and she did not repent God is patient and gives time to repent, but that time does not last forever.
2:22 I am casting her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent The bed of sin becomes a bed of suffering. Christ will bring tribulation and pain on her followers unless they repent and turn back to God.
2:23 I am the One who searches minds and hearts Her children are those who follow her teaching, and their death points to the second death, being cut off from God forever. Christ knows the condition of every heart and will judge each one by his works (Jer 17:10).

One who searches minds and hearts; and I will give to each one of you according to your works. 24 But to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, as many as do not have this teaching, and who have not known the depths of Satan, as they say: I will not put on you any other burden. 25 Nevertheless, what you have, hold fast until I come. 26 And the one who overcomes and keeps My works until the end, I will give him authority over the nations; 27 and he will shepherd them with a rod of iron, as the vessels of the potter are broken to pieces, as I also have received from My Father. 28 And I will give him the morning star. 29 The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

To Sardis

1 "And to the angel of the church in Sardis (Sardeis) write: These things says the One who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: I know your works, that you have the name that you are alive, and you are dead. 2 Be watching, and strengthen the things that remain, which are about to die; for I have not found your works completed before God. 3 Remember therefore how you have received and heard, and keep it, and repent. If therefore you do not watch, I will come upon you like a thief, and you will by no means know at what hour I will come upon you. 4 You have a few names even in Sardis who did not defile their garments, and they will walk with Me in white, because they are worthy. 5 The one who overcomes, this one will be clothed in white garments, and I will by no means blot out his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels. 6 The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

2:24 who have not known the depths of Satan, as they say The false teachers boasted of deep secrets, but they were the depths of Satan. Christ will not punish those who have not followed these pagan ways, and He lays no other burden on them.
2:25 what you have, hold fast until I come Remain steadfast and hold true to Jesus' teaching. Every believer is to live with His coming in view.
2:26 the one who overcomes and keeps My works until the end, I will give him authority over the nations Overcomers are those who rise above the problems in their local church to live a life pleasing to Jesus. They will have a place of rule in His kingdom.
2:27 he will shepherd them with a rod of iron, as the vessels of the potter are broken to pieces Jesus quotes Psalm 2:9, where God tells His King, "You will break them with a rod of iron; like a vessel of a potter You will smash them" (Ps 2:9). The Father gave that rule to the Son, and the Son will share it with those who overcome when He comes back to reign on the earth (20:4-6).
2:28 I will give him the morning star Christ Himself is the morning star (22:16). To receive the morning star is to receive Him, and with Him knowledge and wisdom.
2:29 let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches Those who hear and live by His Word will overcome this world and live with Him forever. Christ wants us to listen and take heed.
3:1 I know your works, that you have the name that you are alive, and you are dead Five of the seven letters open with praise before correction. Sardis and Laodicea are different. Christ, who holds the seven Spirits, the Holy Spirit in His fullness, says in effect, I know your reputation for being alive, but you are dead. A church can look busy and successful and have no life of the Spirit in it.
3:2 strengthen the things that remain, which are about to die The few in that church who still had faith were in danger of losing it. Something was missing in the deeds they were doing. Their works were not completed before God.
3:3 If therefore you do not watch, I will come upon you like a thief They needed to remember how they first received His mercy, hold on to it, and repent. If they did not wake up, Christ would come on them in judgment when they least expected it. A sleeping church is never ready for Him.
3:4 You have a few names even in Sardis who did not defile their garments Even in a dead church a faithful few stayed true. White pictures purity. No one gets into heaven by being good enough. We are made pure by Christ's blood (1:5; 7:14), and that is what lets us stand in His presence.
3:5 I will by no means blot out his name from the book of life, and I will confess his name before My Father This includes those who sinned, saw their error before it was too late, and turned to Christ. They too are clothed in white, their names stay in the book of life, and Jesus Himself will announce their names before God and His angels (Matt 10:32).
3:6 let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches Sardis had a reputation for being alive, so this church above all needed to stop and actually listen.
3:7 the One who has the key of David, the One who opens and no one shuts, and shuts and no one opens Philadelphia means brotherly love. The key of David speaks of authority over the house and kingdom (Isa 22:22). Christ controls who can enter His kingdom, and only those made righteous through faith in Him can come in.
3:8 I have set before you an opened door, and no one is able to shut it; because you have little power Christ is pleased with this church. They had little strength, but their faith was genuine, they kept His Word, and they did not deny His name. We should not settle for a little strength but keep growing through God's Word and fellowship with other believers.
3:9 I will make them come and worship before your feet, and know that I loved you Those who called themselves Jews but twisted God's Word were blind to who Jesus is. Christ will show His favor to His people so clearly that their enemies must acknowledge it, and some may soften and accept Christ. The words echo Isaiah 60:14. Some teachers say the church now takes over that promise, but I read Isaiah 60 as a promise to Israel still waiting for the kingdom, and here Jesus borrows its picture to encourage a faithful church.
3:10 I also will keep you from the hour of testing which is about to come upon the whole inhabited world, to test those who dwell on the earth This is one of the main verses behind the pre-tribulation view I hold. Christ promises to keep His church not through the hour but from it, the seven-year Tribulation described in chapters 6 to 19 that comes on the whole world. Others believe the promise was only for the church in Philadelphia, which went through its own persecution after these letters were written.

test those who dwell on the earth. 11 Look, I am coming quickly; hold fast what you have, so that no one may take your crown. 12 The one who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he will by no means go out anymore; and I will write on him the name of My God and the name of the city of My God, the new Jerusalem (Hierousalem), which comes down out of heaven from My God, and My new name. 13 The one who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

REVELATION 4

The Throne in Heaven

1 After these things I saw, and look, a door opened in heaven, and the first voice which I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after these things." 2 And immediately I was in the Spirit; and look, a throne was set in heaven, and One sitting on the throne. 3 And the One sitting was in appearance like a jasper stone and a sardius; and there was a rainbow around the throne, in appearance like emeralds. 4 And around the throne were twenty-four thrones; and on the thrones I saw the twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white

3:11 I am coming quickly; hold fast what you have, so that no one may take your crown Hold on to your faith, truth, zeal, and love, because He is coming soon. Do not let anyone take away your faith in Christ or the reward of faithful service.
3:12 I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he will by no means go out anymore A pillar speaks of permanence and stability in God's kingdom. Philadelphia was shaken by earthquakes, but the overcomer will never have to leave. God's name, the name of the new Jerusalem (21:2), and Christ's new name written on him mark him as belonging to God's family.
3:14 the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the Beginning of the creation of God Amen means firm and faithful. Christ is the faithful and true witness, and the Beginning means the source and ruler of creation, not the first thing created, for all things came into being through Him (John 1:3).
3:15 you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot Their works were neither on fire for the gospel nor openly cold. Christ would rather they were one or the other.
3:16 because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to vomit you out of My mouth Christ detests lukewarmness. It bears no fruit and hurts those seeking a real relationship with Him, because lukewarm Christians tend to make those around them lukewarm too.
3:17 you do not know that you are the wretched one and miserable and poor and blind and naked Laodicea was a wealthy city, and the church lived by the world's standards instead of God's. Its people would not admit that they were lost, wretched, poor, blind, and naked.
3:18 buy from Me gold refined by fire, so that you may become rich, and white garments True riches come from Christ. Gold refined by fire keeps its purity after the flames. White garments are the righteousness He gives, so we are clothed in His purity and not left in shame. The eye salve opens our eyes to see right from wrong and come out of darkness.
3:19 As many as I love, I rebuke and discipline; therefore be zealous and repent These hard words come from love (Heb 12:6). Christ corrects His people so that they will repent and not face His wrath.
3:20 I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him By nature our hearts are shut against Him through ignorance, unbelief, and sin. He wants in, and He waits patiently for us to open. Eating together is a sign of being welcomed into His family and sharing fellowship with Him.
3:21 I will give to him to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne Christ faced temptation and was victorious. Those who remain faithful and committed to Him will share His rule.
3:22 let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches The last of the seven letters closes with the same reminder: listen and apply what you hear. Notice that after this chapter the church is not seen on the earth again until it returns with Christ (19:14).
4:1 After these things I saw, and look, a door opened in heaven Now begins the third part of the book, "the things which are about to take place after these" (1:19). The trumpet-like voice is the same one John heard in 1:10, the voice of Jesus Christ, inviting him up to see the future.
4:1 Come up here Scripture speaks of three heavens: the sky (Deut 11:11), outer space (Ps 19:6), and the place where God Himself dwells, which Paul calls the third heaven (2 Cor 12:2). John is called up into God's presence, much as the church will be caught up before the Tribulation begins (1 Thess 4:16-17).
4:2 immediately I was in the Spirit; and look, a throne was set in heaven, and One sitting on the throne Many believe John was raptured for this vision. Whether in the body or out of it, we do not know, but he was in the Lord's presence and his vision was divinely given. The throne speaks of honor, judgment, and authority. Before any judgment falls on the earth, John is shown that God is on His throne.
4:3 like a jasper stone and a sardius; and there was a rainbow around the throne, in appearance like emeralds This is not a picture of physical features but of likeness and splendor. Jasper is a clear stone shining with color, for God is light. The red sardius speaks of His justice. The emerald rainbow recalls His covenant with Noah (Gen 9:16), a reminder of mercy even as judgment comes.
4:4 the twenty-four elders sitting, clothed in white garments; and they had golden crowns on their heads Some suggest the twelve tribal leaders and twelve apostles, Old and New Testament together. Others point to the twenty-four divisions of priests David appointed (1 Chr 24). They sit, showing honor and closeness to God. White robes show they are pure in His sight, and crowns show the authority He has given. This signals that the church has triumphed and mankind has been welcomed into heaven.

The Scroll and the Lamb

4:5 seven lamps of fire were burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God The lightning, voices, and thunder are God's declarations of His will, as at Sinai (Exod 19:16). The seven lamps are the Holy Spirit (1:4). Isaiah 11:2 describes His sevenfold nature: the Spirit of the Lord, of wisdom, of understanding, of counsel, of power, of knowledge, and of the fear of the Lord.
4:6 before the throne was a sea of glass, like crystal Some say the sea of glass represents the calm and peace of heaven, in contrast to the turmoil on earth. Others say it represents God's Word, the foundation of heaven.
4:6 four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind Many believe they are seraphim like those in Isaiah 6:1-3, who also have six wings and cry "Holy, holy, holy." Others believe they are cherubim as in Ezekiel 1:5-14. Their eyes show wisdom and constant alertness.
4:7 like a lion, and the second living creature like a calf, and the third living creature having the face as a man, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle Early writers linked the four with the four Gospels in different ways. The pairing most used, from Jerome, is Matthew the man (Christ's humanity), Mark the lion (His power and royalty), Luke the ox (His sacrifice and service), and John the eagle (His soaring majesty as the Word). The lion is noblest, the ox tireless, the eagle swift and sharp-sighted, and man the wisest of creation.
4:8 Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, who was and who is and who is coming They never stop praising God, day or night. Some believe each "holy" is directed at one Person of the Trinity. Their endless praise also reminds us that the One who is coming will surely come (Acts 1:9-11).
4:10 cast their crowns before the throne The elders throw down their crowns in reverence and humility, showing that His crown is far more glorious than theirs. Whatever honor we receive from Him, we will gladly lay at His feet.
4:11 Worthy are You, Lord, to receive the glory and the honor and the power; for You created all things Everything exists because of God's will and for His pleasure. By praising Him as Creator, the elders acknowledge His sovereignty over all things, including our lives.
5:1 a scroll written inside and on the back, sealed with seven seals Written on both sides means the scroll is full and complete, needing nothing added. Seven seals show its importance, and someone with real authority must open it. This is a rolled papyrus scroll, not a bound book.
5:2 Who is worthy to open the scroll and to loose its seals? The mighty angel calls on all creation to find someone worthy, someone sinless and given authority by God to open it.
5:3 no one in heaven nor on the earth nor under the earth was able to open the scroll Not God's angels, not His prophets, not the living or the dead, and not the fallen angels. No created being is worthy.
5:4 I was weeping much, because no one was found worthy John knew this scroll was the title deed to the earth. As long as it stayed sealed, Satan would remain in control, and God's plan to take back the earth would not go forward.
5:5 the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome The Lion of Judah points to Jesus' human ancestry and Jacob's prophecy (Gen 49:9). The Root of David means He is both David's descendant and the source of his royal line (Isa 11:1-10). Only Jesus has overcome, so only He is worthy to break the seals.
5:6 a Lamb standing as having been slain John expected a lion and saw a Lamb, killed but now alive forever, still bearing the marks of His suffering. Isaiah pictured the Messiah as a lamb led to the slaughter (Isa 53:7), and John the Baptist called Jesus "the Lamb of God" (John 1:29). He is called the Lamb 28 times in Revelation, His signature title in this book.
5:6 having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God A horn in Scripture signals strength (Zech 1:18; Dan 7:24), so seven horns picture perfect power. The seven eyes are the Holy Spirit, God's complete Spirit sent out over the whole earth.
5:7 He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of the One sitting on the throne God now hands authority over the earth and mankind to His Son, the only One worthy of it (Dan 7:13-14).
5:8 harps and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints The harps are instruments of praise, and the incense is the prayers of God's people. Praise and prayer belong together. Not one prayer of His people is forgotten. They are kept before His throne and answered as the Lamb takes back the earth.

prayers of the saints. 9 And they sing a new song, saying, "Worthy are You to take the scroll and to open its seals; for You were slain, and You purchased us for God by Your blood out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation, 10 and You have made us kings and priests to our God, and we will reign on the earth." 11 And I saw, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands, 12 saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive the power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing!" 13 And every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth, and those which are on the sea, and all the things in them, I heard saying, "To the One sitting on the throne and to the Lamb be the blessing and the honor and the glory and the might to the ages of the ages!" 14 And the four living creatures were saying, "Amen." And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped the One who lives to the ages of the ages.

The Four Horsemen

1 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a sound of thunder, "Come and see." 2 And I saw, and look, a white horse, and the one sitting on it having a bow; and a crown was given to him, and he went out overcoming and so that he might overcome. 3 And when He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come and see." 4 And another horse went out, fiery red; and to the one sitting on it, it was given to him to take the peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another; and a great sword was given to him. 5 And when He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come and see." And I saw, and look, a black horse, and the one sitting on it having a pair of scales in his hand. 6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "Approximately a quart (a choenix) of wheat for a denarius, and approximately three quarts (three choenixes) of barley for a denarius; and do not harm the oil and the wine." 7 And when He opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see." 8 And I saw, and look, a pale horse, and the one sitting on it, his name was Death, and Hades follows with him. And authority was given to them over the fourth of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with death and by the beasts of the earth.

5:9 You purchased us for God by Your blood out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation The new song declares Jesus worthy because He was slain. His blood bought people from every corner of the earth. Heaven will be filled with every kind of people.
5:10 You have made us kings and priests to our God, and we will reign on the earth We are born into God's kingdom when we believe, and as priests we have access to Him. This echoes God's call to Israel (Exod 19:6). Some teachers read it to mean the church has replaced Israel and is already reigning in its place, but I read it plainly: the redeemed will reign with Christ on the earth in the thousand-year kingdom still to come, and God's promises to Israel are not moved to the church.
5:11 the number of them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands A staggering, uncountable number of angels, the attendants of God's throne, join the praise (Dan 7:10).
5:12 Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive the power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing! God is worshiped as Creator in chapter 4, and Jesus is worshiped as Redeemer in chapter 5. Heaven gives the Lamb the same worship it gives the Father. Jesus is God.
5:13 every creature which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth All creation cries out that blessing, honor, glory, and might belong to God and the Lamb forever. One day every created thing will recognize Christ, even those who denied Him in life, the fallen angels, and Satan himself (Phil 2:10-11).
5:14 the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped Just before Christ begins breaking the seals, heaven gives one final confirmation that Jesus alone is worthy of this praise. Worship comes before judgment.
6:1 when the Lamb opened one of the seals The judgments of the Tribulation begin, and they begin with the Lamb. Nothing falls on the earth that Christ Himself has not released. John is looking down from heaven, watching God's purpose for the world unfold.
6:2 a white horse, and the one sitting on it having a bow; and a crown was given to him There are three main views. Some believe the rider is Jesus Christ, since He returns on a white horse (19:11). A third view sees mankind's last attempt to bring peace while still rejecting Christ. I believe he is the Antichrist, later called the beast (13:1-18; 19:19-21). This rider carries a bow, while Jesus fights only with the sword from His mouth (19:15). His crown is a stephanos, a victor's wreath, while Jesus wears royal diadems (19:12). Besides the color of the horse, nothing else matches. He is an impostor.
6:2 he went out overcoming and so that he might overcome The Antichrist comes on the scene as a conqueror, apparently bringing peace, in line with the covenant of Daniel 9:27. His peace will not last.
6:4 another horse went out, fiery red Red is the color of war and bloodshed. The rider is given power to take peace from the earth so that people kill one another. His great sword unleashes conflict, civil war, and death.
6:5 a black horse, and the one sitting on it having a pair of scales in his hand Black pictures famine (Lam 4:8-9), and famine follows war. This famine will be worldwide. The scales show that food will have to be carefully measured out.
6:6 do not harm the oil and the wine A denarius was a day's wages, and it buys only enough wheat for one meal. The poor will struggle badly while the oil and wine, the luxuries of the wealthy, remain untouched. The rich will not go without, but ordinary people will suffer.
6:8 a pale horse, and the one sitting on it, his name was Death, and Hades follows with him The word for pale is a pale green, the color of a corpse. Only this rider is named. He carries no weapon because he needs none. Hades follows behind, gathering what Death leaves.
6:8 authority was given to them over the fourth of the earth A fourth of the earth's people die through sword, famine, plague, and wild beasts, the same means named in the earlier seals, showing that the four seals are connected (Ezek 14:21). Notice the words "was given." Even these riders act only under God's authority.
6:9 the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God and because of the testimony which they held These martyrs died for their faith during the Tribulation. Some believe they are Jewish believers who came to faith after the rapture. Others believe they are a mix of Jews and Gentiles who turned to Jesus after the rapture. Either way, people will still be saved in those days, at a great cost.

the souls of those who had been slain because of the word of God and because of the testimony which they held. 10 And they were crying out with a loud voice, saying, "Until when, O Master, the Holy and the True, do You not judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" 11 And white robes were given to each; and it was said to them that they should rest yet a little time, until both their fellow slaves and their brothers, who are about to be killed even as they were, shall be completed. 12 And I saw when He opened the sixth seal, and look, a great earthquake occurred; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood; 13 and the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree, being shaken by a great wind, casts its unripe figs. 14 And heaven departed like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places. 15 And the kings of the earth and the great ones and the rich and the commanders and the mighty and every slave and every free man hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains; 16 and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of the One sitting on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb; 17 for the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?"

6:10 Until when, O Master, the Holy and the True, do You not judge and avenge our blood The martyrs ask when their deaths will be avenged. Judgment will come from Jesus Himself, who will give perfect justice to those who denied Him and killed His followers. The church today is told to pray for its enemies. These saints pray for justice because the day of wrath has come.

6:11 white robes were given to each; and it was said to them that they should rest yet a little time The white robes show their acceptance into His kingdom, made possible only by faith in Christ. They are told to wait until a number known only to God is complete, the believers still to be killed. God knows every name.

6:12 a great earthquake occurred; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became like blood Some take this at face value, a worldwide earthquake and real changes in the sun and moon showing God's wrath. Others see a massive breakdown of society and collapse of earthly authority. Joel 2:31 foretold the sun turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the day of the Lord.

6:13 the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree, being shaken by a great wind, casts its unripe figs Some take this at face value as a shower of meteors striking the earth. Others see the downfall of religious leaders, drawing on Daniel 8:10.

6:14 heaven departed like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places Some read this as real physical changes from the earthquake (Isa 34:4). Others connect it to the world's religions collapsing, paving the way for the one-world religion of the false prophet (13:13; 19:20).

6:15 hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains Everyone tries to hide, from kings to slaves. Wealth and power cannot protect anyone from God's judgment (Isa 2:19). Even then, hardened hearts refuse to call out to Him for mercy.

6:16 Fall on us and hide us from the face of the One sitting on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb They know this is God's judgment, but they would rather be crushed by rocks than turn to Him (Hos 10:8; Luke 23:30). The wrath of the Lamb is a startling phrase. The gentle Lamb who died for sinners is also the Judge of those who refuse Him.

6:17 the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand? The people of the earth recognize that the day of wrath has come. This wrath is not for the church, for "God did not appoint us for wrath" (1 Thess 5:9). Still, many remain hard and proud, choosing their own way over the One who gave His life for them.

7:1 four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth Chapter 7 is a pause between the sixth and seventh seals. The four corners are the four directions. The winds are not ordinary weather but the great forces that drive nations and people: political, religious, economic, and military power. God's angels hold them back until His appointed time.

7:2 another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God A seal is a mark of ownership and protection. This is God's mark, not the mark of the beast (13:16). Those who carry it are set apart from harm, as God marked the faithful in Jerusalem before judgment (Ezek 9:4).

7:3 until we seal the slaves of our God on their foreheads The word for slaves, doulos, is the same word Paul and James used of themselves as bond-servants of Jesus Christ. These sealed ones are servants of Christ with work to do.

7:4 one hundred forty-four thousand sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel I take this as it reads: 12,000 from each of the twelve tribes of Israel, a remnant of Jewish believers sealed during the Tribulation. They are not the church. They will be witnesses for Christ, spreading God's Word through the world. God has not forgotten His promises to Israel (Rom 11:25-26).

7:5 Out of the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand were sealed Judah, the tribe of the Messiah (5:5), is named first. Dan is left off the list, possibly because of that tribe's history of idol worship (Judg 18:30). Manasseh takes Dan's place, and Joseph stands in for Ephraim. God knows each tribe even when the world has lost track of them.

tribe of Benjamin (Beniamin), twelve thousand sealed.

The Great Multitude

9 After these things I saw, and look, a great multitude which no one was able to number, out of every nation and tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and palm branches in their hands; 10 and crying out with a loud voice, saying, "The salvation is to our God, to the One sitting on the throne, and to the Lamb!" 11 And all the angels were standing around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell before the throne on their face and worshiped God, 12 saying, "Amen! The blessing and the glory and the wisdom and the thanksgiving and the honor and the power and the strength be to our God to the ages of the ages. Amen." 13 And one of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are clothed in the white robes, who are they, and from where did they come?" 14 And I said to him, "Sir, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation, and they washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15 Because of this they are before the throne of God, and they serve Him day and night in His temple; and the One sitting on the throne will tabernacle over them. 16 They will not hunger anymore, nor will they thirst anymore, nor will the sun by any means fall on them, nor any scorching heat; 17 because the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will shepherd them and will lead them to living fountains of waters; and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

REVELATION 8

The Seventh Seal

1 And when He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them. 3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and much incense was given to him, so that he might give it with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar which is before the throne. 4 And the smoke of the incense went up with the prayers of the saints out of the hand of the angel before God. 5 And the angel took the censer and filled it from the fire of the altar and cast it to the earth; and there were voices and thunders and lightnings and an earthquake.

The First Four Trumpets

6 And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves so that they might sound. 7 And the first angel sounded, and there was hail and fire mixed with blood,

8:7 Ezek 38:22; Exod 9:23; Exod 9:24

7:9 a great multitude which no one was able to number, out of every nation and tribes and peoples and tongues Some see this as a mid-tribulation rapture of the church. Others see Gentiles who come to faith in Christ during the Tribulation itself. The elder's answer in verse 14 points to the second view, which I hold. Palm branches were waved at victory celebrations (John 12:13).

7:10 The salvation is to our God, to the One sitting on the throne, and to the Lamb! They did not save themselves. Their cry is a clear declaration that they have trusted Christ as Savior.

7:12 The blessing and the glory and the wisdom and the thanksgiving and the honor and the power and the strength be to our God Everyone in the throne room, the living creatures, the elders, and all the angels, falls down and joins the praise. Seven words of praise, perfect and complete.

7:13 These who are clothed in the white robes, who are they, and from where did they come? John does not know, which tells us they are not the Old Testament saints or the church of his own day.

7:14 These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation, and they washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb These are the Tribulation saints, people saved during that terrible time and washed clean by Christ's blood. Many will die for their faith (6:9). Even in the darkest days of the world, God will save a multitude, and they are saved the same way we are, by the blood of the Lamb.

7:15 the One sitting on the throne will tabernacle over them They serve Him day and night in joyful fellowship. God spreading His tent over them means full shelter and acceptance in His presence.

7:16 They will not hunger anymore, nor will they thirst anymore Some see this as reflecting what they went without during the Tribulation, connecting back to the famine of the third seal (6:5-6). Every need will be fully met (Isa 49:10).

7:17 the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will shepherd them The Lamb becomes the Shepherd (Ps 23:1). He is the living water, and His presence will satisfy every need.

7:17 God will wipe away every tear from their eyes Think about what made you cry this year. None of it follows you into heaven, because heaven is where God dwells, and suffering does not live there (21:4).

8:1 when He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour The last seal on the title deed is broken. The silence may be the calm before the storm, or it may parallel Temple worship, where solemn silence was kept while incense was offered and people prayed (Ps 62:1). Either way, all heaven falls silent to see what comes next.

8:2 the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them The seventh seal does not unleash anything by itself. It opens into the seven trumpet judgments. Gabriel is thought to be one of these angels, since he stands before God (Luke 1:19). The trumpets are often compared to the trumpets that brought down Jericho's walls (Josh 6).

8:3 another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer Many commentators believe this angel is Jesus Christ Himself, since He alone, our one mediator (1 Tim 2:5), is worthy to present the prayers of the saints to God. Others see a created angel serving at the altar.

8:4 the smoke of the incense went up with the prayers of the saints A beautiful picture: our prayers are always heard by God, including the prayers of those persecuted for their faith all through history.

8:5 the angel took the censer and filled it from the fire of the altar and cast it to the earth The prayers of the saints have been heard, and now they will be answered. Thunder, lightning, and an earthquake announce the next wave of judgment.

8:6 the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves so that they might sound Some read the trumpets as real events, pointing to the plagues of Egypt (Exod 7-11), where five of the same plagues appear as real events. Others read them as symbols explained elsewhere in Scripture. As I said in the introduction, I take the text at its plain, literal meaning unless it tells me otherwise. Both readings are given below.

8:7 hail and fire mixed with blood, and it was cast to the earth; and a third of the trees was burned up, and all green grass was burned up Read at face value, this is massive destruction of plant life, whether God's direct judgment or perhaps a limited nuclear exchange. Read symbolically, grass is mankind's frailty (Isa 40:6) and trees human pride (Dan 4). I read this as real fire on real land, like the hail and fire on Egypt (Exod 9:23-25). Either way, this is judgment on people who turned down the gospel.

and it was cast to the earth; and a third of the trees was burned up, and all green grass was burned up. 8 And the second angel sounded, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea; and a third of the sea became blood; 9 and a third of the creatures which were in the sea, those having life, died; and a third of the ships was destroyed. 10 And the third angel sounded, and a great star fell out of heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of waters. 11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood; and a third of the waters becomes wormwood, and many men died from the waters, because they were made bitter. 12 And the fourth angel sounded, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them might be darkened, and the day might not shine for a third of it, and the night likewise. 13 And I saw, and I heard one angel flying in mid-heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth, because of the remaining voices of the trumpet of the three angels who are about to sound!"

The Fifth Trumpet: Locusts from the Abyss

1 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star that had fallen out of heaven to the earth; and the key of the pit of the abyss was given to him. 2 And he opened the pit of the abyss; and smoke went up out of the pit like the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by the smoke of the pit. 3 And out of the smoke locusts came out onto the earth, and authority was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have authority. 4 And it was said to them that they should not harm the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, except only the men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. 5 And it was given to them that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months; and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it strikes a man. 6 And in those days men will seek death and will not find it; and they will long to die, and death will flee from them. 7 And the likenesses of the locusts were like horses prepared for battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men. 8 And they had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like those of lions. 9 And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots of many horses running into battle. 10 And they have tails like scorpions, and stings were in their tails; and their authority was to harm men five months. 11 And they have as king over them the angel of the abyss; his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek he has the name Apollyon. 12 The first woe has passed; look, two woes are still coming after these things.

8:8 something like a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea; and a third of the sea became blood Taken at face value, this could be a large meteor striking the earth. Symbolically, the mountain may be a powerful idol-worshiping nation (Jer 51:25) and the sea godless humanity (Isa 57:20). Either way, massive destruction follows in the world's waters and shipping, as Egypt's waters turned to blood (Exod 7:20-21).
8:10 a great star fell out of heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of waters Taken at face value, this could be another meteor. Symbolically, some connect this star to Satan's fall in chapter 12 and his bitterness spreading to a third of mankind.
8:11 the name of the star is called Wormwood Wormwood is a bitter plant, and the name means bitter. A third of the fresh water is poisoned, and many die (Jer 9:15).
8:12 a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars Taken at face value, daylight and night light are cut by a third, like the darkness over Egypt (Exod 10:21-23). Symbolically, sun, moon, and stars often stand for ruling powers, so the old order of the world breaks down as darkness spreads.
8:13 Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth The SLB reads angel, and some Greek manuscripts read eagle. The three woes are the last three trumpets still to come. As terrible as the first four were, what follows will be worse. The warning is aimed at those who dwell on the earth, people whose hearts are set on this world.
9:1 I saw a star that had fallen out of heaven to the earth; and the key of the pit of the abyss was given to him There are three main views. Some believe this is the same angel as in 20:1, given the key as a position of trust. Others see a false leader who has abandoned the faith. I believe this star is Satan himself, already fallen (Luke 10:18), permitted by God to open the abyss and release what has been locked inside. Notice the key "was given." Even Satan can act only by God's permission.
9:2 smoke went up out of the pit like the smoke of a great furnace This could be literal smoke darkening the air. It could also picture false teaching blotting out the light of God's truth, or a horde of demons bringing spiritual darkness on the earth.
9:3 out of the smoke locusts came out onto the earth, and authority was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have authority Old Testament locust plagues were among the worst disasters people faced (Exod 10:1-20; Joel 1-2). These may be literal creatures, spiritual deception clouding minds, or demonic beings inflicting anguish.
9:4 except only the men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads Ordinary locusts eat plants, but these are forbidden to touch them. They may harm only people without God's seal. The 144,000 sealed in chapter 7 are protected. God knows His own and guards them even in judgment.
9:5 they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months God limits their power. Five months is about the life span of a locust in nature. The torment is real but bounded.
9:6 men will seek death and will not find it The suffering will be so intense that people want to die and cannot. Yet even this does not bring most of them to repentance (verses 20-21).
9:7 the likenesses of the locusts were like horses prepared for battle John describes monstrous creatures as best he can. Read symbolically: horses ready for battle, golden crowns as false teaching accepted, human faces as proud human wisdom, women's hair as seductive appeal, lion's teeth as cruelty, iron breastplates blocking the truth, and chariot-like wings as the speed of their conquest. Either way, be grateful God limits them to five months.
9:11 his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek he has the name Apollyon Both names mean Destroyer. Many believe this is Satan himself, though some think it is a fallen angel locked in the abyss. Satan destroys, but Jesus came to give life (John 10:10).
9:12 The first woe has passed; look, two woes are still coming after these things One woe is done, and two more are coming. God's judgments are going forward in order, just as He planned.

The Sixth Trumpet: the Army from the Euphrates

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard one voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, 14 saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."
15 And the four angels were released, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, so that they might kill a third of men. 16 And the number of the armies of the cavalry was two myriads of myriads; and I heard their number. 17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those sitting on them, having breastplates fiery and hyacinth and sulfurous; and the heads of the horses were like heads of lions, and out of their mouths proceed fire and smoke and sulfur. 18 By these three a third of men were killed: by the fire and by the smoke and by the sulfur which proceeds out of their mouths. 19 For their authority is in their mouth and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents, having heads, and with them they harm. 20 And the rest of men, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, so that they should not worship the demons and the idols of gold and of silver and of bronze and of stone and of wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk. 21 And they did not repent of their murders nor of their sorceries nor of their sexual immorality nor of their thefts.

REVELATION 10

The Angel and the Little Scroll

1 And I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow was on his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire;
2 and he had in his hand a little scroll opened. And he placed his right foot on the sea, and the left on the land; 3 and he cried out with a loud voice, as a lion roars. And when he cried out, the seven thunders spoke their own voices. 4 And when the seven thunders spoke their voices, I was about to write; and I heard a voice out of heaven saying to me, "Seal up what the seven thunders spoke, and do not write these things." 5 And the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his hand to heaven, 6 and swore by the One who lives to the ages of the ages, who created heaven and the things in it, and the earth and the things in it, and the sea and the things in it, that time will be no longer; 7 but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God should be finished, as He preached the gospel to His own slaves the prophets.
8 And the voice which I heard out of heaven was speaking with me again, and saying, "Go, take the little scroll which is opened in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land." 9 And I went to the angel, saying to him, "Give 9:13 I heard one voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God This is the same altar where the prayers of the saints were offered (8:3). The sixth trumpet comes in answer to those prayers.

9:14 Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates The Euphrates was the boundary between Israel's land and the great eastern empires (Gen 15:18). Some believe these are angels of God restrained there to hold back evil forces. Others believe they are demonic beings tied to the empires of Babylon, Persia, Greece, and Rome. Bound angels in Scripture are usually fallen ones (Jude 6).
9:15 prepared for the hour and day and month and year, so that they might kill a third of men Nothing about this is random. God has set the exact hour. Together with the fourth seal (6:8), half the earth's population will have died.
9:16 the number of the armies of the cavalry was two myriads of myriads Two hundred million mounted troops. Some believe this army comes from the east, the same direction as the kings of the east (16:12). Others believe it is a spiritual army. John heard the number, so it is a real count.
9:17 out of their mouths proceed fire and smoke and sulfur This may be a literal modern army with devastating weapons, described by a first-century man the only way he could, or a spiritual force of destruction. Either way, this army does not come to call people to repentance. It comes to kill.
9:20 the rest of men, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands Even after all this, the survivors keep worshiping demons and lifeless idols that "can neither see nor hear nor walk." Psalm 115:4-7 mocks such idols. Judgment alone does not change a heart. Only God's grace does.
9:21 they did not repent of their murders nor of their sorceries nor of their sexual immorality nor of their thefts The word for sorceries is pharmakeia, which includes drug use tied to the occult. Their hearts remain hard, proud, and unwilling to recognize God as their Creator. Do not wait for a crisis to turn to God. Hearts can grow too hard to turn.
10:1 another strong angel coming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow was on his head Chapter 10 begins a pause between the sixth and seventh trumpets. Some believe this is a created angel. Many believe it is Jesus Christ Himself, appearing as He did to Israel in the Old Testament, since the description so closely matches 1:15-16. The cloud speaks of divine glory, the rainbow of covenant mercy, and the sun-bright face and fiery feet echo the earlier picture of Christ.
10:2 he placed his right foot on the sea, and the left on the land If this is Jesus, the little scroll is likely the scroll of chapter 5, the title deed to the earth, now opened. Standing on sea and land shows His ownership of the whole earth and His authority over everyone on it. He is claiming His rightful inheritance.
10:3 he cried out with a loud voice, as a lion roars Fitting for the Lion of Judah (5:5; Hos 11:10). Some connect the seven thunders with the sevenfold voice of the Lord in Psalm 29:3-9. Others see a warning of judgment for those without Christ.
10:4 Seal up what the seven thunders spoke, and do not write these things These may be judgments so terrible that God, in His mercy, chose to withhold them from us. God has told us all we need, but not all there is (Deut 29:29).
10:6 that time will be no longer The angel swears by the Creator of all things that there will be no more delay. This answers the cry of the martyrs who were told to wait a little longer (6:10-11). The waiting is over.
10:7 then the mystery of God should be finished, as He preached the gospel to His own slaves the prophets A mystery in Scripture is a truth once hidden and now revealed. Many understand this mystery as salvation itself, how a holy God could love sinners enough to send His only Son. Others see the fuller mystery of all things, sin, good and evil, and creation. Either way, God will finish what He promised through the prophets.
10:9 Take and eat it up; and it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey This echoes Ezekiel 3:1-3, where Ezekiel eats a scroll sweet as honey. We are to take God's Word fully into ourselves before we share it with others. The sweetness is the joy of His Word, and the bitterness is the grief of the suffering and judgment still to come.

me the little scroll." And he says to me, "Take and eat it up; and it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey." 10 And I took the little scroll out of the hand of the angel and ate it up; and it was sweet as honey in my mouth; and when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter. 11 And he says to me, "You must prophesy again concerning peoples and nations and tongues and many kings."

The Two Witnesses

1 And a reed like a staff was given to me, and the angel stood, saying, "Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar and those who worship in it. 2 And leave out the court which is outside the temple, and do not measure it, because it has been given to the nations; and they will trample the holy city for forty-two months. 3 And I will give to My two witnesses, and they will prophesy for one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth." 4 These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands which stand before the God of the earth. 5 And if anyone desires to harm them, fire goes out of their mouth and devours their enemies; and if anyone desires to harm them, thus he must be killed. 6 These have authority to shut heaven, so that no rain may fall in the days of their prophecy; and they have authority over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague as often as they desire. 7 And when they have finished their testimony, the beast which comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and will overcome them and kill them. 8 And their dead bodies will be on the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom (Sodoma) and Egypt (Aigyptos), where also our Lord was crucified. 9 And those from the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations will look at their dead bodies three days and a half, and will not allow their dead bodies to be put into tombs. 10 And those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them and will celebrate, and will send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth. 11 And after the three days and a half, a spirit of life from God entered upon them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those who were watching them. 12 And they heard a loud voice out of heaven saying to them, "Come up here." And they went up to heaven in the cloud, and their enemies watched them. 13 And in that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell; and seven thousand names of men were killed in the earthquake; and the rest became terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

10:10 it was sweet as honey in my mouth; and when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter The bitterness may also reflect the painful break from worldly things that comes with truly accepting Christ, or the heavy weight of knowing what is coming for those who reject Him. Every faithful preacher of prophecy knows both tastes.
10:11 You must prophesy again concerning peoples and nations and tongues and many kings John's work is not finished. The rest of the book carries God's Word to every nation, tribe, and person.
11:1 Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar and those who worship in it This vision involves a temple standing in Jerusalem during the Tribulation (2 Thess 2:4). Measuring in Scripture usually signals that God is marking off what belongs to Him (Ezek 40-42; Zech 2:1-5).
11:2 they will trample the holy city for forty-two months The outer court is given to the nations for 42 months, three and a half years, the same half of Daniel's seventieth week (Dan 9:27; 12:7). Some believe those in the outer court picture people with false or hypocritical faith. Jesus foretold Jerusalem "trampled by the nations until the times of the nations are fulfilled" (Luke 21:24).
11:3 I will give to My two witnesses, and they will prophesy for one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth Some think they picture a faithful remnant of Judah, and others believe they are two new prophets of the last days. Many believe they are Moses and Elijah returning, since both appeared with Jesus at the transfiguration (Matt 17:1-5) and Malachi 4:5 promises Elijah before the day of the Lord. They prophesy 1,260 days, 42 months of 30 days, in the sackcloth of prophets calling people to repent.
11:4 These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands which stand before the God of the earth This draws on Zechariah 4, where two olive trees supply oil, a picture of the Holy Spirit, for the lampstand: "Not by strength and not by power, but by My Spirit" (Zech 4:6). Some see the lampstands as Jewish and Gentile believers together. These witnesses shine by the Spirit's power.
11:5 fire goes out of their mouth and devours their enemies For the full three and a half years they cannot be harmed. Elijah called down fire on those sent to seize him (2 Kgs 1:10-12).
11:6 These have authority to shut heaven, so that no rain may fall Elijah stopped the rain for three and a half years (1 Kgs 17:1; James 5:17), and Moses turned water to blood and struck Egypt with plagues (Exod 7:17-21). Their miracles closely mirror those two men.
11:7 the beast which comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and will overcome them and kill them The first mention of the beast in Revelation, the Antichrist described fully in chapter 13. Rising from the abyss points to his demonic origin. He can kill them only when they have finished their testimony. God's servants are untouchable until their work is done.
11:8 the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified This is Jerusalem, called Sodom for its wickedness and Egypt for its idolatry and oppression in those days (Isa 1:10).
11:9 will look at their dead bodies three days and a half, and will not allow their dead bodies to be put into tombs Peoples from every nation look on. In John's day this would have seemed impossible, but today the whole world can watch an event in Jerusalem as it happens.
11:10 will celebrate, and will send gifts to one another The world throws a party over the death of God's prophets, relieved that their plagues have ended. Their joy lasts only three and a half days.
11:11 a spirit of life from God entered upon them, and they stood on their feet God breathes life back into them, as He first breathed life into Adam (Gen 2:7). Great fear falls on the watchers, much like the guards at Jesus' empty tomb (Matt 28:4).
11:12 Come up here. And they went up to heaven in the cloud, and their enemies watched them Mid-tribulation teachers point to this verse as the moment the church is called up. In the pre-tribulation view I hold, the church has already been taken up before the Tribulation began (4:1), so I read this as the two witnesses' own resurrection and ascension, in full view of their enemies.
11:13 the rest became terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven A great earthquake destroys a tenth of Jerusalem and kills 7,000 people. The survivors give glory to God out of terror, which does not necessarily mean their hearts have truly turned to Him.

14 The second woe has passed; and look, the third woe is coming quickly.

The Seventh Trumpet

15 And the seventh angel sounded, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of the world have become those of our Lord and of His Christ, and He will reign to the ages of the ages." 16 And the twenty-four elders who sit before God on their thrones fell on their faces and worshiped God, 17 saying, "We give thanks to You, Lord God Almighty, who is and who was and who is coming, because You have taken Your great power and have begun to reign. 18 And the nations were enraged, and Your wrath came, and the time of the dead to be judged, and to give the reward to Your slaves the prophets and to the saints and to those who fear Your name, to the small and to the great, and to destroy those who destroy the earth." 19 And the temple of God in heaven was opened, and the ark of His covenant was seen in His temple; and there were lightnings and voices and thunders and an earthquake and great hail.

REVELATION 12

The Woman and the Dragon

1 And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars; 2 and having a child in her womb, she cries out, being in labor and in pain to give birth. 3 And another sign appeared in heaven; and look, a great fiery red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven diadems. 4 And his tail drags a third of the stars of heaven, and he cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child. 5 And she gave birth to a son, a male, who is about to shepherd all the nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up to God and to His throne. 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, so that there they might nourish her one thousand two hundred sixty days.

War in Heaven

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels warred against the dragon; and the dragon and his angels warred, 8 and they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them any longer in heaven. 9 And the great dragon was thrown down, the ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited world; he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. 10 And I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ, because the accuser

11:14 The second woe has passed; and look, the third woe is coming quickly The sixth trumpet is finished. The seventh trumpet, the third woe, brings the bowl judgments of chapter 16.
11:15 The kingdoms of the world have become those of our Lord and of His Christ, and He will reign to the ages of the ages The seventh trumpet sounds, and heaven announces the result before the bowls are poured out: the world's kingdoms now fully belong to Christ (Dan 2:44; 7:14). Heaven speaks of it as already done because it is certain.
11:17 because You have taken Your great power and have begun to reign The elders give thanks that God has reclaimed His power over the earth. He always had it. Now He uses it openly.
11:18 the time of the dead to be judged, and to give the reward to Your slaves the prophets and to the saints This verse previews the rest of the book: wrath on the raging nations (Ps 2:1-5), the judgment of the dead, the reward of the righteous, and the destruction of the beast, the false prophet, and the dragon.
11:19 the ark of His covenant was seen in His temple Heaven's temple opens, and the ark appears, a powerful sign of God's faithfulness to His covenant with His people. It closes the trumpet judgments and sets the stage for chapters 12 and 13, which focus on God's faithfulness to Israel.
12:1 a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars There are three main views: the virgin Mary, the church, or Israel. The most likely view is Israel, which gave birth to the Messiah and had been preparing since Abraham to bring forth the child who would bless the world. The picture comes from Joseph's dream, where sun, moon, and stars stand for Jacob, Rachel, and the sons of Israel (Gen 37:9-10). The twelve stars are the twelve tribes.
12:2 being in labor and in pain to give birth Israel is often pictured as a woman in labor (Isa 26:17; 66:7-8; Mic 5:3). The pains picture Israel's long national struggle and the line leading to the Messiah.
12:3 a great fiery red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven diadems The dragon is Satan (verse 9). Scripture teaches that he is a real being, not a symbol for human evil, an angel who rebelled against God out of pride. His seven heads picture his grip on the world's authorities, his ten horns the ten kings who will rule in the Tribulation, and his diadems his authority. The images come from Daniel 7:7-8, 20-24. Satan is the power behind the Antichrist's final kingdom.
12:4 his tail drags a third of the stars of heaven, and he cast them to the earth His deception led a third of the angels to follow him out of heaven. These fallen angels are the demons.
12:4 the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child Satan stood ready to kill the Messiah from His birth. Herod's slaughter of the infants of Bethlehem (Matt 2:16) was an attack led, ultimately, by Satan.
12:5 she gave birth to a son, a male, who is about to shepherd all the nations with a rod of iron This can only be Jesus Christ (Ps 2:9). In one verse John moves from His birth to His ascension. "Caught up to God and to His throne" points to Luke 24:51. The cross and resurrection lie between, the very victory Satan could not stop.
12:6 the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God Here John jumps ahead to the second half of the Tribulation. Israel flees to a place God has already prepared, where she will be protected and fed for 1,260 days. Jesus warned those in Judea to flee to the mountains when they see the abomination of desolation (Matt 24:15-21).
12:7 there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels warred against the dragon Michael is the archangel who stands guard over Israel (Dan 12:1). Satan still has access to heaven as accuser (Job 1:6), but at the midpoint of the Tribulation he and his demons lose that war and lose their place there.
12:9 the ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited world This verse names the dragon plainly. He is the serpent of Eden (Gen 3:1), the devil, which means slanderer, and Satan, which means adversary. He is cast down to the earth with his angels.
12:10 the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night Satan accuses believers before God, but we have an Advocate with the Father (1 John 2:1). Heaven celebrates that the accuser has been removed and God's kingdom is near.

of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night. 11 And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life until death. 12 Because of this rejoice, O heavens and you who tabernacle in them! Woe to those who dwell on the land and the sea, because the devil has come down to you, having great fury, knowing that he has a short time."

The Dragon Pursues the Woman

13 And when the dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child. 14 And the two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, so that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished there a time and times and half a time, from the face of the serpent. 15 And the serpent cast water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, so that he might cause her to be carried away by the river. 16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon had cast out of his mouth. 17 And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, who keep the commandments of God and hold the testimony of Jesus (Iesous) Christ.

REVELATION 13

The Beast out of the Sea

1 And I stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast rising out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and on its horns ten diadems, and on its heads a name of blasphemy. 2 And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and its feet like those of a bear, and its mouth like the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave it his power and his throne and great authority. 3 And I saw one of its heads as having been slain to death, and the wound of its death was healed; and all the earth marveled after the beast. 4 And they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with it?" 5 And a mouth was given to it speaking great things and blasphemies; and authority was given to it to act for forty-two months. 6 And it opened its mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle and those who tabernacle in heaven. 7 And it was given to it to make war with the saints and to overcome them; and authority was given to it over every tribe and tongue and nation. 8 And all who dwell on the earth will worship it, whose names have not been written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. 9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear. 10 If anyone gathers into captivity, into captivity he goes; if anyone will kill with the sword, he must be killed with the sword. Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints.

12:11 they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life until death Believers overcome Satan not by their own strength but by Christ's blood, which answers every accusation, and by a faithful witness that holds firm even in the face of death.
12:12 the devil has come down to you, having great fury, knowing that he has a short time Heaven rejoices that Satan is gone, but this is bad news for the earth. He knows his time is short, only three and a half years, and he pours out his rage there.
12:13 he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child Unable to reach heaven, Satan turns his anger on Israel. Hatred of the Jewish people has always had Satan behind it.
12:14 the two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman God gives Israel a supernatural way to escape, as He once said, "I carried you on the wings of eagles" (Exod 19:4). She is protected for "a time and times and half a time," three and a half years (Dan 7:25).
12:15 the serpent cast water like a river out of his mouth after the woman Some see literal flooding. Others see a flood of false teaching or armies meant to sweep Israel away. Either way, the earth itself swallows up the threat. God protects what He has promised to preserve.
12:17 went away to make war with the rest of her seed, who keep the commandments of God and hold the testimony of Jesus Christ Unable to destroy Israel, Satan turns his rage on believers, both Jewish and Gentile, who keep God's commandments and hold to their faith in Jesus during the Tribulation.
13:1 I saw a beast rising out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns Having failed to destroy Jesus at His birth, Satan now raises the final empire that will resist Christ's taking of the earth. The sea pictures the nations of the world (17:15). Many futurist teachers believe this beast is the Antichrist and tie him to a revived form of the Roman Empire, the little horn of Daniel 7:8. The heads and horns are kings and kingdoms who give him their power (17:9-13).
13:2 like a leopard, and its feet like those of a bear, and its mouth like the mouth of a lion These recall Daniel 7:2-7: Babylon the lion, Medo-Persia the bear, and Greece the leopard. Rome, the fourth empire in Daniel's vision, combined elements of all three, and so will the beast's kingdom. The dragon gives him his power, the same power Satan offered Jesus and Jesus refused (Matt 4:8-10).
13:3 one of its heads as having been slain to death, and the wound of its death was healed Some see the fall and miraculous revival of a kingdom, like Rome. Others see a literal healing of the Antichrist himself after a mortal wound (verse 14). Either way, it is Satan's counterfeit of the resurrection, and the world is stunned into worship.
13:4 Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with it? The world worships both the dragon and the beast because no one seems able to defeat him. The question mocks the praise of God, "Who is like You among the gods, O LORD?" (Exod 15:11).
13:5 authority was given to it to act for forty-two months He speaks arrogant blasphemies, like the little horn of Daniel 7:8, 20, for 42 months, the last three and a half years. Notice again the words "was given." His time is set by God and cannot be stretched by one day.
13:7 it was given to it to make war with the saints and to overcome them Those who come to faith during the Tribulation will not receive blanket protection from him. Many will die for their faith (Dan 7:21).
13:8 all who dwell on the earth will worship it, whose names have not been written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world Everyone on earth will worship him except those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life, and they will not take his mark. The cross was God's plan before the world began (1 Pet 1:19-20).
13:10 Here is the endurance and the faith of the saints Some Tribulation believers will face captivity and others death. Those in captivity are called to endure, and those facing death to keep faith. God will judge their persecutors in the end, so believers are not to take up the sword.

The Beast out of the Earth

11 And I saw another beast rising out of the earth, and it had two horns like a lamb, and it was speaking like a dragon. 12 And it exercises all the authority of the first beast before it, and it makes the earth and those who dwell in it worship the first beast, whose wound of death was healed. 13 And it performs great signs, so that it even makes fire come down out of heaven to the earth before men. 14 And it deceives those who dwell on the earth because of the signs which were given to it to perform before the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast which has the wound of the sword and lived. 15 And it was given to it to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast might even speak, and might cause that as many as do not worship the image of the beast should be killed. 16 And it causes all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the slaves, that it should give them a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, 17 and that no one should be able to buy or to sell except the one who has the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of its name. 18 Here is the wisdom. The one who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is a man's number; and its number is six hundred sixty-six.

REVELATION 14

The Lamb and the 144,000

1 And I saw, and look, a Lamb standing on Mount Zion (Sion), and with Him one hundred forty-four thousand, having the name of His Father written on their foreheads. 2 And I heard a voice out of heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder; and I heard a voice of harpists harping with their harps. 3 And they sing as it were a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one was able to learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, who had been purchased from the earth. 4 These are the ones who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were purchased from among men, firstfruits to God and to the Lamb. 5 And in their mouth no deceit was found, for they are blameless before the throne of God.

The Three Angels

6 And I saw another angel flying in mid-heaven, having an eternal gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation and tribe and tongue and people, 7 saying with a loud voice, "Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come; and worship the One who

13:11 another beast rising out of the earth, and it had two horns like a lamb, and it was speaking like a dragon This second beast is the false prophet (16:13; 19:20), who leads a false religious system to deceive the world. He looks like a lamb, gentle and harmless, but speaks like the dragon. The devil, the Antichrist, and the false prophet form a false trinity.
13:12 it makes the earth and those who dwell in it worship the first beast The false prophet works wholly under the authority of the Antichrist. His one purpose is to turn the world's worship toward him, a counterfeit of the Holy Spirit, who points to Christ (John 16:14).
13:13 it even makes fire come down out of heaven to the earth before men He performs real signs, even copying Elijah (1 Kgs 18:38). Jesus warned that false prophets would show great signs and lead many astray (Matt 24:24). A miracle by itself does not prove a message is from God. It must be tested by His Word.
13:14 telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast The world builds an image to honor the Antichrist, like the golden image of Nebuchadnezzar in Daniel 3. This is likely the abomination of desolation standing in the holy place (Matt 24:15; 2 Thess 2:4).
13:15 it was given to it to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast might even speak The image is somehow made to speak, likely blasphemy like the beasts themselves, and anyone who refuses to worship it will be killed, as with the three Hebrews before Nebuchadnezzar's image (Dan 3:6).
13:16 that it should give them a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads Every person, regardless of wealth or status, must take a visible mark, an unmistakable counterfeit of God's seal on His people (7:3). If you are a believer and worry that you could take this mark by accident, look at what the text says. The mark goes together with worshiping the beast (14:9-11). It is a deliberate choice to give him your loyalty, not something done to a person without knowing it.
13:17 no one should be able to buy or to sell except the one who has the mark Without the mark, no one can buy food or sell anything. Refusing it will cost everything in this life, but taking it costs everything forever (14:11).
13:18 its number is six hundred sixty-six Many have tried to calculate who this number identifies, from ancient emperors to modern figures. Since these days have not yet come, every guess so far has been wrong. Six is the number of man in Scripture, one short of God's perfect seven, since man was created on the sixth day. Three sixes may point to the full expression of mankind's pride, humanity's last attempt to claim divinity for itself and rob God of His glory.
14:1 a Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred forty-four thousand After the dark picture of the beast, John sees the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, God's earthly city, with the same 144,000 sealed Jewish believers of 7:4. Not one is missing. Now we learn what their seal was: the name of His Father written on their foreheads, in contrast to the mark of the beast.
14:3 no one was able to learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, who had been purchased from the earth A heavenly choir sings a new song that only the 144,000 can learn, a song born of what they lived through. They are purchased, redeemed by the Lamb, the firstfruits of the salvation God has promised to Israel.
14:4 These are the ones who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins They kept themselves sexually pure in a world given over to immorality. They follow the Lamb wherever He goes. They are firstfruits, a term for a first group with more still to come (Rom 8:23; 1 Cor 15:20), pointing to the day when all Israel will be saved (Rom 11:26).
14:5 in their mouth no deceit was found, for they are blameless before the throne of God In a world ruled by the lie of the beast, they told the truth. This closely echoes Zephaniah 3:13, which describes the faithful remnant of Israel who speak no lies.
14:6 another angel flying in mid-heaven, having an eternal gospel to preach to those who dwell on the earth Even in judgment God calls people to Himself. This angel brings a final, worldwide call to every nation and tongue. No one will be able to say they never heard.
14:7 Fear God and give Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come The call is to fear Him, give Him glory, and worship Him as the Creator, the same truth Paul preached to pagans (Acts 14:15).

made the heaven and the earth and the sea and springs of waters." 8 And another angel followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon, the great city, because she has made all the nations drink of the wine of the fury of her sexual immorality." 9 And a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and its image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, 10 he himself also will drink of the wine of the fury of God, which has been mixed undiluted in the cup of His wrath; and he will be tormented with fire and sulfur before the holy angels and before the Lamb. 11 And the smoke of their torment goes up to ages of ages; and they have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and its image, and if anyone receives the mark of its name." 12 Here is the endurance of the saints; here are those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus (Iesous). 13 And I heard a voice out of heaven saying to me, "Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Yes," says the Spirit, "so that they may rest from their labors; and their works follow with them."

The Harvest of the Earth

14 And I saw, and look, a white cloud, and on the cloud One sitting like a son of man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle. 15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to the One sitting on the cloud, "Send in Your sickle and reap, because the hour to reap has come for You, because the harvest of the earth has become dry." 16 And the One sitting on the cloud cast His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped. 17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. 18 And another angel came out from the altar, having authority over the fire; and he called with a loud cry to the one having the sharp sickle, saying, "Send in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, because its grapes are fully ripe." 19 And the angel cast his sickle to the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the fury of God. 20 And the winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress up to the bridles of the horses, for approximately 180 miles (1,600 stadia).

REVELATION 15

Prelude to the Bowls

1 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous: seven angels having seven plagues, the last ones, because in them the fury of God is finished. 2 And I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who are victorious over the beast and over its image and over its mark and over the number of its name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God. 3 And they sing the song of Moses the slave of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty! 14:8 Fallen, fallen is Babylon, the great city The second angel announces Babylon's fall as already certain, though chapters 17 and 18 describe it in full. Whether a literal city or a corrupt world system, Babylon has spread spiritual immorality across every nation like wine that leads people into passion for sin (Jer 51:7-8).
14:9 If anyone worships the beast and its image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand The third angel warns the whole world of what the mark costs before anyone takes it. God does not judge without warning.
14:10 he himself also will drink of the wine of the fury of God, which has been mixed undiluted in the cup of His wrath Undiluted means God's wrath with no mercy mixed in. Those who drank Babylon's wine will drink God's. Jesus drank the cup of wrath for all who trust Him (Matt 26:39), so that we never have to.
14:11 the smoke of their torment goes up to ages of ages; and they have no rest day and night This is not stated because there is doubt that people will do this. It is said to make clear how serious the consequences are. Torment that lasts to the ages of ages is eternal. Contrast the rest promised to those who die in the Lord (verse 13).
14:12 Here is the endurance of the saints The warning comes just before the bowl judgments and Armageddon. It is aimed at the wicked, but its purpose is to encourage believers to remain faithful, whatever it costs.
14:13 Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on The second of seven blessings in Revelation (1:3). Those who die in the Lord from this point on, likely the martyrs, are blessed at once with rest from their labors, and their faithful works go with them. Nothing done for Christ is wasted.
14:14 on the cloud One sitting like a son of man, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle This echoes Daniel 7:13 and the vision of Christ in 1:13. He wears a victor's crown and holds a sickle, ready for harvest. Harvest in Scripture is a picture of judgment at the end of the age (Matt 13:39).
14:15 Send in Your sickle and reap, because the hour to reap has come for You The angel announces that the harvest, judgment, has come because the earth's wickedness has ripened. Joel 3:13 combines a grain harvest and a grape harvest, and here they are two separate scenes.
14:18 gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, because its grapes are fully ripe A second harvest begins, the grape harvest, again from Joel 3:13. The wicked are ripe for judgment and receive what they have chosen.
14:19 cast it into the great winepress of the fury of God Grapes were trampled in a winepress until the juice ran out. The picture is of the wicked crushed under God's wrath, the same picture used of Christ's return (19:15; Isa 63:1-6).
14:20 blood came out of the winepress up to the bridles of the horses The winepress is trodden outside the city, almost certainly Jerusalem. Blood as high as a horse's bridle for 1,600 stadia, about 180 miles, is a figure of speech, but it points to a massive, devastating judgment, the battle of Armageddon (16:16; 19:17-21).
15:1 seven angels having seven plagues, the last ones, because in them the fury of God is finished The third great sign in this part of the book (12:1, 3). These are the bowl judgments, the last, because after them God's wrath is complete. Jesus "is delivering us from the wrath that is coming" (1 Thess 1:10). These bowls fall on those who took the mark and worshiped the image (16:2).
15:2 those who are victorious over the beast and over its image and over its mark and over the number of its name These refused to bow to the beast. Many paid with their lives, yet heaven calls them victorious. They stand on the sea of glass, now mixed with fire, the fire of judgment about to fall, holding harps to praise God.
15:3 they sing the song of Moses the slave of God, and the song of the Lamb Moses led Israel in song after God brought them through the sea and judged Egypt (Exod 15). This song is not a direct quote from any song of Moses and may be new. It praises God for His great works and His just, true ways. The deliverance of the exodus and the deliverance of the cross are one story.

Your ways, O King of the saints! 4 Who will not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy; for all the nations will come and worship before You, because Your righteous acts have been made manifest." 5 And after these things I saw, and look, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. 6 And the seven angels who had the seven plagues came out of the temple, clothed in pure and bright linen, and girded around the chests with golden sashes. 7 And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the fury of God, who lives to the ages of the ages. 8 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God and from His power, and no one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.

The First Five Bowls

1 And I heard a loud voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the bowls of the fury of God into the earth." 2 And the first went away and poured out his bowl on the earth; and a bad and evil sore came on the men who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped its image. 3 And the second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man, and every living soul died in the sea. 4 And the third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and into the springs of waters, and they became blood. 5 And I heard the angel of the waters saying, "You are righteous, O Lord, who is and who was and who shall be, because You judged these things; 6 because they poured out the blood of saints and of prophets, and You gave them blood to drink; for they are worthy." 7 And I heard another out of the altar saying, "Yes, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments." 8 And the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to it to scorch men with fire. 9 And men were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God, who has authority over these plagues; and they did not repent to give Him glory. 10 And the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom became darkened; and they were gnawing their tongues because of the pain, 11 and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and because of their sores, and they did not repent of their works.

The Sixth and Seventh Bowls

12 And the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the rising of the sun might be prepared. 13 And I saw out of the mouth of the dragon and out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet three 15:4 Who will not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? A question that answers itself. No one who truly sees God could refuse Him. Yet, as the next chapter shows, the beast's followers will still try. One day all the nations will come and worship before Him (Ps 86:9).

15:5 the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened The tabernacle of Moses was a copy of this heavenly one (Heb 8:5). The testimony is God's law kept in the ark. His judgments come from the place where His holy law is kept.
15:6 clothed in pure and bright linen, and girded around the chests with golden sashes The seven angels come out dressed like priests, a picture of purity and high honor. Their task is to carry out God's final judgments.
15:7 seven golden bowls full of the fury of God A bowl empties quickly. These judgments will come fast, one after another.
15:8 no one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished Smoke is a sign of God's glory and power throughout the Bible (Exod 40:34-35; Isa 6:4). No one can enter, and there is no room left to plead for mercy. The time for appeal has passed. That door is still open today: "look, now is a day of salvation" (2 Cor 6:2).
16:1 Go and pour out the bowls of the fury of God into the earth No one could enter the temple (15:8), so this voice must be God Himself. The timing of these final judgments is entirely in His hands.
16:2 a bad and evil sore came on the men who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped its image Painful, festering sores, much like the boils on Egypt (Exod 9:9-11). This judgment falls only on those who took the mark and worshiped the beast.
16:3 the second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man Every ocean turns to blood like that of a corpse, and all sea life dies. Under the second trumpet a third of the sea died (8:9). Now it is all.
16:4 into the rivers and into the springs of waters, and they became blood Now all the world's water, salt and fresh, has become undrinkable blood, as the Nile did in Egypt (Exod 7:20-21).
16:6 because they poured out the blood of saints and of prophets, and You gave them blood to drink The angel of the waters defends God's justice. These people shed the blood of God's saints and prophets, so now they are given blood to drink. The punishment matches the crime.
16:7 Yes, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are Your judgments The voice from the altar, where the martyrs' cry was heard (6:9-10), affirms that God's judgments are completely fair and true. Their prayer has been answered.
16:9 they blasphemed the name of God, who has authority over these plagues; and they did not repent to give Him glory The fourth bowl turns up the sun's heat until people are scorched. You would think pain like that would drive them to their knees. It does not. That shows how hard a heart can get when it keeps telling God no.
16:10 poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom became darkened The fifth bowl strikes the beast's own throne and plunges his kingdom into darkness, like the darkness on Egypt (Exod 10:21-23). The one the world worshiped cannot protect his own capital.
16:11 they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and because of their sores, and they did not repent of their works They bite their own tongues in pain, yet still curse God instead of turning to Him. Three times this chapter says they blasphemed and did not repent (verses 9, 11, 21).
16:12 the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, so that the way of the kings from the rising of the sun might be prepared The mighty Euphrates dries up, clearing a path for the kings of the east to march to the final battle. This suggests nations east of Israel will still be organized under kings at this point in history.
16:13 three unclean spirits like frogs The frogs echo the plague of Egypt (Exod 8:2-6). They come from the dragon, the beast, and the false prophet, the unholy trinity.

unclean spirits like frogs; 14 for they are spirits of demons performing signs, which go out to the kings of the earth and of the whole inhabited world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God the Almighty. 15 "Look, I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who watches and keeps his garments, so that he may not walk naked and they see his shame." 16 And they gathered them to the place which is called in Hebrew Armageddon. 17 And the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air; and a loud voice came out from the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" 18 And there were voices and thunders and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as had not been since men were on the earth, so mighty an earthquake, so great. 19 And the great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell; and Babylon the great was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the fury of His wrath. 20 And every island fled, and mountains were not found. 21 And great hail, weighing approximately 75 pounds (a talent), comes down out of heaven on men; and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for its plague is exceedingly great.

REVELATION 17

The Great Prostitute

1 And one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying to me, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on the many waters, 2 with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who dwell on the earth were made drunk with the wine of her sexual immorality." 3 And he carried me away into a wilderness in the Spirit; and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns. 4 And the woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and gilded with gold and precious stone and pearls, holding a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and uncleanness of her sexual immorality. 5 And on her forehead a name was written, Mystery, Babylon the Great, the mother of the prostitutes and of the abominations of the earth. 6 And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus (Iesous). And having seen her, I marveled with a great marvel. 7 And the angel said to me, "Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.

16:14 spirits of demons performing signs, which go out to the kings of the earth Demonic signs persuade the world's kings to gather for one final war against God. They think they are coming to fight. God is gathering them to judgment (Joel 3:2; Zech 14:2).

16:15 Look, I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who watches and keeps his garments In the middle of this terrifying scene, Jesus interrupts with a warning, echoing His own words (Matt 24:43-44; 3:3; 1 Thess 5:2). This is the third of the seven blessings in Revelation. Here it is spoken to those living through the Tribulation, but the message is for us too: stay ready, stay faithful, because there will be no warning before He comes.

16:16 they gathered them to the place which is called in Hebrew Armageddon Har-Magedon means the hill of Megiddo, and this is the only place in the Bible where the name appears. Megiddo stood on the southwest edge of the Valley of Jezreel in northern Israel, near Mount Carmel, a real, literal place where many battles were fought. Here the armies gather for the final battle described in chapter 19.

16:17 the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air; and a loud voice came out from the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" The seventh bowl is poured into the air itself. God's own voice declares, "It is done!" On the cross Jesus said, "It has been finished" (John 19:30), and salvation was complete. Here God's wrath is complete. Chapters 17 to 19 fill in the details.

16:18 there was a great earthquake, such as had not been since men were on the earth An earthquake unlike any in human history, greater than all the earthquakes earlier in the book.

16:19 the great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell The great city is Jerusalem (11:8). Zechariah 14:2-5 describes something similar happening to Jerusalem in the last days, when the Lord's feet stand on the Mount of Olives. Cities all over the world collapse.

16:19 Babylon the great was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the fury of His wrath God has not forgotten Babylon. She finally receives the full cup of His wrath, described in detail in chapters 17 and 18.

16:21 great hail, weighing approximately 75 pounds A talent weighed about 75 pounds. Islands and mountains vanish, and then giant hailstones fall from the sky. Even then people respond not with repentance but with more cursing of God.

17:1 the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on the many waters One of the bowl angels shows John the judgment announced under the seventh bowl (16:19). The many waters are "peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues" (verse 15), so this harlot has influence over huge numbers of people. In Scripture spiritual unfaithfulness to God is often pictured as prostitution (Jer 3:6-9; Hos 1:2).

17:2 with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality She leads the kings of the earth into corruption and makes the rest of the world drunk, spiritually speaking, on her influence. Power and false religion have always found each other useful.

17:3 a woman sitting on a scarlet beast full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns The beast matches the dragon of chapter 12 and the beast of chapter 13, tying him to the same evil power structure. The woman riding him shows she is partnered with his agenda and carried by his power, for a time.

17:4 clothed in purple and scarlet, and gilded with gold and precious stone and pearls Purple and scarlet were the colors of royalty and wealth. She is dripping with riches, but her golden cup is full of abominations. Beautiful on the outside and corrupt at the core.

17:5 Mystery, Babylon the Great, the mother of the prostitutes and of the abominations of the earth The name is called a mystery, meaning it is symbolic and needs to be explained, not a literal name. Babylon goes back to Babel, where man first united against God (Gen 11:1-9). She is the source of the world's false worship.

17:6 I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus She is responsible for the deaths of many believers. John is stunned by what he sees, and the angel is about to explain who she is.

8 The beast which you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the abyss and to go into destruction. And those who dwell on the earth will marvel, whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was, and is not, though it is. 9 Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits. 10 And they are seven kings: the five have fallen, and the one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while. 11 And the beast which was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven, and goes into destruction. 12 And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they receive authority as kings for one hour along with the beast. 13 These have one purpose, and they will give their own power and authority to the beast. 14 These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings; and those with Him are called and chosen and faithful." 15 And he says to me, "The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues. 16 And the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these will hate the prostitute, and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh and burn her up with fire. 17 For God has put into their hearts to do His purpose, and to do one purpose, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. 18 And the woman whom you saw is the great city which has kingship over the kings of the earth."

REVELATION 18

Babylon Has Fallen

1 And after these things I saw another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated from his glory. 2 And he cried out in might, with a loud voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and she has become a dwelling place of demons and a prison of every unclean spirit and a prison of every unclean and hated bird. 3 For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the fury of her sexual immorality, and the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth became rich from the power of her luxury." 4 And I heard another voice out of heaven, saying, "Come out of her, My people, so that you may not share in her sins, and so that you may not receive of her plagues; 5 for her sins have reached as far as heaven, and God has remembered her unrighteous deeds. 6 Pay back to her as she also paid back to you, and double to her double according to her works; in the

17:8 The beast which you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the abyss and to go into destruction This echoes the beast's apparent death and return in chapter 13, Satan's counterfeit of the One "who is and who was and who is coming" (1:8). The world marvels, but his final destination is destruction in the lake of fire (19:20).
17:9 The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits This calls for careful, wise reading. The seven heads stand for seven mountains, and also for seven kings or kingdoms. Rome was known in John's day as the city on seven hills.
17:10 the five have fallen, and the one is, the other has not yet come Five kingdoms had already fallen in history, one existed when John wrote, and one more is still to come, though its reign will be brief.
17:11 the beast which was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven, and goes into destruction The beast is an eighth king who is also, in some sense, one of the seven: a final ruler closely tied to this long line of kingdoms, and destined for the same defeat.
17:12 the ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom These ten future kings are tied to the ten toes and ten horns of Daniel's visions (Dan 2:41-44; 7:24). They rule with the beast for one hour, a short, God-appointed time.
17:13 they will give their own power and authority to the beast They are united by a single goal: handing their power over to him.
17:14 the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings The ten kings and the beast make war against Jesus, and Jesus wins. The same title appears at His return (19:16). Those with Him are called, chosen, and faithful, the saints who come with Him (19:14).
17:16 these will hate the prostitute, and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh and burn her up with fire A surprising turn. The kings who once worked with the harlot turn on her and destroy her completely. Even evil turns against itself in the end. Many see this as the beast doing away with the false religious system so that he alone is worshiped (13:15).
17:17 God has put into their hearts to do His purpose Even this destruction happens under God's sovereign control. Their unity and their betrayal of the harlot are part of God's plan, whether they realize it or not.
17:18 the woman whom you saw is the great city which has kingship over the kings of the earth Based on the seven mountains of verse 9, I believe this points to the city of Rome and an end-times system of false religion and political power headquartered there. Many students of Revelation still debate her exact identity, so I hold that identification with humility. The larger point is clear: any power, political or religious, that leads people away from God toward the beast will be destroyed by the very forces it once used.
18:1 another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illuminated from his glory Chapter 17 announced Babylon's judgment, and chapter 18 shows it happening. An angel of unusually high rank comes down, so glorious that his presence lights up a darkened earth (16:10).
18:2 Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and she has become a dwelling place of demons The angel repeats the announcement of 14:8. What was once a place of glory becomes a haunt of demons and unclean creatures, as the prophets foretold of ancient Babylon (Isa 13:19-22; Jer 51:37).
18:3 the merchants of the earth became rich from the power of her luxury Every nation was swept up in her influence. Kings joined her corruption, and merchants grew rich from her. Babylon is a system of commerce as well as false worship.
18:4 Come out of her, My people, so that you may not share in her sins, and so that you may not receive of her plagues A voice, likely Christ's own, calls God's people out before judgment falls, as Jeremiah called Israel out of ancient Babylon (Jer 51:45). Staying close to her sin means being swept up in its punishment. The call is for every generation: do not love the world (1 John 2:15-17).
18:5 her sins have reached as far as heaven, and God has remembered her unrighteous deeds Like the tower of Babel, her sins are piled up to heaven. God had not forgotten before. His patience has now reached its limit.

cup in which she mixed, mix double for her. 7 As much as she glorified herself and lived in luxury, so much torment and mourning give to her; because in her heart she says, 'I sit as queen, and I am not a widow, and I will by no means see mourning.' 8 Because of this, in one day her plagues will come, death and mourning and famine; and she will be burned up with fire, because strong is the Lord God, the One who judges her.

The World Mourns Babylon

9 And the kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived in luxury with her, will weep for her and will wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning, 10 standing from afar because of the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For in one hour your judgment has come.' 11 And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargo any longer: 12 cargo of gold and silver and precious stone and pearl and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet, and all citron wood and every article of ivory and every article of most precious wood and of bronze and iron and marble, 13 and cinnamon and incense and ointment and frankincense and wine and oil and fine flour and wheat and cattle and sheep, and of horses and of chariots and of bodies, and souls of men. 14 And the ripe fruit of the desire of your soul departed from you, and all the sumptuous things and the splendid things departed from you, and you will by no means find them any longer. 15 The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, will stand from afar because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, 16 and saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, which was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and gilded with gold and precious stone and pearls! 17 For in one hour such great wealth was laid waste.' And every shipmaster, and all the crowd on the ships, and sailors, and as many as work the sea, stood from afar, 18 and were crying out, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What city is like the great city?' 19 And they threw dust on their heads, and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had ships in the sea became rich from her costliness! For in one hour she was laid waste.' 20 Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles and you prophets, because God has judged your judgment against her." 21 And one strong angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence Babylon the great city will be thrown down, and will by no means be found any longer. 22 And the sound of harpists and musicians and flute players and trumpeters will by no means be heard in you any longer; and any craftsman of any craft will by no means be found in you any longer; and the sound of a millstone will by no means be heard in you any longer; 23 and the light of a lamp will by no means shine in you any longer; and the voice of a bridegroom and of a bride will by no means be heard in you any longer; for your merchants were the great men of the earth, because by your sorcery all the nations were deceived. 24 And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth."

18:7 in her heart she says, 'I sit as queen, and I am not a widow, and I will by no means see mourning.' She believed herself untouchable, the same boast as ancient Babylon (Isa 47:7-9). Her arrogance becomes the measure of her punishment. Pride always comes before a fall (Prov 16:18).
18:8 in one day her plagues will come, death and mourning and famine Her downfall comes swiftly, in a single day, a sharp contrast to her boast of endless security. She thought her position made her untouchable, but God is stronger than all her defenses.
18:9 the kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived in luxury with her, will weep for her The kings who benefited from Babylon watch from a safe distance, terrified that the same fate awaits them. Their grief is not really for her. It is fear for themselves.
18:11 the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargo any longer The merchants mourn not her sins but their lost profits. Everything they built their fortunes on vanishes in an instant.
18:13 and of horses and of chariots and of bodies, and souls of men The long list of luxury goods ends with the most tragic cargo of all, human beings. Babylon traded in people, treating souls as goods to be bought and sold. God sees every person exploited for profit.
18:17 For in one hour such great wealth was laid waste Three groups, kings, merchants, and sailors, all keep their distance and grieve the same loss. What the world spends its life chasing can be gone in an hour. Only treasure in heaven lasts (Matt 6:19-21).
18:20 Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles and you prophets, because God has judged your judgment against her In stark contrast to the mourning on earth, heaven is told to celebrate. Those who suffered at Babylon's hands finally see justice done.
18:21 one strong angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea A millstone big enough to grind grain for a whole village is thrown into the sea. It sinks, and no one ever sees it again. That is how Babylon will fall. Not damaged, not weakened. Gone (Jer 51:63-64).
18:22 the sound of harpists and musicians and flute players and trumpeters will by no means be heard in you any longer Music, craftsmanship, daily work, the light of a lamp at night, even the joy of a wedding all disappear from this once-thriving city.
18:23 by your sorcery all the nations were deceived The reason for her fall is made plain. She deceived the nations through her influence and corruption.
18:24 in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth Babylon is condemned because she was responsible for the deaths of God's faithful people, prophets and ordinary believers alike.
19:1 Hallelujah! The salvation and the glory and the honor and the power belong to the Lord our God Hallelujah means praise the Lord, and this chapter is the only place in the New Testament where the word appears. The great multitude, likely the redeemed of all the ages, praises God because His judgment of Babylon was completely fair.

God, 2 because true and righteous are His judgments;

Hallelujah!" 5 And a voice came out from the throne, saying, "Praise our God, all you His slaves and you who fear Him, and the small and the great." 6 And I heard as it were a voice of a great multitude, and as a sound of many waters, and as a sound of strong thunders, saying, "Hallelujah! And he says to me, "These are the true words of God." 10 And I fell before his feet to worship him. And he says to me, "See that you do not! 19:2 He has avenged the blood of His slaves from her hand God keeps His promise to the martyrs who cried out, "Until when?" (6:10). Justice delayed is not justice denied when God is the Judge.
19:3 her smoke goes up to the ages of the ages The same phrase is used for God's own eternal reign (11:15). Babylon's judgment is permanent and will never be undone. The elders and the living creatures, who appear whenever heaven bursts into worship, join in.
19:6 Hallelujah! For the Lord God the Almighty has reigned A voice from the throne calls all God's servants to praise, and an enormous chorus, as loud as rushing water and rolling thunder, gives the reason: God now reigns openly over the earth.
19:7 the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready All through the Bible God's people are pictured as His bride (Hos 2:19-20; Eph 5:25-32). The church, taken up before the Tribulation, has been in heaven with Christ. Now the marriage is announced, just before He returns to the earth with her.
19:8 the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints The bride's bright, clean linen pictures the righteous deeds of God's people. Even these are not something we earned on our own. Notice it "was given to her" to wear it. Christ's righteousness is a gift, and He works in us what pleases Him (Phil 2:13).
19:9 Blessed are those who have been called to the supper of the marriage of the Lamb The fourth of seven blessings in Revelation. Those invited to this wedding feast are blessed, and John is assured that these are the true words of God. Jesus spoke of this feast in His parables (Matt 22:1-14).
19:10 See that you do not! I am a fellow slave of yours Overwhelmed, John starts to worship the angel, and the angel stops him at once. Worship belongs to God alone. Angels are fellow servants, not objects of worship (Col 2:18).
19:10 For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy The whole point of prophecy, everything written in this book, is to point to Jesus. If we study prophecy and do not come away loving Jesus more, we have missed it.
19:11 I saw heaven opened, and look, a white horse, and the One sitting on it is called Faithful and True This is the Second Coming of Christ to the earth at the end of the Tribulation, foretold in 1:7. Unlike the deceptive rider of the first seal (6:2), this Rider is genuinely Faithful and True, and He comes to bring righteous judgment.
19:12 His eyes are like a flame of fire, and on His head are many diadems His blazing eyes echo the vision of Christ in 1:14 and 2:18. The beast's horns wore ten diadems (13:1), but Christ wears many, showing His supreme authority. His secret name tells us there is more to Him than we will ever fully know.
19:13 clothed with a garment dipped in blood; and His name is called The Word of God His robe is stained with blood before the battle begins, the blood of His enemies foretold in Isaiah 63:1-3. He is the Word of God (John 1:1, 14), God's will and message fully revealed and acted out.
19:14 the armies in heaven were following Him on white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and pure Their linen matches what the bride wears in verse 8, "the righteous acts of the saints." I believe this army includes the church, taken up before the Tribulation and now returning with Christ, and it may include angels as well (Matt 25:31; Jude 14). Notice they carry no weapons. They do not fight.
19:15 out of His mouth goes forth a sharp sword, so that with it He may strike the nations Christ fights with no physical weapon. His Word is the sword. He speaks, and the nations fall (2 Thess 2:8). Then He will rule with unbreakable authority, a rod of iron (Ps 2:9), and He alone treads the winepress of God's wrath (14:19-20).
19:16 King of kings and Lord of lords His ultimate title is written plainly for all to see. No earthly or spiritual power comes close to His authority (17:14; 1 Tim 6:15).
19:17 Come and be gathered to the supper of the great God In jarring contrast to the wedding supper, an angel invites birds of prey to a very different feast, the aftermath of the battle (Ezek 39:17-20). Everyone will attend one supper or the other. The choice is made in this life.
19:18 the flesh of all, free and slave, and small and great No one who opposes Christ at this battle, whatever his rank or status, will escape.

small and great." 19 And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war with the One sitting on the horse and with His army. 20 And the beast was captured, and with this one the false prophet who did the signs before it, by which he deceived those who received the mark of the beast and those who worship its image. The two were thrown living into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. 21 And the rest were killed with the sword of the One sitting on the horse, which went forth out of His mouth. And all the birds were filled with their flesh.

REVELATION 20

Satan Bound and the Saints Reign

1 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. 2 And he seized the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, 3 and threw him into the abyss, and shut him in, and sealed it over him, so that he would not deceive the nations any longer until the thousand years were completed; and after these things he must be released for a little time. 4 And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them; and the souls of those who had been beheaded because of the testimony of Jesus (Iesous) and because of the word of God, and who did not worship the beast nor its image, and did not receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5 But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection.
6 Blessed and holy is the one having a part in the first resurrection; over these the second death does not have authority, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with Him a thousand years.

Satan's Final Doom

7 And when the thousand years are completed, Satan will be released out of his prison, 8 and will go out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together for war, whose number is like the sand of the sea. 9 And they went up over the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city; and fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them. 10 And the devil who deceives them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are; and they will be tormented day and night to the ages of the ages.

20:10 Gen 3:15; Rev 19:20; Matt 25:41,46

19:19 the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war with the One sitting on the horse This is Armageddon (16:16). The armies of the earth, led by the beast, gather in one final, doomed attempt to fight Christ (Ps 2:1-3).
19:20 The two were thrown living into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur The beast and the false prophet are the first to be thrown into the lake of fire, still alive. There is no later trial for them. A thousand years later they will still be there (20:10).
19:21 the rest were killed with the sword of the One sitting on the horse, which went forth out of His mouth The rest of the armies are struck down by His spoken word. The battle is over almost as soon as it begins, and the grim supper of verse 17 takes place exactly as promised.
20:1 an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand The key and the chain are signs of God's total authority over evil. It takes only one angel to bind Satan. He is not God's equal rival. He is a creature, and God has the key.
20:2 he seized the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years Satan, named plainly with all his titles, is locked away. The thousand years, the millennium, is mentioned six times in verses 2 to 7. I take it at face value, a real thousand-year reign of Christ on the earth after His return, when the Old Testament promises to Israel will be fulfilled (Isa 2:4; 11:6-9). Amillennial teachers read it as a picture of the present church age, and postmillennial teachers as a golden age brought in by the church before Christ returns.
20:3 so that he would not deceive the nations any longer until the thousand years were completed Satan is sealed in the abyss and can no longer deceive anyone. Unlike the beast and false prophet, his sentence here is temporary. God still has one final purpose for him before his permanent judgment.
20:4 I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them Believers are given the right to judge, likely the faithful of past ages already glorified with Christ, the church among them (1 Cor 6:2-3; Matt 19:28).
20:4 the souls of those who had been beheaded because of the testimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and who did not worship the beast Alongside them is the group martyred for refusing the beast and his mark during the Tribulation (6:9; 13:15). They lost their heads but not their lives. Both groups live and reign with Christ for a thousand years.
20:5 But the rest of the dead did not live again until the thousand years were completed. This is the first resurrection Unbelievers who died through history remain in death until the thousand years are over. The first resurrection is the resurrection of believers, which takes place in stages: Christ the firstfruits, the church at the rapture, and the Tribulation martyrs here (1 Cor 15:23). Jesus spoke of a resurrection of life and a resurrection of judgment (John 5:29), and here we learn a thousand years lie between them.
20:6 Blessed and holy is the one having a part in the first resurrection; over these the second death does not have authority The fifth of seven blessings in Revelation. Anyone who shares in the first resurrection has nothing to fear from the second death, the lake of fire (verse 14). They serve as priests of God and reign with Christ.
20:7 when the thousand years are completed, Satan will be released out of his prison After a thousand years, Satan is set free and returns at once to his old pattern of deception.
20:8 to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together for war, whose number is like the sand of the sea The names Gog and Magog come from Ezekiel 38 and 39, where they represent Israel's enemies. People born during the millennium, living under Christ's perfect rule, will still need to choose Him. Even a perfect world cannot change a heart that does not want God. Only new birth can.
20:9 surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city; and fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them The army marches against Jerusalem, the beloved city, and God's people. The battle is over instantly. There is no fight. Fire falls from heaven and consumes them.
20:10 the Devil who deceives them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are Satan finally joins the beast and false prophet. That they are still there after a thousand years confirms that this judgment is truly eternal, not a temporary punishment. Hell was "prepared for the devil and his angels" (Matt 25:41).

The Great White Throne

11 And I saw a great white throne and the One sitting on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled, and no place was found for them. 12 And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God, and books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life. And the dead were judged out of the things written in the books, according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them; and they were judged, each one according to their works. 14 And Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death. 15 And if anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

REVELATION 21

All Things New

1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth passed away, and the sea is no longer. 2 And I, John (Ioannes), saw the holy city, new Jerusalem (Hierousalem), coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a loud voice out of heaven, saying, "Look, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will tabernacle with them, and they will be His peoples, and God Himself will be with them, their God. 4 And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death will not be any longer, nor mourning nor crying nor pain will be any longer, because the first things passed away." 5 And the One sitting on the throne said, "Look, I make all things new." And He says to me, "Write, because these words are true and faithful." 6 And He said to me, "It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give to the one who thirsts from the spring of the water of life freely. 7 The one who overcomes will inherit all things, and I will be God to him, and he will be the son to Me. 8 But for the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable and murderers and sexually immoral and sorcerers and idolaters and all the liars, their part is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

The New Jerusalem

9 And one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came to me and spoke with me, saying, "Come here, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." 10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the great city, the holy 20:11 I saw a great white throne and the One sitting on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled The Great White Throne is distinct from every other throne in Revelation. Its appearance marks the end of the old creation and sets the stage for the new heaven and new earth (2 Pet 3:10). The Judge is Jesus, to whom the Father has given all judgment (John 5:22).

20:12 I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God, and books were opened; and another book was opened, which is the book of life Everyone who died without Christ now stands before God. Books recording their deeds are opened alongside the book of life, and each is judged by what he did. This is not the judgment of believers, whose works are judged for reward at the judgment seat of Christ (2 Cor 5:10). No one at this throne is saved by his works.
20:13 the sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them No one escapes this judgment, no matter where or how he died. Every person will be judged fairly.
20:14 Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death Death itself is finally thrown away. "The last enemy is brought to nothing: death" (1 Cor 15:26). From here on, death is gone for good.
20:15 if anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire If there is one verse in this chapter to sit with, it is this one. At this throne there is one question: is your name written in the book of life? If it is, you have nothing to fear. If it is not, the lake of fire is what is left. If you are not sure where you stand, settle it with God today. "if you confess with your mouth Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God raised Him out of the dead, you will be saved" (Rom 10:9).
21:1 I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth passed away After the millennium and the Great White Throne comes a completely new creation (Isa 65:17; 2 Pet 3:13). The old heaven and earth, which fled from God's face (20:11), are gone.
21:1 the sea is no longer The sea, present through the millennial kingdom, is not part of the new creation. In the Bible the sea often stood for danger, separation, and the restless nations (Isa 57:20). None of that remains.
21:2 the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband The city comes down beautifully prepared, like a bride on her wedding day. It stands in deliberate contrast to the harlot of chapter 17. One pictures everything false and self-serving, the other everything pure and devoted. Jesus promised to prepare a place for us (John 14:2-3).
21:3 Look, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will tabernacle with them What humanity has waited for since Eden: God Himself living among His people. The promise was first spoken to Israel: "My tabernacle shall be over them; and I will be God to them, and they shall be a people to Me" (Ezek 37:27). Some teachers read this chapter as proof that the church has taken Israel's place, but I believe God keeps that promise to Israel in the thousand-year kingdom and carries it into the new earth, where Israel and the redeemed from every nation live with Him forever.
21:4 God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death will not be any longer, nor mourning nor crying nor pain Every source of grief disappears for good, fulfilling promises like Isaiah 25:8, 35:10, and 65:19. The first things, the whole order of sin and the curse, have passed away.
21:5 Look, I make all things new God on the throne speaks directly, one of the few times in Revelation. He is not just repairing the old but making all things new. He tells John to write, because these words are faithful and true, a statement that covers the whole book.
21:6 I will give to the one who thirsts from the spring of the water of life freely God declares His new creation complete. He is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and end of all things, and He offers eternal life as a free gift to anyone who is thirsty (Isa 55:1; John 4:14).
21:7 The one who overcomes will inherit all things, and I will be God to him, and he will be the son to Me Those who overcome by faith in Christ inherit everything and become God's own children (1 John 5:4-5).
21:8 for the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable and murderers Two destinies stand side by side. The cowardly are those who would not stand for Christ, and the list begins with unbelief, the root of the rest. This verse closes the storyline of Revelation. Eternity has arrived, and both God's promises and His warnings stand fulfilled. Paul named the same kinds of sinners and then said, "such were some of you" (1 Cor 6:11). Christ washes sinners clean.
21:9 Come here, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb One of the angels who poured out the bowls of wrath, as in 17:1 where one showed John the harlot, now shows him the bride. As the next verses make clear, the bride is pictured in the New Jerusalem, the home of God's people.

Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, 11 having the glory of God. And its radiance was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; 12 having a great and high wall, having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names inscribed, which are those of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel: 13 on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. 14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. 15 And the one speaking with me had a golden reed so that he might measure the city and its gates and its wall. 16 And the city lies square, and its length is as great as the breadth also. And he measured the city with the reed at approximately 1,400 miles (twelve thousand stadia); the length and the breadth and the height of it are equal. 17 And he measured its wall, approximately 216 feet (one hundred forty-four cubits), a measure of a man, that is, of an angel. 18 And the structure of its wall was jasper, and the city was pure gold, like pure glass. 19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with every precious stone. And the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass. 22 And I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God the Almighty is its temple, and the Lamb. 23 And the city has no need of the sun nor of the moon, that they should shine in it; for the glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb. 24 And the nations of those being saved will walk in its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it. 25 And its gates will by no means be shut by day; for night will not be there. 26 And they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it. 27 And there will by no means enter into it anything that defiles, and that practices abomination and a lie, except those written in the book of life of the Lamb.

21:11 having the glory of God. And its radiance was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal From a high mountain, John watches the city come down, radiant with God's own glory, shining like the One on the throne (4:3).
21:12 twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names inscribed, which are those of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel Twelve gates named for Israel's twelve tribes show that Israel's promised place in God's plan is fully honored, forever (Ezek 48:31-34).
21:14 the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb Twelve foundations named for the apostles tie the church just as firmly into this eternal city (Eph 2:20). Together, gates and foundations picture the full sweep of God's redeemed people from every era, Israel and the church, distinct yet united in one place.
21:16 the length and the breadth and the height of it are equal Twelve thousand stadia is about 1,400 miles in each direction, a perfect cube, roughly the distance from New York City to Dallas, in every direction. The Holy of Holies in the temple was also a perfect cube (1 Kgs 6:20). The whole city is the place of God's presence, with more than enough room for every believer in history.
21:17 he measured its wall The wall is 144 cubits, about 216 feet high, measured by a man's measure, which the angel was using.
21:18 the city was pure gold, like pure glass Walls of jasper, foundations set with twelve kinds of precious stone, and gold so pure it looks like glass. Every detail points to a city of unimaginable beauty and worth.
21:21 the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each single one of the gates was of one pearl Each gate is carved from a single enormous pearl. A pearl is formed through suffering in the oyster, a fitting picture for the entrance to a city opened by Christ's suffering.
21:22 I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God the Almighty is its temple, and the Lamb A temple helps people worship a God they cannot see directly. Here God and the Lamb are present in person, so no such building is needed.
21:23 the glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb The city needs no sun or moon. God's own glory, with Christ as its light, lights everything (Isa 60:19-20; John 8:12).
21:24 the nations of those being saved will walk in its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it The nations live on the new earth and walk by the city's light. The new creation is not a cloud and a harp but a real world with real people and nations serving God.
21:25 its gates will by no means be shut by day; for night will not be there The gates never close, a picture of complete safety and peace. There is no threat left to guard against.
21:27 there will by no means enter into it anything that defiles, and that practices abomination and a lie, except those written in the book of life of the Lamb Only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life will ever enter. Nothing evil or deceitful will ever be allowed inside.
22:1 a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, flowing out of the throne of God and of the Lamb The river flows straight from the throne, echoing Jesus' promise of living water (John 4:14) and Ezekiel's river from the temple (Ezek 47:1-12). It pictures the eternal life that flows from God Himself, pure and never ending.
22:2 a tree of life producing twelve fruits, yielding its fruit according to each single month The tree of life, closed to Adam and Eve after the fall (Gen 3:22-24), is open again. The Bible begins and ends with this tree. What was lost in Eden is restored, and more.
22:2 the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations Not that anyone will be sick, but that the nations live in complete wholeness and unity, with none of the sickness, strife, or brokenness of the old creation.
22:3 there will no longer be any curse The curse placed on creation in Genesis 3:14-19 is finally and completely lifted (Rom 8:21). God's own throne stands in the city, and His people serve Him directly.

will be in it, and His slaves will serve Him. 4 And they will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads. 5 And night will not be there, and they have no need of a lamp and of light of the sun, because the Lord God illuminates them; and they will reign to the ages of the ages.

22:4 they will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads No one has ever seen God (John 1:18), and Moses was told no man could see His face and live (Exod 33:20). Now His people will. As the 144,000 were marked with His name (14:1), all of God's people now carry His name openly, belonging to Him forever.
22:5 the Lord God illuminates them; and they will reign to the ages of the ages Night disappears, because God's presence gives all the light anyone needs. His people will reign with Him forever, in a role Scripture does not fully spell out, but one worth looking forward to with confidence in His good plan.
22:6 These words are faithful and true This statement covers the whole book. Everything in Revelation comes from God and can be fully trusted, from the same Lord who spoke through the holy prophets.
22:7 Look, I am coming quickly. Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book The first of three times in this chapter that Jesus says, "I am coming quickly" (verses 7, 12, 20), with the sixth of the seven blessings. Quickly means His coming is next on God's calendar and will be sudden when it comes. The church is to live looking for Him at any moment (Titus 2:13).
22:8 I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things John names himself once more as the eyewitness. Overwhelmed, he makes the same mistake again (19:10), and again the angel redirects him. Worship belongs to God alone.
22:10 Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near Daniel was told to seal up his prophecy until the time of the end (Dan 12:4, 9). John is told to leave Revelation open. Its message is meant to be read and understood now. I believe God means these things to become clearer as the time draws near.
22:11 The one who is unrighteous, let him be unrighteous still This describes two settled paths, not a command to keep sinning. By this point in the story, hearts have become fixed in one direction or the other. God still wants everyone to live righteously, but some will never change. Now is the time to turn.
22:12 I am coming quickly, and My reward is with Me, to give to each one as his work will be Jesus brings rewards with Him. Believers are saved by grace, but our works will be rewarded at His judgment seat (1 Cor 3:12-14; 2 Cor 5:10).
22:13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last Jesus takes the same title used by God on the throne (1:8; 21:6). He has always existed and always will. He is God.
22:14 Blessed are those who do His commandments, so that the right to the tree of life will be theirs The seventh and final blessing in Revelation. The SLB reads "those who do His commandments," and some other Bibles follow manuscripts that read those who wash their robes. Either way, the people meant are those made clean through faith in Jesus, whose lives show it. Only they have access to the tree of life and the city.
22:15 But outside are the dogs and the sorcerers and the sexually immoral and the murderers and the idolaters Dogs was a term for the shameless and impure. Those who never turned from sin remain permanently outside. There are only two places in eternity, inside and outside.
22:16 I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright and morning star Jesus speaks in His own name with full authority. He is both the source of David's line and David's descendant (Isa 11:1; Matt 22:42-45). The morning star appears just before dawn, and His coming will bring the dawn of a new day (2 Pet 1:19).
22:17 the Spirit and the bride say, "Come." The Holy Spirit and the church join in one invitation. Anyone who is thirsty, anyone at all, is welcome to come and take the water of life freely. The last invitation in the Bible is open to whoever wants it (Isa 55:1).
22:18 if anyone adds to these things, God will add to him the plagues which have been written in this book A solemn warning closes the book. Do not tamper with its message. Moses gave a similar warning about God's law (Deut 4:2).
22:19 if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the book of life Taking away from God's Word is just as serious as adding to it. The consequences are severe and permanent. We are to handle this book with reverence, not to twist it to fit our ideas.
22:20 Yes, I am coming quickly. Amen. Yes, come, Lord Jesus! For the third time, Jesus promises to return soon. John answers with the prayer of every believer. The early church prayed "Maranatha," Our Lord, come (1 Cor 16:22). Is that the prayer of your heart?

coming quickly." Amen. Yes, come, Lord Jesus! 21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

22:21 Jer 28:6; 2 Thess 3:18; Rom 16:20,24

22:21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen Revelation closes not with fear but with a blessing, a prayer that God's grace would rest on everyone who reads it. The last word of the Bible is grace.
